Light on the Problems of Life.

Suggestive Thoughts Gleaned from the Teachings of the Ven. ARCHDEACON WILBERFORCE.

By M. B. ISITT.

THE earnest desire of the compiler of this little volume is that it may soothe, enlighten and strengthen many a weary soul painfully conscious of the dark Enigma of Life, to which it is anxiously seeking some reasonable solution. Passages have therefore been selected which offer lucid and logical explanations as to the purpose of life and the destiny of man. It is believed that, in this condensed form and sequential manner, those who have already found inspiration for themselves in the Archdeacon's message may be glad to have this easy method of making it known to others. There are many in this age of doubt and hesitation who fear to adopt the reasonable views here set forth. It is hoped that this classified collection of arresting thoughts, arranged so as to enable the reader quickly to grasp the author's answer to vital questions, may supply a felt need and provide an acceptable volume, which thoughtful people can take up at odd moments and therein glean new light and fresh courage from the consciousness of the reality of the Fatherhood of God.

"This is the sort of book one is always glad to have at hand, and will certainly be of great service and help to the despondent and doubting."—Whitehall Review.

"It will be found that the compilation reflects earnest care and intelligence."—Globe.

The Rev. B. M. O. HANCOCK writes: "I feel the book is worthy of unqualified recommendation. It meets a real need, and no one who uses the book but will be enabled to enter devoutly and intelligently into the Great Service which in Christ unites all in heaven and earth before the Throne of God in adoration, thanksgiving, and self-surrender; the devotions and instructions are fervid, wise, and catholic."

BISHOP OF ST. ALBANS: "I think it a most useful little book, and shall be glad to recommend it."

"The distinguishing feature of this little manual of Eucharistic instruction and worship is its constant insistence upon the structure of the Liturgy as determining the course of Eucharistic devotion. The prayers are simple and well chosen, and the instructions for the most part clear and definite."—Church Times.

"The value of this excellent little book is very great. It is for busy people who want short and good prayers, and who welcome sound instruction if it can be briefly given. The whole forms a singularly complete and convenient manual, and we cannot doubt that it will be widely adopted."—The Guardian.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Walpole has given us a work of real spiritual value, and we heartily commend it to all thoughtful readers, especially to those who lament the 'decay of experimental religion.' The present volume is a solid contribution to the solution of the problem how 'to find a basis for faith in actual experience.'"—Guardian.

Personality and Power;

Or, THE SECRET OF REAL INFLUENCE.

BY

REV. G. H. S. WALPOLE, D.D.,

Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of York; Rector of Lambeth.

Extracts from Reviews of "Personality and Power."

"A series of thoughtful addresses on the secret of real influence. He shows how the development or revelation of the true self should be the aim of life, and that men best help others by what they are, not by what they have. . . . The book is one well worth careful study; and its reflections will be found stimulating."—New Age.

"The writer has vigour in his own thought, and many a reader will be stimulated and helped when following Dr. Walpole as he develops his theme and illustrates and enforces it with so many concrete and inspiring examples."—Western Morning News.

"The book is rich in fresh and suggestive considerations on character, its formation and influence, and should appeal to thoughtful and earnest readers."—Aberdeen Free Press.

"A thoughtful and beautiful book. . . . These addresses are mature and sympathetic, and fitted to be most helpful. . . . Dr. Walpole feels more intensely than most that the secret of life is to develop the new personality on noble lines. . . . We have no doubt that this volume will by degrees make for itself an audience."—Church Family Newspaper.

"Its aim is to show that power lies in personality, and that every personality—whether that of slave or King, pupil or master—so far as it is developed has influence. The book is based on addresses given by the author on various occasions during the last four years."—Notts Guardian.

"This interesting and thoughtful volume by the Rector of Lambeth is the sequel to his stimulating and helpful work, entitled 'Vital Religion; or, The Personal Knowledge of Jesus Christ.' . . . Not the least attractive feature of the book is its philosophic breadth of mind. Not a single trace of narrowness of outlook or attitude is to be found within its pages. We therefore heartily commend this publication as one worthy of being read and re-read, believing, as we do, that it is a most helpful and inspiring work in every way."—St. Andrew.
