DEGREES Simplified

2. BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (ECONOMICS) (B.Sc.) (Econ.)

Here is a delightful Course for seriously minded men in Church, State, Law, Industry, and Commerce. Wise young men will also see the value of anticipating their future requirements by studying while the mind is more plastic.

Here are a few details :-

Matriculation (9-12 months' reading)

1. English (mainly an Essay)
2. Logic (or Mathematics)
3. French (or German)
4. Geography (or Economics)

Inter. B.Sc. (ECONOMICS) (12-18 months' reading)

- PART I.
 1. Elements of Economics
 2. Geography
 3. French
- PART II.
 4. English Economic History
 5. British Constitution

B.Sc. (ECONOMICS) (18-24 months' reading)

1. (a) Principles of Economics
(b) Banking and Currency
(c) Economic History since 1815
2. English Constitutional History since 1660
3. Political History of the Great Powers from 1815
4. Modern Economic History

Just think for five minutes what an asset such knowledge would be to you. You would the more intelligently read the "Signs of the times" and understand the economic forces that are inevitable in their application.

The School of Simplified Study coaches in all these subjects and hundreds more. You study in your spare time, and all Simplified Courses are arranged to suit the individual requirements of each student.

ADDRESS.....

Lost to the Church!

A vast amount of valuable young life is lost to the Church every year.

The loss is lessened every time a Guildry Company is formed.

Has your Church a Company? If not, why not write for particulars as to how one can be formed?

The Girls' Guildry ministers to the physical as well as spiritual training of its 15,000 members, each of whom is pledged to attend a Sunday School or Bible Class regularly.

Communications should be addressed to the Secretary
