NOTICE IN REFERENCE TO BEQUESTS.

As the kind intentions of some of the deceased friends of the Society have been rendered abortive for want of correct knowledge of the law, the Committee call special attention to the following directions:—

REQUISITES FOR VALIDITY OF WILL.—It should be remembered in the first place that, (a) A will must be in writing, and signed at the foot or end thereof by the Testator or by some other person in his presence and by his direction; (b) Such signature must be made or acknowledged by the Testator in the presence of two Witnesses, who must be present at the same time, and (c) Such Witnesses must attest and subscribe the will in the presence of the Testator.

GIFTS BY WILL TO CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.—Gifts by will to the Baptist Missionary Society and other Charitable Institutions were formerly subject to restrictions stated in the "Notice in Reference to Bequests" contained in previous reports. But the effect of the Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 73), Secs. 3 and 5 and 9, is that no gift in favour of a Charitable Institution, made by the will of a Testator dying after August 5th, 1891, can be void by reason of the subject matter of the gift being land or an interest in land. The distinction formerly drawn between personal property which is an interest in land (that is, in any way secured upon or payable out of land) and pure personality is abolished, and even land may now be lawfully given by will to a Charitable Institution. But lands so given must be sold within one year from the Testator's death, or such extended period as may be determined by the Court or the Charity Commissioners, and if not sold within such period it will vest in the official Trustee of Charity Lands, and the Charity Commissioners will order it to be sold, and the net proceeds of sale to be paid to the official Trustees of Charity Funds in trust for the Charity in favour of which the land has been given (Sec. 8).

1.—REQUEST OF AN ORDINARY PECUNIARY LEGACY TO THE SOCIETY.—In this case there is no need for the provision formerly inserted in wills directing the legacy to be paid exclusively out of such parts of the Testator's estate as might lawfully be disposed of for charitable purposes. The bequest may be in the following form:—

"I give to the Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being of the Baptist Missionary Society the sum of £ , free of duty, for the general purposes of the said Society" (or, if so desired, "for the Translation Fund of the said Society," or "for the School Fund of the said Society").

2.—REQUEST TO THE SOCIETY OF A PECUNIARY LEGACY MADE PAYABLE OUT OF THE PROCEEDS OF SALE AND THE CONVERSION OF THE TESTATOR'S REAL AND PERSONAL ESTATE, OR OF A SHARE OF SUCH PROCEEDS.—Very frequently a Testator gives his real and personal estate or his residuary estate to Trustees on trust to sell, and out of the proceeds of sale to pay the legacies previously bequeathed, which may include a legacy to the Society. And a Testator may now bequeath a share of such proceeds to the Society. In these cases, although perhaps not essential, it is considered prudent, at all events until the interpretation of the above-mentioned Act has been settled by judicial decision, to add to the gift of the pecuniary legacy or share to the Society the following direction:—

"And I direct that in case all the real and leasehold estate comprised in the devise and bequest in trust for sale herein contained shall not be sold within one year from my death then the said legacy (or share) herein bequeathed to the said Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being of the Baptist Missionary Society, and the duty thereon shall be paid out of the proceeds of sale and conversion of my personal estate and the proceeds of sale of such of my real and leasehold estate as shall be sold within one year after my death in priority to all other legacies (or shares) payable thereout."

8.—GIFT BY WILL OF LAND TO THE SOCIETY.—If land or a house of any tenure or a freehold or leasehold ground-rent is intended to be given to the Society, it should be given to a Trustee or Trustees on trust to sell within one year after the Testator's death if practicable, and to receive the net purchase money and pay it to the Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being of the Society. The Testator will probably desire that the Succession Duty on the gift and also the cost of any application which may be necessary to extend the period of one year within which the sale must be made under the above-mentioned Act shall be paid out of his general estate. A gift by will of freehold land or a freehold house or a freehold ground-rent for the benefit of the Society may be made in the following form :—

"I give unto and to the use of (names of Trustees), their heirs and assigns, my freehold (description of land or house or ground-rent) upon trust to sell the same if practicable within one year from my death, and to receive the proceeds of sale thereof and thereout, and out of the rents and profits until sale to pay the expenses of such sale and all necessary outgoings, and to pay the residue of such proceeds and rents and profits to the Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being of the Baptist Missionary Society for the general purposes of the said Society. And I direct that the Succession Duty payable in respect of the above gift and also the costs of any application to extend the period for sale under the Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act, 1891, shall be paid out of my general estate."

A gift by will of leasehold land or a leasehold house or a leasehold ground-rent for the benefit of the Society may be made in the following form :—

"I give to (names of Trustees), their executors, administrators, and assigns, my leasehold (description of land or house or ground-rent) upon trust to sell the same if practicable within one year from my death, and to receive the proceeds of sale thereof and thereout, and out of the rents and profits until sale to pay the expenses of such sale and the rent reserved by the lease under which the same premises are held and all other necessary outgoings, and to pay the residue of such proceeds and rents and profits to the Treasurer or Treasurers for the time being of the Baptist Missionary Society for the general purposes of the said Society. And I direct that the Succession Duty payable in respect of the above gift and also the costs of any application to extend the period for sale under the Mortmain and Charitable Uses Act, 1891, shall be paid out of my general estate."

METHODS FOR FREQUENT AND REGULAR GIVING.

THE following are some of the methods now in operation, with a detailed description :—

THE ENVELOPE SYSTEM.

A Missionary Treasurer and Secretary having been appointed, the chapel is divided into sections, more or less according to size. Each section is placed under the superintendence of a collector, chosen, if possible, from those sitting in the section itself. The collectors are provided with books, in which are entered the numbers of the pews, the name and address of each seat-holder and of other attendants, according to their respective divisions. These books also contain columns ruled for each month in the year. The contributions are collected by means of small envelopes. Monthly giving being desired, these envelopes are placed in the pews on a certain Sunday in each month. Should there be any individuals who prefer to give less frequently, their envelopes are supplied at the appropriate intervals. The contributors, having enclosed their subscriptions, deposit their envelopes in the weekly offering boxes (should any be in use) or return them to the collector. Once or twice a month, as may be thought well, the Secretary meets the collectors at the close of a week-evening service, handing over the envelopes unopened for them to enter the sums they contain in their books. The money may be paid in by the collectors monthly or quarterly, their books being initialed whenever payments are made. The Treasurer remits to the Mission House four times in the year. In some instances receipts are given month by month to every subscriber, these being enclosed in the new envelopes; in others receipts are given once a quarter, with a reminder of arrears, should there be any; whilst in other cases receipts are deemed necessary.

In adopting this method the distribution of a circular, signed by the pastor and officers, explaining and commending it has been found of great service. With these circulars slips are issued, upon which subscribers may enter the sum they propose to give, and state how frequently—whether monthly, quarterly, half-yearly, or annually—they would prefer to give it.

THE DISTRICT METHOD.

This method divides the congregations not into sections according to the seats occupied in the chapel, but into districts according to residence. One collector or, as may be preferred, two collectors are appointed to each district. After a circular, signed by the pastor and officers, has been distributed, and a statement has been made from the pulpit, a general canvass is made to secure promises of help; the collectors then call for the contributions monthly, or less frequently, as the subscribers may choose. If thought desirable, the small cash envelopes may be also used in working this plan. At least once in three months the collectors should hand over their money to the Secretary, so that as often it may be forwarded to the Mission House. If this scheme, or the one already described, is to prove successful, the smaller sums as well as the larger should be sought. To those who may resolve to attempt this method of securing frequent and regular giving books will be forwarded on application to the Secretaries of the Society.

Another plan to which attention may be called consists in the general circulation of MISSIONARY BOXES.

The plan adopted by some churches is as follows:—

1. The boxes are definitely family boxes, and not intended to supersede or interfere with any existing annual subscriptions or any public collections at the chapel.

2. The boxes are numbered consecutively, and have on one side a short address to stimulate missionary zeal, and the suggestion that the boxes should be placed on the breakfast table every Lord's-day morning to receive the family offerings for the work of God among the heathen (in accordance with 1 Cor. xvi. 2). This is a cardinal feature of the plan.

3. The boxes are called for quarterly at the houses of those who have taken them (unless they prefer to bring them to the chapel) by collectors appointed for that purpose, as soon after each quarter as possible, who give receipts for the amounts received.

4. The collectors hand in the total amount received from the boxes in their districts to the Mission-box Secretary, who initials their receipt-book counterfoils, and gives out the names of any new families to be called upon with the view of getting more boxes taken.

Boxes can be forwarded from the Mission House for this use in Christian families.

THE PENNY-A-WEEK SYSTEM.

As the first step in the adoption of this, as of every other method, let the church appoint its own Missionary Secretary. Then let this officer select as many collectors as may be required to collect the pennies from an aggregate of eleven—not more than eleven—subscribers, which sum, with the penny of the collector, will amount to a shilling. These pennies might be obtained at the chapel services or at the home. They should be paid in monthly to the secretary, who should remit quarterly to Furnival Street. This method is equally adapted for the gathering in of larger weekly sums than a penny. The apparatus for putting this plan into operation will be readily supplied from the Mission House. This system is commended as being especially suited to Christian Endeavour Societies.

A PRAYER UNION

has recently been instituted, of which full particulars may be obtained.

As the circumstances of churches vary, it is necessary to be prepared with a variety of methods. It is hoped that in one or other of the above, every church will find a plan of regular and frequent giving suited to its own particular requirement.

PLAN AND REGULATIONS OF THE SOCIETY.

NAME.

The name by which the Society has been, and is, designated is "THE BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY," including "The Particular Baptist Missionary Society for Propagating the Gospel among the Heathen," which was formed in 1792, and "The General Baptist Missionary Society," which was formed in 1816.

OBJECT.

The great object of this Society is the diffusion of the knowledge of the religion of Jesus Christ throughout the whole world, beyond the British Isles, by the preaching of the Gospel, the translation and publication of the Holy Scriptures, and the establishment of schools.

MEMBERS.

The following persons shall be considered Members—viz., pastors of churches making an annual contribution; ministers who collect annually; and all Christian persons concurring in the objects of the Society, who are donors of ten pounds and upwards, or subscribers of ten shillings and sixpence annually to its funds.

GENERAL MEETING OF MEMBERS.

A General Meeting of Members only shall be held annually, at which the Committee and Officers shall be chosen for the year ensuing, the Auditors of accounts appointed, and any other business pertaining to the Society transacted.

In choosing the Committee and Officers, the Chairman of the Meeting shall receive all names which it may be intended to propose. Out of the list so obtained, forty-two Members of the Committee shall be chosen by ballot, those who have the greater number of votes being the persons elected, and the Members so elected shall be empowered to fill up the number to fifty-four Members, as required by the following rule, from the list of nominations presented at the Annual Meeting. No name shall appear on the Nomination List for Election to the General Committee at the Annual Meeting without the consent of the owner.

COMMITTEE.

That the affairs of the Society shall be conducted by a Committee of fifty-four persons, two-thirds of whom shall be residents beyond twelve miles of St. Paul's; the Committee to meet monthly, or oftener, in London, on a fixed day, for the despatch of business; seven Members to be deemed a quorum; the Committee to be empowered to fill up vacancies.

PUBLIC MEETINGS.

A Public Meeting of the Society shall be held annually, when the list of the Committee shall be read, the accounts presented, and the proceedings of the previous year reported. The Committee shall also be empowered to summon Public Meetings, in London or elsewhere, whenever the interests of the Society may seem to require.

CORRESPONDING MEMBERS.

All Treasurers and Secretaries of Missionary Auxiliaries shall be CORRESPONDING MEMBERS of the Committee, together with such persons as it may be found necessary to add to their number.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

The General Meeting of Members shall also be empowered to appoint as HONORARY MEMBERS of the Committee any who have rendered important services to the Society ; provided the nomination of such Honorary Members of Committee shall proceed only from a resolution of the General Committee of the Society, or from six Members of the Society who are combined therein.

HONORARY MEMBERS (EX-OFFICIO).

Presidents or Principals of Denominational Colleges shall be ex-officio Members of the Committee of the Society.

MEMBERS OF THE SOCIETY ENTITLED TO VOTE AT COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

All Honorary and Corresponding Members of the Committee, and all Ministers, who are members of the Society, who may occasionally be in London ; and also Ministers residing in London, similarly qualified, together with the Treasurers and Secretaries of London Auxiliaries, shall be entitled to attend and vote at the Meetings of the Committee.

FUNDS.

All moneys received on behalf of the Society shall be lodged in the hands of the Treasurer, or of Trustees to be chosen by the Society. When the amount received shall exceed the sum needed for the current expenses of the month, it shall be invested in the Public Funds, until required for the use of the Mission.

ALTERATION OF CONSTITUTION.

No alteration in the constitution of the Society shall be made without twelve months' notice having been given at a previous Annual General Meeting.

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING

HELD IN THE MISSION HOUSE, FURNIVAL STREET, HOLBORN, E.C., TUESDAY, APRIL 26TH, 1898.

1. After singing a hymn and reading the Scriptures, the Rev. W. E. BLOMFIELD, B.A., B.D., of Coventry, offered prayer.

2. On the motion of the GENERAL SECRETARY, WILLIAM ANGUS, Esq., J.P., of Newcastle-on-Tyne, was unanimously called to the chair.

3. The Digest of Minutes of the Committee for the past year was brought up and read by the GENERAL SECRETARY.

4. The Officers presented and read the Report of the Committee, together with the Balance-sheet and Abstract of Accounts for the past year, as passed by the Auditors.

5. On the motion of the Rev. RICHARD GLOVER, D.D., of Bristol, seconded by the Rev. T. PHILLIPS, B.A., of Kettering, it was resolved :

That in moving the adoption of the Report now presented, together with the duly audited Balance-sheet and Statement of Accounts, the subscribers in Annual Meeting assembled place on record their fervent thanksgiving to God for the many signal tokens of the Divine blessing resting upon the labours of the missionaries abroad, and for the liberality with which the Churches at home have rendered financial support.

This meeting, consisting as it does of pastors and delegates of Baptist Churches throughout the Kingdom, desires further to express hearty sympathy with the Committee in its determination to increase the annual income of the Society, according to the Centenary proposal, to £100,000; and understanding that arrangements are now in progress for a systematic visitation of the churches with a view to this desirable end, this meeting solemnly pledges itself to co-operate with the Committee in every practicable way.

6. On the nomination of the Committee, moved by the Rev. CHARLES WILLIAMS, of Accrington, seconded by the Rev. T. M. MORRIS, of Ipswich, it was unanimously resolved :—

That the Rev. George Kerry, late of Calcutta, be elected an Honorary Member of the Committee of the Baptist Missionary Society, having rendered important services to the Mission.

7. On the nomination of the Committee, moved by the Rev. CHARLES WILLIAMS, of Accrington, seconded by the Rev. T. M. MORRIS, of Ipswich, it was unanimously resolved :—

That Thomas H. Olney, Esq., of London, be elected an Honorary Member of the Committee of the Baptist Missionary Society, having rendered important services to the Mission.

8. On the nomination of the Committee, moved by the Rev. CHARLES WILLIAMS, of Accrington, seconded by the Rev. T. M. MORRIS, of Ipswich, it was resolved :—

That John James Smith, Esq., J.P., of Watford, be elected an Honorary Member of the Committee of the Baptist Missionary Society, having rendered important services to the Mission.

9. On the motion of H. ASHWELL, Esq., of Nottingham, seconded by Rev. J. M. BERGIN, of Yorktown, it was resolved :—

That the following gentlemen be requested to act as Scrutineers, to report the result of the examination of the balloting papers to the officers of the Society for publication—viz., Messrs. C. B. Chapman, W. L. Smith, W. D. Howieson, E. H. Keen, W. W. Parkinson, C. H. Chapman, A. Grant, C. E. Smith, and T. Denman.

10. The lists of nominations of Members to serve on the Committee having been supplied, the voting papers were collected and referred to the Scrutineers.

11. On the motion of the Rev. T. GRAHAM TARN, of Harrogate, seconded by CHARLES FINCH FOSTER, Esq., of Cambridge, it was resolved :—

That the Members of the Baptist Missionary Society in Annual Meeting assembled desire respectfully to assure their honoured and beloved Treasurer of their deep and affectionate sympathy with him in his recent and severe illness, and of their thankfulness at hearing of the improvement that has taken place in his condition during the past few days.

They earnestly pray for his speedy and complete recovery. They also gratefully acknowledge the signal and unique services rendered by Mr. Rickett during the past year as Treasurer of the Mission, and they respectfully urge him to be so good as to accept the position for the year ensuing.

12. On the motion of the Rev. JAMES OWEN, of Swansea, seconded by G. W. MACALPINE, Esq., J.P., of Accrington, it was resolved :—

That the best thanks of this Meeting be given to Alfred Henry Baynes, Esq., for his efficient services as General Secretary during the past year, and that he be earnestly requested to continue them during the year ensuing.

13. On the motion of the Rev. JOHN JENKYN BROWN, of Birmingham, seconded by the Rev. W. BOWEN JAMES, of India, it was resolved :—

That the cordial thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. J. B. Myers, the Association Secretary of the Society, for his valuable services in connection with the deputation and association work of the Mission during the past year, and that he be requested to continue his services in the ensuing year.

14. On the motion of the GENERAL SECRETARY, seconded by JOSIAH BAINES, Esq., of Clapton, it was resolved :—

That the best thanks of this Meeting be given to the Auditors for their efficient services during the past year, and that the following gentlemen be requested to act as Auditors for the year ensuing—viz., Messrs. W. W. Parkinson, E. H. Keen, Jas. Everett, T. W. Smith, and W. Lepard Smith.

15. The following resolution, in pursuance of notice given at the Annual Members' Meeting, April 27th, 1897, was moved by the Rev. R. RICHARD, of Bristol, and carried :—

That no name shall appear on the Nomination List for Election to the General Committee at the Annual Meeting without the consent of the owner.

16. On the motion of the GENERAL SECRETARY, seconded by CECIL RICKETT, Esq., of Hampstead, the following resolution was passed unanimously :—

That the cordial thanks of this Meeting be given to William Angus, Esq., J.P., of Newcastle-on-Tyne, for his kind and efficient services in the Chair.

17. The foregoing Minutes were read and confirmed.

18. The Meeting was closed with the Benediction.

THE ANNUAL PUBLIC MEETING
OF THE
WAS HELD IN EXETER HALL, STRAND,
ON THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 28TH, 1898,
GEORGE SMITH, Esq., LL.D., C.I.E., in the Chair.

1. The Meeting was opened by singing a hymn, and prayer conducted by the Rev. J. W. EWING, M.A., of Peckham.

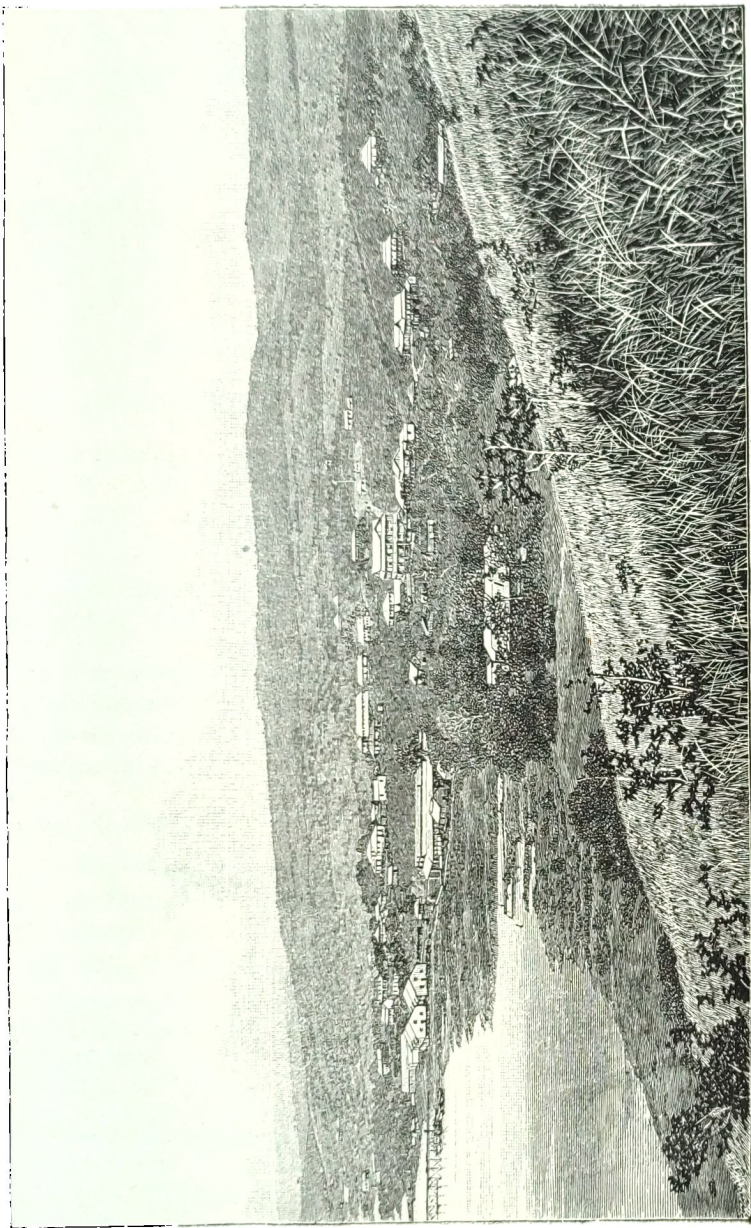

2. The GENERAL SECRETARY (Mr. Alfred Henry Baynes) presented and read extracts from the One Hundred and Sixth Annual Report, and in the absence, through illness, of Mr. W. R. Rickett (the Treasurer), presented and read the Balance-sheet as duly certified by the Auditors.

3. The CHAIRMAN addressed the Meeting.

4. The following Resolution, moved by the Rev. HERBERT DIXON, of Hsin Chou, North China, seconded by the Rev. J. MORGAN GIBBON, of Stamford Hill, London, and supported by the Rev. J. R. M. STEPHENS, of Wathen, Congo, was carried unanimously :—

That this Meeting desires to express its devout gratitude to God for the large measure of success which has attended the work of the Society at home and abroad during the past year ; and for the increasing hold which the Mission has upon the confidence and sympathy of the churches, as evidenced by the Treasurer's Balance-sheet just presented. The Meeting further desires to record its hearty approval of the arrangements the Committee are now making for the visitation of the churches for the purpose of raising the annual income of the Society to £100,000, thereby completing the scheme inaugurated at the Centenary Celebration.

5. The Meeting closed with the Doxology and Benediction.

GENERAL VIEW OF MATADI—PORT OF THE CONGO RIVER.—(From a Photograph by the Rev. Thomas Lewis.)

Matadi is 110 miles from the mouth of the river, and the starting point of the Congo railway through the cataract region to Stanley Pool. The Rev. Lawson Forrester and Mrs. Forrester are proceeding in a few days to this station with a view to ascertain if it will be to the advantage of the Congo work to establish there the base of the Mission.

THE ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

IN presenting the One Hundred and Sixth Report of the Baptist Missionary Society the Committee would call upon their friends and supporters to unite with them in the unfailing Doxology :

“UNTO THEE, O LORD, WILL I SING PRAISES.”

The year past has been one of very chequered experiences.

At HOME financial difficulty, losses by death of valued supporters and of promising young labourers ; while ABROAD, in the distant East, the year has been marked by “Plague and Famine, Earthquake and Flood, Fire, and War.” In the words of the Indian Secretary, the Rev. Herbert Anderson, of Calcutta : “Those of us who have been living and working in the midst of this physical devastation have been more than ever conscious of an intensified moral and spiritual unrest, a deep surging of the nation’s hidden life, as it has been brought face to face with the powers of the elements and the mystery of the Unseen.”

The changes, rapid and momentous, taking place in China seem to forecast an unparalleled opportunity for bringing the Kingdom of God to the hundreds of millions of that strange land ; while on the Congo, in Central Africa, the numerous forces at work are opening up, in a marvellous manner, the very heart of that mysterious continent to Christian effort.

The Committee feel that a thoughtful perusal of the reports received from the great fields in which the Society is at present working will lead to the conviction that a large measure of success has followed the labours of the missionaries during the year just closed, calling for a devout expression of thankfulness and praise, and impelling to deeper personal interest in, and more complete consecration of means and methods to, the sublime enterprise of winning the world to Christ.

Instead of closing the year's balance-sheet with a large deficiency, generous responses to the special appeal have produced a balance in hand, while the letters received during the closing weeks of the financial year from all parts of the kingdom have given touching proof of the deep hold the work of the Society has upon the hearts and prayers of large numbers of self-denying friends, who evidently find real joy in the personal realisation of the Divine truth that: "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

The Baptisms in India during the year were 682; in China 545; and in other fields 447. In Christian Elementary Day Schools the Society has 10,581 children, taught by 462 Christian teachers; and in Sunday-schools there are in regular attendance 14,014 children, taught by 1,145 voluntary Christian teachers; while in India especially the progress of the Christian Endeavour movement has been quite remarkable.

The Rev. William Carey, of Dacca, reports: "At the date of the last Report, there were but three Endeavour Societies connected with our Mission outside the Bakharganj Union, and, as there were three non-Baptist societies inside, the totals balanced. The 60 societies and 746 members of that Union, therefore, practically represented all our 'Christian Endeavour' force in Bengal. To-day the Societies number 80 and the members 1,111. Then only 4 Districts entertained C.E., now it has a lodging place in 9."

Sunday-schools in India have increased during the past year from 150 to 171, teachers from 245 to 265, and scholars from 2,543 to 3,221.

In the words of Mrs. Bishop: "Let us, however, look less at the work done than at the work undone. We sing hopeful and triumphant hymns; we hear of encouragements which a merciful God gives to utterly inadequate and feeble efforts; and some of us begin to think that little remains to be accomplished. Let us turn away from these enchantments, for enchantments they truly are, and set our faces towards the wilderness, that 'waste howling wilderness' in which one thousand millions of our race are wandering in darkness and the shadow of death, without hope, and without God in the world."

MISSIONARIES ON FURLOUGH.

The undermentioned missionaries are at home on furlough, seeking health and refreshment by a season of rest and change.

From INDIA.—The Revs. T. H. and Mrs. Barnett, Howrah ; T. R. and Mrs. Edwards, Sowry ; W. Bowen and Mrs. James, Julpigori ; John G. and Mrs. Kerry, Barisal ; A. J. and Mrs. McLean, Chittagong ; and J. and Mrs. Vaughan, Cuttack.

From CHINA.—The Rev. H. and Mrs. Dixon, of Shansi, North China.

From the CONGO RIVER.—The Revs. W. Holman and Mrs. Bentley, Wathen Station ; William L. and Mrs. Forfeitt, Bopoto Station ; J. Lawson and Mrs. Forfeitt, Matadi Station ; Robert and Mrs. Glennie, Bolobo Station ; J. L. and Mrs. Roger, of Stanley Pool ; J. R. M. Stephens, Wathen Station ; H. T. Stonelake, Monsembi Station ; and J. and Mrs. Whitehead, Lukolela Station.

From TRINIDAD.—The Rev. R. E. and Mrs. Gammon, Port of Spain.

The Rev. Youhannah El Karey, of Nablous, Palestine, during the past year paid a brief visit to England, but has now resumed work in Nablous.

The Rev. G. H. Rouse, M.A., D.D., of Calcutta, has visited Australia, his health requiring a season of rest and change, and the Rev. W. K. and Mrs. Landels, of Turin, and the Rev. N. H. and Mrs. Shaw, of Florence, have spent a few months in England.

The Rev. R. H. Kirkland, of Bopoto Station, Upper Congo, has felt it right to resign his connection with the Mission, in consequence of medical opinion being strongly adverse to the return of Mrs. Kirkland to Africa.

The Committee are distressed at the loss of the services of Mr. and Mrs. Kirkland ; but in view of the medical judgment with regard to the health of Mrs. Kirkland, they have with much reluctance accepted their resignation.

The Rev. F. D. and Mrs. Waldock, of Colombo, after a long term of faithful and devoted service, have retired from Ceylon, the health of Mrs. Waldock not permitting continued residence in the tropics.

The connection with the Society of the Rev. J. and Mrs. Macallum, of Ceylon, has terminated.

To the great regret of the Committee and of all his colleagues in India, the Rev. G. W. Bevan, under decided medical advice, has relinquished, for a few years at any rate, the prospect of returning to the East. Mr. Bevan intends seeking a pastorate at home, with a view to try the effect of further residence in England upon his health.

MISSIONARIES RETURNED TO THEIR FIELDS OF WORK.

The undermentioned missionaries have returned to their fields of work, refreshed and strengthened by a term of furlough at home :—

To INDIA.—Revs. W. R. and Mrs. James, Jessore ; R. L. Lacey, Poree ; Geo. Anstie Smith, Kharrar ; and Rev. Robt. and Mrs. Spurgeon, Barisal.

To CEYLON.—Rev. W. D. and Mrs. Hankinson, Colombo.

To CHINA.—Revs. J. Percy and Mrs. Bruce, Shantung ; G. B. Farthing, Tai Yuen Fu, Shansi ; Timothy and Mrs. Richard, Shanghai ; A. G. Shorrocks, B.A., Shensi ; and E. C. and Mrs. Smyth, to Shantung.

To CONGO RIVER.—Mrs. Stapleton, Yakusu ; Rev. J. H. and Mrs. Weeks, Monsempi ; and Miss Kate Grenfell, Bolobo.

The following changes of location have been made during the past year :—

In INDIA.—The Rev. W. R. and Mrs. James, to Jessore ; the Rev. T. W. and Mrs. Norledge, removing to Serampore, to take charge of the college during the furlough in England of the Rev. E. S. Summers and family ; the Rev. A. Long, from Russell Kondah to Sumbalpoore, to work in association with the Rev. P. E. Heberlet ; the Rev. Charles Jordan, to take charge of the Howrah Church, the Rev. T. H. Barnett taking furlough in England ; and the Rev. Dr. Vincent Thomas, removing from Kharrar.

On CONGO RIVER.—The Rev. R. H. C. and Mrs. Graham, from San Salvador to Tumba Station, in association with the Rev. John Pincock, Mr. Graham undertaking the duties of acting Congo Secretary ; the Rev. W. H. and Mrs. Stapleton from Monsempi to Yakusu, in association with the Rev. R. Beedham ; the Rev. W. Millman from Stanley Pool to Bopoto, in association with the Rev. Kenred Smith ; and the Rev. C. J. Dodds from Yakusu to Monsembi.

The following missionaries have married during the past year :—the Rev. A. E. Collier, of Bankipore ; the Rev. George Howells, M.A., B.D., of Cuttack ; the Rev. F. W. Jarry, of Berhampore ; the Rev. C. W. Wilson, B.A., of Serampore College ; and the Rev. W. D. Hankinson, of Colombo, Ceylon.

The undermentioned missionaries intend taking furlough to England very shortly :—The Rev. E. S. and Mrs. Summers and family, Serampore ; the Rev. Arthur and Mrs. Jewson and family, Calcutta ; the Rev. J. and Mrs. Ellison and family, Rungpore ; and the Rev. Moir and Mrs. Duncan and family, from Shensi, China.

REINFORCEMENTS.

For INDIA.—The Revs. W. Milne, for Barisal ; T. O. Ransford, Regent's Park College, for Dacca City ; W. Sutton Page, B.A., B.D., Regent's Park and Mansfield Colleges, for Barisal ; and C. Herbert Williams, Cardiff Baptist College, for Agra City, N.W.P.

For CHINA.—The Revs. A. Ernest Greening, Brighton Grove College, Manchester, for Shantung ; Frank Madeley, M.A., of Bristol Baptist College, for Shensi ; and Sidney W. Ennals, B.A., of Regent's Park College, at present placed temporarily in South Africa.

For CONGO RIVER.—The Rev. A. G. Adams, of Bristol Baptist College, for San Salvador ; and the Rev. John Jeffery, of Rawdon College, for Yakusu Station, Upper Congo River.

GONE HOME.

A few days after the 1897 annual meetings tidings reached the Mission House of the death of the Rev. G. R. Pople, of Tumba Station, on the Lower Congo River. The Rev. John Pincock, writing under date of Tumba, April 12th, 1897, says :—" Our dear Brother Pople passed away at 12.30 last night."

At the July meeting of the Committee Mr. Pinnock wrote again reporting the death of Mrs. Pople on the night of May the 29th, leaving her infant son to the care of Mr. Pinnock ; and at the following September meeting of Committee a letter from the Rev. J. R. M. Stephens, dated on board " the ss. Niger off Gaboon, July 9th," brought the sad news not only of the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Pople, but of the Rev. Harry White, on his voyage to England "on Sunday morning, July 9th, at six o'clock, just as the day was breaking."

In the words of Mr. Pople, written only a few months after his arrival in Africa :—"Surely this Congo Mission has been cradled in sacrifice and baptized in sorrow. The Master must have great things in store, for of a truth 'they that sow in tears shall reap in joy,' and I am confident there is, therefore, a noble future for this blessed enterprise. Come life, come death, all is well ; to have ever so humble a part in this work is a lofty privilege, and fills my inmost heart with a joy too deep for words."

During the past year many and heavy have been the losses at home.

"Earth is the poorer far
While heaven the richer grows."

To mention the names of only two of those who have left us for the Father's House, is to recall toils and triumphs that can never die—Thomas Martin, the apostle of Eastern Bengal ; Elizabeth Sale, the emancipator of the Zenanas. These names will ever be dear, not only to friends in this country, but to the hearts of thousands also in the distant East.

And as these lines are being written, the tidings come across the sea telling us of the removal to the City of the Saints of another devoted worker in the very morning of his life—Brother Wilkinson, of Russell Kondah, smitten down suddenly by virulent small-pox, and passing away with the words upon his stiffening lips, "Safe, safe, eternally safe." His sun has gone down while it is yet day ; but surely his passionate, self-sacrificing love for the long-neglected peoples of Kondistan will yet inspire other and like-minded workers to step forward and carry on his devoted labours in this most interesting field.

The names also of other devoted friends should be recorded here :—The Rev. Robert Wallace, of Tottenham ; and the Rev. Dr. Parker, of Brighton Grove College, Manchester, for many years members of the Executive Committee, who both rendered long and loving service to the Society ; also the Rev. William Bentley, of Upper Clapton (father of Rev. W. Holman Bentley, of the Congo Mission) ; Mr. Charles A. Rose, of Glasgow ; and Mr. Hugh Rose, of Edinburgh—warm friends and generous helpers—will be sorely missed in the days to come.

“THESE ALL DIED IN FAITH.”

“THE MEMORY OF THE JUST IS BLESSED.”

YOUNG PEOPLE'S MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.

This Association now completes its fiftieth year. That for so long a time it should have continued its useful labours in aid of the Parent Society calls for gratitude to God for His great goodness.

In the past year there has been full opportunity for testing the new rules. The result has been most encouraging. The number of affiliated metropolitan Sunday-schools has about doubled. The register now shows :—Sunday-schools affiliated, 92 ; Senior Bible-classes, 6 ; Christian Endeavour and similar societies, 26 ; personal members, 48.

The attendance at the monthly meetings has shown a marked increase, and at almost every meeting new delegates and members have been welcomed. Helpful addresses by missionaries and other friends, profitable discussions, and united prayers have made these gatherings times of refreshing and rekindling of missionary interest and enthusiasm.

A more extensive use of the Illustrated Missionary Lectures has been made than in past years. The list of engagements shows that they have been used in at least 128 places in London and the provinces. The lectures have all been re-written and brought up to date during the year, and fresh slides have been introduced. A new lecture on the work of the Mission in the north-west provinces of India and the Punjab has also been added to the collection, which now numbers six lectures.

The library has been enriched by several grants of books from friends of the Association and from firms of publishers.

The demand for missionary leaflets has led to the reprinting of three editions of 6,250, 6,000, and 10,000 of “Congo Customs,” “Singhalese Children,” “The Children of China,” “An Indian Hermit,” and “The Women of Congo.” And the Committee of the Parent Society are now providing cards, tracts, and leaflets, setting forth in a striking manner the condition of heathen and Mohammedan lands, and the needs of the mission fields.

The journal of the Association in its new and enlarged form continues to supply fresh missionary intelligence, and proves a helpful bond of union between the Association and its affiliated schools and societies.

Space will not allow of reference to other efforts by which the Association seeks to kindle missionary enthusiasm among the young people of our metropolitan churches, and to bring them into closer touch with the Parent Society.

COLONIAL MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

The Committee are thankful to learn that during the past year the Colonial Missionary Societies working in Eastern Bengal in happy association with the Parent Society have enjoyed much blessing and success, and that the interest of the Colonial churches in missionary enterprise is growing in strength and intensity.

The published reports of these organisations have not as yet been received, but the names and officers of these societies are as follows :—

THE NEW SOUTH WALES MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in the South Tipperah District : Treasurer, Mr. W. Buckingham ; Secretary, Rev. F. Hibberd, Carlingford.

THE VICTORIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in the Mymensing District : Treasurer, Mr. W. T. Wallis ; Secretary, Rev. Dr. Whitley, Melbourne.

THE SOUTH AUSTRALIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in the Furreedpore and Pubna Districts : Treasurer, Mr. A. S. Neill, Dunbarra, North Adelaide ; Secretary, Rev. John Price, Hyde Park.

THE QUEENSLAND MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in the Noakhali District : Treasurer, Mr. W. R. Smith ; Secretary, Mr. G. H. Buzacott, Brisbane.

THE BAPTIST UNION OF WEST AUSTRALIA : Sphere undecided. Foreign Mission Secretary, Mr. J. W. Jaques, Perth.

THE NEW ZEALAND MISSIONARY SOCIETY, in the North Tipperah District : Secretary, Mr. H. H. Driver, Dunedin.

THE WORK OF THE PAST YEAR.

THE Rev. Herbert Anderson, of Calcutta, the Indian Secretary of the Society, in reporting upon the past year writes:—

“The events of 1867 within the borders of the Indian Empire have attracted the gaze of the civilised world, and are bound to have far-reaching issues in the history of India. Never within recent centuries has a nation experienced such awful and widespread calamities in so short a space of time.

“Our first and gladdest note is thanksgiving to our God. Well may we with Isaiah exclaim, ‘O Lord, Thou art our God, we will exalt Thee, we will praise Thy name, for Thou hast done wonderful things in faithfulness and truth. Thou hast been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a blast against the wall.’ Not only has His goodness watched over the whole of our Mission staff during those trying months, but He has enabled us, through the generosity of the Baptist churches in Great Britain, and of many other friends throughout the world, to do something for the multitudes that have been perishing for lack of food.

“Large sums have passed directly through the hands of our Missionaries and of the ladies of the Zenana Mission, for the alleviation of those affected more or less directly by the visitation.

“The miracles of tenderness and love wrought by our Lord, in feeding the hungry and clothing the sick, have been repeated. Their effort will be abundantly manifest in years to come.

“Like other missions, ours did not escape the alarming earthquake of June 12th. No life was lost and no injury wrought, save to the nerves of one or two, but the three minutes' heaving of the earth's crust has cost the Mission a very large sum for the repairs and rebuilding of property damaged or destroyed.

"One cannot pass by the completion by Dr. G. H. Rouse during the year of a tentative revision of the Bengali Bible. Four or five years of most arduous and constant labour have resulted in this desirable consummation. We congratulate Dr. Rouse on the completion of his work, and trust he may have many more years of life granted to him for further attention to the literary work connected with the Mission, which for so long he has so ably and devotedly superintended.

"Much interest is to be found in the reports of the various brethren regarding the direct preaching of the Gospel to the multitudes of this land. That Hinduism is decaying is all too evident. That the handwriting stands out clearer and clearer on the wall, written by the finger of God, is also manifest. But this does not indicate the speedy and immediate triumph of the Christian faith. Hinduism, chameleon-like, is but changing its form. It seeks now to imitate and assimilate and even embrace as its own all the truth of Christ that has been proclaimed. Christ is now in the Hindu Pantheon, Christian truth in the verses of the Vedas and the Gita, and Christian ceremonies in the ritual of the temples. Thank God, all this is but the evidence of the progress of our cause. History repeats itself. The second century of Christian missionary effort in Europe had identically the same results we are seeing in India to-day, and the trend is in the right direction, and the ultimate issue assured. The Master, as of yore, calls one here and one there. And His sheep hear His voice and follow Him.

"The educational work of the Mission as represented in our three colleges—Serampore, Delhi, and Cuttack—progresses well, and to a large extent satisfies the needs of the Mission. The standard of elementary education in the large community of Backergang, under the able superintendence of the Rev. R. H. Tregillus, has been much improved, and the normal class at Serampore is turning out a grade of teachers for our village schools that will ensure our keeping abreast of the demands of the time. But there is still a lack of appreciation of the value of education among the parents of the children.

"The increase of the higher Indian staff amongst us is to me a most encouraging feature. The further we can train and employ Indians of strong spiritual life, of faithful convictions, and trustworthiness, the better for the success of our work and for the Mission. The European staff needs great and immediate reinforcement, but with gratitude to God we rejoice in the uprising of true yoke-fellows among the sons and daughters of the land."

FAMINE RELIEF.

Famine, pestilence, earthquake, and war—this is the 1897 record for India.

Much of the time, energy, and resources of our missionaries have been devoted, during the past year, to the relief of the hundreds of thousands of the famine-stricken men, women, and children of the North-West Provinces and Bengal. And the large gifts of the home churches have enabled the Committee to send out substantial and continuous remittances, which have been well and wisely used not only by our own brethren, but by the ladies of the Zenana Mission as well, who have lovingly rendered invaluable service in "this season of never-to-be-forgotten distress, anguish, and death.

In Delhi, Agra, Muttra, Pulwall, Kharrer, Monghyr, Khoolna, and Barisal this relief work has been most actively carried on, and as it is impossible to give details from all these centres within the limits of this Report, the following record from Agra, drawn up by the Rev. J. G. Potter, may be taken as an excellent example of the sort of work done and assistance rendered in the other districts.

Mr. Potter writes :—

"In March, at a united meeting of the Zenana missionaries and ourselves, it was decided to start industrial work, so as to enable the poor starving people to help themselves during such time as the famine should continue. The work was divided into the different departments of spinning, weaving, grinding corn, and digging, and by mutual arrangement we each became responsible for some part of the work. This work grew upon us to such an extent that we could hardly have believed at the outset. The strain has been great during the seven months that it has continued, yet we look back upon it with deep gratitude to God for the greatness of the opportunity thus given of helping a very large number of poor people in the best possible way.

"We desire devoutly to recognise God's hand in the measure of health and strength afforded to us all as famine workers.

"We have also to record the fact with thankfulness that donations to our relief work have come to us from all sections of the Church of Christ. In one week cheques for substantial amounts came from a bishop of the Church of England, a Presbyterian, and a member of the Society of Friends. As most of the money has been paid away as famine wages to poor people, we have been enabled to help a very large number. Our spinning women have numbered 600, the weavers on our list 125, our women grinding corn 100, and the men, women, and children engaged in digging and carrying 200. These numbers give but a small percentage of those whom we were enabled to help by industrial work. The weavers on our list represented families, many of them large, containing several workers. The women engaged in spinning and grinding, many of whom were widows, had children and others dependent upon their earnings. It is safe, therefore, to estimate 3,000 as the number supported by means of our industrial work. In addition to this work in the city of Agra, quite an extensive work was carried on in one of our out-stations on similar lines, by means of which 500 more gained a means of livelihood.

"At the best of times weavers' work is poorly paid for, and at famine times, when people are starving, they have no money to spend on clothing. Most of our Hindu weavers came to us from villages around Agra, from which they had been driven in search of food. Some of them had travelled thirty, forty, or fifty miles before reaching Agra. The Mohammedan carpet weavers of the Agra city we also found to be in desperate need. In addition to the famine and its effect upon trade, the plague at Bombay had almost closed one of their best markets. It was a strange sight to see bigoted and fanatical Mohammedans begging for work at the missionary's door, some of them with tears in their eyes. These people will not forget who helped them in their time of need. The practical Christianity of famine relief work will, we feel convinced, commend itself to even the most bigoted and fanatical of the followers of the false prophet. In the work of spinning we were able to assist women of all castes and all classes. Most Indian women can spin, hence we had on our list many high caste Brahman women and Mohammedan parda nishins, as well as poor women from the city and villages. The work also enabled us to help in equal measure both Hindus and Mohammedans. Some idea of the great need for such work as cotton spinning may be gathered from the fact that at one large village no less than seventy widows, mostly of high caste, were found needing this means of support.

"It may interest some of our friends to know that during the past seven months by hand labour we have cleaned, spun, and made into cloth and carpets fourteen tons of raw cotton.

"After the work had become well established we received some recognition from the Local Relief Committee, composed for the most part of prominent native members of the Agra Municipality, and also from the officials of Government. Writing on May 12th, our Commissioner in a letter to me said: 'Your Mission and the Missions generally are doing excellent work in relieving the distressed, and the aid given by you is fully recognised. I am entirely in accord with the principle of aiding those who are willing and able to give some return for the assistance they receive.'

"And on August 10th, the Under-Secretary to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of N.W. Provinces wrote:—'The Lieutenant-Governor has learned with pleasure the extent and nature of the charitable work which has been done by the Mission agencies in Agra towards relieving distress. From the commencement of the famine this Government has welcomed the assistance of missionaries in the distribution of relief, and has received valuable help, which it fully recognises.'

"At a meeting of famine workers, held at Agra, July 26th, to which the missionaries were invited, Sir Antony MacDonnell, the Lieutenant-Governor, called special attention to the good work done by missionaries, and said that he would see that the thanks of Government were recorded.

"Yet as missionaries we trust we have not sought the praise of men. We, therefore, naturally ask now that the work is closing, what have been the spiritual results of all this labour for the suffering poor?

"To have aided poor hard-working and worthy people to tide over long months of famine, to have fed the hungry and clothed the naked, and to have been the means of preserving life is something. Yet we should be greatly disappointed if that were all. Thank God it is not all, even of the visible results of our famine relief work. We are able to record with thankfulness the removal of prejudice, and the deepening of sympathy between ourselves as missionaries, and the Hindus and Mohammedans around us. The fact that missionaries have befriended them in the hour of their sore need will, we feel sure, lead the people to listen with attention and sympathy to the story of Him in whose name this famine relief work has been done. In all parts of the city, as well as in many near and distant villages, we now have those who will welcome us as friends, and we trust that this will lead to the welcoming of our message also. It has often been most touching to witness the gratitude of poor people when leaving us for their villages, as they have fallen at our feet, to tell us that we have saved their lives and the lives of their children. Of course we have had others who have accepted all that was done for them as a matter of course. This was to be expected. But best of all we have reason to believe that some of our poor people have learned to forsake idols, and call upon the name of the Lord Jesus.

"Eight months ago I saw a poor woman toiling along the road to Agra, but still ten miles away. She had a basket on her head, and by her side was a little hungry and tired boy. She looked sad and weary, so I asked her why. Then she told me the sad story of the parting with all the household belongings for food, and when they had nothing else to sell and starvation stared them in the face, of the breaking up of their little village home, and the long march towards Agra, in search of food and work. I asked her what she had in her basket, and she took it off her head and showed me a little hungry child wrapped in a few rags, her sole possession. The little child cried for food, but the mother, herself in a starving condition, had none to give. I inquired for her husband, and found that he had gone on in front, so I sent to call him back.

"On his arrival I told him that I would give him a letter to Mr. Jones, the missionary in Agra, who would see that he obtained food and work; but the man was suspicious, and seemed to think that I was a coolie agent, or a recruiting sergeant, and refused to have anything to do with my letter. But the wife was more reasonable and accepted the letter, and the small gift of money with which I accompanied it, and with tears of gratitude in her eyes she fell at my feet and thanked me. In due course the family reached Agra, the note was delivered to Mr. Jones, and work was found for the family on the Mission compound. On our return to Agra, after finishing our tour in the district, we found these poor people waiting to welcome us. The child in the basket was now strong enough to work, and a few weeks' good food had made a wonderful difference in the looks of the whole family.

"What was better still they had learned much of the Lord Jesus, and the man asked to be baptized as a follower of Christ. His suspicion had turned to complete confidence and trust not only in us as missionaries, but also, as we trust, in our Master as well. A few weeks ago Mr. Jones spoke to the man about returning home. The man looked troubled, for such a thought had not occurred to his mind. Having found a home with us, he had no wish to go back to his heathen village and old life again. Many would like to stay on with us if we would allow them, and could find them work. Among these is a family now in our employ which was rescued from starvation by my wife some months ago. Their picture has appeared in the Juvenile Herald, and some part of their life story. It was too late to save the poor mother, who died of exhaustion, produced by lack of food and the long journey on foot for over 160 miles in search of work. The rest of the family are now fat and flourishing, and profess to have given up idolatry and to pray in the name of the Lord Jesus."

THE FAMINE ORPHAN CHILDREN.

The Rev. Daniel Jones, of Agra, pleads earnestly on behalf of the multitudes of famine orphans. He writes:—

"I want to urge a plea for these famine-stricken children. We feel confident that in this Christ-like work we shall have the sympathetic, prayerful support of all lovers of these 'little ones,' and at length the 'Inasmuch' of our Master for whom, and in whose Name, we desire to train up these children.

"We sincerely trust that Churches, C.E. Societies, and individual friends at home will have this important legacy of the 1897 famine made over to them in such a way that there may be found many nursing fathers and mothers in Israel who will not only adopt these lads to support them, but to wrestle and pray with God on their behalf. What a living interest and close union this will result in. Nothing like it has been before our Churches for many years. It is one of the most important, if not the most important, event in the history of our North-West Mission. God enable us to rise to the occasion. Let nothing interfere to prevent us doing our duty by these little ones. They are God's special gift to us of the Baptist Mission. Other societies are doing nobly, let us continue to do our part. Our friends at home have stood by us in the hour of need, with a liberality for which we gratefully acknowledge God; and now they will rejoice with us, that such a permanent memorial of God's goodness to us, in connection with the famine, is to be realised in the gift of one hundred children."

Mr. Potter also writes :—

"We hear of thousands of helpless orphans left by the present famine. Some Missions have done nobly in receiving the perishing children. We trust that our Mission may have at least a share in this blessed work.

"Among the orphans at present with us, many are bright and intelligent, and will well repay the care bestowed upon them, and even the dullest claim our care and sympathy.

"Many of the prominent Christian workers in all Missions were once famine children, and although the first thought is to so train the children as to enable them speedily to become self-supporting, it does look as if the native Church in India is to receive a greater accession of converted and capable men and women from amongst the thousands of orphans left by the late famine.

"Hindus and Mohammedans will not, and Government cannot, properly provide for the care of these thousands of famine children. It therefore rests with the Church of God to adopt them as her own in the name and in the strength of the Lord Jesus Christ the children's friend."

The Committee cordially approve the action of the missionaries in this matter, and have devoted a proportion of the Famine Appeal contributions for this special work.

VERNACULAR PREACHING.

During the past year our brethren have devoted a large amount of time and energy to vernacular preaching, and in many places have met with encouragement and success. The following extracts from reports are given as indicating the difficulties and encouragements of this method of work.

Our native brother, Mr. Romanath Ray Ohowdhry, reports :—

"As usual the preaching of the Gospel in and about Calcutta has occupied our best energies during the year. In the streets of Calcutta the Gospel is preached to the poor, the low, and the ignorant, but at the Bathing Ghats thereof it is preached as well to the rich, the high, and the learned. No one manifested any spirit of opposition till the Calcutta riots took place. A little before this sad event happened, the Mohammedans manifested their spirit of pride and unrest on hearing of the success of the Turks over the Greeks. Being unable to keep their spirit under control any longer they commenced to attack and beat every Christian whom they met on the road on a false pretext of a mosque dispute. At this time I was most fearfully attacked by them in my preaching. If the Hindus who were present in the audience had not come forward and defended me from their hands I should have then been wounded most severely and compelled to leave the spot. However, the same Jesus who protected me from the Mutiny in the year 1857 by means of Hindus, protected me also through them from the Calcutta riot in 1897. Let Him be glorified for what He has done for me. If a sceptic who doubts about the final success of the Gospel in India, be present at our preaching, he will then be able to see with his own eyes how the preaching of the Gospel touches the hearts of men and quickens them from their slumber. The truth of all this has been admitted and acknowledged by many in my audiences time after time. Again, does not all this signify that the dawn of the morning is at hand because the sleepers are not only getting tired of sleeping, but they are lifting up their heads from their pillows and crying for the light of the day? Such are the effects of the preaching of the Gospel in this country."

Mr. J. N. Dutt (son of Mr. Gogan Chunder Dutt, of Khoolna), stationed at Dinapore, writes :—

"I have worked systematically in and about the town visiting bazaars and mélas, sowing the Gospel seed among the Hindus and Mussulmans. Many have heard of the truth as it is in Jesus. Wherever we have gone we have met with a favourable reception, and the attention and interest which the people manifested in listening to the Word of God are really encouraging. Now and then I go about with my violin, the playing of which invariably draws a good audience, and thus affords us splendid opportunity of making known the love of God in Christ to many. There are many Hindus who are so advanced as to point out publicly the defects of Hinduism and the superiority of the Christian religion. Music has brought me into close contact with many educated Hindu gentleman, and this gives free scope for the proclamation of our Gospel message. An educated man pays me occasional visits, with a view to study the Bible together with other books bearing on Christian religion. He is an inquirer."

It is abundantly clear that in many parts of India opposition to the preaching of the Gospel has greatly moderated.

The Rev. A. H. Young, M.A., of Cuttack, Orissa, writes :—

"As in former years, the brethren went out preaching in the cold season. Hundreds of villages and many markets were visited by them. In addition to preaching when many are standing listening, the brethren have frequent interesting conversations with single individuals and with small groups of listeners at their boats or tents. In their reports of their tours, the brethren show that a manifest change has taken place in the manner in which they are received as compared with former times, even the Brahmins, who formerly used to trouble the preachers very much, now, in very many instances, receive them without opposition and with some measure of respect, and frequently purchase tracts and gospels. Those who may be said to occupy very influential positions in the localities visited often receive the brethren in such a manner as to have a good influence on the common people, and further their sales by purchasing from them some of the larger books they have for sale. Children attending schools are frequent purchasers. From time to time the brethren meet with persons who on former occasions purchased tracts or gospels, and who, as the result of their reading, show some knowledge of the way of salvation, and confess their readiness to become Christians were it not for the friends and relatives at home. An old man was troubled because of sin. In different ways, according to the Hindu religion, he tried to find peace of mind, but to no purpose. While on a visit to Outtaok, he in one of the bazaars heard of Jesus as the sinner's Saviour, bought a book and took it home. He diligently read it, and learned that Jesus died for sinners and could forgive him. This gave him hope and peace. From that time he believed Christianity to be the true religion. Yet fear of those at home hindered him from publicly confessing himself a Christian. How many there are in this state of mind God only knows. Hearing of such persons year after year makes one think that many such, even with their little light, may be found at the right hand when the Lord shall come to be glorified in His saints, and to be admired in all them that believe."

The Rev. John Stubbs, reporting on bazaar preaching in Patna City, writes :—

"All through the year I have had much encouragement in preaching in the city bazaars. This has been the chief part of our work, nearly every week-day morning and evening having been devoted to it. There have been many cases of intelligent interest in the Gospel among the listeners, and, if it were not for the fear of man, I believe many would be thankful for further teaching, and thus soon be added to the visible Church. One evening, when we were selling Scriptures after preaching, a Hindu said to the people : 'If you buy those books you will become pagal' (mad). Just then an old Mohammedan cap-seller came up and said : 'No, indeed, you will not. Those books contain the very truth of God.' This old Mohammedan has heard the Gospel several times, both in the bazaar, and at our Sunday services. A few weeks before he thus publicly took our part, he came running after me in the bazaar, and said : 'Sahib, pray for me.' I replied : 'Pray for yourself, if you do so, through Jesus, God will answer.' He responded : 'I truly believe in Jesus, but Satan is so strong in hindering me from coming to the services at your house, pray for me that I may be saved from him, and from sin.' At length having arrived at the chauk, where I was about to preach, and observing a Mohammedan shop-keeper closely watching our conversation, he abruptly left me. Lord, save him. I have mentioned his case, a type of several, because I want our dear home-helpers to share with us the burden of prayer for such cases. That our testimony has not fallen on careless or unwilling ears has been sometimes shown by the ready wit with which some who have listened have answered opposers. Such was the case when a Hindu objected to our statement that the Hindus were worshippers of gods many, whereas there is only one true God. He said : 'We believe in one great supreme being, and lesser deities under him, just as there is one Maharani Victoria, and under her Commissioners, Collectors,' &c. Another Hindu immediately answered : 'But the Commissioners and Collectors are not Maharanis.' Everybody in the crowd laughingly assented to this way of putting it, and the defender of Hinduism was at once silenced. Incidents of this kind are not uncommon, and serve to show that prejudice is being removed, and that a sympathetic attitude towards the truth is taking its place. The great difficulty, however, in bazaar-preaching is to stir the consciences of the people. It is easy to confound their arguments, but their hearts remain the same. Our greatest need in India to-day is a visitation of the Holy Spirit to convince the people of sin. Let us, without ceasing, pray for it. Oh, for a deep sense of sin !"

Mr. Collier, of Bankipore, writes :—

" We made an interesting camping tour to the West of Dinapur, in the Arrah district. Our usual plan was to pitch camp in or near a large village or town, and remaining there for two or three weeks, preach in the neighbouring villages morning and evening. Advantage was taken of the market days in various places, when Scriptures were sold, and the Gospel preached to the country people, who came from little outlying villages to buy and sell their agricultural produce. In this way a considerable area was thoroughly and systematically worked. The magic lantern was frequently exhibited in school-rooms or on the verandahs of larger native houses. The people came in large numbers, and were deeply interested in the Bible stories, which, entering by both ear and eye, could scarcely fail to make a lasting impression upon their minds. Sometimes the sheet was hung in a verandah, the lantern and speaker with a crowd of men being on the outside, while behind the sheet was assembled an unknown number of unseen but not always unheard, purdah women, who thus heard for the first, and perhaps, only time in their lives, the message of salvation through Jesus Christ."

The Rev. R. M. McIntosh, of Muttra, reports :—

" We visit a large number of villages in this district. We believe that the circulation of the Scriptures is of vital importance, for they can go where we can never venture, and accomplish what we can never perform. On one of our visits to the ghauts I came in contact with a young ascetic, in whom I quickly grew interested. He struck me as one who earnestly sought the salvation of his soul. In age he could not have exceeded twenty summers, and the marks he carried about on his body showed the severity of the penances he had undergone in order to overcome his passions. All his belongings were in a small bag which he had by his side. This he carried about with him from place to place. He had but recently arrived from a remote corner of the Bhurtpore State, hoping to obtain here the peace he was in quest of. After listening to a brief history of his life, I pointed out how adequately the living Christ could satisfy the longings of his soul. He was not ignorant of the Gospel; and opening his bag he produced a copy of the Gospel of Matthew in Hindi, which he handed to me. Where that book had travelled I knew not, but it certainly bore marks of having passed through many hands. Opening the book, my eyes fell on the concluding verses of the 11th chapter, 'Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest,' &c. Here was the very thing the man was seeking; there was the only one who could bestow it inviting him to accept it! Taking the book from my hand he asked, 'Where is that written?' I pointed the words to him, and he read and re-read them in the presence of the people gathered around us. Then replacing the Gospel in his bag, he went on his way."

To the crowd in the thronging mêlas and the great heathen festivals, in quiet conversation with the shopkeeper in his leisure moments, with the boatman by the River Ghat, with the restless, unsatisfied pilgrim in the Temple Court, the ryot in the field, the traveller by the highways and hedges, in the city bazaar and in the village rest-house, in public conveyances, tram-cars, and trains, and in private houses, our brethren preach Christ; casting the precious seed, and praying and longing for its up-springing and fruit-bearing.

THE NATIVE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

"Every missionary should clearly point out and enforce the duty resting upon all Christians from the very first to sustain and support the institutions of religion. Native converts should be urged and stimulated to provide their own places of worship, support their own pastor, or, if unable to do this, to make the best arrangements possible for the regular conduct of their own religious services amongst themselves.

"Systematic and conscientious giving should also be enforced from the very beginning of the Christian life, as well as active aggressive efforts for the evangelisation of the surrounding masses."—Indian Missionary Manual.

The Rev. John Kerry, writing concerning the Barisal Native Christian churches, says :—

"We began this year by an experiment. For the three months of October, November, and December, four of our evangelists were placed at four of the larger churches for evangelistic work in the villages around and for the instruction of our people. There was no expense connected with it, as the people willingly undertook to provide food and lodging, and all the needful outlay. The experiment was a great success, the churches were aroused and became active in aggressive work, night-classes for young men were opened, in which the Bible was taught. House-to-house visits resulted in the reclamation of many who had backslidden.

"Our Christian community contains more than 6,000 people, thus the burden is not a little one. The thought is ever present with one, 'How shall these be fed and carefully tended?' They are many of them as sheep without shepherds; further, being surrounded by Hindu and Mohammedan neighbours, it is little wonder they are somewhat faulty and do not come up to the New Testament standard of the Christian life.

"There are forty-six churches in the two districts of Barisal and Madaripur, the members of which are resident in about sixty-five villages. These forty-six churches are all organised in that they have deacons who are made responsible for the conduct of the Sunday services. Where the numbers are very small two or three villages have been united into one church. Many of these smaller places are close to our Mission Station at Turki, and have been regularly visited by the Assistant Missionary and evangelists stationed there. However much we may desire to make these churches entirely independent, it will take many years yet. They are too weak in numbers and in wealth at the present time to do this. Until they are stronger we shall need to send to them for their instruction the agents of the Society."

Babu Doli Patra, pastor of the Cuttack Church, writes :—

"The work of the church has proceeded steadily during the year. Fourteen persons have been baptized and received into its fellowship. The case of one old woman, who was a convert from Hinduism, deserves special notice. This sister was first taught about Christ and His religion in one of our Christian families here; and being, after some days, firmly convinced as to Christ being her personal Saviour, urged her husband and an only son to come along with her; but both refusing, she was forced to leave them and her other relatives, and then put on Christ by baptism. We greatly rejoice over her, for we know that 'there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.'

"We are also glad to be able to report that some of our brethren, besides doing good work for their fellow Christians, are trying to spread the Gospel of Christ among their heathen neighbours. These may with propriety be called lay preachers; they assist our evangelists and missionaries in their bazaar preaching. On almost every Sunday evening they go to a certain village, and there preach Christ at the door or in the verandah of almost every house; the men, women, and children, coming out of their houses, attentively listen to the glorious message of God."

The Rev. Daniel Jones, of Agra, reports :—

"We are thankful for any signs of aggressive life in our native Christians in the direction of their doing something for the support of Christian work. During this year a plan has been adopted, in which our people have agreed to give a portion regularly towards a fund for the support of a village worker, and now the chief support of a young man, Wilson Ellis, who is associated with John Sampson at Fatehabad, is borne by the native school. How grateful we should be could we have reported two men as being thus supported and sent forth by our native church; but we despise not the day of small things, but would rather fan the smoking flax into a bright flame."

From Delhi, the Rev. Herbert J. Thomas writes :—

"We are again thankful to be able to record an increase to our members. The addition by baptism has been 63; by restoration, 3; and by letter, 8. Total, 74. The present membership numbers 308, being a net increase of 36. We have been careful not to baptize any who came to us for the first time as inquirers since our relief works began. A number of such have been coming to my inquirers' classes, and have been attending services, and I hope they may have learned something of our faith that shall bring them nearer; but all those baptized from among the Chamars were on my registers since last year."

"The re-opening of school work in Pahar Ganj last year has again given fruits to the church, five more having been this year baptized. The service was held in the presence of a big crowd, and in the large open compound around the Pahar Ganj chapel. All these five were attendants at our night school, and three of them were boys in our school there in former days. In fact we can clearly see the good work of our low caste elementary schools in the case of at least eight of those who have this year been added to the church."

"Our aged member, Fatima, widow of Wilayat Ali, our home missionary, who was killed in the streets of Delhi at the outbreak of the Mutiny in 1857 for refusing to renounce his allegiance to Christ, died this year after a long and wearying illness. She was conscious to within twenty-four hours of her end; and though deaf and nearly blind, and with hardly any power of speech, she was able to let all who watched or visited her know that her faith in the Lord Jesus Christ was a real comfort and joy to her heart. Fatima was baptized in Agra in 1848, and at the time of her death was about eighty-eight years of age. She has been laid to rest close to the spot where her son Benjamin, a pastor of the Delhi Church, was buried. This year our second oldest member also has passed away, poor old Kallan, a Chamar Christian, who was baptized in 1859, one of the earliest on the re-occupation of the city after the Mutiny."

"The amount raised by the Central Church during the past twelve months, and expended on succouring its aged members, and on ordinary expenses, was 190-3-0."

NATIVE CHRISTIAN TRAINING INSTITUTIONS AND SCHOOLS.

SERAMPORE.

The Rev. E. S. Summers, M.A., the Principal of Serampore College, writes :—

"THE EARTHQUAKE.

"The year 1897 will be memorable in our records for many a long year to come. On the 12th of June, the day of the great earthquake, we returned from a few days' absence to find the back of the College fallen to the ground and such injury done that before the building could be regarded as safe half the roof of the big hall had to be taken off. This happened just at the time, too, that thorough repairs carried out after a long interval were nearing completion, and one of the saddest elements in the case was to see the iron beams that had just been freshly lifted to their place in the College roof lying distorted amid the débris. Had we not known that the hand that smote was the hand of love, the sight would have been enough to break the heart of any to whom Serampore and Serampore memories are dear. But Serampore has many a time in its past history testified to the fact that out of sorrow God brings blessing, and we wait to see what gracious purpose He has in view through this affliction. This injury to the building has hampered us very much in our work and has caused trouble in various ways, and we are longing for the time not now far distant when the wall that has been thrown down shall be built up, and we shall have a good roof on the College once again.

"In spite of the inconvenience and difficulty caused by the earthquake we have had a happy and successful year. Just before the holidays eight of our school boys were baptized and five from the Normal Class. Later on in the year three young women at Johnnuggur publicly professed their faith by baptism. Five students go out from the Theological Class at the end of the year, and have already been appointed by the Conference to different stations to work as evangelists. The English Theological Class has opened with two new students. Two students, one for the English Theological Class, and the other for the Vernacular Class, have been sent to us by the Australian Victorian Mission, and are supported at its expense with a view to working afterwards in connection with it. Christian Endeavour work has been carried on vigorously by Mr. Wilson and Mr. Gilbert among the boys and students, and by Mrs. Summers among the women. Special efforts have been made to interest our boys and young men in Christian work carried on in other lands, with a view to enlarge their sympathies and stimulate their zeal. For this purpose Mr. Wilson has made several maps.

"About the beginning of March we arranged for a Convention of evangelists connected with the Society mainly from the stations of West Bengal. Some annual institution of the sort seems desirable, and to connect it with Serampore seems natural, as so many of our evangelists are old students of the College. We have reason to believe that the Convention has proved useful and stimulating to all who took part in it, and we feel that it ought to become an annual institution."

Referring in detail to the work of the Institution, Mr. Summers first reports upon

"THE THEOLOGICAL CLASSES.

"The English Theological Class consists of two students, who join the students of the Vernacular Class in the Sermon Class.

"In the Vernacular Class we began the year with eleven students, of whom six were entering upon their third year, and five upon their second. Seven new students have joined during the year, one of whom, however, withdrew after the Midsummer vacation. Two of them are Mohammedan converts from the Jessore district, one from the boarding school at Doulutpore, and the other from Magurah. One is from our own boarding school and another from the Normal Class. Of the remaining two, one is an old boarding school boy who has been for some years engaged in secular employment, which he has felt constrained to leave for the work of the ministry. The other has come to us from the Victorian Mission, and is supported at their expense with a view to joining their Mission as an evangelist. This band of young men, all but one of whom is unmarried, is, I think, superior to the average that we have received of late years.

"One of the third-year students died very suddenly on Good Friday of cholera. The other five, having fulfilled their period of study, have been recommended to the Conference, accepted, and appointed to the following places :—Uttom Chunder Ghose to Julpaiguri ; Rajendra Krisna Shikari to Dacca ; Prio Nath Sirdar to Barisal ; Prosonno Coomar Shaha to Dacca ; Koilash Chunder Boriagee to Serampore.

"The Normal Class.—The class re-opened with thirteen old students, and fourteen new ones have been admitted during the year. Seven have left for various reasons. A Chittagong convert was beginning to get on well, but left us to get married.

"THE BOARDING SCHOOL.

"The seventy-two boys in the boarding school have been under the immediate charge, as respects all domestic arrangements, of Anukul Chunder Ghose, the newly-appointed assistant missionary. Bhogoboti Babu, who has superintended these arrangements for many years, has exercised a general oversight. As a result of the religious teaching given to the boys in many ways, eight of their number were desirous of being baptized, and after much consideration and earnest inquiry obtained their desire. The Sunday-school has been worked pretty vigorously. Mrs. Summers and Mr. Gilbert have taken classes in English ; Mr. Wilson, Anukul Babu, and several theological students in Bengali."

ORISSA NATIVE CHRISTIAN TRAINING INSTITUTION.

CUTTACK.

The Rev. Thomas Bailey, the principal of this institution, writes :—

"With the opening of the session our brother the Rev. Geo. Howells, B.A., B.D., began his work in the college, and has taken two classes—one in Exegesis and one in Christian Evidences. We trust that the connection thus formed will continue for many years, with increasing satisfaction to our brother and advantage to the young men who study under him.

"My long-trying and well-beloved colleague, the Rev. Shem Sahu, has continued his useful labours, and with restored domestic comfort, has devoted himself with increased assiduity to his work.

"Our junior assistant, the Rev. Niladri Naik, in recognition of his long and faithful service to the Mission, has been promoted to the rank of Assistant Home Missionary. His work in the College, as in other departments of missionary labour, is increasingly valuable.

"The young men have studied with me in Cambridge Bible, Mark's Gospel, Introduction five chapters, and Commentary to the end of Chap. III.; and in Church History, 'From Christ to Constantine,' Chap. IV. With Mr. Howells in Psalms I. to VIII., Exegesis; and in Professor Adeney's 'New Testament Theology,' pages 1 to 34. And with Bro. Shem Sahu in Biblical Exposition, Epistle to the Philippians and II. Epistle to the Thessalonians; Bible Handbook, Part II., Chap. II., Sections 1 to 4; and Historical Books to the end of II. Samuel; Dr. Buckley's Lectures on Old Testament prophecies regarding Christ, in the Book of Psalms, and from the Book of Jeremiah to the end of Malachi. The usual Sermon Class has been held on the Saturday morning.

"The spirit of the young men has been very good, and as in former years they have taken a share in the bazaar work, and the seniors in preaching in the Mission Chapel.

"The two seniors—Ratnakara Mahapatra and John Biswas—having completed four years of study in the institution, are eligible for appointment by Conference as evangelists on the usual probation. We very heartily recommend them.

"The session began with six young men and ended with five. There are seven new applicants for admission, whose cases will be submitted to the forthcoming Conference."

THE NORTH-WEST NATIVE CHRISTIAN TRAINING INSTITUTION.

DELHI.

The Rev. Stephen S. Thomas, the principal of the Delhi Institution, writes:—

"Most missionaries will have to report that regular work has been much interrupted by the famine and the many outside calls which that brought. Certainly that has been the case here. My class work has suffered a great deal. I joined the Punjab Committee of the Indian Charitable Relief Fund (i.e., the Lord Mayor's Fund, &c.), and in consequence was put on the Delhi Committee. For some months I gave the chief portion of my time to this relief work. At one time I seemed to be spending my life in attending committees all over the city. In a report of the Institution I cannot give any lengthy account of this work, but I may just say that I have got to know more people rich and poor during the past year than in the whole ten years I spent in Delhi before.

"STUDENTS.

"During the year I'sá Charan and Joseph Daniel have left the Institution after creditably passing the prescribed examinations, and are now at work as evangelists I'sá Charan in Muttra and Joseph Daniel in Monghyr. May what they have gained here be blessed and used for the glory of God. Two, Nathu Mall and David Sunder, were admitted on trial. David soon showed his unfitness and has left; Nathu Mall gives promise of being a useful man. The other students have worked well. The examination marks show that none did badly, whilst some took high marks. All the examinations were taken by missionaries not connected with the Institution, and their judgments of the men expressed to me in letters fully bear out the opinion I stated in last year's Report that the present students 'are the most promising and certainly the best educated band of young men we have ever had.' The following resolution of the Consulting Committee will be of interest :—

"Having interviewed these seven young men who have been on probation and are now proposed as students of the Institution, we desire to express our gratitude to God for such a promising class of men, and our heartfelt prayer is that they may develop into earnest and faithful preachers of the Word, and become an increasing source of comfort to all connected with the Institution, and that they may be largely used of God for the extension of His Kingdom among their own countrymen.'

"CLASS WORK.

"During the year the following books have been studied :—The Pentateuch, Robinson's Harmony of the Gospels, Hindi Grammar, Barth's Church History, Religious and General History. This is not as much as we ordinarily get through in a session, but with the famine work over we may reasonably hope to do a good deal more next session.

"BAZAAR PREACHING.

"This has been steadily maintained by Mr. Matthew Pande and the students (led by Mr. Hasler as long as he was here), though I was seldom able to be present. In the streets of this great city, in spite of much and bitter opposition, the Word of Life has been declared. The students for the most part can speak well and with considerable power, whilst Mr. Pande is a bazaar preacher of a high order. It is 'the Gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God' that he preaches with an intensity of personal conviction that cannot fail to impress the hearers.

"BOARDING SCHOOL.

"The number of boys at present in the school is thirty-five. The fifth class Upper Primary and Middle School boys attend St. Stephen's High School, and the lower class boys are taught here. Bible-classes for all the boys are taken by Mr. Pande and myself. During the past session, when I was on Famine work, Joel Lal helped me by taking my Bible-class with the big boys.

"MEDICAL AID.

"In this as in past years the students and boys have been splendidly looked after medically by my friend and colleague, Mr. Crudgington. In a climate like this the demands on the doctor are very great."

CHRISTIAN VERNACULAR ELEMENTARY DAY SCHOOLS.

"The Committee recognise it as a duty to see to it that an elementary vernacular Christian education is provided for all the children of native converts, especially in districts where there are no Government schools; such education to be upon distinctly Christian lines.

"If higher and more advanced education is desired, the parents should avail themselves of the Government institutions for this purpose."—Indian Missionary Manual.

At the close of last year there were in regular attendance at vernacular elementary Christian day schools taught by 263 native Christian teachers, being an increase of 322 scholars and 3 teachers on those of the previous year, the totals given in the 1897 Report having been incorrectly returned.

The Rev. R. H. Tregillus, reporting upon the schools in the Barisal District, writes :—

"A number of teachers will be required to take the Lower Primary Examination in December next to entitle them to a place in our third grade, while those desiring positions in grades first and second will be directed to take the Chatro Britti and Upper Primary Examinations next year. Teachers' classes have been held at various centres, and our teachers are certainly more efficient than they were a year ago. This, I think, is clearly seen in the improved condition of the schools.

"Reviewing the work of the whole year, we arrive at the following results :—

Average number of names on roll	...	...	...	...	1,656
Average number of Christian boys' names	...	...	...	...	514
" " " " girls' "	...	...	...	...	226
" " " non-Christian	...	...	...	...	916
Average of daily attendance	...	...	...	...	975
Number of schools	...	...	...	...	67

"Of our scholars, five Christians and one Hindu have passed the Upper Primary Examination; ten Christian boys, four Christian girls, and seventeen Hindu boys have passed the Lower Primary Examination.

BISHTOPORE BOARDING SCHOOL.

The Rev. Khristanga Biswas reports :—

"In the beginning of the year the number of pupils so increased that it was almost impossible for me to manage the school. I sent six boys to the Serampore Boarding School; of these two were admitted to the Normal Class and three to the Boarding School. Another boy of Kauradangi had to leave school on account of the poverty of his parents. There are now twenty-four boys regularly taught in the Boarding School, of whom twenty are supported by the Birmingham Young Men's Fund, and four are day scholars. Those boys are taught in different classes in various subjects, and are being regularly examined by me; but as almost all of these boys are new, I cannot expect immediate progress from them, but I am sure that in time to come they will give satisfaction. I am glad to mention in my report that during this year three boys of the Bishtopore Boarding School were baptized by me, and I have every hope that they will lead truly Christian lives and be true followers of our Saviour. Lastly, I thank God with my whole heart that He has chosen so many from this poor Boarding School to be labourers in his field for His glory, and I have every reason to believe that they are all true and honest servants of our Lord Jesus. And my daily prayer to my Father and my God is that He may prepare more boys to be true workers in His vineyard for the glory of His name.

"On February 8th last Miss Taylor visited the Boarding School at Bishtopore and examined the boys, and wrote : 'I examined the Bishtopore Boarding School, going thoroughly through the various subjects studied by the boys. They have made considerable progress since I last visited the school. As usual, their knowledge of the Scriptures is exceedingly good.'

CUTTACK HIGH SCHOOL.

The Rev. A. H. Young, M.A., head master of the Cuttack High School, reports :—

"This year we, on one occasion, had a higher number of pupils on the roll than ever we had before—205 in February. The dearthness of everything throughout the year has, in some measure, affected the attendance at the school. The number of scholars at the close of the year under review was 183. Again the Hon. M. S. Das came forward and offered two prizes of Rs. 15 each—one for Christians and one for non-Christians—for the best essay on 'The Teaching of Christ, specially with reference to Himself.' Seventeen Christian boys went in for the prize. The non-Christian boys said the subject was too hard for them, and it was, therefore, decided to give them another subject—'The Life and Work of Jesus.' Five wrote on this subject. The awards for both subjects have not yet been made, but will be so soon. We have again cordially to thank Mr. Das for his kindness and liberality; and it will be pleasing to him to know that his generosity has caused the life and teaching of Christ to be carefully studied by so many of the pupils this year and last year.

"Two of the scholars passed the Entrance Examination of the Calcutta University in the spring, and one of them is now studying in the F.A. Class of the Ravenshaw College here."

NORMAL SCHOOL, CUTTACK.

"Six students are now preparing for the Guru Examination. Two passed this examination last June, and are now engaged in teaching in two of our villages. Three of the former students, now engaged in teaching at three of our out-stations have applied for admission to the Mission College."

THE EUROPEAN HIGH SCHOOL, CUTTACK.

Mr. John Young writes :—

"The names of fifteen candidates were sent in for the last November Middle and Primary Scholarship Examinations—five for the former and ten for the latter. Two of the above number were unable to sit for the examination on account of illness; all the others passed. For the last nine years there have been no failures among the candidates presented from this school.

"A former pupil has, this year, passed the First Arts Examination of the Calcutta University, being placed high in the first division, and gaining a scholarship. She is now studying for the B.A. examination.

"The number of pupils is 67."

KHARRAR BOARDING SCHOOL.

"This school, which is situated in the Mission Compound at Kharrar, has grown during the past year. During the winter months the number of the boys increased over sixty, but had to be reduced in the interest of economy. At present there are about forty boys. They have progressed well with their studies on the whole. By the kindness of friends at a hill station we were able to give books to those of them who had shown themselves most industrious and proficient during the year, the prizes given largely consisting of Bibles or New Testaments."

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND SOCIETIES OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Very encouraging reports have been received relative to the progress of Sunday-school effort.

Dealing first with Bengal, the Rev. William Carey, of Dacca, writes :—

"The number of schools has increased to 171 as against 150 reported last year. This is a gain of 21.

"The number of teachers has risen from 245 to 265—a gain of 20.

"The number of scholars has grown to 3,221 from 2,543—an increase of 678."

Mr. Carey reports, referring to the "All India" Examination :—

"This examination was conducted in July, by the India S.S. Union, on the basis of the International Lessons and in ten different languages.

"The results, as far as they affect our Mission in Bengal, are as follows :—

"In English, only two of our scholars passed, a girl and a boy, both in the Third Division, and both from the Circular Road School.

"In Bengali, out of a total of 65 senior passes 27 belong to our Baptist schools. These are distributed as under :—

"Intally, 11 ; Barisal, 9 ; Serampore, 5 ; Pirojpur, 2.

"Similarly, out of a total of 17 junior passes 9 are ours, 8 coming from Intally alone, and one of them gaining a prize. In the vivâ voce there were but 15 passes, and of these our scholars carried off 9."

Mr. Carey closes his report thus :—

"Brethren have not reported baptisms among their scholars, except in a few isolated cases. I wish they would, and hope they will, during the coming year. This is the news one longs most to hear. We are working to save the children ; to bring them into the fold of the Good Shepherd ; to rescue them from the utter darkness, and set their feet in the sunshine of the love of God, where there is no condemnation because we are in Christ Jesus, and have the right to be called the sons and daughters of the Almighty.

"All day my fingers have been busy about columns of figures—and it is good to get them correct and to watch them grow—but the figures have changed into faces as I lift my head now from the toilsome task. And in every face is some token of human love and some sort of wistful appeal for Divine pity and help. It breaks my heart to say it, but I know that all these hundreds of children, glad though they seem, have guilty thoughts, and are not fit to stand before God, but need, as we need, to kneel in the awful shadow and take the atoning blood. Is there any secret so dreadful or any mystery so full of pain as this? Let us go more patiently among the little ones, because we must carry this strange burden, and pray more earnestly for the Heavenly temper that seeks occasion to disclose it only that it may be rightly dealt with and lifted off for ever at the foot of the Cross. Let us covet for the children the joy of the forgiven heart and the new life in Christ. Let us remember that we have done everything for them when we have brought them this, and that till this is done nothing is done."

NORTH-WEST PROVINCES.

The Rev. J. G. Potter, of Agra, reports as to Sunday-school work :—

"The statistics for the year are as follows :—

SOCIETIES OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOUR.

"For Christ and the Church."

The Rev. William Carey presents a deeply interesting report as to the progress of the Endeavour movement in Bengal, not only in Eastern Bengal, but embracing all our stations throughout the Province. He writes :—

"It is a pleasure to cast one's eye over the wider Bengal field and note the expansion of 'Christian Endeavour' during the year. At the date of the last report, there were but three societies connected with our Mission outside the Bakharganj Union; and as there were three non-Baptist societies inside, the totals balance. The 60 societies and 746 members of that Union, therefore, practically represented all our 'Christian Endeavour' force in Bengal. To-day the societies number 80 and the members 1,111. Then only four districts entertained C.E.; now it has a lodging-place in eight, and another, that of Chittagong, should be added.

"The advance exhibited above must be traced (1) to the new interest stirred by Dr. Clark's visit in January, and (2) to the Preachers' Convention held the following month at Serampore, when the subject was specially presented and discussed. Many a torch lit there has been burning brightly through the year and gained other torches. Some day we shall have a brave procession when they all come together; meanwhile the solitary fires that flame up in the forest cheer the eye and warm the heart.

"Sunny sentences shine upon the pages of many a toilsomely-penned Bengali letter received during the year. 'Half our members are women,' says the Jhinádáhá correspondent, and adds, with a just pride, a list of their achievements:—'They hold a separate meeting twice a week, and sew garments for the poor, and collect among themselves the money for the cloth, needle and thread, and they have made a little banner for Convention, and they want to hold meetings to honour Jesus among the Mohammedan neighbours.' The Jessore secretary writes: 'Our society is going on well; it is increasing and bearing fruit; we think that even the glow of heart with which we began has become a brighter glow, and we are getting a spiritual blessing at every meeting.' A wee child, with large round eyes and handwriting to match, sends her first 'junior' report from the Intally Boarding School. 'We like our society; there are thirty-five of us in it now. When you came to see us, you told us to choose a name, and we would like it to be "The Band of Loving Service," if you think that will do. We are helping to keep a poor woman now. We are going to make a flag for the "Jesus" cart you spoke of, and we have chosen this text, "What must I do to be saved?" We pray that all who read it may come to Him.'

"Similar testimonies have been given in English. 'The 48 members of this society,' writes a missionary from the south villages 'are all women. I started it in September, and they have carried it on ever since entirely by themselves. The meeting is held on Sunday, and the members regularly attend.' Referring to the work generally on that field, the same missionary says: 'We get fresh members at every meeting. L— now numbers 37 and D— nearly 40 I think. This is a good advance on the 16 who joined from the latter place at your meeting. Our rice collectors bring in a good basket every Sunday, and they enjoy the work.' From Serampore comes the following: 'Our C. E. societies are working happily. We have started a "Good Samaritan Committee" lately to regularly visit the hospital and make the care of the sick its chief business. Almost the first week of its existence the Committee found itself in possession of a little orphan boy of four years whose mother died in the hospital. He has not a soul belonging to him so far as we know, so C. E. has become his father and mother, and entrusted him to the care of our kind friend, Mr. Jewson, while we are trying to raise enough for his support.' The same society has since made itself responsible for two other hospital orphans, set afloat three C. E. Sunday-schools, and held a capital series of monthly missionary meetings with good collections. To crown all, 13 of its members have been baptized during the year.

"The Intally Church Society has been conspicuous for evangelical fervour; its Gospel Preaching Committee being daily engaged con amore in the work of bazaar-preaching. The members generally form a veritable Pastor's Aid Society. 'I can't think what I should do without them,' their pastor told me the other day.

"The Circular Road societies have gone on brightly and bravely, and their difficulties, I trust, are mostly now at an end.

"At Barisal the Women and Girls' societies have continued their support of a coolporteur to visit the daily steamer with tracts. By this means alone over 70,000 witnesses for Christ have been carefully distributed during the year. I once heard of a medical missionary, who was in the habit of saying that he 'corked every bottle with prayer' before putting it into the patient's hands. It might, with equal truth, be affirmed that each of those 70,000 tracts has gone forth, hallowed by the heart's uplifting that so truly blesses, while in secret it but kneels and waits. The girls when at home for the holidays keep up their weekly meeting, and those who marry, or go away for good, remain members, their names being put on the 'absent' list. As members they continue to send their response to the Consecration Roll-call. Twelve of the members have been baptized during the year. Both these societies have reported their meetings regularly month by month, and the record is most cheering. Others are beginning to do the same."

"A NEW DEPARTURE.

"But the most gladdening event of the year has been the manifestation of Divine approval upon little societies of Christian Endeavour formed in mission day schools among Hindu and Mohammedan girls. I have long had the conviction that many such, as well as a large number of boys in the countless public educational institutions of the country, secretly love the Saviour. To strengthen this love, bind them together, and train them for open discipleship, we need to be always watchful and always earnest. I can think of no work more important, more likely to be blessedly fruitful, in the whole range of our present and wonderful opportunities. And just here, it would seem, is a limitless field for the application of Christian Endeavour idea. The conditions of work among the boys, scattered as they are in separate schools officered by Hindu and Mohammedan teachers, and jealously guarded when at home, seem peculiarly difficult and unfavourable; but God will open the door some day, and then no man can shut it. Meanwhile the little ones in our mission day schools for girls are ready and eager to welcome this help.

"The school in the mission compound at Dacca was the first to be tried. There lies before me, as I write, a rough sheet of paper bearing the date July 28th, 1897. At the top is pencilled, in Bengali, a Junior Pledge which I explained to the girls at a meeting on the date named. After this, solemn prayer was made, and fifteen out of the forty-five present timidly but trustfully signed their names under the pledge. They had lately learnt a translation of the hymn, 'We are little friends of Jesus,' and elected to choose that title as the name for their Christian Endeavour Society. There are twenty-five of them now. They hold meetings regularly, and conduct them themselves. Mrs. Ellis, who is in charge of the school, cannot speak too thankfully of their spirit and work. Similar societies were formed in the other two Dacca schools within a few days, and both are delightfully earnest. The Faridábád leader, who went on a visit to her father-in-law's house last week, insisted on returning in two days so as to take her place in the meeting. She is a Hindu child-wife. At the Chak Bazaar Society, the leader at the last meeting was a Mohammedan lassie, and she chose for her subject the 'woman whom Satan had bound eighteen years.' All three have bought cloth with their own money, and made flags with worked texts upon them for a Gospel cart to go up and down the lanes and byeways of the city with tracts and books. The Chak Society sent a delegation to the church in September, with their flag and a number of Gospels for sale, in each of which they had written on the flyleaf, 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved. Hosanna!'

"The movement spread to Calcutta and Barisal, and there are now seven of such societies among Hindu and Mohammedan girls; all working well and consciously receiving God's blessing.

"The following is the pledge:—'I love Jesus, and I will try every day to walk, by His help, according to His will.'

"It would be a culpable omission not to mention in this review of 1897 the formation of a 'United Society for India, Burma, and Ceylon,' and the birth of the Indian Endeavourer, a monthly paper of twelve pages, floated by the North-Western Provinces and Oudh Provincial Union. For both, let prayer be made with thanksgiving."

ORPHANAGES.

GIRLS' ORPHANAGE, OUTTACK, ORISSA.

Miss Leigh writes:—

"In December, 1896, it was my privilege to welcome Miss Thompson, B.Sc., as my colleague in the work of the Female Orphanage, and in February, when Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan left on furlough, we removed into the house they had occupied, and took over the superintendence of the Female Orphanage. Although the work was not new to me, the changes which were necessary involved much anxiety and labour. A serious epidemic of fever prevailed in the school for some months, and interfered with the school work; but all recovered with one exception—Shanti, one of the famine orphans, who came with some others from Piplee in 1887. Shanti was deaf and dumb, but she had grasped the fact that she was a sinner, and that Jesus was a Saviour, able to save her, and she was received into the Church. Her attention at all religious services was very marked. Her death was very sudden, but quite painless; she was slightly ill from what appeared to be indigestion; after taking the medicine prescribed she slept peacefully until the morning, and while the matron was sitting by her side her spirit passed away, and we believe she is with the redeemed.

"Miss Thompson has spent several hours daily in the school, in addition to studying for her first examination in the Oriya language. Twelve of the girls presented themselves as candidates in the annual Government examinations. In the Middle Vernacular one passed in the first division, and headed the list of the girl candidates in Orissa; three in the Upper Primary, two of whom passed; six in the Lower Primary, all passed, and one—Maggie Santra—gained a scholarship. During the year four have been married, one has absconded, two were dismissed, and one died, while seven have been received into the Orphanage. These seven are all orphans. Three have been baptized during the year. The conduct of the pupils has been on the whole satisfactory, and among the elder girls very good.

"The C.E. meeting has lost none of its interest, though the rainy season and sickness often prevented our meeting. In Miss Thompson the children have a warm friend devoted to their welfare.

"We record with gratitude the love and mercy of our Heavenly Father throughout the past year; and we thank the many friends who have so generously helped us by sending useful garments and other gifts for the children."

THE BOYS' ORPHANAGE, CUTTACK.

The Rev. T. Bailey, reporting upon the Boys' Orphanage at Cuttack during the past year, writes:—

"There are no great changes to report in connection with the Boys' Orphanage his year. The extremely high prices of all food supplies have materially increased the expenditure, but the famine has not been acute in this part of the country, and practically we have received no famine orphans. Three boys have been dismissed, all to their friends, and three have been received. One of these had been deserted by his widowed mother; in another case both father and mother had died; and the remaining one is a son of the Hindu Poojari (or priest) who was attached to an idol temple near to our Christian village of Katak Chandi. Both father and mother had died, and the child took refuge in the house of one of our Christian people there, who brought him to us. He is a bright boy of ten or eleven years of age, and quickly settled down to the routine of the Orphanage.

"There was a good deal of sickness in the early part of the year, and we are again indebted to the good offices of the staff at the General Hospital for their kindness in receiving and attending to the cases sent to them.

"During the last few months daily morning worship has been conducted by Mr. Harvey, much to the satisfaction and advantage of the boys. The Young People's Association connected with the Orphanage, and mainly under the management of 'old boys,' continues to hold its meetings regularly, and is a most useful auxiliary. The report presented at its anniversary meeting held in August was a very satisfactory document. Two of the former inmates have applied to be received into the Mission College to study for the ministry.

"There are at present twenty-three boys on the premises, and nine are receiving help while residing with their friends."

WORK AMONGST ENGLISH-SPEAKING NATIVE STUDENTS.

The Rev. William Carey, of Dacca, reports :—

"An average of two Bible-classes every afternoon has been held regularly (holidays excepted) throughout the year. Quite a number of students have preferred to read with me alone. The one difficulty is to find time for the many that come. An admission fee of one anna is charged, and 220 students have paid it. Copies of the Revised New Testament are lent them, to be given up when they leave the class. This is most hopeful, soul-stirring, exhausting work when faithfully done. Seven students have asked me for baptism—some of them very earnestly, and all, I think, sincerely; but in every case there was something that led me to postpone consent. I wonder at times whether it was right to refuse. Verily a man must walk most closely with God if he would know His mind on the instant in this difficult work. Let special prayer be made for perplexed toilers and seeking souls among the students of Bengal."

The Rev. A. E. Collier reports, from the City of Patna :—

"The work amongst the students has gone on steadily. There are large Government and private schools and colleges which attract young men from every part of the province by the higher education in science and art, literature, medicine, and law. The curriculum usually extends over from three to six years, at the end of which the men, accepting various appointments, frequently under Government, are again scattered through the land.

"We have formed a 'Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association.' There is a reading room in the old Mission-house for the use of students, furnished with suitable English books, papers, and magazines. We hope to start a lending library very soon ; at present Mr. Dann and I frequently lend our own books to readers. Devotional and other religious books such as Stanford's 'The Evening of our Lord's Ministry,' Culross's 'Home at Bethany,' 'Maclaren's Sermons,' 'Central Truths of Christianity,' 'Farrar's Life of Christ,' 'Pilgrim's Progress,' and 'Keswick Convention Reports' are much in requisition, especially by the adherents of the 'Brahmo Samaj.' Lectures are delivered at frequent intervals in the chapel on scientific, literary, and theological subjects, but whatever the topic may be it is invariably intended to convey wholesome moral and religious instruction. Several young men have visited us at regular hours to study the Bible and learn about the teachings of Christianity. The Sunday evening English services, held after the Vernacular, is regularly attended by a goodly number of Indian students and gentlemen, who very reverentially join with the few Europeans who attend in Divine worship.

"We have frequently been encouraged and sometimes surprised to find ripening fruit in most unexpected places. Amongst the educated classes we often meet men possessing an extensive knowledge of the Gospel, not unfrequently combined with a keen discernment of and devotion to the truth. Several times we have been cheered by utterances or letters which reveal faith and love to the Lord Jesus where we had little expected its existence. Only a few days ago a Mohammedan student wrote, 'I am fully convinced that Christ's is the only religion in which sinners can be saved. . . . I am not one of those who simply admire Christ's doctrine . . . but I follow it with the fulness of my heart.' Such cases are not uncommon, and testify that there exists a large number, unknown and unenrolled in missionary statistics, who are numbered by the Lord amongst His own sheep. Although they may not now be of this fold, they shall hear the voice of Jesus, He will bring them in, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd."

MISSION MEDICAL WORK.

During the past year, as in previous years, medical and surgical skill has been found to be of great value as auxiliaries to evangelistic work.

The Rev. Gogon Chunder Dutt, of Khoolna, mentions

"that a large number of Pathan Mohammedan women, who are shut up in their zenanas, came to me in their boats from long distances to be healed, and all of them, except one, were healed by our medicines. Our reputation as medical workers is increasing, and many hundreds have been benefited by medical work, and heard for the first time the Gospel with devoted attention."

The Rev. H. E. Crudgington, of Delhi, writes :—

"Medical work has not suffered by the famine, as can readily be imagined. There have been a thousand more cases this year, though the year on the whole has been a healthy one. But the worst season is yet to come, in November and following months, when, from the previous starving, and insufficient clothing, illness will increase and mortality also, I fear, as the people soon get pneumonia and other allied chest diseases. As I write there are 90 to 100 cases daily for treatment for fever, &c. S. David has worked well, and, like some others of us, got knocked up and had to go away. The Dispensary had to be closed some few odd days, but the total number of cases for the year is 13,703 besides 428 visited at their own houses. Added to this I have treated about 300 cases at my own house in the Civil Lines, as many come there who can ill spare the time, or from their illness, to get down to Daryagunge."

From Palwal the Rev. F. W. Hale writes :—

"The medical branch of our work has been attended with most satisfactory results. We have two dispensaries, the one worked by myself in Palwal; the other at Hodal being superintended by Babu E. C. Joshua. I opened my dispensary in Palwal in the month of June. The number of patients is increasing rapidly, and I have found it the surest possible way of winning the affections of the people.

"A young fellow I treated for two months or more for his disease has now, having completely recovered, applied to us for baptism. In a village close by the reduction of a dislocated shoulder has changed the attitude of the people towards us from utter indifference to thorough friendliness. I am assured that the value of Medical Mission work in the country districts cannot be over-estimated.

TRANSLATION AND LITERARY WORK.

THE CALCUTTA AND CUTTACK MISSION PRESSES.

THE CALCUTTA PRINTING PRESS.

The Rev. G. H. Rouse, M.A., D.D., sends the following report of translation and literary work during the past year :—

"The chief thing to report is that the revision of the Bengali Bible has been completed. A memorandum has also been issued, stating the general principles on which the revision has been made. I hope, early next year, to begin a final revision with a view to stereotyping the text. I do not think we shall need to make any material changes; but as we went on in our work we gained experience and boldness; and I think a certain amount of revision will be desirable in the earlier books, especially in the way of simplifying the narrative by making it more closely follow the graphic simplicity of the original. The Epistles also need a more thorough consideration than we were able to give in the somewhat limited space of time which we could devote to them in the revision just concluded. By stereotyping the whole we shall fix the translation for the next twenty or thirty years, and at the same time shall save the editor the great expenditure of time and labour which I know by experience is involved in the mere seeing of a reprint through the press. I hope also to prepare the somewhat enlarged notes and references which our Conference two or three years ago decided ought to be made. I have prepared the Old Testament Commentary to the end of Exodus, and it has been printed off. Of the Scripture selections which our last Conference recommended to be prepared, I have only been able to prepare the M. B. Glad Tidings, and this has not been quite finished. One additional M. B. tract was prepared, on 'The Teaching of Jesus Christ.'"

OUTTACK.

The Rev. Thomas Bailey reports as to the revision of the Oriya Scriptures :—

“We have no exciting incidents to record in connection with our work in Old Testament revision. Special hindrances occurred in the early part of the year and our sittings were somewhat interrupted, but for the most part work has proceeded regularly and harmoniously. Revision began with the Book of Psalms, and as the Book of Proverbs had already been revised—once under Mr. Miller's supervision, and once under Messrs. Pike and Vaughan—we are now proceeding with Ecclesiastes. Copy has been prepared to the end of chapter ii., and printing has proceeded to Ps. ciii. 5.

“The most laborious part of the work has continued to devolve upon my experienced and very competent colleague the Rev. Shem Sahu, who, we trust, will be long spared to continue his most important labours. We warmly congratulate him on his re-marriage, which took place in the month of May, and heartily wish him many years of increasing happiness and usefulness. We also express our sense of the great value of the services rendered by Pundit Sada Sebo Praharañ, whose exact acquaintance with the Sanscrit, as well as with the vernacular and cognate languages, gives him special qualifications for his part of the work. Our brother, Mr. Pike, has contributed helpful criticisms on each proof as it passed through the press, and Mr. Young has shown continued interest in the work. We have again derived important help from the advance proofs kindly forwarded by Dr. Rouse, of his new version of the Bengali Bible, and have to acknowledge our obligations to Professor Wotton Davies, B.A., Ph.D., of the Midland Baptist College, Nottingham, for a further supply of most valuable and helpful literature.

"To those unacquainted with the nature of the work progress may appear to be slow, but the labour involved is very great, and we are well assured that the results will amply justify all our care.

"Our work this year has led us through the Psalms, and we have been more than ever impressed by their wealth of instruction and great spiritual power. Work upon them has been a rare spiritual privilege, and while fully alive to the extreme difficulty of providing a clear and faithful translation, we have done what we could to make our renderings as near an approach as possible to the 'mind of the Spirit.' May God, in His great goodness, use what we have done to the advancement of His Kingdom amongst men, and to the glory of His name.

"The Calcutta Auxiliary Bible Society has made us the usual annual grant of Rs. 560, and also provides the cost of paper and printing."

ANGLO-INDIAN BAPTIST CHURCHES.CIRCULAR ROAD CHURCH, CALCUTTA.*PASTORATE VACANT.

The Rev. J. W. Thomas, the senior deacon, writes :—

"When 1896 drew to its close the outlook for the Circular Road Church seemed bright and promising; the pastor had shortly before brought his bride, and introduced her to the church, and all had entered on the work of the new season with high hopes and a cheering prospect of success. The dawn which ushered in the New Year bright with hope was, however, soon clouded over, and the record for 1897 is for the most part one of trial, disappointment, and hope deferred. The year was yet young when Mrs. Julian was taken ill, and it soon became evident that her illness was of a very serious nature; the result was that Mr. Julian felt compelled to resign his connection with the church, and return finally to England. He set sail on the last day of April, since which date the church has been without a pastor.

"The year 1897 will be ever memorable owing to the occurrence of the earthquake of June 12th, which wrecked so many stations in the Assam Hills and caused considerable damage in Calcutta. The Circular Road Chapel suffered severely; besides such trifling matters as stripping the walls of plaster, the cracking of arches, and the breaking off of cornices, a solid mass of masonry which surmounted the eastern frontage in the form of a triangular pediment, was thrown down, crushing through the roof of the verandah, dragging down in its fall a portion of the east wall and so injuring the remainder as to necessitate the whole being dismantled and rebuilt.

"This disaster, occurring as it did after the general repairs of the preceding year and while a balance was still owing to the contractor, at a time, too, when the church was greatly crippled by its efforts to raise a special fund to meet the heavy expenses entailed on Mr. Julian by the long-continued illness of his wife and his passage to England, came as a very heavy burden upon the already strained resources of the church.

"We have, however, reason to thank God for His help in trouble, and for the way in which the money needed for the repairs has been provided; we are also grateful to the many friends in England and in India through whose liberality all anxiety as to funds has been removed. The year closes with brighter prospects and the church looks forward to the future without misgiving."

LAL BAZAAR CHURCH, CALCUTTA.Pastor.—REV. G. H. HOOK.AGRA, N.W.P.*HAVELOCK CHAPEL.*PASTORATE VACANT.

"In February last Mr. Cullen, the pastor, who was much beloved here, especially by the soldiers, for whose welfare he laboured hard, returned to England. He had suffered much in health since he had come to India, so that a change was imperative.

"The work at Havelock Chapel since he left has been carried on by the missionaries. The C. E. meetings have been regularly held and also the Gospel Temperance meetings. We hope in due time to secure another pastor, meanwhile we are seeking to get our funds into a satisfactory condition.

"There have been three baptized during the year."

The year just closed will be memorable in the history of our Ceylon Mission for the retirement of the Rev. F. D. and Mrs. Waldock, who, after thirty-four years of faithful work, have been compelled to withdraw from the field, in consequence of the inability of Mrs. Waldock to continue residence in the tropics.

The following extracts from addresses presented to Mr. Waldock, on the eve of his leaving the island, will indicate the warmth of gratitude and affection felt for him and Mrs. Waldock by the Singhalese evangelists and churches.

(i.) From the address of native Christians:—

"Having heard that, after being engaged unweariedly in the Lord's work in connection with the Baptist Missionary Society during a period of thirty-four years, you are retiring from that work and are about to leave us and return to your native land, we desire on this occasion to express our sincere regret.

"We offer you our heartfelt thanks for the benefits we and our fellow-countrymen have received from your various good works.

"With our whole heart we thank God that He has enabled you to leave the comforts and conveniences of your native country to come here as a missionary, to acquire a good knowledge of the Singhalese language, and to continue until now in the active discharge of your duties.

"We gladly place on record the fact that by your practical knowledge of architecture you have conferred a great benefit on the churches and the general community in the renovation and erection of places of worship and in the building of handsome halls, and [of] mission-houses. We believe that by the buildings thus erected in Hanuelle, Gampola, Gonawala, Madampe, Grand Pass, Cinnamon Gardens, Kandy, Matale, Kaduganawa, Ratnapura, Beligodapitiya, Kohkawatta, and other places, you will be remembered with gratitude in future generations also.

"We would mention with pleasure that by training many students you have, as theological instructor, accomplished a great work. Most of our present ministers (including the pastors of some of the independent churches) received their training under you.

"As a commentator, we know that the annotations on Matthew, Mark, and the Acts, published in Singhalese by the Religious Tract Society, were prepared by you. Further, we would bear in mind that you have taken part in the preparation of Christian literature generally by acting as a member of that Society, by publishing important papers, such as 'Church Management,' and by taking a large share of work in aiding the revision of our New Testament.

"By holding the office of Chairman of our Conference for several years successively; by helping to organise and carry on the work of the independent churches (in some instances acting as pastor yourself), and by accepting the office of President of the Baptist Union, you have efficiently discharged the duties of your position in such a way as to call for our best thanks.

"We are grateful for special kindnesses which you have often shown to our ministers, school teachers, and Church members, having been in both joy and sorrow like a sympathising father, affectionate brother, and intimate friend.

"We also thankfully acknowledge the good work done for the benefit of our girls throughout a number of years by Mrs. Waldoek, as Superintendent of the Colombo Girls' Boarding School.

"And now we beg you kindly to accept this address and the accompanying present, which we give towards some memento from us as a token of our appreciation of the good work done by you in various ways."

(ii.) From evangelists and pastors specially trained for their work by Mr. Waldoek :—

"We, who have received under you our training for Christian work, desire on the eve of your final departure from the island to take this opportunity of expressing to you our deep gratitude for, and high appreciation of, your valuable work as our tutor.

"We gratefully remember that when you were engaged in imparting to us lessons on Divine truth, you put us in the way of thinking for ourselves and of forming our judgments by looking at the various aspects of a question, and showed us particularly the value and necessity of the exposition of Scripture. You also constantly directed our attention to the accurate and forceful reading of the Scriptures in public; and in sermonising you instructed us to use simple language, and to be systematic in the presentation of truth.

"You always emphasised the absolute necessity of our adhering as preachers to the evangelical doctrines of the Gospel.

"Those of us who have had to do with churches have a vivid recollection of various practical lessons given by you on church management and discipline, and a grateful remembrance of personal guidance in the arrangement and transaction of business which you have given when visiting our stations from time to time. The experience thus gained, we beg to assure you, has been of immense benefit to us.

"In bidding you farewell, we pray God that your well-earned rest and retirement from active service after thirty-four years of incessant toil in the Ceylon mission-field, may be a time of much blessing and happiness both to yourself and Mrs. Waldock."

The Rev. W. D. and Mrs. Hankinson took over the duties of the superintendence of the Colombo District in July of last year, and shortly after the Rev. F. D. Waldock left for England—Mrs. Waldock, in consequence of the failing state of her health, having been compelled to leave some months before.

In December last the Rev. J. and Mrs. McCallum returned to England, and their connection with the Society terminated.

COLOMBO DISTRICT.

The Colombo District, which extends from north to south about 90 miles, and inland about 28 miles, includes 14 churches financially independent of English funds, 11 evangelistic districts in which native evangelists supported by the Society are located, 37 vernacular schools with 2,068 children, and one Anglo-vernacular girls' boarding school with 42 scholars.

Reviewing the work of the past year, the Rev. F. D. Waldock writes:—

"Looking over my diary I find that much time was occupied in trying to prepare for my departure and leave everything in working order, and to complete various matters in progress. I had also to act as secretary to the Conference in the absence of Mr. Hankinson.

"I had fondly hoped to see the new chapel at Kohkawatta built and opened. But I was only able to see the foundation laid. Every arrangement has been made for the work being carried on to completion. The people themselves have undertaken to make up the fund already in hand to R.1,000. I have made myself responsible for the balance, towards which some friends in Ceylon have promised to contribute liberally, and I hope to get help from personal friends on this side.

"The revision of the New Testament proceeded to the end. The principal share of the work done in Ceylon fell to me and our school inspector and literary adviser, Mr. S. de Saram. The work was as pleasant as arduous. Mr. S. de Saram was one of my students, and was for some time an evangelist. But, feeling that his gifts were scarcely suited for that position, he resigned, as I believe, most conscientiously, became at first a school teacher, and afterwards was placed in his present position.

In connection with the revision and the publication of tracts, &c., and examinations of missionary probationers in the vernacular, as well as school inspection, he has rendered most valuable service. With no one among our native brethren have I been brought in closer contact, or have learned to esteem more highly, or part with more regretfully.

"Mr. Hankinson has now taken over the district. I devoutly trust and pray that he may be helped to carry forward work begun in encouraging the native Christian churches in earnest effort for the salvation of those around them, as well as the work of our evangelists, who are labouring amidst many difficulties, but are beginning to see fruit, which gives encouragement and raises brighter hopes for the future."

DISTRICT EVANGELISTIC WORK.

Reporting first as to the eleven evangelistic centres, the Rev. W. D. Hankinson writes :—

"These centres are :—Colombo South, Airpawella, twenty-eight miles inland ; Chilaw, fifty miles northwards on the sea coast ; Diyangama, twenty-five miles to the south of Colombo ; Kanduboda, eighteen miles inland from Colombo ; Kandána, ten miles from Colombo ; Ranála, sixteen miles inland from Colombo ; Rayigam Korale, seventeen miles south and eight inland ; Veyangoda, twenty-five miles from Colombo ; Warágoda, near Colombo ; and Welipenna, thirty-three miles south of Colombo and eight inland.

"The inhabitants of these centres of districts are Buddhists, with, in two of them, a few Roman Catholics.

"The evangelists working in these districts have during the past year been engaged constantly in sowing the good seed of the Kingdom. In public resorts, in cottage meetings, by the roadside, by the highways and hedges, in public conveyances, in quiet personal intercourse, they have been bearing the lamp of life to their benighted and deluded fellow-countrymen, and in this work they have met with much to cheer and encourage."

SELF-SUPPORTING NATIVE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES.

Reporting on the growth of independent self-supporting native Christian churches in the Colombo District, Mr. Hankinson writes :—

"There are fourteen churches that are financially independent of English funds. These churches are :—Grand Pass, Colombo ; Mattack-kuliya, near to Colombo ; Byamvila, ten miles from Colombo inland ; Kotikáwatta, five miles inland ; Gonavala, eight miles from Colombo inland ; Hendala, seven miles from Colombo ; Batagama, Makevita, sixteen miles from Colombo ; Uggalboda, eighteen miles from Colombo ; Welgama, Hanwella, Korawella, twelve miles south of Colombo ; Cinnamon Gardens, South Colombo, and Mádampé, North-Western Province, forty miles north from Colombo."

The Baptist Union of Ceylon, in the judgment of Mr. Hankinson, is doing much to encourage the self-supporting churches. He reports that—

"In connection with the Union is a monthly class for Christian workers, the visitation of weak churches is arranged for, and arrangements are being made for the encouragement of schools financially independent of the Mission; a half yearly circular letter is to be sent to the scattered members of the churches who are dispersed to various parts of the island, and daily Bible readings have been arranged upon a simple method which appears to find acceptance with the people."

Mr. Hankinson adds :—

"I devoutly thank God that under the guidance of my predecessors these churches were thrown upon their own financial resources; and I am confident I shall be acting in fullest accordance with the desires of the Home Committee in giving to those churches all the personal help and sympathy I can, with a view to encourage their independent vigour and their voluntary missionary activity."

COLOMBO NATIVE CHRISTIAN GIRLS' BOARDING SCHOOL.

Mrs. Waldock, who for so many years superintended this most valuable institution, was compelled by broken health to leave Colombo for England in May of last year, when Miss Helen Moodie took over the full conduct of the school.

Mrs. Waldock writes :—

"I was able to see before I left Ceylon in May last that Miss Moodie was admirably suited for her position, and that her heart was thoroughly in her work; and since I have been in England all I hear confirms my first impressions. The school is quite full, and the Government Report in the English department excellent, and signs of the Divine blessing have not been wanting. Funds may soon be wanted for enlarging the premises, and considering that the school is a blessing both to our village churches and to the surrounding Buddhist community, I think there will be no difficulty in raising these.

"I get letters both from old girls and those now in the school, and there is but one expression of opinion as to their appreciation of Miss Moodie. Mrs. Hankinson, too, takes great interest in the school, and does all she possibly can to increase its prosperity. May God bless it in the future far more than in the past."

Miss Moodie, reporting upon the work of the past year, writes :—

"Although the year that has passed has been a difficult one, it has been one of encouragement and blessing. Owing to ill-health, Mrs. Waldock was obliged to stay most of the time up country until she left Ceylon in April; but I was helped greatly by our Singhalese teacher (Miss Maggie Perera), who has been for many years with Mrs. Waldock. We opened the year with twenty-one girls on the books. The number admitted has been twenty-six. Those who have left the school number five. Of these, three left on account of ill-health, one because she was not old enough to stay, and the other has gone to be a teacher in a mission school in the interior.

"In the lower standards, the numbers are good, and the Singhalese subjects are good too; but in the upper standards the numbers are small, and the Singhalese subjects not so good.

"In English subjects the girls have made good progress.

"The school has been quite full, and the girls have had good health during the year.

"The spiritual work, too, has been very encouraging, and in the class taken by Mr. Henry de Silva, fourteen girls have decided for Christ, and two have been baptized."

CINNAMON GARDENS ENGLISH BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Rev. T. J. Stockley, the pastor, sends the following report for the past year :—

"In my last year's report I stated that the year 1897 had opened with considerable promise of blessing. I am thankful to say that that promise has been considerably realised, and the year now closed has been the most encouraging one in our Church work that we have had in Colombo. Some fifteen persons have been added to the church by baptism during the year, and the services and meetings generally have revealed a deeper interest. The arrangement between the church and myself that I should be free to take occasional evangelistic tours in other districts has given me opportunities of greatly extended usefulness and has widened the church's interest in missionary work. Some of these tours have been attended with much blessing. With much feeling we have to record that some of our most valued and devoted helpers in Colombo have been passing through very deep waters of affliction; but we thank God that they have found in His presence an unfailing support.

"Our little mission at Alutgama, near Henuatjoda, has been maintained with vigour under the diligent hand of our brave and lonely toiler, Miss Bowman. Three persons out of heathenism have been baptized into Christ during the year, and we have the confident hope that others will soon follow. Our friends and supporters in England will be glad to know that the blessing of God is resting upon this work."

SABARAGAMUWA DISTRICT.

During the absence of Mr. Hankinson in England the Rev. F. D. Waldock had charge of this district, and the work was carried on by the evangelists resident in Sabaragamuwa.

At Ratnapura, Rakwana, and Balangoda evangelistic services, visitations, day and Sunday-school work, the distribution of tracts and portions of the Scriptures, and systematic itinerations have been engaged in, but the whole district is an exceptionally hard and difficult one, the people for the most part being bigoted Buddhists, many of whom live upon Buddhist Temple land, and so are obliged to render annual services to the temples.

From the commencement of the new year this district will be in the charge of the Rev. H. A. Lapham, of Matale.

THE KANDY DISTRICT.

The Rev. H. A. Lapham, reporting upon the work in the Kandy District for the past year, writes :—

"It should be clearly understood that each of our four evangelists labours not in a town or village only, but throughout an entire district. Each of our four brethren may be said effectively to work a complete district of about ten miles or so all round him, while in addition making excursions into places beyond, often penetrating a good distance."

"During the seventeen years I have been at work here our area has more than doubled, and the amount of work done more than trebled; yet I have no increase in the number of evangelists. If it were not for a very large amount of unpaid voluntary help from the native Christian churches, it must be clear the work could not be done."

KANDY DISTRICT WORK.

At Kandy, Matale, Gampola, Kadagannawa, and Beligodafoitiya faithful work has been done. Mr. Lapham writes:—

"There has, I believe, been more steady, persistent, determined prayerful district work done during the past year than in any previous year, and that being so, we confidently leave results to be manifested in God's own good time."

SCHOOL WORK.

"In my last report I stated my conviction that our schools required two things, both difficult to provide—(1) better and more stimulating Christian instruction; (2) something to keep the scholars who leave school in touch with us and under our influence. To these two difficulties I addressed myself, as the special problems of the year. At last I came to feel that, if the religious instruction in our schools was to be improved, it must be through my becoming myself the instructor. Now for four months past each teacher in this district has received from me written notes on the prescribed daily Scripture lesson (I supply them fortnightly), telling them what to read, giving a short exposition suited to a child, with geographical and historical information, and questions and answers on each lesson to be memorised by the pupils. To most teachers I supply notes in Singhalese; for some of the higher grade schools I prepare more advanced notes in English. An examination of most of our schools just before Christmas shows an amazing improvement as the result. Teachers welcome the aid, and for the first time in my experience there is keen interest among the scholars in the Scripture lesson. The preparation of these lessons entails heavy work upon the missionary, but perhaps it is only by such work that we shall win success.

New Preaching Stations.—We are holding a regular Sunday afternoon service in our Maligatanne school, just on the outskirts of Matale. We have also opened a small preaching room at Dodandeniya, a village in the neighbourhood of Matale, noted for its illicit toddy trade.

Lantern Services.—I have given a great many lantern services during the year in different part of the district, in schools, chapels, and in the open air. We make these services, not shows merely. Ten or a dozen pictures representing Gospel scenes are shown at each meeting, and as each picture appears the story is read distinctly and slowly from the Scriptures. Very little is said except in reply to questions, which are always numerous, one of our objects being to familiarise the people with the words of Christ.

Our Students.—Mr. Gunasekere passed his second year's examination in July, and is now doing third year's work. Messrs. Markers and Peiris completed their course of studies in July, and have since been appointed to work, the one in the Kandyan, the other in the Low-country district. Our two brethren go forth better equipped than any other previous native agents of our Society, their studies having embraced homiletics, exegesis, Scripture history, Old and New Testament criticism, Church history up to the time of Constantine, Doctrine (including Baptism), Greek Grammar, and Greek Testament; they have had a great deal of practical experience in work, and much care has been given to the discipline of personal character. More painstaking, eager, conscientious students tutor never had, I am sure. May God now preserve them from the white-tied, black-coated self-complacency which is such a peril to our native ministers! I have arranged to give them frequent papers in continuance of our Greek Testament studies, and hope by this means to help to secure them against the danger of mental stagnation.

"Our Independent Churches.—Our District Church Development Association (answering to a sort of county association at home) has held its quarterly meetings regularly. The services in the places of worship have been well sustained during the year. On the Association Preaching Plan there are the names of nineteen preachers, besides those who are Mission Society preachers. Some of our young men are preaching somewhere or other nearly every Sunday, besides doing a great deal of work on week days. There are no paid pastors in our churches, the pastors do their work voluntarily, and in some churches where there is no preaching pastor a presiding elder is the leader."

No one will deny that since the war between China and Japan there has resulted a most remarkable revolution in the attitude of the foremost leaders amongst the Chinese towards outside peoples and nations. They clearly feel that if China is to go forward she must adapt herself to foreign ideas and appliances, and shake off the lethargy of centuries. In the words of Dr. W. A. P. Martin, the president of the Imperial Tungwen College, in Peking:—

"An intellectual awakening—partly the effect of missions, partly the result of successive defeats—is beginning to show itself; and no more is it possible to extinguish that dawning light than it would be to turn back the chariot of the rising sun. This is God's opportunity, and the Churches are called on to recognise it. Not only is it true that to the poor the Gospel is preached: the time is at hand when the learned and influential will come to our missionaries in quest of science and carry away the Gospel.

"To influence this class of inquirers, is it not obvious that the missionary must in the first place be able to satisfy their thirst for secular knowledge? Is it not equally obvious that a native ministry must be raised up who by their training will command the respect of the haughty literati?

"It is by the teaching of natives—both men and women—who shall be able to teach others, that our missionaries can multiply themselves a hundredfold. Let the Churches send their best men to take the oversight of this work; let them support them and their schools by prayers and offerings, and long before the twentieth century has elapsed the conversion of China may be confidently expected.

“‘China for Christ, even if it take a thousand years,’ ought to be the war-cry of this spiritual crusade; yet it is likely, through the power of God working with the people, that in less than one-tenth of that time China will be reckoned among the trophies of the Cross.”

If it is asked by what means this great and significant change has been brought about, the answer is plain. In the good providence of God the late war with Japan was made a potent agency in opening the eyes of the ruling classes to the weakness and need of their country. Much of the prejudice and opposition of former years has been disarmed by the influence of Christian literature, the beneficent and self-denying work of missionary doctors, the teaching in Christian colleges and schools, missionary interviews with mandarins, and, not least, the pure and devoted lives of missionaries and their families.

The Christian Church has a great and effectual door opened of God in the China of to-day. True, there are yet many adversaries in the land. It is perhaps not improbable that there will yet be many days of trial and persecution, both for foreign workers and native Christians, in some parts of this wide field. But, notwithstanding, the times may be said to be ripe for a more determined and more aggressive effort on the part of the Church. A truly magnificent opportunity is now afforded to well-equipped medical missionaries, teachers, and preachers. Will not the Church hear the voice of God in the present condition of affairs, and send forth and sustain such labourers as are needed for the ingathering of the Lord's harvest in China? The country has long been known as the Celestial Empire. To Christian eyes it is manifestly ruled, not by its rightful king, but by the prince of darkness. Now is the time when an unparalleled opportunity is afforded the Church to bring the Kingdom of God near to the people through the manifestation of the truth.

SHANTUNG PROVINCE.

During the past year Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bruce and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smyth have returned to Shantung after a season of furlough in England, and the staff in this province has been further strengthened by the arrival of Mr. C. S. Medhurst and Mr. Ernest Greening.

The work of the Society in the Province of Shantung has for its centre the important city of

CHING CHOU FU.

Reporting upon the work of the past year, the Rev. A. G. Jones writes :—

"When I last had the pleasure of reporting I had not been living very long at Ching Chou Fu, in fact had only just settled down to actual work here.

"During the winter of 1896-7 I succeeded in getting my machinery finished, and thread actually spun on Western lines. The completion—i.e., the final adjustments, took, however, much longer than I anticipated. The men were employed for three weeks on one machine, and for longer on another, in 'tuning' it to the final degree of nicety required. One by one, however, the processes were all brought to a satisfactory issue, and the first yarn spun to our great satisfaction. It must have been since my last report that even the first process was got through, and this was one of the few occasions when I have seen the stolid Chinaman lose himself with excitement at the novelty and unexpectedness of the result which he had worked for through years, in faith that it would some day be.

"An ordinary sample of the yarn was sent to England and pronounced satisfactory.

"I began my theological teaching at the Training Institution here about a year ago. During the session I took my class through Butler's Analogy; a series of lectures constituting a general introduction to the study of theology, and another series on the Inspiration of the Scriptures. The progress made, as shown by the examinations and questioning, was about as good as I could reasonably expect, considering the novelty of the subject-matter and the rawness of my material.

"I am now, and have practically been for the past twelve months, free from matters mechanical and industrial, so that I have devoted all my power to the difficulties of my teaching work. These are of several kinds. As I said just now, the unfamiliarity of the students with the matter exists here as at home, only in a much more marked degree. The loose ideas of the Chinese on all questions affecting the basis of a theistic religion are a great drawback—for instance, their notions on cause and effect, spirit and matter, personality, &c., matters that cannot be glossed over or passed by if you go in for being thorough.

"Then, again, the Chinese idea that the key of knowledge could only be used by the learned has resulted in a great gulf between the ordinary parlance of the people and the scientific expression, or even accurate expression, of things—a gulf far greater than in Western countries, the accurate expression being almost altogether confined to the much rarer and condensed classical forms of the language. For instance, it is quite ordinary English to speak about 'What would have happened if something else had not happened,' but in Chinese that requires a handling so different from the ordinary as to amount to using another language. So it is not a question of quantity of work, but of downright inherent difficulty in the teaching.

"Experience soon pointed to the necessity or expediency of translating largely beforehand, so as practically to dictate precisely all important points to the men, leaving them less choice as to what they would select to be noted down; especially so as exact expression in Chinese does not lend itself very well to oral teaching. This forms another burdensome feature in the matter, only to be got over either by labour or by going on using barbarisms that belittle your subject.

"Such labour, however, conquers more than the difficulty of the present; it crystallises itself into a form that will save labour, ease study, and ease teaching in the future. That course, while severe in the present, and slow, is above all question the course that yields the best final result.

"Every form of work has its own peculiar drawback, and the position of anyone engaged in such labour seems like that of those workmen you see working deep down coffer-dams at foundations, which those who pass over, or live upon, are hardly conscious of, but the absence or unsoundness of which is often so ruinously felt."

During the absence on furlough of the Rev. J. Percy Bruce, B.A., the Rev. R. C. Forsyth has superintended the Ching Chou Fu concerning which he writes :—

"The Church during the past year has rather more than held its own, as the statistics will show, although the death-rate has been high. There is still a sad lack, however, of earnest aggressive effort on the part of the bulk of the Church members.

"Petty persecution, and even violent assault, has been as common as ever. This has had to be met occasionally with action in the Yamens, or law courts, a course which, however, we always try to avoid.

"Rumours of kidnapping children, industriously spread by designing people against foreigners, caused considerable excitement amongst the heathen, especially in the Chou-P'ing district, and even here caused considerable hindrance to our work."

The following are the statistics for the Ching Chou Fu District only :—

"Besides the ordinary subscriptions and collections for support of pastors and elders and other Church purposes, a special collection was made in aid of the Indian Famine Fund. The natives in this district contributed to the value of £17 10s. 11d., or a total, including the Chou-P'ing district, of £31 19s. 7d., a sum which, considering the poverty of the people and the fact that it was done for other than their own countrymen, we consider very creditable.

"Chapel building has been attempted. One of our general deacons, named Wang-yi-tang has built on his own premises a little chapel, to hold about sixty people, entirely at his own expense, and in a most humble and quiet way. This chapel is to replace one built for worship many years ago, which is now needed for other purposes. Another chapel and dwelling-house has been bought and fitted up by the natives in the important city of Lin-chih, and the pastor of the district installed free of rent, in closer contact with the churches he has charge of and in a good centre for evangelistic work.

"My wife has continued to conduct classes for women in several of the districts in the neighbourhood. This work included classes for Christian women every morning and visiting surrounding villages and speaking to heathen almost every afternoon, and an evangelistic service in the evening. Thirty-five villages were visited in this way, involving absence from home of sixty days and many hard journeys. This work was done by my wife, assisted by natives only for the most part, and without any help from me, the places we visited together being in addition to the above.

"This year we have printed 16,694 books and 31,868 tracts, and have issued 17,241 books and 34,660 tracts."

EVANGELISTIC WORK.

The Rev. C. Spurgeon Medhurst writes:—

"When I arrived at Ching Chou Fu last spring it seemed, as far as outward appearances went, that I had come back to the old China which I had left nearly five years before, but I soon discovered that in reality a new spirit had been born in the people. Partly owing to the shock occasioned by the Japanese war, but more especially in Ching Chou Fu, owing to the quiet leaven of the hospital, the training institutions, and the museum, everybody now recognises Christianity as a good thing, and everywhere the teachers from the West are welcomed as preachers of righteousness, whose words are worthy of respectful attention, even when the hearers, being themselves perfectly satisfied with their own virtues, and having no consciousness of personal demerit, have not the slightest intention of accepting the new religion that they bring. This marvellous change from the old spirit of semi-antagonism with which I was so familiar six or seven years ago is pregnant with almost infinite possibilities. Now, if ever, aggressive evangelistic work should be pushed with the utmost vigour lest present interest gradually crystallise into future indifference; yet, alas! through lack of sufficient help, we cannot follow up, as we should, these opportunities which Providence has placed in our hands.

"'Take charge of the evangelistic work in the north and south cities of Ching Chou Fu, and in the counties [of I Tu, Lin K'ü, Lin Chih, and Shou Kuang.]' This was the burden my colleagues unanimously asked me to assume upon my arrival from America—rather a large order for one man, and more than I have been able efficiently to attend to, but a task I enthusiastically accepted nevertheless, as the care of the church, and the heavy drafts the educational establishments necessarily make on all connected with them, have compelled the men here, during the time I have been away, to leave evangelistic effort almost entirely to the natives.

"Our converts, being for the most part illiterate, can do very little, unaided, towards influencing either the teachers in the native schools or the members of the various religious sects scattered throughout this district. Our oldest church members have, moreover, said about all that they can to their neighbours and friends, and, without moral support from without, these stations cannot be expected to grow very rapidly. There are thus two distinct lines along which evangelistic work must be carried on: (1) Within the church area, by the foreigner and the native pastors visiting the stations, and, with the help of the Christians, making special efforts to reach the many unevangelised heathen around. (2) With the assistance of evangelists, doing all we can to extend the influence of the Church beyond its present circumscribed confines. As far as strength and time have permitted, this is what I have been trying to accomplish during the last nine months; and although I have been almost all the time itinerating, I have met with nothing but unvarying encouragement, no matter in what direction I have travelled. In some places the people have been more ready to receive the Word than in others, but only in one village out of the hundreds I have visited did we find it impracticable to preach. Nor can I pass from this subject without acknowledging my indebtedness to the native Christians. Whatever I have asked them to do they have most willingly done—sometimes travelling with me for days at a time, sometimes preaching on the markets or fairs until they were hoarse, without, of course, any hope of reward other than the approval of their Lord and Master, Jesus Christ.

“Preaching to the Chinese is a very different thing from proclaiming the Gospel to one’s own countrymen, and it has often troubled me that it is not possible to speak more directly of Christ to the heathen. When we talk of God and our duty towards Him, of prayer and repentance, we are, as it were, on common ground, and it is comparatively easy to show the people that they are sinners; but when we begin to speak of Jesus (a new and strange-sounding name) we introduce a foreign element into our instruction, and to that extent repel our hearers. When talking on this subject in Chefoo last autumn, with Robert E. Speer, one of the secretaries of the American Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, who had spent four months in Southern China as a deputation for his Society, he said, ‘I find that, whereas we come to God through Christ, the Chinese come to Christ through God.’ The matter could not be expressed more precisely or tersely.

“I subjoin a report of an interview I have had during the year, which at once illustrates our methods and the Chinese view of things.

“‘I observe,’ I remarked to an intelligent young man whom I met in a mountain, ‘that the people of your honourable country are very religious. They fear the spirits, but I must confess I am surprised that you pray to these mud and wood dolls. Their eyes are not eyes; their ears are not ears; they never move from their places. If their makers make them sit down, they sit for a generation; if they are made standing up, they stand up all their lives. As they are first fixed they remain, immovable.’

“‘Venerable teacher, you do not understand,’ he replied. ‘Those images of which you speak are but the outward form in which the spirit resides. The spirit goes here and there, wherever it wishes; and what man ever saw a spirit?’

“‘I understand, friend, that that it is what many in your honourable country say; but pray tell me how did these idols, in which you say the spirit resides originate?’

“‘Kiang Tai Kung, (a famous general, 1122 B.C.) deified certain officials and other good men, and succeeding emperors have subsequently canonised other worthies, and commanded that they be worshipped so as to keep their names in constant remembrance.’

“‘Well, sir, to erect images in memory of the dead is,’ I said, ‘a good thing, but to pray to them as gods is altogether wrong. It is contrary to the direct command of the Heavenly Venerable Sire, and displeases Him. Can it be correct for a son to make an image of his father and pay respect to it instead of reverencing his parents? Moreover, what good does it bring to pass? For instance there is the Ts’ai Shen

(god of riches). Every merchant and trader worships at his shrine, yet how many of them bankrupt every year. It cannot surely be that, praying for wealth, they pray with insincere hearts? If they are sincere, why does not the god of riches answer their prayers? Why does he allow them to become poorer and poorer, until at last they have to retire from business altogether?'

" 'Sir,' the young man answered quickly, 'do you really think that the god of riches has nothing better to do than to give money in exchange for a little flattery and incense?'

" 'Then why, sir, worship him?' I asked.

" 'To keep Kuan Kung in remembrance, whom the Emperor Sung Chen Tsaung canonised at his death with the title God of Wealth.'

" 'I need hardly tell you,' I answered, 'that I never pray to any of the many gods whom the men of your honourable country worship.'

" 'Of course. We know that.'

" 'But I do pray, and pray every day,' I said; 'and the God whom I worship can make a bad man good. Can any of your gods do that?'

" 'Why, no,' he replied. 'That is a strange statement. I have often heard of a good man becoming bad, but who ever heard of a bad man becoming good?'

" 'The God to whom I pray can make bad men good,' I repeated.

" 'We Chinese pray in the temples, but after the service the bad man is just as bad, and the good man no better than before.'

" 'My God,' I said, 'can take wicked thoughts from my heart, and deliver me in the hour of temptation. If, for example, I am tempted to do wrong. I go to a quiet place and pray. Prayer removes from my heart the desire for the evil.'

" 'You mean,' my companion said, 'that you retire and meditate on the wrong until you have discerned the difference between the good and the bad; then you naturally choose the good.'

" 'Not quite,' I replied. 'I mean more than that. God, of course, only helps those who help themselves; but I cannot leave the evil and choose the good without help. Such help I receive in prayer. See that baby, it will not walk if it is always carried; yet it will not be able to use its legs properly without assistance. So when I desire to be a better man my God helps me. Can any of your numerous gods do that?'

" 'They have not that power.'

" 'Furthermore,' I continued, 'the God to whom I pray is ever with me. I tell Him all that is in my heart. I tell Him more than I would tell my dearest friend, and He helps me in all my concerns.'

" 'Now,' said the young man, 'I understand. Your God is a private God of your own. He would not take so much trouble for anyone else.'

" I replied, 'He will draw near to all who desire to draw near to Him.'

" 'May we ask, sir, whom it is you worship?' asked the bystanders, who had silently listened to the foregoing conversation.

" 'You know Him well by name,' I answered. 'I pray to T'ien Lao Yeh.'

" 'What!' the crowd responded in chorus. 'He is all supreme, and very great. We are but ignorant rustics. We dare not approach Him.'

" I proceeded to combat this very common Chinese notion that none but the Emperor ranks high enough to worship God, and before leaving urged the young man, in whom I had become much interested, to offer every day this double prayer: 'Great Spirit, show me Thyself. Great Spirit, show me myself.' I enlarged on the importance of prayer and its benefits, and promised him that if he offered this petition with a sincere heart every day he would in time know far more about the doctrine I was preaching than I could possibly tell him ; and assured him that he would find the proofs of its divinity not in my words, but in his own heart. He wanted to know the manner in which the Spirit would reveal Himself, but that I said I could not tell him. He dealt with no two men alike, and he must pray for himself if he would know the truth of my words.

"I have not been able as yet to return to this village.

"Of course, this was a very inadequate presentation of the Word, but it was all that was possible to give that man at that time. There must be a certain preparation of heart before the mysteries of the Gospel can be perceived ; and it is just here where we Chinese missionaries need the Holy Spirit's directing guidance, lest by over-zeal we should sometimes cast our pearls before swine, and, by saying too much at once, really tell less than we intended."

THE GOTCH-ROBINSON NATIVE CHRISTIAN TRAINING INSTITUTION AT CHING CHOU FU.

The Rev. J. S. Whitewright, the principal of this institution, sends the following report :—

"The work of the Institution has been carried on during the year according to the usual curriculum. The subjects studied by the senior years were Systematic Theology, Church History, Natural Theology, and the Elements of Physiology and Hygiene. The junior years have been mainly engaged in the study of Introductions to the Old and New Testaments, Christian Evidences, General History, and the Elements of Physics. Homiletic Classes have been held, as in former years, sermons being preached in turn before all the students and teachers for criticism. Frequent examinations, both written and viva voce, have been held on all subjects studied, and the results have shown satisfactory progress in the great majority of cases.

"It is encouraging to note continued growth in earnestness among the men, and a stronger desire to preach the Gospel to their heathen countrymen. Evangelistic work has been systematically carried on on Sundays and at other times. The aim of seeking to encourage a missionary and aggressive spirit, and the effort to train the men by actual work throughout their whole course, has been kept in mind as in former years. To this end numbers of villages in the neighbourhood have been visited and preaching carried on. There are ten small market towns within a radius of ten miles of the city, and when the markets have fallen on Sundays arrangements have been made for visiting them for evangelistic work. On alternate Sunday evenings during the winter an evangelistic service has been conducted in the city chapel. Magic-lantern pictures of the life of Christ have been used with effect. The attention given to the addresses has, on the whole, been better than in former years. Several of the senior men have also given part of the Sunday to visiting in the city, especially among the shops and places of business. A number of others have also taken turns in visiting the dispensary in the afternoons, at the times when there are most patients, to converse with them on religious matters.

"The Institution has been specially indebted to Mr. Jones, not only for his taking four classes per week in Systematic Theology with the senior students, but for many helpful suggestions ; to Mr. Medhurst for assistance in Homiletic Classes when his country work permitted ; to Mr. Hou, Dr. Watson's native assistant, for his classes in Physiology and Hygiene, and to other brethren for assistance in examinations. The native teachers have rendered efficient service during the year. They have all shown thorough interest in their work. An evening class, held weekly and conducted by them, has been fairly well attended.

"'Leaders' Classes,' for the benefit of the leaders and workers of the Christian stations, were held in the spring and autumn as usual. About sixty men attended these short courses, several members of the Mission taking part in teaching. The workers of the little stations in the country find these classes stimulating and helpful in efforts that have often to be carried on in lonely and trying positions.

"The total number of visits to the museum during the past year was 84,489. During the year a few models and diagrams made by native workmen, bearing directly on matters affected by the Feng Shui superstitions, have been added, and have been found very effective.

"We have found the museum more and more useful as a means of enlightenment in serving to break down hostility and prejudice, and in bringing the people about us in a friendly spirit. It has also given large opportunity for the preaching of the truth. The assistants have, as a rule, found the people ready to listen with respect to what they had to say. Openings have also been made for the beginning of effective evangelistic work in the country around. During the summer, when anti-foreign reports were rife, its value was specially shown. To give instances would be beyond the scope of a brief report, but it may be mentioned that during the prevalence of the anti-foreign rumours this summer, a foreign missionary, finding himself in a position of difficulty at a place twenty miles from the city, was befriended and helped out of his difficulty by a teacher who had visited the museum, and who came forward stating that what he had seen and learnt made him believe in the good intentions of the 'foreigners.' Our only difficulty has been that we have had a greater number of visitors than we have been able to accommodate.

MRS. WHITEWRIGHT'S WORK.

"With regard to work under Mrs. Whitewright's direction, the Bible-classes for women have been carried on on Sundays and Wednesdays as usual. On Sundays, the attendance has varied from, in bad weather, nine or ten, to, during a festival, over a hundred. The usual attendance is from twenty-five to forty-five. The Wednesday class has increased this year mainly through the efforts of one of the Christian women. During the festival of the city god, which is held in the fifth moon and is largely attended by women from the surrounding district, large numbers visited the museum. During the week it was held there were over 6,000 visits paid. Help in speaking to these women was given by ladies of the Mission and several of the senior students. The women listened attentively to the preaching of the Gospel. The number of visits by women to the museum during the year was over 17,000. Mrs. Ch'u, the Bible-woman, who is here especially for this work, has done good service. The women usually come in parties, and are first shown into the women's reception room, and while they wait until the museum is clear of men visitors, she takes the opportunity of speaking to them on religious matters. In June, the Prefect's wife with a party of ladies paid a visit. They stayed a long time, and seemed much impressed by what they saw. There were other visits from the Prefect's household later in the year, and at various times from wives of other officials. There have been numbers of visits from the Manchu city. Through this means we have been able to reach a class of people difficult of access.

"In a report of this kind it is impossible to touch on the various features of the work in an adequate manner. From the above it will appear, however, that there is much to give us hope that the work as a whole is making progress."

NATIVE CHRISTIAN BOYS' NORMAL BOARDING SCHOOL AND VILLAGE DAY SCHOOLS.

The Rev. Samuel Couling, who has charge of this institution, and of the village schools in the Ching Chou Fu district, reports :—

"The Kuang tê shu yuan, the boys' boarding school here, began the year in February, 1897, with sixty scholars. The examinations held at the end of the previous year have already been reported to you, and the results are printed in the last report. The next examinations take place almost at once, before school breaks up for the (Chinese) New Year holidays, but I cannot send you the results for some weeks yet.

"The work and conduct of the boys during the year have been more satisfactory than usual. Up to the present the average time spent in school has been only three years per boy. This is due in part to the extreme poverty of the parents, which does not allow them to support a big boy at school earning nothing. So short a time in school is, however, very unsatisfactory, especially in a Chinese school with the Chinese language to learn, and we must devise some plan for keeping more boys on for the full course of seven years. It is only from such boys that we can expect teachers and helpers to arise.

"The subscriptions for food have been slightly more than last year.

"With regard to the village schools there have been 24 schools during the year with 259 scholars."

MISSIONARY MEDICAL WORK.

Dr. Russell Watson, who has charge of the missionary medical work in the Ching Chou Fu centre and district, reports :—

In-patients :—

Men	...	...	...	...	...	147
Women	...	...	...	...	...	31
						178

Out-patients :—

Men	...	...	...	7,194
Women	...	...	...	2,032
				9,226

Poisoning cases treated	...	...	...	...	62
Special visits paid to patients at a distance	...	...	...	...	83

"The above are the statistics of the hospital for the past year.

"The figures show a falling off compared with the previous years. During the past year rumours of a disquieting nature, directed against foreigners, originated in Tientsin at the time of the opening of the Roman Catholic Cathedral there, and spread over the provinces of Chihli and Shantung. We had no cause to fear our personal safety, but these rumours affected the attendance at our hospital.

"A portion of my time has been taken up in seeing to the erection of buildings for the Zenana Missionary Society. Dwelling-houses for three ladies, dormitories and class-rooms for a school of forty boarders, and rooms for classes of country women, have been erected in a healthy and retired part of the city. These, when fully occupied, will become a powerful auxiliary in the planting and growth of the Church of Christ in this district."

CHOU-P'ING DISTRICT.

THE NATIVE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The Rev. E. C. Nickalls, reporting on the native Christian church, writes :—

"My first work this year was to hold a series of 'Leaders' Classes,' Mr. Burt kindly helping me. Lectures were given on part of the Epistle to the Colossians, the Commandments, a translation of 'The Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation,' and on geography.

"Mrs. Nickalls has held five classes in the year of the picked women in my district. Each class extended over a week. Misses Simpson and Aldridge, and the other ladies of the Mission, helped in the teaching.

"I have also visited my various stations, dispensing the Lord's Supper and examining candidates for baptism. In the counties of Chou-p'ing and Chi-tung forty-four were received upon profession of faith in the Lord Jesus, and in Pohsing county nineteen were baptized.

"One difficulty of a work now several years old is pressing upon us all. As at home, many Christians grow cold or make but little progress in the development of Christian knowledge and character. It is not surprising when we recollect that many of our Christians cannot read, and that heathenism is all around. We certainly all feel the need of some special revival work.

"Our congregation in Chou-p'ing city is an overflowing one. And as our city chapel is only a rented room, over 200 years old, which is becoming unsafe, we shall soon be forced to appeal for a new building. The women of the city congregation have maintained their attendance at the Dispensary, in order to speak of the Saviour to women patients.

"Though we have had sorrows, trials, and anxieties this year, we thankfully rejoice that the Lord Jesus has worked mightily in our midst, added numbers to His Church here; and though death has entered the family of one of our number, we are still an unbroken and united band of workers."

DISTRICT EVANGELISTIC WORK.

The Rev. Frank Harmon writes :—

"The year just closed presents but few features of more than ordinary interest. A somewhat uneasy conviction that fresh efforts, perhaps new methods, in some departments of work are needed has not given rise to any fresh departure either in evangelistic or church work; and the belief is surely growing upon me that until the church can be entrusted to natives the evangelistic element must perforce occupy a very secondary place in the scheme of life and work.

"This is to me a very unwelcome conclusion, but we are passing through a phase of experience which a measure of success rendered unavoidable, and we can only wait and work patiently for the men amongst our people whose hearts the Lord shall touch, and who are fitted by suitable gifts and mental training for the native pastorate.

"Like most, or indeed all, other years, 1896-7 presents a varied aspect of light and shade, successes and failures. The main anxiety has been caused by, first, a case of persecution in the county of Po Tai, in which we failed to procure any satisfaction, and which still drags out its weary length of false charges. This, of course, affects the whole county injuriously, and is accountable for much backwardness and lukewarmness on the part of the Christians. But, secondly, we have suffered from a scare which affected both Chihli and Shantung, and perhaps other provinces, concerning the kidnapping of children. This report seems to have emanated from Peking about the time of the re-opening of the Roman Catholic Cathedral there, and gradually it spread all over the country, doing a great deal of injury in places, not only to Christian work, but also to travelling merchants and others, of whom many were ill-treated, and three, a very short distance from Chou P'ing, were killed.

"The work in Ching Cheng makes steady progress; more baptisms this year than in any previous one, and the same may be said of Central Pin Chou; but the advance in these two districts is more than counterbalanced by a loss in Pu Tai, or rather I should say a smaller increase in Pu Tai, and a practical standstill in North Pin Chou, the oldest of the Pin Chou work. Pu Tai has suffered by the unrest caused by the evil rumours referred to above, but principally from the case of persecution, also already mentioned. The baptisms have dropped from 100 last year to fifty-five this year.

"The county of Po Hsing will no longer figure in my report, as it has been transferred to the care of Mr. Nickalls.

"The membership under my care now stands as follows:—

Pin Chou	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	365
Pu Tai	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	298
Ching Cheng	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	59
Total								722

"The baptisms for the year in the above districts have been 159.

The Rev. W. A. Wills writes:—

"Although there have been seasons when tabular statements show a larger increase, I thankfully acknowledge that the past year has not been without blessing.

"We have added to our numbers during 1897, by baptism and profession, 29. The decrease has been by transfer 1, by erasure 5, by death 9; total 15. This will give us a net increase for the year of 14 members. The total number now on the register is 205.

"Like all true pictures of human life and work, our history of the past year has in it shadow as well as sunshine, gloom as well as gladness. The air has been full of false rumours about us foreigners and our Christians kidnapping, using eyes and hearts to make our drugs. This has caused much excitement among the people, and greatly hindered our evangelistic work, also keeping many inquirers back from joining the church; and in no previous year have so many been taken from us to the Church above—for the useful lives of whom we thank God—and our prayer is, that He who raiseth up whom He will, may give us others who shall carry on their work. We look hopefully and prayerfully forward, remembering the promise—'Lo I am with you alway, even unto the end.'

"CHOU-TS'UN.

"Chou-ts'un is situated about twelve miles south-east of Chou P'ing, it is one of the most important marts in the Shantung province. The population is estimated at 80,000. Merchants from all parts of the country come to trade in silk, &c., &c.

"When we commenced to work in 1890 there was a strong anti-foreign feeling amongst the people, and few ventured near us, but through the influence of medical work these prejudices have gradually been subdued; and now not only are our dispensary and Sunday services well attended, but a good friendly feeling exists towards us throughout the city, and thirty-five have united with us in Church fellowship.

"CHIH-CH'UAN.

"This county contains 860 towns and villages, and is a great coal mining district.

"We formed the first church in 1891, and now we have four churches with a membership of 128—i.e., after deducting deaths, removals, those ceasing to continue from divers reasons, and often from no reason, excepting what after all is fundamental, their love has grown cold.

"The medical work is at present carried on in an inn outside the city, and under many disadvantages. The Christians have long felt the need for a central place, and are collecting to purchase a small house in the city. I hope next year to report the purchase an accomplished fact.

"There are four boys' schools, and one girls' school; other places are only waiting for more efficient teachers. This year there has been a decided improvement in these schools; most of the boys have passed their examinations with credit to themselves and their teachers.

"Four boys are now studying in the High School at Ching Chou Fu, and doing very satisfactorily.

"In the institution there are two young men studying for the ministry.

"PO-SHAN.

"This county is well known throughout the province for its pottery and glass manufactory. It has 750 towns and villages. There are two walled cities quite close to each other—one in which are the factories, and the other the residences. They are beautifully situated amongst the hills, and streams of spring water constantly flow through the streets.

"Work was commenced several years ago, but, as in most large business centres, the work has moved on very slowly.

"The first baptism was held in 1893, and a little church formed, which has since increased to 47 with two out-stations.

"The members subscribed the funds for fitting up a dispensary adjoining the chapel; we attend monthly, and often have an attendance of nearly 300 patients—a good opportunity to the evangelist and Christians for preaching, which, I am glad to say, is fully availed of. Several cases of cataract, and others needing surgical skill, have come to Chou P'ing, and been successfully operated upon by Dr. Paterson, the blind returning home rejoicing in sight restored, and others healed of their troubles. These have greatly helped to bring about the present friendly feeling that exists, and much good must, we believe, result from this work.

"Classes for leaders of churches, lay preachers, our evangelists, and women classes have been held from time to time during the year. Not only have they received more instruction in the Word of God, enabling them the better to preach to others, but many attending those classes have told us afterwards of spiritual blessing following their work upon their return to the village churches."

The Rev. Ernest W. Burt, B.A., reports on his evangelistic work in the Chang Ch'iu and Li-Ch'eng counties :—

"My own personal work has been purely evangelistic, and as we do not receive converts into membership till they have given proof of their sincerity during a probation of two or three years, I cannot report any additions in the district to which I was appointed last April.

"A general account of this district will be found in a letter which I wrote to the HERALD last July, and little need be added here.

"This evangelistic work is altogether different from that which occupied my 'prentice hands during previous years. Then one's whole strength was taxed to feed the flock whose shepherds were away from the field for a period of well-earned rest. Now, for the first time, I find myself in charge of a large and populous territory, hitherto hardly touched by the Gospel. Here I regularly visit the chief fairs and markets, and, amid the rival distractions of the open-air theatre and the professional story-teller, I bid for the attention of the noisy passing crowd, distributing Christian booklets to all who will take them, and—but this much more rarely—selling Gospels to the hopeful few who are sufficiently interested to spend a few cash. Then scores of people, impelled by as many different motives—curiosity, place-seeking, groping for the light—come to talk with me in the inn.

"Like the explorer's, it is pioneer work ; but the superhuman task of clearing a way for the Lord through the forest of suspicion and error and malice far transcends that which confronted a Stanley in the pathless jungles of the Dark Continent, or a Nansen amid the snowdrifts and icebergs of the northern seas.

"To use a more familiar figure, we are sowing the seed broadcast, and, though it is all too soon to speak with confidence, we already see the blade breaking through the soil here and there. In one village, visited this autumn for the first time, there is now a little company meeting for worship, and we hope this is the nucleus for the church in that region.

"Mrs. Burt has made one tour round the distant district, and was everywhere warmly welcomed, but necessarily her main work is done nearer home. In and around Chou P'ing she continues to visit and teach the women in their homes, and to help in the leaders' classes, which are held here with hardly a break from November to May. Courses of simple lessons on the Birth of Christ ; on the Trial, Death, and Resurrection ; and on the Apostles' Creed have been given to the women, while the men have been thoroughly drilled in singing."

The Rev. S. B. Drake writes :—

"Upon my return to China I found the work in my district in a healthy condition. During the spring months 134 men and women were received into church-fellowship.

"The past year was a testing time for the native Christians. Rumours, charging foreigners with bewitching children and cutting out their hearts and eyes, were freely circulated throughout this part of China. Strange to say, too, although no child was found destitute of heart and eyes, yet the rumours were most surely believed by a great portion of the people.

"In some places the local authorities suppressed the reports by vigorous action. In other places, however, the officials—among them the governor of this province—not only abstained from suppressing the reports, but by their actions intensified the same.

"The native Christians were charged with being the paid agents of the foreigners for the purpose of obtaining children's hearts, &c. The result was that the Christians became objects of suspicion, and in some instances they were maltreated.

"The governor issued a proclamation concerning these rumours so worded that it might be interpreted to mean that we were actually guilty of the charges made against us, and that all persons found guilty of stealing children might be killed with impunity. In accordance with this interpretation, three strangers while passing by a village not far distant from this city were killed by a mob. During the investigation of the cause of these murders the murderers admitted that they took the three men for native Christians, and further they justified their conduct by appealing to the governor's proclamation.

"Two German priests have recently been done to death in this province, and the governor has been degraded at the request of the German Emperor.

"The Christians are now becoming more assured, and doubtless they will be all the stronger in spirit for the rough experience they have recently passed through."

WOMEN'S WORK.

Mrs. Drake sends the following report :—

"It is now a year since we returned to China, and we can look back at the past twelve months with feelings of gratitude and praise to our Heavenly Father for the blessings that have attended our service for Him. Three years ago, when we left on furlough, the women's class room was scarcely large enough to accommodate the women that came on Sundays, together with the countrywomen when they were in the city, but on our return we found it was far too small, therefore we have enlarged it so that it will now easily seat one hundred persons, or a few more by sitting close. During the first four months of the year we were having between fifty and seventy women come every Sunday, and since then from thirty to fifty. I have now on my book the names of fifty-two women, who are either Christians or may be considered as bonâ fide learners.

"The work amongst the countrywomen has also increased, and this autumn there have been nearly one hundred and forty women from the country come either here or to one of the other ladies for instruction; so, for several weeks we have had eighty or ninety women every Sunday, and have been very glad of our enlarged room.

"During the year I have been able to pay several visits to some of the villages not very far off, and have been able to stay at Kao Yuen city for ten days, and whilst there to visit several villages, and as the result I have had fifteen new women come to the learners' classes. I was especially pleased with my visit to one of the villages called Ts'ao Wang. The work there is young, and as the men meet for worship on Sundays at another village some little way off, the Christians have arranged to have a meeting for the women of Ts'ao Wang every Sunday on their return from service at the other village. So they have fitted up a room that will accommodate about thirty people, with tables, chairs, and benches, and here the women meet every Sunday; they have fifteen names on the roll.

"I wish to say that the calico that friends were kind enough to give towards Dorcas work has been made into clothes, and very thankful, indeed, were the recipients. The receivers were very destitute, and going out in bitter weather with scarcely any clothing, and had neither fire nor bedding at home. We see so much poverty, it is very pleasant to be able to do even ever so little towards relieving it.

"I would like, before closing, to ask friends kindly to remember us again, and send out more calico for another year. All that is needed is a common unbleached calico, as wide as possible; a few penny packets of needles—size 3 or 4—with the calico would be acceptable. If any friends feel inclined to send trifles as gifts to the women, I shall be delighted to distribute them. I would suggest coloured or white cottons—Nos. 36, 24, 20; needles, 3 or 4 size; needle books, small bags, small pin-cushions, cuffs, or mittens—these should be thick and strong; small cakes of soap, blue or red chalk pencils (in wood). Those women learning to read value these pencils very much, as they like to mark the words they do not know, and when they see me or someone who can read, they ask what the words are. A few toys for the children. Any of these things would be useful to us in our work amongst the women.

"I have just one more thing I would like to ask for—coloured Scripture pictures for our class-room, varnished and on rollers. We have a nice room, but the walls look so bare; besides ornamentation, the pictures are useful for instruction."

MISSIONARY MEDICAL WORK.

The following table gives a summary of the missionary medical work during the past year in the Chou-Ping district:—

Chou-Ping Medical Returns, 1897.

Missionary.	Centre.	Out-patients.		In-patients.		Poison- ing cases.	Eye cases. Special.
		Male.	Female.	Male.	Female.
W. A. Wills ...	{ 1. Choutsun } { 2. Chih-chüan } { 3. Po-shan }	2,023	1,328	...	...	20	} 125
F. Harmon ...	4. Chu-chen ...	872	1,045	11	...	...
T. C. Paterson, M.D.	5. Chou-ping ...	5,182	3,459	70	23	27	...
	Totals ...	8,077	5,832	81	23	48	125

The Rev. W. A. Wills writes:—

"Owing to the kidnapping rumours for some time our dispensaries were almost deserted, which, of course, greatly reduces our number of patients. Notwithstanding, we have seen during the year 1,659 men, 1,148 women, 364 boys, and 180 girls—total, 3,351.

"Besides these, 125 special cases of eye diseases were seen and treated by Mr. Harmon.

"The medical assistant, also the evangelist, are frequently called to cases of attempted suicides, and he has saved many lives. Twelve cases of opium smokers have been helped to break off this evil habit."

SHANSI PROVINCE.

The Rev. Herbert Dixon, of Hsin Cheo, being at present in this country on furlough, the Rev. Arthur Sowerby has removed from Tai Yuen Fu to Hsin Cheo, and, in association with Mr. McCurrach (who at present is learning the language), is in occupation of Mr. Dixon's district; the Rev. G. B. Farthing, in association with Mr. Underwood (who at present is learning the language), being in charge of Tai Yuen Fu and district.

With regard to

the Rev. G. B. Farthing reports :—

“The work in this city divides itself into several branches. There is first the preaching in the street chapel. Our doors are open to the general public every day with the exception of Sundays. The congregations are seldom large. The novelty has somewhat worn off, I ween, and the natives have come to look upon it with similar unconcern to that with which they view their own established institutions. Wu Yü Feng, who has been in charge of it for several years, is getting old and losing his sight, and, too, is showing unmistakable signs of the wear and tear which cannot but result from the frequent discussions and conflict of opinion inseparable from this kind of agency. It is my intention to give him a rest, by a change of occupation, as soon as it is possible to secure someone else who is fitted for this post. The good done by this street chapel is undoubtedly large. If it effected nothing more than the satisfying of the curiosity to know why we are settled here, and merely succeeded in dispelling the many absurd fears and correcting the foolish notions which the people have conjured up concerning us, its value would be incalculable. But it exerts an influence greater still. From it the Gospel is heralded, and by it books are put into circulation. How widespread is the knowledge of the facts of the Gospel I am constantly discovering upon my tours in the district. Not only in the city but in many of the surrounding villages the people are acquainted with the name and power of Jesus. Our street chapel is not infrequently mentioned as the source from which the knowledge was gained.

“OPIUM REFUGE.

“Another branch of our work is an opium refuge. It is self-supporting. The patients pay a sum which covers the cost of medicines, light, firing, and rent. This refuge has been a most fruitful source of conversion. The patients rally twice daily for prayer and a short exposition of Scripture, and besides are taught to sing and to use for themselves a simple prayer, of which they are given a copy. Counting those now in the refuge, I have had exactly fifty patients since my return. Several of these had been users of the drug for upwards of twenty years. With the exception of two, who broke from restraint, they have all been successfully weaned from the habit. The proportion of them that has remained with us to give thanks to God is most encouraging. In a village two miles away a little cause has been started just recently, which is full of bright promise. I have visited the place several times, and on each occasion the numbers interested have shown a distinct advance. Four of the families have put away their idols. The men come in here to worship on the Sabbath, and now during the slack season, on Wednesday afternoons also, to an Inquirers' Class. They have daily gatherings for prayer in their own village at the house of Chiao Wan Yü.

"A Bible-class for teaching and training in spiritual things is held every evening throughout the year. It might almost be called a night school for the study of the Scriptures. It has been well attended. I have been through the Gospel of John—the Apostle's statement of the facts of Christ's life, and now am dealing with the First Epistle of John and the Apostle's interpretation of the facts. I have reason to believe that these classes have been helpful; I myself have greatly profited from them. The Sunday services, too, have been well sustained. The congregation has filled our chapel to its utmost limits. Such gatherings are an inspiration. These numbers mark the advance that has been made in recent years. There used to be a congregation of from six to ten persons when I took up work here at the end of 1889.

"The putting into circulation of Christian literature is another of our aims. The number of books and tracts circulated by the sales of colporteurs and at the different stations, and by ordinary and special distributions, would make a great total. As an instance of the value of colportage work, I might mention a little gathering which has been formed at a place near to the city of Lan Hsien. It is too far away to be included in our district. But God, I am confident, will not let it perish. Colporteur Wang is sent to visit those who assemble every now and again. A man of that place bought a book, and had a talk with the colporteur when on a visit to some friends who live in this district, and who knew something of the Gospel. He became interested, and determined he must know more. When I heard about him I sent the colporteur to the place where he resides. The man asked that worship might be conducted, and, Cornelius-like, called together his friends to hear the Word of God. The colporteur stayed with them ten days on that occasion, and the man decided that they must continue to meet and study the Scriptures. Twice since Colporteur Wang has been there, and reports that they are in red-hot earnest.

"TRIENNIAL EXAMINATIONS.

"At the triennial examination, which was held at the beginning of September, the Shou Yang Mission and our own Mission united in an effort to put Christian literature as far as possible into the hands of every candidate. Four thousand five hundred packets of various booklets were made up and distributed amongst the students. These students come from all parts of the province.

"Our school for boys is as popular as ever. It is now partly a boarding-school. Some of our most promising youths were connected with the out-stations, and only by making provision to board them was it possible for them to get the benefit of the school. There are now thirty names upon the books, and we have an average attendance of twenty-six. Five of the elder lads have just recently asked for their names to be entered as inquirers. They are splendid lads from the country, and have had a good home training. Four of them are from Christian homes. The father of the fifth lad is also an inquirer, and has become such since his lad began to come to school.

"OUT-STATIONS.

"It remains for me to say a few words about each of our out-stations, which are our itinerating centres. Itinerating work is perhaps more important than any other. It is necessary to gather up the results of our different branches of work. Out-stations have, with us here, been the growth or crystallisation of what was done at our base of operations. Chiao Cheng P'ing T'ou, and Liu Pu were all thus opened. This plan leads us to places indicated by God's Spirit as promising, and allows of the principle of self-effort and self-support being introduced from the first. But none of our out-stations in this district are now any great charge to the Mission, and every advantage will be seized for making them less so. The native fund of our Tai Yuan Fu Church is not impoverished by having had to find the cost of P'ing T'ou and Liu Pu, but would seem to be more flourishing. The money is in my charge, and what is in hand now, with no accounts outstanding, is more than sufficient for the probable expenditure of the present year. To take the out-stations in the order in which they were opened :—

“HSIAO TIEN TZU.

“First there is Hsiao Tien Tzu. This station was opened years ago altogether with mission funds. It caused much hubbub at the beginning. The excitement then died down, and it was for a time in a very precarious position. Of this unsatisfactory state of things advantage was taken to make it provide for its own needs. The effect was tonic. It has gone forward again since. The less pretentious premises in which the members meet are to them more a source of pride, because they pay for them, than were those in which our Mission was formerly housed. Payment enhances appreciation. The experience seems to indicate that liberal expenditure of mission funds will minister to that spirit of ostentation which is so potent in the East, but dishearten the people whose means are limited, and militate against self-support. What is necessary to us does not appear to be at all so to them. Hence I think it preferable for the natives to lead the way. Such is the experience we have bought.

“SHIH TIEH.

“There is a distinct advance at this out-station. That simple and grand old man, Hu Tung Te, is doing a good work. His self-sacrificing life is a power. The reason for opening a station at this place was the need of a field for Mr. Morgan, and this place specially, because Hu had already done some work there. The work done by our brother, Mr. Morgan—and done very quietly for several years—has proved to be some of the best in Shansi. The foundations were well laid. The efforts put forth spread over a wide field. Though there have been difficulties and trials in connection with this station, as there have and always will be at all stations, yet the groundwork has been so well done that one is in no fear of not speedily getting things right.

“CHIAO CH'ENG.

“We were led to open this station by the conversion of two men, who gave themselves so earnestly to preaching the Gospel to their neighbours as to get around them a goodly band of inquirers who preferred a request for a cause to be started. In the midst of the district where the opium-poppy is cultivated—the people of which district bear out the truth of their own proverb, that ‘Whatever a man cultivates he will eat’—refuge work was clamoured for as absolutely necessary. This is our chief agency there. Since my return we have had sixty-eight patients under treatment. All were discharged free from craving. Things at this station are less brisk than they would ordinarily be, because at present we are without a resident evangelist. Han Meng Pao, the most capable man in the church there, has had to resign charge by reason of business claims. His partnership in a firm involves responsibilities that will not permit of his giving so much time as formerly to station work. He still preaches every Sabbath, when the missionary is not present, and conducts the evening meetings each evening at his own village of Yang Chu, where his home is, and his business requires that he should live. His training of several of the church members who belong to Yang Chu is in the highest degree praiseworthy. A clever man and a brilliant thinker—he delights in this work. Next month Liu Hsiang Cheng, a friend of Han's, a truly spiritually-minded man, will have made arrangements with his business which will enable him to take the place vacated by Han in Chiao Ch'eng city. There is a congregation of sixty and upwards on most Sundays. Four men were baptized in the early days of September.

"Yu Hsien Tung, whose house was the meeting-place for those who were seekers after God at Yu Chia Chuang—a man of ability and full of earnestness—had been called away, as also had his daughter-in-law, a sweet little woman whom my wife had baptized, and who showed her love for the Saviour in countless ways, and radiated the light and hope of the Gospel wherever she went. Her bereft husband is bent upon meeting her in the glory.

"Ma Pin, a noble young fellow, whose conversion was a miracle in the eyes of his mother, who assured me that she had had two sons in the one boy—the one all wilfulness, who cared not for her needs and comfort, and this new one, who lavished upon her tenderness and love, and thought nothing too good for her—he was also gone. This was our roll of the dead. 'These all died in faith,' is the out-station next in order. Things there are quieter. The numbers who assemble for worship are distinctly encouraging.

"LIU PU,

our most recently organised station, is a place of large possibilities. The men are such manly men. If proud in that neighbourhood, it is not without cause. The work is the result of native effort pure and simple. I have visited it three or four times. The whole cost of it falls upon the native church, except that we keep a colporteur evangelist in the district, who renders what aid he can. The friends themselves are thinking of renting larger premises, which are needed, as they are beginning to feel their strength. Five men were baptized in the autumn."

HSIN CHEO AND DISTRICT.

The Rev. Arthur Sowerby, at present in charge of this district, writes:—

"We have here regularly Sunday services, attended by both men and women, day-school, shop on the main street, medical and surgical work, and an opium refuge.

"Our Sunday morning service is held at noon; on Thursday evenings there is a singing-class, and on Saturday evenings a prayer-meeting; on the other evenings of the week a Bible-class. All these meetings are well attended, and at the evening classes it is possible to give systematic instruction. Now my wife is here, a little more attention will be paid to the women, of whom there is always a sprinkling at the evening service, and occasionally there is a good attendance. On the main street of the city there is a book shop, where we have a steady sale for Christian books, and where the Gospel is preached daily.

"Medical work partakes more of the character of dispensary work than anything else. I am in attendance till 10 o'clock every morning to see cases. Every patient pays thirty cash, for no medicine is given away. Occasionally there are some surgical cases, and the patients may remain on the premises for a few days. Many hopeless cases are brought to us, but even then some relief may be given. In the autumn one of our inquirers was struck in the face by a millet stalk, and a splinter pierced the eyeball. Fortunately it had not penetrated deeply, but lay just over the iris, narrowly escaping the pupil. I removed the splinter, and the man's eyesight was preserved. A street fray occurred, and a man was brought to me with a wound in his face; he had been struck by a pipe, and a splinter from the wooden pipe-stem, two inches long by three-eighths inch wide, was embedded in his cheek, and this I removed. At present there is a patient in the hospital with a knife wound in his thigh. Of opium patients I have had a few, and I expect there will soon be a steady supply.

"The lads in the school not only attend the services, but on Sunday form a Sunday-school class. In addition to these there are three senior scholars (Chin Hu, Chu Tzu, and Pen Yuan Tzu). Chin Hu is a bright, intelligent scholar; he is intelligent and industrious, and has a good grip of the Gospel, and apparently a heart appreciation of it. His father lives at Ning Wu Fu, and was baptized last autumn; and subsequently his elder brother came, and gave up opium here.

"Chu Tzu is not so quick as Chin Hu, but a fairly promising lad. Pen Yuan Tzu is the son of our esteemed evangelist, Mr. Ho. He is a very bright boy, and well-behaved. In a few years these three may become very useful, either as school assistants or schoolmasters, and ultimately, we hope, as evangelists. I have had regular classes for them in Christian doctrine and evidences, and mathematics.

"OUT-STATIONS.

"Our two most promising out-stations are Ch'i Tsun and Ting Hsiang. At the former the Christians have purchased the premises formerly rented by the Baptist Missionary Society, and have now their own chapel and religious home. A good part of the money has been paid, the rest I have advanced, but this is to be repaid. The progress here is very steady, in spite of persecution. In the summer one of our converts had his crops stolen; the case had to be taken to the magistrates' Yamên, but was ultimately settled out of court, and a moderate compensation was made to our convert. Since then a portion of the highway had to be repaired, but the villagers could not agree among themselves. At last by common consent they asked the Christians to undertake the work, as they were honest and reliable, and would be sure to cheat no one. It was distinctly as Christians they were appealed to, for the villagers said, 'The Christians are upright.' At Ting Hsiang there is a well-attended service. Tsui is very devoted and earnest, and there is a large boys' school.

"The church at Chuan Mo Chen is a small and struggling one. If they struggled a little more they might not be quite so small a company. This year, however, the the Hsin Chow Native Church has left them to their own resources financially, and they have managed not to go under.

"Kuo Hsien.—The evangelist here is sustained by our friend, C. F. Foster, Esq., of Cambridge. He is a good man, and doing good work; but the work is, of course, only in its earliest stages.

"At Tai Chow we have a few Christians, and a very good evangelist in Mr. Wen. Mr. Dixon has secured very excellent premises. But here, as in Kuo Hsien, the work is still quite at the commencement. It is a great thing to be able to get a substantial footing in this two-county town.

"At Fan Shih the work is supported by the Hsin Chow Church, and our evangelist, Huo, is a very energetic, pushing man. He has attracted a few to regular worship, and two of these men have rented a room where their meetings can be regularly held.

"Schools.—We have schools at Ting Hsiang and Kuo Hsien, and at one village, Pan Shih Tzu, near Chuan Mo Chen; also some scholars have learnt to repeat some Christian books. I hope that from these various schools a good central school for the best scholars may be developed in Hsin Chow.

"At Ning Wu Fu the father of Chin Hu, who was baptized this autumn, has with him a little company of men who meet to study the Scriptures and pray.

"It is a great joy to be here to help in the good work begun by Messrs. Turner and Dixon, and we confidently hope that every year the church members may grow in grace and knowledge, and that we shall have the joy of receiving larger numbers for baptism. Nineteen converts were baptized in the autumn; one church member has been called home; none have been suspended or excluded from church fellowship."

SHENSI PROVINCE.

During the past year the Rev. A. G. Shorrocks, B.A., has been taking furlough at home. He has now returned to Shensi, accompanied by the Rev. Frank Madeley, M.A., of Bristol College, and the Rev. Moir and Mrs. Duncan have started on their homeward journey for a much-needed season of rest and change.

Mr. Duncan reports upon the work in this distant field as follows :—

"HSI-AN-FU.

"In the provincial capital we have again attempted, by the following methods, to maintain the truth and declare the Gospel :—

"1. Preaching has been continued with all the emphasis possible. From the seventh moon we re-arranged and occupied the front part of the book-shop as a public preaching place. Thus we were able to reach large numbers, sell tracts, and openly declare the plan of salvation.

"2. Services with lantern illustrations were frequently held, and proved an acceptable and efficient means of direct preaching in official residences and in private houses.

"3. Personal intercourse has exercised some influence, chiefly in two directions :

"(a) Amongst the officials : When one meets with a member of the Hanlin Academy declaring and believing that the British Empire is but a tributary state, and sees the overweening pride and disastrous consequences that result from such ignorance, it is no longer a question of policy, but becomes a missionary principle to aim at enlightenment. However unpleasant or unfruitful the task of meeting with officials may be, we cannot ignore them in their attitude and influence. Even the Times recognises that they are a first factor in the problem of helping this nation. 'The innumerable and incurable host of officials . . . have the instincts of a class whose vested interests, position, and influence lie in keeping those upon whom they prey in a condition of isolation and ignorance. They are determined to resist to the utter-most, along old lines, any progressive tendencies.' During the year we have sought opportunity to influence this mandarin caste. The enmity of some has changed to friendship. One gave a contribution of £4 13s. to the Mission.

"(b) Amongst the literati: This year two periodicals have been issued by the scholars. We were asked to contribute, suggest, and help with leading articles. Thus the B.M.S. discharged, in no small degree, the honourable duties of censor to the local press.

"4. Lending suitable books has been useful in making appeal, through the printed page, to homes and minds we could not otherwise reach. This work could be immensely extended.

"5. The book-shop has sold, during the twelve months, about £200 worth of healthy literature without loss to the Mission. This agency has probably reached its culmination, as the Provincial Government have now taken up the cause. Plant for printing and books for sale—at prices lower than we can purchase—have been procured. But that is a direct result of our pioneering work. Our next step must be the establishment of a press to lead, teach, and convert the now awakened minds, for there will always and increasingly be local, urgent, and necessary work that can only be done by a press on the spot.

"WORK AT THE TRIENNIAL EXAMINATION.

"When it is said that 8,745 graduates from every part of the province assembled in August and September in Hsi-an-fu, it will be evident that special work was no less necessary than important. The books sent by the Society for the Diffusion of Christian Knowledge did not reach us in time. I revised, and partly re-wrote, the Statement of Christianity presented to the Emperor by the Shanghai Conference Committee. Mr. Morgan supplied a leaflet, written by a San Yuan M.A., on 'Science must be based on Divine Truth.' Of these two we distributed over 6,000 copies. Preaching was carried on daily in the shop to crowds—chiefly scholars—and lantern services held frequently in the evenings. I also visited various clubs, and met with scholars from many places. This work is breaking ground, not fallow and only waiting for the plough, but thorn-thick jungle never reclaimed. If anyone still doubts the 'Philosophy of Missions,' and believes that the 'Lights of Asia' are sufficient, he would gain important experience by spending an evening with Shen Hu, B.A. He would see in the numberless 'sprouting talent,' the 'promise and potency' of Confucianism, and return with a larger faith, not in the sage Confucius, but in the Saviour Christ, the Light of the world.

"THE NATIVE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

"The desire to see an indigenous Church of Christ is being gradually realised. During the year the native pastorate and other expenses have been fully supplied from the triple source of labour, grain, and cash. It seems possible to establish an aggressive, self-supporting cause, but it must be organised according to Chinese ideas. Without compromising in the least scriptural principles, the Church here must be Oriental in form of government, method of support, and extension.

"Increase.—There have been added during the year by baptism, 34; otherwise, Two were dismissed, thus leaving a net increase of 35. The membership at this date (1st January, 1898) is 170. There are, in addition, some 38 Presbyterian members worshipping with us.

"Two new buildings have been erected. They serve the double purpose of meeting-house and schoolroom; but they also embody the principle of union in the cause of Christ. We rejoice in the manifestation—although in small degree—of that public and Christian spirit as evidence of the leaven of truth, and as affording hope for further progress.

"INSTRUCTION CLASSES.

"In the early spring we had the leaders of stations and teachers of schools assembled for a week of Bible study. In the autumn we made a new departure by going for a few days to central places, and thus throwing the burden of expense and arrangement upon the Christians. By having united gatherings the esprit de corps and mutual help are more easy and earnest; by going to different centres a larger number can be reached and the expenses met by themselves. The one method is intensive, the other extensive. But the question remains how, in the face of absolute poverty, a scattered membership, long distances, and bad roads, to organise and supervise spiritual teaching without compromising self-support.

"THE AMOUNTS RAISED LOCALLY.

WORK AMONGST WOMEN.

Mrs. Moir Duncan sends the following report on work amongst women and girls in Shensi:—

"Girls' Boarding School.—Four days ago we finished a very happy year's work in our girls' school. With fifty-four scholars (an increase of ten or more on former years) we found no time for idleness, and too little for work amongst their mothers. These boarders vary in age from ten to twenty. The elder girls show the same earnestness and love for study as formerly; while the little ones require constant prompting. The favourite text-book, I am glad to say, is the Bible, and the girls beg for more exposition than we have time to give them. During Scripture lessons their faces, with perhaps one or two solitary exceptions, bespeak hearts that love the Word and appreciate every effort we make to explain it.

"A few months ago we had again a special time of blessing in the school, when a good number professed conversion, and others who had grown cold re-consecrated themselves to God. We are sorry to see signs of instability in some, but others are growing in grace.

"On Christmas Day we had the joy of seeing six girls baptized—in all seven during the year, two of them ex-scholars now married. We hoped to have application from others, but they hesitated from a fear lest we should count them unworthy.

"Once a week they have their Christian Endeavour meeting, managed entirely by themselves, and once in four months a half-day service, when 'old girls' are expected to turn up. It is an inspiration to be present at this latter meeting, and see and hear these one-time ignorant and joyless girls telling and singing of the glorious Gospel that has made them free.

"Some of our Christian women were invited to go in and listen last time, with the result that two or three of them requested to be enrolled as members, at the same time making (for them) a liberal contribution to the collection. This suggested the idea to the girls of using their Endeavour fund hereafter—all or part—to send out certain of their members under the care of these women to spread the Gospel in the outlying villages. Some time ago they sent the little money they had in hand to the Armenians and to the Indian Famine Fund.

"Young Mrs. Nieh is still an invaluable help, as of old. She manages a large class with skill, and is ever anxious and ready to elevate the spiritual tone of the school.

"As to our share in the teaching, Mrs. Morgan finished her exposition of John's Gospel, gave lessons from the life of Elijah, Joshua, and the Book of Judges. In addition, she has taught geography to both the seniors and juniors, and latterly arithmetic to the new-comers. She, too, has superintended their sewing, and been their 'medical attendant.' I gave an introduction to the Epistles and lessons from Luke's Gospel to the senior girls, Matthew's Gospel to the second class, taught the arithmetic of two classes, and singing to all. Their other subjects are taught by their three native teachers.

"Several of our former girls are now married and settled in the homes of their mothers-in-law. Most of them are Christians not only in name but in reality. They are bright and helpful in their homes, while to their fellow-villagers they are a living testimony to the power of the Gospel and the value of education. Their consistency of life and intelligence of mind more than justify the existence of our school.

"THE WOMEN.

"Bible-classes.—These are held in three places, Mrs. Morgan teaching from Mark's Gospel in one, I from John, Matthew, and the Catechism in the others. In one of my villages the attendance has decreased by more than a third, as a result of the inroads of the Catholics. Would that the few who remain may become true Christians. In the other the women attend well, and seem appreciative. Once in two months we have a combined meeting, when four of their number, previously chosen, are expected to address the others on some scriptural subject, and most of them have a little examination on the reading and repetition done during the interval. The more earnest of them are connected with the Evangelistic Association, and undertake to go to the surrounding villages with the message of peace. Four of them, all old women, who have more leisure than the others, occasionally walk distances of ten to fifteen miles on the same grand errand.

"Work in the Distant Stations."—For this work we have divided the field; Mrs. Morgan taking the west, I the east. We pay periodical visits to the different stations for the purpose of teaching the women and examining those who read. Two new places have been added to our list, one in the west and one in the east. In one village the people in their poverty have contributed the labour towards building a little cottage for Mrs. Morgan's use when with them, thus proving their anxiety to have her as often as possible. This visitation of distant stations is hard but very essential work, and requires far more time than we can afford.

"Special Classes."—In February, and again in November, we gave a week's instruction to as many women as would come from the distant stations. Twenty-five responded to our invitation the first time, thirty-four the second. With the help of Mrs. Nieh, of the girls' school, and an evangelist, we gave them lessons from Old Testament stories, and the Gospels of Matthew and John. In the evenings they had further instruction by means of the magic lantern. These classes are an increasing joy to teachers and taught, and are a means of drawing the women closer to each other and nearer to Christ.

"Baptisms."—During the year we have baptized 13 women, 5 present school girls, and 2 'old girls'; in all 20. The church-roll now contains the names of 64 women and girls.

"Foot-unbinding."—This good fashion still gains ground, though slowly. Two years ago I mentioned we had 120 wearing rational shoes, now we have 150. In our girls' school only two out of 54 have bound feet, and that from no fault of their own."

SAN YUAN CITY AND DISTRICT.

The Rev. Evan Morgan sends the following review of the work of the past year in the San Yuan district of Shensi:—

"The past year has been a quiet one—we have had the daily round. Nothing very new has been attempted. We have endeavoured to pay the usual special attention to leaders. However, instead of inviting them to our own place, we tried the experiment of going to some central villages, and thus give opportunity to all who cared to come. Mr. Duncan and the pastor took one district, Elder Wang helped me in another. The people were very busy and did not attend to our ministrations as heartily as we could wish. Still, our morning and afternoon meetings brought many together. In the evening we had the lantern. These evening meetings were well attended, and gave us a good opportunity to teach and exhort not only habitual hearers, but outsiders as well. Experience shows that the people's poverty is the Gospel's opportunity. A generous year gives the people plenty to do, and their time and attention is mainly given to earning their daily bread. But poor harvests bring slack times, and the people consequently have more leisure to attend to eternal things. We hope that these special efforts will help to deepen the spiritual life of the people, and lead them to a deeper perception of the kingdom's mysteries.

"Day Elementary Schools."—We began the year with 13 schools, including about 140 scholars. The pastor reports that on the whole the tone is good. But we must record that in certain cases, either for want of capable teachers, or where there are but indifferent school managers, certain schools have not been so fruitful as could be desired; and this experience leads me to emphasise once more that schools are of very little use where the teacher is not a true Christian man.

"Boarding School.—We began the year with twenty-seven scholars, an increase on last year. The senior boys have completed arithmetic, and commenced the study of algebra; they have also been studying physiography, and the junior boys geography. Mr. Duncan and myself have given as much attention as we could to Biblical subjects. Of course, the Chinese language occupies a good part of their time. And a few boys have had little help in English out of school hours. It is a great pleasure to record that the elder boys have given their time and strength freely on Sundays to preaching in fairs and villages. An earnest tone prevails in the school, and many of the scholars have their hearts inclined to spiritual things. We look with much satisfaction on the progress already made.

"Dispensary work has been carried on as in previous years. Mr. Duncan will supply you with statistics. We have rescued some from the opium vice, and we trust that one of them has been truly converted to God. Anyway, he shows every sign of repentance and earnestness to serve God.

"Mr. Duncan and I, in the division of the work, continued last year's arrangement. The school ties one down considerably, and for that reason I have not made such journeys as I should like to have. I have visited one place outside our regular field of work—viz., Yao Chow. Work has been done here for years by the Chinese, but next year we hope to make a more definite move to occupy the district. The Evangelistic Association will send a paid preacher there, and we propose to rent a small preaching shop, and send another preacher.

"We are looking forward with much pleasure to the return of Mr. Shorrock, and the arrival of Mr. Madeley. But their coming will mean the immediate going of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan. The Mission will greatly miss their devoted service, and will wish a speedy return to the work to which they have given so much thought and energy. Mrs. Duncan's home visit will, we hope, bring home to the consciences of the two Committees the clamant need of this Mission—lady workers. Mrs. Duncan and my wife have been abundant in labours in the past, and the work is fruitful. For the next two years my wife will have more than enough to occupy her in superintending the work already started. What of the villages untouched, and the two towns San Yuan and Si-an? We fervently hope that the promise of two lady workers will be soon fulfilled."

CHRISTIAN LITERATURE FOR CHINA.

THE REV. TIMOTHY RICHARD, OF SHANGHAI.

The Committee are thankful to report the safe return to China of their much-beloved missionary, the Rev. Timothy Richard, after a season of furlough in England, and a very successful and encouraging visit to the United States on behalf of the claims of the Chinese Christian Knowledge Diffusion Society.

It would be difficult, especially at the present juncture, to attach too much importance to the work of this organisation.

Referring to the awakening of China, Mr. Richard writes:—

"The air is full of new projects in every direction. Cotton mills and silk filatures, equipped with most perfect machinery, have sprung up like mushrooms in the country. The railway between Tientsin and Peking is now completed. Able engineers from Europe and America are hard at work in surveying and building other more extensive lines. Difficult negotiations about immense loans of money from foreign countries have been settled, and give a certain guarantee that China will never be allowed again to return to her old state of seclusion and stagnation. Colleges for Western learning have been founded by viceroys and leading officials with public money. A desire for English and natural science is spreading amongst the better classes. The examination halls of Changsha, the capital of the most anti-foreign province, Hunan, were, during the last September examinations, lighted by electricity, and one of the questions for essay writing in the examinations at Nanchang-fu (Kiangsi) was: 'The difference of the flood mentioned in the Classics from the flood believed in by Western people'; and the Old Testament was recommended as a book of reference.

"We want to help the Chinese by our books to understand the present situation; we want to help them in the perils of transition in which they are now placed; we want to guide them in the pathway of true civilisation, of science, liberty, and righteousness. But we know that a thorough reformation of China can only be carried out on a new moral and religious basis. The introduction of the outward achievements of modern civilisation without a simultaneous moral renovation would only lead to greater selfishness and stimulate the love of gain and pleasure, and therefore would bring, in consequence, grave social complications and inner revolutions.

"We know China needs more than cotton mills, railways, steam launches on inland waters, electric light, waterworks, natural science, political economy, just laws, &c., &c. China needs more than these. She needs most of all character and conscience, purity in the family life, integrity in the official life, and, in order to get these, she needs a religious new birth—she needs Christianity. The most beautiful of her many moral phrases cannot supply these virtues. Only the Christian religion—i.e., Christ Himself—can supply this new moral motive power which China needs most of all."

Referring to the circulation of Christian books at the last Triennial Examination of Chinese students in Nanking, Mr. Richard reports:—

"Besides the books of our Society, the American, the British, and the Scotch Bible Society had each sent 15,000 Scripture portions (the Scotch Bible Society 15,000 annotated Gospels), and the Hankow Tract Society 10,000 pamphlets. These and the books of our Society were arranged in 19,000 packages. There were thirty-three large boxes full of packages of books, but yet 'the books were insufficient to meet the demand,' because there were about 24,000 students and only 19,000 packages of books. The officials of the city were very courteous, giving every facility and protection. Those engaged in the distribution were urged to rest in the temporary headquarters of the General in command of the approaches, and all officers and soldiers guarding the exits were instructed to pay special attention to the missionaries and their assistants. They were even invited inside of the outer gate to the court, where the crowd, which outside was numbered by thousands, was forbidden. In this the Mayor of the city, Ma Taotai, and the Commanding General, H. E. Yang, are specially to be mentioned. The books which were distributed go straight to the controlling classes of every city, town, and hamlet, where no other influence goes often.

"This report of the distribution in one examination centre will serve as an illustration of what has been done in a similar way in other centres; it will show to our friends at home what a splendid opportunity is given to us at these examinations of reaching the literary classes of the country, and what unlimited possibilities of influencing them in favour of Christianity and modern civilisation are before us, especially if by larger contributions we would be enabled to put more books on all questions of religion into their hands. By this magic spring the whole of China can be touched in one day."

Little wonder that the Committee of the Diffusion Society should say, in their last report:—

"We feel deeply indebted to our beloved Hon. Secretary and hope-inspiring leader, the Rev. Timothy Richard, who, moved by the Saviour's compassion, has on his recent journeys through England, Scotland, and America, by his deep-felt pity for the miseries of China and by his glowing enthusiasm for our work, succeeded under the blessing of God to stir up the hearts of many friends in the Christian homelands to a deeper sense of their duty towards the 400 millions of their fellowmen in China, and to a fuller understanding of the grand opportunities which are now opening in China, especially for literary work, so that many of these friends at home have now more generously given and have promised much larger contributions to our work, so that we may hope to organise our work in the near future on a much larger scale, and to extend our influence in a more systematical way over all the provinces of this vast empire."

During the past year Mr. El Karey has been on a visit to England for a season of rest and change. He has now returned to Nablous much improved in health and greatly refreshed in spirit by his visit to England.

During his absence the work in Nablous and Samaria has been well maintained, specially the girls' and boys' schools, and the mothers' meetings conducted by Mrs. El Karey.

The numbers of girls and boys attending the schools have considerably increased during the past year, while the mothers' meeting has an attendance of over fifty.

The usual report has not yet been received, probably due to the fact that Mr. El Karey has only very recently resumed his work.

The following is a list of the stations established and occupied by the Society on the Lower and Upper Congo River:—

ON THE LOWER CONGO:

San Salvador.—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Phillips, and Mr. A. G. Adams.

Matadi.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Lawson Forfeitt (in England), Mr. and Mrs. Carson Graham, and Mr. John Pinnock.

Wathen.—Mr. and Mrs. Bentley (in England), Mr. George Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, Mr. Frame, Mr. J. R. M. Stephens (in England), and Miss Lucy A. Brindal.

ON THE UPPER CONGO:

Arthington.—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Roger (in England), and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Gordon.

Bolobo.—Mr. and Mrs. George Grenfell, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Glennie (in England), Mr. A. E. Scrivener, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Clark, and Miss L. de Hailes.

Lukolela.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Whitehead (in England).

Monsembi.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weeks, Mr. Stonelake (in England), and Mr. Dodds.

Bopoto.—Mr. and Mrs. William L. Forfeitt (in England), Mr. Kenred Smith, and Mr. W. Millman.

Sa. Peace and Goodwill.—Mr. S. M. Field, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Howell.

Yakusu, or Sargent.—Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton, Mr. Beedham, and Mr. J. Jeffery.

"If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you."—MATT. xvii. 20.

Nineteen years ago our Consul for the Oil Rivers shrugged his shoulders when Thomas Comber told him that he was hoping to lead his party to the Upper Congo.

The difficulties seemed insurmountable. Fever, hilly jungle roads, and obstinate natives seemed hopelessly to block the way. Our Lord said that faith should remove mountains. Often did our brethren in the Congo bethink them of that word, and so they prayed.

Very soon a road opened; next a powerful expedition overawed the opposition, and the Upper Congo was reached. Now the shriek of the railway whistle is heard on the banks of Stanley Pool; the line of rails is complete. Iron is to take the place of wood in a few more bridges, some further attention to be paid to ballasting, and, on the 1st of July next, the Congo Railway is to be officially declared open over the whole 250 miles.

There lies before us the prospectus of Thomas Cook & Son's "Excursion to the Congo," to start during the first days of June next from Antwerp, viâ Lisbon, Teneriffe, Las Palmas, Dakar (Senegal), Sierra Leone, San Thomé, Gaboon to Matadi, thence by railway to Stanley Pool for the inauguration; then a trip round the Pool, and return viâ Loanda, St. Helena, Ascension, Cape Verde Islands, Madeira, Lisbon, and back to Antwerp—a trip of two months, under the most comfortable circumstances, for £120.

The voyage out in 1879 occupied fifty-four days from Liverpool to the Congo. Now the Congo Government is going to send out an express steamer, to be reconstructed at Stanley Pool. By means of the present accelerated service from Antwerp to Matadi it will be possible to run out in eighteen days. Two days will take the passenger from Matadi to Stanley Pool, and by the express steamer the voyage to Stanley Falls is to be accomplished in eleven days more. So the voyage from Antwerp to Stanley Falls, in the very centre of Africa, is to be accomplished in thirty-one days. Telephonic and telegraphic communication will soon be possible.

Already a locomotive railway train has reached Stanley Pool, thus uniting the Atlantic Ocean and the Upper Congo River, with its 3,000 miles of navigable water-way penetrating into the very heart of Central Africa, and appealing to the Christian Church to enter in and take possession of the Dark Continent for Christ.

For their persistent efforts and praiseworthy energy in carrying this great work to a successful termination the Belgians deserve all the credit which can be given them. Though confronted with what appeared to be insuperable difficulties, the promoters and managers of the Congo Railway have triumphed over every obstacle. The completion of the Congo Railway marks an epoch in the modern history of Africa.

What does it all mean? Only that the mountain has been removed, and all the great Congo basin lies easily accessible to the Gospel! May the Christian Church arise to its privilege and opportunity, and go forth to win Africa for Christ! "Nothing shall be impossible unto you"; "Lo, I am with you alway."

Notwithstanding heavy losses, severe trials, and perplexing anxieties, the record of the past year's work in Central Africa is a most encouraging and inspiring one.

Giving his first impressions of the work on the Congo, Mr. Jeffery, writing from Monsembi, says:—

"The most pleasing and inspiring feature of the journey has been the opportunity it afforded me for visiting our stations en route. To one fresh from home the work being done is an inspiration, and could some of our home friends see what I have seen, I think the old cry, 'Missions a failure,' would grow feeble and more feeble, until eventually it would altogether cease. The influence of 'God's white man'—as the missionary has been named out here—is being increasingly felt; and slowly, but very surely, the people are being won to Christ by Christian example and teaching.

"The results already secured are really marvellous."

The lamented decease of Brethren Pople and White, of Tumba and Yakusu, led the Committee to ask Brethren Graham and Stapleton to remove from San Salvador and Monsembi to Tumba and Yakusu, and their ready compliance with the request of the Committee has secured for both these important stations the services of specially experienced and capable superintendents.

In view of the completion of the Congo Railway throughout, from Matadi to Stanley Pool, during the approaching summer, it is probable that the Tumba station will be ere long relinquished and a new station opened up at Zomba—a town rapidly rising in importance and population in the very centre of Congo-speaking peoples.

With the approval of the Committee the Rev. Thomas and Mrs. Lewis, of San Salvador, propose to visit Zomba in May next, remaining there for a few weeks with the object of instituting careful inquiries as to the wisdom or otherwise of opening up work in the Zomba district.

SAN SALVADOR STATION.

The Rev. Thomas Lewis reports :—

“ During the past year the work at this station has grown steadily, and the report on the whole is cheering and bright.

“ The services and various classes have been well attended, in spite of much sickness among the people. In the early part of the year there was another incursion of locusts, and yet another about the beginning of September ; at present the young locusts are very numerous, and doing much damage, so that the people have had to spend much time in trying to cope with this pest. Still our folks have come together very well. In consequence of these visitations of locusts food is very scarce, and the prices are exceedingly high.

“ The Day Schools for boys and girls have been carried on as usual, and we are beginning to see the children of those we taught in years gone by now taking the places of their fathers and mothers in our schools.

“ The Sunday-school is a most encouraging feature of our work at San Salvador. Every Sunday morning, at nine o'clock, our chapel is filled to its utmost by the various classes, which are all taught by native teachers, with the exception of one taught by Mrs. Phillips, who has also conducted the preparatory class for female teachers since Mrs. Graham left. We have 339 names on the books, with an average attendance for the year of over 200.

“ In the native church we have lost during the year six by death, and seven have been excluded for misconduct, or have let their membership lapse. On the other hand, we have had the joy of receiving fifteen by baptism—mostly from other towns—and four by transfer, so that the roll now stands at 104. There are many from San Salvador and from other towns who come week by week to be taught in the way of salvation.

“ At our last church meeting we made a new departure. Until now we have carried on the church work without any appointed officers. We all thought the time had arrived when we might with advantage appoint some deacons to share the responsibility with us ; and last month—the tenth anniversary of the native church—six persons (three men and three women) were chosen for this office, and we look forward to their being of great assistance in the conduct of church affairs. We hope and pray that God will richly bless these brethren and sisters in their service for Christ and the Church.

“ Our Dispensary is open three mornings in the week, and during the year 12,078 visits have been registered, but this number does not include more serious cases attended to in their homes or medicine dispensed on itineration tours. Hitherto the medical work has been done at the old stone house, and from our own houses. We are now putting up a dispensary, which we trust will enable us to do this part of the work more efficiently, as well as more comfortably, both for ourselves and the patients.

"At the Sub-stations the schools and services have been kept up regularly during this year with encouraging results. The numbers attending vary in the different districts. In all there are 182 children in daily attendance at these out-stations. At Nkaba, where work was commenced at the beginning of this year, Niekai has a Sunday-school as well, with an attendance of 50; and at Nkoko the teacher's wife Nsukula has an afternoon class for women numbering from 20 to 30.

"In April last the teachers came to San Salvador for a month's instruction, and this arrangement we hope to continue this year, as they found it most helpful.

"The Itineration work has suffered somewhat by the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Graham to Tumba, which left us shorthanded in the dry season, when this branch can be best done. Nevertheless, we have been able to keep up a regular visitation of the out-stations, besides many other towns within a short distance from us. In the dry season my wife and I visited the Arthington Falls district, and preached the Gospel in many fresh places. The church members continue their work in the surrounding towns with evident tokens of God's blessing. Mr. Phillips conducts a class for these preachers on Saturday mornings.

"The Printing Press, under the charge of Mr. Ross Phillips, has been busy this year. An edition of I. Samuel was completed in the earlier part, and in April we started the publication of a monthly magazine, entitled 'Ngonde ya Ngonde' (Month by Month), which contains monthly parts of the 'Holy War' and 'The Pilgrim's Progress,' translated by Mr. Phillips and myself respectively; also Dr. Newman Hall's 'Follow Jesus,' by one of our young men, and various items of interest. This has a circulation of 250 per month. A manual for inquirers, entitled 'Nsongi a Nzila,' by Mrs. Lewis, and various hymn sheets, &c., have been printed.

"In June last we had to part with Mr. and Mrs. Graham, who removed to Tumba, to take the place rendered vacant by the death of our dear friends, Mr. and Mrs. Pople, and in September we welcomed our new colleague, Mr. Adams, who has been busy at the language and school work up to now.

"This Christmas our people have been making a great effort to collect sufficient funds to justify us in beginning the new chapel. As a result we were able to announce at our New Year's Day meeting a total of over 650 dollars—the largest amount ever collected here. This included a donation of 30 dollars from the King of Kongo as a token of goodwill, though he does not attend our services. Our Building Fund now amounts to over 1,250 dollars, and we hope to proceed with our building as soon as the next dry season sets in."

TUMBA STATION,

The year commenced with the sad tidings of the death at Tumba station, on April 11th, of the Rev. G. R. Pople, after some weeks of dysenteric illness. Mr. John Pinnock, in communicating this sad news, wrote:—

"During the last two or three hours Brother Pople was quite unconscious. During the evening he prayed earnestly for his mother and all his relatives. He prayed also for his dear wife, also that he might be used entirely in the Master's service. The dysentery stopped a few days ago, but I expect it had left behind its deadly sting.

I am "thankful to say that our dear sister, Mrs. Pople, is keeping up bravely. It is, indeed, very hard for her just at this time; but we must not murmur or doubt, for His dealings with us are just and are all done in love for our own good, and for His glory.

"We should only blame ourselves because we cannot see, and then cast ourselves entirely on Him, for 'He careth for us.'"

On the night of the 29th of May, Mrs. Pople joined her husband in the everlasting Home.

Mr. Pinnock, sending the sad tidings, wrote :—

"In my last letter I told you how ill Mrs. Pople was. She is no better, but worse, and the doctors have now given up all hope. We called in both doctors, and they have done everything that skill could do, and we are now only watching and waiting to say the last farewell. Yesterday, May 28th, she said :—'Tell my mother I die very happily; tell her also we came out to Africa for Christ's sake, and are quite ready.' She then called her family by name, and said, 'Give my love to them,' and at 10.50 p.m. she quietly passed away. You may rest assured that everything has been done that skill and kindness could do. May God in His mercy strengthen and comfort those who are left behind. 'LOVELY AND PLEASANT IN THEIR LIVES AND IN THEIR DEATH THEY WERE NOT DIVIDED.'"

In the words of one who knew him well :—

"No finer or more heroic missionary in purpose and life ever gave himself to African Mission work than dear Pople. To know him was to love and admire him; association with him was an inspiration, for he lived day by day as 'SEEING Him who is invisible,'"

Thoroughly transparent, sympathetic, genial, and affectionate, he won to an unusual degree the love and confidence of those with whom he lived and laboured. Gifted and able in many different ways, his service to the Mission was invaluable. He had high qualities of head, hands, and heart which made him an ideal missionary. Not only in preaching and in the transport did he render excellent service, but more than once he became Acting-Secretary of the Mission and Acting-Representative to the Congo State Government.

Since Mr. Pople's death the Rev. H. Carson Graham (of San Salvador), in association with the Rev. John Pinnock, has been superintending the work at Tumba.

Mr. Graham's last letter reports :—

"Our new chapel is a great success. It can seat 150, and we get it full of Congo people on Sunday mornings. The school, too, which Mrs. Graham and the ladies of the C.B.M. and A.P.C.M. unite to teach, is doing well."

He also tells of Mr. Pinnock having been on an expedition to recruit carriers, and their hope that it would result in a larger number of men coming in for transport of goods to Stanley Pool.

On their return to the Congo by the steamer leaving Antwerp on May 6th, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Forfeitt will, at the request of the Home Committee, reside for a time at Matadi, the port of the river and starting-point of the railway. The question of the site of the future permanent base station of the Mission will meanwhile be considered and reported upon, that the Home Committee may be able to come to a final decision on this important matter.

WATHEN, OR NCOMBE, STATION.

The Rev. George Cameron reports upon the work at Wathen Station during the past year. He writes :—

"WATHEN.

"In recalling the history of the year 1897, we have much cause for gratitude. There has, we trust, been blessing in every branch of the work. The health of the missionaries has also been, on the whole, good, though continued weakness compelled Mrs. Bentley to return to Europe in March, and Mr. Bentley left in October to rejoin her.

"Miss Feisser has become Mrs. Bell, but continues to carry on her work with the girls and in the school, just as she did before marriage. The work, indeed, is too much for any one lady, and, if there were more workers, it could be developed and extended so as to bring help and blessing to many more heathen girls and women, as well as encouragement and support to the female converts.

"The year opened with 89 church members ; during the twelve months 31 were baptized, and one transferred to us. Five died, and four were excluded for conduct inconsistent with their Christian profession, leaving 112 on the roll at the close of the year, a net gain of 23. It is interesting to note that, though only four of the 31 baptized had a Christian training on the station, nearly all the others are the fruit of the labour of old scholars, now evangelists, entirely supported by the church, or voluntary Christian workers.

"The cost of living has increased greatly since the advance of the railway and development of transport. Every day long caravans of carriers on their way to or from the railway dépôt pass through the station, and the increased demand for food required by them has caused a great advance in the price. At the beginning of the year, it became necessary to add 50 per cent. to the salary of the evangelists. This has been a serious strain on the finances of the church, and, though the offerings during the year came to 6,597 brass rods, the disbursements were 2,419 more. Happily, the reserve fund was more than able to meet this deficit, and there is still a balance on the right side. Considering the circumstances of the people, the offerings were fairly satisfactory ; but we hope they will improve in the grace of giving, as in every other Christian grace. The two latest out-stations are still in the pioneer stage, without adherents and without subscriptions ; but we hope that by and bye they will more than repay the outlay made on their behalf.

"The evangelist at our oldest outpost, Tungwa, left there at the end of the year, leaving the work in the hands of the converts, and has gone on to Kinsaku. It is a great joy to feel that the converts at Tungwa have shown such spiritual gifts that we can hopefully leave them to themselves.

"In last year's report Mr. Bentley tells of the 'fierce opposition' shown by the chief to the work, and this opposition was kept up during most of the year, somewhat less acute only because the chief and his supporters removed to a distance from the village, and rebuilt their houses where they could be out of the way of the preaching. Now, as I write, good news has come. A Tungwa believe has just come in, and he tells us that a few days ago the chief acknowledged that he had been wrong, and asked that himself and his people be taught. Since then the believers have preached in his new village, and he has been an attentive listener. This is a great change, and we thank God for it, and hope that this first step will be followed by others. He was an angry fellow. The last time I was in his village he rushed into his house and stormed at me through the closed door. He would not look at or listen to me. At the other Tungwa (near Makuta) and Makuta the opposition has been less acute, and there has been much blessing on the work. Almost half the baptisms were at these two places. At several villages where work has been systematically carried on by voluntary effort on the part of church members there has been much interest shown by the heathen, and in some cases this has ended in conversion. The four persons who were last baptized were the fruit of such work in Kimbanda, one of our nearest villages.

"With a view to helping the evangelists and to increase their efficiency, we had, in July, and again in October, a week of special classes, each of the missionaries taking one class each day and giving instruction in a particular subject, as follows:—9 to 10 a.m., I. Thessalonians, Mr. Frame; 10 to 11 a.m., Theology, Mr. Bell; 2 to 3 p.m., Homiletics, Mr. Cameron; 3 to 4 p.m., Church History and Romanism, Mr. Bentley. It is intended to continue these classes every three months, and it is hoped that they will be helpful to the evangelists and to other believers as well.

"In a country where there are no schools except at mission stations and out-stations, school work comes second only to the preaching of the Gospel. Without it the labour of the translator would be useless. It would be folly to print books without at the same time teaching people how to read them. Debarred from the word of God, converts would never develop into intelligent and well-instructed Christians. It is therefore a pleasure to report a considerable increase in the number of scholars, both here and at the out-stations. At the end of the year there were 160 boys and 28 girls attending school on the station, nearly all of them being boarders, and 87 boys and 45 girls at the out-stations. A considerable number of adults are counted in these numbers, as no separate list is kept.

"Good work is done at the outposts in this department, but, as the attendance is often irregular, progress is slow. Advanced scholars are encouraged to come and finish their education under the more experienced teachers on the station.

"Industrial training has chiefly been in agriculture and brick-making. A good part of the food used during the year was raised on our own fields by the labour of the children. Had it not been for this, we should often have been in great straits.

"The Congo Press seems naturally to follow the school. Besides other work, the printing of our new hymn-book has been completed. It contains 257 pages, and 2,000 copies have been printed. Four hundred copies have been bound here, and others are being bound at San Salvador, for the use of the Christians there. The book is most useful, and is much liked. All day long one hears the strains of 'Calcutta,' 'Auld Lang Syne,' or other favourite tunes sung by the boys and girls as they go about their work.

"Sunday-school work has been carried on as usual on the station, and also at most of the outposts, the teachers being all native Christians. One expects to hear of the Sunday-school wherever there are Evangelical Christians, but the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavour is not yet so widespread. Many of our friends will be interested in hearing of the establishment of a branch of this Society here. The late Dr. Webb, always enthusiastic in work among the young, suggested this some time ago, but the matter dropped.

"Mrs. Bentley had for years conducted a Bible-class for inquirers and young converts, and on her return to England, in March, it occurred to Mr. Bentley that this meeting might be carried on on Christian Endeavour lines. Under his superintendence the change was made, and our young people took up the work with enthusiasm, and many volunteers began to help the sick and make themselves useful in other ways, such as caring for the younger ones, keeping the house in order, carrying the lame to the meetings, &c. The enthusiasm has abated in many cases, but there are some who please us by a thoughtful spirit of helpfulness. The C.E. weekly meeting is often conducted by one of themselves, and opportunity is given to all to take part. No pledge has been given, so far, as we fear that many would be too ready to take it; but the general principles of 'Christian Endeavour' are steadily kept in view.

"Medical work has been well maintained during the year. By the blessing of God, much suffering has been alleviated and many sick ones cured. Mr. Bell has proved himself almost as good a financier as he is a doctor, and he has brought the medical department well on the way to be self-supporting, a charge being made for medicines that are carried away. Persons attending the dispensary at the close of the daily service are treated gratuitously.

"At the end of his two years' probation, Mr. Bell passed with credit his examination in the Congo language, greatly to the satisfaction of his colleagues."

The Rev. W. Holman Bentley writes :—

"It is scarcely possible to over-estimate the importance and promise of the school work now being carried on at Wathen Station. Not that the acquirement of the arts of the three R's is such a priceless boon to the natives; neither, indeed, is that our great aim in bringing them together in the school. Our great desire is to ground our scholars in the Scriptures, to lead them to Christ, and then to send back those who are converted to carry on Christian work in their towns. As we itinerate in our districts we prayerfully seek those whom the Master may give to us to be trained for Him and for His service. Would that all who come to us yielded to His gracious influences! In that matter, however, we have no occasion to be discouraged. A good number of those who have been trained at Wathen have given their hearts to the Saviour, and are serving Him in their towns, or are looking forward to doing so when the time to return shall come.

"It is the rule of the Mission that, while the B.M.S. supports its white agents, the Christian work carried on by the natives shall be supported by the native Christians themselves.

The purely voluntary work at a town seventy miles from Wathen, initiated by Bukusu, has made such progress that in November last we had 35 church members in the town—20 men and 15 women.

"At a town two hours to the north of Bukusu's, the work of Ponde, a paid evangelist of the native church, has resulted in a membership of 13—6 men and 7 women.

"Two hours to the west of that town Mukutidi is carrying on work. He was five months only at Wathen, then on visiting his town he remained behind sick, and never came back to us. He stayed some time with Ponde, and took in much of the Gospel. He went back to his town and held services there daily, and when I was there last I found six under special instruction as inquirers, and one of them was rejoicing in the Saviour. I did not baptize Mukutidi or his first convert, thinking that a few months' waiting would do them no harm, but rather good; I am hoping next mail to hear of their baptism with others by Mr. Cameron. Possibly we are too careful, but we had better err on that side. A very remarkable work is going on in that town, and men and women are learning to read in the village school. I examined thirty-six scholars there.

"Four hours and a half to the south of Wathen there is a nominally Christian village, the fetishes put away, the people attending the daily services held there by Mvemba, and now we hear of Mr. Cameron's intention to baptize the chief, another man, and two women.

"Four and a half hours further away, in another larger town, Sodiadia is working with the same blessed results. The chief and some others are soon to be baptized.

"Mr. Cameron tells how that, at another town four hours from Wathen to the east, the evangelist is no longer needed; the native Christians are equal to carrying on the Christian work and school.

"Most interesting work is being carried on at Kimbanda, where the chief, as well as others, men and women, have been baptized recently. Toma-tala and his brother are working in another town near to us; and now work has been re-opened at Matadi, the town of the paramount chief. Although the Wathen school is still so young—not yet nine years old—and there has scarcely been time for many to grow up to do useful work, still there are now three outposts supported by the native church, and nine voluntary (unpaid) outposts, where the work is going on.

"At one town, where Luyambula is working now, the people were much scattered, so as to present a small appearance to the State recruiting agents. They built a few houses together in the woods, ravines, and out-of-the-way places. When Luyambula returned to live among them, they chose a very good new site, and have built round him, to be within easy reach of his teaching. We shall not have to wait long to hear of conversions among such people. Other young men will soon be returning to their towns to do the same there also.

"FULL OF PROMISE.

"The work in our district is full of promise. The spirit of intense opposition to the Gospel on the part of the heathen people is breaking down in many parts, and there is a greater friendliness and readiness to listen to the Gospel.

"The Christian natives, too, are making their influence felt, and many people are dissatisfied with the wrong and violence and cruelty which long have reigned. In the neighbourhood of Wathen the natives have combined to put a stop to the wholesale capture and sale of each other for debt. A heavy fine is imposed in each case. This is largely due to the influence of the chief of the town four and a half hours to the south of Wathen, who is shortly to be baptized. He is a most intelligent man, and of great influence. He has built a brick house in his town, the large centre room of which is the school and chapel. In the other district, four and a half hours further, the converted chief of the town is making a great stir about the marriage customs, especially the dowry money, which is soon spent, but has to be re-imbursed at the death of the wife—a fruitful source of wars and fightings, debt and slavery. The Gospel opens the people's eyes, and the heathen state is seen to be in every way abominable and intolerable.

"The Government is much interested in this development of the natives, and is helping things forward by the establishment of proper courts of justice. It desires to suppress the poison ordeal and the inhuman practices of the natives. The judges and State officers are very energetic in the repression of violence, and are ready to listen to all who come to them in their difficulties. Our native Christians are often appealed to by the oppressed, and they have taken several defiant cases into the courts, and have won the day. Often the threat to take the matter to the State is sufficient to overawe defiance. In some towns the native Christians have great influence with their chiefs, who have, in consequence, gained a great name for just decisions, and are much resorted to for that reason.

"The Government have also delegated the senior missionary for the time being at Wathen to serve as registrar of births, marriages, and deaths, and for the enrolment of the natives as citizens, over a district of 1,600 square miles. The power is thus given to accord certificates of enrolment to any natives seeking them, which confer upon them the same rights and standing in the courts as a white man.

"The prohibition of the sale of spirits to the natives in the zone of prohibition has been very strictly maintained. The zone includes more than nine-tenths of the State. Spirits may be sold to the natives only as far inland as the Kwilu River—sixty miles east of Matadi—on the south bank, and nearly up to Wathen on the north bank. It is greatly to be desired that the State should absolutely prohibit it throughout the entire territory. It is a great boon that it is restricted as far as it is, but we hope that the Conference of the European Powers soon to convene at Brussels for the consideration of further measures for the restriction of the liquor traffic with the native races of Africa, will result in further restriction in the Congo State. The State means well, but it is hampered by the action of its French and Portuguese neighbours.

"We have 150 pledged abstainers in our district, and hope to push temperance work much further in the future. There is a strong temperance spirit in the native church. Although we have not deemed it right to make abstention a rule of church membership, it practically is so.

"THE CONGO RAILWAY.

"The railway has reached Stanley Pool, and in a few months the 7,000 African labourers will mostly have returned to their homes; and with them will be released the legion of native boys who have been serving these labourers as cooks and caretakers of their huts. Many among these labourers and boys have been made conscious of the immense advantages of education, as seen in the position and pay of the African foremen, clerks, &c. (a few of them our old scholars), who have been over them in their work; they, too, are anxious to learn and to qualify for such posts. My colleague, Mr. Bell, writes that, if all come to us, who have promised and want to come, 'when the railway is finished,' we shall not have house-room at Wathen to take them in. It is most important that we take advantage of this teachable spirit and that we should endeavour, not only to impart the scholastic knowledge desired to those whose eyes have been opened, but also to lead them to the Saviour.

"All this increase of work on the station and widening of influence in the district means a heavy strain on the Wathen staff; more help is most urgently needed, and the Committee are adding to the very inadequate staff Mr. J. R. M. Stephens, who is now in this country on furlough after his first term of service on the Congo.

"With all this Christian work going on in the district, the development and increase of the church, the slacking off of the opposition, and the more receptive spirit, what may we not expect? We are on the eve of very great things. The evangelisation of the wide Wathen district, which appeared almost an impossibility ten years ago, is now more than a possibility—it is going briskly forward. There is much yet to be done, but the outlook is full of hope. The mighty power of God is working upon the people, and by His Spirit He has made use of simple native instruments to accomplish great things among them; but we regard the present results to be but the dropping before the shower. Now that the natives are taking up the work and identifying themselves with it, the blessing on their testimony will not be withheld—the work must go forward. In themselves they are nothing, but His grace is made perfect in their weakness. As we rejoice in these victories of the Cross, we remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said ‘If ye have faith . . . nothing shall be impossible unto you. Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.’”

THE UPPER CONGO RIVER.

STANLEY POOL STATION.

The Rev. S. C. Gordon, who, since the return to England on furlough of the Rev. L. J. and Mrs. Rogers, has been in sole charge of the Stanley Pool Station, writes :—

“In reporting on the work of the past year in connection with this station, I feel that my first duty is one of praise and thankfulness to Almighty God for the season of uninterrupted good health which we have enjoyed now for nearly nine months. We have been alone for quite seven months during the year; but the regular routine work of transport, industrial training, school work, and Sabbath and week-day services have been regularly attended to. In addition to these, I conduct a Bible-class on one evening in the week for our Christian lads and men, and many of them greatly appreciate this privilege for the study of the Word. Then, on another evening, my wife takes a class which is attended by those who are inquirers. Out of this class we have baptized four persons during the year; but we have ten others who profess to be following in the footsteps of Jesus, and many of these have lived consistent lives for some time past.

“I have not been able to pay any itinerating visits to the inland towns during the year; but our volunteer evangelists have kept up their visits to the end of the year. Just now the natives are a little upset owing to the approach of the railway, the search for food, and the demands made on them for State service. Often they are away in hiding, and now and again towns disappear altogether, the people having gone to a more secluded spot. In spite of these difficulties, the Gospel has been preached, and some good has been done.

“Since July of last year, my wife has relieved me altogether of school work. We have had 42 scholars in regular attendance, and most of them have made satisfactory progress in their studies.

“Besides gardening, and building in wood and brick, our boys have made about 80,000 bricks during the last cold season. For some of these I have received more than 4,000 francs, and others have been used for the repair of the houses on the station.

"More than 1,700 loads have been received and shipped to the Upper River stations during the twelve months.

"In looking back on the work of the past year, we have reason to bless God for all He has done. Our sphere is a difficult one, and, with the inflow of the blessings of civilisation, we have also the vices in their worst forms. The work, therefore, of winning souls here is rendered more difficult. Centuries of darkness, oppression, and evil have made the people slow of understanding and strong in wickedness, yet God's Spirit has been at work among them, and we have had to do 'with our might what our hands find to do.'"

BOLOBO STATION.

The Rev. A. E. Scrivener, reporting upon the various departments of mission work at the Bolobo Station, writes :—

"I think I ought to give prominence to the fact that during the year we had no case of serious illness amongst the missionaries, and that with the exception of trifling ailments all had good health. This is a blessing for which we are very thankful. It has enabled work to be carried on with much greater continuity than would otherwise have been the case, and also with more energy, and perhaps, therefore, with better results.

"I hardly know where to begin. Perhaps I had better say something about material things first. In the building department great progress has been made, although much yet remains to be done. New brick workshops and stores have been erected for the steamer, and now necessary repairs will be effected with much greater ease and comfort than was formerly possible. The printing press has been properly housed, a commodious brick building being added to the wooden premises which were brought from Lukolela. The brick house for Mr. Clark is well on the way to completion. Much progress has also been made on the school, which we trust will be completed during this present year. In connection with this department it is hoped that some arrangement will be possible by which all the young carpenters and bricklayers, &c., will be gathered together under the supervision of a competent missionary, and so a proper industrial work department be established.

"SCHOOLS.

"Although the school building is not yet completed, great use has been made of it. The day school has increased very encouragingly, and numbers sometimes nearly 200 scholars. Remembering the very great difficulty experienced in the past in securing the attendance of the children, this is indeed a very promising sign. Many are resident on the station, being attached to the households of the various missionaries; but by far the greater number come daily from the towns. Mr. and Mrs. Clark and Miss de Hailes have been most indefatigable in this work, and, as time has allowed Mrs. Howell has rendered help. Miss Grenfell is also able to render some assistance.

"The Sunday-school is also very encouraging. It is conducted on similar lines to those adopted by most English Sunday-schools. The teachers are drawn from the ranks of our native church, some thirteen acting thus very regularly and with evident pleasure. The elder lads are under Mr. Clark's tuition, and the senior girls with Mrs. Howell when she is not away on the steamer with Mr. Howell. In her absence that falls to the share of the superintendent, who also does the work of the secretary. An average attendance of thirty girls and one hundred boys is maintained, and we are hopeful that with so many under such direct teaching the future will see large additions to our church members. In connection with the school a teachers' preparation class is conducted on Sunday mornings.

"An evening school is also conducted three times a week for the workmen and working lads, and this is not without some hopeful signs. The church members assist Miss de Hailes in this school.

"EVANGELISTIC WORK.

"To come to our more directly aggressive Gospel work, we have, of course, our station service on Sunday morning. To this we try and secure the attendance of the townsfolk, but, up to the present, with small success. As they do not come to us we go to them, and the church members are divided into several bands, and go forth into all the towns within walking distance of the station every Sunday. Some of them are really very effective preachers, and secure a good hearing. The missionaries accompany one or other of these bands. On Friday evenings a Preachers' Class is conducted by Mr. Clark, and it is hoped that soon one or two of these young men may be definitely set apart for the work, supported by their fellows.

"Every evening a Gospel service is held, and addresses are given by the missionaries and senior church members. Many are seeking after God, and there is a very good spirit prevailing amongst the boys and girls, and young men and young women, as the result of these services.

"Seven have been baptized during the year, eight were transferred from Lukolela church, five have been suspended for various reasons, and one has joined the Church triumphant, leaving the church with twenty-six members in good standing. We expect to baptize several of the inquirers, and be able to reinstate some of the backsliders; but what we are longing for is an awakening amongst the townsfolk. May I ask all the readers of this report to pray that this may be so, and that during 1898 we may witness grand and glorious triumphs of grace amongst the Bobangi?

"PRINTING OFFICE.

"I have not yet mentioned the work done in the printing office. During 1897 the following books, &c., have been issued:—

"In Lo Bobangi (the language at Bolobo and Lukolela), and Chumbiri, Trebo, and Ikoko (A.B.M.U.), and Lulanga (C.B.M.):—

"3rd Vol. of Bible Series, comprising Bible History from Saul to the Captivity.

"'Story of Abraham,' 'Story of Joseph,' and 'Journey of Israelites.' Three little reading books, in large type, for beginners.

"The 'Peep of Day' (translated by Rev. A. Billington, of the A.B.M.U.).

"Our magazine ('Sparks'), Nos. 3, 4, and 5. (This is illustrated with blocks from the HERALD.)

"Church Manual (for our churches at Bolobo and Lukolela).

"Appendix to Hymn Book, 26 hymns. (This brings our hymns in Bobangi to total of 207.)

"Lesson Cards.

"We have in hand for Monsempi the 'Gospel of John.' During the year we have printed a great many forms for the Governments of Congo State and French Congo and also a little printing for the trading houses.

"I have said nothing of the medicine work by Miss de Hailes. This is gaining in favour amongst the townsfolk, and should form another help in influencing for good.

" MISSION STEAMERS.

"Neither have I said much of our steamers. Only those who have helped in this department know what it means to keep two steamers running. That our brethren have been so well supplied at forward stations is a great credit to those in charge of the Goodwill and Peace.

"The development of our work deserves notice. Quite a number of our elder lads have taken advantage of powers invested by the Governor in Mr. Grenfell, and have been legally married. They have built themselves 'wattle and daub' houses, very superior to the ordinary native huts. These, to the number of nearly twenty, form quite a feature in the view of the station as seen from the river, and, together with the station buildings, make up quite an imposing array. One group of these houses is known as Rome, another as Jerusalem, and yet another as Jericho. Thus you see progress is being made in this direction also.

" INDUSTRIAL TRAINING.

"Permit me to add just another word in regard to the industrial training. It is high time this work was undertaken in a more systematic way than is possible at present. Our staff is already large, but the addition of yet another, thoroughly qualified to undertake the oversight of carpenters, builders, brickmakers, &c., would be, I think, a very wise step, and I trust this will soon be done.

"I earnestly hope that 1898 will witness yet more and more progress both at home and on the field."

Writing specially on school work, the Rev. Jas. A. Clark says :—

"I must say how thankful I am for the good health I have enjoyed throughout. One day's slight fever is practically all the illness I have suffered. Not a single Sunday have I been detained through sickness from preaching, teaching, or visiting the neighbouring towns. My wife's health has also been good, on the whole; but this being her first term in Congo, the climate has naturally tried her much more than myself.

"As you know, my work has been largely that of the school, which has continued to grow in numbers, till now our spacious school building is barely large enough to contain us all. An attendance of from 130 to 180 scholars—not all children, for we have some young men and women who attend—requires plenty of space and plenty of supervision, and plenty of patience. We are very fortunate to be so well off for teachers. Miss de Hailes and my wife both devote the whole afternoon to teaching, and, I need not say, render most effective assistance. Mrs. Howell also, when not away on the steamer, very kindly comes to take a class; and Miss Grenfell also now helps us regularly. The more advanced scholars read and write very well, and I also teach them elementary arithmetic and French. Mrs. Clark has a large class of girls, most of whom come from towns some little way off, and who were very rough and wild at first, but they are toning down, and some of them are very promising. We have some very little mites, who do not learn very much, but they like to come, and we are pleased to see them.

"Miss de Hailes will probably tell you of the sewing-class on Saturday afternoons which she and my wife conduct. It is, of course, for girls who are not boarded at the station, but who come from their towns. It is undoubtedly a great success. Some of the girls are now wearing gowns they have made at the class, and very proud they are of them. It is a great change from a bit of loin-cloth to a decent gown, and the people seem to realise that. If any friends at home can spare cloth for the girls' class—not made-up dresses, but the stuff to make them of—it will be most thankfully received by Miss de Hailes and Mrs. Clark. The girls also learn a hymn after the class, and a few words are spoken to them. Most of them now come to the Sunday services.

"SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

"In our Sunday-school, which Mr. Scrivener has perhaps written about, I conduct a large class of senior boys and young men. These lads attend very well and regularly, now they feel that there is something specially for them. Most of the decided Christian lads are teachers in the Sunday-school. After school, on Sunday afternoons, which concludes about five o'clock, the Christian lads go out in small companies to different towns near to preach the Gospel. Mr. Scrivener and I usually accompany or join one of the parties, and help them in the meeting.

"On Friday evenings I have a class in my house, intended to help these young preachers. I have given them a course of very simple outlines of theology, and now I am trying to impart to them some ideas of homiletics, as I find they have a tendency to do what is not altogether unknown in England among young preachers (and among some who are not exactly young)—namely, to wander a good deal from the point in preaching.

"Some few months ago I took advantage of the Henry Reed mission steamer going up river, to proceed as far as Lukolela, taking a boat with me for the return journey. Our brethren of the A.B.M.U., Messrs. Glenesk and Joseph Clark, were making a thorough evangelistic trip, and I was very pleased to be able to help them in preaching to the people at three or four places between here and Lukolela. Our native brother, Lusala Kavundi, was doing remarkably well at Lukolela, I was delighted to find. The people there seemed very pleased to see me again. We had good meetings in the room on the station, which is used for the services, and one evening I went along to the little house erected by one of the natives in his own village on purpose to hold meetings. A service is conducted there every evening by Lusala or one of the lads now assisting him. The house was full the day I was there, and quite a number were listening outside. Altogether I was much cheered by the work being carried on, although it is amid a rapidly decreasing population. Lukolela has dwindled down to a few small villages. Lusala and his helpers, however, get inland sometimes, and do what they can to spread the good news there.

"On my way down I had a large meeting at a town, a few hours above Bolobo, where I spent the night. There are many large towns to the north of us, which may be visited by boat, and we hope to do more in that way than we have accomplished hitherto. If possible we shall in the near future establish one of our young men as evangelist at one of these towns."

WORK AMONGST GIRLS AND WOMEN.

Miss de Hailes, who works so earnestly among the girls and the women has also a very considerable medical work. She reports that—

"During the past year there has been a great deal of sickness, and numbers come in daily for medicine. The greatest trouble is the chest; chills are often taken, and, as the people have very little stamina, they quickly die off. By carefully nursing some of the workmen, they have got better again, though we have lost others, for often they do not come for medicine until all hope of recovery is gone. We are very badly in need of a hospital. I believe many lives might be saved if we only had a place to put the sick ones and nurse them. It is by no means easy work nursing a native. As a rule they think they ought to be cured at once. Unless they have fish and kwanga they do not think they have food; beef-tea, arrowroot, &c., they do not consider food. They decidedly object to a poultice or anything of the sort. When they feel warm they want to sit in the doorway to get cool. It is often very funny with newcomers. They want to choose their own medicine; they fancy the look of a bottle, and say they will have that or nothing, and only when they find that they will have nothing will they give in and take that which is best for them. In the towns the sight of the medicine basket usually gathers several. Many of the women and girls are getting very fond of singing, and though it takes them a long time to learn a hymn, yet they know a few now by heart and never seem tired of them. Some of the chief favourites are—'Rejoice and be glad, the Redeemer has come,' 'The Great Physician,' 'Are you washed in the Blood of the Lamb?' 'Nothing but the Blood of Jesus,' &c. They are very fond of pictures. I should be so glad of any good, large, Scripture pictures, especially for the town work, for the people are none too attentive, and a picture often keeps them from looking around. If any one passes with something to sell—palm oil, fish, palm nuts, &c.—those who are professedly listening will at once settle the price if they wish to buy; and, after a little talk about that, will turn round again and say, 'Go on, I am listening now.' Yes, just listening till someone else comes along. But, with it all, some are beginning to know a little about Jesus and a few Bible stories.

"The Bible-class I started for the women and girls on the station on Friday afternoons is now also attended by many from the towns; I usually have forty-one. This is held in my house. Several town girls are now working for us, and a good many more come to school. The school is much larger now than it was a year ago. At Christmas we had a few days' holiday, which was not appreciated at all by the children, who were longing to begin again. Many are here nearly the whole day, looking at pictures or playing 'snap,' which never fails to give pleasure.

"The town girls' sewing-class, which Mrs. Clark and I have on Saturday afternoons, is now held under some trees in my garden; we usually have between thirty and forty women and girls. Some are beginning to sew quite nicely, and have made dresses for themselves. They sew for about an hour and a half, and then have some singing and a Bible lesson.

"At the men's night school, which I have three times a week, some are getting on with their reading, though most of them find it rather hard work. Until the last few weeks I have taken it alone, but now Miss Grenfell and two or three of the church members have come down to help me. It was very awkward taking all together, as they are in different divisions. I had to manage it this way: I wrote a word on the blackboard, the division in the alphabet spelled it, the syllable division divided, and the more advanced ones said the word. This went on when others who are reading in books were writing; and then the first readers wrote while the others read. Now all are divided into classes, and will, I hope, get on a little quicker. Sometimes when there is time I give them a little arithmetic. We always close with a Bible lesson and hymn. I am very thankful I keep free from sickness. I am very well, and have not been off work for a single day."

THE BOLOBO HARBOUR FOR THE MISSION STEAMERS "PEACE" AND "GOODWILL."

The two Mission steamers, the Peace and the Goodwill, have been constantly employed during the past year in the charge of Brethren Grenfell, Field, and Howell. Mr. Field also rendered special help at Bopoto Station in assisting Mr. Kenred Smith in house building, and subsequently with Mr. Stapleton and Mr. Beedham making a careful survey of the district of Yakusu. Mr. Howell has rendered valuable assistance in building, at Bolobo Station, a repairing shed, a blacksmith's shop, a carpenter's shop, and two storehouses. He writes :—"The whole of this work has been done by our own young men, and will well bear close inspection and beneficial comparison with the product of skilled coast labour. By training these native young men to such work, we believe we are helping them to a useful and honourable life."

With regard to special evangelistic work, Mr. Howell adds :—

"Now with regard to preaching the Gospel, I am trying to do a little of that. I should not like to live out here unless I were able to tell out the old old story, though, it may be, feebly. When on the station I take one service a week. When out on the steamer we always try to stay at a Bobangi town at least once. This last trip we spent a night at New Irebo, on the French side. We went into the town and told out to the folk the love of Christ. At Lukolela I had the pleasure of baptizing two young men, and afterwards receiving them into fellowship. Such joys repay many disappointments, and knock a lot of grumble out of one. Yes, true it is, there are joys, sweet joys out here; and if we will open our soul to them they will abide with us. May we all do so all through 1898!"

LUKOLELA STATION.

Since the departure for furlough in England, in August last, of the Rev. J. and Mrs. Whitehead, the work at this station has been carried on by the native evangelist, Lusala Kavundi; the Rev. A. E. Scrivener, of Bolobo, visiting the station at intervals, and taking a general oversight of the work.

It is cause for much thankfulness that Lusala has devoted himself with such earnestness and success to evangelistic labour, and that he is greatly esteemed and beloved by the people of the district.

The Rev. J. Whitehead reports :—

"The work during 1897 has not been without its encouraging side. While there are many things concerning Lukolela which are very disappointing, there are some things which help us to look forward to the future rather hopefully. In reckoning up at the end of 1896, we found that the death-rate for that year had been 75 per 1,000 of the population, and I have great reason to believe, from the numbers I kept previous to leaving Lukolela in August last, and since from letters received, that the death-rate among the people has been very much higher during 1897. But the Gospel seems to be touching many of those who are left, and inquiry concerning the truth as it is in Jesus may be heard of in strange places. The peace which passeth all understanding, which has been the very evident possession of some of the converts on nearing the silence of the grave, has made some think on these things. The public opinion of the Bobangi tribe at Lukolela is being somewhat modified by the preaching and acceptance of Gospel teaching—many evil habits have sunk in the public estimation. And if we take an interval of a few years, the better state of public opinion is very clearly evident to any thoughtful observers.

"There have been four baptisms during the year, and four others were accepted as candidates for baptism and church fellowship in December last, and these were to be baptized on the next visit of one of the missionaries.

"Near the beginning of the year there was an interesting little feature in our work. Bokakola (before whose house Lusala Kavundi used to hold a school; see MISSIONARY HERALD for February, 1897) had removed his house, and on the site of it had erected a neat little building of wattle and clay—the best house in the district—and had dedicated it to the service of God, and accordingly services were held in it every night, which were conducted by Lusala and other members of the native church in turn.

"We found, to our delight, that the seed of life sown earlier on in the history of our Mission, by some who are not now with us in the work in the field itself, has been bearing fruit in one of our districts near; an old workman has been doing his best to disseminate the truth, as far as his knowledge of it went, in his own home, and so far as we can judge he seems to be a sturdy practitioner of his doctrines.

"Lusala and the various young men connected with our little church have made several visits inland, and their efforts have met with as much success as can reasonably be expected from first visits.

"Since our departure from Lukolela, in August last, the station has been in charge of Lusala Kavundi, our much respected young evangelist, under the oversight of the Rev. A. E. Scrivener, of Bolobo, who visits the station periodically. Lusala's labours in his difficult post have been very highly commended. May God mightily help him with wisdom and strength.

"Since passing the Gospel according to John in Bobangi through the press at the beginning of the year at Bolobo, I have not attempted any translation work of a definite nature. My time has been very largely taken up with the preparation of the Bobangi Dictionary and Grammar. I hope to complete the MS. for the printers in a few weeks."

MONSEMBI STATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Weeks returned to Monsempi, after a season of furlough in England, in July last, when Mr. Stonelake left for England and Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton for Yakusu, the staff subsequently being reinforced by Mr. Dodds and Mr. Jeffery.

Mr. Weeks, reporting on the work, writes:—

"Soon after our return my wife commenced a school in one of the towns up the Mungala creek, about an hour's paddling from here. We went together one Sunday to ask if they wished to have a school. The folk were delighted with the prospect and promised to attend. The next afternoon Mrs. Weeks went in our boat, the Derby. As the boat neared the towns, one of the boys paddling commenced ringing a bell, and very soon the boys and girls collected from all parts of the town, some even coming from the villages higher up the creek.

"The schoolhouse is a clump of beautiful palms that not only afford friendly shade, but serve also to hang the alphabet cards upon. Twenty-five boys and girls, men and women, began the mysteries of book learning on the first day, but gradually the numbers increased, until sixty names were on the book, with an average attendance of forty. The spectators were numerous, and often interrupted by their gratuitous advice to the scholars, or jeers and laughter at the forgetfulness of some and the stupid but amusing ignorance of others. It was very trying to the teacher's patience to carry on school under such circumstances, but after a week or two 'teaching the white man's book' lost its novelty to the idlers, so the scholars were left in peace.

"Mrs. Weeks took the school on alternate afternoons, and was enjoying the work very much when she fell sick with a severe bilious hæmaturic fever, which so prostrated and weakened her that it will be some months before she is able to resume that work, especially as she is anxious to work the girls' school here up to its former numbers.

"This work, however, will not be neglected, as we have arranged for three of our senior boys to not only take the Mungala School daily, but also to start another at a town below us, called Bonjoko. Two will go in the morning and two in the afternoon, the odd one being used to take turn about with the others, and whoever remains will either assist in school work on the station or help me in language work. But for the Congo River flood, which has inundated the country for hundreds of miles, I should be writing of these schools as an accomplished fact. The river during the last week has gone down rapidly, so we intend (D.V.) to commence next week this all-important work. We shall often have to visit these schools; but I feel sure that such work will fully repay any toil and anxiety expended on it, for, if we can win the present generation of young to forsake their superstitions, we shall have accomplished much towards winning the country for our beloved Master.

"During the last two months, at service time, I have sent a bell ringing through the towns on either side of us with very marked success, for whereas previously we seldom had more than four or five townfolk at our service, we have had an increasing number, until now our chapel is full, and, notwithstanding extra forms have been made, many sit on the floor, while others stand at the door. If this increased interest is permanent, we shall soon have to enlarge our place of worship. I am sure many will join us in praying that this awakened desire to hear the Word may result in many turning from their darkness and cruelty to the all-loving Christ.

"Early in next year Mr. Stapleton's translation of John's Gospel will be in the hands of our scholars. I have commenced the Gospel of Luke, which is now the only one untranslated. A grammar and dictionary of this widely-spoken language are being prepared for the press, and I hope, towards the end of the coming year, to ask the Committee's permission to print them.

"We have had our discouragements as well as joys: some who were thought to be very near the Kingdom have fallen grievously away. These heart-sorrows can only be understood by those who have passed through a like experience, and what Christian worker has not? Still, with all the sorrows of our work, to preach such a Gospel as we have to such a people is a privilege for which we are devoutly thankful to God. I would rather lead men to Christ than armies to victory, rather win souls than capture cities; the glory of the one will fade in the Presence of the King of Peace, but the joy of the other will be enhanced by that Presence, and will abide through all eternity. May God give us greater faith in the power of His message to men to woo them from their superstitions and break the bonds of their slavery to sin."

The Rev. H. T. Stonelake writes:—

"During the first half of last year, Mr. Stapleton and I were busy, he with language, translation, and the general work of the station, and I with the boys' school and the building of my house.

"Mr. Stapleton completed his translation of the Gospel and First Epistle of John, and prepared a book of notes on the Congo languages that would have been of the greatest service to me had it been ready two years before, and I have no doubt will be of very great advantage to new missionaries in the future.

"In the schools, the boys attended and worked well, and their progress was very gratifying. The girls' school we kept together, but we cannot claim that under our tuition the girls made conspicuous progress.

"Our visits to neighbouring towns were always welcomed, and a ready hearing was almost invariably given to our message.

"We both enjoyed good health, all our work was maintained, and we rejoice to know that we were not spending our strength for nought.

"Mr. and Mrs. Weeks and Mrs. Stapleton returned to Mosembe in July, to the very great delight of the missionaries and the people."

BOPOTO STATION.

As will be seen from the report of Mr. Kenred Smith, there have been, during the past year, many sorrows and anxieties connected with the work at Bopoto.

In consequence of the grave illness of Mrs. Kirkland soon after her arrival, Mr. Kirkland was compelled to bring her back to England; and as medical judgment is very decidedly adverse to her return to Africa, the services of both Mr. and Mrs. Kirkland will be lost to the Congo Mission, to the distress and sorrow of both, as well as to their attached colleagues on the field and the Committee at home.

We are thankful to be in a position to report the recovery of Mr. William L. Forfeitt, after his long and stubborn attack of dysentery, and his probable return to Bopoto with Mrs. Forfeitt in the near future.

Mr. Kenred Smith writes:—

"During the past twelve months many changes have been made in the station staff, and I gratefully acknowledge my indebtedness to those friends who have so largely helped to keep the various departments of our work here in a vigorous and healthy condition.

"Many of the villages in the district have been visited, and the Gospel of God's love proclaimed. In the Moya towns, where the Riverine language is not understood, Elumbula, a promising Christian from one of the Moya villages, has acted as interpreter. In almost every instance an interested and attentive audience has awaited the preacher's message, due, doubtless, partly to the fact that here we are breaking up nearly new ground.

"Our school work amongst the boys has been carried on as usual during the year, and is one of the most successful and encouraging branches of our work. Religious instruction is always kept in view, and at the opening services of the school the boys and natives have a daily opportunity of hearing of the things of God.

"The girls' school, successfully carried on by Mrs. W. L. Forfeitt, was discontinued during the early part of the year, owing to the absence of all ladies from the station. On the arrival of Mrs. Kirkland there was promise of a bright recommencement of the girls' school, when illness unfortunately compelled Mrs. Kirkland to relinquish the work and return to Europe.

"The school boys who can read are eagerly looking for the Gospel of Luke, translated into the Bopoto tongue by Mr. W. L. Forfeitt, and which we trust is now in the press. One has more than once heard some of the boys praying that God would help Mr. Forfeitt in his work, so that the Gospel of Luke might arrive quickly, and they possess in their own tongue the Word of God, enabling them to learn more of Him and His salvation.

"A new school chapel has been erected, and, since April, has proved itself a great boon, both as regards the school work and the preaching services, which have been held regularly, and well attended.

"Medicines have been dispensed during the year to natives of the near villages, who gather at the ringing of the daily medicine bell.

"After the departure of Mr. Kirkland, Mr. Millman, at the urgent request of the local committee, came forward to Bopoto, and is now associated with me in the work here, and with large hopefulness is throwing his energies into the work amongst the lads in the school.

"Last year two young men were baptized by the Rev. W. L. Forfeitt, and there are other three, I am most glad to say, who, during the past twelve months, have proved themselves learners of Jesus, and who have not been ashamed to witness for Him. We feel we cannot be too careful before admitting the natives as members of the Church, and therefore test them by long probation before urging them to make public confession of Christ by baptism."

The Rev. William L. Forfeitt writes :—

"The permanent school building at Bopoto, in the preparation and commencement of which we had some considerable share, was opened in the early months of the year, and has evidently proved a very great boon not only to those who teach, but also to the continually increasing number of lads who are eagerly availing themselves of its advantages. The many letters we have received since arriving in England from our school children is the best proof possible of the progress they are making in the art of writing, and we have been greatly cheered too by the evident interest these children are taking in the Gospel message which is being proclaimed to them and we are hoping for very great blessing in the near future.

"The special feature in last year's report was the baptism of two lads, the first-fruits of our work at Bopoto, and it is most gratifying to note at the end of another year that we have no reason to regret having admitted them to Christian fellowship. One of them is with me in England, and has been making rapid progress at school, and I confidently anticipate that his acquisition of the English language will greatly assist us in our future efforts to gain a better knowledge of the vernacular.

It has been most interesting, too, to read his letters to his friends in Africa month by month, pleading with them to yield themselves up to the Saviour. My colleague writes very encouragingly also of the steadfastness of the one who is now with him and speaks of his efforts to spread the goodness in the surrounding villages. Mr. Smith also refers most hopefully to other lads who give great promise of a change of heart.

"Early in the year our hopes ran high as we were able to rejoice at the return of our colleague, Mr. Kirkland, with his wife, to his much-loved work at Bopoto. The girls hailed with very great delight also the arrival of another white lady amongst them, all being so eager for the reopening of the girls' school, which had to be given up when Mrs. Forfeitt left for home. But we soon heard with deep sorrow that Mrs. Kirkland had been prostrated with a very severe illness, which necessitated her immediate return to this country; and subsequently the doctor's decision that she may not return has been a very heavy blow, not only to them and to us, but also to the work. It is hard to have to give up such valued colleagues and say, 'Thy will be done!'

"Mr. Millman is now in association with Mr. Smith on the field, and the latest news received from them is most satisfactory. My own health, I am glad to say, has now been thoroughly re-established, and we are anticipating the joy of returning to Bopoto in two or three months' time."

YAKUSU OR SARGENT STATION.

Of Yakusu Station it has well been said it has been "built in tears."

In the last report the death of Albert Wherrett, just at the very commencement of his missionary life, was reported, and now we have to record the translation of Harry White, whose heart was so set upon the establishment of this farthest of our inland Congo stations—in his own words, "only a few miles from Stanley Falls, which promises to become the ultimate capital of Central Africa."

Mr. White died on the night of July 4th, 1897, on board the ss. Niger, whilst on the voyage to England. His body was laid to rest at Mayumba, on the West Coast of Africa, and with him the infant son of the late Rev. G. R. and Mrs. Pople, of Tumba Station, who also died on board the Niger, after having lived only eight weeks.

The Rev. J. R. M. Stephens, Mr. White's colleague, tells the sad story of Mr. White's death in the following words:—

"At the time of his death we were nearing Mayumba, and it was decided that we would bury our dear dead on land, if possible. Captain Davis promised every assistance and was most helpful and kind.

"It flashed across my mind that Tom Comber had been buried somewhere in the vicinity. I went ashore with the purser, and got a lad to show me the way to the spot where the few graves were. To my great joy I saw there the tombstone marking the last resting-place of our dear brother. A lieutenant of the Royal Navy who was drowned in the bay was buried next, but there was sufficient space between and permission was obtained from the Commandant to bury at that spot. It is a great comfort to feel that we could lay him to rest by the side of dear Comber. It was a wonderful token of God's great love in the darkness.

"At 12.30 I held the service on board. The passengers, officers, and seamen were present. There was only one coffin. We buried the little lad resting on the breast of dear White. The coffin was afterwards lowered into a surf-boat, the Captain going with it and taking charge. The second boat followed with Mrs. White, the purser, Mr. Hess, and myself. We landed safely through the beating surf, and then proceeded to the burial-place, three-quarters of a mile away.

"The flags of the French post, the English and German houses, were lowered to half-mast, and gentlemen from these places accompanied us to the grave, and also a number of the natives.

"A short committal service and all was over, and there we leave our brother sleeping.

"'Tis a peaceful spot. At the back a wide lagoon, and the hills covered with trees rising in the distance. Seaward, a sandy beach and the rolling waves, ever to beat a ceaseless requiem, 'Until He come.'

"From the steamer deck we could just see the white marble cross of Mr. Comber's grave, and thus take a last look at the spot which held the earthly tabernacles of those who counted not their lives dear to them that they might bear the glad message of Christ's salvation to Africa's sons.

"I tried to explain to a few of the boys there who and what our brethren were. They sleep in no strange land; for the tongue of the people is of that they had spoken to others in Congo-land, telling the story of God's great love.

"Dear White! He was a brave, devoted soul. No sacrifice was too heavy for him. This two and a-half years he has been out have been full of arduous toil, often, however, interrupted by severe illness. There is no doubt that it is owing to his insistence and determination in the face of great difficulties that Sargent Station was opened as early as it was. Well I remember the three of us celebrating its first anniversary on February 8th last, and the prayers that went up asking for it a rich future of God's blessing. Doubts as to our occupation were troubling us at that time, but these have since been swept away, and it was a joy to our brother and myself, when calling upon the Governor-General at Boma, just before we left, to see all the papers and find the purchase of the site completed.

"The founding of the station has been truly laid in the martyrs' blood. By Wherrett's, and now by White's death, Sargent Station is doubly consecrated to the winning of Yakusu and the neighbouring towns for Christ."

Mr. Beedham, reporting upon the record of the station during the past year, writes :—

"Any report of work done at Yakusu during the past year must of necessity be short and somewhat incomplete. The changefulness and uncertainty of Congo Mission plans have been exemplified over and over again in our past year's experience. We have not a worker on the station who can speak of a whole year's work. Any report must tell of beginnings rather than accomplishments, of hopes rather than realisations.

"We began the year under the cloud of Mr. Wherrett's death—a sad blow to the station and a loss to the general work.

"The arrival of Mr. Stephens to fill the vacant place was immediately followed by Mr. White's severe illness and the State notice to quit Yakusu, which was afterwards happily withdrawn.

"This rapid succession of events made it imperative that Mr. White should be relieved as early as possible, and be free to return to Europe if necessary.

"With this object in view I was asked to come up country and join Mr. Stephens in the work done here.

"On my arrival at the end of March, however, Mr. White and Mr. Stephens were so sick that it was deemed absolutely essential that both should go home if their lives were to be spared. Mr. Cameron, who had come up on the Goodwill for a much-needed change, very kindly volunteered to stay here with me until further relief arrived.

"At the end of April Mr. Dodds came along from Bopoto, and Mr. Cameron returned to Wathen. After one month, spent in arranging the work and getting hold of the strings generally, Mr. Dodds developed dysenteric signs, which absolutely incapacitated him for work. On the arrival of the Peace, on August 5th, it was thought necessary that he should seek a change, and on the advice of Mr. Field and myself he accompanied the Peace down river. The next three months I spent quite alone, endeavouring to keep up and to push on the work of establishing the station, and preparing for the permanent work which we hope will be carried on here. On November 4th Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton arrived to take charge of the work, and the last two months have given promise of better things to come.

"Various attempts have been made at the formation of a school, but sickness and lack of workers, with their inevitable interruptions, have made any continuous work impossible up to the present. We are hoping, however, that the New Year will witness the formation of a permanent work amongst the many happy boys and girls who daily visit our station. Sunday services, too, have had a share in our category of attempts. Happily we can say that with the coming of Mr. and Mrs. Stapleton these have at last assumed a more lasting shape, and promise to become interesting and helpful meetings.

"I am very happy to have had a share in the formation of a station in this district, and rejoice in the dawning of brighter days."

Mr. Stapleton adds the following interesting information to the report of Mr. Beedham :—

"My wife and I have been here hardly two months yet, and it takes some little time to settle in a new district and amongst a strange people.

"It was with considerable regret that we loosened the ties which bound us to Monsempi, the first sphere of our missionary life, but when the local committee urged the needs of Sargent Station, owing to the death of Mr. White and the illness of Mr. Dodds, and asked me to take charge of the forward work here, both my wife and I felt, after prayerful consideration, that our brethren were but voicing the call of the Saviour, and 'we are not our own.'

"We left Monsempi on the Goodwill, and during the trip to Yakusu I was able to revise the MSS. of my translation of John's Gospel into the Bangala language, and it is now in the hands of our printers at Bolobo.

"We reached Yakusu on November 4th.

"You are aware that the Baptist Missionary Society is the first to take up work in the Stanley Falls district. So little was known of the distribution of its various peoples and the several ranges of its many dialects, that Mr. White, on settling, agreed to make no attempt at building a permanent station for two years, but to spend that time in moving about gleaning information as to the relative importance of the different tribes and languages which meet here, so that the best centre could be chosen for our mission station, and that language adopted which seemed to give most promise of life and capacity for swallowing up its weaker neighbours.

"Both Mr. Field, who was in charge of the steamer, and Mr. Scrivener, who had come up for a change, agreed that we ought to use the Goodwill for a few days to visit the people in the towns on the river-bank between the mouth of the Lomami River and Yakusu, leaving the inland peoples to be visited later.

"We visited and counted the houses in ten towns, which contain at least 16,000 people. Estimating the other towns of some people we have seen, the Lokele tribe comprises probably 30,000 people; 16,000 of these cluster along about twenty miles of river-bank not far from the Lomami mouth, and some distance below the site of our station, though the people in Yakusu itself belong to this tribe.

"At least three other tribes—the Bakumu, the Wabira, and the Wamanga, can be reached from this point, and we cannot consider our survey complete until we have visited their towns and learned something of their numbers and extent. If good health be granted us, we hope to make trips amongst all these early in the year.

"I prefer to say nothing as to the opportunities this field offers for missionary effort, until, from personal knowledge, I can speak authoritatively. One thing is certain—mission work here will not be of the same simple character as at most of our mission stations on the Congo where one tribe is met with and one language suffices for evangelisation.

"I mentioned, in reporting from Monsempi, in 1895, that we had baptized there a girl who was living with my wife. She was stolen by the Arabs from her home near the Lomami mouth, and after her conversion she was filled with an intense longing to tell the news of her Saviour's love to her own people. It was the burden of her prayers and the constant desire of her heart. That wish is now gratified.

"At our Sunday services our Bangala and Upoto workmen gather and sing the Monsempi hymns. The Scriptures are read in that language. I give them an address, and Salamo translates it or gives one of her own to the people of Yakusu, who belong to her tribe. We had nearly one hundred of them round us under a spreading tree last Sunday, and then sang three hymns in the Yakusu language—our first attempts at a literature.

"Salamo was taken away when quite a little child, and has since spoken two other languages, but it is astonishing how quickly her native tongue is coming back to her lips.

"One little knows what will be the final result of one's work. We dared hardly hope when Salamo was baptized that ere three years were past she would be preaching the message of peace to her own tribe.

"So God works out His purposes, using even an Arab slave raid for the furtherance of His Kingdom. May she be the little one which shall become a thousand!"

THE BAHAMAS MISSION.

NASSAU AND OUT ISLANDS.

The Rev. C. A. Dann, of Nassau, sends the following encouraging report:—

“This has been a memorable year with us, as the year in which we have so far been blessed by God as to shake ourselves clear of monetary aid from the Society in England. The Nassau church now assumes the task of entirely supporting its own pastor, and the out islands have for two or three years past been independent of financial support from England. When we consider that five years ago the central church in Nassau was reduced to a fragment by a disastrous split, and that the Nassau trouble sadly affected the out islands, we stand in wonder at this result, and say, with thankful hearts, ‘What hath God wrought.’ The mother church has grown from 70 to 256 members during the five years, while the members connected with the whole Mission total up to 3,554.

“During the past year I was compelled to send my sister home on account of ill-health, and I am now working alone—‘yet not alone.’ Early in the year we had a gracious revival in Nassau, the centre of which was our dear old Zion. Mr. Edwards an English Evangelist, came here just when the work was awaiting him. A great many are witnesses to-day to the blessing of this timely visit,

"On the out islands I have been deeply grieved at having to handle two serious cases of discipline, but on the whole the churches have given me great joy. Three new chapels have been completed during the year, two in places where there has never been a building set apart for the worship of God. On Grand Bahama, at Freetown, where the Sacerdotalists had, five years before, set up a rival cause which threatened to destroy ours, I had the privilege of administering the death-blow to this effort of bigotry by receiving back to our fellowship the heads of the now defunct 'church,' and by baptizing the young people who had been in fellowship there. In visiting the churches this year I have travelled at least 2,000 miles, mainly by sea, and often in very stormy weather.

"Our Inagua friends, fired by the example of Zion, are making a determined effort to secure the services of a missionary from England. So energetic are they that I firmly believe that they will reach the end they seek to attain. Their senior deacon, Mr. Henry Wylly, deserves very much credit for the way in which he has piloted this church through its many difficulties, and it is his one desire to see an earnest missionary at work there before he 'departs to be with Christ.' May God grant him this."

TURKS AND CAICOS ISLANDS, AND SAN DOMINGO.

Up to the date of going to press no report has been received from the Rev. J. H. Pusey, of Grand Turk.

TRINIDAD.

The Rev. R. E. and Mrs. Gammon, greatly needing a season of rest, arrangements were entered into with the Rev. B. E. Horlick, M.A., of Edinburgh University and Mansfield College, Oxford, to take charge of the work of the Mission in Trinidad during Mr. Gammon's furlough to England.

Mr. Horlick arrived in the island in August, and shortly afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Gammon left for England.

The Committee feel very thankful for the good work done by Mr. Horlick. He has been warmly welcomed by the people, and has thrown himself into church and evangelistic work with great earnestness.

The Rev. R. E. Gammon writes :—

"I can only give a general account of the work till August of last year, when the Rev. B. E. Horlick, M.A., was sent out by the Society so that my wife and self could come home on furlough. Up to that time the work of the church in all its branches was steadily pursued, the attendance at the Sunday services was fairly well maintained, and several of the young people were showing an interest in spiritual things. Eight candidates had been baptized, and Mr. Horlick baptized three others before the close of the year. Early in the year a Young People's C.E. Society was started, in connection with the church, by Mr. M. D. Forsyth (late of Whitehaven), and so far the interest in it seems to have been kept up, and has made the young folks feel that they can do something.

"Mr. Gamble has continued his mission at the Belmont suburb. The Sunday services have been regularly conducted at Chaguanas.

"From recent letters I am glad to learn that Mr. Horlick is working most earnestly, and that the members highly appreciate his efforts on their behalf.

"SOUTHERN DISTRICT.

"The total number of members for the Southern District churches remains the same as for 1896 (namely, 853). Before leaving for England I baptized twenty-eight candidates for six of the churches in this district, and no doubt many more have been baptized before now by Mr. Horlick, as he reported a large number of candidates who were waiting for the completion of the baptistery at 3rd Company village. Hitherto the baptisms have taken place in the muddy rivers of this district, which have long been felt to be unsuitable for the purpose. The members of 1st Company Church are busy taking down the San Fernando Chapel to re-erect it in their village. There have been sixteen marriages in the Port of Spain Church and nine in the Southern District for the year.

JAMAICA.

CALABAR COLLEGE, KINGSTON.

The Committee of the Calabar College, Kingston, Jamaica, report for the past year that—

"Although the year opened with a somewhat clouded prospect, the work of the College has gone on steadily. Disadvantages have been bravely faced, and the attempt honestly made to meet the educational demands of the time. In both departments the conduct of the students has been on the whole very satisfactory; discipline has been steadily maintained; and the health of the institution has not suffered at a time when there was much sickness in the community generally. Two students, indeed, belonging respectively to the first and second year, were reluctantly compelled to relinquish their duties on account of failure of sight, while the connection of two others with the College has been discontinued since they did not show the necessary aptitude for the work. Seven normal students, however, completed their period of study, and six of them are now occupied in schools in different parts of the island, and one theological student has also finished the usual course and hopes soon to enter upon a suitable sphere of labour. The College Committee have given their earnest attention to the question of a new site for the College, but have not yet succeeded in obtaining one that is fully suitable."

THE JAMAICA CHURCHES.

The forty-eighth annual report of the Jamaica Baptist Union gives a very depressing account of the condition of the island, and of the churches, during the past year. The Committee of the Union say :—

"The burden of the reports for 1897 is, almost without exception, the cry of 'Hard times.' The years 1895 and 1896, which were confessedly very trying ones, were grievously surpassed in this particular by the year just ended. The apparent causes, so far as they affect the majority of the members of our churches, and are mentioned in many of their reports, have been the opposites, drought and superabundant rain, prevalence of sickness, scarcity of work for artisans and labourers, ruinously low prices for island products, and the practical closing of the markets of other countries to some of our commodities, by high tariffs or unfair competition. But behind all these physical and commercial causes Christians cannot fail to recognise that there may be a Divine hand at work withholding temporal blessings because of the continuance and prevalence of sin. There is an ancient law which has not been revoked, which reads : 'If ye will not hearken unto me, your strength shall be spent in vain : for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.' And there is also the glad word of promise attached to the living of a life of praise : 'Let all the people praise Thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase ; and God, our own God, shall bless us.'

"The effects of the wide-spread depression have been manifest in greatly reduced attendance at the house of God, many members declaring that they have not suitable clothing in which to appear, and some being represented as scarcely having the necessaries of life. And with this, contributions for all religious purposes have seriously and unavoidably declined. Pastors' incomes, in many instances, have been so severely curtailed that they have had extreme difficulty in making absolutely needful provision for their daily wants ; to the extent of nearly a thousand pounds have donations for building purposes fallen off ; and the 'gifts presented' to the world's Redeemer for making known His salvation in the regions beyond have gone down lamentably in connection with many of the congregations. A multitude of extracts might be selected from the reports in illustration and support of these statements.

"The number of churches in the Union is the same as at the close of the previous year. Two names disappear from the roll : viz., Bethany (St. Andrew), and Coultart Grove. The former has, it seems, ceased to exist ; and the latter has become amalgamated with Harmony Vale. The loss of these two churches is made up by the two that were received into the Union at the last annual meeting. The number to be reported on therefore is 179.

"In summarising the statistics supplied, and in comparing them with those of the preceding year, we find the following :—

Restored	853	"	212 "
Received.....	295	"	149 "
Total	3,492	or	792 less added to fellowship.

"The losses from various causes that have occurred have been :—

Died	585	or	27 more than in 1896.
Excluded	1,438	"	5 less "
Dismissed	172	"	78 " "
Withdrawn	141	"	72 more "
Erased	864	"	74 less "

Total 3,198, giving a net decrease of 706.

"This is the first time for twenty-one years that a decrease in membership has taken place. In 1876 a decrease was reported of 133. The membership of the churches is reported to be 34,140. Deducting the number shown to have been lost from the total of the previous year, there is an unexplained discrepancy of 187 in the figures. In one case, on a change of pastor taking place, the minister taking charge found 70 fewer names on the Church rolls than were reported by his predecessor. Such serious defects in keeping the records materially affect the value of the annual statistics. The number of Inquirers reported is 3,533, the lowest number for nineteen years. Whatever other causes may have been at work, there can be no reasonable doubt that the commercial depression had told with serious effect upon the churches, as the figures just given clearly show.

"MISSION CHURCHES.

"Of the churches in other lands, reports have been received from those in the Cayman Islands, Bocas-del-Toro, and Port Limon. Jacmel is unreported. In the foreign churches reported there have been added 62 members, and lost 22, leaving them with an increase of 40. The sum of over £77 was contributed for building purposes.

"Bocas-del-Toro is about to receive a new pastor in the person of Rev. E. C. Notman, who, with his wife, is now in Jamaica, on his way to his sphere of labour, where this Union prays he may be greatly blest in his work. Rev. J. H. Sobey and Mrs. Sobey paid a visit to the U.S.A. for the benefit of their health, and have now returned to Costa Rica."

The Rev. Alfred Ll. Jenkins reports upon the work in Brittany during the past year, and calls special attention to the present clerical reaction in France. He states that in his judgment—

"The condemnation of M. Zola marks the climax of the clerical reaction which set in four or five years ago, and the beginning, as I very much apprehend, of a period of clerical tyranny and of a retrograde legislation.

"We have this year been spared those direct and personal attacks which our local clerical press published against us last year; but the campaign against our efforts has continued as bitter as ever. Under these circumstances we have deemed it advisable to limit ourselves, for the present, to the stations which are already established.

"MORLAIX.

"The French services have been held as usual in our town chapel. The small congregation has, however, suffered some loss from death. Three of its members died in the course of the year. Two of these were converts from Roman Catholicism, who remained steadfast to the last; the third was a sister, a native of Bavaria, who settled in our midst some years ago, and whose fervent piety and charity was edifying to all. She showed her appreciation of the work by leaving, among other small legacies, a sum of about £40 towards the Mission.

"MADELEINE.

"The Breton meetings in this mission-hall have been regularly held on Sabbath evenings. They have been better attended than last year, but the opposition of the owner of the rope factory, on which the people very much depend for a living, in this quarter of the town, prevents many from following the meetings. There is also, no doubt, another cause, and that is, that the working class is more intent on pleasure than it used to be. Drink, worldliness, and frivolity are on the increase, and every serious thought seems banished from their minds. My experience, in this respect, is very much the same as that of other brethren employed in evangelistic work in France, who feel that very little is to be done in the towns, and that the rural districts are much more favourable.

"ROSCOFF.

"Our Sailors' Rest, in this seaport town, has again rendered good service under Mr. Messervy's superintendence. The reading-room is opened three times a week and on Sundays. A group of fifteen to twenty young fishermen are the usual attendants at ordinary times; but, in summer, some English sailors and Protestant tourists find their way to the meetings, which have been, at times, very good. It is in Roscoff that the singing is best. The young sailors sing our hymns with evident pleasure, and it is no unusual thing to hear them sing in the streets.

"PRIMEL.

"Our unpardonable sin, in the eyes of our enemies, is that we should have established ourselves in this small fishing port with a view to permanent settlement, and that, in addition to preaching, we have tried to benefit the people materially. Through the help of my brothers, a rope factory, which is prospering, has been established, and a small steamer built and placed in the hands of a Primel crew. These efforts, and others, tending to improve the conditions of trade in this locality, have annoyed and vexed the incumbent of the parish exceedingly, and it is to him that many of the articles in the papers are to be traced. His attempts, however, at creating divisions in Primel itself have been but partly successful; they have not materially affected our meetings, which are as well attended now as in the past.

"LANNEANON.

"If we leave the coast and make our way towards the interior of the Breton peninsula, we come to this station, which is built on one of the lower ridges of our Arrhe Hills. It is here that our brother Collobert labours. His report says that the work has been encouraging, the results having been satisfactory, both at Lanneanon itself and in the surrounding district. Every time I have been there I have found the hall well filled.

"THE GUILLY.

"The day-school which we opened in this hamlet last year, under the direction of Mr. Chopin, has proved a success. From thirty, the number of day pupils, boys and girls, has reached sixty-five, and we are now building an extra room to accommodate a still greater number. Fifty of these pupils attend the Sunday-school, and the progress in all branches through the year has been highly satisfactory. Indeed, Mr. Chopin says he never had more intelligent pupils. In the space of a year children who neither read nor wrote or knew a word of French, have learnt both to read and write and to speak tolerably in French. The Government inspector, who has visited the school, expressed to Mr. Chopin his entire satisfaction. 'You cannot fail to succeed, and you deserve it,' were his parting words to our friend on his last visit. The services are held every Sabbath in the schoolroom, and are well attended.

"CARTRAIX.

"The new room where the meetings are held in this small town was opened in the course of the summer. It was inaugurated by a marriage service, the happy pair being the son and the daughter of our two colporteurs.

"Our friend Hervet, the colporteur, who lives in this town, has been regularly employed at his work of colportage as well as our brother Morvan. They have travelled over a considerable part of our country, visiting every farm and cottage, selling copies of the Scriptures and explaining the value of the Word of God. Hard words and threats are at times addressed to them, though this is not generally the case, the people being civil, as a rule, when spoken to in the same way."

NORTHERN DISTRICT.

TURIN AND GENOA.

The Rev. W. K. Landels, reporting on the work of the past year in Turin and the district, writes :—

"Never have I felt so much difficulty in writing a report as this year, and that, perhaps, because I have to tell of many difficulties and trials to patience and faith, and of few results to labour. At the same time, I cannot but feel that it has been a year of spiritual blessing in many individual cases, and of discipline to myself, and thus, I trust, a year of preparation for greater blessing in the near future. The Gospel has been faithfully preached, no opportunity has been neglected of announcing the 'glad tidings' of salvation, the good seed has been cast into many hearts; and, after all, that is all that is required of us. The results of our labours are in God's hands, and will be forthcoming in His own good time. We can and must sow, but God alone can give the increase.

"Our Meetings, Classes, &c., numbered in all 495, and these, seeing that we have had only one man in charge during the year, represent an immense amount of work and activity.

"Our Halls are the same as last year, the one in Via Saluzzo being at the entire charge of the brethren themselves, who cheerfully contribute to the maintenance of the work.

"Our Membership is rather smaller than last year, our losses having been somewhat more numerous than our gains. The roll has also been revised, and the names cancelled of a number who are living out of Turin, but who have hitherto retained their membership. The number of names on our church book, on the 31st December, was sixty-one, nearly the whole of whom may be considered as effective.

"The special difficulties we have had to deal with during the past year were brought about by the introduction into our midst of a number of a evil-disposed persons, who, professing to be followers of the Gospel, did not scruple to sow the seeds of discord among the members, and were successful in creating ill-feeling among a number, and in disturbing the peace and harmony of the whole church.

"The New Year has opened with far brighter and better prospects. The attendance at the services is improving, the disturbing elements have been removed, a more hopeful spirit is manifesting itself among the brethren, a number of new people are gathering around us, and we have learned by experience how utterly weak we are, and how absolute must be our dependence on the working of the Spirit of God in our midst.

"Finances.—Our local balance-sheet totals up to rather less than last year. For general purposes we raised Lire 653,15, and for evangelist work Lire 625,05, making a total of Lire 1278,20, or £51 2s. 6d. sterling. Of this total £44 6s. 11d. was raised by the people themselves."

SUSA AND DISTRICT.

"The most interesting thing about the work in this district is that, as far as the rent of the halls and all local expenses are concerned, it is entirely self-supporting. For some time after the commencement of the work help was sent from the church in Turin, but now all the expenses in connection with the three halls in Susa, Meana, and Gravera are contributed on the spot. I have much pleasure in sending the following extracts from Signor Baratti's report :—

"I have been here since the month of October, 1896, having taken the place of the late Sig. P. E. Jahier. It has been my joy to see the work slowly but surely developing itself.

“Susa.—Our hall here, although just outside the town and thus hidden from public observation, has been frequented regularly by some thirty persons, many of whom come a long distance from the villages among the mountains.

“Meana.—The meetings here are always well attended. Persecution is not wanting, but the brethren having tasted that the Lord is good, have no fear of the fury of the priest. Sunday after Sunday they bring their children to the Sabbath-school, which numbers from thirty to forty scholars. The converts are faithful and zealous—lamps shining in the dark places. In the winter they live in their stables, half under ground, for the sake of the warmth. There they read the Word of God, they sing and pray, and often walk for miles in the dark winter nights in order to be present at the meetings, and to find comfort in the public worship of God. During last summer a new convert called Bar came every Sunday from Mattia, several miles away, to Meana, to be instructed in God’s Word.

“Through the kindness of Sir R. Pullar, of Perth, a young evangelist has settled in Meana, and he will now have the special care of that station and of Gravere.

“Gravere.—The people belonging to this parish are, for the most part, shepherds, who, during the summer months are away in the high mountains pasturing their cattle. During the winter they live in the midst of their oxen, sheep, and goats, this being the cheapest way of protecting themselves from the great cold. During the whole of the year we held our meetings regularly, and also had a small Sunday-school. The mistress of the communal school, instigated by the priest, took upon herself the task of persecuting the children who attended. She would make them stand for hours with their hands held up, the laughing-stock of the others. Happily, I knew the mayor, and complained to him. He immediately took measures for the suppression of this persecution. Our several members now suffer severely from their own relations and friends. Still they stand firm in the faith. One of them had been severely persecuted by his mother, but such was his action that she has been won over; and he lately said to me that his mother now declares that she finds consolation in his religion.

“Bussoleno.—In the month of December last I began regularly to visit this town each week. The work for the present consists in visiting the houses, shops, cafés, inns, restaurants, &c.—in a word, every place to which I can gain entrance. In this way I distribute every week some hundreds of tracts. I have been able thus to make many friends, with some of whom I am able to read and pray. Many persons come out to meet me, telling me what they have read, and how they have learned to love the Saviour.—G. BARATTI.’

GENOA.

“The Church in Genoa has, during the year 1897, experienced both victory and defeat. It had the joy of receiving into fellowship seventeen new converts. To obtain these results we have had to sustain a continual warfare against the world and against the Evil One. We are still few, and the enemy is numerous. But the victory is for those who take their stand upon the truth. Terrible will be the retribution of those who deceive the people and teach them falsehood; and terrible, too, is the responsibility of him who, having received the truth, does not attempt to teach it to others. Thus we try to teach our people their duty to become evangelists, each in his own particular sphere of labour.

“Our brethren, moved with compassion for the sufferings of the Armenians, of the Caudois, of the Cubans, and of the Greeks, often met together to pray for the oppressed, and on several occasions sent sums of money in relief of the widows and orphans.

“The church was greatly edified by the visit of several English and American brethren, and especially so by that of the General Secretary of the Baptist Missionary Society, dear Mr. A. H. Baynes. The just and true words which he addressed to our brethren ought certainly to be the rule of all the Italian churches—that is, that they should strive to become independent and self-supporting, trusting implicitly in the help of the Lord. Then far greater progress would be made in the extension of Christ's Kingdom.

“Now a word as to the losses we have sustained during the year. Six of our members were called away by death to receive their reward in heaven. They were faithful to the end—bearing witness to the firmness of their faith in Christ our Saviour. Other fourteen left us for the other parts of Italy or for America. Two of the latter are now members of the Baptist Church in Buenos Ayres, under the care of Sig. Besson, and three are members of the Churches of St. Paul and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Some of them, although far away, still maintain their membership with us. We have at present 142 members.

“The Sunday-school, too, has suffered the loss of eight children, but their places will soon be filled up by the children of our members, who before long will be old enough to attend the school.

“The collections during the year amounted to Lire 852,30, or £34 ls. 10d. It is a small sum, but we are praying that the Lord will move the hearts of our brethren, and teach them to become “cheerful givers.”—N. NARDI-GRECO.”

Summary of Statistics.—Missionary, 1; evangelists, 2; stations and sub-stations, 8; baptized during the year, 14; received otherwise, 12; losses by death and otherwise, 32; net loss in membership, total number of members, 243; number of tracts distributed, about 110,000; number of services held, 1,107; money raised in Turin, £51 2s. 8½d.; in Genoa, £34 ls. 10d.; in Susa and district, £14 6s. 1d.; in all, £99 10s. 5½d.

THE TUSCAN OR FLORENTINE DISTRICT.

FLORENCE.

The Rev. N. H. Shaw, of Florence, reports :—

“During the past year I have been absent from the work for several months. The state of my health imperatively called for a radical change, after an absence from England of seven years, and I am thankful to record that through the goodness of God and the faithfulness and zeal of my colleagues, the work suffered but little from my absence.

“In Florence we have reason to be very thankful for special mercies in extraordinarily trying circumstances. The year opened with cheering prospects. Signo Jahier had only recently been transferred from Turin to this city, and we were all filled with hope that his pleasant voice and popular speech were about to be blessed to the church and to contribute greatly to its growth. He himself shared in the hope, and, delighted with our present meeting-place, said to me after one of the evening services, ‘God will bless us; prosperity will not be immediate, but it will come.’

"Alas! how we have been disappointed! Already he was beginning to feel upon his spirit the black shadow which was to extinguish his earthly life. In September he was discharged from the asylum as cured. He preached now and then until November, but on the 8th of that month the suicidal mania, which we all hoped had left him, returned with irresistible force, and he was found dead in the cemetery with a pistol in one hand and a card in the other, on which he had written a piteous appeal to me and his cousin on behalf of his wife and six children.

"This untoward event has been a severe trial to the church, but by God's grace it has been borne not without some good results, such as the development of the spirit of prayer, from which there is much to be hoped. It is not to be wondered at that the increase of the church has not been large, but, rather, it is a wonder that we have held on our way and added six to our numbers.

"It is a further reason for thankfulness that, notwithstanding all things, and while the poverty of the people has become even more accentuated, the offerings of the brethren have nearly equalled those of 1896. For all purposes these poor brethren have raised during the year 850 francs.

"WORK AMONGST SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS.

"Sig. Besesti has begun a special work among the soldiers which promises well. He has himself been a soldier, and knows well how to proceed in such a work, and has received very courteous letters from some of the officers highest in command. At the inaugural meeting, over which I presided, there were more than fifty soldiers present, of whom about a dozen were subordinate officers. Besides religious meetings, classes have been formed for teaching them the English and French languages, a Waldensian theological student generously giving us his time and energy for the latter. This is a movement which, with God's blessing, may be expected to grow.

"My English classes for civilians have been well attended, and afford fine opportunities for evangelising among the thoughtful and educated portion of the community. There are fifty persons enrolled in them, and the classes have not been interrupted, as in 1896, by the rough element. They are a great tax on one's time and freedom of movement, but I am convinced from past experience that they are worthy of it.

"Our Sunday-school work progresses encouragingly, notwithstanding very grave difficulties.

LEGHORN.

"At Leghorn the cause, which was very low, is improving. I was glad to find on the occasion of my last visit a great improvement in the congregations and general prospects of work. Since then Sig. Allegri informs me that the improvement continues, and their are half-a-dozen intelligent young men giving evidence of conversion and seeking baptism.

"Sig. Allegri continues to be greatly encouraged by his numerous visits to the surrounding towns, villages, and districts. By the wayside and in houses he has been able to do much evangelisation, and the results are very cheering, though such as cannot be narrated in a short report.

PRATO.

"We regularly visit half-a-dozen believers and some others, but whilst there is no doubt of their sincerity and faithfulness, and we have been able to help them in the religious life, we have not yet been able to lead them to that consecration and enthusiasm which are absolutely necessary to the propagation of the Gospel in a city like Prato, where there are the most degrading and absurd superstition and the most blatant unbelief, but no apparent capacity for taking interest in a religion which appeals to the intelligence and the conscience and regards the inner life of a man. We have not yet succeeded in finding a hall in which we could appeal to the public, but are still looking for one.

"The Influence of our Work extends far beyond our Churches.—I am continually having cheering proofs of this truth. For instance, more than a year ago I made the acquaintance of an officer in the army who is a doctor. I visited him when he was ill, and found him very receptive of Bible truth. His sister was keeping house for him, and we had many conversations over the Bible, followed by prayer, and after a time he prayed audibly and in a way that edified me and astonished his sister, to whom he seemed a prodigy. We have since baptized the sister, who is now a member of our church in Florence. The doctor himself did not, for reasons which I need not enter into, join the church, but he attended our meetings with manifest pleasure and profit, and confessed himself converted. He visited gratuitously some of our sick poor, and prescribed for them.

"Circumstances led to his leaving Florence and going to Sicily, where his father is also a medical man. He writes me from there, saying that from the moment of his arrival there was nothing but discussion in the family. His father and mother retreated, after every encounter, with the words: 'It is absolutely necessary to submit our judgments in all things to the Church of Rome.' He tells me it is painful to observe an apparent hardening of prejudice in his parents. But as a set-off to this, he reports the complete conquest of his brothers. They confessed to him that they were living absolutely without any faith, not being able to believe in what was taught by the priests. He persuaded them to read the Bible, and he informs me that the results are striking, that his brothers are changed men, having found a new life in Christ."

CENTRAL, OR ROMAN, DISTRICT.

THE CITY OF ROME.

Reporting upon the work in Lucina, and at the other meeting-places in the City of Rome, the Rev. James Wall writes:—

"The record of our work here during the past year should be studied in the light of special facts largely governing and conditioning that work, such as—(1) This year was one of increasing trouble for Italy, and especially for Rome. Famine and sedition have come to the front, and although in some places the people have been supplied with bread gratuitously, town halls and municipal buildings have in many places been attacked by the starving population and the soldiers forced to fire upon the mob. (2) Although this state of things arises from commercial and agricultural depression, it is closely connected with political intrigue. The clerical party having completed their anti-national organisation, and effected a coalition with the most subversive factions, they have now removed their mask, and openly pose as pretenders to supremacy in the State. We are, therefore, probably in the presence of the greatest effort ever made to crush the life of a free people. The Jesuit anti-Reformation movement in the sixteenth century was less powerful than the crusade now in course against the King and Constitution of Italy. (3) Protestant bodies throughout the world, blinded and weakened by sacerdotalism on the one hand and rationalism on the other, have not yet grasped the tremendous significance of the downfall of the temporal power of the Pope, nor the opportunity thus offered for evangelical activity. They are therefore not concentrating their attention or interest on missions among Roman Catholic peoples. (4) The state of the population in Rome is at present one of constant fluctuation. The number of persons who are obliged to leave the city, or to emigrate, is always a great loss to our work.

"Notwithstanding such disadvantages, there has been considerable progress in various branches of our Mission, and in some of them we find much to encourage us.

"Sunday Services.—The services on the Sunday morning in Lucina have often given me the greatest satisfaction. Attendance at this time generally means in Rome a real effort. Here the idea of the Lord's Day has been almost entirely obliterated, so that many are unable to attend through their obligations to employers or relations. At this service, moreover, each one present is supposed to be in love and fellowship with the Church, all being expected to offer something. Yet we have found this service less fluctuating than any other. It is generally very largely attended, and occasionally the hall has been nearly full. The power of Christ has been manifested in our midst, that power against which no gates of Rome have ever yet prevailed.

"Every morning the hall is open, the workers meeting for prayer and reading. Occasionally others join us at this fifteen minutes' service, which seems to be increasingly appreciated, and promises to develop in time.

"Sunday-schools.—Our schools have shown a wonderful progress. The number of names on the books at the end of the year was 549. If we include those connected with a most interesting crèche which Mrs. Wall supports, and a school conducted by one of our members in the suburbs, we must add at least another hundred to the number. This remarkable fact is accounted for principally by the devotion of our lady workers, partly by the interesting children's services held in Lucina, and also by the increasing confidence of Roman parents, who know that our schools guard against the degradations of superstition and of rationalism.

"Tract Work.—During the year many thousands of Gospel tracts have been distributed in each of our locali—in the tract districts round Lucina and in the Province. The number of detached Gospels put into circulation has amounted to many thousands, and in all special cases a New Testament has been supplied, if not a whole Bible.

"The issue of our Mission Press has been as follows:—An edition of hymns for our own use, nearly 2,000; 10,000 copies of the Epistle to the Romans, which are being addressed and delivered by hand to all the electors of Rome; and a large number of—about 60,000—notices for our various services.

"The Attendances at all the schools and meetings during the year were close upon 150,000, while the number of applicants for religious instruction was about 400.

"The Christian Endeavour, instituted about two years since in Lucina, is prosperous, and has been of much use to several of our young people."

ROME, VIA URBANA.

The Rev. J. Campbell Wall, reporting on the progress of the work in Via Urbana, writes :—

“ We rejoice that, in spite of an organised opposition such as is probably met with in no other part of the mission-field, our work not only holds its ground, but the Gospel has never been listened to more eagerly in Rome than at the present time, and the Word of God has free course, being more than ever acceptable in the homes of this people. Such is, in our opinion, the true test of this work. We do not strive to make Catholics turn Protestants; our desire is only to bring lost sinners to Christ. We are careful to avoid any pressure being brought to bear upon them in order that they be baptized. We hold out no bribes, and warn all candidates to church fellowship that they must expect losses rather than material advantage. At the same time we can reject none on the simple ground of personal poverty. If possible, they are provided with work or the necessary means of self support; but in all cases they are instructed, visited, examined, and only when all reasonable doubts of their sincerity are dispelled by careful observation, they are admitted to baptism. Thus the Gospel is still preached to the poor, not because they are poor, but rather because it is preached unto all. The peculiar conditions of Italy account very largely for the slow development of our churches. A constant ebb and flow in the population, industrial depression, and the unsettled state of all civil servants, who are liable to transfer at any time, are a constant tax on our numerical increase. In Via Urbana alone sixty baptisms have taken place within five years, but of these members only thirty-four are now in communion with us,

"1. In Via Urbana the various classes have been continued throughout the year. Mothers' meetings and girls' sewing classes have both increased in attendance and usefulness. They afford an opportunity of religious instruction and a much-needed encouragement to thrift.

"2. The Sunday-school also has given cause for satisfaction. Quarterly examinations have shown a considerable effort both on the part of teachers and scholars.

"3. The Special Services during Lent suffered somewhat on account of inclement weather, and also because we had to limit their number in order to take part in the nightly preaching at the hall in Lucina.

"A Watch-night service on December 31st was crowded, the solemn moments being used by many for renewed consecration and drawing nearer to the Saviour. The first act in the New Year was a special collection in aid of mission work outside Rome.

"4. During the year twelve new members have been admitted to the church in Via Urbana.

"5. A considerable number of visits have also been paid to various towns in this neighbourhood. At Spoleto, Assisi, Foligno, Bastia, Viterbo, Orvieto, and Velletri there are now some baptized believers and a larger number of sincere friends of the Gospel. The results of this provincial work will appear in the statistics of the Lucia Branch."

Of the work in Via degli Equi, Sig. Petocchi writes :—

"The people living outside the Porto San Lorenzo are in a fearful state of ignorance, misery, and immorality. Their life is often as degraded as possible, and this only increases the power of the priest over them. Nuns and friars hold possession of all the municipal charities in this quarter of Rome. They conduct day and night schools for the children; they have dispensaries for the sick; they have instituted a guild and musical band for young men, and have opened a large tenement where the poor can find lodgings for a penny a day. I state these facts only to mark their activities and the extent of their means. Any poor person, therefore, who attends our hall or reads our books loses all these advantages, and is, moreover, exposed to their constant persecution. They want the people to believe that it is against their interests to have any relationship with the Protestants, and at the same time they constantly speak against us and charge us with bribing the people! Yet we have there no medical mission, no poor meetings, no distribution of bread or clothes, only the simple teaching of the Gospel of Christ; and the number of attendances at our meetings in these slums of Rome has increased, as statistics will show, by nearly 2,000 during the year.

"The Sunday-school, which had been destroyed on four several occasions by the priests, has at last become one of the most encouraging branches of our work. It is undoubtedly the greatest triumph we have scored during the past year, for now the average weekly attendance is about fifty. From Via Equi five members have been received into the church during the year, and there are now six candidates who will, we trust, be baptized before Easter.

"ROMAN DISTRICT WORK.

"In addition to the extensive evangelistic labours carried on in the City of Rome there is a very important and wide-spreading district work to the North, North-West, West, South, and East in active operation in some twenty-five towns and centres, with a scattered membership of 140 baptized believers and Sunday scholars numbering 549. The following is a list of some of the principal towns periodically visited in the Roman District :—

" West.—Civita Vecchia, Grosseto, Corneto.

" North-West.—Viterbo, Tuscanella, Montefiascone, Orte, Rignano, Ronciglione.

" North.—Faleria, Calcata, Carboignano, Civita Castellana, Spoleto, Foligno, Assisi Montefalco, Roccastrada.

" East.—Tivoli, Avezzano, Celano, San Benedetto, Sulmona.

" South.—Velletri."

THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OR NEAPOLITAN DIVISION.

NAPLES AND CASERTA.

The work in the Southern District of Italy is under the charge of the Rev. Robt. Walker, of Naples, who writes :—

"In Naples there has been a good deal of disappointment with regard to conversions. We began the year with a large number of young people who seemed 'not far from the Kingdom,' and we hoped many of them would have decided ere now to give themselves to the Saviour. In this we have been disappointed, for only one of them seems to have come really to decision, and I hope to baptize him very soon. The others continue to attend the services; and a considerable number of new young people come as well, and take a decided interest in the Word. We have, therefore, the encouragement afforded by willing hearers, but long to see them become doers of the Word. It is disappointing to find that for worldly considerations some, even when convinced of the truth of the Gospel, refuse to glorify God by coming out on His side. But we are allowed to sow the seed, and we know that in His own time God will give the increase. Want of work and sickness have made life very difficult for many of our people, and in this respect things do not seem to improve. The heavy taxes which the Government impose on almost everything make it increasingly difficult for working people to live, and drive large numbers out of the country altogether. They can, therefore, do very little to help the Mission financially, and unless our numbers increase very considerably there is little hope of improvement.

"Caserta.—The year 1897 has witnessed several important changes in the South of Italy. The removal of Sig. Libonati to Caserta in 1896 did not produce the effect we hoped for in his health. He never recovered sufficiently to be able to preach there, and after a lingering illness died in the month of February. Since September, Signor Tummolo has been located in Caserta, and has been working both in the town and visiting a number of villages in the province. In the villages he has had much encouragement and many opportunities of evangelising. In Caserta he finds it more difficult to get people to the meetings, but he has many open doors where he can go into families and evangelise in this way.

CALITRI AND TREVICO.

"At Calitri the work during 1897 was more difficult, owing to the removal of all the workmen who had been employed on the new railway. They could always be relied upon to give large meetings. Now the work in the Hall depends upon the residents, and it is more difficult to draw them in. Some of the best of the converts are in America, driven from home by the difficulty of getting a living. No less than nine of our members are now in the United States. One of the Calitri men has lately been recognised by a Baptist Church there as a minister of the Gospel, and is at work among the Italians. I had a letter recently from an unknown American, who tells me that another Calitri member has been working as an evangelist for several weeks in his district, and preaching the Gospel with much acceptance. He wrote asking me to send him some hymns for this work. The few converts in Treviso would like to be more frequently visited by Sig. Barone, but it is difficult to gratify their desire. Other villages visited have given us cause for gratitude. In one of them several meetings of from sixty to eighty people have been held."

FINANCE.

The financial outlook during the past year has caused the Committee great anxiety.

In their Report for 1897 the Committee stated, very explicitly, that the normal expenditure of the Society was nearly £10,000 in excess of its regular income, and since then the appreciation in the value of the rupee in India has accentuated the discrepancy between income and expenditure, while the full cost of the maintenance of the ten additional missionaries sent out under the Regulations of the Centenary Fund involves a still further increase in the ordinary expenditure—the support of other brethren under similar conditions necessitating a larger expenditure next year.

Under these circumstances, the Committee felt it incumbent upon them, towards the close of 1897, to appoint a special committee charged with the duty of taking into serious consideration the financial position of the Society with a view to their proposing such action as might appear wisest and best, the following Report being the outcome of their deliberations :—

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE.

First—In regard to the present year's income the Special Committee recommend—

- (A) That the General Committee be urged to issue a special appeal to the Pastors, Deacons, and Members of all the Churches of the Denomination, with the object of securing an income for the Current Year that shall meet and cover its expenditure, it being highly inexpedient in the present condition of the Society's operations that the financial year should close with an adverse balance.
- (B) That the Pastors and Churches of the Denomination be earnestly requested to observe the week commencing March 6th, 1898—or, if more convenient to particular Churches, some other week prior to March 31st—as a week of prayer for our Mission, and of self-denial. It is suggested that at the Lord's Table, where hearts are always open to holy impressions, a statement be made as to the opportunities and claims of the Mission, and that the fruits of Christian self-denial be received on some suitable day by the Pastor in his vestry.

- (C) That to supply information for such statements, a leaflet be issued and that the Rev. R. Glover, D.D., of Bristol, be respectfully requested to prepare it.

Second—On the larger question of the General Income of the Society, the following recommendations were unanimously agreed to :—

- A) That, seeing a policy of withdrawal cannot be entertained, and a considerable reinforcement of our staff is urgently demanded, both by the necessities of the mission field and the success which God, in His goodness, has vouchsafed to us, we recommend the General Committee to take steps to secure a large increase to the permanent income of the Society.
- (B) That to this end a systematic visitation of the Churches be undertaken in the autumn of this year, and that such plan of visitation be brought before the constituency at the Annual Meetings in April next, with a view to secure the hearty sympathy and co-operation of all who desire the extension of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

(Signed) WILLIAM R. RICKETT, Chairman.

January, 1898.

This Report was unanimously adopted, and in pursuance therewith a special appeal was issued to all the Churches of the Denomination in the United Kingdom, together with copies of a paper written by Dr. Glover. As the result of this action the Committee are now able to report, with devout thankfulness, that contributions specially with a view to avert a deficiency have been received amounting to and that the accounts for the past year, instead of exhibiting a very heavy deficiency, show a small balance in hand of £264 7s. 3d.

As at the commencement of this Report, so now at its close, the Committee desire to call upon their friends and supporters to join with them in the Doxology :

and under the inspiration of the success of the effort to avert debt they now appeal earnestly to the Churches of the Denomination to join heartily in the effort to carry out the second suggestion of the Report of the Special Committee—viz. :—

“To arrange for a systematic visitation of the Churches during the coming autumn, with a view to secure such a permanent increase in the income of the Mission as shall not only meet present expenditure, but provide funds for further extension.”

If only the accomplishment of the second part of the Centenary Scheme can be secured, and the annual income of the Society raised to one hundred thousand pounds, financial difficulty will disappear.

Surely the great mission of the Church is to carry the Gospel to every creature. She is not responsible for the way it is received, but the Church is responsible for the propagation of the Gospel, for it has been committed to her, and she dare not cease her labours until every ear has heard the good news of salvation, and every eye has seen a crucified Saviour.

It is not for the Church to question, but to obey Christ. Her business is to "go," and as she goes to preach. The great commission of the Church is a concise statement of her mission. Momentous words these : "Go," "all the world," "every creature."

Dealing with the accounts for the past year somewhat in detail, it will be seen that the total receipts for all objects have amounted to

General Receipts	£61,695 16 4
Special Gifts to avert Deficiency ...	9,550 8 9
Special Funds —including Famine, Earthquake, and Widows and Orphans Contributions	7,300 1 8

the largest income ever received in any one year of the Society's history, and an increase of £2,567 9s. 6d. on the total receipts of the previous year.

It is also certainly cheering to note that the contributions from the churches for the general work of the Society, during the past year, are in excess of those for the preceding year, notwithstanding the numerous and exigent appeals on behalf of Famine, Earthquake, and Deficiency Funds.

The proportion of Legacies taken into the account shows a small increase (£128 0s. 6d.) on the sum credited from the same source in the account of the previous year.

With regard to the Receipts for Special Funds, and the balance in hand on the Indian Famine and Earthquake Fund, it should be stated that there are several heavy liabilities at present outstanding that will have to be met, that Famine Relief demands are still very heavy and urgent, especially in the direction of providing seed for the thousands of small cultivators who are at present entirely without any means from which to meet the expense of re-cropping the ground, and for the maintenance, clothing, and education of hundreds of Famine orphans, without relatives or helpers, thrown upon the hands of the missionary, and involving heavy outlay for several years to come.

There are also yet large sums to be paid for the rebuilding or restoration of numerous properties belonging to the Society in India, wrecked by the disastrous earthquake of June last, including an amount of £2,000 for repairs to the College building at Serampore.

already allocated as follows, viz. :—

For additional Missionaries	£23,700	0	0
Mission Buildings at various Stations	4,468	9	8
Training Native Evangelists and
Translation Work	3,390	16	2
	£31,559	5	10

It is also gratifying to note that the gifts to the Widows and Orphans Fund from the churches exhibit an increase as compared with the contributions of the year before.

Turning now to the expenditure side of the account, it will be seen that the payments on the General Account for the past year amounted to an increase on the expenditure of the former year of

mainly due to an increase in the Indian expenditure of £2,781 18s. 1d.—owing to the maintenance of additional missionaries, £889; new mission boats and travelling expenses, £804; increased school work, £1,094. An increase of £355 in China—consequent upon additional missionaries—and an increase of £878 in the Congo Mission in transit and outfit expenses, due to the sending forth of new missionaries to take the places of deceased brethren.

It will also be noted that there is a reduction in the sum gained by exchange, consequent upon the enhanced value of the rupee.

The balance in hand of £273 10s. 9d. at the close of the previous year on the Widows and Orphans Fund has been increased to £401 5s. 4d., owing to slightly increased receipts and somewhat reduced expenditure.

The retrospect of the past year surely calls for thankfulness and praise. It has been a year of great blessing, and the record of it should urge and inspire us to GO FORWARD.

The Lord is with us, and HE is leading us ONWARD.

The outposts of one year must be made the trenches of the next, until at length every encampment of hostile spiritual domination shall be broken up, and "the kingdoms of this world become the kingdoms of our LORD and HIS CHRIST."

Let us ever remember that there is, there can be, no work comparable with that of making the Gospel known to the millions for whom Christ died.

"I have one passion," wrote the dying Zinzendorf, "that I may make Christ known. Live for Him. Die for Him."

"Here am I, Lord, send me," said David Brainerd. "Yea, send me from all that is called comfort on earth : send me even to death itself, if it be but in THY blessed service, and to promote THY Kingdom."

The final award will not be, Well done, good and SUCCESSFUL servant—though blessed are they who shall be accounted worthy to achieve success—but, Well done, good and FAITHFUL servant !

"What is the meaning of the Christian life ?
 Is it success ? or vulgar wealth, or name ?
 Is it a weary struggle—a mean strife
 For rank, low gains, ambition, or for fame ?
 What sow we for ? The world ? For fleeting time,
 Or far off harvests, riches, more sublime ?
 The brightest life on earth was one of loss ;
 The noblest head was wreathed with sharpest thorn.
 Has HE not consecrated pain—the Cross ?
 What higher crowns can Christian's brow adorn ?
 Be we content to follow on the road

FROM

AUXILIARY SOCIETIES IN GREAT BRITAIN.

When contributions are given for special objects, they are denoted as follows:—The letter T is placed before the sum when it is intended for Translations; NP, for Native Preachers; W & O, for Widows and Orphans.

N.B.—It will be found that, in some instances, the connection of Churches in Auxiliary Societies interfere with the correctness of county arrangement; but this cannot be avoided without inconvenience
