Correspondence relative to Association Meetings, and Sermons on behalf of the Society, to be addressed—

“ THE ASSOCIATION SECRETARIES (in their respective Districts) : see p. iv.

All Bills and Orders for Money to be made payable to the Lay Secretary—D. COATES, Esq.

The Office of the Society is open Daily (Sundays excepted), from Nine in the Morning till Seven in the Evening.

One of the Secretaries attends at the Office daily, between the hours of Eleven o’Clock in the Morning and Four o’Clock in the Afternoon, unless particular business should render it necessary for them to be absent.

The Committee meet, at the Society’s House, every Second Monday in the Month throughout the Year, at Eleven o’Clock.

SUBSCRIPTIONS AND CONTRIBUTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED AT THE SOCIETY’S HOUSE ;

At the Society’s Bankers—MESSRS. WILLIAMS, DEACON, LABOUCHERE, and Co., 20 Birchin Lane ;

MESSRS. NISBET & CO., Berners Street.

In Dublin, by

MESSRS. JOHN DAVID LA TOUCHE & Co.

REV. D. T. K. DRUMMOND, and REV. D. BAGOT.

.* The Committee of the Church Missionary Society beg to suggest to the Committees and Officers of Associations, that the most convenient and economical mode of making their Remittances is through the medium of a Banker in the Country to the Society’s Bankers, through the Banking-house in town with which the Country Banker corresponds, advising the Secretaries of the payment.*

ANNUAL REPORT.

WITH a view to economize expenditure in Printing the Annual Report, the Committee request that Copies not required by the possessors may be returned to the Church Missionary House : and would suggest, whether, in those cases where more than one member of a family is entitled to the Report, one copy of it might not suffice for the information of the whole.

PROPER FORM OF A BENEFACTION TO THE SOCIETY BY WILL.

I GIVE and bequeath the sum of unto the Treasurer for the time being of a voluntary Society meeting in or near London, commonly called or known by the name of “ The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East : ” the same to be paid within months next after my decease, out of such part only of my Personal Estate as shall not consist of Mortgages or Chattels Real, in Trust, to be applied to the uses and purposes of that Society ; and for which the receipt of such Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge.

. Devises of land, or of money charged on land, or secured on mortgage of lands or tenements, or to be laid out in lands or tenements, are void ; but money or stock may be given by Will, if not directed to be laid out in land.

At the Forty-second Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May 3, 1842—

The Right Hon. the EARL of CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

AND THE REV. JOHN VENN—

On the Motion of the Right Rev. Lord Bp. of Ripon, seconded by the Rev. John W. Cunningham, RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; and that this Meeting acknowledges with deep thankfulness to Almighty God the signal blessing which has rested on the operations of the Society during the past year, especially in Krishnaghur, Tinnevely, and New Zealand; while it is deeply afflicted at the necessity under which the Committee have been laid of contracting the Society's operations, on account of the inadequacy of the pecuniary means at their disposal.

On the Motion of the Lord Ashley, M.P., seconded by the Rev. Dr. Stephen H. Tyng, of the Episcopal Church of the United States,
RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, acknowledging with unfeigned gratitude to the God of all grace the success which has for so many years attended the labours of the Missionaries of this Society, and especially during the last year, the Meeting would record its settled conviction that it is only in proportion as the grand doctrines of the Scriptures, of our Protestant Church, and of the Reformation, are preached and upheld by the Society's Missionaries in all their simplicity, fulness, and purity, that the Divine Blessing can be expected to continue to rest on their ministrations.

On the Motion of the Rev. Thomas Vores, Perpetual Curate of St. Mary's, Hastings, seconded by the Rev. Baron Gerlach, from Berlin,
RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, while this Meeting testifies its sense of the liberality and self-denial manifested by different classes in their pecuniary contributions to the Society, it is constrained, in the Society's present circumstances, earnestly to appeal to the Members of our Church for such prompt and effectual aid as may enable the Committee to sustain the Missions of the Society, and to respond to the numerous and urgent calls of the Heathen for Missionaries and Teachers.

On the Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Chester, seconded by the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel,
RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting records its grateful sense of the advantage to the Society of the Patronage extended to it by His Grace the Primate and other Prelates of our Church, during the past year;—that the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. Hugh Stowell for his Sermon before the Society last evening; to the Right Hon. the President; to the Vice-Patron and Vice-Presidents; and to all those friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf;—and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the year ensuing, with power to fill up vacancies: (See LIST, p. iv.)

At a Meeting of the Society, held in Exeter Hall, on Tuesday Evening, May 3, 1842—

The Most Hon. the MARQUESS CHOLMONDELEY, Vice-Patron, in the Chair,

On the Motion of the Rev. R. Davies, one of the Secretaries, seconded by the Rev. John Venn, Prebendary of Hereford, and Rector of St. Owen's, Hereford,
RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, deeply afflicted at the contraction of the Society's operations forced upon the Committee by the insufficiency of its pecuniary means, this Meeting would earnestly appeal to those Members of our Church who have freely received from the Divine liberality, freely to give; and thus, by their bountifulness, enable the Church Missionary Society to answer the loud and urgent calls upon it for Christian Teachers, from all parts of the Heathen World.

On the Motion of the Hon. Arthur Kinnaird, seconded by the Rev. Samuel Rowe, Vicar of Crediton, Devon,
RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the deeply affecting but interesting results of the Niger Expedition demonstrate the obligation and necessity of employing with increased vigour every available means of training up Natives of Africa, to carry forward the Missionary Work in that vast and deeply-injured Continent.

On the Motion of the Rev. Thomas Vores, seconded by the Rev. John Harding, Rector of St. Andrew-by-the-Wardrobe, and St. Anne's, Blackfriars,
RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting is deeply impressed with the urgent necessity of prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon even the advanced Missions of the Society, in order to produce conviction of sin upon the minds of the numerous Inquirers after Christian Instruction, so that they may be enabled to leave all and follow Christ; and in order also to establish, strengthen, and settle the feeble graces of the sincere converts to the Faith of Christ.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by a Patron or Patrons, a Vice-Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church.

II. The office of PATRON of the Society shall be reserved for such Members of the Royal Family as may honour it with their protection; and that of VICE-PATRON for His Grace the Primate of all England, if, being a Member of the Society, he shall accept the office. The PRESIDENT shall be such Temporal Peer or Commoner as may be appointed to that office; and VICE-PRESIDENTS shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, who, being Members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such Temporal Peers and Commoners as, being also Members, shall be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upward, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upward per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward, Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying to the amount of Fifty Pounds, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upward shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Members for Life, or Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. A Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum, shall be called at any time, at the requisition of the general Committee; or by any Thirteen Members, on addressing a Letter to the Secretary, specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Rules of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones established, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the General Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church; and of all such Clergymen as are Members of the Society. Eighteen Members shall be annually appointed from the Old Committee, and Six from the General Body.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate, to the General Committee, proper persons, as Patrons and Vice-Presidents of the Society.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt proper means of augmenting the Subscriptions and Benefactions; to obtain Collections in Churches and Chapels; and to nominate, from time to time, to the General Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents for the Society in the principal Towns throughout the Empire.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to superintend their instruction, and to correspond with them when sent out.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Accounts is, to see that the Subscriptions are duly received, regulate the accounts, and undertake the charge of fitting out and conveying the Missionaries to their places of destination.

XVII. The General Committee shall receive the Reports of the other Committees, shall appoint the places where Missions shall be attempted, shall direct the scale upon which they shall be conducted, and shall superintend the affairs of the Society in general.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; the other Committees as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee; and Three, each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patron, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex officio, Members of all Committees.

XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof, to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued: The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which, special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary*.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made, to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. That all questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and any Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

XXXIII. That the object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as, in any other respect, to alter the principles and practice of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions, falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference, cannot properly be considered as so bound.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The following passage, from Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Annual Report, illustrates the practice of the Society in reference to this Rule:—

"The Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] our Missionaries—these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same Colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and discipline of the Church."

APPENDIX II. TO THE THIRTY-NINTH REPORT.

REFERRED TO IN THE NOTE TO LAW XXIX.

REMARKS ON THE CONSTITUTION AND PRACTICE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, WITH REFERENCE TO ITS ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONS.

It is the object of the following Remarks, to show that the constitution and practice of the Church Missionary Society are in strict conformity with Ecclesiastical principles, as they are recognised in the constitution and practice of the Church of England.

Throughout the system of the Church of England there is a recognised co-operation of temporal and spiritual functions IN MATTERS ECCLESIASTICAL; that is, the Laity and Clergy have not only their separate and distinct provinces, but, in many important respects, they unite their agency for the accomplishing of Ecclesiastical acts.

For instance, in supplying a vacant church, a lay-Patron selects and presents "his Clerk"—as the Clergyman is technically called—to the Bishop; who thereupon invests him with authority to minister in that Church. So, also, there are certain Lay-officers appointed to every church—the Churchwardens or Sidesmen—whose duty it is, not only to guard, in conjunction with the Minister, the temporalities of the Church, but also to watch over the due performance of Divine Service, the morals of the parishioners, and the conduct of the Minister; and to report, from time to time, on each of these matters, to the Ecclesiastical Authorities. The duty of these officers is implied in the old appellation, "Sidesmen," or "Synodsmen"—men summoned to attend and give information at Synods and Visitations.

The distinction and co-operation of lay and spiritual functions in the Church of England might be further illustrated in the case of Ecclesiastical Courts, and various relations which arise out of the principle that the Sovereign is the Supreme Ruler of the Church.

Keeping the foregoing distinction in view, the Church Missionary Society may be regarded as an Institution for discharging the temporal and lay offices necessary for the preaching of the Gospel among the Heathen. It is strictly a Lay Institution: it exercises, as a Society, no spiritual functions whatsoever.

Such being the constitution of the Society in theory—are its proceedings conducted in conformity with this theory, and with the Ecclesiastical principles of the Church of England?

In order to review these proceedings, they may be conveniently arranged under the FOUR following Heads:—

I. THE COLLECTION OF THE HOME REVENUE, and THE DISBURSEMENT OF IT ABROAD.

These acts are altogether within the province of Laymen.

II. THE SELECTING AND EDUCATING CANDIDATES FOR MISSIONARY EMPLOYMENT.

In this department there is no necessary encroachment upon spiritual functions. The Colleges in our Universities are Lay-Corporations, and may, in many cases, be administered and presided over by Laymen.

Yet it may be urged, that in this department there is an approach to the peculiar province of Clergymen; because, spiritual persons seem the more proper judges of a Candidate's fitness for Missionary employment: and it is generally admitted, that a Bishop may exercise a controul over the education and training of Candidates to be advanced by himself to Holy Orders. Now, in both these particulars the Church Missionary Society has carefully guarded its proceedings. The examination of Missionary Candidates is referred to a Clerical Sub-Committee; and the General Committee consult and act upon the report of this Clerical trial and judgment. In respect of the other point, the education and training of Candidates for Holy Orders, the Church Missionary College at Islington has the sanction and approbation of the Bishop of London; who, in this country, admits to Holy Orders all the Society's Candidates: and his Lordship has repeatedly expressed his satisfaction at the results of the system of instruction, as they have been manifested in his examinations for Holy Orders.

III. The Third general head of the Society's proceedings is, THE SENDING FORTH, TO PARTICULAR STATIONS, THE MISSIONARIES THUS ORDAINED, OR OTHER CLERGYMEN WHO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY ORDAINED.

Now, here an objection against the Society has been founded on the use of the term "sending forth:"—it sounds like an exercise of Ecclesiastical power. But, Ecclesiastically speaking, the Bishop of London "sends forth" every Missionary ordained by him. The Law of the land has sanctioned the Two Archbishops, and the Bishop of London, in ordaining persons to officiate abroad. The Secretary of the Church Missionary Society requests, by Letter, the Bishop of London to ordain, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of Parliament, such and such persons, whom the Society is willing to support in some Foreign Station. The Bishop, by the imposition of hands, gives them authority to preach the Gospel, with a view to their foreign location.—In the case of persons already in Holy Orders, who may join the Society, they may be said to go forth by their own voluntary act; but their Letters of Orders, given by a Bishop of our Church, are their mission and commission, Ecclesiastically speaking.

Hence, to call the acts of the Church Missionary Society—in selecting the station, paying the passage-money, and agreeing to provide the Missionary's salary—to call these acts a SENDING FORTH of Preachers, in an Ecclesiastical sense, is to confound names with things, and to lose sight of all true Church principles.

IV. The Fourth general head under which the proceedings of the Church Missionary Society may be arranged, is, THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MISSIONARIES IN THEIR LABOURS AMONG THE HEATHEN.

Here a distinction must be made between the case of those Foreign stations which lie within the jurisdiction of a Colonial Bishop, and other stations, which are not so situated, and may therefore be termed Extra-diocesan.

In the first case, the Church Missionary Society has expressly determined, that all its ordained Missionaries shall be submitted for licence to the Bishop of the diocese in which they may be stationed; and that no Missionary shall exercise his spiritual functions in such diocese without a licence. The Society has further recognised the uncontrolled discretion of the Bishop to grant or withhold his licence, and the propriety of specifying in such licence a particular district as the field of labour; so that a Missionary cannot be removed from one district to another without the sanction of the Bishop.

These principles were stated in a Letter from the Society to the Bishop of Calcutta, signed by the Right Honourable the President—December 17, 1835—in a manner so satisfactory to the Bishop, that he embodied them in the four following Rules, expressed for the most part in the words of the Society's Letter: which were, at the Bishop's request, entered upon the Minutes of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, as the recognised Rules of their practice:—

"1. The Bishop expresses—by granting or withholding his licence, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approbation or otherwise, of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries afterward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their Ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those—the Committee and Secretary—who still stand in the relation of Lay-Patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his Ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage.—The Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate directions, when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop* or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives, further, all such confidential information, on all topics, as the Bishops officially neither could wish nor properly ~~ask~~ [to receive]."

The Bishop also wrote to the Parent Society in the following terms:—"You seem to me to lay down the principle most correctly. . . . This is to me perfectly satisfactory; as I shall instantly inform the Archbishop of Canterbury, to whom I report all the proceedings of the diocese."—9th June, 1836.

It will be perceived, that the Missionaries, thus licensed, stand toward the Bishop in the relation rather of Stipendiary Curates, than of Beneficed Clergymen. For a Bishop in England cannot refuse a licence or institution to a benefice, without assigning a reason which will bear investigation before a Court of Common Law; nor can he deprive a Clergyman of his benefice without a judicial process. But no law has provided any such check in the case of Missionaries: the Bishop has the power of withholding a licence, or of withdrawing it, at his sole discretion, without assigning any cause, as in the case of Stipendiary Curates in this country.

If it be asked, What are the checks and safeguards against the undue exercise of this discretionary power of the Bishop?—it may be replied, in the words of the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Parent Society, April 12, 1837:—

"We are not to take for granted that discretionary power will be abused; but, on the contrary, to provide, by a cheerful and friendly spirit and conduct, against the likelihood of such an occurrence. If the event of arbitrary conduct should arise, or be supposed to arise, the remedies are—public opinion—an appeal to the Archbishop—and the Society's refusing to make other appointments and locations than those unreasonably objected to. Nothing is the least likely—and probability is the guide of life—to arise to impede or cramp the Committee, since they unquestionably and avowedly possess, The choice of men—The appointment of spheres of labour—The temporal power, including pecuniary support."

But though the Bishop's licence is at once the pledge and proof that the Society's Missionaries are under Episcopal superintendence and jurisdiction, and that the spiritual oversight rests altogether with the Bishop; yet the Society may seem, to some persons, to keep up a kind of spiritual jurisdiction and oversight, by requiring accounts from the Missionaries of all their proceedings, and by giving them directions, from time to time, which may bear upon their spiritual duties. But it must be remembered, that the Society stands toward its Missionaries in the relation of Trustees of the fund out of which their salaries are paid. In the case of a beneficed Clergyman in this country, the Minister is the guardian and possessor of the temporalities of the benefice, because the benefice is an endowment; and the Patron has no further connexion with the Minister whom he has once presented to the Bishop. In our case, the office of Patron is in a sense perpetuated by the payment of the salary, and the possession of all the temporalities of the Mission.

This matter has been well explained by the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, May 26, 1837:—The Missionary Committees," says his Lordship, "have a far greater latitude in India than any Lay-Patrons at home. Upon presenting his Clerk to the Bishop, the Patron at home is functus officio. The Clergyman is removed, on being once instituted and licensed, totally and for ever from the Patron, and is transferred to the superintendency of the Bishop. The Patron has nothing whatever more to do with him. But in India, the Committee is (1) the continued paymaster of the Missionary, after he is duly licensed;—for institution and induction there are none. (2) They correspond with him. (3) They supply him with Catechists. (4) They report his chief proceedings home. (5) They propose removals and changes of station to the Bishop. (6) They exercise, unavoidably, an influence which does not belong to the mere Lay-Patron; and are aiding, in a variety of ways, to the comfortable and honourable discharge of the Missionary's most exalted and most spiritual duties."

It remains to consider the case of those Stations which are Extra-diocesan; i. e. where there is no Colonial Bishop of the Church of England having jurisdiction over them.

In these cases, the Society has endeavoured to procure for such stations the benefits of the Episcopal office from the nearest Bishop of the Church of England. Application was made by the Committee both to the late and to the present Bishop of Madras, to extend, as far as circumstances would admit, these benefits to the Mission in Travancore; which, as an independent state, not forming a part of the British Dominions, was not included in the diocese of Madras. A similar application was made on behalf of the New-Zealand Mission, to the Bishop of Australia; who at once acceded to the request, and kindly promised to visit New Zealand as soon as his other duties would permit; stating, in a Letter to the Society's representatives at Sydney, "It is highly satisfactory to me, that our friends at home are taking a view of these things, which proves them to belong, not only to a MISSIONARY, but also to a CHURCH Society." (See Annual Report, 1838.)

Such is a General View of the Constitution and Proceedings of the Church Missionary Society.

It is not intended to assert, that errors are not sometimes committed in the application of these principles to matters of detail. It must be remembered, that Missionary operations are, alas! new and anomalous in the system of the Church of England; and that it is not always easy to draw a definite line between the two provinces which belong respectively to the Bishop and the Committee. It has been observed by the Bishop of Calcutta—Letter, May 26, 1837: "The boundaries of the power of Committees, as they approach to those of the Bishop, can be ascertained, in many points, only by time and observation." Perplexities have consequently occurred; and, unhappily, misunderstandings have sometimes arisen between the Representatives of the Society abroad and Ecclesiastical Authorities. But these are the principles by which the Home Committee have endeavoured to guide the proceedings of the Society: and they confidently respond to a sentiment expressed by the Bishop of Calcutta—"The principles of our new relations are now fully recognised: the details will soon find their level."—Letter, 9th June, 1836.

In reviewing the Ecclesiastical relations of the Church Missionary Society, there are two or three points which it seems very important to notice.

1. Missionary operations, as they are conducted by the Church Missionary Society, though apparently anomalous in the system of the Church of England, are yet in strict conformity with its constitution and principles: they are analogous to many other instances of voluntary exertion for the extension of true religion within the Church, in which Ecclesiastical authority and Lay co-operation unite for the accomplishment of the same end: so that these operations may be regarded as the acts of the Church of England, putting forth its energy for the Conversion of the Heathen World. For it has been shown, that the Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth our Missionaries—that these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and discipline of the Church. Even in the few cases in which Lutheran Clergymen are employed, this rule is observed; and all the congregations which are gathered into the fold of Christ are trained up as Members of the Church established in this land.

And here it may be observed, that nothing less than the sanction of a duly-assembled Convocation can more fully identify the acts of any Missionary Society, within the Church of England, with the Church.* Without such sanction, all associations of Churchmen must stand in the same position. Still further, not to notice the present abeyance of Convocations, it may be asserted, that even if the Church were to assemble in her provincial Convocations, and to decree and to regulate Missionary operations, such proceedings could not essentially add to, or alter, those important particulars which, under present circumstances, entitle the operations of the Church Missionary Society to be regarded as Missionary operations of the United Church of England and Ireland.

2. It must be ever borne in mind, that Missionary operations are, in their very nature, temporary and preparative;—that they are to be gradually but eventually superseded by a different order of things, when the Heathen Nations shall have become Christianized. In some cases, as in the West Indies, this change is further advanced than in others. Now, it must be expected, that, in proportion as this change advances, difficulties and perplexities will arise in our Ecclesiastical relations, peculiar to this TRANSITION STATE—from Missionary operations, to that happy consummation when there shall be an endowed and established system of Christian Instruction, and a territorial division of Ministerial labour. This consummation the Church Missionary Society has ever kept in view, and devoutly desired; and, as far as possible, has prepared for its approach.—In an interview with the Bishop of Barbadoes—April 1835—this point was expressly alluded to; and it was stated by the Committee to his Lordship, “that whenever a district should be brought into the state of an organized Christian community, it should assume entirely the Parochial form, and cease to be occupied as a Missionary Station.—The Bishop entirely acquiesced in this view; and only expressed his anxiety that it should not be so acted upon as prematurely to deprive a district of the Missionary’s services.” (Extract from Committee’s Minute.)

3. Lastly, it must be evident, from a review of the whole subject, that our Ecclesiastical relations depend, in many important respects, upon a mutual confidence and good understanding between the Committee and its representatives, and the Ecclesiastical Authorities both at home and abroad. This must be the case, to argue upon no higher grounds, while those relations are governed by Ecclesiastical laws and canons made without reference to Missionary operations, for an Established Church in a Christian country; and where so much is also necessarily left to the discretion of both parties. If we look to our Home operations, the Committee places confidence in the Bishop of London, that he will continue to ordain the Missionary Candidates introduced to his Lordship by the Society according to the provisions of the Act: and the Lord Bishop of London relies upon the Committee’s using every means to select, train, and duly qualify proper candidates to be thus introduced to him.

So also, in its Foreign operations, the Society places confidence in the Colonial Bishops—as it has been already shown, in a quotation from the Letter of Bishop Wilson—that they will not exercise an unreasonable or arbitrary discretion, in withholding or withdrawing licences from our Missionaries, or in refusing ordination to our Candidates. And the Bishops, by granting licences and ordination to the Missionaries of a voluntary Society, whose income is liable to fluctuations, and whose agents are constantly changing, manifestly place confidence in the Committees, that they will use every endeavour to keep up the Missions once established; and that they will not, on their part, act in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner, or withdraw the salary from a licensed Missionary, without reason sufficient to prove to the licensing Bishop the necessity of the proceeding.

It seems impossible to supersede this conventional understanding—as it may be termed—till Missions are supported by endowments, or till a code of Missionary canons be established by competent authority.

This mutual confidence and good understanding now exists, it may be thankfully asserted, between the Committee of the Society and the Ecclesiastical Authorities of every Colonial Diocese in which Missionaries are labouring. And may He, who is the God, not of confusion, but of peace, and “the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls,” unite together the hearts and hands of those who are labouring in this Holy Cause—“that all and every of these may, IN THEIR SEVERAL CALLINGS, serve truly and painfully, to the glory of His name!”

Suggested Order of Proceedings at a Meeting preparatory to the Formation of an Association in aid of the Church Missionary Society.

- 1.—Mr. will move, and Mr. will second, a Resolution, "That be requested to take the Chair."
- 2.—The Chairman will briefly state the object for which the Meeting is assembled, and then call on the Rev. to offer up the usual Prayer to Almighty God, for a blessing on the proceedings of the day.
- 3.—After prayer, the Chairman will make such further observations as he may deem necessary, and then call on Mr. to move the First Resolution.

FIRST RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That this Meeting fully recognises the duty incumbent on Christians to employ all suitable means for the propagation of the Gospel throughout the world; and hails, with thankfulness to the Great Head of the Church, the labours of the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY in its various Stations in Heathen Lands, and among decayed Christian Churches.

SECOND RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That an Association be now formed, and entitled, "The Church Missionary Association;" and that the following be its Officers and Rules.

PRESIDENT.

VICE-PRESIDENTS.

TREASURER.

SECRETARY.

COMMITTEE :

RULES.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward; or if Clergymen, Half a Guinea; and also such persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward; or if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas; and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at its General Meetings. Collectors of One Shilling and upward per week will receive a copy of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Record"; of Sixpence a-week and upward, of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Gleaner"; and Juvenile Collectors of One Shilling a-month, a copy of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Juvenile Instructor." Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society. Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors. Contributors of 1d. a-week and upward will be entitled to receive the Parent Society's "Quarterly Paper."

VI. The objects of this Association shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society—to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VII. The whole of the funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society, in aid of its designs.

VIII. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day as shall be fixed by the Committee; when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be read, and an account of its receipts and disbursements presented, duly audited.

THIRD RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the success which, under the Divine Blessing, has attended the Church Missionary Society, in its efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ among the Heathen, is a loud and providential call for increased exertions, for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and for continual prayer for a more abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit, to render the means employed successful.

FOURTH RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the new and enlarged openings for Missionary exertion, in different quarters, demand our best energies to make known the blessed Gospel of Christ to Heathen and Mahomedan Nations.

PREACHED AT ST. BRIDE'S CHURCH, FLEET STREET,

ON MONDAY EVENING, MAY 2, 1842,

BEFORE THE

Church Missionary Society,

REV. HUGH STOWELL, M.A.

MINISTER OF CHRIST CHURCH, SALFORD, MANCHESTER.

MATTHEW XXVIII. 20.

AND, LO, I AM WITH YOU ALWAY, EVEN UNTO THE END OF THE WORLD. AMEN.

PRECIOUS promise! dropped on the infant Church, like the mantle of the ascending Prophet on Elisha; the strength of her life, the pledge of her perpetuity, the symbol of her glory. Imperishable assurance! reaching not to the Apostles alone, but, without controversy, to all who should be ordained by them and from them, as heralds of the Gospel, and shepherds of the flock, till the consummation of all things—till the Church militant be swallowed up in the Church triumphant. Awful trust! committed to the Church, and to the various branches of the Church, on the express condition of their faithfulness. For it is clear, that the presence of Christ with His messengers is annexed to their fidelity in the delivery of their message—teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world—as the monarch will not confirm and sanction that which his ambassadors have transacted in his name, unless they have observed his instructions, and maintained his honour.

Are we not, then, warranted in inferring that all our efforts for the evangelization of the world ought to be as closely as possible connected with our own branch of the Church of Christ; and that from such connexion great encouragement may be drawn, provided always, and above all, that the doctrine of Christ be disseminated, and His commandments obeyed?

Deeply, therefore, does it concern the conductors and supporters of the beloved Institution in whose behalf I address you this evening, to be well assured of her full fellowship with that branch of Christ's Church which He made so strong for Himself in these lands; to be vividly impressed with a sense of the privileges which, in virtue of that relationship, belong to her; and yet at the same time to be intensely alive to the fact, that those privileges can avail nothing, except as they are used for the propagation of evangelical truth and the furtherance of living godliness. The positions, therefore, on which we shall enlarge, are—that the Church Missionary Society is a true and faithful child of the Church of England; that, as a dutiful daughter of our National Church, she occupies a special vantage ground, and possesses peculiar immunities; but that this vantage ground and these immunities are of no worth, except they be held entirely subordinate to the maintenance of the truth of the Gospel, and the advancement of living Christianity.

The occasion on which we are assembled, is a solemn one. The juncture in the proceedings of our Institution is full of moment. The circumstances of our Church are confessedly critical. Lord of all power and might! vouchsafe to us Thy special presence, that we may be established in Thy truth, quickened in Thy service, enlarged in our love, and emboldened in our zeal!

I. VERY CLEAR ARE THE PROOFS THAT OUR SOCIETY IS THE GENUINE OFFSPRING OF OUR CHURCH.

It originated exclusively with her sons, and chiefly with her Clergy. Feeling keenly the responsibility pressing on her, to discharge the high commission entrusted to her; perceiving that she could discharge that trust then—as, unhappily, she can do now—only through spontaneous combinations of her members; seeing that the combinations of her members, which at that time existed, were virtually if not actually restricted from extending their labours beyond our own colonial dependencies, while the field is the world; witnessing, not with sentiments of unfriendliness, yet with godly jealousy for the fidelity and honour of their venerated mother, various associations of Dissenters girding themselves to the Missionary work; thus circumstanced, when they could refrain no longer, they prayerfully and discreetly framed the Institution, which, having obtained help of God, still steadily pursues her brightening course.

Nor is she in her constitution, less than in her origin, accredited as a child of the Church. We may challenge even those who have ill-will at her, to place their finger on one of her principles or regulations which is out of harmony with the order, the discipline, or the doctrine of our Apostolical Church. True it is, that the field she had to occupy was in some sort a novel field, and consequently her plans were, of necessity, in some respects unwonted; yet was there not discovered, throughout them, a sincere and earnest purpose to be loyal to the Church? And has not the tenor of her conduct been in accordance with her purpose? Has she not, on all occasions, shown herself ready to submit, where submission was practicable and called for, to episcopal authority; and has she not delighted to employ, in the field of Missionary toil, Labourers regularly commissioned by our own ecclesiastical rulers? If, indeed, in the outset of her career, others were employed, this was of necessity, rather than of choice—a necessity equally acknowledged and acted upon by her elder sister. But as soon as, very mainly through her instrumentality, the life-blood of Missionary zeal had been so poured through the veins of our Church, that the disgrace was wiped away which formerly might have been fastened upon her—that though she could furnish means, she could not furnish Messengers for the glorious enterprise—then this Society needed not, and needing not did not, and does not, send forth fresh Ambassadors of peace, except they have first been duly called and ordained by our Anglican Prelates. Meanwhile, have not the Society's Missionaries, with scarcely an exception, proved themselves ready to yield meet and canonical obedience to their spiritual rulers? And have not the directors of the work at home evinced an unremitting solicitude to uphold the Church in her proper authority and jurisdiction abroad?

At the same time, it must be acknowledged that our Missionaries have not everywhere been so happy as to enjoy the wholesome sway and fatherly succour of Episcopacy. Wherefore? Because, of necessity, the Society has been compelled to stretch her line beyond the bounds to which the Episcopate has extended—of necessity, since in so doing she was but pursuing her high vocation. For, her special calling being to preach Christ to those to whom He had not been named, beyond the limits of our own immediate Settlements, she could not reject openings, propitious and promising, presented to her by the great Shepherd and Bishop of the Universal Church, because, haply, episcopacy had not yet spread its wing over those distant regions. Had she awaited such an event, she would have inverted the natural order of the Church; for episcopacy ought not to anticipate, but to follow evangelization. It is not the foundation-stone, but the top-stone, in the building. It is when a country or district has been evangelized, that the episcopate comes in, to crown and consummate the work. Like the goodly spire which crowns so many of our beautiful national temples—the architect did not first bid the spire soar aloft to the skies, but he reserved it to grace and consolidate the finished structure.

And such we find to have been, in primitive and apostolic days, the model of evangelization exhibited to our view: so that it is most cheering to compare this aspect of modern Missionary labours with the aspect of primitive Missionary labours—the Missionary labours of the Church of apostolic times and apostolic records, the only authoritative precedent to every Church in every age. As in water face answereth to face, so, in this respect, does the economy of our present Missionary efforts correspond with that of primitive times, as imaged in the mirror of Revelation: for the apostles did not, in the outset, map out the heathen world into skeleton dioceses, and plant a Bishop at Crete, at Ephesus, at Antioch—no; but they themselves, first of all, went everywhere preaching the word, and they sent forth chosen evangelists to proclaim the unsearchable riches of Christ: and when the Lord had given testimony unto the word of His grace, when multitudes had been gathered from among the heathen, when pastors had been set over the infant Churches thus gathered, and when those pastors themselves needed chief shepherds, then at length, when a fixed episcopacy was required, and when the apostles, thitherto the itinerating Bishops of the Universal Church, were about to enter into their rest, they instituted and added diocesan episcopacy, to consolidate, perpetuate, and govern the Church; and so Timothy was appointed to Ephesus, Titus to Crete, and Ignatius to Antioch. Thus has it been in our modern Missionary progress. This Society did not tarry—to instance a beautiful existing illustration of our meaning—till haply there might be a Bishop set over the wild Western Isle of New Zealand; but she at once introduced, amidst the ferocious cannibals of that seemingly inaccessible land, the messengers of grace and peace and love; and they, preaching Christ crucified, were, through grace, enabled so to subdue many a savage spirit and soften many a stony heart, that numerous flocks were gathered from among the fell natives; pastors were multiplied over those flocks; the island began to wear a general aspect of Christianization; the episcopate was now called for, to give order and perpetuity to the work; and, lo! as the result of our labours, a Bishop has been consecrated to the fair Western See. In this way the Church Missionary Society has had the blessed privilege of welcoming to a garden, which she had been the honoured means of winning from the waste, this master husbandman in the vineyard of God: and such is the maturity of the work in the once barbarous Isle, now lovely in grace as she is beauteous in nature, that it only needs the parochial system of our Church to be fully introduced, in order that we may withdraw our Missionary labours from her shores, and turn them to new wilds in the wilderness, where we may hope to add fresh spheres to our primitive episcopate, and fresh trophies to our Scriptural Church—but all for the glory of Christ Jesus. Blessed fruit of our weak endeavours! expressive proof of fidelity to our Church! For can it with fairness be denied, that as this Institution, under God, has mainly helped to annex to the crown of England's Queen the fairest province in her wide dominions—the fairest, because unstained by the blood of conquest, and neither wrested by violence nor filched by fraud from the aboriginal tribes, but vanquished by the sword of the Spirit, and led captive by the cords of love, until the nation has virtually said to her Benefactress, as did the Moabite to Naomi of old, Thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God—can it be denied, that as this Society has thus helped to add the fairest province to the empire of our Queen, she has also aided largely in adding the fairest diocese to the ample fold of our Church?—the fairest, because the brightest modern evidence of the apostolicity and catholicity of our Church, of the soundness of her faith, and the energy of her obedience, of the power of her love, and of the abiding of the Spirit of Christ with her Ministers and in her ministrations—a living epistle, known and read of all men.

The time would fail, were we to adduce all the evidences we might of the faithfulness of the Church Missionary Society to the Church whose name she bears. We must not, however, forget to remind you, that her Missionaries have been instrumental in translating into many tongues our matchless Prayer Book, and in bringing about its intelligent and fervent use by many new congregations of the saints. And is not this an eloquent sign of filial affection and devotedness?

Still it was said, notwithstanding all, that the fact that this Institution enjoyed but the partial countenance of the supreme Rulers of our Church was sufficient to brand her as an alien from the Church. That inference has often been proved unjust: arguments to prove its injustice might be multiplied; but, thank God! if ever they were needed, they are needed no longer. A special lustre is reflected on our commemoration this year, because it is the first since, through the good hand of our God upon us, we have had to thank Him for the accession of both our Archbishops, and of many other members of the Episcopal Bench, to the Presidency of our Society. It is an event to make our hearts leap for joy—an event, for which the name of the Lord Jesus is to be devoutly magnified—an event, which took place at a juncture, and was accomplished in a manner, which gave to it a peculiar grace. It occurred at a crisis, when many, from whatever motives, were unwisely and unfairly attempting, by the formation of unions of certain societies, designated by them exclusively Church Societies, to brand this Society as unworthy of that designation: and had our Ecclesiastical Rulers connived at—much more had they countenanced—such ungenerous proceedings, disastrous must have been the consequences, not so much to the aspersed Institution, as to our beloved Church herself. How opportune, then, and benign, at such a moment, the accession of the supreme Rulers of our Church to the patronage of the excommunicated Society! Nor was the way in which they took the step less happy than the juncture at which they took it; for they required nothing more than a simple ecclesiastical arrangement—an arrangement not more fitting for them to demand than pleasing to the Society to make. Not one principle has been abandoned; not one plan relinquished; not one rule rescinded: insomuch, that virtually, if not actually, our Prelates have indorsed and authenticated the constitution and character of the Society, even from her birth.

Who, then, is he, calling himself a Churchman, that will presume to excommunicate her? that will take it upon himself, while he theoretically idolizes, practically to trample upon Episcopacy? But far be it from us to anticipate any such behaviour. We will rather trust, as we devoutly pray, that this auspicious event may prove the harbinger of more entire cordiality and union among us all; and that every root of bitterness being removed, our strife—to borrow the illustration of a venerable Prelate of former days—shall no more be “the strife between the aspen-tree and the poplar, whose leaves shall rustle most and make most noise, but the strife between the olive and the vine, which shall bear most fruit and yield most fatness.” The Lord grant it! the very God of peace vouchsafe it to our Church!

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ for the abundant proofs which we possess that our Institution is a duteous daughter of the Church.

II. For, Brethren, we would not have you ignorant or unmindful of THE PECULIAR ADVANTAGES which we hence enjoy—advantages which, if befittingly appreciated, will tend to stimulate our labours, invigorate our hopes, and deepen our humility.

First in place, if not in importance, is the legitimacy of the Ministers and ministrations which we have the privilege to support. God forbid that we should lightly esteem this privilege! We are well persuaded that Christ has confided a twofold treasure to His Church—a succession of commission, in the order of her Teachers—a succession of doctrine and ordinances, in their teaching. And while we hold, as we shall have occasion and opportunity subsequently to show, that the former is altogether subordinate to the latter, we do not on that account treat it with indifference. In our jealousy for the supremacy of the end, we do not set at nought the legitimacy of the means. In our zeal for the fruit, we do not tear away the foliage: for though the fruit is not for the sake of the foliage, but the foliage for the sake of the fruit, the fruit is not without the foliage; for stripped of that shelter it can neither safely set nor fully mature. We do not, therefore, undervalue the blessing of having a legitimate Ministry employed in our Missionary fields of labour. For if the presence of Christ was specially promised to the Apostles, and to those whom the Apostles should appoint, and who should from them be successively appointed as Ministers in the Church; if we have evidence of such successive appointment, from a variety of intimations in Scripture, as well as from the testimony of the earliest ecclesiastical history; and if we have satisfactory proof that the transmission and order of the Ministry in our own Church are in accordance with apostolic institution; then may not the Missionaries in connexion with this Society, amid their toils and perils, their struggles and conflicts, the chill of disappointment and the fire of persecution, fall back with thankfulness, if they be found faithful to Him who called them, on the clearness of the external call they have enjoyed, as well as—if “the Holy Ghost truly moved them to take upon them their office and ministry”—on the authenticity and distinctness of their internal call? And may not the Society confidently anticipate, that there shall be realised in their labours the glorious, living pledge, Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world?

Akin to the privilege of a legitimate Ministry, as springing from our fellowship with our Apostolic Church, is the privilege of Episcopal jurisdiction and care. For no sooner, as we have before had occasion to observe, is the land so far cultured, and the garden so far fenced, as to require the oversight of the master husbandman, than he is consecrated by the Church, and commissioned to establish and complete the work. And it is difficult to say how large the benefit arising from having one thus designated to the charge and supervision of the work; whose title will be admitted, because it is recognised; whose authority will be submitted to, because it is derived, not from the people, but from God. We have been assured, by some who have laboured in foreign fields, that the visitation of a Christian Bishop, when he comes in the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ, is as an angel's visit, fraught with counsel, comfort, and benediction. What a touching illustration of this we have in the visit of the distinguished Bishop of Calcutta to the beautiful, brightening scenes of Krishnaghur ! How we may discern, from his own interesting record of his sojourn amidst that lovely field of promise, what grace and holy influence accompanied his visitation—how it tended to sift and test the work ; to confirm and establish the converts ; to direct and animate the labourers ; to harmonize aught that might cause jarring, and remove aught that might occasion stumbling ! We were reminded, as we read the narrative, of the visit of Barnabas, the primitive Bishop, to Antioch ; who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith. Brethren, we would not lean upon the instrument ; yet we bless God for the privilege of such instrumentality, and we believe that Episcopal jurisdiction is replete with benefit and blessing to our Missionary work.

Need it be added, that we possess a peculiar advantage in the enjoyment of a common confession of faith?—a confession of faith, which holds Scripture to be the only warrant of faith, and is itself abundantly authenticated by the Scripture which it thus upholds ;—a confession of faith, as clear as it is compendious, and as comprehensive as it is precise ; which serves as a brief and simple summary of truth, not to supersede, but to vindicate the Bible. Very precious is such a confession : it tends, to an immense extent, to cherish uniformity, promote unanimity, maintain orthodoxy, and give combination and concentration to the whole Missionary work.

Closely allied to this advantage is the treasure we possess in our matchless Prayer Book—a Prayer Book, that well deserves the appellation of the Book of “COMMON” PRAYER, for it is not unmeet to be the Common Prayer-Book of the world : as simple as it is sublime ; as chaste as it is fervent ; as artless as it is majestic ; as minute as it is comprehensive ; it comes down to every understanding, and home to every heart. It is universally suitable, because truly Scriptural : every worshipper, whether the intellectual and refined native of Britain, or the newly-converted and half-civilized Hottentot, or the half-tamed and humanized Caffre amidst his wild woods—all may find in that rich form of prayer utterance for their hearts' inmost wants, a channel for their hearts' deepest woes. Lovely symbol and effectual instrument of catholic fellowship! It furnishes an electrical chain of spiritual sympathy, which, passing through the souls of ten thousand times ten thousand worshippers all round the world, conveys through them all the hallowed thrill of consentaneous devotion. A golden censer, used in days gone past by saints and confessors and martyrs; formed of the fine gold of primitive times; cleansed in the Reformation from the rust and alloy wherewith Rome had debased it; it is now in the hands of the children of the Church all over the earth, and out of it they offer up, as one, the incense of praise and supplication before their common mercy-seat, through their common Mediator, by their common Comforter, to their common Father; so that not only with one mind, but with one mouth, they glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

And are we not thus reminded of the greatness of the privilege which our Society enjoys, in that she is not simply united with a legitimate Church, but with such a Church as our own—a Church so sound in her doctrines, so pure in her services, and, we may still add, so living in her godliness? For, however we must admit and deplore the lethargy which pervades too many of her ministers, as well as the practical abandonment of her principles by numbers who profess to exalt her, thank God! when we contrast her condition, on the one hand, with the state of the Greek Church, sunk into childishness, formality, and imbecility; or, on the other hand, with the state of the Romish Church, so paganized in its usages, grovelling in its superstitions, and secularized in its constitution; or when, again, we compare her state with that of many of the Continental Churches of the Reformation, some of them so heretical in doctrine, and others so torpid in spirit; and when we see her at home enlarging her bosom to receive her teeming offspring, and becoming all abroad the ambassadress of Heaven and the benefactress of earth; what can we do, but exclaim, Who hath made us to differ! and what have we that we have not received!? Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, nor to our Church, but unto Thy name give the praise! And how mighty the influence which must emanate from such a Church, whithersoever her labours may extend!

Neither let it be thought descending too far, if we add—not only such a Church, but the Church of such a nation—the acknowledged Church, the spiritual representative of Great Britain—a country, which, though she occupy in the wide world a space so narrow, that many a larger isle than she can scarce be traced on the map of the geographer, yet, through the good hand of God upon her, sways with her sceptre one-sixth of the human race, and by her influence more or less affects the rest—a nation, which, for arts and arms, for wealth and literature, for commerce and glory, stands unrivalled in the earth. Is it a small thing for our Missionaries to go forth to their scenes of labour, the accredited messengers of the accredited Church of such a people? Have they not hence earthly facilities and temporal influence, such as belonged not to Apostles themselves; and which may perhaps without presumption be said, in the order of means, to be little less than a counterpoise to miracles?

These then, Brethren, briefly and imperfectly sketched, these are some of the advantages which accrue to our work, from its fellowship with our National Church; and in these we do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

III. But while we rejoice in our privileges, it behoves us to rejoice with trembling. For should they elate us, they will cast us down; should they become our confidence, they will turn to be our bane; they will make us like the heath in the desert, that we shall not see when good cometh.

And of a truth, the more abundant our privileges, the more are we bound to watch and pray, lest, even through this very abundance, we enter into temptation. For however we acknowledge—most thankfully acknowledge—the high ground which we occupy in virtue of these advantages, it must never be forgotten that the end and object of all is the building up of a spiritual Church, formed of lively stones, known certainly and discerned infallibly only by Him “from whom no secrets are hid;” and that were we to put the scaffolding in the place of the building, the means instead of the end—were we to sacrifice unto our net, and burn incense unto our drag—the glory would depart from us, and the blessing be turned into a curse. We must ever bear in mind, that the strength and glory of a Church consist in the presence of the Saviour, the power of the Holy Ghost, the vital godliness of her ministers and members, and the faithfulness, boldness, and evangelical tone of her ministrations. Never, therefore, must it be lost sight of, that however rich and comely our branch of the golden candlestick—and it is a fair branch, burnished and studded with precious stones—it is still but a means to an end; and the end is, the holding forth and shedding abroad of the hallowed light entrusted to her by her Master: and if that light should be quenched in her sockets, or the sacred oil which feeds it exhausted from her bowls, her use and her excellency would alike be gone. Most true is it, that our Church is fair as the moon; but, like the moon, too, she shines with a borrowed light: her place is, as a satellite, to attend the sun, and be content with reflecting the mild lustre which he imparts. Let her, unmindful of her position and dependency, attempt to interpose between us and the Sun of Righteousness, and a dark eclipse must ensue; her own radiance will be quenched, we shall be plunged into thick darkness, and our Church will become a curse to us, instead of a blessing.

God forbid, then, that we should idolize our Church. We look with a wholesome horror on those sentiments which would lead men to put the Church in the place of the Saviour—which would lead them virtually, if not actually, to change the high resolve of the Great Apostle of the Gentiles; and, instead of saying, “We determine not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified,” to say, “We determine not to know any thing among you but the Church catholic, and her glorified.” We have not so learned Christ. No; we love the Church for the Saviour’s sake, not the Saviour for the Church’s sake. We love her ordinances for the Spirit’s sake, not the Spirit for her ordinances’ sake. And never, never may we be guilty of what a Prelate of our Church, whose praise is in . . . all the Churches, has so happily and concisely expressed—making “the Church first an abstraction, and then a person, and then a Saviour!” Can we too sensitively recoil from so fatal an error—an error which would wither the right arm of our strength, by banishing the Saviour from the midst of us?

We repeat it, Brethren, the true life and power of a Church lie not solely—no, nor mainly—in the orthodoxy of her Creeds, Formularies, and Confessions; but supremely and essentially in the living power of the Holy Ghost, manifested in her Ministers, members, and ministrations. It seemeth good to God to transmit vital godliness, not so much through passive as through active instrumentality. Ye, says Christ, are the salt of the earth; ye are the light of the world. Faith, as we heard in the Lesson of the evening, cometh by hearing. It pleaseth God, by the foolishness of preaching, to save them that believe. Consequently, orthodoxy is insufficient, without the energy of practical and personal religion. So that to presume proudly upon the soundness of our Church’s documents, would be to transform her beautiful garments into her grave-clothes. Yea, and orthodoxy itself will not long survive practical godliness: for if the members of a Church love not to speak the language of their Church, they will soon contrive to make their Church speak their language. We have sad exemplifications of such parricidal perversion in some of the Continental Churches; nor have there been wanting attempts in our own Church, if not to change, at least to confound the clear certain Protestant sound of her silver trumpets. The God of truth and faithfulness bring to nought all such attempts!

But if this reasoning apply to the Church in her internal economy, it must apply to her with accumulated force in her external, her Missionary functions. For, however abstract orthodoxy of Creed and Liturgy might serve at home to keep alive some scattered embers around her altars, what could it avail when brought into contact—if into contact it could be brought—with the dry bones which fill the boundless charnel-house of Heathenism? Can these dry bones live, without being prophesied upon; and so prophesied upon, that the breath of the Lord shall accompany and breathe upon these slain, that they may live? And does God ever send forth the breath of His mouth with any prophesying, save that of which the testimony of Jesus is the spirit? Preach the Gospel, is the great commission of Christ; preaching the Gospel is the mighty engine for demolishing the kingdom of Satan; preaching the Gospel is the grand instrument for erecting the kingdom of the Lord. I, says Christ, in reference to the evangelization of the world, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto Me. “Christ crucified,” said a holy and distinguished divine, who was one of the nursing fathers of this very Institution—“Christ crucified is the great ordinance of God.” This is the mighty magnet of the Gospel; that by which all its moral miracles have been wrought. Take that magnet out of the Gospel, and you abstract the mystic source of all its attractive power. Shroud that magnet in an unhallowed “reserve,” and you virtually make the Gospel of none effect—it is shorn of its magnetic energy. It is no more the Gospel—it is another Gospel; which yet is not another: and though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. Dearer to us than fortune, than family, than life, than the Church herself—perish the Church of England, perish every earthly institution, rather than perish from amongst us the full simple Gospel of Jesus Christ!

To that blessed Gospel this Institution owes all that the Lord has accomplished by her. If God has guided and avouched her—if she has her thousand living Epistles, known and read of all men—if signs and wonders have been wrought by her—all has been done in the name of God's Holy Child Jesus. Christ crucified—salvation through His blood and righteousness—salvation by grace through faith, and faith only—effectual to justify, effectual to renovate, effectual to bring forth fruits of holiness, effectual to meeten for the inheritance of the saints in light—this has been the lock of her strength, and the talisman of her skill. At the foot of the Cross would she spread every trophy; on the head of the Redeemer would she tremblingly place every crown. Review the records of her history; trace the whole tenour of her work; and you will find, that she has been characterized, at home in her conductors, and abroad in her Missionaries, by a spirit of self-renunciation on the one hand, and of affiance in divine grace on the other: shaded with however much imperfection, you will still discern a yearning desire for the honour of Christ, and a godly jealousy for the purity of His Gospel: you will perceive that she has ever manifested a watchful and prayerful solicitude to select for the great work, men full of the Holy Ghost and of faith—men determined not to know any thing among the Heathen save Jesus Christ and Him crucified—men remote alike from sceptical latitudinarianism and superstitious formality. Hence, whatever prosperity has attended her—hence, God, even our own God, has given her “His blessing.”

And so long as she cleaves to her first principles, and retains her first love, so long shall her path be as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. But let her trim and compromise, barter the spirit for the letter, and the power for the form of godliness—let her substitute dependence on an arm of flesh for reliance on the Almighty arm—and God will forsake her; her salt will lose its savour; and she may strew the pagan world with such savourless salt, and that world will be vapid as before. Then she may multiply her hosts; but the edge of their sword will be taken away, and their armour will no more be of proof: they may go forth to the battle, but not in the name of the Lord of Hosts, the God of the armies of Israel. The result would be, either that they must adulterate the Gospel till it could combine with Heathenism—thus paganizing Christianity, instead of christianizing Pagans, the course pursued by the emissaries of the Romish Church in China, when they mixed up the native idolatries with the ordinances of Christ—or else, having proved, as the Missionaries of the same Church did in India, the utter impotency of a debased Christianity to convert the Heathen, they would come to the dismal and blasphemous conclusion, to which the last Jesuit Missionary among the Hindoos came, when, quitting the shore in blank despair, he declared, “that he had come to the astounding conclusion, that the vast population of India was doomed to perdition by Heaven’s immutable decree, and that henceforth to attempt a Hindoo’s conversion is to fight against God.” Horrible inference! yet, from his premises, fearfully just;—but how nobly, how eloquently refuted by the hills of Tinnevelly and the plains of Krishnaghur—rejoicing and blossoming as the rose, beneath the pure influence of the Gospel and the Spirit of the living God!

Nor is it, Brethren, to be disguised, however, to be deplored, that circumstances have developed themselves within our Church, which call upon this Institution to exercise twofold vigilance, prayerfulness, and firmness. For should there be—we will not, we do not, happily, anticipate it—any attempt, from whatever quarter, or in whatever shape, to corrupt the Society from the simplicity that is in Christ, unhesitatingly and unflinchingly must that attempt be withstood. We must behave as did the Apostle of old toward the false brethren who came in privily to spy out his liberty which he had in Christ Jesus;—to whom, says he, we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you. Woe, woe to the fair gardens which God has enabled us to win from the heathen wastes, if that antichristian malaria to which we allude should ever shed its blight upon their blossoms!—a malaria little less pernicious, though much more subtle, when wafted on the mists that steal from the banks of silvery Isis, than when rolled on the exhalations that steam abroad from the noisome marshes of the muddy Tiber. In speaking thus strongly, we are fully borne out by the judgment of one most competent to judge—fitted to do so alike by uncommon sagacity, hoary experience, and large personal acquaintance with Missionary operations—one whose judgment ought, therefore, to weigh greatly with the Church. The venerable Bishop of Calcutta, referring, in a sermon not long since delivered by him, to certain opinions which we need not specify, observes—

“ I am full of fear. Every thing is at stake. There seems to be something judicial in the rapid spread of these opinions. If they should come over here, and pervade the teaching of our Chaplains, the views and proceedings of our Missionaries, our friendly relations with other bodies of Christians, and our position among the Hindoos and Mahomedans, Ichabod—the glory is departed—may be inscribed on our Church in India. All real advance in the conversion of the Heathen will stop; our scattered Christian flocks will miss the sound and wholesome nourishment for their souls; our converts will quickly dwindle away to a nominal profession; our native Catechists and Missionaries will be bewildered. A scheme that substitutes self and form and authority of office, for weight of doctrine and activity of life, will be eagerly embraced; the spirituality of our Missions will be gone;—and nothing in the world is so graceless, as the eminent Gerickè once observed, as a Mission without the Spirit of Christ.”

This witness is true. How urgently, then, does it concern the Directors of this Society to realise its truth ! How emphatically are they called upon to take heed that they select for the purpose of being trained to the work, and for receiving Holy Orders from our apostolical Bishops, men free from all taint of antichristian leaven—men who serve God in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter—men, whose lips keep pure knowledge, and whose lives are in harmony with their lips—men bent not on making proselytes, but converts ; not on gathering men within the fence of the visible fold, unless they be brought into the fellowship of the spiritual flock—men, who will never put the Fathers in the place of the Prophets and Apostles, the Church in the place of the Head of the Church, the scaffolding of the building, and the sacraments of the Sanctifier ! The Great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls Himself protect from pestilent innovation the ninety-and-nine flocks which He has gathered together in the Heathen wilderness !

IF, THEN, THE EVIDENCE ADDUCED HAS BEEN SUFFICIENT, AND THE REASONING BASED UPON IT SOUND, THE THREEFOLD POSITION WITH WHICH WE SET OUT HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED ; AND WE CONCLUDE, THAT THIS SOCIETY IS A TRUE AND DUTIFUL DAUGHTER OF OUR NATIONAL CHURCH—THAT, IN VIRTUE OF THAT RELATIONSHIP, SHE POSSESSES TRANSCENDENT PRIVILEGES—BUT THAT THESE PRIVILEGES ARE WHOLLY SUBORDINATE, AND OUGHT TO BE ENTIRELY SUBSERVIENT, TO THE MAINTENANCE OF THE TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL, AND THE FURTHERANCE OF LIVING CHRISTIANITY.

Men, Brethren, and Fathers ! if these things be so, what sure ground we possess for holy confidence and animating hope in the prosecution of our hallowed enterprise ! Our Mission is not doubtful—our credentials are not equivocal—our indications of the power and presence of our Master with us are neither few nor far between. Lo, I am with you alway, sounds sweetly in our ears. Where, then, is danger ? where difficulty ? where despondency ? If God be for us, who can be against us ? Meanwhile, how our prospects widen !—how openings multiply on every hand ! The field is the world, and the world is all unfolding before us: from the East and the West, and the North and the South, voices are heard, no longer whispering, but pealing louder and louder in our ears—"Come over and help us! send to us the glad tidings which Christ commissioned you to send to every creature under heaven!"

And is it at such a juncture, amidst such encouragements, encompassed with every thing to inspirit us on, that there has been recorded, in the chronicles of this Society, a Resolution, which ought to raise a blush on every cheek—a Resolution which casts a sore reflection upon us, upon our Church, upon our professed love and loyalty to our Master—A RESOLUTION, THAT WHILE THE FUNDS CONTINUE SO INADEQUATE NO MORE MISSIONS SHALL BE UNDERTAKEN, NO ADDITIONAL MISSIONARIES SENT ABROAD, NO MORE CHURCHES BUILT, NO MORE SCHOOL-HOUSES ERECTED; but that we must ground our standard, and halt in our victorious march? And this, when the boundless bosom of China, with her 360,000,000 immortal beings, all speaking one language, and all reading the language which they speak, is being opened up to receive the glad tidings of peace;—and this, when the Niger Expedition is setting forth anew, to be conducted by sable mariners, whom the accursed slave-trade, in the mysterious wisdom of God, furnished, that they might prove the future explorers and evangelizers of their outraged mother land;—and this, when India, throughout her mighty mass in a chrysalis condition, is bursting the gigantic shell of a thousand years, and only waiting for the vivifying touch of the Gospel to spread her wings, and soar into the glorious liberty of the Children of God;—and this, when God is giving us our heart's desire and prayer, no longer vouchsafing success to us as the small drops before the shower, or the scattered clusters before the vintage, but pouring out such a blessing, that thousands are turning from dumb idols, to serve the living and true God; and tens of thousands only needing fresh aids and appliances to add them to the blessed number? Is it when God is thus enlarged toward us, that we are so straitened in our own bowels? Is it so, that we prefer the yellow clay to the honour of our Master, the spread of His Church, the conversion of a lost but ransomed world?—God forbid!

What, then, is to be done?—The Resolution must be rescinded! You, my Brethren, must this night, in your oblations at the door of the sanctuary, declare that it shall be rescinded. The solemn assembly to-morrow must declare, in the help of God, that it shall be rescinded. The Ministers and members of our loved Church, throughout the land, must declare, It shall be rescinded.

But how can it be done? The world herself may teach us how to do it. There are to be found, in the pages of History, noble instances of national enthusiasm and sacrifice in the service of a country, and for the honour of a king, in times of deep emergency. There are examples of a people melting down their plate, and giving up their jewellery, and parting with more than half of all their possessions, for their country's sake, in the service of their sovereign. Shall we do less for Heaven, than they did for earth?—for the King that loved us, and bought us with His blood, than they did for a fellow-mortal, a worm of the dust? How can it be done? Most simply. Let every one of us who can afford—and who, if he chooses to deny himself, cannot afford?—DOUBLE HIS SUBSCRIPTION. Let all the members of the Institution do so;—and, instead of 90,000*l.*, we have 180,000*l.* as our income. And what were this for such a work? What from such a nation? What from such a Church? What for such a Saviour?

Men and Brethren, it is a critical juncture in the history of our sublime enterprise. Success is a touchstone, as well as adversity; and many who had thriven in the furnace of affliction have fainted in the sunshine of prosperity. We prayed, we pleaded, we longed for success. God has now accorded it—accorded it largely. Do we then grudge the success, because we find that it must cost us some sacrifice? If so, then God would bless us, but we are not prepared to receive the blessing—He would honour us, but we have not the faith to be honoured;—and it will be said of us, as it was said of the Saviour's own country during His earthly ministry—He could there do no mighty work!

Brethren, THERE ARE noble instances, individual instances, of self-sacrifice in the service of God, connected with this Society. There are individuals who support a Missionary in the boundless field; and do it, not out of their over-flowing abundance so much as out of their economised competence. Go, and do likewise. View the matter in the light of eternity. What will wealth or glory be to us in a few short days, when, amid life's dying agony, our only comfort, if true comfort shall be ours, will be, that Christ has done so much for us; and our supreme regret, that we have done so little for Christ?

Ere we close, suffer us to admonish you, that before all things we are called upon to watch unto prayer in behalf of this Institution. Such is the magnitude of her operations, such the complexity of her machinery, that we cannot but exclaim with one of old—Neither know we what to do; but our eyes are upon Thee, O our God! We well nigh tremble for the Conductors of the stupendous work. We are persuaded they often tremble for themselves. Overwhelming is the responsibility which presses upon them; so vast, so complicated, so delicate, so difficult, so momentous, the machinery which they direct. Do they not then need, do they not claim, our sympathy and our supplications? In their weakness is their strength; in their sense of insufficiency is their all-sufficiency through Christ Jesus. They have been men of prayer: may they continue men of prayer to the end! Wonderously has the grace of God hitherto preserved the Society from grave error, guarded her from serious blemish, maintained her against manifold opposition, and enabled her to triumph over every obstacle; until the clouds which beset her having passed away, now she sails forth, as the moon, when she has melted the mists from her path, sails forth in the calm blue sky. May she be even more lowly and prayerful in her exaltation, than she was in her humiliation!

We repeat it—prosperity is dangerous. Her very vantage ground and high patronage will become her snare, if they become her trust. Therefore let our heart's desire and prayer to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for her, our Church, our Country, and ourselves, be—

God be merciful unto us, and bless us ; and cause His face to shine upon us. That Thy way may be known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations. Let the people praise Thee, O God ! let all the people praise Thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase ; and God, even our own God, shall bless us. God shall bless us ; and all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

“Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost ; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.”

REPORT,

INTRODUCTION.

THE Committee present the Report of their Proceedings during the past year, under a deep sense of the responsibility of the trust which they have had to discharge, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

They feel it to be no light matter to account for the distribution of the large sums placed at their disposal; contributed by many of God's Children out of deep poverty, in much faith, and with many prayers.

They have endeavoured, throughout many difficulties and perplexities, to act with a single eye to the glory of the Lord: and upon His faithfulness they have depended for guidance and success; desiring to adopt as THEIR maxim that which the great Apostle of the Gentiles took, as HIS, when entrusted with the gatherings of the Churches of Macedonia and Greece for the poor saints at Jerusalem—Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us.

PATRONAGE.

The Church Missionary Society was formed in 1799; and its object was declared to be, "for sending Missionaries to the Continent of Africa, or the other parts of the Heathen World." It was at the same time directed that the formation of the Society should be communicated "to the Archbishop of Canterbury, as Metropolitan." From the reply of His Grace the Committee received encouragement to "go forward"; and were assured, "that he would look on their proceedings with candour." Several of the Prelates of our Church from time to time extended their patronage to the Society; and the number of those who have thus favoured it has steadily increased with the advancing years of the Institution. During the year on which the Committee have now to report, a large and important addition of Episcopal Patronage has been happily extended to it. The Bishop of London having publicly expressed his opinion of the desirableness of connecting the Church Missionary Society more closely with the Heads of the United Church, and of the practicability of making an arrangement for that end which should leave the Society at liberty to prosecute its work unimpeded and uninterrupted, communications on the subject took place, soon after the last Anniversary, between the Right Hon. the President of the Society and the Bishop of London, with the concurrence of His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury. These communications issued in the adoption of two additional Regulations, at a Special Meeting of the Society on the 16th of July last. On being apprised of the adoption of those Regulations, His Grace accepted the office of Vice-Patron of the Society. The following Prelates have also since joined the Society, as Vice-Presidents :—

HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF YORK.

THE LORD BISHOP OF LONDON.

THE LORD BISHOP OF BATH AND WELLS.

THE LORD BISHOP OF CHICHESTER.

THE LORD BISHOP OF GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL.

THE LORD BISHOP OF HEREFORD.

THE LORD BISHOP OF LINCOLN.

THE LORD BISHOP OF PETERBOROUGH.

THE LORD BISHOP OF SODOR AND MAN.

THE LORD BISHOP OF NEW ZEALAND.

THE LORD BISHOP OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF ENGLAND AND IRELAND

SECRETARYSHIP.

The retirement of the Rev. W. Jowett from the Secretaryship was mentioned in the last Report. The Rev. Richard Davies, previously Association Secretary of the Eastern District, was appointed in his place, in July last. The Rev. Thomas Vores having subsequently relinquished his official connexion with the Society, the Rev. Henry Venn kindly consented, as a temporary arrangement, to connect himself officially with the Society, under the designation of Honorary Clerical Secretary, pro tempore.

In reference to Mr. Vores' retirement, the Committee, on the 13th of September, adopted the following Resolution :—

That this Committee cannot accept the resignation of the Rev. Thomas Vores without expressing the high sense which they entertain of the value of his services in one of the most critical seasons of the Society's history, and their heartfelt and sincere regret at their loss ; and they desire to assure him of the lively sentiments of respect and affection which they entertain toward him ; and of their earnest prayer, that whatever portion of the Lord's vineyard he may be called upon to occupy, he may be abundantly blessed himself, and made an abundant blessing to others.

DECEASE OF MISSIONARIES.

The Committee have to lament the number of deaths which during the past year have taken place in the West-Africa Mission, and of one in the Egyptian Mission. They are as follows:— Mrs. Young, wife of Mr. W. Young, on the 17th of March 1841, at Waterloo, after premature confinement; Mrs. Schmid, wife of the Rev. D. H. Schmid, on the 7th of June last, at Freetown; Mr. John Reynolds, on the 27th of December, and Mrs. Reynolds, his widow, on the 31st of the same month, at Freetown, both of fever, after a few days' illness; Mrs. Gollmer, wife of the Rev. C. A. Gollmer, on the 11th of February, at Regent, of fever, after a fortnight's illness; and Mrs. Krusé, wife of the Rev. W. Krusé, suddenly, at Cairo, on the 19th of February, of nervous apoplexy.

RETURN HOME OF MISSIONARIES.

The Rev. John W. Weeks and Mrs. Weeks, and the Rev. Ebenezer Collins, on account of ill health, and Mr. Isaac Smith, on a visit home, left Sierra Leone on the 31st of March; landed at Cork on the 26th of May; and arrived in London on the 2d of June last. Mrs. Schön, wife of the Rev. J. F. Schön, her health having failed, left Sierra Leone on the 5th of August, and landed at Gravesend on the 28th of September. The Rev. J. F. Schön left Fernando Po, whither he had returned from the Niger Expedition, on the 23d of November; and landed at Liverpool on the 25th of January, on a visit home.

The Rev. Francis Owen, with Mrs. and Miss Owen, and Mr. and Mrs. Hewetson, left Mosika, agreeably to the instructions of the Committee, in September 1840; and reached Graham's Town on the 21st of May 1841. Mr. and Mrs. Owen, with Miss Owen, arrived in the Downs on the 7th of December; Mr. and Mrs. Hewetson remaining at Graham's Town.

Mr. George P. Badger and Mrs. Badger left Malta on the 27th of April 1841, on a visit to England; and arrived in London on the 12th of May. The Rev. Frederick A. Hildner and Mrs. Hildner left Syra on the 26th of April 1841, in consequence of ill health; and, having remained for a short time on the Continent, arrived in London on the 22d of August. The Rev. John R. T. Lieder, with Mrs. Lieder, left Cairo, on the same account, on the 22d of October; and landed at Southampton on the 15th of November. The Rev. Christopher F. Schlienz, in consequence of serious indisposition, left Malta, with Mrs. Schlienz, on the 2d of February last; and arrived at Falmouth on the 12th of March.

The Rev. Charles B. Leupolt and Mrs. Leupolt left Calcutta on the 15th of September last, on account of ill health; and arrived in London on the 28th of January.

The Rev. John James Weitbrecht, his health having again failed, left Calcutta, with Mrs. Weitbrecht, on the 11th of December last; and arrived in London on the 5th of April.

The Rev. James J. H. Elouis left Madras on the 23d of January 1841, in consequence of ill health; and arrived in London on the 11th of May last. The Rev. Foster Rogers, having suffered much from protracted indisposition, sailed, with Mrs. Rogers, from the same place, on the 28th of February 1841; and landed at Portsmouth on the 1st of July.

DEPARTURES AND ARRIVALS OF MISSIONARIES.

West-Africa Mission.—The Rev. John U. Graf and Mrs. Graf, the Rev. Henry Rhodes and Mrs. Rhodes, the Rev. Christian Theophilus Frey and Mrs. Frey, the Rev. Charles Andrew Gollmer and Mrs. Gollmer, and Mr. John Reynolds and Mrs. Reynolds, sailed from Gravesend on the 29th of October, for Sierra Leone; and arrived there on the 1st of December. The Rev. John W. Weeks, and Mrs. Weeks, embarked at Gravesend on the 16th of March last, on their return to Sierra Leone.

East-Africa Mission.—Mr. John Mühleisen and Mr. John Christian Müller arrived at Tadjurra on the 17th of May last, with the view of proceeding to Shoa; but, in consequence of their lives being in danger from the ill feeling manifested at that place toward Europeans, they were compelled to return to Aden; and having no prospect of being able for some time to prosecute their journey, they left Aden for Jerusalem on the 2d of January 1842, for the purpose of receiving Ordination from Bishop Alexander. They arrived at Jerusalem on the 21st of February.

Mediterranean Mission.—The Rev. Frederick A. Hildner and Mrs. Hildner embarked at London on the 6th of January last, on their return to Syra; and arrived there on the 22d of February.

North-India Mission.—The Rev. Robert Hawes and Mrs. Hawes sailed from Portsmouth on the 27th of June last, for Calcutta; and arrived at that place on the 9th of October.

South-India Mission.—The Rev. W. T. Humphrey and Mrs. Humphrey arrived at Madras on the 5th of May 1841. The Rev. R. T. Noble, and the Rev. H. W. Fox and Mrs. Fox, arrived at Madras on the 5th of July last. Mr. John Gunning Seymer sailed from Portsmouth on the 27th of June last, for Madras; and arrived there on the 22d of September. The Rev. John Tucker sailed from Southampton on the 1st of November, on his return to Madras, overland; and arrived there on the 9th of January.

Western-India Mission.—The Rev. Charles P. Farrar and Mrs. Farrar left London on the 29th of October, to embark at Portsmouth, on their return to Nassuck.

Ceylon Mission.—The Rev. C. Greenwood and Mrs. Greenwood arrived at Colombo on the 18th of July last. The Rev. William Adley and Mrs. Adley embarked at Falmouth, on their return to Ceylon, overland, on the 31st of June last; and arrived at Colombo on the 16th of August. The Rev. George C. Trimnell and Mrs. Trimnell, with Miss Sophia Bailey, embarked at London on the 12th of October, on their return to the same Mission.

Australasia Mission.—The Rev. William Charles Dudley and Mrs. Dudley, and the Rev. Charles Lucas Reay, sailed from Plymouth on the 26th of December, for New Zealand. The Rev. George Adam Kissling and Mrs. Kissling—their services having been transferred from the West-Africa to the New-Zealand Mission, in consequence of Mr. Kissling's ill health—sailed for Plymouth, with Mr. Seymour Mills Spencer and Mrs. Spencer, for New Zealand, on the 17th of January.

North-West-America Mission.—The Rev. Abraham Cowley and Mrs. Cowley, not being able to proceed via Canada to the Red-River Settlement, returned home from Montreal, for the purpose of proceeding thither on board one of the Hudson-Bay Company's ships. They embarked, with Mr. John Roberts, at Gravesend, for York Fort, on the 5th of June.

NUMBER OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

Fifteen Ordained Missionaries, six Catechists, and one Female Teacher, have been sent forth to the Society's Missions in the course of the year; including eight Ordained Missionaries who have returned to their Stations, and one whose services have been transferred to another Mission. Fifteen of these being married, the total number of individuals sent out is thirty-nine.

The total number of Labourers engaged in the service of the Society, as Ordained Missionaries, Catechists, and other Teachers, is One hundred and eighty-four; exclusive of One thousand one hundred and sixty-nine Native Teachers, and the Wives of the Married Labourers.

ASSOCIATIONS.

During the year, the Rev. Stewart W. Hanna has resigned the office of Association Secretary; and the Rev. George Smith, late of Goole, Yorkshire, has become connected with the Society, in that relation.

The number of Associations formed during the year is 61. The Committee have again to renew their cordial acknowledgments to the Clerical friends of the Society for the aid which they have afforded, in furthering its objects in their own localities, and in acting as Deputations in visiting Associations. The Committee earnestly solicit the continuance of these important services; so essential, under the Divine Blessing, to sustain and extend the Home operations of the Society.

The attention of the Committee has been drawn, in the course of the year, to the question of the union in one Association of Institutions, which, though connected with our Church, are formed for objects more or less differing from each other. The result of the consideration given to the subject was the adoption, on the 14th of September, of the following Resolutions:—

That it is essential to the welfare of this Society that it should prosecute its objects distinct and separate from all other Societies.

That it is important that all the different Associations of the Church Missionary Society should maintain their independent existence, without merging in any Church Union.

That the preceding Resolutions be communicated to the Secretaries of the different Associations, and to other influential friends of the Society; together with a Letter developing the grounds on which they are founded.

A Letter was, in consequence, addressed to the Secretaries of Associations, fully explaining the grounds on which the Committee were led to the conclusions expressed in the Resolutions; which is printed in the Appendix.*

PUBLICATIONS.

The importance of interesting our Youth in the cause of Missions has been strongly pressed on the attention of the Committee. They have, in consequence, requested the Association Secretaries to promote the formation of Juvenile Associations in their Districts. To further the object, a new Monthly Publication has been originated by the Committee, entitled the "Church Missionary Juvenile Instructor." Each Collector of one shilling a month is entitled to a copy of this publication. The Committee anticipate much advantage to the Youth of our Church themselves, by connecting them from their earliest years with the duty and privilege of conveying to the Heathen the Gospel of the Grace of God. Adverting to the age of the parties whose exertions are thus called forth, it is a fundamental law of a Juvenile Association that "No contribution should be solicited from any person without the consent of the parent or teacher of the Collector."

* Appendix I.

ORDINATION OF STUDENTS.

In the course of the past year, nineteen of the Society's Candidates have been admitted to Holy Orders. Four, both to Deacon's and Priest's Orders, three to Priest's Orders, and six to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of London; two to Priest's Orders, and one to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of Madras; one to Priest's Orders, by the Bishop of Bombay; and two to Deacon's Orders, by the Bishop of Jamaica.

INSTITUTION.

This important part of the Society's arrangements continues to afford the Committee strong satisfaction. In the Principal's Annual Report to the Committee of Visitors, he expresses his thankfulness "that he can still present a favourable report of the general state of the Institution."

Alluding to those erroneous views which have of late been so extensively prevalent, the Principal remarks:—

It was hardly to be expected that no measure of the excitement which has agitated our own Church should have been felt within these walls. A body of thirty Students, training for the Ministry of the Gospel, must needs have their sympathies alive to that which so vitally affects the truth of the Gospel. Nothing, however, could be more satisfactory than the frank and cordial manner in which every admonition on the subject has been responded to; and the Principal avows his persuasion, that the pupils now resident in the Institution, while cordially attached to the Established Church, are men of Protestant principles and evangelical piety.

During the year a very hopeful Student has been removed by death. In referring to this event, the Principal says:—

In the death of the Rev. A. P. Lee, who was cut off by a rapid consumption, the Institution and the Society have sustained no ordinary loss. He was a man of a choice spirit, and more than average attainments: his piety was as attractive as it was unquestionable; and his name and his example will long be affectionately remembered.

The Principal concludes his Report with the following appeal to the Members of the Society for their sympathy and prayers:—

In concluding his Report, the Principal is persuaded that he shall be charged with no vain repetition when he once more commends this deeply important part of the Society's interests to the blessing of God and the prayers of His people. It would, indeed, cheer and sustain him under a painful sense of responsibility, to know that special intercessions were offered in behalf of an Institution whose influence is felt in so many parts of the world.

Gratefully sensible of past supports thus derived, and now doubly needed, he would venture, in behalf of his pupils, his colleagues, and himself, to reiterate the appeal, Brethren, pray for us!

Fifteen Students have been received into the Institution during the year; and twenty-nine still remain under preparation in it.

Appointment of a Second Tutor to the Institution.

The Principal having represented to the Committee of Visitors the inadequacy of the provision now made for carrying on the established course of studies in the Institution, the subject was fully considered by them. In the event, they were decidedly of opinion, that, in the present state of the Society's Missions, when few Catechists are needed, additional assistance was requisite for the due preparation of the Students for their future labours. The Rev. J. G. Heisch has in consequence been appointed a Tutor, and the Classical department assigned to him.

MISSIONS.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1804.

Mission Establishment:

12 European Missionaries.	9 European Catechists.
1 Country-born Missionary.	40 Native Teachers.

General View of the Mission.

With unfeigned thankfulness, the Committee are permitted once more to speak of this oldest Mission of the Society as pre-eminently a field which the Lord hath blessed.

Christian Institution.

Since the month of January 1841, this Establishment has been under the superintendence of the Rev. E. Jones, assisted by the Natives, William David, in the capacity of Tutor, and George Nichol, as Monitor. The number of Students has been increased from seventeen to twenty-seven. In reporting on the state of the Institution at the end of September, Mr. Jones observes:—

The appointed course of study has been diligently pursued by the Youths. Indeed, their general deportment and propriety of conduct, their attention to their studies, and the harmony that has prevailed among them—nothing having occurred to require the exercise of discipline—call for grateful acknowledgments to the Sovereign Disposer of all hearts, who maketh men to be of one mind in a house, and causeth brethren to dwell together in unity.

Samuel Crowther, a Native, who has for some years been an Assistant Teacher in this Institution, and who accompanied the Expedition up the Niger, has been directed to come to England, with the view of being prepared for Holy Orders.

A new feature in this department of the Society's labours has very recently presented itself. After the destruction of the noted Slave Barracoons on the river Gallinas, by Capt. Denman of H. M. Brig Wanderer, in December 1840, Gomez, an influential Chief of that District, consigned his two sons to the care of Capt. Denman; with an earnest wish that, after acquiring some knowledge of the English Language, they might be educated in Sierra Leone. At the request of the Lieutenant-Governor they have been received into the Institution. Although they have not been sent in order to be trained as Christian Teachers, yet it may be confidently hoped that the benefit of a Christian education may, with the blessing of God, render them important instruments in furthering the progress of the Gospel, when they return to their own country.

The events of the past year have added greatly to the importance of this Institution. The conviction, that it must be chiefly through Native Agency that Africa is to be benefitted, has gained ground. The willingness of the Chiefs and Tribes in the interior to be taught by their own countrymen has been demonstrated; and additional evidence has been afforded of the capacity of the African mind both to receive and impart instruction.

The chief hindrances to the full efficiency of this Institution, hitherto, have arisen from the frequent changes in the Superintendants, and the inadequate period during which the Youths remained under instruction: the one arising from the prejudicial character of the climate to European constitutions; and the other from the great demand for Schoolmasters in the Colony, rendering it necessary that a Student should be removed from the Institution as soon as he was in any degree qualified for the office, before he had derived all the advantages which it was capable of affording. The fact, that the present Superintendant is of African descent—and a prospect which now presents itself of obtaining the services of another Clergyman, also of African birth, to be associated with him—afford ground for hope that the first hindrance may be removed; and the increase in the number of Students will obviate the second. For the carrying out of this arrangement, however, additional accommodation must be provided. The Committee also have to state, with regret, that the dilapidated condition of the present building renders it absolutely necessary that a new building should be erected: and though this cannot be done without a considerable outlay, they confidently trust that a measure so essential to the best interests of Africa will not be suffered to be delayed for want of the requisite funds.

Female Education.

The importance of providing a superior degree of education for African Females has been repeatedly and strongly pressed upon the attention of the Committee. Few measures would tend more effectually to raise the character of Native society. In the hope of accomplishing, in some degree, so important an object, the Missionaries have been requested, where circumstances will admit of the arrangement, to receive into their houses two or three of the most hopeful Girls from their respective Schools, with a view to their further training.

Progress of Ministerial Labours.

It is truly a cause for heartfelt gratitude, that between 6000 and 7000 Africans, from upward of forty different Tribes, regularly assemble for Public Worship; that of these, upward of 1400 are Communicants; and that several thousand children are brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord in the Society's Schools.

A few particular instances may be referred to, in illustration of this general statement, and of the steady progress of the work.

The Rev. D. H. Schmid, in his Report for the Quarter ending March 1841, gives the following interesting account of the first Lord's Day which he spent at Kissey:—

The first Lord's Day I spent here made an impression upon me which I shall never forget: it was the first time I had seen so large a congregation of Christian Negroes, being nearly 1000 or 1100 in number, attending the church where the Rev. E. Jones was preaching and administering the Lord's Supper. Now, when I saw these Black Christians, hungry for the tidings of Salvation, and about 300 of them coming to the Lord's Table, I could not but give joyful thanks to Almighty God for the great mercy and grace with which He had blessed the labours of my dear predecessors.

In his Report for the Quarter ending June 1841, Mr. Schmid thus refers to some of his visits to the sick:—

March 29, 1841—This morning I visited several sick persons. The mind of one was partially wandering; but when we spoke of his salvation, he was quite assured of his interest in Jesus Christ as his Saviour: his life has been consistent with his profession. Another, who had been suffering much for a long time, was praising the grace and mercy of God for having brought him to this country. "Wicked persons," he said, "thought evil against me, in selling me from my country and relatives; but, by God's grace, it was done so—He meant to my good. This was the very way by which I was brought from darkness to the knowledge of the true Living God and Saviour, and to the salvation of my soul."

In reference to Freetown, Mr. T. Peyton remarks, Nov. 1, 1841—

Our Day and Sunday Schools are increased, our Congregations enlarged, and the Great Head of the Church seems to be eminently blessing our work of faith and labour of love.

And again, Nov. 27, 1841—

I am sure that the hearts of the friends of Missions at home would be melted into love and gratitude could they just look in upon our Sunday School in Freetown, and see about 270 Africans assembled, learning to read the word of God.

In his Report for the Quarter ending December 1840, the Rev. F. Bultmann, speaking of his congregation at Kent, says—

I have pleasure in being able to state, that the congregation is continually increasing in numbers, and growing in importance. Not a few of the people are sincere inquirers after truth; and there are others, of established Christian character, who, I can confidently affirm, have imbibed the spirit and exercised the principles of the Gospel.

He also gives an instance of the manifestation of Christian dispositions in one of his people, which cannot be viewed in any other light than as the genuine fruit of the Gospel seed implanted in the heart:—

Some few, with unquestionable sincerity, have expressed their ardent desire to proclaim the wonders of a Saviour's love to their benighted countrymen. Indeed, one of the communicants declared to me last night, that, next to seeing and speaking to his own parents, who most probably were not alive, his principal motive for wishing to go back to his country was to see the man who first tied the chain round his neck, and sold him as a slave; and to tell him, that he had not only no malice whatever in his heart against him, but that, for the infinite good which he had by that cruel act unwittingly entailed upon him, he had come to return him his warmest thanks, and would do all in his power to make him enjoy those blessings which had been, through God's mercy, conferred upon himself. After depicting, with the utmost calmness and moderation, the really cruel circumstances connected with his first capture—how his young limbs, for he was then a boy, were fettered with chains, which were tied not only round his neck and waist, but on his feet and hands likewise; and how, after that, he was violently torn away from the last of his little sisters, whom he ardently loved—he declared, and his declaration I believe to be quite true, that now his pity for that man who had thus cruelly treated him was so great, and his desire for his salvation so ardent, that sometimes, when occupied with these thoughts, he could not sleep for whole nights; but being unable to do more, he felt constrained to make his requests known to God, by interceding for the man in prayer.

What can this be, but the influence of His love, who, in His dying moments, under the most excruciating pains on the cross, exclaimed, Father, forgive them! for they know not what they do?

Building of Two New Churches.

In the month of August, two new Churches, at Charlotte and Gloucester, the erection of which had been rendered absolutely necessary by the dilapidated state of the former buildings, were opened for Divine Service.

The Church at Charlotte will contain between 600 and 700 persons, and was built at the expense of Government. Respecting this Church, Mr. J. Beal has furnished some particulars, showing how highly the Christian Africans value the opportunities afforded them of worshipping God in His sanctuary:—

Aug. 3, 1841—It is worthy of notice, that the people have willingly contributed to its erection a large amount in free labour. They have carried many hundred loads of sand and lime from Freetown, a distance of seven miles of mountain road: every man in the village has gone more than twenty times.

To the same effect is the testimony of the Rev. J. Warburton, in reference to the Church at Gloucester. He thus writes:—

Jan. 27, 1841—The male inhabitants of the village began to-day, cheerfully and gratuitously, to clear a site for a new Church.

Aug. 12—The Church was completed to-day, so far as to allow of Divine Service being decently performed in it; and the women, Communicants and Candidates, joyfully came to clean it, preparatory to its being opened. Much of my time has necessarily been expended in the erection of this building, and some deprivations have been experienced; yet I am amply repaid, if it were only by witnessing the gratitude of the people. “Thank you, Master! God bless you!” was the language of one of them, when she saw the accomplishment of what they had so greatly desired: and I am persuaded that this feeling is general.

Sierra-Leone Church Missionary Association.

The sum of 87*l.* 16*s.* 5*d.* has been received from this Association last year: of this the Liberated Africans had contributed 43*l.* In transmitting the above sum, Mr. T. Peyton writes, Nov. 1, 1841:—

The interest for the cause of Missions in Sierra Leone is great, especially among some of the Natives. For next year I have already, from new subscribers, many of whom are Liberated Africans, about 25*l*.

General Result of Missionary Labours in Sierra Leone.

The Committee conclude their notice of the Society's labours WITHIN the Colony with the following important testimony, extracted from a sermon preached at St. George's Church, Freetown, on occasion of the visit of the Niger Expedition, in June last, by the Rev. D. F. Morgan, Colonial Chaplain:—

When the attention is directed to the moral aspect of the Colony, whither it ought to be directed, the impression which the scene leaves on the mind is one of pleasing astonishment. The effects, instead of falling short, I think far exceed the means employed, so as to leave no doubt of the blessing of Heaven having rested on past efforts; which proves the susceptibility of the Africans for improvement. The Christian aspect of the villages exhibits a most engaging sight, and forces the exclamation, What hath God wrought? The success of Scriptural Education, accompanied with Missionary labours, has nowhere been surpassed, in the history of modern Christianity. The work is not artificial and illusory, but sober, gradual, deep; and may therefore be expected to be permanent and progressive. On this ground I take my stand, and fearlessly invite the scrutiny of the most sceptical doubter and the most inveterate foe; and direct him to the Schools, and to the Churches, and to the cottages of the Christian Africans, and then leave him to his own conclusion.

THE TIMMANEE MISSION.

In the last Report, it was stated that the Rev. C. F. Schlenker, Mr. N. Denton, and Mr. W. C. Thomson, the Society's Translator, had been set apart for this Mission, and had entered upon their labours. The place fixed upon for the Mission Station is Port Lokkoh, a Native Town, situated to the north-east of Freetown, about 40 miles distant from the Colony. Three houses and a school-room have been erected, on an elevated back-ground behind the town. The population of Port Lokkoh is about 2500.

Mr. W. C. Thomson, in his Report for the Quarter ending March 1841, mentions a circumstance which shows the importance of this sphere of labour:—

In point of population and geographical position, it promises to be a highly important sphere of Missionary enterprise. Being the thoroughfare of this part of Western Africa, between the interior and Sierra Leone, it is visited by the Natives of various countries lying to the eastward; and especially by the gold-traders, on their way to and from the Colony.

About the end of December, Mr. Denton thus reviews the labours of this Mission during the first year of its existence:—

In December 1840 we cleared the bush which thickly covered the little hill whereon now stand our Mission School and dwelling-houses. Since that time, a very considerable knowledge has been obtained of the language; large portions of Scripture have been translated; and suitable parts of the Liturgy of our Church prepared for Divine Worship, which has been kept regularly every Lord's Day.

Mission of the Colonial Government to Teembo.

The Colonial Government of Sierra Leone has for some time felt desirous of strengthening its relations with the Foulah Country. A similar wish had been repeatedly expressed by the Foulah king. With a view to further this object, it was resolved that an Embassy should be sent from Sierra Leone to Teembo, which is situated about 250 miles in the interior, on one of the tributary branches of the Niger; and, at the request of the Lieutenant-Governor, permission has been given to Mr. Thomson, of the Timmanee Mission, to conduct the Embassy. Independently of the primary object of the Embassy, it is hoped that it may subserve the more important purpose of extending Christianity and Civilization.

NIGER EXPEDITION.

The approaching departure of the Niger Expedition was noticed in the last year's Report. As had been previously arranged, it was accompanied by the Rev. J. F. Schön, one of the Society's Missionaries, and Samuel Crowther, a Sierra-Leone Native Catechist. The immediate objects of the Expedition were imperfectly accomplished, owing to the distressing effects of the climate on the health of the officers and crew. It pleased God, however, graciously to preserve the lives and health of Messrs. Schön and Crowther. Both kept Journals of their proceedings; which, with the sanction of the Board of Admiralty, are being prepared for publication by the Committee, in a separate form. These Journals establish some important facts connected with the evangelization of Africa. They prove the capacity and fitness of the African for imparting religious instruction to his countrymen. They prove, likewise, the readiness of the Natives in the interior of Africa, even of the Chiefs, to receive such instruction from the lips of Natives liberated from slave ships, and educated and trained to impart it. It has long been felt by the Committee, that the climate of West Africa presented an insuperable barrier to the extensive propagation of the Gospel in that country by European Agency. The truth of this has been painfully illustrated by the results of the Niger Expedition. The necessity of a Native Agency for christianizing Africa is thus manifest. But not only are duly-prepared Native Agents necessary, but the necessity of reducing to writing the principal Native Dialects, as the media of imparting knowledge, is manifest also. Impressed with these considerations, the Committee have come to the decision, that further measures should be adopted in order to train Natives in Sierra Leone, with a view to their being employed as Teachers of their countrymen; and in order also to fix the most considerable Native Dialects, and make Translations into those Dialects for Missionary purposes. How far, however, it may be in the power of the Committee to carry out these views, must, under God, depend on the pecuniary aid which they may receive from their friends. They are, however, fully convinced, that it is only by prosecuting these objects with all the efficiency and on the most extended scale practicable, that, under the Divine Blessing, Africa can be delivered from the horrors and miseries of the Slave-trade, and that the Gospel and its concomitant advantages can be extensively imparted to that deeply-injured and afflicted country.*

COMMENCED 1829.

Mission Establishment :

3 European Missionaries.

THE Rev. J. L. Krapf has been diligently engaged in carrying on his solitary labours among the Christians of Shoa, and in preparatory measures for extending the knowledge of the Gospel among the Heathen Tribes who inhabit the borders of that country. He continues to enjoy the protection and favour of the King. Many of the priests and people resort to him for religious conversation, and he has several Youths under regular instruction.

Viewing the dearth of the Word of God which prevails in Shoa, in connexion with the regard paid to its supreme authority, it is a hopeful circumstance that there exists a great desire to possess it. Abundant opportunities are found for circulating copies of the Scriptures, both in the Amharic and Ethiopic Languages. On this subject Mr. Krapf writes, Feb. 20, 1841:—

I repeat my earnest wish, that you may be able to furnish me with a large quantity of Amharic, and, still more, of Ethiopic Scriptures. I received about 200 copies from Caïro; but, after a day and a half, they were all given away. The people, having heard of their arrival, came from all quarters, begging for books. From morning till evening they besieged my house; and only the sticks of my servants were able to prevent them from breaking the doors open. Even the heaviest rain could not determine them to go home. I have never seen so great a desire for books in Abyssinia. I cannot but think that a great number of the applicants are led by a real want of the Word of God. I can tell you, that the whole Scholarship of the five Churches of Ankobar asked for Bibles, and I was not able to comply with their desire.

Mr. Krapf has translated the Four Gospels, and St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans, into the Galla Language. He has also made some progress in the language spoken at Guraguè, a country to the south-west of Shoa.

It was stated in the last Report that Messrs. Mühleisen and Müller had been sent to assist Mr. Krapf. They reached Aden at the beginning of April, and received much kindness from Capt. Haines. They then crossed over to the Bay of Tadjurra, on their way to Shoa, but were not permitted by the Sultân to land, and, after encountering many dangers from contrary winds, were obliged to return to Aden. An Embassy from the British Government in India to Shoa, passing through Aden, presented a favourable opportunity for proceeding to their destination; but, on their reaching Tadjurra, it was found necessary, for want of a sufficient number of camels, that a part of the Embassy, as well as the two Brethren, should remain at that place. Some idea of the dangers to which they were exposed, during their detention at Tadjurra, may be obtained from the following account of a transaction which took place on the 23d of September. It is recorded by Mr. Mühleisen, in a Letter dated Oct. 8th, 1841:—

being too palpable, we were compelled, for the protection of our lives and property, to keep watch in turns every night. But except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain. In the night of the 23d of September, during my watch, a dreadful occurrence took place. About half past two o'clock, my attention was arrested by a piercing cry from the place where the servants were lying. Two or three minutes before, I had looked over them, and they were all fast asleep. When I heard the cry, I was perhaps not ten yards distant from them. I ran to the spot; but the deed had been perpetrated. Our own servant, and two of the Agent's, were weltering in their blood. Two died immediately; the third, in the agonies of death, suffered until noon; and a fourth was saved by my interference. We are all of opinion, that their intention was not to kill our servants only, who were all Mahomedans, but to kill them first, they being in their way, and then us. If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, now may Israel say; if it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us; then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us.

Having been mercifully delivered from these dangers, they once more, after some difficulty, returned to Ade as the door appeared, for the present, to be providentially closed against their proceeding to Shoa, they were directed to proceed to Jerusalem, to be presented to Bishop Alexander for Holy Orders. They arrived at Jerusalem on the 21st of February.

In a Letter dated Feb. 26, 1842, the Bishop thus refers to their Ordination:—

I look forward with interest to the holding of my first Ordination in Jerusalem; which seems, indeed, like the beginning of the glorious period, when, as the Word of God leads us to expect, the Law shall again go forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

The Rev. C. W. Isenberg is still in this country, where he has been diligently employed in literary labours for the use of the Shoa Mission. Besides other extended works, he has completed a Translation of the Liturgy into Amharic; which is now being carried through the press, under his superintendence, at the expense of the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge.*

MEDITERRANEAN MISSIONS.

THE financial embarrassments of the Society have compelled the Committee to contract their operations in the Mediterranean Missions, and to contemplate still further reductions.

* For further accounts of the East-Africa Mission, see the Church Missionary Record for August 1841, pp. 184—188.

For twenty-seven years the Missionaries of this Society have prosecuted, with diligence and perseverance, the objects originally proposed in undertaking these Missions. Those objects were thus stated in the Instructions of the Committee delivered to the earliest Missionaries in this field of labour. First, the acquiring of information respecting the state of religion and society among the various tribes and nations bordering upon the shores of the Mediterranean, comprehending Papists, Mahomedans, Greeks, Druses, and Heathen. Secondly, the propagation of Christian Knowledge; by the Press, by Missionary journeys, and by education.*

The first of these objects may now be considered as accomplished; for the journals of Hartley, Jowett, and Gobat, and the constant supply of Missionary information in the periodical publications of the Society, have contributed, with the works of many other Christian travellers, to make known the moral and religious state of those interesting countries, and to awaken the sympathies of the Church in their behalf.

In prosecution of the second object, a Press was established at Malta; from which has issued many thousand copies of the Holy Scriptures, and of Religious Tracts, in the various languages of the Levant, as well as translations of other useful and moral educational works. The Missionaries have made frequent journeys, and both at home and abroad have embraced every opportunity of holding friendly and Christian conference with the inhabitants upon the great things of eternal life. Schools, for Scriptural Education, have been established in Greece, at Smyrna, and at Cairo; and are still continued at the first and last of these Stations, in a state of great efficiency; and the Services of the Church of England have been regularly maintained by our Missionaries.

The Committee are not able, indeed, to record such evident fruits of these labours as have been apparent in heathen lands; but, according to the concurrent testimony of many witnesses, a great change has taken place, and is still going on, in the moral features of society in the Levant: a new energy is beginning to pervade the habits and sentiments of the people, and the elements both of civil and religious reformation are at work. And how far the operations of this Society may have contributed to this result cannot be known till that day which shall reveal all the small, and secret, but often most potent means by which the Lord is pleased to bring about great events. Sufficient it is for us to know that we have persevered in the use of such means as appeared to us most suitable, in humble dependence upon the Divine guidance and blessing.

This retrospect may afford the Society some consolation, in the contemplated withdrawal of its operations from the Mediterranean; but a still further satisfaction arises from the consideration, that there are now, through the good providence of God, other and more efficient agencies established, or in a course of establishment, which will prosecute with superior advantages the work which this Society has hitherto attempted on a more humble scale. The Committee allude to the establishment of an Anglican Bishopric at Jerusalem, and to the proposed erection of a College under the Bishop's auspices; and to the contemplated appointment of a Bishop of Gibraltar—events which will form a glorious epoch in the history of Missionary operations.

The Anglican Bishopric at Jerusalem is connected with another topic, on which the Committee cannot but congratulate the Society. The Church Missionary Society has from its commencement cultivated friendly relations with the Protestant Churches of Germany. Its first Missionaries were obtained from thence, before legal facilities existed of procuring Ordination for Missionary Candidates in our own Church; and to the present time it has received an annual supply of Missionary Students from the Missionary Institution of Bâle in Switzerland: so that a large proportion of our Missionaries were nurtured, and first called to the Missionary work, within the bosom of the Lutheran and Reformed Churches abroad. It was, therefore, with peculiar feelings of joy and satisfaction that the Committee contemplated the union of the Rulers of our own Church with the chief Sovereign of Protestant Germany, in the establishment of an Anglican Bishopric at Jerusalem;—the King of Prussia supplying a large portion of the endowment; and the Authorities, both of the Church and State, of England joining to give full effect to that wise and pious and liberal design.

Animated by these feelings, when the King of Prussia visited this country on the late auspicious occasion of the baptism of the Prince of Wales, the Committee gladly availed themselves of the permission graciously conceded to them, of presenting the following Address:—

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY—

The Committee of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, encouraged by the interest which Your Majesty has condescended to express in the Society's operations, especially in those of its Missions which are situated in the Turkish Empire, beg leave humbly to express to Your Majesty their deep sense of Your Majesty's condescension, as well as the gratitude with which they regard Your Majesty's late exertions toward the establishment of a Protestant Bishopric in Jerusalem ; which, apart from its other important bearings, extends its paternal and beneficial influence over the Missions of the Society in Egypt and Abyssinia.

The Church Missionary Society has from the first numbered among its Missionaries, subjects of the Kingdom of Prussia, who have been among its most able and successful Labourers.

The Committee humbly beg permission to present to Your Majesty several works in the Abyssinian and Amharic Languages, which are the fruit of the recent labours of the Rev. Charles William Isenberg and the Rev. John Lewis Krapf, the Society's Missionaries in that country ; by one of whom, Mr. Isenberg, a subject of Your Majesty, they have been ably carried through the Press in London.

The Committee would avail themselves of this opportunity of expressing their unfeigned joy at witnessing the regard which Your Majesty has evinced toward the Church of England, not only by the interest which Your Majesty has taken in the operations of this Society, but more especially by bearing a principal part in that august, sacred, and deeply-affecting Service, the Baptism of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

The Committee earnestly pray that Your Majesty may be long preserved as a nursing Father of the Church of Christ ; and that all your paternal and religious endeavours in fulfilment of this sacred duty may be guided by the wisdom which is from above, and may be abundantly prospered by the hand of God.

To this Address, the King was pleased to deliver the following gracious reply :—

MY LORD, AND GENTLEMEN—

I have followed for many years, with particular interest, the proceedings of your truly-Christian Society ; and I am happy to thank you in person for the means you have afforded to many of my subjects to exert themselves on behalf of the propagation of the Gospel among the Heathen.

The works you present to me are a striking proof of the enlightened spirit which directs your Missions, and I accept them with peculiar pleasure.

The Committee have the gratification of adding, that one of their late Meetings was attended by His Excellency the Chevalier Bunsen, who stated to the Committee that His Majesty the King of Prussia, since his return to his dominions, had inspected the works presented to him, and the accounts of the Society's proceedings ; and had expressed the increased interest which His Majesty took in its labours, especially in the Missions at Cairo and in Abyssinia, and the satisfaction it would ever give to His Majesty to promote the views and proceedings of the Society.

The Committee now proceed to report the labours in these Missions during the last year.

MALTA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1815.

Mission Establishment :

2 European Missionaries.		1 European Printer.
1 European Lay Agent.		1 Asiatic Translator.

The Missionaries who have laboured at Malta during the last year have been the Rev. C. F. Schlienz and the Rev. S. Gobat. The health of Mr. Schlienz has been so seriously affected by his indefatigable labours, that he has been compelled to come to this country. The revision of the Arabic Version of the Scriptures has been suspended.

The Committee have also been compelled to abandon the intention, repeatedly announced in former Reports, of establishing a Seminary at Malta, for the Christian education of promising Youths from the different countries of the Levant.

Mr. Gobat has been engaged in superintending the printing of an Amharic Atlas for the use of the Abyssinian Mission; and in the summer, he made a Missionary tour through Mount Lebanon and part of Syria, chiefly with the view of ascertaining the condition of the Druses. Mr. Gobat has also been engaged in the instruction of a hopeful young Abyssinian, who was brought by a very remarkable providence into this relation. He was one of a numerous embassy sent from Abyssinia to the Patriarch of Alexandria, for the purpose of obtaining a new Bishop or Abuna. Having accomplished the object of their mission, twenty-five of the number desired to proceed on a pilgrimage to Jerusalem; but were induced, by stratagem, to go to Rome, where every effort was made to induce them to embrace popery. Four of their number were placed in the College of the Propaganda. But the individual alluded to remained steadfast. An attempt was then made to secure his reception into a convent at Alexandria; but when the vessel conveying him touched at Malta, he left it, and placed himself under the instruction of Mr. Gobat.

Operations of the Press.

The operations of the Press have been continued during the past year, on a reduced scale; and the Committee have now entered into arrangements for parting with the Press and printing establishment at Malta, so that their operations in that island will be soon terminated.*

GREECE MISSION.

COMMENCED 1828.

Mission Establishment :

2 European Missionaries.	5 Native Schoolmasters.
1 European Assistant Superintendent of Schools.	5 Native Schoolmistresses.

The Rev. F. A. Hildner and the Rev. J. T. Wolters, with Mr. Sanderski, have been engaged in superintending the Society's Educational Establishment in Syra. In the month of June, the Rev. F. A. Hildner visited England for the benefit of his health, and was admitted to Holy Orders in the Church of England by the Bishop of London. He returned to Syra at the beginning of this year.

The Committee have received, from many sources, the most satisfactory testimony to the efficiency of these Schools, and the beneficial influence which they are exerting on the kingdom of Greece.

On the 30th of June last, Mr. Wolters writes :—

The number of pupils has lately considerably increased ; owing to the arrival, from the Isle of Crete, of many Greek Families, who have come hither as to a place of refuge. During the month of May we had in our schools, Boys 351, Girls 300 ; Total, 651.

And at the close of the year, he adds—

Our work in this island is going on as usual. Mr. Hildner will be pleased to see our schools full of children—to hear them sing and pray, and read God's Holy Word. Teachers and children will be likewise rejoiced to see him again.

In the autumn of last year the annual Public Examinations of the Schools took place, at which the Governor and some other Gentlemen of the School Commission were present. At the close, the Governor expressed his great satisfaction with the progress of the children, and his thankfulness to the Society for supporting so good and useful an Institution.

Upon the return of Mr. Hildner to Syra, Mr. Wolters, being a good Turkish scholar, was directed to travel in such parts of Turkey, either in Europe or Asia, as might be deemed most accessible, with the view of ascertaining what openings exist for the distribution of Turkish books, and Translations of the Scriptures, among the Mahomedans of the Ottoman Empire.

The Journals of Mr. Wolters furnish many proofs of the facilities which exist for the distribution of the Holy Scriptures and other books.

March 25, 1841—One of the Teachers of our School asked to-day for Jenks's Prayers in Modern Greek. The Greeks, generally speaking, have so little taste for spiritual things, that to me it is indeed a matter of joy when I am asked for a Prayer-book.

Sept. 30—I have of late received several applications for books; and have freely given the Word of God, and other religious books of our Depository; as, Chrysostom on Reading the Scriptures, Scripture Help, and other smaller publications. It was particularly interesting to me to see how thankfully our books were received by two Greek Monks. One of them has such a desire for knowledge, that he intends to go through a course of studies at the Gymnasium of this place. He asked for and received a copy of Baxter's Saints' Everlasting Rest, which he had seen elsewhere, and which he was desirous of reading.

Oct. 20—I heard yesterday, from a Greek who has intercourse with many families, that the Scriptures are beginning to be read. This is a loud call to the Christians of the West, to pray more earnestly that the Great Head of the Church would be pleased to pour down His Holy Spirit upon the Eastern Churches, that their members may repent and return to the Lord, from whom they are yet so far removed by superstition and ignorance. Oh, what a blessing would it be for the Mahomedans of the Turkish Empire if the Greek and Armenian Churches were to become enlightened!

Nov. 4—A young Greek, who has been educated in America, has been appointed, by the Demarchy of this town, Teacher of the English Language. He has introduced the Bible as a class-book; and the young men apply daily to me and our bookseller for English Bibles and New Testaments. I have written to the Rev. H. D. Leeves to send me a larger supply.

Nov. 20—A Greek Monk, to whom I gave several of our books some time ago, applied for a copy of the Psalms, the Proverbs, and the Prophet Isaiah, in Modern Greek. "As they are very small volumes," he said, "I wish to have them always in my bosom."

One further extract only is added, to show that the seed which is often apparently cast by the way-side, in a Missionary tour, may yet spring up and bear fruit, unknown, till some providential circumstance bring it to light.

In an excursion to the Island of Tenos, which Mr. Wolters made for the purpose of distributing copies of the Scriptures and other religious books, he met with a Schoolmaster who had formerly accompanied the Rev. J. Hartley in some of his voyages and journeys. The instructions which Mr. Hartley gave him while a youth seem not to have been altogether fruitless. Mr. Wolters writes, March 16, 1841—

I was particularly glad to hear him say, "It is my earnest desire to impress the principles of the Gospel on the hearts of my pupils." I have reason to believe, that, so far as he knows himself, he does this sincerely; and I am glad to add, that his knowledge of the Sacred Scriptures may be called considerable, in comparison with what is generally met with among the Greeks.*

EGYPT MISSION.

COMMENCED 1826.

Mission Establishment :

2 European Missionaries.	5 Native Schoolmasters.
1 European Female Teacher.	3 Native Schoolmistresses.

The Rev. W. Krusé and the Rev. J. R. T. Lieder have carried on the Mission at Cairo for the past year, assisted in the female department by Miss Lewis. Mr. Lieder was obliged, through ill health, to leave Cairo in October; and he has been recently admitted to Holy Orders in the English Church, by the Bishop of London.

In the midst of the sore judgments of war and pestilence with which Egypt has been afflicted during the last two or three years, the work of the Lord in connexion with this Mission has been, we trust, quietly advancing. Mr. Krusé reports at the close of the year:—

We have been visited during the past year with many severe chastisements from our Heavenly Father; but we desire to begin this new year with thankfulness to God. It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not.

After our reports of former years, in which we stated the progress of the Mission, and pointed out the large field open in all parts of Egypt, we confidently expected to receive efficient help from home; but, on the contrary, I find myself alone, scarcely able to maintain the various establishments. The Lord, however, has given strength according to the day.

* Further particulars of the Greece Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for July 1841, pp. 156—159; and April 1842, pp. 74—77.

Divine Service in English has been better attended this year than ever, owing to so many Travellers passing through Egypt. On their account we have had two Services; one in the morning, and another in the evening.

The Services in Arabic have been continued every Lord's-Day Morning, conducted, for the most part, by the Teachers Metery and Yousef Hanna; one in the Seminary, and the other in the Boys' Day School. Both these Teachers having been trained in the Day School, are now efficient Helpers; they do their utmost to conduct these Services according to our directions. After the Service, they distribute Religious Tracts among the children, which are always received with great joy and thankfulness.

Education.

Our several School Establishments have proceeded steadily; with the exception of April and May, when Caïro was visited with the plague. When the Schools were re-opened, they appeared to be better attended than before. The Word of God is read daily in all our School Establishments; and we can impart Christian instruction without the least obstacle from without.

The Seminary numbers this year 24 pupils, of whom 10 are boarders and 14 day-scholars: 8 of these pupils are Copts, 3 Roman Catholics, 4 Orthodox Greeks, 2 Armenians, and 7 Mahomedans. Fourteen have been admitted during the year, and fifteen have left the Establishment: one of whom was sent to Malta, and has been engaged in the translating department with Mr. Schlienz; and one has become Teacher in the Armenian School.

Day School—The number of Boys on the books is 62, and the average attendance about 50. The number of Girls on the books is 131, and the average attendance 85.

On a review of the proceedings of the past year, Mr. Krusé writes—

The various departments of our Mission are in a progressive and flourishing state; and many pleasing evidences of the instruction given to our scholars are manifest in their deportment generally. Our religious school-books have been introduced into several Coptic Schools; the Armenian School has been amply supplied; and the Jews' School has been partially provided with Hebrew and French Bibles. Thus the Lord continues to open many doors of increasing usefulness; and we humbly hope that he will, in His own good time, supply Labourers for His harvest.

One circumstance has occurred, during the last year, in connexion with the Mission in Egypt, which, it is hoped, may issue in important results to the cause of true Religion in Abyssinia.

The Abyssinian Church is, by its constitution, under the government of a Bishop, called an Abuna, who is consecrated by the Coptic Patriarch of Caïro. The Abyssinians have for some time been without an Abuna, in consequence of the distracted state of their Church and Country. In the summer of last year, however, an embassy, consisting of sixty-four persons, arrived at Cairo to obtain the appointment of an Abuna. The Patriarch selected a young man named Andrâus, who had been partly educated in the Society's Day School, of which he was also for a short period Teacher; but for the last five years had resided in a convent. He had, however, kept up an interesting correspondence with the Missionaries at Cairo, and applied from time to time for Arabic books, which he had distributed among his brethren.

Notwithstanding that Andrâus was only 21 years old, he was appointed Bishop or Abuna of Abyssinia on account of his progress in his studies and his religious character. On his consecration he received the name of Abba Salâma.

On the 11th of October, Mr. Krusé writes—

The Abuna of Abyssinia takes with him about 1000 copies of Testaments, Psalms, and other parts of the Holy Scriptures, for distribution; also two copies of all the publications of the Malta Press, neatly bound, to make up a library for his own use. He requested me to keep up a constant correspondence with him.*

CALCUTTA AND NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1816.

Mission Establishment:

22 European Missionaries.	3 Indo-British Catechists and
2 Indo-British Missionaries.	Schoolmasters.
1 Native Missionary.	101 Native Catechists, and Teachers
4 European Catechists.	of all Classes.

THE Calcutta Corresponding Committee commence their Annual Report for the year 1841 with this statement:—

The prospect presented by the field of Missions in North India,

* For fuller accounts of this Mission, see the "Church Missionary Record" for August 1841, pp. 177—184; and for April 1842, pp. 77, 78.

though chequered, as all human prospects are, by some dark spots, is, upon the whole, of a brighter and more encouraging character than in any former year. And while the Committee would earnestly desire that man may be humbled, and the Lord alone exalted as the object of praise for all the good that has been effected, they cannot but rejoice in the fact, that the knowledge of Christ's salvation is gradually advancing among the people of this land.

To this sentiment the Parent Committee would record their hearty response. They desire that their Annual Report should present a just and candid representation of the "chequered" labours of the past year. And if they dwell upon the contemplation of a few bright spots, let it not be forgotten that many dark parts of the prospect remain, to exercise the faith, and call forth the prayers of the Church. Let the Lord also be exalted, and man be humbled, as well in the success of our efforts as in their failure; as well in the power and grace of the Agents, as in their weakness and unworthiness.

CALCUTTA.

During the last year, four of the Society's Missionaries have been stationed in Calcutta;—the Rev. Messrs. T. Sandys, J. C. Thompson, J. Innes, and J. Long.

Mr. Innes acts as Secretary of the Corresponding Committee, and also superintends the higher department of education.

The Mission Premises are situated at Mirzapore, in the midst of the heathen population of the city; and contain a Church, called Trinity Church, three Schools, together with houses of residence for the Missionaries.

Congregations and Schools.

Divine Service is conducted by Mr. Sandys, in Trinity Church, in the Bengalee Language; but the Annual Report of the congregation is not of a satisfactory kind. One or two distressing instances of declension and apostacy have occurred, and the number has rather diminished; so that Mr. Sandys earnestly pleads for the prayers of the Church, that the new converts who are brought to a profession of the Gospel may stand fast in the Lord. Of the schools, two are for Native-Christian children; one containing 35 boys, superintended by Mr. Sandys; the other 24 girls, under the care and instruction of Miss Hebron. The third school, called the English School, is for the education of Hindoo Youths in the English Language and in the principles of true Religion: the number of pupils on the list is 150: it is superintended by the Rev. J. Long. The first class, together with two Native Converts of promising talents, who reside on the premises, receive instruction from Mr. Innes, and afford a good hope of their becoming, in due time, Native Teachers.

At a Chapel situated in the midst of the Mahomedan population of Calcutta, Divine Service ~~has been~~ regularly performed in the Hindoostanee Language. A congregation of about 40 assemble; but no increase has taken place during the last year, the Chapel scarcely admitting of a larger number. A new Church, to be called St. Saviour's Church, is happily in a course of erection, to which the congregation will be transferred, and where it is confidently hoped that many more will be induced to attend, to hear the glad tidings of Salvation.

During several evenings in the week, public instruction is given in a Bungalow Chapel at Potuldunga; and Tracts and portions of the Scriptures are distributed to such as collect on these occasions.

At Allipore, one of the suburbs of the city, a School for Hindoo Youths, under the direction of Mr. Thompson, has been, during the last year, the means of bringing two young converts into the fold of Christ. Mr. Thompson writes—

After the two Lads, one of whom is now residing at Mirzapore, had been, by the blessing of God, brought to a knowledge of Christ, the parents and friends of the scholars, through fear, began to withdraw their children; and after the holidays, the school opened with about 30 boys, instead of 130. The panic, however, has in a great measure subsided; and I have every reason to believe that there are some more Lads who will not hesitate openly to declare themselves on the Lord's side, as soon as they shall pass the term of their minority, and be thus in a measure freed from the power of their relatives.

Confirmation at the Mission Church.

On the 13th of August the Bishop held a Confirmation of such Native Candidates as were connected with the congregation at the Mission Church at Mirzapore: 39 Candidates were presented.

Mr. Sandys gives the following account of the Confirmation, in his Journal:—

The Bishop explained to the Candidates the nature and object of the rite; and desired them and the congregation to let their prayers ascend to Almighty God, that He would graciously vouchsafe the gift of His Holy Spirit to those who were about to be confirmed. The Candidates then kneeled down; and the prayer of Confirmation having been offered in English by the Bishop, was offered in Bengalee by me. It was a solemn and interesting Service, and, I trust, a season in which the Native Christians received, from above, that Divine aid by which alone they can be preserved stedfast in the faith. After the Confirmation, the Bishop addressed the newly confirmed, and laid down several Rules for their future guidance; which he desired me to translate into Bengalee, and let each of those who had been confirmed take a copy for himself or herself, in order that they might read over those rules on each Anniversary of their Confirmation, and examine themselves, how far they had really and sincerely aimed at keeping them.

Baptisms.

The whole number of individuals admitted into the Church by Baptism, through the labours of our Missionaries at the Calcutta Station, during the last year, is 41; 17 being adults, and 24 children.

At the close of the year, the Rev. J. C. Thompson was appointed Chaplain to the Free-School Church, and therefore resigned the service of the Society; though it is hoped that he will still be able to render assistance in the Hindoostanee department of Missionary labour.

AGURPARAH.

The Society has during the last year received this Station into connexion with it, and placed it under the charge of the Rev. J. F. Osborne.

The circumstances connected with Agurparah are of much interest. In the year 1834, Mrs. Wilson of Calcutta, who had long devoted herself to the cause of Female Education, took the charge of a number of Orphan Children, of ages varying from 3 to 13 years, whose parents had perished through want and disease, during the calamitous famine of that year. These she determined to train up under the full influence of a Christian education, apart from all heathen connexions. With this design, she erected, through the aid of friends, a spacious building at the retired village of Agurparah, about seven miles from Calcutta, up the river Ganges: this was termed "The Orphan Refuge," and was opened in 1836 with nearly 100 orphans. To this interesting charge she devoted her time and labour; but, with true Christian philanthropy, she also looked with compassion upon the population around Agurparah, which, within a circuit of a few miles, comprised many thousand Heathens and Mahomedans, entirely destitute of Christian instruction, in scattered but thickly-peopled villages; and she immediately began to erect a School adjoining the Refuge, capable of holding about 400 children: this School was opened in the early part of 1838. Mrs. Wilson's next object was the erection of a substantial Mission House, with the view of securing the residence of a Clergyman to superintend the Refuge and Schools. This was completed in the course of the next year. And to crown the whole undertaking, she procured the means and succeeded in erecting a beautiful and substantial Church, capable of holding 500 persons. "The range of these fine buildings," writes the Bishop of Calcutta, "on the margin of the Ganges, is, like Bishop's College, a monument of England's piety, in the sight of the Heathen who navigate in crowds this fabled river."

The Church, the School, and the Mission House, have, during the last year, been made over to the Church Missionary Society. The support of the Orphan Refuge has been undertaken by the Bishop and Archdeacon of Calcutta.

The Society has thus been provided with all the requisite buildings of a complete Mission Establishment.

Mr. Osborne entered upon the duties of the Station in December 1840; and found a small flock of Native Christians already gathered together, to whom he has regularly ministered the Ordinances of Grace. Three adults and 29 children have been baptized at this Station during the last year. On Jan. 1, 1842, Mr. Osborne reports—

The Congregation, including the Orphan Girls, numbers 130, of whom there are 40 Native Communicants: the Native Christians unconnected with the Orphan Refuge are 28. Our little band of Christians has been assembled for prayer every evening, either in my own house or by the Catechist; and I trust that a few of them have learned to value the opportunity thus afforded of uniting together in prayer and praise to their common Lord.

With the assistance of a Native Catechist, Mr. Osborne also gives Christian instruction in the surrounding villages, distributes Tracts and the Holy Scriptures, and superintends the Village Schools. The Boys' School at Agurparah has had a daily attendance of 60 scholars.

BURDWAN.

The Mission Establishment at this Station is situated about two miles from the city of Burdwan, by the side of the great Benares road, but surrounded by a large village population. It comprises within its enclosure about twenty-one acres of land; and contains a Church, two houses of residence for the Missionaries, an Infant School for children in their earliest years, a Boys' School and Girls' School for those who have attained riper years, and a village consisting of about twenty houses, in which Christian families are settled, and where they find a peaceful asylum amidst the degrading idolatry which surrounds them. Strict Christian discipline is maintained among the villagers; no open scandals are tolerated; and inveterate offenders are punished with expulsion.

The Rev. J. J. Weitbrecht and the Rev. J. T. Linké have had charge of this Mission during the last year. Mr. Weitbrecht has been obliged, through the failure of his health, to return home for a season; and Mr. P. S. D'Rosario is assisting Mr. Linké.

During the last year, only two adults and a few orphan children have been added to the Church by baptism.

In the month of October last, the Bishop, with his Chaplain, the Rev. J. H. Pratt, visited Burdwan; examined the various schools; and held a Confirmation in the church, at which twenty-one Native Christians were presented.

Five Bengalee Schools, numbering in all nearly 400 children, are maintained in the surrounding villages; and in the city of Burdwan an English School, containing between 60 and 80 Lads. The Gospel has also been regularly preached by the Missionaries in a chapel in the City Bazaar, at which crowds frequently listen with deep attention. Mr. Weitbrecht reports, at the close of the year 1841:—

Though the result of these labours has not issued in many actual conversions, yet Hindooism is no longer what it was ten years ago: the whole fabric is shaking; the minds of thousands are freed, by the light of moral and religious truth, from its terrible bondage; and great numbers, especially among the younger classes, know and feel the importance of the truth as it is in Jesus. It is chiefly the fear of loss and disgrace which prevents them from openly embracing Christianity.

It is difficult to picture to Christians in England the state of wretchedness and destitution to which the man possessed of even a cottage and a few acres of land is exposed by embracing Christianity: all friendly connexion is broken off with him, and he is considered by his neighbours as an enemy. If the chief men in the place do not venture openly to oppress and ill-treat him, yet no method is too cruel or too mean to be employed in an underhand way to injure or to rob him, till his very existence becomes a burden. His own relations, with whom he has a share in the garden, the field, or the store of grain, will combine together to defraud him.

An affecting instance of this kind occurred at Burdwan during the last year. A young Hindoo of the Writer Caste, possessed of considerable landed property, had been for some time instructed in the Society's English School. He had expressed a desire for baptism, and had come to the Missionaries for instruction. At his last visit, he promised to leave his friends, and to come at a stated time; but expressed his fear that his uncle would endeavour to deprive him, by forgery, of his parental inheritance. The Missionaries advised him to bring his title-deeds; and offered to accompany him to the Collector of the Revenue, to have them secured by public authority. His last words were, a request that they would pray for him, and a promise that he would bring the papers. He went away, and was heard of no more. It was greatly feared that his friends, suspecting his intentions, removed him by force to a distant part of the country, as has been done in many other instances of conversion. Oh, how painful are trials of this kind to a Missionary's feelings! He rejoices at the thought of a lost sheep being gathered from a heathen wilderness into the fold of Jesus; but at the very entrance-gate, the enemy tears it away, and escapes with his prey.

KRISHNAGHUR.

In this interesting field of Missionary success, which has so deeply engaged the Christian sympathies of the Church at home, six European Missionaries are labouring.

The Rev. Messrs. Blumhardt and Krückeberg reside at the chief town of the district, Krishnaghur; at which are stationed several of the Hon. E. I. Company's Civil Officers, who have rendered great service to the Mission, and formed a Church Missionary Association. The Rev. W. J. Deerr is at Chupra; the Rev. A. Alexander at Solo; the Rev. C. T. Krauss at Kabastanga; and the Rev. C. W. Lipp at Rottenpore. Each Missionary is located in the centre of a district of hamlets in which Christians reside, and can keep up a personal superintendence over them. This Mission, therefore, now exhibits a hopeful approximation to the parochial system of Christian lands.

The Committee have not yet been furnished with full statistical returns from the Station; but they can state, that, notwithstanding the reduction in the number of Inquirers, by a close sifting and examination into their real character—notwithstanding, also, the operation of a violent persecution, which has caused many to fly from the district—the numbers of Inquirers and of the Baptized Christians are considerably larger than the numbers reported last year, which were 3000 and 2000 respectively.

Visit of the Lord Bishop of Calcutta.

At the close of March 1841, the Bishop of Calcutta visited the Station, and spent nine days in the district. The results of his observations were conveyed in a Letter to the President of the Society, dated Calcutta, April 14. The general view which his Lordship takes of the Mission is thus stated:—

I would ask the oldest friends of the Society to reflect upon the facts of my two former Letters, and on the present; and to say, whether the state of the Mission, considering every thing, is not at this moment as full of hope as could have been reasonably expected. I can truly say I have not a word to retract, on reading over my communications of 1839. Time has only developed and confirmed the statements then made.

The Bishop thus describes his visit to Solo, and his interview with the Rev. A. Alexander, who, as his Lordship writes, "has been twenty-three years in India—is perfectly master of Bengalee—was long experienced as a Catechist at Calcutta—brought up under Bishop Corrie."

As I looked at the pale worn countenance of Mr. Alexander, and heard him tell of God's dealings around him, I was filled with thankfulness. He had no doubt, he said, that many were truly awakened to a sense of their sinfulness, and of the blessed nature of the Christian Redemption—the persecution would sift the character of the Inquirers—all would end well—God's ways were past finding out.

He has five Village Chapels, two Catechists, and now five Readers. These presented themselves about eight o'clock P.M., in the verandah, to receive Mr. Alexander's directions for the next day, and report what they had done on the preceding one: for Mr. Alexander, exactly like Schwartz, keeps all his Teachers close under his own eye, gives them no authority, calls on them for an account of all their proceedings, changes their circle of villages to prevent wrong customs and practices, and endeavours to preserve them in their first simplicity and humility. He goes round himself from time to time. A considerable number in his twenty-eight villages are much in earnest, and some are quite raised to a new life. Family prayer is celebrated daily, morning and evening, by the Catechist, if present; or by the Head Convert, if he be not. One evening, Mr. Alexander arrived very late and unexpectedly at a village, and overheard a Native Christian praying thus: "O Lord! I am very foolish: I am very ignorant. How can I pray? Oh, forgive me my sins, for Christ's sake! Oh, grant me thy Holy Spirit! I cannot say more. Lord, thou knowest all." Surely these are the accents of the child of grace! Could an English Cottager have prayed more simply and suitably?

Let me now describe, if I can, the sublime scene at Public Worship. For four hours, in an inconceivable pressure and heat, we were celebrating Baptism, then Confirmation, and, lastly, the Supper of the Lord. There were perhaps 500 present, and seven Clergy, including the Bishop. The children of the Schools sat first; then the Candidates for Baptism and Confirmation. The Baptismal Service, from our Bengalee Prayer Book, was read by Mr. Deerr; and 195 were then baptized, of whom above 100 had been for more than a year under instruction. I next addressed the Candidates for Confirmation, through an Interpreter; and then confirmed fifty-four of those who had formerly been baptized, and had maintained a steady profession of the Christian doctrine. Thirty-seven then communicated with the Bishop and six Clergy, the Catechists and Readers, making nearly fifty. So profoundly devout a company I had never seen

The Bishop gives further particulars respecting the persecution of the Christian Converts:—

A fierce persecution has begun to show itself in many parts of the Mission, chiefly about Anunda Bas and Baht Ghatchee, which has occasioned great anxiety to the Missionaries. An Inquirer of only a fortnight's standing, yet accounted as a Christian, was so beaten in one of these assaults, that he died of the injuries he received.

The Bishop hesitated, at first, whether he should visit these scenes of persecution.

The villages were deserted—the Heathen threatening any who should assemble at the Christian Worship announced on the preceding evening. It was feared that I could do little but irritate the Heathen at such a moment. I thought, however, that it would be better, at all events, to go and see for myself. Who was to encourage the persecuted flock concerning their faith, if their Bishop and Father did not? Who was to inculcate faith and patience? who was to hold up the cross? who was to throw himself into the gap, if he did not? I went, therefore, in the name of the Lord God; and I bless God that I did so. It took some time to assure the flock that I had arrived at Anunda Bas. We waited: tidings were sent round: first one dropped in, then another: hundreds, men and women, at length filled the Village Chapel from end to end.

The Bishop addressed the people. He then introduced to them the new Missionary, who was about to be stationed among them—Mr. Lipp: and at the conclusion addressed them—Mr. Deerr acting as Interpreter—to the following effect:—

Will you stand fast in Christ, and not turn aside on account of the Heathen around you? Will you return good for evil, and meekly wait for the laws to do you justice?" "Yes, we will," was the heartfelt shout. "Are you tired of Christ and Christianity?" "No," resounded from one end of the company to the other.—I then assured them, that no injustice, no violence, no murder, could or would be long concealed, under the Christian Government of Britain. They had only to let patience have her perfect work, and God would deliver them, as He did the first converts in the time of St. Paul. If your Lordship could have seen how their countenances lighted up as these questions were put to them, the thrilling animation with which they replied, and how their eyes glistened with joy and earnestness, you would have thought yourself at Thessalonica, in the Apostolic Age—only allowing for the wide difference between miraculous inspiration and our own—when the converts received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost.

On another occasion, the Bishop went to the village in Mr. Deerr's district, where the murder of the Christian Inquirer had thrown every thing into alarm and flight. The Bishop writes:—

I entered the humble chapel with its mud walls, whither the deceased had fled; and was rejoiced and surprised to see a crowd of 100 or 200 persons, with Heathen in the distance, waiting our approach. Twenty-nine were here presented for baptism. I then exhorted them to patient silence under persecution; remembering the words—Vengeance is mine: I will repay, saith the Lord. If you could have seen, My dear Lord, the fine, calm, and intelligent countenances of these neophytes, and the joy with which they came forward to be baptized for the dead—if that be the import of the Apostle's expression—and in the very place where an Inquirer had sunk under persecution, you would have blessed God, who was thus sustaining their feeble faith.

Increasingly-Encouraging Aspect of the Mission.

The latest accounts received from this Mission are very satisfactory. Under date 29th Dec. 1841, Mr. Blumhardt writes from Krishnaghur:—

It is now six months since I took charge of the Station. I am happy to be able to say that the work is greatly progressing. Some of the chief difficulties have, through God's help, been removed, and peace and general order restored. New habits, new feelings, and, I humbly trust, a new life of spirituality, are advancing in many of our Christians; so that I can evidently see that God is working among us

Mr. Krauss writes, under the same date, from Kabastanga:—

The conduct of the Native Congregations in the different villages of this division is, upon the whole, more satisfactory than it ever has been. Some few are exhibiting, in their lives and conversation, the influence of the Spirit of God upon their minds. I trust that, through the grace of God, and the means employed, many more will come forward, testifying to the world, by a holy and consistent life, that they are the Children of God indeed.

The Rev. James Innes, Acting Secretary of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, visited the Station in December last, and spent a fortnight in examining the state of things in the different districts. A detailed Report of his visit has been printed in Calcutta; the conclusion of which contains these statements:—

I left Calcutta for Krishnaghur with fears and misgivings, for we had heard and read of difficulties and discouragements; but the bright aspect of the work, when I came to look upon it myself, speedily dispelled my apprehensions, and gave me confidence that it is of a stable character. I have gone from place to place, seeking for discouragements; but I have not found any. Wherever I turn, a bright prospect meets my eye. Whatever inquiries I make, the answer is full of hope. All the districts are yet in infancy; but an infancy which gives promise, in each case, of ripening into vigorous manhood.

BENARES.

The Mission Premises at this Station are situated at Sigra, a short distance from the city. They contain a spacious Orphan Asylum, and houses of residence for the Missionaries.

Several changes have taken place during the past year; but not, the Committee are happy to state, such as materially to affect the steady prosecution of the Lord's work in this important and interesting sphere of labour. The Rev. C. B. Leupolt left Benares at the beginning of last year, for Gorruckpore, at which place he remained for a few months; and has since come to this country, to seek a revival of health and strength. The Rev. J. Baumann joined the Mission in April; but, after a short stay, was obliged, by the failure of his health, to leave India, for the more temperate climate of New Zealand.

The Rev. W. Smith continues to labour, chiefly in preaching and translating; and the Rev. F. E. Schneider has the care of the Orphan Institutions.

Preaching of the Gospel at Benares.

There are in the City of Benares four Chapels, and three more humble Preaching Rooms, in which religious instruction has been communicated, by way of preaching or discussion, in some once, in others twice a week. It does not appear that, as yet, any actual fruit, in the conversion of sinners, has been granted to these labours of our Missionaries; but they still persevere, not against hope, but in cheerful hope; for they discern a gradual change and preparation in the minds of the Natives, which assure them that many are not far from the kingdom of heaven. Mr. Smith writes:—

The work in the city is promising; so far as regards the cessation, in a great measure, of hostilities on the part of the Natives—an increasing want of confidence in their different systems, which is often very evident, especially with the Hindoos, when they attempt to defend them—and a growing persuasion that we have the truth, and that it will prevail. We have good congregations, and willing and attentive hearers; who often respond most heartily to what they hear, their consciences bearing witness to its truth.

Christian Education.

Jay Narrain's Free School, in the City of Benares, is supported by an endowment, of which the Society administers the trust. The school is under the care of Mr. Mackay; and is attended by 144 Heathen and Mahomedan Boys, who are all instructed in Christianity, and the various branches of literary and scientific knowledge.

But the most interesting departments of labour at this Station are the Orphan Institutions. The number of Boys at the close of the year was 108, under the care of Mr. Schneider. These children, separated from all heathen associations, are trained up in Christian principles; the majority are taught different trades; and the most promising for talent and piety are educated with a view to their becoming Readers, Schoolmasters, or even Ministers. The Female Institution, under the care of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Schneider, contains 50 Orphan Girls, and 31 Day Scholars, who are trained upon the same principles as the Boys.

Visit of the Lord Bishop of Calcutta.

In February of last year, the Bishop of Calcutta visited this Station, accompanied by his Chaplain, the Rev. J. H. Pratt; who thus describes, in a Letter dated March 23, the result of his observations:—

Our stay here was very short. The Bishop was not able to spend more than one morning at the Mission Premises at Sagra. That morning was occupied in examining the Orphans, boys and girls, and the boys of the Free School in the city—in seeing the orphans at their trades—and in holding a Confirmation, when the Bishop confirmed about sixty of the orphan children. From what I saw, I am sure that they are all well instructed, and that they understand what they are about: they bear, also, a most excellent character with the Missionaries.

Six of the Orphans are being trained for the office of Catechist: these are boys who have exhibited undoubted signs of conversion, and a desire to be useful to the souls of their countrymen. One of them was pointed out as a boy who was so well acquainted with the Truth, so strongly felt the power of it in his own soul, and so earnestly desired to impart the same to others less-highly privileged than himself, that he would GO THROUGH FIRE AND WATER in aiming at the spread of the Gospel among his countrymen. Such characters we want.

In the travelling season, Mr. Smith makes Missionary tours through the towns and villages which lie far and wide around Benares. On these occasions, many Tracts and portions of Scripture are distributed; and he preaches wherever he can collect an audience. Several times, in his last journeys, he has met with favourable symptoms: he has found persons apparently anxious about their salvation—dissatisfied with their own religion—willing, and indeed anxious, to read our Scriptures—and expressing an earnest desire to be better instructed. When the hot weather sets in, the Missionaries devote themselves to Translations. They have completed a revision of Henry Martyn's Translation of the New Testament into Hindoostanee; and have composed and printed an Essay in refutation of Hindooism and Mahomedanism, and in defence of Christianity.

Interesting Conversation with an aged Pundit.

The following encouraging instance is related by Mr. Smith, in the account of one of his Missionary tours:—

January 28, 1841—To-day I reached Nowbut Poor. While at this place, returning from a village on the other side of the Kurm Nasa, I met, as I was crossing the fields, an old Pundit, to whom we had given books and spoken on our former visit. On recognising him, I asked him if he had read the books. He answered, that as they were printed, and he was accustomed to the written character, and as his sight also was dim, he could not well read them; but that he well remembered one argument, which we had used in our former conversation on idolatry: it was, that as a woman, married to one man, left her husband and went to other men, and thus ruined herself, so he and all the Hindoos had done. He added, with great emphasis, that he was convinced that the One God only should be worshipped.

I spoke to the poor old man, I suppose for more than half an hour, and found my heart greatly enlarged; so much so, that I could scarcely refrain from shedding tears. He leaned on his stick, and was attention itself: tears frequently glistened in his eyes as I spoke to him of Jesus and the wonders of His salvation. Oh that I may meet him before the Throne!—Such a time as I had with him is a time to be remembered by a Missionary, in the present stage of our work in this country.

JAUNPORE.

The Benares Mission has been extended during the past year, by the establishment of the Rev. R. Hawes at Jaunpore, a Mahomedan town, with a population of 20,000, situated forty miles from Benares, and which had been frequently visited by the Missionaries of this district. A Free School, and a beautiful little Gothic Church, erected at Jaunpore some years ago by the European residents, have been transferred by the Trustees of the property to the use of this Society. Mr. Hawes only arrived at his station at the close of last year.

CHUNAR.

The Rev. W. Bowlëy continues to labour at this Station, with his usual activity and zeal. The Rev. J. H. Pratt wrote, on the 23d of March 1841, respecting this Station:—

It was very gratifying to see Bishop Corrie's beautiful Mission Church so well filled with willing hearers of the Gospel, most of whom have been snatched from the superstitious and soul-destroying delusions of Hindooism. The Bishop held a Confirmation of a large number, including Europeans and Natives. Mr. Bowley reckons 57 Converts at Chunar; and others, who are labouring as Catechists in different places, amount, with their families, to 25 more; so that the same good work is going on at Chunar which we have seen in so many other places; and our excellent Brother has abundant encouragement in the labour of love in which he has been so long engaged.

Mr. Bowley also pays much attention to translating Tracts and Hymns: many of the Hindoostanee Tracts in use in our various Missions are from his pen. His intimate knowledge of the language, and his facility in expressing ideas in a manner adapted to the comprehension of the Natives, are talents committed to his trust which cannot be too highly estimated.

At the close of last year, the Chunar Association report:—

The Native Congregation has continued full and encouraging: several of the regular attendants upon the means of grace have, we trust, given themselves entirely to the Lord, and have been admitted to the Holy Communion.

Education.

Mr. Bowley has under his care an English School, a Persian School, and an Hindee School, each containing about 30 scholars; and also an Orphan Asylum, in which there are 26 boys and 16 girls. The Chunar Association report—

Several of the young men and women educated in the Asylum have during the past year been united in marriage, and are earning their livelihood with credit to themselves and their Christian profession.

GORRUCKPORE.

This interesting Station comprises a Church, Parsonage, and Schools, at Gorruckpore; and a Native Christian Colony, settled twelve years ago on a tract of land in the midst of the wilderness, about four miles from the town. At this Christian Settlement there is also a church, called "The Church in the Wilderness," and Schools, and an Orphan Asylum.

In the early part of last year the Mission was under the sole charge of the Rev. C. B. Leupolt. During the latter part, the Rev. J. P. Mengé has been engaged in the various branches of labour connected with the Station, and the Rev. C. Wendnagel in the care of the Settlement. But these Missionaries, having so lately arrived in the country, are at present much engaged in acquiring the Native Language.

On the Christian Settlement, or Farm, there are 12 families, 5 widows, and 60 boys, all orphans, who are engaged in agricultural labour. The boys of more promising talents are sent to the Seminary at Benares; and those at Benares who do not appear suitable for higher employment are drafted off to Gorruckpore, to learn farming and agriculture.

Mr. Pratt, after visiting the Station with the Bishop, writes:—

The Christian Farm at Gorruckpore is a most interesting spot, and most admirably adapted, in itself and in its situation, for the settlement of a Christian Native Colony. And who can tell whether the day may not be near, when the Nepaulese shall come down and traffic with our Native Christian farmers and tradesmen, and carry back the better riches of the everlasting Gospel to their mountain fastnesses?

AGRA.

The Rev. J. J. Moore, whose able and devoted superintendence of this Mission for several years past—especially during the awful circumstances of the famine of 1839—deserves the grateful acknowledgment of the Society, has now resigned his connexion with the Mission, in consequence of being appointed Minister of the new Church of St. Paul, at Agra.

The Rev. Messrs. Hoernle, Pfander, and Kreiss, are now labouring at the Station. The Mission Compound, in the heart of the city, comprises a Church, two Mission Houses, and Widows' Almshouses. There are also several Schools in the city and surrounding villages; and at Secundra, about six miles from the city, is a Female Orphan Asylum; near which is a Missionary's residence, occupied by Mr. Hoernle.

At the close of last year there were 122 orphan girls in the Asylum, of ages varying from four years to seventeen. They are all baptized, and under Christian instruction; and are taught various kinds of work, the sale of which affords considerable assistance to the funds of the Institution. About 300 children receive gratuitous instruction in the different schools of the city and villages, under the charge of the Missionaries. The aged and long-trying Native Minister, the Rev. Anund Messeeh, itinerates among his heathen countrymen, to preach the Gospel.

The journals of the Missionaries at this Station have not yet been received for the present year.

MEERUT.

The Rev. R. Richards labours perseveringly at this Station. The congregation assembling at the Mission Chapel consists of 150 persons, of whom 50 are communicants. A considerable number of Scriptures and Tracts have been distributed. Mr. Richards remarks—

I am happy to say, that the people hear the word without disputing, and often come to the chapel at the time of Divine Service, listening with much attention: they likewise begin to testify respect for the Christians; and, on the other hand, exhibit coldness toward their Brahmins—all which circumstances are of an encouraging character.

Return of the Rev. J. Tucker to the Mission.

THE Rev. J. Tucker, after a stay of fifteen months in this country, returned to Madras in November last, in recruited health, to resume his important labours as Secretary to the Corresponding Committee.

MADRAS.

During the last year there has not been any Missionary of the Society to labour among the teeming heathen population of Madras and its neighbourhood.

Institution.

The Institution for training up young men for the Ministry has continued under the sole care of the Rev. J. H. Gray. It contained, at the commencement of the year, seven pupils. Much disappointment has occurred in this branch of our labours. A spirit of dissatisfaction arose among the Students respecting some regulations which it was thought right to adopt; in consequence of which, two of the Students withdrew. The progress of the remaining pupils has been satisfactory: they are instructed in Latin, Greek, and Hebrew; the elements of Mathematics; the Holy Scriptures, and Ecclesiastical History; together with some Native Language. One Student was reported, at the close of last year, to be in a sufficient state of preparation for entering upon the work of a Catechist.

The Institution has been removed from Black Town, to a more healthy situation on the Poonamallee Road.

Education for the Higher Classes among the Natives.

In consequence of the financial difficulties of the Society, and other circumstances, no further steps have been taken toward the establishment of a School for Native Education, alluded to in the last Report. Mr. J. G. Seymer, who is designed for this work, remains at Madras, and is diligently engaged in the study of Native Languages.

MAYAVERAM.

The Station of Mayaveram has been deprived, during the greater part of the year, of the services of an Ordained Missionary. Mr. Taylor, an European Catechist, has endeavoured to keep up, as far as he was able, the Missionary Establishment.

TELOOGOO MISSION.

The Rev. Messrs. H. W. Fox and R. T. Noble have commenced this Mission at Masulipatam, the chief town of the Teloo goo District. At the close of last year, the Bishop of Madras visited this Station, and admitted Mr. Fox to Priest's Orders. His Lordship, in a Letter to the President of the Society, dated January 14, 1842, thus describes his visit:—

During the week I was enabled to pass there, I had frequent and confidential intercourse with the Rev. Messrs. Noble and Fox; and we parted with feelings of mutual respect and love. I am persuaded that their whole heart is in their work, and therefore it cannot be but that God will bless it. At present they have done nothing in actual labour in that vast Missionary Field; but they are preparing to do much. Their plan of giving themselves up to the study of Teloo goo, until they shall have gained a sufficient knowledge of it to talk familiarly to the people, has my full approval.

I wish them to give up their whole time to the heathen population of Masulipatam and its neighbourhood; which, with its 200,000 souls, will give ample work to twenty Missionaries.

TINNEVELLY.

The general character of the Missionary work in Tinnevelly has been, from its commencement, now more than twenty years ago, of a diffusive nature. Scattered inquirers after Christian truth have appeared from time to time in different villages throughout a wide district; here a few and there a few, in the midst of a heathen and opposing population. The instruction of these inquirers could only be effected through a subordinate Native Agency on an extended scale. Hence arose the employment, in this Mission, of numerous Native Catechists, Readers, and Schoolmasters. Under such a system, the influence of the European mind, and of mature Christianity, can only be brought to bear very partially upon the Native Converts. It was therefore to be expected that many of these small and isolated communities would make but slow progress in Christian attainments; and that the surrounding heathenism would often exercise a pernicious effect, till the true remedy could be applied, namely, an increase in the number of European Missionaries.

In the mean time, the Missionaries employed in Tinnevely have endeavoured, to the utmost of their power, to accommodate their labours to the circumstances of the case. They have travelled from village to village, as often as their strength and other duties would allow. They have endeavoured to improve the qualifications of the Native Catechists, by frequently meeting them, to receive their reports, and to give them instruction; and, by instituting prize-essays, to stimulate them to mental exertion. They have been very cautious in admitting to baptism, so that the baptized still bear a small proportion to the whole number of inquirers; and they have exercised the strictest ecclesiastical discipline over the congregations.

But though such has been the general character of Missionary work in Tinnevely, in many instances a more decided blessed change has taken place, so that whole communities have professed Christianity. The Bishop of Madras says, in his late Charge:—

Among many sources of comfort during my journey through Tinnevely, one of the greatest has been a sight, for which, I candidly confess, I was not prepared—the sight of WHOLE CHRISTIAN VILLAGES. He alone who has passed some time in a heathen land, engaged in the work of the Ministry, can understand the delight which I felt at finding myself met, welcomed, and surrounded by crowds of Native professing Christians, whose countenances spoke a most intelligible welcome; for, ignorant as I am of their tongue, it was impossible to mistake the language of their happy faces. I had yet to learn that the parochial system of the Church might be carried out as effectually in India as in England; that pastoral supervision, as well as pastoral instruction, was in equally full activity here; and that the Christian Indian, like the Christian Englishman, could be taught not only publicly, but from house to house.

The Visitation of the Bishop of Madras was briefly alluded to in our last Report. Since that period, we have received fuller particulars of that interesting event.

His Lordship administered the rite of Confirmation at four of the Stations of the Society, to above 1500 Native Converts; held a Visitation of the Missionary Clergy of the Province, in the Mission Church of Palamcottah; and admitted the Society's Missionary, the Rev. E. Dent, to Priest's Orders.

The Missionaries of the Palamcottah District write, in their Report dated February 22, 1841:—

As this was the first Confirmation that had taken place in these parts, the chief part of the people were adults; and feeble trembling limbs bore many a grey head to receive the Bishop's blessing. His Lordship was pleased to express himself much gratified, both by the number of Candidates, and by the devout and orderly manner in which they conducted themselves throughout the Service. We doubt not that a lasting blessing from on High will accompany the solemn Services of the day.

The number of Missionaries in Tinnevely is seven. The field of labour is divided into six districts, each containing from 50 to 90 villages. In each district a Missionary is located, with from 40 to 70 Catechists and Schoolmasters under his superintendence; namely—Palamcottah District—Rev. G. Pettitt. The Seminary at Palamcottah is under the care of the Rev. S. Hobbs.

Northern District—Rev. P. P. Schaffter.

Satankoolam District—Rev. C. Blackman; and, latterly, Rev. J. Devasagayam.

Suviseshapooram District—Rev. J. J. Müller.

Meignanapooram District—Rev. J. Thomas.

Dohnavoor District—Rev. E. Dent.

By the last returns, at the close of 1841, the number of Candidates for Baptism was 19,663; of Baptized Converts, 5628; of Communicants, 963; of Schools, 131; and of Scholars, 4087 boys and 849 girls; showing, that during the last year the number of Candidates for Baptism has been more than doubled, the number of the Baptized increased by two-thirds, and of Communicants by one-third.

All the accounts of the last year testify that a spirit of inquiry, and desire for Christian instruction, are spreading throughout the whole district of Tinnevely, even more rapidly than a mere statistical statement indicates.

It is stated in the Palamcottah Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1841—

At a Quarterly Meeting of the Missionaries, on a comparison of the progress of our labours in the different Stations, it appeared evident that there was a great increase throughout the Mission of persons placing themselves under Christian instruction. And what is more remarkable, this increase is, in many instances, not from among the Shanars, but from among the Maraver Caste, a higher grade than the Shanars, and a people possessing much more of intellect and character.

The Rev. J. Thomas, in the Report of his District at Midsummer 1841, states—

In January, the addition from heathenism was 280 ; in February, nearly the same ; and on making up the account in June, I found that the total increase during the six months amounted to upward of 2000 souls. The means, however, which I possess for teaching them are utterly inadequate : many large congregations are without a Catechist, or even a Schoolmaster, and only receive occasional visits from a Catechist of some neighbouring village. I ought to have an addition of at least ten efficient Catechists, and as many Schoolmasters. It might be asked, Why receive persons under instruction, if unable to furnish them with teachers ? I would answer, because I am fully convinced that it is infinitely better for the people at once to renounce heathenism, and acknowledge the authority of Christianity, than to remain in ignorance, under the degrading and soul-destroying influence of idolatry. As soon as they place themselves under Christian instruction, every idol is demolished, and every devil-temple is converted into a House of Prayer to Jehovah ; all heathenish ceremonies are renounced ; and whenever the Missionary or a Catechist can visit the village, the inhabitants assemble, and the Gospel is preached to a listening multitude, who are eager to understand what they hear.

One very remarkable instance must be recorded, as opening a prospect full of hope and encouragement. It is taken from the Palamcottah Report previously quoted :—

At a village in the South, belonging to a respectable Brahmin, a small number of Shanar families applied to a Catechist for instruction. The Brahmin, hearing of it, assembled the whole of the villagers, and addressed them as follows :—“ I hear that some of you have determined to learn the Vedam. Now, I don't want any divisions and quarrels in my village, nor shall there be two parties here : therefore, all of you either remain in a body in your old religion, or else all of you in a body join the new. If you like to embrace Christianity, do so ; I will make no opposition : you may turn your temple into a Prayer-house, if you like : only all be of the same mind : and if you do not act justly toward me, I shall look to the Missionaries to see me righted.” Such an instance as this, we think, has not before occurred ; and whatever may have been the motives influencing this Brahmin, so much more enlightened than his countrymen generally are, we shall scarcely be blamed for regarding it as a sign of the blessing of God upon our labours : and how shall we justify ourselves, if we neglect to enter such an open door ? We have just heard from the Inspecting Catechist, that all the Shanars of the village, nearly 200 persons in number, have placed themselves under instruction, have demolished their idols, valued at 200 rupees, and have delivered up their devil-temple to become a temple of the Living God.

The Missionaries close their report of this very remarkable event with these striking words :—

Shall a Brahmin tell his people, “ You may go to Christianity, and take your temple with you, if you like ;” and the Missionaries, or their supporters, say, “ But we will not receive you : be Heathens still ” ?

It has been asserted, that worldly motives have actuated the oppressed classes to seek for Christian instruction, under the hope of obtaining Christian protection and civil privileges. In some cases, this may be true ; but even from such unworthy sources there may ultimately flow the most blessed results. The truth of this may be illustrated by the following interesting narrative, from the Journal of the Rev. G. Pettitt, March 13, 1841 :—

The people of Kongalarakuritchy, having been defrauded of their property by some of their better-educated neighbours, placed themselves under Christian instruction. They were assisted in asserting their rights, and obtained, after various delays, a decree from the Courts of Law in their favour. Some may doubt whether these persons ought to have been received. Let such persons first consider these facts. These people are now acquainted with the doctrine of Christ ; and would shame many a Christian Congregation, if they could be examined in contrast with them. A School, attended by the Boys and 8 Girls, is established in the village ; 40 persons have received Baptism and Confirmation by the Bishop, in his late Visitation ; some have been admitted to the Lord’s Supper, and many more are applicants. Lest it should be doubted whether this will last, another fact may be added. They were asked how much money they would give toward building a good church : the next morning they brought the draft of a bond, in which they promised to deliver to the Missionaries, out of 1300 rupees decreed to them for back rents, 1000 rupees, for building their contemplated Church.

There is also evidence of the most satisfactory kind, that real Christianity prevails, together with the profession of it, in Tinnevelly ; for it has already produced many of those fruits which cannot be mistaken. First, there have been many instances of constancy under severe persecution and temporal losses. Mr. Schaffter relates, in his Journal, Aug. 7, 1840, that two converts were obliged to flee from their native village, in consequence of persecution :—

When leaving the place, scarcely knowing whither to go, they said to the Catechist, “ We might escape all these troubles, by denying Christ, and returning to our former ways, as most of our relations have done ; but we cannot do so : and as our Lord has said, When they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another, we will avail ourselves of His permission.” The Lord has blessed them in the place of their refuge : He has abundantly provided them with the means of livelihood, and has made them instrumental in prevailing on three families of the place to forsake their idols, and to unite with themselves in their application for a Catechist, and in their endeavours to build a House of Prayer.

On another occasion he writes :—

On visiting one of the distant villages, a woman came forward, in the presence of a large number of her heathen relations, and said, with a reproving voice, “ Why do you delay so long to baptize me ? Four years ago I asked Mr. Rhenius to baptize me ; but he advised me to wait a little longer, on the ground that I was not yet sufficiently instructed. Ever since, I have been learning and waiting, month after month requesting the Catechist to beseech you to come and baptize me ; but to this day I am left unbaptized. I asked her, “ Have you well considered in what difficulties you will place yourself by receiving Baptism ? There is no person ten miles round who is under Christian instruction. With whom will you associate ? To whom will you marry your daughters ? How will you bear the ridicule of all your neighbours ? ” “ O sir,” she said, “ do you still doubt about me ? Have I not suffered all the things you mention these many years ? Did I ever, on these accounts, show a double mind, or any desire to go back to the world ? Why, then, should you not baptize me ? ”

As another fruit of genuine Christianity, it may be mentioned, that several Religious and Benevolent Societies have been established among the converts. A Tamul Book and Tract Society has for some years been established in Tinnevely, to which the Native Christians contribute very generally. A Fund for supporting the Widows of Catechists has been in operation for two years. In different districts there exist Societies for the Relief of the Sick and Indigent. Nor are their benevolent efforts confined to the supply of their own wants ; for they have instituted a Society called the Pilgrim Society, composed altogether of Natives, and receiving scarcely any help from Europeans, which supports two Christian Readers, who are continually travelling about to make known Scripture truth. And within the last year, in more than one of the Stations, a Church-Building Fund has been established ; the principle of which is, that every person in the district, capable of working, is to give the best day’s income of the whole year to the fund, with as much more as they like. It is gratifying, and only due, to state, that the design of this fund originated altogether with the Native Converts.

As a third evidence of the reality of a Work of Grace among the converts of Tinnevely, may be mentioned many bright examples of Christian faith and hope at the hour of death. Many such instances have been recorded in former Reports: the following are selected from subsequent accounts. The Rev. J. Devasagayam writes, in his Journal, Aug. 27, 1840 :—

At noon, our pious Catechist, Sinappen, entered into his eternal rest. He said that he looked to Jesus alone to give him true repentance—to purify his soul by His blood—and to take him to His kingdom. He was much concerned about his wife and daughter; but said, however, that he would cast this burden upon the Lord, and pray to Jesus to preserve his family in the right way, and bring them to glory, where he hoped to be, through His infinite mercy. This morning he directed his daughter to read to him from the Golden Treasury—a valuable present to him from the Rev. J. Tucker; and as he was not able to pray himself, he desired his daughter to read the Lord's Prayer. A few minutes after, he repeated thrice, "Lord Jesus, save me!" and spoke no more.

The next instance is from the Journal of the Rev. P. P. Schaffter, September 23, 1840 :—

Old Pakkianaden, whom I have often mentioned in my Journal, died here [Parancondapooram] a short time ago; and his death, as well as his life, was a great edification to the people.—By his unshaken faith in Christ, his holy life, and his gift in comforting the weak, he was one of the pillars of this congregation.—I had a pleasant conversation with him shortly before his death: he had forgotten the world, and spoke very rarely of temporal things; but his mind was full of life, his thirst after the pure milk of the word increasing, and he was continually in prayerful meditation on divine things. Though he sometimes suffered considerably, yet he had never been known to complain: he was one of the most peaceable and happy Christians I have ever known.

Let us not, however, be mistaken—as if these instances were produced as samples of the general state of Native Christians. Far otherwise: they are given only as special instances of divine grace, which prove that the work is of the Lord: they are regarded as the fruits of a newly-planted tree which has not yet reached its full bearing, but which are sufficient to prove the nature of that tree; for men do not gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles.

On the review, therefore, of the case of the Tinnevely Mission—while the Committee would not deny the many imperfections of the work—while in each individual case they would rejoice with trembling—yet, on the whole, they would humbly offer up their praise to the Lord, who has opened so great and effectual a door in this field of labour. They would call upon the Christian public to enable them to act with corresponding energy and power; and they would specially commend this Mission to the prayers of the Church, that the Lord, who we trust has planted the vine, may prepare room before it, and cause it to take deep root, that it may fill the land, that the hills may be covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof may be like the goodly cedars.

TRAVANCORE.

In Travancore, our Missionaries occupy Four Stations. This district comprises, among a large Heathen and Mahomedan Population, a considerable number of Papists, as well as Syrian Christians. Both of these classes of nominal Christians have departed so far from the simplicity of Christ, that our Missionaries call upon them, equally with the Mahomedans and Heathens, to come out from among their brethren, and be separate.

COTTAYAM.

Cottayam College.

The Cottayam College is under the charge of the Rev. J. Chapman and Mr. J. Johnson. By the last Report, there were 70 pupils, who are receiving a sound classical education, combined with full Scriptural instruction.

The College was visited by the Bishop of Madras during his late Visitation; and it is mentioned with high commendation by his Lordship, in his late Missionary Charge—in connexion with the Society's Institution at Cotta—as affording a good hope of raising up Native Missionaries for carrying forward the evangelization of India.

Cottayam Village.

The long-trying and indefatigable Missionary, the Rev. Benjamin Bailey, after the labour of a quarter of a century in South India, still continues his ministrations to the Congregations which have been gathered from among the Syrian and Heathen Population in the village of Cottayam. Mr. Bailey is also very usefully occupied in translating Tracts into Malayalim, and correcting for the press such works as are printed by the Society.

Cottayam District.

The district around Cottayam is under the charge of the Rev. H. Baker, who reports upon it, at the close of 1841—“The prospects of success are growing brighter and brighter from day to day.” There are, at this Station, 9 Schools, containing 346 Scholars. The number of Communicants is 65.

MAVELICARE.

At this populous and wealthy town, where the Brahmins have long maintained a powerful influence, and where no European had hitherto resided, the Rev. J. Peet has laboured, for the last three years, with great perseverance and Christian courage. By his exertions, a church has been built, capable of holding from 400 to 500 persons. His work is chiefly among the higher classes, both of the Heathens and Syrians. He was at first assailed by the most formidable opposition. Every means were used by persons in authority to hinder the progress of the Mission, and to degrade all the people connected with it in the eyes of the Natives. The highway between the Station and the town was blocked up. The most violent threats were uttered against Mr. Peet. It was said that he should be poisoned. A plan was laid to stone him in the dark. And—considering that he was the only European within the compass of thirty miles, and living in a place where every thing is effected by brute violence, where murders are not unfrequent, and with the religious feelings of the Heathen excited against him—there was great cause for fear lest some of these threats might be executed. But it pleased our Heavenly Father to extend His preserving care over him, and all outward hostility to the progress of the Gospel has at length ceased.

The following touching and instructive narrative occurs in Mr. Peet's Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1841:—

Allow me now briefly to relate a most remarkable instance of the way by which three Nair Females have been rescued from the dominion of Satan, chiefly through the labours of one of the female members of my Church. All that I may be said to have had to do in it has been a constant endeavour to awaken in my people a spirit of compassion toward all, but particularly to those of their own households; and this attempt, it will be seen, has not been altogether in vain. A woman who was baptized by me some two years since, during the last twelve or fifteen months frequently stated to Mrs. Peet her anxiety to save the souls of her relations. At length the feeling grew so strong, that she resolved at all hazards to make some attempt to gain admission into her mother's house, from which she had been cast out on account of her religion. She was encouraged and promised assistance by her husband, and a good old man, one of my church members. After much consultation and prayer, they all three resolved to go to the town where her relations lived. Upon reaching the place, they took lodgings near her mother's house. After several attempts, the daughter succeeded in gaining admittance. This led to the introduction of the others; and after repeated trials, and the exercise of so much prudence and wisdom that the account of it constrained me to say, Surely this is the finger of God, she induced her mother and two other females of the family to go home with her to her Christian house. She next persuaded them to visit Mrs. Peet; and, after many efforts, she succeeded so far in overcoming their prejudices as to induce them to learn the Christian doctrines. From one step to another they thus proceeded, till brought to believe in the Truth, and sincerely to look to Christ alone for salvation. They were examined and further instructed both by Mrs. Peet and myself; and being satisfied with their conduct and good profession of faith, I publicly baptized them on last Good Friday. After baptism, we assembled with our new friends around the Table of our Lord.

ALLEPIE.

The Rev. J. Hawksworth has charge of this Station. During the last year there has been a small addition to the number of converts, who amount to 410, 47 being Communicants. The Schools have gone on satisfactorily: the number of children is 366. In two Schools within the Mission Premises, 30 girls and 20 boys are educated and boarded by means of separate funds. Mr. Hawksworth writes, in a Letter dated September 23, 1841:—

During the past half-year, one of my flock has been removed, I cannot entertain a doubt, to the more immediate presence of her Saviour. Her conduct was characterized by great affection to her husband, universal benevolence, the strictest consistency, and zeal for her Saviour, coupled with a modest and retiring spirit. Her husband assures me that she rarely, if ever, went from home, except to church; and yet she was known and visited by numbers of females of every class, Heathen as well as Christian; and she invariably seized the opportunities of speaking about the Saviour, and pointing out the way to Heaven.

COCHIN AND TRICHOOR.

Since the death of the Rev. S. Ridsdale, the Rev. H. Harley has had charge of this Mission. The Station of Cochin has been occupied for twenty-four years by Missionaries of the Society; but as there is a considerable European Population residing in the place, a Chaplain to Cochin has been lately appointed by the East-India Company. It has therefore been determined to remove the Mission to Trichoor, a town containing nearly 12,000 inhabitants, situated about fifty miles north-east of Cochin, and in a more central part of the kingdom of Cochin. It is also on other accounts a very important post for Missionary operations, as it is considered one of the strongholds of Heathenism, and is famous for a Sanscrit College, in which Brahmins from different countries are instructed in the mysteries of their religion, through the medium of the Sanscrit Language.

A Church and Missionary Residence are in the course of erection at Trichoor.

Labours and Martyrdom of a Syrian Convert.

An interesting account occurs in the journal of Mr. Harley, September 25, 1840, which illustrates at once the zeal of a Native Convert for the salvation of his brethren, and the perils to which that zeal is exposed:—

Some years ago, a Syrian of the name of Curiatha was reclaimed from a most sinful course of life, by the study of a copy of the Gospels, which he received from the late Mr. Ridsdale. In studying this holy book he became quite another man: he abandoned his covetous and worldly and self-seeking views, and began to preach the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ with a self-denial, zeal, and boldness, seldom to be witnessed in a Native character. He was naturally eccentric in his ways. Had his zeal been more directed by prudence, he might have done further service to the cause to which he had devoted himself. For a short time he was employed as a Catechist of the Society; but latterly he travelled throughout a great part of Southern India, preaching the Gospel among the Heathen. He was quite careless of any worldly emolument, and many times refused to receive pecuniary assistance, travelling penniless, and content to live on casual alms. How much he suffered for the cause of Christ cannot be known, for Curiatha never revealed such matters. As in life, so also by his death he upheld the honour of the Gospel. He was preaching in the Kunnamkoollam bazaar, when an opposer of the Truth, a Syrian, became so incensed, that he went home, and, procuring a knife, returned and stabbed Curiatha to the heart. Curiatha put up a prayer to God, not to lay this sin to the charge of the murderer, and immediately fell down lifeless. Such was the end of Curiatha. He was faithful unto death; and we trust that, through the merits of the Saviour, he has received the crown of life.*

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1820.

Mission Establishment:

6 European Missionaries.	14 Native & Country-born School-
1 European Catechist.	masters and Assistants.

THIS Mission has been more recently established than either of the two other Indian Missions of the Society. It is consequently in a less advanced state than the others.

* Further accounts of the South-India Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for May 1841, pp. 105—122; June 1841, pp. 145—147; and November 1841, pp. 256—265.

BOMBAY.

The Rev. G. M. Valentine has been diligently engaged in superintending the Schools connected with the Society at the Presidency, in giving daily instruction to Inquirers and Candidates for Baptism, and in conversational preaching to the Natives. On Lord's-Day Afternoons, Divine Service, in the Mahratta Language, has been regularly conducted by Mr. Valentine. He has also made several excursions, with the view of making known the Gospel in the neighbouring villages.

By the return of the Rev. C. C. Mengé from England, in January 1841, the Rev. J. S. S. Robertson was relieved from his duties at Nassuck, and resumed his avocations in the Money School. Mr. Robertson was admitted to Priest's Orders, by the Bishop of Bombay, on the 6th of June.

Including the Money Institution, there were, at the end of June, in this branch of the Western-India Mission, 13 Schools, in which instruction was imparted to 524 boys and 77 girls.

Baptism of Two Brahmin Youths.

The two Brahmin Youths, mentioned in the last Report as having embraced Christianity in the Nassuck School, have been baptized. Dajee, the elder, was baptized by the Rev. J. S. S. Robertson, in Christ Church, Byculla, on the 7th of March 1841. It was deemed advisable to delay the baptism of Ram Krishna, as he had not completed his 16th year, the age at which, according to Hindoo usage, youths are considered competent to act for themselves. He was, however, admitted into the Church, by that solemn ordinance, on the 2d of May.

NASSUCK.

For more than ten years, Missionary Labours have been carried on, under peculiar discouragements, in this town, which is about 100 miles from Bombay. The town contains about 30,000 inhabitants. It is, besides, the resort of numerous pilgrims, and the seat and centre of Brahminism in Western India.

The opposition which the Missionaries have had to encounter in this stronghold of heathen superstition has latterly become more violent. The Brahmins are enraged at the weakened influence of Hindooism on the minds of those who have received instruction in the Mission Schools, and particularly exasperated on account of the relinquishment of caste by the two Brahmin Youths.

The Rev. C. F. Warth writes—"The Brahmins are very confident that they will succeed in expelling the Missionaries:" and the Assistant Secretary of the Corresponding Committee at Bombay observes—"Our Mission stands in much need of being remembered at the Throne of Grace."

In the mean time, the Missionaries are going on steadily prosecuting their important labours, leaving events in the hands of the Lord, being fully assured that He will order all things well.

Translation of the Scriptures.

The Rev. J. Dixon has been diligently occupied in the important work of translating the Holy Scriptures into the Mahratta Language. The Prophetical portions of the Old Testament and the Hagiographa were completed by him, and published some years ago. During the last year, the Pentateuch has been finished, and forwarded to Bombay for publication.

Missionary Tours.

Missionary Tours of considerable extent were undertaken by the Rev. Messrs. Dixon and Warth during the dry season, at the close of 1840 and the beginning of 1841.*

COMMENCED 1818.

Mission Establishment:

2 Native Missionaries.	134 Native Catechists and Teachers

From the preparatory work which has been steadily carried on for several years, the Committee regard this field with much hopefulness. The number of Missionary Labourers is greater than at any former period. At each Station there is the experience and knowledge of the Native character possessed by the older Missionary: at each Station, also, is to be found the vigour and freshness of one who has more recently entered upon the work; and the two more important Stations are each provided with the additional assistance of an Ordained Native. Oh that the members of the Society would be earnest in prayer, that the varied qualifications here referred to may be rendered eminently conducive to the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom in Ceylon!

COTTA.

State of the Institution.

This important Institution continues in a satisfactory state, under the superintendence of the Rev. J. F. Haslam. It contains 24 Students, who are under a course of training in order to become Christian Teachers. In Classics, the first class read Virgil and Sallust, Xenophon and the New Testament; and in Mathematics, Euclid, Algebra, Trigonometry, Conic Sections, and Mechanics. The Annual Examination, held in September, was attended by His Excellency the Governor and his family, the Senior Puisne Judge, the Archdeacon, three Chaplains, and many others, to whom the answers of the Youths gave very general satisfaction.

Schools.

The Cotta Girls' School, under the superintendence of Mrs. Bailey, contains 75 Girls, and is proceeding very satisfactorily. The happy death of little Cornelia, an account of which has been published, shows that the instruction afforded in this School has not been in vain.

A favourable account is also given of the Boys' English School, in which there are 114 pupils.

The following remarks respecting the results to be hoped for from the educational measures now in progress occur in the Cotta Report for the year ending Sept. 1, 1841:—

Of the children now in attendance, 505 are able to read the Holy Scriptures; and this we cannot but regard as a great redeeming quality, amidst the many acknowledged deficiencies of our out-school system. A reading population is thus being raised up; and intelligent audiences are provided for the Missionary, wherever he has to proclaim the great and important truths of the Gospel. Our successors in the Missionary Field will experience far less difficulties than we have ourselves had so long to encounter, in having had from year to year to preach to our village congregations in words, phrases, and terms, either entirely unknown to them, or understood in a Buddhistical or Heathen sense, conveying ideas as remote as possible from those which it was our wish and endeavour to inculcate.

Presentation of Communion Plate by the late Governor, for the use of the Church at Cotta.

From their first arrival in the Colony, the late Governor and Mrs. Stewart Mackenzie uniformly afforded their valuable countenance and support to the Mission. Before their departure, they kindly presented a silver chalice and paten for the use of the Church at Cotta.

BADDAGAME.

In his Report of this Station for the year ending Sept. 1841, the Rev. H. Powell speaks very favourably of the state of the Seminary, the English School, and the Girls' School.

Respecting the Congregation at the Church, Mr. Powell observes :—

The Lord's-Day Morning Congregation is an encouraging one. Some months since, it had so increased, that, notwithstanding some of the children were seated around the pulpit and desk, there was often not room for the remainder of the congregation in the body of the Church, so that even the windows were occupied. There was, on these occasions, a good attendance of children; but the number of adults was also unusually large—much more so than we had been accustomed to witness. In the busy season, however, which followed in February and March, this increase began to fall off; and since then, dysentery has so extensively prevailed, and floods have been so frequent, as to thin the congregation considerably. The dysentery having now greatly abated—though it still lingers among us—the attendance is again increasing. The average number of adults attending is from 70 to 100; and the number of children about 300.

Since the last Meeting, I have commenced, at the suggestion of the Bishop, a Catechetical Lecture in the Church during the Service. On Sacrament Sundays I give it instead of the Sermon. The arrangement has given much satisfaction, and promises, I think, to be useful. Some of the adults have joined in answering with the children; and thus many of the most elementary truths of our religion have been familiarly explained to them. We are at present going through the Church Catechism. My plan is, to select a portion of the Catechism, to give a simple exposition, then to question upon it, and to conclude with an endeavour to carry home the truths elicited to the hearts and consciences of those before me.

Contributions by the People.

On this subject Mr. Powell reports :—

On Christmas Day, the Rev. A. Goonesekera preached a Sermon in our Church, in behalf of the Society: the collection amounted to £2.7s., nearly two-thirds of which was in copper. I do not think a man, woman, or child present, omitted putting a trifle into the plate.

KANDY.

In the midst of many trying discouragements, the Rev. W. Oakley has been faithfully and perseveringly carrying on his Missionary labours. In July he was joined by the Rev. C. Greenwood; and on the return of the Rev. G. C. Trimnell to Baddagame, it was intended that this important Station should be still further strengthened by the addition of the Rev. A. Goonesekera, the Native Missionary.

Mr. Oakley writes, Oct. 18, 1841:—

At this Station we have many proofs that our labours have not been in vain. The Christian Families in the town have, with very few exceptions, entirely relinquished idolatry. A few families around us appear to feel more concern on the subject of Religion than they formerly felt. The Holy Scriptures are more generally read, Family Worship more observed, and attendance at the House of God is more regular than it used to be.

The remark of Mr. Oakley, that nearly all the CHRISTIAN Families have relinquished idolatry may excite surprise; but in fact, the old race of nominal Christians at Kandy have hitherto been scarcely distinguishable, except in name, from the heathens among whom they live. Marriage, and the baptism of their children, have been neglected, and devil-worship performed or countenanced by them. The reclaiming of these persons is, therefore, not only important as regards themselves, but in order that their example may not prove a stumbling-block in the way of others.

In a Letter dated Nov. 10, 1841, Mr. Greenwood thus describes his first impressions on his arrival at this Station:—

The impressions produced on me at my coming were favourable. In this, I refer particularly to the congregation on the Mission Premises, on the Lord's-Day Morning. For such quiet orderly behaviour, and such steady attention, I was not prepared. On the part of many, there appeared to be a hanging on the lips of the preacher. I at first thought that this might have arisen from curiosity, because I was a stranger. I found it the same, however, when Brother Oakley addressed them. And they give the same attention to myself, though I am fettered by ignorance of their language, and therefore dependent on an Interpreter in order to proclaim to them the everlasting Gospel. There are evidences of good discipline here. England, with all her spiritual privileges and endowments, though she could show me many a congregation with more knowledge, could exhibit few in better order.

NELLORE.

The Rev. W. Adley returned from England, and resumed his labours here, in September last. Two Missionaries being considered sufficient to fulfil the duties of this Station, the Rev. F. W. Taylor has been appointed to reside at Cotta.

In their Report for the year ending Sept. 1, 1841, the Rev. F. W. Taylor and the Rev. J. T. Johnston speak favourably of the state of the Congregations, the Seminary, and the Girls' School.

Respecting the Girls' School, the Report states—

This was established by Mrs. Taylor on the 4th of April 1840, and has continued to increase both in interest and in the number of pupils. Fifty-two girls are now on the list, and the average attendance is 40. The Girls of the First Class are reading the Tamul New Testament, Easy Lessons in English, a Compendium of Scripture History in Tamul, which they also commit to memory; and one has begun to read the English Testament. They are also taught plain needlework, and are beginning to write on slates. When it is borne in mind that the school has been established only a year and a half, and that, with one exception, not a girl knew either a Tamul or an English letter when she entered, and not one could hold a needle, it will be acknowledged that very respectable progress has been made.

Shortly after his return, Mr. Adley was cheered by perceiving several proofs that his former labours in connexion with the Seminary had not been unproductive of good results. In a Letter dated October 13, 1841, he writes—

I have much reason to be thankful for some fruit of my labours in the Boys' Seminary. Besides those employed in the service of the Mission, a goodly number have called on me since my return, many of whom are filling important stations in Government Offices, maintaining a Christian character, and diffusing around them a Christian influence.

About the same time, also, Mr. Adley received a Letter from a young man who had been educated in the Seminary, and who is now respectably employed at Manaar, about eighty miles from Nellore. The object of his communication was to purchase elementary books for an English Charity School, which he and a few other inhabitants were on the point of establishing at that place.*

NEW-HOLLAND MISSION.

COMMENCED 1832.

Mission Establishment :

2 European Missionaries. | 1 European Farmer.

THE Committee have in former Reports adverted to the difficulties, from different sources, in which this Mission has for some time past been involved. No prospect being left to them of surmounting those difficulties, consistently with the terms on which, at the instance of Her Majesty's Government, the Mission was undertaken by the Society, they have been reluctantly compelled to relinquish it. They at the same time hope that arrangements may be made, by which the services of the Rev. James Gunther may be continued to the Aborigines.

NEW-ZEALAND MISSION.

COMMENCED 1815.

Mission Establishment :

12 European Missionaries.	3 European Artisans and other
1 European Farmer.	Assistants.
1 European Printer.	2 European Female Teachers.
16 European Catechists.	373 Native Teachers and Schoolmasters.

It is with feelings of holy astonishment, no less than of thankfulness, that the Committee review the progress of the Society's labours in New Zealand. When they consider the rapidity with which the knowledge of Christianity has been extended—the spontaneous Native Agency through which that extension has been, in a great measure, accomplished—the thirst for instruction—the change that has taken place in the manners and feelings of the Natives—and the new desire to extend the Gospel to others—they are constrained to exclaim, What hath God wrought !

Appointment of a Bishop to New Zealand.

The necessity for Episcopal Superintendence has been long felt both by the Missionaries and the Committee, in the advanced state of the Mission. The Committee can now report, that New Zealand has been erected into an Episcopal See, and that the full benefits of our Ecclesiastical Constitution have thus been provided for the infant Church in those Islands.

On the 17th of October, the Rev. G. A. Selwyn, D.D., was consecrated Bishop of New Zealand, at Lambeth; and in December he embarked, on board the "Tomatin," at Plymouth, and sailed for his distant diocese. In several communications with the Committee, his Lordship manifested a lively interest in the Society, and kindly expressed his readiness to render the Committee every assistance in his power toward carrying out their plans with respect to the New-Zealand Mission.

The Society has now twelve Missionaries in New Zealand. The Northern Island, to which its operations have been almost entirely confined, is divided into four Districts:—the Northern District—the Middle District, extending from the banks of the Thames as far as Lake Taupo in the interior—the Eastern District, occupying the extensive promontory between the Bay of Plenty and Hawkes' Bay—and the Western District, extending from Cook's Straits to Taranaki.

Northern District.

The Northern District comprises seven Stations:—Tepuna, superintended by Mr. John King, the Society's oldest Labourer, who has been in the Mission from its very commencement—Kerikeri and Wangaroa, by Mr. James Kemp and Mr. James Shepherd—Paihia, by the Rev. Henry Williams and Mr. Charles Baker—Waimate, by the Rev. Richard Taylor and Mr. Richard Davis—Kaitia, by Mr. W. G. Puckey and Mr. J. Matthews—and Kororarika, by the Rev. Robert Burrows.

Of these Stations, WAIMATE is the principal; and the following details respecting it may serve to give some idea of the operations carried on, to a somewhat less extent, in the rest.

At Waimate there is a Church, in which both English and Native Services are held. The Native Congregation averages about 250. There are also 12 Native-built Chapels in the neighbouring villages, at each of which a congregation, averaging 60 in number, assembles. The whole number of Native Communicants at this Station amounts to 381. There are also attached to it 24 Schools, containing 721 scholars. During the last year, the Baptisms at Waimate have been, adults 252, children 99.

During the past year, many have been received into the Church, by Baptism; and of these more has been required than formerly; few, excepting the aged, being admitted without being able to read their Bible, in addition to other acquirements. We trust, likewise, that there is a gradual but evident improvement in the general appearance of our congregations; which is especially observable by persons who have visited those parts of the island where the Natives still remain in their original state.

Twenty acres of wheat were reaped on the Society's Farm during the last season. The Mill has been kept in constant employment, a great portion of the wheat ground having been raised by Natives.

Of TEPUNA, Mr. King reports, at the same date:—

We are encouraged in our work by the Natives, young and old, pressing into the Church by Baptism: they are anxious to learn the way to Heavenly Rest. The cause of Christ is prospering.

Respecting KERIKERI, Mr. Kemp reports, at the same date:—

Our congregation has been on the increase for the last year; and the Services on the Lord's Day have been generally well attended. The Adult Sunday School has been regularly attended by all in the Station.

Of WANGAROA, Mr. Shepherd reports, for the same year:—

The Native Teachers in connexion with the Settlement have all manifested a steady and zealous attachment to the good work; and, as far as I have had opportunity to observe, adorn the doctrine of a Crucified Saviour. There are in connexion with us six Congregations. The average number of attendants, at all the places, is about 300.

Respecting PAIHIA, the Rev. H. Williams records the following facts, in a Letter dated June 22, 1841:—

On March 14th, I admitted to Baptism at this place, 121, including about 30 children; all of whom, except the aged persons, could read with a little attention. Many could read well. In the examination for this Sacrament, I exercise every possible care as to their general conduct, and require that the older and more leading Christians should be answerable for their consistency.

At the Lord's Supper we had between 200 and 300, after a minute examination which continued about ten days. Our Chapel could not hold the communicants with convenience, not to mention those who did not communicate.

One very essential department of the Society's operations in New Zealand, viz. the Press, is carried on at this Station under the able superintendence of Mr. W. Colenso.

The importance of Mr. Colenso's valuable labours, in connexion with the Press, becomes every year more evident. In the present circumstances of New Zealand, when so many of the Natives have acquired the ability to read—when so extensive a demand is made for books—and when so great an impression is produced on their minds by what they read, the Committee have felt constrained to comply with the urgent request of the Missionaries to send out an additional press and a Printer. Mr. Colenso reports:—

The following is a List of the Books, &c. composited and printed at the Mission Press during the year ending December 31, 1840:—

- 10,000 Catechisms, 28 pp. 12mo.
- 2000 Lessons, 1 page 4to.
- 1500 Title-page, 8vo. for Parts of Testament.
- 11,000 Psalms, 126 pp. 12mo.
- 5000 Daniel and Jonah, 32 pp. 12mo.
- 2000 Calendars, 16 pp. 8vo.
- 6000 Sigs. I, O, U, large Prayer Book, 36 pp. 12mo.
- 200 each, Seven Proclamations, 1 page folio.
- 200 each, Two Circular Letters, 1 page 4to.
- 100 Notices, 1 page 4to.
- 200 "Government Gazette," 4 pp. 4to.

The last four were printed for Her Majesty's Government.

Of KAITAIA, Mr. W. G. Puckey, the senior Catechist at this Station, reports for the half year ending June 30, 1841:—

Our Natives, generally speaking, are behaving well. Those who have been baptized are, with few exceptions, maintaining a Christian walk and conversation; and our work I hope continues to prosper.

One of the most interesting circumstances in connexion with this Station, which occurred during the last year, was the holding of the first Missionary Meeting in New Zealand. It took place on Thursday, Feb. 11. There were present, the Rev. R. Taylor, Messrs. J. Matthews, Puckey, King, several Europeans, and at least 500 Natives. Each Resolution was moved by a European, and seconded by a Native. Several of the Native Addresses were appropriate and striking. Mr. Taylor thus describes the conclusion of the Meeting:—

The Natives then came and placed their offerings on the plate; advancing in order, and depositing their gift as they walked past the table. Each Tribe came separately, headed by its Chief. Old Witi, nearly ninety years old, Chief of the Mount-Camel Tribe, walked up with a firm step, and placed two dollars on the plate. Noble, the Chief of the Rarawa, and his wife, gave five sovereigns: the lady was ornamented with a plume of ostrich-feathers in her black hair, which had a good effect. This was presented to her by the Governor's Lady. Several other Natives gave gold. The scene was most picturesque, as the different parties filed past, many being both well and tastefully dressed. It is difficult to describe the enthusiasm which prevailed. Parents placed a sixpence or a shilling in the hands of their infants, that they might each be contributors to the cause.

KORORARIKA, situated on the southern side of the Bay of Islands, is the most frequented sea-port in this part of the island, and contains a considerable population of Europeans. It is consequently the resort of great numbers of Natives, who come from the interior for traffic, and are exposed to many temptations. It is also the head-quarters of the Romish Bishop. As a temporary arrangement, the Rev. R. Burrows ministers to the European population, who partly contribute toward his support. Four Services, two English and two Native, have been regularly held every Lord's Day. Owing to the migratory character of the Native Population, the attendance at their Services varies considerably. Sometimes only 40 or 50 are present; but at other times the church is filled.

Middle District.

Since the extension of the Society's labours to the East Cape and Cook's Straits, both of which places are much to the southward of the River Thames, the designation of this district, which in former Reports was termed the Southern District, has been changed.

It comprises five Stations—Tauranga, under the superintendence of the Rev. A. N. Brown and Mr. J. Stack—Rotorua, superintended by Mr. T. Chapman—Waikato, by the Rev. R. Maunsell, Mr. J. Hamlin, and Mr. B. Ashwell—Hauraki, by Mr. W. T. Fairburn and Mr. J. Preece—Opotiki, by Mr. J. A. Wilson—and Otawao, by Mr. J. Morgan.

In reference to the whole District, the Rev. A. N. Brown observes, in a Letter dated September 8, 1841:—

The average attendance on Public Worship, for the year ending March 31, 1841, was 7517.

And in reference to that portion of the district which is under his own superintendence, he remarks, in the same Letter:—

Within the last four months, I walked upward of 500 miles in two journeys, and, during the same period, baptized 269 Natives; 190 of them being adults, who were strictly examined in all the fundamental doctrines of Christianity.

MANUKAU & WAIKATO—In a Letter dated June 8, 1840, the Rev. R. Maunsell gives the following description of the Station which he superintends:—

Our whole district comprises about 7000 souls; principally scattered, however, along the banks of the River Waikato, to a distance of about 120 miles from the Settlement, calculating the windings of the river. At two or three places the Natives have now built Chapels, regularly conduct Schools and Services, and present the pleasing appearances of growing Christian communities. Of the 7000 souls contained in our district, we compute that full three-fourths have embraced the Gospel.

It was considered advisable that Mr. Ashwell should take a Missionary excursion to the southward, in March 1841. Mr. Maunsell, in a Letter dated Waikato Heads, April 10, relates an interesting circumstance in connexion with this journey:—

Mr. Ashwell went by a vessel from hence to Port Nicholson; and returned overland, a distance of 400 miles. All the expenses connected with his passage, viz. 10*l.*, were defrayed by our little Native Congregation, by a very liberal contribution of money and potatoes. This incident is the more interesting, as the places to which they were thus sending the Gospel are those of which I some time since informed you that they were then suffering grievously from the ravages which the people of this district were committing against them.

An interesting account of the Annual Examination of the Schools belonging to this Station, and of a Missionary Meeting which was held at the same time, was sent to the Sydney Herald Newspaper, by the late Captain Symonds, R. N., a Magistrate at Auckland, who happened to be present on the occasion.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE SYDNEY HERALD.

Waikato Heads, April 6, 1841.

SIR—Being engaged in an expedition into the interior, partly to gratify my curiosity, and partly to ascertain the resources of this island, it was my good fortune to arrive at this Station at the time of the General Yearly Meeting of the Christian Natives in the Waikato District of the Church Mission; and I do myself the pleasure of forwarding to you a sketch of the proceedings of the Meeting, convinced that you and your readers cannot fail to feel an interest in what transpired; the more especially, as, after the usual examinations, the first Missionary Meeting, at which large contributions were made by Natives, was held in the Mission Chapel, where several hundreds were congregated.

I was accompanied by Lady Franklin; the Rev. J. F. Churton, Colonial Chaplain; Dr. Johnson, Colonial Surgeon; Lieutenants Donop and Elleman, of H. M. S. "Favourite;" Mr. D. Sinclair; and Lieut. Bagot, 51st Light Infantry. The Meeting was numerously attended by Chiefs and their followers, from all the Tribes between Manukau and Kawia; amounting in all, according to the general estimate, to upward of 2000. The examinations were most satisfactory. The young Christians were ranged in different classes, according to the progress they had made in knowledge; and each class underwent a close catechization, under the direction of the Rev. R. Maunsell, and Messrs. Hamlin, Preece, and Ashwell, of the Church Mission. Numerous questions were asked by Mr. Churton and others; the answers to which fully proved that all were well grounded in the principles of Christianity, each answer being perfectly to the point, and accompanied by texts from the New Testament. The examinations over, a Feast ensued; and reconciliation was made, after the Native fashion, between certain Tribes which had been for some time at variance.

On the third, the chapel was filled with people, all anxious to subscribe a mite toward defraying the expenses of Missions in distant parts, in testimony of their gratitude for that Gospel which had been preached among them. This was by far the most interesting part of the Huihuinga. A subscription of any sort, for any purpose, is so entirely opposed to the old feelings and customs of the New Zealanders, that it is remarkable that any should have been induced to assemble for the purpose; and it is principally to record the fact that such a subscription has been made, that I am tempted to address you.

We may argue, I think, from these first-fruits, that the Native character is fast mending; and that the cannibal of a few years ago is in a fair way, under such excellent instruction, of becoming before long a good member of civilized society.

I had the honour of being called to the Chair; and after addressing the Meeting through the interpretation of Mr. Maunsell, several Resolutions were proposed, and unanimously adopted—proposed and seconded by Natives of high rank and influence. The Meeting closed with an eloquent address from Mr. Churton; and, after prayer, a Collection was made, at which the sum of 28*l.* 3*s.* 4*½d.* was realised. After the Service on Lord's-Day Morning, 220 received the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper; and I have seldom seen a more devout congregation. In the evening, 170 adults and children were baptized.

Yours &c. W. C. SYMONDS.

One of the Resolutions, which Captain Symonds refers to, was as follows:—

—This assembly desires also to express its gratitude to the Church at the other side of the Ocean, for their kind consideration to us, in sending Teachers: and although our means are scanty, we desire to make a little Collection, as a testimony of our love to God, and as a means of furthering the Gospel to those places which have not as yet heard its blessed message.

HAURAKI — Mr. W. T. Fairburn, in a Letter dated June 24, 1841, after stating that the Gospel had taken root in the neighbourhood of Hauraki, gives the following account of a Native Convert:—

William Jowett, one of our first baptized converts, seems still to hold fast his integrity. His character stands high with all with whom he has any dealings. A respectable trader told me, the other day, that Jowett was an excellent Accountant, and a trustworthy Native; that he had deposited a sum in his hands to trade for him, to the amount of 60*l.*; and on reckoning with him, he rendered a faithful account of all he had put into his charge.

Eastern District.

The Rev. W. Williams, who has been for upward of two years the only European Labourer in this extensive and much-blessed field of exertion, has furnished a full view of its condition, in the following recent Letter, dated July 26, 1841:—

1. The geographical extent of this district is 180 miles on the Map; but in consequence of the difficulties of the road, it requires from twelve to fourteen days' hard travelling to pass through the whole length of it.

2. The idols are already cast to the moles and to the bats; the swords are beat into ploughshares, and the spears into pruning-hooks; that is, the whole fabric of Native superstition is gone, whether relating to the living or the dead, the old priests being as forward to take this step as any others. Their weapons of warfare are laid by, their animosities with distant tribes are given up, and their petty quarrels are settled by arbitration.

3. The disposition to receive instruction—shown by the fact, that more than 8000 persons assemble every Lord's Day to worship the God of Christians, for the most part in chapels neatly built.

4. The desire to possess Prayer-books and Testaments—for the purpose of obtaining which they will come from the extreme points of Hawkes' Bay; and for which they are always ready to pay, when the distance does not prevent them from doing so. Numbers have brought a payment beforehand, to make sure of early possession on the arrival of a supply; and since the Testaments printed in New Zealand are expended, they are perfectly satisfied to leave their payment, hearing that others are on the way from England.

5. The number of candidates for Baptism—upward of 1400 of whom are under weekly instruction.

6. The number of Native Christians—878 adults having been received into the Church of Christ after careful examination, and 363 children, making a total of 1241. Among the adults are included a large proportion of the leading Chiefs.

7. The general consistency of conduct in those who profess Christianity. In the absence of more extensive testimony from persons unconnected with the Mission, may be given a copy of a paper found at Waiapu on my last visit:—

Waiapu, July 21, 1840.

These are to certify, that John Brown, of the brig Martha, seaman, was unfortunately drowned on the beach, and was buried by the kind assistance of the Chief and Missionaries (Native), who paid every attention, by having the rites performed in a proper manner and with good order. Given under my hand at the Pa, this 21st day of July 1840.

G. POWELL, Master.

12. A great work has been accomplished, in which the hand of the Lord has been signally manifest. It has not been by might nor by power, but by the Spirit of the Lord of Hosts. It has not been through the labours of your Missionaries, for the word has only been preached by Native Teachers. We have literally stood still to see the salvation of God.

In the course of this Letter, Mr. Williams very earnestly renews the appeal which he made last year for increased assistance in the district. The Committee, however, are thankful to say that the former appeal was not made in vain. Two Clergymen, whose services have been assigned to this district, are now on their way thither, in the same ship which conveys the Bishop of New Zealand to his Diocese.

Western District.

The circumstances under which the Society was led to extend its labours to this part of the island are peculiarly interesting.

About six years ago, the Missionaries in the Bay of Islands received a Letter from Rauparaha—a noted Chief and warrior residing in Kapiti, an island situated in Cook's Straits—containing an urgent request that Teachers might be located in that district. To this appeal, however, the Missionaries were then unable to respond.

Some time afterward, in September 1839, two young Chiefs, sons of Rauparaha, landed at the Bay of Islands; having undertaken a voyage of about 500 miles, with the view of personally urging a compliance with their father's solicitation. To the astonishment of the Missionaries, it was found that these two Chiefs could read well; and from their statements, it appeared that in many villages the Lord's Day was observed, Public Worship was regularly held, and great numbers were anxious for instruction.

All this was the result of the labours of one Native, named Matahau, who had formerly lived with the Rev. H. Williams at Paihia; afterward, for a short time, near Mr. T. Chapman at Rotorua; and who had subsequently proceeded to the neighbourhood of Kapiti, where he continued to be actively employed in diffusing a knowledge of the Gospel.

An appeal so urgently pressed, to occupy a field of labour so important and promising, could not be resisted; and, accordingly, the Rev. Octavius Hadfield was appointed to this district. He entered upon his labours at Waikanai, on the main land, opposite Kapiti, in November 1839; and in June 1840, the Rev. J. Mason and Mr. R. Matthews were located in the same district, at the Station of Wanganui, about sixty miles above Waikanai, on the western coast.

At WAIKANAI, and at the other places superintended by Mr. Hadfield, there are 18 schools, in which more than 600 daily meet for instruction. Some of these are on the Middle Island; to which Mr. Hadfield has made several visits, and in which several chapels have been erected.

Mr. Hadfield observes, in his Report for the year ending June 30, 1841:—

I endeavour to divide my labours among more than 7000 Natives. How to do this to the greatest advantage is a difficult question. I am, however, bound to acknowledge, that the seed thus rudely scattered does in many instances take root, spring up, and bring forth fruit to the glory of the Triune God.

Respecting WANGANUI, the Rev. J. Mason remarks, June 30, 1841:—

Attached to this Station there are 13 chapels already built, and three others in course of erection. There are 15 schools, with an average attendance of 900 scholars.

Mr. Hadfield thus speaks, Feb. 11, 1841, of the cessation of war in this district:—

One happy effect of the Gospel, which Infidelity itself cannot deny, has been the entire cessation of war. The Ngatiawa and Ngatiraukawa tribes, though engaged in a sanguinary war on my arrival, have now established peace; and the Chiefs of either tribe visit the opposite one without fear or suspicion.

This is another pleasing instance, where, as the Natives of Kaitaia figuratively express it, “the Gospel has thrown cold water on the fire of Satan.”

The valuable services of the Rev. G. A. Kissling, who has laboured for about eight years in the West-Africa Mission, but whose health does not admit of his returning to a tropical climate, have been appropriated to the Western District; and he and Mrs. Kissling are now on their way to New Zealand.

To this sketch of the Society's proceedings in the four districts of this Mission the Committee would add one or two remarks of a general kind, to show the quality of the work which has been carried on.

Great Love of the New Zealanders for the Word of God.

The history of New-Zealand Missions, during the last few years, furnishes many pleasing and satisfactory proofs, not only of the avidity with which the Christian Natives seek to possess copies of those portions of the Word of God which have been translated into their language, but also of the diligence and attention with which they endeavour to “read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest” them.

Mr. J. Matthews writes, in a Letter dated June 4, 1841:—

The Book of Psalms in the Native Language is very highly esteemed:

the Natives seem to prize it more than gold and silver. Mr. Puckey thought it would be profitable for the Sunday-School Natives to be exercised in learning by memory the Twenty-sixth Chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel. This was to be said on Easter Sunday. Numbers stood up, and succeeded as far as twenty or thirty verses; but there were five young men who repeated the whole of the seventy-five verses without any assistance. This was encouraging; and it was then given out that on Whit-Sunday the Second Chapter of the Acts should be repeated by all who could say it, and that a Psalter should be the reward. Twenty stood up to repeat; and fourteen repeated the whole of the chapter, which contains forty-seven verses, without being told one word. They are now trying the 119th Psalm.

The Rev. R. Maunsell writes, in a Letter dated June 8, 1840:—

Having promised a New Testament to one of the congregations, about five days' journey from hence, as a reward for the superior neatness and care exhibited in the erection of their chapel, one of their party accompanied me the whole way back; and finding that the Testaments had not yet arrived, has this day proceeded to Mr. Hamlin's, twenty-five miles distant, to obtain it. Thus, when he has reached home, he will have taken a twelve-days' journey for this one Book.

In another Letter, July 19, 1841, Mr. Maunsell relates:—

In my late trip to that remote place, Taupo, I used many, though vain efforts, in various parts of the Lake, to get a guide to Otawao: none could be induced to accompany me. It is a four-days' journey; and the guide would have to carry his own food almost the whole way, and to return through a barren and deserted country in the depth of winter, the frost being then severe. At last, I hit upon the expedient—for I began to be a little anxious—of offering a New Testament. It was immediately accepted: two guides accompanied me to fetch it; and a third joined us, for the sake of conversation and Baptism, and the chance of obtaining another. For no other consideration do I think I could have induced those Natives, at such a season of the year, to accompany me.

Deep Insight into Spiritual Religion.

Two instances may be selected in illustration of this.

The Rev. A. N. Brown, at Tauranga, relates in his Journal—

Sept. 18, 1839—To-day I held an interesting meeting with seventeen Candidates for Baptism. At the close, I told them how much encouragement their conduct afforded me, at a season when Satan was again stirring up the evil passions of the Natives, and exciting them to continue the war. "Do not be too glad," said one of the party: "you did not hear the Devil say to us, before we assembled, 'Go, my children, and hear what Brown has to talk about, and then come back and do my work.' "

And Mr. R. Davis, at Waimate, observes, in his Journal:—

Dec. 21, 1840—I met the Otaua and Kaikohi Tribes, and others; and spoke to them seriously on the subject of their declension. They acknowledged their fault. Hill remarked: “What you say of us at Kaikohi is very true. We have become forgetful. We have divided: some of us remain at Kaikohi, and some have gone to Punaketere”—a place about five miles south of Kaikohi. “A person at Kaikohi takes his fishing-tackle under his arm, and says to his wife, ‘Take the children, and let us go to the river.’ There he builds his temporary hut; shoots a pigeon, as bait for his eel-pot; and digs a hole, to put his fish in as he catches them. It is night: he sits down by the deep water. Having caught some eels, he goes to his family; the fish are cooked—they are sweet to the taste. He lies down to sleep, he awakes, he hastens to his fishing again. He forgets the book, which he put behind one of the stakes at the side of his temporary dwelling: he neglects prayer, and grows cold.”—Another observed: “This is true; and while he remains in this state of forgetfulness, no strength gets possession of the soul, which soon brings forth a host of wicked children, such as, angry words, lying words, adulterous thoughts, &c.”

Zeal of Native Converts for the Conversion of their Brethren.

Few things in the New-Zealand Mission have been more remarkable than the degree in which Christian Truth has been made known by the sole agency of the Natives themselves; and this, not only by those who have been specially instructed by the Missionaries for this purpose, but by some of whose labours the Missionaries had no idea. Many, like Andrew and Philip, having found the Saviour themselves, have sought their brethren and friends, and endeavoured to bring them to Jesus. The case of the Western District, which has been referred to, is a remarkable illustration of this. In many parts of the interior also, when the Missionaries have journeyed over ground never before trodden by Europeans, they have been astonished to find chapels built, some of the Natives able to read, and many in the habit of assembling for Worship.

Mr. B. Ashwell, describing his journey to the southward, remarks, in a Letter dated April 20, 1841:—

In the course of my trip, I made known the Gospel at thirty-two Pas, and found the Natives exceedingly anxious for instruction. Books, especially the New Testament, are prized more than gold or trade of any description. All the Natives I met with in this journey, with the exception of those in Mokau, profess Christianity, and some few possess it. There is not a Pa I have passed through, but some of the Natives can read; and only one Pa in which I did not find a Testament. The distance I travelled is 402 miles.

Mr. Ashwell mentions one individual in particular, whom he met with near Port Nicholson:—

This young man has some knowledge of the English Language, which he acquired from Mr. R. Davis at the Waimate. By carpentering, and the sale of his land, he has become possessed of a little property, and is building a weather-board chapel for the Natives, entirely at his own expense. The house and family of this young man are a credit to him, being quite in the European style. He is very active in visiting the neighbouring villages and Pas; and was the means, under God, by his prudent conduct, of preventing bloodshed between Europeans and Natives. This Native, whom I believe to be truly Christian, was the first who made known the love of Christ to his countrymen at Port Nicholson, long before any European visited them. The Chiefs threatened to kill him, and take his wife for a slave; but he persevered, and has now nearly as much influence with them as any European.*

WEST-INDIES' MISSIONS.

BRITISH-GUIANA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1827.

Mission Establishment :

2 European Missionaries.	1 European Catechist.
1 European Female Teacher.	1 Country-born Schoolmaster.

THIS Mission is directed to the remnants of the Aboriginal Indian Tribes, who have been dispossessed of their country, scattered, and almost consumed from the face of the earth, by the progress and effects of European Colonization. The Missionaries have been encouraged during the past year by many proofs that their labour has not been in vain.

* Further particulars of the New-Zealand Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for November 1841, pp. 265—274; for December, pp. 277—283; and for January 1842, pp. 5—17.

The two Stations occupied by the Society are the same as last year—Bartica Grove, and Warraporta.

BARTICA GROVE.

In order to present a general view of this Station, the Committee cannot do better than invite attention to the following Extract from a Report made to the Colonial Office, in August 1841, by R. H. Schomburgh, Esq., Her Majesty's Commissioner for surveying the Boundaries of British Guiana. The Extract was kindly transmitted to the Committee, by direction of Lord Stanley.

Testimony of R. H. Schomburgh, Esq., to the Value of the Mission.

The Mission over which the Rev. J. H. Bernau presides was founded by the Church Missionary Society in the year 1831, and Mr. Bernau commenced his labours in 1837; since which time improvements have followed successively. The Mission now consists of about one hundred and twenty inhabitants, who are all located in neat cottages, surrounded by gardens and provision-grounds. I am too well acquainted with the Indian character to expect a perfect reform in ADULT Indians; and the Missionary has, no doubt, reaped a similar experience. His chief object therefore is, to inculcate religious precepts, and the benefits of industry and civilization, in the minds of the YOUTH entrusted to his care; and in this, his labours are successful.

The School is attended by from forty to fifty children, mostly Indians: some of the Indians are maintained by the Mission, and instructed in the Normal School, that they may hereafter return to their tribes and relations, and assist in working out the great objects of conversion and civilization. Their progress is indeed encouraging. Some of them, in the short space of four months, have learned to read and to write; and the copy-books which I saw would not have dishonoured an European School of even higher pretensions. One of the boys, an Arrowack, had advanced to the Rule of Three in Arithmetic. Their Psalmody is sweet; and when, on the evening of our arrival, we attended Prayers, we were much pleased with the attention which they paid to the exhortations of their Religious Teachers.

Mr. Bernau's great plan is, to induce those Indian parents who live at any distance from the Mission to send to him their children when only four or five years of age; that he may thus alienate them from Indian life and manners, and, from their earliest youth, point out to them the beneficial examples afforded by the Christian Religion and civilization. An Asylum for Female Indian Orphans has just been erected, and is under the guidance of a respectable Female Teacher: the house is spacious, and has all the comforts required for such an Institution.

The Orphan Boys are under the guidance of a Teacher sent from England. It is not, however, religious principles alone which are sought to be implanted in their breasts. The Missionary shows them, by example, that the destiny of man is not indolence: they are encouraged to manual labour; they assist in keeping in order the surrounding garden; and I was astonished when Mr. Bernau told me that the wharf near the Mission had been constructed solely by him and his disciples, during leisure hours.

The Religious Service is at present held in a house; but a Church, to which the Colony has contributed, is in the course of erection; and a hospital for the sick has been added to the house in which the boys are located.

This is a cheering picture of the good work which has been commenced among the remnants of the Aboriginal Tribes; and, if I am entitled to an opinion, it is the only means by which the great objects of the Christian Religion and Civilization can prosper. During the late expedition, I had frequent opportunities of meeting Indians who had been brought up at the former Spanish Missions; and although so many years had elapsed, it was, nevertheless, evident that they belonged to an improved race. This continuance of the principle which was implanted in their youth, though it may be still only a mere spark, gives me every confidence that the Mission at Bartica Grove will produce the happiest results: and I have only to express my sincere hope that similar Institutions may yet be founded in other parts of British Guiana, and that aid may be tendered to the remnants of the Aboriginal Tribes within the British Territory, which will place their rising generation much above their present religious destitution. This is the only recompence which England can tender to them, for the loss of their lands, and for the miseries which Europeans have inflicted upon them. There are about 2500 Indians now inhabiting the rivers on our western boundary, walking in perfect darkness; but among whom an Institution like that at Bartica Grove would produce the most beneficial results. From my intercourse with these tribes, and from conversations which I have held with the more intelligent members of them, they appear to be willing to receive instruction, or to send their children to a Normal School, if such an Institution were to be founded in that part of British Guiana.

We regret to state that Mr. Christian's health has seriously failed: he has been obliged to visit some of the Islands, in order to its re-establishment; of which, by the blessing of God, confident hope may be entertained.

WARRAPORTA.

Warraporta is situated on the River Essequibo, at the commencement of the second set of Rapids. There were not many Indians located at this spot when the Rev. T. Youd arrived there; but this number soon increased, by the addition of some from Urwa Rapids, and a few from Cartabo, at which place Mr. J. Doyce, who was associated with Mr. Youd as a Catechist, had formerly laboured.

General View.

In a Letter dated August 31, 1841, Mr. Doyce gave the following account of the condition of the Infant Station at that time:—

There are now, including children, not fewer than one hundred Indians on the place, of whom fifteen are married couples; and, to the best of my knowledge, all live in an upright manner. Several Indians have visited us during our stay here; and have returned home with the intention of coming back again, they say, to reside. There are twenty-five Testament readers: some of them, considering that they have only been learning eight months, can read pretty well.*

TRINIDAD MISSION.

Relinquishment of the Society's Operations in Trinidad.

The Committee have taken measures to relinquish their operations in this island, in order that the Society may be enabled to carry forward its labours in those parts of the world which are more strictly within its province, as a Society for Missions to the Heathen. The recent change in the ecclesiastical arrangements of the Diocese of Barbadoes has, however, hitherto prevented the Committee from carrying their intention into effect so speedily as they could have wished.

On this subject the Rev. J. G. Mühlhauser remarks, in a Letter dated San Fernando, Sept. 9, 1841:—

I fully agree with you in all the arrangements which you have proposed; and think that you are perfectly justified in withdrawing your Missionary funds from this Island, to apply them to some place which can with more propriety be called a Missionary Station. In saying this, however, I wish not to be understood as implying that Trinidad never has been a proper place for your exertions: on the contrary, it was so, in every sense of the word, when you sent us here in 1836. Then it could be truly said of this island, that darkness covered the earth: judging from the immorality of the general state of the country, it was evident that ignorance and superstition swayed the sceptre over this beautiful land. But when you sent us here, and when the Bishop followed you up by sending us reinforcements—for at the time of our landing there was but one Clergyman of the Church of England here—and when we began, in the name of the Lord, to preach the Gospel, to erect churches, chapel-schools, and schools, a considerable change was effected, by God's blessing, in the conduct and habits of the people. The standard of morality has been considerably raised—witness the general abolition of polygamy and the frequency of marriage; the Lord's Days are kept more holy; the Ordinances of Christ more sought after, and much more appreciated; and, I trust that I may add, many an erring sheep has returned to the Bishop of souls, and has found with Him pardon and life everlasting. When I thus speak of general improvements, it must be understood as compared with the state of things at the time we arrived here. It is but too true, that hundreds and thousands are still held in vassalage and bondage: there is yet sufficient room left for the exercise of the Ministry—for faith and patience. In truth, the work has only just begun; you have but done the work of pioneers; and, as I consider that this was the object of your Mission, your time has arrived for withdrawing; leaving the finishing of the work to other Bodies, whose object it is to complete that which you undertook as a Missionary Body. You have laid the foundation of a spiritual temple; and, I trust, the self-same upon which St. Paul founded the primitive Churches of the Gentiles and Jews. May those who build upon it hereafter, not mistake hay and stubble for gold and silver!

In a Letter dated July 26, 1841, Mr. Mühlhauser gives the following account of the Hopeful Death of a Sick Negro.

Some months back I was called to see a sick Negro, who had just before undergone an exceedingly painful and dangerous operation. "Well," said I, "how are you doing?" "I am very sick," was his reply: "I did not think to see this hour; but my Heavenly Father has spared me till now. I know that I must die. But what is this life for? Is it not that we should obtain everlasting life through Jesus Christ? Oh that I had died when I was young!"—I thought that he said so on account of his excruciating pains, which were indeed, judging from his uneasiness and groaning, exceedingly great. I therefore exhorted him to patience, and asked him why he had said so. "O Massa!" he energetically replied, "I would not then have committed so many sins; but now I am an old sinner: however, I trust that God will forgive me for Christ Jesus' sake." I could not but wonder at his simplicity, and the marvellous grace of God, which enables beings like ourselves to look confidently to Jesus, even at the threshold of eternity—to triumph under the pangs of suffering, and be more than conquerors when we are most weak. I again prayed with him, in which he joined by ejaculations; and having commended his spirit into the hands of our Heavenly Father, I left him. He very soon after died. To this I might well add, that if God blessed my words to his soul, his example was more blessed to me. Several people were present, listening to our conversation, and shedding tears.

JAMAICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1826.

Mission Establishment :

8 European Missionaries. 5 European Catechists and other Teachers.
12 Colonial Catechists and other Teachers.

In conformity with the Resolution of July 1839, when the Committee determined gradually to relinquish this Mission, various measures were adopted with a view to the transfer of the different Stations to the general Ecclesiastical Establishment of the island. The arrangement was first carried into effect in the Station at Pedro Plains, at which the Society's Missionary, the Rev. W. Forbes, is now labouring, as an Island Curate. The Committee are about to take further and more decisive steps to hasten the full accomplishment of this object.

In the mean time, the reports from the different spheres of labour still occupied by the Society are very cheering; as exhibiting the progress which they have made toward a ripeness for assuming the Parochial form, and as containing unequivocal evidences of the great degree in which it has pleased God, of His mercy, to bless the labours of the Missionaries.

Normal School.

The Normal School at the Grove is under the charge of the Rev. Nathan Ashby, assisted by Mr. G. Spence. By the last accounts there were twelve Youths under instruction, respecting nearly all of whom Mr. Ashby reports very favourably.

Owing to the financial position of the Society, the Com-

Progress of Ministerial Labours.

The Reports last received from nearly all the Stations are of an encouraging character.

The Rev. J. F. Sessing, in reference to Birnam Wood, remarks, in his Report for the Quarter ending June 30, 1841:—

All the communicants and candidates, a few sick people excepted, paid a duty—as they call it—of half a dollar each toward the completion of the chapel, making a sum of about 17*l.* sterling: which, considering that they have contributed as much and perhaps more on former occasions, and that their outward circumstances are not so prosperous as those of Negroes in other more civilized parishes, speaks tolerably well of their sense of duty to God and their own souls. One of the candidates, seeing that I was in great want of boards, offered to assist in sawing 500 feet, as his own and his wife's share in that duty: this he has faithfully performed, and the value of his labour I estimate at nearly 3*l.* sterling. Three of the masons of my congregation agreed to make the stone steps to the three entrances of the chapel, and others have assisted in different ways. Some White People have also subscribed small sums for the erection of the Chapel, and I have good hopes that I shall obtain whatever may be required for its completion.

And again, in a Letter dated October 1, 1841:—

My work is prospering, and my charge increasing in number and importance. I have now 211 Church members, of whom 81 are communicants, and the rest candidates. Their attendance is very good: they have contributed about 80*l.* currency toward building the chapel, besides a great deal of labour. My Day School increases with the congregation. I have 85 regular scholars, who make good progress in their different studies: they have learned by heart the Church and Dr. Watts's First Catechism, and a great number of Hymns and portions of Scripture. Our Sunday School is attended by about 120 people, both old and young. The whole of my congregation manifest an increased interest in the cause of Religion.

The Rev. H. L. Dixon, who had for some years been faithfully labouring at Siloah, has been compelled, by the failure of his health, to leave that Station: he was accordingly appointed to Old England, in the parish of Manchester, which, being at a much greater elevation, possesses a more genial climate.

Mr. Dixon, in a Letter dated July 10, 1841, thus accounts for the omission in his Journal of any description of the parting scene, when he left his old Station at the end of April:—

pages, why there is no account whatever of Mr. Dixon's parting from his late flock at Siloah. I confess it; and although the period was intensely interesting, yet I have not felt myself at liberty to make any remarks concerning it, even in my Journal. For, first, I must have written a volume; and secondly, the reminiscences are too pathetic to allow me to write a calm detail. What with its being my first charge of souls, the place at which the Almighty saw fit of His sovereign grace to bless my imperfect labours to an extent which I never could have anticipated—the parting itself being abrupt, just after a petition for my remaining among them had been signed by so many individuals—so many expressions of mutual sympathy, heartfelt prayer, and of the best wishes—and the painful and tearful manner in which these mutual salutations took place—I must beg to be forgiven for passing over the event in silence.

Prosperous Condition and Grateful Feelings of the Negroes of Somerset Hall.

The people attending at this Station continue to be teachable, industrious, and well disposed. Every part of the neighbourhood, from its cultivated and prosperous appearance, bears testimony to the exertions of the labouring class of this community. It is with peculiar pleasure I am enabled to add, that they are not an ungrateful people; but that, in their humble dwellings, these happy sons and daughters of freedom, surrounded by their offspring and relations, may be heard, praising and blessing God—adoring their great Deliverer from temporal and spiritual slavery—*under their own vine and fig-tree, none daring to prevent their sacred devotions.

NORTH-WEST-AMERICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1822.

Mission Establishment :

3 European Missionaries. 2 European Catechists and Teachers.
8 Country-born Schoolmasters.

THE accounts received from this deeply-interesting Mission furnish abundant evidence of the steady progress of the Gospel, and of the marked blessing which has been vouchsafed to the self-denying labours of the Missionaries.

In the last Report, reference was made to the failure of the Rev. W. Cockran's health; and an account was given of the arrangements adopted by the Committee, to afford him, with as little delay as possible, the relief which he so urgently needed. In conformity with these arrangements, the Rev. A. Cowley, and Mrs. Cowley, accompanied by Mr. J. Roberts, arrived at York Fort on the 21st of August, and were hoping to start for the Red River on the 31st.

Mr. Cowley, referring to this period of ten days during which they were necessarily detained there in making preparations for the remainder of their journey, thus writes:—

We have had opportunities of conducting Divine Worship in the Factory, both with Europeans and Indians. There are, at this season, a great many Indians at the Fort, and they seem very anxious for religious instruction. I cannot forbear to mention one circumstance, which, demonstrating the happy results of the labours of my predecessors, afforded me very great pleasure. Several of the Indians are from Red River: these joined with the others in Family Prayer; and as I was concluding with the Lord's Prayer, to my no small surprise, it was re-echoed from all parts of the room. Praise the Lord, O my soul! and all that is within me, praise His Holy Name!

Meanwhile, in the midst of much weakness and depression, Mr. Cockran has continued uninterruptedly in the discharge of his arduous duties; taking two full Services every Lord's Day, and having, for that purpose, to ride thirty miles, in a climate where the thermometer is frequently 40° below zero.

On this subject he writes, Aug. 4, 1841—

I have again to express my gratitude to Almighty God for His goodness, in enabling me to get through another year. His strength has been made perfect in weakness: He has measured out strength for each occasion; so that I have gone on, without interruption, preaching every Lord's Day—in the morning, at the Upper Church; in the afternoon, at the Middle Church; and at the Rapids on Tuesday evening; besides visiting the sick, baptizing from house to house, and attending funerals.

In reference to a communication made by the Committee to Mr. Cockran, suggesting the desirableness of his returning home for a season, in the hope that a change of scene and climate might be beneficial to him, he thus writes, in the same Letter :—

I have not the least inclination to visit England, in my present state of health, and under my present circumstances. It is not a longing for home which constitutes any part of my malady. On the contrary, were I there, I should feel perfectly restless. Every person around me would be busily employed ; and I should, therefore, be oppressed day by day with the languor of an idler, and sigh for regular employment. Here, I have abundance of work, among a people whom I know personally, and for whom I have always felt a paternal interest ; and I consequently think that I should not be so comfortable anywhere else.

In another Letter, dated Aug. 7, he observes—

It shall ever be my study to keep the rights of conscience inviolate. Conscience often asks, With whom can you leave these few sheep in the wilderness ? I look around, and see the vice, the darkness, and the miseries of Heathenism ready to burst forth and swallow them up ; but no one to repel its baneful influence. How true, no man careth for the soul ! All seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. With the help of God, I shall endeavour to trust in Him, and be doing good according to my strength and capacity ; leaving the rest to Him who careth for me, and who has promised that He will never leave me nor forsake me.

UPPER SETTLEMENT.

Congregations, Baptisms, Communicants.

I am happy to be able to state, that our churches are as regularly attended as formerly, and that the moral and religious deportment of our hearers is commendable. No excesses of any kind have come under my observation : if any existed, I could not but know of them, as I so frequently converse with the people in a familiar way. My morning congregation, at the Upper Church, varies from 450 to 500 ; at the Middle Church, 300 ; at the Rapids, on a week-day, from 70 to 100. Baptisms during the year, 122 ; admitted to the Sacrament, 12 ; greatest number of Communicants, at the Rapids, 145 ; and at the Upper Church, 130.

INDIAN SETTLEMENT.

The Rev. J. Smithurst, in his Report of this Station, for the year ending Aug. 1, 1841, after enumerating the various Services held in the Church, and Lectures in the School-room, observes—

At all these Public Services there is a degree of attention and devout fervour manifested by the Indians, which proves that they do not attend as a matter of form.

Administration of the Sacraments—I have baptized ten adult Indians, who have renounced Heathenism, and have embraced the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. One of these lately died in peace, expressing his entire dependence upon the Saviour: the rest are living as becomes their profession. In addition to these, I have baptized twenty-seven infants, the children of Christian Indians; making the total number of baptisms thirty-seven.

I have admitted nine new communicants: as we have lost three by death, and four have left the Settlement, the number is now sixty-two.

General State of the Settlement—In a temporal point of view, the Settlement is steadily improving. The Indians attend well to their farms and to their cattle. We have, through the Divine goodness, the prospect of an abundant harvest. There is also a considerable improvement in cleanliness, as regards their persons, their dress, and their houses. I have frequently lectured them on this subject, and, I am happy to say, not without success. Several new houses have this year been built, of a superior description. Indeed, taking all things into consideration, we have abundant cause to thank God, and take courage.

Persevering Attendance on Public Worship.

Aug. 23, 1840: Lord's-Day—After Service at the Grand Rapids this morning, I was accompanied to the Indian Settlement, a distance of thirteen miles, by a number of young men, some on horseback and some on foot, who desired to attend the Service. May God bless His Word to their souls, and make them amends for the toil of a journey of twenty-six miles!

Jan. 3, 1841: Lord's Day—I was driven to the Grand Rapids by one of my Indian Boys; but such was the intensity of the cold—more than 40° below zero, mercury frozen—that though I was almost buried in woollens, and covered with a buffalo robe, I could not keep myself warm. The horse was completely white with hoarfrost, and the icicles were hanging from that part of the boy's hair which came below his cap. Notwithstanding the severity of the weather, the church was, as usual, quite full.

Jan. 12—The weather is so extremely cold, that I can now go out very little, except to the school-room. The Lecture this evening was very well attended: the cold, be it ever so severe, never prevents the Indians from coming to the school “to Prayers,” as they call our Evening Service. What a striking contrast, in this respect, does our little village present, when compared with the state of highly-favoured England! Generally one-half, and sometimes three-fourths of the adult population of the Indian Settlement assemble daily for the purpose of worshipping God, and listening to the truths of the Gospel.

Contrast to the naturally Improvident Habits of the Indians.

Improvidence, and ingratitude to parents, are very conspicuous in the character of the uncivilized Indian. The following extract from Mr. Smithurst's Journal proves, that, at least in the case of the rising generation, the eradication of even these deeply-seated evils may be looked for, by the blessing of God upon the means adopted by the Missionaries:—

June 12, 1840—I was much pleased this evening in a conversation with one of the Muscaigo-School Boys. He had been working on the Mission Farm a month, during the seed-time, for which I paid him 12s. Wishing to know how he had spent it, I said, "What did you do with the money I gave you?" "I took it to the Store?"—"Well, what did you buy?" "The shirt I have on."—"Well, that cost 4s.; what more did you purchase?" "White cotton."—"What are you going to do with that?" "Have a Sunday shirt?"—"Well, that is very good; but what else did you buy?" "A pair of shoes."—"Yes, those three things cost 9s.: what did you do with the rest?" "Gave it to my father?"—"Well, that is just what you ought to do. You know the Word of God says, Honour thy father and thy mother. I trust you will always remember that it is your duty to help them. I hope the other boys will do the same, and then God will bless them." This little incident affords one of the many proofs that we do not labour in vain. It was the first money the boy ever had, and not a fraction of it was misapplied.

CUMBERLAND STATION.

In June 1840, Mr. H. Budd, who had been for some time in connexion with the Society, as a Schoolmaster at the Upper Church, and who is acquainted with the Cree Language, removed to the neighbourhood of Cumberland House, in the hope that his labours might be useful among the Indians in that district. This hope has not been disappointed; as he has already been permitted to see some fruit resulting from his exertions. His Station is about a day's journey from Cumberland House, and about 600 miles from the Red-River Settlement.*

STATE OF THE FINANCES.

At the last Anniversary of the Society, the state of its Finances was such as to occasion the Committee much solicitude. That solicitude was increased as the year advanced. The necessity of reducing the expenditure of the Society became apparent. At a Meeting of the Committee of Correspondence at the beginning of July, a Resolution was adopted, "That means should be immediately taken to reduce the expenditure of the Society in the Malta, New-Zealand, Trinidad, and Jamaica Missions." This Resolution was immediately acted upon; and instructions were transmitted to those Missions, pointing out the mode in which the contemplated reduction of expenditure might, in the opinion of the Committee, be most speedily and effectually accomplished. With regard to New Zealand, however, it was rather an adjustment of expenditure, than a reduction in its total amount; the rapid diffusion of the Gospel throughout almost the whole extent of the Northern Island, in a great measure by the agency of Native Teachers, and the strenuous efforts of the Papacy to establish itself in the Island, having induced the Committee to send out four additional Missionaries, and a Candidate for Holy Orders, to sustain and consolidate the operations of the Society in New Zealand.

The measures which the Committee had adopted for the relinquishment of the Jamaica and Trinidad Missions involved the necessity of communication and arrangement with the Bishops of Jamaica and Barbadoes which unavoidably caused delay in the execution of these measures. The vacancy of the See of Barbadoes has precluded the Committee, up to the present time, from carrying out their intentions with regard to Trinidad.

The Committee having found that further measures were required to meet the financial difficulties of the Society, the subject was again taken up in the autumn by the Committee of Correspondence. From this body two Reports were addressed to the General Committee, and adopted by them on the 5th of November and 10th of December respectively*. These Reports recommended measures for increasing the Society's Income; and, for that purpose, the appointment of additional Association Secretaries. They also recommended measures for regulating, systematizing, and controlling expenditure in the Missions, and for drawing forth local resources to a larger extent in the several Missions; more especially, 1. Contributions on the spot to local objects connected with the Missions; and, 2. Contributions from Native Converts for the support of a Native Ministry, and the expenses incident to its ministrations.

The formation of a Fund to meet the inequality between income and expenditure, which occurs at certain periods of the year, was recommended by the same Committee. An Address on this subject was subsequently published by the Committee, fully explaining the grounds on which the formation of such a fund was rendered indispensable, in order to carry on the operations of the Society without embarrassment and the necessity of incurring debt†.

That Committee also recorded their conviction of the necessity of adopting "stringent measures for bringing the total expenditure of the Society for the year within the income of the same year."

As the year passed on, the financial situation of the Society became more and more serious and critical, and the necessity of still further reducing expenditure and contracting operations was unequivocal. At the Monthly Meeting of the Committee on the 14th of March, a special Sub-Committee was appointed to inquire into the financial position of the Society. It consisted of the Treasurer of the Society, Sir Walter R. Farquhar, Bart., the Hon. Arthur Kinnaird, and Henry Sykes Thornton, Esq.

The Committee at the same time resolved, —That for the present no new Mission be undertaken, nor any existing Mission enlarged; nor any Missionary, Catechist, or Schoolmaster sent out, except to supply the place of a deceased or disabled Missionary, Catechist, or Schoolmaster; nor any Student received into the Institution, except to supply the place of one who may have left: and that this Resolution shall be in force until the Sub-Committee appointed by the preceding Resolution, or some Finance Committee to be hereafter appointed, shall have reported that the finances of the Society are in a state to admit of an extension of its Missionary Labours.

* Appendices II. and III.

Recourse was had to the Gentlemen mentioned as composing the Sub-Committee, under the impression, that while they brought with them habits of business and cordial attachment to the Society and its great object, their not having immediately participated in the administration of the Society's affairs might give them some advantage for taking a calm and accurate view of its financial position, and for suggesting such measures as the exigency of the case might require. Though with much personal inconvenience to themselves, they kindly undertook the office assigned them by the Committee. Having fully informed themselves of the state of the Society's affairs, and maturely considered what the circumstances called for, they presented their Report to the Committee*. This Report recommended, among other things, the immediate reduction of the scale of the Society's annual expenditure to a sum not exceeding 85,000*l.*—the laying aside certain parts of the income of each year for the liquidation of debt, and for accumulating a Capital Fund equal to one-third of the Society's annual income—and the appointment of a Finance Committee, without whose sanction no increase of expenditure beyond the sum above specified should take place.

The Report of the Finance Sub-Committee was taken into consideration at a Special Meeting of the General Committee on the 20th April, and the following Resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

1. That this Committee desire to express their thanks to the Finance Committee for their able Report on the subject of the Finances of the Society, and their concurrence in the general principles laid down in that Report.

2. That, in the opinion of this Committee, the scale of expenditure for the current year should be limited to 85,000*l.*, in accordance with the recommendation of the Finance Sub-Committee; and that, with this view, the Committee should take immediate steps to carry into effect the Resolutions already adopted for discontinuing the Society's operations in Jamaica, Trinidad, and Malta; and should also take such steps, with regard to its other Missions, as may be necessary to accomplish the reduction proposed.

3. That the Committee are further of opinion, that, during the current year, all legacies, and all donations above 5*l.*—unless otherwise directed by the donor—should be at once paid to a fund applicable to the following objects; viz.

* Appendix V.

- (1) To the paying off the Society's present debt.
- (2) In aid of the Capital Fund; which fund should for the future be kept up to a sum not less than one-third of the estimated annual expenditure for the time being.
- (3) To the general purposes of the Society, in such way as the General Committee for the time being may think expedient.

4. That a Finance Committee, with the functions and powers recommended by the Finance Sub-Committee, be appointed at the first Meeting of the Committee after the Anniversary Meeting in each year.

It was with extreme pain and regret that the Committee came to a decision narrowing the Society's operations to so serious an extent. In the actual situation of the Society, however, the duty of doing so was plain and imperative. On closing the accounts of the year on the 31st of March, its financial position stood thus:—

Receipts on account of General Fund.....	90,821	2	6
Expenditure.....	110,808	16	1
Shewing an excess of Expenditure within the year, of.....	19,987	13	7

In explaining this excess of expenditure over income, the Committee have to observe, that the amount on account of "Sick and Disabled Missionaries, their widows and children," exceeded the amount of the preceding year by upward of 1600*l*. In the North-India, Western-India, Ceylon, New-Zealand, British-Guiana, and Trinidad Missions, the amount becoming payable on account of them within the year considerably exceeded the ratio of expenditure in them respectively.

The details given in the preceding part of this Report sufficiently attest the fact, that the Divine Blessing has abundantly rested on the operations of the Society throughout its Missions. This circumstance, though in itself greatly to be rejoiced in, has been a main cause of the large amount of the foreign expenditure. This fact renders a contraction of operations peculiarly painful. To meet the excess of expenditure over income above stated, the Committee were compelled to resort to loans from the Society's Bankers, and from members of the Society who kindly came forward to aid the Committee in this emergency. Of these loans, 11,500*l*. remain unpaid; and different tradesmen's bills, amounting together to about 2000*l*., which properly belong to the expenditure of the past year, the Committee were obliged to bring over to the present year. The total amount of debt, therefore, on closing the year's accounts, was about 13,500*l*.

It is also to be borne in mind, as already noticed, that the arrangements made in July and December last for reducing expenditure, as well as those now made at the recommendation of the Finance Sub-Committee, must inevitably come into operation gradually, from the nature of the Society's operations, and the distance from this country at which they are carried on. Hence it is doubtful whether it will be possible for the Committee to get through the present year without contracting additional debt.

Under these circumstances, distressing as it has been to the Committee to adopt the restrictive measures above mentioned, they are unanimously of opinion that they had no other alternative, in order to extricate the Society from its financial difficulties, and place its future operations on a sound and creditable footing.

The Committee are, at the same time, deeply impressed with the obligation imposed on them, in the present situation of the Society's affairs, to use all suitable means for enlarging the income of the Society. They confidently appeal to the state of the Society's different Missions, as their proceedings are detailed in the different publications of the Society, as affording the most satisfactory ground on which claims for additional pecuniary aid can be placed. They appeal also to the sympathies of their Christian friends on behalf of those myriads of the Heathen, in all quarters, calling for the entrance among them of the Messengers of the Churches; but to whose earnest calls the Committee have been compelled to turn a deaf ear. Surely if the members of our Church at large adequately felt their obligations and prized their privileges, the silver and the gold would not be wanting to extricate the Church Missionary Society from its pecuniary difficulties, and to enable it freely to impart the bread of life to the starving Heathen.

The Committee have, they conceive, done their duty in thus unreservedly explaining the situation of the Society and the claims of the Heathen: and having done so, they commend the matter to the deep meditation of the members of the Society, and to the blessing of God.

There has been received in the course of the year, 866*l.* 9*s.* 1*d.* on account of the Sick and Disabled Missionaries' Fund, and 1514*l.* 19*s.* on account of the Capital Fund; making a Total of Receipts within the year, from all sources, of 93,202*l.* 10*s.* 7*d.*

CONCLUSION.

With this painful Report of the Financial position of the Society, the Committee would now, in conclusion, contrast the bright prospects which are opening in almost every part of the Missionary Field, and earnestly calling for our aid. If any one be disposed to blame the Committee for having been too lavish of the resources placed at their disposal—for having pushed the Missionary Operations of the Society too far—let such an one pause, and consider some of the instances in which the Committee have stopped short in the work and withheld their aid. It is right that the Society should know, that during the last year many earnest and touching calls for assistance have been made to them, and made in vain; that prospects have opened before them in which the good hand of the Lord seemed manifestly to be beckoning them forward; but they have felt compelled to draw back.

In North India, for instance, Simla, on the Himalayah Mountains, presents one of the most promising fields of Missionary Labour. The people are represented as being free from the shackles of caste, and of an independent and vigorous intellect. The English residents at that Station formed an Auxiliary Society, and agreed to contribute largely toward the support of a Missionary. They applied for a Missionary, and their application was supported by special offers of assistance at home; but the Committee reluctantly declined.

In Sierra Leone, again, the need of a suitable building for a Seminary for the training of Native Youths for the Ministry has been long felt, while the events of the last year made the Committee more sensible than ever of the incalculable importance of such an establishment; but they dared not attempt it.

From Krishnaghur, again, the Committee have received the most earnest and repeated applications to establish Schools for the children of the Native Converts. "I appeal," says the Bishop of Calcutta, "to the Society for further supplies, on the new emergency created by our success itself, for the education of those who are to be the Christians, and parents, and examples, of the next age. I appeal to the Christianity of Great Britain. It is in the true spirit of the liberality of British Christians to follow the hand of Providence. That hand is now beckoning us forward. A nation is, as it were, born at once. The crowding children of the faithful, incapable of education by their parents, cry out for help. Females, for the first time, are offering their baptized little-ones to be trained up in the faith to which they are dedicated. The Church Missionary Society are their sponsors to the Church. I entreat England to rise to her new and noble duty. Glorious will be the moment when, under the Divine Blessing, the attention of our Church shall be thoroughly awakened to the immense importance of the occasion. I leave Krishnaghur, and its Christian youthful population, in your hands."—Again, the Committee reluctantly withheld the aid so feelingly solicited.

In South India, the need of an increased number of Missionaries in Tinnevely has been already explained. The Bishop of Madras thus earnestly pleads the cause:—"It is constant excitement, and over-work, which break us down, sending many of us home, and some to an early grave. We want, therefore, more Clergymen, to share with us the burden and heat of the day. We have already far more Native Christians than it is possible for our present limited number of Missionaries to instruct and superintend, and their rapidly increasing families will soon want instruction and superintendence also. India wants many more English Clergymen; and will want a large body of them for many years to come. British charity must send them out, and British liberality must maintain them, or the progress of Christianity in India will be greatly hindered—stopped it cannot be." There are three Missionary Students in the Islington Institution already in Holy Orders, and assigned to South India, and the Committee could at once respond to the appeal of the Bishop by sending them out; but the state of the Society's funds calls upon them to pause.*

It is right that the Society should know these things, which prove that the Committee have, during the last year, stayed their hand in some most urgent cases, even if they have gone beyond the bounds of strict prudence in others. But there is a further object in laying them before this large Christian Assembly—such earnest, such inviting appeals must not be suffered to drop into oblivion. They must not, they cannot, be set aside by the reply, that we have no funds. They must be brought before those who have the means, and may be willing to make us the almoners of their bounty. These cases, therefore—a few only out of many—the Committee earnestly and solemnly commend to the consciences of their Christian friends, entreating them to consider whether they might not either contribute more liberally themselves, or stir up others to a more liberal contribution; and they thus speak, not reproachfully or in despair, but in grateful recollection of the success of former appeals, and in the blessed assurance that God is able to make all grace abound toward His people, that they, having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.

But let not this appeal of the Committee be mistaken. Let it not be supposed that it is on gold, or silver, or patronage, that they found their hopes of success. God forbid! It is the faithful, plain, and full maintenance of those great principles of the truth as it is in Jesus, by all the Agents and Missionaries of this Society, without compromise and without reserve—it is the sustentation of that Scriptural, Protestant, and Evangelical tone throughout all their ministrations—it is the upholding of the Bible, and the Bible alone, as the foundation and rule of faith—upon which the blessing of God has rested, does rest, and ever will rest.

If there be one living witness entitled to speak on this subject with more weight than another, it is he who was one of the early Fathers of the Church Missionary Society, who laboured from its infancy to establish its great principles; who, by the signal providence of God, has been raised to the chief post, both of observation and authority, in the Missions of the Church; and whose life, by a no less signal providence, has been preserved, while thousands have fallen at his side, that he might speak with the additional authority of long experience, and at the very crisis when his voice was most needed. That voice has given no uncertain sound. “If,” says the Bishop of Calcutta in his last Ordination Sermon, “the spirituality of our Missions be gone; if a scheme which substitutes self, and form, and authority of office, for weight of doctrine and activity of love, be imbibed, Ichabod—the glory is departed—may be inscribed upon our Church in India; all real advances in the conversion of the Heathen will stop; our scattered Christian flocks will miss the sound and wholesome nourishment for their souls; our converts will quickly dwindle away to a nominal profession; our Native Catechists and Missionaries will be bewildered; and nothing in the whole world is so graceless, as the eminent Gerické one observed, as a Mission without the Spirit of Christ.”

Nor less are all hopes of success dependent upon the constant fervent prayers of Christian Friends at home, that the Lord may be pleased to pour out His Spirit upon our works, which alone can arouse the Christian Church to a sense of the greatness of the occasion—which alone can prosper the labours of our Missionaries abroad—which alone can embolden the persecuted and timid inquirers after Christian Truth to profess the Faith of Christ—which alone can support the feeble graces of ~~those~~ infant Churches, which need to be cherished as a nurse cherisheth her children. May He who hath the residue of the Spirit inspire the hearts of His people with these prayers, and speedily accomplish the number of His elect, and hasten His kingdom !

LETTER TO SECRETARIES OF ASSOCIATIONS.

THE expediency of connecting the Church Missionary Society with other Societies, in a Union, having been repeatedly brought under the consideration of the Committee, they have judged it right to explain their views on the subject, in the following Letter to the Secretaries of Associations:—

DEAR SIR—Proposals having been received by the COMMITTEE of the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, from several quarters, to admit the Society into a Church Union already formed, or to form a Church Union including the Society, those Proposals have been taken into serious consideration by the Committee; and the result was, the adoption of the following RESOLUTIONS:—

—That it is essential to the welfare of this Society, that it should prosecute its objects distinct and separate from all other Societies.

—That it is important that all the different Associations of the Church Missionary Society should maintain their independent existence, without merging in any Church Union.

—That the preceding Resolutions be communicated to the Secretaries of the different Associations, and to other influential Friends of the Society; together with a Letter developing the grounds on which they are founded.

These Resolutions refer, as you will perceive, exclusively to those Church Unions which offer to receive the Church Missionary Society into connexion with them.

The Resolutions have no reference to any Sermon which a Clergyman may think it right to preach in aid of the Funds of the Church Missionary Society, and of any other Society conjointly with it. For such assistance, the Committee will always feel grateful; and they fully recognise the right of the Parochial Minister to exercise his own discretion in all such matters. Of course, it will not be expected of the Representatives of the Society, that, while travelling on its behalf, they should preach for, or attend Meetings in aid of, any Joint Fund.

Neither do the Resolutions refer to any Church Union, having simply for its object to receive Subscriptions for the Church Missionary and other Societies, in a Parish where the Church Missionary Society may not be in operation, and so constituted as not to interfere with any independent exertions which its Friends may make on its behalf, in such locality.

The Church Missionary Society, and the other Societies which it is proposed to combine in Church Unions, all differ from each other, either as to the operations which they undertake, or as to the sphere in which they carry on those operations, or as to both those particulars. They provide Ministers for persons professing Christianity, but not adequately supplied with the Means of Grace: they send forth Missionaries to those who have not yet received the Gospel: they furnish means of Education to the poor: and, as well by the circulation of religious publications as by other measures, they seek to promote Christian Knowledge. Some of these Societies engage in one; others, in another; and some, in more than one of these operations. Several of them carry on their operations in this country alone; one of them, both at home and abroad; another, in the British Settlements and Dependencies; and the Church Missionary Society, among those, wherever found in Foreign Lands, who have not received the Gospel of Christ, or have not been settled into Christian Churches.

Different persons feel a different degree of interest in these different objects; and are disposed, accordingly, to give more liberally, and exert more zeal and energy in influencing others to give, to one Society rather than another. And it is well it should be so. In this, as in other cases, division of labour contributes to the success of the whole work.

To call forth and encourage this liberality and zeal, the Church Missionary Society employs an Agency, which brings before the Public its claims for support in a distinct and specific form, with interesting details of its proceedings; and which, in urging those claims, calls on those who have felt their need of a Saviour, and the love of Christ in dying for them, to assist in making known that Saviour, and His love, to those who have never heard of His name. Experience has shown, that such appeals are the most effectual means of stirring up liberality and zeal in aid of Missionary labours.

To call forth, in any large measure, charitable exertion and Christian liberality, it is not sufficient to propose some general and abstract object, or a group consisting of various objects. The constraining love of Christ, indeed, is the one motive to every effort of Christian love; but to bring this motive into energetic action, some distinct and specific object must be presented to the mind—individual cases, and particular results detailed—and personal confidence secured. Such appeals are made, and have been effectively made, by the Church Missionary Society, on behalf of its one definite object—the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom among Heathens and Mahomedans. Similar appeals may be made on behalf of any one of the Societies usually included in a Church Union. On behalf of a Church Union, such an appeal cannot be made. To plead, in any one Sermon, or at any one Public Meeting, the specific claims of five or more Societies—to enter into detail, and bring forward individual cases as to each Society—is obviously impracticable. The preacher or speaker must restrict himself to abstractions and generalities; or, by dwelling principally on the proceedings of some one of the Societies—his favourite Society perhaps, or the one with whose operations he happens to be best acquainted—he would infringe the principle of the Union, create jealousy and discord, and incur the censure of those who viewed with more favour some other of the combined Societies.

It follows, from these observations, that A MUCH LESS SUM WOULD BE COLLECTED within the same district by a Church Union including the Church Missionary Society, than by a Church Union consisting of the other Societies and by a Church Missionary Association acting independently of each other. If, then, regard be had only to the sum total collected, it is essential to maintain the agency of the Church Missionary Society in independent operation.

This would be the result, on whatever plan the Church Union might be constituted, even if it simply solicited and received subscriptions for its different Societies; the contributor specifying the Society or Societies to which he subscribed. The Church Missionary Society, while included in such a Union, could scarcely solicit subscriptions by a distinct agency, or maintain a Church Missionary Association, within the same parish or district: and if it could, it is not apparent for what purpose it should be connected with the Union. The Union and the Association would embarrass each other's proceedings.

But if the Union should collect for a general fund, as well as for the several Societies, the difference in the total amount collected would be still greater. Many would give a single subscription, of a Guinea for example, to the general fund of a Church Union including the Church Missionary Society, who, if canvassed separately by a Church Missionary Association, and by a Church Union comprising the other Societies, would give a Guinea to each. Many, who would promote with zeal and energy the operations of a Church Missionary Association, would not make the same exertions in favour of, though they might subscribe to, a Church Union including the Church Missionary Society.

Still greater would be the defalcation in the sum total collected, if the plan of the Church Union should be to receive contributions only to the general fund of the Union, to be afterward allotted to the different Societies. In such a case, all the general causes of defalcation would be brought into full play, and other causes would come into operation. Not only do some prefer one Society to another; but some object altogether to this, and others altogether to that Society. Many would withhold their contributions, rather than subscribe to a Union including any one Society of which they disapproved. Any such scheme would run counter to a deep-seated principle of human nature—a legitimate principle as regards charitable donations—that to him who gives, it belongs to determine how his gift shall be applied. No scheme opposed to this principle can permanently, and to any large extent, call forth the liberality of the public. Men will not give—at least they will not give with open hands, and year after year—unless the money which they contribute is to be applied for some distinct and specific object selected by themselves, and according to some definite plan of which they approve.

The Committee, in these observations, have restricted themselves to THE FINANCIAL LOSS WHICH THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY WOULD SUSTAIN, BY HAVING ITS INDEPENDENT EXERTIONS MERGED IN THOSE OF A CHURCH UNION. They have, neither in their Resolutions, nor in these observations, expressed any opinion on the general principle of Church Unions, or on their probable effect as regards the income of any other Society. There is, however, one consideration connected with those Unions, which the Committee could not overlook. Church Unions are recommended as promoting unity in the Church. The Committee feel it due to themselves to say, that they have not overlooked this consideration, or undervalued its importance. But THEY ARE BY NO MEANS PERSUADED, that any plan of soliciting jointly SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR SEVERAL SOCIETIES, in which different individuals feel different degrees of interest, and as to which different opinions are entertained, has a tendency to promote harmony among its members, whether managers or contributors; while THEY ARE CONVINCED, that any scheme for raising a JOINT FUND, to be subsequently apportioned among several Societies, is more likely to sow discord and strife, than to promote real and substantial union.

The Committee cannot conclude without adding, that, at this present moment, the Church Missionary Society greatly needs an increase of income; and that any diminution of its resources would necessarily lead to the contraction of its operations in one or more of its flourishing Missions. At this very time, the Committee are engaged in an anxious inquiry into the financial situation of the Society. Let not, then, the Friends of the Society relax in their exertions to sustain and augment its resources, or deprive the Society of the full benefit of those exertions, by combining them with their efforts in favour of other Societies.

The Committee would in no way discourage exertions for other Societies; but, on behalf of the Church Missionary Society, they urge their Friends, on financial grounds, to solicit and collect for it, separately from, and independently of, any Church Union. The Committee earnestly desire that the Divine Blessing may rest, not only on the Church Missionary Society, but on every other Society having for its object the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom, or the edification of His Church, whether in this country or abroad—whether among those who profess, or among those who have not yet received, the Gospel of Christ. But they deprecate the injury which the income of the Church Missionary Society would sustain, should its independent agency for collecting funds be merged in any Church Union: while they see no ground to anticipate that such Unions will promote—and are not without apprehension, that, if they go beyond the simple operation of receiving distinct subscriptions for the different Societies, they may disturb—the harmony of our Church.

APPENDIX II.

(See Page 110.)

FIRST REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE,
ON THE FINANCIAL POSITION OF THE SOCIETY.

THE Committee of Correspondence have held repeated Meetings on the reference to them by the General Committee respecting the Financial State of the Society.

Having come to certain conclusions of a general nature, touching the Financial Operations of the Society, the Committee of Correspondence deem it advisable to report upon them without delay; reserving other matters for a future Report.

In reviewing the Financial Position of the Society, the Committee of Correspondence have directed their attention, in the first place, to the means which might be adopted for increasing its income.

They have reason to believe that there are many Towns and Districts where the Society has hitherto been but little or not at all known, and into which its operations have not hitherto been introduced, in consequence of the inability of the Association Secretaries already appointed fully to work their respective districts.

In other places, the recent change in respect of Ecclesiastical Patronage has opened a way for the preaching of Sermons and the formation of Associations in furtherance of the Society's object.

The Committee also think it probable that an increase might be obtained from the more systematic and regular "working" of some of the Associations and Branches already formed.

But to reap the benefit which such prospects hold out, it is absolutely necessary that the number of Association Secretaries should be increased.

The Committee of Correspondence also attach much importance to the sending of a Deputation direct from the Parent Committee to some of the large Towns and more considerable Districts, for the purpose of consulting with Local Friends on the best means of accomplishing the objects which have been specified.

But while the Committee anticipate, from the due use of these means, an augmentation of the Society's income, and recommend the vigorous adoption of all practicable measures to that end, they have deemed it to be equally incumbent upon them to examine very carefully the Expenditure of the Society; as well with a view of ascertaining whether any retrenchment can be made without impairing the work in which the Society is engaged, as also of devising such a check upon future expenditure as may prevent the Society from being again reduced to the necessity of borrowing money to carry on its operations.

They find that much has been already done by the Committee to reduce expenditure, especially in the West Indies, and to impress on the Representatives of the Society abroad the necessity of keeping down the expenditure.

Nevertheless, in order the more fully to accomplish this object, and to justify the confidence which the subscribers repose in the vigilance of the Committee, they have very carefully and minutely examined the accounts of Foreign Expenditure connected with each Mission.

In the course of this examination, certain suggestions have occurred to the Committee of Correspondence, connected with the Expenditure of the Society, which they submit to the consideration of the General Committee, together with the reasons on which they are founded.

The various Items of Expenditure connected with a Mission may be classed under the following heads:—

- (1) The Personal Expenses of Missionaries and European Catechists; including, Salaries.

House, House Rent, and Repairs of House.

Travelling Expenses.
 Pundit or Moonshee.
 Medical Attendance.
 Maintenance and Education of Children under fifteen years of age.
 Passage Money and Outfit, both in going out and returning home.

- (2) The Personal Expenses of Native
 Catechists and Readers employed in a Mission.
- (3) Books and Station Libraries.
- (4) The Maintenance of Day Schools.
 The Building and Repairs of School-Houses.
 Salaries of Schoolmasters.
 Books and Rewards.
- (5) The Maintenance of Institutions and Seminaries, in which scholars are boarded and clothed.
- (6) The Building and Repairs of Places of Public Worship, and the Expenses of maintaining Public Worship.
- (7) Printing Establishments.

The Missions of the Society have hitherto involved expenditure under most of these heads. The present financial difficulties of the Society have led the Committee to consider whether arrangements may not be made, by which, under some of these heads, a larger portion of the expense may be borne by local resources in the several Missions, than has hitherto been the case. Local resources are of two kinds—the contributions of friends on the spot to the Mission Cause; and the contributions of Native Converts.

I. With regard to contributions on the spot, the Committee would acknowledge, with gratitude, the munificent subscriptions to the Society of many Christian friends abroad, especially in India.

But it seems reasonable to suppose that many would be willing to contribute specifically to local objects, in which they would feel a peculiar interest—such as, the support of Educational Establishments and the Building of Schools and Places of Public Worship—who might not be equally willing to contribute to the general funds of the Church Missionary Society. Even Heathen Natives might thus contribute, as some have already done, to the cause of Education.

The Committee would therefore suggest, that while, abroad as well as at home, subscriptions to the general objects of the Society should be solicited and thankfully received, efforts should be made to raise within each Mission and its Stations funds specifically devoted to local objects; and that the accounts of such funds should be kept separately from those of the general funds of the Society.

The Committee would suggest, that it would be highly advantageous to the Society that the Building, Enlargement, and Repairs of School-Houses and Places of Worship, should be provided for by local resources.

Also, that all Orphan and other Schools in which the scholars are boarded and clothed should be supported from the same sources, except in Institutions wherein Young Men of suitable character and qualifications are trained for the office of Catechists and Missionaries; and except in Seminaries, wherein hopeful Youths from Day Schools are brought together to a limited extent, preparatory to the transfer to the higher Educational Establishment of such of them as, by this preparatory training, shall be found eligible for it.

It is not, however, intended, by the arrangements now suggested, that the Home Committee should be precluded from making specific grants for the objects in question, in special cases.

II. With respect to the Local Funds which may be obtained from Native Converts, this Committee would refer to a maxim which has been often insisted upon, that all Missionary operations should, from the first, contain within themselves the germ of the self-supporting principle; and that Native Converts should be habituated to the idea, that the support of a Native Ministry must eventually fall upon themselves; as, in their heathen state, they have been accustomed to bear the expense of Heathen Ministrations. The assertion of this principle is not intended to interfere with measures which it is obligatory on a Christian Government to take for the endowment and establishment of a Native Church; but it is hoped that it may rather facilitate and prepare the way for that desirable and ultimate object.

The present position of the Society renders it more than ever important, that this principle should be carried out to the utmost practicable extent. In doing this, it is not meant that Native Converts should contribute toward the maintenance of European Agents; but it may be reasonably expected, that they should, from the first, bear some portion, however small, of the necessary expenses of Native Ministrations, and of the Christian education of their children.

The Society would be thus effectually preparing the way for the transfer of such Native-Christian Congregations to the regular Ecclesiastical Establishment; and leaving itself at liberty to go forward in the work of breaking up the fallow-ground of Heathenism, which is the peculiar province of a Missionary Society.

III. The Committee, in reviewing the different items of Expenditure which must necessarily continue to be borne by the Society, have further considered, that it will be important to maintain a due proportion between the different branches already enumerated.

If the funds of the Society were fully adequate to the demands from abroad, it might seem to be the duty of the Committee to push forward the operations of the Society, under each of these branches, to the utmost extent to which they could be usefully carried on; but in the case of an inadequate income, it is manifestly the duty of the Committee to keep up a due proportion between its various operations; and, for this end, to assign limits to some branches of its expenditure.

The importance of this suggestion will further appear, if it be considered, that in proportion as the expenditure abroad of the Home resources is unduly increased, the power of the Home Committee to engage and train up Missionaries is crippled; so that if retrenchment be forced upon the Home Committee, it will involve the stopping of the supply of Missionaries.

This consideration should be especially pressed upon the attention of the Committees abroad; because it is of the utmost importance, and will probably continue to be so for a considerable time to come, that an adequate supply of European mind and intelligence should be kept up, to superintend and direct a Native Agency.

A limit should be assigned to the amount of expenditure which should be allowed at each Mission Station on account of Native Catechists and Readers, and also on account of Day Schools.

The precise limit to be fixed to these heads of expenditure must be reserved, till the opinion of the Committees abroad can be obtained on the subject.

IV. In order that the Committee may keep up a proper superintendence over the expenditure, as well as over the application of the principles already laid down, it will be desirable that the Accounts from each Mission be drawn up in the same form, and that the items of expenditure be arranged under the heads specified in this Report; that the Financial Year in each Mission should terminate at a period to admit of the Accounts reaching this country not later than the 31st of March; and that such Accounts should be accompanied by a detailed estimate of the expenditure of the following year, and by a statement pointing out any reduction of expenditure which may be practicable, and any desired enlargement of operations, or increase of expenditure.

These Accounts and Estimates should be examined and considered by the Committee as soon after their arrival as practicable; and specific grants should then be made to each Mission, regard, in doing so, being had both to the resources of the Society, and to the importance of the different fields of labour and doors of usefulness which the Lord may open before the Committee.

It is further suggested that these grants should specify the Stations and heads of expenditure for which they were made; and the Representatives of the Society abroad should not be authorised either to draw for a larger amount, or to alter the specific appropriation, without the previous sanction of the Home Committee.

SECOND REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE,
ON THE FINANCIAL POSITION OF THE SOCIETY.

THE Committee of Correspondence having completed their inquiries on the Financial matters referred to them by the Resolution of the General Committee of Sept. 13, 1841, submit to them this further Report.

FOREIGN EXPENDITURE.

West-Africa Mission.

In examining the Expenditure of the West-Africa Mission, the attention of the Committee was drawn to the large portion of it which is incurred on account of the erection of Buildings for Public Worship. This is a head of expenditure for which it properly belongs to the Government to provide. The obligation to provide for it has, indeed, been uniformly acknowledged by successive Colonial Secretaries; but they have not hitherto fulfilled the obligation. The Committee therefore recommend that this subject should be again pressed on the attention of the Secretary of State for the Colonies; and that the grounds of the special claim of the Liberated Africans to the aid of Her Majesty's Government, with regard to their religious instruction, including the erection of Buildings for Public Worship, should be strongly urged on Lord Stanley, the present Colonial Secretary.

Malta Mission.

With reference to the Printing Establishment of the Society at Malta, the Committee are of opinion that further measures may be taken with a view to relieve the Society from expense on this head. From recent communications from Malta, the Committee are led to infer, that any work which the Committee might wish to have printed in furtherance of the Society's objects in the Levantine Countries might be done at other presses. The Committee therefore suggest the expediency of taking measures to dispose of the Press at Malta, in the manner which may be most beneficial to the Society.

Greece Mission.

The Committee have received from all quarters the most satisfactory testimony as to the efficiency of the Syra Schools; and of the beneficial influence which they are exerting on the kingdom of Greece, in training intelligent, well-principled Schoolmasters and Schoolmistresses. The object of these Schools being now directed exclusively to a community of professing Christians, is not strictly within the province of the Society. They were commenced, however, when Greece formed a part of the Turkish Empire, and when a large proportion of the people were Mahomedans. The character of the population has thus been materially changed, during the period in which the Schools have been in operation. Under these circumstances, the Committee have not felt warranted in breaking up Schools so efficiently conducted, and productive of such beneficial effects. They conceive, however, that there is an especial obligation to reduce the expense of maintaining the Schools to the lowest amount consistent with their efficiency, and of throwing upon local resources as large a portion as possible of the expense of carrying them on.

Asia-Minor Mission.

On considering that there is a stock of various Works in the Turkish Language printed at Malta, and which are now lying in the Society's Warehouse there, the Committee suggest the expediency of employing the Rev. J. A. Jetter, and eventually the Rev. P. Fjellstedt, in itinerating in the Countries wherein the Turkish Language is vernacular, for the purpose of circulating the above, and other Turkish Works; but without forming establishments, involving expense to the Society. The knowledge which Messrs. Jetter and Fjellstedt have acquired of the character and manners of the Turks, as well as of their language, peculiarly fit them for this employment. It is not to be doubted, moreover, that their being so occupied would afford them numerous favourable opportunities, which they would gladly embrace, of explaining and enforcing the truths of Christianity.

South-India Mission.

In examining the Account Current of the South-India Mission, the Committee find that a grant of 125 rupees per mensem is made in aid of the support of Bishop Corrie's Grammar-School at Madras; amounting, at the present rate of exchange, to about 150*l.* per annum. An annual expense also is incurred of about 90*l.* for printing the Madras Church Missionary Record. The Committee are doubtful of the expediency of incurring these expenses on account of the Society.

New-Zealand Mission.

The Committee strongly feel the importance of introducing money-payments into the New-Zealand Mission, and of systematizing its expenditure; but as measures for the attainment of these objects as speedily as possible have already been taken, and are in a course of being carried into effect, it is not necessary for this Committee to dwell on the subject.

Trinidad and Jamaica Missions.

As the General Committee have taken measures to relinquish the operations of the Society in Trinidad and Jamaica, this Committee have only to express their entire concurrence in the expediency of this proceeding.

HOME EXPENDITURE.

After minutely examining the whole of the Home Expenditure of the Society, the Committee are of opinion that it is economically conducted; and they do not see that a reduction in it can be made, without impairing efficiency of operations.

Sick and Disabled Missionaries, their Widows and Children.

In considering the expense incurred on account of "Sick and Disabled Missionaries, their Widows and Children," the attention of the Committee was drawn to the Special Fund which was opened by the Committee, in 1820, for this head of charge. They find that that fund amounts at present to 16,000*l.* Consols. The course hitherto pursued with regard to it, has been, to invest in Consols the Dividends on the Stock, as well as the contributions to it within the year. The Committee are of opinion, that it is advisable that this course should be continued, until the fund shall amount to 20,000*l.* Consols. It may then be considered what plan it may be expedient thenceforward to take with regard to this fund.

Missionary Students.

The Committee find that there are upward of Thirty Students in the Islington Institution. This is a larger number than there has been in the Institution of late years, though the standard of qualifications in Candidates has been gradually raised. This process, the Committee understand, it is intended still further to pursue, to meet the advanced state of the Missions. The Committee are of opinion, that, on financial grounds also, it will be undesirable materially to increase the number of Missionary Students in the Institution, unless Candidates of a peculiarly promising character shall present themselves.

Capital Fund.

The attention of the Committee of Correspondence, in investigating the Financial Situation of the Society, has been strongly drawn to the fact, that the Committee have been compelled, during the present year, to obtain large advances on loan, from individual Members of the Society, as well as from the Bankers, to meet the current expenses. This is a state of things so seriously objectionable, that the Committee are of opinion that the most strenuous efforts should be employed to prevent its recurrence. The Committee have, in their former Report, expressed their opinion as to the necessity of so administering the Society's affairs, that its annual outlay should, if possible, not exceed its annual income. They trust that the measures recommended in their former Report, and which have received the sanction of the General Committee, in conjunction with those previously taken, will materially tend to the attainment of this end. But even supposing that object accomplished, loans in future years will be unavoidable, unless the Committee have at their disposal, at the beginning of each financial year, a sum in hand equal to meet the inequality between Income and Expenditure, which is constantly found to occur at certain parts of the year. Some years ago, the Committee possessed a fund of this description, of from 25,000*l.* to 30,000*l.* A large portion of this was sold from year to year, to meet the temporary inequality between Income and Expenditure just referred to; which sums, while the entire year's Income of the Society was equal, or nearly so, to its Expenditure, were replaced, as capital, before the Society's accounts were closed on the 31st of March. As the Society's operations enlarged, the amount requisite to meet this temporary inequality between Receipts and Outgoings was proportionably greater. In addition to this circumstance, the Income of the Society has of late, on an average of years, not equalled its Expenditure. Hence, what may be called its working capital has gradually been lessened in amount; and, at the commencement of the present year, it amounted only to about 8000*l.* This sum was so far below what was requisite to meet the inequalities between Receipts and Expenditure in the current year, that Loans to the amount of 20,000*l.* have been indispensable, in order to meet the current expenses. It thus appears, that a sum equal to at least one-third of the Annual Expenditure will be necessary, as an actual capital, to carry on the operations of the Society through the year without Loans, even when the entire Expenditure of the year does not exceed the Income.

The Committee are very solicitous that the Members of the Society should clearly understand the object and necessity of a fund of this description. The mode of conducting the operations of a Missionary Society is, in certain respects, analogous to that of a Commercial Body. A Missionary Society incurs pecuniary obligations—those of the Church Missionary Society now approaching to 100,000*l.* per annum; which are to be provided for, at intervals, throughout the year. As the funds for carrying on the operations of the Society in its Missions are provided by Bills on the Parent Committee, drawn as may be found practicable or most advantageous in the countries where the Missions are respectively carried on, the amount of Bills which may fall due at any particular period is variable and uncertain. Hence the necessity of having always at command a sum of money, to meet demands as they arise. In every mercantile concern, such a fund exists, under the head of Capital, and forms the basis of the whole of the transactions of the concern. But it may be said, that the expenditure of a Missionary Society is to be provided for, if its proceedings are properly conducted, out of the income of the year. As a general position, this is true; but it does not prevent the necessity of a fund in the nature of capital.

1. The periods at which the contributions of the various Branch Societies reach the Treasurer's hands are not, nor can possibly be rendered, coincident with the period and amounts of the payments which are to be made. Experience has fully attested, not only that, at certain parts of the year, the receipts of the Church Missionary Society are unequal to the payments falling due in those parts of the year, but that this disproportion is at times very considerable: so much so, indeed, that in the present year the sum of about 30,000*l.* was, as stated above, requisite to meet payments falling due beyond the amount actually received.

2. It is, moreover, to be constantly borne in mind, that the Income of the Society, being entirely derived from Voluntary Contributions, is liable to vary in its amount from year to year. This consideration renders it still more necessary that the Committee should have a sum of money at their disposal, of the nature of capital, to meet the fluctuations which, to a greater or lesser extent, must be anticipated between one year's income and another.

The Committee are persuaded that this simple exposition of the facts of the case will convince their friends that the present position of the Committee, in administering the affairs of the Society, is not only embarrassing and painful, but objectionable, if not absolutely discreditable. They therefore are constrained to appeal to the Members of the Society at large for such pecuniary aid as may place at their disposal a Working Capital, equal, at least, to One-third of the Society's Annual Expenditure.

This view of the subject presented itself so strongly to the mind of the Society's Noble Vice-President, Lord BEXLEY, that, in reply to a communication addressed to his Lordship in July last, explaining the pecuniary difficulties of the Society at that time, and the measures then adopted by the Committee for obtaining temporary loans from Members of the Society, his Lordship stated: "The plan proposed is probably the best which could be suggested for immediate relief, and I hope it may be successful as a temporary expedient ; but it seems to me, that nothing can effectually prevent the periodical recurrence of difficulties similar to the present, but such an effort, in the way of Extraordinary Contributions, as may enable the Society to replace a part of the fund reserved for contingencies. For this purpose, I enclose 100% ; and hope you will find a general feeling of the necessity of such an exertion among the friends of the Society."

So deeply are the Committee convinced of the justness of the sentiments expressed by Lord Bexley, and of the necessity of taking immediate measures for creating a capital sufficient creditably to carry on the operations of the Society from year to year, that they have prepared, and herewith submit to the consideration of the General Committee, an Appeal to the Members and Friends of the Society, on that head. The Committee earnestly hope that the just views and generous example of Lord Bexley will have their due weight, and contribute to relieve the Committee from those circumstances of painful embarrassment and difficulty in which they are at present placed.

The Committee the more confidently anticipate such a result, from the signal blessing which rests on the operations of the Society throughout its Missions. This very success has contributed to that enlargement of expenditure, from the consequences of which the Committee are now suffering. This is a ground of appeal which the Committee cannot doubt will be extensively felt. While it pleases God thus, by His Blessing, to promote the diffusion of the saving grace of the Gospel among those who are perishing for lack of knowledge, it is not for those whom the Father of Mercies has enriched with an abundance of this world's goods to hold back their hand from dispensing bountifully in aid of the great cause in which the Society is engaged, and in which it is thus signally prospered.

The Committee repeat, that they make this Appeal after a searching investigation into the whole of the Society's Expenditure, and the adoption of stringent measures for bringing the Total Expenditure of the Society for the year within the Income of the same year.

In closing their labours, the Committee cannot withhold the expression of their strong satisfaction at the manner in which the Expenditure of the Society in its Missions is conducted, and the solicitude which is manifested economically to appropriate the funds placed at their disposal by the parties by whom those funds are severally administered. One instance only of exception to this remark occurred to the Committee, in examining the Foreign Expenditure of the Society ; and concerning that, further information is called for.

APPENDIX IV.

ADDRESS OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, ON ITS PRESENT FINANCIAL SITUATION.

THE pecuniary difficulties in which the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY has become involved, led the General Committee, in September last, to refer it to the Committee of Correspondence, to consider the Financial State of the Society in all its bearings, and the measures which might in consequence be called for. The subject thus referred to them was very carefully considered by the Committee of Correspondence in many Meetings. The result of their investigations has been embodied in two Reports, which have been adopted by the General Committee.

These Reports state, that the Operations of the Society at Home and Abroad are economically conducted; that the General Committee has already done much to reduce Expenditure in the Missions, especially by gradually withdrawing from the West Indies, and impressing on all the Representatives of the Society abroad the necessity of keeping down the Expenditure; and that there is no prospect of further diminishing the Expenditure, but by a contraction of the Foreign Operations of the Society, or by providing more largely for the support of them from local resources.

The Committee of Correspondence therefore recommended, and the General Committee have already adopted, measures, with a view to cast a larger portion of the Expenditure of the several Missions, than has hitherto been done, on local resources. These are of two kinds.—THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF FRIENDS ON THE SPOT, TO THE MISSION CAUSE; and THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF NATIVE CONVERTS.

I. CONTRIBUTIONS ON THE SPOT.—Magnificent Contributions to the General Fund of the Society are now made by many Christian Friends abroad, especially in India; and these, the Committee trust, will be continued: but they think it reasonable to suppose that many will contribute specifically for local objects, in which a peculiar interest is felt; such as, Schools, and Buildings for Schools and Public Worship; and that even Heathen Natives might thus contribute, as some have already done, to the cause of Education. With this view, there will be a Local Fund opened in each Foreign Mission.

II. LOCAL FUNDS FROM NATIVE CONVERTS.—It has always been a recognised principle of the Committee, in carrying on the operations of the Society, that Native Converts should be habituated to the idea, that the support of a Native Ministry must eventually fall upon themselves; as, in their heathen state, they have been accustomed to bear the expense of Heathen Ministrations. The present position of the Society renders it more than ever important that this principle should be carried out to the utmost practicable extent. By this course, the Committee would be preparing the way for the transfer of such Native Christian Congregations to the regular Ecclesiastical Establishment; and leave themselves at liberty to go forward in the work of breaking up the fallow-ground of Heathenism, which is the peculiar province of a Missionary Society. The assertion of this principle is not intended, however, to interfere with measures for the endowment and establishment of a Native Church; but it is hoped that it may rather facilitate and prepare the way for that desirable and ultimate object.

III. MEASURES FOR ENLARGING THE INCOME.—Though the Committee are deeply impressed with the obligation which is imposed on the Managers of a Missionary Society, on moral as well as financial grounds, to limit the Expenditure from year to year within the Income of the year; yet they equally feel that the present state of the Society's operations, as well as of its finances, call for the use of all suitable means to enlarge that Income. With this view, and as one of the most effectual means of accomplishing it, the number of Association Secretaries has been increased; past experience having fully attested the efficiency of this branch of the Society's arrangements in extending the influence and increasing the Income of the Society.

The utter inadequacy of the Society's Income to meet the demands from abroad for Missionaries has compelled the Committee to reject many appeals for the formation of new Missions under very encouraging circumstances; and other similar ones are now before them, to which they have no alternative but to return the same painful reply.

IV. FORMATION OF A SUFFICIENT FUND IN HAND FOR MEETING THE CURRENT EXPENSES OF EACH FINANCIAL YEAR.—In investigating the Financial Situation of the Society, the attention of the Committee of Correspondence was strongly drawn to the fact, that the Committee have been compelled, during the present year, to obtain large advances, on loan, from individual Members of the Society, as well as from the Bankers, to meet the current expenses. This is a state of things so seriously objectionable, that the Committee are of opinion that the most strenuous efforts should be employed to prevent its recurrence. It has been already stated, that the Committee are powerfully impressed with the necessity of so administering the Society's affairs, that its annual outlay should, if possible, not exceed its annual income. They trust that the measures referred to above will materially tend to the securing of this object. But even in that case, loans, in future years, will be unavoidable, unless the Committee have at their disposal, at the beginning of each financial year, a sum in hand equal to meet the inequality between Income and Expenditure, which is constantly found to occur at certain parts of the year. Some years ago the Committee possessed a fund so disposable, of from 25,000*l.* to 30,000*l.* A considerable portion of this was sold, from year to year, when the Income of the Society was not half its present amount, to meet the temporary inequality between Income and Expenditure just referred to. These sums, while the entire year's Income of the Society was equal, or nearly so, to its Expenditure, were replaced, as capital, before the Society's accounts were closed on the 31st of March. As the Society's operations enlarged, the amount requisite to meet this temporary inequality between receipts and outgoings was proportionably greater. In addition to this circumstance, the Income of the Society has of late, on an average of years, not equalled its Expenditure. Hence, what may be called its working capital has gradually been lessened in amount; and at the commencement of the present year was only 8000*l.*; which sum was so far below what was requisite to meet the present year's inequalities between Receipts and Income, that, in addition, loans to the amount of more than 20,000*l.* have been indispensable, in order to meet the current expenses. It thus appears, that a sum equal to at least one-third of the Annual Expenditure will be necessary, as an actual capital, to carry on the operations of the Society through the year, without loans, even when the entire Expenditure of the year does not exceed the Income.

The Committee are very solicitous that the Members of the Society should clearly understand the object and necessity of a fund of this description. The mode of conducting the operations of a Missionary Society is, in certain respects, analogous to that of a commercial body. A Missionary Society incurs pecuniary obligations—those of the Church Missionary Society now approaching to 100,000*l.* per annum—which are to be provided for at intervals throughout the year. The funds for carrying on the operations of the Society in its Missions are provided by Bills on the Parent Committee, drawn, as may be found practicable or most advantageous, in the countries where the Missions are respectively carried on; and the amount of Bills which may fall due at any particular period is variable and uncertain: hence the necessity of having always at command a sum of money to meet demands as they arise. In every mercantile concern, such a fund exists, under the head of "Capital," and forms the basis of the whole of the transactions of the concern. But it may be said, that the expenditure of a Missionary Society is to be provided for, if its proceedings are properly conducted, out of the income of the year. As a general position, this is true; but it does not prevent the necessity of a fund in the nature of capital.

1. The periods at which the Contributions of the various Branch Societies reach the Treasurer's hands are not, nor can possibly be rendered, coincident with the periods and amounts of the payments which are to be made. Experience has, as already remarked, fully attested the fact, not only that at certain parts of the year the receipts of the Church Missionary Society are unequal to the payments falling due in those parts of the year; but that this disproportion is, at times, very considerable;—so much so, indeed, that, in the present year, the sum of about 30,000*l.* was, as stated above, requisite to meet payments falling due beyond the amount actually received.

2. It is, moreover, to be constantly borne in mind, that the Income of the Society, being entirely derived from voluntary contributions, is liable to vary in its amount from year to year. This consideration renders it still more necessary that the Committee should have a sum of money at their disposal, of the nature of capital, to meet the fluctuations which, to a greater or lesser extent, must be anticipated between one year's income and another.

3. Another consideration which recommends the formation of such a Fund as that in question, is, the peculiar claims to which a Missionary Society is liable. A Bible Society, or similar Institution, if its income falls below the rate of expenditure at which it is conducting its operations, can easily adjust its circumstances, by discontinuing for a time to print books. Not so a Missionary Society. It has contracted obligations to Missionaries and their families in distant countries and to Christian communities converted and settled in congregations by their instrumentality. Expenditure, and considerable expenditure, on account of these classes of persons cannot suddenly be withdrawn. Neither can they be provided for, in the event of a sudden failure of income, unless a fund be previously formed to meet such contingencies.

The Committee are persuaded, that this simple exposition of the facts of the case will convince their friends that the present position of the Committee in administering the affairs of the Society is not only embarrassing and painful, but objectionable, if not absolutely discreditable. They therefore are constrained to appeal to the members of the Society at large for such pecuniary aid as may place at their disposal a working capital, equal, at least, to one-third of the Society's Annual Expenditure.

The want of such a Fund presented itself so strongly to the mind of the Society's noble Vice-President, Lord BEXLEY, that, in reply to a communication addressed to his Lordship in July—explaining the pecuniary difficulties of the Society at that time, and the measures then adopted by the Committee for obtaining temporary loans from Members of the Society—his Lordship stated, "The plan proposed is probably the best which could be suggested for immediate relief, and I hope it may be successful, as a temporary expedient; but it seems to me, that nothing can effectually prevent the periodical recurrence of difficulties, similar to the present, but such an effort, in the way of extraordinary Contributions, as may enable the Society to replace a part of the fund reserved for contingencies. For this purpose I enclose 100*l.*; and hope you will find a general feeling of the necessity of such an exertion among the friends of the Society."

The Committee are deeply convinced of the justice of the sentiments expressed by Lord Bexley, and of the necessity of taking immediate measures for creating a capital sufficient creditably to carry on the operations of the Society from year to year: and they earnestly hope that the just views and generous example of his Lordship will have their due weight with the Members of the Society.

The Committee repeat, that they make this Appeal, after a searching investigation into the whole of the Society's Expenditure, and the adoption of stringent measures for bringing the total Expenditure of the Society for the year within the Income of the same year.

It is hoped that the foregoing statement will be received by the friends of the Society as a proof that the Committee are determined to take such measures as lie within their province, in order to release the Society from its present critical and embarrassed situation, as well as to prevent a recurrence of it hereafter, when once the finances of the Society shall be placed upon a satisfactory footing.

It will be asked how this state of things has been permitted to arise. The Committee reply:—

1. The large Expenditure in the West Indies, to promote the favourable transition of the Negro Population from a state of slavery to freedom, has borne very heavily on the finances of the Society. For this specific object a separate Fund was opened, which, contrary to the expectation of the Committee, fell far short of the Expenditure incurred; so much so, that in addition to the proceeds of that Fund—in addition, also, to the portions assigned to the Church Missionary Society of the Annual Parliamentary Grants for Negro Education, and to the sum of 1000*l.* contributed by the Jamaica Proprietors in this country in aid of the Society's operations in that island—a sum amounting to nearly 60,000*l.* was thrown on the General Fund of the Society in the six years from 1835-1836 to 1840-1841 inclusive.

2. The pecuniary difficulties of the Committee have likewise been materially increased by the very success with which it has pleased God of late years to crown the Society's operations; by which the Missions have been rapidly enlarged, and a consequent increase of Expenditure occasioned, especially in New Zealand, Tinnevelly, and North India. The news of multitudes inquiring the Way of Salvation led the Committee to incur expenses, of which the extent was not fully foreseen, in their anxiety to meet the demand.

It is on these grounds that the Committee now appeal to all their friends to make an extraordinary effort for raising a fund adequate to the necessity of the case. Unless such exertions be made, and made promptly, the operations of the Society must be contracted, Stations must be relinquished, Schools must be disbanded, the supply of Missionaries must be stopped, till the required fund can be raised out of the Annual Income.

The Committee are persuaded that their friends will make a zealous effort to avert such a calamity. They appeal to them in the name of the thousands and tens of thousands of Heathens who are anxiously inquiring the Way of Salvation, and soliciting Christian Ordinances at the hands of Missionaries who are already pressed beyond measure by their previous ministerial engagements; in the name also of our Blessed Lord and Master, whose arm has been manifestly revealed in the very state of things which has created their difficulties, and who has left us an example peculiarly bearing upon the present case; as it is written, Jesus, when He came out, saw MUCH people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and HE BEGAN TO TEACH THEM many things. (Mark vi. 34.)

This Appeal therefore rests on grounds which the Committee cannot doubt will be extensively felt. While it pleases God, by means of the Church Missionary Society, to dispense the unsearchable riches of Christ to those who are perishing for lack of knowledge, it is not for such as He hath enriched with an abundance of this world's goods to hold back their hand from imparting them bountifully in aid of the great Cause in which the Society is engaged, and in which it is thus signally prospered. FREELY YE HAVE RECEIVED, FREELY GIVE.

REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE FINANCIAL SITUATION OF THE SOCIETY.

IN reporting to the GENERAL COMMITTEE of the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY the result of our deliberations on the urgent matters to which our attention has been directed, we think it best, in the first place, to lay before the Committee the following Account of Receipts and Expenditure of the Society in each Year, from 1816-17 to 1841-42 inclusive:—

Years.	Receipts.			Expenditure.			Years.	Receipts.			Expenditure.

It appears, from this statement, that up to 1836-37 the Expenditure was generally less than the Income; but that the Expenditure exceeded the Income in

From which must be deducted the surplus of Income 1839-40,

Making a total of . . £42,662, excess of Expenditure in five years. The surplus of Income of the year 1839-40 was not owing to any diminution of Expenditure; but, partly, to the large amount raised that year, in return to an Appeal on the State of the Finances, published in May 1839; and partly to the delay of some of the Associations in making their Remittances the preceding year.

It appears also, from other documents, that in the year 1835-36 the Society was in possession of a Reserve Fund of upward of 30,000*l.* stock. That Fund has been diminished year by year; and, at the present moment, the Society is in the critical position of not only having expended all its Capital Fund, but of having contracted a debt of about 13,000*l.*; while the only property in this country possessed by the Society consists of the Land and Mission College Premises at Islington, of the estimated value of about £18,000.

It is important at the same time to remark, that, in the opinion of the Sub-Committee appointed in September last, for the purpose of making a searching investigation of the Society's affairs, it does not appear that the General Management of the Society has been carried on in an incautious or improvident manner; but that, on the contrary, the General Committee have been for some time past using every exertion to reduce the Expenditure.

The primary cause of the Society's financial difficulties is, as stated in the Report of the Sub-Committee above mentioned, the very large sum expended in the West Indies since the Emancipation of the Slaves of those Islands: and the pressure is now materially increased by the greatly enlarged operations of the Society in India and New Zealand; entailing not only a great, but a continually-increasing expenditure.

Having made these preliminary observations, we now proceed to state the different heads under which we have reduced our inquiries, and the recommendations which we are prepared to make upon each.

I. By what rule or principle should the limit of each year's estimated expenditure be fixed?

II. By what arrangement can the Corresponding Committees, and other Representatives of the Committee abroad, be prevented from exceeding the prescribed limits of their allowances?

III. How can a proper oversight and check be kept upon the state of the General Accounts, with reference to demands from abroad, and a sufficient supply of funds at home to meet them?

IV. Can any special measures, distinct from the general principles to be adopted, be suggested, in order to provide supplies for the current year?

I. By what rule or principle should the limit of each year's estimated expenditure be fixed?

It appears to us, that the golden rule and principle of restricting expenditure within income, equally applicable to communities and to individuals, ought, in a Religious Society, to obtain in a far higher degree, inasmuch as its aim and end are sacred. It is called upon, indeed, to occupy diligently with the talents committed to it; but not to aim at occupying with more talents than God, in His wisdom, has been pleased to dispense: and therefore it is our full persuasion that the Divine Blessing cannot be expected without a firm adherence to this sacred principle.

It is not only necessary, should the present difficulties be surmounted, that the future annual expenditure be brought within the income, but that a fund be formed for the purpose of reducing and liquidating the debt of 13,000*l*. Should this, by God's blessing, be effected, we are clearly of opinion, that, in conformity with the recommendation of the Sub-Committee of September last, a capital sum, equal to a third of the income, say 30,000*l*., should be accumulated, in order to place the Society, whose pecuniary liabilities are so enormous, in a proper position.

Toward securing these important results, it appears to us, that all Legacies should be set aside, and not be considered to form a part of the Society's income; and, that should the Annual Legacies not amount to £6000, a sufficient sum be added from the general funds of the Society to make up that sum annually, which, in the first instance, should be appropriated toward the discharge of the debt already incurred of 13,000*l*., and that which may arise from present liabilities; and, when the Society's debts have been discharged, should afterward be set aside, to accumulate, until the capital of 30,000*l*. be replaced. Supposing, then, as in the case of the past year, the annual income of the Society to be 91,000*l*.—including all Legacies and extra sources of income—the expenses should be fixed at 85,000*l*. as a maximum; with the understanding, that, should the income increase, the expenditure should not exceed that sum until the objects in view be obtained; while, on the other hand, should the income unfortunately fall below that amount, an equal diminution of the expenditure should take place, so as, at all events, to secure the annual saving of 6000*l*., as above stated.

In furtherance of these views, it is most important that the recommendations of the Committee appointed last September should be acted on; viz. that no additional Student be admitted into the Institution at Islington; and that no Missionary or Native Teacher be appointed, except to fill the place of those who may be removed by death, or other circumstances, from the service of the Society.

With a view of facilitating the operation of the important measures contemplated, it seems highly desirable that a permanent Finance Committee be appointed; before whom periodical statements of the pecuniary position of the Society should be laid, without whose concurrence no fresh grants or appointments should take effect, and whose veto, in all cases of this nature, should be final.

We now approach a point of considerable delicacy,—and upon which it was, perhaps, not contemplated that we should offer an opinion; but having maturely weighed the subject, we cannot discharge the duty which we have undertaken, unless we state our views of the manner most desirable, in some important points, of carrying the reduction of expenditure into effect.

We must preface the remarks which we are going to make with transcribing the account of Mission Expenditure for 1841-42.

In reviewing this account, it appears to us that the Resolution of the General Committee to withdraw the Society's operations altogether from the West Indies is a wise one; and we would earnestly urge that redoubled efforts be made to relieve the Society, as speedily as possible, from the heavy expenses of the Missions in Jamaica and Trinidad. We are glad to find that measures have been taken to dispose of the Press at Malta: we should advise that the operations of the Society there cease altogether. We would recommend a similar course with reference to Egypt, as well as to the Schools at Syra; which latter, however important in themselves, seem not to partake of that Missionary nature which should especially characterize the Society's operations. Those commenced in New Holland we think it would be best not to continue,—at all events for the present, as opening a field of an expenditure which might become very large. That in Southern Africa, we are informed, has been brought to a close; and that in Asia Minor is in process of termination. We also feel persuaded, that were it possible to surrender into other hands the Mission in North-West America, and that in British Guiana, it would be of great relief to the Society. We regret extremely that we should be necessitated to recommend the abandonment of fields, which it would have been desirable to cultivate to maturity, if adequate funds had existed; but which it would be highly imprudent to continue to occupy, unless equal reductions were made in other quarters not now specified.

Africa and the East were the original fields where the Society began to labour; and in Africa, India, and New Zealand, the most decided evidences of the Divine Blessing have been manifested. Were the Society's income quadrupled, there could be no difficulty in dispensing it on those fields, white already to harvest.

Supposing that all the reductions proposed were made, they would amount as follows:—

South Africa	£ 319
Malta	2768
Greece	1671
Asia Minor	389
Egypt	1588
New Holland	200
British Guiana	2878
Trinidad	3241
Jamaica	8450
North-West America	1028
Together	£ 22,532

In addition to this amount, reductions for the ensuing year of 7000*l.* in the East-Indian, and of 2000*l.* in the New-Zealand Missions, may be expected, in consequence of the strong representations which the General Committee have already made to the Corresponding Committees in those parts. On the other hand, it is feared that the expenses in Ceylon will exceed those of the preceding year by about 1500%.

In the aggregate, however, the proposed reductions, when they can be carried into full effect, would produce an annual saving of about 30,000%. But it must be evident, that, even should all those reductions be determined on, much time will be required to carry them into effect; while the debts and liabilities of the Society, and the new claims which may be made on it, must for a long time keep its pecuniary affairs in a critical position, leaving room for the most lively anxiety of its friends.

II. By what management can the Corresponding Committees, and other Representatives of the Committee abroad, be prevented from exceeding the prescribed limits of their allowances?

We think that the proper means to secure this end, would be—

First, That the Corresponding Committees abroad be desired to furnish Estimates, with detailed particulars of the probable expenses of each ensuing year.

Secondly, That these Estimates be thoroughly sifted by the proper Authorities at home; making all possible reductions, with the view of bringing the whole to bear on the required diminished scale of expenditure.

Thirdly, That the Estimates and suggested reductions be submitted to the consideration of the Finance Committee. And, Fourthly, That when the limits of expenditure for each Mission are definitively fixed, communications be made to the respective Corresponding Committees abroad, that the Society will not be answerable for any sum beyond the amount fixed, and that all drafts exceeding that amount will be dishonoured.

This decided course is imperatively called for; and, without its adoption, it is impossible to control the Expenses of Missions, and, consequently, of the general expenditure of the Society.

III. How can a proper oversight and check be kept upon the state of the General Accounts, with reference to demands from abroad, and a sufficient supply of funds at home to meet them?

The establishment of a Finance Committee, as already recommended, before whom periodical statements of the Society's pecuniary affairs would of course be laid, would materially facilitate the above objects.

Further, great advantage, as to Regularity, would be gained, if the course now pursued in the African Missions, of drawing quarterly for their expenses, were made general and imperative throughout the Foreign Establishments of the Society; with the exception, perhaps, of New Zealand, where we believe it would not be practicable.

By such an arrangement, and the Estimates, as proposed, before them, it is obvious that the Society would know the amount of the demands that would come upon them at the different periods of the year; and would be saved from sudden calls from abroad, and from the inconvenience of not having funds in readiness at home to meet them.

IV. Can any special measures, distinct from the general principles to be adopted, be suggested, in order to supply funds for the present year?

On this important head, it does not occur to us that we can offer any particular suggestions, distinct from those which we have already submitted; or that we can point out any facts of which the General Committee are not already cognisant: although it is of course most important to devise every suitable means to break up new ground throughout the country, and to bring the alarming position of the Society more prominently before its friends.

We feel a sanguine hope, that when the friends of the Society become convinced that the resolution is made, and will be religiously acted on, at whatever sacrifice, of not only restraining the expenditure within the income, but of putting aside so large a sum as 6000% a year in order to replace the Society in its former position of credit, they will come forward with enlarged contributions, to relieve it from the difficulties which so heavily weigh it down at present.

A sum of about 2000% has already been contributed to the Capital Fund; specifically toward which object earnest appeals should be made for Subscriptions.

In Conclusion, we must beg to say, that though we felt extreme reluctance to undertake the duty committed to us, we have endeavoured to discharge it faithfully. In recommending a course which, by some, may be considered extreme, we must request attention to the foregoing Tables and Statements; from which it is evident, that, notwithstanding the gratifying fact of the Society's income not having fallen off, no remedy but that of a great and systematic reduction of expenditure can be effectual to meet the present alarming exigency. No remedial measures of a less stringent character than those which we have proposed, can, in our opinion, prove available; and it is most important to bear in mind, that should a middle course be adopted, and that fall, even those retrenchments which we have now recommended will no longer be sufficient to meet the fresh accumulations of embarrassments; and thus overburthened, the Society would not only become paralysed in its energies, but its very existence would become endangered.

BENEFACTIONS, COLLECTIONS, AND ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS, PAID DIRECT TO THE PARENT SOCIETY.

It being necessary, from the great number of Association Lists, to make up this List to the 31st of December in each year, Benefactions, Collections, and New Subscriptions, which are paid after that date, cannot appear in the Report presented to the Annual Meeting in the following May.

Benefactions of 10l. and upward, through Associations, are, after the first year, transferred to the General List of Contributions paid direct to the Parent Society, and continued in that List during the life of the Benefactor.

Anonymous Benefactions, and all Benefactions under 10l., are discontinued after having been once inserted.

The Names of Collectors are omitted in all cases where a payment has not been made within the last three years.

Subscribers and Benefactors who pay through the different Associations in London will find their names in the respective Lists of Associations.

Great difficulty being found in making the following List of Contributions correct, the Committee will feel obliged by having any errors, or alterations consequent on death, change of residence, or other causes, pointed out to them.

* * Some misapprehension having arisen with regard to the Association Balance Sheets appended to the Society's Report, the Committee beg to state that there is no connexion between those Balance Sheets and the Balance Sheet of the Parent Committee. The Association Accounts are, for the most part, made up to the period of their respective Anniversary Meetings, and thus, necessarily, vary from the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet, which includes the actual payments made at the Society's House between April 1st and 31st March in each year, and is, therefore, quite irrespective of the periods at which, for local convenience, Association Accounts are made up and balanced. An Account Current is kept at the Society's Office with each Association, by which the actual transmission of its receipts to the Parent Committee is shown. The appending to the Society's Report of the Balance Sheets of the Associations may be regarded as a universal acknowledgment to the local Contributors that their Contributions have been received by the Parent Committee; though the varying periods at which, as above stated, those Accounts are made up, render it impossible that their totals should correspond with the amount received from Associations, specified in the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet.

It is further to be observed, that there are other causes of discrepancy, beside that of difference in time, which has the effect of swelling the amount acknowledged in the Association Balance Sheets beyond that which is exhibited in the Balance Sheet appended to the Report; inasmuch as Legacies, Benefactions, &c., although paid direct, are frequently claimed by an Association, the Benefactor having lived within the limits of such Association, though the payment was made direct to the Parent Society. As these Accounts have no reference to the Parent Committee's printed Balance Sheet, there has been no hesitation in transferring such amounts, as desired. The effect, however, of this has unavoidably been, in some instances, that the sums transferred have been twice acknowledged; the Committee's Balance Sheet having been made up before notice desiring such transfer was received at the Society's Office.

N.B. Benefactors of Ten Guineas and upward, whose Names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will now find them in the General List.
