At the Forty-fifth Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May the 6th, 1845—

The Right Hon. the EARL of CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY ONE OF THE CLERICAL SECRETARIES AND THE REV. JOHN VENN, PREBENDARY OF HEREFORD—

On the Motion of Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Bart., M.P., V.P., seconded by the Hon. and Rev. Baptist Wriothlesley Noel, M.A., Minister of St. John's Chapel, Bedford Row, and Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; that the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. Hugh M'Neile, for his Sermon before the Society last evening; to his Grace the Vice-Patron; to the Right Hon. the President and the Vice-Presidents; and to all those friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf; and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the ensuing year, with power to fill up vacancies: (See LIST, p. iv.)

On the Motion of the Lord Ashley, M.P., V.P., seconded by the Rev. Henry Venn Elliott, M.A., Perpetual Curate of St. Mary's, Brighton,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting, contemplating the steady advance of the work of God in the Missions of the Society—and especially the consolidation of the rising Churches in Sierra Leone, in Tinnevely, in Krishnaghur, and in New Zealand; and the commencement of a Native Ministry out of those who have been trained from their youth in Christian habits, and nurtured in the bosom of a Native Christian Church—would express their humble gratitude to the Great Head of the Church for the honour He has put upon its instrumentality; and record the acknowledgment of their entire dependence upon His Divine Guidance and Blessing for the fuller development and perfection of the great and blessed work so happily in progress.

On the Motion of the Right Hon. Lord Glenelg, V.P., seconded by the Rev. James Scholefield, M.A., Regius Professor of Greek, and Perpetual Curate of St. Michael's, Cambridge,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the advanced state to which the Missions of the Society have been brought, through the signal blessing of Almighty God upon the labours of its Missionaries, forms a powerful claim upon the Church at home for greatly enlarged exertions to meet the increased demands of the Missions; and more especially to supply a larger body of Missionaries for exercising pastoral ministrations in the newly-formed Churches, for imparting a sound theological education to Natives of hopeful character, and for affording an adequate superintendence over the extensive Native Agency now rising into activity; and that, for these ends, an urgent appeal be made to the friends of the Society to recommend suitable Candidates for the Institution at Islington, and also to the Students of our Universities, and to the younger Clergy of our Church, to enter on the work of Missions in connexion with the Society.

On the Motion of the Rev. Hugh Stowell, M.A., Minister of Christ Church, Salford, Manchester, seconded by the Rev. Hugh M'Neile, M.A., Minister of St. Jude's, Walton-on-the-Hill, Liverpool,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Reports from the Missionaries already engaged in the China Mission encourage the Society to make strenuous efforts, without further delay, to enlarge its operations in that interesting field of labour; yet, so as not to weaken the existing Missions in other parts of the Heathen World.

At a Meeting of the Society, held in Exeter Hall, on Tuesday Evening, May 6, 1845.—

The Most Hon. the MARQUESS CHOLMONDELEY, one of the Vice-Presidents, in the Chair,

EXTRACTS FROM THE REPORT HAVING BEEN READ BY ONE OF THE CLERICAL SECRETARIES—

On the Motion of John Pemberton Plumptre, Esq., M.P., V.P., seconded by the Rev. Edward Bickersteth, Rector of Watton, Herts,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting views the success which the Lord has granted to the Labourers of this Society in all its principal Missionary Fields with devout gratitude and praise,—as an honour and privilege put upon our Society, and upon the Church to which we belong,—as an inestimable benefit conferred upon the Heathen,—and as the earnest of still more abundant blessings reserved for the Church of Christ, both at home and abroad.

On the Motion of the Rev. Francis Close, M.A., Perpetual Curate of St. Mary's, and Curate of St. Paul's, Cheltenham, seconded by the Rev. C. Barth, D.D., of Calw, Würtemberg,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting desires to recognise the duty of the friends of the Missionary Cause at home to cherish an affectionate and Christian sympathy with the Labourers in foreign lands, who are bearing the heat and burden of the day, in all their perils, trials, and disappointments; in their bitter bereavements, through the stroke of death; in their separation from their dearest relatives; and especially in their persecutions and privations for Christ's sake.

On the Motion of the Rev. J. B. Owen, M.A., Perpetual Curate of St. Mary's, Bilston, seconded by the Rev. John C. Miller, M.A., Minister of Park Chapel, Chelsea,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting records its solemn conviction of the necessity of united and earnest prayer to the Lord, that, as His providence has opened before us enlarged prospects of usefulness, so His grace may incline the hearts of His people to give of their substance with enlarged liberality, and may stir up the hearts of others to dedicate themselves to the work of Missionaries; and that so the dispensations of His providence and of His grace may concur in the perfecting of the work of our hands.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued: The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.*

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. That all questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and any Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

XXXIII. That the object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as, in any other respect, to alter the principles and practice of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions, falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference, cannot properly be considered as so bound.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The following passage, from Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Annual Report, illustrates the practice of the Society in reference to this Rule:—

"The Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] our Missionaries—these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same Colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church."

APPENDIX II. TO THE THIRTY-NINTH REPORT.

REFERRED TO IN THE NOTE TO LAW XXIX.

REMARKS ON THE CONSTITUTION AND PRACTICE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, WITH REFERENCE TO ITS ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONS.

It is the object of the following Remarks, to show that the constitution and practice of the Church Missionary Society are in strict conformity with Ecclesiastical principles, as they are recognised in the constitution and practice of the Church of England.

Throughout the system of the Church of England there is a recognised co-operation of temporal and spiritual functions IN MATTERS ECCLESIASTICAL; that is, the Laity and Clergy have not only their separate and distinct provinces, but, in many important respects, they unite their agency for the accomplishing of Ecclesiastical acts.

For instance, in supplying a vacant Church, a Lay-Patron selects and presents "his Clerk"—as the Clergyman is technically called—to the Bishop; who thereupon invests him with authority to minister in that Church. So, also, there are certain Lay-officers appointed to every Church—the Churchwardens or Sidesmen—whose duty it is, not only to guard, in conjunction with the Minister, the temporalities of the Church, but also to watch over the due performance of Divine Service, the morals of the parishioners, and the conduct of the Minister; and to report, from time to time, on each of these matters, to the Ecclesiastical Authorities. The duty of these officers is implied in the old appellation, "Sidesmen," or "Synodsmen"—men summoned to attend and give information at Synods and Visitations.

The distinction and co-operation of lay and spiritual functions in the Church of England might be further illustrated in the case of Ecclesiastical Courts, and various relations which arise out of the principle, that the Sovereign is the Supreme Ruler of the Church.

Keeping the foregoing distinction in view, the Church Missionary Society may be regarded as an Institution for discharging the temporal and lay offices necessary for the preaching of the Gospel among the Heathen. It is strictly a Lay Institution: it exercises, as a Society, no spiritual functions whatsoever.

Such being the constitution of the Society in theory—are its proceedings conducted in conformity with this theory, and with the Ecclesiastical principles of the Church of England?

In order to review these proceedings, they may be conveniently arranged under the FOUR following Heads:

I. THE COLLECTION OF THE HOME REVENUE, and THE DISBURSEMENT OF IT ABROAD.

These acts are altogether within the province of Laymen.

II. THE SELECTING AND EDUCATING CANDIDATES FOR MISSIONARY EMPLOYMENT.

In this department there is no necessary encroachments upon spiritual functions. The Colleges in our Universities are Lay-Corporations, and may, in many cases, be administered and presided over by Laymen.

Yet it may be urged, that in this department there is an approach to the peculiar province of Clergymen; because, spiritual persons seem the more proper judges of a Candidate's fitness for Missionary employment: and it is generally admitted, that a Bishop may exercise a controul over the education and training of Candidates to be advanced by himself to Holy Orders. Now, in both these particulars the Church Missionary Society has carefully guarded its proceedings. The examination of Missionary Candidates is referred to a Clerical Sub-Committee; and the General Committee consult and act upon the report of this Clerical trial and judgment. In respect of the other point, the education and training of Candidates for Holy Orders, the Church Missionary College at Islington has the sanction and approbation of the Bishop of London; who, in this country, admits to Holy Orders all the Society's Candidates: and his Lordship has repeatedly expressed his satisfaction at the results of the system of instruction, as they have been manifested in his examinations for Holy Orders.

III. The Third general head of the Society's proceedings is, THE SENDING FORTH, TO PARTICULAR STATIONS, THE MISSIONARIES THUS ORDAINED, OR OTHER CLERGYMEN WHO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY ORDAINED.

Now, here an objection against the Society has been founded on the use of the term "sending forth:"—it sounds like an "exercise of Ecclesiastical power. But, Ecclesiastically speaking, the Bishop of London, "sends forth" every Missionary ordained by him. The Law of the land has sanctioned the Two Archbishops, and the Bishop of London, in ordaining persons to officiate abroad. The Secretary of the Church Missionary Society requests, by Letter, the Bishop of London to ordain, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of Parliament, such and such persons, whom the Society is willing to support in some Foreign Station. The Bishop, by the imposition of hands, gives them authority to preach the Gospel, with a view to their Foreign location.—In the case of persons already in Holy Orders, who may join the Society, they may be said to go forth by their own voluntary act; but their Letters of Orders, given by a Bishop of our Church, are their mission and commission, Ecclesiastically speaking.

Hence, to call the acts of the Church Missionary Society—in selecting the station, paying the passage-money, and agreeing to provide the Missionary's salary—to call these acts a SENDING FORTH of Preachers, in an Ecclesiastical sense, is to confound names with things, and to lose sight of all true Church principles.

IV. The Fourth general head under which the proceedings of the Church Missionary Society may be arranged, is, THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MISSIONARIES IN THEIR LABOURS AMONG THE HEATHEN.

Here a distinction must be made between the case of those Foreign Stations which lie within the jurisdiction of a Colonial Bishop, and other stations, which are not so situated, and may therefore be termed Extra-diocesan.

In the first case, the Church Missionary Society has expressly determined, that all its ordained Missionaries shall be submitted for licence to the Bishop of the diocese in which they may be stationed; and that no Missionary shall exercise his spiritual functions in such diocese without a licence. The Society has further recognised the uncontrolled discretion of the Bishop to grant or withhold his licence, and the propriety of specifying in such licence a particular district as the field of labour; so that a Missionary cannot be removed from one district to another without the sanction of the Bishop.

These principles were stated in a Letter from the Society to the Bishop of Calcutta, signed by the Right Honourable the President—December 17, 1835—in a manner so satisfactory to the Bishop, that he embodied them in the four following Rules, expressed for the most part in the words of the Society's Letter: which were, at the Bishop's request, entered upon the minutes of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, as the recognised Rules of their practice:—

"1. The Bishop expresses—by granting or withholding his licence, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approbation or otherwise, of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries afterward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their Ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those—the Committee and Secretary—who still stand in the relation of Lay-Patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his Ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage.—The Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate directions, when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop* or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives, further, all such confidential information, on all topics, as the Bishops officially neither could wish nor properly ask [to receive]."

* The Three Bishops of India, and the Bishop of Australia, are the Presidents of the Corresponding Committees in their respective dioceses.

The Bishop also wrote to the Parent Society in the following terms:—"You seem to me to lay down the principle most correctly. . . . This is to me perfectly satisfactory; as I shall instantly inform the Archbishop of Canterbury, to whom I report all the proceedings of the diocese."—9th June, 1836.

It will be perceived, that the Missionaries, thus licensed, stand toward the Bishop in the relation rather of Stipendiary Curates, than of Beneficed Clergymen. For a Bishop in England cannot refuse a licence or institution to a benefice, without assigning a reason which will bear investigation before a Court of Common Law; nor can he deprive a Clergyman of his benefice without a judicial process. But no law has provided any such check in the case of Missionaries: the Bishop has the power of withholding a licence, or of withdrawing it, at his sole discretion, without assigning any cause, as in the case of Stipendiary Curates in this country.

If it be asked, What are the checks and safeguards against the undue exercise of this discretionary power of the Bishop?—it may be replied, in the words of the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Parent Society, April 12, 1837:—

"We are not to take for granted, that discretionary power will be abused; but, on the contrary, to provide, by a cheerful and friendly spirit and conduct, against the likelihood of such an occurrence. If the event of arbitrary conduct should arise, or be supposed to arise, the remedies are—public opinion—an appeal to the Archbishop—and the Society's refusing to make other appointments and locations than those unreasonably objected to. Nothing is the least likely—and probability is the guide of life—to arise to impede or cramp the Committee; since they unquestionably and avowedly possess, 'The choice of men—The appointment of spheres of labour—The temporal power, including pecuniary support.'"

But though the Bishop's licence is at once the pledge and proof that the Society's Missionaries are under Episcopal superintendence and jurisdiction, and that the spiritual oversight rests altogether with the Bishop; yet the Society may seem, to some persons, to keep up a kind of spiritual jurisdiction and oversight, by requiring accounts from the Missionaries of all their proceedings, and by giving them directions, from time to time, which may bear upon their spiritual duties. But it must be remembered, that the Society stands toward its Missionaries in the relation of Trustees of the fund out of which their salaries are paid. In the case of a Beneficed Clergyman in this country, the Minister is the guardian and possessor of the temporalities of the benefice, because the benefice is an endowment; and the Patron has no further connexion with the Minister whom he has once presented to the Bishop. In our case, the office of Patron is, in a sense, perpetuated by the payment of the salary, and the possession of all the temporalities of the Mission.

This matter has been well explained by the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, May 26, 1837:—"The Missionary Committees," says his Lordship, "have a far greater latitude in India than any Lay-Patrons at home. Upon presenting his Clerk to the Bishop, the Patron at home is functus officio. The Clergyman is removed, on being once instituted and licensed, totally and for ever from the Patron, and is transferred to the superintendency of the Bishop. The Patron has nothing whatever more to do with him. But in India, the Committee is (1) the continued paymaster of the Missionary after he is duly licensed;—for institution and induction there are none. (2) They correspond with him. (3) They supply him with Catechists. (4) They report his chief proceedings home. (5) They propose removals and changes of station to the Bishop. (6) They exercise, unavoidably, an influence which does not belong to the mere Lay-Patron; and are aiding, in a variety of ways, to the comfortable and honourable discharge of the Missionary's most exalted and most spiritual duties."

It remains to consider the case of those Stations which are Extra-diocesan; i. e. where there is no Colonial Bishop of the Church of England having jurisdiction over them.

In these cases, the Society has endeavoured to procure for such stations the benefits of the Episcopal office from the nearest Bishop of the Church of England. Application was made by the Committee both to the late and to the present Bishop of Madras, to extend, as far as circumstances would admit, these benefits to the Mission in Travancore; which, as an independent state, not forming a part of the British Dominions, was not included in the diocese of Madras. A similar application was made on behalf of the New-Zealand Mission, to the Bishop of Australia; who at once acceded to the request, and kindly promised to visit New Zealand as soon as his other duties would permit; stating, in a Letter to the Society's representatives at Sydney, "It is highly satisfactory to me, that our friends at home are taking a view of these things which proves them to belong, not only to a MISSIONARY, but also to a CHURCH Society." (See Annual Report, 1838.)

Such is a General View of the Constitution and Proceedings of the Church Missionary Society.

It is not intended to assert, that errors are not sometimes committed in the application of these principles to matters of detail. It must be remembered, that Missionary operations are, alas! new and anomalous in the system of the Church of England; and that it is not always easy to draw a definite line between the two provinces which belong respectively to the Bishop and the Committee. It has been observed by the Bishop of Calcutta—Letter, May 26, 1837: "The boundaries of the power of Committees, as they approach to those of the Bishop, can be ascertained, in many points, only by time and observation." Perplexities have consequently occurred; and, unhappily, misunderstandings have sometimes arisen between the Representatives of the Society abroad and Ecclesiastical Authorities. But these are the principles by which the Home Committee have endeavoured to guide the proceedings of the Society: and they confidently respond to a sentiment expressed by the Bishop of Calcutta—"The principles of our new relations are now fully recognised: the details will soon find their level."—Letter, 9th June 1836.

In reviewing the Ecclesiastical relations of the Church Missionary Society, there are two or three points which it seems very important to notice.

1. Missionary operations, as they are conducted by the Church Missionary Society, though apparently anomalous in the system of the Church of England, are yet in strict conformity with its constitution and principles: they are analogous to many other instances of voluntary exertion for the extension of true religion within the Church, in which Ecclesiastical authority and Lay co-operation unite for the accomplishment of the same end: so that these operations may be regarded as the acts of the Church of England, putting forth its energy for the Conversion of the Heathen World. For it has been shown, that the Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth our Missionaries—that these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church. Even in the few cases in which Lutheran Clergymen are employed, this rule is observed; and all the congregations which are gathered into the fold of Christ are trained up as Members of the Church established in this land.

And here it may be observed, that nothing less than the sanction of a duly-assembled Convocation can more fully identify the acts of any Missionary Society, within the Church of England, with the Church.* Without such sanction, all associations of Churchmen must stand in the same position. Still further, not to notice the present abeyance of Convocations, it may be asserted, that even if the Church were to assemble in her provincial Convocations, and to decree and to regulate Missionary operations, such proceedings could not essentially add to, or alter, those important particulars which, under present circumstances, entitle the operations of the Church Missionary Society to be regarded as Missionary operations of the United Church of England and Ireland.

2. It must be ever borne in mind, that Missionary operations are, in their very nature, temporary and preparative;—that they are to be gradually but eventually superseded by a different order of things, when the Heathen Nations shall have become Christianized. In some cases, as in the West Indies, this change is further advanced than in others. Now, it must be expected, that, in proportion as this change advances, difficulties and perplexities will arise in our Ecclesiastical relations, peculiar to this TRANSITION STATE—from Missionary operations, to that happy consummation when there shall be an endowed and established system of Christian Instruction, and a territorial division of Ministerial labour. This consummation the Church Missionary Society has ever kept in view, and devoutly desired; and, as far as possible, has prepared for its approach. In an interview with the Bishop of Barbados—April 1835—this point was expressly alluded to; and it was stated by the Committee to his Lordship, “that whenever a district should be brought into the state of an organized Christian community, it should assume entirely the Parochial form, and cease to be occupied as a Missionary Station.—The Bishop entirely acquiesced in this view; and only expressed his anxiety that it should not be so acted upon as prematurely to deprive a district of the Missionary’s services.” (Extracts from Committee’s Minute.)

3. Lastly, it must be evident, from a review of the whole subject, that our Ecclesiastical relations depend, in many important respects, upon a mutual confidence and good understanding between the Committee and its representatives, and the Ecclesiastical Authorities both at home and abroad. This must be the case, to argue upon no higher grounds, while those relations are governed by Ecclesiastical laws and canons made without reference to Missionary operations, for an Established Church in a Christian country; and where so much is also necessarily left to the discretion of both parties. If we look to our Home operations, the Committee places confidence in the Bishop of London, that he will continue to ordain the Missionary Candidates introduced to his Lordship by the Society, according to the provisions of the Act: and the Lord Bishop of London relies upon the Committee’s using every means to select, train, and duly qualify proper candidates to be thus introduced to him.

So also, in its Foreign operations, the Society places confidence in the Colonial Bishops—as it has been already shown, in a quotation from the Letter of Bishop Wilson—that they will not exercise an unreasonable or arbitrary discretion, in withholding or withdrawing licences from our Missionaries, or in refusing ordination to our Candidates. And the Bishops, by granting licences and ordination to the Missionaries of a voluntary Society, whose income is liable to fluctuations, and whose agents are constantly changing, manifestly place confidence in the Committees, that they will use every endeavour to keep up the Missions once established; and that they will not, on their part, act in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner, or withdraw the salary from a licensed Missionary, without reason sufficient to prove to the licensing Bishop the necessity of the proceeding.

It seems impossible to supersede this conventional understanding—as it may be termed—till Missions are supported by endowments, or till a code of Missionary canons be established by competent authority.

This mutual confidence and good understanding now exists, it may be thankfully asserted, between the Committee of the Society and the Ecclesiastical Authorities of every Colonial Diocese in which Missionaries are labouring. And may He, who is the God, not of confusion, but of peace, and “the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls,” unite together the hearts and hands of those who are labouring in this Holy Cause—“that all and every of these may, IN THEIR SEVERAL CALLINGS, serve truly and painfully, to the glory of His name!”

2 CORINTHIANS X. 4.

FOR THE WEAPONS OF OUR WARFARE ARE NOT CARNAL, BUT MIGHTY THROUGH GOD TO THE PULLING DOWN OF STRONGHOLDS.

ST. PAUL was a Christian Missionary. He knew, by inspiration of God, the true state of the Heathen world ; and in this he especially gloried, that to him—unworthy as he felt himself to be of the high trust—was this grace given, that he should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ. It is indeed an ennobling privilege to be engaged, lawfully, in direct furtherance of the work for which Christ died ; and in St. Paul we behold a bright and blessed example for the imitation of all Missionaries, and of all Missionary Societies. I cannot, therefore, introduce the observations which it now becomes my duty to lay before you in any manner more instructive, as I trust, to you, My Christian Brethren, or more advantageous to the great cause we have at heart, or to the noble Institution whose claims we advocate, than by a reference to the character and conduct of St. Paul ; so far, at least, as is necessary for the right understanding of the context from which I have read these striking words.

St. Paul was no compromiser, either in word or deed : his rejoicing was this—the testimony of his conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, he had his conversation in the world. With unfeigned respect for the feelings of others, and affectionate anxiety to avoid all unnecessary offence, he did indeed, in every non-essential matter, become all things to all men. Nevertheless, his testimony for God, as manifested in Jesus Christ, was, in every thing fundamental, too plain, and bold, and faithful, to escape opposition in this fallen world. He loved peace; and as he exhorted others, so he ardently desired himself, as far as lay in him, if it were possible, to live peaceably with all men. But he could enter into no compact with the world, either by express agreement, or by tacit understanding, to procure or prolong peace by the suppression or adulteration of truth, or any portion of truth. He could not, even by the dissimulation of such men as Peter and Barnabas, be induced, for a moment, to connive at the admixture of the traditions of men with the simplicity of the Gospel of the grace of God. He could not, by any plausible disguise of false charity, be deceived into such neutral ground, with the Heathen disputants who encountered him, as to say, Allow me to declare my peculiar opinions without opposition, and I will not attack or expose the falsehood or absurdity of your peculiar opinions: allow me to say that in Christ Jesus there is salvation, and I will, for peace' sake, refrain from adding, neither is there salvation in any other: allow my Lord and Saviour admission to your Pantheon, and I will not demand the rejection of Jupiter or Apollo, or the great goddess Diana.

No! he had not so learned Christ. He knew and believed, really believed—and this makes all the difference between a preacher of Christ and a preacher of self, in some shape—that Jesus was the way—not one among many ways, but the one only way—whereby any human being could return to God, and be truly happy. He knew that salvation came by faith, that faith came by hearing, and hearing by the word of God—the word not corrupted, neither used deceitfully, but proclaimed and commended to every man's conscience—without partiality and without hypocrisy; and therefore he could not, he dared not, withhold the startling tidings.

The Lord had sent him for the express purpose of disturbing the stagnant waters of human corruption, and he could not treacherously become stagnant himself; thereby rendering his mission abortive. On the contrary, wherever he went, his preaching and his conversation occasioned a commotion; so that he and his associates in the mission were scornfully described as the men who had turned the world upside down.

His theme was Christ. At Jerusalem and in Rome; at Antioch and Ephesus; standing in full assembly before King Agrippa, and tempest-tossed with a few mariners in a small trading-vessel in the Mediterranean; confronting philosophers, Epicureans, and Stoics, on Mars Hill at Athens; and surrounded by the savage aborigines of the Island of Melita; everywhere, and to all men, his theme was Christ. And the consequence was, that while everywhere God blessed his labours to the conversion of a people out of the world; the unconverted, everywhere, being self-condemned, were exasperated into opposition and persecution. This was sometimes manifested in open violence, as, by stripes, stoning, imprisonment; at other times, in ill-natured reports, industriously circulated to injure his reputation, and thereby damage his ministry.

Detraction of this kind had been practised at Corinth. The enemies of the Gospel in that city endeavoured to poison the minds of the people against Paul, by insinuating that he walked according to the flesh—i. e. that he was not the devoted servant of God which he pretended to be; but was, after all, carrying on an interested scheme, according to the principles of worldly wisdom and carnal policy. Against these he defends himself, distinguishing between walking in the flesh and walking according to the flesh; or, as he afterward expresses it, warring after the flesh. He says, Though we walk in the flesh—i. e. though we live in the body, and require supplies for the wants of the body, and rest for the infirmities of the body; and though we are at liberty to use these things, eating and drinking and sleeping, through the weakness of our mortal flesh; and though we are indebted, for the means of procuring such refreshments, to the liberality of our Christian brethren, and do not scruple candidly to ask, and gratefully to receive of them, once and again—yet in our Christian warfare the case is different: there we have crucified the flesh, with its affections and lusts: we are no longer guided by fleshly wisdom, nor enticed into fleshly alliances: we know that the cause of our Divine Master cannot be advanced by any carnal contrivances; and we are delivered from the hypocrisy of making a professed zeal for Him a cloak for maliciousness or covetousness in ourselves. We do not war after the flesh. Our Christian course is indeed a warfare, and not simply a walk. But the weapons of our warfare are not carnal in themselves; neither do they depend for their success on any carnal policy. They are spiritual; and, through the co-operating energy of God Himself, they are mighty to the pulling down of strongholds.

To the Managers, Members, and Agents of the Church Missionary Society here assembled; to all its friends and supporters; and to all its labourers, at home and abroad, to whom these words may at any time be conveyed; I would, with affectionate fidelity, present the Missionary Apostle, in his counsels and in his conduct, saying, Be ye followers of him, even as he also was of Christ.

I. CONSIDER YOUR WARFARE.

It is against strongholds indeed. The heathen millions of the human race are fast held in worse than iron bondage. They are led captive by the devil at his will. Even their religions, or what they call their religions, are no exception to this. The things which they offer in sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God. Their attempted remedies are themselves pollutions. The light that is in them, or what they esteem light, is darkness. How great, then, how hopeless, is their darkness! Their moral state is a state of alienation from God—nay, enmity itself against God. They are dead in trespasses and sins. Guilty, they are obnoxious to God's justice: corrupt, they are odious to God's holiness. There is, and can be, no true holiness among them. Holiness is moral conformity to God, the HOLY ONE. Without communion sustained in the spirit, no such conformity can be produced in man; and without a satisfying knowledge of His pardoning mercy, and a grateful response of love to Him who first loved us, no spiritual communion can be experienced.

The Heathen have no knowledge of God's pardoning mercy. They worship imaginary tyrants—cruel, blood-thirsty deities. They experience no response of grateful love: therefore, they can enjoy no spiritual communion; and, therefore, they can imbibe no real holiness.

Let the awful fact, thus simply proved to every spiritual mind, sink deep, with its overwhelming solemnity, into all our souls. There is not, among the hundreds of millions of our immortal fellow-creatures in heathen lands—there cannot be—ONE HOLY MAN. And how, then, can there be a really happy man—a saved man? Salvation is holiness. If salvation consisted in pardon, it might be extended to those millions through the glorious, all-sufficient atonement, though they had no present knowledge of it; but pardon, and the knowledge of pardon, are but means toward an end. The end is holiness; and, from the nature of the case, holiness which involves a conscious change cannot be imparted without the knowledge of him who receiveth it.

Your warfare, then, is against the strongest holds of sin unto death, eternal death, in which Satan has entrenched himself in the minds and wills, and hearts and habits, of our fallen fellow-men. It is a noble, a glorious warfare; identified, in its great object, with the mission of our Lord Jesus Christ Himself—For this purpose, saith the beloved Disciple, the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil.

Men and Brethren, be not turned aside from your God-like enterprise, neither be induced to moderate your anxiety, or relax your efforts, by any secret misgivings as to this tremendous truth; or any undefined anticipations of happiness for the Heathen, although dying in unholiness. All such anticipations, however apparently tender and affectionate, and therefore captivating to unsanctified benevolence; yet—inasmuch as they are wholly unwarranted by the word of truth—are indeed most unkind and cruel. No, no! we cannot consent to propagate the Gospel merely as an improvement on other ways of salvation: still less can we allow our motives to degenerate into a desire to promote the civilization of the nations. This blessing will indeed be added unto us, in proportion as we succeed in our great object; but that object is, to seek and to save that which is lost, and must continue lost for ever, if left without the Gospel of the grace of God.

II. CONSIDER YOUR WEAPONS.

They are not carnal. We have nothing to do with force, or fraud, or falsehood. From the nature of the case, force must ever be useless, and fraud or falsehood worse than useless, in our sacred warfare. Our object is, to produce in man congeniality with the Holy God. The way to this, the only way, is confiding love, leading to assimilating communion. Confiding love, trust, faith! this is the turning-point of our victory; and how is this to be lodged in the alienated heart of man? By force? Never. All the united power of all the monarchs upon earth, with all their armies confederate in one mighty host; all the inhuman tyranny of all the apostate ecclesiastics upon earth, with inquisitions, and stakes, and racks, and tortures; all the resources of philosophy, with all her engines in all their superhuman condensation of power; all the appalling terrors of the elements—the raging sea, the desolating fire, the sweeping whirlwind, the flaring lightning, the crashing thunder; nay, even the majesty itself of the broken law of heaven threatening the transgressor with eternal woe; all these—and if there be any forces more effectual than these—concentrated into one desperate effort, could not produce, in one human soul, confiding love toward God—the faith, the saving, sanctifying faith, of the Gospel of Christ. Force must let that alone for ever. Force may crush men into slaves, or, relaxing its pressure, it may tolerate fawning hypocrites; but it can never make a Christian.

And as force is not found among our weapons, so neither do we use any fraud. We do not conceal our real sentiments, in order to win upon men by a semblance of Christianity; as if we could entrap them into it before they perceive its nature or difficulties. We do not corrupt its sublime simplicity with inventions of men, calculated to render it, on the whole, more palatable to the natural heart. Of some who did this in the Apostle's time, he speaks in this Epistle, and contrasts his conduct with theirs, saying, We are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. We do not presume to reserve any portion of God's message to fallen man, as if we were qualified to determine which is better to have precedence, this or that; or whether both may not be alike good to different characters, or even to the same man. Here, again, we have the confirming satisfaction of finding ourselves in the steps of the great Missionary Apostle; who felt himself pure from the blood of all men, because he had not shunned to declare unto them ALL the revealed counsel of God. We dare not practise, in the slightest degree, the carnal device recorded of the first Romish Missionaries to China; who endeavoured to commend the Gospel to the Chinese by putting it forth, at first, as merely a system of more elevated and refined morality, and concealing the apparently disgraceful fact of the death of their Lord and Founder, among malefactors on the accursed tree. We deny not—nay, we most cordially rejoice in—the high purity of the morality of the Gospel; but one of our most fundamental principles and deepest feelings is, that even such morality, procured—if it were possible so to procure it—without reference to the crucifixion of Jesus Christ as its spring and motive, would tend to nothing better in man, than present pride, and everlasting disappointment.

Further—we discard falsehood also, of every kind, from among the weapons of our warfare. Our Society has been accused of publishing exaggerated accounts of the success of its Missionary labours, in order to gratify our supporters, and induce others to join our subscription lists; and some of our own countrymen, who have visited the scenes of our labour in heathen lands—but who, alas! have not been partakers in our zeal for the salvation of souls—have, either from heedlessness or prejudice, or both, helped forward the evil report against us.

It was indeed impossible that such a work as ours, in such a world as this, should escape misrepresentation, and even detraction. But be of good cheer, beloved brethren who preside over the management of this Institution: your rejoicing, like that of the Apostle, is this—the testimony of your conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, you have been engaged, and so far continued, in this great work. You know, that whatever mistakes may have been made—and nothing human is perfect—they were not made designedly. You know, that however, in some few instances, in the early and inexperienced period of your work, you may have been deceived yourselves, you did not, at any time or in any instance, wilfully deceive others. Though you walk in the flesh, and require supplies for your labourers—supplies which, I trust, will be long and largely given—you can truly say, you do not war after the flesh, because your weapons are not carnal.

And while I say, Be of good cheer, may I not, in unfeigned affection and Christian candour, add, Continue to be watchful against even the appearance of evil; that you may, in further imitation of our Apostle, cut off occasion from them which desire occasion to find fault?

Consider your weapons. They are mighty through God. Our theme is Christ. We have no confidence in the flesh. We are determined not to know any thing, nor to trust in any thing for victory in our warfare, save Jesus Christ and Him crucified. We see and know, that this is, as it was, a stumbling block to the self-righteous, and foolishness to the worldly wise; but we see also, and know, that unto them which are called, whatever their former character may have been, it is the power of God, and the wisdom of God, unto holiness and happiness eternal.

Mighty through God! God is love. God loved the world—this fallen, sinful world. Here is the beginning of wonders; that the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy, should love such creatures as fallen men. This is the primary truth of revelation; the deep source of all our blessings. We here learn the disposition, the inward feeling, of God toward His sinful creatures. It was not anger, because of the creature's sin; but love, because of the Creator's goodness. It was mercy—i. e. love exercising compassion. There is a love of complacency in the Divine bosom toward those creatures who have never offended. The holy angels have never required mercy, properly so called; and the angels that sinned, and kept not their first estate, have not received mercy, but have been cast down to everlasting darkness. Man is the vessel of mercy; the chosen and favoured object of Divine compassion. But such compassion, carried out practically toward the guilty, seemed to compromise the righteousness, and justice, and truth, of God. Now, God the Father did not so love the world as to compromise His righteousness, or justice, or truth; but He so loved the world as to give his only beloved Son.

God the Son removed the mighty hindrance out of the way. This is the reason assigned for the sacrifice of the death of Christ: not to induce the Father to love us; but to render it a righteous thing in Him to act on the love He already felt; that God might continue just, while He proceeded to justify the ungodly. And this was fully accomplished. The Son, who in the beginning was with God and was God, even He who thought it not robbery to be equal with God, was made flesh, made of a woman, made under the law. And being thus found in fashion as a man, He honoured the law, fulfilling every duty to which man as a creature is called, and enduring every penalty to which man as a sinner is exposed.

Thus the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe : for there is no difference : for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God ; being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus ; whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in His blood.

The proclamation of this truth is our master-weapon. We announce God's love, and the manifestation of that love, in a way that meets man's necessities : we show the marriage feast prepared, the oxen and fatlings killed, and all things ready : and we cry aloud, Ho ! every one that thirsteth, come ; look unto Jesus and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth. This weapon is mighty, THROUGH GOD, to the pulling down of the strongest holds of alienation and enmity in man. Wonderful and suitable as it is, it is not mighty IN ITSELF. If the only impediment in the way of man's salvation had been that which stood in the violated law and outraged government of God, then, indeed, the work of Christ would have been mighty and sufficient, in itself, for the salvation of all men. But there is another impediment, deeply seated in the character of man himself. He loves sin, and this stronghold is found too strong for even the moral fitness of the cross of Christ.

There is indeed a moral fitness in it, to answer its gracious purpose ; and in this may be traced the true ground of the increased responsibility of all who hear it. It addresses man's understanding and conscience in a way perfectly suitable to both ; and, in order to evade its power, he is obliged to resist the convictions of the one, and shake off the uneasiness of the other. The process, moral and intellectual, by which other subjects become influential upon him is put into operation by the glad tidings of God's holy love in Christ Jesus ; and no man, who is capable of receiving intelligence upon any subject, can escape from the powerful simplicity of the Lord's frequently-repeated appeal upon this subject—He that hath ears to hear let him hear.

Still, left to themselves in this hearing, they all with one consent begin to make excuse ; and if no further exercise of the power of God were vouchsafed, Christ would have died in vain, and the Gospel would be preached in vain.

It is a part of the revealed office of God the Holy Ghost to give victory to our weapons ; to take of the things of Christ, and show them to the heart of man with prevailing power and clearness. By a secret energy to change the will, and thus secure the man without violence to his liberty ; by power without force. Liberty consists in the uninterrupted connexion between the will and the conduct. If the conduct were constrained, without any change of will, there would be consciousness of force. But when the first operation is on the will, though it be a movement of sovereign power, it is not, and cannot be, accompanied with any consciousness of interference with liberty. And thus it is that our weapons are rendered mighty indeed : mighty, through God, to the calling of whom He will.

The cross of Christ, with all its glorious fulness of suitable truth, was a stumbling-block to the Jews, who must, however, have been called, so far as the external privilege of hearing was concerned, or they could not have stumbled at it. So also it was foolishness to the Greeks, who must have been called to the hearing of it, or they could not have despised it. Many are called. But, in contradistinction to such hearing and rejecting, it was, and is, to them who are called by the secret energy of the Holy Ghost working in due season, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. Few are chosen.

How emphatic, then, and comprehensive, is the expression in our text, Mighty through God ! The loving mercy, and spotless justice, of God the Father, manifested and magnified in the cross of God the Son, and rendered effectual by the secret energizings of God the Holy Ghost ! He that is our God is the God of salvation ; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death.

Of this great truth our Missionary records supply many and most touching illustrations; verifying, to the letter, that beautiful description by our Christian Poet, of the practical effects of the Gospel upon the Greenlander—

The wretch who once sang wildly, danced, and laughed,
And sucked in dizzy madness with his draught,
Has wept a silent flood, revers'd his ways,
Is sober, meek, benevolent, and prays;
Feeds sparingly, communicates his store,
Abhors the craft he gloried in before,
And he who stole has learned to steal no more.

III. CONSIDER YOUR OPPORTUNITIES.

In the good providence of God, our country is exalted into a position at once to have and to give the Gospel. Protestant England possesses in herself, and Commercial England can extend throughout the world, the richest blessings which God has mercifully bestowed on man.

You have a freely-circulated Bible in your native language; a ministry of the Word of Truth, and of the ordinances of the Christian Church; you have Christian principles advocated, and Christian practices exemplified; you have Christian men, living witnesses for God, faithful ambassadors for Christ, holy temples of the Spirit. These are the Missionary springs, from whence, as from a fountain opened in our favoured land, streams of evangelical light and truth flow forth into all the world. These are still yours. But why say—still? Is there any fear as to their continuance? I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. These are Protestant blessings; and instead of saying simply and absolutely, without any note of time, England is Protestant, we are now compelled to say, England is still Protestant. Our national Institutions were so deeply entrenched within Scriptural principles, that it requires a vast deal of breaking down to leave the country wholly unprotected; but the process of breaking down has begun, and threatens the sources of our Missionary purity, the sinews of our Missionary strength.

My Christian Brethren, are we not still in a position to use means to prevent this? Should not the Missionary voice of Protestant England be heard pleading on behalf of millions of Heathens still to be supplied, that the sacred home-springs of our Missionary enterprise may not be polluted; that Romish error, destructive to the human soul, may not be nurtured among us? Oh, as you value real Christian Missions in the purity and simplicity of the Gospel; as you feel for the benighted millions of the heathen world; as you desire to be fellow-helpers in the blessed work for which Christ died; exert your lawful influence, each in your station, relative and domestic, to preserve England Protestant.

Consider your opportunities. The triumphs of mechanical and practical science have brought the nations to your doors. English sails are whitening every sea, and visiting every harbour. English enterprise is braving every climate, and despising every danger. English influence is felt in every country; in every tribe, and caste, and colour, of mankind. We are surrounded by facilities unparalleled for diffusing the glorious Gospel. Is it presumptuous to recognise in this—nay, would it not be blind unbelief not to recognise—the hand of our God beckoning us forward, and saying, Go, preach the Gospel to every creature?

Consider your opportunities. A machinery is ready, wisely constructed and vigorously worked, by which the duties and responsibilities thus peculiarly devolving on this great Protestant and commercial nation may be efficiently discharged. That machinery is the Church Missionary Society.

May we not say of it, that, by the grace of God, it is walking in the footsteps of the Apostle? It is no compromiser, in word or deed. True, it cultivates unfeigned respect for the feelings of others, and affectionate anxiety to avoid all unnecessary offence. True, it loves peace, and desires, if possible, to live peaceably with all men; but it can enter into no compact or alliance which shall adulterate or suppress the truth. It cannot be induced to con-nive, for a moment, at the admixture of the traditions of men with the glorious Gospel of the grace of God ; neither can it be seduced into a false peace with the plausible liberalism which treats all religious opinions as equally good, and, of course, as to any saving power, equally good for nothing. It knows, and proclaims, that Jesus is the way, the only way of salvation ; that no man can come unto the Father but by Him. (St. John xiv. 6.)

It requires in its labourers, at home and abroad, no narrow-minded uniformity of sentiment in detail ; but it does require, in them all, the great evangelical testimony of the Apostle to the cross of Christ. It does require that Jesus Christ, and not the Church of Christ, shall be set forth as the Saviour of men ; that the blood of the Lamb, and not the waters of baptism, shall be preached for the cleansing away of sins ; that communion with Jesus shall be ascribed to the power of the Holy Ghost, and not to transubstantiated or consubstantiated bread. It does require that no part of God's message to man shall be wilfully reserved, at the discretion of the messenger ; especially, it will not allow the Cross to be reserved.

I speak to a multitude of the supporters of the Society, in the presence of the Committee ; and I invite them to consider, while the Committee themselves will remember, with thankfulness and humility, the combination of delicacy and decision which they have been enabled to manifest under trying circumstances. Where management was lawful, they have managed with delicacy ; when action was dutiful, they have acted with decision. And now, no lover of order can gainsay the regularity or subordination of their constitution ; while no lover of truth can find fault with the fidelity of their testimony.

And while such is the character of this machinery in itself, its frame-work is elastic, capable of extension ; and requiring only adequate supplies, to urge forward the good work in the North, and in the South, in the East, and in the West.

The Funds entrusted to its management during last year, have exceeded those of the year preceding by between 900*l.* and 1000*l.* Its Income

For the year ending March 31, 1844, was 104,323*l.* 15*s.* 10*d.*
 . . . . . 1845, is 105,249*l.* 9*s.* 7*d.*

My Brethren, persevere in this work; nay, more, INCREASE: let it be a growing work, more powerfully felt in the deep springs of Christian obligation, and more gloriously manifested in the rich streams of Christian liberality.

Our wants are threefold, and you can supply them all. We want—1. More Missionaries. 2. More Funds. 3. More Prayers.

1. GIVE US YOUR SONS.

Fathers, Mothers, dedicate your dear boys to this sacred cause. You may not be able, indeed, to secure their fitness or willingness for the work; but, instead of cultivating feelings which would be wounded by such a desire in your precious youth, seek to have your hearts so touched, that it would be a source of humble thankfulness and chastened joy to find him thus disposed; that you would consider it a privilege to give him, and account him better employed than if he were engaged in the most honourable and lucrative situation under the authorities of his country, whether military or civil. And would it not indeed be so? On which occupation do the holy angels now look down with the liveliest interest? Yet a little while, and which shall be esteemed the better, by the assembled millions of mankind before the Judgment-seat of Christ?

I look abroad upon a heathen family held fast in the strongholds of Satan, and glorying in their shame. I see them degraded to almost a level with the beasts of the field. The instincts of the flesh, unrestrained by reason or reflection, predominate in their practice, while some great painted idol is the object of their ignorant adoration.

The unhappy mother is a stranger to a mother's sweetest solace, in the undivided affection of the father of her children. Alas! the father of her children has many wives. The children increase in stature without any increase in wisdom ; but only in the low cunning which animates them, in common with those around them, in the reckless pursuit of selfish gratification ; and all pass away into an undone, because unholy, eternity, leaving their places to be filled up by others like themselves.

I turn from the painful contemplation ; and look at home, upon a dear, affectionate, and talented boy, the joy of his fond mother—and equally, though not perhaps as frankly or frequently expressed, the joy of his father too—the delight of his sisters, and the centre of a home circle. They have scarcely dared to anticipate what is to be his profession in life. The Bar, the Church, the Army, the Bank, the Counting-house—a veil of uncertainty hangs over his progress. But now, in the secret of his soul, rises a yearning about the salvation of men. His mother's prayers are heard, that God, for Christ's sake, would give him the Holy Spirit ; and now a soft breathing of that Spirit sheds abroad in his heart joy at his own deliverance from sin, and secretly reminds him of those who are still captives.

He first thinks of a ministry of the Gospel at home. This meets the case for a time ; but another breath of the Author and Giver of life binds the young man's soul to the cause of the Heathen.

He must go as a Missionary ; leave home—with all its endearments, all its safeguards, all its watchful attentions to his health and comfort—and go to unhealthy climes, to savage dwellings, to unfeeling strangers, to cold and hunger and exposure, to perils by sea and perils by land.

Prayers and tears accompany him ; God prospers him ; he reaches his destination ; he masters the language of the country ; he sees that the Natives understand him ; he preaches to them Jesus, the forgiveness of sins, reconciliation with God, grateful holy love, a glorious resurrection !

The Holy Spirit blesses the word spoken ; he sees fruit of his labours, not perhaps in many, but in one : a Native youth is converted, a fruitful seed, a future Missionary—at home in the language, at home in the climate—to carry the glad tidings to thousands of his fellow-countrymen.

Our young Missionary may live to see much fruit; or, having planted such a seed in a heathen land, he may be called himself to come up higher, and wait, with Jesus, the appointed fulness of satisfaction for the travail of His soul.

In either case, how truly noble, how glorious, the career of him who has thus lived to the Lord, and died in the Lord! My dear Christian Brethren, cultivate the sanctified ambition of such distinction as this—such true nobility—for your dear sons. Why should the Missionary Office occupy so low a place in your esteem as is still unhappily the case? That the men of this world, who are as careless about their own souls as any tribes of the Heathen are, should ignorantly despise our work, is natural enough; but how shall this continue among Christian men, whose high privilege it is to see things as God sees them? The Missionary calling ranks high—yes, the very highest—in the estimation of God; above the cunning artificer; above the eloquent orator; above the poet, the hero, the statesman—these are all of the earth, earthy: the Missionary to a fallen world was the Lord from heaven.

2. WE WANT MORE FUNDS.

It is a good thing to consecrate your substance to the service of Him who gave it. To what end has it been entrusted to you? Let me beseech you, as dear Christian Brethren, anxious to discharge your duty toward God and man, in simplicity and sincerity to put the question again and again to your own conscience, To what end has this wealth been entrusted to my care—whether acquired by industry, or by inheritance, or by both? To what end has this lucrative business, in which I am employed, been entrusted to my management? To what end is the health, by which I am enabled to enjoy my possessions and conduct my business, continued to me from day to day? Surely, not, to lavish upon myself: surely, not to confine within the precincts of my own natural family and connexions. Is there not a family for whom Christ died? Do I not esteem brotherhood in that family superior to any natural relationship? Do I not remember Him who said, Who is my mother, or my brethren? and looking round about on them which sat about Him, added, Whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother. Surely, surely, I owe to the human family some substantial participation in the blessings which God has so freely and bountifully bestowed upon me.

Men and Brethren, honour the Lord with your substance, and with the first-fruits of your increase, to an extent to which you have never yet been accustomed. I have read to you the official statement of the total amount of funds placed at the disposal of this Society during the past year; and what is it? I desire not to utter one word of reproach: I desire not to experience one feeling of discontent or dissatisfaction; but I cannot refrain from saying, that when we contemplate the untold wealth of such a country, and such a metropolis, as this; when we see the prodigious sums of money lavished upon idle gratification, upon entertainments varied with epicurean contrivances of extravagance; when we see the expensive luxuries in which it has become habitual for even sincere Christians to indulge; and when we remember, that without the sacrifice of any thing of real value—without interfering with any thing suitable to their respective stations in society, or the proper maintenance of those stations—agreeing entirely that stations are to be suitably maintained—a ten times greater sum might have been devoted to this glorious cause; we must be excused when we express, not reproach, indeed, but regret—unfeigned regret: and when we add an expression of hope that they who are on the Lord's side in other matters will feel the necessity of revising their calculations on the subject of Missions, and that a very different distribution of income will characterize their future arrangements. Make a beginning now. Leave such a collection in this Church this evening as will announce, to all our supporters and friends in the kingdom, that a new era has commenced in Missionary liberality. Now, on the first evening of a new financial year, after the settling of your annual accounts, start afresh with such a collection as will naturally produce assimilating effects, when told from pulpits and platforms without number, during the next few months. Begin, my Brethren; and be not content with leaving here one or two hundred pounds. I know not indeed, at this moment, what the collections have usually amounted to on these occasions; but I look round and say to myself, What would five hundred or a thousand pounds be as a collection from such an assembly, and for such a cause, at the opening of a new Missionary year in this great city? We are not ashamed to beg in this cause: it is the cause for which CHRIST DIED. And as we must work by means, and means must inevitably involve expenditure, we ask again for more funds: that when Christian fathers, and mothers, and sisters, rising with true consecrated affections to this work, have supplied us with more men, we may be able to send them forth to open new Stations among the Heathen, to assail the strongholds of the devil with spiritual weapons, to preach in the dark places of the earth, even in the habitations of cruelty, the unsearchable riches of Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

3. Finally, my Brethren, we are covetous of your prayers. Help us in wrestling with the God of Jacob—the God who has described Himself as a God that heareth prayer—for our country at home, and for our labourers abroad.

Pray for our gracious and beloved Sovereign, and her Government, that it may please God, for Jesus Christ's sake, “so to dispose and govern” the Queen's heart, “that in all her thoughts, words, and works, she may ever,” and above all things, “seek His honour and glory, and seriously study to preserve His people committed to her charge, in wealth, peace, and godliness:” that—not content with dutiful attention to all the financial affairs of the nation, that the people may be preserved in WEALTH: and to all our foreign relations, that the country and the world may be preserved in PEACE—the hearts and minds of the Sovereign, and of all in authority under her, may be so guided and directed by the good Spirit of God as really to study the adoption of such measures—in the midst of surrounding difficulties—as will preserve the people committed to her charge in true Christian “GODLINESS!”

Give us prayers on this behalf, not only in the Congregation, but also in the secret and social chamber, earnestly striving with God for His blessing. Is not the Queen’s heart in the hand of the Lord? and has not the Lord promised to hear prayer? Do I not address hundreds of praying people, collected from various parts of the kingdom, on this auspicious occasion, to be present at the Annual Meetings of your great Societies now at hand?—a people who have access to God on His own gracious invitation, and a promise from Him, plainly and repeatedly given, that He will “grant their requests?” Is there not good hope, then, in your prayers?

Pray for the Divine blessing on the management of this Institution; for wisdom, judgment, discretion, patience, perseverance, on behalf of the Committee and all their assistants. They have been in difficult circumstances, and may be so again. It is impossible that so large a framework, spreading over so many portions of a fallen world, and touched by such varieties of individuals in their respective localities, shall escape an occasional jar. Every such jar is felt, directly or indirectly, throughout the whole system. Especially it vibrates to the centre; and the meekness of heavenly wisdom is required for the adjusting exercise of final authority.

Pray, also, for the various Auxiliaries and Branch Societies throughout the country; that they may be managed with a happy combination of zeal and judgment, of decision and discretion; so that the hearts of the people of the land may be touched with a growing love of this cause, and induced to join in it with more spiritual earnestness.

And pray for the Missionaries abroad ; that strength may be added to them, both of body and mind: health, patience, gentleness, under all their privations and provocations. Pray that God may sanctify the understandings of His servants in acquiring the languages of the nations ; that He would suggest to them right thoughts in those languages, and the right idioms whereby to convey, with full intelligence to the Natives, the great truths of the Cross of Jesus Christ.

My dear Brethren, surround our work on every side with your prayers, that great may be the success of our work: that ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation, may have much joy in heaven over many sinners repenting upon the earth, under our labours ; and much joy over ourselves, when they behold in us the cultivation of a tenderness of spirit, and unfeigned anxiety of soul for the salvation of the Heathen : when they behold us rising superior to worldly selfishness, no longer seeking every one his own things, but every one of us seeking the things which are Jesus Christ's ; and, while prostrate in deep contrition for our own unworthiness of His loving mercy, imploring Him richly to bless in all lands the weapons of His own sacred warfare, which are not carnal, but mighty, through His grace, to the pulling down of strongholds ; casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ—to whom be glory in the Church throughout all ages, world without end ! Amen.

INTRODUCTION.

THE Committee have the privilege, through the signal mercy of God, of presenting, on the present occasion, a satisfactory Report on the Society's proceedings.

The past year has been emphatically a year of encouragement, both in respect of the Home Proceedings of the Society, and of the progress of its Missions.

The Committee can record, with devout gratitude, how frequently at their Meetings they have been refreshed—amidst the perils and apprehensions which disquiet the Church at home—by hearing of the quiet and steady progress of the work of God in the rising Missionary Church abroad.

The Committee earnestly hope, that, through the Divine blessing, the same happy effect may attend the present Meeting; and that all hearts may, for a few brief hours at least, be calmed and cheered by good news from a far country.

PATRONAGE.

The Committee have to deplore the loss, during the year, of two friends long connected with the Society—Sir T. F. Buxton, Bart., and the Rev. Josiah Pratt, B.D.

Mr. Pratt held the office of Secretary of the Society from 1802 to 1824, and was eminently instrumental, under the Divine blessing, in laying its foundations wide and deep, and of firmly establishing its position at home, as well as of guiding the formation and early progress of its Missions. Mr. Pratt was also eminently successful in effecting the union and cordial co-operation of the friends of Evangelical Truth in our Church, in furtherance of the Society's great object: he was also permitted to see the blessing of God largely resting on its operations, at home and abroad. Though in his later years he was prevented from taking that active part in the deliberations and proceedings of the Committee, from which the Society have largely benefitted at an earlier period, its interest and welfare lay near his heart, and drew forth his prayers and the exertion of his influence in its behalf to his last hours.

The views and feelings of the Committee, on receiving the intelligence of the death of Mr. Pratt, are embodied in a Minute adopted by them on the 16th of October last, and inserted in the Church Missionary Record of that month.

Sir T. F. Buxton had for twenty-six years been an attached and zealous Vice-President of the Society, and throughout that period had been always prompt to further its objects. In all its proceedings directed to the religious improvement and temporal welfare of Africa, Sir T. F. Buxton took a peculiar interest, and to their successful prosecution he unsparingly devoted his substance, his time, and his powerful mind.

At the Meeting of the Committee on the 10th of March they adopted a Minute on occasion of the death of Sir T. F. Buxton, and which is inserted in the March Number of the Church Missionary Record.

During the year the following individuals have been added to the Vice-Presidency of the Society—The Right Hon. the Earl of Effingham; the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Lichfield; the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Colombo.

STATE OF THE FINANCES.

The Committee have the satisfaction to report a favourable state of the Society's Finances. The Receipts of the year stand as follows:—

|                                                                                                              |          |       |      |

|                                                                                                              |          | 4,826 | 19 2 |

The Committee have thus to report that the aggregate Receipts of the year have exceeded those of the preceding year by the sum of 925*l.* 13*s.* 9*d.*; and they call on the Members of the Society to unite with them in thanksgivings to God for the gracious manner in which He has been pleased to prosper its Home operations.

The Expenditure of the year, on the General Fund account, amounted to 89,093*l.* 14*s.* 9*d.*; including the sum of 911*l.* 14*s.* received from Her Majesty's Government, out of the Parliamentary Grant of 1844 for Negro Education.

The surplus of Receipts over Expenditure, on account of the General Fund, was, therefore, 11,328*l.* 15*s.* 8*d.*

Out of this sum, 5077*l.* 15*s.* 7*d.*, the amount received in the year for Legacies, was transferred to the Capital Fund, in accordance with a Resolution to that effect adopted at the commencement of the preceding financial year.

The remainder, 6251*l.* 0*s.* 1*d.*, was a balance at the Bankers, to commence the operations of the year; the claims on the Committee, for bills falling due on account of the Missions, being unusually heavy in the earlier part of it.

Under these favourable circumstances, the Committee have considered it to be their duty to fix the maximum of expenditure for the current year at 92,000*l.*, being an increase of 5000*l.* on that of the preceding year. Provision is thus made for some enlargement of the operations of the Society in the West-Africa and the India Missions, as well as to meet certain contingent expenses, in some of the Missions, of larger amount than usual in the current year.

DECEASE OF MISSIONARIES.

The Committee have to record the removal from their labours by death, during the past year, of the following individuals:—Mrs. Müller, wife of Mr. J. C. Müller, on the 9th of May last, at Kiskey, of fever, after a few days' illness—Mrs. Smith, wife of the Rev. I. Smith, on the 26th of December, at Freetown, of country fever, after eight days' illness—Mrs. Krapf, wife of the Rev. J. L. Mellon, on the 12th of July, at Bombay, after a lingering illness, and having given birth to a still-born child—the Rev. ## NUMBER OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

Eighteen Ordained Missionaries have been sent forth to the Missions of the Society during the past year; including six who have returned to their Stations, and four whose services have been transferred to other Missions. Eleven of the Missionaries being married, the total number of individuals sent out is twenty-nine.

The number of Labourers at present engaged in the service of the Society—as Ordained Missionaries, Catechists, and other Teachers—is One hundred and sixty-six; exclusive of One thousand and ninety-nine Country-born and Native Catechists and Teachers, and the Wives of the married Labourers.

ORDINATION OF STUDENTS.

Nineteen of the Society's Candidates have been admitted to Holy Orders during the year—seven to Priests' Orders, one both to Deacons' and Priests' Orders, and two to Deacons' Orders, by the Bishop of London; one to Priests' Orders, by the Bishop of Calcutta; two to Deacons' Orders, by the Bishop of Madras; one to Priests' Orders, by the Bishop of Montreal; and five to Deacons' Orders, by the Bishop of New Zealand.

ISLINGTON INSTITUTION.

In his Annual Report the Principal expresses a favourable opinion of the general state of the Institution during the year. The prevailing tone of piety had afforded him satisfaction, as well as the prevalence among the Students of unity and brotherly love. Diligence had characterized the course of the Students, and their progress had been gratifying. The plan of a General Examination was resumed previously to the last vacation, the result of which was very satisfactory. A hopeful Student, Mr. Cotton, had been removed by death. The Principal closes his Report by again soliciting the prayers of the Society on behalf of this important branch of its operations. He adds—

When the important relation of this Seminary to the Society, and of the Society to the Church at home and to the Heathen world, is realized, he feels, that while to him such repetition is not grievous, so neither can the importunity be deemed needless or presumptuous. For the sake, then, of the grand and blessed object to which their aspirations are in common directed, he would implore the friends of Missions to be instant and special in their supplications that it may please God so to accomplish the original design of the Institution, as that it may not cease to furnish an abundant and regular supply of faithful men, duly qualified and zealously disposed, to execute the Saviour's parting commission to His Church.

MISSIONS.

|                            |                                    |

| 1 Country-born Missionary. | 39 Native Teachers of all classes. |
| 4 European Catechists.     | 6 Native Schoolmistresses.         |

General View.

ALTHOUGH chequered by some trials, the history of this Mission during the past year is such as to call forth the strongest ascriptions of gratitude to the God of all grace for the goodness and mercy which He has caused to rest upon it. In the Colony of Sierra Leone itself the number of Stations is increased—the work of the Ministry has been blessed—the number of attendants on Public Worship, and particularly of Communicants, is considerably augmented—and great progress has been made in carrying out the educational measures referred to in the last Report. Beyond the limits of the Colony, a more decided and hopeful effort than has ever yet been put forth by the Society has been made to convey the blessings of the Gospel to the interior of Africa. To the same gracious Lord who hath hitherto helped them, the Committee would desire humbly to look for prosperity and success to their new undertakings.

This Mission has, in the providence of God, been deprived of the services of two of its Female Members, Mrs. Müller and Mrs. Smith, both of whom died of acclimating fever shortly after their arrival in the Colony. Of both it may be truly said that their end was peace. The removal of Mrs. Smith was particularly speedy, as she was taken away within twenty-two days after she had landed. She had had, for more than nine years, a strong desire to labour among the Heathen; and though not permitted to enter upon the work, she was thankful to be allowed to behold it with her eyes. On her dying bed she declared that she never once repented having come out, and repeatedly expressed a hope that none would be discouraged by her case from following her example.

The Mission has also within the last year been deprived of the services of the Rev. J. W. Weeks and Mrs. Weeks, who have been compelled, by failure of health, to return to England. They have, however, been permitted to spend more than twenty years in Sierra Leone, and their labours have been greatly owned and blessed of God.

Notwithstanding these painful bereavements, there can be no doubt that the climate is less unhealthy than it has been, and that the effective strength of the Missionary Body is greater than at any former period. In May last the Rev. J. Warburton remarked that the death of Mrs. Müller was the only one from country fever which had occurred in the Mission for about two years and a half, during which time eight new Labourers had come out. And, in reference to the Quarterly Meeting held on the 26th of March 1844, he states that not one Member was absent, and that the number present was twenty-three. He adds—

How different was the first Meeting of the kind which I attended on my return to Sierra Leone in 1835, when only seven persons were present; and that small number included all the Clergymen and Catechists, European and Native, then in the Mission!

SIERRA LEONE.

Christian Institution, Fourah Bay.

During the absence of the Rev. E. Jones on a visit to England, this Institution has been successively under the care of the Rev. N. Denton, the Rev. S. Crowther, and the Rev. T. Peyton. Immediately on Mr. Jones's arrival at Sierra Leone, as stated at p. 31, he resumed the superintendence of the Establishment.

Mr. Denton observes, in his Report for the Quarter ending June 25, 1844, that his short residence at Fourah Bay had "more than ever convinced" him "of the practicability of raising up a Native Agency for carrying on the great work of evangelizing Africa." And Mr. Crowther, in his Report of the succeeding Quarter, remarks—

The Youths in general give satisfaction in their daily study.

In September there were 27 Students: 5 were Communicants, 15 Candidates for the Lord's Supper, and 2 Candidates for Baptism.

When Mr. Jones left England, he took with him a set of Regulations for the government of the Institution, which had been carefully prepared and revised by the Committee. By these means it is hoped that a further advance has been made in rendering the Establishment still more effective for training up well-qualified Native Agents.

Commencement of the New Buildings.

A plan for the New Buildings at Fourah Bay, kindly and gratuitously prepared by Mr. Grissell, of the firm of Messrs. Grissell and Peto, in communication with several of the West-Africa Missionaries then in England, has received the sanction of the Committee. On its arrival in Sierra Leone, measures were immediately taken to commence the erection of the buildings.

The first stone was laid on the 5th of February, by His Excellency Lieutenant-Governor Fergusson. The Missionaries met together for prayer at the house of the Rev. J. F. Schön, and afterward proceeded to Fourah Bay. When the ceremony was concluded, the Lieutenant-Governor addressed the assembly; but he was unable to repress his feelings when he referred to the fact, that, on the very spot where they were preparing to erect a building, from whence it was hoped that spiritual freedom would be imparted to many Africans, there stood, forty years ago, a Slave Factory.

Grammar School.

The views of the Committee in establishing a Grammar School at Freetown, as an intermediate step between the ordinary Schools and the Christian Institution, were detailed in the last Report. The intention of erecting a new building has been relinquished in consequence of very suitable premises, situated in Regency Square, having been provisionally purchased, in which it was intended that the Grammar School should be opened under the superintendence of the Rev. T. Peyton, as soon as he should be relieved from his duties at the Institution by the arrival out of Mr. Jones.

Female Institution.

The want of a special provision for imparting a higher degree of education to those promising Native Girls from the Village Schools who may be employed as Teachers and Schoolmistresses, has long been felt in this Mission. This want has now been supplied by the establishment of a Female Institution at Regent, under the care of Miss Morris, and the general superintendence of the Rev. N. Denton.

Native Agency.

In furtherance of the Committee's designs respecting Native Agency, two young men, George Nicol and Thomas Maxwell, born of African Parents in Sierra Leone, and educated in the Fourah-Bay Institution, have come over to this country for further training. They are now in the Islington Institution, and their conduct and progress there have been satisfactory. It is the view of the Committee that they should return to Sierra Leone in the summer, and labour for a time, either as Catechists or as Teachers, in the Fourah-Bay Institution, or in the Grammar School.

Establishment of a Yoruba Service.

It was stated in the last Report, that the Rev. S. Crowther, at the suggestion of the Committee, was preparing to establish a Service in the Mission Church, Freetown, in the Yoruba Language. This intention was carried into effect on the 9th of January 1844, on which occasion Mr. Crowther writes—

As might be expected, the novelty brought a large number of people together, Yorubas, Ibos, Calabas, &c., to witness the reading and preaching of the Gospel of Christ in a native language in an English Church. Although the language is my native tongue, with which I am well acquainted, yet, on this occasion, it appeared as if I was a babe just learning to utter my mother tongue. The work in which I was engaged, the place where I stood, and the Congregation before me, were altogether so new and strange, that the whole proceeding seemed to myself like a dream. But the Lord supported me. The text from which I preached was taken from the Lesson I had read to them, Luke i. 35. I was glad to hear the people express their satisfaction at my feeble attempt to explain this doctrine.

This Service has been regularly continued. The Congregation consisted, at first, of 300 or 400; but when the excitement and novelty had ceased, it dwindled down to 25 or 30: these, however, are regular hearers. Since the departure of Mr. Crowther to Abbeokouta, the Service has been continued by Mr. T. King, who is also a Native of the Yoruba Country.

Native Languages.

Steady progress has been made during the last year in reducing to writing some of the most considerable languages of West Africa, forming Grammars and Dictionaries, and making Translations. The Rev. J. F. Schön's Hausa and English Dictionary has received several additions and improvements. His translation of the Gospel of St. Matthew has been revised and copied for the fifth time.

Mr. Schön's Vocabulary of the Hausa Language, and Mr. Crowther's Vocabulary of the Yoruba Language, have been submitted to the Rev. Professor Lee, of Cambridge; who, at the request of the Committee, has kindly furnished the Missionaries with some valuable general rules for fixing these and other languages and dialects of West Africa.

Baptisms.

A greater number than usual of adults have been baptized during the past year in the different villages of Sierra Leone, after careful and long instruction, and diligent investigation of their motives and conduct. The seasons at which these additions to the Christian Church take place are always occasions of great joy and gratitude to the Missionaries and their Congregations.

At Kiskey, the Rev. N. C. Haastrup writes in his Journal—

Jan. 7, 1844: Lord's-day—After the Second Lesson in the Morning Service, I baptized the Male Candidates at Kiskey, 28 in number.

Feb. 15—After the Second Lesson in the Evening Service, I baptized the Female Candidates at Kiskey, 36 in number.

Feb. 18: Lord's-day—This morning I baptized the Candidates at Wellington, 14 men and 10 women.

At Kent, the Rev. F. Bultmann writes, Dec. 25, 1844—

I had the great pleasure of admitting into the Church by Baptism 35 adults—21 men and 14 women—several of whom had been Candidates, and under weekly instruction, for two, three, or four years.

Respecting Regent, the Rev. N. Denton writes—

June 2, 1844—I went to Regent to assist Mr. Weeks, who was unwell, and whose duties were heavier than usual on account of his receiving a large number of Candidates into the Church by Baptism. The scene was deeply interesting and encouraging. Thirty-five persons, in clean white apparel, occupied the front seats of the Church, which was filled with a remarkably decent and devout Congregation, who, to the several clauses of the Baptismal Service, responded with their hearty Amen, as the several Candidates received the sacred rite. These are fresh proofs that the Great Head of the Church is still with His servants, not suffering them to labour in vain or spend their strength for nought.

The personal history of some of these Christian Converts is occasionally deeply interesting. Thus the Rev. C. T. Frey, after mentioning the Baptism of 26 adults at Waterloo on the 29th of October 1843, adds—

Some of them deserve particular notice. One, a Yoruba man, is about thirty-eight years of age: he was a notorious idolater, not only trusting in greegrees, but having in his house a carved idol of human but ugly form. This, he said, he had worshipped twice a day for about fourteen years, offered many a fowl to it, and fed it daily, and yet could never appease his conscience. Being troubled in heart, he began to attend the Sunday School and the Church, and, by the grace of God, was convinced of his folly. He now resolved to put all idolatry aside, and to serve the true God. This was a hard task; and he lingered for three weeks, at first removing his idol to his kitchen. However, ultimately he applied to be admitted as a Candidate for Baptism, and at the same time delivered his ugly idol to Mr. Young. This man is now a converted character, ashamed of what he formerly delighted in; and has learned to read the Bible, and can repeat the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the Ten Commandments.

Two others, also Yorubas, are, a young man about twenty-two years of age, and his mother, a rather elderly woman. They were separated in their native country by the Slave Trade, were sold from owner to owner, and then taken on board different vessels, which, being captured by Her Majesty's cruisers, were brought to Sierra Leone. Here, after some years, they providentially met with each other; and the son, having first tasted of the sweetness of our holy Religion, rested not until he had prevailed on his mother to put aside country-fashion, and to accompany him to our Church. Both of them are now, through the transforming grace of God, consistent Christians: the son, being able to read with fluency, has, comparatively speaking, a good knowledge of the Bible.

Improvement among the Colony-born Population.

Hitherto, the Missionaries have derived their chief comfort from observing the progress of the Gospel among the Liberated Africans; and it has been a subject of frequent sorrow to them, that the children of these Africans, born in the Colony, and educated in Christian Schools, and possessing religious advantages incalculably superior to their parents, have not manifested much concern for their eternal interests. There is reason to hope, however, that some improvement is perceptible in this respect. Thus, Mr. Warburton writes, respecting his Station at Gloucester—

Dec. 25, 1844—I admitted, for the first time, to the Lord's Supper, three young women born in the Colony, and educated in our School, and who, for some time, have been attending a weekly class for religious instruction preparatory to this interesting event. Thus, while the first generation of Native Christians is passing away, it pleases God to raise up another to succeed them. May they excel, not only in the knowledge, but also in the love of God!

Hopeful Death of a Female Communicant.

Several of the Christian Converts, who have departed this life, have borne witness to the power of the Gospel to give peace and hope in the hour of death. The Rev. J. W. Weeks, speaking of a poor widow who had been for many years a Communicant at Regent, remarks, October 21, 1843—

It may be truly said of her that she was a Christian indeed. Her knowledge of Scripture was surprising; her attendance on the Means of Grace regular and devout; her whole conduct exemplary; her faith in Christ simple and firm; her hope of glory bright and steadfast; and her end peace. I knew her upward of eighteen years, and can bear my humble testimony to her Christian character during that period.

During the last few months she was confined to her house. I asked her one day how she felt in the near prospect of death. She replied, "I know I am a poor sinner, nothing worth; but Christ is my Saviour, and the comfort He has given to refresh my soul since I fall under this sickness is very great. I thank Him truly that He has continued this trial of sickness so long. I do not look to the world and expect comfort for my soul: I look to Christ, to Him only: His promises are many and very great, and upon these I can rest. God has fulfilled one part of that precious promise, so I believe He will also fulfil the other—Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive ; and let thy widows trust in me. Yes, God has mercifully taken care of me, a poor widow, ever since my husband's death ; and so I trust He will take care of my two dear children. I leave them with God."

The last time I saw her she had broken a blood-vessel during the previous night, in a fit of coughing. At intervals, when able to converse a little, she said, "I wish to be with my Saviour ; but hope He will help me to bear my pain patiently, and wait His time. Oh, what did my blessed Saviour suffer to save my poor soul ! All my hope is in Christ. I loved Him, and endeavoured to serve Him, when I was well and strong ; but since I am sick and weak, He is far more good to me than I ever remember before. I can die happy : I am not afraid of death, because my blessed Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, has enabled me, of His goodness, to trust altogether in His mercy. He took His blood, His own heart's blood, to pay for my sins : the work is all His own. Praise His holy Name !" In three days from this time she was removed from this world of sin and sorrow to that of joy and eternal happiness.

First Impressions of newly-arrived Labourers.

It is always interesting to observe the impression produced upon the minds of newly-arrived Missionaries by what they see of the actual progress of the Gospel in a Mission. Thus, the Rev. C. F. Ehemann writes, in his Report for the Quarter ending March 1844 —

On my arrival in this Colony it was indeed cheering and encouraging to see what the Lord has done—how He has blessed the work of my predecessors—how the Churches, not at one Station only, but at all the places I have as yet visited, are crowded with attentive worshippers, and for the most part, I have reason to believe, with lively members of our Master and Head, Jesus Christ. I cannot express the feelings of my heart when I first came to this Colony, and saw the sons of Ham bow their knees devoutly before the only living and true God and His Son Jesus Christ.

The Rev. I. Smith also, speaking of his late wife, remarks, in a Letter dated January 15, 1845—

She often said that the place and the people far exceeded her expectation. She would sometimes say, "We have every thing to encourage us to proceed with our work. Surely God has greatly owned and blessed the work among this simple-hearted people. I only wish that those kind Christian Ladies in England, who feel so much interest in the welfare of their sex in Heathen lands, could see with their own eyes these dear children in the Schools : I am sure they would feel a double interest for the future." And again, with reference to the Sunday School of adults at Gloucester, she said, "There appears to be so much simplicity, mingled with so much sincerity and affection, that I did not expect to find here."

TIMMANEE MISSION.

The Rev. C. F. Schlenker and the Rev. D. H. Schmid, assisted by two Native Teachers, have continued to labour at Port Lokkoh. Divine Service in English has been regularly held in the Schoolroom, where there has been an average attendance of fifty-six, including the School-children and the Members of the Mission Families. With few interruptions, also, the Missionaries have preached in the Timmanee Language, to an average audience of about thirty, in the yards of the King or of some of the Chiefs. It does not appear, however, that any fruit of these labours is yet visible.

There are fifty Mahomedan and Heathen Children on the Books of the School, with an average attendance of forty-five: of these, twenty-seven are now able to read; and the progress of all, in the various branches of learning, is represented as satisfactory. One of the Scholars, a promising youth of fifteen or sixteen years of age, has applied for Baptism.*

ABBEOKOUTA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1845.

Mission Establishment:

- 2 European Missionaries.
- 1 Native Missionary.
- 3 Native Catechists and Schoolmasters.

THE remarkable circumstances which led the Committee to contemplate the establishment of this Mission were fully detailed in the last Report. Several communications have been received from Andrew Wilhelm, the Native Teacher, who was sent out to Abbeokouta to attend to the religious instruction of the emigrants from Sierra Leone until European Missionaries should arrive. It appears that Andrew Wilhelm had repeated interviews with Sodeke, the King of Abbeokouta, who always expressed an anxiety to know when the promised Missionaries might be expected. The King also directed two letters to be written to the Missionaries, stating that he fully intended to keep the engagement which he made to Mr. Townsend, and that "not he alone, but also the whole of the inhabitants of Abbeokouta, wanted the Missionaries."

Departure from England of the Rev. H. Townsend—Arrival at Sierra Leone—Departure of the Missionaries for Badagry.

In furtherance of the views expressed in the last Report, the Rev. H. Townsend, having been admitted to Deacons' Orders, and subsequently to Priests' Orders after a shorter interval than usual, by the kindness of the Bishop of London, sailed for Sierra Leone on the 29th of October, and arrived at that Colony on the 2d of December. It was of the greatest importance that no time should be lost, in order that he and the other Missionaries appointed to the Abbeokouta Mission might be able to reach Abbeokouta, and be in some degree settled there, before the rainy season should commence. An American vessel, called the "Adario," possessing peculiarly suitable accommodations for the purpose, happened to be in the harbour of Freetown at the time, and was immediately engaged to convey the party to Badagry. A frame house, constructed for Mr. Townsend in England, and another prepared for Mr. Gollmer in Sierra Leone, together with other necessary supplies, were put on board; and on the 18th of December she sailed, with Mr. and Mrs. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Gollmer, Mr. and Mrs. Crowther, and four Native Teachers. On this subject the Rev. J. Warburton writes, January 16, 1845—

We regard it as a providential circumstance, that, just in the time of need, a suitable conveyance was found ready, so that the Brethren suffered no delay.

Previous to their departure, Mr. Townsend received a Letter of Introduction from the Lieutenant-Governor to Sodeke, Chief of Abbeokouta, and another to the Native Chief who styles himself the English Governor of Badagry. Commodore Jones, of Her Majesty's Steamer "Penelope," who was in Freetown at the time, manifested great interest in the welfare of the Missionaries, and kindly furnished Mr. Townsend with a Letter to the King of Dahomey.

Mr. Warburton continues, in the above-mentioned Letter—

Immediately before going on board we assembled together in the Mission-house, Freetown, and commended each other to the care and blessing of God. The season was solemn and profitable. Several of the Brethren accompanied them to the ship, and continued with them till the anchor was weighed and they were proceeding out to sea, when we heartily bade them God speed.

The Committee gladly adopt the language of Mr. Warburton in the conclusion of his communication—

Thus have we witnessed one of the most interesting and important events that have taken place in this Mission—the Society's Missionary plant in Sierra Leone sending forth another branch, laden with the first-fruits of God's blessing on Missionary labour here, in answer to the prayers of His servants at home, to another part of the coast of West Africa. Surely we may exclaim, What hath God wrought! What shall we render to Him that giveth the increase! And when we reflect on the opening for Missionary labour at Badagry and Abbeokouta, the provision thus made to occupy it, and the providential circumstances connected with this enterprise, we entertain an humble hope that the Lord's hand is in it, and that He will prosper the undertaking. Not that we anticipate no difficulties, or think that no obstacles will present themselves. Our Brethren expect, and are prepared, to meet them; but their trust is in Him who hath said, *Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.**

GREECE MISSION.

---

Mission Establishment:

- 1 European Missionary.
- 1 European Assistant Superintendant of Schools.
- 1 European Schoolmaster.
- 5 Native Schoolmasters.
- 5 Native Schoolmistresses.

THE Schools in the Island of Syra were taken into connexion with the Society in the year 1828, having been established by Mr. Brewer, an American Missionary, a few months previously. After a temporary interruption, occasioned by the efforts of the Greek authorities at that time to introduce Image-worship into the Schools, they were again resumed, and they have now been for fifteen years in uninterrupted operation. During this time the advantages of Scriptural education have been conferred upon 4220 children, of whom 2243 have been girls.

* Further information respecting the Abbeokouta Mission may be found in the various accounts of the West-Africa Mission noticed at the foot of p. 40.

During the last year, the Rev. F. A. Hildner has continued his labours, assisted by Mr. Sanderski. For about six months, however, Mr. Sanderski was absent from Syra on a visit to his relatives in Germany. He returned about the middle of November, and entered with fresh vigour and zeal into his work.

State of the Schools.

The greatest number of children on the books of the Establishment, during the last year, was 316 boys and 261 girls, making a total of 577. Mr. Hildner writes, in his Report for the year 1844—

The two Public Examinations were held as usual in March and August; when the Governor, Demarch, and several members of the School Commission, encouraged us by their attendance, pronouncing the results of the Examination to be highly satisfactory. All the children continue to be taught by their respective teachers, and by Mr. Sanderski and myself, the History of the Bible, and the Scriptural doctrines of salvation. They commit to memory all the principal passages of the Bible, as whole Psalms, and other portions from the New Testament; and we are sure that the children are spiritually benefitted by the teaching of the Scriptures, showing, also, in their outward conduct, the fruits of Christian instruction.

German and English Services.

Owing to the number of travellers, and English and Dutch vessels, which visit Syra, Divine Service has been regularly held, both in the German and English languages. The attendance, though not large, has been more regular than in former years, and is increasing. Mr. Hildner remarks—

I have seen Masters of vessels, with their whole crews, attend Divine Service.

Distribution of Books and Tracts.

Beside a considerable number of Tracts, 4011 books have been disposed of during the last year. Mr. Hildner observes—

The number of books distributed would have been considerably larger, if I had not found it necessary to adhere more strictly to the principle of sale.

Several Priests have gladly received copies of the Scriptures, for themselves and their relatives and scholars, both in Syra and in other Islands.

General Review.

On a review of the results of Missionary labour since the time of his arrival in Greece, Mr. Hildner sees, in the decay of gross superstition—in the diminution of prejudice against a translation of the Bible into the vernacular language—in the fuller acknowledgment of its being the duty of every Christian to read the Word of God—in the more general acquaintance with its blessed truths—and in the more enlightened views of Christianity which now prevail—abundant cause for thankfulness and encouragement.*

ASIA-MINOR MISSION.

COMMENCED 1830.

Mission Establishment :

- 1 European Missionary.
- 1 Native Assistant.

ON reviewing his labours during the past year, the Rev. J. T. Wolters again laments that so few opportunities have presented themselves for making known the Gospel among the Mahomedans. He has not, however, been left altogether without encouragement. Mr. Antonio Delassio has been appointed as a Native Assistant to the Mission.

Probable Decrease of Mahomedan Intolerance.

In reference to the "Official Declaration" put forth by the Porte on the subject of the execution of apostates, Mr. Wolters remarks, in a Letter dated October 8, 1844—

It is now as if a Missionary in Turkey could breathe more freely than before; and though any public attempt at direct Missionary labour would excite feelings of bigoted resentment on the part of the Turks, yet it is hoped that such feelings will gradually diminish. Even now we may speak more boldly to individuals, when opportunity offers. The Turks themselves, also, may gradually venture to inquire more freely into the Christian Religion. At all events, much has been gained, and we should feel strongly encouraged to hope and pray for more light and liberty in this land of spiritual darkness and bondage.

German, English, and Greek Services.

Divine Service in the German language has been regularly held by Mr. Wolters in the British Chapel at Smyrna: he also takes part in the English Services at the same place. Service in the Modern-Greek language has also been commenced by Mr. Wolters. This Service is attended by from ten to twenty people, chiefly members of the Church of England; although a few who belong to the Greek Church are occasionally present, from a desire to witness our mode of worship.

In reference to this Service, Mr. Wolters remarks, in the same Letter—

I love to read and hear our beautiful Liturgy in the Greek language, and at a place, too, where one of the seven Churches once flourished, and where the venerable Polycarp was added to “the noble army of martyrs.”

Visit to the Apocalyptic Churches.

In the month of April Mr. Wolters visited the Apocalyptic Churches; and was greatly encouraged by the opportunities presented to him of distributing the Scriptures, and of declaring the truth as it is in Jesus, in those deeply-interesting localities.

Retrospect of past Labours.

Notwithstanding the apparently limited success of this Mission, it is satisfactory to find that some fruits of the labours of former Missionaries are occasionally brought to light. In a Letter dated May 8, 1844, Mr. Wolters writes—

The labours of the Rev. J. Hartley have not been in vain: we can point to several individuals, who, through his instrumentality, have been brought to a saving knowledge of the Truth, and who will be his joy and crown in the great day of the Lord. Nor is there any reason to believe that the labours of the Rev. Messrs Jetter and Fjellstedt have been in vain. Some of the seed sown by them may have fallen on good ground. The Greek Schools have certainly had a good effect. Even at the present day there is a difference observable between those of the poor girls of Boujah who learned in Mr. Jetter's School to read and to sew, and others who did not. We should, therefore, not despise the day of small things.*

EGYPT MISSION.

COMMENCED 1826.

Mission Establishment:

- 2 European Missionaries.
- 5 Native Teachers and Schoolmasters.
- 2 Native Schoolmistresses.

THIS Mission continues under the care of the Rev. J. R. T. Lieder, and the Rev. W. Krusé. It has for the last two years been carried on with renewed energy, and some hopeful indications of success. A very full and encouraging Report, dated March 14, 1845, has been furnished by Mr. Lieder.

English and Arabic Services.

Divine Service in English has been regularly held in the Mission Chapel, for the benefit of the English Residents at Cairo, and the numerous travellers who pass through that city on their way to India or Palestine. Beside this, an Afternoon Service has been commenced, within the last eighteen months, in the Arabic language.

Distribution of the Scriptures.

Respecting the distribution of copies of the Word of God, and of School-books, Mr. Lieder reports—

In the course of the year 1844 there were given to our Schools 115 copies of the Holy Scriptures, and 1587 copies of works from the Malta Press; while 367 copies of the Scriptures, and 2975 copies of works from the Malta Press, were sold or given gratis to the people; making a total of 5044 copies. The total number of copies of the Holy Scriptures, and works from the Malta Press, which have been put in circulation during the last two years, is, therefore, 9164. Many of these works have been introduced into Coptic and other Christian Schools, as also into the new Lancasterian School of the Jews in Cairo; many have gone into Upper and Lower Egypt, by people who have asked for them; and not a few have found their way to the Coptic convents in the Desert.

Missionary Tour in Upper Egypt.

In the early part of last year, Mr. Krusé made a Missionary tour in Upper Egypt, in order to visit some of the numerous towns and villages inhabited by Coptic Christians. He was encouraged by witnessing a very eager desire for books and portions of the Scriptures in the Arabic language. Of this desire, the following extract from his Journal may be taken as an instance—

March 7—Nagade. Neither rule nor order could be observed: crowds pressed forward into the water, and up to the side of the boat. We sold several Testaments and Parts of Scripture, and distributed many Tracts; but still there was a fresh demand. I endeavoured to speak to the people; but could not be heard. At length, finding it absolutely necessary to put off our boat from the shore for a short time, we crossed to a small island in the middle of the river; but even thither some followed us. One poor man swam across, and purchased a New Testament; which, when he had obtained, he joyfully tied up in his only robe, and, holding it above his head, returned with his prize. Others then followed his example. Some, who had no money, brought fowls, pigeons, &c., in exchange for a book. We told them that it was our intention to return to them, if they would be less riotous; and at length they promised that such should be the case. After we had remained at the island for an hour, to take our dinner, we returned to the people on shore, hoping to find some opportunity to speak to them on the one thing needful; but the clamour was greater than ever. We were all employed, for some hours, in the distribution and sale of Books and Tracts; but finding our supply rapidly decreasing, and that we should have very few books remaining for other places, we gave orders to row to the other side. Before quitting, however, a poor dumb man made application, in a most touching manner, for a book for his child: he placed his hand on his boy's head, and looked up into my face most beseechingly. It was impossible to resist. Holding the book over his head, and literally skipping with joy, he retired, uttering the piteous sound which dumb people usually make.

Schools.

The number of children attending the Boys' Day School, and the Female Department, is greatly increased. Some of the pupils belong to the first Coptic families. Of the 316 who attended the Schools during the last year, 19 were Mahomedans, and 260 Copts. Respecting the Female School, the Report states—

When this School was opened, at the end of the year 1835, there was no Egyptian lady who could read or write; but since that time more than 300 pupils have left the School, who are now at least able to read the Word of God and other useful works.

The Coptic Institution.

This is the most important part of the Society's Establishment in Cairo. It was stated, in the Forty-third Report, that measures had been taken to re-model the Seminary which was then in existence, in order more especially to adapt it to the wants of Coptic youths intended for the Ministry of that Church.

In carrying out this object at the beginning of the year 1843, many difficulties arose, chiefly from the ignorance of the youths recommended by the Patriarch, and their inability to read even their own language. The pupils have, consequently, been chiefly engaged in learning the Arabic, English, and Coptic languages. Those in the first class, however, are now so far advanced as to be capable of devoting their attention to studies more directly bearing upon their future ministerial duties. The three eldest youths have been ordained Deacons by the Patriarch. Mr. Lieder pays particular attention to the Themes and Exercises written by the youths on important religious topics; and he has forwarded to the Committee, as a specimen, a Sermon in Arabic and English written by one of them. The number of Students is 20; viz. 15 who board in the Establishment, and 5 who attend for daily instruction. One of the boarders is Galy, an Abyssinian Priest, who was formerly Confessor to Oubea, the Governor of Tigrè; and, after having made a pilgrimage to Jerusalem and Rome, resided for several months with the Rev. S. Gobat at Malta. His progress in learning is satisfactory, and he delights to study the Word of God. It is earnestly hoped that he may hereafter be made a blessing to his benighted country.

Public Examination of the Schools.

The first Public Examination of the Mission Schools was held on Sept. 12, 1843, in the presence of the Patriarch, the Bishop of Senaar, and many Priests and respectable Laymen. The Patriarch was much pleased with the progress of the pupils, and particularly with the order which prevailed. He was astonished to hear some of the more advanced girls read with a clear voice some portion of the New Testament—"a fact which he would perhaps never have believed," observes Mr. Lieder, "without seeing it." After dining at the Mission-house, which he had never entered before, the Patriarch "offered up a short prayer for the welfare of the Mission Establishment, and took leave, evidently highly pleased with what he had heard and seen."

Mr. Lieder adds—

This honour, so openly paid to the Mission Schools in Caïro, has proved very beneficial. By this act the Schools have been openly sanctioned by the Head of the Coptic Church; and since that time they have been frequently visited by the Bishops from Upper Egypt, when they have come in the autumn to Caïro, as also by their chief influential men. Indeed, not only do Monks from the convents in the deserts often come to see the Institution; but many of them express a wish to enter it as pupils.

The Schools have been frequently visited by travellers passing through Caïro, among whom was His Royal Highness Prince Albert of Prussia, who spent some time in examining them.

Translational Labours.

Mr. Lieder has devoted some time to the work of obtaining corrections for the proof-sheets of the New Testament in Coptic and Arabic, which is now being carried through the press by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge. He has also been engaged in superintending the translation into Arabic of the Homilies of Chrysostom and some useful works by Macarius, whose authority is much respected by the Coptic Church; but from whose principles that Church has grievously declined.

General Review.

In concluding his Report, Mr. Lieder takes the following general view of the state and prospects of the Egypt Mission—

Never, at any period of our sojourn in Egypt, have opportunities been greater, or our usefulness more evident, than at present. We have, through God's blessing, been enabled to open the springs of salvation to the Native Christians of this deeply-interesting country. The fountain of knowledge, the Bible, is no longer sealed by general ignorance; but begins to be free and flowing throughout the narrow valley of the Nile.*

Proceedings of the Rev. Dr. Krapf.

AT the close of the last Report, the return of the Rev. Dr. Krapf, and Mrs. Krapf, to Aden, after having been exposed to extreme peril on an attempted voyage to Zanzibar, was stated; and that they had re-embarked for that place at the end of eight days: their re-embarkation took place on board an Arab boat, on the 23d of November 1843. After a trying voyage along the Eastern Coast of Africa, they arrived at Zanzibar on the 7th of January 1844. During the voyage, they touched at several places on the coast, and collected much information, respecting the country and its inhabitants, calculated to be useful in the prosecution of the intended Mission in that quarter.

At Zanzibar Dr. Krapf was received, and treated with much kindness, by Captain Hamerton, the British Consul, and likewise by R. P. Waters, Esq., the United-States' Consul. Dr. Krapf was introduced by Captain Hamerton to the Imaum of Muscat, whose residence is at Zanzibar. The Imaum received him in a friendly manner, and gave him a Letter to the Governors on the coast in these terms—

This comes from Said Sultân, to all our subjects, friends, and governors, our greeting. This Note is given in favour of Dr. Krapf, the German, a good man, who desires to convert the world to God.

* Further accounts of the Egypt Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for July 1844, pp. 141—155.

Behave ye well toward him, and render him services everywhere. This has been written by Achmed, the Secretary and Servant, at the order of your Lord.

The Imaum also furnished Dr. Krapf with separate Letters to the Governors of Lamo, Mombas, and Takongo.

After staying about two months at Zanzibar, Dr. Krapf proceeded on a Missionary excursion along the coast North-eastward. On the 7th of March he reached the Island of Pemba, about 5° South latitude, where he was favourably received by the Governor. The Island numbers about 10,000 inhabitants, most of them slaves. Dr. Krapf remarks, on the day of his arrival—

I met in this Governor a Mahomedan who could be reasoned with, and who listened dispassionately to arguments diametrically opposed to the doctrines of the Korân.

On the 11th of March Dr. Krapf reached Tanga, and on the 13th, Mombas, a small island at the mouth of the Tuaca River, about 4° South latitude. Here, also, he met with a friendly reception from the Governor, who had formerly been in England as the Envoy of the Imaum. Dr. Krapf learned that the Wonica Country approaches within three miles of Mombas. At Mombas Dr. Krapf studied the Sooahelee and Wonica languages. The Sooahelee he considers indispensable, whether the Missionary proceed to the Galla or other Tribes on the coast. Neither of these languages has been reduced to writing. Dr. Krapf supposes that the Sooahelee is spoken by a population of 500,000.

Dr. Krapf considers Mombas as very eligible for a Missionary Station.

The direction of the wind, on the approaching monsoon, obliged Dr. Krapf to relinquish the intention of proceeding to Lamo, and to return to Zanzibar, which he reached on the 22d of March.

Death of Mrs. Krapf—Hopeful Prospects.

After staying a few weeks at Zanzibar, Dr. Krapf, accompanied by Mrs. Krapf, left that place to return to Mombas, which they reached on the 5th of May. Here heavy afflictions awaited him. Mrs. Krapf was confined on the 3d of June, with every prospect of doing well. On the third day, however, puerperal fever appeared, and on the 13th she died. Some of her last words were—"Do not praise me in your account of my last hours; but tell our friends that the Saviour has pardoned me, a poor and miserable sinner." On the 15th the child also died. Mrs. Krapf's remains were, by her own desire, interred on the main land, "to remind the pagan Wonicas," Dr. Krapf remarks, "who frequently pass the road by her tomb, of the object which had brought her and myself to this country." Though cast down, he was not forsaken; but experienced the efficacy of the grace of Christ to sustain and comfort him while passing through these deep waters. Writing to Mr. Waters, on the 2d of September, he thus records his feelings—

My heart and body wept for many days; and even now, although the first ebullitions of weeping and grief have passed away, I cannot look back to those days of trial and affliction without weeping; but I have experienced what St. Paul writes to the Corinthians—For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ. I would not wish that the Lord had otherwise dealt with me and my departed family than He has actually dealt with us, for His stroke is a blessing, and His chastisement is glory throughout.

Thus strengthened with strength in his soul, he addressed himself with cheerfulness and vigour to the work before him. Reviewing his position he observes, August 14, 1844—

We shall find that there are more inlets to the centre of Africa than we have hitherto been aware of.

Translational Labours.

At the latest date, Dr. Krapf was still diligently occupied in his lingual studies and translational labours. He had translated the Book of Genesis into the Sooahelee, and had carried the Dictionary as far as the letter M.

Appointment of the Rev. Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen to the Bombay and Western-India Mission.

Circumstances have prevented the Rev. Messrs. Isenberg and Mühleisen from joining the East-Africa Mission; and they are now, by their own wish, and with the sanction of the Committee, transferred to the Bombay and Western-India Mission, which stood in urgent need of additional Labourers, in consequence of the death of the Rev. G. M. Valentine, and the return home, in ill health, of the Rev. H. Mellon.

The Committee are very solicitous to relieve Dr. Krapf of his present solitary situation, by associating with him some suitable fellow-labourers as soon as possible. Eastern Africa is a very important sphere of Missionary operation, and Dr. Krapf's expectations of the successful establishment of a Missionary in the country, if due means be employed for the purpose, are sanguine.*

IN former Reports the Committee have spoken of this Mission as being still in the feebleness of infancy; but this year they have to record the distressing intelligence of the desolation of its chief Station by disease and death.

BOMBAY.Return Home of the Rev. H. Mellon—Death of Mrs. Mellon, and of the Rev. G. M. Valentine.*

The Rev. H. Mellon, and Mrs. Mellon, arrived at Bombay on November 28, 1843, with the view of assisting the Rev. G. M. Valentine, the only Missionary then at Bombay. Mr. Mellon undertook the superintendence of the Money School; and Mr. Valentine the general duties of the Mission. But, in the July following, the very afflictive intelligence reached the Committee, that Mrs. Mellon had been removed by death, after her confinement; that Mr. Mellon's health was so broken as to render his immediate return to Europe absolutely necessary; that Mr. Valentine, the able and devoted servant of Christ, who for seven years had adorned the profession of a Christian Missionary, had died of cholera; and that the Station was left without a Missionary.

The arrival of such intelligence from time to time puts the faith of the Committee to the test, and throws them back upon those precious promises which assure the Church that the Saviour is the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever; and that the chastening of the Lord should be rather regarded as the proof that He is with us, and furnishing us with precious seed—the earnest that the time of sheaf-bearing and rejoicing is at hand.

Reinforcement of the Mission—Results of past Labours.

The Committee, in order to supply this deficiency, immediately sent out to Bombay the Rev. A. Dredge, a Student of the Institution, in Deacons' Orders. At the same time, by a remarkable concurrence of circumstances, the Rev. C. W. Isenberg, and the Rev. John J. Mülheisen, had proceeded to Bombay upon the relinquishment of the Shoa Mission; and they have now been attached by the Committee to the Bombay Mission.

The Rev. W. K. Fletcher, in earnestly applying to the Committee for a successor to Mr. Valentine, in a Letter dated Aug. 27, 1844, thus incidentally describes the results of his labours in the Money School—

We cannot go back to the position we occupied in 1838, when Mr. Valentine first arrived. Since then, many have been taught to look up to the Money School as a place of sound learning, and many inquiring minds have been gathered around the Mission. The Weekly Meeting for Mahratta Service for the Converts and others—the opportunities of conversation with educated Natives—and the desire for more knowledge, now, no doubt, extensively diffused among the Bombay Native Community—are circumstances which are among the direct results of the Mission.

NASSUCK.

General View.

The Rev. Messrs. C. P. Farrar, J. Dixon, and C. C. Mengé, have conducted the operations of this Mission. Mr. Farrar has received great assistance from the zealous labours of Ram Krishna, a Brahmin Convert mentioned in former Reports. Mr. Mengé, in his Report for the Quarter ending Oct. 16, 1844, thus writes—

Both branches of the Nassuck Mission have assumed a brighter aspect during the past quarter than they have ever had before, in consequence of which our hopes have increased that the Lord is about to assist us with a gracious rain, and to refresh the barren soil upon which we are labouring. It is true, we have recently been called to mourn the loss of five valuable Labourers in this part of the Lord's vineyard—three by death, and two others having left for England. Still, the effect of their prayers and labours is not lost; so that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. The Lord is good in all that He doeth, and happy is he who seeth His goodness even in bereavements and chastisements.

Difficulties of Inquirers—Baptism of Four Adults.

Nassuck is the stronghold of Brahminism in the West of India. Many youths of this caste attend the Mission Schools; and many young men, who were educated in these Schools, are now holding important situations under Government. Mr. Farrar has been in the habit of meeting, twice a-week, several young men of this class, for the purpose of carrying on their studies in English literature and science, and with the hope of interesting their minds in the religion of Jesus. But, though several appear inclined to embrace Christianity, they have not yet been able to make the sacrifice of worldly interests consequent upon its profession. Two youths of the School lately determined to present themselves for Baptism; but the whole city was in a ferment: their parents and relatives interfered, by threats and entreaties, to defeat their purpose, and the lads were eventually removed from Nassuck.

Amidst these instances of disappointment, and of active enmity to the Truth, it has, however, pleased God to cheer the hearts of the Missionaries by giving them some fruit of their labours, though in a way little expected, and of small account in the eyes of the world.

There is at Nassuck an Asylum or Poor-house for poor and destitute Natives, which is supported by the alms of the benevolent. Here the Missionaries were accustomed to give instruction to the inmates; and here, as it was of old, at a place by a river-side, where prayer was wont to be made, the Lord first opened the heart of a widow and three aged men, that they attended unto the things spoken by the Missionaries. They were baptized, after having given good proof of the intelligence and sincerity of their desire to be admitted into the Church of Christ.

The woman was the widow of a Havildar of Sepoys. Two pious officers in the regiment to which her husband had belonged had, several years before, endeavoured to bring her to the knowledge of Christ; but, for a time, their efforts were ineffectual. After various reverses, she came to the Asylum at Nassuck, and the fruit of her instruction at length appeared in the earnestness with which she now sought Baptism. Mrs. Farrar, in her Journal, under the date of August 6, 1844, thus writes of her—

A woman in the Poor-house has asked for Baptism with an earnestness which I have not before witnessed in any Hindoo. Her feeling seems to be—I will throw myself at the feet of Jesus: there, if I perish, I perish.

Schools.

Respecting the Schools Mrs. Farrar writes, on the 5th of August—

The Schools are in good order, and very full: 229 boys are under instruction.

Missionary Tours.

Missionary Tours have been taken by the Nassuck Missionaries in the neighbouring districts.

Hindoostanee Department.

Mr. Mengé's special department of labour is among the Mahomedan population speaking Hindoostanee. He writes, concerning his labours in this department, in his Report, April to June 1844—

A few Mahomedans of distinction have visited me, to whom I have given portions of the Hindoostanee Scriptures, and recommended the study of the Gospel of Christ. In several instances the New-Testament portions have been received with thanks, and the word of Christ, and Him crucified, has been listened to with respect and apparent interest, especially on Lord's-day afternoons, when my Hindoostanee Congregation amounts to about 30 persons, including the boys of the School and the servants. My aim is to gain the confidence and respect of the Mahomedans of the place, and to convince them, in a quiet and friendly manner, that the only object of my preaching to them the Gospel of Christ is to promote their real good, and the salvation of their immortal souls. The progress may be slow; but satisfactory results may be hoped for under the blessing of Almighty God.

And in his Report for the Quarter ending Oct. 16—

A venerable Mahomedan, of the Sheikh caste, 83 years of age, appears to be, as far as I can judge, a sincere inquirer after Truth. He comes to me twice every week to be instructed in the Christian Religion. The Hindoostanee School is now better attended than it has been for some time past: the number of boys on the list is 40.*

COMMENCED 1844.

Mission Establishment:

2 European Missionaries. | 1 European Catechist.

General View.

THE Rev. J. D. Procknow, and Mr. A. Rudolph, have continued their labours at Kotghur.

No one, by the last Report, has as yet professed himself a believer in Jesus; but the Missionaries still go on labouring in faith and hope. The Word is preached in the neighbouring villages, and at the great melas or fairs; and Tracts are also distributed. The medical and surgical help afforded to the Natives is gratefully received, and is exciting an impression in favour of Christianity.

Visit of the Bishop of Calcutta.

The Mission was visited in July last by the Bishop of Calcutta and his Chaplain, the Rev. J. H. Pratt, when Mr. Procknow was admitted to Priests' Orders.

The excellent President of the Himalaya Corresponding Committee, W. Gorton, Esq., who has proved himself so warm and liberal a friend to the Mission, having resigned his office, † Reprinted from the Returns of last Year.

preparatory to his return to England, the Bishop was requested by the Committee to accept the office of President, to which he kindly acceded.*

The Rev. J. H. Pratt, during his visit, made a tour of the district, accompanied by the Rev. J. D. Procknow; partly with a view of becoming better acquainted with the country and people, and also to make known the existence of the Kotghur Schools to the inhabitants of the numerous villages scattered along the mountain sides and in the valleys.

From an account of this visit, which appeared in the Calcutta Christian Intelligencer for April 1845, the following extracts are taken—

Although a Missionary may do something in visiting the villages in routine, and conversing with the few people he may get together in each; yet, except at the annual melas, he has not the same opportunities of proclaiming the Gospel as those which Missionaries in the plains enjoy. The people are scattered in numerous small villages, separated by difficult paths, and are not easily drawn together, unless there be some predisposing cause. There are no busy thoroughfares, as in the bazaars in the plains, where an audience may easily be attracted around the preacher. The Christian education of the young seems to be at present the chief direct means likely to be efficacious in bringing about the moral renovation of these mountaineers.

The Boys' School under the instruction of Mr. Rudolph, at Kotghur, gives every promise of being a most important instrument in this work. Many of the Simla summer residents, who have strayed out as far as Kotghur, have spoken in very encouraging terms of the Institution; among whom may be mentioned Sir Hugh and Lady Gough. I had the pleasure of spending, during my visit, about an hour in examining the Youths. There were then four classes, consisting respectively of 3, 12, 7, and 10 boys.

Mrs. Procknow has a Girls' School, in which there are 9 children. They learn to sew, knit, read, and write. It has been with the greatest difficulty, and only the greatest perseverance, that she has managed to get even this little flock together.

The Committee of the Himalaya Church Missionary Society have begun to open two Orphan Institutions, like those at Benares, Agra, Cawnpore, and other Missions. The funds allow, at present, of their supporting a very limited number of children. But nevertheless here is a beginning; and we may hope that in time, if it please God to favour the scheme, a Native-Christian Colony may rise up and exert a beneficial influence upon the surrounding neighbourhood.

Addition to this Mission of the Rev. M. Wilkinson.

The Rev. M. Wilkinson, and Mrs. Wilkinson, embarked on the 25th of July last for Calcutta, on their way to Kotghur.†

---

* The Committee have since received the affecting intelligence of the death of Mr. Gorton on his passage to England.

CALCUTTA.

General View—Need of Missionaries—Baptisms.

THE Committee are not able to report any visible advance, during the past year, of the cause of Christ through the labours of the Missionaries in the Metropolis of India. Indeed, it appears from the last returns, which are made up annually in June, that the number of Native Converts under the pastoral care of the Missionaries has diminished; while, from the transfer of some of the Schools to the care of a local Association, and the diminution of others, a decrease has also taken place in the number of children under Christian instruction.

The Committee do not make this statement without regret. The city of Calcutta contains 600,000 inhabitants, and within the range of the labours of the Missionaries the population is estimated at 2,000,000. That Christian Missionaries should proclaim the glad tidings of salvation amidst such a mass of ignorant Heathen with so little success, is a fact which will excite in the mind of the Christian many humiliating reflections, and should call forth many earnest prayers to Him who alone giveth the increase.

The number of European Missionaries now in Calcutta, owing to the return home of one zealous and long-tried Missionary on account of his health, has not been adequate, during the last year, for carrying on their operations upon the same scale as formerly. The Committee recognise the great importance of strengthening this Mission; but, during the past year, they have only been able to add one to the number. The baptisms of four Adults have been reported during the last year. One of them is a hopeful case, being a well-educated young Brahmin, who has since been acting as Monitor in the English School, and, by a close application to his studies, preparing himself for a wider sphere of usefulness.

Education.

The Christian Institution contains 37 Scholars. The first class consists of youths from 15 to 19 years of age, of good capacity and hopeful character, who are trained with a view to their becoming Teachers. Twenty-eight Christian Girls are also receiving a sound Christian education, and the English School for Heathen Boys, on the Mirzapore Premises, containing 200 Scholars, is conducted, under the superintendence of the Rev. J. Long, with great spirit and success. The pupils are instructed in the Holy Scriptures, and in the usual branches of an English education.

Mr. Long writes, March 14, 1844—

In addition to these educational labours, I have a class of 12 lads, from the age of fourteen to eighteen, to whom I give instruction daily for two hours in the Epistle to the Romans, the Evidences of Christianity, and Abercrombie's Intellectual Philosophy. All my instructions are delivered through the medium of the English Language. Nine of these lads are Christian, and the rest Heathen. I hope some may hereafter prove useful Teachers and Catechists. Five of them devote part of their time to teaching in School.

Importance of Christian Education.

In a joint Letter from the two Missionaries at Calcutta, Mr. Long and the Rev. J. F. Osborne, dated March 2, 1844, the importance of Christian education is thus stated—

Secular education is being very widely diffused in Calcutta. The English language and literature are now studied by a numerous class of youth, amounting to probably 10,000, who are certain to exercise extensive influence on society, both in Calcutta, and through various parts of India. How important, then, that Christianity should be brought to bear on their minds by means of books, conversation, intercourse, &c. . . . . The Church Missionary Society ought to have at least five European Missionaries in the Metropolis of India.

Again, Mr. Long, in his Report for 1844, thus writes upon the same subject—

The result of more than four years' Missionary experience in Calcutta fully convinces me that the young are the most hopeful objects of Missionary exertion . . . . . that Missionary exertion cannot be better expended than in systematic and direct efforts to train up an efficient and active Native Agency. The signs of the times call loudly for this. The spread of Vedantic and Deistic notions among the upper classes of Hindoo society—the intense and increasing desire manifested by the Natives for an English education—the patronage extended by Government to educated Natives—all, all call on Christians to guide the stream of knowledge “by Siloah’s hill,” and to unite on one grand principle—a Bible education for the rising youth of Hindostan.

AGURPARAH.

The duties of this Station have been performed by Mr. F. J. De Rozario, a Country-born Catechist, assisted by Native Catechists. The Rev. J. F. Osborne has visited it monthly.

No marked events have occurred, nor any open conversions to Christianity. The Congregation, which at the commencement of the year numbered 102, has been reduced, by removals and deaths, to 70, of whom 22 are Communicants.

BURDWAN.

This Station was, during the greater part of the last year, deprived of the presence of a Missionary, the Rev. J. T. Lincké having been compelled, by the failure of his health, to leave India before the return of the Rev. J. J. Weitbrecht. Under these circumstances, the temporary assistance of the Rev. E. A. Dicken was engaged by the Corresponding Committee for the superintendence of the Mission Schools, till the arrival of a Missionary; while the Native Services and Schools have] been conducted by the Native Catechist, Kally Comar Ghose, assisted by Native Readers, to whose diligence and zeal Mr. Dicken bears a very favourable testimony.

Native Christians—Preaching to the Heathen.

Twenty-one Christian families, comprising eighty individuals, form the Christian village within the Mission premises. Preaching to the Heathen has been regularly carried on at the Bazaar Chapel in the town of Burdwan, and on other days in the neighbouring villages; but only one convert from Heathenism has been baptized during the last year.

Educational Establishments—Persecutions of Inquiring Youth.

The Educational Establishments of the Station consist of a School of 25 Orphan Boys, another of 14 Orphan Girls, an Infant School—the last two under the management of Miss Hannes—Vernacular Schools, containing 260 Boys, and an English School, containing 74 Heathen Boys. The effects to be anticipated from imparting English instruction, upon Christian principles, to the rising generation, has been manifested in this School; four of the elder boys having been led to desire Baptism from a conviction of the superiority of the Christian Religion. This desire was, however, violently opposed by their parents; and one of the boys was subjected to a degree of personal violence which called for the interference of the Magistrate. For a time, the authority of the parents has prevailed to keep back the children from the fold of Christ; but they have expressed to their Teachers their continued determination to renounce idolatry as soon as they shall be free to act for themselves.

Mr. Dicken bears witness to the fact, that many of the Students of the English School despise Paganism, and are only withheld by the bigotry of their parents from embracing Christianity.

KRISHNAGHUR.

General View.

The Calcutta Corresponding Committee, in a Letter by the Rev. J. Innes, dated July 13, 1844, have given the following General View of the Mission work in the Krishnaghur District—

The present aspect of the work in the District of Krishnaghur is most encouraging. The Lord has vouchsafed His blessing on the various instrumentalities that have been in operation there, on an extended scale, for the last four years; and a degree of order, peacefulness, and stability, has been attained, which furnishes at once a ground of thankfulness for the past, and of lively hope and expectation for the time to come. The branches of labour at present carried on by each of the five Missionaries in each Station are, 1. A District of many villages, to be visited as often as possible; 2. An Adult Congregation in connexion with his Church and residence; 3. A Boys' Boarding School; 4. A Girls' Boarding School; 5. A Heathen School, English or Bengalee; 6. Preaching to adult Heathens.

Number of Baptized Christians or Candidates, and Communicants.

The number of baptized Christians was erroneously stated in the last Report to be 3290. This number comprehended many who were still on the list of inquirers. The number of baptized Christians, including children connected with the Mission, at the close of last year, was 2931. Adding to these the number of those who have renounced idolatry, and are Candidates for Baptism, the total amounts to 3902. The number of Communicants is 234.

Reports of the various Stations.

Sudder Station, Krishnaghur—The Rev. C. H. Blumhardt, in his Report of this Station, Nov. 29, 1844, thus writes—

The blessing of God has evidently accompanied every branch of my labours, both ministerial and educational; and though the effects of this blessing may not be very visible, and may perhaps fall short of the expectation of the Christian public, still I trust that in time they will be seen. . . . . The Readers are sent out into the villages every Saturday evening, and sometimes on the week-days, to have Service with the Christians who live at a distance from the Station ; and the returns which I receive from them of the attendance are, on the whole, satisfactory. The number of persons baptized during the year amounts to 23 adults and 28 children. . . . . There is evidently a progressive spiritual knowledge, and, I trust, a growing in grace, in many of my Christians. . . . . It is a most pleasing thought to me, that many of my Christian families have their private devotions, independent of Public Worship : this seems to me to be the best sign of their being savingly impressed with the truth as it is in Jesus. . . . . The boys of the Christian Boarding School have given me every encouragement and hope. I trust that they will in time become the means of conveying the saving truths of the Gospel to their Heathen neighbours, both by example and precept.

Chupra—The Rev. H. C. Krückeberg, in his Report of this Station, Nov. 28, 1844, states that 15 adults and 18 children have been baptized from the Heathen in the course of the year, and that 26 have joined the class of Inquirers.

Much opposition against Christians has been manifested by the Heathen. On this subject Mr. Krückeberg remarks in his Journal, under date of Feb. 19, 1844—

Since Christianity has made some little entrance into the country, the enemy is up, to prejudice the people against it, by telling all manner of falsehoods about those who have embraced it. They are not unfrequently addressed in the following manner—“Well, what have you got by turning a Christian? A morsel of flesh? Where is the happiness you have attained to? You are as black as before : in every respect you are just what you were before, except that your caste is gone, and you are degraded for ever.” It is difficult for many to give a cheerful and easy reply when thus assailed.

Kabastanga—Of this Station the Rev. C. T. Krauss writes, in his Report for 1844—

Some fresh victories have been gained during the last year . . . . . Thirty-three have placed themselves under Christian Instruction . . . . . Fifty-four individuals have been baptized, of whom twenty-three were adults . . . . . Real piety and spirituality among the Christian community are still at by far too low a standard ; and worldly-mindedness, together with the fearfully corrupt nature of all Natives in this dark country, too often checks the good seed sown among them.

There are eleven places, including the Missionary's residence, where the Christians assemble for Prayers and Weekly Services ; and on Lord's-days the Congregations are collected in six principal villages.

Those who are under my immediate superintendence are most regular in their attendance on the public ordinances, both on the Lord's-day and week-days ; and the private life of some equally corresponds with their knowledge of the Truth and the Means of Grace administered to them. It is surely a cause of great thankfulness, if there were nothing else to gladden the heart and encourage those who are engaged in the field of labour, that thus far we are permitted to see the fruits of our work in the steady walk and conversation of those who have tasted how gracious the Lord is.

Rottenpore—The Rev. C. W. Lipp, in his Report for 1844, observes respecting this Station—

The greater part of my time and strength is spent upon the Christians who live on the Mission premises . . . . The Christian Boarding Schools are my chief hope . . . . Upon the whole, I think it is not too much to say, that many of the Christians have acquired more taste for spiritual things, and attend more constantly to the Means of Grace, than was formerly the case. Many, however, have gone back, and walk with them that are without.

During the year 6 adults and 17 children have been baptized.

Solo—The Rev. A. Alexander, in his Report of this Station, speaks of his charge as having afforded some little encouragement during the last year. Several new Candidates have placed themselves under instruction; but only one adult has been admitted to Baptism. He notices the constant satisfaction given by Luke and Jadoo, two Native Catechists. In reference to them, Mr. Alexander says—

They are ever zealous in the cause of the Gospel, and ever ready for hardship and privation. Would that we had many more such faithful and unassuming servants of their Master!

Favourable Testimony of the Rev. J. J. Weitbrecht to this Mission—Prospect of Native Agency—Need of more Missionaries.

The Committee have the satisfaction of confirming these favourable Reports of this Mission by the latest testimony they have received from a well-known witness, the Rev. J. J. Weitbrecht, whose experience for twelve years as a Missionary in the immediate neighbourhood of Krishnaghur enables him to form a correct estimate of the work; and whose recent arrival, after a sojourn of three years in England and Germany, gave a peculiar freshness to the impressions which he received upon returning to the Mission.

In a Letter, dated Feb. 14, 1845, Mr. Weitbrecht writes—

I paid our Brethren Krauss, Lipp, and Hechler, a visit at their respective Stations. I must restrain my feelings, lest I paint the scenes too bright; but so much I may say, that my heart was filled with gratitude in perceiving the improvement during the last four years in these interesting Missions. The very sight of a little Church, with steeple or spire, with a comfortable Mission-house, and a Boarding School with forty or fifty Christian boys, is cheering in this land of idolatry; but, what is more interesting and important, the blessed effects of a stated Ministry are now manifesting themselves in the industry, the orderly, neat, and cleanly habits of the Converts, in their improved moral conduct, and their Christian character Surely this is the work of the Lord. He has been smiling upon the efforts of our Brethren : He has heard the prayers of the Church.

The advanced state of this Mission now furnishes a prospect, which the Committee have long ardently desired to witness, of a supply of Native Teachers springing from the bosom of a Native Church, trained from youth in the midst of a Native-Christian population.

In the Letter previously quoted, Mr. Weitbrecht writes—

The Krishnaghur District now contains a large number of Christian boys, more than three hundred of whom have already commenced their studies under the superintendence of the Missionaries; out of which number thirty or forty might at once be selected for a Head Seminary, to be trained as Catechists and Teachers.

In connexion with these encouraging prospects, the Committee have received very urgent appeals to increase the number of the Missionaries in the District, especially with a view to the higher department of the education of Native Teachers.

BENARES.

During the last year, the Rev. W. Smith, and the Rev. G. Stolzenberg, have conducted the general duties of the Mission.

Preaching to the Heathen—Baptisms—Erection of a Church.

There are four Chapels, and four smaller Preaching-places, in the city, where reading, preaching, discussions, and distribution of books, have been regularly carried on by Mr. Smith, and his Native Assistant, Tryloke, nine or ten times a-week.

Two Native adults only have been added to the Church by Baptism during the last year; but many indications are apparent of a growing conviction of the truth of Christianity, even among those who have not publicly professed it. Mr. Smith was unexpectedly gratified, on one occasion, by the voluntary assistance of a Native in his discussion with a body of Heathen Natives. "Brethren," said the Native, "listen to one word. I once thought as you think about Christianity, and I used to talk against it as you do; but I read the New Testament: I read it through; and I have never had a word to say against Christianity since. Do you the same, and you will be of the same mind."

Mr Smith remarks—

According to custom, I spent several months in itinerating during the last cold season, and visited a great number of towns and villages. All I saw and heard was far from being of a discouraging kind, notwithstanding that I have felt, of late years, a great tendency to look at the dark side of things, and to despond in my work. There is, in all the Districts around us, generally speaking, a willingness to hear us and to receive our books. In some cases, indeed, the people are alarmed at our visits, and are prejudiced and repulsive; but these are balanced by other cases of great friendliness and readiness to receive and hear us.

By the exertions of friends at Benares a Church, which has long been much needed, is now erected upon the Mission Premises.

Orphan Institutions—Free School.

The Orphan Institutions contain 96 boys, and 85 girls.

The Free School has been under the direction of the Rev. E. Johnson, assisted by the European Catechist, Mr. Mackay. There are 323 boys on the books.

Concentration of Missionary Effort.

This Mission has been strengthened, during the last year, by the return of the Rev. C. B. Leupolt, the arrival of the Rev. P. L. Sandberg, and the removal of the Rev. J. C. Wendnagel from Gorruckpore; so that, with Mr. Mackay, there are seven European Labourers in this stronghold of Idolatry. The Committee look forward with deep interest to the result of this concentration of Missionary strength in such a spot as Benares, and pray that an abundant blessing may rest upon their united efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ.

CHUNAR.

In consequence of the almost constant sickness of the Rev. A. Richards, the only Missionary at this Station, very little has been attempted beyond the routine duties of superintending the Schools, and conducting the religious Services. The Orphan children were removed last year, after the Rev. W. Bowley's death, to Benares, and some of the Native Christians sent over at the same time; so that the Congregation has been considerably reduced, and the whole Mission languishes.

JAUNPORE.

At this Station the Rev. R. Hawes continues to labour, assisted by Native Catechists.

General View—Missionary Tours.

Mr. Hawes reports that the sphere of operations has been enlarged by visits to villages at a distance from the Station, and by the establishment of two Branch Schools, at the distance of nine and five miles respectively from Jaunpore.

Mr. Hawes, in his Report for 1844, thus writes—

The spirit of inquiry noticed by the late Mr. Bowley, when he visited these parts about a year ago, and which is mentioned in the last Report of this Mission, has become very general among the reading classes of the people. It is quite common for our opponents to open their parcel of books, which they generally carry under their arm, and take out a copy of the Gospel, either to argue some point, or to ask the meaning of certain passages.

Missionary tours have been made to some distance from Jaunpore.

Education.

The Free School is superintended by Mr. J. P. Cæsar, an English Schoolmaster. The number of boys has increased, during the last year, from 87 to 115.

Mr. Cæsar remarks, with reference to the School—

We have succeeded in establishing pretty good order and discipline, and the attendance of many boys is regular.

In each department religious instruction is given. In the senior classes the Scriptures are read, and in the junior the History of the Bible, or Tracts. Thus an opportunity is afforded of teaching Jesus to no inconsiderable number of our juvenile students; and who can foresee the result, when they shall occupy the place of the present generation?

The number of scholars in the two Branch Schools is 89.

GORRUCKPORE.

Need of Caution in admitting Candidates to Baptism.

The Rev. J. P. Mengé has carried on the Missionary labours at this Station. In his Report, dated Nov. 26, 1844, he states that the Gospel has been regularly proclaimed by himself and his Readers; but that he has not considered it advisable to baptize any, notwithstanding his having been requested to do so by some. He thus states, in the above-mentioned Report, his reason for his great caution in this respect—

Many have been the trials we have had to experience in our work. Some of those who had been looked upon by many as sincere followers of the Lord, have turned out to be reckless characters; and their bad examples, and the injurious influence which they exercised upon those around, will, I fear, be felt for some time to come. Indeed, I think too much care cannot be taken in regard to individuals who present themselves as Candidates for Baptism, as the introduction of unworthy individuals into the visible Church of Christ is one of the greatest hindrances to the spread of the Gospel.

Christian Colony at Basharatpore.

The Rev. J. C. Wendnagel, before his removal to Benares, superintended the branch of the Mission carried on at Basharatpore, where there is a Colony of Christian Natives, comprising sixty adults, who support themselves by agricultural labour. The whole number of Christians, including youths and children, is 123.

Baptism of a Young Brahmin and an Hindoo Woman.

Mr. Wendnagel, in his Report for the half-year ending June 1844, gives an interesting account of the baptism of a young Brahmin and of an Hindoo woman. Mr. Wendnagel says—

The Brahmin had, previous to his conversion, sought, among several different sects, for an answer to his anxious inquiry, How can this soul be saved from hell? but he had obtained no satisfaction from the various directions which he received. “Then I came,” he said, “to Gorruckpore, by the mercy of God, and received from the Minister a New Testament, in which I found that God is great, almighty, without darkness, and merciful—that there is salvation in Christ Jesus, who died for us—that we are sick, miserable, and weak creatures, and sinners by birth. The glad tidings of our Lord Jesus Christ entered into my heart. Now I know that my soul will be saved, and I wish that my brethren, the Brahmins, may likewise bow their heads before the Lord Jesus Christ, that their souls may be saved also.”

Mr. Wendnagel adds—

The woman was instructed by Mrs. Wendnagel, who says, that some of the most blessed hours of her life were those which she spent with this woman; for her questions and answers were those of a soul hungering and thirsting after salvation. She often exclaimed, “Oh that my father and mother would find what I have found!” Tears ran down her cheeks when she heard of the love of Christ, and of His sufferings for poor sinners. I have always found that real inquirers were chiefly moved when they heard of the sufferings of our Saviour.

The day of the Baptism of these two Converts was most solemn. About 150 Christians were present at the ceremony, among whom were some English residents. . . . Both of them have lived, ever since they were baptized, as true Christians, and I have since joined them together in holy matrimony.

Preaching to the Heathen.

Mr. Wendnagel was accustomed to itinerate among the surrounding villages to preach to the Heathen. He writes, in the same Report—

These village people, generally speaking, hear with great willingness and attention the Gospel preached to them. I often find them very anxious to hear the Word of God, and many express their thankfulness for it. I often leave the villages with the gratifying impression upon my mind, that the time may not be very far off when this withered and parched land will be refreshed with the dew from above, and will receive new and divine life through the kingdom of Christ. Oh that my voice could reach the hearts of all those who long for the coming of their Lord and Saviour, when I say, Brethren, yet a little while, be ye like dew to this parched country, by increasing the number of the Messengers of Christ, and by praying that the Lord may give the increase to what is planted and watered by the few feeble instruments who are now labouring in this and other parts of the Lord's vineyard!

AGRA.

The Rev. C. G. Pfander and the Rev. F. A. Kreiss reside in the city of Agra, and carry on the Mission work in the city and neighbourhood. Mr. Kreiss writes in his Report, dated Nov. 8, 1844—

The Lord has not only strengthened and enabled us to carry on His work during the last year almost uninterruptedly; but also has encouraged us, by several favourable tokens, to believe that the preaching and dissemination of His Holy Word are not in vain.

Congregation.

The little flock of Native Christians collected in the city consists of about the same number of individuals as last year; namely, 29 adults, and 21 children, the greater part of whom live on the Mission premises, called the "Kuttra."

Mr. Kreiss observes, in his Report—

Though I am not able to say much of the impressions the Word of God has made on their minds, yet I feel convinced that several of them keep it and ponder it in their hearts.

During the last year a Nestorian, who was a serjeant in the Gwalior army, and who seems to be a steady and pious character, and now earns his own livelihood by a trade, has joined this Congregation, with his whole family.

Schools—Preaching to the Heathen—Erection of a new Chapel.

Three Schools, containing above 100 children in all, are supported by the Mission.

The Gospel is preached to the Heathen in small Chapels erected for that purpose, as well as in the bazaars and other places of concourse, both by the Missionaries and Native Catechists.

In the course of the year a new Chapel, built in the very heart of the city, was opened, called "Wheeler's Chapel," in honour of Major Wheeler, who took a great interest in the Mission; and largely contributed to the Chapel. Here, and in another Chapel, called "Belengunj Chapel," there are regular attendances four times a week. Sometimes there are as many as twenty hearers inside: at other times only a few, or none at all, venture to seat themselves within the Chapel, because those who enter are often ridiculed and called Christians. There are, however, generally a good many standing outside to hear and converse upon the subject of Religion.

Much interest was excited by the apparent conversion, and consequent baptism, of a Mussulman, who was formerly Molwee in a native regiment; but the last accounts which have been received do not give a favourable account of his subsequent conduct.

Orphan Establishments.

Secundra.—The Orphan Establishments at Secundra, near Agra, containing at the close of last year 104 boys and 69 girls, are supported by local funds: the boys are trained to exercise useful trades, such as printing, carpenters, blacksmiths, tailors, carpet-makers, &c. The girls learn straw plaiting, knitting, &c., and household work. As they grow up and are able to maintain themselves, they for the most part marry with each other, and settle in the Christian villages connected with the Institutions.

The Society supplies two Missionaries to superintend the Schools and the rising Christian Congregation, in the hope that children, thus separated as far as possible from all connexion with idolatry from infancy, may be trained up to a firmer and purer Christian character than other Native Converts, and that some among the boys may become efficient teachers of their countrymen.

But the progress of the work, from year to year, hardly sustains the early hopes of the benevolent projectors and supporters of these Institutions.

The Rev. C. T. Hærnle, who superintends the Boys' School, thus writes in his Report, dated Nov. 28, 1844—

At the close of the last year there were 115 boys; seven of whom have been married, one expelled for bad conduct, and not fewer than nine have run away. It is, indeed, a sad experience that some of the boys, who have given me great encouragement while they were children, now exhibit such an unruly spirit as almost to frustrate every means to keep them in order; and rather than be subject to the salutary discipline of an Institution, they often prefer to seek the world at large with all its miseries, unconcerned by the danger of soul into which they heedlessly plunge themselves.

The Rev. F. E. Schneider, who superintends the Girls' School, reports favourably of its state. In a Letter dated Oct. 31, 1844, he states—

I have selected above twenty-five for Confirmation, whom I have instructed in the chief doctrines of Christianity for three hours every week. To prove these doctrines, they have learned by heart 450 verses of the Bible, which have been explained to them. With great delight I have perceived the graces of God growing in some of those whom I have prepared for Confirmation.

Preaching in the Villages.

In the same Letter Mr. Schneider reports, respecting his labours among the Heathen—

Since it has become cool, I have been out in the villages regularly every morning, and sometimes also in the evenings, for two or three hours, or even longer. I find the village people far more inclined to listen than in the city, and I must say, that I spend many happy hours among them. In the evening, after I come home, I have for one hour the married people living on my premises, for reading the Scriptures and Prayer. So I am engaged from morning till night, and the more active I am the more happy I feel.

MEERUT.

Desolate Condition of this Station—Urgent Need of a Missionary.

Respecting Meerut the Committee have a melancholy statement to make. Since the removal of the last Missionary who resided at this Station, the Committee have not had it in their power to appoint another. The Islington Institution has supplied no Student available for this Station, and no Clergyman has been found to offer his services. Instead, therefore, of any Report of Missionary work, the Committee can only give the substance of an earnest appeal for assistance by the Rev. E. H. Maddock, Chaplain at Meerut, and Secretary of the Church Missionary Association, dated April 8, 1844—

Meerut was occupied as a Missionary Station in 1837, and for nine years previously the work was carried on by a Catechist of the Society. There is still a native flock of 32 Christians without a Pastor, and altogether depending for instruction upon the care of a Native Reader. The widowed state of the Mission is a constant source of grief to the Local Committee; and they feel convinced, that were the Parent Society to take up the Mission with vigour, and to send forth Labourers, the cause would meet with great encouragement from the numerous residents in this large Station.

The Bishop of Calcutta, in transmitting this appeal, April 16, 1844, entreats the favour of the Society toward this Mission, one of the oldest in that part of India, and now in danger of becoming utterly extinct—a Mission with all the heavy external apparatus complete—a Mission where the late Begum Sumroo built a Chapel and enclosure in a conspicuous part of Meerut—a Mission which possesses also a Mission Residence and Compound, with Alms-houses for Native Christians when destitute—a Mission in one of the largest Stations, and most healthy, in all India—a Mission where almost unlimited funds might be raised if it were vigorously sustained.

In the same Letter the Bishop writes—

When I was on Visitation there in 1836, and again in 1840, I preached in this Chapel, held a Confirmation for 50 Candidates, and had the pleasure of seeing, not only the Chapel filled, but the avenues crowded with Heathen anxious to hear the Word of God. At that time, also, there were numerous Native Schools in the neighbouring villages; and, in short, all the marks of a flourishing Mission. Now all is sinking into inanition—the Chapel closed—the Mission-house uninhabited—the Committee desponding—I could hold no Confirmation—I had no audience to address—no subscriptions were collected—no efforts made.

The Bishop adds—

I did what I could. I exhorted the Committee. I told the immense Congregation, when I preached for the Mission Societies connected with the Church, that I would write to the Society with the warmest hopes of obtaining a Missionary; and I encouraged two pious military officers, well skilled in Hindoostanee, to read prayers and a sermon, as Catechists to the Native flock.*

CHINA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1844.

Mission Establishment :

2 European Missionaries.

Arrival of the Rev. Messrs. Smith and M'Clatchie at Hong Kong —Report, by the Rev. G. Smith.

THE Rev. Messrs. G. Smith and T. M'Clatchie arrived at Hong Kong on the 25th of September last.

The following extracts, from a full and interesting Report by Mr. Smith, dated Jan. 9, 1845, will show in what light they regard the Missionary field in that vast continent—

I can with sincerity give utterance to my individual conviction, that China is already open beyond the expectations I had been led to form before my arrival, and far beyond the extent to which the Christian Church is prepared to enter. Each treaty between China and the respective Powers of the West has brought successive instalments of concession. The British stipulated for mere residence in the free ports, for the purposes of commerce, and the prospective privileges which should be conferred on other nations. The United States of America gained for the Missionary the right of building Churches and Hospitals. The French are reported to have stipulated for the security of Missionaries and their Converts.

* Further accounts of the Calcutta and North-India Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for September 1844, p. 189; Oct. 1844, pp. 215—230; Nov. 1844, pp. 243—246; and April 1845, pp. 86—93.

Again, Mr. Smith writes—

The most cheering prospects invite us boldly to engage in the conflict. The people in the neighbourhoods of the more northerly ports have learned to appreciate the advantages of a free intercourse with us. At Amoy, the highest Native Authorities converse for hours with the Missionaries on religious topics. The Hai Hong, or principal magistrate, has expressed to Mr. Abeel, not only his commendation of Christian doctrines, but his wish that the people might receive Christian instruction. At Shanghai and Ningpo, the Missionaries enjoy full security and respect. There they are brought into contact with a simple and unsophisticated race, breathing a spirit of candour, and alive to the most kindly feeling of friendship. A foreigner may there, in perfect security, stray several miles into the surrounding country, and fails not to receive a kind and cordial welcome.

British prowess had already taught them to fear the power—a friendly intercourse has now led them to respect the arts, the religion, and the civilization, of our country. No longer a source of unmingled terror, viewed through the stern medium of war, we are now the example of a generous superiority to the arts of tyranny and oppression. The mild clemency of British law—the equal protection extended to all—the safety of property and person—and the enjoyment of the sweets of freedom under the British administration of Chusan—appear to have produced a prepossession in our favour, and a widely-spread regret at the approaching cessation of British rule. How far this favourable feeling may originate in selfish policy, or how far a hollow insincerity may lurk beneath, it is impossible to speak with certainty. The course of events can alone decide the correctness of the views generally entertained. Europeans, however, who have visited the parts contiguous to Chusan, without one dissentient voice, bear a unanimous testimony in favour of the people. The climate is superior—the people are more civilized—the Native Rulers court the acquaintance of Missionaries—British intercourse is more desired. In short, we have there all the essential facilities for Missionary labour that we possess in India. In the spirit evinced by the people and the rulers, no obstacles at present exist to proclaiming the unsearchable riches of Christ.

The Report concludes with the following animated appeal—

Such, then, are the hopes and prospects to incite us onward; and oh that Britain may rise to the emergency, and nobly enter on this work! Where can talents the most brilliant, and piety the most fervent, find a fairer scope for their exercise than on these fields white unto the harvest? If the vastness of the scale, the amount of difficulty, the mighty results to be expected, and the encouragements which mingle in the prospect, can stamp on any work the impress of true glory, then that work is the attempt to diffuse the Gospel among the 360,000,000 of China. Such an object, so vast in conception, and so stupendous in results, must not be taken in hand sparingly or hesitatingly. Numerous Labourers must enter on this work. Far better that China had never been opened to Christianity, than that Protestants should decline entering the breach with an adequate force. Popery already is sending hither its emissaries with redoubled zeal. Seven Popish Priests are now in Hong Kong. Six Priests arrived at Macao with the fleet which brought the French Ambassador. In the Central and North-Western provinces, one Popish Society alone, the Institution for the Propagation of the Faith, professes to number its ten Bishops, four Assistants, and one hundred and forty-four Priests. The Impostor of Mecca for 600 years has had his numerous followers scattered over the neighbouring islands, and on the forbidden soil of China itself; where Islamism, triumphing not by the usual methods of fire and sword, but by the milder arts of proselytism, has shamed the puny efforts of Christians in a holier cause. The moral and social evils inflicted by opium-smuggling, and our vicious participation in the flagrant immoralities of the system, lend an additional power to the voice of China, crying to British Christians, by the depth of her moral degradation, if not by her consciousness of it, Come over, and help us.

MADRAS.

THE Rev. J. J. H. Elouis is the only Missionary of the Society labouring amidst the teeming population of Madras. He has been assisted by three Native and one Country-born Catechists.

Congregations—Schools—Domiciliary Visits.

Divine Service has been held for the Native Christians in the Church Mission Chapel, in Trinity Chapel, and in Perambore Chapel. The average attendance at these three Chapels amounts in all to 127.

Two small Vernacular Schools are kept up, which contain about fifty Children.

In his Journal, under date June 15, 1844, Mr. Elouis thus writes—

I am happy to say that my Native Catechists are visiting more frequently than formerly from house to house among the people, and I trust that benefit has already resulted from it. I have to report highly on this head of Mr. Rodgers, my East-Indian Catechist, whose example has, I believe, had a very beneficial effect upon my Native Catechists in this respect, especially in leading them to visit the poorer and more degraded members of the flock.

The Church Mission Chapel and Trinity Chapel Congregations have been brought to subscribe toward defraying incidental expenses, as oil, Church maties, &c., beside the usual collection at the door of the Church on Lord's-day for the poor. . . . The first mention of subscribing, a few months since, was met with many expressions of unwillingness; such as, "What is this new thing?"—"In old times we paid nothing," &c. But I trust that more correct views, as to their duty with regard to this subject, are gaining ground among the people, and a marked improvement is perceptible among them in other respects. . . . The great object which I have kept in view has been, in dependence on the blessing of God, to raise the character of the Congregations of this Mission, rather than to seek, with anxious effort, to swell the amount of members by additions from without—to press upon them the obligations of the Christian to a holy walk and guileless conversation, whereby God's name should be glorified in the midst of His enemies, and Christianity be seen to be more than an empty designation.

Institution—Ordination of Two Students.

The Rev. J. H. Gray, the Principal of this important branch of the Society's operations, reports that there have been five Students during the year just closed; three being Native and two Country-born, who have all been preparing for Holy Orders.

Two have been admitted into the Ministry: one of them, George Matthan, was a Native-Syrian Christian from Travancore, and had been trained under the care of the Rev. J. Peet, of Mavelicare, previously to his admission into the Institution. He has now returned to assist his honoured Pastor as a Brother in the Ministry.

The Bishop of Madras thus communicates the account of this Ordination to the Honorary Clerical Secretary of the Society, in a Letter dated June 6, 1844—

Both Candidates passed a highly creditable examination; and as they were for several days inmates of my house, I have had a good opportunity of forming a just estimate of their respective characters and ability.

I cannot resist the indulgence of a hope that George Matthan may become, through God's grace and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and when matured by years and by practical experience in the Ministry, a clear, and steady, and inviting light to his benighted countrymen of the Syrian Church. Sure I am that he will do his utmost to show them a more excellent way.

Mr. Gray, at the conclusion of his Report of the Institution for the year 1844, remarks—

I feel it to be a subject of praise, that the hearts of many young persons have been turned toward the Institution during the last year; and that from Bishop Corrie's Grammar School, Tinnevelly, and Travancore, there are those who have anxiously sought admission.

TELOOGOO MISSION.

The Rev. R. T. Noble and the Rev. H. W. Fox, assisted by two Catechists educated at the Madras Institution, Messrs. Gordon and Sharkey, and a Schoolmaster, Mr. Taylor, are engaged in this Mission, of which Masulipatam is the scene.

Baptisms—Candidates.

During the last year three adults have been admitted into the Church of Christ by Baptism, and one Candidate remains under instruction.

English School—Half-yearly Examinations.

A School has been established, with the view of giving a superior education to boys capable of turning it to full advantage by their natural abilities or station in society. A small monthly payment is made by each scholar. The number is about 38. Half-yearly Examinations of this School have been held by the chief Official Residents, both European and Native, and a very high testimony given to its success. The examinations are in the English Scriptures, Geography, Ancient History, Euclid, &c. The English Residents furnished a Report of the Examination on each occasion; in the first of which they state—

The friends of the Mission will be pleased to hear of the satisfaction we all felt in witnessing the extent to which knowledge and habits of thought had been imparted to the boys.

At the second Examination the Report states—

The continued exertions of those conducting its management have been crowned with increasing success, which affords encouragement for its prosecution.

TINNEVELLY.

Farther Sub-division of this Mission into Districts.

It has been stated, in former Reports, that the main hope of extending the influence of the Gospel throughout the whole of Tinnevelly consisted in the sub-dividing the Districts, and locating a faithful Missionary in each sub-division; as well as in the providing of Training Schools, and Theological Seminaries, for the future supply of Native Teachers. During the last year, a great advance has been made in these respects. Upon the accession of additional Missionaries, two of the larger districts were sub-divided; so that there are at present eight Districts, each having its resident Missionary, wholly devoted to his pastoral labours, with his Catechists and Schools.

Palamcottah Seminary—Normal Schools.

This Seminary, which was established some years ago for the superior instruction of the more promising youths who might be selected from all the District Schools, has been placed under the superintendence of the Rev. Septimus Hobbs, who has been relieved from the charge of a District, and is assisted by an European Schoolmaster. At the close of the year the number of Students was 39. Mr. Hobbs, in his Report for the half-year ending December 31, 1844, thus writes—

The Half-yearly Examination was conducted by the Clergy assembled in Palamcottah to attend the Anniversaries. Very decided opinions were expressed as to the continued advancement of the Seminarists. Their conduct has been almost universally satisfactory. A few grave offences have, indeed, been committed and punished; but, on the contrary, many amiable traits of character have been developed. Truth is appreciated; and this is no insignificant token of good in a country in which it is generally so little esteemed. Evidences, as I trust, of a saving change of heart, have been evinced by some.

During the last year there have been established at Palamcottah a Normal School, for the instruction of Native children in the English language, and upon Christian principles, under the care of an European Schoolmaster; and also a Normal Female School, under the care of two English Ladies.

Proposed Establishment of a Printing Press.

Measures have also been taken for the establishment of a Printing Press for the use of the Mission; so that now the Mission Establishments may be considered as complete in all departments.

Improvement in Candidates for Baptism—Baptisms—Inquirers.

An increasing diligence and desire has been manifested on the part of Candidates to acquire the knowledge necessary for Baptism; and the administration of that holy rite is regarded with deeper interest than ever.

The Rev. E. Sargent writes, in the Report of his District for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1843—

Nearly 100 persons have received the rite of Baptism during the last six months. Instead of baptizing one person at one time, and another at another time, as one may chance to meet them in their villages, a day is fixed upon, some few months in advance, when all who, in the meantime, have been examined and found eligible, are admitted. This makes them think more frequently and seriously of what they are about to do. Such occasions are generally the most pleasing and interesting part of our duty. To see the women with their infants in their arms; the young men saving a few hours from their hard work to come and pass their examination; the old men with grey heads, and perhaps tottering limbs, who have spent most of their days in the worship and service of Satan—to see all these with attentive and anxious countenances, fearful lest perhaps they may be put off till another time, are scenes which, in a great degree, make up for the days of trouble and disappointment.

The Rev. John Devasagayam, in his Report for the half-year ending June 1844, notices the interesting way in which Converts have been brought to seek Baptism, independently of the direct addresses of the Missionary, through the instrumentality of their own children. He states—

A Heathen family at Satankoollam was, under the blessing of God, brought to Christ by their daughter, one of our School-girls. We know that she continued for more than a year, without growing weary, to invite them to come to Church; but they refused, though they so far consented as to permit her to pray kneeling in their house, and said that they had no objection to her being baptized. I intended to speak to her parents; but before I did so, I was rejoiced to see, first her mother, and afterward her father, resolve to come, and say to me openly that they renounced Heathenism, and sincerely desired to be instructed in the Christian Religion. Now I see them regularly attend the Service, both on Lord's-days and week-days, and learn the Catechism daily from the Catechist. This case, with that of two other girls, whose prayers and good example appear to be greatly blessed to their parents and friends near us, and many other similar instances in different Congregations, give us cause to render many grateful thanks to the Lord, and to be greatly encouraged in our duties.

The Rev. J. T. Tucker, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated Jan. 18, 1845, writes—

You will be delighted, I am sure, to hear that the remaining twenty-five Heathen families in Panneivilei only a few days ago gave up their devil-temple, and, in a body, came and placed themselves under instruction. There is not, therefore, now a Heathen in Panneivilei, at least outwardly so. This is, indeed, a source of great joy to me, because it not only increases my Congregation, but I can now look upon Panneivilei as my parish, the little flock over whom I have the special charge, and the other part of my District as my field of Missionary labour.

Within a mile of my bungalow there are now upward of 600 Christians, who could easily attend the Panneivilei Church on Lord's-days if the Church were large enough. I have therefore in view the building of a good large substantial Church in my own Compound, as soon as I can raise funds enough.

Efforts of the Converts to erect Churches.

The zeal of the people to erect substantial Churches in their villages affords another striking evidence of the steady progress of Religion among them. At first they were content to subscribe each member one day's earnings as an annual subscription; but many villages, unwilling to wait till their turn should come, have made large pecuniary contributions, in addition to their annual subscriptions, to procure the immediate erection of their Churches. On this subject the Rev. G. Pettitt, in his Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1844, states—

This is one of those proofs which are frequently afforded us of the settled attachment of the people to the Christian Religion. When the Heathen see the Native Christians in a village building a respectable and substantial Church for themselves, they regard the people and speak of them as quite gone from Heathenism, without any hope of return.

Of the Meignanapooram District the Rev. J. Thomas, in his Report for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1843, observes—

The people of various villages have most laudably exerted themselves this year in the erection of more suitable Places of Worship. In six different villages very creditable places have been erected, and four Churches, not completed last year, have been finished. The people of a village where a Church has been erected have uniformly contributed according to their power, independently of the annual subscription to the Church-Building Fund of the District. I confess I am astonished to find they are willing, of themselves, to do so much.

The most pleasing evidence of this excellent spirit may be presented in the Report of the Church-Building Fund of the Nulloor District, drawn up by the Committee of Native Catechists, and read at their Annual Meeting—

The God of mercy hath shown grace to the ungodly race of man, and saved us by Jesus Christ our Saviour; and hath granted to the Christians of Europe, as to those of the ancient Churches, to assemble in glorious temples, and enjoy the blessing of that salvation, having ordained the assembling together as an especial means of receiving this His grace. And although in this land, full of false religion and idol temples, many little Chapels have been built for the worship of God, and the showing forth of His glory; since they do not afford sufficient room for the daily multiplying Christians; and since many of them are built without strength, and easily decay; and since the members of each Congregation are destitute of the means of rebuilding their own Churches; this Society has been established as an auxiliary to the European Society—by the liberality of which we receive such great benefits—in order that strong Churches may be built in each Congregation, the Christians all uniting and joining their contributions, just as a river is occasioned by the union of many drops of rain.

Let us praise God who has enabled us already, partly by means of this Society, to build six Churches, in some degree strong and decent. And since there is urgent necessity for the immediate erection of better Churches in a great many villages, and the money in hand is by far too little for these purposes, trusting that all of you who are members of this Society will assist liberally this year, and will also pray to God for its prosperity, we thus make known its affairs to you by means of this brief Report.

Advance of the Congregations in Spirituality.

But, much as the Committee rejoice at the accession of numbers, who place themselves under Christian instruction, and at length receive Christian Baptism, they yet anxiously look for a more sure and solid ground of joy, when these crowds of inquirers shall have been brought under Christian discipline, trained to discharge the various duties of the Christian vocation, and to such a degree of perfectness in Christ, as to hold forth the Word of Life to their surrounding countrymen.

Hence they have earnestly watched the progress of this Mission, to discover the evidences of God's work of grace upon the hearts of the Converts, manifesting itself in those fruits of the Spirit which betoken a growth in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

The Committee are thankful that they are able to report, that, according to the general testimony of the Missionaries, the spiritual advancement of their people keeps pace with the increase of the number of Converts. The Rev. J. Thomas, in his Report for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1843, thus writes—

I may say of the Congregations generally, that they are in a favourable state. The attendance at Morning and Evening Prayers is satisfactory, and the progress of the people in Christian knowledge is gratifying. The Christians are most anxious that their relatives should renounce idolatry; and if they do not, the result often is, that they entirely separate from them, and form new connexions among the Christians of other villages.

And again, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated Nov. 18, 1844, he says—

I am disposed to speak with more confidence than ever of the state of the people. I think there are now numerous instances of true conversion to God; and that the Spirit is vouchsafed in greater abundance with the means. It is this we want—copious showers of His renewing and sanctifying influences.

Of the Nulloor District, the Rev. Stephen Hobbs, in his Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1844, remarks—

Respecting the older Congregations, there are many proofs of a progressive improvement generally observable in them.

The Rev. John Devasagayam, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated February 8, 1844, observes, respecting the Satankoollam District—

The general state of the Congregations, I am thankful to say, has been more than ever satisfactory. Their attendance on the Means of Grace has been regular. The number of new Communicants, in the last half-year, was 110. I am confident most of them have a sense of their lost state and need of a Saviour, and that the name of Jesus is precious to them. The number of old Communicants, who come here once a month from distant villages, has also greatly increased.

In his Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1844, Mr. Devasagayam also writes—

Tears of gratitude came from my eyes, when I observed with what thirst and devotion many of my old and new Communicants came to the Lord's table. . . . We commenced the new year with a resolution to keep the Lord's-day holy. Every Congregation, not one excepted, made a written agreement that they would regularly attend the Lord's-day Service, even in their very busy days, and that they would do their best to abstain from all unhallowed duties.

Visitation of the Cholera—Christian Deaths.

In the early part of last year it pleased God to visit this part of South-India with the cholera, in a form of unusual severity. This proved a sifting time among the Christian Inquirers, who had not yet been admitted into the Church by Baptism. Many of this class, in the hour of alarm, were seduced by their Heathen friends to have recourse to idolatrous charms and propitiatory ceremonies; but the main body remained firm. Those already baptized were, generally speaking, quickened to renewed watchfulness and prayer; while not a few, who fell under the disease, were enabled to give a blessed testimony to the power of the grace which they had received.

The Rev. Stephen Hobbs, in the Report of his District for the half-year ending December 31, 1843, writes—

I am not without hope that God has blessed the severe chastisement which He has inflicted to the spiritual good of many of our people. I made a tour through many of the villages, when the sickness was at its height, and the seriousness which it occasioned was everywhere apparent. In some cases I thought I discovered a calm and peaceful confidence in God, and in His mercy in Christ. The Catechists remained at their posts, exhorting and encouraging the people, and seemed to be quite free from anxiety for themselves and their families.

The Rev. J. Thomas, in his Report of the Meignanapooram District for the year ending December 31, 1843, mentions the death, by cholera, of a young man of station and influence, Nyanaitham, "whose calm expressions of confidence in the Saviour were such as were to be expected from a man with whom religion was not a mere matter of profession, but the supreme concern in the days of health and strength." A heathen relative endeavoured to seduce the surviving brother of the deceased to return to Heathenism. "See," said he, "your father, a younger man than mine, became a Christian and died, while his elder brother survives, and is a hale and lusty old man, full of days and surrounded by a numerous family of children and grandchildren ; whereas your brother, but 30 years of age, has been cut down." But the bereaved brother, thus tempted, like the Psalmist of old, did not offend against the generation of the children of God, but faithfully expressed his confidence, that the Lord orders all things for the best, and that to die in the faith of Christ is a better portion than all the world can give.

The Rev. J. Devasagayam, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated February 8, 1844, relates the case of another victim of the cholera, called Packiam, a regular Communicant, " who waited upon the Lord, in the appointed Means of Grace, with a devoted heart and a very pleasing and cheerful countenance, and was in all respects a shining example to those of her sex in particular." When attacked by the fearful malady she wiped the tears from her mother's eyes, and comforted her husband by directing him to look to the Lord. So clear was her faith in a Saviour present with her, that she spake of Him as before her eyes. " Why, then," asked her husband, " do you not request the Lord Jesus to spare your life for some more years in this world, for the benefit of your children?" " No," she replied; " I always prayed that the will of the Lord might be done: now I submit to His will."

Tinnevelly Tamul-Book Society.

An edition of Bunyan's Holy War has been published, and has met with much acceptance. A second edition of Watts's Scripture History, consisting of 2000 copies, has also been printed ; and 10,000 copies of an edition of the revised Tamul Book of Common Prayer.

TRAVANCORE.

COTTAYAM.

The Rev. Benjamin Bailey and the Rev. Henry Baker have been enabled to continue to labour at Cottayam, notwithstanding the unusual length of service, for an Indian climate, which they have been privileged to devote to the work of Christian Missions.

Translations, &c.—Transfer of part of the Cottayam District to the Rev. H. Baker, jun.

Mr. Bailey is chiefly engaged in Translations, and the superintendence of the Mission Press.

Mr. Baker conducts the Mission work in the District surrounding Cottayam. During the last year a part of this District, comprising the Church of Pallam, was formally transferred to the Rev. H. Baker, jun. Mr. Baker, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated October, 18, 1844, thus writes—

On Lord's-day the 29th of September, being Michaelmas-day, I preached my farewell Sermon to the Congregation, from Gal. vi. 18. In reference to the doctrines I had been enabled to preach among them, upon a review of the whole period of my labours there, though I could see much that was imperfect in myself, and much in my mode of stating divine truth that partook largely of human infirmity, I trusted I could say "Amen"—in the Syriac sense, TRUTH—to what I had in general been permitted to deliver. I administered the Sacrament afterward, assisted by my son, to about seventy persons: it was to me a most interesting season. The Church, built for the most part at my own expense; the Congregation, called together by God by my ministry; and, now that my health obliges me to restrict my labours, my son being permitted to succeed me in the charge, and to carry on and extend the work; all call for the most grateful expression of praise.

Cottayam College.

This important Seminary is under the superintendence of the Rev. J. Chapman, B.D., and the Rev. J. Johnson. The Committee thank God that they are able to give an encouraging report of its present state and prospects. In the exercise of that fidelity with which they would ever desire to describe the state of the Society's Missions, they gave, two years ago, a discouraging view of the state of the Institution. In allusion to this representation, Mr. Chapman thus writes, in a Letter dated April 15, 1844—

I have seen a discouraging extract from a Letter of mine in the Annual Report for 1842—43, which I trust I may now, by God's grace, justly say, does not give a fair representation of the present state and prospects of the College. I have now, I hope, pupils, who, if all be well, may eventually be employed in the sacred office of the Ministry, or be fitted to discharge other important duties in the Church of Christ; and who, by personal piety, as well as talent and acquirements, may be useful in their generation.

By the last Returns, there were 21 Students in the higher department of the Institution, called the College, and 35 in the lower or Grammar School; beside 22 day pupils, partly Syrian and partly Heathen. The elder pupils are instructed in Greek, and the more advanced are studying Pearson on the Creed, under Mr. Chapman, who states, at the conclusion of the above Letter—

I begin really to hope that this Institution is about to assume its proper place in the Mission, and that, with God's blessing, it may become a nursery for the ambassadors of Christ, a School of the Prophets, as well as a means of disseminating, by the lay boys who come under instruction, a degree of useful and religious knowledge of the last moment to the people.

MAVELICARE.

The Rev. J. Peet has continued his arduous labours at this post. He has lately received the seasonable aid of an Assistant, in the Native Syrian, the Rev. George Matthan, whose ordination by the Bishop of Madras has been already mentioned. He has also one Catanar, one Catechist, three Readers, and nine Schoolmasters, under his superintendence.

Visitation of the Small-pox and Cholera.

In the early part of last year, the District was severely afflicted with the small-pox and the cholera. These diseases raged even in houses immediately adjoining the Mission premises. The enemies of the Gospel were on the watch to observe the behaviour of Christians under such circumstances, and openly said that they should see whether Christianity was powerful enough to prevent the Mission family from flying when disease was within a few yards of the house. The whole of the surrounding neighbours fled, leaving the sick in the care of one or two who had had the disease some little time before. Mr. and Mrs. Peet felt it to be their duty to remain at their post, and to carry on their usual employments; and to take no unusual precautions for the safety of the school-children or the servants, beyond that of great cleanliness, and, above all, striving to encourage a spirit of cheerful dependence upon God to ward off the diseases. Through the signal mercy of God, all connected with the Mission were preserved from contagion; and the result of the whole was greatly to the advantage of the cause of Christianity.

Results of Mr. Peet's endeavours to maintain a high Native-Christian Standard.

Mr. Peet thus reports the results of his labours, and the plan on which he acts, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated August 16, 1844—

Among my own flock Christianity has survived its infancy. Of the Syrian population there are hundreds around me, and among the Heathen a few, who have ceased to bow the knee to Baal, though they have not the courage nor grace to decide openly for the Truth. . . . The thing chiefly required is, not to be so anxious to increase our numbers, as that our little flock should, in all possible respects, exhibit the true spirit of Religion, and, by their walk, teach the numerous outside inquirers what Christianity is in its details, as well as in its great fundamentals; what it requires us to do and avoid, as well as to believe and profess. To the attainment of this great object my anxious and persevering efforts have been directed, and with a degree of success greater than I anticipated; though the looked-for consequence has been, that numbers have been kept from joining us, and my own flock have passed through a severe ordeal. . . . I have the gratification to state, that I am not now aware of any thing in the practice of my people that is in the least opposed to Scripture, calculated to make false and injurious impressions on those without, or that can lead my own flock astray from the simplicity of the Gospel. Nearly all branches of the Mission are on the increase.

ALLEPIE.

The Mission work of this Station has been carried on during the past, as in the former year, by the Rev. J. Hawksworth, assisted by Mr. J. Ross, Country-born Catechist, five Readers, and eleven Schoolmasters.

General View—Baptisms—Schools.

Mr. Hawksworth reports, in a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated July 12, 1844—

Though I cannot report any signal success, I am thankful to say there have been some instances of encouragement. Some of my people are engaged in trade, and frequently go into the interior to purchase different articles. One of them has sold several portions of Scripture, and been the means, directly or indirectly, of bringing three Heathens and five Romanists as Candidates for admission into the Church during the past half-year. During the same period, eight Heathen, and twenty-nine individuals from the corrupt Churches of Antioch and Rome, have been admitted into our Church. The Seminary and the Girls' Schools within the Compound, and the Out-Schools, are well attended, and progressing satisfactorily.

Visit to Thalawadi, an Out-Station.

In one of the Out-Stations of Allepie, called Thalawadi, where a small School was first established, a Congregation of worshippers has been gradually collected. Mr. Ross writes respecting this place, in a Letter also to Mr. Tucker, dated July 13, 1844—

I have visited Thalawadi, remaining ten days. It will be gratifying to you to hear that the Congregation there is on the increase; and, so far as I can see, we shall, with God's blessing, soon have a large flock, which will require a Pastor to reside entirely in the place. I was really delighted to hear some of the people, during conversation, quoting the Word of God; which shows, that they study the Scriptures, and treasure up their contents in their hearts. May the Lord carry on and perfect the good work which He has graciously commenced in the hearts of these people, who were once led astray by their Catanars, many of whom also are now ashamed of their heathenish ceremonies, and are leaving them off!

TRICHOOR.

The Rev. H. Harley and Mrs. Harley, assisted by a Native Minister in Syrian Orders, have continued their labours at this Station during the last year.

General View—Education.

There has been throughout the year a gradual though small increase in the numbers who have renounced the errors of Heathenism, of Popery, and of the Syrian Church, and have joined the Mission. Mr. Harley, in his Report for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1843, thus writes—

There is a marked attention evinced in the Congregation to matters of an eternal interest, and the greater portion, men, as well as women and children, with some few exceptions, are acquainted with the whole tenour of Scripture.

With regard to the Readers and Schoolmasters, I have taken care to keep them very select. They being the channel of imparting divine truth, it is necessary that they should first of all taste of the goodness of the Lord before they can recommend it to others. I instruct them every Wednesday morning.

And in his Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1844, Mr. Harley states—

The three Schools at Trichoor, together with the Seminary, are going on very satisfactorily. In the Tamul School the number amounts to about thirty: they are all of the higher caste of Heathen, and are instructed in the doctrines and duties of Christianity.

The labours of the Missionary are directed to all ranks and classes among the Natives. Education is specially offered to, and accepted by, many of the highest caste. Mr. Harley, in his Report just quoted, observes—

Several Brahmin boys, as well as Heathen adults, attend the School daily, and learn the English language.

Commencement of Labours in behalf of the Nayards.

At an Out-Station, about twelve miles from Trichoor, there is a peculiar class of Heathen, named Nayards, the very lowest class in Malabar, who live by begging, and are in a state of most deplorable ignorance. Among these a Schoolmaster has been placed, and the principal Collector of Malabar has benevolently seconded the labours of the Missionary, by building several houses, and giving them land to cultivate. About sixty are being thus trained up to habits of industry and in Christian knowledge.*

Appointment of a Bishop to Ceylon.

THE Island of Ceylon has been erected into a Bishopric. The Rev. Dr. Chapman has been appointed Bishop of Colombo, and has expressed his cordial wish to give every encouragement to the operations of the Society. The Committee anticipate much benefit to the Mission from his spiritual direction and paternal superintendence over the Church in this interesting Island.

COTTA.

The vacancy occasioned at this Station by the removal of that diligent and faithful servant of the Lord, the Rev. J. Bailey, after twenty-five years of Missionary work, to his glorious reward above, has been supplied by the transfer of the Rev. H. Powell from Baddagame to this Station, the Rev. C. Greenwood, from Kandy, succeeding Mr. Powell at Baddagame.

Congregations—Baptisms—Communicants.

The Mission has been conducted by the Rev. J. F. Haslam, the Rev. H. Powell, the Rev. F. W. Taylor, and the Native Missionary, the Rev. C. Jayesinhe. Twenty-four Congregations are addressed in the course of each week at the Chapel and School-houses: the attendance is about the same as last year. Three adults have received Christian Baptism. The number of Communicants is 37. The Missionaries remark, in their Annual Report for the year ending June 30, 1844—

We have much pleasure in stating, that, so far as our observation has extended, all the Communicants have continued to walk consistently with their Christian profession.

Christian Institution.

The principal Educational Establishment is the Cotta Christian Institution, where a number of youths of good promise, both for piety and capacity, selected from the other Schools, are boarded and educated, with a view to their becoming useful Schoolmasters, Catechists, and Assistant Missionaries. The course of study pursued by them comprises Singhalese, English—including Grammar, Composition, History, and Geography—Latin, Greek, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, and Theology. In the Report just quoted, the Missionaries say—

There are at present 22 Students. We are happy in being able to state, that the conduct of all these youths, throughout the past year, has been such as to give, on the whole, satisfaction; and they have been diligently attentive to their studies. Six of them are Communicants, and, as far as we can see, endeavour to act consistently with their profession.

Schools.

There are 32 Schools, containing 770 boys and 320 girls, connected with this Station.

Respecting the English Schools, the Missionaries write, in the Report—

We are happy to observe, that during the year the boys have made a steady and gradual progress in Scriptural and general knowledge.

And of the Vernacular Schools they state—

We would briefly remark, that we consider them, on the whole, as certainly in a more promising state than last year.

Translational Labours.

Through the labours of the Missionaries, the whole of the Holy Scriptures, and the Book of Common Prayer, have been translated into the familiar Singhalese, and printed at the Cotta Press, beside many elementary School Books, and a large number of Religious Tracts, which have been gratuitously circulated among the Natives. A new edition of the Scriptures is now in progress, at the expense of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

Proposed Erection of a New Church.

A new Church is about to be erected at Cotta, to which liberal local subscriptions have been contributed.

General Review.

In concluding the Report of this Station, the Missionaries thus write—

We cannot but regret that we do not yet see those fruits of our labours springing up around us which it is our hearts' desire to witness; but we would, nevertheless, continue to encourage ourselves with the Divine assurance that our labour is not in vain; and with the hope that we are at least preparing the way of the Lord, and that there may be, after all, an under-current flowing which we do not perceive, and which may, sooner or later, burst forth, irrigating the dry and barren places around us, and transforming the present moral wilderness into a fruitful garden of the Lord.

KANDY.

The Rev. W. Oakley is now the only Missionary at this Station, assisted by two Catechists.

Services—Communicants—Schools.

Two Services are held weekly in the Tamul language, five in Singhalese, and one in English. The number of Communicants is 27.

The number of Day-schools is now reduced to seven, and the Scholars to 183.

General View of the State of the Kandian Population.

Mr. Oakley's general view of the population of his District, with reference to the progress of Christianity, is very painful, and affords an instructive lesson of the necessity of exercising not only great caution in admitting the Candidates for Baptism into the Christian Church, but also strict discipline over those already baptized. Mr. Oakley thus writes, in a Letter dated June 1844—

We have in the Singhalese Districts of Ceylon a very peculiar class to deal with. Almost all the Singhalese Natives in the Island, with the exception of the Kandians, are nominal Christians—having been baptized in infancy, chiefly by the Government Proponents, or Catechists—and consequently claim Christian Baptism for their infant children, Christian marriage for their sons and daughters, and Christian burial; though, throughout their whole lives, they have perhaps never attended a Place of Christian Worship, except when some of the ordinances of Religion have been performed for their friends.

And in his Report, dated August 19, 1844, he remarks—

The condition of the nominal Christians is most lamentable. The wicked and immoral lives of these persons, most of whom are as constant in their attendance at the Heathen temples as their neighbours the Buddhists, must have had a powerful effect in keeping back the Heathen from inquiring into the Christian Religion; and may, perhaps, in a great measure, account for the fact that so few of the Kandians have yet shown a willingness to place themselves under a course of Christian instruction.

And again, in the Letter quoted above—

It is not merely unconcern and indifference that we have to contend with: there is the greatest possible obstinacy, and the most determined opposition to the Truth. Although Christian Missionaries have been labouring among the people nearly thirty years, how very little seems to have been effected on the mass of the people! How many thousands of children have passed through our Schools; and yet how little good appears to be resulting from all this! We would not, however, despair. The seed which has been sown, at least a part of it, may yet appear. The promises of God are our support: His Word, we know, will not return unto Him void.

Conversion and Baptism of a Native—Proofs of his Sincerity.

Amidst these disheartening and painful circumstances, it has pleased God, however, to send this Mission a reviving cordial, in the conversion of one Native during the last year, whose history may be hailed as the earnest of blessings yet in store to crown the patient perseverance of His faithful servants.

A noted Devil-worshipper, at a village twelve miles from Kandy, was baptized a few years ago by the name of Abraham, and has ever since continued steadfast in the faith. His brother, at the time of his Baptism, and for some considerable time afterward, was so enraged with him for forsaking his former religion, that he did every thing in his power to injure him. Abraham bore this and other violent persecutions in the spirit of a true Christian. His gentleness and humility at length subdued the haughty and persecuting spirit of the brother, led him to inquire into the truth of Christianity, and at length to offer himself for Baptism. He was admitted into the Christian Church by the name of Samuel, and has since given many satisfactory proofs of his sincerity. He has erected at his village, entirely at his own expense, a new Schoolroom, with a tiled roof, the only tiled roof in the village, the others being only thatched. This he has now offered for the use of the Church Missionary Society, and his brother Abraham is to be the Teacher.

In a Letter dated Nov. 12, 1844, Mr. Oakley thus writes—

When I visited the village, the villagers, all Kandians and Buddhists, assembled in this new room. It was the largest Congregation I had seen in the village. Several women were present, and, after much persuasion, were induced to sit down on the benches—a very unusual sight among low-caste Kandian women. Before leaving the village, I asked Samuel if he required any assistance in money to enable him to finish the building, as I could perceive that he had been at considerable expense, and I knew he was not by any means rich. He replied, with great simplicity and earnestness, that his only desire was, that the people of his village might be instructed in the Christian Religion; and that, if this could be effected, he should be satisfied. He declined accepting any assistance; and, to show his gratitude for the favours which he had received through the Church Missionary Society, and his joy at seeing so many of his neighbours apparently willing to listen to our instructions, he gave me two shillings to put in the Missionary Box, and his brother Abraham, who has a large family to support, gave me one shilling for the same purpose. The change in the character and dispositions of these two brothers is greater than I have yet observed in any persons in this country. They both attend Divine Service on the Mission premises every Lord's-day morning; and as their village is twelve miles distant from the town, they have to walk twenty-four miles to hear the Word of God, and learn the way of salvation.

BADDAGAMBE.

The Rev. G. C. Trimnell, and the Rev. C. Greenwood, with the Native Missionary, the Rev. A. Goonesekera, have carried on the Mission at this Station during the last year.

Congregations—Communicants—Schools.

The number of Congregations, assembling at different times on the Lord's-day and during the week, is eight. The number of Communicants is 23. There are nine Schools, containing 319 Scholars, equally divided between the sexes.

But the Missionaries are not able to report any visible advance of the cause of Christ. In the Report of the Station, dated September 12, 1844, they observe—

Though prejudice is wearing away, an awful apathy and disregard of the soul's eternal interests seem still to have fast hold on the people in general.

Seminary.

Even the Seminary, which contains 30 pupils, whose progress in their different studies is satisfactory, presents the same disheartening character. Respecting the Pupils the Missionaries, in the Report just quoted, remark—

Their advance in spiritual things seems to indicate that they are still, in some measure, affected with the prevailing apathy of the people in general. They all possess considerable knowledge of Christian truth, and we cannot say that several of them have not faith; but it is weak and languid, neither evincing much power against temptation, nor much desire to bring others to a knowledge of the Truth.

Necessity of Domiciliary Visitation—Apathy of the People.

Under such a state of things, the Missionaries write, in their Report—

It is our duty to take the Word of Life to the people, and not to wait for them to come to us—to take it not merely to their villages or hamlets, but to their houses. We desire, therefore, and endeavour, as far as our more public duties and our health will admit, to preach to them from house to house, hoping and believing that if we cast our seed beside all waters we shall find it after many days.

In a subsequent Letter from Mr. Greenwood, dated November 21, 1844, he states—

I have visited a great number of families for some distance around us, and a most trying and disheartening work I find such visiting. What we have to complain of are the apathy and indifference of the people. It is not opposition. As we court and invite inquiry in behalf of Christianity, we could welcome opposition. . . . In our visits we have almost all the talking part ourselves. They will hear, and will generally assent to any thing we tell them; but they dissent when we make any requirement of them. They rarely, however, retain—or even, I think, try to retain—the faintest recollection of any thing they hear. May He with whom is the residue of the Spirit pour out of that Spirit on them, and give them feeling to feel for themselves.

The Committee deem it their duty to lay before the Society statements of the foregoing sombre character, in order to give a faithful picture of the work in operation; but they trust that they will serve also to stir up a spirit of prayer in the minds of many, that the Lord may sustain the faith and perseverance of His labouring servants under these discouragements, and at length arise and plead His own cause.

NELLORE.

The Rev. Wm. Adley resides at the village of Nellore, and the Rev. J. T. Johnston at Chundicully, adjoining the town of Jaffna, the distance between the two Stations being about two miles.

General View.

Mr. Adley, in his Annual Report, dated September 1844, states—

By the blessing of our Heavenly Father upon the means in operation, the spiritual welfare of the Native Congregations has advanced, we have reason to hope, in a greater degree than in any preceding year.

The results of the several branches of Missionary labour fully confirm this statement.

Baptisms—Communicants—Congregations.

During the year 39 Converts from Heathenism have been admitted into the Church, by Baptism, and the Communicants have been increased from 44 to 62.

Some of these conversions were of a peculiarly encouraging character, as showing how the Lord may give success to the means employed after a long interval of patient waiting for a blessing; so that we may hope soon to witness an abundant harvest from the various preparatory measures which have been long in operation in Ceylon.

One young man, baptized by the name of Joseph Fenn, had been, many years before, instructed at one of the Mission Schools; but was afterward compelled by his parents to enter into the practice and close study of heathen books. The instruction he thus received from a Teacher, well qualified in the mysterious knowledge of heathen mythologies, produced a contrary conviction to that which was intended—a conviction that the religion of Siva was not the way to heaven. At length he was appointed a Schoolmaster to one of the Mission Schools. Thus brought under Christian influence, his mind was soon directed to the Saviour of sinners. He thus describes his feelings upon applying for Christian Baptism—

He who delivered Noah from the flood by keeping him in the ark—He who raised Joseph to the throne from captivity and the depth of the old well—when I was buried in the destructive pit of Heathenism, by His own will was moved with compassion to take me out, and raise me up to hear and believe His promise, Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest; and now my desire to get into the ark is no less than that which would be to a thirsty traveller to drink, while travelling through a wilderness where there is a scarcity of water. The people who knew of my desire made it a subject of talk and ridicule; but I drew consolation from thinking of the words of my Saviour, i.e. For my sake if you are reviled and persecuted, you are happy. When I am grieved, if my neighbours revile, and parents rebuke, I go to the Scripture, read for myself, and for others.

Another Convert was a man of 72 years of age, of high caste, connected with several of the most respectable families in the neighbourhood, and possessed of considerable learning. He had been for fifteen years employed by the Missionaries as a Schoolmaster; and was convinced of the truth of Christianity, though he had not strength to overcome the obstacles in the way of embracing it. He says of himself—

I have, for seventy years, by reading heathen books, &c., had experience, above most others, in the religion of Siva; but have found them all to be the mere devices and inventions of men. . . . The Lord, having changed my mind, and taught me the necessity of concern for my soul's salvation, made me also desirous that my whole family should be saved, and lead a Christian life. We therefore attended the preaching of the Gospel and Family Prayer. By these the spiritual darkness of our minds has, I hope in the Lord, been removed. I have daily offered up my prayers to our Heavenly Father, through our common Saviour, because I felt that unless I believed in Jesus I could not be saved, but should be left to perdition. But our gracious God has, in great mercy, received me, a miserable sinner, with my two daughters and one son, into His Church, by Baptism. I render unto Him abundant thanks for this His special grace; and I hope that my wife and other son will very soon be joined to the flock of the Lord, which is my entire anxiety and desire. Oh, I praise God for revealing His truth to me. Had He not shown me this mercy, my precious soul, and the souls of my family, must have gone to eternal perdition. Although our relations and friends call us names and disregard us, saying we have joined with low-caste people, yet God has given me firmness of mind to know, that though men can harm our bodies they can do nothing to our souls; and therefore I will fear Him, and not men. May the grace of God enable me and mine to continue and grow in His faith to the end of life, through our Lord Jesus Christ!

A third Convert was one who has been mentioned in a former Report, a barber—which is an employment associated in Ceylon with various heathen ceremonies—who for several years had attended the preaching of the Gospel, and was once on the eve of receiving Baptism; but had not courage to make the sacrifice of all his temporal hopes : at length, however, he consented to leave all for the sake of Christ.

The Congregations connected with Nellore are, on the Lord's-day, 12 ; during the week, 8 ; at which Mr. Adley or some of his Assistants attend.

Schools.

Connected with Nellore are, a Girls' Boarding-school, containing 30 girls ; a Girls' Day-school, containing 50 ; five English Day-schools, containing in all 209 boys ; and 21 Tamul Schools, containing 945 boys ; who are all daily taught Scripture History and the Catechisms. In his Report Mr. Adley states—

This branch of our Mission labour, after many years of toil and anxiety, is now yielding its first-fruits ; the harbinger, we trust, of an abundant harvest.

General Review during the last Twenty Years.

Mr. Adley, the senior Missionary, has been above twenty years a Missionary in Ceylon. At the expiration of that term of years since his first arrival, he took an interesting review of the result of Missionary labours, and of the contrast between the former and the present state of the Mission. The following account is compiled from Mr. Adley's Letter on this subject, dated Dec. 21, 1843—

Then, no Native Convert had been baptized, and the Lord's Supper had never been administered. For many years, none but those who were more or less connected with, or dependent upon, the Mission, could be prevailed upon to attend the House of God ; and no female, beyond domestics, would ever enter. Now, a goodly number of strangers usually attend the Lord's-day and Wednesday-morning Services ; and, beside some seventy or eighty school-girls, from twenty to thirty females are generally present. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was first administered to five persons : since then, more than 100 have become Communicants. The Seminary then contained seven boys. So great were the prejudices against Christianity, that there was no small difficulty in obtaining boys of respectable parentage to reside at the Mission Station. To secure those already received a bond was necessary, obliging the parents or guardians to pay the whole of the expenses if the boys should be removed before a certain term of years was completed. At present, almost any number of youths might be obtained. Were there adequate means, the whole of the rising generation of Ceylon might be placed under a course of education and Christian instruction. The Seminary was limited to 30 pupils. During twenty years about 160 have been educated. About one-third of these have been admitted into the Church, by Baptism ; and no one, who had been for a length of time in the Seminary, has left it without a profession of his belief in Christianity, and his intention and hope of becoming a Christian, though, from various circumstances, then prevented.

Auxiliary means for furthering the cause of the Gospel, by the distribution of the Scriptures and Tracts, as well as the measure of success, are all at least ten-fold what they were twenty years back.*

THE various Stations occupied by the Missionaries of the Society remain under the same arrangement as in the last Report. They are twenty-four in number, each Missionary and European Catechist having his separate Station. The Stations are grouped under four Districts. The Northern comprehends those north of Auckland; the Middle, those extending from Auckland southward; the Eastern, those which lie on the north-eastern and eastern coast of the northern island; and the Western, those lying on the western coast. One Missionary of the Society resides in the Middle Island, at Nelson.

No interruption, from sickness or death, has been reported during the past year.

Appointment of the Rev. Messrs. H. Williams and A. N. Brown as Archdeacons.

The Lord Bishop has appointed two of the Society's Missionaries, the Rev. A. N. Brown, and the Rev. Henry Williams, Archdeacons, and has admitted to Holy Orders several of the Society's Catechists.

View of the present state of the Mission.

The general character of the Missionary work in New Zealand bears the same features as during the few past years. Great numbers of the remaining Heathen are applying for admission into the Christian Church; and the instances in which there is a determined adherence to their Native superstitions are few.

But the solicitude of the Committee is continually excited, and the prayers of the Church are earnestly needed, for the future settlement and progress of Christianity in these interesting Islands. The following sensible view of the present state of the Mission is given by one who has had the advantage of Missionary experience and observation, for many years, in a Missionary field of far different character, namely, the West Coast of Africa.

The Rev. G. A. Kissling, in a Letter dated February 22, 1844, thus writes—

There are two distinct points from which the character of the New Zealanders must be viewed. One is through the medium of their former cruel, savage, warlike, bloodthirsty disposition, contrasted with their present softened, teachable, quiet, and industrious state of mind. In this point of view, the conduct of the New Zealanders is indeed a matter of astonishment and praise, and the exclamation is forced upon us—What has not the Lord of glory wrought in these men! On the other hand, if you compare their lives and general conduct with the lofty standard and discipline which the Saviour raised for His people, born anew through His Spirit, there are many blemishes and deficiencies which cause your Missionaries to mourn and pray. Hence it comes, that conflicting or even contradictory accounts are presented to the public at home concerning the New-Zealand Mission. One individual looks on the Natives from this point, and complains of inconsistencies and defects: another sees them from the other point, and exults and rejoices.

But to me it appears that the proper way of estimating the success of the Mission in New Zealand is to bring both points together, and thence take our view; that is, to remember the savage state of these people a few years ago; to regard their position at the present day; and to compare their existing infancy to a perfect man—the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ. Thus we obtain a fair picture of His Church in these interesting Islands; a Church over which we rejoice, but with trembling. Perhaps we expect too much at once: we look for fruit while the tree is yet tender, when it has but commenced to shoot forth its branches. I have been lately much struck with the practical parts of the Epistles of St. Paul, who well knew the Gentile corruptions. While he propounds the most stupendous mysteries of the Gospel in the first parts of those Epistles, he adds such admonitions as, Lie not one to another ; Be not drunk with wine ; Let him that stole steal no more ; Let no man defraud his brother ; &c.—admonitions which, at first sight, would seem almost superfluous to such distinguished Congregations. It teaches me at least this lesson—not to suppose that, because a nation has formally put off the old man, such remains of corruption can no longer exist among them. Here is humiliation! here is exercise for patience! here is occasion for unceasing prayer, watching, and labours! May the Lord grant these things to us in an abundant measure!

The Reports and the Returns from the different Stations are very incomplete, owing to the uncertainty of the communications from distant Stations.

Steady advance at this Station.

Mr. J. King, the oldest Labourer connected with the Society in this Mission, writes, January 19, 1844—

The work goes steadily on, and many have been added to the Church during the year: the Lord is doing great things among the Heathen. We have now entered upon our thirtieth year in New Zealand.

KERIKERI AND WANGAROA.

Attention to the Means of Grace—Communicants.

These Stations are under the charge of Messrs. Kemp and Shepherd respectively; and they report generally that the people are attentive to the Means of Grace. In a visit paid to Wangaroa, the Rev. H. Williams found sixty members prepared to receive the Lord's Supper on one occasion.

PAIHIA:

Progress of the Gospel—Popery.

The Ven. Archd. H. Williams has been cheered by observing among his people, and particularly among the old people, much persevering earnestness in seeking Christian instruction. Several, of whom he had no expectation that they would leave their old superstitions and evil ways, have lately become Candidates for Baptism.

Respecting the efforts of the emissaries of the Romish Church, he remarks, Feb. 20, 1844—

The Popish Priests are actively engaged in dispersing their dangerous errors; but they have found the knowledge of the Scriptures a most effective barrier against them, and I am happy to say that they are on the decline. The grant of Testaments from the British and Foreign Bible Society has been a great blessing to the people, and given a fatal blow to Popery.

The Press.

Mr. John Telford, who conducts the Printing Press of the Society at this Station, writes, April 18, 1844—

The Society's Press, from six in the morning till six at night, labours away. I daily feel new delight in our little Printing-office; and perhaps, with something like a selfish enthusiasm, I fancy, that although there be a great general blessing from the God of truth resting upon and directing the powerful motion of the whole Mission in New Zealand, yet that, notwithstanding, there is a special one upon Paihía and the Press. I am progressing at present with a new edition of the Morning and Evening Services and Psalms, to which will be added a collection of Hymns.

WAIMATE.

The Rev. W. C. Dudley reports, at the close of the year 1843, that for the last nine months he had been engaged in laborious but cheering ministerial duties as Missionary of the Waimate.

Communicants.

Mr. Dudley writes in his Report—

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper has been administered quarterly at the Waimate and Kerikeri. Number at the Waimate, 220; at Kerikeri, 45. A quarterly Communion has been also held at the Waimate, for Natives not included in the Waimate District: average number, 200.

Though many who have been professors are disgracing their name and profession, I am happy to say there is a goodly number who remain steadfast in the Apostles' doctrine, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

Transfer of the Rev. R. Burrows to this Station.

Mr. Dudley has since removed to another Station; and the Bishop of New Zealand, who, with the help of his Chaplain, had undertaken the duties of this Station, having also removed to Auckland, and transferred his Educational Establishments to that neighbourhood, Mr. Burrows has removed from Kororarika to this important Station.

KAIKOHI—The Rev. R. Davis has charge of the villages situated from five to thirty miles from the Waimate.

Congregations—Communicants.

From the Returns of this District, made up to Dec. 31, 1843, it appears that the adult members of the Congregations, in six villages, were 550, of whom 273 were Communicants.

Removal of Opposition—Prospect of Usefulness.

Kaikohi, being the most central spot, was fixed upon as the most suitable for Mr. Davis's residence. To this arrangement some of the Natives at first strongly objected, at the instigation of a powerful Chief, who still continues a Heathen. In a Letter dated Sept. 21, 1843, however, Mr. Davis informs us that this opposition had been overcome; and he mentions several circumstances indicating that an earnest spirit of inquiry was beginning to prevail in that district. He states—

The Kaikohi people—or, rather, the wicked Chiefs, who have till now held out against me—have at length consented to my living among them. I have no doubt that the cause of the blessed Redeemer is advancing in this District. I have lately multiplied the Native Agency, so that both old people and children are now brought under a certain kind of instruction, which I trust may be made instrumental of good to them. Although I have baptized several, yet my Catechumens increase upon my hands.

Hopeful State of an aged Chief and other Natives.

In the same Letter, Mr. Davis reports—

Some time ago I fell in with a very old Chief, named Puku, of great family, whom I could not remember having seen before: he was nearly blind, and very deaf; and the Natives had given up all thoughts, apparently, of endeavouring to instruct him. I endeavoured to communicate with him, and repeated my visits, stirring up the Native Teachers also to visit him. In a short time he manifested a desire for instruction, and partially recovered his hearing. He was taught to pray, and is now most anxious for Baptism. The circumstance of this Chief having embraced Christianity is likely to have a good effect, as he is called Father by them all. Several, I hope, have been brought to think who never thought before.

Spiritual awakening at Kaikohi.

In a Letter dated Dec. 15, 1843, Mr. Davis gives some further interesting particulars respecting his labours. He writes—

I was much struck with the remarks in the “Church Missionary Gleaner” of November and December 1842, on the necessity of the out-pouring of the Holy Spirit for the growth of grace in the Society's young Converts. I trust that prayer was made, according to the request contained in that resolution, as I hope I see some indication of an answer being given thereto.

For some time there has been a growing seriousness among some of our leading characters and Teachers at Kaikohi. They have, for years, had their stated Prayer-Meetings; but of late their minds appear to have led them to search the Scriptures with a greater degree of diligence.

Mr. Davis then notices some remarkable cases of persons becoming deeply affected under convictions of sin. The greater part of such instances have been among those who were most advanced in Christian knowledge. The following is a specimen of the strong manifestations of religious feeling to which we allude. Mr. Davis writes—

On the next day I went out, in company with another of the Teachers, to visit some sick people. During our walk we were engaged in a religious conversation, and I had to appeal to Scripture to elucidate some subject which I had brought forward. As we stood still, to refer to the passages, I observed his head sink on his bosom, and the tears run down his cheeks. I inquired the reason, when he modestly observed: “It is not only myself; but others of my little party are similarly affected: our affection is, a sorrow for sin and love to Christ.”

Since the above, many others at Kaikohi have been affected in a similar manner: some have been more deeply convinced than others. There are now about twenty who have been thus awakened, and the work is in good progress: much humility is at present manifested by these people, and considerable zeal.

Mr. Davis appears to be justly sensible of the caution which should be exercised in such cases, and of the incidental dangers to be guarded against, for he says—

I am aware that it is at such seasons as these that the enemy sows his tares with most advantage. I am anxiously on the watch. I tremble for myself.

And again, at a later date, March 2, 1844, he writes—

The Lord is still doing His own work; but the adversary is on the alert, endeavouring, I fear, to counterfeit the Religion of Christ.

Mr. Davis also adopts the right means of counteracting the evil which may arise in such a state of things, and of deepening the good work, by encouraging a more diligent study of the Scriptures, and a regular attendance on the Means of Grace. After describing a similar scene to that already alluded to in another of his villages, he relates, in the same Letter—

After Evening Service, which was rather late, the serious Natives assembled around our tent, and we conversed with them until nine o'clock under the broad canopy of heaven. Monday was spent in religious conversation and examining Scripture: in the evening we assembled in the Chapel. Tuesday was also spent among them in a somewhat similar way. On Wednesday we left them, with much regret.

The recital of these facts will, it is hoped, stir up the prayers of many on behalf of the Missionary and his people, that the Lord may give unto them the spirit of wisdom, and guide them in a right way.

Signal Instance of the power of the Gospel.

The Rev. Christopher P. Davies gives a most striking instance of the power of the Gospel, which he himself had the privilege of witnessing. He visited a Pa at Pateriteri belonging to two Christian Chiefs, Perika and Noa, who were brothers. They were expecting an attack from Ripa, a Chief of Hokianga. Ripa had made an unjust demand from the two Christian Chiefs, and, on their refusal to comply with it, he had marched to attack them. It was at this crisis that Mr. Davis entered the Pa, and there he found them surrounded by their armed followers, engaged in solemn prayer—praying especially for the pardon of their enemies—with a white flag hoisted above their heads as a token of their desire for peace.

Mr. Davies then went out to meet Ripa and his party; and how striking was the contrast! With their bodies naked, and their faces painted red, they were listening to addresses urging them on to vengeance and slaughter. The addresses being ended, they rushed forward toward the Pa, yelling frightfully, and dancing their war dance, bidding bold defiance to the Christians. The Christians were assembled on the other side of the fence opposite the enemy, while one of the Christian Chiefs quietly walked up and down between the two parties, telling the enemy that they were acting contrary to the Word of God; and that his party, though not afraid of them, were restrained by the fear of God from attacking them. Ripa and his party only amounted to twenty; while the Christians were 100 strong. After many speeches had been made on both sides, one of Ripa's party, in striking at the fence with his hatchet, cut Noa on the head. This Christian Chief tried to conceal the wound from his Tribe; but some of them saw, by the blood trickling down, that he was wounded, and instantly there was a simultaneous rush from the Pa, and every man's musket was levelled. In another moment Ripa and his whole party would have fallen; but Noa, the wounded Chief, sprang forward, and exclaimed, "If you kill Ripa I will die with him;" and then, throwing his own body as a shield over Ripa, saved him from destruction. Peace was then made between the two parties, and there was great rejoicing. "Some years ago," adds Mr. Davies, "the very sight of blood would have been a signal for a dreadful slaughter."

KORORARIKA.

This Station is important as the head-quarters of the Roman-Catholic Bishop, and as a port frequented by European sailors.

General View—Popery.

The account which the Rev. R. Burrows is enabled to give, notwithstanding these disadvantages, is more favourable than on any former occasion. In a Letter, dated April 11, 1844, he writes—

The Natives under my charge are interesting, though there are many things to discourage. There is abundant proof that I am not labouring in vain. Some are still being added to the Church; and those already admitted are, for the most part, slowly, though I believe steadily, progressing in knowledge, and some, certainly, in Christian experience.

Mr. Burrows reports that Popery is not on the increase among the Natives, as far as his observation extends.

KAITAIA.

Humanizing Influence of Christianity—General Progress.

This Station was mentioned in the last Report as having been the scene of bloody hostilities between two Tribes contending for the rights of property.

Communications have reached the Committee, during the year, which contain many interesting particulars corroborating the statement made in the last Report of the influence of Christianity in humanizing and controlling the excited passions of men, who, a few years ago, rushed into warfare with the ferocity of wild beasts.

Notwithstanding the impediments in the way of the progress of the Gospel, arising from these circumstances, the Missionaries state with thankfulness that they have much encouragement in their labours.

Middle District.

The Venerable Archdeacon Brown, the Rev. R. Maunsell, the Rev. S. M. Spencer, the Rev. T. Chapman, and the Rev. J. Hamlin, are the Missionaries, and Mr. J. Preece, Catechist, at different Stations in this District.

TAURANGA.

Baptisms—Remarks on the course pursued with reference thereto.

In his Report for the nine months ending Dec. 31, 1843, only received at the close of last year, the Archdeacon states—

I have baptized during the last nine months, at three several places, 385 adults and 172 children.

And in a Letter, dated May 23, 1844, he writes—

It may be thought, from the increased number of Baptisms in this District, that our examinations are becoming less stringent, or that we are less particular as to the character of our Candidates; but it is not so. There are, it is true, cases in which I should prefer a longer time to elapse between the period when a Native requests Baptism and his admission into the Church ; but when such an one comes, recommended by his Native Teacher for consistency of conduct, and you find, after repeated examinations, that he is fully acquainted with the whole scheme of redemption—the fall of man—his recovery by Christ—the necessity of the Holy Spirit to new-create him, to train him for heaven, and to meeten him for the inheritance of the saints in light—when you find him expressing, with apparent sincerity, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ—it becomes a matter of serious responsibility to say, “ I have no doubt of your present sincerity ; but, in order more fully to test it, you must wait another year before your reception into the Church.”

ROTORUA.

This Station is under the care of the Rev. T. Chapman.

Visit of Archdeacon Brown, and of the Bishop.

The following interesting account of a visit to this Station by Archdeacon Brown, though so far back as May 6, 1843, has been received since the last Report. It occurs in the Archdeacon's Journal—

A large assemblage of Natives from all parts of Mr. Chapman's District, including Taupo, were present to-day at the examination for Baptism. It was truly a heart-stirring scene : 800 Natives stood up in class ; while about 400 Heathen Natives were standing about in various groups, listening, perhaps for the first time, to the words of eternal life which came sounding from the various classes who were engaged in reading the New Testament.

In the latest Report of his District, for the nine months ending Dec. 31, 1843, which has been received from Mr. Chapman, he writes—

The Bishop visited Rotorua and Taupo in November, and held a Confirmation at each place. To rejoice without trembling we dare not, as we review our past position here and that which our eyes now see ; yet, labouring on in humble faith, our prayer shall be, Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us : and establish Thou the work of our hands.

HAURAKI.

General View—Native Agency.

Mr. J. Preece, in his Report of this Station for the year ending March 31, 1843, observes—

There is everywhere a good attendance on the Means of Grace. There are many who love the Word of God, and desire to walk according to its directions ; but there are also others, who, although they make a profession of the Gospel, show great indifference about the state of their souls. Much assistance has been received from the Native Teachers, many of whom spare no trouble to promote the spiritual welfare of their fellow countrymen ; and, to the best of their ability, teach them the truth as it is in Jesus. There has been an accession from the Heathen party of about 80, several of whom are principal Chiefs.

ORUA.

The Rev. J. Hamlin, writing August 30, 1843, states that the native population had greatly diminished in numbers since this Station was first formed, and that numbers are still constantly leaving it.

Missionary Meetings at Orua and Orakei.

In the same Letter Mr. Hamlin gives the following interesting particulars of Missionary Meetings held at Orua and Orakei. He writes—

The Meeting at the Station consisted of myself and family, and the Natives from the adjacent villages: the weather being unfavourable, scarcely any from a distance attended, and there were probably not more than eighty present. The Meeting commenced by singing a hymn, reading Matthew xxvi. 6—13, and prayer. This being concluded, I addressed those present by observing, that although many of them were informed of the object of Missionary Meetings last year, when, through the mercy of our Heavenly Father, we were permitted to meet for a similar object; yet, seeing some before me who were not then present, and fearing that others had forgotten, I would again repeat, that the great object of all Missionary Meetings was to send the Gospel to those lands in which the name of the Saviour had not been heard. I addressed them at some length on this subject, and concluded by saying, that I knew all present would acknowledge the blessings which the Gospel confers upon a people, even in a temporal point of view; and that all whom I then addressed would assert that it was the influence of the Gospel alone which had prevented hostilities in Manukau during the last eight months. Having resumed my seat, several of the Natives addressed the Meeting, and spoke much to the purpose, exhorting their fellow-countrymen to live more closely to God; and, as they had received so many blessings from our Heavenly Father, to show their love to Him by contributing to His cause according to what they possessed. At the close of the Meeting a collection was made of 6*l.* 10*s.* 2½*d.* I was pleased to see each of my children spontaneously give something out of their small stock toward the Missionary Cause.

In the same month I held another Missionary Meeting in the Native Chapel at Orakei, Waitemata; but, from some misunderstanding, many of the Natives were not apprised when the Meeting would take place, in consequence of which it was but thinly attended: probably not more than seventy were present. This Meeting proceeded in the same manner as the one before described. G. Clarke, Esq. favoured us with his company, and addressed all present much to their satisfaction. When the Meeting closed, a collection was made of 4*l.* 7*s.* 10¼*d.*; which, added to 6*l.* 10*s.* 2½*d.*, makes a total of 10*l.* 18*s.* 0¾*d.* This, though small, is an increase upon last year; and, by the blessing of God upon our labours, may we not hope for a much greater increase in the ensuing year?

Results of Native Agency.

The Rev. S. M. Spencer, the Missionary most recently stationed in this District, writes, December 1843—

The progress of the Gospel in the interior, through the instrumentality of those who have received instruction at the Missionary Stations, is remarkable; and several Chiefs have expressed themselves to me as only wanting a Missionary to labour among them to induce them to embrace the Gospel, and also to resist the efforts which are being made by the Papists.

Eastern District.*TURANGA.

The Venerable Archdeacon W. Williams states in his Report, June 1843—

The Mission of the Eastern District, after having been established four years, begins at length to assume a more organized form. The care of this widely-extended field is now divided by the augmentation of Labourers.

The Archdeacon's Report, from which the following extracts are taken, is therefore now confined to his own Station of Turanga.

Baptisms—Candidates—General Profession of Christianity—Communicants.

He reports the Baptism of 1338 persons, 1010 of whom were adults, during the last year. He writes—

The Candidates for Baptism attend with much regularity; but of late there has been a falling off among those who have been disappointed in being refused admission to the rite of Baptism as soon as they expected.

And he adds—

The body of the Natives profess Christianity; but, as may naturally be expected, there is much of mere profession. On the first introduction of our holy Religion, it was received favourably by most of the leading Chiefs. The multitude soon followed, not perhaps from their conviction of its suitableness to their present comfort, or its importance to their future well-being; but because it was becoming the general religion of the country.

Of the Christian Natives in immediate connexion with Turanga the Archdeacon gives a more favourable report. He states—

About 350 regularly attend the Bible Classes once a fortnight. These constitute the body of Communicants; and there is good reason to hope that many of them are sincerely desirous of receiving spiritual benefit.

UWAWA.

Importance of this Station.

Mr. C. Baker is stationed at this place. In a Letter dated Dec. 16, 1843, he writes—

The Society will not, I trust, have cause to regret the formation of this Station. It was of very great importance to place a Labourer here. The number of Natives baptized within the boundaries of my charge is, I believe, about 350; living in at least twelve different villages. The northernmost of these is about ten hours' walk from the Station, and the southernmost about three hours' walk.

OPOTIKI.

Disadvantages incident to this Station—General View.

This is the Station of Mr. J. A. Wilson. It has the double disadvantage of being in the vicinity of the town of Auckland, and also of being frequented by Roman-Catholic Teachers.

Mr. Wilson speaks of the evil effect produced upon the Natives by their association at Auckland with ungodly Europeans, and by the spirit of covetousness which is springing up among them. In his Report for 1843 he thus writes respecting his labours—

My attention during the last nine months has been principally occupied in preparing Natives for Baptism, in relieving the sick, and in instructing Native Teachers. The Baptismal Classes and Teachers have attended in rotation from Monday to Friday. The Teachers in particular have taken much interest in these Meetings, and have gone through the Epistles of St. Peter and St. James, and the first of St. John, and also the Church Catechism. They have thereby made considerable advance in Christian knowledge, and in their general behaviour.

Visit of the Rev. G. A. Kissling—Administration of the Sacraments.

The Rev. G. A. Kissling visited this Station for the purpose of administering the rite of Baptism, and thus describes the circumstances of the visit, in a Letter dated Feb. 22, 1844—

I had four hard days' labour at this place in examining Candidates for Baptism. People, from places several days' journey distant, came hither for admission into the Church. Powerful Chiefs, with hair as white as snow, who formerly wielded their deadly weapons to the terror of all around them, here sat at my feet repeating the Church Catechism, the Ten Commandments, and the Creed, or reading the New Testament, and answering my questions in the meek spirit of little children. It is indeed surprising with what grasp of mind they enter into the plan of salvation through the blood of our blessed Redeemer. I baptized 70 adults, and administered the Lord's Supper to a devout and solemn assembly of Native Christians, most of whom were baptized by the Bishop on his tour last year along this coast.

KAUAKAUA.

Arrival of the Rev. G. A. Kissling—Encouraging state of the People.

The first entrance of the Rev. G. A. Kissling upon his Station in New Zealand will be read with peculiar interest, when it is recollected that he was already an experienced Missionary, having laboured for many years in two far distant Missionary fields; first in the American Settlements of Liberia, and afterward in the Society's Mission at Sierra Leone, on the West Coast of Africa. His health alone compelled him to leave Africa for New Zealand. In his Report for the Quarter ending June 25, 1843, he writes—

We made Hicks' Bay on the 18th of March; and had no sooner anchored in front of the Pa Kauakaua, than a number of canoes came off to our vessel to welcome our arrival. We landed on the pebbled shore, amidst a crowd of people who had congregated from the various villages in the neighbourhood. A number of large canoes were immediately launched; and, at the close of the day, our bedding, furniture, and little live-stock, were safely landed, and carefully brought to our humble habitation, by a people who, a few years ago, would have thirsted for our blood. Our habitation had been erected by those very people, who now hunger and thirst after righteousness; and, notwithstanding its rude construction, proved very comfortable, and was, therefore, most acceptable to us. We praised our Heavenly Father for His past mercies, and took courage for the time to come.

The Lord's-day succeeded, and I attended two Native Services, reading the prayers, and had also an English Service in the Native Church. The Lord had prepared a feast for my soul. There had never been a European Labourer stationed here; yet we had an attendance at Church, both morning and evening, of 400 or 500 persons. Their worship was solemn and devout; they offered their prayers with one accord to the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom He has sent. The sight of this Congregation would have cheered the hearts of our friends at home, even those not excepted who are inclined to take a gloomy view of the New-Zealand Mission.

Mr. Kissling then gives the following instances of the Honesty of the Natives.

At the dawn of day, on Monday, the "Columbine" was surrounded by the canoes of the Natives; and at the close of the day all our things had been carefully landed, and conveyed to our house. The whole Pa—old men, young men, youths, women, and children—were busily and cheerfully engaged in carrying along the Pakeha's (White Man's) boxes, inquisitively looking at what each of them contained; but, notwithstanding the bustle which was naturally occasioned by so many hands, not the smallest article was found missing when the work was done. A few nails had fallen out of a cask, and were picked up by little children; but the Chief took them from their hands, and brought them to my house, making an apology, and advising me to secure the cask.

First Administration of the Lord's Supper.

In the same Report Mr. Kissling writes—

During the week I examined into the state of the Congregation, as I intended to administer the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to the Communicants on the ensuing Lord's-day. About 30 of those whom the Ven. Archdeacon Williams had baptized on former occasions expressed a desire to partake of the tokens of our Saviour's love.

On Lord's-day the 2d of April, the weather being fine, we had an extraordinary attendance on Divine Service. The Church was filled some time before the Service commenced, and many persons had to remain outside for want of room. The children were neatly arrayed in their new garments, and the whole was to me an overwhelming sight. What caused my mind to be still more solemnly impressed was the circumstance of its being my thirty-eighth birthday, and the first time that I had been enabled to preach in the Maori language the unsearchable riches of Christ.

The Chief, our Native Teacher, and the principal men of the Pa Kauakaua, manifest a pleasing readiness to be guided by my advice and direction; and with their assistance I find it not a difficult task to manage and regulate the rest of the Congregation.

Eagerness of the Natives to procure the Scriptures.

In a subsequent Letter, dated Feb. 22, 1844, Mr. Kissling thus describes the eagerness of the Natives of his district to procure Bibles for themselves—

In reading the New Testament with the Candidates for Baptism at my Station, I found that a number of the people had no books; and being desirous to make some return to the British and Foreign Bible Society for their liberal grant of Testaments, I proposed to my people to bring me a supply of fire-wood, as payment for the Scriptures. No sooner was this plan proposed, than crowds of people set to work; and, in the course of a week, my yard was filled with wood, so that we could scarcely turn about. I had to stop the people in this work; and each one, for three days' labour, received a Testament. I have now about 7l. in hand for the Bible Society on that account.

Missionary Tour.

Mr. Kissling then gives an interesting account of a Missionary tour which he had lately made. He writes—

I have just returned from a tour of about ninety miles distance from our Station; in the course of which I was everywhere received with open arms and warm hearts.

He thus describes his reception in one of the villages—

The details of this visit may be interesting to you. The nearest village to the west of Hicks' Bay is two days' journey by land, and is called Orete. The people of this place, being previously apprised of my coming, at once assembled to hear the things of God. No European has ever resided at Orete; yet the Natives have built a very pretty Church, at which they regularly assemble morning and evening, and on the Lord's-day, for Divine Service and School. Having carefully examined the people as to their scriptural and Christian knowledge, I had the satisfaction of receiving eighteen adults and two infants into the Church, by Baptism. The kindness of these people deserves the highest commendation. I was also pleased to observe that the little supply of School-books, with which I had furnished them, had been diligently used.

Wherever I met with the Natives, they treated me with marked kindness and respect: my wants, and the wants of my Natives who accompanied me, were most bountifully supplied, without any remuneration. You see, from this, that the Lord blesses the labours of His servants.

Effects of Native Agency.

On this subject Mr. Kissling proceeds—

A wonderful change has been wrought among these people; and much of it has been brought about through Native Agency. The Natives are fond of reading, and take a delight in teaching one another. They think nothing of wandering 100 or even 200 miles, to visit their friends, and to talk about their Pukapuka (Book, or Testament); and wherever a few of them join to read the Scriptures a Church is immediately erected for Morning and Evening Service. Hence it is that the Missionary, in his tours, often finds a Place of Worship in places never trodden by European feet. You will be surprised when I add, that the 186 persons, whom I baptized during the tour above described, had learned the Catechism by heart; and that most of them are able to read the Scriptures.

Western District.

WANGANUI.

Population in connexion with this Station.

The Rev. R. Taylor was engaged at the end of the year 1843 in making a census of that part of the District which is more immediately connected with his Station. His object was to make himself more acquainted with the people. He found the population of the neighbourhood of the Wanganui River to be 3243, and that of Taranaki, and the places adjacent, to amount to 2261; making a total of 5504.

Baptisms—Communicants.

The Reports from this Station have been received to a comparatively late period. During the first six months of the year 1844 Mr. Taylor states that 94 adults and 16 infants had been received into the Church, by Baptism; and that the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper had been twice administered at Wanganui, to 299 and 200; at Waingongoro to 80; and at New Plymouth to 25 Natives. In his Report for the year ending June 30, 1844, Mr. Taylor thus writes—

The number of Communicants has increased, although I have been more strict in my requirements of those admitted, not permitting those to approach the Lord's Table who have eaten, or drunk, or held social intercourse, with those living in known sin. I find the observance of such a course beneficial, in order to give a proper feeling of that holiness which belongeth to the Lord's House, and of the necessity of coming out and being separated from the world. The Natives themselves are fully satisfied of its propriety.

Efforts of the Natives to erect suitable Churches.

In the same Report Mr. Taylor mentions another pleasing evidence of the increasing regard shown by the Natives to the Means and Ordinances of Grace. He writes—

It gives me pleasure to notice a growing improvement in the Natives relative to their Houses of Prayer. Formerly, they bestowed little thought about them: most were very indifferently built, and kept in a very filthy state. They now appear more generally to be taking greater pains in their erection; and, not satisfied with their own efforts, they seek to have them floored and finished by Europeans. At Pipiriki, a Pa about seventy miles up the Wanganui, the Natives have erected a very respectable building. In order to render it more complete, they employed two Europeans to saw wood for the floor, and a carpenter to make a Pulpit, and Communion Table and Rails, for which they paid thirty pigs. I therefore felt it right to furnish some little aid, giving them windows, a door, and nails. I hail this feeling as a good sign. On my return, an interesting Meeting was held at Wanganui, when upward of 500 were present, to consider the propriety of erecting a new Church; the present one of brick, erected by the late Rev. J. Mason, being not only totally inadequate in point of size, but so shattered by repeated shocks of earthquakes as to be quite dangerous. There were many speakers, and all unanimously concurred in the object of the Meeting. The result was, that a large Native Church is to be erected, the timbers of the building to be furnished by each Pa on the river, in proportion to its size and number of believers.

Effects produced by the Bible, and desire for its possession.

In a Letter dated March 21, 1844, Mr. Taylor thus describes the influence of the Word of God as an antidote to Romanism, and the eager desire of the Natives to possess copies of the Scriptures—

I cannot help considering the interposition of Providence in behalf of New Zealand as very remarkable. The Romish Bishop made his first appearance in the Island at the same time that the New-Zealand Testament issued from the Church Missionary press at Paihia. This may be regarded as a token, that although the Lord, in His inscrutable wisdom, permitted that emissary of an idolatrous Church to arrive in this portion of His vineyard, He had yet prepared a sufficient antidote in the gift of His holy Word. And it is very remarkable, that the identical vessel which brought out the Priests who came to form the Romish Mission in this country, conveyed also the first portion of the Bible Society's opportune grant, and thus enabled us to spread the Word of God in every part of the Island. This, combined with the general knowledge which the Natives have of reading, has mainly conspired to preserve them from the wily and insidious attacks to which they have been exposed. In some instances, in arguing with the Priests they have shown that they were better acquainted with the Scriptures than their opponents, and, with the Word of God, have silenced their attacks.

Although I have distributed a very large number of copies among the Natives of my district, they still prize the Word of God as highly as when it first arrived. On Christmas-day I had a very large assemblage of Natives from every part of my extensive district, which includes a line of more than 180 miles of coast, and reaches upward of 100 miles into the interior. After the administration of the Lord's Supper to 345 Natives, I assembled the Teachers of every place; and forming them around me in a large circle, with their respective people behind, I had about 400 Testaments brought into the middle of the circle, which I then distributed for their Schools in proportion to the population of each place—for the Sunday-school generally comprises the entire population—telling them that they had just partaken of one feast which Christ instituted to commemorate His dying love for their souls, and here was another spiritual feast, even of His holy Word, which was given to nourish and sustain the soul to everlasting life. The sight was a very impressive one: there could not have been fewer than a thousand present; and to see the eagerness and anxiety displayed by young and old, as they crowded around as the doves flying to their windows, was to me an evident token that there is good laid up in store for this people, and that the Lord is hastening the time when they shall be numbered among the kingdoms of the Lord and His righteousness. I likewise adopt the plan of writing each individual's name in his book, and adding, Let this be kept sacred to thee—i. e. Let it not be parted with—which I have found has had a very good effect; as otherwise, according to New-Zealand custom, they must part with it to any one who may ask for it. I have debited myself to the Church Missionary Society with the amount of 44*l.* 5*s.*, which I have received for Testaments of the Bible Society, and with 10*l.* more, being the share due to the Bible Society of money paid into my hands by Mrs. Mason, making a total of 54*l.* 5*s.* This sum can therefore be paid over to the Bible Society, and will be a convincing proof of the estimation in which the Scriptures are held by the New Zealanders.

Baptisms—Communicants.

The Rev. O. Hadfield, who has laboured with the most devoted zeal, and with the manifest blessing of God, for upward of five years, has of late been suffering from such serious indisposition as to leave the Committee in much anxiety as to the continuance of his exertions. His last communication is dated June 30, 1844, in which he writes—

On the 19th of April I administered the Sacrament of Baptism to 19 male and 9 female adults; and on the 17th of May, at Otaki, to 15 male and 7 female adults; also, at various periods, to 31 children. I have periodically administered the Lord's Supper, both at Waikanae and Otaki, to an average number of 130 persons at either place.

MIDDLE ISLAND.

The Rev. C. L. Reay resides at Nelson, in the Middle Island.

Visit to Palliser Bay.

In a Letter, dated Sept. 30, 1844, Mr. Reay gives some account of a visit which he had made to Palliser Bay—

At Tekopi I had the pleasure of meeting one of my own Natives from Queen Charlotte's Sound. Tahaua Hone was returning home, after spending several months on the Northern Island, visiting his friends along the entire Western Coast as far as Taraki. By his presence I learned how the Gospel extends among this people: it appears to be as of old, when they that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the Word.

Tahaua mentioned several exhortations made by him in the course of his travels, and wished to know whether he had given correct views; at the same time telling me what he had said. The fact was, that he had repeated among his friends the substance of several Sermons which he had heard from me. This, then, is the manner in which Gospel truth has spread so widely among the inhabitants of these Islands. May the time quickly arrive, when not only in outward profession, but in deed and in truth, they shall all be enrolled and fruitful members of Christ's Catholic Church!

Marked Traits of Affection, Faithfulness, and Humanity, in a Native.

In another Letter, dated Dec. 31, 1843, Mr. Reay thus relates a circumstance which had occurred in the preceding March—

Two native women were committed to prison for theft. It would be wrong were I to omit to record the conduct of the husband of one of these: in civilized society it would be lauded as a signal mark of devoted attachment. He was anxious, in the first instance, to secure his wife from the disgrace of imprisonment, by paying whatever recompense might be required; but that failing, he accompanied her to gaol, and took up his quarters in the gaoler's room. Upon ascertaining this, the Police Magistrate entrusted him with a key, and, in fact, constituted him gaoler. He faithfully discharged this duty, and, when the time was expired, brought down both the women to receive a lecture. This is the same man who, about Christmas, made most heroic exertions to save several White Men who were in danger at Massacre Bay, their boat having capsized. His name was then Te Pero (the Dog); but I have since baptized him by the name of Arthur.

General Review of the Mission.

Upon the review of this Mission for the last year it is impossible not to recognise the large measure of Divine blessing which has been granted to the labours of the Missionaries. It is painful, however, to have to record, at the same time, that the character of some of these Missionaries has been exposed to severe censures at home, on account of their large acquisition of land in New Zealand. While the Committee would not desire to screen any of their Agents from just censure, they are equally desirous of defending them from unfair aspersions, and such they believe the reports to be in the present case.* The Committee cannot but call to mind, in connexion with this subject, the aspersions by which the most eminent and successful Missionaries have ever been liable to be assailed; and from which even a Brainerd and a Schwartz were not exempt.†

THE trials of this Mission have lately been peculiarly great, chiefly owing to the failure of the health of the Missionaries. The return home of the Rev. J. Pollitt, from this cause, was mentioned in the last Report. In the early part of last year the Rev. J. H. Bernau was compelled to try the effect of change of air; and, after visiting Barbadoes and other places, he returned to Bartica Grove in August, much benefitted by the voyage. Mr. E. Christian has also been obliged to adopt the same course.

‡ Reprinted, in part, from the Returns of last year.

BARTICA GROVE.

Baptisms—Attendance on Public Worship.

In a Letter, dated Sept. 14, 1844, Mr. Bernau mentions that he had baptized seventeen Arrowack Indians, and that the increase in the number of attendants on Public Worship was such as to render it necessary to put up a gallery in the new Church for their accommodation.

In a subsequent Letter, Dec. 23, Mr. Bernau writes—

I have had the joy of baptizing seven Adults, six of them Carrabees, and the other an Arrowack. The Carrabees may be called the first-fruits from among that Tribe. They have been under instruction for two years. These are all settled at the Grove; so that I have had occasion to observe their walk and conversation, and feel satisfied that it is their desire to walk worthy of their profession. The Candidates for Baptism from this Tribe are still about forty in number.

Communicants—Candidates for Baptism.

In the same Letter Mr. Bernau states—

The number of those who have been admitted to the Holy Communion amounts to nearly 100. There are altogether about 100 Candidates for Baptism, including Carrabees and Akaways.

Schools—Examination of the Children.

There are forty-eight Scholars in the Boys' School, thirty-five of whom are boarders. The Girls' School numbers forty-two, including twenty-five boarders. There is also a School at Oujah, which contains about twenty Coloured children.

Mr. Bernau then gives some particulars of the examination of the School-children—

On Christmas-eve I felt very happy in the midst of 108 children. In the morning I examined them as usual, when some of their parents were present, and expressed themselves delighted with the progress which their children had made. What a change hath God wrought in the condition of this people! May He give the Holy Spirit, and crown the whole to His praise and glory! The children partook of a hearty dinner, and in the evening were joined by their parents in taking a cup of coffee and a little cake provided for the occasion. Scenes like these gladden the heart; and I could not refrain from shedding a tear in gratitude to God, who has thus raised them up to chant His praise. Their singing is peculiarly sweet and melodious, and they doubly and trebly reward the trouble which I take in this employment.

Hopeful Death of a little Girl.

The following interesting account of the death of a little Girl occurs in the same communication. Mr. Bernau writes—

One of our little girls had been lingering for some time, and the Doctor informed me that, humanly speaking, there was no hope of her recovery. When I was conversing with her on the joys of a better world, she said, "Yes, I long to be with Christ." At this I was agreeably surprised, never having heard her speak of Christ and her need of Him. I therefore directed my questions more immediately to her heart, and was truly astonished at the knowledge of Scripture which she displayed. "My hope, my only hope, is, Jesus died for me. I love Him; I love Jesus ever since. I always liked to hear you talk of Him."—"Well, my dear Joanna," I replied, "you ought to thank Him for His love, and be willing to give up yourself to Him for life and death." "Yes, Sir; He does know that I did so long ago."—Some of her relatives, hoping that a change might do her good, took her into Massaroony River; but, on finding that she grew weaker every day, she desired them to bring her back again. On her return, she sent her grandmother to inform me of it. I went to see her, and found her suffering severely from pains in her knees; but she soon composed herself when I told her how much the Saviour suffered for us. Her state of mind was truly enviable; and ever afterward, when asked how she did, no complaint escaped her lips; but she always said, "Very well, Sir." One evening, late, she called for me, and, on my arrival, said, "I am not baptized: will you not baptize me before I die?" I read to her that Jesus said, He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. "I believe that His blood will wash me. I wished to ask you ever since. Oh, Sir, do baptize me." After having spoken to her a few words of comfort, I baptized her into the death of our Lord, hoping that, having been planted in the likeness of His death, she may be also in the likeness of His resurrection. The scene was a truly solemn one, the room being filled with friends. A few days afterward, she departed this life in peace, having given charge that her corpse should be conveyed to the Girls' School and from thence to the grave, the children accompanying and singing a hymn.*

TRINIDAD MISSION.

Mission Establishment :

1 European Missionary.

Death of the Rev. J. G. Mühlhauser.

SINCE the publication of the last Report, Trinidad has been deprived, by death, of the valuable services of the Rev. J. G. Mühlhauser. This event took place on the 26th of May 1844, after a few days' illness, from an attack of liver complaint. His loss was deeply lamented by the people among whom he had long usefully and faithfully laboured. In reporting to the Committee this afflictive event, under date of the 6th of June, the Bishop of Barbadoes thus spoke of Mr. Mühlhauser—

To him we may, in all humility, confidently trust that the event has been, through Christ, a blessed one; that it has been the going of the Labourer to his rest; of the faithful servant to his great reward. Of the large extent of good—deep too, I trust, as well as extensive—of which he has been made, by the Divine mercy, the happy instrument, you are, I believe, already aware. I can only say, from personal observation and the testimony of actual witnesses, that he has been indeed a great blessing to the part of Trinidad in which he laboured, as well as, indirectly and by his example, to the whole Island. With a sound judgment and an excellent temper he combined no common energy of character, sanctified by great devotedness to his work—the work of saving souls, and extending the kingdom of our Lord.

Arrangements have been completed, during the year, for connecting the Rev. A. E. Eckel with the Island Establishment, and his salary is now paid from the Colonial Fund. The Schools, during the past year, have been supported principally out of the Parliamentary Grant for Negro Education. In future, the Committee's connexion with the Island will be limited to a small pecuniary grant, to enable Mr. Eckel to prosecute some labours of a Missionary nature for which his salary does not provide.

RURAL HILL.

THE Rev. C. A. Cooper has met with much encouragement at this Station during the past year. He rejoices to observe that a higher standard of religious principle is to be found among his people, and they are becoming more free from the remaining trammels of Heathenism.

Respecting the Congregation, Mr. Cooper, in a Letter dated Jan. 3, 1845, remarks—

In January 1843 the Candidates for Communion were 314; in January 1844 they were 489; and now, in January 1845, they number 520. The Communicants in 1843 were 200; in 1844 they had increased to 229; and now, in 1845, they number 250.

The attendance at the School is also on the increase. There are now 250 Scholars.

Mr. Cooper thus concludes his Report for 1844—

I would remind the Committee, that nearly 800 immortal souls are here depending upon them, as instruments in God's hand, for the hearing and preaching that Word of God which is alone able to save them; and I would assure them, both on the part of the people and myself, that they have the sincerest gratitude and fervent prayers in return for their exertions in our behalf.

MOORE TOWN.

Death of the Rev. T. Gibson.

The Committee regret to say that this Station has been deprived of the superintendence of the Rev. T. Gibson, who was removed from his earthly labours in April 1844.

CHICHESTER.

The Rev. C. W. Winckler is still labouring, with encouraging prospects, at this Station.

SILOAH.

Joy of the People on the arrival of the Rev. F. Redford.

The Rev. F. Redford arrived at Kingston, Jamaica, on the 9th of Dec. 1844. Having been appointed to Siloah, the Station formerly occupied by the Rev. H. L. Dixon, he left Kingston for that place on the 20th of December. The following Extracts from a Letter, dated March the 3d last, will show the cordial welcome which he received from the people—

On the morning of Christmas-day I rode from Mount Hermon to Siloah, about twenty-four miles, and preached my first Sermon to my new charge from Luke ii. 10, 11: Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, &c. About 650 persons were present, although they had only two days' notice of my arrival. I was much pleased with the devotional manner in which they joined in the Service, all the Congregation repeating the responses. They were also very attentive to the Sermon; in the course of which, when showing why the people of God need not fear, I quoted the words, Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Suddenly there was an involuntary move among the Congregation, and many eyes were filled with tears. On inquiring the cause, they told me that these were the words from which Mr. Dixon preached his farewell Sermon nearly four years ago. After the Service, I received a most hearty welcome from the people, who crowded around me on every side, saying, "How Minister do?" "We too glad to see a Minister here again." "Church Missionary Society very good friends to we for sending we 'nother Minister." Could the Committee have witnessed the joy of these poor people, who have been so long as sheep having no shepherd, they would consider themselves amply repaid for providing them again with the Means of Grace.

Congregation.

Of the Congregation Mr. Redford writes, in the same Letter—

The Congregation is increasing in numbers: there is now an average attendance of 800; more, indeed, than the Church can contain: many sit outside.

Schools.

And again, respecting the Schools—

The School at Siloah is in a flourishing state. When I arrived, I found 60 children being taught by a young woman, a Maroon, and was much surprised at the extent of their Biblical knowledge: they could answer, with great readiness, almost any question I put to them. There are at present 112 children, and the number is weekly increasing. The Sunday-school is well attended, though only commenced six weeks since. Last Lord's-day there were present 120 adults and 40 children.*

largely to rest on this Mission. The number of Missionaries has been increased by the addition of the Rev. John Hunter; and their effective strength has been augmented by the ordination of Mr. J. Macallum to undertake the Chaplaincy duties of the Upper Settlement.

Visit of the Bishop of Montreal.

The year 1844 will be memorable in the annals of this Mission, on account of the important and self-denying visit of the Bishop of Montreal. His Lordship had long cherished the intention of making this visit, and the proposal was heartily seconded by the Society. The prior claims of his own extensive Diocese, and the state of his health, however, prevented the accomplishment of that intention until last summer. The undertaking was an arduous one. The Red River is about 2000 miles from Quebec, and "for 1800 miles of this distance the Bishop's only conveyance was the birch-rind canoe, his couch the lap of mother earth, and his only shelter a tent. And in this way, after traversing Lake Superior from its Eastern to its Western extremity, he had to pass 800 miles through a country inhabited, for the most part, by savages and beasts of prey." Such is the description of the journey given in an Address presented to the Bishop by the Clergy of the Mission; and the Committee fully agree with them in considering that "the self-denying zeal which stimulated, and the persevering industry which accomplished, this pious, noble, and arduous enterprise, entitle his Lordship to our warmest acknowledgments of gratitude." The Bishop has kindly furnished the Society with a very full and interesting description of his journey and his proceedings at the Red River; together with many important particulars relative to the condition, habits, and superstitions, of the Indians. The Letters in which this information is contained have been published, and will no doubt be extensively read.

The Bishop's visit lasted seventeen days, during which time he preached in the various Churches eleven Sermons; delivered four Lectures to the Candidates for Confirmation in the respective Congregations; confirmed 846 persons; held two Ordinations, in the first of which he admitted Mr. Macallum to the order of Deacons, and in the second ordained him and the Rev. A. Cowley Priests, after previously examining the Candidates; addressed the Sunday-school Children; and visited all the principal inhabitants of the Settlement.

Address from the Christian Indians at the Indian Settlement to the Bishop.

Addresses were presented to the Bishop from the Clergy, from the Protestant inhabitants, and from the Indians. The last was a spontaneous movement of their own, and was prepared among themselves. It was presented by a Deputation of twelve Indians, headed by the old Chief. The following is the English translation of it—

To our Chief Praying Father from Montreal—

We, the Cree and Ojibbeway Indians, Members of the Church of England, wish to say a few words to our Chief Praying Father.

We thank you, Father, for having come this long way to visit us. Our Praying Father* told us that you intended to come two years since; but that you were taken very sick, and could not. Our hearts are very glad that you have come at last, and we thank God for sending you. We shall, with the assistance of the Holy Spirit, try to do what you tell us. We thank the English people in English country, across the great water, for sending us a Praying Father, and for paying a Teacher to teach our children. You see, Father, that nearly all our young people can read the Word of God. We now live very comfortably, and we owe all this to the good people in English country. If they had not pitied us, we should have been still Heathens. We pray every day for our great Mother, The Lady Chief, Victoria, and for her relations,† and also for our Chief Praying Fathers‡ and for our Praying Fathers.§

We hope God will take you safely back to your own home; and we pray Him to bless you for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Signed on behalf of the Indians, by me,

HENRY PRINCE,

Acting for my Father Pigwys,
Chief of the Red-River Indians.

The Bishop's visit has greatly cheered the hearts and strengthened the hands of the Missionaries, and expressions of gratitude abound in their communications; and the Committee trust that, under God's blessing, it will tend to the stability and extension of the Mission.

The Bishop's Testimony to the faithful and successful Labours of the Missionaries.

The impression made upon the Bishop's mind by his visit is conveyed in the following short but satisfactory testimony, extracted from a Letter to the Secretaries, dated August 27, written immediately after his Lordship's return to Quebec—

It is impossible that I can write to you, after my visit, without paying at least a passing tribute to the invaluable labours of those faithful men whom the Society has employed in that field of its extensive operations: and the opportunity which was afforded to me, of contrasting the condition of the Indians who are under their training and direction with that of the unhappy Heathens with whom I came in contact upon the route, signally enabled me to appreciate the blessings of which the Society is the instrument, and did indeed yield a beautiful testimony to the power and reality of the Gospel of Christ.

UPPER SETTLEMENT.

By the ordination of Mr. Macullum, the Rev. W. Cockran is relieved of the charge of the Upper Church, and Mr. Cowley is enabled to go to his own Station at Manitoba Lake.

General View.

Of the general state of the Settlement, Mr. Cockran writes—

Our Churches have been regularly attended, and I cannot complain of any contempt or neglect of the people concerning religious matters. Our Church at the Rapids is much too small to accommodate our Congregation ; so much so, that I have already set about enlarging it.

Mr. Cowley's account, July 27, 1844, is of a similarly favourable character—

The regular attendance on the Means of Grace, and the attention paid to my discourses, whatever may be the result, have been gratifying. The kind and affectionate manner in which my week-day ministrations—especially my visiting the sick and others—have been received, is truly encouraging. We opened the new Middle Church on the 10th of January last ; since which time I have held a week-day Service in it.

INDIAN SETTLEMENT.

The Report of this Station, drawn up by the Rev. J. Smithurst, is particularly satisfactory and encouraging.

General View—Baptisms.

In spiritual matters there has been much cause for thankfulness. There is a constant and regular attendance upon the Means of Grace, and a steady improvement in the social and religious character of the Indians generally. During the past year, eight Muscaigo and six Saulteaux Indians, Converts from Heathenism, have been admitted into the Church, by Baptism, and one Saulteaux youth has been received from the Church of Rome.

First Impressions of the Bishop of Montreal.

The Indian Settlement was that part of the Red-River Colony at which the Bishop of Montreal first arrived. He had hoped to reach the place on Saturday evening ; but a high wind and storm frustrated this intention, and kept him from landing until the following morning. On the occasion he observes—

The sight which greeted me was such as never can be forgotten by myself or my companions ; and the recollection will always be coupled with feelings of devout thankfulness to God, and warm appreciation of the blessings dispensed by the Church Missionary Society. After travelling for upward of a month through an inhospitable wilderness, and casually encountering, at intervals, such specimens of the heathen savage as I have described, we came at once, and without any intermediate gradation in the aspect of things, upon the Establishment formed upon the low margin of the river, for the same race of people in their Christian state; and there, on the morning of the Lord's own blessed day, we saw them gathering already around their Pastor, who was before his door; their children collecting in the same manner, with their books in their hands, all decently clothed from head to foot; a repose and steadiness in their deportment, at least the seeming indications of a high and controlling influence upon their characters and hearts. Around were their humble dwellings, with the commencement of farms, and cattle grazing in the meadow; the neat modest Parsonage, or Mission-house, with its garden attached to it, and the simple but decent Church, with the School-house as its appendage, forming the leading objects in the picture, and carrying, upon the face of them, the promise of blessing.

Speaking of the appearance of the Congregation in the Indian Church, the Bishop says—

There were perhaps 250 Indians present, composing the whole Congregation. Nothing can be more reverential and solemn than the demeanour and bearing of these people in Public Worship.

CUMBERLAND STATION.

Mr. Smithurst has received several communications from Mr. Henry Budd; and from them he has drawn up a Report, dated August 1844, from which the following Extracts are taken.

Candidates for Baptism—Schools.

There are 92 Candidates for Baptism awaiting the arrival of the Rev. James Hunter. All those whom I baptized in 1842 are going on very well. Most of them have now crops and potatoes growing, and have prepared wood for houses; but are waiting the arrival of their Minister to have his advice in building. Three persons from the Cumberland Station have visited Red River during the past month, and have been admitted by me to the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

There are in the Day-school 17 boys and 15 girls. Of these, 5 read in the Bible, and 14 in the Testament: both classes can say the Church Catechism, and the same broken into short questions. There are 22 who write on slates.

The Sunday-school consists of 32 day scholars, and 7 adults—5 males and 2 females.

General View.

In the same Report Mr. Smithurst thus reviews the state of this Station—

Upon the whole, with respect to this Station there is abundant cause for thankfulness, and abundant encouragement for us to persevere. There are now nearly 200 Christian Converts, who, four years ago, were all Heathens, and who had then never heard the glad tidings of the Gospel.

Arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter at York Fort.

By a Letter from Mr. Hunter, dated York Fort, Aug. 19, 1844, it appears that he and Mrs. Hunter safely landed at that place on the 13th, after a pleasant voyage of about ten weeks. They intended leaving York Fort on the 20th, in an open boat, for Cumberland; at which place they hoped to arrive in about one month from that time. Mr. Hunter remarks—

I am happy to inform you that we are in the enjoyment of good health, and feel much cheered by the hope that we shall shortly be engaged in making known to the poor Indians the unsearchable riches of Christ.

MANITOBA STATION.

Visits of the Rev. A. Cowley.

In consequence of Mr. Cowley's services being required at the Red River, a Schoolmaster was stationed at Manitoba, under Mr. Cowley's superintendence, by whom he would be visited as often as opportunity admitted. During the last year, two visits were made by Mr. Cowley to the Station; one in March, and the other in May and June.

FORT-ELLICE STATION.

Mr. Smithurst visited this Station in September 1843. He fixed upon a site for the Mission Establishment, and gave Mr. Settee, the Schoolmaster, instructions respecting the plan of the buildings, which have subsequently been erected.

Report, by the Rev. J. Smithurst.

The state and prospects of this Station are not so encouraging as the others. Mr. Smithurst, in his Report for the year ending August 1, 1844, writes—

There are but three Indian children in the School; two belonging to the Chief, and one to another Indian.

There is now at this Station a good School-house, and also a house for the Chief. A small field has also been fenced in: a part of it has been sown with barley, and a part planted with potatoes.*

CONCLUSION.

THE Committee would, in conclusion, earnestly press the duty of enlarging the resources of the Society, in order to meet the enlarged blessing which God has given to its labours.

It must be ever borne in mind, that the very success which God gives, creates additional demands upon the Society.

The remarkable openings into the interior of Africa create a great additional expenditure in the conveyance of Missionaries, and in the necessary outlay upon new Missions. The rapid augmentation of Converts in South and North India requires a subdivision of Districts, and the location of new Missionaries in each subdivision. The advanced state of many Stations requires local Establishments for the higher departments of education, such as Grammar Schools and Theological Seminaries, upon a higher scale of expenditure than the Schools which suffice in the earlier stages of a Mission.

It is important that the Members of the Society in general should fully understand the rapidly-advancing state of the several Missions; the evidence of which is found in the statistical details of the Annual Reports. Among those details a special reference may be made to the number of Communicants. The Missionaries exercise great caution in admitting their Converts to the Lord's Table, and interpose an interval of probation between their Baptism and their coming to the Sacrament. All, moreover, who are admitted as Communicants, are enrolled, and subjected to strict ecclesiastical discipline. Under such a system, therefore, the number of Communicants affords a criterion by which the ~~state~~ of the Missions may be ascertained. Now, if a retrospect be taken of the last ten years, it will be found that, in 1835, the number of Communicants was below 900. This year they approach to 10,000. Surely we may well pause upon this fact, in admiring gratitude to Him, to whom be all the praise! Ten thousand immortal souls gathered from among the Heathen, from the East and from the West, and from the North and from the South, introduced to the table of the Lord's Supper! A blessed earnest, we trust, of their sitting down hereafter with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of our Father!

* We are unable to give the full number of Communicants and Scholars in connexion with the Society, from want of the requisite Returns from some of the Stations.

But, satisfactory as is this statement of numbers, it will be still more satisfactory to observe the steps by which this great increase has taken place. Each year there has been some increase, and in later years a much larger increase than in former years; so that now, blessed be God! more Communicants are added, in one single year, than were collected during the first thirty years of the Society's existence.

It must be yet farther stated, that the increase has taken place in EVERY ONE of the Missions. The dew of the Divine blessing has descended upon the whole ground cultivated by the Labourers of the Society.

Surely, when the Lord is thus enlarging His blessing, the Church may well be called upon to enlarge its efforts. We must not, we cannot, stand still, while such a glorious work is in progress. We must move with it.

I. The Committee would therefore, in the first place, appeal for increased PECUNIARY AID.

The surplus of the Income for the last two years has happily sufficed to place the Society beyond the need of borrowing money to supply the inequalities, at different seasons of the year, between the Receipts and the Expenditure.

The present Income will enable the Committee to keep up the Establishments of the Missions, according to the present measure of success. But if an enlarged blessing be granted—for which their past experience of the Lord's goodness encourages the Committee confidently to hope—the Income of the Society will be insufficient.

But beyond the demands of our Established Missions, there is still the China Fund. The open field of China lies before this Society—a field of such fair promise, of such boundless extent! Surely the whole present Income of the Society were not an inadequate or unreasonable allotment to the gigantic enterprise of evangelizing, in one nation, a third of the human race.

In appealing for increased pecuniary aid, the Committee would venture to remind their friends of the importance of communicating information through the medium of Quarterly and Monthly Missionary Meetings. It has been universally found, that, in proportion as information is given, the interest in the cause is increased, and pecuniary aid is more abundantly afforded.

The Committee make their appeal at the present time with the better hope, in the view of the commercial prosperity with which it has pleased God to bless our nation. To the Christian the coincidence will not be unnoticed, that this prosperity has been granted at a remarkable crisis in Missionary operations, and that one of the main springs of that prosperity is the opening of China to commercial enterprise. Here are no indistinct intimations of the will of God, that enlarged exertions should be made by the Church in this country to extend the Redeemer's Kingdom, and especially to China.

II. But the Committee have yet a second demand to make, equally pressing with that which they have already urged; viz. for MEN—for men prepared to go forth as Labourers into the Missionary field. From year to year, indeed, has this appeal been made. But once more would the Committee urge it, in connexion with that advanced state of the Missions which has been just described. This consideration at once points out the need of additional Labourers, and the peculiar qualifications required in them. The first and indispensable qualification is that of sound, enlightened, experienced, evangelical piety; but in addition to this, the present exigencies of our Missions require men of ability—men of enlarged education—men who can watch the progress of the Gospel in our Missions, and lead and direct its movements—men prepared to undertake the higher departments of education.

Never was there a period in the Society's history in which there was so much work actually standing still for the want of Labourers. There are several posts which were once occupied, but now are vacant. The case of Meerut has already been brought before you. In Ceylon the loss of that able, devoted, and long-tried Missionary, the Rev. J. Bailey, has not yet been supplied. In British Guiana a zealous Missionary, the Rev. T. Youd, has been removed by death, and has left an important work to relapse.

In addition to these actual vacancies, the Committee are pledged to send a Missionary to strengthen the Himalaya Mission. Two additional Labourers are equally required to meet the advanced demands of the Krishnaghur Mission. Calcutta, the heart and centre of all moral improvement for Bengal, has urgently pleaded for an increase to its present slender supply. At Madras, a single Missionary to a population of above half a million, congregated at the seat of a Christian Government, presents a reproachful spectacle. In Tinnevelly, the addition lately made has been already happily absorbed by the increase of Converts; and now there is as much need as before for new Labourers. In Travancore, the age and failing health of several faithful men admonish us to be prepared to supply their places. And in New Zealand there is a prospect of an early demand for Labourers, to supply the places of two, at least, who are fainting under their burdens.

The Committee would therefore earnestly press upon their numerous friends, throughout the country, the importance of seeking out suitable candidates for the Islington Institution—men of enlightened zeal, of natural ability for acquiring foreign languages, and of sound health.

But in addition to this source, which, under the most favourable circumstances, cannot be available for three or four years to come, the Committee anxiously look to the Universities, and to the younger Clergy of the Church, to meet the immediate wants of the Society. To these classes the Committee respectfully, but urgently and affectionately appeal; and put before them the case of these rising Christian Churches, situated indeed on the borders of our own, but full of promise, and well able to repay the noblest measures of consecrated talent with immediate returns of glory to God and good-will to men.

True, there is an urgent demand for Clergymen at home; but never has it been found that the sending forth of Missionaries, or of other Ministers of the Church, zealous for the conversion of the Heathen, has diminished the number or the zeal of a Home Ministry. Who can doubt the blessed re-action from India upon the Church at home of Martyn, of Buchanan, of Bishops Heber and Wilson? Their labours have been honoured by a double blessing—by awakening and advancing Missionary zeal abroad—by quickening and animating the zeal of the Church at home.

III. But, above all, the Committee would remind their friends, that the true and most efficacious means of procuring a supply of men is pointed out by our blessed Lord Himself—PRAYER; prayer to the Lord of the harvest to send forth Labourers into His harvest. They would remind you of one of your standing Laws and Regulations, framed by the Fathers of this Society, and breathing the spirit in which they ever conducted its early proceedings, and laid the foundation of its great success—

It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He “prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help,” we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

STATEMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, IN REFERENCE TO LAND PURCHASED BY THE MIS-SIONARIES IN NEW ZEALAND.

THE charges brought against the Missionaries in New Zealand, on the ground of their having acquired undue quantities of land, have been of late so frequently and so confidently made, as to call for renewed notice on the part of the Committee. These charges are thus embodied in a Petition presented to the House of Commons this Session by the New-Zealand Company—

We find, by the evidence of official documents, that of thirty-five Missionaries employed by the Church Society in 1838, twenty-three have preferred claims on account of such purchases, the aggregate of which, including 3900 acres for Church Missionary families, and 11,600 acres for the Church Society itself, amounts to at least 196,840 acres.*

For the case of the Missionaries, with regard to their lands, the Committee claim a fair and candid consideration.

The views, under which the acquisition of land by the Missionaries was sanctioned by the Committee, were fully explained in two Statements appended by them to their Fortieth Report, and dated respectively, Nov. the 29th, 1839, and March the 31st, 1840.†

In the Statement of the 29th of November the Committee thus speak—

The circumstances of the Society's Missionaries are peculiar, and, in certain respects, distinguish their case from that of other Missionaries labouring in New Zealand, as they have themselves pointed out. The distinction lies especially in this. The Missionaries of the Wesleyan Society go to New Zealand only to sojourn there for a limited period, intending ultimately to return, with their families, to their native country. Hence, all their views for the education and settlement of their children in life have reference to their father-land. The Society's Missionaries, on the contrary, look forward to terminating their earthly course in New Zealand, and to see their children settling around them in their adopted country. As parents, they not only considered themselves warranted in making prospective arrangements for the welfare of their children in New Zealand, when grown up, but bound to this course by the strongest obligations as men and Christians. Whether or not the Missionaries have, in any respect, fallen into error in the performance of this duty, is open to fair examination.

In the Statement of the 31st of March 1840, the Committee thus refer to other circumstances in the situation of the New Zealand Missionaries, entitled to special consideration—

It is with no intention to justify what may have been blameworthy in the conduct of any one connected with the Mission, that the Committee suggest to the consideration of the members of the Society the hardships and perils under which the New-Zealand Mission was formed, and under which it has grown to its present magnitude; and remind them, that it is chiefly by the labours of its devoted members, in every department of their Mission-life—combining with their sacred duties, as it necessarily has, a great variety of secular occupations—that New Zealand has become what it is. They found it a barbarous, inhospitable shore, dreaded and avoided by the mariner, abandoned to its native wretchedness. Patient toil, for many years, sustained by simple faith and unceasing prayer, have, under the Divine blessing, rendered the Island an attractive field for emigration, as well as one of the most encouraging scenes of Missionary labour.

It is true, that, in some instances, the purchases of land by the Missionaries have much exceeded the quantity contemplated by the Committee. Several circumstances, however, have combined to present the subject to them in a point of view to justify to themselves the course which they have taken, which, in a "fair examination" of their conduct, are entitled to candid consideration.

1. The quality of the soil of New Zealand has been found less favourable for agriculture than was supposed; so much so, indeed, that it has been asserted by intelligent persons, in no way connected with the Mission, who had personally visited the Northern Island throughout a large extent of it, that the land suitable for agriculture did not exceed five per cent. of the entire surface of the Island.

On this point, Mr. C. Baker, writing to the Committee under date of June the 4th, 1838, in reference to Mr. Flatt's charges, thus speaks—

It is true that most of the Missionaries have made purchases of land from the Natives in behalf of their children, and that the amount of land obtained by some is considerable; but in every such case the family has, I believe, been very large, and the major part of such purchases is unfit for any purposes save for that of cattle-runs.

To the same effect Archdeacon W. Williams wrote to Lord Chichester, February 25, 1842—

When a Native wished to dispose of land, he required that the bad should be taken as well as the good, and hence it has generally happened that while the number of acres may sound large, there is in reality but a small portion which is fit for agricultural purposes. Hence, therefore, if 200 acres of good land be no more than a sufficient quantity, much more than 1000 is generally required to ensure the possession of 200. I know of some thousands, which have been purchased, which will not average 100 acres of available land in each thousand.

2. The course formerly pursued by the Government of New South-Wales, in the case of Chaplains, was present to the minds of the Missionaries in the acquisition of lands for their families in New Zealand. That course was, to make a grant of 1260 acres of land for each daughter; and double that quantity, or 2520 acres, for each son. Judged by this rule, two only of the Missionaries in New Zealand have, in the quantity of land which they have acquired, exceeded the precedent afforded them in New South-Wales.

3. The Missionaries would naturally feel, that, adverting to the object for which they came to New Zealand, and to the benefits which they were instrumental in imparting to the Natives, they were fairly and legitimately entitled to acquire of the Natives a sufficient quantity of land for a due provision for their families. This is a consideration, the force of which has been fully admitted by the Natives themselves.

In Mr. Baker's Letter just referred to, it is said—

With respect to the conduct of the Natives in these several purchases, they have acted very handsomely toward the Missionaries' children; saying, that "inasmuch as our children were born in the land, they had a claim upon them."

4. Though the quantity of land held by some of the Missionaries was greater than that authorized by the Government in dealing with Land Claims, after the acquisition of the sovereignty of the Island in 1840, the peculiar situation of the Missionaries might not unreasonably have been considered as exempting them from the application of the rule. So strong a claim, in fact, did Captain Fitzroy conceive the case of the Missionaries to have to favourable consideration, that he has allowed them an additional 200 acres for each son.

The two cases in which alone the New South Wales maximum has been exceeded, are those of Mr. Fairburn and the Rev. R. Taylor.

Mr. Fairburn's claim amounted to 40,000 acres. This case having come to the knowledge of the Committee, they investigated it, and recorded their decision upon it January 7, 1840. The circumstances of the case are very peculiar, and are detailed at large in an Appendix to the Statement of the Committee of March 30, 1840. It is due to Mr. Fairburn to state, that, before the Committee's Resolution had reached him, he had made over, by Deed, one-third of his land to the Aborigines. Subsequently, he assigned one other third to the Church Missionary Society, for the benefit of the Mission, retaining only one-third for his own use. By the Court of Land Claims he was allowed 3695 acres.

Mr. Taylor's claim extended to 50,000 acres. The quantity allowed to him by the Commissioners was 2726 acres. The following explanations relative to this purchase were addressed by him to the Committee, August 8, 1843—

In a former Letter, I sent an account of the land I have purchased at the North Cape. As the Society has again written on the subject, I shall mention the same again, lest the former should not be received; but as for particulars, I scarcely know how to give them, except that I purchased of Noble and his Tribe a tract of land from which they had expelled the Aupouri, a Northern Tribe, nearly twenty years before. My object was, to have given that Tribe power to return to their former homes, which I could not have done without purchasing that land. This is stated in my Deed of Purchase, and a large portion of that Tribe, amounting to nearly 100, has already taken up its abode there. Relative to the land which I shall claim for myself, I shall be satisfied with retaining sufficient to cover my outlay; but I have not selected any yet. I have only once seen it, and perhaps may never see it again. It is not a fertile district, a large portion being covered with moving sand-hills; and the whole is destitute of timber. I have given about £140 in cash; and although I thought my motive was a laudable one, yet, after what has been said about Missionaries and land, I regret I ever made it.

The Court of Land Claims having been established when Mr. Taylor's Letter reached the Committee, they judged it a more suitable course to leave his claim to be disposed of on the spot by that Court, than, with their imperfect information, to adjudicate it themselves. This consideration also induced them to leave all the other cases of Missionaries' claims for land to be decided by the Court of Land Claims in New Zealand. The case of Mr. Fairburn having occurred before the Court of Land Claims was established, the Committee decided upon it in the best manner they could.

The Petition alleges that twenty-three Missionaries employed by the Church Missionary Society have preferred claims to land, "the aggregate of which, including 3900 acres for Church Missionaries' Families, and 11,600 acres for the Church Society itself, amounts to at least 196,840 acres."

The Return of Claims to Land in New Zealand, laid before Parliament this Session,* includes those of fourteen of the Missionaries or Catechists of the Society.

Of these fourteen cases, including those of Messrs. Taylor and Fairburn, the aggregate of the claims is 142,222½ acres. Deducting from that total the 90,000 acres claimed by Messrs. Taylor and Fairburn, which rest on special grounds, the claims on behalf of the remaining * Return dated June 1, 1845, and ordered by the House to be printed June 16, 1845.

twelve persons amount to 52,227½ acres. The children of these persons are in number eighty-eight; which gives an average to each child, on the aggregate of their claims, of 593½ acres—not one-half of the New South-Wales grant to a girl. The claimant of the largest quantity of land, in the twelve cases under consideration, was the Rev. H. Williams, the amount being 11,004½ acres. Mr. Williams' family consists of six boys and five girls. Under the New South-Wales regulations he would have been entitled to 21,420 acres—very nearly double what he purchased. He was allowed 7014½.

The next largest claim of the twelve, was that of Mr. J. Kemp: the quantity was 9206 acres. Mr. Kemp has four boys and four girls. The quantity he would have obtained in New South-Wales is 14,120 acres; or one-third more than his purchase. He was allowed 3568 acres.

In the other ten cases, the highest amount claimed was considerably less than in the two preceding cases.

The number of acres allowed to these twelve persons by the Court of Land Claims was 33,326½, on the principle, adopted by that Court, of allowing land, in cases of bond-fide purchase, in a certain proportion to the amount of the consideration given for the land.

The consideration which appears to have been given by the Missionaries for the 52,227½ acres claimed by them was 8145*l.* 9*s.* 2*d.*, or rather more than 3*s.* 1*d.* per acre, on the average. The Committee are not in possession of a complete Return of the dates at which the Missionaries' purchases were respectively made; but some were as far back as 1825. It is important to bear this in mind, in forming a judgment of the equitableness of the Missionaries' proceedings in the purchase of land, as land had not then the value which colonization has since given it.

The Missionaries have also been vilified as land-jobbers; that is, as the Committee understand the charge, that they have bought and sold land for gain. The Committee are bound to state, that not the slightest information has reached them to warrant the belief that this imputation is true of any one of the Missionaries of the Society.

The testimony to the character of the Missionaries, borne by the Bishops of Australia and New Zealand, will be duly appreciated. The Bishop of Australia, having visited the New-Zealand Mission, at the instance of the Committee, thus expressed himself, in a Letter to them, dated the 28th of March 1839—

With regard to the Missionaries of the Society, I must offer a very sincere and willing testimony of their maintaining a conversation such as becomes the Gospel of Christ, and the relation in which they stand to it as the professed guides and instructors of those who are, by their agency, to be retrieved from the service of sin.

Similar is the testimony of the Bishop of New Zealand, in a Letter to the Committee, dated July 29, 1842—

I hope this Letter will have put you, in some degree, in possession of my feelings toward the Natives, and toward the Mission. If you have gathered from it that I have imbibed the strongest regard for this Native people, and a very high respect and esteem for the members of the Mission in general, you will have drawn a right conclusion from this very imperfect statement of my real feelings. I would rather that you should give me credit for feeling more than I express, than incur the danger of seeming to exaggerate beyond the facts of the case.

In a Letter, of twelve months' later date, the Committee are assured that further acquaintance with his Missionary Clergy had confirmed the favourable opinion that he had entertained of their piety, ability, and general character.

The Committee have thus stated the case of the Missionaries with regard to the acquisition of land in New Zealand unreservedly, in entire confidence that they are not justly liable to the severe censure which has been cast upon them. The fact that the Missionaries located themselves in the Island in its most barbarous state; and that it is by their labours that the way was paved for its colonization; ought surely not to be overlooked in judging of their conduct. That they have laboured in their own vocation zealously and well is fully attested by the most authentic testimony. That of the Bishop of Australia, and of the Bishop of New Zealand, the Committee have already noticed. That these calumniated men have borne the burden and heat of the day is no less certain. One of them has resided more than thirty years on the Island: another nearly twenty-five years: another twenty-one: another twenty: two others eighteen. But even if some blame were justly due to any individual Missionary for the acquisition of an undue quantity of land, the Committee cannot concede that they are fairly open to serious censure, when all the circumstances incident to their case are candidly considered. The Committee must repeat the language which they used in 1839—

As parents, they not only considered themselves warranted in making prospective arrangements for the welfare of their children in New Zealand, when grown up; but bound to this course by the strongest obligations as men and Christians. Whether or not the Missionaries have, in any respect, fallen into error in the performance of this duty, is open to fair examination.

[It being necessary, from the great number of Association Lists, to make up this List to the 31st of December in each year, Benefactions, Collections, and New Subscriptions, which are paid after that date, cannot appear in the List of Benefactions, &c., paid direct to the Parent Society, to be appended to the Report presented to the Annual Meeting in the following May.

Benefactions of 10l. and upward, through Associations, are, after the first year, transferred to the General List of Contributions paid direct to the Parent Society, and continued in that List during the life of the Benefactor. Anonymous Benefactions, and all Benefactions under 10l., are discontinued after having been once inserted.

The Names of Collectors and Annual Subscribers are omitted in all cases where a payment has not been made within the last three years.

Subscribers and Benefactors who pay through the different Associations in London will find their names in the respective Lists of Associations.

Great difficulty being found in making the following List of Contributions correct, the Committee will feel obliged by having any errors, or alterations consequent on death, change of residence, or other causes, pointed out to them.

* * Those to which asterisks are prefixed were preached at St. Ann's, Blackfriars; those marked †, at St. Bride's, Fleet Street; the Twenty-third was preached at Christ Church, Newgate Street; the Thirty-first at St. Sepulchre's; the Thirty-second at St. Clement Danes; and the Thirty-third at St. Andrew's, Holborn.

The Collections at the Sixteenth and subsequent Anniversaries include the sums contributed at the Annual Meetings.

* * Some misapprehension having arisen with regard to the Association Balance Sheets appended to the Society's Report, the Committee beg to state that there is no connexion between those Balance Sheets and the Balance Sheet of the Parent Committee. The Association Accounts are, for the most part, made up to the period of their respective Anniversary Meetings, and thus necessarily vary from the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet, which includes the actual payments made at the Society's House between April 1st and March 31st in each year; and is, therefore, quite irrespective of the periods at which, for local convenience, Association Accounts are made up and balanced. An Account Current is kept at the Society's Office with each Association, by which the actual transmission of its receipts to the Parent Committee is shown. The appending to the Society's Report of the Balance Sheets of the Associations may be regarded as a universal acknowledgment to the Local Contributors that their Contributions have been received by the Parent Committee; though the varying periods at which, as above stated, those Accounts are made up, render it impossible that their totals should correspond with the amount received from Associations, specified in the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet.

It is further to be observed, that there are other causes of discrepancy, beside that of difference in time, which have the effect of swelling the amount acknowledged in the Association Balance Sheets beyond that which is exhibited in the Balance Sheet appended to the Report; inasmuch as Legacies, Benefactions, &c., although paid direct, are frequently claimed by an Association, the Benefactor having lived within the limits of such Association, though the payment was made direct to the Parent Society. As these Accounts have no reference to the Parent Committee's printed Balance Sheet, there has been no hesitation in transferring such amounts, as desired. The effect, however, of this has unavoidably been, in some instances, that the sums transferred have been twice acknowledged; the Committee's Balance Sheet having been made up before notice desiring such transfer was received at the Society's Office.

N.B. Benefactors of Ten Pounds and upward, whose Names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will now find them in the General List.
