The Office of the Society is open Daily (Sundays excepted), from Nine in the Morning till Six in the Evening.

One of the Secretaries attends at the Office daily, between the hours of Eleven o'Clock in the Morning and Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, unless particular business should render it necessary for them to be absent.

The Committee meet, at the Society's House, every Second Monday in the Month throughout the Year, at Eleven o'Clock.

SUBSCRIPTIONS AND CONTRIBUTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED

MESSRS. NISBET & Co., Berners Street.

MESSRS. JOHN DAVID LA TOUCHE & Co.

R. K. GREVILLE, Esq., LL.D., REV. D. T. K. DRUMMOND, & CAPT. GROVE.

.* The Committee of the Church Missionary Society beg to suggest to the Committees and Officers of Associations, that the most convenient and economical mode of making their Remittances is through the medium of a Banker in the Country to the Society's Bankers, through the Banking-house in town with which the Country Banker corresponds, advising the Secretaries of the payment.*

PROPER FORM OF A BENEFACTION TO THE SOCIETY BY WILL.

IN consequence of some late decisions with regard to charitable Legacies, it has been found necessary, in order that a Testator's benevolent intentions may not be frustrated, as has been the case in several instances, that the following forms of Bequest should be substituted for that hitherto printed in the Society's Reports.

No. I.—Form of Bequest of a Common Legacy.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer for the time being of a voluntary Society meeting in or near London commonly called or known by the name of "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East" the sum of Pounds *free of Legacy duty for the general purposes of the said Society† to be paid within calendar months next after my death. And in order that the said Legacy [or Legacies] for charitable purposes may be paid in full I direct the same together with the Legacy duty thereon to be paid exclusively out of such part of my Personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may be bequeathed for charitable purposes and in priority to all my Debts and funeral and testamentary expenses and all other Legacies bequeathed by this my Will or any Codicil thereto. And I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society [or each of the said Societies] shall be an effectual discharge for the said Legacy [or Legacies respectively].

No. II.—Form of Bequest of the Residue, or a Share of the Residue.

And in order to give full effect to the bequest hereinafter contained for charitable purposes I direct that my Debts, the expenses of my funeral and of the probate and execution of this my Will and the Legacies bequeathed by this my Will or any Codicil thereto † shall be paid out of such part of my personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may not be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the primary Fund§ and in case only of the same being insufficient for payment thereof then out of such part of my personal Estate as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the ultimate Fund; and subject as aforesaid, I give and bequeath unto the Treasurer for the time being of a voluntary Society meeting in or near London called or known by the name of "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East" for the general purposes of the said Society such part of my residuary personal Estate as by the Laws in force may be bequeathed for charitable purposes [or if a share only of the residue be intended to be given, then, instead of the words in Italics, say, "such sum of money as shall be equal to (one-fourth or one-half, according to the intention) of my whole residuary personal Estate to be paid exclusively out of such part thereof as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes or such less sum as the said last mentioned part of my personal Estate will extend to pay"]. And I declare that the Receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society shall be an effectual discharge for the said residue [or sum of money, as the case may be]. And as to the remainder if any of my general residuary personal Estate I bequeath the same &c. ||

* If so intended.

† If there be other charitable Legacies, they may be here added thus—"and to a certain other voluntary Society" &c. "and I direct each of the said several Legacies hereby bequeathed for charitable purposes to be paid" &c. as in the remainder of the above form.

‡ In case there be other charitable Legacies, insert here, "other than and except charitable Legacies."

§ If it be intended also to charge the Debts and Legacies on real Estate, then add "and in the next place out of my Freehold and Copyhold Estates."

|| The latter Clause to be filled up according to the Testator's wishes; but it must not be for any charitable purpose.

 "Contributions to the Funds."*

At the Forty-fifth Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May the 6th, 1845—

The Right Hon. the EARL of CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; that the thanks of this Meeting be given to His Grace the Vice-Patron; to the Right Hon. the President and the Vice-Presidents; and to all those friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf; and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the ensuing year, with power to fill up vacancies: (See LIST, p. iv.)

On the Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Oxford, seconded by the Rev. Henry Watson Fox, B.A., the Society's Missionary from Masulipatam,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting, while it offers to the Bishop of Calcutta its best thanks for his Sermon delivered yesterday evening, and for the countenance and encouragement which he has always extended to the Missions of the Society, embraces the opportunity of solemnly recognising the paramount claims of British India upon the Church at Home, and the duty of taking full advantage of the present crisis in its Missions, and of the facilities which God has granted for the evangelization of that vast Empire.

On the Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Cashel, seconded by the Rev. John Henry Bernau, the Society's Missionary from Bartica Grove, British Guiana,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the critical circumstances of the rising Native Church in New Zealand call for deep sympathy on the part of Christians at home; and for their unceasing prayers to the Great Head of the Church, that He would interpose on its behalf, and rescue His own cause in that country from the perils with which it is now surrounded through the subtlety and malice of the God of this world, operating both upon the natural passions of ungodly men, and upon the infirmity of an unestablished faith in some of the Native Converts.

On the Motion of the Hon. and Rev. H. Montagu Villiers, M.A., Rector of St. George's, Bloomsbury, London, seconded by the Rev. Hugh Stowell, M.A., Minister of Christ Church, Salford, Manchester,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the continued enlargement of the Divine Blessing upon the operations of the Society, and the opening of fresh doors of usefulness abroad, especially in the case of China, call upon this Meeting for its most grateful and devout thanksgivings; while the want of a corresponding increase in the zeal and liberality of the Church at Home is a call upon her members for humiliation before God, and for prompt exertions to enlarge the funds of the Society, and to increase the number of its Missionaries.

At a Meeting of the Society, held in Exeter Hall, in the Evening of the same Day—

The Most Hon. the MARQUESS CHOLMONDELEY, one of the Vice-Presidents, in the Chair,

EXTRACTS FROM THE ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT HAVING BEEN READ BY THE REV. J. VENN—

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, while this Meeting desires to acknowledge with gratitude the hand of God in the signal and decisive victories on the banks of the Sutlej, and, still more so, the happy peace which has followed, it feels that this Society would best testify its gratitude and joy by seeking to plant on that scene of victory the Standard of the Cross, by strengthening its Missions in the north-west Provinces of India, from which the Gospel may be sent forth into the Punjaub to conquer souls for Christ, and to bring the enemies of God into a state of reconciliation with Him.

On the Motion of Pascoe St. L. Grenfell, Esq., seconded by the Hon. and Rev. Baptist Wriothsley Noel, M.A., Minister of St. John's Chapel, Bedford Row, and Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, while this Meeting gratefully acknowledges the hand of God in the late Imperial Decrees, by which a full toleration is secured for Christianity throughout the Empire of China, it cannot regard the fact, that not one additional Missionary has been sent out by the Society to China during the last two years, without feelings of humiliation and sorrow, and a deep conviction of the necessity for more earnest prayer for the out-pouring of the Spirit upon our Church.

On the Motion of the Rev. Joseph Ridgeway, M.A., Rector of High Roding, Essex, and one of the Society's Association Secretaries, seconded by the Rev. John Harding, M.A., Rector of St. Ann's, Blackfriars, London,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting desires to close the proceedings of this day with a thankful acknowledgment of the marked and encouraging success with which it has pleased God to bless the labours of the Society abroad; with a solemn recognition of the extended openings which present themselves, and the loud call which is made for increased efforts; and with a humble determination, in the strength of the Lord, to be more earnest in personal exertions, in endeavours to obtain the aid of others, and especially in prayer to Him, whose are the silver and the gold, and who alone can raise up and qualify suitable Labourers.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by a Patron or Patrons, a Vice-Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church.

II. The office of PATRON of the Society shall be reserved for such Members of the Royal Family as may honour it with their protection; and that of VICE-PATRON for His Grace the Primate of all England, if, being a Member of the Society, he shall accept the office. The PRESIDENT shall be such Temporal Peer or Commoner as may be appointed to that office; and VICE-PRESIDENTS shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, who, being Members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such Temporal Peers and Commoners as, being also Members, shall be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upward, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upward per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward, Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying to the amount of Fifty Pounds, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upward shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Members for Life, or Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. A Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum, shall be called at any time, at the requisition of the General Committee; or by any Thirteen Members, on addressing a Letter to the Secretary, specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Rules of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones established, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the General Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church; and of all such Clergymen as are Members of the Society. Eighteen Members shall be annually appointed from the Old Committee, and Six from the General Body.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate, to the General Committee, proper persons, as Patrons and Vice-Presidents of the Society.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt proper means of augmenting the Subscriptions and Benefactions; to obtain Collections in Churches and Chapels; and to nominate, from time to time, to the General Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents for the Society in the principal Towns throughout the Empire.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to superintend their instruction, and to correspond with them when sent out.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Accounts is, to see that the Subscriptions are duly received, regulate the accounts, and undertake the charge of fitting out and conveying the Missionaries to their places of destination.

XVII. The General Committee shall receive the Reports of the other Committees, shall appoint the places where Missions shall be attempted, shall direct the scale upon which they shall be conducted, and shall superintend the affairs of the Society in general.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; the other Committees as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee; and Three, each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patron, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex-officio, Members of all Committees.

XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates' for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued: The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.*

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. That all questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and any Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

XXXIII. That the object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as, in any other respect, to alter the principles and practice of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions, falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference, cannot properly be considered as so bound.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The following passage, from Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Annual Report, illustrates the practice of the Society in reference to this Rule:—

"The Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] our Missionaries—these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same Colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church."

APPENDIX II. TO THE 'THIRTY-NINTH REPORT.

REFERRED TO IN THE NOTE TO LAW XXIX.

REMARKS ON THE CONSTITUTION AND PRACTICE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, WITH REFERENCE TO ITS ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONS.

IT is the object of the following Remarks, to show that the constitution and practice of the Church Missionary Society are in strict conformity with Ecclesiastical principles, as they are recognised in the constitution and practice of the Church of England.

Throughout the system of the Church of England there is a recognised co-operation of temporal and spiritual functions IN MATTERS ECCLESIASTICAL; that is, the Laity and Clergy have not only their separate and distinct provinces, but, in many important respects, they unite their agency for the accomplishing of Ecclesiastical acts.

For instance, in supplying a vacant Church, a Lay-Patron selects and presents "his Clerk"—as the Clergyman is technically called—to the Bishop; who thereupon invests him with authority to minister in that Church. So, also, there are certain Lay-officers appointed to every Church—the Churchwardens or Sidesmen—whose duty it is, not only to guard, in conjunction with the Minister, the temporalities of the Church, but also to watch over the due performance of Divine Service, the morals of the parishioners, and the conduct of the Minister; and to report, from time to time, on each of these matters, to the Ecclesiastical Authorities. The duty of these officers is implied in the old appellation, "Sidesmen," or "Synodsmen"—men summoned to attend and give information at Synods and Visitations.

The distinction and co-operation of lay and spiritual functions in the Church of England might be further illustrated in the case of Ecclesiastical Courts, and various relations which arise out of the principle, that the Sovereign is the Supreme Ruler of the Church.

Keeping the foregoing distinction in view, the Church Missionary Society may be regarded as an Institution for discharging the temporal and lay offices necessary for the preaching of the Gospel among the Heathen. It is strictly a Lay Institution: it exercises, as a Society, no spiritual functions whatsoever.

Such being the constitution of the Society in theory—are its proceedings conducted in conformity with this theory, and with the Ecclesiastical principles of the Church of England?

In order to review these proceedings, they may be conveniently arranged under the FOUR following Heads:

I. THE COLLECTION OF THE HOME REVENUE, and THE DISBURSEMENT OF IT ABROAD.

These acts are altogether within the province of Laymen.

II. THE SELECTING AND EDUCATING CANDIDATES FOR MISSIONARY EMPLOYMENT.

In this department there is no necessary encroachments upon spiritual functions. The Colleges in our Universities are Lay-Corporations, and may, in many cases, be administered and presided over by Laymen.

Yet it may be urged, that in this department there is an approach to the peculiar province of Clergymen; because, spiritual persons seem the more proper judges of a Candidate's fitness for Missionary employment: and it is generally admitted, that a Bishop may exercise a controul over the education and training of Candidates to be advanced by himself to Holy Orders. Now, in both these particulars the Church Missionary Society has carefully guarded its proceedings. The examination of Missionary Candidates is referred to a Clerical Sub-Committee; and the General Committee consult and act upon the report of this Clerical trial and judgment. In respect of the other point, the education and training of Candidates for Holy Orders, the Church Missionary College at Islington has the sanction and approbation of the Bishop of London; who, in this country, admits to Holy Orders all the Society's Candidates: and his Lordship has repeatedly expressed his satisfaction at the results of the system of instruction, as they have been manifested in his examinations for Holy Orders.

III. The Third general head of the Society's proceedings is, THE SENDING FORTH, TO PARTICULAR STATIONS, THE MISSIONARIES THUS ORDAINED, OR OTHER CLERGYMEN WHO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY ORDAINED.

Now, here an objection against the Society has been founded on the use of the term "sending forth:"—it sounds like an exercise of Ecclesiastical power. But, Ecclesiastically speaking, the Bishop of London "sends forth" every Missionary ordained by him. The Law of the land has sanctioned the Two Archbishops, and the Bishop of London, in ordaining persons to officiate abroad. The Secretary of the Church Missionary Society requests, by Letter, the Bishop of London to ordain, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of Parliament, such and such persons, whom the Society is willing to support in some Foreign Station. The Bishop, by the imposition of hands, gives them authority to preach the Gospel, with a view to their Foreign location.—In the case of persons already in Holy Orders, who may join the Society, they may be said to go forth by their own voluntary act; but their Letters of Orders, given by a Bishop of our Church, are their mission and commission, Ecclesiastically speaking.

Hence, to call the acts of the Church Missionary Society—in selecting the station, paying the passage-money, and agreeing to provide the Missionary's salary—to call these acts a SENDING FORTH of Preachers, in an Ecclesiastical sense, is to confound names with things, and to lose sight of all true Church principles.

IV. The Fourth general head under which the proceedings of the Church Missionary Society may be arranged, is, THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MISSIONARIES IN THEIR LABOURS AMONG THE HEATHEN.

Here a distinction must be made between the case of those Foreign Stations which lie within the jurisdiction of a Colonial Bishop, and other stations, which are not so situated, and may therefore be termed Extra-diocesan.

In the first case, the Church Missionary Society has expressly determined, that all its ordained Missionaries shall be submitted for licence to the Bishop of the diocese in which they may be stationed; and that no Missionary shall exercise his spiritual functions in such diocese without a licence. The Society has further recognised the uncontrolled discretion of the Bishop to grant or withhold his licence, and the propriety of specifying in such licence a particular district as the field of labour; so that a Missionary cannot be removed from one district to another without the sanction of the Bishop.

These principles were stated in a Letter from the Society to the Bishop of Calcutta, signed by the Right Honourable the President—December 17, 1835—in a manner so satisfactory to the Bishop, that he embodied them in the four following Rules, expressed for the most part in the words of the Society's Letter: which were, at the Bishop's request, entered upon the minutes of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, as the recognised Rules of their practice:—

"1. The Bishop expresses—by granting or withholding his licence, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approbation or otherwise, of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries afterward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their Ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those—the Committee and Secretary—who still stand in the relation of Lay-Patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his Ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage.—The Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate directions when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop* or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives, further, all such confidential information, on all topics, as the Bishops officially neither could wish nor properly ask [to receive]."

* The Three Bishops of India, and the Bishop of Australia, are the Presidents of the Corresponding Committees in their respective dioceses.

The Bishop also wrote to the Parent Society in the following terms:—"You seem to me to lay down the principle most correctly. . . . This is to me perfectly satisfactory; as I shall instantly inform the Archbishop of Canterbury, to whom I report all the proceedings of the diocese."—9th June, 1836.

It will be perceived, that the Missionaries, thus licensed, stand toward the Bishop in the relation rather of Stipendiary Curates, than of Beneficed Clergymen. For a Bishop in England cannot refuse a licence or institution to a benefice, without assigning a reason which will bear investigation before a Court of Common Law; nor can he deprive a Clergyman of his benefice without a judicial process. But no law has provided any such check in the case of Missionaries: the Bishop has the power of withholding a licence, or of withdrawing it, at his sole discretion, without assigning any cause, as in the case of Stipendiary Curates in this country.

If it be asked, What are the checks and safeguards against the undue exercise of this discretionary power of the Bishop?—it may be replied, in the words of the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Parent Society, April 12, 1837:—

"We are not to take for granted, that discretionary power will be abused; but, on the contrary, to provide, by a cheerful and friendly spirit and conduct, against the likelihood of such an occurrence. If the event of arbitrary conduct should arise, or be supposed to arise, the remedies are—public opinion—an appeal to the Archbishop—and the Society's refusing to make other appointments and locations than those unreasonably objected to. Nothing is the least likely—and probability is the guide of life—to arise to impede or cramp the Committee; since they unquestionably and avowedly possess, The choice of men—The appointment of spheres of labour—The temporal power, including pecuniary support."

But though the Bishop's licence is at once the pledge and proof that the Society's Missionaries are under Episcopal superintendence and jurisdiction, and that the spiritual oversight rests altogether with the Bishop; yet the Society may seem, to some persons, to keep up a kind of spiritual jurisdiction and oversight, by requiring accounts from the Missionaries of all their proceedings, and by giving them directions, from time to time, which may bear upon their spiritual duties. But it must be remembered, that the Society stands toward its Missionaries in the relation of Trustees of the fund out of which their salaries are paid. In the case of a Beneficed Clergyman in this country, the Minister is the guardian and possessor of the temporalities of the benefice, because the benefice is an endowment; and the Patron has no further connexion with the Minister whom he has once presented to the Bishop. In our case, the office of Patron is, in a sense, perpetuated by the payment of the salary, and the possession of all the temporalities of the Mission.

This matter has been well explained by the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, May 26, 1837:—"The Missionary Committees," says his Lordship, "have a far greater latitude in India than any Lay-Patrons at home. Upon presenting his Clerk to the Bishop, the Patron at home is functus officio. The Clergyman is removed, on being once instituted and licensed, totally and for ever from the Patron, and is transferred to the superintendency of the Bishop. The Patron has nothing whatever more to do with him. But in India, the Committee is (1) the continued paymaster of the Missionary after he is duly licensed;—for institution and induction there are none. (2) They correspond with him. (3) They supply him with Catechists. (4) They report his chief proceedings home. (5) They propose removals and changes of station to the Bishop. (6) They exercise, unavoidably, an influence which does not belong to the mere Lay-Patron; and are aiding, in a variety of ways, to the comfortable and honourable discharge of the Missionary's most exalted and most spiritual duties."

It remains to consider the case of those Stations which are Extra-diocesan; i. e. where there is no Colonial Bishop of the Church of England having jurisdiction over them.

In these cases, the Society has endeavoured to procure for such stations the benefits of the Episcopal office from the nearest Bishop of the Church of England. Application was made by the Committee both to the late and to the present Bishop of Madras, to extend, as far as circumstances would admit, these benefits to the Mission in Travancore; which, as an independent state, not forming a part of the British Dominions, was not included in the diocese of Madras. A similar application was made on behalf of the New-Zealand Mission, to the Bishop of Australia; who at once acceded to the request, and kindly promised to visit New Zealand as soon as his other duties would permit; stating, in a Letter to the Society's representatives at Sydney, "It is highly satisfactory to me, that our friends at home are taking a view of these things which proves them to belong, not only to a MISSIONARY, but also to a CHURCH Society." (See Annual Report, 1838.)

Such is a General View of the Constitution and Proceedings of the Church Missionary Society.

It is not intended to assert, that errors are not sometimes committed in the application of these principles to matters of detail. It must be remembered, that Missionary operations are, alas! new and anomalous in the system of the Church of England; and that it is not always easy to draw a definite line between the two provinces which belong respectively to the Bishop and the Committee. It has been observed by the Bishop of Calcutta—Letter, May 26, 1837: "The boundaries of the power of Committees, as they approach to those of the Bishop, can be ascertained, in many points, only by time and observation." Perplexities have consequently occurred; and, unhappily, misunderstandings have sometimes arisen between the Representatives of the Society abroad and Ecclesiastical Authorities. But these are the principles by which the Home Committee have endeavoured to guide the proceedings of the Society: and they confidently respond to a sentiment expressed by the Bishop of Calcutta fully recognised: the details will soon find their level."—Letter, 9th June 1836.

In reviewing the Ecclesiastical relations of the Church Missionary Society, there are two or three points which it seems very important to notice.

1. Missionary operations, as they are conducted by the Church Missionary Society, though apparently anomalous in the system of the Church of England, are yet in strict conformity with its constitution and principles: they are analogous to many other instances of voluntary exertion for the extension of true religion within the Church, in which Ecclesiastical authority and Lay co-operation unite for the accomplishment of the same end: so that these operations may be regarded as the acts of the Church of England, putting forth its energy for the Conversion of the Heathen World. For it has been shown, that the Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth our Missionaries—that these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church. Even in the few cases in which Lutheran Clergymen are employed, this rule is observed; and all the congregations which are gathered into the fold of Christ are trained up as Members of the Church established in this land.

And here it may be observed, that nothing less than the sanction of a duly-assembled Convocation can more fully identify the acts of any Missionary Society, within the Church of England, with the Church.* Without such sanction, all associations of Churchmen must stand in the same position. Still further, not to notice the present abeyance of Convocations, it may be asserted, that even if the Church were to assemble in her provincial Convocations, and to decree and to regulate Missionary operations, such proceedings could not essentially add to, or alter, those important particulars which, under present circumstances, entitle the operations of the Church Missionary Society to be regarded as Missionary operations of the United Church of England and Ireland.

2. It must be ever borne in mind, that Missionary operations are, in their very nature, temporary and preparative;—that they are to be gradually but eventually superseded by a different order of things, when the Heathen Nations shall have become Christianized. In some cases, as in the West Indies, this change is further advanced than in others. Now, it must be expected, that, in proportion as this change advances, difficulties and perplexities will arise in our Ecclesiastical relations, peculiar to this TRANSITION STATE—from Missionary operations, to that happy consummation when there shall be an endowed and established system of Christian Instruction, and a territorial division of Ministerial labour. This consummation the Church Missionary Society has ever kept in view, and devoutly desired; and, as far as possible, has prepared for its approach. In an interview with the Bishop of Barbados—April 1835—this point was expressly alluded to; and it was stated by the Committee to his Lordship, “that whenever a district should be brought into the state of an organized Christian community, it should assume entirely the Parochial form, and cease to be occupied as a Missionary Station.—The Bishop entirely acquiesced in this view; and only expressed his anxiety that it should not be so acted upon as prematurely to deprive a district of the Missionary’s services.” (Extracts from Committee’s Minute.)

3. Lastly, it must be evident, from a review of the whole subject, that our Ecclesiastical relations depend, in many important respects, upon a mutual confidence and good understanding between the Committee and its representatives, and the Ecclesiastical Authorities both at home and abroad. This must be the case, to argue upon no higher grounds, while those relations are governed by Ecclesiastical laws and canons made without reference to Missionary operations, for an Established Church in a Christian country; and where so much is also necessarily left to the discretion of both parties. If we look to our Home operations, the Committee places confidence in the Bishop of London, that he will continue to ordain the Missionary Candidates introduced to his Lordship by the Society, according to the provisions of the Act: and the Lord Bishop of London relies upon the Committee’s using every means to select, train, and duly qualify proper candidates to be thus introduced to him.

So also, in its Foreign operations, the Society places confidence in the Colonial Bishops—as it has been already shown, in a quotation from the Letter of Bishop Wilson—that they will not exercise an unreasonable or arbitrary discretion, in withholding or withdrawing licences from our Missionaries, or in refusing ordination to our Candidates. And the Bishops, by granting licences and ordination to the Missionaries of a voluntary Society, whose income is liable to fluctuations, and whose agents are constantly changing, manifestly place confidence in the Committees, that they will use every endeavour to keep up the Missions once established; and that they will not, on their part, act in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner, or withdraw the salary from a licensed Missionary, without reason sufficient to prove to the licensing Bishop the necessity of the proceeding.

It seems impossible to supersede this conventional understanding—as it may be termed—till Missions are supported by endowments, or till a code of Missionary canons be established by competent authority.

This mutual confidence and good understanding now exists, it may be thankfully asserted, between the Committee of the Society and the Ecclesiastical Authorities of every Colonial Diocese in which Missionaries are labouring. And may He, who is the God, not of confusion, but of peace, and “the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls,” unite together the hearts and hands of those who are labouring in this Holy Cause—“that all and every of these may, IN THEIR SEVERAL CALLINGS, serve truly and painfully, to the glory of His name!”

NAMES OF MISSIONARIES AND OTHER LABOURERS, AT THE SEVERAL STATIONS OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY: MAY 1846.

* By MISSIONARY, is to be understood one in Holy Orders; and by CATECHIST, one who engages in such religious care and instruction of the people as may be consistent with his character as a Layman. The letter (m) means Married; (w) Widow.—Wives of Missionaries, &c., though not named, except when engaged in some specific employment, are always expected by the Society to lay themselves out to do good, in every practicable way, among Native Females; such as, cultivating familiar intercourse with them, educating children, and instructing Female Adults.

A STATION is the place at which a Missionary or European Catechist is stationed, or at which Native Christians are located under Native pastoral superintendence in connexion with the Society.

Suggested Order of Proceedings at a Meeting preparatory to the Formation of an Association in aid of the Church Missionary Society.

1.—Mr. will move, and Mr. will second, a Resolution, “That be requested to take the Chair.”

2.—The Chairman will briefly state the object for which the Meeting is assembled, and then call on the Rev. to offer up the usual Prayer to Almighty God, for a blessing on the proceedings of the day.

3.—After prayer, the Chairman will make such further observations as he may deem necessary, and then call on Mr. to move the First Resolution.

FIRST RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That this Meeting fully recognises the duty incumbent on Christians to employ all suitable means for the propagation of the Gospel throughout the world; and hails, with thankfulness to the Great Head of the Church, the labours of the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY in its various Stations in Heathen Lands, and among decayed Christian Churches.

SECOND RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That an Association be now formed, and entitled, “The Church Missionary Association;” and that the following be its Officers and Rules.

PRESIDENT.

VICE-PRESIDENTS.

TREASURER.

RULES.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward; or if Clergymen, Half a Guinea; and also such persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward; or if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas; and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at its General Meetings. Collectors of One Shilling and upward per week will receive a copy of each Monthly Number of the “Church Missionary Record”; of Sixpence a-week and upward, of each Monthly Number of the “Church Missionary Gleaner”; and Juvenile Collectors of One Shilling a-month, a copy of each Monthly Number of the “Church Missionary Juvenile Instructor.” Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society. Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors. Contributors of 1d. a week and upward will be entitled to receive the Parent Society’s “Quarterly Paper.”

VI. The objects of this Association shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society—to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VII. The whole of the funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society, in aid of its designs.

VIII. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day as shall be fixed by the Committee; when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be read, and an account of its receipts and disbursements presented, duly audited.

THIRD RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That the success which, under the Divine Blessing, has attended the Church Missionary Society, in its efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ among the Heathen, is a loud and providential call for increased exertions, for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and for continual prayer for a more abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit, to render the means employed successful.

FOURTH RESOLUTION.—Moved by

Seconded by

That the new and enlarged openings for Missionary exertion, in different quarters, demand our best energies to make known the blessed Gospel of Christ to Heathen and Mahomedan Nations.

PREACHED AT ST. BRIDE'S CHURCH,
FLEET STREET,

ON MONDAY EVENING, MAY 4, 1846,

BEFORE THE Church Missionary Society,

LORD BISHOP OF CALCUTTA, AND METROPOLITAN OF INDIA.

AND THEY OVERCAME HIM BY THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB.

TO awaken the compassion of Christians for the Heathen world ; to arouse their minds to the power of the great spiritual adversary ; to point out the only means of vanquishing this mighty foe ; to prove that the conversion of the Nations sitting in darkness is a work in which we may engage on a much larger scale than has hitherto been attempted, and with the surest hope of success ; to call on you to rescue India, more especially, from the iron grasp of Satan ; to summon England, with a herald's voice, to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty—this is, as I conceive, the duty devolving on me on this occasion ; when, after an interval of twenty-nine years, I am called on to plead again at this Anniversary the cause of your great Society. In attempting this, the words I have read, when unfolded by the context, will be thought, as I trust, not inappropriate.

The passage opens to us one of those sublime scenes with which this most wonderful of the Books of Scripture abounds.

And there was war in heaven : Michael and his angels fought against the Dragon ; and the Dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not ; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great Dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world : he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in *heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the Kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ : for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony ; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

Such is the magnificent passage of which the victory recorded in the words of the text is the centre-point.

The subject I propose to consider from it is, The encouragement to increased Missionary effort to be derived from the assurance of final victory.

In developing this subject, let me direct your attention—depending on the grace of the Holy Ghost, the great Comforter, who alone can bless the word of His feeble servant—

- I. TO THE MIGHTY FOE—Satan with his hosts.
- II. THE MEANS OF RESISTING HIM—The Blood of the Lamb, testified of unto Death.
- III. THE ISSUE OF THE CONFLICT — a glorious victory, to be followed by a hymn of grateful praise.

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the Churches.

I. We begin by calling your attention to THE FOE WITH WHOM WE HAVE TO STRUGGLE.

We shall never be aroused to magnanimous efforts till we have a clear apprehension of the invisible Enemy who fomented all the opposition against Christ and His gospel.

I advert not, at present, to the prophetic aspect of the whole passage, in the overthrow of Satan at the time of the Emperor Constantine. I consider now his power in all times, as set forth in this and other Scriptures.

Let me then point out, The description of Satan and his instruments; the nature of his opposition; the place where he carries it on; and his particular delusions in India.

* Ver. 7—11.

1. In the general description, mark, first, his deadly hatred to God and goodness, implied in the names Satan, the Enemy, the Adversary, the Wicked One. Next, his rage and fury, as the great Red Dragon, the Apollyon or Destroyer, the roaring Lion, the Murderer from the beginning. Further, his craft and subtilty, as the Old Serpent, in allusion to the form under which he seduced our first parents; the Tempter; the Father of lies; he who assembles with the Sons of God, and can appear as an Angel of light. Next, the extent of his dominion, the whole world lying in wickedness, or, in the wicked one. He is the Prince of the power of the air, as if the very air we breathe were filled with his hosts; the Ruler of the darkness of this world, and its God. Once more notice his activity and success, for he deceiveth the whole world; he worketh in the children of disobedience; when men sleep, he cometh and soweth his tares; and he is called the accuser of the brethren, which accuseth them before our God day and night, in reference to such charges as he advanced against Job, and Joshua the High Priest.* Lastly, his innumerable agents and instruments, comprehending not only the fallen spirits themselves, but all whom our Lord includes when He said to the Pharisees, Ye are of your Father the Devil, and the lusts of your Father ye will do. Such are Idolatrous Priests, Princes, and Potentates; persecuting Senates and Magistrates; Heathen and irreligious Poets and Historians; vain Philosophers; Heresiarchs and Semi-infidels; false and unsound Teachers; superstitious Worshippers; with all that is in the world, whether without or within the Visible Church, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eye, and the pride of life.

Such is the Scriptural account of the spiritual enemy. We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against princi- palities, against powers, against the Rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

* There may also be a propheticall allusion to the atrocious calumnies against the first Christians, which drew forth the Apologies of Justin Martyr, Tertullian, Lactantius, Minucius Felix, Arnobius, and St. Augustine, in his celebrated work, De civitate Dei.

2. And what is the general method of Satan's opposition to Christ, and the salvation of men?

His grand vantage-ground is the tendency in human corruption to listen to all his suggestions. He thus works his way unperceived into our hearts. There are his headquarters: he seizes upon the senses as avenues to evil; he inflates the intellectual powers; he sways the will; he inflames the appetites and passions. Thus Satan has human corruption, as an ally and traitor in the Citadel, and easily carries the fortress. Then he throws up barriers against truth and light; and entrenches himself in the powers of Government, evil customs, social usages, the ignorance, passions, and prejudices of mankind.

The opposition which Satan carries on is represented in the passage before us as a warfare, in which he fights against Christ, with all his hosts, diabolical and human; while Michael and his angels, the ministering Spirits sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation, afford the faithful their aid.

Men, responsible men, are, however, the real combatants. It is their eternal salvation which the blessed Angels are sent to promote; and which, by God's holy permission, Devils are ever labouring to hinder.

Neither Angels nor Devils are omnipresent or omniscient, much less omnipotent. They can force men neither to good nor evil. Satan himself cannot pass the boundaries within which God, in His mysterious wisdom, permits him to range.

3. The place where Satan carries on this opposition is set forth in this symbolical passage as his heaven, from the popular notion of heaven as a place of eminence, of ease, safety, and enjoyment. It imports, here, the visible Kingdom of Satan in its full pride and power; from which, when he is dispossessed, he is said to be cast down unto the earth.

The allusion is to the first fall of angels, when these rebellious spirits were literally overthrown by Michael and his angels, and cast out from heaven, the immediate place of the manifestation of the Divine glory.

So our Lord, when the Seventy returned with joy from preaching the gospel and ejecting Devils, said, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. So, as to the fall of the King of Babylon, the prophet exclaims, How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, Son of the morning! And the expression, high places, in a passage already cited, is, in the marginal reading, heavenly places.

Satan's heaven, then, is his visible Kingdom among men when in power and prosperity.

It is of the last importance, in arousing Christians to new Missionary efforts, that they should look through the visible scene of things, and realize the angelic world, and especially the existence and agency of the Infernal hosts. Otherwise, they will soon faint in their minds. Nothing tends to stimulate them like a full knowledge of the state of the Heathen World as under the malignant power of Satan.

But who feels this as he ought? We merely look on the surface of things. "Whilst we speak literally of the Divine Head and Captain of the one army," observes to me in a letter an eminent American Prelate†, "we feel too much as if we were dealing in figure merely, when speaking of the mighty archangel at the head of the other kingdom and army."

"What a history of Theology," he adds, "would be the history of Satan."

4. But I shall be naturally asked, What are the particular delusions of this dire foe in the East?

† Bishop M'Ilvaine.

In India Satan is indeed in his heaven. There he has reigned, almost from the Deluge, undisturbed till lately. St. Paul's description of the Idolatry of the Pagan world, before the Dragon was first cast out by the first establishment of Christianity in the Roman Empire, is precisely applicable to Heathenism as it now prevails in the East. Let me touch on a very few points.

(1) Reflect, first, on their Religion. As respects the object of Worship, they acknowledge, in words, a Supreme Being, whom it is forbidden to pray to or honour, and for whom they substitute three Demons or inferior Deities, not possessing originally any divine attributes, but receiving and exercising them for a time. Of these three, Brahma is the Creator, Vishnu the Preserver, and Siva the Destroyer. From these, millions of still inferior Divinities have emanated. But Siva, the Destroyer, that is, Apollyon, or the Devil himself, is the chief object of religious service and worship. So true is it that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to Devils, and not to God.

(2) The cruel and lascivious rites connected with their worship can only be alluded to in the words of the Apostle, It is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret. They breathe the very soul of the unclean and murderous Spirit.

Many of the more open of these practices have been abolished by our humane and righteous British Government. But what must be the state of Society and the character of a Religion, which authorised and commanded human Sacrifices, Infanticide, Suttees, the immolations to Juggernaut, Thuggism, and the murders lately discovered in the Khoond Territory?

I trust the abominations of the Coolin Brahmins, and the unnatural and incredible murders of aged Parents at the Ghauts, will soon attract the benevolent notice of the Indian authorities.

(3) Then the Philosophic Sects are no better than the mass of the people. They consider the Supreme Being as the Anima Mundi, the soul of creation, a pantheistic diffusion throughout the world; meditation on whom, so as to lose all consciousness of pleasure or pain, or even of virtuous affection, leads to annihilation of present existence and absorption into the Supreme Being Himself—the merest Atheism and fanaticism this; and which they confess is never attained to. Their doctrine of Maia, or Illusion pervading every thing, and destroying the morality of human action, together with their denial of objective truth, confirms these delusions.

(4) These false Philosophers, it is true, condemn, in words, the worship of Idols. Yet they countenance and practice the grossest Idolatry, even of stocks and stones, with all their abominations, and defend them very much in the way the Roman Catholics excuse their Image-worship. They teach also the common people the inexplicable doctrine of the transmigration of souls, which annihilates a future state, and seems to have arisen, like Purgatory, from some notion of their unfitness for spiritual enjoyments. And the whole system of sacrifices and ceremonies which they uphold, is without the least regard to the state of mind of the Worshipper. The moral improvement of man is not the object of paganism. Surely all this is the handy-work of the Father of lies.

(5) And what is the effect on domestic happiness? Look at Polygamy, the curse of Eastern nations—family purity unknown—one half of the human race, the female, considered to have an inferior kind of soul, and to be undeserving of education: their minds therefore are the strongholds of superstition, and they themselves are the slaves of their husbands: betrothments, also, are contracted in extreme youth, and even infancy; and the widow, though she may never have lived with her husband, is doomed to perpetual exclusion from society, and practically left to the most degrading prostitution.

(6) Once more, vice and immorality of every kind are the direct fruit of their religion, and recommended by the example of their gods. The most detestable vices, through the just judgment of God, spring from Idolatry, as their genuine source. Their notion of heaven, next to the fable of absorption in the Supreme, of which none of them think practically, is that of a place where sensual gratifications, ever renewed and never cloying, will be granted them for a certain period, after which they must be born again into this world.

(7) For a holy heaven, therefore, they have no preparation. Holiness is unknown. Their holy man is a pitiable impostor, smeared over with cow-dung and dirt, squatting on the public roads in disgusting nudity, with his filthy matted hair, and often subjecting himself for years to self-invented torments, not for the sake of obtaining the pardon of sins, but to gain some temporal boon from his God, and excite the wonder and alms of the deluded people. Hundreds of these impostors (for they are monsters of iniquity) I have seen at the junction of the Ganges and the Jumna, exacting offerings as alms at the great festival of Allahabad.

(8) Turn your eyes once more to the poverty and misery of the mass of the population in India. Whence do they arise? From their system of religious Castes, which condemns nine-tenths of the population to hopeless degradation; from the inveterate habit, enforced by the Brahmins, of wasting all the little they can save or borrow on pilgrimages and expensive ceremonies at marriages, interments, and the recurrence of annual festivals; from the licentiousness and profligacy openly encouraged; from their filthy conversation; from the deceit and fraud which their sacred books enjoin; and from the entire system of minute observances fettering every act of private and public life, without requiring or tending to any one moral duty.

(9) Again, see the bonds of national Government and civil Society almost dissolved; war and assassination the path to power; one usurper after another, wading through seas of blood, and with the murder of his competitors and those of his family who excite his fears, to a guilty and short-lived pre-eminence; security of person and property unknown; dread of each other setting every class of the population against the rest; laws, such as they are, impotent; treachery and fraud practised in open day. Such

Heathen India is before you !

And yet there are some faint remains, amidst all this darkness, of conscience, of moral sense, of social virtues, of family affection, of love to wives and children, of compassion, of sorrow at the loss of relatives. There are some traces also of Original Revelation in their Sacrifices, the fabled Incarnations of Vishnu, the Hindoo Triad or Trinity, their notions of Second birth, of Maia, and of absorption into the Deity—but all confused, extravagant, mixed with fables, inoperative to good, perverted to the worst purposes. Nothing to guide and recover lost man. The Hindoo is vile in proportion as he is zealous in his religion.

Nor are Mahomedans, who are about a sixth of the population, in any considerable degree superior to the Hindoos. The profligacy of their prophet's character, the allowance of polygamy to the extent of four wives, their sensual paradise, their superstitious reverence for their deceased heroes and saints, their dependence on relics and pilgrimages, their bitter hatred of Christians, the cruel force by which they would make converts, and their commixture with Hindoos in their Idolatrous festivals—leave them very much in the same moral debasement as the Hindoo, with far stronger prejudices against the gospel.

Such is Satan's heaven. There he reigns, the Deceiver and Murderer of his subjects.

And the instant any attempt is made to teach the Hindoo or the Mahomedan the merciful and blessed God who made him, the Saviour who redeemed him, the Holy Spirit who is to sanctify him, Satan takes alarm, and blinds by every art the minds of them that believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

years' residence in Benares, where emphatically Satan's seat is, "it is an arduous struggle. It is the conflict, not of brute force, but of mind with mind, of spirituality with carnality, of the heavenly with the earthly and devilish principle. Indeed, in this conflict heaven and hell, Christ and Satan, with their respective agents and subjects, come into close contact."

II. But this leads us on to the second main topic before us, THE MEANS OF RESISTING THIS GREAT ADVERSARY.

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

This is the key to the figurative language of the whole passage. For if the faithful overcome by the blood of the Lamb, then the warfare is a spiritual one—about man's Justification and Salvation by the sacrifice of Christ. And if the faithful sustain the word of their testimony to that one capital truth unto death, then the contest is about the unflinching confession and dissemination of His gospel, even unto martyrdom, throughout the world.

Our first Head was not in itself encouraging; but it was indispensable. It opened the nature of the warfare, in order that the real difficulties of it might be understood, and the true means of waging it be sought for and employed. Now we come to these means, and all is full of direct encouragement.

1. The faithful overcame by the blood of the Lamb; and in what manner did they do this? By trusting to it for their own salvation; By proclaiming it to others, as men touched with the love of Him who shed it; By seeing all the purposes of Almighty God centre in it.

(1) The faithful went forth to the warfare, trusting for their own souls' salvation to the blood of the Lamb. What this expression imports we learn early in this Book. St. John beheld a Lamb as it had been slain, standing in the midst of the throne, and he heard the assembled multitude crying with joyful and grateful voice, Thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by Thy blood ; and he joined himself with the whole Church in the ascription of glory and dominion to Him that had loved them and washed them from their sins in His own blood.

We learn also, throughout the Scriptures, from the blood of Abel's offering to the sprinkled lintels and side-posts of the paschal sacrifice ; and onwards through the multiplied types of the blood of bulls and of goats, especially the sacrifices of the great and solemn day of atonement ; and then forwards still, through the prophets, that the one transcendant truth of Revelation is THE BLOOD OF CHRIST, as set forth to us more fully in the New Testament, as the satisfaction made to Almighty God, the propitiation for the sins of the whole world.

On this blood the faithful reposed for their own salvation. With penitent hearts they confessed their sins, as the High Priest on the day of Atonement, and laid their hands, as it were, on the head of this Sacrifice, and transferred to it by faith all their iniquities.

(2) God in Christ having thus reconciled them to Himself, committed to them the Ministry of Reconciliation. They went forth and preached the joyful tidings with hearts constrained by the love of Him who was the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. It was no cold, speculative doctrine which they propagated ; but the warm, vital truth of a crucified Saviour.

This one grand and astonishing truth they opposed to all Satan's art and malice, to all his false religions, to all the inveterate customs he had fomented, to all the pride and sophistry of the Disputers of this world. They went forth, so to speak, as David of old, with their sling and their stone against the Goliath of Heathen Idolatry.

(3) And they relied upon God for success. They believed that the grand purpose of the Father of all in His eternal councils was to glorify His Son Jesus. The last words of their risen Lord resounded in their ears, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature ; Go and teach all nations ; and Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.

2. And this doctrine they sustained by the Word of their testimony. They delivered their message with all tenderness; but with all the solemnity of a witness upon oath. It is not mere controversy in which our Missionaries now, or the faithful then, engaged: their weapon is the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. Some few, in every age, are called on to contend earnestly for the faith, as Augustine, Luther, Cranmer, Jewel, Hooker, and others; but the vast body of the Ministers of Christ have simply to deliver the word of their Testimony as it lies in Holy Scripture, and there leave the question, appealing to the omniscient Judge and the day of final retribution. Controversy irritates; controversy confines our view to one or two topics. The word of testimony to the whole of the Gospel touches the conscience. For this is direct, plain, and intelligible instruction, far different from the doubtful, hesitating language now so fashionable; and yet further removed from the dishonourable notion that the Word of God, in any of its grand truths, is obscure, ambiguous, capable of various meanings, and to be submitted, therefore, to the opinions, contradictory as they are, of Fathers and of the Church. A bold testimony is the only thing that God commands, and follows with His blessing. This goes straight to the heart.

Could Satan silence this testimony he would gain his end. An abstract doubtful doctrine would not disturb him. It is the bold, plain, unwavering witness to the blood of the Lamb, and the call to repentance and remission of sins on the footing of it, which excites all his malice.

3. The faithful in the text were accordingly prepared for this. They loved not their lives unto the death. They took all the consequences of their testimony. They loved their lives, indeed, naturally, even as others: the principle of self-preservation was strong within them. But when called on to choose between suffering and treachery to the truth, they hated their very lives, made no account of them, and rejoiced to shed their blood in a way of testimony for Him, who poured out His heart's blood in a way of meritorious redemption for them.

The Devil accused them, as he did Job, of insincere and selfish motives: he pretended that they might bear up under imprisonment or banishment, but would yield to the terror of death. And had they loved their lives more than Christ, they might have saved them temporally by denying their Lord; but then they would have lost their own souls, and Satan would have triumphed: but by choosing to die rather than waver in their testimony, they defeated all his malice, and gained eternal life.

This is the secret of Missionary labour. We gave the description of the mighty foe only to arouse a dormant Church; and we have now found the divine and supernatural weapons before which he quails.

Here then I must pause to impress on you the immense importance of this testimony. If the blood of the Lamb be unknown or concealed, Satan can manage every thing else for his own ends.

In Paganism he had no difficulty. No testimony is borne to the blood of a Saviour, whose name is never heard.

In Mahomedanism, Satan lost ground at first by the destruction of Idols and Idolaters. Still, he soon made good his footing when the blood of cruel heroes and conquerors was substituted for that of Christ; and His Godhead and Atonement were denied.

Christianity, however, so long as it was substantially pure, was an overmatch for all his arts. He attempted to corrupt it, therefore, by two methods; first, by open heresies in fundamental truths; especially the Arian and Pelagian. But he failed. Athanasius and Augustine, by their unwavering testimony, crushed the serpent brood. Then he changed his plan, and Popery appeared. Here he gained indirectly all his objects. Much fundamental truth remained, the three primitive Creeds were professed, and many holy souls have obtained, and do obtain, salvation in it: but it was enough that the Bible was closed; the word of testimony, as much as possible, silenced; the faithful dragged to the stake; and Transubstantiation, the Worship of the Virgin and Saints, Purgatory, and Justification by works, practically substituted for the blood of the Lamb. What could he ask for more?

After ten centuries of darkness, however, the glorious Reformation burst forth, and Satan fell, in a third of Europe, as lightning from his heaven. Justification by faith in the blood of the Lamb was testified of by Luther, Cranmer, and the noble army of Reformers, who loved not their lives unto the death.

During the three centuries since, the great Deceiver has been again working his way as well as he could, in the Protestant Churches, by secret infidelity and erroneous doctrine; by metaphysical, fine-spun controversies; by bitter enmities and divisions; by a politico-religious spirit; by worldliness and spiritual death.

At last he has contrived in our own days, to the astonishment and indignation of every Protestant heart, to diffuse an ill-concealed Popery amongst us, which would perfectly answer, if it prevailed, all his diabolical purposes.

I trust, however, that the word of testimony by the Fathers of our Church, by our Ecclesiastical Courts, by our Universities, especially the University of Oxford, and by the Body of our Clergy and Laity, will effectually reject from us as a Church the glaring imposition. If not, our candlestick will be removed out of its place. The safety of the best constituted Church is not its admirable formularies, not its secular supports, not its riches nor numbers, not its power; but the blood of the Lamb, boldly testified of by its Bishops and Clergy in their living doctrine. But I never can believe that our noble Church, one of the original independent Churches of the West, founded in the age of the Apostles or in that which immediately followed it, and which owes neither her religion, nor her orders, nor her Liturgy to Rome, will apostatize from her evangelical Confession. I never can believe that, after throwing off, at the blessed Reformation, the superstitions imposed on her in the dark ages, and vindicating the gospel by the regular and canonical authority of her Bishops in Convocation, sanctioned by her native Princes, she will ever submit again to the unscriptural, foreign yoke of the Bishop of Rome.

No; Popery can never take root again in our free and enlightened country while we have the Bible in our hands. Nor can any sophistry persuade us that our Thirty-nine Articles are capable of being reconciled with the very Romish errors and corruptions which they were designed to condemn.

I speak thus on the supposition that the blood of the Lamb will be sustained still more boldly by the word of our testimony as a Church; and that we shall love not our lives unto the death.

And I would venture most solemnly to exhort all my Brethren in the Ministry of our Apostolical Church, and especially the younger, whilst they adhere firmly to the real principles of our Episcopal Protestant Polity and Order in all their extent, as settled by our first Reformers; and whilst they most watchfully shun those uncharitable judgments, which Satan, the accuser of the brethren, foment—still to avoid every thing which savours, in doctrine or usage, of the Apostate Church of Rome. Above all I would adjure, as before Almighty God, the Children of the faithful of the last age, who have the names and reputation of their Parents to sustain, to adhere to the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony even unto death; and not to fritter away that doctrine by a timid, half-hearted, sickly testimony, which leans to the late Movement, from fear of the world and dread of being reproached as members of a party.

The Church Missionary Society has maintained an unwavering testimony for nearly half a century. And when I recal the names of its Founders, now with God, whom I listened to and followed as my guides in youth, and walked with in the middle period of life, and now venerate in my age—when I remember the beloved names of Scott, Simeon, Cecil, Buchanan, Venn, Robinson, Ryder, Corrie, and of him who was last removed from us but not least beloved, Josiah Pratt, with others of my Clerical Brethren—and when I call to mind further amongst the Nobility, Senators and Gentry of our land, the honoured names of Gambier, Teignmouth, Wilberforce, Babington, Thornton, Grant, Macaulay, and others—I feel persuaded, that, so long as the Society continues to follow them as they followed Christ, and to choose and employ none but men of their spirit, ready to bear their testimony even unto death to the blood of the Lamb, the divine benediction will continue to rest upon it and its Missionaries, and lead them on towards final VICTORY.

III. And this brings us to the third and last topic of our discourse—THE ISSUE OF THE CONFLICT.

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb; which is thus expanded in the context: And the Dragon and his angels prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great Dragon was cast into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come Salvation, and strength, and the Kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ; for the accuser of our brethren is cast down.

If the description of the terrible adversary was necessary to our due estimate of our warfare, and of the weapons prepared for us; and thus yielded strong encouragement; much more shall we be animated by the victory here assured, and the song of triumph poured out by the joyful conquerors. For we have a full right to infer, from one scene of success, the like issue in similar conflicts with the self-same foes, and in the use of the very same weapons.

The Apocalypse abounds with like songs of triumph, from the prophecies of the first Establishment of Christianity, through the whole period of the dark ages, to the glorious Reformation; and so onward, to the time when Satan shall be cast into the bottomless pit, and the Kingdoms of the world become the Kingdoms of our God and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever.

This wonderful Book, indeed, seems designed for two purposes ; to lay up materials for increasing Evidence to the truth of Christianity, as the events of providence unfold the roll of prophecy ; and also to console the faithful in the gloomiest periods with the assurance that all is advancing, according to the settled purpose of God, to final victory. Indeed, I have selected the passage before us on purpose to enter my most solemn protest against the subtle but weak attempts of the Movement School and others to turn away the word of vituperative prophecy from the Apostate Seven-hilled City ; and to reject at all hazards the broad Protestant Interpretation of the whole body of our great Divines for three centuries. Certainly Satan could wish for no better support than such as this.

Let us then, without the slightest hesitation, advert to the fulfilment of this prophecy as regards its immediate import ; then, to the like victories achieved and the similar songs chaunted since ; and lastly, to the full accomplishment of all the prophecies of this and the correspondent parts of Scripture, which will finally take place.

1. The special event foretold is the overthrow of Satan in the Roman Empire, and his detrusion from his heaven, at the time of the Emperor Constantine. In this Interpretation we concur with the primitive Christians.

Bishop Newton remarks that the Christian Church in the fourth century thus applied the Prophecy. The Emperor also, in his letter to Eusebius and other Bishops about re-edifying the Churches, uses these words—"Liberty being now obtained, and the Dragon being removed from the administration of affairs by the Providence of the great God and by my ministry, I esteem the great power of God to have been manifest to all." "Moreover," adds the Bishop, "a picture of Constantine was set up over the Palace-Gate, with the cross over his head, and under his feet the great enemy of mankind in the form of a Dragon, transfixcd with a dart through the midst of his body, and falling headlong into the depths of the sea."

2. But there are other victories gained by the blood of the Lamb, and celebrated in the subsequent Chapters of this book by songs precisely like that of the text. These carry us on through the glorious testimonies of Claudius of Turin, of the Waldenses and Albigenses, the Paulicians, Wickliffe, John Huss, and Jérôme of Prague, to the period of the Reformation, when the Angel flew in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation and kindred and tongue and people.

Nor have the victories ceased since : the revived testimony to the blood of the Lamb in the Protestant Churches, from time to time ; and substantially amongst the Jansenists and others, within the pale, but not in the spirit, of the Church of Rome ; together with our Mission triumphs of late years—all fall under the same description.

I trust, also, we shall have to add, if we may not now add, to these triumphs the overthrow of the Popish errors and superstitions which have invaded of late the American Episcopal Church and our own.

3. But I hasten to the awakening encouragement to new Mission efforts to be derived from the final detrusion from heaven of the Dragon and his hosts, and the full burst of praise of which the Song in the passage before us is a specimen and pledge.

Hymns of triumph preceded Messiah's advent, in the prospect of His victories. Sing, O ye heavens, saith the evangelical Prophet, for the Lord hath done it : shout, ye lower parts of the earth : break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein : for the Lord hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified Himself in Israel.

But the words of the Hymn before us illustrate in every expression the grand doctrine of the blood of the Lamb.

You will observe that in this Song of triumph, as well as in the description of the weapons employed by the faithful, not a word is said of the blessed Angels or their help ; because their part was wholly subordinate : man, as I have stated, was the real combatant, and therefore the entire glory is given to the blood of the Lamb, and His salvation, and strength, which enabled them, corrupt and weak in themselves, to love not their lives unto the death.

Now is come salvation, and strength—Salvation, as purchased by the sacrifice of the Cross, and at length fully manifested and accomplished; Strength exerted in striking through kings in the day of Christ's wrath, and in fortifying His servants, by His Holy Spirit, to sustain their testimony even unto death.

The Kingdom of our God, that kingdom of light and grace which is opposed to Satan's reign of darkness, of sin, of Idolatry, of superstition; that Kingdom of heaven of which Daniel prophesied, and for which we daily pray in the words taught us by our Lord, Thy Kingdom come.

The power of His Christ; of the Messiah, of the incarnate Son of God, the anointed one, whose is the royal prerogative, as Mediator and Heir of all things, to take to Himself at length His great power and bruise the Serpent's head; and silence for ever the Accuser of our brethren, and cast him down with his Angels from heaven, that he may deceive the nations no more. And this will He do in His good time.

Then will the Lord Christ, who had long left His Church in a low and militant state, appear gloriously in garments dipped in blood; then will the loud voice be heard in heaven; then will the hymn of triumph, never to cease, be chaunted in its highest strains; then shall all the faithful who have overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony, and not loved their lives unto the death, join in melodious voices, as the voice of many waters, and the voice of a great thunder, and the voice of harpers harping with their harps; and all the strength and power and salvation given to His Saints be accomplished and manifested before assembled worlds.

Such, honoured and beloved Brethren, is the encouragement held out to us for arousing ourselves to new exertions, arising from a consideration of the mighty invisible hosts we have to encounter—of the divine and supernatural weapons afforded us—and of the assured and most triumphant issue of the long and arduous conflict.

But here the preacher's heart sinks within him. His voice is regarded as the language of over-zeal. The miseries of a world lying in the wicked one are not realized. We do not feel as we ought the inestimable value of the blood of the Lamb. The word of testimony to it is not considered our indispensable duty. The not loving our lives unto the death is admitted as an obligation generally, but does not act powerfully and individually upon the conscience.

Let me call your attention most solemnly, then, to the scene for Missionary labour with which I am best acquainted, as it stretches before me. God works by means. Perhaps some impression may be made.

If ever there was a field white for the harvest, it is British India; and if ever there was a moment, a critical moment, for new and unwonted efforts in gathering in the precious produce, it is the present.

1. Every thing that the blessed Fathers of this Society at home, and the devoted Ministers and Missionaries who began the work in India—Swartz, Gerické, Brown, Martyn, Thomason—have hoped for, in the way of facilities for the enterprise, is now afforded us.

2. Consider the extent of the regions placed under our rule—2000 miles of latitude, from Singapore to the Himalayahs, and almost as many of longitude, from the Burampooter to the Indus.

I am the farthest possible from undervaluing any of the scenes of your labours. But when new and enlarged exertions are to be made, I ask what is the relative number of the population around your other Missions compared with that of India; about one million and a half to one hundred and thirty millions; but suppose it to be two or three millions, India surpasses it more than forty times.

3. And these one hundred and thirty millions of Hindoostan, besides being, like others, our fellow creatures and our fellow sinners, for whom the blood of the Lamb was shed as much as for ourselves, are also our fellow-subjects.

4. The population of India is, also, not generally in a state of savage fierceness dangerous to the Missionary; but is a mild, intelligent, in some parts a reading, and in all, to a certain degree, a civilized and approachable people—knowing little, and caring little, for the theory of their own religion, and passive, rather than hostile, to the instructions we give them of our own.

5. The British Laws and British Government afford entire safety to the peaceful Missionary in his holy labours. The security of person and property enjoyed under the Ægis of our power, with the righteousness and benevolence of our rule, and our fidelity to our treaties and engagements, have placed our reputation on the highest pinnacle; and are acknowledged to stand in contrast with the tyranny and misery of the 3000 years of the Hindoo, and the 600, yet more disastrous, of the Mahomedan Domination.

6. Education, however imperfect in the Government Schools, has been making its rapid way for the last thirty or forty years, and has tended to dig up the foundations of Hindooism. Our Missionary Schools have been also at work, and laid Christianity as the basis of Instruction. The Native mind is awakening to curiosity as to British character, learning, and religion. An outburst of inquiry is beginning. India is in a state of transition from a prostrate, timid, slavish apathy, to thought, activity, enterprise.

7. Two measures of the present noble Governor-General have augmented those facilities of Mission Work, which Lord W. C. Bentinck so wisely began fifteen years since. Public employments are to be conferred on Natives with reference to their education and moral character; and a preference given to those who have distinguished themselves in Institutions supported as well by the Government as by private individuals and Societies. This is one measure. The second is, That no person is to incur loss of property, or civil privileges, upon embracing Christianity. Both are big with immense results.

8. The rapidity of the transit between England and India is a point of great importance, of greater than can be well imagined. Dr. Buchanan dwelt much on the extreme difficulty on this point in his time ; and proposed that ships should be chartered by our Society for the express purpose of facilitating conveyance. Steam communication does this. It is probably next in its consequences to the invention of printing. The most distant countries are now united by the very seas and oceans which formerly separated them.

9. India, moreover, like Palestine at the promulgation of Christianity, and like Rome at the fall of the Western Empire, is the centre for Eastern Missions. China on the one side, and Caubul, Persia, and Arabia, on the other, already look to her with admiration as the bright spot of military glory and commercial power.

10. A time of profound peace, like that at our Lord's birth in the Roman Empire under the Emperor Augustus, seems now come, and to promise a long and permanent tranquillity for the Christian Teacher.

11. The signal blessings of Almighty God in the late glorious and almost unexampled victories on the Sutlej, and in the moderation, wisdom, and christian piety which followed them, have re-echoed from one end of Hindoostan to the other, and penetrated the Natives with a deep feeling of veneration and awe for the British name.

12. A marked and suitable THANK-OFFERING from Britain is what the God of her mercies demands—and with that a TRESPASS-OFFERING for our past neglect and torpor. Nor can we otherwise expect the continuance of the Divine favour.

13. Even the infidel, overshadowed in this Protestant Country by Christian influence, acknowledges the hand of the Almighty. He admits that it is not for miserable pelf, nor the gratification of a low ambition, that we have been put in possession of the greatest empire ever entrusted to a Western Sceptre. He avows that our dominion should be directed to the benefit of the vast native population. He tells you, and tells you truly, that the Portuguese, the Dutch, the French, failed in their highest duties; and that England is now put upon her trial in the eyes of the whole civilized world.

And shall we, who are Christians, not act, at such a moment as this, on the high and ennobling principles of a Religion founded on the inconceivable love of God our Heavenly Father, and the effusion of the most precious blood of the Lamb, and the very spirit of which is dissemination and diffusion?

And yet we are inert. The immense number of families enriched by India are asleep. The spiritual Church shrinks back. Selfishness lays its icy hand on the warm seat of life. The mother starts at the thought of parting with her beloved son. The kindred interpose between Christ and the testimony to His blood before the Nations. Our Universities and Colleges refuse the flower of their students.

Other scenes of duty are instantly supplied with candidates. The doors of those who have to dispose of civil or military stations, in the same country, with the same climate, and greater danger to health, are crowded with eager applicants. But when the blood of the Lamb, and the word of testimony, and the salvation of the Hindoo, are concerned, then the domestic affections begin for the first time to be disturbed, and difficulties and heartlessness obstruct the way.

Awake then, Christian Britain, to your high calling!

1. Say not you have Heathen enough at home. Heathen you have, God knoweth; but a Missionary Church is the only Church that can care for them. The reaction of a Missionary spirit will inconceivably accelerate your labours amongst your own people. When all is dead in the body of our Church, both England and India perish without regard; but when the life-blood beats vigorously at the heart, it flows to the most distant parts of the social frame. The love of Christ inspires the zeal and discovers the means for efforts both at home and abroad. All prospers, as the blood of the Lamb is deeply felt, and sanctifies the inward principles of action.

2. Say not the success is doubtful. Doubtful! you have already had success more than adequate to the scanty means employed. What! have you forgotten Krishnaghur, and Tinnevely, and Burdwan, and Agra, and Benares? There are now, taking in all your Missions throughout the world, above eighty thousand Native Christian Worshippers, and nearly ten thousand Communicants. The increase, during the last ten years, has been more than seven-fold; and if the succeeding ten years should be blessed at the same ratio, half a million of souls would be brought under Christian instruction in India alone; and at the end of a period equal to the length of the Society's past labours, the whole population of British Hindoostan would be the Lord's.*

The frame-work, moreover, is ready for expansion to any extent. The preparatory measures in our present Missions are nearly accomplished. We know our ground. The Scriptures are translated and printed by the noble and god-like labours of the British and Foreign Bible Society. The Mission about to be established in connexion with St. Paul's, Calcutta, will supply, as I humbly trust, a nucleus of learned and devout men for aiding all our existing Stations, and for giving a front and stability to the Church in India, and for laying the firm foundation of a Native Ministry.

A Bishopric at Agra will, I doubt not, be soon erected.

* Vide "The Present Position and Future Prospects of the Church Missionary Society. 1846."

The beautiful order and discipline of our Church is taking root in India; and exhibits all the features of the primitive ages, and in many respects more than at home. If we have not what is now called Apostolical Succession, which in the Movement sense is a mere fiction, we have Apostolical polity, Apostolical doctrine, and Apostolical order.

All is waiting for a new impetus to your Christian efforts.

To undertake the conversion of India is not merely the duty, but THE DUTY OF DUTIES of England at this crisis. Nor is it less practicable than it is imperative.

3. You ask what steps can be taken. Your Missions faint for want of helpers—sixteen were required, and could not be sent, last year: add to their number. Your admirable Institution at Islington is not adequately filled: pour in the needful Students. Some of your old Stations have been abandoned, as Meerut, from want of labourers: return to them with redoubled activity. New Missions are demanded in all parts: establish them. India stretches out her hands unto God, and to you as His faithful Servants: fly to her succour. Not one-tenth part of the exertion is made which the case requires. Go forward in the faith of the blood of the Lamb, and all will yield before you.

4. But you ask, Where are the funds? They must be supplied by new plans, new efforts, a new life-blood poured through the hearts of Christians. I observe that the Income of the Society, after rising to a certain amount, has remained nearly stationary during the last five or six years, and has this year slightly declined. At the same moment the Popish Propaganda multiplies its efforts—the 916*l.* of 1823, were 161,408*l.* at the last report. Superstition knows what she is about; and by holding out indulgences, and the intercession of St. Xavier, succeeds in her way.

Let our pure religion outstrip her. Some few give to the extent of their means already, as I know, and I honour them for it. But, generally, new measures of Charity, a new estimate of the ends of wealth, and a new system of economy for supplying its demands, are required. When the property of British Christians is considered, what are the Annual Funds of our Society? What are One Hundred Thousand Pounds to Thirty-five Millions—and these not including the immense mass of wealth in smaller amounts which the Income Tax does not touch?

It is to be remembered, also, that the very success of your Society cripples its exertions. Every Mission, as it prospers, demands larger and larger support — and you are committed to that increasing demand.

Let each one before me, at the least, take up the resolve to do something more energetic than ever.

5. But are men wanting? They are. Then awake, ye youth of our families, and schools, and universities, to the dignity and blessedness of the Mission-Call! Some have done so: let others catch the flame. Do you, the senior members of our Church, direct the attention of your children, and students, and youthful Christians, to the subject, when you discern in them fixed and solid piety, and competent talents for usefulness. The humility and modesty of the youthful mind waits for your advice and guidance.

I trust at this moment the nascent desire is springing up in many, many hearts. The opportunity is inviting, and may be short. God is at work. I firmly believe that, from the first promulgation of the gospel, a crisis of such importance as the present for the salvation of such an immense population as India, has not occurred. Occupy it, then. Not a moment is to be lost. Eternity presses on. Souls are perishing. If there be a Hundred and Thirty Millions in India, Four Millions die every year, and Eleven Thousand every day.

The period may come at any instant when The loud Voice will be heard in heaven. Several intimations are given in this and other of the sacred books, that the final Victory in the blood of the Lamb will be sudden and unexpected. Our Lord, as I have stated, declared in prescience of this, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven—as visibly, as rapidly, and in a manner as unlooked for at the moment. The Evangelist tells us, that As the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even to the west, so also shall the coming of the Son of man be.

Then will the Church fully understand the note of time in the word now. Now is come in present and actual triumph. And what transport of joy will the word excite! Now is come, after the promise of the bruising of the Serpent's head has been so long made; now, after all the types and prophecies of the Patriarchal and Mosaic dispensations have so long remained unaccomplished; now, after kings and prophets and wise men have so often desired to see the day, and have died without the sight; now, at the moment perhaps of thickest gloom and when every thing seemed desperate; now, amidst the shaking of the nations and the overthrow and confusion of temporal sovereignties; now, after Satan has reigned for nearly six thousand years, is come salvation, and strength, and the Kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ; and the final victory of the faithful by the blood of the Lamb.

Whenever this triumph shall be accomplished, the song of eternal praise will, as I have said, be raised in its highest strain; then will the marriage supper of the Lamb be prepared, and His bride make herself ready; then will all who have sustained their testimony even unto death, and come out of great tribulation, wash their robes, and make them white in the blood of the Lamb; then will they hunger no more, neither thirst any more; for the Lamb in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of water; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

But, O Thou Almighty Father, we are of ourselves without power; be pleased to stir up Thy strength, and come and help us!

Vouchsafe, O Eternal Paraclete, to breathe upon our dead, sluggish hearts, that they may live!

O Divine Redeemer and Lord of all, who, after shedding Thy most precious blood, art, as a lamb that was slain, pleading for a lost world, and waiting for all things to be put under Thy feet; look down in Thy pity upon us; bedew our very souls with Thy blood; let this blood raise us up Ministers, Missionaries, Confessors, Martyrs. Gird Thy sword upon Thy thigh, O Thou most mighty, and in Thy Majesty ride prosperously. Let Thy name endure for ever; let Thy name be continued as long as the Sun; let men be blessed in Thee, and all nations call Thee blessed. Yes; blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things; and blessed be Thy glorious name for ever; and let the whole earth be filled with Thy glory; Amen and Amen!

Brethren, I have done. I commend the sacred cause of Missions, and especially in India, to your prayers. I am re-embarking, if God permit, for the scene of my duties—baptized for the dead. Receive, I pray you, in love, this my last testimony to the blood of the Lamb.

I shall see you no more at our Anniversaries. But we shall be assembled before the Judgment-seat of Christ. Let each one of us see to it, that we meet then on safe ground. Satan's wide-spread empire is made up of multiplied individuals. Let us take care that Satan is cast out from the heaven of our hearts; and that we believe for ourselves, each of us, in the blood of the Lamb, and bear our bold testimony to it, each in our sphere, even unto the death.

Then may we humbly hope, that, being washed, covered, plunged, hidden in the blood of the Lamb, we shall pass, as one of our Commentators* sublimely speaks, "under that purple covering triumphantly to glory!"

REPORT,

INTRODUCTION.

DURING a period remarkable for extreme fluctuations in the opinions and feelings of men, the Committee have not been tempted to swerve from the principles which in past years have directed the proceedings of this Institution. Time and experience have served to enhance their value, and to convince the Committee that they have been the groundwork of the Society's prosperity at home, as well as of a blessing upon its labours abroad, from His presence "without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy."

Death of the Lay Secretary, Dandeson Coates, Esq.

Amid changes, also, of a more private and affecting interest, when the hand of death is removing those who once stood as "pillars" in this Society, the Committee find fresh motives for avowing their adherence to the original and distinctive basis upon which the Society was founded. In the last year's Report the death of the Rev. Josiah Pratt was announced; and this year has closed with the removal by death of one who was not only Mr. Pratt's successor in the office, but who also, trained under the eye of that venerable man and his coadjutors, firmly maintained the principles of his predecessors.

The Committee allude to the late Dandeson Coates, Esq., who for above twenty-seven years took part in the administration of this Society; first as Assistant Secretary, and afterward as full Secretary.

Mr. Coates's PUBLIC character is well known, as a man of no common powers in the management of affairs. But the Committee are bound to make honourable mention of the very efficient discharge of that part of Mr. Coates's duty of which they have had the chief evidence and benefit; and to record the self-sacrifice, zeal, and extraordinary ability, with which he conducted the business of the Committee, and the admirable way in which he brought the great principles of the Gospel of the grace of God to bear upon the discussion of all important questions.

As Mr. Coates's death occurred on the eve of the dissolution of the Committee, it was thought necessary to adopt the following Resolution——That a Sub-Committee be appointed to make such immediate temporary provision as may be necessary for carrying forward the business of the Society until a permanent arrangement can be made; and that the same Committee do report to the General Committee upon the permanent arrangements which they may think it advisable to adopt in order to supply the loss of Mr. Coates's services.

PATRONAGE.

During the past year, the following Noblemen and Gentlemen have accepted the Office of Vice-President of the Society—The Right Hon. the Earl of Burlington, the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Oxford, the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Ossory, the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Cashel, the Hon. and Very Rev. the Dean of Leighlin, the Hon. and Very Rev. the Dean of St. Patrick's, and Henry Kemble, Esq., M.P.

The Rev. Charles Bridges, the Ven. Archdeacon Dealtry, the Rev. Edward Edwards, the Rev. John Fawcett, the Ven. Archdeacon Hoare, the Ven. Archdeacon Hodson, the Rev. Chancellor Raikes, and the Ven. Archdeacon Shirley, have been appointed Honorary Governors for life.

STATE OF THE FINANCES.

The Committee regret to state that the Income of the Society has fallen short of the Income of 1844-45. The Receipts of the past year have been—

I. General Fund, out of which the Establishments of the Society at home and abroad are provided for.	£	s.	d.
II. Special Funds :	£	s.	d.
Sick and Disabled Missionaries' Fund.	*1261	18	3
Capital Fund.	*605	12	10
Fourah-Bay Institution Buildings' Fund.	367	19	5
China Mission Fund.	*1888	12	0
Pratt Memorial Fund	598	3	8
		4,722	6 2
III. Local Funds, raised and expended in the Missions.		10,712	4 0
Making a Total, from all sources, of.	£	102,458	0 5

Upon a comparison of the above with the total Receipts of last year, it will appear that there has been a deficiency of 2791*l.* 7*s.* 2*d.*

1. Nearly the whole of this deficiency occurs under the first head.

This year the General Fund amounts to. . .	87,023	10	3
Showing a deficiency of.	£	2,774	7	0

* In these amounts are included the Dividends which became due before the 31st of March; but were not actually received until after that date, in consequence of the illness and death of the Lay Secretary.

This is more than accounted for by a deficiency under the several heads of Legacies (2002*l.* 8*s.* 11*d.*), Benefactions (1276*l.* 7*s.* 4*d.*), and Associations (304*l.* 16*s.* 11*d.*). In some other heads there has been an increase, leaving the balance of deficiency 2774*l.* 7*s.* 0*d.*, as above stated.

2. The deficiency under the second head is 104*l.* 11*s.* 0*d.*, the amount received for Special Funds last year having been 4826*l.* 17*s.* 2*d.*

3. Under the third head there is this year an increase of 87*l.* 10*s.* 10*d.*, the amount of the Local Funds last year having been 10,624*l.* 13*s.* 2*d.* Some uncertainty necessarily occurs in the returns furnished to the Parent Committee of the Local Funds, or sums received and expended in the Missions, the whole amount being greater than that which appears in the returns.

The Expenditure of the year, on the General Fund account (No. I), amounted to 85,950*l.* 6*s.* 3*d.*

The surplus of Receipts over Expenditure was therefore 1073*l.* 4*s.* 0*d.* But as some of the bills drawn by distant Missions had been unusually delayed, so as not to arrive before the accounts were closed, the current Expenditure of the year will prove to have been about equal to the Receipts.

The Balance at the Bankers', to commence the operations of the year, was 8323*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.*

Upon a careful review of these circumstances, the Committee have fixed the maximum Expenditure for the current year at 88,000*l.*, which was the amount fixed last year for the current expenses of the Missions.

The sum of 92,000*l.*, announced in the Report of last year as the maximum Expenditure for the then coming year, included certain contingent expenses, for building churches and Mission Houses, to the amount of 4000*l.*

In the present year the Committee do not venture to appropriate any specific amount toward such contingent and extraordinary expenses; but have resolved to keep the Legacies which may be received during the year as a separate fund, to be applied, in the first instance, toward raising the Capital Fund to the sum of 25,000*l.*, and afterward to the defraying of the contingent and extraordinary expenses described above.

It will be evident, from this statement, that no enlargement of the Missions can take place this year, unless the financial position of the Society shall be greatly improved.

DECEASE OF MISSIONARIES.

It has pleased God to remove from their labours by death, during the past year, the following individuals connected with the Society—

West-Africa Mission—Mrs. Gollmer, wife of the Rev. C. A. Gollmer, died on the 11th of April 1845, at Badagry, of dysentery.

Bombay and Western-India Mission—The Rev. John B. Dixon, on the 7th of January last, at Aurungabad, of fever, after four days' illness.

Calcutta and North-India Mission—The Rev. G. Stolzenberg, on the 25th of May last, at Benares, of fever, after a few days' illness. The Rev. Alexander H. Alexander, on the 8th of December, at Solo, of fever, after a short indisposition.

Madras and South-India Mission—Mrs. Fox, wife of the Rev. H. W. Fox, A. B., on the 31st of October, the day after her embarkation for England.

New-Zealand Mission—Mrs. Dudley, wife of the Rev. W. C. Dudley, A. B., on the 19th of September, at Auckland, after an illness of six months.

RETURN HOME OF MISSIONARIES.

West-Africa Mission—The Rev. C. F. Ehemann left Sierra Leone on the 12th of June, on account of ill health; and arrived in London on the 17th of July.

Calcutta and North-India Mission—The Rev. H. C. Krückeberg arrived at Southampton, from Cairo, on the 9th of June.

Madras and South-India Mission—The Rev. H. W. Fox, A. B., left Madras on the 2d of November, on account of ill health; and arrived in London on the 25th of March last. The Rev. J. Peet and family left Cochin on the 26th of January, also on account of ill health.

Ceylon Mission—The Rev. H. Powell, and Mrs. Powell, left Ceylon on the 2d of July, on account of Mrs. Powell's ill health; and arrived in London on the 24th of October.

British-Guiana Mission—Mr. E. Christian left Demerara on the 3d of June, in consequence of ill health; and arrived in London on the 5th of July. The Rev. J. H. Bernau left the same place on the 19th of July, for the recovery of his health; and arrived at Southampton on the 19th of August.

Trinidad Mission—Mrs. Mühlhauser, widow of the late Rev. J. G. Mühlhauser, left Demerara, on her return home, on the 25th of April 1845; and arrived at Liverpool on the 5th of June.

DEPARTURES AND ARRIVALS OF MISSIONARIES.

West-Africa Mission—The Rev. James Beale and Mrs. Beale, and Messrs. Maxwell and Nicol—the two African Youths who had come to this country for further instruction, with the view of assisting in the educational department of the Mission—sailed from Gravesend on the 29th of October, on their return to Sierra Leone, accompanied by Mr. W. Parkin; and arrived there on the 30th of November, after a perilous voyage. The Rev. D. H. Schmid and Mrs. Schmid, and the Rev. C. F. Ehemann and Mrs. Ehemann, embarked at Gravesend on the 27th of November, on their return to Sierra Leone; and arrived there on the 3d of January last. Mr. F. W. H. Davies, and Mrs. Davies, sailed from Gravesend on the 11th of February, also for Sierra Leone.

East-Africa Mission—The Rev. J. Rebmann sailed from London on the 26th of January last, for Zanzibar, on his way to join the Rev. Dr. Krapf at Mombas.

Bombay and Western-India Mission—The Rev. A. Dredge arrived at Bombay on the 24th of March 1845.

Himalaya Mission—The Rev. M. Wilkinson, and Mrs. Wilkinson, arrived at Simla on the 30th of March 1845.

Calcutta and North-India Mission—The Rev. T. Sandys, and Mrs. Sandys, embarked at Portsmouth on the 10th of September, on their return to Calcutta; and arrived there on the 17th of January. The Rev. G. G. Cuthbert, M.A., embarked at Southampton on the 20th of November, for Calcutta, viâ the overland route; and arrived there on the 4th of February. The Rev. F. Schurr, and Mr. C. Bomwetsch, embarked at Southampton on the 20th of December, for Calcutta, also viâ the overland route; and arrived there on the 4th of February.

Madras and South-India Mission—The Rev. E. Newman arrived at Madras on the 19th of May 1845. The Rev. C. Rhenius, and Mrs. Rhenius, sailed from Gravesend on the 14th of August for Madras; and arrived there on the 13th of December. The Rev. T. G. Ragland, M.A., embarked at Southampton on the 20th of November, for Madras, viâ the overland route; and arrived there on the 3d of January last. Mr. J. M. Weiss, with Mrs. Weiss, left London for Malta on the 5th of November; proceeded from thence to Madras on the 5th of February 1846, with the view of taking charge of the Society's Printing Press at Palamcottah; and arrived at Madras on the 6th of March.

Ceylon Mission—Mr. A. D. Gordon embarked at Gravesend on the 10th of February, for Colombo. The Rev. J. O'Neill, and Mrs. O'Neill, embarked at Southampton, on the 20th of April, also for Colombo.

British-Guiana Mission—Mr. D. Butler, and Mrs. Butler, embarked at London on the 7th of March, for Demerara, on their way to Bartica Grove.

NUMBER OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

Thirteen Ordained Missionaries, three Catechists, two Students for Holy Orders, one Printer, and two African Assistants, have been sent forth to the Missions of the Society during the past year; including seven who have returned to their respective Stations, and two, whose services have been transferred to other Missions. Ten of the parties being married, the total number of individuals sent out is thirty-one.

The number of Labourers at present engaged in the service of the Society, including those who have returned home, or are on their way home for the recovery of their health, is one hundred and seventy-two; exclusive of one thousand two hundred and twenty-two Country-born and Native Catechists and Teachers, and the wives of the married Labourers.

ORDINATION OF STUDENTS.

Eight of the Society's Candidates have been admitted to Holy Orders during the year—two to both Deacons' and Priests' Orders, and four to Deacons' Orders, by the Bishop of London; and one to Deacons' Orders, and one to Priests' Orders, by the Bishop of Madras.

ISLINGTON INSTITUTION.

In his Annual Report the Principal is again enabled to express a favourable opinion of the general state of the Institution. He believes that there never was more of a devotional spirit among the Students than at this time; and that, while there is a remarkable freedom from the habit and spirit of controversy, he has much confidence in the attachment of the Students to the Protestant and Evangelical principles upon which the Society is based. He states that the appointed studies are pursued with diligence, and that the general progress is encouraging. It is to be regretted, however, that though the number of Students is not less than when he presented his last Report, it is not decidedly larger. Many Candidates, indeed, have offered themselves, and several of whose piety there was every reason to hope well; but, either on the ground of health, or inadequate powers of mind, the great majority of these have been lost to the Society. The Principal adds, in his Report—

Should not the present comparatively scanty supply of Labourers constrain the friends of the Society to be instant in prayer, in season, out of season, in the closet and in the family, that it may please God, whose prerogative it is, to provide and qualify young men to do His own work—men full of faith and of the Holy Ghost—men endowed with that rare, but necessary combination, the spirit of power, and of love, and of a sound mind?

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

Mission Establishment :

14 European Missionaries.	38 Native Teachers of all classes.

General View.

THE Committee are still bound, by the strongest obligations of gratitude, to thank God upon every remembrance of this Mission. Notwithstanding the emigration to the Yoruba Country of many of the more advanced Christian Converts, it has been shown, from statistical returns of preceding years, that a measure of success, greater than that which has attended the ministry of the Gospel in the most favoured districts of Christian England, has been vouchsafed to Missionary labours in Sierra Leone; and the results of last year have added fresh evidence in support of this fact. The number of Attendants on Public Worship has been increased by 246; 88 new Communicants have been added to those enumerated last year; and the benefits of a Scriptural education have been extended to 324 additional scholars. May these recent Converts, as well as their elder brethren, have grace given to them to walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God!

SIERRA LEONE.

Christian Institution, Fourah Bay.

Much has been done during the past year to render this useful Establishment still more subservient to the important purposes for which it was designed. On the return of the Rev. E. Jones to the Colony, in February 1845, after a visit to this country, he resumed the superintendence of the Institution, and, in conjunction with the Committee of Missionaries, took immediate steps toward giving due effect to the new Regulations which he carried out with him. In furtherance of this object, fourteen of the younger students were, on the opening of the Grammar School, transferred to that Establishment. Since then, two have been appointed Assistant Schoolmasters, and two have left on account of ill health. The number of Students, in October last, was ten. Mr. Jones speaks of their progress and diligence, in their Classical, Mathematical, and Biblical studies, as praiseworthy.

Respecting the new Buildings, the Rev. J. Warburton writes, Nov. 1, 1845—

The Fourah-Bay Institution Buildings are advancing. One story has been completed, and the workmen are proceeding with the second.

Grammar School.

The Grammar School was opened, under the superintendence of the Rev. Thomas Peyton, on the 25th of March 1845. Its progress has been highly satisfactory, and there is good reason to hope that it will fully realize the expectations entertained respecting its usefulness and importance.

On the 25th of September, after the School had been established for six months, Mr. Peyton reported—

The number of pupils is now thirty. Ten are educated and maintained by their friends, six by the Native-Agency Committee, and fourteen by the Church Missionary Society.

The School has prospered beyond my most sanguine expectations; and I have reason to hope that many of the pupils will become good members of Society and devoted followers of Christ. Among several of them proofs of spiritual concern, and of a desire to participate in the salvation of Christ, are pleasingly exemplified. Nine of the Students are Candidates for the Lord's Supper, and two are Communicants.

Examinations were held, both of the Fourah-Bay Institution and of the Grammar School, in September and October last. The Missionaries who were present on these occasions bear the highest testimony to the progress of the pupils, which is described as "surprising and encouraging."

Female Institution.

This Institution was commenced with eight Pupils, two of whom were supported by their friends. By the marriage of Miss Morris, and her consequent employment in another branch of Missionary duty, there is now a vacancy in the Superintendentship. Until this vacancy, however, shall be supplied from England, Mrs. Denton will devote a portion of her time to the instruction of the pupils.

Loss sustained by his Death.

With reference to the provision which has thus been made for affording the Native the opportunity of obtaining an education superior to that offered in the Village Schools, the late lamented Governor of Sierra Leone, William Fergusson, Esq., wrote a Despatch to Her Majesty's Government at home, from which the following is an extract: it was kindly transmitted to the Society by direction of Lord Stanley. His Excellency wrote, May 18, 1845—

There has been an increase, in the total number of children educated in the Schools of the Colony, of 1528 scholars over the number of last year. The cause of Education has assuredly borne its full share in the generally progressive advancement of the Colony.

The progress has not, however, been confined to mere numerical increase. Along with that, measures have also been adopted for affording to the children of the Colony that which the progressive prosperity of its people has now made a desideratum, viz. an educational course of a higher character than that which merely qualifies for the labourer and the tradesman, wherein the principle of either total or partial charity is to be abandoned.

Boarding-schools, for the education of children of both sexes, have been established, under the auspices of the Church Missionary Society; and so far the scheme promises well. It will, at no remote date, be the means of establishing a new, most important, and influential grade in the Society of Sierra Leone; among which the husbands, the wives, and the domestic intercourse, of the middle classes of England will, for the first time, find representatives in Western Africa. It may be taken as neither an unfair nor unfavourable criterion of the position in the social scale at which the people have arrived, that these establishments are at length acknowledged to have become necessary; and that the pecuniary means, of many of the more industrious and successful of the people, are now such as to enable them to avail themselves of the advantages which they afford.

In adducing this testimony, the Committee cannot refrain from alluding to the loss which the Colony and the Mission have sustained by the death of the writer. For several years he was the Medical Attendant of the Mission, the members of which had the highest confidence in his professional skill. After his appointment as Governor, he on several occasions afforded gratuitous advice, which was greatly valued. He was a man of remarkable intelligence, kindness of disposition, and devotedness to the interests of Africa, and he was the first native of that country who had the honour of representing her Majesty as the Governor of a Colony.

Yoruba Service.

The Service in the Yoruba Language, commenced by the Rev. S. Crowther, has been continued by Mr. Thomas King. The attendance, though not large, is regular.

Native Languages.

The Rev. J. F. Schön has completed the translation of the Gospel according to St. John into the Hausa Language, and is proceeding with that of St. Luke. As his acquaintance with the language increases, he is enabled to add to the number of words and phrases in his Hausa Dictionary, to the completion of which he continues to devote much of his time.

The Rev. J. U. Graf has been engaged in forming a Susoo-English Vocabulary, which at present consists of about 1800 Susoo words.

Mr. Thomas King has also attempted translation into the Yoruba Language, and has finished several of the earlier chapters of St. Matthew's Gospel.

Appreciation of the Gospel by the People, and its influence upon them.

Their Joy on a Missionary's Arrival among them.

That the Christian population of Sierra Leone highly value the religious care bestowed upon them through the instrumentality of this Society, and are anxious to avail themselves of it, has been repeatedly shown. It appears, from the cordial welcome usually given to a Missionary on his return from a visit to England. As an instance of this, the Rev. J. Beale, who returned to the Colony on the 30th of November last, writes in his Journal—

The report of our arrival quickly spread through the town and villages. Many members of our Church met us at the water-side, and gave us a regular Black Man's hearty welcome to their shores. They gladly carried all our boxes and luggage, &c. to the Mission House without any pay. I offered money to one man; but he said, "No, Massa, no mind that; we no want that;" yet this man was not a member, although he partook of the joy which animated the rest.

Early on Monday morning a scene commenced which would have gladdened any heart: it was the people coming in from different towns, in great numbers, to see us and bid us welcome. We shook hands with so many, young and old, as at length to be quite fatigued. All were thanking God for our safe arrival. For several days the same pleasure was afforded us, during which we could scarcely turn our heads in the street without being saluted by some smiling face, and "How do, Massa? you done come: me glad for see you, Massa. Thank God! thank God!"

Their Eagerness for Instruction.

Another proof of the value set upon religious instruction is afforded by the eagerness with which opportunities of obtaining it are seized.

The house in which the Grammar School has been opened, and which also forms the residence of the Rev. T. Peyton, is situated at a considerable distance from the other Establishments of the Society in Freetown, and is surrounded by a heathen population. Commiserating the deplorable ignorance of these people, Mr. Peyton, with the assistance of Mrs. Peyton and his pupils, commenced a Sunday-school in his house on the 23d of March 1845. On that day 75 persons came together for instruction, and this was regarded as an encouraging beginning. On the following Lord's-day 116 were present; on the 6th of April, 213; and on the 13th, 231. At the end of six months, there were 321 on the books, with an average attendance of 204.

In reference to this animating desire for instruction, Mr. Peyton remarks, in a Letter dated April 30, 1845—

I cannot express the happiness which I experience in being employed in the blessed work of Missions to the Heathen. We do indeed enjoy a spiritual luxury here, of which our Christian Friends in England know nothing, in witnessing our people crowding every Lord's-day to the School.

Attendance on Public Worship, and General Attention to Religious Duties.

The same feeling manifests itself in the regularity with which Public Worship is attended, and the devotional conduct of those who assemble in the House of God. Of this, one or two instances may be adduced.

The Rev. J. U. Graf, speaking of his Station, Hastings, observes in his Journal, Sept. 7, 1845—

One circumstance, which cheers me, is the evident pleasure which the people seem to take in the Means of Grace. During the past Quarter we have had Divine Service during such heavy rains that we thought it impossible for more than a few persons to attend; but, on proceeding to Church, a steady and attentive Congregation has been found waiting.

About the same time, the Rev. N. Denton, in reference to Regent, writes—

The attendance on the Means of Grace is truly encouraging. On the Lord's-day morning, the Church, which is estimated to hold 900, is not sufficiently large to receive all who come, so that many sit around the windows and doors.

And in reference to the appearance and behaviour of this Congregation, Mr. Graf, who assisted Mr. Denton on the occasion of 23 adults being admitted to Baptism, writes, May 10—

The Church was quite filled—indeed some were outside—with an intelligent and lively Congregation; the singing and the responses being loud and general, and the attention during the sermon intense and uninterrupted. I could not help thinking of the first batches of wild, naked, liberated slaves, collected at this place thirty years ago by the late Rev. W. B. Johnson, when the Station was first taken up by the Society. What a great and good change has Regent undergone when compared with that first beginning!

Mr. John Attarra, one of the oldest Native Catechists in connexion with the Society, thus expresses himself on this subject, in a Letter to one of the Secretaries—

If you were to have a sight of our Congregations on the Lord's-day, the Sunday Scholars, Communicants, and Candidates, Sir, you would indeed be constrained to say, as the Queen of Sheba said when she had a sight of King Solomon's palace, and saw the manner of his kingdom, and exclaimed that not the half of what she saw was told to her in her own land. And thus so would you say, were you to be an eye-witness of what the Lord is carrying on by His servants in this Colony.

Without reckoning one which is nearly completed at Kent, six new Churches have, within the last eight years, been built by the Society in the Colony; beside several School-houses, in which Public Worship is held; and they are all fully attended.

Nor is the Religion of the people confined to an attendance on the public Means of Grace. Among the Communicants and Candidates, Family Worship is general, and there is a marked improvement in their attention to relative and personal duties.

Regard for the Lord's-day.

As an illustration of the influence of the Gospel over the minds of people only lately taken under instruction, in inducing them to obey the Commandments of God, the following fact may be mentioned.

One of the Stations taken up by the Society during the last year is Tumbo, a village beautifully situated near the sea, and containing a population of about 500. There is no Missionary or Catechist residing in the place; but it is occasionally visited from Kent, six or seven miles distant, by the Rev. F. Bultmann, and more frequently by Mr. J. Wilson, a Native Catechist who resides at Russell, distant two or three miles. While Mr. Wilson was holding Service on the 6th of April 1845, two European Captains entered the School-room, and paid great attention. "After the Service," Mr. Wilson writes, "they expressed their surprise at the Church Missionary Society evangelizing not only the largest places, but little villages in the Colony." These men had come in order to purchase poultry; but finding that the people there would not sell on the Lord's-day, they attended Divine Service, and then returned to their ships.

Exercise of Liberality.

In the last Report of the Sierra-Leone Auxiliary to the Church Missionary Society, it is stated—

The results of the Divine blessing on the labours of this Mission are further apparent by the grace of liberality which many of our people have exemplified in their conduct. During the past year the adult Natives have contributed toward the spread of the Gospel about 120*l.*; and the contributions from the children of the Day-schools at the different Stations, during the same period, have amounted to 224*l.* 7*s.* 5*d.*; making a total of 344*l.* 7*s.* 5*d.* received from the Natives in one year.

The Annual Sermon of this Auxiliary was preached on the 10th of February last, by the Rev. J. U. Graf, the collection amounting to 5*l.* 3*s.* The Annual Meeting was held in the evening of the same day, Chief Justice Carr in the chair, and the collection was 17*l.* 4*s.* 9*d.*; including a donation of 5*l.*, which was sent to the Meeting by the people of one village as a thank-offering for the many benefits which the Society had conferred upon them, and for the kindness of their Missionary during his six years' residence among them.

TIMMANEE MISSION.

Labours of the Rev. C. F. Schlenker—Encouragements from the School.

The Rev. C. F. Schlenker has been alone carrying on the usual duties of this Mission, owing to the absence of the Rev. D. F. Schmid, who is on a visit to Europe for the re-establishment of his health. There has been but little of an encouraging character among the adult population of Port Lokkoh; but the School not only continues to be a hopeful sphere of labour, but has already produced some fruit. One of the former pupils, who has been admitted into the Grammar School at Freetown, has been baptized, and is now a consistent Communicant at the Mission Church. Two other boys have been baptized by Mr. Schlenker at Port Lokkoh. May they be the first-fruits of an abundant harvest!*

Mission Establishment:

2 European Missionaries. | 1 Native Missionary. | 3 Native Teachers.

IN the last Report an account was given of the preparatory measures adopted with regard to this new Mission, and the hopeful prospects with which the small band of Labourers left Sierra Leone on their important enterprise. At the same time the cautionary remark was added, that, while an humble hope might be entertained that the Lord would prosper the undertaking, difficulties and obstacles might, sooner or later, be expected to arise. These anticipations, suggested both by Scripture and experience, were speedily realized; and the friends and supporters of Missions are once more taught the valuable lesson, It is good that a man should both hope and QUIETLY WAIT for the salvation of the Lord.

Arrival of the Missionaries at Badagry—Death of the Chief Sodeke—Hindrances arising from War.

The Missionaries were favoured with a prosperous voyage; and, on the 17th of January 1845, safely arrived at Badagry. They had, however, scarcely been there eight days before they received intelligence that Sodeke, the Chief of Abbeokouta, whose urgent invitation had great weight in the decision that the Mission should be attempted, was dead; and that it was unadvisable that the Missionaries should proceed to Abbeokouta until the funeral ceremonies performed for him should have been completed.

Not long afterward they heard that the King of Dahomey had successfully attacked the Yoruba encampment, between Badagry and Abbeokouta, and had thus cut off the regular communication between those two places. The town of Badagry itself was also attacked, and serious apprehensions of a more formidable invasion by the King of Dahomey's army were entertained. There can be little doubt that the cause of these distressing hindrances may be traced to the old and inveterate enemy of the temporal and spiritual interests of the African—the slave trade.

Being thus, for the present, precluded from accomplishing their intention of proceeding to the interior, the Missionaries began to turn their attention to the spiritual wants of the mixed population of Badagry. A temporary Church was commenced, and a tree, in a convenient situation, was fixed upon, under the shade of which the truths of the Gospel might be proclaimed. A native-built house was soon erected, and the frame-house which the Rev. C. A. Gollmer had brought from Sierra Leone was put up.

As the service in the Church is chiefly intended for the liberated Africans who have emigrated from Sierra Leone, it has been conducted in the Yoruba language. The greater part of the Liturgy has been translated into that language by the Rev. S. Crowther. The Congregation has generally consisted of about sixty, including a few of the inhabitants of Badagry, most of whom are acquainted with the Yoruba language.

The Congregation assembling under the tree, consisting for the most part of Heathen, has been, as might be expected, of a more fluctuating character. The number of hearers has sometimes amounted to 250.

Sunday-schools have been established, and are proceeding satisfactorily.

Favourable Disposition of the Abbeokouta Chiefs toward the Missionaries.

While the Missionaries are thankful for the opportunities of usefulness which they enjoy during their detention at Badagry, they look forward with hope to the removal of the obstacles which prevent them from proceeding into the interior. There appears to be every disposition on the part of the Headmen of Abbeokouta to follow the example of their late Chief, Sodeke, and to afford to the Missionaries every help and encouragement to go and establish a Mission there when the way shall be opened for that purpose. With that view several letters and messages have been sent, and offers of assistance made. On the 24th of June, Mr. William Marsh, one of the Native Catechists connected with the Mission, who had found his way to Abbeokouta by the road from Lagos, thus writes—

I have visited some of the principal Chiefs. They spoke very favourably of the Missionaries, and told me some of the chief hindrances why they have not sent for them. They are now at peace with the people in the interior. There has been no disturbance in any of the villages belonging to Abbeokouta. The people partly know the intention of the Missionaries, and are glad to have their children taught. They generally call the English men of truth, and men who know the true God. They speak very highly of the English, and love them.

Need of Earnest Prayer.

The Committee commend this infant Mission to the earnest prayers of the members of the Society. It is an offshoot from the Sierra-Leone Mission, which has been transplanted into the neighbourhood of the Bight of Benin, and which, it is trusted, will yet take root—notwithstanding the storms and tempests to which it has been exposed—and bring forth fruit *unto the glory and praise of God.

Mission Establishment :

- 1 European Missionary.
- 1 European Assistant Superintendant of Schools.
- 1 European Schoolmaster.
- 5 Native Schoolmasters.
- 5 Native Schoolmistresses.

THIS Mission has continued under the care of the Rev. F. A. Hildner, assisted by Mr. C. Sanderski.

State of the Schools.

The total number of children on the books, at the close of the year 1845, was 478; of whom 234 were girls. The total number of scholars educated in the Institution, from its commencement; is 4409, the majority of whom have regularly passed through the Infant, Middle, and Higher Schools. The usual public Examination before the Governor, the Demarch, and the Ephori, was held at the end of July; when those Authorities, as usual, expressed their strong satisfaction with its results, and their thanks to those benefactors by whom the School is supported,

Toward the close of last year, at the instigation of the Authorities of the Greek Church, attempts were made, similar to those which were made and resisted ten years ago, to interfere with the principles upon which the School Establishment has been conducted. The Committee hope that these attempts may be ultimately defeated.

German and English Services.

These Services have been regularly continued by Mr. Hildner. He has been much encouraged by an increased attendance of hearers; and writes in his Journal, Feb. 13, 1845—

It is my heart's desire and endeavour that our small number of Evangelical Christians here may become increasingly a savour of life unto life to the Greeks, who observe our walk, and to whom we are called to become helpers of their eternal welfare.

The sum of 250*l.* has been granted by the British Government toward the erection of a British Chapel.

Distribution of Books and Tracts.

On this subject Mr. Hildner writes, Oct. 22, 1845—

Scarcely a day passes without my having manifold opportunities for the disposal of School-books and Scriptures, either to the children of our Establishment, or to other Schools and persons.*

Mission Establishment:

1 European Missionary. | 1 Native Assistant.

General View.

THE opportunities afforded to the Rev. J. T. Wolters of prosecuting his Missionary labours in Smyrna and the neighbourhood continue to be limited. The Mahomedans still appear to be enveloped in a cloud which is impervious to the rays of Divine Truth. To Native Christians, Greeks, Armenians, and Romanists, the Gospel has been declared in a conversational way; and there is some reason to hope that, in a few instances at least, their hearts have been opened to attend to its blessed truths.

Mr. Wolters speaks highly of the valuable aid which he has derived from the judicious and zealous labours of his Greek Assistant, Mr. Antonio Delassio. Being well known and highly esteemed by the inhabitants, Mr. Delassio's influence for good is proportionably extensive.

The English, German, and Greek Services.

Mr. Wolters has regularly taken part in the English Services at Smyrna and Boujah. He has also continued the German Service in the British Chapel at Smyrna every alternate week. The Greek Service in that city has been discontinued; the great conflagration which occurred in July, and reduced one-third of the city to ashes, having destroyed the room in which it was held.

* Further accounts of the Greece Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for April 1846, pp. 73—75.

Distribution of Books.

The total number of books which have been put in circulation during the past year is 985. Of these, 232 were copies of the Holy Scripture, in whole or in part.

Translations.

Mr. Wolters has translated into Turkish the whole of the Gospel according to St. John. He has also translated a part of the Rev. W. Jowett's Christian Visitor into Armenian. Mr. A. Delassio has been engaged in translating some of the Homilies into Modern Greek.

Missionary Tour.

In the months of April and May 1845 Mr. Wolters, accompanied by Mr. A. Delassio, made a Missionary tour in an eastern direction from Smyrna. They proceeded as far as Kutaya, and returned by way of Thyatira and Pergamos. The journey occupied twenty-nine days; during which they had many opportunities of useful conversation, and distribution of the Word of God.*

Mission Establishment :

2 European Missionaries.		5 Native Teachers.
1 European Teacher.		3 Native-Female Teachers.

General View.

No Report has been received from this Mission, which continues under the care of the Rev. W. Krusé and the Rev. J. R. T. Lieder. Mr. Krusé attends to the English and Arabic Services, holds conversations with the people, and occasionally undertakes Missionary tours in various parts of Egypt. He has also opened a room in his house for the accommodation of any inquirers who may be desirous of religious instruction. Mr. Lieder superintends the Coptic Institution, and the other educational establishments of the Society.

Visit of the Rev. Messrs. T. G. Ragland and G. G. Cuthbert to this Mission.

In December last the Rev. T. G. Ragland and the Rev. G. G. Cuthbert visited the Mission, on their way to India. In a Letter, dated Jan. 6, Mr Ragland writes—

The Lord has not left Mr. Krusé without some tokens of good. He has an attendance every evening, in a large lower room of his house, of about 15 inquirers—some Copts, some Mahomedans; and respecting several of these he entertains a good hope that they are in earnest, and that their minds are opening to receive the Truth.

No one could have been otherwise than gratified by the favourable appearance of the Schools. The School for young boys, of whom there were 92 present, though interesting, was the least so of the three. The Upper School numbers 17 boys and young men. These are, so to speak, on the foundation; supported by the Society, clothed and lodged at night in a comfortable bed-room. But, beside these, there were 6 or 10 other pupils—youths taken in at the recommendation of the Patriarch of Alexandria, and ready to supply vacancies among the 17. Of the 17, three or four are in Deacons' Orders in the Coptic Church. Mr. Cuthbert examined the first class, and I the second. All spoke English, and answered very satisfactorily. The elder boys showed a very good knowledge of the Bible. Their writing, in Arabic and Coptic, was very neat, and their singing above par.

The Girls' School was a place of peculiar interest. It consists of two rooms, containing about 120 children, of a great variety of races. The larger number were Arabs and heavy-looking Copts; but mixed with these were Greeks, Syrians, Jewesses, and one or two Circassians and Georgians. I will only add, respecting the Schools, that the general appearance of all gave us the decided impression of their being under the conduct of active, diligent, and able management.

Confirmation, &c., by the Bishop of Gibraltar.

In a Letter, dated the 16th of Feb., Mr Krusé writes—

We have lately had a pleasing visit from the Bishop of Gibraltar, on which occasion he confirmed six young persons. The Confirmation took place on the 2d of January, and was the first ever held in Caïro. The Service was truly solemn and impressive. It could not fail to call forth our feelings of gratitude, that, in the very heart of a Mahomedan country, we were thus permitted to serve our God openly, and without molestation. The Bishop preached on the following Lord's-day, and administered the Lord's Supper. This also was interesting, it being the first occasion on which an English Bishop has officiated in Caïro.

Death of Bishop Alexander—Appointment of the Rev. S. Gobat to the vacant See.

The late Bishop Alexander had been on his way to Caïro to discharge the duties just described, and was within a few hours' journey of that place, when it pleased God to remove him from his earthly labours to his heavenly rest. His remains, accompanied by his bereaved widow, were taken to the Mission Premises, and a funeral sermon was preached in the Mission Chapel by the Rev. W. T. Veitch, his Lordship's Chaplain. The body was afterward conveyed, under the care of Mr. Veitch, to Palestine, to be interred on Mount Sion.

While deploring this event, the Committee cannot forbear expressing their thankfulness that His Majesty the King of Prussia has been pleased to nominate their former excellent and long-trying Missionary, the Rev. Samuel Gobat, to the vacant Anglican See at Jerusalem. The Christian simplicity of his character, his sound judgment, his high attainments in oriental literature, his scriptural views of Divine Truth, and the long experience he has had in Egypt, Abyssinia, and Syria—which form parts of his future diocese—fully justify the selection which His Majesty the King of Prussia has made, and encourage the hope that his Episcopate will, under the Divine blessing, secure the accomplishment of the important ends for which the Anglican Bishopric of Jerusalem was established.*

Mission Establishment:

Proceedings of the Rev. Dr. Krapf—Missionary Excursions.

THE Rev. Dr. Krapf has, with remarkable diligence and devotedness, carried on his solitary labours on the eastern coast of Africa. He has been chiefly engaged in studying the languages spoken in those regions, and his residence has been in the Island of Mombas. He has, however, made various excursions among the Wonica and Wakamba tribes on the continent. His principal object in these excursions was, at first, to ascertain the practicability of forming a Missionary Station at one of the villages, and to select the position most desirable for this purpose. Subsequently, when he had made sufficient progress in the acquisition of the various dialects, his chief object was, to avail himself of any opportunities that might present themselves to declare to those poor Heathen tribes the blessed message of the Gospel.

* Further accounts of the Egypt Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for May 1845, pp. 97—101.

He describes the people as sunk in the deepest degradation, indulging to a fearful extent in habits of intoxication, frequently being ready to sell their children for tembo (fermented cocoa-nut liquor), and sometimes entirely destitute of clothing. He remarks, in a Letter dated Feb. 14, 1845—

If the Gospel conquer and triumph among these bondmen of Satan, the triumph must be great and signal; for Satan's realm is formidable in this quarter, and the Mahomedans laugh at my attempt to convert these deluded Heathen.

The reception which Dr. Krapf met with in these various excursions was uniformly friendly. The Chiefs of Rabbay, the village which appeared to possess the greatest advantages for a Missionary Station, promised to give him every thing he might need for that purpose. "Our sons and daughters, our cows and trees, our fruits and lands, are yours," was their declaration.

On several occasions a willingness to listen to his message has been manifested. On the 18th of February 1845 he came to a Wonica hamlet of about 8 or 10 cottages, and found from 20 to 25 people assembled. He remarks—

I related to them, at first, the principal points of the Gospel history of Christ, and showed them that He is the only Saviour of men, through belief in whom, and by repenting of their sins, they would receive forgiveness of all their transgressions, and become God's children, and partakers of an imperishable inheritance and glory in heaven. When I spoke figuratively I found them especially attentive. One man, who had a number of arrows in his hands, never turned his eyes from me; but listened most attentively, and, when I had finished my discourse, related to the others such points as had struck his mind. He rehearsed my words very correctly. The resurrection of the dead, and Christ's judgment of every soul, seemed to have attracted their attention in a great measure. In short, this opportunity afforded me great encouragement to preach among the Wonicas. I found that, in point of attention, reflection, and understanding, they are not inferior to other Heathen. Nothing remains to be done but to plough the ground and sow the seed of life with all diligence and prayer: it remains with God's mercy to give the increase.

Dr. Krapf's Journals, as usual, contain much valuable geographical and historical information, as well as descriptions of the state and manners of the inhabitants.

Translational Labours.

In the work of translation Dr. Krapf has especially abounded, as will be seen from the following enumeration of the manuscripts which he has sent home. The book of Genesis, the Acts of the Apostles, the Epistles to the Romans, Galatians, and Ephesians, the General Epistles of St. Peter, and the First General Epistle of St. John, in the Sooahelee language; and the Gospels of St. Luke and St. John in both the Sooahelee and Wonica languages. He has also compiled a Dictionary, containing above 10,000 words of the Sooahelee, Wonica, and Wakamba languages; and has prepared a Grammar of the same languages for the use of future Missionaries.

Partial Failure of Dr. Krapf's Health—Appointment of the Rev. J. Rebmann to this Mission.

The Committee have been under some apprehension respecting Dr. Krapf's health, which, a few months ago, failed to a serious extent. The last accounts, however, are more favourable; and it is hoped that the relief afforded by the arrival of the Rev. J. Rebmann, who has been appointed to this Mission, may tend to its complete recovery. Mr. Rebmann sailed on the 21st of January.*

Mission Establishment :

5 European Missionaries.	5 Native Catechists.
2 European Catechists and School Assistants.	17 Native Schoolmasters.

General View—Distribution of the Missionary Force.

THE Reports from year to year of this Mission have hitherto presented but little ground of encouragement. The Committee have now, however, to record, with devout thankfulness to the Giver of all good things, intelligence of a more cheering kind.

According to the arrangements noticed in the last Report, the Rev. C. W. Isenberg, the Rev. J. J. Mühleisen, and the Rev. A. Dredge, have supplied the places of Labourers removed by death and the failure of health.

Mr. Mühleisen, during the first part of the year, superintended the Money School; and then, resigning the charge of it to Mr. Isenberg, proceeded to Nassuck. Mr. Dredge joined the Nassuck branch of the Mission immediately after his arrival at Bombay.

close of the year, was 103. A public examination took place in the presence of the Bishop of Bombay, who expressed his conviction "that a good foundation was being laid in the minds of the pupils."

Seven Mahratta Schools, containing 470 children, are maintained in Bombay and its neighbourhood; but all are under Heathen Schoolmasters, because no Christian Teachers are yet to be had. Mr. M. Sargon attends these Schools, visiting each weekly.

Mr. Sargon gives religious instruction in Mahratta, at the Money School, to the Heathen who can be prevailed upon to attend; and also has many opportunities of declaring the Truth to his brethren the Jews, both in the Synagogue and at his own house.

NASSUCK.

The day of small things in this Mission, described in the last Report—in which a few Converts were gathered into the fold of Christ from among the inmates of a Poor-house—has since advanced to a more important stage.

In November 1844 five Native Converts were formed into a Congregation, and a Mahratta Service was commenced for their benefit. On the 2d of March 1845, three other Natives from the Poor-house were added to the Church by Baptism; and a few days afterward a man, who had been one of the earliest Converts, was summoned from the earthly fold to be received into the fold above. Mrs. Farrar writes in her Journal, March 21—

I love to remember the calm and stedfast expression of countenance with which he said, in Hindoostanee, "I will never loose my hold of Him," when I last exhorted him to hold fast the faith of Jesus unto the end.

A few months later, six other Converts, of a higher grade in Society, two of them of the Brahmin caste, were added to the Church. Of one of them, a Brahmin youth, the following account is given by the Rev. C. P. Farrar, in a Letter dated October 17, 1845—

Appa Yardee, a Brahmin, between 18 and 19 years of age, was received into the Church by Baptism, in the presence of a large portion of its European and Native Members, on Monday the 22d of September. During the last six years he has regularly attended the Mission Schools, and is, at present, the senior student in the English School. His mind has been deeply exercised for many months on the subject of Christianity, and he has repeatedly given intimations of his determination to become a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ. His convictions of the necessity of coming out, and being separate from the Heathen, have been gradually becoming stronger, and have compelled him, step by step, wholly to give up the practice of idolatry. His withdrawal from idolatrous rites and idol worship have subjected him to much persecution, and his declining to take any part in the Shraddha (worship of dead ancestors) during the present Pitra-paksh (days appointed for this purpose), brought matters to that state which rendered it imperative on him to act fully up to the dictates of his judgment and conscience. Having followed the path of duty, been baptized, and publicly professed himself to be a servant and soldier of the Lord Jesus Christ, his mind is now at peace. He has had to undergo the bitter trial and sorrow of being surrounded, day after day, by weeping parents and relatives, who mourned for him as one who was hereafter to be dead to them. They did not, however, altogether reject his efforts to console them; and I am happy to say that their reproaches and tears have been in a great measure replaced by kindlier and gentler feelings.

Another of the Converts was a Native Assistant Apothecary to a regiment quartered at Nassuck. He had been trained, in early life, at Mission Schools; had subsequently listened with profit, as he said, to the Gospels read in private by an unconverted Brahmin at Bombay; and at length, at the age of 34, expressed his desire for Baptism. Mr. Farrar writes of him, in the Letter just quoted—

He is an encouraging instance of the seed of Divine Truth abiding many days in the heart without development and without observation, and yet, in its appointed season, bringing forth fruit to the honour and glory of God.

Mr. Farrar records another remarkable evidence of the impressions which may be made upon the minds of many who are almost persuaded to become Christians, and which, even though they do not as yet issue in a sound conversion of heart to God, may yet indicate that they are not far from the kingdom of heaven.

A Native in a Government office, who had been instructed in the Mission Schools in Nassuck, translated into Mahratta, though still a Heathen, Meade's "Almost Christian," and presented it to his former Instructor "as a small token of grateful remembrance." Mr. Farrar says of him, in his Journal, December 6, 1844—

He is a young man of talent and application, and possesses a firm belief in Christianity, and a desire to embrace it; but he is not yet prepared to endure the loss of relatives and friends, and to become a bye-word for Christ.

The Native Congregation at Nassuck consists of 15 individuals, all of whom, excepting two, have been baptized within the last year.

Education.

An English School at Nassuck is under the care of Mr.

Dredge, who writes, in a Report dated June 24, 1845—

It is a remarkable fact, that in the Government School in this town, where Christianity is not taught, there are only 80 or 90 boys; whereas in our Mission School there are upward of 250.

Missionary Tours.

A considerable portion of Mr. Farrar's time has been occupied in the important work of declaring the message of the Gospel to the inhabitants of the villages in the neighbourhood of Nassuck. In the months of December and January he made a tour which occupied four weeks: he was accompanied by Ram Krishna. The reception which he met with was, for the most part, of an encouraging kind. Not unfrequently, audiences of 70, 80, or 100 hearers listened attentively to the Word of Life which was proclaimed in their hearing. Respecting the result of such labours Mr. Farrar well observes—"It is scarcely to be expected that much fruit will be the immediate result; but it is the breaking up of the soil which will ultimately yield an abundant harvest."

Hindoostanee Department.

The Rev. C. C. Mengé continues to discharge this branch of Missionary duties. Divine Service is held in Hindoostanee, at which the children of the School and a few adults attend. The Hindoostanee School affords satisfaction. The number of Mahomedan boys on the list has increased during the year from 30 to 70.

In making a tour in the Nassuck districts, Mr. Mengé was encouraged by the large number of Hindoos, and in some places, also, of Mahomedans, who came to receive Christian books and to listen to the truths of Christianity. Many of the villagers said that if they were constantly taught the truths of the Gospel they should, doubtless, embrace them. In one village, on the Lord's-day, he was asked by the Pa-teel, or Headman, what time in the morning and afternoon he should call the people together to hear the Christian Shasters. In another village, the people appeared anxious to have a Missionary resident among them, and three respectable Brahmins offered to accompany him to Nassuck, and stay with him, in order to receive Christian instruction and Baptism. These are encouraging symptoms, and at least indicate a decay of prejudice.

Intended Commencement of a New Station.

In the villages near Ahmednugger a young Indo-Briton has been for some time labouring to impart Christian instruction to the Natives—at first gratuitously, and afterward at the expense of a few private individuals. The scene of his labours has been visited more than once by the Missionaries of the Society, and four of the Converts have been baptized. The disposition, thus manifested, of the Mahratta population in those parts to receive Christian instruction has determined the Corresponding Committee in Bombay to take measures for establishing a Mission Station at Jooneer, which is situated about half-way between Nassuck and Ahmednugger. Mr. Mühleisen and Mr. Dredge will be removed to that Station.*

Mission Establishment :

26 European Missionaries.	100 Native Catechists and Teachers of all Classes.
1 Indo-British Missionary.	1 Indo-British Schoolmistress.
5 European Catechists and other Teachers.	3 Native Schoolmistresses.
8 Indo-British Catechists and other Teachers.

General View.

THE state of the Society's Missions in North India may be viewed under a two-fold aspect. If we merely regard the actual number of Native-Christian Converts, the result will be discouraging; for, while more than 100 adults have been admitted into the Church during the past year, a larger number has been removed by death, or seduced aside by the emissaries of Rome. But if we regard the internal character of the rising Native Churches, the diffusion of Christian Truth throughout the land, and the weakening of the power of Hindoo superstition, we shall be cheered by the dawn of a brighter day.

CALCUTTA.

care of the Society in Calcutta is that which assembles in Trinity Church, within the Mission premises in Amherst Street. It is chiefly composed of cottagers, who reside within the same premises, or in the immediate neighbourhood, and of the Christian orphan boys and girls. It numbers about 122 persons.

The Missionaries have been constantly engaged in preaching to the Heathen in different places of public resort; especially in a Chapel called Tuntunia Chapel, in a populous part of the native town.

Only one adult Convert from Heathenism has been admitted into the Church during the year.

In thirteen of the villages lying to the south of Calcutta, of which Thakurpooker is the centre, inhabited by poor agriculturists, there are 192 persons under Christian instruction, among whom three Native Readers reside. They are also visited monthly by one of the Missionaries, and the Native Catechists, from Calcutta; but here, also, only one Convert has been added during the last year.

Mr. Osborne has prepared, and carried through the press, a volume of 12 Sermons in Bengalee, a work much needed for the use of Native Readers. It has been published at the expense of the Calcutta Christian Tract and Book Society.

Education.

Two Schools for Christian boys and girls, on the Mission premises, contain fifty-three Scholars. In the Boys' School, three of the Monitors, Mr. Osborne reports, "have made considerable progress in their studies, and are now under special training, with the view of shortly being employed in the Mission."

Three English Schools for Heathen boys are maintained at Mirzapore, Allipore, and Dum Dum. The number of Scholars at the Mirzapore School, under the charge of Mr. Long, has been greatly reduced by a double opposition which it has had to encounter—the Jesuits having located a School in the neighbourhood, and a rich Native having also opened an Institution in the city, "expressly designed to put down Mission Schools." Mr. Long writes, at the close of the year—

Before this Institution was opened, we numbered 171 scholars; a fortnight afterward we sank to 130; but since that time we have had a gradual increase, and now number more than 165. The Teachers of the School read Bacon's Essays with me for about an hour daily. They have of late been considerably stirred up to improve themselves, in consequence of the hopes held out by Government to educated Natives.

The English School at Allipore has been going on satisfactorily during the past year. It has had the advantage of the superintendence of Mr. W. H. Haycock, the Assistant Secretary, who reports—

The introduction of Mr. Mundy's excellent work on the absurdities of the Hindoo religion, and the excellencies and perfections of Christianity, has been effected in consequence of a spontaneous desire expressed by the senior boys to study the Evidences of Christianity.

AGURPARAH.

Christian Congregation—Communicants—Education.

This Station is still only under the care of Mr. F. J. De Rozario, a Catechist; the monthly visits of the Rev. J. F. Osborne being continued. The number of Christians and of Communicants are the same as last year, namely, 70 and 22.

An English School for Heathen Boys at this Station contains 150 Scholars. At the close of last year a half-yearly examination took place, attended by the Bishop of Madras and the Archdeacon of Calcutta, in which the pupils acquitted themselves with great credit.

Mr. De Rozario reports of this School—"The boys are acquainted with all the doctrines of Christianity, and, in a great measure, are convinced of its truth." Two have, during the last year, publicly embraced Christianity, after they had been removed from the School, and were received into connexion by another Mission.

BURDWAN.

In this Station the Rev. J. J. Weitbrecht has resumed his former labours, after returning from a visit to Europe with recruited health. The Rev. Messrs. Reynolds and Geidt have afforded him essential aid in his work, though their chief attention, as newly-arrived Missionaries, has been directed to the acquisition of the Bengalee language.

Christian Congregation—Baptisms.

The Christian Congregation at this Station consists of 28 Native-Christian families, and the children of two Orphan Schools, amounting to about 200 persons, of whom 50 are Communicants, the number of Communicants having been doubled in the last year. Of this Native Congregation Mr. Weitbrecht reports—

It gives me pleasure to be able to report favourably of our Native-Christian community, many of the members of which have been a real comfort to us during the year. When I compare the present improved state of our people, in a religious and moral point of view, with that in which they were ten years ago, my heart is filled with gratitude to God. I have every reason to believe that several among the adults, both men and women, are decidedly pious; and all maintain a decent and becoming moral conduct. The Catechists and Readers perform their duty with fidelity, and in some instances with zeal.

Six adults, three of whom are heads of families, have been admitted, by Baptism, into the Christian Church during the last year.

Education.

An Orphan Boys' School, containing 30 pupils, and one for girls, containing 40, are kept on the Mission Premises; also an English School for Heathen boys, which contains 80 scholars. "This School," Mr. Weitbrecht reports, "exercises a peculiar influence on a class who are not so approachable in other ways; namely, the more intelligent and respectable Hindoo youths." It is a cause of deep regret to the Missionaries that Government have established, at this Station, a School from which the Bible is excluded, and which will exercise, it is feared, a prejudicial influence upon the native mind.

There are also four Bengalee (Vernacular) Schools in Burdwan and its neighbourhood, containing about 300 scholars. Mr. Weitbrecht remarks that "these Schools were in a low state in the beginning of the year; but have now improved in efficiency under constant superintendence, without which nothing will prosper in Mission work." Although, in Schools of this description, the children do not obtain much knowledge beyond Bible History, yet they are found to be useful, and are maintained at a very moderate expense: especially, they serve as central spots for preaching, which the Missionary at this Station makes a point of doing after the Examination is over. Mr. Weitbrecht writes—

The Hindoos delight to have a School, and an occasional visit from the Missionary, in their villages. Had I the time and strength, and also the means, I would have twenty Schools instead of four; but this alone would be abundant employment for an able Missionary.

Preaching to the Heathen—Difficulties in the way of their professing Christianity.

Mr. Weitbrecht reports—

This very important part of Missionary labour has been carried on with increased vigour, and I have been assisted in it by four Catechists and Readers, who are daily engaged in distributing Gospels and Tracts in a circuit around Burdwan. I have regularly preached in the Bazaar Chapel twice a week, and have spent a good deal of time in itinerating. In two villages there seems to be a pleasing disposition, on the part of many, to receive the Truth: fifteen or twenty individuals have of late been regular in their attendance at our Lord's-day Morning Service, coming from a distance of ten or twelve miles. They have really been impressed by the Truth; but the struggle is not yet over. May the Lord give us the victory!

In reference to these villages, Mr. Weitbrecht writes, in a Letter dated Nov. 4, 1845—

How delighted should I be to bring them by scores into the Church of Christ! but I do not see my way clear. Only he who is fully acquainted with the low, depressed state of moral feeling, the utter want of principle pervading all classes, and the prevailing greediness after money, can enter into the difficulties which we meet on every side. The Brahmin inquirers are either Priests, and have some ground, which is attached to the temple, from which they derive a livelihood; or, being Gooroos, they have some disciples, who bring their periodical presents. These emoluments cease, as a matter of course, as soon as they embrace Christianity; so that they say, "How shall we support our families?" I tell them, "Look up to God in faith: if you are sincere, you will find that He never forsakes His people. And any who show, by their attainments, a fitness for Teachers, I shall employ in Schools, &c." But this is not satisfactory to them. Although sincere in their acknowledgment of the Truth, they have at present no such faith as will raise them above secular considerations. They look for an equivalent in lieu of what they are likely to lose; and, with true Brahminical calculation and cunning, wish to know how much I will allow them, and strike a bargain beforehand. This I cannot do. I have repeatedly told them, "Upon such a foundation I will not raise a Church in any village." What is the consequence? They draw back. Now I have still not the least doubt of the sincerity of their desire to embrace Christianity. They often feel the Truth very deeply; their hearts are touched when they hear the Word; but, THEY ARE HINDOOS. We do indeed want much wisdom, grace, patience, and love, in dealing with such a people.

KRISHNAGHUR.

Trials—Efforts of the Papacy—Inadequacy of the Protestant Missionary Force.

The Krishnaghur Mission, which has hitherto excited the devout thanksgivings and the lively hopes of the friends of the Society, now claims their sympathy, and their prayers in its behalf, under severe and repeated trials, with which it has pleased the Lord to afflict it.

Two of the five districts into which the Mission is divided have been visited, in the course of the last year, with sickness of unusual severity; and many Christians have fallen victims. Another district has been deprived, by death, of its long-trying and experienced Pastor, the Rev. A. H. Alexander, of Solo. And all the districts, but especially the Chief, or Sudder District, have been afflicted with a more fearful moral evil, in the introduction of Romish Errors, by the arrival of a Spanish Jesuit Priest, having large charitable funds at his disposal, who has been using his endeavours to seduce to Popery the recent Converts from Heathenism. He has secured a large piece of ground in the centre of the Chief Station, and in the most conspicuous part of it, on which he proposes to erect, at a large cost, a Church, Dwelling-house, Schools, &c.

Thus, with 130 millions of Heathen in India, lying in gross darkness, does the Church of Rome turn aside to address its labours to a few recent Christian Converts, who had been taught and fostered by the care of others, endeavouring to enlarge its borders, according to its ancient character, fore-shown by the Word of God, through the APOSTACY of Christians rather than through the conversion of the Heathen.

The Committee have been furnished with a very able and important Minute by the Rev. J. H. Pratt, Chaplain of the Bishop of Calcutta, who has three times, at intervals, visited the district.

From this Minute it clearly appears, that throughout the whole district nominally under the charge of the Missionaries, the Christian families do not amount to more than one in 44: and that the present number of Missionaries is inadequate to discharge the duties of ministering to the Native Christians, and at the same time of preaching to the Heathen and Mahomedans around them.

Under these circumstances, and the trials alluded to, it will excite no surprise to hear that the number of persons under Christian instruction in Krishnaghur has, during the last year, somewhat decreased, and that very few fresh Converts have joined the Church.

Nevertheless, within the fold the work of grace has, we trust, made manifest advance, wherein we may greatly rejoice.

General Progress of the Gospel.

The Rev. C. H. Blumhardt, at the Sudder Station, writes—

Those of my Christians who have remained faithful have, I am happy to remark, given me every reason to rejoice, and to hope that my work among them is not lost. In the midst of many and great temptations, they have remained stedfast, and are, I hope, resolved to remain so to the end. Their conversation is as it becometh the Gospel of Christ, and they seem to be savingly impressed with the truth as it is in Jesus.

The Rev. C. T. Krauss, of the Kabastanga Station, reports, November 1845—

A decided improvement, both in the School and the Congregation, is, I am thankful to say, visible; which is a most encouraging sign that our labour is not in vain in the Lord.

And the late Rev. A. H. Alexander, in a short Report given only a few days before his death, states —

I rejoice to say that we are still permitted to see a blessing upon the work of our hands. May the Lord be pleased to heal the wounds of our Converts generally, and enable them to know the Lord!

Hopeful Death of a Native Teacher.

One of the Native Teachers at Solo has been removed by death during the last year ; but has left a blessed testimony of the reality of his conversion, and an encouragement to our labours for the raising up of Native Agency to carry forward the work of evangelization. The late Mr. Alexander thus refers to this case, in a Letter dated May 31, 1845—

It is my painful duty to have to record the death, by small-pox, of Jadoo, Catechist. I have not the slightest doubt of his change being an everlasting gain to him. He was faithful in life, and enjoyed a well-grounded hope in death. He was respected by many, and loved by some, I may say by all who could appreciate his labours of love. He never conceived his duties to be done ; nor did his ardent desire for the establishment of Christ's kingdom ever abate. He was really one of those who had left all for Christ ; counting all things but loss that he might be found in Him.

Education.

The chief and most encouraging features in this department are the Christian Boys' and Girls' Boarding-schools. The numbers in these Schools, in June 1845, were, boys, 298 ; girls, 163. Of these Schools Mr. Krauss reports, November 1845—

They are a source of real pleasure and joy, notwithstanding all the trouble, anxiety, and daily cares which they involve. They form the chief part of our Mission work ; and will, I trust, under God, prove a great blessing to future generations.

The Rev. J. H. Pratt writes—

These Schools give the Missionaries great satisfaction ; and my own opinion is, that they are the GREAT HOPE, under God's blessing, of the Missions. Some of the boys—only a few at present—have returned to help their parents in the cultivation of the soil, and manifest the beneficial effect of their having been trained under the eye and care of the Missionaries. These Schools are the nurseries for the future generations of Christians : from them many of the parents, the native instructors, the cultivators of the soil, will spring ; and the character of the Christians of the next generation will be greatly influenced by these institutions. The more, therefore, that they can be enlarged the better. The Native Christians are at present too poor to support their children in the Schools : we trust that the next or following generation may be of a higher order. But, in the meantime, we are obliged to maintain and clothe the children at the cost of 1000*l.* a year, no part of which is contributed out of the general funds of the Church Missionary Society ; but by special contributions of friends, chiefly in India, to this object.

Of an English School for Heathen boys at the Sudder Station Mr. Blumhardt writes—

This School was in a very flourishing and hopeful condition, till the order of Government was issued that a College should be established here on the same principles as the Hindoo College in Calcutta, where the Christian Religion is studiously and deliberately kept away from them. Since this new order has gone forth, nearly all my boys have left, and are anxious to be admitted into the proposed College.

In the several Stations there are also Vernacular Schools, containing between 400 and 500 children.

Visit of the Bishop of Madras, and the Archdeacon of Calcutta, to this Mission.

The Ven. Archdeacon Dealtry, in a Letter to the Bishop of Calcutta, dated March 7, 1846, and written just after spending a week in visiting the Districts, thus writes—

With regard to the general state of the Missions, nothing can be more encouraging. At every Station it did my soul good to see what was going on. Earnestly did I wish that those half-hearted worldly-minded men, who tell us that nothing is doing in our Missions, could be transported for a little while to these Districts. It would, I am sure, silence their objections, and put to shame their doubts and suspicions.

In one of the Churches the Archdeacon was preaching; and having described the former Heathen state of the people as one of misery and death, he asked, from the pulpit, whether they were not thankful to God their Saviour for having brought them out of such a state. He says—

To have heard the burst of feeling which resounded from every quarter of the Church! “Yes, indeed we are! indeed we are!” Oh! it would have done any one good to have heard it. My own heart, and those of several of my Reverend brethren present, were full to overflowing. Surely, I said to myself, the Lord is with this people, and His glory is here most distinctly manifest.

The Archdeacon concludes a long and interesting Letter with these words—

These Mission spots in the different Districts have been likened to an Oasis in the desert. They are such; but only with this difference: the Oasis is limited and stationary; but the bright spots in these Districts are expanding and spreading, like leaven which leaveneth the whole lump.

From this Station two of the Labourers have been removed in the course of the year—the Rev. G. Stolzenberg by death, and the Rev. E. Johnson having returned to England for the recovery of his health.

The Rev. Messrs. W. Smith, C. B. Leupolt, D. Hechler, and

P. L. Sandberg, with Mr. Mackay, are now engaged in carrying on the Mission.

Christian Village—Erection of a Church—Christian Congregation.

A new and important step has been taken by the erection of a Christian village on a piece of ground adjoining the Mission premises, on which nine married couples from among the orphan scholars had been located before the end of the year. A spacious and substantial Church is also being built, in the semi-gothic style, in the Mission Compound.

Respecting this flock the Rev. C. B. Leupolt writes—

Our work is going on well. The Lord is still with us. I have of late seen some signs which convince me that there is not merely a form of godliness, but that its power also is manifested among us. I hope that, with the beginning of next year, our Native Christians, although poor, will support a Christian Reader to preach the Word in their stead to Hindoos and Mahomedans. They believe that the command, Preach the Gospel to every creature, is binding upon them; and therefore wish to follow the example of the Church at Thessalonica in sending the Gospel abroad—1 Thess. i. 8. O that every Protestant Congregation throughout the world would do the same!

Preaching to the Heathen.

The Missionaries continue to preach daily to the Heathen. Mr. Smith writes—

I have gone on as usual in my visits to the city—eight or ten times a week—beside my two Services on the Lord's-day. Friday morning I have set apart for receiving visits from the Natives. There are, I believe, a few who are thoughtful upon the subject of Christianity; but I have no Candidates for Baptism. I might have baptized two or three, but I must afterward have found employment for them; and I cannot administer the holy rite where the Candidate's primary object is maintenance, not salvation.

Encouraging Case of Adult Baptism.

The case of a Convert recently baptized affords peculiar encouragement, as showing the great change which is taking place in the power of Brahminical superstition, even in the city of Benares.

A respectable and able young man, the only son of parents of some wealth, had received his education in a Government School, and obtained a situation as an accountant. After some time he went on a pilgrimage, with a Brahmin engaged by his father to accompany him. During this journey he heard and embraced the Truth, and was baptized at Benares.

His parents at first turned him out of their house, and refused to allow him the necessaries of life. A proposition was made to him to recant, and that he should be re-admitted to his forfeited privileges after he should have gone on pilgrimage to Juggernaut, and thence to Benares, and have fed 500 Brahmins. The only appeal of the Christian youth was to his Bible. At length his parents relented, and were reconciled to him; his mother declaring that, whatever her son might believe, she was sure he had become a better son, and the father acknowledging that Christianity made obedient and good children.

Education.

The Orphan Boys' Institution, since the death of Mr. Stolzenberg, has been under the care of Mr. Leupolt. The number of boys is 70.

The Christian orphan girls are instructed in the same School with Heathen girls. The whole number is 124.

Respecting these Schools the Local Committee at Benares write—

The Committee feel a peculiar satisfaction in recording their sense of the valuable and solid nature of the education imparted to the orphans, both boys and girls. At the last quarterly examination, which lasted during parts of two days, they were found to be well-grounded in the Scriptures, and able to compare spiritual things with spiritual; and were thus richly provided with that Divine knowledge which, in some instances, has, they trust, already shown its saving efficacy on their souls. In history, geography, and mental and written arithmetic, they also displayed most creditable progress; and four of the senior boys passed a good examination in a chapter of St. John's Gospel in the Greek Testament.

The English School for Heathen boys, called Jay Narain's Free School, contains 275 scholars. It was under the care of Mr. Johnson during the first part of the year, and subsequently of Mr. Sandberg, assisted by Mr. Wilkinson and Mr. Mackay. Respecting this School Mr. Sandberg writes, in a Letter dated June 2, 1845—

The boys in our Institution are instructed in the Word of God: it is the basis of all our instruction. I know, also, from the questions which they frequently ask concerning difficult passages, that they read their Bibles at home.

It is, alas! too true, that at present the soil remains unproductive; yet none can doubt, when conversing with the students, many of whom are fathers of families, that even now the seed of eternal truth, sown for many years past, is beginning to germinate. And though we may not be permitted to see the fruit ripen, and gathered into the garner of the Lord; yet that such a time will come, ere long, is the impression of every observer of the Lord's work here.

Beside my occupation at School, I have had frequent visits from Natives, generally accompanied by some of the students from College, with whom I freely enter on the all-important subject—the salvation of their souls. Many express their conviction; yet, alas! the fear of man, which bringeth a snare, prevails.

Vernacular Schools are also maintained, and are found, as in other Stations, to be useful in affording opportunities of preaching to the parents. Thus Mr. Mackay writes of a School in Ausanganj—

During my visits I have occasionally had interesting discussions and conversations, both with Hindoos and Mussulmans who had collected to hear the boys examined. I trust that the pure Scriptural knowledge acquired by the boys in this School, and what has been from time to time addressed to the spectators, may be followed by an abundant blessing.

CHUNAR.

The Rev. R. Richards has been carrying on the duties of this Station, during the last year, with as much efficiency as his infirm health has permitted; but the work of the Mission is contracted within narrow limits.

JAUNPORE.

The Rev. R. Hawes has continued to labour at this Station. Divine Service is performed in English, with the Europeans of the Station, every Lord's-day morning, as there is not yet a Native Congregation to require the ministrations of the Missionary.

Preaching to the Heathen.

Mr. Hawes daily takes his Station upon the bridge of Jaunpore, which is the greatest thoroughfare in or near the city, and there constantly proclaims the message of salvation to all who will listen. He is sometimes encouraged by an attentive audience. He also visits, with the assistance of two Native Catechists, the villages near the Station, and has made a Missionary tour as far as Benares.

Education.

A Free School, for teaching the English language, is conducted by Mr. J. P. Cæsar; and though the number of scholars has fallen off during the last year, and now only amounts to 90, yet there is a greater degree of attention and interest manifested in the reading of the Holy Scriptures.

Under the date June 21, 1845, Mr. Hawes writes—

The half-yearly examination of the Free School was held this morning. All is going on well, and full of promise for the future.

There are also Vernacular Schools, comprising, in the whole, about 60 children.

GORRUCKPORE.

The Farm—Hindoostanee Service.

The Rev. J. P. Mengé has had the sole charge of this Station during the last year. He resides in the town, and from thence visits the farm established in the neighbourhood, which is the property of the Society, and is cultivated by Native-Christian families, under the superintendence of a pious Catechist. There are now 25 families, comprising 96 souls, residing there. Daily Morning and Evening Prayers are conducted by the Catechist in the Church, and on the Lord's-day morning Mr. Mengé has a full Hindoostanee Service there. In the afternoon he has a Hindoostanee Service in the Station Church of Gorruckpore.

Education.

An Orphan Girls' School contains 19 pupils.

Several zealous friends of the cause of Christ, in the service of the Honourable East-India Company, have subscribed liberally for the establishment of an English School at Gorruckpore, to be connected with the Mission, but to be supported by independent funds. A competent Master has been engaged; and it is hoped that it will materially assist the progress of Missionary work in general, as well as confer important benefits upon the native population. It is stated—

The Bible is regularly studied by all the boys, and the School is opened and closed with prayer. The beautiful prayer by Dr. Arnold, in an Oordoo dress, is the one most frequently used, with the Lord's Prayer, and such Collects as are suitable. The number of pupils, at the close of six months, was 163.

AGRA.

This Mission has been carried on, during the last year, by the same Missionaries as in the former year—the Rev. Messrs. C. G. Pfander and F. A. Kreiss taking charge of the Congregation and Mission work in the city; and the Rev. Messrs. C. T. Hærnle and F. E. Schneider superintending the Congregations and Schools at Secundra.

Congregation—Baptisms.

The Congregation in the city numbers only about 60, including children. Two adults have been baptized in the course of the year.

Preaching to the Heathen—Discussions with Mahomedans.

The Missionaries daily go forth to preach in the city and adjacent villages, with their Catechists, or alone. Mr. Pfander writes—

We always meet with hearers. Sometimes large crowds will collect around us, and hear attentively: at other times only a few. At one time they will hear quietly, even when the folly of their idolatry is exposed: at another time they contend violently for their errors and superstitions, and their hissings and yells follow us on our leaving them.

A large proportion of the inhabitants of the city are Mahomedans. Mr. Pfander has published three controversial Tracts against the pretensions of the false prophet, which have excited much attention, and called forth elaborate replies from the most learned Natives. He is continually engaged in controversy, both by letters and orally.

Education—Orphan Establishments.

There are four Day-schools in the city, containing about 179 scholars.

At Secundra, near the city, two Orphan Establishments, for males and females, are sustained by local subscriptions, under the management of the Missionaries; and a Christian village is gradually rising, chiefly composed of the former pupils, who have married, and now support themselves by labour. The Agra Committee report—

A Christian character is being more and more formed in many; and the little, but yearly increasing village, joined to the Boys' Institution, begins to show the features of a Christian community: in some, also, a work of grace may be discovered.

And Mr. Hørnle writes—

Divine Services are regularly held in the Church; the Congregation comprising forty families. The subscriptions to the Church Fund have increased, and the Poor Fund, formed from the surplus of the Church Fund, now amounts to 172 rupees.

The orphan boys number 99, and the girls 55. All are instructed in some useful manufacture or trade, and a printing-press is mainly worked by their labour. The Local Committee report—

The Committee think they are justified in saying that a considerable step has been gained in the increased stability of these Institutions, both as regards the attachment of the orphans to the Establishment, and the securing for them employment and permanent support.

Mr. Hørnle also writes respecting them—

Some of the elder boys are well versed in the Scriptures, and show signs of being impressed with the truth as it is in Jesus. I have often observed them conversing on religious subjects, in an appropriate manner, with the Heathen and Mahomedans around them. Twenty-five boys were confirmed, by the Bishop of Calcutta, in the beginning of last year, and eleven have been admitted, after due preparation, to the Lord's Supper.

Missionary Tours.

During the cold season the Missionaries are accustomed to make extensive tours through the adjacent countries; when they are accompanied by Native Catechists, and pitch their tents at different villages, preaching and distributing Tracts and Books, and thus diffusing a general knowledge of the great facts of Christianity far and wide throughout the country, especially among the village population.

Visitation of the Bishop of Calcutta—Account of the Mission, by the Rev. J. H. Pratt.

In February of last year the Rev. J. H. Pratt, Chaplain of the Bishop of Calcutta, visited Agra with his Lordship; and he speaks in the following encouraging terms of the state of the Mission in comparison with its state upon a former visit above four years previously—

The progress made in the Church Missionary Society's Mission, since the Bishop was last here, in November 1840, is encouraging indeed. It was truly cheering, at the close of 1840, to see what bright prospects were opening upon this long-neglected Mission. It is still more cheering now, in the beginning of 1845, to see how steadily the hopes then entertained are being realized.

Mr. Kreiss and Mr. Pfander preach regularly in the bazaars of Agra, each of them once a day, and very frequently twice a day. Their Congregations vary—from 20 to 100 of the passers-by. I went one evening with Mr. Pfander to one of their city Chapels: the Catechist, William Churun, so long a faithful Labourer under the Rev. M. Wilkinson, was reading and explaining a portion of Scripture to about twenty people when we arrived. After a while Mr. Pfander began by reading the text, Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, &c. It is very interesting to trace the line of argument which the Missionaries pursue, and to see how they adapt themselves to the people whom they address.

The good effect of this constant preaching in these great thoroughfares is, I believe, beyond calculation. Men's consciences are being stirred up from their slumber; their minds are being informed; and the truths they are taught come so home to their actual miseries and their forlorn condition, that nothing seems to be required but the life-giving power of the Spirit of God.

Mr. Pfander is also much employed in conducting controversies, in writing, with learned Natives. He has been well prepared for these controversies by his long residence of twelve years in Persia in the prosecution of his Missionary labours; which country he was compelled to quit, with his companions, about six years ago, in consequence of its disturbed state. Pamphlets have been lately written by learned Mahomedans in Calcutta, Lucknow, Allahabad, and Agra, on the subject of Christianity; and it is believed that the controversies which are being carried on in this place excite a considerable interest among some of the better classes.

But perhaps the improved state of this Mission is not seen in any thing more than in the progress which the Orphan Institutions, and Christian Village, at Secundra, have made during the last four years.

Mr. Pratt then describes the flourishing state of the manufacturing department of the Orphan Institution, and especially of the Printing-press, which is a chief means of support to the Institution, and is employed by the Government to print the North-West Provinces Gazette. He also remarks that the agricultural labours of many of the villagers now enable them to pay a small rent for their ground in aid of the Mission funds, after providing for the support of their families.

Mr. Pratt concludes his remarks with the following general review—

Thus a comparison of the present with the past shows that the Mission is by no means diminishing in activity and prosperity. We should nevertheless rejoice to see, in the midst of all this apparatus of means, more stirring proofs of the power of vital godliness among the Native Christians; for this, after all, is, and should be, our grand object—to train them for eternity. The Missionaries themselves would rejoice to see more signs of divine life in the hearts of their people; and for this end we should be fervent in our prayers, that the Holy Spirit from on high may be poured out upon these rising communities, that we may see them, and hear of them, adorning the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. These remarks, however, are not made in the spirit of disparagement; because, after all, when we allow for circumstances, these little flocks will well bear comparison with most villages in our own Christian country, which has been favoured with far higher privileges, and for a far longer season.

Destitution of this Station—Visit of the Rev. M. Wilkinson.

It is with deep regret that the Committee report that they have not had any Missionary at liberty whom it was possible to appoint to this Station. It was visited by the Rev. M. Wilkinson, on his Journey to Simla, who thus writes respecting it in his Journal—

We preached at Meerut on Good Friday, the 21st of March 1845. On Lord's-day I had Service at the Hindoostanee Chapel, baptized ten children, and administered the Sacrament to 41 persons. The Congregation amounted to about 100. My heart was wrung at seeing so many as sheep having no shepherd. It is now more than two years since the Rev. R. Richards left. The people's hearts revived at thinking that I was come to remain among them, and sank again on my telling them I was not. It is with great reluctance that I shall pass on, leaving such a Congregation behind me wholly destitute. Here is a House, Chapel, and Congregation, and an immense population: not fewer than 500 might at once be brought under instruction, including Portuguese, &c.

In closing the Report of the Calcutta and North-India Mission, the Committee will add a few notices, furnished in the communications of different experienced Missionaries, of the change of opinion which is evidently going on in the minds of the unconverted Natives, under the influence of the preaching of the Gospel; and of the indications of the final triumph of the cause of Christ.

The Rev. J. J. Weitbrecht, describing in his Report the general state of things in the District of Burdwan, writes—

Though I cannot perceive any marked change in this populous District, I believe many are well disposed, and see the Truth in a clearer light, and often converse together on the time when Christianity will prevail among them.

The Rev. R. Hawes, in reporting the results of his visits to the different towns and villages near Jaunpore, writes—

The general features of the work on these occasions have been such as to afford encouragement to renewed exertion. In one village, a Brahmin, with whom we were arguing, was opposed by a man of lower caste, who advocated the truth of our teaching; and, during the discussion, quoted part of a Religious Tract, which he had received from a Missionary on a former occasion. This open approval and vindication of Christian truth, in opposition to the efforts of a Brahmin, then sitting before his Idol's shrine, to support Hindooism, is a proof that the system of error, which has so long held the people of this benighted land in moral degradation and spiritual bondage, is "tottering to its fall."

Another very remarkable evidence of the change that is taking place in the very interior of Heathenism has manifested itself in Calcutta and its neighbourhood. Mr. De Rozario, of Agurparah, writes—

The Gospel is working its way in the hearts of men round about us. Respectable and influential bodies of men are struggling between the claims of truth and error. The very Brahmins who, eighteen months ago, strenuously opposed our establishing a Bengalee School among them, lest we should subvert the religion of their forefathers, are now engaged in declaiming against error and superstition. They find the ground of idolatry to be no longer tenable; but, as Christianity requires many sacrifices for which they are not yet prepared, they have adopted Vedantism as a compromising system between the two. Two Shobhas have been formed, one at Penhetty and the other at Kamarhatta. At one of these Meetings, held on the 1st of November, a great number of people, both high and low, assembled. The President, a Brahmin, read a portion of the Vedanta, and three other Brahmins, by turns, addressed the assembly, crying down idolatry. They afterward sang a few hymns in praise of the one living God. I ascribe all this to the preaching of the Gospel and the reading of our Scriptures and Tracts. We are assured that these excitements, though begun with undefined principles and sordid motives, and apparently in opposition to the Gospel, will end in its final triumph.

And the Rev. J. Long writes—

Times are changing. A few years ago an educated Native would repudiate Hindooism, and admit the truth of Christianity: now I find that they resort to Vedantism as a kind of half-way house, in which they may lay aside the gross errors of Hindooism without admitting the Divine origin of Christianity.

The Committee regard these signs of the times as a call and encouragement to place our Missions on such an efficient footing that we may be ready to take full advantage of any fresh openings which the Lord may design to grant to His waiting and praying people.*

Mission Establishment :

Arrival of the Rev. M. Wilkinson—Proceedings.

THE Rev. M. Wilkinson and his family arrived at Simla on the 30th of March 1845, and immediately proceeded to Kotghur. After labouring, however, for a few months in that neighbourhood, and making some Missionary tours into the surrounding States, he was compelled, under medical directions, to remove to Simla, as presenting a climate more congenial with his constitution, and also the advantage of immediate medical assistance.

Kotghur, which is situated in the midst of the Hill population, and upon the high road to Thibet, must still be regarded as the centre of the Himalaya Mission. But it may also be found advisable to have a Missionary permanently stationed at Simla, to support, in many ways, the Missionary operations at Kotghur, and also to sustain the interest of the European residents at Simla in the undertaking: it was in reliance upon the promise that the cost of the Mission, beyond the salaries of two Missionaries, should be defrayed by local resources, that the Society consented to adopt the Mission.

KOTGHUR.

The Rev. G. D. Prochnow, and Mr. A. Rudolph, have laboured at this Station during the last year.

* Further accounts of the Calcutta and North-India Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for May 1845, pp. 102—110; Sept. 1845, pp. 207—212; Jan. 1846, pp. 16—20; Feb. 1846, p. 26; and April 1846, pp. 82—89.

Means of Usefulness.

As it was stated in the last Report, the Mission work in this District must, for some time to come, consist in the establishment of small Village Schools, and itinerating among the scattered population of the Mountains. A few opportunities only occur of addressing the people at places of public resort: these have not been neglected. A great fair at Rampore has been thus visited. Mr. Prochnow has also taken extensive tours, and distributed, on such occasions, many Thibetian and Hinduwee Tracts. In Kanawar he met with many wandering Tartars from Central Asia, who were willing to receive, and able to understand, the Thibetian Tracts.

A small Congregation is assembled each Lord's-day, comprising chiefly the native servants from the Plains and the School children; numbering, however, six Native Communicants.

In the Report of the Rev. G. D. Prochnow, for the quarter ending Sept. 30, 1845, the following passage occurs—

We have had many visitors here in our solitude during this season—among them, His Royal Highness Prince Waldemar of Prussia, coming from the borders of Thibet. He spent a Saturday and Lord's-day here, saw the School, and attended Divine Service.

One instance I could mention, to show that the distribution of Tracts is not in vain. In the beginning of this month a Captain H——, from Kanawar, paid me a visit, and told me that he had found, beyond the boundaries of Kanawar, in Chinese Tartary, some of the Thibetian Tracts which I had distributed in Lower Kanawar, and Busahir, during my three journeys to the wandering Tartars, and that the people esteemed them much. On his inquiring for their books, as he was anxious to learn the language, one of these Tracts was given to him. Who knows what these little ambassadors of grace may do in secret, under the blessing of God?

Mr. Rudolph has zealously devoted himself to the Schools at Kotghur, which contain from 20 to 30 boys. Under his care they made good progress in English and Arithmetic; but it was found difficult to retain the children at School for any sufficient time. At the close of the year, Mr. Rudolph relinquished his connexion with the Society, and the elder boys of the School were drafted off to Mr. Wilkinson's School at Simla.

SIMLA.

Mr. Wilkinson, upon his return to Simla, immediately commenced his Missionary work. He gives the following account of Simla in his Report, Oct. 30, 1845—

Simla is a sanatorium for invalids from the plains of India—a retreat for the civil and military officers, and a place of fashionable resort for people who have the means of gratifying their inclinations. The number of English houses is about 200. The residents number about 50, and the visitors vary from 300 to 350. There is no native town, but an immense bazaar, where tradesmen of every description are located—some permanently, the most only visitors for the season. They are generally from the Plains and Cashmere, and leave their families at home.

Education.

Mr. Wilkinson immediately commenced the establishment of Native Schools at Simla. In a Letter, dated Feb. 14, 1846, he writes—

Hitherto I have found abundant work here. I have now three Schools—one at my own house, which I teach myself, and one at either end of Simla. I every day get a few people together on the highway, or in the bazaar, both morning and evening, when I am able to get out. In what is called the season, from 300 to 400 men can be collected together every Lord's-day for an hour, i.e. during Divine Service. These men come from all the different States, and remain for eight or nine months in the year.

The number of boys at the close of the year, in the three Schools, was about 50. Respecting the School in his own house Mr. Wilkinson writes more fully, March 25—

Twenty-five boys, all of high caste, live with me as boarders. They attend our Family Worship daily, and make no objection. On Sundays they learn the Collect, Catechism, &c., and attend Divine Service. By their living with us, and having no counteracting influence, they are getting attached to us—I have no Native Teacher—and willingly do any thing and every thing we wish them. This is but a beginning of good yet to come; but I do feel that it is a good beginning, and am thankful.

The Punjaub.

Though the hopes of the Committee in commencing this Mission, as a field of peculiar promise, have not been realized; yet they cannot but recognise the hand of God in leading the Society to this spot: for the late war with the Sikhs, in its immediate neighbourhood, has given an interest and importance to the Mission; and the success which has attended the British arms has created an additional obligation upon British Christians to raise a monument of their gratitude amid the scenes of such signal mercies.

Kotghur is situated upon the banks of the Sutledge; and the language of the inhabitants is the same with that of the hilly parts of the Punjaub. There is also frequent intercourse across the river. Simla is also the Station from which the General of the army proceeded to open the late campaign, and to which he returned after his victories. The Committee would regard it as premature to attempt a Mission in the Punjaub itself; but they trust that the Himalaya Mission will afford an advanced post, from whence, eventually, a band of Christian warriors may be sent forth to carry the banners of the Cross into those countries which have been subdued to the British Crown, and opened to British enterprise.

Death, and munificent Legacy, of W. Gorton, Esq.

The death of the late President of the Himalaya Corresponding Committee was announced in a note in the last Report. He had been a munificent benefactor to the Mission during his life; and, to perpetuate his annual benefaction of 100*l., bequeathed, at his death, the sum of 22,000 rupees to trustees; the interest thereof to be applied to "the support of the Mission Establishment at Kotghur, in connexion with the Church Missionary Society of London, in such manner as they may think proper."

MADRAS.

Congregations—Schools—Baptisms.

There are three Congregations—one in Black Town, one in John Pereira's, and one at Perambore—comprising 218 adults; and six Schools, containing about 300 children. The two principal Congregations are reported to be "in a very improved and improving state, in regard to real piety and moral character." Two adults were baptized during the last year.

Urgent Need of additional Missionaries.

The attention of a single Missionary is necessarily con-

financed almost exclusively to the pastoral care of the Congregations and Schools; and hence the large masses of the Heathen and Mahomedan population, residing in a British Presidency are scarcely touched by Missionary labour. It must be remembered that the masses thus left under the dominion of darkness comprise multitudes who have received a liberal and intelligent education in English, and that they are rapidly rising into importance. In a Minute, dated Aug. 27, 1841 the Secretary of the Corresponding Committee writes—

Looking, then, at this body as a large mass of matter moving toward us, and demanding our most serious attention as Christians and as representatives of a Missionary Society, it becomes a most grave question for our consideration—What efforts or preparations are being made, by ourselves or other Christian Bodies, to meet such wants as these? The Church Missionary Society has nothing whatever in preparation or operation. It surely behoves the Society to reflect upon the past, the present, and the future; and to consider whether at the expiration of 32 years, while every thing about us is moving forward, our Mission, in the centre of this population, ought to be in its present feeble and contracted condition; with a smaller Congregation, if we take number as our standard, than it had some years ago.

It is right to bring such statements before the Society. The Committee feel the force of the appeal; but they cannot alas! respond to it, with so limited a number of Missionaries at their disposal.

Institution—Ordination of a Student.

The greatest number of pupils in the Institution at any one time was eight; but twelve have, during the year, resided in it. One was admitted to Deacons' Orders, and the Committee have received a satisfactory testimony, from the Bishop and from the examining Chaplain, as to the examination which he passed. Two of the other pupils have returned to the Institution, to be prepared for Deacons' Orders, having completed two years' service in the Mission-field as Catechists. Of the whole number, four have been Natives and the remainder Indo-Britons or Europeans.

TINNEVELLY.

Accession of Labourers, and still further subdivision of the Mission into Districts.

The Committee rejoice to say that they have been enabled to send additional Missionaries into this field; so that the subdivision of Districts—upon which, as it has been frequently stated, the main hope of extending Christianity throughout the District depends—has been carried forward. The number of Districts is now eleven, and 14 Missionary Clergymen are labouring in them.

Increase of Converts—Influence of Christianity upon the Heathen.

There has been, during the year, a large increase of the number of persons brought under Christian instruction. In Jan. 1845 the number amounted to 23,868, and in Jan. 1846 to 30,698; being a blessed increase of 6850 souls brought, in one year, out of the darkness of Heathenism to the light of the Gospel.

During the same period there has also been the large addition of 1786 to the number of baptized Converts, so that that class now amounts to the number of 12,525.

The Committee derive the more satisfaction from the contemplation of the progress of Christianity in Tinnevely, because there has been a like success in the labours of a kindred Society in the same field. The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts has been signally blessed, during the last year, by the addition, through its means, of many thousand souls to the Christian Church.

The following extracts from the communications of the Missionaries refer to the increase of the Converts, and the general influence of Christianity upon the Heathen.

The Rev. J. T. Tucker writes, in his Journal, Jan. 5, 1845—

At the Morning Service 25 families, all inhabitants of Panneivilei, joined the Congregation; at the head of them an old Pandaram, who had despised and rejected the Gospel for many years, but is at last persuaded to become a Christian. . . . The conversion of these people from the worship of devils to the profession of Christianity has been, in a great measure, effected through the active exertions and zeal of one of the leading men of my Congregation. . . . The probability of many others turning from Heathenism to learn the doctrines of Christianity induces me to settle at once that I will build, without delay, a substantial Church.

In March 1845 the same Missionary writes—

You will be gratified to hear that I have, through God's mercy, been able to plant the standard of the Cross in a stronghold of Satan at Kadampore. Thirteen families last week gave up to me a Devil-temple, destroyed the idols, and invited me to hold Divine Service in it; with which request I very gladly complied.

From another District, Suviseshapooram, the Rev. E. Sargent writes, in his Report for the Half-year ending Dec. 31, 1844—

There are comparatively few Heathen in the eight villages forming the Athiseyapooram District; and among these there is a shaking. Among the more bigotted there is an outcry that the Devil-temples are now deserted, and that the offerings acceptable to the idols are withheld; while at the same time there is a strong impression, very prevalent, that Christianity will eventually be the religion of the country. So FASHIONABLE is it, in some places, to cast off the old superstitions and become Christians, that I have found many Heathen offering to contribute toward the erection of our Churches; and intimating their intention, at some convenient time, of themselves learning the Vedam, i. e. Christianity.

The Rev. J. Thomas, reviewing the progress of Christianity in the Meignanapooram District during the previous year, writes, in his Report for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1844—

At the close of 1843 there were under instruction 3779 souls: at the close of this year the total is 4576; showing an increase of 797 during the year; and this has been effected with the utmost quietness. Thus the work is going on, the leavening principle of the Gospel is at work, and I have no doubt that very soon the whole Shanar population of Tinnevely will renounce Heathenism, and come over to Christianity.

Persecution of the Christians.

Still more remarkable events have taken place in the Nulloor District, which is the most northernly District in the province, and stretches to a distance of 70 or 80 miles from the Missionary Station.

In this District, during the early part of 1845, there were considerable accessions to the Christian Congregations; and at the same time many instances of partial, but violent persecution occurred on the part of the Heathen—Churches being destroyed, individuals seriously ill treated, and false accusations brought against the Christians. But at the end of June the Rev. P. P. Schaffter wrote, in his Report for the half-year—

Amid all these troubles, and, in some instances, by means of them, no fewer than 1402 souls have embraced the Christian Religion during the last six months. Many more have applied for Christian instruction; but I have not thought it expedient to put them on the List, either because their motives are exceedingly suspicious, or because they have but very lately applied, and I must be careful not to put every thing in a bustle.

In the month of November a more systematic and violent persecution broke out. An exasperated mob, of many hundreds of persons, and which increased to nearly three thousand—excited and headed by emissaries from some of the Heathen Societies, established for the support of Heathenism, called the “Ashes Societies”—attacked some Christian villages, robbed the people of all their goods, and beat and ill-used them in the most cruel manner; offering, at the same time, that any Christian who would rub ashes on his forehead—a token of Heathenism—should be preserved from injury. The destruction of property was very great, and many Christians were reduced to beggary. The Missionary and his family were in much personal danger, to which they exposed themselves in defence and encouragement of their people.

At length, the Magistrate of the District arrived with a sufficient force to quell the disturbance, and to arrest the chief aggressors.

In many instances the recent Converts were induced, through terror, to renounce Christianity; but a large body stood firm to their profession, and suffered the loss of all things rather than deny the faith. Mr. Schaffter writes, in a Letter dated Nov. 25—

I have reason to thank the Lord, that in these days of persecution—for I cannot call it any thing else—many things tend to prove to the Heathen that Christianity is not such a very weak thing as, in the pride of their hearts, they were led to imagine.

In another Letter, dated Jan. 19, 1846, Mr. Schaffter writes—

To this day the new Congregations, amounting to more than two thousand individuals, remain quite steady in their adherence to Christianity; and I have very good hope that they will remain so. I have often been surprised at the unshaken and uncompromising attachment to the Christian Religion, which, during this trying season, some of these poor people have manifested. They, as well as some of the Catechists, have worked, I may say, night and day to support the Christian cause; and with an alacrity and a zeal which often revived my own. Had it not been for this, I do not know what, at times, I should have done. They have never shrunk from the most unpleasant, and sometimes dangerous duties, the performance of which would not fail to bring on them the ill-will of many powerful enemies. I know, also, that a few of them have resisted temptations, which a Native of this country is little prepared to resist—bribes, and such things.

Spiritual Advancement of the Converts.

The Committee do not measure the progress of a Mission merely by the increase of numbers: they still anxiously look for evidences of the growth in grace of the Converts, and for the manifestation, in their lives, of the fruits of a living faith.

Mr. Thomas writes in his Report, at the close of the year 1844—

The most important part of a Missionary's report is not that which gives the number of souls under Christian instruction, the numbers who have joined from Heathenism, or the numbers baptized; but it is that which informs us of the spiritual condition of the people—the number respecting whom there is reason to conclude that they have passed from death unto life, and from the power of Satan unto God. The marked increase of evangelical knowledge among the people is a fact which calls for the deepest gratitude: many have been the instances in which I have been astonished at the intelligent answers which I have received from different persons whom I have questioned upon the subject of Religion . . . The conduct of the Communicants has been very satisfactory; and there is a marked improvement in them year by year . . . I believe that there is also a work of the Spirit going on in the hearts of a vast number, who are quietly, unobtrusively, and humbly walking with God.

Mr. Sargent states, in his Report of the Suviseshapooram District for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1844—

As far as externals are concerned, I am able to state that the improvement formerly commenced has been steadily progressing during the past year . . . Over this we have reason to rejoice; but this is not our chief or only object; for we cannot consider our work as at an end, till every member of our Congregations is made a living stone of that Spiritual Temple, of which our Saviour Christ is the chief corner stone.

Progress of Religious Societies.

The various Societies established by the Native Converts for religious and benevolent objects have continued in active operation. The Tamul Tract Society has issued several new and instructive Tracts, and an edition of the Common Prayer, consisting of 10,000 copies. Each District has its Benevolent Societies, and its Church-building Society. The District of Dohnavoor may furnish an example. The Rev. E. Dent relates, in his Report for the year 1844—

The District Poor Fund is steadily thriving, and we have no reason to complain of the readiness of the people to forward its object; which is to provide the poor in the Congregations with clothes, &c., according to their respective wants.

The Second Anniversary Meeting of the Church-building Society was held at Dohnavoor on the 1st of January 1845, when a numerous assembly was present to hear the Report of the proceedings of the past year. The thriving state of the funds speaks of the activity and diligence of its members and collectors. The amount realized by subscriptions and donations during the year is Rupees 122.1.6. We insert a brief outline of the Report for the year 1844—

Blessed be God for having permitted us to enter upon a new year. Several, who were with us at the First Anniversary of the Dohnavoor District Church-building Society, helped us with their money and counsel, and rejoiced to see it steadily progressing, are now numbered among the dead. Knowing that our time is limited, let us consecrate ourselves, our strength, and our substance, to the service and glory of our God.

Your Committee have it in contemplation to devote, in future, every year's income toward erecting a good and substantial Church in some one Congregation of the District, where it may be most wanted; which, they have no doubt, will meet with your approbation. Look around you in Tinnevely, and you will see several Heathen pagodas, built at a vast expense, whose towers seem to reach the skies, dedicated to some false god or idol: look again, and you will see several Churches among the Romanists built by spontaneous subscriptions, without any foreign aid: and shall we Christians be less zealous in raising good and decent Places of Worship in which the name of God is to be honoured and adored?

Education.

The various Districts are supplied with Vernacular Schools; and at the central Station, Palamcottah, there is a Seminary for the benefit of the whole Mission, and a flourishing English School, under the charge of Mr. W. Cruickshanks. There is also, at another Station, a Normal Girls' School, under the efficient superintendence of Miss Giberne. Much care is also bestowed by the Missionaries upon the instruction and training of the Catechists, and the more promising youths, to assist in the work of the Missions.

With respect to the Catechists of the District of Meignanapooram, Mr. Thomas writes, in his Report for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1844—

The number of Catechists and Readers is 28. The Catechists having now for several years attended regularly every week for instruction, the result is very apparent, and more than an ample reward for any labour bestowed upon them. I can affirm, with confidence, that the pure Gospel of Christ is taught and set forth by these men in every Congregation. I am of opinion that many of them might, with the greatest propriety, be admitted into Holy Orders; and I would, without hesitation, sign their letters testimonial. May the Holy Spirit remove all obstacles, and raise up fit men to co-operate with us in gathering in the plenteous harvest.

Additional Testimony to the Progress of Christianity.

The Committee have received a very satisfactory testimony, concerning the Missionary work in Tinnevely, from an experienced Missionary, from another field of labour, who lately visited the Province—the Rev. Joseph Peet, of Mavelicare. He writes, in a Letter dated Oct. 29, 1845—

The Catechists—at least those we saw, and we met several—are well instructed; the school-children have a good acquaintance with the fundamental truths of the Scriptures, and show, in their cheerful countenances and respectful demeanour, the beneficial effects of Christian instruction; and altogether the different Missions appear to be in a healthy and prosperous condition . . . We were very much surprised at the progress made by Mr. Cruickshanks' boys: there are some fine intelligent lads among them . . . We visited nearly all the Stations belonging to our own and the Propagation Society; saw most of the Missionaries; and have been greatly refreshed in spirit. When I go home I shall now be prepared to tell many things of which I was ignorant—all to the praise and glory of God; and as an encouragement to the Church to increase her prayers and exertions in the high and sacred cause, Go ye therefore, and teach all nations.

The Bishop of Madras has also lately visited the Mission, and confirmed between three and four thousand Native Christians. His Lordship's Journal has just been published, giving a detailed account of each Mission Station; and on the review of this Visitation, he thus writes—

More than 18,000 souls have renounced idolatry, and placed themselves under Christian instruction, since January 1841, when I last visited these Missions. Thus, in four years and a half, the Christian community in Tinnevely has doubled itself—the increase during that period being equal to the total increase of the fifty-four years which preceded it. . . . Our want of Missionaries is still very great—indeed, I may say, greater than ever : and there does not appear any reason to doubt, that any new Missionary sent out by either Society could collect around him a Congregation of 1000 or 1500 souls in a few months, in any part of the yet unoccupied Missionary field of Tinnevely. . . . I can say no more ; but I trust I have said enough to secure for these Missions the prayers of all Christians who desire to see the extension, in India, of the Redeemer's kingdom ; and to induce those who have the means of doing so to contribute liberally toward their support and enlargement.

Cottayam College.

The Rev. J. Chapman writes, in a Letter dated December 22, 1845—

On the whole, I sincerely hope that the College is in a fair train for accomplishing the object which its founders, supporters, and conductors have had in view ; and that in due time it may furnish many useful men for the spread of Christ's Gospel among the Syrian and Heathen population in these lands.

Since the commencement of the year, three of the elder scholars, who had completed their studies, have entered upon Missionary employment in connexion with the Society ; of whom Mr. Chapman writes, in the same Letter—

All of them, I trust, are young men of promise ; and those with whom they are located express themselves very well pleased both with their attainments and conduct.

Cottayam Village.

Cottayam District.

In the early part of the year the Rev. H. Baker, sen., had the charge of this district. In consequence, however, of the Rev. J. Peet's departure from Mavelicare, on a visit to Europe, several changes took place ; the Rev. J. Hawksworth removing to Mavelicare, and Mr. Baker to Allepie, to supply the place of Mr. Hawksworth, while the Rev. J. Johnson took charge of the Cottayam District.

The Rev. J. Johnson reports respecting the Cottayam District, under date July 14, 1845, that an interesting door of usefulness had been opened in one of the populous villages between two and three miles from Cottayam, named Olasa. After the way had been prepared, by the labours of Native Readers and Schools, a Church was at length built for Divine Service, the ground being given by a Brahmin. Several new Schools had been established in the District; and the District generally wore a more encouraging aspect.

Pallam District.

Pallam and the neighbourhood, having been formed into a separate District, has been placed under the charge of the Rev. H. Baker, jun., who has resided at Pallam, and exercised that pastoral oversight among the people which is necessary where—as Mr. Baker remarks, in a Letter dated Jan. 10, 1846—“the Natives require leading in all the duties like children, and depend upon the Missionary in all their troubles.”

The number of persons under instruction is 160 adults, which exhibits a small increase. Mr. Baker laments, however, the low standard of their Christian attainments. Respecting the means of instruction imparted to the people Mr. Baker writes, in his Letter of Jan. 10—

My Schools are somewhat improved. I have the Masters every Saturday for two hours and a half, when they repeat lessons from Watts's Scripture Catechism, Articles with proofs, Evidences of Christianity, &c. The Readers form a separate class for an hour each week. Our Family Morning Prayer is still attended by the boys of the Pallam School, some of the people living near us, and the Girls' School, averaging from 60 to 80 individuals. I have occasional meetings of the adults for examination, which I hope may prove useful: the attendance averages from 40 to 60.

MAVELICARE.

Failure of the Rev. J. Peet's Health—Opening of a new Church.

The Rev. J. Peet, after labouring at this Station for seven years, has been compelled to seek the restoration of his health by a visit to England. At the close of the year he left the Station under the care of the Rev. J. Hawksworth, who had removed from Allepie, and will be assisted by the Native Missionary, the Rev. G. Matthan.

Mr. Peet, on the last Lord's-day which he spent among his people, opened a new Church at Mavelicare, which had been built chiefly by a legacy from the late Hannah More.

Encouraging General Review.

The following extracts from a Letter to the Rev. J. Tucker, dated Dec. 2, 1845, present a view of the state in which Mr. Peet left a Mission which had been commenced by himself only seven years ago, in the midst of a people most adverse to the Gospel; but which now numbers many hundred Christian members and Communicants. He writes—

In forwarding my Report, previous to embarking for Europe, I am thankful to be enabled to state that my Mission still continues in a healthy and flourishing condition.

By the goodness of God, I have been enabled so far to complete the large Church at Mavelicare as to have it opened for Divine Worship. It is a substantial building, in the gothic style, calculated to hold upward of 800 people; and, with the large porches, more than 1000. Tuesday, the 25th of November, was the day we selected to open our Church for the worship of Almighty God; and at the same time to say farewell to our dear people, and officially introduce and solemnly commend them to the care of my successor. At the time of the Service the Church was filled, and many Heathen were gathered around outside. In the course of the Service, I received into the Church by baptism three individuals; the first-fruits, I humbly and prayerfully trust, of the multitudes that shall, through the regenerating power of the Holy Spirit, be born to God in this place. One was a child of my own people—a pledge of our belief that the promises are made to us and our children. The second was the child of a family which had lately joined us from a corrupt Church; and who, by this act, pledged themselves to an adherence to the truth as it is in Jesus. The third was an adult from the mass of the Travancore Heathen—an earnest of that mighty host that shall be gathered to our Redeemer God from the world of idolaters. I chose for my text these words—Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. There are now in connexion with this Mission five Stations, and as many Congregations; among whom all the Services of our Church are regularly performed. There are also four well-built Places of Worship; at Mavelicare, Mallapalli, Kodawalanya, and Puwatoor. I have lately had overtures from several parties wishing to join us: among many without, as well as within the Church, the Gospel of our salvation is quietly but effectually doing its work.

ALLEPIE.

During the early part of the year the Rev. J. Hawksworth was at this Station; but in the autumn, as already explained, he removed to take charge of Mavelicare, and the Rev. H. Baker, sen., supplied his place at Allepie.

Of the Out-station of Thalawadi Mr. Hawksworth reported, Dec. 31, 1844—

At Thalawadi our numbers are gradually increasing; and the people are anxious to learn, and to teach others. Their growing knowledge of Scripture, and their love for its truths, are very gratifying: every question is brought to this test; and the hitherto unusual inquiry, “But what does the Bible say?” is often heard. Romanists and Syrians are compelled reluctantly to acquiesce in the appeal to the Word of God as final,

General View—Opening of a New Church.

The Rev. H. Harley continues in charge of this Station. He reports, Dec. 31, 1845—

Attention has been awakened. The Word of God is more eagerly sought after, and an explanation of its sacred contents more demanded. I have reason to hope that there are several in the Congregation whose sole dependence is upon Christ—on His finished work and righteousness—and who are walking worthy of their high vocation.

A new Church has been erected, and was opened on the 11th of January 1846. The expense was defrayed by voluntary subscriptions for that object.

Education.

There are seven Schools in connexion with this Mission, containing 279 children. Several of the principal inhabitants of the place have sent their sons to the Mission School, for the advantage of learning the English language.

Relinquishment of Labours in behalf of the Nayards.

The labours of the Missionary among the Nayards or beggars, who were instructed and trained to habits of diligence, as stated in the last Report, have been terminated by the withdrawal of the assistance which had been granted by the Government for their benefit; though, as Mr. Harley states, the experiment “was going on most satisfactorily, and probably, in the course of a few years, the men might have been able to support themselves by dint of their own labour.”

TELOOGOO MISSION.

MASULIPATAM.

This Mission was conducted, during the last year, by the Rev. R. T. Noble and the Rev. H. W. Fox; until, in November 1845, Mr. Fox was obliged to return to England on account of the illness of his wife. Two Catechists, trained at the Madras Institution, and Candidates for Holy Orders, Messrs. Sharkey and Taylor, have also assisted the Missionaries.

The labours of Mr. Fox were principally directed to the Heathen population, among whom he embraced every opportunity, by conversation and addresses, of making known Christian truth.

Mr. Noble's attention was chiefly given to the English School, containing between 30 and 40 scholars. In a Letter dated August 9, 1845, Mr. Noble states—

The attention, in general, to the study of the Sacred Scriptures, which are read by every pupil throughout the School daily for about an hour, has been, I rejoice to say, willing, earnest, and uninterrupted. I may even add, I think, that with the youths themselves this is rather a favourite lesson, as well as with us.

The attempt was also made to establish Vernacular Schools for Native Boys; and Mrs. Fox also began a Native Girls' School. But it pleased God shortly afterward to interrupt her labours, as already mentioned, by illness, and at length to take her to Himself on the eve of her embarkation for England.*

Arrival of the Bishop of Colombo.

THE Lord Bishop of Colombo arrived in his Diocese on the 1st of November 1845, and took an early opportunity of visiting three out of the four Stations occupied by the Society in the Island of Ceylon. His Lordship has kindly furnished the Committee with the result of his observations, and borne a very favourable testimony to the zeal and faithfulness of the Missionaries.

COTTA.

The Rev. J. F. Haslam, the Rev. H. Powell, the Rev. F. W. Taylor, and the Native Assistant Missionary, the Rev. C. Jayesinha, have discharged the duties of this Station.

* Further accounts of the Madras and South-India Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for May 1845, pp. 110—112; June 1845, pp. 121—137; Oct. 1845, pp. 220—236; Nov. 1845, pp. 267, 268; and Feb. 1846, pp. 39—42.

Congregations—Baptisms.

The principal Christian Congregation assembles on the Mission premises at Cotta: the number is about the same as last year; but a larger proportion is composed of adults, that class having increased from 60 to 90. The whole number amounts to 217.

The village Congregations, assembled in School-houses, are 21 in number; 19 of which meet on the Lord's-day, and are ministered to by the Missionaries and Native Assistants.

During the year an important step has been taken for the efficient superintendence of these Congregations, by dividing them into Districts, and assigning the care of a District to each Catechist, who is to visit the people from house to house, and to keep a register of the attendants on Public Worship, under the general superintendence of the Missionaries.

The result of this measure has been, that, in the course of the year, the number of attendants in the village Congregations has been very nearly doubled, having increased from 476 to 943.

The number of adults baptized during the year has been 14, being 11 more than last year. "None were admitted to this ordinance," the Missionaries write in their Annual Report to June 30, 1845, "without long probation, and without our being satisfied of their sincerity."

Encouraging as this statement appears, the Missionaries still speak with caution upon the more important point, the spiritual improvement of the people. In the Annual Report they write—

We wish we could report as favourably of the spiritual condition of the members of our Congregations as we are able to do of their numbers; but this we cannot do, though we hope that we are not without encouragement in that respect.

And Mr. Powell says, in a Letter dated Aug. 5, 1844—

There are many indications that spiritual good has been produced, many fair prospects of future success, and many a healthy bud which may hereafter expand into the beautiful and full-grown flower. We have, I conceive, enough of success to encourage us, and a sufficient want of it to keep us humble, watchful, and diligent.

Education.

An important feature in this Station is the Institution, into which the most promising scholars from the District Seminaries are received, and trained for Native Teachers. It continues to be under the able management of the Rev. J. F. Haslam, M.A., of Caius College, Cambridge. The number of students is 18. The Missionaries state, in their Annual Report—

We can speak with considerable satisfaction and pleasure of the attention to study, and of the diligence, manifested by the youths during the past year. Their Teacher can say, without hesitation, that he has very rarely indeed witnessed among them a disposition to wilful neglect or idleness. We think that we may also speak hopefully of the state of religious feeling among the students.

This Institution has been twice visited by the Bishop of Colombo; the first time in company with the Bishop of Madras. On each occasion, his Lordship declared the state of it to be "quite satisfactory;" adding, in a Letter dated Feb. 12, 1846—

I estimate the blessing of your valuable Institution to this Diocese very highly. As long as it is conducted by such able and devoted men, it will receive from me not only the fullest appreciation of its worth, but heartiest co-operation in its work.

The English School has been reduced in numbers by the opening of a Government School, the elder pupils in which receive a monthly allowance. There are also a Day-school for girls, containing 85 pupils, and a Girls' Sunday-school.

The Out-schools are 30 in number, containing 588 boys, 204 girls, and 125 adults.

Printing and Bookbinding Departments.

The printing and bookbinding departments, connected with the Station, have been conducted on a reduced scale. The Press has been employed almost exclusively upon the Holy Scriptures.

General Review.

Upon a review of the operations of the year, Mr. Taylor writes, in a Letter dated April 16, 1845—

I am happy to say that our prospects at Cotta are more cheering than I have seen them since I have been here. Our Schools are perhaps much the same as usual. Our chief cause of encouragement is in our Congregations. Here Cotta has increased considerably; and I am of opinion that there is a growing interest among the people upon the subject of Christianity. Without doubt there is an awakening of the attention of the people to the subject, and this awakening is very general.

And Mr. Haslam says, Oct. 6, 1845—

The prospects here, as regards Missionary work, I cannot but consider to be more encouraging than I have before known them.

Services—Baptisms—Education.

The Rev. W. Oakley continues to be the only Missionary at this Station. He labours under much discouragement from the apathy and worldliness of the nominal Christians, the descendants of Heathens, who in former times have been baptized without renouncing Heathenism, and who abound in that part of the Island around Kandy. Every Lord's-day three Services are held in Singhalese, and one in Tamul. The average attendance at the Tamul Service is 21, and at the Singhalese Services 130 to 145.

Four adults have been admitted to Baptism. One of them was the daughter of a very respectable high-caste Kandian; but she was permitted to show the stedfastness of her faith only for a few months after her baptism, being removed by an early death from the Church below.

There are Day-schools for boys and girls at this Station, and a female Boarding-school containing 14 girls, whose conduct and progress have been satisfactory.

BADDAGAME.

This Station was under the charge of the Rev. Messrs. G. C. Trimnell and C. Greenwood, until the removal of Mr. Trimnell to Cotta, to undertake the duties of the Secretaryship of the Committee of Missionaries for conducting the affairs of the Society in Ceylon.

Services—Baptism—General View.

At the Church at this Station Divine Services in the Native language have been held, with a Congregation of from 170 to 200 persons. One adult has been added to the Church by Baptism in the course of the year.

With regard to the spiritual condition of the people around us we must state, with regret, that we fear it is much the same as when we presented our last Report; or, at least, that there is no very evident sign of improvement. We cannot doubt that the knowledge of the Truth continues to spread, and that the natural prejudice of the Natives against it decreases; but, as it regards the influence of the Truth in converting sinners to God, and subduing the natural enmity of the heart toward Him, we see but little that is encouraging. Here and there, however, we meet with one or two of whom we hope that the Gospel has proved to be the power of God unto their salvation.

Education.

The Station Seminary contains 15 youths. Of their conduct generally the Missionaries "are thankful in being able to speak favourably."

The Boys' Day-schools, 5 in number, contain 145 children. The Girls' School, containing 112 pupils, under the care of Mrs. Greenwood, is in a very satisfactory state in respect of the attendance and progress in studies; but, in the true Missionary spirit, the conductors of this School "lament to see little apparent fruit of their labours in decided religious impressions made on the children's minds."

NELLORE.

Return to England of the Rev. Messrs. Adley and Johnston.

The Rev. W. Adley and the Rev. J. T. Johnston have been in charge of the adjoining Stations of Nellore and Chundicully during the last year. They have both been compelled, through illness in their families, to be occasionally absent, and at length to return to Europe.

Congregations—Baptisms—Hopeful Deaths.

The state of the Congregations at Nellore has been, on the whole, satisfactory. Twelve Adult Converts have been added to the Church by Baptism. Several members of the Church, who have been removed by death, have left behind them a satisfactory testimony to the reality of their faith.

Education.

The Schools at this Station are in a very complete state of order: they comprise a Boys' English Day-school, 17 Village Tamul Schools, a Female Boarding-school containing 34 girls, and a Girls' Day-school. Respecting this department of the work Mr. Adley writes, in his Report for the year ending June 30, 1845—

The training of youth holds a prominent place in our labours for the good of the people around us. The population of Nellore is about 6000. The number of children taught in the Schools for several years past has averaged more than a thousand. Hence, more than one-sixth of the population of the Nellore Mission Field is placed under a course of Christian instruction and cultivation. Most of the children thus taught are well informed on the Bible generally, and will answer almost any questions put to them on the truths and doctrines of God's Word. That their own minds, or at least the minds of many of them, are in a degree imbued with, and affected by, Christian Truth, we cannot doubt; nor that a considerable effect is also produced on others. To this we must ascribe the fact, that the present race of idolaters differs so widely from the rigid and unyielding Heathens with whom we had to contend some twelve or fifteen years ago.

Mr. Johnston's Report of Chundicully is not of an encouraging nature: the apathy of those who are nominal Christians, and of the descendants of such, causes the Missionary to plead earnestly with Christians at home to arise, and with united hearts supplicate Jehovah to pour out His Holy Spirit and fulfil His own Word.

During the year, three native youths have been baptized, and there is a small increase in the attendance at the Services of the Church.

Mr. Johnston writes, in his Report for the year ending June 30, 1845—

The whole number of those who are professedly members of St. John's Church is 91. My Wednesday-Morning Catechetical Service is, I trust, equally interesting and useful. The answers I obtain are sometimes of such a character as would be truly satisfactory to any friends of such Schools. The intelligence of the children, and their general cheerfulness, have made this Service delightful.*

Mission Establishment :

Failure of the Rev. G. Smith's Health—Urgent Need of Labourers for this Mission.

IN the last Report it was stated that two Clergymen had gone out as Missionaries to China; and the earnest hope was expressed that others would soon follow them to that inviting and important field of Missionary labour. The Committee have now the painful duty of stating that, while the call for help from China has become still more urgent, and the way for Missionary effort has been made still more open by late imperial decrees of toleration, not one additional Labourer has been found to join the two who had gone forth; and that one of the two, the Rev. G. Smith, has been compelled to return home by the failure of his health.

The following extract from a Letter of Mr. Smith, dated May 2, 1845, may well provoke some of our countrymen to a godly jealousy—

Last week Bp. Boone [of the American Episcopal Church] arrived at Hong Kong, with two married Missionaries and their wives; accompanied, also, by three unmarried ladies for their projected Schools, for which funds have been provided on a liberal scale. He expects, at no distant period, to have 10 or 12 ordained Missionaries associated with him.

* Further accounts of the Ceylon Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for March, 1846, pp. 62—69; and April 1846, pp. 89—93.

In a Letter to Mr. Smith, dated April 29, 1845, Bishop Boone gives utterance to the following Christian sentiments with reference to our Mission—

Allow me to express my great joy and gratitude to God to find, on my arrival, that the Church Missionary Society had two Missionaries in the field; which I regard as an earnest of what she intends to do, with the Divine blessing, for China. May the Church of England soon be privileged to send a goodly number, with a Bishop at their head, to break the bread of life to these famishing millions. It will ever afford me the utmost pleasure to co-operate, in every way practicable, with you, and all the Brethren from your Society, in all your efforts for the good of China.

Missionary Aspect of Shanghai and Ningpo—Peculiarities of the Field.

Short as was Mr. Smith's stay in China, he was yet enabled to accomplish a most important work. After collecting information, from a great variety of sources, as to the most desirable localities for a Mission, he recommends the two free ports of Shanghai and Ningpo, for reasons which, having detailed at great length, he thus sums up, in a Report dated March 25, 1845—

Viewed, therefore, as combining in themselves the several distinct advantages of salubrious climate, eligible residence, and friendly disposition of inhabitants—direct communication with Europe—comparatively quiet isolation from foreigners—contiguity to the strongholds of native science—local proximity to the second largest city in the Empire—importance in regard to Chusan—central position in reference to the whole of China—and of future bearings of the most magnificent order on the evangelization of the surrounding Archipelago—I cannot hesitate to pronounce the united Missionary Stations of Shanghai and Ningpo as presenting one of the noblest and most promising fields in the East.

In concluding his Report on this important subject, Mr. Smith makes the following earnest appeal—

I cannot close this lengthened communication, without respectfully impressing on the Committee the importance of entering the China Mission with something like an adequate force. It is my earnest prayer and hope, that our Mission here may, with God's blessing, ever be characterized, less by its numerical strength than by the elevated tone of piety, spirituality, zeal, patience, and love to the Brethren, which should ever distinguish its Members, as the surest earnest of the blessing of God resting on their work. China wants Missionaries of a peculiar order. Piety, however genuine, and zeal, however fervent, unless tempered by practical judgment, and accompanied by vigorous activity of mind and body, will be only a partial qualification for a Labourer entering on a field abounding with gigantic difficulties. The difficulties, however, are mingled with many encouragements. The Chinese are a hopeful race, and need only the transforming influence of Christianity to raise them almost immeasurably above the rest of Asiatic nations. They are a quiet, kind, and inquiring race, wedded by custom to foolish idolatry, but never willing seriously to defend its practice.

Present appearances lead me to coincide with the general opinion of the Missionaries, that nowhere in the Heathen world can a Congregation of attentive hearers be more easily obtained than in China. There is, of course, at the commencement of a Missionary's career in China, a longer period of delay in acquiring the language than elsewhere. A person of quick perception, retentive memory, and habits of method and analysis, may, in one year, with good health, begin to feel some satisfactory and encouraging indications of his speedy progress toward eminent usefulness. Never, again, were there so many proofs, as at the present time, of the willing, attentive ear, on the part of the Chinese.

Visit to Foochow-foo—Its Claims to Missionary Effort.

In a Letter dated Jan. 14, 1846, Mr. Smith gives an account of his visit to the city of Foochow, and thus describes his feelings—

It was no common trial to my mind, as I gazed, from the summit of a neighbouring hill, on the populous city of Foochow, teeming with its moving masses of living industry, to reflect that here 600,000 immortal souls, spell-bound by idolatry or atheism, in the capital of one of the largest provinces of the Empire—a garrison city, with the full provincial staff of Mandarins; the seat of a Viceroy having two provinces under his jurisdiction, and comprising the two other free ports of Ningpo and Amoy within its limits; with 2500 literary Graduates, and 5000 literary Students and Candidates for degrees resident in the city—should nevertheless be destitute of a single Evangelist of the pure faith of Christ, and that no effort should yet have been made to convey to them the inestimable blessings of the Gospel. Here lay at my feet a city twice as large as Ningpo, three times as large as Shanghai, and probably five times as large as Amoy, in which there is at present no prospect of planting a Christian Mission.

And then, after referring to the Buddhists and Taouists, Mr. Smith adds—

A Roman-Catholic Priest, a Spaniard, has been residing for a year at Foochow, under the terms of the imperial edict of toleration. Even the Mahomedans have their six Priests, and twenty-four Fakeers, or religious beggars; so that, humiliating fact! with an imperial edict of universal toleration beckoning us forward, Protestant Christianity is the only religion unrepresented in this vast city!

Favourable Reception at Amoy.

In the last Letter which has been received from Mr. Smith, dated Feb. 27, he says—

Things are going on very satisfactorily at Amoy. Before my leaving Amoy, the five high Mandarins of the place jointly gave a special feast to the Missionaries there—seven, including myself—no other foreigner being present. The most honourable seats were given to us, and they expressed high admiration of the excellence of the Missionary work and the benevolence of Missionaries.

Labours of the Rev. T. M'Clatchie at Shanghai.

Mr. M'Clatchie has been enabled, after much difficulty, to procure a residence within the walls of the city of Shanghai, where he was the only resident foreigner except the Consul. He observes, in a Letter dated June 24, 1845—

The Missionaries are much pleased that I have got into the city, as it is considered a step in advance toward the removal of Chinese prejudice.

Mr. M'Clatchie quite coincides with Mr. Smith in his opinion that Shanghai is the most favourable locality for a Mission. He writes in good health and spirits, and, while he gives himself up to the study of the language, he embraces many opportunities of distributing Tracts among the Chinese, who thankfully receive them, and of conversing with them upon religious subjects as far as his knowledge of the language will allow him.*

- 320 Native Teachers of all Classes.
- 61 Native Schoolmistresses.

Trials of the Mission—Collisions between the British Troops and the Natives.

THOSE who have studied the usual dispensations of God in the establishment of His Gospel among any people, will be prepared to expect that, after a season of remarkable prosperity, the great enemy of God and man will be permitted to excite violent opposition against the Truth, and to cast every stumbling-block in the way of those who were preparing to embrace it.

* Further accounts of the China Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for November 1845, pp. 241—267.

Thus it has been in the case of the New-Zealand Mission. A few years ago the Committee had to tell of the wonderful rapidity with which the Gospel was spreading among the inhabitants of those interesting islands. But soon they were visited by the moral blights inflicted by the ungodliness of nominal Christians, and the seductions of the Romish Apostacy. And now, during the last year, a visitation, scarcely less fearful, has overtaken them, in the spirit of insubordination which has been let loose upon the people.

The first overt acts of resistance to British Supremacy took place on the part of a Native Chief named John Heke, who on three several occasions cut down a flag-staff erected at Kororarika, notwithstanding the prohibition and warnings of the Governor. A block-house was then constructed, and a party of soldiers stationed in it to protect the flag. John Heke, under the influence of misrepresentations by the enemies of British power—as if the erection of the flag were the token of the slavery of the Natives—determined a fourth time to cut down the staff. On this occasion, the 11th of March 1845, a collision with the British troops took place. After a severe conflict, in which many lives, on both sides, were lost, the town was evacuated and the troops withdrawn. The Natives then entered, plundered, and burned the town.

The causes of this deplorable collision are thus adverted to by Capt. Sir J. E. Home, Bart., R.N., writing to his Commanding Officer, Sir T. Cochrane, R.N.—

The utmost efforts have been used by designing men, chiefly foreigners, to render the Natives dissatisfied, and to persuade them that we shall ultimately take away their lands, and make those whom we do not kill our slaves.

Amid the grief and apprehensions which these occurrences naturally occasioned, it was some consolation to find that Christian instruction had not been bestowed altogether in vain even upon those who took up arms against the Government.

The triumph of the Natives over the British forces was unaccompanied by any of those fearful acts of cannibalism or cruelty which would have marked their conduct in past years. Capt. Fitz Roy, the Governor, writing to Lord Stanley on the 26th of March, says—

Justice to the Natives, misled and rebellious as they are, requires me to state that European troops would not have behaved better, nor shown less vindictiveness.

Acts of a chivalrous nature were performed by them; and their forbearance towards the settlers, especially the Missionaries, after the conflict, was remarkable.

No Missionary, no Mission property, known to be such, was injured intentionally.

One very remarkable instance of generous forbearance occurred in the midst of the conflict. The wife and child of the signal-man at the flag-staff were found in the block-house when the Natives entered it: upon which they hoisted a flag of truce, and sent these defenceless prisoners to the British stockade, saying that they did not war with women and children, but with men.

This conduct, it must be remembered, is that of men who had sadly declined from their Christian profession, and of others who had never embraced Christianity.

Whence this wondrous change in the conduct of the New Zealanders, so strongly contrasted with that which characterized them thirty years ago, before the Christian Missionary boldly went among them? Whence, but from the Gospel of the grace of God, which thus manifested its power to soften and civilize even those savage tribes which it had failed savingly to convert.

The result of these partial triumphs on the part of Heke was such as would naturally follow. Many Natives joined his party, and he sent out his messengers to endeavour to incite a general insurrection. On the other hand, some Tribes joined the British forces, especially one headed by an intelligent Christian Native, Thomas Walker Nene, who rendered the most faithful and efficient services to the Governor and to the commanders of the troops. Thus the fearful evils of a civil war among the Natives began to manifest themselves.

The situation of the Missionaries under these new, perilous, and distressing events, was most trying and critical. Their influence with the Natives was exerted to the utmost to quell the rebellion; but it was only, as became their profession, a moral influence. For this purpose it was necessary still to continue their friendly relations even with the disaffected tribes, and to act, in some instances, as mediators between them and the Government. The Governor, Capt. Fitz Roy, bore the highest testimony to their Christian prudence and integrity, and to the value of their services in these respects, though they did not altogether escape the shafts of slander and ungenerous insinuations.

The Committee have received abundant testimony, from various sources, as well as from the Bishop of New Zealand, to satisfy them that, throughout the difficult and trying scenes of the last year, their Missionaries have been enabled to act as became British subjects and faithful Missionaries.

The Station at Kororarika was of course broken up after the destruction of the town. The Bishop and Archdeacon H. Williams were in the town at the time of the conflict, and were indefatigable in alleviating the miseries of the scene, and in attending to the wants of the wounded and dying.

The Paihía and Waimate Stations, in the immediate neighbourhood of the Bay of Islands, being most exposed to danger, the Missionaries judged it expedient to remove their daughters, and much of the Mission property, including the press, to Auckland. The Missionaries and their wives remained at their posts.

Respecting Paihía, Archd. H. Williams writes, in his Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1845—

It is with considerable pain and grief that I report the proceedings of the half-year now concluded, in consequence of the breaking-out, at the commencement of the year, among some of the Tribes in the neighbourhood of the Bay, of a civil war, which has led to most serious and distressing consequences. The loss of life and property has been very considerable; and our Missionary work has been well-nigh totally suspended.

The Rev. R. Burrows, who removed to Waimate in Oct. 1844, states, in his Report for the year ending June 30, 1845—

On my arrival at the Waimate, John Heke had already commenced his career, which has since led to such disastrous consequences. This Station has felt, more than any other, the sad effects of the war; and from the beginning of March to the present time we have been in a constant state of excitement and alarm. The loss of the fourth flag-staff, and the destruction of Kororarika—attended as it was with the loss of life—was the commencement of a storm which had long been pending, and which we are at this moment feeling in all its horrors. The Settlement was often threatened with destruction by some of the more desperate of Heke's party; but it is due to Heke himself to say that he has always shown respect for it, and prevented, as far as possible, any mischief being done to us or ours. The troops having once occupied the buildings here, have, in the Natives' estimation, removed that sacredness which they have hitherto supposed to be attached to the place. It is now a question how long we may be allowed to occupy our present position. Hitherto, no injury has been done to the Settlement by the disaffected Natives; but we have to lament the mischief caused by our own troops, notwithstanding the vigilance of some of their officers to prevent it.

From my arrival until the beginning of March, I was fully occupied with the duties of the Station. Since that period my time, during the week, has been chiefly taken up in visiting the disaffected, the allies of our Government, and the neutral Natives. I trust my

It had been determined, for some time before the events which have been related, that the Rev. R. Davis should reside at Kaikohi, as announced in the last year's Report. This was situated in the midst of Heke's tribe: it therefore became a question, upon the breaking out of hostilities, whether it was right, in reference to Mr. Davis's own safety and that of his family, and to his duty as a British subject, that he should reside among and minister to Natives in a state of insurrection. Mr. Davis thus writes, in his Report to June 30, 1845—

As there was much excitement among the Natives about the flag-staff, which had been cut down by Heke, and re-erected by Government, every thing which could be done to appease them, in order to avert the impending storm, was done; and we sometimes thought the object accomplished. But the Lord seeth not as man seeth: we were to be scourged. As our house was nearly ready at Kaikohi, I assembled the Natives to learn their opinion of the solemn aspect of affairs, and their intentions, if things should come to the worst. They acknowledged it to be their opinion, in the District, that the rise of the Natives would be general, and that if Heke should fall in the contest they should all become "Hekes." They recommended Mrs. Davis's immediate removal among them, and assured us that, if things should come to the worst, they would die with us. As our way appeared to be open, we agreed to their proposal, endeavouring to rely on an Almighty arm for protection.

All things were ready, and the people ready to take us to Kaikohi, when Kororarika fell on the 11th of March. This catastrophe caused a little hesitation; but as Mrs. Davis declared that she was willing to remove at all hazards, and we heard that the Bishop was in the Bay, intending to visit Waimate, we only awaited his Lordship's arrival, which took place on the evening of the 12th. During the night his Lordship assembled the Natives, and, after hearing from them their intention to protect us, committed us to their charge.

On the 14th, while the fires were still burning at Kororarika, we left Waimate, and safely arrived at this place. Since we have been here we have had much to distress and harass our minds.

At a Station further removed from the seat of war, Kaitaia, the disturbance of the Missionary operations has not been very great; and the influence of the Missionaries, in preserving peace and subordination, has been more effectual.

The Rev. J. Matthews writes, in a Letter dated March 26, 1845—

On the arrival here of the news [of the conflict at Kororarika] our Chiefs met, and manifested the best feeling toward the Government. There were present ten Wangaroa Natives, who had come expressly to sound our Natives as to their intentions, and to learn if they would sit still, and not molest their wives and children, in case they should go to fight with the soldiers. I never attended a better

Meeting of the kind. Noble told them that it was not the first time he had been kind to Europeans, nor the first time that Ngapuhi had been unkind. He suggested to all the Chiefs that none should be allowed to go to the Bay at this time, lest they should fall into temptation. To this they all agreed, and although there were two Chiefs who wished to accompany the Wangaroa Natives, they would not allow it.

Continuation of Military Operations.

We resume the narrative of the military operations. On the 3d of May, a body of troops, amounting to 420, was landed in the Bay of Islands for the purpose of reducing Heke to submission. Heke retired to a Pa, about 20 miles inland, which he strongly defended. The British troops, after severe fighting, were obliged to desist from their attempt to take the Pa, and to retreat with considerable loss.

A second attack on Heke's Pa was made in the month of June. The result was, in the words of Col. Despard, the Commanding Officer, "We were repulsed with heavy loss." In a Letter dated July 2, Col. Despard gives these particulars—

One-third of the men actually engaged fell in the attack; and during the eight days that we have been engaged in carrying on operations against this place, one-fourth of the whole strength of British soldiers under my command (originally not exceeding 490,) have been either killed or wounded.

In the month of July a third attack was made upon this Pa, with the assistance of heavier artillery; when Heke abandoned it, and retired further inland.

Active operations, for the suppression of the insurrection, were now suspended till the arrival of reinforcements; when, on the 10th of January in the present year, Heke's Pa was invested by above 1000 troops, beside the auxiliary Natives, and a formidable battery was erected against it. It was bombarded for several hours on a Saturday, and the attack was to have been renewed on the Monday. On the Lord's-day morning, however, some Natives and sailors found their way into the Pa, and discovered that it was empty: the Natives, not expecting an attack, were on the outside; some engaged in preparing food, and a small party of Christians among the disaffected Natives holding Divine Service.

The British forces thus obtained possession of the Pa. The Natives fought with great courage and determination to regain it; but happily without success. Upon this, Heke sued for peace, and his fighting men were dispersed. Capt. Grey, who had succeeded Capt. Fitz Roy as Governor of New Zealand, accepted the submission of the insurgents; and, in the confidence that the rebellion was effectually quelled, withdrew the troops.

The Committee have thus taken a rapid survey of the events of the last year; that it may be fully known in what trying and fearful scenes our Missionaries have been involved, and that the sympathy and prayers of the Church at home may be drawn forth on their behalf.

Mr. J. King writes from Tepuna, in a Letter dated Sept. 9, 1845—

How mysterious are the ways of Providence! For years past the Natives have been flocking to Places of Worship, and have obtained much knowledge of the Scriptures. They were in the way of slow improvement; but are now, as if left under a strong delusion, ready to believe any falsehoods that may be told them. They have been favourable toward the Mission Stations at present; but we hang in suspense, not knowing what the result will be. We hope, however, that we are thus spared for some future benefit to the Heathen. Most of the Natives of this place have remained at home, and keep up the form of Religion, although they have sadly gone back to many of their old ways in practice. Hopaia Waikato has used all his influence to keep these people from joining Heke's party, and we hope to have a better account to give at some future time.

The Rev. R. Davis, writing from Kaikoki, says, in his Report from which we have previously quoted—

Kaikohi has been much exposed during the conflict, in consequence of Heke's Pa being in the neighbourhood; as parties of Natives have often assembled at this Pa when going to fight, or returning, and the whole of the warfare has been carried on within five miles of our house. Our Christian party, for the most part, has stood firm; but they have been much enticed, as some of their friends, who had nothing to do with the Kororarika affair, have fallen in battle, and several have been wounded. My labours have been almost solely confined to this place, as I did not consider it right to leave my family. The whole of my people of Ohaeawae and Maungaturoto have been involved in the conflict from the beginning, and lately those of Otatau also. On our first arrival, my youngest daughter, under the superintendence of Mrs. Davis, commenced a promising School. This was continued until the danger became too apparent for my daughters to remain, and we sent them to Kaitaia for safety.

The failure of the troops in storming the Pa at Taiamai was a cause of much anxiety, as we not only sincerely lamented the fall of so many of our brave countrymen, but were fearful of what might be the next step of the Natives. I have had many wounded men to attend to, and for a length of time they engrossed nearly the whole of my services: three have died of their wounds, and a fourth is likely to die. Heke has not been unmindful of us. If we had not been here it is probable that this would have been made the scene of conflict; but he promised it should not be so, and up to this time he has kept his word. The Mangakahia people have often visited us, and have behaved well.

Upon the whole, in the midst of our affliction we have much, very much, to be thankful for. The Lord has preserved us from harm in the midst of hostilities: not a hair of our heads has been suffered to fall to the ground. We trust our coming here has been under the direction of God, for, in addition to keeping the people of the place together, many of the scattered sheep have found a place in which they could assemble. Several of the Mawe people, several of the Kiripeka, and a few from Ohaewae, have joined us and taken up their abode with us. This they could not have done if this Settlement had not existed: they must have remained with the fighting party, with whom both their bodies and souls would have been endangered, or have fled to the woods far away from the Means of Grace.

On another occasion, the 4th of July, he closes his Letter with an earnest appeal for the prayers of British Christians—

O pray for us! Request the Church to lift up her voice, and plead the cause of the Saviour in this distracted country, before the throne of God.

The Rev. R. Burrows writes from the Waimate, in his Report to June 30, 1845—

In taking a retrospective view of the sadly-altered state of this District, during the last year, we have much cause for humility. How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! Some, who promised well, have now apparently joined heart and hand with Heke; the conversation of others is any thing but that which becometh the Gospel of Christ; and the withering effects of war and bloodshed are most apparent among all our people. There are, however, bright spots here and there in our beclouded skies: we know of some who are frequent and earnest at a throne of mercy for a suspension of the stroke which, at this moment, threatens us with a long and bloody war. For the preservation of life, and for the general respect shown us by those who are at open war with our Government, we have great cause to be thankful. It is true that the Missionaries' agency in obtaining signatures for the Treaty of Waitangi has again and again been brought against us; but, notwithstanding, not a hair has fallen from the head of any of us.

May He who has hitherto helped us make us stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord!

In a Letter of a later date, Jan. 14, 1846, he writes—

Your Missionaries have been able, up to the present time, not only to stand their ground, but also to be instrumental in keeping many from joining the disaffected. Such is the feeling abroad among the neutral Natives, that they will ultimately be crushed by the British Power, that, had it not been for the united efforts of your Missionaries, together with those of the Wesleyan Missionaries, the probability is, that, instead of 400 or 500, with which the Government have had to contend, they would have had 4000 or 5000.

We trust that nothing will happen to throw doubt upon what we have told the Natives, with regard to English law and equity, by any injury whatever being done to them. Hitherto, they have been treated with great kindness by the troops generally.

Up to this time, we have not only been permitted to visit the disaffected Natives, but have received kindness from them, and been treated with respect. Our enemies, however, have not failed to turn this against us; and have, in some instances, accused us of being in league with the rebels. These things are trying to flesh and blood; but when we reflect that our Divine Master suffered all this before us, we trust we can say, as He did, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do.

Middle District.

After the extent to which the Committee have reported upon the state of the Northern District, they will proceed only to touch upon a few facts to illustrate the state of other parts of the Island.

General View.

Archdeacon Brown gives the following general view of the state of the Middle District, in a Report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1845—

The Lord's-day Congregations have maintained their usual average attendance; the places of some, who have cast off their profession, being occupied by others who have lately joined the Church. The Daily Services have not been attended with the regularity which has marked past years, and the Adult Day-schools, with few exceptions, are discontinued. Numbers of the young men have been tattooed during the last few months, and with this return to the Heathen custom of their forefathers they have discontinued their attendance on the Means of Grace; while the northern war has not been without its effects in rendering many of the Natives listless to the message of salvation, and inducing suspicions in their minds that their country will ultimately be wrested from them.

Amidst very many discouragements, the work in which we are privileged to engage is yet progressing. There may be cause for anxiety, but not for despondency; a struggle, but not a defeat; a storm, but not a shipwreck. Offences will come: they form no new page in the history of the Church. The parable of the sower will never lose its power of illustration. There will still be Canaanites in the land; Galatians who did run well, and then became bewitched; Ephesians who have left their first love; Laodiceans who are neither cold nor hot; men striving to serve God and Mammon—wearing the livery of Christ, yet doing the works of the Devil. But these things, if viewed aright, are but so many calls to increased exertion and prayer: they remind us that we walk by faith, not by sight. They send us back to those promises which, like their great Author, are the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever; and which assure us that a period will arrive, when at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow.

In refreshing contrast with the scenes of warfare in the Northern District, the Journals of the Missionaries of this District notice more than one instance of the successful endeavours of the Missionaries to make or to preserve peace between hostile tribes of the Natives.

The Rev. C. P. Davies, who is stationed with Archdeacon Brown at Tauranga, writes, in his Report of the last half-year of 1845—

While war has still been going on in the Northern District, I am happy to say that I have been privileged to accompany 150 of our Natives, principally Chiefs, in a journey to Maketu, for the purpose of making peace with the Ngatiwahaue—Rotorua—Tribe, who for years have been bitter enemies. The effect of this peace has been, that Tupaea, the principal Chief of Tauranga, has since regularly attended our Church, and that many Chiefs of Rotorua have followed his example.

The Rev. T. Chapman refers to the same event, in a Letter dated Sept. 25, 1845—

I have been engaged, during the last fortnight, in attending a party of 400 Rotorua Natives, on a peace-making visit to Tauranga. We were well received, and peace was ratified.

The Rev. R. Maunsell and Mr. B. Ashwell relate at large the contests between two Native Tribes respecting the right to a tract of unoccupied land, and the fisheries connected with it. The parties built strong fortifications within 100 yards of each other; and some skirmishes occurred, in which lives were lost. In other cases they were prevailed upon to lay aside their muskets, and contend only by bodily strength. The Missionaries were constantly among the contending parties, and on equally good terms with each. Mr. Maunsell thus describes their encampment, in a Letter dated Sept. 22, 1845—

Aware, themselves, of their excitable character, they were very unwilling that I should leave them, as the "Teacher" being present served as a check on both parties. I also was desirous to spend among them all the time I could spare from my other labours: and hope that, on the whole, we have gained instead of lost by the whole occurrence. I had School in the morning with the adults and children before they got their food—10 o'clock—and a little before sunset had a Reading Meeting and Evening Service at one Pa, and after that a Reading Meeting at the other. The classes in each Pa averaged, daily, about 40. Thus I had, through the winter, full employment. On the Lord's-day, if the weather at all permitted—for, from the Bishop downward, we are all open-air preachers here—both parties, no matter what their quarrels might have been on the week-days, quietly on a spot between each fortification, for the Services and for School. On fine days the Congregations averaged between 300 and 400. These sat attentively around me—the magnificent Waikato rolling smooth waters onward, the blue heavens spread forth above, and most enchanting scenery encircling us—I often, in the Evening Services, as the sun was setting, and a star twinkling above, indulged in solemn feelings which the season suggested, and, as I thought, with good effect, enlarged on the unity and dignity of the Creator. Another great benefit which we reaped from these otherwise untoward proceedings was, the being brought into closer contact with the late Natives. After their fall into sin, they feel a kind of shame, and absent themselves, often altogether, from prayers. Simple conversation does not always seem to be sufficient to urge them to return; but they quietly join the reading classes, to which they are very partial, and which is one of the most deeply important of all our duties, and they gradually rise into the class of “worshippers.” Many, during the last four months, have thus been restored to Christian communion.

In a Letter dated April 23, 1845, Mr. Maunsell gives the following account of his Missionary District—

My immediate charge now comprises 25 miles northward, and the same distance southward, along the sea-coast and up the Waikato River.

Excited, as have been the minds of the people, they have not declined in their attendance on our Religious Services. The number of worshippers in immediate connexion with this Station is 970, and Sunday Scholars 103; making altogether 1073. The whole population is upward of 1700, about 300 being children. It must not, however, be concluded, that the others, not enumerated, are not “worshippers”; for in the whole District there are very few who do not claim that character. They have not, however, been recorded, because, in consequence of their scattered and wandering mode of life, it is difficult to reduce them to any one Congregation.

We have now the prospect of having completed on the Station, in the course of a few months, a neat and comfortable Place of Worship, 56 feet by 24, that will meet the wants of our ordinary Congregation, and be capable of expansion in order to accommodate the larger number resorting hither in the summer months. This little Gothic building will, I hope, serve as a neat model for a New-Zealand Church.

Eastern District.

General View.

Archdeacon W. Williams gives the following view of the Station, Turanga, in a Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1845—

sponding period of last year, though a large number of professed Christians altogether neglect this important means of instruction.

The Candidates for Baptism are not numerous; but those who come are regular in their attention. The Communicants have numbered 284.

And he then remarks—

At Wairoa and Ahuriri I was thankful to find, during a visit to those places, that Messrs. Hamlin and Colenso, who had recently arrived at their Stations, were in the way, though encompassed with many difficulties, to be fully occupied in very extensive spheres of usefulness.

The Rev. G. A. Kissling gives the following description of his District—

This District extends from Opotiki, in the Bay of Plenty, to Wairoa in Open Bay; comprising a route, by land, of 130 English miles at the most moderate calculation. We have as yet no roads in this part of New Zealand, so that the traveller is obliged to follow the old native paths—over frightful cliffs, steep and lofty mountains, across swamps and rivers, or in the soft and yielding sand of the sea-shore.

Nevertheless, Mr. Kissling expresses his hope that he may be able to go over the entire District at least once a year; and gives a variety of information respecting his visits to the different Pā.

Appeal for the Sympathy and Prayers of the Church of Christ.

Mr. Kissling concludes his Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1845, with the following affecting statement, and animating appeal to the Church at home—

I fear that the work of the Gospel is not on the advance in this District. The excitement which prevails on account of the destructive war in the North; the frequent visits to our Natives of the neighbouring Tribes, and the return of those visits; and hostile proceedings among themselves, as just related; have turned their minds from the simplicity of the truth as it is in Jesus to secular and political matters. Our Morning and Evening Prayers are not so well attended as formerly; our Schools fluctuate; the spirit of our religious inquirers seems to languish; and I perceive a bluntness in the people's feelings, when I publicly address them, which pains me to the core. If ever New Zealand needed the sympathy of the Church of Christ, it is at the present crisis; if ever there were a season of sifting and anxious trial, that season prevails now; if ever supplications for the out-pouring of God's Holy Spirit were wont to be made, those prayers and supplications should be offered now—that wisdom and understanding may be given to us all; that the pending evils may be over-ruled for good; that light may spring forth from this gloomy darkness; and that, “upon the best and surest foundations,” unity and concord “may be established among us for all generations.”

Western District.

General View—Encouragements.

The Rev. R. Taylor reports of his District, in a Letter dated May 20, 1845—

Since I last wrote, many changes have taken place in this country—for the worse, humanly speaking, although we can have no doubt that the Lord will cause them all to work together for good.

In the midst of all this anxiety, we have still much cause to be thankful. The Natives in this District are behaving with great consistency, and do not as yet appear to be at all affected by that commotion which is disturbing the peace of the rest of the country. They have declared their intention of resisting any attack which may be made on the settlers who reside among them.

To-morrow I leave for Waitotara, where I administer the Sacrament next Lord's-day. I shall be accompanied by more than 100 Communicants from this place, and an equal number of those who have not yet partaken of it. This is gratifying, as it is a long walk from Wanganui, and many have come from a great distance.

Missionary Tours—Administration of the Sacraments.

On several occasions Mr. Taylor has made extensive Missionary tours. He has everywhere been received with respect and attention; and has had the opportunity of counteracting, in many instances, the impressions which had been made by designing persons upon the Native Chiefs adverse to British authority.

Some cheering notices of the progress of Missionary work occur in his Journal. On the 15th of July he started with his Natives, in two canoes, to administer the Sacraments at Pipiriki. He arrived at his destination on the 19th, and held an examination of the Candidates. On the 20th he writes—

I had an overflowing Congregation, and I trust an attentive one. I felt strengthened to proclaim the glad tidings of salvation. I afterward administered the Sacrament to 222 Natives, who received it with the utmost order and reverence. If it be possible to judge by outward looks, and apparent breathing forth of spirit to the Lord, I have hope that many found it good to be there. I had two poor young men, in the last stage of consumption—who were carried into the Church to partake of this token of a Saviour's dying love—and one blind man. Several, who had fallen into sin, I restored to Church-fellowship.

The day was so far spent before the Service was concluded that I had barely time to take some food before I commenced the Evening Service. I baptized 12 Adults and 5 Children.

Efforts of the Papists.

The Journals of the Missionaries show that the Papists are at work throughout the Native flocks, striving to pervert them from the simplicity of the Gospel; and willing, at the same time, to increase the apparent numbers of Romish converts from Heathenism, by means which true Christianity would repudiate.

The Rev. T. Chapman, of Rotorua, writes, in his Report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1845—

The Papists are increasing in their visits to every part of this District, and have succeeded in attaching a party to their cause in many places. They will baptize anybody, and the children of the Heathen unconditionally.

Archdeacon W. Williams also, in his Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1845, remarks respecting the villages in the neighbourhood of Oputai—

The villages in this District have received but little attention, except from Native Teachers; while a strong effort has been made by the Romish Priests, who have consequently many followers—led, as they told me, by the promise of gifts of clothing, to countenance their vain superstitions. Still, the part of the population which is with us is most numerous, and merits more attention than it receives.

The Rev. R. Taylor, in his Journal of a Missionary tour in the Western District, observes, Dec. 7, 1845—

Popery is grafted on Heathenism. Its votaries are not required to give up any of their former prejudices: they tattoo, makutu [practise the native witchcraft and enchantments], and observe the Tapu, as formerly.*

IN the last Report it was stated that the health of the Rev. J. H. Bernau, and of Mr. E. Christian, had so far failed that they had been obliged temporarily to leave their Stations for a change of climate. Subsequently, they were both compelled to return to England; the Rev. R. Woodman, from Trinidad, supplying Mr. Bernau's place at Bartica Grove during his absence.*

TRINIDAD MISSION.

COMMENCED 1836.

IN accordance with the arrangement mentioned in the last Report, an annual grant of 100*l.* is made to the Rev. A. E. Eckel, late the Society's Missionary, to enable him to carry forward the plans which were in progress when his charge became a part of the Island Establishment.

Addition to the Number of Island Curates.

AN Act has passed the Colonial Legislature of Jamaica, extending the duration of the Clergy Law for fourteen years, and providing endowments for eight additional Island Curates. In consequence of this arrangement, the Station at Chichester, Knockalva, will be constituted an Island Curacy; and it is hoped that the Society may in the same way be relieved of the maintenance of some of the other Stations by their being placed on the Island Establishment.

Respecting this Station the Rev. C. A. Cooper writes, Oct. 27, 1845—

The School continues to go on satisfactorily. At the end of last Quarter we had 275 on the books, with an average attendance of about 170.

CHICHESTER.

The Rev. C. W. Winckler was afflicted with a very severe illness, which continued for several weeks, in the month of August. He has, however, through mercy, been restored to health; and with this exception has been enabled to pursue his usual labours without interruption, and with much comfort and encouragement..

Congregation—Projected new Church.

At Midsummer he reported—

My Congregation, though fluctuating, has nevertheless improved, I trust, in grace, in knowledge, and in numbers.

There are about 450 Attendants on Public Worship; of whom 105 are Communicants, and 39 Candidates.

The foundation stone of a new Church, which was much wanted, was laid on the 31st of July.

PRATTVILLE.

Congregation—Day and Sunday-schools.

The population in the neighbourhood of this old Station of the Society has latterly considerably increased, owing to the facilities which exist for obtaining small plots of ground suitable for Negro Settlements. Mr. Francis Byrne has been labouring here, since March 1844, with diligence and success. It has been found necessary to enlarge the School-house, in which Divine Service is regularly held. The Rev. D. R. Littlejohn, Island Curate of St. David's Chapel, eight miles from Prattville, visits the Station occasionally, and administers the Sacraments. The number of Communicants is 279.

There are 138 children on the books of the Day-school; but, on account of many of them being employed by their parents in the coffee fields, and in other occupations, the attendance is not so regular as might be wished.

females, is distinguished by regularity of attendance; and the progress made, in the knowledge of the Scriptures, affords Mr. Byrne much gratification and encouragement.

SILOAH.

Congregation—Communicants and Candidates—Schools.

In the midst of much personal affliction, the Rev. F. Redford has been greatly encouraged in his Missionary labours. In a Letter dated Jan. 9, 1846, he writes—

The cause of Christ, in the conversion of sinners to Himself, is evidently progressing. The Congregation on the Lord's-day has continued to increase until there is no more room for them. The Church is only adapted to contain 850; but it is now generally crowded with from 950 to 1000 persons. The attention with which they listen to the Word of Life is very striking; and they join in the responses of the Church Service so heartily as to render the Clerk almost unnecessary. As there is a great want of seats, many of the Congregation bring stones with them to sit upon: others sit on the grass outside. When thus crowded almost to suffocation, and their eyes fixed in breathless attention, fearful of losing a word, they present a more vivid picture of a people thirsting for the waters of life than I could previously have conceived; widely different from that listlessness and inattention, so painful to witness, but so frequently manifested, in Congregations more highly favoured than they. Many of my Congregation have to walk 12 miles to Church, and some from that to 20 miles; but they never repine at the distance or the fatigue. When they hear of their "sweet Massa Jesus" they think themselves amply repaid for their toil.

Notwithstanding that they are very poor people, and that the leading feature in the Negro character is selfishness, yet they have contributed during the past year—toward the support of the Schools, and other expenses incidental to the Station, and in alms to the poor—no less a sum than 163*l.* 19*s.* 8*d.* sterling.

As a proof that the Means of Grace, which these poor people so highly value, have not been enjoyed in vain, Mr. Redford adds—

Their mutual forbearance, although naturally quarrelsome; their sympathy for the wants of the distressed and afflicted; their mutual love; and the desire they evince for each other's spiritual welfare; all tend to show that they feel, in some measure, the responsibility which rests upon them as members of the Redeemer's mystical body.

The number of Communicants is 312, and there are 114 Candidates.

There are two Schools, containing 218 scholars; and if Mr. Redford could meet with a suitable Teacher he could open a third School, in another part of his District, about 10 miles from Siloah. The people are willing to build a School-house; and it might be opened with 70 children, who are now running about half wild in the woods.

Failure of the Rev. F. Redford's health.

General View.

THE communications received from this Mission present that varied aspect of cloud and sunshine which generally characterizes the progress of all undertakings below. In the failure of the health of a valued Labourer, and the loss of his services, there is cause for much regret and humble submission to the providential arrangements of a wise and gracious God; while on the other hand, in the love of many of the people for the ordinances of Religion; in the profitable use which some of them have made of the Means of Grace; in the happy deaths of some who have died in the Lord; in the readiness manifested by not a few among the Heathen to receive instruction; and in the extended openings which present themselves, especially in one part of the country; there is much, very much ground for thankfulness, encouragement, and hope.

Retirement of the Rev. W. Cockran.

The Rev. W. Cockran has laboured in this Mission for upward of twenty years, with singular energy, zeal, and faithfulness. During the last few years, however, his health has greatly failed; and he has from time to time been invited by the Committee to return home for a season, in the hope that his strength might be re-established. His reluctance to relinquish a post of great usefulness prevented him from availing himself of these offers; but now his increased infirmities have forced upon him the conviction that it is his duty to retire altogether from a Station, the varied duties of which his enfeebled constitution will no longer enable him to discharge. It is his intention to reside with his family in Canada.

UPPER SETTLEMENT AND GRAND RAPIDS.

Failure of the Rev. J. Macallum's health.

The health of the Rev. J. Macallum, who was ordained by the Bishop of Montreal to officiate at the Upper Church as Chaplain to the Hudson's-Bay Company, has only admitted of his undertaking the Service once a fortnight. On the alternate Lord's-day Mr. Cockran has taken the duty both at the Upper and Middle Churches, and the Rev. J. Smithurst has come over from the Indian Settlement to supply Mr. Cockran's place at the Grand Rapids.

Schools—Attendance on Public Worship.

After referring to the fact that the Colony had been visited with some severe epidemic diseases, Mr. Cockran states, in a Letter dated July 30, 1845—

Our Schools have been as regularly attended, through the past year, as sickness would permit; and Scripture knowledge has been extensively diffused. The children improve as rapidly as could be expected under their peculiar circumstances.

The attendants upon Public Worship are as regular as in any country where the people are in similar circumstances.

Need, and Preparations for the Erection, of a New Church.

The Rapids' Congregation consists of above 130 families, stretching over a line of at least 11 miles. For some time the Church has been too small for the Congregation; and it has been found necessary to exclude the children, and to give them a separate Service in the School-room. Notwithstanding this arrangement, the Church has frequently been so crowded that many have had to return home even before the Service began, not being able to find admittance. Under these circumstances, it was determined that efforts should be made to erect a new Church sufficiently large to meet the increasing wants of the Settlement. In reference to this, the following account is given in Mr. Cockran's Journal—

Dec. 31, 1844—I held a Meeting for the purpose of ascertaining what means we could raise for building a stone Church. Almost all the males attended. I addressed them on the zeal and liberality of the Children of Israel, when it was proposed to build the Tabernacle. If Moses found a willing people, the present assembly were equally so. Silver and gold they had none; but stones, lime, shingles, boards, timber, and labour, were cheerfully contributed, and to such an amount as perfectly astonished me. Never, since the day of Pentecost, was self so completely conquered. The shingle-makers proposed to give 10,000 shingles each, and the lime-burners 400 bushels of lime each. The mason proposed to dress the stones for one corner, and lay them, gratis. Boards and timber were promised in the same liberal manner. One black curly-head, descended from the line of Ham by his father's side, stood up in his leather coat, and said, "I shall give 10*l*." The eyes of all were turned toward him, and a smile played upon every countenance. I said, "I believe our brethren think you are too poor to raise such a sum." He said, raising his arm, "Here is my body: it is at your service. It is true, I can neither square a stone nor lay one; but there will be the floor and the roof: turn me to them, and then you will see, if God give me life and health, that the value of the sum shall be raised." In materials and labour above 700*l*. were promised.

INDIAN SETTLEMENT.

This Station exhibits the result of the first attempt, on the part of the Society, to change the habits of the wandering Indians, and to bring them steadily within reach of the ordinances of the Gospel. The experiment, so greatly derided at first, has been eminently successful. The whole Settlement presents the aspect of civilization, and the danger which the Missionary now fears is that which arises from prosperity. It is the tendency of an increase of worldly comfort to draw the affections to earthly things. Nevertheless, Mr. Smithurst's Report, for the year ending August 1, 1845, is very encouraging, and furnishes much cause for thankfulness.

He states that the attendance at Divine Service on the Lord's-day is very regular, amounting, on an average, to about 350. Respecting the administration of the Sacraments, he reports—

During the past year, the number of baptisms has been seventeen; of whom two were Converts from Heathenism, and fifteen were the children of Christian Indians.

Twelve new Communicants have been admitted this year. The number of Communicants last reported was 77; but as two have died, the present number is but 87. The accession to the number of Communicants has been, for the most part, from the young people who compose my Bible Class, and who are much better instructed than many of the older ones. I trust, also, that the knowledge which they have obtained is not altogether confined to the head; but that it is, in many instances, an experimental knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus. Much more may be hoped for from the rising generation than from their predecessors, inasmuch as they are free from prejudice, and clear of many superstitious ideas which still cling to the old.

CUMBERLAND STATION.

General Review—Arrival of the Rev. J. Hunter.

This Station, situated at a distance of 600 miles from the head-quarters of the Mission, was commenced in June 1840 by Mr. Henry Budd, a Native Catechist. Two years afterward it was visited for a few days by the Rev. J. Smithurst, who baptized 85 Indians prepared and instructed by Mr. Budd. When another two years had elapsed, the Rev. J. Hunter took up his abode at the Station. He left England in the first week of June 1844, and on the 26th of Sept. he reached his destination. In his Journal he thus describes the scene which presented itself upon his arrival—

The School-children were the first to run down to the water's edge and welcome our arrival: their cheerful and happy countenances, greeting our approach, amply rewarded us for all the toil and fatigue we had experienced in our voyage.

On landing from the boat, a great number of Indians, who had for some time been waiting my arrival, came to bid us welcome; and we could immediately perceive, from their manner and address, that we were not surrounded by Heathen, but by Christian brethren. These poor men, together with their wives and families, were dwelling in tents pitched in front of the Mission premises, and on the bank of the river: they had been waiting our arrival for several weeks, and had resolved not to leave for their hunting-grounds, where they generally spend the winter, until the "fall-boat," by which I was expected, should have arrived.

Baptisms.

One of the earliest duties which Mr. Hunter had to perform was, to admit into the Church of Christ, by baptism, 31 adults and 35 children. In describing the Services on this occasion, Mr. Hunter remarks—

Sept. 29—Our little room was literally crowded with the Indians and School-children who were present: they were all attentive, and their deep responses manifested that they took a lively interest in the Service. Their devout manner would put to the blush many a Congregation in my own highly-favoured native land.

I had previously arranged that the Candidates should come up for baptism by households, and a most interesting and delightful scene it was to see the father and mother, with their children, approach the font to receive this sacred ordinance. All was breathless attention, many a tear was shed, and both old and young appeared to be affected by the solemn Service.

In a Letter dated Sept. 9, 1845, Mr. Hunter states, that, during his abode of less than twelve months at the Station, he had had the privilege of baptizing 65 adults and 75 children, making, together with those baptized by Mr. Smithurst, a total of 225. He adds—

Of these, with one or two exceptions, I am able to report most favourably: they are growing in grace, and daily endeavouring to obey the commandments of Christ their Saviour.

Divine Service—Day-school.

Owing to the necessity under which the Indians are laid to go to distant parts of the country to procure subsistence, the attendance at Divine Service is various. During the winter it has averaged from 70 to 80; but in the spring, when the Indians arrive from their hunting-grounds, there are often as many as 200 present. From the time he left England Mr. Hunter had diligently applied himself to the study of the Indian language; and, with the assistance of Mr. H. Budd, he has translated a great part of the Liturgy into that language. On the 17th of November he read the Evening Service in Indian for the first time, and on the 9th of February the Morning Service. Mr. Hunter describes the Congregation to be remarkably devout and serious.

In the Day-school there were, in August last, 24 boys and 23 girls; being an increase of 16 during the year. In the winter of 1845 Mr. Hunter had some difficulty in procuring food for the children; but the favourable harvest removed any apprehensions which he might have entertained upon that subject last winter.

Testimony to the Influence of Religion on the Character of the Indians.

On a visit to Cumberland Fort, in Dec. 1844, Mr. Hunter was cheered by the following testimony to the good effected among these wild Indians. He writes, Dec. 4—

The Gentleman in charge told me that a great change had taken place in the manners and conduct of the Indians who had embraced Christianity; that he found them, in every respect, much better to transact business with than those who were Heathens, and that they were quieter and much easier to please.

Earnest Desire for Instruction.

Mr. Hunter has been pressed, by earnest solicitations from Indians in other parts of the District, for Christian instruction. One Indian and his family came a distance of about 400 miles in order to obtain it, having previously sent two of his sons to the School; another Indian from the same place having also sent two of his daughters. These people had never been visited by the Catechist; but they had heard, from some of the baptized Indians, who occasionally visit that neighbourhood, enough of the religion of Christ to awaken among them an anxious desire for instruction. Mr. Hunter writes in his Journal, June 13, 1845—

Two or three years ago, one of these Indians, Great Chief, visited the Station for instruction; and after remaining there some time, procured some initiatory books and tracts from Henry Budd, and left for the purpose of returning home, with the laudable intention of endeavouring to communicate a little of that instruction which he had found so profitable to himself. From that period up to the present time he has steadily kept this object in view, occasionally visiting the Station for the purpose of obtaining further instruction, and returning to his countrymen to dispense it; and so desirous were the Indians to listen to the message of salvation, although imparted by so inadequate an instrument, that they have kept him up four nights in succession, listening to the truths of the Gospel from his lips. Party after party would enter his tent, and, after retiring for a short time for refreshment and repose, would return again to obtain further information. Their cry is, "Send us a Teacher: we are poor and ignorant: have pity, then, on our poverty and our ignorance, and teach us the blessings of Salvation."

The Committee are thankful to say that the earnest desire for instruction manifested by these people has been met by the appointment of Mr. James Settee to labour among them as a Catechist, under Mr. Hunter's superintendence.

MANITOBA STATION.

Return of the Rev. A. Cowley—His Employments.

The Rev. A. Cowley, having been relieved from his duties at the Red River, returned with Mrs. Cowley to this Station on the 23d of August 1844. Mr. Cowley's time is fully occupied in holding Divine Service and School on the Lord's-day; and on week-days in taking charge of the School, superintending the domestic and other affairs of the Mission, conversing with Indians, and expounding the Scriptures for their benefit, as well as that of his own household, every evening.

Progress and Prospects.

The Saulteaux tribe, among which Mr. Cowley labours, has been remarkable for its tenacious hold of superstition, and its indifference to Christian instruction. None of them have yet expressed their belief in the Gospel, although most, if not all of them, have occasionally attended Divine Service. Mr. Cowley, however, continues to sow in hope, and he sees some prospect of a future harvest. He observes, in a Letter dated Nov. 26, 1845—the Indians more and more to agriculture. In addition to this, we begin to present somewhat the appearance of a village.

Our School, too, is flourishing. During the fall a great number of Indians pitched their tents and remained about us; not one of whom refused to allow his children to attend School daily. During that time there were occasionally upward of 40 present at once, there being still others absent. These, however, we cannot reckon as scholars, their presence depending upon their parents being here or elsewhere. The number at present is diminished to 20, whom I hope to retain all the winter: this is owing to their parents having dispersed for the winter hunt. Of the 20, eleven have been given up to us as boarders, so that we have them entirely under our control.

FORT-ELLICE STATION.

Relinquishment of this Station.

It was stated, in the last Report, that the condition and prospects of this Station were less encouraging than those of the other Stations. Various reasons—the disinclination of the Indians to avail themselves of the instruction afforded them; the danger to the Catechist and his family, from the constant wars of the Indians in this part of the country with the surrounding tribes; and the great want of help in other and more encouraging scenes of labour—have since induced the Missionaries to withdraw the Catechist, Mr. J. Settee, from Fort Ellice, and to station him, as already mentioned, in the Cumberland District.*

CONCLUSION.

IN reviewing the progress of the Society's operations, in all their vast extent, during the past year, the Committee offer their unfeigned thanks to that gracious God who has preserved the Society in peace and prosperity at home, and condescended to employ its instrumentality in advancing the kingdom of His Son among the Heathen.

They are reminded, indeed, by the calamities of New Zealand and Tinnevelly, and by the efforts of Popery throughout all our Missions, that the final triumph of the Gospel cannot be achieved without a struggle with the powers of darkness, which may sorely try the faith and the patience of God's people. But they think it not strange concerning these trials, as though some strange thing had happened. They accept them as tokens of the Lord's presence and favour ; as calls, indeed, to deeper humiliation, and to more fervent faith and prayer, but, at the same time, as PREPARATIONS FOR LARGER MEASURES OF SUCCESS.

The Committee entertain a firm conviction that there are blessings in store, as the fruit of past Missionary labours, which, according to our present low standard of faith and zeal, we have not room enough to receive.

While in some particular localities the Heathen are renouncing idolatry, and placing themselves under Christian instruction, in large masses—like the 6830 Tinnevelly Converts of the last year—at every Station throughout India we discover the evidences of a TRANSITION STATE—a weakening of Hindoo superstition and Mahomedanism—an undefined but prevalent conviction that Christianity will ultimately triumph—and a rapidly-growing ascendancy of European intelligence over Native habits and literature.

This state of things has inspired courage and confidence in those who are labouring on the Lord's side. But it has awakened, also, the zeal of the enemies of the Truth. The agents of infidelity who bear the Christian name are at work: the bigoted Heathen are forming associations in support of their gross idolatry: the more philosophical Natives are retiring from the outworks of Polytheism, and intrenching themselves behind a system of refined Unitarianism. Surely, at such a time, it is for the Heralds of the Gospel to lift up their voices with renewed zeal, and to proclaim aloud that message which is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.

The Committee must also refer to another topic, which is full of momentous interest—namely, the impulse which has been given to education among the Natives of India during the last year. The policy of the Indian Government, till within the last ten years, had been to promote Native education only through Native languages and Native systems of instruction: in this way all the folly and falsehood of the Shasters and Korân were identified with Government instruction. Lord William C. Bentinck, in the year 1835, issued his celebrated decree, by which the secular literature and science of Europe, through the medium of the English language, superseded the absurdities of the old system; but no countenance was given to any other education than that of Government. But the present Governor-General, Lord Hardinge, before he left the seat of Government to enter upon the campaign which has closed in so much renown, adopted a measure which may prove, in its results, more powerful for the good of India than the victories of the Sutledge.

His Decree declares, that the Governor-General, “to enable the State to profit as largely, and as early as possible, by the result of the measures adopted of late years for the instruction of the people, as well by the Government as by private individuals and Societies, has resolved, that, in every possible case, a preference shall be given, in the selection of candidates for public employment, to those who have been educated in the Institutions thus established; and especially to those who have distinguished themselves therein by a more than ordinary degree of merit and attainment.”

This Decree places on an equal footing all Educational Establishments, whether Government or Missionary Institutions, or public or private Schools. It is the first public recognition, in immediate connexion with the service of the State, of Missionary and other similar Institutions. It cannot fail to give a mighty impulse to the cause of Christian education. It contains the seeds of moral changes in the social history of India which the mind of man cannot grasp.

It has been a subject of anxious consideration with the Committee, whether the Society should not take up, as a distinct branch of its operations, the establishment in India of Schools upon Christian principles, to meet this emergency. But it has been determined that neither the financial position of the Society, nor the prospect of an adequate supply of Schoolmasters, such as the Society would desire to employ, nor the main design of our Institution—would justify the Committee in commencing, upon a large scale, Schools apart from Missionary Establishments.

The Committee are deeply impressed, however, with the importance of the present crisis for India, and the mighty results which may ensue. Education will proceed, it may be, with gigantic strides. Native intelligence will awaken from its slumbers, and will seek for the food and refreshment of the mind, like men whose souls faint through hunger and thirst; and woe to this Church and country if there be not Christian Teachers at hand to present them with the bread of life, and the water of which whosoever drinketh shall never thirst. Most earnestly, therefore, do the Committee appeal for the means of increasing the band of faithful Missionaries and Teachers, who are witnessing for Christ and His Truth on the soil of India.

The Committee once more refer to the late signal mercies vouchsafed by Almighty God to the British Army in India, in the glorious victories over the Sikhs, and the still more glorious peace conferred by the conqueror. They regard these mercies as a powerful call upon this nation to take the most effectual means for planting the Gospel in the countries which have been the scene of such wonderful displays of Divine interposition and favour toward Great Britain.

Nevertheless, the Committee are persuaded, from long experience, that the best way in which the Society can assist in bringing the newly-acquired territories under the dominion of Christ, is by strengthening and extending its existing Missions, especially in the North-west Provinces—Himalaya, Meerut, Agra. The very means, under God, of our late extraordinary success, namely, the prompt application of the resources of a great and established Indian Empire, and the talents and experience of Commanders gained on other battle fields—seem to point out the course now proposed as the surest way of attaining our ultimate object.

And yet with such special and pressing demands upon them to strengthen and enlarge all the Missions of the Society, the Committee feel themselves bound, as it were, hand and foot.

they cannot, they dare not, go beyond the means which are placed in their hands, and run the risk of entering upon work which they must afterward abandon. Without an increase in the PERMANENT SOURCES OF INCOME, they cannot enlarge their Missionary Establishments.

Having thus frankly stated the case, they leave the responsibility upon the consciences of others. They will only suggest, in conclusion, as topics of serious and general inquiry—Whether the Missionary cause be not, at this time, the grand means of enlarging the Redeemer's Kingdom? Whether it be not pre-eminent among the objects of piety and charity? Whether it do not claim from some, whom God has distinguished by a larger measure of His gifts and graces, the consecration of themselves to the honourable office of Missionary. Whether it do not claim from many, who are rich in this world, more liberal and self-denying offerings than they have hitherto made? Whether it do not claim from all who love the Lord Jesus, and know the value of His salvation, earnest and constant prayer to the God of Missions, to enlarge the charity of the Church at home; to send forth Labourers into His vineyard; and to pour upon all Missionary operations copious streams of His life-giving spirit?

BENEFACTIONS, COLLECTIONS, AND ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS, PAID DIRECT TO THE PARENT SOCIETY.

It being necessary, from the great number of Association Lists, to make up this List to the 31st of December in each year, Benefactions, Collections, and New Annual Subscriptions, which are paid after that date, cannot appear in the List of Benefactions, &c., paid direct to the Parent Society, to be appended to the Report presented to the Annual Meeting in the following May.

Benefactions of 10l. and upward, through Associations, are, after the first year, transferred to the General List of Contributions paid direct to the Parent Society, and continued in that List during the life of the Benefactor. Anonymous Benefactions, and all Benefactions under 10l., are discontinued after having been once inserted.

The Names of Collectors and Annual Subscribers are omitted in all cases where a payment has not been made within the last three years.

Subscribers and Benefactors who pay through the different Associations in London will find their names in the respective Lists of Associations.

Great difficulty being found in making the following List of Contributions correct, the Committee will feel obliged by having any errors, or alterations consequent on death, change of residence, or other causes, pointed out to them.

* * Those to which asterisks are prefixed were preached at St. Ann's, Blackfriars; those marked †, at St. Bride's, Fleet Street; the Twenty-third was preached at Christ Church, Newgate Street; the Thirty-first at St. Sepulchre's; the Thirty-second at St. Clement Danes; and the Thirty-third at St. Andrew's, Holborn.

The Collections at the Sixteenth and subsequent Anniversaries include the sums contributed at the Annual Meetings.

* * Some misapprehension having arisen with regard to the Association Balance Sheets appended to the Society's Report, the Committee beg to state that there is no connexion between those Balance Sheets and the Balance Sheet of the Parent Committee. The Association Accounts are, for the most part, made up to the period of their respective Anniversary Meetings, and thus necessarily vary from the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet, which includes the actual payments made at the Society's House between April 1st and March 31st in each year; and is, therefore, quite irrespective of the periods at which, for local convenience, Association Accounts are made up and balanced. An Account Current is kept at the Society's Office with each Association, by which the actual transmission of its receipts to the Parent Committee is shown. The appending to the Society's Report of the Balance Sheets of the Associations may be regarded as a universal acknowledgment to the Local Contributors that their Contributions have been received by the Parent Committee; though the varying periods at which, as above stated, those Accounts are made up, render it impossible that their totals should correspond with the amount received from Associations, specified in the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet.

It is further to be observed, that there are other causes of discrepancy, beside that of difference in time, which have the effect of swelling the amount acknowledged in the Association Balance Sheets beyond that which is exhibited in the Balance Sheet appended to the Report; inasmuch as Legacies, Benefactions, &c., although paid direct, are frequently claimed by an Association, the Benefactor having lived within the limits of such Association, though the payment was made direct to the Parent Society. As these Accounts have no reference to the Parent Committee's printed Balance Sheet, there has been no hesitation in transferring such amounts, as desired. The effect, however, of this has unavoidably been, in some instances, that the sums transferred have been twice acknowledged; the Committee's Balance Sheet having been made up before notice desiring such transfer was received at the Society's Office.

N.B. Benefactors of Ten Pounds and upward, whose names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will now find them in the General List.
