MESSRS. HATCHARD & SON, 187 Piccadilly.
MESSRS. NISBET & Co., Berners Street.

In Dublin, by

MESSRS. JOHN DAVID LA TOUCHE & Co.

R. K. GREVILLE, Esq., LL.D., REV. D. T. K. DRUMMOND, & CAPT. GROVE.

.* The Committee of the Church Missionary Society beg to suggest to the Committees and Officers of Associations, that the most convenient and economical mode of making their Remittances is through the medium of a Banker in the Country to the Society’s Bankers, through the Banking-house in town with which the Country Banker corresponds, advising the Secretaries of the payment.*

PROPER FORM OF A BENEFACTION TO THE SOCIETY BY WILL.

IN consequence of some late decisions with regard to charitable Legacies, it has been found necessary, in order that a Testator’s benevolent intentions may not be frustrated, as has been the case in several instances, that the following forms of Bequest should be substituted for that hitherto printed in the Society’s Reports.

No. I.—Form of Bequest of a Common Legacy.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer for the time being of a voluntary Society meeting in or near London commonly called or known by the name of “The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East” the sum of Pounds *free of Legacy duty for the general purposes of the said Society† to be paid within calendar months next after my death. And in order that the said Legacy [or Legacies] for charitable purposes may be paid in full I direct the same together with the Legacy duty thereon to be paid exclusively out of such part of my Personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may be bequeathed for charitable purposes and in priority to all my Debts and funeral and testamentary expenses and all other Legacies bequeathed by this my Will or any Codicil thereto. And I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society [or each of the said Societies] shall be an effectual discharge for the said Legacy [or Legacies respectively].

No. II.—Form of Bequest of the Residue, or a Share of the Residue.

And in order to give full effect to the bequest hereinafter contained for charitable purposes I direct that my Debts, the expenses of my funeral and of the probate and execution of this my Will and the Legacies bequeathed by this my Will or any Codicil thereto shall be paid out of such part of my personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may not be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the primary Fund§ and in case only of the same being insufficient for payment thereof then out of such part of my personal Estate as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the ultimate Fund; and subject as aforesaid, I give and bequeath unto the Treasurer for the time being of a voluntary Society meeting in or near London called or known by the name of “The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East” for the general purposes of the said Society such part of my residuary personal Estate as by the Laws in force may be bequeathed for charitable purposes [or if a share only of the residue be intended to be given, then, instead of the words in Italics, say, “such sum of money as shall be equal to (one-fourth or one-half, according to the intention) of my whole residuary personal Estate to be paid exclusively out of such part thereof as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes or such less sum as the said last mentioned part of my personal Estate will extend to pay”]. And I declare that the Receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society shall be an effectual discharge for the said residue [or sum of money, as the case may be]. And as to the remainder if any of my general residuary personal Estate I bequeath the same &c.||

* If so intended.

† If there be other charitable Legacies, they may be here added thus—“and to a certain other voluntary Society” &c. “and I direct each of the said several Legacies hereby bequeathed for charitable purposes to be paid” &c. as in the remainder of the above form.

‡ In case there be other charitable Legacies, insert here, “other than and except charitable Legacies.”

§ If it be intended also to charge the Debts and Legacies on real Estate, then add “and in the next place out of my Freehold and Copyhold Estates.”

|| The latter Clause to be filled up according to the Testator’s wishes; but it must not be for any charitable purpose.

At the Forty-seventh Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May the 4th, 1847—

The Right Hon. the EARL of CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY ONE OF THE CLERICAL SECRETARIES AND THE REV. JOHN VENN, M.A., PREBENDARY OF HEREFORD—

On the Motion of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Winchester, seconded by the Rev. Edward Bickersteth, Rector of Watton, Herts,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; that the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Rev. Charles Bridges for his Sermon before the Society last evening; to His Grace the Vice-Patron; to the Right Hon. the President and the Vice-Presidents; and to all those friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf; and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the ensuing year. (See List, p. iv.)

On the Motion of the Rev. F. Jeune, D.C.L., Master of Pembroke College, Oxford, seconded by the Rev. Charles Perry, M.A., Bishop designate of Melbourne, Australia,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the increase in the Society's Income, and the completion of its Capital Fund, viewed in connexion with the enlarged facilities for the extension of its operations, call upon its friends to abound in thanksgiving to the God of all grace; and encourage them to pray that He would crown His mercies by raising up a corresponding supply of able and devoted Missionaries, and by pouring down the life-giving influences of His Holy Spirit.

On the Motion of Sir Robert Harry Inglis, Bart. M.P., one of the Vice-Presidents of the Society; seconded by the Rev. James S. M. Anderson, M.A., Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen, and Preacher of Lincoln's Inn; and supported by the Rev. John Tucker, B.D., late Secretary of the Corresponding Committee at Madras,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the successful commencement of the Mission to Abbeokouta, and the advanced character of the Native Agency at Sierra Leone, afford a bright hope that the Redeemer's Kingdom will ere long be established in Central Africa; and that England will bear her part, through her Christian Missions, in repairing the deep and protracted injuries of the African Slave Trade.

On the Motion of the Rev. George Smith, M.A., the Society's Missionary from China, seconded by the Rev. John C. Miller, M.A., Rector of St. Martin's, Birmingham—

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the present intellectual, moral, and social condition of the Chinese furnishes ample evidence that a great door and effectual is opened in China to the labours of Missionaries, and constitutes a powerful appeal to Christians to redouble their efforts to send the Gospel to that benighted Continent.

At a Meeting of the Society, held in Exeter Hall, in the Evening of the same Day—

The Most Hon. the MARQUESS CHOLMONDELEY, one of the Vice-Presidents, in the Chair,

EXTRACTS FROM THE ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT HAVING BEEN READ BY ONE OF THE CLERICAL SECRETARIES—

On the Motion of John Labouchere, Esq., seconded by the Rev. Edward Hoare, M.A., Incumbent of St. John's, Upper Holloway,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the promptness and liberality with which pecuniary aid has been furnished by this country to alleviate the miseries of a famine of bread ought to stir up Christians to seek, by increased self-denial and enlarged charity, to supply the millions of Heathen perishing for lack of knowledge with the bread which came down from heaven, and which giveth life unto the world.

On the Motion of the Rev. W. Withers Ewbank, M.A., Incumbent of St. George's, Everton, Liverpool, seconded by the Rev. Thomas Bartlett, M.A., Rector of Kingstone; Canterbury, and one of the Association Secretaries of the Society,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the increase of Native Agency in all the Missions of the Society, and especially the Ordinations of Native Ministers in South India and Ceylon, encourage the Society to use increased exertions for obtaining a still more efficient and extended Native Agency, upon which, under the blessing of God, our hope of the conversion of nations mainly depends.

On the Motion of the Rev. John Henry Bernau, the Society's Missionary from Bartica Grove, British Guiana, seconded by the Rev. Charles Frederick Childe, M.A., Principal of the Society's Institution, Islington,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the various encouragements and discouragements throughout the field of this Society's operations, and the rapid alternations of failure and success which occasionally take place in the same Mission, enforce upon the friends of the Cause the duty of abounding in prayer and humiliation and thanksgiving, of sympathizing with the Missionaries, and of maintaining a spirit of more simple dependence upon God, and more quiet confidence in the ultimate triumph of His Truth.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by a Patron or Patrons, a Vice-Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church.

II. The office of PATRON of the Society shall be reserved for such Members of the Royal Family as may honour it with their protection; and that of VICE-PATRON for His Grace the Primate of all England, if, being a Member of the Society, he shall accept the office. The PRESIDENT shall be such Temporal Peer or Commoner as may be appointed to that office; and VICE-PRESIDENTS shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, who, being Members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such Temporal Peers and Commoners as, being also Members, shall be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upward, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upward per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward, Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, and Executors paying to the amount of Fifty Pounds, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upward shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Members for Life, or Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. A Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society, at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum, shall be called at any time, at the requisition of the General Committee; or by any Thirteen Members, on addressing a Letter to the Secretary, specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Rules of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones established, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the General Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church; and of all such Clergymen as are Members of the Society. Eighteen Members shall be annually appointed from the Old Committee, and Six from the General Body.

XII. The COMMITTEE shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, and a Committee of Accounts. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same to the General Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate, to the General Committee, proper persons, as Patrons and Vice-Presidents of the Society.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt proper means of augmenting the Subscriptions and Benefactions; to obtain Collections in Churches and Chapels; and to nominate, from time to time, to the General Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents for the Society in the principal Towns throughout the Empire.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to superintend their instruction, and to correspond with them when sent out.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Accounts is, to see that the Subscriptions are duly received, regulate the accounts, and undertake the charge of fitting out and conveying the Missionaries to their places of destination.

XVII. The General Committee shall receive the Reports of the other Committees, shall appoint the places where Missions shall be attempted, shall direct the scale upon which they shall be conducted, and shall superintend the affairs of the Society in general.

XVIII. The General Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; the other Committees as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on: their Meetings to be always opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy. Five Members shall be necessary to compose a General Committee; and Three, each of the others. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XIX. The Patrons, Vice-Patron, and President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex-officio, Members of all Committees.

XX. Governors, being Members of the Established Church, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the General Committee.

XXI. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three of the General Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary.

XXII. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society; of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued: The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.*

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. That all questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and any Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

XXXIII. That the object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as, in any other respect, to alter the principles and practice of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions, falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference, cannot properly be considered as so bound.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The following passage, from Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Annual Report, illustrates the practice of the Society in reference to this Rule:—

"The Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] our Missionaries—these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same Colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church."

APPENDIX II. TO THE THIRTY-NINTH REPORT.

REFERRED TO IN THE NOTE TO LAW XXIX.

REMARKS ON THE CONSTITUTION AND PRACTICE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, WITH REFERENCE TO ITS ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONS.

It is the object of the following Remarks, to show that the constitution and practice of the Church Missionary Society are in strict conformity with Ecclesiastical principles, as they are recognised in the constitution and practice of the Church of England.

Throughout the system of the Church of England there is a recognised co-operation of temporal and spiritual functions IN MATTERS ECCLESIASTICAL; that is, the Laity and Clergy have not only their separate and distinct provinces, but, in many important respects, they unite their agency for the accomplishing of Ecclesiastical acts.

For instance, in supplying a vacant Church, a Lay-Patron selects and presents "his Clerk"—as the Clergyman is technically called—to the Bishop; who thereupon invests him with authority to minister in that Church. So, also, there are certain Lay-officers appointed to every Church—the Churchwardens or Sidesmen—whose duty it is, not only to guard, in conjunction with the Minister, the temporalities of the Church, but also to watch over the due performance of Divine Service, the morals of the parishioners, and the conduct of the Minister; and to report, from time to time, on each of these matters, to the Ecclesiastical Authorities. The duty of these officers is implied in the old appellation, "Sidesmen," or "Synodsmen"—men summoned to attend and give information at Synods and Visitations.

The distinction and co-operation of lay and spiritual functions in the Church of England might be further illustrated in the case of Ecclesiastical Courts, and various relations which arise out of the principle, that the Sovereign is the Supreme Ruler of the Church.

Keeping the foregoing distinction in view, the Church Missionary Society may be regarded as an Institution for discharging the temporal and lay offices necessary for the preaching of the Gospel among the Heathen. It is strictly a Lay Institution: it exercises, as a Society, no spiritual functions whatsoever.

Such being the constitution of the Society in theory—are its proceedings conducted in conformity with this theory, and with the Ecclesiastical principles of the Church of England?

In order to review these proceedings, they may be conveniently arranged under the FOUR following Heads:

I. THE COLLECTION OF THE HOME REVENUE, and THE DISBURSEMENT OF IT ABROAD.

These acts are altogether within the province of Laymen.

II. THE SELECTING AND EDUCATING CANDIDATES FOR MISSIONARY EMPLOYMENT.

In this department there is no necessary encroachments upon spiritual functions. The Colleges in our Universities are Lay-Corporations, and may, in many cases, be administered and presided over by Laymen.

Yet it may be urged, that in this department there is an approach to the peculiar province of Clergymen; because, spiritual persons seem the more proper judges of a Candidate's fitness for Missionary employment: and it is generally admitted, that a Bishop may exercise a controul over the education and training of Candidates to be advanced by himself to Holy Orders. Now, in both these particulars the Church Missionary Society has carefully guarded its proceedings. The examination of Missionary Candidates is referred to a Clerical Sub-Committee; and the General Committee consult and act upon the report of this Clerical trial and judgment. In respect of the other point, the education and training of Candidates for Holy Orders, the Church Missionary College at Islington has the sanction and approbation of the Bishop of London; who, in this country, admits to Holy Orders all the Society's Candidates: and his Lordship has repeatedly expressed his satisfaction at the results of the system of instruction, as they have been manifested in his examinations for Holy Orders.

III. The Third general head of the Society's proceedings is, THE SENDING FORTH, TO PARTICULAR STATIONS, THE MISSIONARIES THUS ORDAINED, OR OTHER CLERGYMEN WHO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY ORDAINED.

Now, here an objection against the Society has been founded on the use of the term "sending forth:"—it sounds like an exercise of Ecclesiastical power. But, Ecclesiastically speaking, the Bishop of London "sends forth" every Missionary ordained by him. The Law of the land has sanctioned the Two Archbishops, and the Bishop of London, in ordaining persons to officiate abroad. The Secretary of the Church Missionary Society requests, by Letter, the Bishop of London to ordain, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of Parliament, such and such persons, whom the Society is willing to support in some Foreign Station. The Bishop, by the imposition of hands, gives them authority to preach the Gospel, with a view to their Foreign location.—In the case of persons already in Holy Orders, who may join the Society, they may be said to go forth by their own voluntary act; but their Letters of Orders, given by a Bishop of our Church, are their mission and commission, Ecclesiastically speaking.

Hence, to call the acts of the Church Missionary Society—in selecting the station, paying the passage-money, and agreeing to provide the Missionary's salary—to call these acts a SENDING FORTH of Preachers, in an Ecclesiastical sense, is to confound names with things, and to lose sight of all true Church principles.

IV. The Fourth general head under which the proceedings of the Church Missionary Society may be arranged, is, THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MISSIONARIES IN THEIR LABOURS AMONG THE HEATHEN.

Here a distinction must be made between the case of those Foreign Stations which lie within the jurisdiction of a Colonial Bishop, and other stations, which are not so situated, and may therefore be termed Extra-diocesan.

In the first case, the Church Missionary Society has expressly determined, that all its ordained Missionaries shall be submitted for licence to the Bishop of the diocese in which they may be stationed; and that no Missionary shall exercise his spiritual functions in such diocese without a licence. The Society has further recognised the uncontrolled discretion of the Bishop to grant or withhold his licence, and the propriety of specifying in such licence a particular district as the field of labour; so that a Missionary cannot be removed from one district to another without the sanction of the Bishop.

These principles were stated in a Letter from the Society to the Bishop of Calcutta, signed by the Right Honourable the President—December 17, 1835—in a manner so satisfactory to the Bishop, that he embodied them in the four following Rules, expressed for the most part in the words of the Society's Letter: which were, at the Bishop's request, entered upon the minutes of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, as the recognised Rules of their practice:—

"1. The Bishop expresses—by granting or withholding his licence, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approbation or otherwise, of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries afterward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their Ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those—the Committee and Secretary—who still stand in the relation of Lay-Patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his Ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage.—The Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate directions when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop* or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives, further, all such confidential information, on all topics, as the Bishops officially neither could wish nor properly ask [to receive]."

* The Three Bishops of India, and the Bishop of Australia, are the Presidents of the Corresponding Committees in their respective dioceses.

The Bishop also wrote to the Parent Society in the following terms:—"You seem to me to lay down the principle most correctly. . . . This is to me perfectly satisfactory; as I shall instantly inform the Archbishop of Canterbury, to whom I report all the proceedings of the diocese."—9th June, 1836.

It will be perceived, that the Missionaries, thus licensed, stand toward the Bishop in the relation rather of Stipendiary Curates, than of Beneficed Clergymen. For a Bishop in England cannot refuse a licence or institution to a benefice, without assigning a reason which will bear investigation before a Court of Common Law; nor can he deprive a Clergyman of his benefice without a judicial process. But no law has provided any such check in the case of Missionaries: the Bishop has the power of withholding a licence, or of withdrawing it, at his sole discretion, without assigning any cause, as in the case of Stipendiary Curates in this country.

If it be asked, What are the checks and safeguards against the undue exercise of this discretionary power of the Bishop?—it may be replied, in the words of the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Parent Society, April 12, 1837:—

"We are not to take for granted, that discretionary power will be abused; but, on the contrary, to provide, by a cheerful and friendly spirit and conduct, against the likelihood of such an occurrence. If the event of arbitrary conduct should arise, or be supposed to arise, the remedies are—public opinion—an appeal to the Archbishop—and the Society's refusing to make other appointments and locations than those unreasonably objected to. Nothing is the least likely—and probability is the guide of life—to arise to impede or cramp the Committee; since they unquestionably and avowedly possess, The choice of men—The appointment of spheres of labour—The temporal power, including pecuniary support."

But though the Bishop's licence is at once the pledge and proof that the Society's Missionaries are under Episcopal superintendence and jurisdiction, and that the spiritual oversight rests altogether with the Bishop; yet the Society may seem, to some persons, to keep up a kind of spiritual jurisdiction and oversight, by requiring accounts from the Missionaries of all their proceedings, and by giving them directions, from time to time, which may bear upon their spiritual duties. But it must be remembered, that the Society stands toward its Missionaries in the relation of Trustees of the fund out of which their salaries are paid. In the case of a Beneficed Clergyman in this country, the Minister is the guardian and possessor of the temporalities of the benefice, because the benefice is an endowment; and the Patron has no further connexion with the Minister whom he has once presented to the Bishop. In our case, the office of Patron is, in a sense, perpetuated by the payment of the salary, and the possession of all the temporalities of the Mission.

This matter has been well explained by the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, May 26, 1837:—"The Missionary Committees," says his Lordship, "have a far greater latitude in India than any Lay-Patrons at home. Upon presenting his Clerk to the Bishop, the Patron at home is functus officio. The Clergyman is removed, on being once instituted and licensed, totally and for ever from the Patron, and is transferred to the superintendency of the Bishop. The Patron has nothing whatever more to do with him. But in India, the Committee is (1) the continued paymaster of the Missionary after he is duly licensed;—for institution and induction there are none. (2) They correspond with him. (3) They supply him with Catechists. (4) They report his chief proceedings home. (5) They propose removals and changes of station to the Bishop. (6) They exercise, unavoidably, an influence which does not belong to the mere Lay-Patron; and are aiding, in a variety of ways, to the comfortable and honourable discharge of the Missionary's most exalted and most spiritual duties."

It remains to consider the case of those Stations which are Extra-diocesan; i. e. where there is no Colonial Bishop of the Church of England having jurisdiction over them.

In these cases, the Society has endeavoured to procure for such stations the benefits of the Episcopal office from the nearest Bishop of the Church of England. Application was made by the Committee both to the late and to the present Bishop of Madras, to extend, as far as circumstances would admit, these benefits to the Mission in Travancore; which, as an independent state, not forming a part of the British Dominions, was not included in the diocese of Madras. A similar application was made on behalf of the New-Zealand Mission, to the Bishop of Australia; who at once acceded to the request, and kindly promised to visit New Zealand as soon as his other duties would permit; stating, in a Letter to the Society's representatives at Sydney, "It is highly satisfactory to me, that our friends at home are taking a view of these things which proves them to belong, not only to a MISSIONARY, but also to a CHURCH Society." (See Annual Report, 1838.)

Such is a General View of the Constitution and Proceedings of the Church Missionary Society.

It is not intended to assert, that errors are not sometimes committed in the application of these principles to matters of detail. It must be remembered, that Missionary operations are, alas! new and anomalous in the system of the Church of England; and that it is not always easy to draw a definite line between the two provinces which belong respectively to the Bishop and the Committee. It has been observed by the Bishop of Calcutta—Letter, May 26, 1837: "The boundaries of the power of Committees, as they approach to those of the Bishop, can be ascertained, in many points, only by time and observation." Perplexities have consequently occurred; and, unhappily, misunderstandings have sometimes arisen between the Representatives of the Society abroad and Ecclesiastical Authorities. But these are the principles by which the Home Committee have endeavoured to guide the proceedings of the Society: and they confidently respond to a sentiment expressed by the Bishop of Calcutta fully recognised: the details will soon find their level."—Letter, 9th June 1836.

"The principles of our new relations are now

In reviewing the Ecclesiastical relations of the Church Missionary Society, there are two or three points which it seems very important to notice.

1. Missionary operations, as they are conducted by the Church Missionary Society, though apparently anomalous in the system of the Church of England, are yet in strict conformity with its constitution and principles: they are analogous to many other instances of voluntary exertion for the extension of true religion within the Church, in which Ecclesiastical authority and Lay co-operation unite for the accomplishment of the same end: so that these operations may be regarded as the acts of the Church of England, putting forth its energy for the Conversion of the Heathen World. For it has been shown, that the Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth our Missionaries—that these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church. Even in the few cases in which Lutheran Clergymen are employed, this rule is observed; and all the congregations which are gathered into the fold of Christ are trained up as Members of the Church established in this land.

And here it may be observed, that nothing less than the sanction of a duly-assembled Convocation can more fully identify the acts of any Missionary Society, within the Church of England, with the Church.* Without such sanction, all associations of Churchmen must stand in the same position. Still further, not to notice the present abeyance of Convocations, it may be asserted, that even if the Church were to assemble in her provincial Convocations, and to decree and to regulate Missionary operations, such proceedings could not essentially add to, or alter, those important particulars which, under present circumstances, entitle the operations of the Church Missionary Society to be regarded as Missionary operations of the United Church of England and Ireland.

2. It must be ever borne in mind, that Missionary operations are, in their very nature, temporary and preparative;—that they are to be gradually but eventually superseded by a different order of things, when the Heathen Nations shall have become Christianized. In some cases, as in the West Indies, this change is further advanced than in others. Now, it must be expected, that, in proportion as this change advances, difficulties and perplexities will arise in our Ecclesiastical relations, peculiar to this TRANSITION STATE—from Missionary operations, to that happy consummation when there shall be an endowed and established system of Christian Instruction, and a territorial division of Ministerial labour. This consummation the Church Missionary Society has ever kept in view, and devoutly desired; and, as far as possible, has prepared for its approach. In an interview with the Bishop of Barbados—April 1835—this point was expressly alluded to; and it was stated by the Committee to his Lordship, “that whenever a district should be brought into the state of an organized Christian community, it should assume entirely the Parochial form, and cease to be occupied as a Missionary Station.—The Bishop entirely acquiesced in this view; and only expressed his anxiety that it should not be so acted upon as prematurely to deprive a district of the Missionary’s services.” (Extracts from Committee’s Minute.)

3. Lastly, it must be evident, from a review of the whole subject, that our Ecclesiastical relations depend, in many important respects, upon a mutual confidence and good understanding between the Committee and its representatives, and the Ecclesiastical Authorities both at home and abroad. This must be the case, to argue upon no higher grounds, while those relations are governed by Ecclesiastical laws and canons made without reference to Missionary operations, for an Established Church in a Christian country; and where so much is also necessarily left to the discretion of both parties. If we look to our Home operations, the Committee places confidence in the Bishop of London, that he will continue to ordain the Missionary Candidates introduced to his Lordship by the Society, according to the provisions of the Act: and the Lord Bishop of London relies upon the Committee’s using every means to select, train, and duly qualify proper candidates to be thus introduced to him.

So also, in its Foreign operations, the Society places confidence in the Colonial Bishops—as it has been already shown, in a quotation from the Letter of Bishop Wilson—that they will not exercise an unreasonable or arbitrary discretion, in withholding or withdrawing licences from our Missionaries, or in refusing ordination to our Candidates. And the Bishops, by granting licences and ordination to the Missionaries of a voluntary Society, whose income is liable to fluctuations, and whose agents are constantly changing, manifestly place confidence in the Committees, that they will use every endeavour to keep up the Missions once established; and that they will not, on their part, act in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner, or withdraw the salary from a licensed Missionary, without reason sufficient to prove to the licensing Bishop the necessity of the proceeding.

It seems impossible to supersede this conventional understanding—as it may be termed—till Missions are supported by endowments, or till a code of Missionary canons be established by competent authority.

This mutual confidence and good understanding now exists, it may be thankfully asserted, between the Committee of the Society and the Ecclesiastical Authorities of every Colonial Diocese in which Missionaries are labouring. And may He, who is the God, not of confusion, but of peace, and “the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls,” unite together the hearts and hands of those who are labouring in this Holy Cause—“that all and every of these may, IN THEIR SEVERAL CALLINGS, serve truly and painfully, to the glory of His name!”

Suggested Order of Proceedings at a Meeting preparatory to the Formation of an Association in aid of the Church Missionary Society.

1.—Mr. will move, and Mr. will second, a Resolution, "That be requested to take the Chair."

2.—The Chairman will briefly state the object for which the Meeting is assembled, and then call on the Rev. to offer up the usual Prayer to Almighty God, for a blessing on the proceedings of the day.

3.—After Prayer, the Chairman will make such further observations as he may deem necessary, and then call on Mr. to move the First Resolution.

FIRST RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That this Meeting fully recognises the duty incumbent on Christians to employ all suitable means for the propagation of the Gospel throughout the world; and hails, with thankfulness to the Great Head of the Church, the labours of the CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY in its various Stations in Heathen Lands, and among decayed Christian Churches.

SECOND RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That an Association be now formed, and entitled, "The Church Missionary Association;" and that the following be its Officers and Rules.

PRESIDENT.
TREASURER.

VICE-PRESIDENTS.
SECRETARY.

COMMITTEE:

RULES.

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward; or if Clergymen, Half a Guinea; and also such persons as shall collect in its behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward; or if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas; and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at its General Meetings. Collectors of One Shilling and upward per week will receive a copy of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Record"; of Sixpence a-week and upward, of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Gleaner." Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society. Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors. Contributors of 1*d.* a-week and upward will be entitled to receive the Parent Society's "Quarterly Paper."

VI. The objects of this Association shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society—to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VII. The whole of the funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society, in aid of its designs.

VIII. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day as shall be fixed by the Committee; when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be read, and an account of its receipts and disbursements presented, duly audited.

THIRD RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the success which, under the Divine Blessing, has attended the Church Missionary Society, in its efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ among the Heathen, is a loud and providential call for increased exertions, for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and for continual prayer for a more abundant outpouring of the Holy Spirit, to render the means employed successful.

FOURTH RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the new and enlarged openings for Missionary exertion, in different quarters, demand our best energies to make known the blessed Gospel of Christ to Heathen and Mahomedan Nations.

PHILIPPIANS I. 21.

FOR TO ME TO LIVE IS CHRIST.

IN this short sentence is included a dignity and a substance of happiness, which is as the days of heaven upon the earth. Man's true dignity and happiness is not in his external rank or greatness—for he may be born a king, and yet a fool—but it consists in the principles, from which, and the end for which, he lives. The sensual fool, saying to his soul—Take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry—was indeed a grovelling worm; in the truest and lowest sense of the term—of the earth, earthy.¹ But *the way of life is above to the wise*²; and the man who can look upon the motto of the text, and say—To me to live is Christ—he is sitting in heavenly places; living in a world infinitely above the highest glory of an earthly crown. His ends and his principles centre in God his Saviour; and all exhibits unequalled grandeur, and ends in everlasting joy. It is the glory of the Divine Mediator in heaven—in that He liveth, He liveth unto God.³ It is the glory of the Christian on earth—in that he liveth, he liveth unto Christ. Such is the dignity of the man of God! The Divine Master in heaven, and the faithful servant upon earth, are identified in spirit, in end, in object.

In further opening this striking motto of the text, we cannot forget how entirely the Apostle illustrated his own words. Never was there a mind so free from self, and so filled with God: never was there a mind so intensely occupied with His grand object. It mattered not what he was, or where he was, in the eyes of men: this was the one object for which he lived—*that Christ might be magnified in his body, whether by life, or by death.*¹ He knew his life might be for the honour of his Saviour; he knew that his death would be unspeakable gain to himself²; and therefore he was in a strait betwixt two. His natural desire was to depart, and be with Christ; which is far better. But his eagerness to be at home with his Lord was balanced and tempered by his disinterested regard to the Church of God: and for the interest of that Church he was content to be detained awhile from his heavenly crown. *Nevertheless, said he, to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.*³

But while we see such a distinct manifestation of the grace of God in the person of His servant; there is nothing that shines forth in the Apostle, but what is, and must be, the characteristic of every Christian in the Church of God. We speak not of his apostolical gifts, but of his Divine and spiritual grace; and we say, that we must all, as far as we are Christians, show forth the same singleness of purpose, the same entireness of heart, the same perseverance of pursuit, in our high calling. Whatever be the sphere in which we move; whatever the features of character, which appear more eminently in some of us; this must be the grand principle, shining with unmistakeable clearness in our profession—To me to live is Christ. Christ is the Christian's All—his life, his centre, his great object, his most glorious end. Mark how, in the third chapter of this Epistle, every component part of the Christian is linked with Christ. His CHARACTER is—that he rejoices in Christ Jesus.⁴ His PURPOSE is—to count all his gain loss for Christ.⁵ His CHOICE is, as the result of experience, to cleave to this determination—Yea, doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord.⁶ His DESIRES are—that I may win

*Christ, that I may be found in Christ, that I may know Christ.*¹ His PURSUIT is—*that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus—the prize of my high calling of God in Christ Jesus.*² His CONSUMMATING HOPE is—looking for his coming Saviour, and for transformation into His image.³ We see, therefore, that in every distinct particle that forms the Christian, *Christ is All*⁴, and to him to live is Christ.

Unless I am greatly mistaken, the unfolding of this short sentence will bring out profitably, because practically, the real principles of that most holy and blessed work, which has brought us this evening to a consecrated service in the House of God. And may this sentence live in us, and we in it! May the Holy Spirit of God now open it to our understandings and our hearts, and habitually fix it there as the principle of our daily life!

In further opening this short text as God shall enable us, we will mark the Christian—IN HIS PRINCIPLES—IN HIS OBJECT—IN HIS PRIVILEGES—and IN HIS PROSPECTS; and in all these views we shall see a light reflecting on this sentence—To me to live is Christ. •

I. We begin with HIS PRINCIPLES, because our object is practical, and there can be no practice without principle; no sound practice but what grows out of the true principles of the Gospel, seated in the heart, and springing up into the life and conduct. Let us then mark the principle of the Christian—To me to live is Christ.

When we speak of life, we must go backward to speak of death; for why is Christ the life, but because the sinner is dead?

The Word of God declares man to be DEAD IN LAW—under the condemnation of death. Adam sinned, and *in Adam we all die*⁵—spiritually, temporally, eternally. As man's death is in the first Adam, his life is in the second Adam, the Lord from heaven. The Son of God wrought out righteousness—satisfaction to the law, acceptance for the sinner. The Surety obtained life, by Himself enduring the penalty of death; and, as the consequence of that work performed, and that penalty endured, receiving abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness, we reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.¹ It is not, therefore, a feeble, not a glimmering, not an obscure life; but a life full of kingly power and glory. We reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.

But man is also DEAD IN SOUL. There is indeed natural life. But if the body is alive, the soul is dead. Who doubts this, that has ever prayed over his Bible; that has ever searched diligently into his own heart; that has ever tried, by his own unassisted efforts, to love and serve his God? Oh, brethren! every exercise of man, in his natural state, is the life of death. He is *alienated from the life of God*²: he is dead in trespasses and sins.³ Hence, with this righteousness, that we have just spoken of, is connected an infusion of Divine and spiritual life, by which Christ is formed in the heart, and dwells there. Christ takes to Himself this attribute—I am the life.⁴ His beloved Apostle echoes the word—He that hath the Son hath life.⁵ If we would see this life in real energy, hear the Apostle's bold confidence—I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.⁶ Observe the energy, the power, the vigour of this life—I can do nothing less than all things; and yet not I, but Christ liveth in me.⁷ His power is the source of my ability; His actual influence is the power, that enables me to put it forth; and His continual energy is the principle, by which it is maintained. So that, should it intermit one moment, all is powerless. It is not, therefore, a plan to set a man upon his feet, and then leave him to walk by himself. But it is that, which every man, made conscious of his fallen nature, feels that he needs to the end. As a poor, feeble, tottering sinner, he can no more walk by himself at the end, than he could at the beginning; and therefore all his way through he receives fresh supplies from Him, who testified for his comfort—I am come, that ye might have life, and that ye might have it more abundantly.⁸ Nor is this a mere external touch, but a deep spring from the bottom. It is strength in the soul—in the inner man, by the mighty working of the Spirit of God.¹ Hence its triumphant influence above all opposition.

The lovely dispositions which are the ornaments of the Christian profession, are simply formed, as the believer receives of the fulness of Christ, grace for grace.² No one lives a life of holiness, except as Christ is the principle of that life. There is no breathing of the heart toward Christ, till Christ Himself has breathed upon that heart. And what is it without Him? There may be external beauty and gracefulness; but there will be no living principle. There may be earnest, self-denying, devout worshippers; but all will be dead works, voluntary humility, spiritual self-righteousness, bringing no fruit, either to God or to ourselves. This is, therefore, the simple history of the Christian life, in its beginning, progress, and perfection—As ye have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him: rooted and built up in Him, and stablished in the faith.³

Brethren, we feel, as Ministers of the Lord—there is not one of my dear brethren that does not feel this—that the life of faith in our own souls is the life of our Ministry to our people; that just what we are as Christians, that, and no more, shall we be as Ministers. And so it is with our beloved Missionaries abroad. They know, they feel, they love to feel, that they have no sufficiency of themselves, but their sufficiency is of God.⁴ They know where to look for all needful help. They know whom they have believed. They know that Christ is the root and fountain of life; that they can only work as they live; and that they must live, in order to work.

So far, then, Brethren, we see the distinctive feature of the Christian; the root and ground-work of all things; that the only principle, upon which we can do any thing for God, is this—To me to live is Christ. No work therefore has any practical efficiency, but what flows from personal union and communion with the Lord.

II. Let us now pass on to a second illustration of the text in THE CHRISTIAN'S OBJECT.

¹ Ps. cxxxviii. 3. Eph. iii. 16. ² John i. 16. ³ Col. ii. 6, 7. ⁴ 2 Cor. iii. 5.

Now, be it remembered, that this is not the object of the natural man. His widely-different object the Apostle marks in the next chapter—*All seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.*¹ At least, they seek their own, in preference to the things which are Jesus Christ's; which is virtually as if they never thought about the things which are Jesus Christ's at all. No truth is more demonstrable than this. Self is man's centre; the idol that he worships; the bane of his happiness. It lives, it reigns, it pervades, in every faculty of his soul. It rules in his understanding, in his affections, and in his will. His understanding is intensely and perseveringly exercised in finding objects for his own gratification. His affections glow in the indulgence of these objects thus furnished to him. His will is fixed, with unvarying decision, to follow up the dictates of self in his understanding, and the desires of self in his affections. And thus man, in his own way and his own spirit, seeks his own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. As the necessary consequence of this perversion, the objects connected with self make up his narrow world. He has no scope for expansiveness. He contracts rather than enlarges. He is shrivelled up in his own shell of selfishness, instead of opening his heart, his desires, and his affections, to embrace the wants of his fellow-creatures.

Now contrast the real object of the man of God. To me to live is Christ. Oh, Brethren! if you have ever felt the grandeur and substance of this object; if you have ever grasped it in your practical apprehensions, you will spurn every other object, as infinitely below you: you will see, that this object is worth living for, and that nothing is worth half a serious thought besides. *None of us liveth to himself . . . for whether we live, we live unto the Lord.*² In practical devotedness to this object, we shall lay ourselves out to gather the sheep of Christ that are scattered abroad into His fold, to feed them in the fold, and to lead them onward to the heavenly fold. And knowing that they are to be gathered amid the scattered parts of this vast world, there we send our hearts, our prayers, our Missionaries, and with them our Gospel, as God's appointed means of gathering them. In consecrating our best energies to this work, we feel that we are, so far as in us lies, enlarging the Church of God, and fulfilling His great purpose respecting it. This is the fruit of our labour; and this done, joyfully do we respond to the welcome call of our Lord—*Come, Lord Jesus, come quickly!*¹

We need scarcely observe, that this grand object embraces every particle that belongs to us: our time, our talents, our property, our health, our responsibilities of every kind. These our talents are not to be buried in the earth, nor wasted in selfish gratification; but to be occupied for the Lord, to be traded with on His account. They are His property, because bought with His price; and gladly would we recognise our obligation to glorify him with them.² Indeed, Brethren, if you realize what you are, and what has been done for you, you cannot but feel an irresistible constraint, like a torrent flowing over you, to love Him, and to live to Him, who died for you. The very thought that He loved your salvation better than His own life, oh! does it not bring a mighty obligation with it? If His blood was my ransom, shall not His glory be my interest?

Then, to pass from generals to the particular object which brings us together this night—surely it must be obvious to every intelligent mind, that, if there be any way, in which the Christian especially and directly lives for his Lord, it is when he lives for that work, and for those souls, for which his Lord lived, and died, and lives still: it is when he devotes himself to those means, which his Lord has appointed and honoured for the accomplishing of this great end. Look at the honoured man of God, who spoke the words of the text: mark how his Divine Master, at the very moment of his conversion, separated him as a Missionary to the heathen—*Unto the Gentiles now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God.*³ Mark, again, how, shortly after, he was set apart, in a special manner, for this great work: Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work, whereunto I have called *them.*¹ And then look at the record of his Missionary life : how it brought out the most intense power of his thoughts, the warmest glow of his affections, and the most powerful energy of his actions ; and all was concentrated in one purpose—*None of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy.*² *I endure all things for the elects' sakes.*³ *Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.*⁴

Nor can we wonder that there should be a constraining impulse to this great object. Observe how the honour of Him, whom we love above all, is outraged throughout His universe. See how the gods, who stand in His place and usurp His honour, are without one moral perfection, and consequently are not even moral beings at all. Truly, how those who framed these gods framed them in conformity with their own depraved appetites and passions. Hence the visible contrast between their worshippers and ourselves. Conformity with our God is love and holiness ; conformity with their gods is hatred and wickedness. And if this be the picture now of almost three-parts of the world still lying in wickedness, the obligation must be constraining. Brethren, I would ask—Is it not, therefore, an object well worth all that we can give, and all that we can devote to it, to sweep away this dishonour to our Divine Redeemer ; to redeem this vast revenue of glory for His name ? Why, “every soul is a Kingdom !”⁵ Every ransomed sinner is one of the many crowns, which are to encircle our Immanuel’s brow. Surely, then, if ever we live for Him, it is when we live for the concerns of a perishing world. Look, my Brethren, at the men of God of old. How they felt, how their hearts glowed, how their imaginations were excited, in the prospect here set before us ! See the prophets of old : they snatched from heaven and earth the most splendid images, to express the glory of the Redeemer’s returning kingdom.⁶ But here it is of great moment to take an accurate and comprehensive view. If we look at the moral influence, and the civilizing blessing, that belongs to this work, we only stand on the borders of the land. But when we look at sinners converted, souls quickened, souls renewed, souls rejoicing in the life and holiness of God, then we see the prospect, in all its glories, extending throughout eternity.

Brethren, I would add, as it regards our own interest as Christians, and as members of this Society, no lower results will ever satisfy our expectations. We are not content with Churches built for worship; we are not content even with our own decent and Scriptural ceremonial; we are not content with the work of Scriptural instruction. We want not souls moralized; but souls quickened. We want really to see our machinery indefinitely enlarged; but we want the mainspring to be kept in healthful operation. Christ is the life of the whole system. We know that without this spring, without this principle, not a soul will ever be saved for eternity; not one atom of divine truth will ever be deposited in any sinner's heart; not one holy disposition will ever be formed for the Redeemer's glory. External work may be done in the land of death. Spiritual work can only be wrought from living principles. I rejoice to express my clear and undoubting confidence, that this Society never has accredited, and never will accredit, any servant, or any work, that is not grounded on the profound annihilation of human power, and the Divine honour of the Saviour of the world.

III. Let us pass on, and mark THE CHRISTIAN IN HIS PRIVILEGES. Here we shall have a third illustration of our text—To me to live is Christ. As if the Apostle would say, Christ is the life of my life, the joy of my very soul; as he says on another occasion—*Now WE LIVE, if ye stand fast in the Lord*¹—implying not the mere pulse of life, but its springing joy and happiness. And where is there—I put it to every Christian heart—where is there a ray of glory and joy, where a single moment of happiness, unconnected with Christ? What is there that can be compared with the blessed consciousness—*My beloved is mine, and I am His?*²

*Truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ?*¹ Yes, Brethren, the comforts of Christ are living comforts. There are no comforts like them. There are none beside them. They are really our life, when communion with Him is real personal enjoyment; when we prize His joys above all that constitutes life, and are as fearful of parting with them, as of parting with our very life. We appeal again to Christian experience, and ask, Is there any thing that we can lose in this world of vanity, but what will be infinitely compensated in the enjoyment of Him?

And then, one great matter of interest in the privileges of the Christian is, that they are not sentimental inactive indulgence, but principles of energy, of devotedness, of active vigour and service. Our Lord not only realized enjoyment, when He *continued all night in prayer to God*²; but when He was engaged in the active work of saving souls, He could say—*I have meat to eat that ye know not of. . . . My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work.*³ And never can we expect to enjoy our privileges, except as they are linked with the glowing devotedness of a self-denying profession. It was when the Church was pleading with her Beloved—Set me as a seal upon Thine heart, as a seal upon Thine arm—it was then, that the thought of sympathy sprang up—*We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?*⁴ It was when the prophet's lips were touched with a live coal from the altar, that in the joyous consciousness of acceptance he sprung to his work.⁵ And thus the nearer we live in communion with our Lord, the deeper will be our yearning for those that have no breasts of consolation, no sources of joy and comfort, no life, no hope.

See then, here, how the Christian, living in his privileges, is enabled to live, at the same time, in his obligations. In fact, with him obligations and privileges are only convertible terms. Both express the highest happiness, linked with his Divine object, that ever man can know in this world of sin.

And now let us mark in detail this character of privilege, pervading our Missionary work.

1. Observe THE PRACTICAL OPERATION OF THIS WORK, AS PROMOTING THE HEALTHFULNESS AND VIGOUR OF OUR SPIRITUAL CONSTITUTION. I feel bound to declare my deep, and my deepening conviction, that every thing that can give a glow to the heart, expansiveness to the mind, and enlargement to the contemplation, is involved in this blessed work. There is not a single grace but what, more or less, is brought into active exercise. What is the work without prayer? How dare we go to it—how, at least, can we expect a blessing in it—except we go to it from our knees? What a stay is faith in the promises of God! What a mighty principle is love to the Saviour! How refreshing is tender sympathy and yearning over our perishing fellow-sinners! How fruitful is self-denial for the Lord! How joyous the frame of looking, longing, waiting for His coming! These graces constitute at once the principles of the Missionary work, and the very life-blood of the true spiritual system. Just therefore in proportion as the stamina of our constitution are in a healthy condition, the Missionary pulse will throb to our very extremities.

2. Then, again, let us mark THE HIGH PRIVILEGE OF CONFORMITY TO OUR DIVINE MASTER. Where shall we find the picture of a Missionary? Where but in Him, whom the Evangelist describes—*When He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd?*¹ You know that with Him this was no mere sentimental excitement. It was that principle of love, which made Him not only feel, but labour, and die, for their precious and perishing souls. Now, Brethren, just so far as we look at a perishing world, and mourn over it; just so far as we are ready to live, and labour, and deny ourselves, for this cause; just so far are we conformed to the image of our Divine Lord. Yes, if there be a sight of sadness, it is to see a current of immortal beings flowing onward to eternity; a world of fellow-sinners groaning in complicated captivity; living without comfort, and dying without hope; feeding on the ashes of their own soothing falsehoods; and going to the grave with a lie in their right hand.¹ And surely such a sight will imbue the Christian heart with constraining pity, and self-denying love. And yet this spirit, if it be the genuine mind of Christ, will find its sphere in every circle of life. We all deeply need more zeal as Home Missionaries, to pull the souls of the ungodly out of the fire, and to provoke the Lord's people unto love and to good works.² Who of us has not his DAILY opportunities of thus living to Christ? And what else is it but self-delusion, to affect sympathy with our perishing fellow-sinners abroad, if we are sleeping over the work of their conversion and edification at home?

3. We would also remark THE PRIVILEGE OF IDENTITY WITH OUR SAVIOUR'S OBJECT AND WORK. What is His work at this moment in heaven? You know the arrangement of the covenant of grace—*Ask of me, and I shall give Thee the heathen for Thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for Thy possession*³; and you know, also, how our Redeemer has pledged Himself to this intercession—For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.⁴ His work then now in heaven is, to pray for the heathen world. And what is our work to-night? What has gathered us together from different parts, but to unite in prayer, as "the Lord's remembrancers," to give Him no rest, until the grand consummation be accomplished?⁵ Here indeed, Brethren, we are identified with a work, which engages the highest sympathy in heaven; which fills the bosom, occupies the office, and concentrates the entire interest, of the Son of God Himself. His cause is ours. We are one with our Lord in prayer, in work, in spirit, and in object.

4. Once more, let us mark THE JOY OF LOOKING FOR AND HASTENING THE COMING OF THE LORD. This is set before us as the very acme of Christian perfection.¹ And no marvel. For truly the hope of the Lord's coming is the bright sunshine, that irradiates the cloudy and dark day. And yet the waiting and longing spirit is not, as I conceive, dogmatically speculating on the time; but practically devoting ourselves to the means, by which this time is to be hastened.

We have no Scriptural warrant for looking for a new dispensation of miracles; but we have every Scriptural warrant for expecting and pleading for an abundant outpouring of the Spirit upon the dispensation of means. To those means, therefore, we have to address ourselves, in faith, and joy, and hope.

The great object of our Missionary work is to advance that purpose of God, which in the consummation-day will be finally completed—the gathering together of His elect from the four winds.² The means we employ for this grand object are those that were ordained at the commencement, and, as far as we know, were intended to continue to the close, of the dispensation—It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.³ This Gospel of the Kingdom therefore, as our Lord declares, shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.⁴ Is not this then plainly God's ordained means for hastening the accomplishment of His everlasting purpose? Hence we send our Missionaries, *to make ready a people prepared for the Lord*⁵—to do, as the Lord's instruments, the Lord's own work, giving Him all the glory. And it is very blessed to see, beloved Brethren, in the experience of all God's people, that the nearer they come to this consummation themselves, the nearer they advance toward eternity, the more deeply momentous, the more full of joy, does this great work appear. The last prayers of David, the Son of Jesse, were filled with this glowing anticipation—summed up with the fervid desire of his faith—*Let the whole earth be filled with His glory*⁶; as if in his dying moments he realized the full answer to the Church's prayer, Thy Kingdom come.⁷

⁷ Matt. vi. 10.

We see then in every view—and surely it is a most encouraging apprehension—how all our Christian privileges centre in Christ, and in the work of Christ.

IV. Let us now briefly advert to the fourth illustration of the subject, and look at THE CHRISTIAN'S PROSPECTS. And here indeed it is true, in the highest and fullest sense—To me to live is Christ.

Brethren, we think and speak of heaven; but, oh! to be there! What will it be, to be near Him, and with Him, and like Him for ever? What is heaven? We may please our imagination by drawing pictures of it; but the most tangible apprehension of it is, that it is all Christ. THE SONG OF HEAVEN is—*Worthy is the Lamb that was slain.*¹ THE GLORY OF HEAVEN is—that *the Lamb is the light thereof.*² THE JOY OF HEAVEN is—*they shall see His face.*³ THE SERVICE OF HEAVEN is—*His servants shall serve him . . . day and night in His temple.*⁴ How pre-eminently true will it then be, that *Christ is All, and in all!*⁵

And if this be our blessed hope, well will it be for our souls' prosperity and comfort to keep before our eyes more habitually *the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour*⁶ to gather us to Himself. If we look at the first Advent for our peace, by *the blood of the cross*⁷, we look at the second Advent for our joy, in the complete sweeping away of sin and sorrow for ever.⁸ Looking, Brethren, at the hidden abominations and defilement of our own hearts; looking around at a world lying in wickedness; looking even at the Church of God, with all its distractions and heresies; little ground for joy do you find there. But look at the return of your beloved Lord, when He shall come, and all His saints with Him, all His Church like Him! We shall then see a world redeemed by power, as well as by price, and serving Him. Then indeed we shall rejoice, and praise our God for all the mighty works that shall be accomplished.

⁵ Col. iii. 11.

⁸ Is. xxv. 8, 9.

⁶ Tit. ii. 13.

But let us not forget how deeply this joy of heaven is connected with our great work on earth. When we shall see the New Zealander, and the Hindoo, and the Chinese, and the Negro, from our different Missions, standing with the palm-bearing multitude *before the throne, and before the Lamb*¹, shall not we remember the instrumentality, by which they were brought thither? Shall not we humbly and gratefully acknowledge before our God the honour, that was given to us, so weak, so every way unworthy of such an honour as to be employed in His work, as His own agents, for gathering them out, for preparing them, in His Church below, for His glory in heaven? And truly, if the recipients of our temporal bounty, much more may not the objects of our Christian mercy receive us, as God's instruments of their salvation, into our everlasting habitations.²

Here then is our subject. We see how every part of it keeps our eye fixed upon our work, with the joy of the Lord for our *strength*³, and the promises of God to cheer us under discouragement, that we faint not.

Suffer, then, a short word of application.

1. We speak of our principles. Who that knows the deceitfulness of the heart does not admit his great need to EXAMINE HIS PRINCIPLES? Ought we not to tremble at the awful difference between—*To me to live is Christ, and having a name that we live, while we are dead?*⁴ Oh, Brethren! if there be life, it can only come from one source—*The dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.*⁵ It is not hearing an angel's trumpet; it is not hearing the voice of the most powerful preacher, that would wake the dead. It is hearing the voice of the Son of God, speaking by His word, speaking by His Ministers, speaking home to the conscience by the power and teaching of His own Spirit, that brings life to the soul.

2. And then, IF WE HAVE NEED TO EXAMINE OUR PRINCIPLES, WE HAVE ESPECIAL NEED TO PRESERVE THEIR

SIMPLICITY. If the Great Apostle were among us at this time, would he not repeat his warning word—I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ? Never was there such need, never such danger: God help us to know it!

I would venture here, with all humility and love, to remind my beloved brethren in the Ministry, that the effectiveness of our work does not depend upon our talents, our adventitious endowments, or our theological attainments; but upon the simplicity of our principles. Let our grand motto be—To me to live is Christ. It is only as we cleave to the determination *not to know any thing among our people save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified*¹—it is then, and then only—that we shall be able to say, *Thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of His knowledge by us in every place.*² To eclipse one ray of the full glory of our Divine Lord is so far to paralyze the springs of life. Let His work be set out as a complete atonement for all our sins, a complete healing for all our wounds, a complete answer for all our fears and apprehensions. This—this alone—is the saving, sanctifying Gospel of Christ. God enable us all to speak every word in the pulpit to the supreme honour of our Master; and out of the pulpit to reflect in every word, and in every temper, the transparent holiness of a God of love!

3. We add one word more. WHILE WE GUARD OUR PRINCIPLES, LET US CARRY THEM OUT WITH ENERGY. Oh! what a stirring word was that from the death-bed of Mr. Richmond, “Brother, we are only half awake;” and never was a truer word spoken—never a word which ought to make deeper impression on every Christian’s heart. As our salvation advances nearer to its final consummation, shall we not be roused by the call—*Now it is high time to awake out of sleep?*³ But who of us, as yet, is there, that is more than “half awake?” My Brethren! think of the ages that have gone by since the full ransom was paid; and how large a portion of the purchased possession remains to be possessed! Think! At this moment three-fourths of our world are in rebellion against the Lord and His Christ—the wide-spreading domain of the prince of darkness, instead of the fruitful vineyard, and the well-watered garden, of our God. Do you believe this, and can you sit still? With what a crushing power of conviction; with what an agony of remorse; with what blushing shame and humiliation; with what increased vigour of quickened devotedness; should we fly to the work, and do it with our might; acknowledging the infinite obligation to come to the help of the Lord against the mighty! Men of God! Walk in sunshine, and come out from the atmosphere of communion with God to do His work with your might. Dear friends, what we want—I would rather say, what your Lord calls for—is nothing less than your all—that you should spend and be spent for Him; that your property should be a Corban, devoted to Him; that your children should be consecrated, and educated with a view to consecration, to His service. All that the world calls yours, you should call His. And ought it not to be a cheering thought to us all, that this is a work, in which each and every one may do something, and each that has done something may do more? The least offering will produce eternal results. Every tear shed in the closet, every heart poured out in prayer to God, every exercise of pleading faith, every act of self-denying devotedness—these are the elements of our power and success: means feeble in themselves, but abundant in honour to our God. Oh! let us live, then, as if we loved Him; as if it were our element to serve Him; as if we could find nothing else in this world to sustain our souls; as if He were the substance of our joy.

Brethren, we call upon you now for an offering, to prove the sincerity of your faith. You may have done a little for others; but how much OWEST THOU unto thy Lord? How little hast thou yet paid of that debt which He requires of thee? Calls there may be of other kinds, but none like this. Calls there are from the millions of Ireland for the meat which perisheth; but louder, surely, are the calls from the hundreds of millions of China for the bread of life.

Act, then, as if you felt and acknowledged the claim. We know that our Divine Master could easily, did He please, turn the stones of the streets into gold, rather than want materials for building His temple. But He condescends to ask of you the offerings of your faith and love. Let him then have them, under the constraining influence of His redeeming love; and let us see the practical acknowledgment that you have freely received, by your readiness freely to give.¹

&c. &c.

THE Committee present their Forty-seventh Annual Report under a sense of lively gratitude to the Lord, who has greatly prospered the proceedings of the Society, both at home and abroad, during the last year.

STATE OF THE FINANCES.

At the last Anniversary the Committee had to report a falling off, in comparison with the preceding year, of 2791*l.* 7*s.* 2*d.* This year the Income has not only recovered that depression, but has risen to an amount exceeding that of any former year. The receipts have been—

I. GENERAL FUND, paid to the Parent Society . . .	101,766	14	2
II. SPECIAL FUNDS, ditto—
*Disabled Missionaries' Fund . . .	1152	4	1
*Capital Fund	721	7	8
Fourah-Bay Institution Buildings' Fund	244	1	5
*China Mission Fund	2453	15	5
Pratt Memorial Fund	60	8	0
	4631	16	7
III. LOCAL FUNDS, raised and expended in the Missions	10,429	8	2
Total, from all sources	£116,927	18	11

This amount exceeds the Income of the last year by 14,369*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.*, and is the largest annual income which the Society has yet received.

From an analysis of the General Fund it appears that there has been an increase in the remittances received from Associations of 3585*l.* 11*s.* 9*d.*, which is very satisfactory, as three-fourths of the whole Income are derived from this source. It is also upon the Associations that the future enlargement of the Income must mainly depend; and they afford the best index of the sympathy and confidence of the Christian public in favour of the Society.

But the increase is chiefly owing to the large amount of Legacies received within the year, the amount in the last year being 3075*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*, and in this year 14,174*l.* 6*s.* 7*d.*; exhibiting an increase of 11,098*l.* 19*s.* 11*d.*

In these Legacies is comprised the munificent bequest of the late John Scott, Esq., amounting, after payment of the duty, to 7321*l.* The terms in which this bequest was made are such as deserve to be recorded, as an additional incentive to the Committee to exercise fidelity and vigilance in the discharge of the trust committed to them for the maintenance of the principles upon which the Society has hitherto been conducted. Mr. Scott stated—

I make the foregoing dispositions, not with any vain hope of performing a meritorious act in the sight of a holy God, nor for rendering the slightest return of the unmerited mercies I have received; but with a view of extending to the Redeemer's brethren upon earth the blessings of that free salvation, purchased by a Saviour's blood, which has been so precious to my own soul.

The surplus of Receipts above Expenditure has therefore been 11,722*l.* 11*s.* 10*d.*, out of which the sum of 7994*l.* 17*s.* 10*d.* has been invested in the Capital Fund.

The Fund in hand for commencing the operations of the year consisted of two Exchequer Bills of 1000*l.* each, and 7598*l.* 2*s.* 10*d.* cash at the Bankers', which included 1313*l.* 10*s.* 5*d.* belonging to the Fourah-Bay Buildings' Fund. It is confidently hoped that these Buildings will be completed in the course of the present year. The Fourah-Bay Fund will therefore henceforth cease to be a separate Fund.

The large amount of Legacies this year has enabled the Committee to accomplish an important financial arrangement; namely, the raising the Capital Fund of the Society to the amount contemplated at its first formation in the year 1842. The Society being then under the necessity of borrowing money to a large extent upon the security of private friends, it was resolved that a Fund should be raised as a reserved or working capital, to provide against the fluctuations to which the Income is liable in each year, and that it should be sustained at the amount of 30,000*l.*, or one-third of the Income; and all Legacies were specially set apart for the formation of this Fund.

The Committee cannot make this reference to the position of the Society at the Anniversary of 1842 without noticing the contrast of the present year. The Society was then crippled and pressed down by an unpaid Debt of 13,500*l.*, and was obliged to deliberate upon measures by which its operations might be contracted. Now, the Society has an ample working capital, and the Committee for the ensuing year will have the delightful task of selecting, amid many inviting calls for enlarged operations, those which shall appear most important and promising. Well may we exclaim, What hath God wrought! At the same time, the Committee would earnestly recommend to their successors in office a strict adherence to the principle laid down by the Finance Committee of April 1842, to which allusion has already been made. The Committee stated—

It appears to us, that the golden rule and principle of restricting expenditure within income, equally applicable to communities and to individuals, ought, in a Religious Society, to obtain in a far higher degree, inasmuch as its aim and end are sacred. It is called upon, indeed, to occupy diligently with the talents committed to it; but not to aim at occupying with more talents than God, in His wisdom, has been pleased to dispense.

DECEASE OF MISSIONARIES.

It has pleased God to admit to their final reward the following Labourers connected with the Society—

West-Africa Mission—Mrs. Schmid, wife of the Rev. D. H. Schmid, died on the 16th of March 1846, at Freetown, of fever, ten weeks after her arrival; and Mrs. Davies, wife of Mr. F. W. H. Davies, on the 29th of April 1846, at the same place, also of fever, six weeks after her arrival.

Bombay and Western-India Mission—The Rev. Alfred Dredge, on the 3d of June 1846, at Nassuck, of cholera, fourteen months after his arrival in the Mission.

Calcutta and North-India Mission—The Rev. John Christian Wendnagel, on the 5th of December, at sea, shortly after leaving Calcutta, on his way home, and six years after his arrival in the Mission.

Madras and South-India Mission—The Rev. John Johnson, on the 24th of May 1846, at Cottayam, in consequence of brain fever, arising from exposure to the sun, nine years and five months after his arrival in the Mission.

West-Indies' Mission—Mr. Daniel Butler, of Bartica Grove, British Guiana, on the 3d of March last, being drowned by the upsetting of a boat on his return home from a Missionary visit, nearly ten months after his arrival in the Mission.

RETURN HOME OF MISSIONARIES.

The number of Missionaries who, during the year, have been obliged to leave their respective Stations on account of ill health, has been large, as will be seen by the following statement—

West-Africa Mission—The Rev. J. U. Graf and Mrs. Graf, the Rev. N. C. Haastrup and Mrs. Haastrup, the Rev. H.

Rhodes and Mrs. Rhodes, and the Rev. J. Warburton and Mrs. Warburton, left Sierra Leone on the 12th of March 1846; and arrived at Cork on the 13th of May. The Rev. C. F. Schlenker, and Mrs. Schlenker, left the same place on the 15th of April 1846; and arrived at Portsmouth on the 11th of June. The Rev. C. T. Frey, and Mrs. Frey, left the same place on the 31st of May 1846; and arrived in London, after a perilous voyage, on the 26th of August.

The last two Missionaries, and their wives, embarked at Newport, Monmouthshire, on their return to Sierra Leone, in April 1847.

Mediterranean Mission—The Rev. J. T. Wolters, and Mrs. Wolters, left Smyrna on the 4th of April 1846, upon a visit to Europe. They arrived in London on the 6th of August, and returned, after a short stay, to Smyrna. Mr. Charles Sandreczki left Syra on the 16th of November, in order personally to confer with the Committee respecting his future labours. He returned to Greece, on his way to Smyrna, after a few weeks' residence in London.

Calcutta and North-India Mission—The Rev. F. A. Kreiss left Calcutta on the 13th of January 1846; and arrived at Liverpool on the 12th of June. The Rev. E. Reynolds left Calcutta on the 8th of September; and arrived in London on the 12th of November. Mrs. Wendnagel, with her husband and three children, left Calcutta on the 16th of November. Mr. Wendnagel died at sea, as already mentioned, and his widow and children arrived in London on the 13th of March.

Madras and South-India Mission—The Rev. J. Peet, with Mrs. Peet and family, left Cochin on the 27th of January 1846; and arrived at Dartmouth on the 8th of June.

Ceylon Mission—The Rev. J. T. Johnston, and Mrs. Johnston, left Colombo on the 8th of January 1846; and arrived in London on the 8th of May. The Rev. W. Adley, and Mrs. Adley, left Colombo on the 26th of March 1846; and arrived at Gravesend on the 9th of August.

China Mission—The Rev. G. Smith, M.A., left Hong Kong on the 6th of May 1846; and arrived at Plymouth on the 6th of September.

West-Indies' Mission—The Rev. F. Redford left Jamaica on the 11th of April 1846; and arrived in London on the 12th of June.

North-West-America Mission—The Rev. W. Cockran, with Mrs. Cockran and family, left Red River on the 15th of June last; and arrived at Toronto, Upper Canada, on the 3d of August, with the view of taking up their permanent residence there, or at some place adjacent, Mr. Cockran being no longer equal to Missionary labour.

DEPARTURES OF MISSIONARIES.

West-Africa Mission—Mr. William Young and Miss Sophia Hehlen embarked at Gravesend on the 1st of November for Sierra Leone; Mr. Young on his return to that Mission, and Miss Hehlen to be employed in Native-Female Education. They arrived at Freetown on the 8th of December.

Bombay and Western-India Mission—Mr. Edward Rogers, Student from the Institution, sailed from Southampton on the 3d of December for Bombay, viâ the overland route; and arrived there on the 8th of January.

Calcutta and North-India Mission—The Rev. John Gottlieb Lincké, and Mrs. Lincké, embarked at Portsmouth on the 21st of July last for Calcutta, on their return to Krishnaghur; and arrived in November. The Rev. Henry Christian Krückeberg, with Mrs. Krückeberg, embarked at Portsmouth on the 1st of September for Calcutta, on his return to Krishnaghur; and arrived in January. The Rev. Richard Martindell Lamb, M.A., of Trinity College, Cambridge, late Perpetual Curate of Holy Trinity, Over Darwen, Lancashire, embarked at Southampton, with Mrs. Lamb, on the 20th of November for Calcutta, viâ the overland route; and arrived there on the 8th of January. Mr. Alexander Acheson, Student from the Institution, and Mrs. Acheson, sailed from Southampton on the 5th of December, for Calcutta, viâ the overland route.

Madras and South-India Mission—The Rev. Richard Lea Allnutt, M.A., of St. Peter's College, Cambridge, late Perpetual Curate of Wicken, Cambridgeshire, embarked at Southampton on the 20th of July for Madras, viâ the overland route; and arrived on the 30th of August, and at Palamcottah on the 29th of October. The Rev. Henry Watson Fox, A.B., embarked at Southampton on the 20th of October for Madras, viâ the overland route, on his return to Masulipatam; and arrived at Madras on the 11th of December, and at Masulipatam in January last.

Ceylon Mission—Mr. Henry Collins, Student from the Institution, embarked at Gravesend on the 21st of July for Colombo; and arrived there on the 15th of November.

North-West-America Mission—The Rev. Robert James, Student from the Institution, and Mrs. James, sailed from Gravesend on the 7th of June for York Fort, on their way to Red River; and arrived at the Fort on the 7th of August, and at the Indian Settlement on the 6th of October.

NUMBER OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

It appears, from the foregoing statement, that since the last Anniversary three Clergymen and one European Schoolmaster have been removed from the Missionary Field by death; and that twelve Clergymen have left their Stations, chiefly on account of health. Three Clergymen, and three Candidates for Holy Orders, have been sent out during the year; and three Clergymen and one Catechist, whose return home was announced in former Reports, have again gone out to their Stations in recruited health. The number of Missionary Labourers AT THEIR STATIONS, who have been sent from Europe, has therefore been diminished by seven in the course of the year.

Ordained European Missionaries abroad.....	103
Ditto at home.....	11
European Catechists, Schoolmasters, and others, abroad,	33
European Female Teachers	8
Ordained, East-Indian, Country-born, and Native Missionaries.....	10
Total....	165

CANDIDATES FOR MISSIONARY EMPLOYMENT.

During the past year sixty applications have been made to the Committee by Candidates for Missionary employment, including four Clergymen and four Graduates of our Universities. But the Committee, in the exercise of their best judgment upon the Missionary qualifications, which experience has pointed out as essential to Missionary usefulness, have only accepted or received on probation eleven of those offers, a few being still under consideration.

ISLINGTON INSTITUTION.

The Principal has furnished a satisfactory Report of the state of the Institution during the past year. The Rev. W. Jowett and the Rev. C. Clayton kindly undertook the annual examination of the Students in July last, and expressed their satisfaction at the result.

The number of Students resident at the commencement of the year was 24; of whom three have left for their respective spheres of labour, one is absent on the Continent, and two have left voluntarily. Nineteen have been admitted in the course of the year for examination and probation, nine of whom still remain; so that the number at present is 27.

ORDINATION OF MISSIONARIES.

Six of the Society's Students at Islington have been admitted to Deacons' Orders by the Bishop of London; one to Deacons' Orders by the Bishop of Bombay; and one to Deacons' and one to Priests' Orders by the Bishop of Colombo, by whom also one of the Native Catechists has been admitted to Deacons' Orders.

PATRONAGE.

During the past year two of the Vice-Presidents of the Society have been removed by death. The Earl of Waldegrave, having long assisted the Committee as one of their body, has accepted the office of Vice-President.

APPOINTMENT OF A LAY SECRETARY.

The Committee have the satisfaction of announcing that they have secured to the Society the valuable assistance of Major Hector Straith, in the office of Lay Secretary, in the place of the late Dandeson Coates, Esq.

MISSIONS.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

Mission Establishment :

14 European Missionaries.	40 Native Catechists and Teachers
1 Country-born Missionary.	of all Classes.
4 European Catechists.	1 Country-born Schoolmistress.
1 European Female Teacher.	9 Native Schoolmistresses.

General View.

For several successive years, it has been the privilege of the Committee to report, with lively thankfulness, the steady and decided progress of this Mission. That progress has advanced in a still greater ratio during the past year. Notwithstanding the fact that no fewer than six Ordained Missionaries have been necessarily absent from their Stations on a visit to Europe for the restoration of their health, their previous labours, together with the exertions of those who remained in the Colony, have been so owned and blessed that the number of Attendants on Public Worship has been increased from 6068 to 6921, and the Communicants from 1648 to 1876; the former being an increase of one-eighth, and the latter nearly one-fourth, of the number previously reported. Such an increase, in so long-established and prosperous a Mission, is surely a ground for peculiar gratitude and praise. The language of every one who desires to promote the glory of God, and who loves the souls of men, must be, Bless the Lord, O my soul : and all that is within me, bless His holy name !

SIERRA LEONE.

Christian Institution, Fourah Bay.

During the last year, this Institution has continued under the superintendence of the Rev. E. Jones, assisted by the Native Tutor, Mr. G. Nicol. The usual routine of study has been pursued, with some interruptions occasioned by the severe and protracted illness of Mrs. Jones, in connexion with the limited accommodation which the present building affords.

The hopeful character and abilities of two of the Students were such as to induce Mr. Jones strongly to recommend that they should be brought over to England, with a view to obtain the same advantages that were enjoyed by Messrs. Nicol and Maxwell. One of them, however—Nathanael Attarra, son of the Native Catechist at Wellington—was, after an illness of only five days, removed by death. He had been for six years in the Institution, and his piety, superior abilities, and high attainments, had won the affectionate respect of all who knew him.

Progress of the New Buildings.

The new Buildings are advancing toward completion, notwithstanding many hindrances, arising chiefly from the difficulty of procuring suitable timber for the floors and partitions. The roof has been completed for some months; and it is a fact, not altogether without interest, that the rafters are formed, for the most part, from the masts of condemned slave ships.

Grammar-school.

The success of the Grammar-school has fully realized, if it has not exceeded, the expectations formed respecting it. The number of pupils is 44, of whom 34 are boarders. Of this number, six are maintained and educated at the expense of the African Native-Agency Society, and 19 at the expense of their friends, by whom the sum of 35*l.* was paid in the three months ending last December—a circumstance which must be regarded as a decisive indication of the increased prosperity of the Colony, and of the desire which exists among the Africans to procure for the rising generation the benefits of a superior education.

Beside the usual branches of a somewhat advanced course of English instruction, the pupils of the first class are reading Xenophon's Anabasis and the Greek Testament. It was not intended that Latin should form a part of the studies pursued, either in the Institution or in the Grammar-school; but the desire to obtain a knowledge of that language was so strongly manifested, that the Rev. T. Peyton was induced to form a voluntary Latin Class. In Mathematics the first class are reading the Third Book of Euclid.

Quarterly Examinations are held, and some of the Papers, containing the original answers of the pupils, have been sent to this country, where they have excited much interest.

In his Report for the Quarter ending Dec. 25, 1846, Mr. Peyton remarked—

In reference to the spiritual deportment of some, and the general conduct of all, it is to me a source of gratitude and joy to be able to report favourably. The toils and anxieties incident to the office of Master have been considerably alleviated by the dutiful and affectionate conduct of some of the young men and boys, and by the perseverance which they have evinced in their studies.

Female Institution.

The Female Institution continued under the care of the Rev. N. Denton and Mrs. Denton at Regent until December, when it was removed to Freetown, and placed under the superintendence of Miss Hehlen, a lady who was sent out by the Committee for that purpose.

In addition to those studies which will qualify the girls to become useful Schoolmistresses, they are instructed in such household duties as may be supposed likely hereafter to devolve upon them.

In September last Mr. Denton reported—

The progress of the girls, as regards needlework, writing, and arithmetic, is very satisfactory; but in Geography, Grammar, and Composition, their improvement is not so great as we could wish.

The number of pupils is eight. In addition, however, to these, most of the married Missionaries receive into their families two or three of the more promising girls from the Village Schools, with a view to give them a superior education.

Other Schools—Willingness of the People to pay for Education.

Beside the Seminaries above described, there are in connexion with the Society's different Stations within the Colony, 25 Day-schools, affording instruction to 3315 scholars, and 26 Sunday-schools, attended by 2480 adults; so that no fewer than 5873 individuals are regularly receiving daily or weekly instruction on scriptural principles. The Monitors of these Schools are assembled periodically for examination in Freetown—a plan which has been attended by several beneficial effects.

A satisfactory proof of the increased value set by the Africans on education is afforded by the fact that the parents have, for the most part, willingly acquiesced in the payment of one penny a week for each child instead of a halfpenny, which was the sum paid previously. In some instances, a degree of reluctance was naturally shown to the change; but for the most part it was cheerfully agreed to. Thus Mr. J. C. Müller writes respecting Hastings, in his Report for the Quarter ending Dec. 25, 1846—

I addressed the people on the 103d Psalm. After Service, I heard people say that they would pay more than a penny a-week if required. Not one person complained of the new plan. The next day, October the 13th, almost all the children paid their penny, and they that had none went to fetch it. Thus was the plan introduced, under the Divine Blessing, and, contrary to our expectation, without the least trouble.

The Rev. J. Beale, also, thus describes in his Journal, Sept. 23, the readiness evinced in Freetown—

I took everywhere the earliest opportunity of making it known among my people. One replied, "Well, Massa, that's very good: we ought to do more for the Society and the Gospel." He has several children in the School. Another said, "Oh! that's not hard: we can do that." I told several that the Society intended by-and-by to withdraw their Missionaries, and send them to preach in other countries, leaving the Church in Sierra Leone with a Native Ministry. Of that they expressed their horror; one and all saying that the Society might do as they liked about other matters, as making them "pay coppers," but taking the Missionaries away they could not allow for a moment.

The Sunday-school, established in connexion with the Grammar-school in Regent Square, the commencement of which was fully described in the last Report, continues to prosper, and to exercise a beneficial influence over the previously-neglected inhabitants of that part of Freetown. The number on the books is 312, and continual applications are made by persons desirous of admission, but who cannot be received for want of room. Of the number before mentioned, no fewer than 202 are able to read the Holy Scriptures.

Native Languages—The Yoruba Service.

The Rev. J. F. Schön has completed the translation of the Gospel of St. Luke into the Hausa Language, and has nearly finished the Acts of the Apostles. The labours of the Rev. C. F. Schlenker and the Rev. J. U. Graf, in the Timmanee and Susoo Languages, have been interrupted by a visit to this country. A small book, consisting of extracts from the Scriptures, Prayers, and Hymns, in the Timmanee Language, for the use of the School at Port Lokkoh, has been printed. Mr. T. King has advanced to the 14th chapter of St. Matthew in translating that Gospel into the Yoruba Language.

The Yoruba Service is continued; and although the attendance is small—about 20—Mr. King reports that he has met with some encouragement.

Attendance on Public Worship—New Church at Bananas.

The attendance on Public Worship has been larger during the past year than at any time since the commencement of the Mission. After mentioning this gratifying fact, the Committee of the Sierra-Leone Auxiliary remark, in their last Annual Report—

We rejoice to state that a spirit of prayer has pervaded many of the people; and that those who formerly lived according to the course of this world have been awakened to a sense of their state as sinners before God, and have been led to seek for that peace of mind which is to be found only in Christ. It is also interesting and encouraging to observe the earnestness of attention, and the solemnity of feeling, which a large number of the Africans evince when they meet in the House of God.

Similar testimony is borne by individual Missionaries. Speaking of Freetown, the Rev. J. Beale remarked, at the end of June—

The public and private Means of Grace are well attended, and many evince an earnest desire to become possessors of true godliness. I rejoice to say that there is a marked improvement in the conduct of many among us, especially the young, several of whom I have received to the Lord's Table. There is more seriousness, and a deeper tone of piety pervading the whole Congregation.

And in reference to Kiskey, where the Church is capable of containing 1000 persons, and Wellington, which is under the care of a Native Catechist, the Rev. C. F. Ehemann wrote, at the same time—

Much has the Lord done in both places. The attendance on Public Worship is very numerous, especially on the Lord's-day. Large as the Church at Kiskey is, it is yet quite crowded with attentive hearers. I do not mean to say that they are all truly converted characters; but I know that there are not a few among them who love Jesus Christ as their chief good, and who are as salt, and a light among those who are still living in darkness. The same may be said of Wellington, where the Church will soon be too small to hold all who come to hear the Word of God.

The Rev. F. Bultmann, speaking of a Church in the Island of Bananas, in which he held Divine Service for the first time on the 10th of April 1846, states—

This Church, far superior to any we have ever had, either at that place or at Kent—or, indeed, so far as I know, in the whole Sea District—has been built entirely by our own Converts of that little island, consisting of forty-five men and forty-one women, all Communicants.

Each of the men contributed, at different times, one, two, three, or four shillings, and the women half that amount, until the building was completed. It cost the moderate sum of 30*l.*, which was expended solely for materials—such as lime for the stone foundation, joists, boards, nails, &c.—the labour being all performed gratis by our Communicants. Even the carpenters' work—more than half of the whole—was given by our worthy friend and overseer Tom Buckle, and his apprentices. The building measures inside about 18 feet by 48, and will accommodate 312 persons—barely sufficient for a population of 520, in this Church-going country, and island in particular. I must add, however, that the idea of a stone Church, for which, some years ago, I began to collect subscriptions, is not given up, but unavoidably postponed; my time and attention being at present fully occupied by the one now in progress at Kent. If a stone Church should ever be erected at Bananas, the one opened to-day will serve admirably as a School-house. After the Second Lesson I baptized ten adults and thirteen children; a collection was then made to defray the trifling arrear of about thirty shillings; and, last of all, the Sacrament was administered to eighty Communicants, and one sick person.

Desire for the Word of God.

Mr. Beale writes in his Journal, Nov. 25, 1846—

It is indeed delightful to trace the advancement of this good cause. Seven years ago a large stock of Bibles was always on hand; but latterly, as fast as they have arrived they have been purchased by eager applicants. The last two shipments were hailed by the people with peculiar joy. They completely beset my house; and in about a fortnight after each arrival nearly the whole of the smaller Bibles, 1500 in number, were sold. Nothing put a stop to this but the exhaustion of the stock. I have now written to the Secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society for between two and three thousand copies, which I have no doubt will be immediately sold on their arrival in the Colony. I have nearly 100*l.* in hand, the proceeds for this year of our Auxiliary Bible Association. Such is the thirst among the Africans of our charge for the Word of Life.

In connexion with this subject, Mr. G. Nicol remarks, in his Report for the Quarter ending September—

The thirst for scriptural knowledge still increases. During last Quarter I sold no fewer than five dozen of Watts's Scripture History, at 3*s.* 3*d.* each, and three dozen and a half of the Catechism of Scripture History, at sixpence, to our scholars. We are endeavouring to make them find out the prophecies relating to Christ in the Old Testament, and their fulfilment in Him in the New. With this exercise my scholars are very much pleased. Deriving great advantages themselves from that excellent work, they have communicated to many of their friends in town, from whom I received many applications, not only for the same work, but also for other books, as Barnes' Notes, Pilgrim's Progress, &c., and some even applied for Scott's and Henry's Commentaries.

Power of Faith in a Convert from Heathenism.

A season of sickness is always a time of peculiar trial to Converts from Heathenism, because the infliction is ascribed, by their superstitious friends, to the anger of their idols for their desertion of their former belief. The following is one of many instances that may be adduced to show the power of faith under these circumstances. Mr. Eheimann writes, June 19—

I called upon a Communicant, who has for some time been unable to attend the public Means of Grace. I was much pleased to see him very cheerful, and rejoicing in his sufferings. When I asked him what it was that made him so rejoice, he said, "Because I see, in the Old and New Testament, that all those whom God loved, and who served Him, had to suffer. Many come to me, and some in a very sly way, advising me to use some country-fashion, which soon would release me from my trouble; but I told them, 'Here is my Bible, which tells me that it is the will of God that I should suffer, and therefore I will have nothing to do with your country-fashions.'"

Contributions of the People.

Among the fruits of the Gospel manifested by the Natives during the past year may be mentioned their willingness to contribute, out of their limited means, toward the support of the Missionary work. In addition to 271*l.* paid for the instruction of their children in the Day-schools—which sum is appropriated to the erection of Churches—they have contributed 157*l.* 7*s.* 3*d.* for general Missionary purposes. This sum exceeds that received during the preceding year by 50*l.*

Arrangement with Her Majesty's Government in reference to Ecclesiastical Buildings in the Colony of Sierra Leone.

In the year 1824 the Society first entered into an arrangement with Her Majesty's Government, to supply the Colony of Sierra Leone with Clergymen for the instruction of the Liberated Africans; the Government undertaking, so far as the Colonial funds would allow, to build Churches and Parsonage-houses, in each of the parishes into which the Colony should be divided. The number of parishes was then, and has continued to be, thirteen.

This arrangement was explained and adopted in the Twenty-fourth Report of the Society. In pursuance of this arrangement, the Society has kept up, though at a great expense of life and money, a supply of Clergymen to Sierra Leone; having sent, in the course of the last twenty-three years, 26 Clergymen and 21 European Catechists, making a total of 47 European Teachers, or at the rate of two each year.

In the summer of last year, there were 13 Clergymen and 3 European Catechists discharging the pastoral duties connected with the Liberated Africans, beside Native Catechists and Schoolmasters—nine of the thirteen parishes having the benefit of resident Clergymen. The map of the Colony appended to the present Report shows the parochial divisions, and will give our readers a better idea of the extent of the Society's operations, with the relative position of the Stations, than any description could convey. Her Majesty's Government, in pursuance of their part of the arrangement, had only erected three Churches, and not a single Parsonage-house, in the course of the same period of 23 years. The Society had been therefore compelled to procure the erection of six other Churches—partly by private subscription, partly by pecuniary grants, and partly by the labour of the Natives—and to build, at the cost of the Society, eleven Parsonage-houses.

The Committee have from time to time applied to Her Majesty's Government to fulfil their part of the arrangement; and to repay to the Society the cost of the Churches and Parsonages erected by the Society's means. But the state of the Colonial Funds, of late years, has seemed to Her Majesty's Government to preclude any expenditure in Churches or Parsonages; and no hope was given to the Committee of the arrangement being carried out in future years.

Under these circumstances, the Committee proposed to Her Majesty's Government to put an end to the arrangement of 1824, and to forego the claim of the Society to compensation, upon condition that the three Churches already erected at the cost of Government, and a substantial and spacious house in Freetown, in which the Grammar-school is held, together with two or three other Government houses in the different villages, suitable for Parsonages, should be made over to the Society. This proposal has been acceded to by Her Majesty's Government, and the Committee regard it as an arrangement which, in many ways, will facilitate the future operations of the Society.

All the Churches, except the Colonial Church in Freetown, and all the Parsonage-houses, in the Colony, are now the property of the Society.

The Committee cannot review these circumstances without expressing their gratitude to the Lord, that they have been enabled, on their part, to fulfil the engagement of 1824, and with such signal success, as the present moral and religious state of the Colony testifies to all who have opportunities of observing it.

TIMMANEE MISSION.

Departure of the Rev. C. F. Schlenker—Arrangements.

The Rev. C. F. Schlenker continued in charge of this Mission until the 13th of March, when he left on a visit to Europe for the benefit of his health. His place, however, was supplied, in the following month, by the Rev. D. H. Schmid, upon whom the duties of the Mission have devolved during the last year. He has, however, been assisted, for the greater part of the time, by Mr. W. Parkin, an European Catechist.

Discouragements—Visit to Rokow.

This Mission, during the year, has afforded but little encouragement. The Missionaries have not been able to record any instance of conversion to God, nor any enlargement of the Congregation or Schools. On the contrary, the number of scholars on the books has decreased to 36. This appears to have been occasioned chiefly by the fears of the parents respecting the security of their children in the event of war breaking out in the country. The death of two of the children on the Mission premises has also had the effect of producing similar alarm. It is to be hoped, however, that this depression will prove but temporary.

Messrs. Schmid and Ehemann have recently made a Missionary tour to another part of the Timmanee Country, viz. Rokow, about 60 miles distant from Port Lokkoh, and they were favourably impressed with the suitableness of the place for a Missionary Station. They describe the people to be free from the influence of Mahomedanism, and very anxious for Missionaries to reside among them. How far it may be desirable that the Society should avail itself of this opening into the interior must be a subject for future consideration.*

ABBEOKOUTA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1845.

Mission Establishment :

2 European Missionaries. | 1 Native Missionary. | 3 Native Teachers.

Opening of the Road to Abbeokouta.—Arrangements.

THE Committee are thankful to be able to report, that, after a detention of upward of eighteen months at Badagry, the Missionaries have at length succeeded in reaching their original destination—Abbeokouta. The way in which this object was accomplished is worthy of remark. A noted Slave Factor at Porto Novo, finding that the disturbed state of the country, and the obstructed access into the interior, materially interfered with the nefarious traffic in which he was engaged, sent an Embassy, with costly presents, to prevail upon the Chiefs of the various towns so far to lay aside their mutual hostilities as to render the roads secure for passengers. This measure was successful; and as it was considered important that the opportunity, so long desired, should not be lost, although it was in the midst of the rainy season, the Rev. H. Townsend and the Rev. S. Crowther, with their families, left Badagry on the 27th of July, and on the 3d of August safely arrived at Abbeokouta. Finding it absolutely necessary that a communication should be maintained with the coast, it was determined that the Rev. C. A. Gollmer should remain at Badagry, which town is now to be regarded as a regular branch of the Mission.

BADAGRY.

Since the removal of Messrs. Townsend and Crowther to Abbeokouta, the duties of this Station have been discharged by Mr. Gollmer, with the assistance of Mr. W. Marsh and three other Native Teachers.

Services—Candidates for Baptism—School—Native Teachers.

The Services at the Church on the Lord's-day are attended regularly by between 60 and 70 people. Of these, a few are Natives of Badagry, but the majority are Sierra-Leone people. In September last there were 12 Candidates for Baptism.

The School goes on well. The number of Scholars at the end of June 1846 was 32, of whom 7 were boarders.

In labouring among a mixed population like that of Badagry, considerable advantage is derived from the fact of the Native Teachers being of different Tribes. On this subject, Mr. Gollmer writes, in his Report for the Quarter ending September 1846—

Mr. Marsh visits the Mahomedans, Mr. Philip the Sierra-Leone and Egba people, Mark Willoughby, my Interpreter, the Popos, George William the Yorubas, and I myself visit all, as far as my time and strength permit.

Mr. Gollmer adds—

I cannot omit stating here that our Native Helpers are of great service to us, and a great blessing to the people.

Progress of Agriculture—Commercial Prospects.

In due subordination to more important and direct Missionary work, Mr. Crowther devoted some portion of his time, during his detention at Badagry, to the encouragement of agriculture. A sum of money having been placed at his disposal for this purpose by the late Sir T. F. Buxton, Bart., he took out with him a steel corn-mill, and instituted prizes for those Natives who produced the best farms, taking the Mission garden as a model for imitation. These judicious efforts were remarkably successful. Respecting the corn-mill he remarks, March 1846—

I made it accessible to any who might wish to grind Indian corn in it, instead of by means of their small stones with which they rub it—a most tedious work. During the last two Quarters the little mill has been so constantly at work, that I am now reluctantly obliged to stop the people from using it frequently, lest it be worn out too soon. If I had six of these machines they would be always employed.

And on the subject of the farms he writes, June 12—

When we first arrived here there was no vestige of cultivation to be seen at Badagry; but this year has produced a pleasing change. Forests have been cleared between the Popo inhabitants and the Sierra-Leone people—forests which, perhaps, since the existence of Badagry town, had never been touched by any one for the purpose of cultivation, but in which many an unfortunate person had been hunted and kidnapped, in order to supply the slave-market.

In connexion with this subject it may be mentioned that a small brig, owned and commanded by a Liberated African, regularly trades between Badagry and Sierra Leone, with cargoes of between 80 and 100 puncheons of palm-oil.

It is evident that these facts, taken together, are most important in their bearing upon the encouragement of legitimate commerce, and the consequent removal of one of the greatest obstacles to the spread of Christianity on the western shores of Africa.

ABBEOKOUTA.

Journey of the Missionaries to Abbeokouta—Their reception.

The journey of the Missionaries from Badagry to this place was undertaken, as already mentioned, at a most unfavourable season, when heavy showers of rain were frequent, and the rivers so swollen as to be scarcely passable. After encountering much fatigue and many difficulties, for four days, the party arrived on Saturday evening, the 1st of August, at a village about eight miles from Abbeokouta, called Awoyadi, where they remained until Monday. Their reception at the intended scene of their labours is thus described by Mr. Townsend, in a Letter dated Aug. 18—

As soon as our arrival at Awoyadi was known at Abbeokouta, the Olugoge, or public crier, was commissioned to give public notice of the intention of the authorities to visit with the heaviest punishment any one who should dare to insult or steal from the strangers who were coming.

On Monday morning we left Awoyadi for Abbeokouta. On the way we were informed that the whole of the Lord's-day was passed by the Chiefs in wrangling with each other for the right of receiving us into their respective districts; and that only late at night was it given to Sagbua, who is the representative of their former line of alakes, or kings, and consequently the rightful head of the town. In consequence of this dispute, the Chiefs were not prepared to receive us with the accustomed honours, and we were saved much trouble and annoyance.

On our arrival at the ferry of the River Ogun, we were met by a party of Sierra-Leone people; and on the opposite bank another large party, dressed out in their English clothes, were ready to welcome our arrival: their joy was cordial and sincere. Accompanied by our friends, and various messengers from the Chiefs, we proceeded on our way. The weather hitherto had been fine; but now a heavy fall of rain succeeded, from which none of us could escape. Notwithstanding the adverse state of the weather, we were conducted to the Town Hall, where we met Sagbua, and other Chiefs, by a most circuitous route, passing through every market or public place in Abbeokouta, for the sake of display. From the Town Hall we were conducted to our residence, close by.

We subsequently visited every Chief of note, which it took us four days to accomplish. We were received in the kindest manner by all, and by many with such expressions of good-will and respect for us, as Englishmen, as we could scarcely have expected to receive. In every instance a present was given us, the smallest of which was a thousand cowries—about 2s. 6d. English. Sagbua, on our arrival, gave us 20,000 cowries and a sheep—the same as Sodeke did before.

Last Thursday, at our request, an assembly of the Chiefs was convened, according to native custom, to hear from us our intentions in coming to dwell with them. This meeting was highly satisfactory, and was conducted with great decorum. Mr. Crowther addressed them at some length, giving them a history of our proceedings relating to them, and explaining the end which we hoped to attain by coming among them. The letter addressed to Sodeke by the late Governor Fergusson was also read to them. In reply, they expressed their gratitude to the English for what had been done for them in Sierra Leone; stating, that while the Native Tribes around them had all sought their destruction, the English alone had said the Ebos should live; that the words we brought to them should be attentively heard by all, and that not only children, but old men, should receive our instruction; and that all Abbeokouta should join in rendering us such assistance, in building our habitations, as we might require.

Sagbua has conducted himself toward us with the greatest kindness and attention: he is the acknowledged head of Abbeokouta; but his power is not consolidated: he is often obliged to bow to the will of some of the Chieftains around him.

Erection of Buildings—Encouragements from the People.

Much of the time of the Missionaries has necessarily been occupied in superintending the erection of their residences.

A piece of ground, 350 feet by 325, in a convenient part of the town, has been given them by the Chiefs for this purpose, beside an adjoining piece for a Church and church-yard. Mr. Townsend writes, Sept. 25—

For want of a better place, we have been obliged to hold Divine Service on the Lord's-day partly under the shelter of a narrow piazza, and partly in the open air; and even under such disadvantages our house is crowded, and our hearers increase every week.

And Mr. Crowther adds, Nov. 12—

We are attentively listened to by old and young, men and women, Chiefs and people. They not only give us free access to their houses to preach the Gospel, but after preaching they offer to us presents, which of course we never take. Freely we have received; therefore we should preach the word of God without receiving presents. We cannot thank God enough for the good disposition manifested toward us by a great number of the Chiefs and people.

Labours of Andrew Wilhelm.

In the Forty-fourth Report it was mentioned that Andrew Wilhelm, a Native Teacher of established character in Sierra Leone, had been sent to Abbeokouta, to give such religious instruction as he could to the Christian emigrants and others until the Missionaries should arrive. This duty he performed faithfully and zealously; and it is satisfactory to find the favourable opinions previously entertained respecting his suitability for that office thus corroborated in Mr. Crowther's Journal—

Aug. 9—The valuable services of Andrew Wilhelm, while alone among his idolatrous countrymen in this populous town, is borne testimony to by many people. They give him credit for his faithfulness as a Christian, one who feels the power of godliness, and desires to impart what he knows and feels to his fellow-men. The situation in which he was placed in this country peculiarly called for sympathy. He was beset with trials on all sides; but he was upheld in the midst of difficulties and discouragements, doing his duty according to his ability with a single eye to God's glory, and as one accountable to his God for what he has done.

Many Chiefs of Abbeokouta have borne testimony to Andrew's diligence in his work. Apparty, the most indifferent about any thing good, called our attention to the labours of Andrew, who went to him often to prevail on him to unite with his fellow-Chiefs to invite us to Abbeokouta. He said, Andrew was a worthy servant to those who sent him to this country, and that he should be regarded as such.

Meeting of the Rev. S. Crowther with his Mother.

One circumstance of peculiar interest, connected with the occupation of Abbeokouta as a Missionary Station, the Committee cannot forbear mentioning, viz. the unexpected meeting of the Rev. Samuel Crowther with his mother. He thus records the event in his Journal—

Aug. 21—The text for this day, in the Christian Almanac, is, Thou art the helper of the fatherless. I have never felt the force of this text more than I did this day, as I have to relate that my mother, from whom I was torn away about five and twenty years ago, came with my brother in quest of me. When she saw me, she trembled. She could not believe her own eyes. We grasped one another, looking at each other with silence and great astonishment: big tears rolled down her emaciated cheeks. A great number of people soon came together. She trembled as she held me by the hand, and called me by the familiar names by which I well remembered I used to be called by my grandmother, who has since died in slavery. We could not say much; but sat still, and cast now and then an affectionate look at one another—a look which violence and oppression have long checked—an affection which has nearly been extinguished by the long space of twenty-five years. Thus, unsought for—after all search for me had failed—God has brought us together again, and turned our sorrow into joy.

Translations.

Mr. Crowther has been diligently attending to this important department of Missionary work. He has carefully revised his translation of the Gospel according to St. Luke, and the Acts of the Apostles, into the Yoruba language. He has also translated the Epistle to the Romans, and a considerable portion of the Liturgy, into the same language.

General Review of Difficulties and Encouragements.

Taking a general view of the prospects of this Mission, now that it is hoped a commencement has really been made, the difficulties and obstacles which must be expected are those which arise from the prevalence of a deeply-rooted and powerful superstition, and from the division of the people into small independent communities, jealous of each other's power, and urged on to mutual warfare by selfish feelings called into action by the enticements of the Slave Trade.

On the other hand, the tolerance of the Government, the fact of their superstition being free from bigotry, the favourable disposition of the Chiefs and people, their willingness to hear the message of the Gospel, and the impression produced on them by the kindness of English Christians in being the means of restoring their relatives who had been taken in slavery, must be regarded as cheering indications, and powerful inducements to prosecute this Mission with energy and hopeful expectation.

With reference to this last subject Mr. Townsend writes, Aug. 21—

The Parent Committee will be able to perceive how powerful a means is now put into their hands for the spread of the Gospel in this part, when they know how many a lone mother's heart is gladdened by the return of the lost ones, and many a father's also. How many more are looking to Sierra Leone as the country that contains their long-lost treasure. God has given us means of gaining* access to the hearts of this people, such as were never possessed by any Missionaries before, if we are only alive to the opportunities presented to us of making known the CAUSE of British humanity—Christianity. A door is opened before us: if the Church of Christ is but ready to embrace it, doubtless there will be an abundant harvest.*

MEDITERRANEAN MISSION.

THE Stations composing this Mission are, Syra, in Greece; Smyrna, in Asia Minor; and Caïro, in Egypt.

SYRA.

COMMENCED 1828.

Mission Establishment :

1 European Missionary.	6 Native Schoolmasters.
1 European Schoolmaster.	4 Native Schoolmistresses.

Transference of Mr. C. Sandreczki† to Smyrna.

Allusion was made, in the last Report, to attempts on the part of the Greek Authorities to interfere with the principles on which the Schools supported by the Society at this Station are conducted. These attempts so far succeeded as to render it necessary, in the judgment of the conductors of the School, to restrict Mr. Sandreczki, for a time, from imparting religious instruction to the scholars, and to confine his labours to secular instruction. The Committee, however, having full confidence in the faithfulness of Mr. Sandreczki, could not allow of his being thus restricted; and they have therefore, after failing in their attempts to remove those restrictions at Syra, transferred his services to the Mission at Smyrna.

* Further accounts of the Abbeokouta Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for October 1846, pp. 222—235; and March 1847, pp. 49—60.

† Hitherto erroneously spelt Sanderski.

State of the Schools.

The total number of children on the Books, at the close of the year 1846, was 481, of whom 252 were boys. The Rev. F. A. Hildner reports—

During the whole year I have been permitted, by the Lord's mercy, to teach the Gospel uninterruptedly every Lord's-day, and from four to six times in the week. Three Male Teachers and four Female Teachers have done the same, in strict accordance with the Scriptural principles on which the Schools have been conducted for more than sixteen years. Among the books used in the different Schools of our Establishment, are the New Testament, the Compendium of the Old and New Testaments, the Gospel of St. John, Chrysostom on Reading the Scriptures, the Histories of Abraham, Joseph, Moses, &c. All the children have continued to commit Scripture to memory. They usually begin with the Lord's Prayer and some short Hymns and School Prayers; and then proceed to the Scripture-History Catechism, the Ten Commandments, the Nicene Creed, the Parables, the Psalter, the Sermon on the Mount, and other portions of Scripture from the New Testament, continuing till they leave the School. Our work in the Schools is still highly encouraging, and it is manifest that the hand of God is with us and our work. There are also many indications that spiritual good has been produced by our labours, both among the children and grown-up persons.

The number of children who have passed through the Schools from the beginning is 4531, including 3242 girls. A considerable number of Teachers have gone forth from the Establishment. Of these, there are at present, so far as I have information, twenty-two actually employed, either in Greece or Turkey.

German and English Services—Distribution of the Scriptures, &c.

English and German Services have been regularly performed every Lord's-day; and the attendance has been, on the whole, encouraging. Attempts are being made to procure the erection of a Protestant Church.

There have been distributed, by sale or by gift to various Schools, 145 copies of the whole Bible, and 612 copies of different portions of the Old and New Testaments, together with 2358 small books and Tracts.

Mr. Hildner thus concludes his Report—

I still feel much for Greece, and wish and pray that my hands may be strengthened for benefitting this barren land with the best knowledge, namely, the saving knowledge of Christ. May God have further mercy on this country, and pour out His Spirit on many souls of the Greeks, that they may not only learn the way of salvation, but actually and wholly turn to Him and be saved!

General View—Arrival of Mr Sanderski.

In the early part of last year the Rev. J. T. Wolters left Smyrna on a visit to Europe. He came to London for the purpose of conferring with the Committee on the state of the Mission, and returned to Smyrna at the end of October. The statements which the Committee received from Mr. Wolters, and from other competent quarters, convinced them of the importance of maintaining their Mission in Smyrna, with a view, especially, to the benefit of the Turkish population. Many indications exist of a great change in the spirit of the Mahomedan rulers in respect of the principle of toleration. The Sultân is reported to have openly declared, in a speech delivered at Adrianople, that “difference in Religion is a matter that concerns only the consciences of men, and has nothing to do with their civil position.”

In a Letter dated February 18, 1847, written by Mr. Wolters since his return to Smyrna, he writes—

Though the door for the free proclamation of the Gospel in Turkey appears still to be closed, yet the principle of religious toleration is evidently gaining ground from day to day. At no period has there been so much encouragement for entering upon Missionary work in this country as at present.

Under these circumstances the Committee felt no hesitation in transferring the services of Mr. Sandreczki, as already mentioned, from Syra to Smyrna, with an especial view to his acquisition of the Turkish language, to the distribution of Turkish books, to his collecting information respecting facilities for Missionary operations, and, as far as possible, to his holding conversations with Mahomedans upon religious truth. Mr. Sandreczki's literary attainments, and his long residence in Greece and acquaintance with the Greek language and people, no less than his general qualifications, seem to be eminently suited for the duties thus assigned to him. The very circumstance of his being a Layman will in some degree facilitate his intercourse with Mahomedans. Mr. Sandreczki has arrived with his family at Boujah, in the vicinity of Smyrna; but arrangements are in progress for procuring suitable premises, as a Mission-house, in Smyrna, which will become the head-quarters of the Mission.

Labours of Mr. A. Dalessio.

During Mr. Wolters' absence from Smyrna, the Mission was left in charge of the Native Assistant, Mr. Dalessio. Mr. Wolters writes, Jan. 28, 1847—

I was happy to find, on my return, that Mr. Dalessio had been able to carry on the Mission with success. His Journals show that he availed himself of every opportunity to converse with both Turks and Christians, though the occasions of intercourse with the Turks were comparatively rare. In his leisure hours he has translated twenty chapters of the Rev. W. Jowett's "Christian Visitor" into Modern Greek, and is now engaged in the translation of some of the Homilies of our Church.

Mr. Dalessio took a Missionary tour in the course of the summer, in which he had many opportunities of addressing Greeks and Armenians, both Priests and Laymen, upon the importance of the study of the Scriptures, as well as of exhibiting to them the form of Protestant Worship in the Greek version of the Church-of-England Prayer-book: this always appeared to excite much interest, and to dissipate many prejudices against the Protestant faith.

Hopeful Death of a former Scholar.

One incident may be cited to prove that the labours of our Missionaries to impart scriptural instruction to the members of the Greek Church, though they have hitherto borne little fruit, have not been altogether in vain in the Lord. A Greek girl had been educated in one of the Society's Schools at Smyrna for five years previously to their being closed in the year 1836. She was then 15 years of age, and manifested no effects of the Word of God. She afterward became an orphan, and her subsequent history is thus related by Mr. Wolters in the Letter of Jan. 28—

It pleased the Lord, in His sovereign mercy, to embitter to her the enjoyment of this world of sin, in order to prepare her for a better. Symptoms of consumption appeared in her constitution, and she was brought to Boujah for a change of air. As soon as Mrs. Dalessio heard of her she went to see her, to the great surprise of the Greeks, who entertain the strange idea that consumption is one of the most contagious diseases. Mrs. Dalessio visited the sick girl for more than two months, providing for her any refreshment which she might need, and, above all, being anxious to administer spiritual comfort to her soul. She took with her the Prayer-book of our Church, in Greek, and read to her such Collects and Psalms as appeared to be suitable to her circumstances and the state of her mind, always pointing out CHRIST as the merciful Mediator and Saviour of our souls. All that was read and spoken to her was heard and received with joy: it seemed to be as a healing balm to her consuming body and weary and heavy-laden soul. She began to pray—to call upon Christ to have mercy on her, and to save her. “O Lord,” she used to say, “have mercy upon me, have mercy upon me! Thou didst suffer FOR ME—Thou wast wounded FOR ME! Look, therefore, with an eye of mercy upon me! Help and deliver me!” When on one occasion Mrs. Dalessio found her weeping, and asked her if she suffered pain, she said, “No, I do not weep on account of my pains; but I am sorry that I have spent so much time in vanity and sin, without thinking of God and my soul.” On another occasion, when the Greek Priest told her to call upon the Holy Virgin for help and consolation, she said, “I am comforted: I have a mediator, Christ Himself.” One day, when Mrs. Dalessio had sent her some refreshment, she said, “Mrs. Dalessio has sent me food for my body: let her come in the afternoon to bring me spiritual food for my soul.” The consolations of God to her soul seemed to be so strong, that she almost forgot her bodily sufferings, saying that she felt no more pain, nor was she afraid to die, having committed her soul and body into the hands of her merciful Redeemer. She died during the night, and we have no reason to doubt that her end was peace in Him on whom she had learned to rely as a penitent and believing sinner.

COMMENCED 1826.

Mission Establishment:

2 European Missionaries.	5 Native Teachers.
1 European Teacher.	3 Native-Female Teachers.

The Rev. W. Krusé, and the Rev. J. R. T. Lieder, have continued in charge of this Mission; Mr. Krusé attending to the English and Arabic Services, and availing himself of any opportunities that may present themselves for direct Missionary work, while Mr. Lieder has superintended the Educational Establishments.

Preservation of the Mission Premises from Fire.

In July the Mission premises narrowly escaped destruction by fire. They are situated in the centre of the Coptic quarter, where the houses are very close together, and built of inflammable materials. As the fire originated in the adjoining premises, and spread with fearful rapidity, it is a cause for thankfulness that but little injury was done to the Society's property. Mr. Lieder acknowledges the ready and efficient aid afforded by the Mahomedan Authorities on this occasion.

Services—Conversations with Inquirers.

In his Report for the year 1846 Mr. Krusé writes—

Our English Service has been tolerably attended. Even throughout the greatest heat of last summer many attended; and at this season we have so many travellers passing to and from India, that our Chapel is almost too small.

Our Arabic Service is not so well attended. There are, indeed, but very few hearers, which may partly be accounted for by so many Copts being in the Government Offices, where they work on the Lord's-day. I intend, however, to propose another day for this Service—probably Friday—and I shall then be able to judge whether they really desire the Word of Truth, or otherwise.

The Meeting-room is daily visited by a good number of people—Copts, Catholics, and a few Mahomedans. In the afternoon, the time which I principally devote to them, I have generally many inquirers, and am thankful to say that the light is evidently spreading.

Missionary Visit to the Faioum.

In the early part of the year Mr. Krusé spent about six weeks in a Missionary Tour among the Copts of the Faioum. During this journey he had many opportunities of conversing with the inhabitants on religious subjects, and of distributing copies of the Scriptures and Tracts.

Coptic Institution.

In this Establishment, young men intended for the Ministry of the Coptic Church are educated, in the hope that they may hereafter, under the blessing of God, be the means of diffusing such a measure of scriptural truth throughout that Church, that it may eventually be purified from its present grievous errors.

The number of boarders is 18; beside which, eleven day-scholars have shared in the instructions given. In his Report for the last year Mr. Lieder states—

The scholars are divided into two classes, which are daily exercised in the English language, because of the importance of that language in all their future studies; it being to them a vast treasury, from whence they will derive all their religious and scientific knowledge. The higher class translate from English into Arabic, and from Arabic into Coptic; so that they are thoroughly versed in the obsolete but sacred language of their own Church. With regard to general and Biblical Geography, History, Grammar, and the higher branches of education, they have progressed as well as I could have anticipated; and some have shown a deep interest in reading theological and philosophical works. Of course, a prominent place has ever been given to their religious exercises. Explanatory, as well as practical remarks, have been my great care in all matters connected with their right understanding of the Holy Scriptures.

Mr. Lieder adds—

The fullest confidence is now manifested toward us by all the higher orders of the Native Clergy, without whose countenance all our labours would prove in vain. The Patriarch shows the kindest feeling toward the Institution, and frequently gives his benediction to the pupils; while the amiable Bishop of Esneh, Amba Michael, is our almost daily visitor, inspecting and encouraging the young men in the pursuit of their studies. It is often a matter of gratitude and thanksgiving to me to see my poor labours thus encouraged. Amba Michael is often in Cairo on duty connected with the Patriarchate. During his last visit he brought with him his sister's son, a fine lad of 13 years of age, and, placing my hand on his head, told me to regard the boy as my own son: that, as he had dedicated him to the priesthood, he now submitted the whole of his theological studies to me.

In November last I had also a visit from the Bishop of Es-Siout, Amba Macarius, who, next to the Bishops of Alexandria and Jerusalem, is the most influential and powerful of all the Coptic Bishops in Egypt. He brought with him a very suitable youth, the son of a respectable man of his own diocese, and begged me to receive him into the Institution; saying that, as soon as the young man should have finished his studies, he would open for him a School in Es-Siout; and, as soon as his age would allow it, ordain him a Priest for one of the Churches of that city. I took him over the Schools. He was astonished to see the progress of the young men in the different languages which they study, especially in the Coptic, the sacred language of the Coptic Church, and left evidently impressed with the importance and utility of the Institution.

The Bishop of Minyeh, Amba Jacobus, has also just confided to my care a near and dear relative of his own, who is also intended for the Ministry.

It appears, therefore, that, so far as the number of pupils is concerned, their progress in general knowledge, and the countenance afforded by the Ecclesiastical Authorities of the Coptic Church, the Institution has realized the most sanguine expectations formed respecting it; but in the most important points it is to be feared that it has hitherto failed of its object. Mr. Lieder observes—

It is painful to think that we can see none of those spiritual fruits which our eyes desire to behold. Our prayer is, that the seed sown may yet spring up and bear fruit worthy the harvest of the Lord.

The Girls' School.

This School has, during the past year, had its full number of 115 pupils, whose progress is reported to be gratifying. While what are called the Orthodox Oriental Churches have generally regarded this School with favour, it has constantly been an object of jealousy to the various Roman Catholic communions, who have at different times attempted to form opposition Schools, but without success, because they have failed in obtaining suitable teachers in whom they could place confidence. "Thus," observes Mr. Lieder, "we have seen a Greek Roman-Catholic, a Syrian Roman-Catholic, and an Armenian Roman-Catholic School commence and terminate." He now, however, thus speaks of a more formidable opposition—

During the last few months, we have had a very different power to contend with in the arrival of eleven Roman-Catholic Nuns, Sisters of the Order of the Bon Pasteur—women in every way suited for all the purposes of education, and ready to make any sacrifice for what they believe to be the Kingdom of Christ. These ladies have established themselves in Caïro. They have been sent out with large means, and are evidently backed by the munificence of Rome. They have purchased the extensive house of Bogos Bey, the late Prime Minister of Egypt, which is situate in the European quarter. To this large mansion they have added other contiguous dwellings, so that they now possess a magnificent establishment, in which they conduct two or three different Schools for the various classes of their own community, as well as for other Christian denominations, and Jews; namely, a Boarding-school for the higher families, and Day-schools for such as are respectable, and for the poor. In each of these every kind of work that can tempt the eye has been introduced and taught.

The Boys' Day-school.

This School contains 130 pupils, of whom 16 are Mahomedans. Mr. Lieder describes this part of his labours as promising and satisfactory.*

COMMENCED 1843.

Mission Establishment :

2 European Missionaries.

To those who have marked, with lively interest, the labours and trials of the Rev. Dr. Krapf, while, unaided and alone, he has diligently carried on preparatory Mission work on the eastern coast of Africa, it will be a cause for thankfulness that he has at length been joined by a fellow-labourer, and that a Station has been occupied, and direct Missionary operations commenced.

In a situation so remote from European society, medical aid, and Christian sympathy, sickness must be more than ordinarily trying. Dr. Krapf, however, has been called to suffer from severe and repeated attacks of fever, some of which continued for several weeks. On one of these occasions he found it necessary to remove to Zanzibar for two or three months, as the only probable hope of his recovery. By these successive attacks his constitution has so greatly suffered as to render his return to Europe for a time a probable event.

Missionary Journeys.

Dr. Krapf has undertaken several important Missionary tours, with the view of collecting information, and of making known the Gospel. Beside places in the more immediate vicinity of Mombas, he visited Takongo, Emberria, and Malinda, and heard many particulars respecting the Galla Tribes, and the probability of being able to reach them from the coast. This object he had some reason to believe might be accomplished by means of a river called Maro, or Pokomóni, respecting which, however, he was anxious for further information. During his voyage from Zanzibar he again visited the isle of Tanga, which he regards as a very eligible site for a Missionary Station. He observes—

In all these places I have ample opportunity to diffuse, in the Sooahelee or Wonica tongues, the sweet savour of the knowledge of Christ. Him I labour to preach at home and abroad, in the boat or on the shore, in the lonely plantation or the crowded Wonica village, and wherever a door may be opened.

Speaking of the reception of the Gospel by the Heathen who inhabit the mainland opposite Mombas, he remarks, in a Letter dated Feb. 11, 1846—

Many of them listen attentively to my preaching; others are indifferent; others do not fully understand me in the Sooahelee dialect; and others raise questions. But it is remarkable, as well as very pleasing, that those who have understood me best are always so much delighted with the discourse that they relate to the others all that they have comprehended. As this relation is made in their own native style and manner, the whole multitude gain some knowledge of the Gospel. These others frequently communicate what they know to persons whom they meet in the streets; and thus arises much asking and talking about the teaching of the White Man. From the streets the new doctrine passes into their houses and family-conversations. Would that they could hear the Word of God every day or week!

Translational Labours.

In this department Dr. Krapf has been most assiduously employed, whenever his health and his other engagements have permitted. In little more than two years he has translated nearly the whole of the New Testament into the Sooahelee language. He is desirous, however, that no part of it should be printed until he shall have brought his maturer acquaintance with the language to bear upon a careful revision of it. He has also sent home a Vocabulary, containing about 2200 words in the Sooahelee, Wonica, Pokomo, and Galla languages; and is engaged on a very extensive Sooahelee Dictionary. The letters A and B, which he has finished, contain about 4000 words. This last undertaking, however, he has laid aside for the present, in order to prepare a less extensive work for present use.

Arrival of the Rev. J. Rebmann—Settlement of the Missionaries at New Rabbay.

The Rev. J. Rebmann reached Mombas on the 10th of June, and, as might be expected under the circumstances, was welcomed by Dr. Krapf with feelings of overflowing joy. Immediately after his arrival, preparations were made for entering upon a Mission to the Wonicas. The place fixed upon was Rabbay-Empia, or New Rabbay, about four miles to the west of the extremity of the Bay which extends about eighteen miles inland from Mombas. New Rabbay is situated at a considerable elevation, commanding an extensive view, especially to the east. In reference to a preliminary visit to obtain the consent of the Chiefs, Mr. Rebmann states, June 27—

Without making a single objection, or even a single condition, without asking for any present, with one mind and one voice, they cheerfully consented to our petition. They assured us, in the highest terms, of their friendship; said that the whole land should be open to us; that we should travel where we liked; that—to use their own expression—they would seize us by the arms and feet, defending us; and that we were the kings of the country.

The agricultural occupations of the Wonikas, and severe attacks of fever, by which both Dr. Krapf and Mr. Rebmann were laid aside for some weeks, obliged them to postpone their removal from Mombas until August. On the 25th of that month, which was the day appointed by the Chiefs to receive them, they arrived at their destination. The circumstances of depression under which this object was accomplished are thus described by Dr. Krapf, in a Letter dated Sept. 20—

When I arose in the morning of the 25th I felt the fever rapidly coming on; but I would not give way to apprehensions, nor delay our departure. The cold stage of the fever had already commenced when we started, and I was shivering in a high degree; but I said, in my heart, The Mission MUST be commenced; and should death or life result to me, I can now have no regard to sickness whatever. With these feelings, and inward groanings to the Lord, I left, with my dear brother Rebmann, the plantation of our friend. Mr. Rebmann also felt so weak, that he thought he should not be able to walk all the way to New Rabbay. We therefore agreed to relieve one another by riding the ass which we had with us. Having tried for a while, however, to walk, I was obliged to give it up, nolens volens, and to use the back of our animal for the remainder of the journey. Brother Rebmann was thus compelled to travel entirely on foot. With great difficulty, and suffering violent pain, I ascended the steep mount on which New Rabbay is situated. I think that scarcely any other Mission can have been commenced in greater weakness; but it should be so in our case, in order that we should not glory in ourselves, and that our successors might remember under what circumstances this Mission was begun. Everybody would have thought us to be mad; but we know that no truly divine work has ever been, nor ever will be, accomplished, unless the human agency through which it is carried out has passed through many and great tribulations.

In the same spirit of Christian devotedness, Dr. Krapf, while entreating the Committee to cherish and strengthen the infant Mission, exclaims, in concluding the Letter—

Never mind the victims which may fall or suffer in this glorious combat: only carry it forward, until the east and west of Africa be united in the bonds of Christ. Although we may not live so long, yet we shall rejoice in heaven, when the reports shall reach us there, that the successors of the present Committee and their Missionary Labourers have expelled Satan from Africa, *by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony.

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1820.

Mission Establishment :

5 European Missionaries.	1 East-Indian Catechist.
2 Europeans, Catechist and Teacher.	24 Native Teachers.

Renewed Trials in this Mission—Consolations of the Gospel.

LAST year the Committee were able to speak in cheering language of the prospects of the Bombay Mission; but the light in which they then rejoiced proved but a transient gleam: the scene became clouded, and the Mission was again visited with severe losses and afflictions.

The Forty-fifth Report recorded the death of an experienced and most valuable Missionary, the Rev. J. Dixon, after a period of seventeen years of unremitted activity, in which he had rendered most valuable service, especially in the translation of the Sacred Scriptures and of the Common-Prayer Book into the Mahratta language.

The present Report records the death of the Rev. A. Dredge, after only fifteen months of labour, during which brief period he had given great promise of future usefulness, both by the diligence and success with which he had mastered the difficulties of the vernacular language, and by exhibiting himself—to adopt the words of his brother Missionaries—"the exemplar and promoter of love and peace and godly unity."

The cholera also visited Nassuck with unusual severity; and three out of the little company of Native Converts became its victims within a few weeks of each other; of whom the Missionaries testify that they died in faith. In addition to these losses, the wife of Ram Krishna, the Assistant Catechist, who had proved a valuable assistant to Mrs. Farrar in the work of female education, and had evinced, both before and after her marriage, a genuine Christian character, was cut off soon after the commencement of her hopeful career.

Amidst these chastening trials, it is most consolatory to find that the Lord was with His suffering people in the time of trouble. The affliction of Ram Krishna was mingled with some of the bitterest ingredients which can be infused into the cup of human suffering. He left Nassuck with his wife, whose mind had suffered under temporary derangement, in order to obtain medical help at Bombay. On the journey, their infant, an only child, was suddenly attacked with illness, and died. They were surrounded only by Heathen

Natives, who now showed the bitterest enmity against the man, to whom as a Brahmin, before his conversion, they would have been ready to pay idolatrous worship. They now refused him all offices of pity and kindness, and even a grave for his child. He was compelled to pursue his painful journey to Bombay with the corpse of his infant, and with his afflicted wife. She, also, was soon afterward taken from him by death.

Yet under these afflictions the youthful Convert, animated by the true spirit of the faith which he has embraced, thus expressed his feelings in a Letter addressed to the Bishop of Bombay, Nov. 2, 1846—

I am much sustained and comforted by the realization that my beloved partner and dear child are gone before me to heaven, to join the throng of the redeemed, to praise and to sing hallelujahs to the Lamb that sitteth upon the throne, and to be with Him for ever and ever; to which consummation of time my dear wife had longed so much before her earthly career was come to an end; to which glorious mansion I look up, and desire to ascend thither in God's appointed time, through the mediation and merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. What a rich measure of consolation does the Christian Religion hold out to its mourners beyond any of the invented revelations of ancient or modern philosophers! Had I been among my own kindred, and followed the religion of my ancestors, then I should have been deprived of all my rich treasure of consolation which I have derived, by the aid of God's Spirit and grace, from the reading of the Holy Scriptures of Christianity.

I desire to express my hearty thanks to the Church Missionary Society at large, and to the Missionaries of the same who are engaged in the noble enterprise on this spot, yea, even in the work of faith and labour of love; for to them I stand indebted for this great privilege which I enjoy. For they became, in the hands of Jehovah, the means of bringing me to behold the marvellous light of the everlasting Gospel of God. I request them, as well-wishers of myself and of my beloved countrymen, not to faint by seeing so little fruit of their labours bestowed upon this dreary and long-proved barren spot; but to encourage themselves by the immutable promise of our Lord that He will not leave them nor forsake them, but will grant the long-expected and long-entreated success of their hazardous enterprise.

Re-organization of the Bombay Church Missionary Association.

The Christian friends in Bombay have taken active measures to revive an interest in the labours of the Society among the European inhabitants, by re-organizing the Bombay Church Missionary Association, by which the Local Funds will, it is hoped, be largely increased. But far more important benefits may be anticipated from the spirit in which these Christian friends have entered upon the work, as evidenced by the following Resolutions adopted at the Anniversary Meeting at Bombay, Dec. 8, 1846—

That the Meeting acknowledge the hand of the Lord in the severe trials the Society's Western-India Mission has had to suffer, no less than in the partial success which has been granted; and that by these, as well as by the growing desire after knowledge, and the increasing opposition to the Gospel among the Natives, and by all the signs of the times, it feels itself powerfully urged to evince greater earnestness in the cause of Christ than it has hitherto evinced.

In short, the Meeting cannot rest satisfied until a decided and a general outpouring of the Spirit from on high be realized.

BOMBAY.

The Money School—Vernacular Schools.

The Money School, containing 95 pupils, continues under the charge of the Rev. C. W. Isenberg. As Mr. Isenberg is the only Missionary of the Society at Bombay, his time has been necessarily occupied by a variety of duties, which have interfered with each other; but the general progress of the School has been satisfactory.

The Native Department of Missionary labour, and the superintendence of the Vernacular Schools, have devolved upon the East-Indian Catechist, Mr. Sargon, and the Assistant Catechist, the Parsee Convert Sorabjee, whose conversion was the first-fruits of the Money School. Mr. Sargon has been obliged, during the latter part of the year, to leave Bombay for a time on account of his health; and "the Corresponding Committee having, during a long period, felt doubtful concerning the propriety of a Missionary Society keeping Native Schools under Heathen Teachers, without sufficient superintendence," have abandoned five of the Schools hitherto maintained; retaining only the Jewish Mahratta School at Barkote, and the Mahratta branch of the Money School.

NASSUCK.

Changes at this Station—Visit of the Bishop.

In the early part of last year five Missionaries were labouring at this Station; but before six months had expired two of them were removed to their eternal rest, and two were transferred to the new Station at Jooneer. The Rev. C. P. Farrar was thus left the only ordained Missionary at Nassuck, in the midst of labours upon which a day of prosperity had just begun to dawn. He has continued his labours, assisted by his three Native Converts. The little native flock only numbers sixteen members, three of whom have been added during the last year.

The Lord Bishop of Bombay visited this Station in March, and confirmed ten of the Converts. His Lordship examined the Native Assistants, and regards them as well qualified for their work. Respecting one of them he writes, May 18—

He has given up a situation, in the Revenue department, of 50 rupees per mensem, with good prospects of promotion, to be employed in making known the Gospel to his countrymen.

The Bishop's visit proved a season of great comfort and encouragement to the Station; and he has kindly furnished the Parent Committee with full information and advice respecting its condition.

Serious Illness of the Rev. C. P. Farrar.

The Committee cannot close their review of this Station without adding that, within a very short period, they have received intelligence of the very dangerous illness of Mr. Farrar; and that, if his life shall be spared, he will be compelled at once to return to England. Earnestly would the Committee therefore entreat the prayers of their friends on behalf of this afflicted and bereaved branch of their Missions.

JOONEER.

Occupation of this Station—Its advantages.

The Station of Jooneer has been entered upon during the last year, according to the intention announced in our last Report. The Rev. A. Dredge, who had been appointed to this Station, having been removed from his earthly labours, the Rev. C. C. Mengé was associated with the Rev. J. J. Mühl-eisen. They commenced their Missionary labours in Jooneer on the 5th of March 1846.

Jooneer combines many advantages as a Missionary Station. It is a central point between Nassuck, Nuggur, Poonah, and Bombay; and a proposed railroad will connect it with Bombay. The climate is healthy, and there is an abundance of water. A large population is contained in the town and immediate neighbourhood, and 285 villages are connected with it; in which, with very few exceptions, the great and blessed Name, by which alone men can be saved, has never yet been named. The Brahmins are less powerful in their opposition to Christianity than at Nassuck; and the population generally have exhibited a remarkable willingness to hear the message of the Missionaries.

Reception and Labours of the Missionaries.

At the commencement of their labours a very great interest was excited in the minds of the people; and Christian Tracts and portions of the Scriptures were eagerly sought and diligently read. The number of visitors to the Missionaries was from 30 to 60 daily. Among the young, especially, there appeared much promise of success. Several, of their own accord, committed to memory the Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments, and expressed their contempt for idols. After nine months, however, Mr. Mühl-eisen writes, Jan. 1, 1847—

The great excitement and number of visitors have much decreased. Curiosity has been satisfied; and, in comparison, but few persons come to see me. I find it, therefore, to be my duty to redouble my exertions to meet them on the highways and in the streets of the town, which, with few omissions, has been done daily for a considerable time. As yet, however, not one individual has appeared to inquire seriously, What shall I do to be saved?

Mr. Mengé conducts a Mahratta Service every morning, which is attended by occasional visitors. He has also established a Mahratta School, containing 40 or 50 boys. These scholars are chiefly Guzerattees, who have no image of God, but only of a saint called Paresnath. They have less objection than the Hindoos to hear the exposition of Holy Scripture, and are fond of reading. Mr. Mengé is also engaged in translating the New Testament from the original into Mahratta, the Old Testament having been translated by the late Mr. Dixon.

Visit of the Bishop.

In the month of April the Bishop of Bombay visited Jooneer, and greatly encouraged the Missionaries in their work; advising them chiefly to occupy themselves in conversational preaching with the people in the town or neighbourhood.

ASTAGAUM.

Baptism of seven Natives.

Mr. B. White has continued his labours at this place in connexion with the Society. During the year, seven Converts have been added to the number of those who had been formerly collected under Christian instruction; and upon the visit of the Rev. C. P. Farrar to the Station, in February 1846, they were baptized. It is hoped that this Station may eventually become one of more important and extended Missionary operations.*

CALCUTTA AND NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1816.

Mission Establishment :

25 European Missionaries.	5 East-Indian Catechists and other Teachers.
1 East-Indian Missionary.	102 Native Catechists and Teachers of all Classes.
4 European Catechists and other Teachers.	11 Native Schoolmistresses.
1 European Female Teacher.

General View—Appeals for Prayer.

THE general view of the Missionary work in North India, which the Committee have given on former occasions, is equally applicable to the present year. The visible fruits of conversion are few in number, though there are indications, to a discerning eye, of a brighter day. There is much to try the faith and patience of the Labourers, though there is enough to sustain their hope. From every Station, even where the Agents are the most able, and the external machinery of the Mission the most perfect, the same earnest appeal meets the ear, to lift up our hearts in prayer to Him who has the residue of the Spirit, that He may pour it from on high upon a thirsty and arid field.

CALCUTTA.

Preaching to the Heathen—Baptisms.*

This Station has been strengthened by the return of the Rev. T. Sandys, after a temporary absence in England for the recovery of his health. The Rev. G. G. Cuthbert has also been appointed to it, though, in the first instance, he has resided in the Krishnaghur District, for the advantage of studying Bengalee, and of acquainting himself with Missionary work in that District.

The Rev. J. Innes has continued to act as Secretary of the Corresponding Committee, and the Rev. Messrs. Sandys, Osborne, and Long, to conduct the various Missionary duties of the Station.

The Native-Christian Congregation in Trinity Church has received no material increase: the average attendance, including children, is about 100.

The Missionaries have availed themselves of numerous opportunities of addressing the Heathen, especially in Tuntunia Chapel, which is situated in a great thoroughfare, and is generally well attended.

Mr. Long writes—

During this year I have spent the chief part of the Lord's-day in the villages near Calcutta, calling upon the respectable and educated classes of the Natives to bring the claims of Christianity before them. Sometimes I have had discussions with young men who were educated in our English Schools at Mirzapore. I have visited the chief villages on the banks of the river between Calcutta and Barrackpore.

Four adults have been admitted to Christian Baptism by the Missionaries in Calcutta during the last year.

Education.

The Christian Boys' and Girls' Schools, containing 48 children, have gone on satisfactorily. There are also three English Schools for Heathen Boys; namely, at Mirzapore, Dum Dum, and Allipore; of which that at Mirzapore is the principal. This School occupies much of the time of Mr. Long, who reports of it—

Last year I feared that, in consequence of the opposition made by the Vedantists in Calcutta, and orthodox Hindoos, to Missionary Schools, this Seminary would be closed; but the efforts of the Anti-Missionary party have signally failed: their Schools are declining, while Missionary Schools are increasing, both in numbers and efficiency. This School has now more boys in it than ever, the number being 226. It is, however, with me a subject of deep regret, that, since its establishment in 1823 up to 1846, it has only produced two Converts, notwithstanding that the truths of the Gospel have been plainly and fully preached to the boys in it. This, though a lamentable fact, instead of discouraging us, ought to stimulate our exertions to overcome the barriers raised against the believing reception of the Gospel.

There are three Vernacular Schools for heathen boys, containing about 250 scholars, in Calcutta, Rajahat, and Baraset. Two other Schools, containing 114 boys, are maintained by the Calcutta Church Missionary Association in connexion with the Society, but are under the management of the Local Committee.

AGURPARAH.

Congregation—Communicants—Baptism.

This Station is under the charge of Mr. De Rozario. The numbers of the Congregation and Communicants are not increased, being 70 and 20 respectively.

Mr. De Rozario and the Native Teachers give public instruction in two Chapels in the neighbourhood three times a-week. Only one adult has been received to Baptism during the year.

English School.

The chief encouragement is reported to have been the increase of scholars in the English School, which has risen in numbers, during the last three years, from 120 to 150, and this year to 240. Mr. De Rozario reports—

This progressive increase is owing to what the Natives see at the Annual Examinations, and to the abolition, one after another, of three pay Schools established by the Hindoos in opposition to the Missionary School. The last of these was abolished in October last, and the opulent Baboo, who supported it for several years, now sends his own children to our School. Thus we see how prejudices against Missionary Schools and Bible instruction are completely worn out in these parts. Two of the best boys of the first class have left School with a complete head knowledge of all the doctrines and precepts of the Bible, and not without conviction, to a great extent, of the truth of Christianity.

BURDWAN.

Mission Establishment—Native-Christian Congregation and Schools.

The Rev. Messrs. Weitbrecht and Geidt have laboured at Burdwan. In the early part of last year the Rev. E. Reynolds removed to Krishnaghur, and in February the Rev. F. Schurr and Mr. C. Bomwetsch arrived to assist in the duties of the Station.

The Establishment at Burdwan is complete in its Mission Compound, comprising Orphan and Infant Schools, and a Christian Village. Native Catechists and Teachers are employed in various branches under the superintendence of the Missionaries. Mr. Weitbrecht reports—

The Means of Grace have been administered regularly in two Divine Services on the Lord's-day and one in the week. There are 48 Communicants on the list. A Monthly Missionary Prayer Meeting is held with the Teachers and Catechists, which has often proved a happy season to gather new strength for the conflict.

The Orphan Boys' School contains 39 pupils, the first class of whom give fair promise of hereafter becoming useful as Teachers, three of them being Communicants. The Orphan Girls' School has increased in number: it now contains 42 girls, beside 40 infants, who are instructed by Rabi, one of the former pupils of this School, who was trained for the work at the Home and Colonial Infant School during Mr. Weitbrecht's visit to England two years ago.

Preaching to the Heathen.

Of this department Mr. Weitbrecht writes—

The Gospel has been regularly preached to the Heathen, both in the town of Burdwan and in the villages of the District. Two evenings in the week are devoted by the Missionaries to preaching in the Bazaar Chapel, and three mornings in various localities where an audience can easily be obtained. I spent nearly three months of the cold season in itinerating through the surrounding populous District.

English and Vernacular Schools.

An English School, containing 75 heathen boys, is held in Burdwan, of which Mr. Cecil is the Head Teacher, and exerts himself much to the satisfaction of the Missionaries. Five Bengalee Schools are also in connexion with the Mission. Mr. Geidt visits them alternately every morning, devoting his whole time to this branch of Missionary labour.

Baptisms—Limited present Success—Prospects.

Yet, with all this completeness of Missionary arrangements and strength of Labourers, the actual results, in the conversion of the Heathen, have been very small. Only two youths, educated in the Christian Orphan School, have been baptized during the year; but two families of the peasantry are reported as nearly ready for baptism; and of some of the pupils of the English School a hope is expressed that they are not far from the kingdom of God. The Committee make this statement in Christian faithfulness, though they do not despise the day of small things. Mr. Weitbrecht also writes—

Upward of 25 years have now elapsed since the first Missionaries settled at this Station. The Gospel has been preached extensively, and the good seed thus widely dispersed has been watered with many prayers and tears. I re-entered upon my labours in this Mission two years ago, with confidence and hope, even as the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth. Doubtless the blessing of the Lord has accompanied our efforts: we have indubitable proof of it, and feel grateful. But our hearts' longing desire to witness more extensive conversions has not been realized yet. We are still called upon to labour in hope, and in patience to possess our souls. O that the Lord may soon display His power in the sight of the Heathen!

And, speaking of his Missionary journeys, he says—

I was much gratified, in my journeyings, to meet with so many young Hindoos who had received an English education, and who, with few exceptions, speak with contempt of idolatry. It is easy to perceive that a great moral change, and I believe for the better, is thus being effected, though the evangelist in a heathen land looks for more than this. Present appearances would almost lead us to think that Bengal is to become a land of Deists and Infidels before the Gospel is fully to prevail.

KRISHNAGHUR.

Visit and Testimony of the Bishop of Madras.

The Committee are well aware of the various sentiments with which the work at Krishnaghur is viewed by different classes of observers. By many Christians, in India and at home, with devout praise and thanksgiving, as the commencement of a great and good work. By others, with suspicion or condemnation, as the result of deceivableness and of unworthy inducements held out to Converts. By others, with contempt, as an insignificant movement on the part of Natives who had previously lost caste among their countrymen.

The Committee have therefore been ever anxious to obtain collateral and independent testimony, in addition to the information furnished by the Missionaries themselves. Such testimony they have this year received from the Bishop of Madras, who, during the absence of the Bishop of Calcutta, visited and administered the affairs of that diocese. His Lordship held a Confirmation, at which 310 Candidates were presented, at Krishnaghur; resided a week in the District; and personally inspected the several Missionary Stations, in company with his Chaplain and the Archdeacon of Calcutta.

The Bishop has since published, in this country, a "Brief Account" of his observations and inquiries, "out of a fervent desire to strengthen the love of Missionary enterprise in the hearts of its supporters, and to awaken it in the hearts of those who have as yet not entertained it toward the Church Missionary Society's Mission at Krishnaghur."

In this account the Bishop justly observes that his testimony will be the more valuable, as of one who had enjoyed peculiar opportunities of acquainting himself with the system and working of Christian Missions in the South of India.

The Bishop thus speaks of the character of the Missionaries of the Society—

Among the many blessings I have been permitted to enjoy in India, I shall always most gratefully acknowledge the opportunity which has been granted me of passing a few happy days amongst these Missions. Gladly would I have given up another week to this hopeful District; but my engagements for Lent obliged me to shorten my Visitation. In Krishnaghur, as wherever in India I have had the happiness to sojourn among them, I have been received by the Society's Missionaries with a confiding kindness and hearty hospitality which I can never forget. Every information which I solicited was readily and fully given, and our intercourse has been most frank and friendly.

I find them [the Missionaries of the Society] men of prayer, faith, and love; and most anxious to impart every spiritual gift to those committed to their charge within the fold of Christ, and to those who are still without.

The Bishop issued a series of searching inquiries, which were fully answered by the Missionaries, and he traced the history of the work from its commencement. His Lordship states—

It must be acknowledged, with regret, that in this movement there was much that must be attributed to mere temporary excitement, much that was unsound and fallacious. So long as the system of advancing money was kept up, the work seemed to advance; but it was soon discovered that many of the professed Converts had crept into the Church from merely worldly motives.

The loan system, to which the Bishop refers, was discontinued after the first two years, in 1841. His Lordship adds—

It is a fact that comparatively few Converts have since come forward to join our Church.

Notwithstanding this opinion of the unsoundness of the movement at its commencement, the Bishop gives the following satisfactory testimony to the present character of the work—

With a considerable number, among thousands of nominal Christians, the movement has been steadily progressive, whilst the rest, who came in merely for the loaves and fishes, have ever and anon, by their behaviour, and especially lately by their secession to the Roman Church, proved that their embracing Christianity partook of the character of a merely temporary excitement.

And again—

It is satisfactory to be assured, by those who have frequent intercourse with them, and who therefore have the best means of judging, that there is a goodly number in whose hearts the work of grace has commenced. I have seen enough strongly to impress on my mind the persuasion, that Krishnaghur will eventually prove the Tinnevely of Bengal. I shall not be misunderstood as desirous of conveying the impression that it resembles Tinnevely at present.

Attempts of Romanist Missionaries to seduce the Converts.

With respect to the Popish incursion into Krishnaghur, alluded to in the last Report, the Bishop observes—

This Mission has been sorely tried of late by the unfortunately too-successful efforts of the Romanists, who established themselves in the District last year, and have prevailed upon not less than 140 individuals, including men, women, and children—in one District—to join their communion. Of these, however, 41 are very anxious to be re-admitted into our own Communion; and of the remaining 99 most are unworthy of the name of Christians, half of them having been on the list of Catechumens for the last seven years, but never having been baptized into our Church on account of the impropriety of their behaviour.

On another occasion the Bishop writes—

May Krishnaghur be providentially protected from the infection of that Christianized idolatry! for such I unhesitatingly declare it to be as presented to the Natives of India.

At the close of last year, ten months after the Bishop's visit, the Rev. C. H. Blumhardt reports upon the same subject—

Many of those circumstances, concerning which I had fears last year, have been mercifully overruled for good. The Roman-Catholic Priest, who had intruded upon our work and led astray many of our Converts to his errors, has been arrested in his career, and has evidently failed in his designs. Most of his Converts are very anxious to be re-admitted into our Communion. They do, on the whole, regularly attend the Means of Grace in my Church, and have quite separated from the Church of Rome. But they are all still on probation.

General View of the Labourers and Districts.

In two of the five Districts into which the Krishnaghur

Mission is divided, a change of Labourers has taken place. In consequence of the death of the Rev. A. H. Alexander, Solo was left, at the beginning of the year, without a Missionary. The Rev. G. G. Cuthbert, however, kindly undertook to reside near it, and to superintend its duties as far as it was possible to do so while yet unacquainted with the language; the surrounding Missionaries engaging to visit it at fixed seasons. Chupra was under the charge of the Rev. J. C. Wendnagel during the first half-year; but ill health greatly interrupted his labours, and he was obliged to leave in July. Mr. Osborne, from Calcutta, undertook the charge for the remaining half-year. The Committee are happy, however, to state, that, at the close of the year, the Rev. Messrs. Linké and Krückeberg returned to India; the former of whom was stationed at Solo, and the latter at Chupra.

The more experienced Missionaries, who have laboured in the other Districts, report that some religious progress is manifest in the Congregations under their care.

The whole number of persons now under Christian instruction is not given, as in former years; but the number of Communicants has increased from 313 to 403 during the last year.

Mr. Blumhardt writes, respecting the Krishnaghur Station—

The conduct of the Christians, at the Station and in the villages, has been, on the whole, satisfactory; and their attendance on the Means of Grace regular, with very few exceptions. Some pleasing instances of piety have come to my notice, which prove to my mind that the Word preached to them is not fruitless.

Respecting the Station of Rottenpore the Rev. C. W. Lipp reports—

The attendance on the Means of Grace is not on the increase. Frequent visits to the people by the Missionary are required; and if he can find no time for it they become negligent. Such as are regular are certainly increasing in knowledge, and strengthened in Christian practice; and these, comparatively few among a large number, are our joy, and I trust will prove our crown. The people have lately contributed, out of their scanty earnings, toward the enlargement of the Mission Chapel. We have also succeeded in establishing a fund for poor widows. The number of my Christian adults and children is 980; of the Communicants, 110.

The Bishop of Madras, in his report of this Station, observes—

Some women come regularly, every Sunday morning, a distance of four or five miles, with children in their arms, to worship in the House of God.

The Rev. C. T. Krauss reports, respecting Kabastanga—

On the whole, I have every reason to be satisfied with the state and condition of the Mission generally, and great cause for thankfulness in the steady progress in the leading truths of Christianity made by our more seriously-inclined Christians during the past year.

Mr. Cuthbert has given the following interesting sketch of his first visit to the Kabastanga Station—

May 20, 1846—I was struck with admiration, as I approached, at the beauty of the Mission-house and all about it, bespeaking at once the taste and industry of Mr. Krauss, the Missionary. Every thing here reminds one of being in a Mission-house, though one of a very superior class. The hours are struck regularly on the gong outside, as the clocks strike them within, to regulate the movements of the Schools and the whole Mission. The boys come into Mr. Krauss's study before breakfast for their Scripture lesson: he is now reading with them the Pilgrim's Progress in Bengalee; and nothing can exceed the interest and delight with which these poor Bengalee youths study "the matchless allegory" of the illustrious John Bunyan: it is one more testimony to its wonderful and universally-felt truth and power. At eleven o'clock, when the family breakfast and worship are over, the people make their appearance in the verandah for medical advice and medicine. At twelve o'clock, on alternate days, the girls' and boys' singing classes seat themselves, cross-legged, in a semicircle, on the drawing-room floor, for instruction in Psalmody; all the school-girls, and their Teachers, taking their places at one o'clock every day in the verandah for needlework, under the eye of Mrs. Krauss, and continuing there till four. In the early morning and the evening the Church bell tolls, to summon the Native Christians, who may be seen casting their garment decently about them, and quietly walking, in twos and threes, to the House of Prayer. One evening, when we went to see it, it was filled to overflowing with the children and others, many not being able to get further than the verandah. The principal Catechist conducted the Service in a serious and reverential manner.

Education.

The Boarding-schools for Christian boys and girls have been maintained at each Station. These are the chief hope of the Mission, as we may trust that the children thus trained will form a generation more firmly established and better instructed in the truth than that which emerged from heathenism. Each District has its Boarding-school for boys and for girls; the boys amounting, in all, to 250, and the girls to 163.

Mr. Cuthbert having held a pastoral charge for many years in a large town in Ireland, before he devoted himself to Missionary work, and having also been Secretary of a Diocesan Board of Education, was well qualified for forming an estimate of this branch of Missionary work. His testimony is the following, April 27, 1846—

I have seen a good deal of school-children in Europe; yet I have little doubt that those youthful Asiatics, born amidst the most debasing ignorance, superstition, and wickedness, inherited from unnumbered ages, would be found fully equal, in intellectual quickness, and capacity to acquire all ordinary branches of knowledge, to a similar number of young persons in any School in England or Ireland.

Mr. Krauss reports, respecting the School under his charge at Kabastanga, which is one of the largest—

The boys have, generally speaking, prosecuted their studies in a satisfactory manner; and while a few of the more promising are looking forward to their being engaged as Teachers, many others have come forward of their own accord to learn some trade; and others, again, when able to read and write, intend going back to their plough: so that, by the blessing of God, all may in time prove useful members of society according to the gifts and graces vouchsafed to them.

Recommendations of the Bishop of Madras for strengthening the Mission.

The Bishop of Madras earnestly presses upon the Society two measures: first, the increase of Missionary Labourers.

A large Native Congregation cannot be safely trusted for a day without a resident Clergyman; and especially in Northern India, where the Catechists and Readers are evidently very inferior to those we have in the South. The Krishnaghur District absolutely needs ten Missionaries, two for Krishnaghur itself, and two for each of its four Country Stations. I consider Krishnaghur the nucleus of Christianity for the Natives of Bengal; and it is of the utmost importance that the Missionary labours here of the Church be kept up in full efficiency.

The second point urged upon the Society by the Bishop is the improvement of the Native Agency by the establishment of an Institution for training Native Catechists. It is thus stated—

The list of Catechists, Readers, and Schoolmasters, is very small; and at present the Missionaries have no means ready to their hand for enlarging it. I would most earnestly, then, recommend the Church Missionary Society to found within their district a Seminary or Training-school, with the express view of bringing up a set of men able to teach others also, similar to that at Palamcottah [in South India].

BENARES.

General View—Erection of a Church—Remark of a Heathen Landholder.

The history of modern Missions affords many proofs that Christianity will more easily take root in rural districts, among the simple and unlettered Natives, than in the midst of the haughty disputers of this world. From hence it might be inferred that no spot in India could be named more unpromising for Missionary labours than Benares, the city of Brahmins, renowned above every other for the wealth, and learning, and devotion of its idolatrous inhabitants. It has been, therefore, no mean triumph for the Gospel, that in such a place Christian Teachers have been enabled to maintain their ground, and to conciliate universal respect—have been allowed to give an education, upon Christian principles, to a large number of Hindoo youths of the best families—and to spread abroad a knowledge of Christian truth, the results of which can only be ascertained after many days. But, beyond the triumph already described, another step has been gained during the last year. A Mission Church, spacious, and striking in its appearance, has been completed, and opened for Divine Service; and a Christian Village, already numbering 28 houses, and a Christian population of 280 souls, has gathered around it—a witness for the Lord's name and truth which shall never, we trust, be removed—an earnest of many future Houses of the Lord, in which He shall be alone exalted as the Prophet, the Priest, and the King of His Church.

It is not a little remarkable, and it may be regarded as a token of future success, that a Heathen Zemindar reproved the Hindoo who had sold to the Missionaries the land for the Christian Village, in these terms—"See the mischief you have done. These people had first only two bungalows for themselves; then they erected an Institution; after that a village; again they build a Church; now they take in a field adjoining their Church; next they will make a road across the tank, and will take in all the ground between the two roads, and build houses. Thus they spread to the east and west, north and south, until finally all India will belong to them and to their people. If you had not given (rented) them the ground for the village, they could not have erected one, and could not have spread; but now there is no keeping them in." The Rev. C. B. Leupolt adds—

May this prove true! May our village become an Isáí Gunje, a village or TREASURE of Christians! and may the number of Christians and Christian houses augment, till they fill the length and breadth of the land!

The Rev. Messrs. Smith, Leupolt, Sandberg, and Hechler, with Mr. J. Mackay, have continued to prosecute their labours at this Station during the last year.

Christian Village—Communicants—Adult Baptisms.

The conduct of the people in the Christian Village is reported as satisfactory. The number of Communicants is 46. Two adult baptisms have taken place during the year: the one a young man from Ghazeepore, who, both before and after baptism, had to endure severe and unrelenting persecution from his relations, and bodily injuries, from which the interference of the magistrate was required to rescue him, and whose wife ultimately separated from him; and the other a Bengalee, a high-caste Brahmin, who seemed to be in earnest about the salvation of his soul.

Preaching to the Heathen.

The Missionaries have continued, together with the Native Catechists, to preach in the four Chapels and other Preaching-places in the city; and during the cold season Mr. Smith visited nearly the whole of the Benares District. Mr. Smith makes the following striking and touching remarks upon this part of their work—

I have very little to say in addition to what I have stated in past years. I have, through God's grace, been going on just as stated in former Reports; but I feel deeply concerned that one year after another should pass away without our endeavours yielding any visible fruit. I have often desired that a number of COMPETENT men should examine into the state of things as regards our work in and about Benares, and then pronounce whether the work ought, in their opinion, to be any longer continued—I mean the direct work of preaching: the SCHOOLS, so long as properly managed, are, humanly speaking, sure to succeed. But, as there is no probability of this being done, I comfort myself with the feeling, that, if I were to leave the work to-morrow, I would strongly advise the Church Missionary Society, from what I know of the people, and from my persuasion of the impression God has made upon them, to CONTINUE THE WORK, but to INCREASE THE NUMBER OF WORKMEN. One great benefit of having more men would be, that we should then have more time for the blessed and encouraging duty of social prayer.

Education.

The Orphan Institution contains 60 boys. The head class, consisting of Monitors, study with the Missionaries Horne's Introduction to the Scriptures and the Greek Testament. The number of girls is 65, of whom Mrs. Smith reports—“Every thing has gone on smoothly, and much more to our satisfaction than our most sanguine hopes could have anticipated.”

Jay Narain's College and Free-school has been under the care of the Rev. P. L. Sandberg during the year, assisted by Mr. Mackay. The number of students at the close of the year was 310. The baptism of one of the Brahmin pupils had for a time reduced the number; but it was soon raised again. Mr. Mackay reports—

Every thing has gone on with regularity and energy, and generally to our satisfaction. The spirit manifested by our boys is very encouraging: even when taunted about attending a Christian School they stand their ground, and sometimes bring their companions for admission.

This Institution was visited in January 1846 by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Upper Provinces, the Hon. James Thomason. The report of his visit has only been transmitted to the Committee during the last year. “Having viewed the noble building," Mr. Sandberg writes, "and the animated scene which an assembly of 360 boys presented, he expressed himself delighted, and immediately commenced examining the boys of the first class in Euclid, Abercrombie on the Mind, and Bible History. To most of the questions the boys gave satisfactory answers." The Lieutenant-Governor was accompanied by a large party of European visitors, and "all expressed their high satisfaction with the boys."

CHUNAR.

The Rev. R. Richards continues to reside at this Station; but the state of his health only admits of his superintending the Native Catechist and Schools. There are 86 children under instruction, and one woman has been baptized during the year.

JAUNPORE.

The Rev. R. Hawes has remained at this Station, assisted by Mr. J. P. Cæsar. Mr. Hawes was obliged, in the early part of the year, to bring Mrs. Hawes, on account of the failure of her health, to Calcutta, on her way to England; but, as there was no one to take his place at Jaunpore, he returned to his Missionary duties at his Station, while his wife came to this country.

Christian Congregation—Preaching to the Heathen.

At this Station there is a small Hindoostanee Congregation, numbering 20 persons. Mr. Hawes and his Catechists also avail themselves of every opportunity of preaching to the Heathen and distributing Tracts; but no addition has been made to the Christian Church during the last year.

Education.

Mr. J. P. Cæsar is specially charged with the Educational Department of the Mission, which consists of a Free-school for the Heathen in the town of Jaunpore, in which instruction is given in Persian, Hindee, and English, and scriptural truth is inculcated. During the past year there has been an increase of above one-third in the number of scholars, who now amount to 121.

There are also three branch vernacular Schools at towns in the neighbourhood of Jaunpore—Badshahpore, Zufferabad, and Furridabad. The latter is twenty-five miles from the Station, and has been built at the private cost of a benevolent individual. These Schools are all visited regularly by Mr. Cæsar, and occasionally by Mr. Hawes; and they serve to diffuse some elementary knowledge of the truth, as well as to afford places for preaching to the Heathen.

Need of an additional Missionary.

The Committee cannot close this account of Jaunpore without expressing their regret that they have not been able to assign to the Station another Missionary, who, by his counsel and his prayers, might at once strengthen the hands of the solitary Missionary, and enlarge the cast of the Gospel net. Mr. Hawes writes, in a sermon lately addressed to his Brethren assembled at their Missionary conference—

Living in the midst of a people proverbial for their death-like listlessness, how often have we discovered ourselves flagging in our arduous race, and needing the counsel of a Christian brother to cheer us on to renewed exertions.

GORRUCKPORE.

General View—Strengthening of this Station—Interest of European Residents.

The Rev. J. P. Mengé continues at this Station, dividing his time between the several branches of labour—namely, the spiritual superintendence of the Native Christians at the Farm, and of the Orphan Girls' School at the Station, and preaching to the Heathen in the town and neighbouring villages. Mr. Mengé speaks of some religious improvement being perceptible in the Native Christians, where formerly listlessness and apathy prevailed. The Committee have the satisfaction of saying, that they have now sent a Catechist, and Candidate for Holy Orders, Mr. Acheson, to direct his special attention to the Christians at the Farm. He will reside in the nearest locality to the Farm which the health of Europeans will allow.

The resident Collector of this district, and some other Christian friends, have evinced a very warm interest in Missionary operations. They have set on foot the English School alluded to in the last Report, to which the Society contributes a fixed annual grant, and have engaged the services of a competent English Schoolmaster, of a truly Missionary character, to superintend it; and they are now exerting themselves to build a Parsonage for the residence of the Missionary who shall superintend the Farm, without cost to the Society.

AGRA.

The Rev. C. G. Pfander has been absent from this Station during the past year, in consequence of the delicate state of Mrs. Pfander's health, which made it necessary that she should proceed to Simla for a time, whither Mr. Pfander accompanied her. His time, however, has not by any means been lost to the cause of Missions during this period, though he has been absent from his ordinary sphere of duty, as his retirement at Simla afforded him the opportunity of completing an answer to a Mussulman work against Christianity, and in favour of Mahomedanism, issued from the Lucknow Press, which he had previously been unable to accomplish from want of leisure.

The duties of the Agra Mission have therefore been carried on by the Rev. C. T. Hærnle and the Rev. F. E. Schneider.

Christian Congregations—Orphan Institution.

There are two Christian Congregations, one at Secundra, the other in the Kuttra, in the city. In each case there has been some increase: in the former, by the addition of twelve Christian families, through the marriage of the elder pupils of the Orphan Schools, and in the latter case by the baptism of eight adults.

The Orphan Institution contains 77 boys, being 22 less than last year, and 35 girls, being 20 less than last year. The conduct of these children has been, on the whole, satisfactory.

Preaching to the Heathen.

The Missionaries have visited the towns and villages in the country around Agra in their occasional journeys; and Catechists have been daily so employed, for the purpose of making known the truths of revelation, and distributing the Holy Scriptures and religious Tracts. They speak of the increased hopes and encouragements which they receive from their conversations and discussions, both with Hindoos and Mussulmans.

MEERUT.

Appointment of a Missionary to this Station.

The Committee have, in two former Reports, expressed their deep regret that it was out of their power to send a Missionary to this Station; and they have appealed to the Clergy of the Church at home to offer themselves for the supply of this and other Stations remaining from year to year unoccupied through the want of Labourers. They are thankful now to report that their appeals have not been in vain. The Rev. R. M. Lamb, M.A., Trinity College, Cambridge, who was born in the neighbourhood of Meerut, and was baptized by Henry Martyn, resigned an Incumbency in this country to become a Missionary at Meerut. The Committee have just heard of his arrival at his Station.

Appeal for Prayer on behalf of this Mission.

Upon the close of this review of the North-India Mission, the Committee are constrained to recur to the sentiments with which they entered upon it—sentiments which have been repeated in former years, and which they will now express in the words of two of the North-India Missionaries. Mr. Hawes writes—

To wait for God's own time, while we still labour and pray, is emphatically the work of faith, and this is the work to which we are now called in this part of India.

Mr. Smith of Benares, who, by his length and variety of services, may well be styled in labours more abundant, writes—

We have this season visited from 450 to 500 towns and villages, chiefly in the Benares District; and have met with some encouragement, but more discouragement. The fact is, the work is yet scarcely begun. The battle has yet to be fought. We have not one-tenth the number of men we ought to have; and we, who are endeavouring to do something, have not one-tenth the faith and love we ought to have.

Earnestly, therefore, would the Committee commend the Missionary Labourers in North India, and their work, to the sympathies and prayers of the Church.*

Interruptions to the Missionary Work—Schools—Wayside Preaching.

THE Rev. J. D. Prochnow and the Rev. M. Wilkinson have resided at Kotghur and Simla respectively. The situation of Kotghur has proved unsuitable to the health of Mr. Wilkinson. The proximity of Kotghur, which is situated on the banks of the Sutlej, to the country of the Sikhs, caused much interruption, during the progress of the late war in the Punjab, to the Missionary labours at this Station. For a time, both the Missionaries were obliged to reside at Simla; but during the latter part of the year the Missionary duties at Kotghur have been pursued without interruption. A School has been established at Kepu, between Kotghur and Rampore, which will form another step in the extension of the Mission toward Thibet; and a School-house, which will also serve as a dwelling-house, has been built, and a School commenced, at Theog, half-way between Kotghur and Simla. It is Mr. Wilkinson's intention to visit it as frequently as he can, and occasionally to reside there for a week or a fortnight. Thus a little chain of Christian Stations has been established along the great line of passage from Tartary into India; affording instruction to the inhabitants, as well as constant opportunities of preaching the Gospel and distributing Tracts to the numerous travellers who daily pass each way.

* Further accounts of the Calcutta and North-India Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for May 1846, pp. 100—111; June 1846, pp. 121—123; and November 1846, pp. 241—256.

The task of itinerating in the neighbourhood of the Stations, and occasionally visiting places at a distance, is absolutely necessary in order to reach the adult population of the Hills, and occupies the greater part of the Missionaries' time. Mr. Prochnow is the chief Labourer in this respect, the physical exertion necessary, from the nature of the country, being frequently too much for Mr. Wilkinson to endure. At the end of September Mr. Prochnow writes—

No day has passed without the Word of God being proclaimed to a larger or smaller Congregation. I cannot speak of any conversion as yet; but I am thankful to say that I often see an impression made on the hearts of the Heathen: some of those near me, who hear the Word daily, have, I think, very serious impressions.

KOTGHIUR.

Services, &c.

At this Station Mr. Prochnow has endeavoured to keep up a Boys' and Girls' School; but having no regular Teachers, and being frequently absent, they are necessarily on a small and imperfect scale. In his Report for the quarter ending June 1846 he writes—

Every day, when I have been at home, we have had Family Service. The boys and girls of the Schools, and all my servants, have attended regularly, and frequently many people from the adjacent villages: sometimes, also, travellers from a distance have dropped in and listened. I have explained all the Parables, the Sermon on the Mount, and the history of Christ's death and resurrection; and have now begun the Gospel of St. John. Beside exposition of the Word of God, we have singing, in which all the boys and girls join, and prayer.

Six months later Mr. Prochnow reports—

On the Lord's-day an early Morning Service has been held in Hinduwee, at which all the boys and girls, as well as all our servants, are present, and sometimes their parents from the next villages. At Christmas I had Congregations of 120 and more. At noon of the Lord's-day, English Service is held: the Schoolmaster and his wife, and the Schoolmistress of the Girls' School, regularly attend.

SIMLA.

Opportunities of Preaching the Gospel.

In his Report for the quarter ending June, Mr. Wilkinson remarks—

With reference to the intercourse I have had with the people, I have felt at times somewhat encouraged. Notwithstanding the general ignorance that prevails among them—all classes—yet they lend a willing ear. A great drawback is, their being unable to read at all.

Three months later Mr. Wilkinson writes—

Between Simla and Theog there are several good preaching-places. Although there is not a large accessible population, the road is much traversed, and at the several bazaars the travellers always halt, few or more. The Banyans are Sakêt people, and are intelligent. These, as they revisit their homes annually, may possibly carry with them a knowledge of Christ as the Saviour of men. On my last visit I certainly did not meet with fewer than 1000 persons. In itinerating, when I travel in a chepan I take opportunities of reading aloud to my chepanees: travellers join, and I have a walking congregation.

Schools.

Mr. Wilkinson, upon his first residence at Simla, established three Schools; but some difficulties arising in the management of those at a distance from his residence, first one of them, and then a second, was given up. In a Letter dated January 14th, 1847, he writes—

The two Schools at Simla are merged into one at my own residence. A School-house has been built, and also a dwelling-house. This is decidedly an advantage, especially as the location is far away from the bazaar, and very retired. I have usually had from 10 to 12 boarders: there are now 16. All support themselves, and are under my own immediate charge, assisted by a youth brought up in the Kotghur School, and who was some time employed therein as a Monitor. Those who can read and understand attend Daily Worship and Lord's-day Service. To this no objection has been made, and it is now even coveted.

Distribution of Tracts.

The Missionaries, in their journeys and at their Stations, avail themselves of every opportunity of distributing Tracts among those who are able to read : and some testimonies have been given which encourage the hope that the seeds of Divine Truth thus dispersed abroad may, in some instances, take root and spring up. The Journals of the Missionaries record occasional evidence to this effect. Mr. Prochnow writes, in his Report for the quarter ending March 1846—

On the road between Simla and Kotghur we met a wandering Lama, from Chinese Tartary, who had one of the Thibetian Tracts printed in Calcutta. On my asking him where he had received it, he told me that a travelling Zemindar had left it with him, telling him that a Sahib had distributed many of them at the Rampore fair last year. So we see that these little messengers of truth find their way into the Celestial Empire, although no European is permitted to pass their boundary.

Future Management of this Mission.

At the close of last year, the Committee received information of the dissolution of the Himalaya Corresponding Committee, owing to the removal of the Members who had composed it to other Stations. It was recommended, also, that the Himalaya Stations should be placed under the direction of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee until another Corresponding Committee can be formed at Agra for the Missions of the North-west Provinces. This arrangement has been sanctioned by the Parent Committee.*

local superintendence of a Corresponding Committee at Madras, consisting of able and most valued friends, whose attachment to the Society is founded upon their love to the cause of Christ, and their regard for the principles upon which the Society strives to promote that blessed cause.

The Rev. John Tucker, B.D., Fellow of Corpus-Christi College, Oxford, after having for fourteen years conducted the business of that Committee as its Secretary, has been compelled, by the state of his health, to relinquish this office, and to return to Europe. The Committee cannot record this event without expressing their unfeigned gratitude to God, who for so long a period enabled Mr. Tucker to discharge the varied and arduous duties of his office in a way to conciliate the respect of all classes, to secure the confidence and affection of the Missionaries, and to establish the operations of the Society upon the surest Christian principles.

The Committee regard it as a providential circumstance, of great importance, that the Rev. T. G. Ragland, M.A., Fellow of Corpus-Christi College, Cambridge, was already a Missionary in India, with the view of assisting Mr. Tucker, and had visited Tinnevely and Travancore, and made much progress in the Tamul language, before he was thus unexpectedly called upon to supply Mr. Tucker's place, and to direct the operations of the Society, as the Committee confidently trust, in the very same spirit, and upon the same principles, as his predecessor in office.

MADRAS.

The Institution.

This Institution, under the superintendence of the Rev. J. H. Gray, B.A., has well fulfilled the design of its establishment; namely, the preparation of Candidates for Holy Orders, whether Natives or East Indians. During the past year, nine Students have, at different times, resided in it. Six were resident at the close of the year; of whom four, two being Natives, had been accepted as Candidates for Holy Orders at the next Ordination of the Bishop of Madras, and two were to go out as Catechists. The studies have been, Greek, Latin, and Hebrew, Theology, General History, and Mathematics. The Principal speaks of the state of the Institution as having afforded greater satisfaction than during any previous period. But, there being no immediate prospect of a sufficient supply of fresh pupils, it has been determined to suspend the Institution for two years. At the close of that period, the Deacons to be now ordained will, in the usual course, return to study for Priests' Orders, having in the interval performed the office of a Deacon in the Missions. Other pupils, it is also hoped, may be then added, and the course of the Institution be resumed.

Among the causes to be assigned for the failure of a supply of fresh pupils, are some which cannot be regarded with regret; namely, the increased efficiency of the Cottayam College—so that the advanced Students will henceforth remain there till the time for Ordination—and also the establishment of an Institution in Tinnevelly for the Candidates who may offer in that Christian community.

Failure of the Rev. J. J. H. Elouis's Health—Promising Opening for Usefulness—Temporary Appointment of the Rev. J. Bilderbeck.

Failure of health obliged Mr. Elouis to try the effect of a change of air, and he went in the month of March 1846 to the Cape of Good Hope, whence he had not returned at the close of the year.

Before his departure, Mr. Elouis had succeeded, after many disappointments, in hiring a piece of ground, for the erection of a large temporary School-room, in the midst of the Settlers from Tinnevelly, and from various places of South India, who had located themselves outside the city boundaries to the northward. Some of the Settlers had been under Christian instruction in Tinnevelly. A Reader was employed among these people; but while the management of this, and of the other branches of the Madras Mission, was conducted solely by Native Catechists, without a resident Missionary, much progress could not be expected.

At the close of the year the Rev. J. Bilderbeck arrived in Madras, after a visit to England, and offered his services, as a temporary supply, for the Madras Mission, which were gladly accepted. He writes, in a Letter dated Nov. 14, 1846—

I am greatly pleased with the Tinnevelly Settlement. The Lord has, I believe, already opened a wide door there for us. I shall never be satisfied till we gain a permanent establishment there.

TINNEVELLY.

Decrease of Natives under Christian Instruction—Increase of Baptized Converts.

The last Report announced an increase in the list of persons under Christian instruction, including the unbaptized, of 6850. This year exhibits a decrease of 3213; many unbaptized inquirers having drawn back, under the terrors of persecution, and the Missionaries having felt compelled themselves to remove many from the lists, who would not submit to Christian discipline, or who gave no evidence of a sincere desire to become Christians in deed and in truth.

The number of Baptized Converts, however, has been steadily increasing. The returns for the three last half-years were the following — Dec. 1845, 10,558; June 1846, 10,907; Dec. 1846, 11,476. These numbers exhibit a solid proof of the progress of Christianity in Tinnevelly.

Results of the late Persecutions—Relapse in some of the Districts—Cheering Indications.

The violent outbreaks of heathen rage against Christianity, to which allusion has been made, and of which an account was given in the last Report, have led to more important results than were at first anticipated. The chief instigators and leaders of the outrages against the Christians escaped to Madras, and for a time eluded the warrants of the magistrate which were issued against them. It soon became evident that the Tinnevelly persecutions had been abetted by parties at a distance, and that the criminals would obtain from the same quarters every assistance in their defence of which their cause was capable. The Christian witnesses were subjected to severe cross-examinations, and much evidence was brought forward in the hope of proving that the Christians were the first aggressors. The attempt, however, failed; and after sentence had been given against them by heathen officers in the Local Courts, and by the provincial judge, the proceedings were brought under the review of a Supreme Court in Madras. Thus the case obtained notoriety. The cause of the heathen criminals was espoused by some of the local newspapers, and by a large meeting of influential Natives: but truth and justice at length triumphed; and though most of the criminals escaped, some were severely punished. During the progress of these events, the character of the Native Christians of Tinnevelly, and the proceedings of the Missionaries labouring among them, were severely assailed, both by Natives and by some who bore the Christian name among the Europeans.

The whole body of Missionaries connected with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel and the Church Missionary Society, eighteen in number, who were labouring in Tinnevelly at the time of the outbreaks, felt compelled to make a joint and public vindication of themselves, and to give a correct view of the origin of the disturbances. In this statement they reply, in answer to a charge which had been made against them of advocating the use of compulsory means for making converts to Christianity—

We repudiate the use of all such means ourselves, and deprecate the adoption of them on the part of Government; both as being alien to the spirit of Christianity, and utterly useless in effecting the object we have in view. We ask nothing for ourselves and our Converts but protection of person and property, and redress from the constituted authorities of the country when injuries have been sustained.

And in the conclusion of this document they state—

Although we have furnished the foregoing statement in refutation of the accusations preferred against us, we do not feel either surprised or concerned that they have been made. Such trials must necessarily arise from the position which we occupy as Christian Missionaries in a heathen land, whose avowed object it is to reclaim men from ignorance and idolatry to the knowledge and worship of Almighty God; and especially when any measure of success, through His blessing, has followed our labours. It can never be expected, that those who remain firmly attached to Hindooism will quietly bear to see persons renounce their religion and embrace Christianity; or that they will scruple, under the influence of excited feelings, to resort to misrepresentation and abuse, and even to acts of violence. Our success, however, is no fault: we labour with the view of succeeding; and if our labours are tolerated, any measure of success which may follow must be tolerated also. Hindoos must either be prevented from embracing Christianity, or protected in the profession of it. The only matter of surprise is, that any of our own countrymen should so far sympathize with the Heathen as to believe their statements without evidence, when they impute unconstitutional and flagitious conduct to a body of men, whose profession itself ought to secure them against unreasonable prejudice and improbable aspersions. We ask, however, no favourable assumptions on this ground: we are prepared for an authorized investigation of facts.

The Committee, also, are desirous that the Missionary proceedings in this and every other field occupied by the Society should be searchingly investigated. Defects may be thus discovered; the weaknesses of spiritual infancy may be revealed; but, convinced that their Missionaries are men of God, and the honoured instruments of carrying on the work of God, they are persuaded that, upon the whole, the investigation will redound to His glory, and that the prayers and sympathy of His faithful people will be the more engaged in their behalf. Moreover, seasons of persecution and reproach are very useful in communities of recent Converts. They prove sifting times—they drive away much of the chaff—they exercise and strengthen the faith, patience, and charity of the godly.

The immense falling away from Christianity, in consequence of the troubles occasioned by the unjust release of the prisoners, and by the exclusion of many from the Church on account of wickedness, and of their refusing to conform to our rules in marriages, &c., have reduced the number of Christians in the [new] Congregations to a third of what it was before the outbreak; and it may become still more reduced, for there are still evidently many unworthy professors in the Congregations. Still, favourable indications lead me to believe, that, whatever fluctuations may take place, Christianity has broken through, and, with the help of God, will keep its ground in those parts for ever. Many others of the new inquirers have subscribed most cheerfully and liberally for the erection of Churches. Some evidently learn the Word of God with pleasure, and manifest great desire for baptism, and great detestation of idolatry and other things connected with Heathenism.

It appears that, even in the midst of the disturbed District, during the last year, five new Churches were erected by the contributions of the Native Christians. At the opening of one of these Churches, capable of holding 350 people, a large assembly took place, both of Christians and of Heathen of the surrounding district. All were interested in listening to the Service in the Church, and afterward to addresses delivered by the Missionaries present, and by some of the Native Catechists. One of the latter, in his address, thus exhorted his countrymen—"As Churches will be of no real avail, unless the Word of God be preached in them in its purity, and the Holy Spirit give efficiency to the same, to the awakening, justifying, and sanctifying of sinners, let us earnestly pray to the Lord that He may graciously bestow His Spirit, both on the preachers and hearers of His Word, whenever assembled in these Churches."

Mr. Schaffter also writes, in the Letter just mentioned—

Notwithstanding the great number, there was not the least confusion: perfect order and silence prevailed, and every one seemed anxious to collect every word that fell from the lips of the speakers. Soon after the Meeting, several Heathen came, and expressed, in an apparently open manner, the satisfaction they felt at what they had seen and heard. Among them were a few bitter enemies to Christianity, who, during the outbreak, had been very zealous in spoiling the houses of their Christian relatives. We exchanged a few friendly expressions, and parted with as kind feelings as could be expected under existing circumstances. I hope that this Meeting will have produced some good effect, both on the Christians and Heathen, and will have served, in a measure, to remove old hatred, and to promote better feelings between them, at least for a time.

In another District, Panneivilei, the Rev. J. T. Tucker reports the relapse, in the time of persecution, of no less a number than 230 individuals, many of whom had been under Christian instruction for above twenty-one years; but in the course of another six months, in that one District alone, above 400 persons renounced Heathenism and sought Christian instruction; and the greater part of those who had relapsed from their profession manifested an earnest desire to be re-admitted into the Christian Congregation. The Missionaries exercise, most properly, great caution in receiving back those who have once departed from their profession—indeed, they for the most part become hardened above measure—but, in the case alluded to, nine families were received back upon making an open confession of their sin. The stone idol to which these backsliders had, during their relapse, offered sacrifice, was brought by them, and made a step at the entrance of the Church, as is the case in several other Churches in Tinnevely, “so that they must now tread upon their degraded idol every time they enter the House of God.”

Erection of Churches.

Great interest has been exhibited, in all the Districts, in the erection of substantial, and, in some cases, of handsome Churches, by means of the Native Church-building Societies established in each District.

The Rev. G. Pettitt, in describing the opening of a new Church at Alvarneri, in his District, writes in his Journal, Oct. 21, 1846—

The joy of the people at seeing so nice a Church in their village is very great; and I am persuaded that the moral effect upon them and their heathen neighbours will be very salutary.

The Rev. J. Thomas reports the progress of a new Church at Meignanapooram, to accommodate 1000 persons, to which the Native Christians have contributed 150*l*. He writes, in his Report for the year ending Dec. 31, 1845—

So large a sum contributed by the Native Christians toward such an object is important, as tending to show that Christianity is not a mere nominal thing among them, but that in which they feel the liveliest interest.

In the same Report, after describing the excessive idolatry of Trichendoor, in his district, Mr. Thomas writes—

Turning now to the Christian Congregations under my care, how different the scene! even as it is represented in Scripture, as different as light is from darkness. The number of people under Christian instruction is now [in the Meignanapooram District] 5000; all enjoying the light of the Gospel, and among them a goodly number who have an experimental knowledge of the power of Divine Truth on their hearts, and who, I am convinced, esteem the religious privileges which they enjoy above all things else. I do not mean to say as much of all: it would be preposterous to expect such a state of things now: but I mean to say, that there is among our people a goodly company of those who have all the apparent characteristics of the called, and chosen, and faithful.

State of the Congregations.

The accounts furnished by the Missionaries of the advance of real piety in their Congregations are satisfactory. As an instance, we may quote the words of the Rev. John Deva-sagayam, himself a Native Priest, and the father of one just about to be admitted to Holy Orders at Madras. Of the state of the Kadatchapooram District he thus writes, in his Report for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1845—

The number of baptisms performed by me during the last five months is 170, 93 being adult baptisms. Although the knowledge of many of the adults was defective, they were carefully instructed as to real repentance and faith in Jesus. A good number of them, I feel assured, valued the ordinance, and, with a sense of their lost state, sincerely sought the salvation of their souls from Jesus, the only Saviour of sinners. Their subsequent conduct has confirmed my good opinion of them. The number in every month who partake of the Lord's Supper has been from 150 to 200; and a Christian beholder will, I am sure, gladly say, that surely the Lord was with us. It is indeed gratifying to see several old people walking to Kadatchapooram very early on Communion Sundays, from their villages about three or four miles distant, to attend the Morning Prayers at six o'clock.

He expresses his own feelings, in the discharge of his Missionary office, in the following terms—

Dec. 21, 1845—My duty of preaching to about 1000 souls almost every Lord's-day makes me not only very thankful, but to humble myself before the Lord with a sense of my responsibility and poverty. I implore the fulfilment of His promises in Joel iii. 1, 2—Behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, I will also gather all nations—a text well learnt by our people, and put in mind frequently on Lord's-day mornings. We see also, in a number of instances, that He graciously answers our prayers. It is no small consolation to me that I see in a greater number of my people in this year that they are real children of God: consequently, the Communion Sunday is a day of great enjoyment to me.

Number of Communicants.

The number of Communicants throughout the Tinnevelly Mission has been steadily increasing, as in the case of Baptized Converts. The returns for the last three half-years have been the following—Dec. 1845, 1872; June 1846, 2917; Dec. 1846, 2352.

Conduct of Tinnevelly Emigrants.

It is a pleasing fact that some, at least, of the Converts in Tinnevelly, even when they are removed from their stated pastors, and emigrate, in company with their heathen countrymen, to distant parts, are careful to maintain their Christian profession, and to exert themselves for the good of others.

The case of the emigrants to Madras has been already noticed.

Another interesting fact is recorded in the case of some who emigrated to Ceylon. Mr. Devasagayam writes, in his Report previously quoted—

Numbers of Christians, who have lately returned from Ceylon, speak highly of the death of a young man called Nallatamby, a Communicant, and member of my Bible Class. His services and example were greatly blessed to a number of our Christians who were employed in the coffee plantations at Kandy. He endeavoured to collect them on Lord's-days especially, and read the Holy Scriptures and prayed with them, both in the morning and evening: he also did much good by useful and edifying conversations with the people. The number usually attending his Lord's-day Services was about 100 men, from the Missions of both Societies in Tinnevelly.

Missionary Labourers.

The Missionary Labourers have been strengthened in Tinnevelly, during the last year, by the addition of one Clergyman and two European Agents.

Head Seminary—Institution.

The system of education is now complete for the preparation, under the Divine blessing, of a Native Ministry. Most of the Stations, eleven in number, have their Boarding-schools, into which promising youths from the numerous Village Day-schools may be brought and trained under the eye and fostering influence of the Missionary. A HEAD SEMINARY has been long established at Palamcottah—to which the whole time of one Missionary is devoted, with suitable assistance—into which the most promising youths from the District Seminaries are transferred, to receive a more extended education. To complete the system, an INSTITUTION, also under the charge of a Missionary, has been opened during the last year, into which Catechists and the most advanced pupils of the Head Seminary will be removed, to receive special theological instruction and training to prepare them for the work of teaching their countrymen.

By the last Returns, the Head Seminary contained 48 pupils. During the last year it was under the charge of the Rev. Sept. Hobbs: it has been now placed, as a temporary measure, under the charge of the Rev. R. L. Allnutt.

The Institution has been opened with six young men, of approved character, abilities, and experience as Catechists, who will now devote their whole attention to their own scriptural studies, under the care of the Rev. E. Sargent, during the absence of the Rev. G. Pettitt, who has been appointed to the office of Principal of the Institution.

Normal Female School.

Concurrently with these plans of education for the male

Converts, the foundation of a greatly-improved system of female education has been laid by the establishment of a NORMAL FEMALE SCHOOL at Kadatchapooram, under Miss Giberne, which already contains twenty-two pupils. An examination of this Institution took place at the close of last year, in the presence of several of the Missionaries, the report of which is contained in a Letter from the Rev. J. Thomas, dated Dec. 11. He writes—

We proceeded to examine the first class, in which there are eight young women, from fourteen to eighteen years of age. Their reading was admirable: indeed, it is impossible to speak in too high terms of the intelligence of these girls. Some of them gave us a specimen of their powers in teaching: they had a class of the youngest girls brought into the room, and explained to them a picture representing some important events mentioned in the Scriptures, and questioned them in every part of the history. Of the many means which are now adopted with a view of meliorating the condition of our Converts from heathenism, Female Education assuredly is one of the most important.

Establishment of a Printing Press—Tinnevelly Tamul Book Society.

In addition to these means of education, the Committee have, during the last year, established a PRINTING PRESS in Tinnevelly, over which they have placed Mr. M. Weiss, late Superintendent of the Society's Printing Establishment in Malta. The Committee conceive that, as a general rule, it is inexpedient to possess Printing Establishments; but the peculiar circumstances of the Mission in Tinnevelly seemed to the Committee to form an exception, as there exists an urgent call for an immediate supply of books for the many thousands under Christian Instruction, and the distance of Madras has rendered the carrying a work through the presses at that place a very tedious process.

The Tinnevelly Tamul Book Society, during the last year, printed an edition of 10,000 copies of the revised Tamul Book of Common Prayer.

The revision of the Prayer Book was undertaken with the sanction of the Bishop of Madras. It was not accomplished without much personal inconvenience to the Missionaries, who assembled together every month, with some interruptions, for the space of four years, nor without much toil and care on the part of all, especially of those who undertook the labour of preparatory revision. But the result has been an ample repayment. It is stated in the Book Society's Report, read at the Annual Meeting, Jan. 7, 1846—

Not only are the numerous Churches, but also a greater number of the members of each of the Congregations, who are able to read, supplied with copies. It is no small gratification, to those who delight in the spiritual advancement of the Native Christians, to see them proceeding to the different Churches with their books in their hands, hear them join in the responses, and believe, with reason, that there are many among them who pray with the Spirit and with the understanding also. They have now an opportunity of reading the Prayer Book in their own homes, of learning what kind of prayers they should offer, and of making greater advances in intelligence and piety.

Declaration against Caste.

The system of Caste is one so deeply affecting the spiritual prosperity of every Native-Christian Community, that it has been thought right to require a declaration against the whole system, from every Native Teacher, before he can become a Candidate for Holy Orders. This document, though drawn up for a particular purpose, expresses the views of every member of the Madras Corresponding Committee, and of every Missionary of the Society in South India, upon this important subject. It is in the following terms—

Believing the system of Hindoo Caste to be contrary to the spirit and requirements of the Gospel of Christ, injurious to the souls of those who adhere to it, and an impediment to the exercise of brotherly love among the members of Christ, and to the spread of the Gospel in this country—because it inculcates the false idea of pollution on account of birth—because it confines a man and his family for ever to the grade in which he was born, and prevents his rising into a higher class of society, whatever may be his character and merits—and because it recognises a combination of individuals assuming authority and power to hinder those who follow out the dictates of conscience, and who wish to enjoy Christian liberty in matters of marriage, food, and social intercourse—I do, on these grounds, condemn and renounce the system of Caste, and admit it to be the duty of every Christian man heartily to renounce it; and I will, with God's help, discourage it both by my words and example; and I will uphold and assist all those who exercise their Christian liberty in opposition to the system of Caste.

Appeal for Prayer and Christian Charity in behalf of Tinnevelly.

The Committee, in closing their review of the Tinnevelly Mission, would desire to guard themselves against the charge of overstating the Christian attainments of the Converts. They are fully aware of the feebleness of their general character—that they are still babes in Christ. The instances of deep and devoted piety occasionally recorded are not given as specimens of the mass, but as witnesses that the Lord is among them of a truth, as the first-fruits of a harvest yet to come.

The Committee are fully aware, also, of the reproach—often cast upon the inhabitants of Tinnevelly in South India, as upon those of Krishnaghur in the North—of being proverbially rude, even in the scale of heathen civilization. But it is surely no evidence against the work being the commencement of a new dispensation for India, that the first Converts and Preachers are to be gathered from places respecting which a guileless Nathanael may exclaim, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? They have no other reply to make than that of old, Come and see.

The Committee do not, indeed, expect the same miraculous interpositions for the advancement of the Christian cause. They look only for the blessing of God upon the ordinary means by which a Church may be built up in faith and love. They act, however, upon the hope, that the work in Tinnevelly is the commencement of a glorious enlargement of the Redeemer's kingdom—first among the million inhabitants of the Province of Tinnevelly, among whom above 40,000 Christians are scattered as the salt of the land, and afterward among the region round about. In this hope they have established their Agency in that Province upon a scale which might not otherwise have been deemed necessary; but which, in the prospect of future enlargement, will afford a lever of immense power, if the Lord shall give the blessing.

The Committee therefore commend the Tinnevelly Mission to the prayers of the Church at home. In this one field seventeen Clergymen of this Society, and five of the venerable Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, have concentrated their labours, and are all harmoniously co-operating in a great work, upon which a large measure of the Divine blessing has already descended. This, therefore, may be regarded as at once the most complete and the most promising effort put forth by the Church of England for the evangelization of India. May the Lord, whose cause it is, enable the Labourers abroad, and their supporters at home, to stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the Gospel.

TRAVANCORE.

General View.

The principal Stations occupied by the Missionaries of the Society in Travancore are five—Cottayam and Pallam, Mavelicare, and Allepie, situated within about thirty miles of each other; and Trichoor, eighty miles to the north of the rest. Each has several Out-stations connected with it. The same message of the Gospel is addressed to the inhabitants, whether Hindoos or Mahomedans, Romanists or Syrians. At each Station some progress has been made, and the Communicants have increased from 574 to 798. Among the Syrians, especially at Mavelicare, the progress of religious light has been very encouraging.

COTTAYAM.

Cottayam College—Death of the Rev. J. Johnson.

This Institution has continued to be conducted as in the past year, and the progress has been satisfactory. One Native educated at this College has been admitted as a Candidate for Holy Orders by the Bishop of Madras.

An event of a deeply-afflictive character has occurred in the death of the Rev. J. Johnson, who had acted as Tutor of the Institution with much zeal and ability, as well as with true Christian simplicity of character. His place has been supplied by Mr. Spratt, educated at the Madras Institution.

Cottayam Village.

The Rev. B. Bailey continues to perform the duties in the Church, and to superintend the Schools and Catechists connected with the Congregation. He has also the management of the Printing Press. In addition to his translations of the Scriptures and Prayer Book, he has now completed a Malayalam Dictionary, which will prove of essential service to future Missionaries in the acquisition of the language and in translations.

Cottayam District.

Upon the removal of the Rev. H. Baker, sen., to Allepie, the Cottayam District was undertaken by the Rev. J. Johnson. Upon his death, his widow, a daughter of our Missionary Mr. Baker, determined to remain at her post, and to carry on the female education on an enlarged scale, so as to form a Normal Establishment.

The Rev. H. Baker, jun., also undertook the superintendence of the Missionary labours in the District, in addition to his own, until further help can be afforded. Mr. Baker has visited it as often as his other duties would allow; and he writes, in a Letter dated July 11, 1846—

It is with no ordinary feelings that I write respecting this place. My dear Brother, the late Rev. J. Johnson, spent much of his strength in raising up the Congregation, and, had it pleased God to spare his life, I doubt not his labours would have been abundantly blessed. I have visited the Schools, and found the children well taught as far as they have learned. Two of the Readers in this District are most efficient men, having been many years in the Mission Service; and I hope, by their assistance, and with God's blessing, to continue progressing. They teach the Congregation, and occasionally go out to read the Scriptures.

PALLAM DISTRICT.

General Progress.

This District has continued under the charge of the Rev. H. Baker, jun. Much opposition has been manifested by the Roman Catholics and the Heathen; but yet the progress of the truth is encouraging. Mr. Baker writes, in the Letter just quoted—

You will observe that we are steadily increasing in numbers, and some of my people, I hope, in faith and Christian experience. There are in the Pallam District four regular Congregations, viz. Pallam, Collatta, Vellatoorthe, and Changnacherry. There is a Reader at each of these places to instruct and catechize the adults, and Schoolmasters in charge of the children. The Members of the Church of England in it amount to 395, and the children in the Schools to 398.

At a later date, Oct. 9, 1846, Mr. Baker is able to report still further progress, in the commencement of a new Station at Ericarte, and increase in the number of Scholars, who amounted to 450. He writes—

The Readers continue to teach the people in their houses, and many of the Pallam Congregation attend our Family Prayer. At Collatta, many who were cold-hearted have become active. Many families express a willingness to join us. I conclude, trusting that as of old the messengers of the Gospel prevailed through the prayers of the Church made for them continually, so we may find the prayers of our friends prevail much in our behalf.

MAVELICARE.

This Mission, since the departure of the Rev. J. Peet at the close of the year 1845, has been under the care of the Rev. J. Hawksworth, assisted by the Native Missionary, the Rev. G. Matthan.

General View.

In his Report for the half-year ending June 30, 1846, Mr. Hawksworth states the Mission to consist of six different Congregations, viz. Mavelicare, Mallapalli, Puwatoor, Chenganore, Kodawalanya, and Thalawadie, the most distant being 24 miles apart. In three of these there are substantial Churches, and they comprise in all 225 families who have joined the Church of England. Mr. Hawksworth writes—

In each of these Stations the Gospel is preached Sabbath after Sabbath, and attentively listened to. The admirable Services of our Church are used, are understood in their natural sense, and prized for their soundness and suitability. The Lord's-day is kept holy, and daily prayer is wont to be made by many; some of whom, I am persuaded, have been taught to pray. It is true that the people of this land still sit in darkness—a darkness which may be felt; and hard is the heart which cannot grieve at their sad state. It is true that man's spiritual enemy reigns here; but it is also true that the watch-fires of another party have been lit, and are burning. May they fast increase, till the whole country shall be dotted over; until the darkness of the land shall be dispelled; and may the banner of the cross be not only everywhere displayed, but its attractive power be felt, and a people be drawn out and prepared to receive Him whose right it is to reign!

Female Education.

Mrs. Hawksworth, having made personal inquiries into the existing state of female education, reports, in a Letter dated April 15, 1846—

Throughout this large Mission I only know one female who can read, with the exception of those who have been educated in Mrs. Peet's School and are married. Only those, who know what a privilege it is to read those precious Scriptures which are able to make us wise unto salvation, can fully understand what a loss these people suffer from not being able to search for themselves. We have now 35 girls in the Boarding-school, and for these I plead that we may not be forced to send them away.

The Out-station of Puwatoor.

The Station of Puwatoor, situated 14 miles from Mavelicare, is peculiarly interesting. "The little Prayer-house stands on a rock abruptly rising from the rice-grounds," and is about a mile and a half distant by water from the Church of Maramana, of which an excellent Malpan of the Syrian Church, called Abraham, was long the Pastor. The mind of this man, through his intercourse with the Missionaries, became enlightened far beyond his brethren of that Church. Mr. Hawksworth writes, in his Report—

The Syrians in this neighbourhood have been much better instructed than any other members of that Church in the country, and are far superior in intelligence, freedom from superstition, and purity of life. It is cheering to know that the Scriptures are extensively read, often quoted, and by some studied with delight, and that our collection of family prayers is used and valued. Religious truth is, I believe, spreading among the Members of the Syrian Church, and the force of it is being increasingly felt by some. Yet that Church is spiritually dead: it gives no sign of revival. There are at present three Metrans in Malabar, and another has arrived from Bombay. The only one possessing authority is daily engaged in ordaining children—children of five years old—for a stipulated fee!

Proposals from the Congregation of Maramana to join the Church of England.

The progress of religious light among the Members of the Syrian Church, and the bitter divisions created by the rival pretensions of contending Metrans or Bishops, while the constitution of the Church only allows of one presiding

Metran, have led Mr. Hawksworth, in a Letter dated March 28, 1846, to describe the Syrian Church as "coming into a transition state. It seems impossible for it to continue as it is. Many, among the Priests and people, long for a better state of things."

These statements have subsequently received a very striking confirmation. Mr. Hawksworth received, in September last, after previous communications on the subject, a formal document, written in Malayalim, and signed by the Catanar (Priest) and Churchwardens, and Heads of the Congregation of Maramana, proposing to join the Church of England in a body, comprising 300 families and 1000 individuals, and to make over the church property, which, as they conceive, is under their full controul, to the Society, on condition of having a Missionary stationed among them. This remarkable document states—

The late Rev. Abraham, Malpan, our spiritual father and much-beloved Minister, through the blessing of God and the aid of the Missionaries in this country, was enabled to undertake a reformation of our Church; and by his exertions, preaching, and godly example, he succeeded, to a considerable extent, in removing all errors as to doctrine or practice, and substituting in their place a pure system of Religion founded upon evangelical principles. But in the midst of his labours it pleased the Almighty God to take him away from us; and since the day of his dissolution our Church has begun to fall into a state of gradual decline. But this, being not an unforeseen evil, the venerable Malpan had cautioned us to guard against; and as, from the present circumstances of the Syrian Church, he could form no probability of a general Reformation being ever effected, he had also advised us to join ourselves at his death to the Church of England. We have accordingly formed our firm resolution to follow his advice, and with the simple desire to honour our Lord Jesus Christ and promote His kingdom by our conduct and example.

The Committee are not at present able to say what will be the issue of these overtures. The Missionaries of the Society, under the direction of the successive Bishops of Madras and of the Metropolitan of India, have received into the Church of England all those Syrians or Romanists who cannot, with a safe conscience, continue in their own. And they encourage such secessions, not for the sake of enlarging the borders of our Church, but in the hope of establishing in those lands a pure and scriptural faith and form of worship.

ALLEPIE.

The Rev. H. Baker, sen., continues in charge of this Station. No accounts have been received during the past year.

TRICHOOR.

The Rev. H. Harley is the only Missionary at this Station.

The new Church opened at the beginning of the year 1846 has been generally well attended. The Sacrament is regularly administered every month, the average number of Communicants being 30. Mr. Harley wisely devotes much attention to the weekly catechetical instruction of the adult members of his Congregation. He is able to report, for the half-year ending June 30, 1846, "a growing improvement in regard to spirituality."—"The wish to extend the knowledge of salvation among the Heathen is one of the fruits observable in them." Mr. Harley also has daily intercourse with his Readers and Catechists, who are employed in his immediate neighbourhood, and under his constant superintendence. Sixteen adults have been admitted to baptism in the course of the year, and a larger number remain under instruction as Candidates for Baptism. Mr. Harley writes, Sept. 30, 1846—

Among them was one man, in particular, who has maintained great firmness amidst the persecutions to which his profession has exposed him. When he first came to me with a view of renouncing Heathenism, I found, from the knowledge he had already acquired regarding Christianity from our books, that he was grounded in the principles of our Religion. He had learned the Commandments, Creed, and Lord's Prayer; and I was glad to find that he was already prepared to act up to the spirit of what he had learned. Knowing that the Lord had forbidden the practice of idolatry, he went home and brought to me the idol that he had been in the habit of worshipping, and begged me to destroy it. It was a small, rude, uncouth figure made of granite. I told him that he had better use it for a stepping-stone, for this was the greatest dishonour that could be offered to such false gods; with which he agreed. He has brought his wife and two children also with him, and hopes to persuade his father and brethren to throw away their idols. At present, his father is much incensed about his wishing to join us, and is doing all in his power to prevent it. Mamen, however, has made up his mind to renounce heathenism, and is unmoved at his father's threats.

MASULIPATAM.

The Rev. R. T. Noble, with the assistance of a Catechist and Schoolmaster, has carried on the Mission during the last year. The Rev. H. W. Fox has been absent, as stated in the last Report, on a visit to England; but at the close of the year he had returned to the Station, and resumed his share of the duties.

Services.

The direct Missionary labours at this Station during the year have been necessarily on a limited scale, as the English School has occupied the daily attention of the Missionary. Every Lord's-day morning a Tamul Service has been held for the few Tamul Protestant Christians resident in the town, the average attendance being ten; and a Teloogoo Service for those who are, or have expressed a desire to become, Christians, the average attendance being only five adults. In the afternoon there is another Teloogoo Service, for all who wish to hear the truths of Christianity explained, the average number of attendants being nine.

Native-English School.

The English School contains above 40 pupils, more than three-fourths of whom are above sixteen years of age, nearly half being Brahmins. The education comprises the usual branches taught in an English School. Mr. Noble writes, in a Letter dated July 11, 1846—

I trust steady progress is being made throughout the School in sound, and useful, and saving knowledge: sound, as based on, and saturated with, the Word of God; useful, as calculated to qualify the native youth to discharge honourably and satisfactorily to their employers the duties of those stations which they may hereafter, in the providence of God, be called to fill; and saving, as made all to point to a crucified Saviour, who alone can deliver any man from the just wrath of God, or the dominion of his own corruptions and lusts.

Public half-yearly examinations of the School are held, at which some officer of Government generally presides. At the Examination last summer Mr. Noble states, in the Letter mentioned above, that "a large number of native gentlemen attended, and were present at the beginning of the proceedings, which were opened by reading Psalm cxxvii., and they stood up at the opening prayer." "That they might be better able to form a judgment, New Testaments were put into their hands at the time the two senior classes were examined in the parable of the rich man and Lazarus." The public officers who were present at the Examination signed a testimonial of "the proficiency displayed by a great proportion of the native youth in their various studies; especially in Holy Scripture, English Grammar, Geography, Arithmetic, and English Composition." *

COMMENCED 1818.

Mission Establishment:

10 European Missionaries.	22 Native Catechists.
3 Native Missionaries.	88 Native Teachers of all Classes.
1 European Catechist.	21 Native Schoolmistresses.

Condition and Prospects of this Mission—Need of an Increase of Labourers.

THE circumstances of this Mission have for many past years presented a remarkable uniformity. Though the Lord has not left His faithful servants without many encouragements, yet the cause of the Gospel has made but slow progress against the apathy, vice, and proneness to relapse, of the Singhalese population. During a whole generation the truths of the Gospel have been extensively preached in Ceylon by the Missionaries of the Society; the Scriptures have been widely disseminated; many thousand children have been taught in the Mission Schools; no systematic opposition has prevailed; but yet the Missionaries have been able to number but few true-hearted Christians as the fruit of their labours.

The Committee have now, however, ground for hoping that at length a new era is opening upon the Mission in Ceylon. The long preparatory work is beginning to put forth its fruit: experience has shown to the Missionaries the strength and the weakness of their various plans of operation: changes which have taken place in the social and commercial condition of Ceylon, and the general education of the Natives, appear to have been working together, under the good providence of God, to awaken the native mind, and thus prepare the way for an enlargement and revival of the cause of Christ.

The Bishop of Colombo has furnished the Committee with repeated and full communications upon these subjects, and has strenuously urged the Society to rise to the crisis, and to venture upon a bold extension of their operations in the Mission.

During the past year, however, they have not been enabled to do more than to sustain the work upon its former scale. Out of the small band of European Missionaries connected with the Ceylon Mission, one has been obliged to return home; and two have been detained in England, during the past year, on account of the illness of their wives. The Committee have sent out one European Catechist, and the Bishop has engaged the services of the Rev. R. Pargiter, who had gone to Ceylon in connexion with another Society, and has admitted him to Holy Orders, to supply the abandoned Station of Nellore till permanent provision can be made by the Society. The Bishop has also admitted to Holy Orders Mr. A. D. Gordon, who was sent out last year, as well as a Native Catechist, Mr. Cornelius Senanayaka.

COTTA.

This Station is to be regarded as the HEART of the Mission, in respect of the Singhalese population of Ceylon. Its proximity to Colombo—it being only five miles distant; its position in the midst of a large native population; and, above all, its Theological Institution, which has already provided numerous Catechists and three Native Ministers, justly entitle it to this pre-eminence. It is therefore with unfeigned gratitude to God that the Committee present an encouraging view of the progress of this Station.

Labours of Native Catechists—Baptisms.

The Missionaries write, in their Report for the year ending June 30, 1846, in reference to a system lately introduced for the employment of Native Catechists in visiting the people, under the superintendence of the Missionaries—

We ourselves take turns in the Services at the Cotta Church, or preach, instead of the appointed Catechist, at some of the Out-stations, thus overlooking them in the performance of their duties, and getting a knowledge of the state of their Congregations. The Catechists are required, on the week-days, to visit the Natives at their homes, in their respective districts, and to meet at the School, on one day in the week, such members of their Congregations as are Candidates for Baptism. They also examine, monthly, the children of the Schools in their districts, and report of their proficiency.

Through the Divine blessing upon these wise measures, the result has been most encouraging. Two years ago, only three adult baptisms within the year could be reported: last year they amounted to 14, and this year they have reached 69, and 128 children. Of the adults, 53 were admitted at the same time. The Rev. G. C. Trimnell writes, in a Letter dated June 6, 1846—

You will be glad to hear that on Whitsunday we baptized at this Station 53 adults, or persons of discretion, none being under twelve years of age; and one was 65. These have been gathered from our various Congregations, and have been, in part, the result of dividing the district into Catechists' Stations. For several months past they have been catechized and instructed preparatory to Baptism, and duly warned of the sin and danger of making a false profession of Christianity. The greater part are the descendants of nominal Christians; but they would in all probability have lived practically heathen, without any religious instruction and without any knowledge of God and salvation, had it not been for the opportunities afforded them by the Church Missionary Society.

Confirmation.

In July 1846 the Bishop held a Confirmation at Cotta, respecting which the Missionaries write, in their Report—

The Bishop kindly confirmed our Candidates at Cotta, thus saving them great inconvenience and fatigue, to which many of them would have been subjected by going to Colombo. We had the pleasure to present to him 110 Candidates, and his Lordship appeared to be much pleased with the order and behaviour of our Congregation.

The persons confirmed were all Natives, three of them seventy years of age and upward. The Bishop performed the Service in Singhalese, and delivered two addresses, one before and the other after the Confirmation Service, by interpretation.

Education—The Institution.

The English Day-school has been diminished in numbers, in consequence of the opening of Government Schools in the neighbourhood: it now contains 38 Scholars. The Cotta Girls' School flourishes: its number is 84. The number of Out-schools, and the attendance, are about the same as last year—29 Schools, containing 609 boys and 224 girls.

The chief means, however, to which the Committee look for the extension and permanency of a Native Church in Ceylon, is the Institution, which is under the able superintendence of the Rev. J. F. Haslam; with whom the Rev. A. D. Gordon, of Caius College, Cambridge, has been now associated. The number of Students is 22, and their general conduct and progress have been satisfactory. From this Institution they are placed out as Catechists, for a lengthened probation, before they are presented for Holy Orders. The Native Deacon, the Rev. C. Senanayaka, was thus educated and trained; and the Bishop of Colombo, in a Letter dated June 6, 1846, has borne the following satisfactory testimony to his examination—

It is very gratifying to me to add, that in every part of his examination he acquitted himself in a way that would have done credit to any Institution in England. I have written to Mr. Haslam to express my entire satisfaction with the whole of his examination—in the original language of the New Testament, as well as in his intelligent and discriminating knowledge of doctrinal truth.

After this experience of the value of the Cotta Institution, and after fourteen months' residence in his Diocese, the Bishop makes the following animated appeal to the Society, in a Letter dated Jan. 9, 1847—

Should you adopt my suggestion about the Institution at Cotta, it will afford excellent opportunity for enlarging and extending its usefulness and elevating its character. It might be made capable of great things for God's service and the spread of the Gospel in this dark land. Take up the question cautiously, but deliberately, and may a blessing from on high be with you in your deliberations. It is the one thing we want. Means, indeed, are needed; but men more, faith most. Why do you not take up the work in earnest, and give, not one or two, but ten or twelve Missionaries, with an educated, able, large-minded, devoted man at the head, here in the very heart of Colombo? Do not expect great results from small means. Buddha is tottering to the very base; but we cannot strike the blow. Gideon and his 300 men are not here. We have, indeed, the Word of the Lord and His Spirit, and therein is our faith.

Operations of the Press.

These have been chiefly confined to the printing of the Holy Scriptures in Singhalese, at the expense of the British and Foreign Bible Society, and 2000 copies of a Sermon to Children by Bishop Wilson of Calcutta, translated into Singhalese.

The Missionaries of the Society having long felt the necessity of a revision of the Singhalese Scriptures, the Committee, at the suggestion of the Bishop, have authorized Mr. Haslam's devoting as much attention as may be consistent with his general superintendence of the Institution to this work; for which he is well qualified by his accurate scholarship both in the original languages of Scripture and in the Singhalese tongue.

General Review.

We may mention one very pleasing circumstance, indicative of the state of the people around us—their desire to have in their villages more suitable places of Christian Worship than they have at present, and their willingness to come forward to assist, both by contributions in money and by manual labour, in building Churches. The Christian inhabitants of the villages in which we have regular Lord's-day Services have applied to us to assist them in erecting Churches, to which application we with much pleasure responded. Upon the whole, we think we have ground to be both thankful for what God has done by us, and hopeful respecting the prospect before us.

KANDY.

General View—Baptisms—Unhappy Influence of merely Nominal Christians.

There has been little visible encouragement at this Station during the last year. The Congregations, the Communicants, and the Scholars, have remained stationary in point of numbers.

There have been four adult baptisms; but several painful instances have occurred of a relapse into a careless and sinful life of those who had once made a profession of Christianity. This may be partly attributed to the very immoral lives, and heathenish practices, of those professed Singhalese Christians who are the descendants of persons admitted to baptism under the old Dutch system of administering baptism without sufficient instruction.

To provide some remedy for this unhappy state of things, Mr. Oakley has, under the sanction of the Bishop, adopted certain rules of discipline; so framed as to recognise none as members of the Christian Church, or as entitled to the marriage and funeral rites of that Church, who do not effectually separate themselves from idolatry, and enrol themselves upon the Register of the Church. These rules have been extensively circulated among the professed Christian population, together with an earnest call upon them to repentance, and to a just appreciation of Christian privileges and responsibilities.

BADDAGAME.

General View—Apathy of the People.

The Rev. C. Greenwood has continued his labours at this Station, assisted by the Native Missionary, the Rev. A. Goonesekera. The Services at the Station Church are taken by them alternately, and on the intermediate Lord's-day they visit the Village Congregations. The Heathen have also been visited at their houses; and many other opportunities have been embraced of bringing before them the truths of the Gospel. Eleven adults have been baptized, many having been for years under instruction.

There have been no striking events connected with this Station during the last year. The Missionary labours have been sustained in Christian faith, patience, and perseverance. Mr. Greenwood thus speaks, in his Report for the year ending June 30, 1846, of the lamentable apathy and immorality of the Singhalese population—

Most truly may it be said of us, as it was to the Angel of the Church of Pergamos, that we dwell where Satan's seat is. It is not merely the prevalence of heathenism that we have to do with: it is the direct worship of the devil: and this is the strongest hold which he has here. As, however, the Lord of the Angel of the Pergamos Church knew his works, so does he know ours; and, if only we have grace to hold fast His name, our trust is, that the cause of God will increasingly prosper in our hands, and that eventually we shall be able to take by storm this citadel of the enemy.

Education.

The chief encouragement of the Missionary is derived from the Schools, by which it is hoped that a generation is being raised up whose minds and consciences will be better prepared to receive the Gospel. The Schools are the same as those described in former Reports. Mr. Greenwood writes, in his Report—"The Seminary," which gives a superior education to promising youths, "continues one of the chief pillars of our hopes here. The number on the list is 15, the highest we are able to accommodate."

Visits of the Rev. J. O'Neill and the Bishop.

The Rev. J. O'Neill visited Baddagame on his first joining the Ceylon Mission, and he thus records his testimony to the state of the Schools—

Their knowledge was not only general and good, but accurate; and their respectful demeanour and intelligent faces exhibited a pleasing contrast to every thing in the native character which surrounds them. Surely a good work must be going on here, though the harvest of souls is not yet come.

On the 13th of October the Bishop visited the Station; and he has furnished the Society, in a Letter dated Nov. the 9th, with the following account of his visit—

My visit to Baddagame last month, for the Confirmation, was full of interest and encouragement. I was met on the banks of its beautiful river—reminding me, with its grassy banks, and green meads, and woody hills, and clear eddying stream, of old Father Thames about Chertsey or Runnymede, and the Surrey woodlands not far away—by Messrs. Greenwood and Goonesekera, your two valued Missionaries, and all the Catechists and youth of the Seminary; and up the hill, close to the Mission-house, with its English-towered Church and English scenery around, by Mrs. Greenwood and above 60 children of her Native Girls' School. No welcome could have been more characteristic or more pleasing.

On the next day the Church was filled for the Confirmation at eleven o'clock. The Services were of course in Singhalese, in which Mr. Greenwood assisted; and my addresses were interpreted by your Native Missionary with earnest faithfulness. Twenty-three were confirmed: one, a poor cripple in limb but not in faith, was carried to the Holy Table, and I trust the fulness of the blessing conveyed to his heart by faith was not marred by the unworthiness of the channel through which it reached him. All, indeed, was very satisfactory.

On the following day, the Hon. Mr. Justice Temple, with the Government Agent of the Southern Province, Mr. Cripps, and their ladies, came up from Galle to meet me, by appointment, for the examination of the Schools, both English and Native. All the children are Natives; but in the Seminary chiefly our language is taught. There were thirty present; and the result was most pleasing to us all, especially in their Scriptural knowledge, and their intelligent appreciation of the meaning of Scripture, and the questions proposed. We afterward examined the Native Girls' School, in which Mrs. Temple took part, as qualified by her knowledge of Singhalese to do so, not less than by her benevolent interest in the cause of native education. Between fifty and sixty were present; and afterward, above eighty boys from the Village Schools. Many were able to read the New Testament in their own language. All was pleasing, all good. Help the work forward in a large and generous spirit. God is blessing, and will bless it more and more.

Symptoms of the Decline of Buddhism.

Mr. Greenwood mentions, in a Letter dated June 10, 1846, a remarkable fact, which tends to confirm a belief, supported by many concurrent testimonies from different parts of the world, that the ancient false religions, which have spell-bound the heathen world, are fast giving way, and losing their hold upon the minds of men. He writes—

The Buddhists are evidently trembling under the apprehension that their craft is in danger. This is proved by an account given in one of the Colonial papers, of the 8th of January last, in reference to a visit of some Siamese Priests to Ceylon, sent by the King of Siam to search for books and relics of Buddhism. Upon their return, they took with them a Letter from a descendant of an ancient royal family in Ceylon. It represents Buddhism as in a state of great and rapid decline, in consequence of the Government and other Schools there established; the extensive study of the English language by the young men of the Island; and the inducements held out to them to engage in Government employment. It expresses the opinion that Buddhism must soon become extinct in Ceylon, unless the King of Siam, in his great devotion to that faith, will interpose his aid, and grant the pecuniary means for the education in that faith of a number of their most promising young men; but they hope that in this way Buddhism may yet for 100 years be preserved from extinction in Ceylon.

NELLORE.

Change of Labourers at this Station.

At the close of the year 1845 the Rev. J. T. Johnston left this Station to accompany his wife to Europe on account of her extreme ill health. Soon afterward, the Rev. W. Adley was obliged to leave Ceylon, from the same cause, after twenty-three years' labour as a Missionary.

Thus this promising Station was left without the superintendence of a Missionary for many months, until the arrival of the Rev. Messrs. Pargiter and O'Neill.

Ravages of the Cholera, and its Effects.

In addition to the serious disadvantage of these circumstances, it pleased God to visit this District with the most fearful ravages of the cholera, which raged for several months, and carried off above one-tenth of the native population around Nellore. Mr. Adley writes, in a Letter dated Feb. 14, 1846—

In many instances nearly whole families have been taken suddenly from life in a few days. We have been almost without servants, the disease so prevailing in their families as to require their attendance at home. One of the School-girls who accompanied Mrs. Adley to the Hills, left at Jaffna twenty-two relatives, comprised in two families, of whom only two, a man and a boy, remain. The Girls' Boarding-school at Nellore, and the Seminary at Chundicully, have both been continued, and, with the exception of one or two scholars, who were at home with their friends, all have been mercifully preserved. But few deaths, also, have occurred among the Christians, a remarkable and great mercy, while hundreds of their Heathen relatives and friends have been removed. The Day-schools, both English and Tamul, have been entirely broken up. Public works on the roads are discontinued, as also the Offices and Courts of Justice. The Supreme Court or Assizes, which should have been held last month, is postponed till the country shall have become more healthy.

The effect of this visitation upon the Heathen appeared at first to be very calamitous, hardening them in their idolatry, and rather cutting them off from the means of Christian instruction. One only instance is recorded of a Heathen being brought to Christ under the terror of the cholera. This was a female servant in the family of Thomas Mortimer, a Native Catechist. She recovered from the attack, and became, as far as man could judge, a true and grateful penitent, giving up herself wholly to the Lord Jesus Christ. Mr. Adley writes, in the Letter just quoted—

I baptized her and eight others, who were Candidates for the Ordinance, on the Lord's-day before I left Nellore—most probably the last from the Heathen to whom I shall administer this sacrament. I was much pleased and satisfied with them all. May the blessed Saviour, in whom they professed their trust, keep them from falling, and present them faultless before His throne with exceeding joy!

Accounts of a later date than those of Mr. Adley warrant, however, the hope that, through the over-ruling grace of God, more extensive good may spring out of the visitation than was at first anticipated. Mr. Pargiter writes, in a Letter dated Sept. 10—

While Heathenism is lying around us, and the minds of the people are kept in a constant state of excitement by the numerous festivals and attractive forms and ceremonies of idolatry, there is much to encourage us to hold fast our confidence in the promises of God, and to work with all diligence while it is day. A spirit of inquiry prevails to a great extent among the people. Many are thinking upon the subject of Christianity. The late awful manifestations of the judgments of God upon the land shook the faith of hundreds. They rushed to their temples, presented the most costly offerings they could afford, made the most solemn vows, and appealed importunately to their gods for assistance. But there was no voice, no help, no relief granted. The pestilence still carried on its work of destruction. Friends and children were swept away in a moment, and their confidence was shaken.

Visitation of the Bishop.

The Bishop visited this Station in July last, and thus describes the state of the Mission, in a Letter dated Sept. 8—

Since I last wrote to you, the interval has been occupied with my Visitation to the northern and eastern parts of my District. It was full of interest, and no little thankfulness. Your two Stations near Jaffna are very important posts: I am most desirous of their extension. . . . I was met, on my landing, by both your estimable and earnest Missionaries, Mr. O'Neill and Mr. Pargiter, who accompanied me to Jaffna. I visited them at their respective Stations on the following day, and frequently afterward during my stay at Jaffna: with all I was well pleased. The Schools had not recovered from the desolating effects of the late awful visitation of Providence, which swept away nearly 11,000 people, nor from the absence of your late Missionaries at both Stations. Mr. Pargiter had kept all together till Mr. O'Neill's arrival: immediately afterward, the progress toward order and improvement began, and the appearance, when I was there, was healthy and promising. I held Confirmations at each of your Stations: in English at Chundicully, as being close to Jaffna, where about 56 were confirmed; and at Nellore in Tamul, where the number, I think, was 54, Mr. Pargiter acting as my interpreter. On the following Sunday I had the satisfaction of admitting Mr. O'Neill to Priests', and Mr. Gordon to Deacons' Orders. It is but due to them to express to you my entire satisfaction with their qualifications in every respect. I preached in behalf of the Mission in Chundicully, when about 25*l.* was collected. . . . The work indeed is great: may our faith be enlarged, and our hearts sanctified for its discharge in meekness and perseverance to the end!

Increase of Communicants and Attendants on Public Worship.

The Committee are thankful that they are able to report a very encouraging increase in the number of Communicants throughout the Ceylon Mission, the numbers reported last year being 239, and this year 322. The attendants on Public Worship have also increased from 3293 to 3463.*

* Further accounts of the Ceylon Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for March 1847, pp. 60—68; and April 1847, pp. 80—86.

CHINA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1844.

Mission Establishment :

1 European Missionary.

Return Home of the Rev. G. Smith.

SINCE the publication of the last Report, the Rev. George Smith, who left China from the failure of his health, has arrived in England. The Rev. T. M'Clatchie still remains at Shanghai in the prosecution of his Missionary labours.

Permanent Occupation of Shanghai—Missionary Facilities offered by the Five Ports.

In the beginning of the last year, Mr. Smith had concluded his exploratory visit to each of the five consular cities of China, and the islands of Hong Kong and Chusan. The result of his inquiries has tended to confirm the decision of the Committee to concentrate their China Mission in one or more of the Northern ports. They purpose, in the first place, to strengthen their Station at Shanghai by sending one or more Missionaries to the assistance of Mr. M'Clatchie. As soon as an effective Mission shall have been established at Shanghai, Ningpo will probably be occupied by the Society. If the pecuniary means be supplied, and suitable Labourers can be obtained, the Committee will rejoice still further to enlarge their China Mission, and to consider the claims of the important and populous city of Foo-chow.

The views, on which this future disposition of their Missionary force in China has been grounded, are stated in the following extract from one of the last letters written by Mr. Smith, previously to his embarkation for Europe. It is dated Jan. 14, 1846, and thus proceeds—

A residence in every part of China now open to foreigners enables me to review, very summarily, the real state of the field we seek to occupy.

Of the Five Ports, Canton can only be said to be partially opened to Missionary work, so long as the hostile feeling of the populace, and the exclusion of foreigners from entrance into the city, operate as a serious impediment to free action.

Amoy, possessing a friendly population and tolerant native rulers, is yet the least important place open to foreigners, in point of size, amount of population, class of Natives, and connexion with the interior; with the disadvantage of a difficult dialect, and a degree of local insalubrity, which, by deaths, or removals on account of sickness, has reduced the members of the Missionary families from above twenty to seven within the last year. It is also already occupied to the utmost of its relative local importance; having six Missionaries on the Station, four of whom have begun to preach in Chinese.

The two northern ports of Shanghai and Ningpo stand first, in the character of the people, connexion with the interior, and all or most of the local considerations which render a Missionary Station important, on a large view of things.

If, without crippling those Stations by a scanty and inadequate number of Missionaries, an effort can be made to undertake even a small beginning at Foo-chow, then I entreat the Committee speedily to send out two Missionaries, with energy of mind, and strength of body, to enter on Foo-chow; either unmarried men, in the first instance, or, if married, for the first few months unaccompanied by their wives. A Missionary without a family might, I feel sure, at once get a secure lodging in some temple within the city; and prosecute, without interruption, his study of the local dialect, till his increasing knowledge of the language, and the increasing confidence of the people, should pave the way for the residence of Missionary families.

Commencement and Progress of Services at Shanghai.

In the last Report it was stated that Mr. McClatchie had succeeded in obtaining a house within the city of Shanghai, notwithstanding some temporary difficulties produced by the jealousy of the authorities, and the unwillingness to let houses to foreigners, except in the suburbs. He has since pursued his Chinese studies with success; and during the last year commenced a Chinese Service. This important beginning is thus stated, in a Letter dated March 30, 1846—

I am most thankful to God that He has mercifully permitted me to commence a Service in the Chinese language. I feel, indeed, that my attempts are yet very feeble; but I trust that He who can unloose the tongue of the stammerers will ere long give me greater fluency in the language, and enable me to convey His blessed truths with more ease to the minds of these poor idolaters. My Service is not exactly a public one yet: I wish to go on by degrees; but I hope that in a short time I shall acquire sufficient courage to put up a notice at my gate, and to invite all to enter. I have the unspeakable satisfaction, however, of knowing that at present I am tolerably well understood.

And again, April 15—

I have been in Shanghai exactly one year to-day, and I have been ten months studying the dialect of the place. I wish that I could be perfectly satisfied with my progress in it; but yet I am bound to thank God for enabling me to feel that I am doing something—though, alas! feebly indeed—in His blessed service.

My daily Service requires much study to keep it up—almost the whole day to prepare for the following morning. However, it is a most delightful occupation to me, as I know that our gracious Saviour will bless even the weakest efforts to promote the knowledge of Him among the Heathen. My cook seems to be especially interested in the Service, and, as our copies of the Word of God are very few, he has commenced writing out the Gospel of St. Matthew from a copy of the New Testament which I have lent him. The constant exclamations of my hearers—such as, “It is clear;” “I understand”—I find very encouraging. I pray God that I may soon attain that which to me is the acme of all earthly glory—the ability to declare fluently to the poor Chinese the wonderful works of God in their own strange and difficult language.

Later in the year, Mr. M’Clatchie commenced a more public Service on the Lord’s-day. His recent communications convey most encouraging intelligence of the general spirit of inquiry which has been excited among the Chinese in Shanghai. Although his house is situated away from any important thoroughfare, he states that he experiences no difficulty in obtaining a Native Congregation; and that many Chinese are compelled to stand outside the door, from want of accommodation in the little building in which he now conducts Divine Service. He is therefore about to hire a larger room, in another part of the city, for the accommodation of his increasing Congregation.

Appeal for more Labourers.

He makes an earnest appeal for fellow-labourers, as will be seen from the following extracts from a Letter dated Jan. 2d of the present year—

Every thing here connected with Missionary labour wears at present a most favourable aspect. Never before have so many been brought under the sound of the Gospel in this city, and never before has the religion of “the foreigners” been so much called into notice. The London Society’s Missionaries have built a Chapel IN THE CITY capable of holding a very large Congregation. Bishop Boone has also procured a place capable of holding about 300, in which he commenced preaching a few Sundays ago. There is Service at the Chapel of the London Missionary Society thrice during the week, and on Lord’s-day evenings large Congregations are addressed in the hall of the new hospital. I am happy to inform you that God has graciously enabled me to throw my mite into this treasury, and to preach every Lord's-day to as large a Congregation as the room I have at present for this purpose can accommodate. I am looking out for a larger and more public place, as I find now that I can address a Congregation with somewhat more ease than I did on first commencing. I am afraid, however, that I shall find it difficult to procure what I want. If we had more Missionaries here, I think the very best plan would be to build a Church at once; but as the case stands, I could not recommend this step.

Intended Reinforcement of the Mission.

The Committee have hitherto experienced much difficulty in obtaining the services of zealous and well-qualified Clergymen for entering on this interesting field of Missionary labour. They are able, however, now to announce that they have the prospect of sending out three Clergymen, Graduates of our Universities, as Missionaries to China, in the course of a few months.*

NEW-ZEALAND MISSION.

COMMENCED 1815.

Mission Establishment :

- 16 European Missionaries.
- 12 European Catechists and Teachers.
- 1 European Printer.
- 3 European Female Teachers.
- 314 Native Catechists and Teachers of all classes.
- 49 Native Female Teachers of all classes.

Effects upon the Mission of the late Disturbances — Influence of the Gospel.

In the last Report the review of the military operations against the revolted Natives was extended to the events of Jan. 10 and 11, 1846, when Heké's Pa at Ruapekapeka was surprised and taken, and his party dispersed. A large proportion of the disaffected Natives afterward submitted themselves to the British authority, and received a free pardon from the Governor. A few parties still remained in arms, and went about the country endeavouring to excite rebellion; but no further acts of hostility have taken place in the northern part of the island.

The formidable collisions and bloodshed between the Natives and the troops in the south, in the valley of the Hutt, did not take place in the neighbourhood of any of the Society's Stations, and therefore the recital of them does not fall within the province of the Committee.

The effects of the war upon Missionary operations, and upon the religious condition of the Christian Natives, have been lamentable in the extreme. The demoralizing influence of the encampment at Waimate is thus described in the Report for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1845—

The Station has been much defaced by the troops. Two houses have been burnt down, and another much torn to pieces, beside other damage. But these are minor evils compared with the demoralizing effect which the sad example of the soldiers has had upon our Natives with whom they have come in contact. Some have given up even attending the ordinances of Religion, while those, whose outward conduct as professed Christians may be considered decent, manifest a great lukewarmness about the one thing needful. There are a few to be found, who, in the midst of many temptations, have held fast their integrity.

In many instances, also, the Christian Natives who made common cause with the Heathen, in their opposition to the British authority, have relapsed into heathen practices, and even resorted to the heathen custom of tattooing themselves.

Yet these melancholy statements are in some measure relieved by the evident proofs afforded that the Gospel has not been without a Divine power, even though it has not been permitted to accomplish all the good, and to restrain all the evil, which we could have fondly desired.

The Rev. R. Burrows writes, Jan. 26, 1846—

From the best calculation we can make, the Natives have lost from the commencement, including Kororarika, 160 men.—We are thankful to be able to inform you that none of those scenes of secret murder, as an “utu” (payment) for relatives who have fallen in battle, a thing we so much dreaded, have taken place.

Mr. J. King also states, in his Report of Tepuna for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1845—

Formerly, in times of war, many were killed on the road; small parties being dropped upon in the night and destroyed. I asked a Chief how it was that not one, so far as we have heard, has been TREACHEROUSLY killed in the war with the English. He said the Natives had learned better: consequently many unprotected and innocent Native and European lives have been spared. Let us look on which side we will, we see and hear of the influence of the Gospel, and have great reason to thank God and take courage.

Attendants on Public Worship—Communicants.

The general circumstances of the New-Zealand Mission have been so greatly altered by the events referred to above, and by the changes consequent upon the European settlement of the country, that the Missionaries have not furnished, except in a few instances, the returns, as in former years, of the attendants at Public Worship or of the Communicants. In some cases, also, the pastoral charge of the Natives has been transferred from the Missionaries to the Clergymen stationed in the English Settlements. The Mission returns are therefore very incomplete, and will exhibit an apparent decrease in the numbers under Christian instruction by the Society.

Northern District.

General Missionary Operations and Prospects.

In the Northern District the Missionaries and the Stations remain as in the last Report. During the earlier part of the year ending June 30, 1846—to which period the Reports are made up—the communications of the Missionaries are chiefly occupied by the painful intelligence of the excitement occasioned by military operations; of the dispersion of Congregations; and of the sad moral results to which allusion has been already made. At a later period, however, they were enabled to write more encouragingly. Mr. Burrows says, in a Letter dated May 26—

Our Natives are sowing a large quantity of wheat, and the contrast between this season and this time last year is very pleasing. Instead of seeing them passing to and fro, as then, with their instruments of war, we behold them with the implements of husbandry. Their attendance at Church and School is also much better, and, upon the whole, our Christian Natives are behaving well; although, among the majority of them, there is a manifest want of that spiritual-mindedness and warmth of Christian feeling which are the genuine fruits of the Holy Spirit.

And Mr. Davis writes, in his Report of Kaikohi for the year ending June 30, 1846—

Soon after our arrival here, in March 1845, Prayer and Catechetical Meetings were established, and a Testament Class has since been commenced: these are held weekly, in addition to the Lord's-day duties. On the 22d of March 1846 the Lord's Supper was administered to 55 Communicants, most of them tried characters.

A School, which numbers 113 children on the books, has been established at this Station; but the attendance is very irregular. The Report proceeds—

At Hikurangi, where the Chief Heké now resides, there is scarcely the form of Public Worship. Heké has been exhorted to allow Divine Service to be recommenced among his people; but he has put it off until they shall be more settled, and peace more permanently established, when, he says, he shall build a Place of Worship, and live quietly.

Encouraging State of Kaitaia.

The Report of Kaitaia, which is a Station in this district furthest removed from the seat of war, is of a more encouraging kind, both in respect of the progress in civilization and of advance in piety. The Rev. J. Matthews and Mr. W. G. Puckey write, of the year ending June 1846—

On the Lord's-day we have alternately performed Divine Service in the Settlement three times—twice for Natives and once for Europeans; and also with the Natives in the villages.

Two sick and dying adults have been admitted to Baptism during the year, and 48 infants. We have about 40 adult Candidates for Baptism, who are examined at stated times.

We have had a daily School for infants and larger children; and, notwithstanding it has suffered much through the fever which attacked many of them, and also from the distance from which many of them had to fetch their food, much good, we trust, has been done, for many of them can read, write, and cipher in the first rules of arithmetic. We are now endeavouring to draw out local resources, in order to carry on the School on a more efficient footing.

Our Native Teachers continue punctually to meet at the Settlement every Saturday, and pursue their duties cheerfully: we have reason to hope that much good is effected through their services on the Lord's-day.

With regard to temporal things, our people have been better off than usual. They grew, during the last year, a large quantity of fine grain, and they now possess twenty steel mills among them. They seem to value the blessings of civilization. They possess horses, cows, and sheep.

Mr. Puckey, in his Journal, gives the following interesting specimen of the ministrations of a Native Teacher—

Jan. 11, 1846: Lord's-day—I went to Poneke, about eight miles distant; but did not get there till the Morning Service was nearly ended, owing to a bridge having broken down. I arrived just in time to hear the concluding words of the Native Teacher's sermon, which he had had from us the day before. I sat behind the house, and could hear all that was said within. I was much pleased to hear the simple manner in which he explained the duty of parents to their children. He said, "God has given us children—we have dedicated them to Him in baptism—we must not let them run wild, as they are at this moment, playing a little way off: we must put a bridle in their mouths to keep them from going astray. We cannot expect any blessing from the Lord if we let our children run wild." At the conclusion they sang a hymn, and although it was not exactly correct, according to the music, yet I thought it was very sweet; much of the harshness of their voices being taken off in coming through the raupo of which their house was built.

In March 1846 Archdeacon H. Williams visited Kaitaia, on which occasion the Lord's Supper was administered to 184 Communicants. He reports, in a Letter dated March 10—

I was much pleased with the state of the place: every thing appeared quiet and in good order, being far removed from the scene of action. The Native Teachers, so necessary to the regular and active carrying out of the Mission duties, are under good discipline.

Honesty of the Natives in circumstances of Temptation.

In the Report of Kaitaia, part of which we have already given, the following passages occur—

In January the "Hannah" Schooner, laden with oil, came ashore upon the western side of the island opposite our Settlement, when the Natives, after burying four of the seamen, took all care of the oil for the owners; and have since given it up on being paid for their trouble in rolling the casks eight miles.

On the 11th of March, H. M. Sloop "Osprey" came ashore at Herekino; when our Natives rendered all the assistance that was required, and supplied the whole crew with vegetable food during the eight weeks they were on shore attending to the stores.

On these two wrecks Mr. Puckey makes the following remarks in his Journal—

Two wrecks have lately considerably occupied the minds of the Natives—a whaling Schooner, and H. M. Sloop "Osprey." It was indeed a great source of temptation to them when the Schooner was washed ashore: their fingers tingled to appropriate the things to their own use; but an inward principle of right restrained them. Nearly 100 tons of oil were recovered.

After the wreck of the "Osprey," some of the Heathen Natives behaved very ill in stealing lead from the Brig. It was, however, all returned; and our Christian Natives behaved in a very becoming and honourable manner.

Middle District.

General View.

The reports which have arrived from the Missionaries labouring in this District are, like those of the Northern District, of a mixed character. Though the Natives have taken no part in the revolts against British authority, there has been much general excitement; and in some parts of the District there have also unhappily occurred violent and bloody encounters between contending tribes.

Failure of the Rev. G. A. Kissling's Health—His removal to the neighbourhood of Auckland.

The Rev. G. A. Kissling having been compelled by a severe illness, the seeds of which were sown during his Missionary labours in Western Africa, to leave his Station in Hicks' Bay, and to remove to Auckland for medical advice, the Bishop assigned to him a native charge in the neighbourhood of Auckland, where many Natives reside, and to which still greater numbers from different parts of the Island resort, when they visit the capital for the purposes of trade.

The temptations to which the Natives are exposed in Auckland—with its spirit-stores, its theatre, its barracks, and its port—may be easily conceived. Multitudes have already been infected by a spirit of gambling, professed Christians have learnt to profane the Lord's-day, and the mischief, it is to be feared, will speedily spread through the length and breadth of the Islands. Mr. Kissling writes, in a Letter dated June 16, 1846—

This growing evil may in a measure be counteracted, under God's blessing, by a resident Missionary in or near the town. The Natives are sure to rally around him, and he may thus have opportunities of keeping them away or shielding them from the contaminating influences of vice. Nor will he merely effect a negative good; but, by opening a School and performing Public Service, the same advantages will be afforded to them which they enjoy from their Missionaries at their respective places of abode.

Mr. Kissling has already collected a small Congregation, and opened a Girls' Boarding-school under the charge of Mrs. Kissling.

Missionary Work at Tauranga.

The Ven. Archd. Brown and the Rev. C. P. Davies continue to labour at Tauranga; although the Archdeacon's duties render it necessary that he should frequently be absent in visiting other parts of his Archdeaconry. Mr. Davies writes, March 18, 1846—

We have to lament the lukewarmness of our people in spiritual things. Many of them possess great knowledge of the Scriptures; but they seem to be quite strangers to secret prayer: and while that is the case, we must fear that they have a form of godliness but are strangers to its inward power. In my School, which I commenced at Otumoetai fifteen months ago, I have had much to contend with from the rude habits of the children, and the indifference of their parents. I have been enabled, however, to bring them into subjection, although it only lasts during the period of school-hours. In the Afternoon School at the Papa, under the charge of Mrs. Davies and Miss Baker, the children have made great progress in English, and repeat most distinctly a great many hymns, &c. My afternoons are occupied in administering medicine to the sick, of which there are a great number. I endeavour to direct the minds of those who come to the only Physician who can heal their spiritual maladies.

Baptism of an Aged Woman.

In the course of a Missionary journey, Archdeacon Brown relates the following interesting account of his seeking out a few Candidates for Baptism; which strikingly illustrates the parable of the lost sheep in the wilderness—sought till found, and brought safely into the fold. The Archdeacon writes—

Dec. 10, 1845—I proceeded to Te Waiiti, having heard that an old woman resided there, who had for some years been desiring Baptism, but was unable either to walk or be carried to the places where I have held Baptisms in this District. Although the place was never before visited by a Missionary, I found three Candidates for Baptism, with whose examination I had much reason to be satisfied. The old woman was any thing but pleasing in appearance—dirty, hump-backed, and blind with one eye: she was also very reserved, and a rapid movement of the muscles of the face showed that she was very nervous. After a short time, however, I engaged her in conversation; and was equally surprised and delighted to find that she knew the Church Catechism, could read the Testament well, and was acquainted with the leading doctrines of Christianity. She has occasionally been visited by a Native Teacher, but never by an European; yet the Great Teacher had evidently been with her in her deep seclusion, casting light upon the path which leads to immortality.

In the evening, 50 Natives assembled from their fastnesses, with whom I held Service, baptizing the three adults and eight children, and addressing them as usual.

Fatal Encounters between Hostile Tribes—Influence of the Gospel.

During the last year there has occurred in this District one of those remarkable hostile encounters, between tribes contending among themselves for their supposed rights, which have from time to time been reported in the history of the New-Zealand Mission; and which have often, as in this case, served to exhibit at once the natural ferocity of the Natives, the powerful influence of the Missionaries, and the softening effects of Christianity.

Two tribes in Manukau, in the Rev. R. Maunsell's District, had a long-standing dispute respecting the boundary line of their properties. The Missionary's abode was in the midst of the Ngatiteata Tribe. Mr. Maunsell writes, in a Letter dated Jan. 26, 1846—

I was sleeping in a retired house, at a little distance from their Pa, and was roused before day-light, about four o'clock in the morning, by a violent hammering at the door. Starting out of sleep, I heard a man call, in a deep and excited voice, "Eneha! Eneha!" (Maunsell! Maunsell!) The very angry tone led me to infer that he had received some wrong from me, and was bursting in the door to seek satisfaction. On my asking what he wanted, he replied, "Come to prayers. The food is being cooked. We are off: Ngatitamaoho are come." After assembling and consultation, they proceeded to meet Ngatitamaoho, I at their head. We had not, however, gone far when they informed me that they had not had prayers. We therefore drew up on the slope of a rising ground, in number about 200. All laid down their guns and other weapons of war, wrapped around them whatever little covering they had happened to bring, joined reverently in singing the hymn and in the other parts of the Service, and listened attentively while I urged them to show their faith this day by their works. Leaving them, I hastened on to the other party, and found there Mr. Buddle, a Wesleyan Missionary from Auckland. In a short time, Ngatiteata appeared along the ridge of the hill, and soon came close to the others. Without noticing my calls, they advanced steadily until their first rank touched the first rank of Ngatitamaoho. Mr. Buddle and I got, as well as we could, between them; and they, as soon as they reached, suddenly sat down. In that posture both parties remained, in dead silence, for about an hour, and we availed ourselves of the opportunity to urge peace. One or two Chiefs on each side then made a few remarks, and, having remained some time longer, both parties quietly separated. Thus this day of anxiety passed off, and all were loud in extolling the powers of the "rongo pai" (good news—the Gospel), to which we were indebted for the favourable issue of the meeting.

Still, however, there was a considerable soreness of feeling between the two parties, and they both built strong Pas, and summoned their allies. The fortifications were about a mile and a half from each other, and I found abundant employment in each of them. For some time all went on much to my satisfaction, and I had succeeded in inducing them to muster alternately at each other's Pa for Service. This was, on both sides, a considerable sacrifice of feeling, and promised to be attended with the best effects.

A few days afterward, however, a collision, upon a sudden excitement, unhappily took place, and five persons were killed on the side of the attacking party. Preparations for renewing the conflict were then made, which excited much anxiety, and the Missionary wrote to the Governor requesting his interference. He was informed, however, by the Colonial Secretary, that the Governor was too much engaged with operations at the northward, and it was added, "Much may still be done on the spot by your very praiseworthy exertions."

After some displays of force, and occasional discharges of musketry, but without injury; and after they had been joined by allies on each side, so that many hundred fighting men were assembled on the field; a gun fired, as it was said accidentally, by one party, brought on a sudden and general engagement, which ended in the defeat of the same party which had been the chief sufferers in the former skirmish. They lost 17 killed, and had 20 wounded: the victors, 8 killed and 10 wounded. Mr. Maunsell writes, March 17, 1846—to the wounded, burying the dead, and endeavouring to depress the over-elated spirits of the victors. The effect of their defeat upon Ngatipou [one of the allied tribes] has been most surprising: all their high vaunts have ceased. Self-defence and prayer are now the only thoughts that engage their attention. Yesterday, Lord's-day, they proposed that a fast should be appointed in consequence of the present humbled state of their tribe. It was generally agreed to, and throughout the whole tribe there was no food cooked until the evening. Those who had been quite indifferent to Religion before, and who either did not attend to our Services, or who made it a practice to disturb us if they did attend, might now be seen meekly and humbly engaging in them.

It certainly is a source of much gratitude, that these severe trials of sincerity have not led to any relinquishment of their Christian profession; but have rather caused a more strict attention to religious duties. The victors used their success with great forbearance. As soon as the others indicated a wish to discontinue the contest, an immediate suspension of firing followed. They laid aside their arms, joined in mutual lamentations with the defeated party, helped them to carry their dead, and the next day contented themselves with pulling down a temporary breastwork as a satisfaction for their fortifications which the others had very dishonourably destroyed. Even in thus stamping their victory with this achievement, they carefully abstained from any act of bravado that would pain the vanquished.

After much patient perseverance, for several weeks, on the part of the Missionary, all further hostilities were prevented; and the tribes removed to a distance from each other, and from the boundary in dispute. By the last accounts, September 1, 1846, peace was still preserved throughout the District.

Death of a Pious Child.

The following touching recital of the power of the Gospel upon an individual, will afford a happy contrast to the warlike scenes just described. Mr. Maunsell writes, in the Letter of Sept. 1—

Our excellent Bishop, while on his way to my Station to open our Church on the 28th of June last, met, in a distant part of my District, a little boy, about thirteen years of age, who was suffering much from a deep abscess in the side and back. He placed him in his canoe, and brought him to my Station. I was struck with his mild and patient carriage under his sufferings; and, on conversing with him about the Saviour, was truly surprised to find that he was well acquainted with what He had done for him, and with the means by which he might obtain an interest in Him. His aged and feeble mother had, it appears, been induced, by his means, to acknowledge the same Lord, and had learned from him the leading truths of the Gospel. On my asking him what he prayed for, he repeated a prayer of his own composition. It was remarkably simple and spiritual; and the poor little fellow repeated it with much earnestness and devotion. This, it appeared, was the form that he had been in the habit of using with his mother; and when he was too weak, the poor old woman repeated it for him. After he had been about six weeks on the Station, I proposed baptism to him. He gladly accepted the offer, and on the following Lord's-day was admitted, with his mother, into the fold of Christ, taking the name Josiah, that having been the name of his elder brother, who had been killed in the late battles with Ngatitipa. About a fortnight afterward his strength seemed to be sinking fast, and his friends determined on removing him immediately, that he might die on their own lands. He was placed in the canoe, and after they had pulled about four miles one of them asked, "When do you think you will go?" i.e. die. He simply replied, "Let me go to my Saviour," and expired. To God alone be the glory! Amid so many distractions, and so much weakness and insufficiency, how cheering to reflect that all does not depend upon us; and that, even from those parts of our vineyard where we least expected, He can raise up plants which will flourish for ever in His own paradise!

Encouraging Progress at Kaitotehe and Otawao.

Two of the Stations in this District, occupied by European Catechists, are thus described in a visit paid to them by Mr. Maunsell. He writes, in the Letter of March 17—

Shortly after my last Letter [that of Jan. 26] was written, I proceeded on my half-yearly visit through the Waikato District, and took my family with me. The Stations at Kaitotehe and Otawao I found in a peaceful and prosperous state; and I was not a little gratified to find, in more places than one, rising little Christian communities, where, a year before, I had only met with few and careless worshippers. At Mr. Morgan's Station, in the immediate vicinity of the Chapel of the Roman-Catholic Priest, it was particularly gratifying, as an earnest of future success, to see the leading Chief of his party come, with a large number of his followers, to attend our Evening Service. That they will join us in the course of time I feel strongly inclined to hope. We have already baptized several of his former followers.

Mr. Morgan, in his Journal, thus describes the same events—

March 23—Ngahuruhuru having at length expressed their determination to make a profession of Christianity, and Morning and Evening daily Prayers having been established there by Matengo and Wiremu during the last week, I sent them a supply of books, and gave the Native Teachers some garments for their children when attending School. I felt truly thankful at this inroad on heathenism. The establishment of Morning and Evening Prayers in the Pa is a point at which I have aimed for the last five years; but until within the last week they have rejected every offer of the Gospel, and—the heathen party—declined attending our Services. Hitherto, the Natives of the Pa have been divided into two parties—Heathen and Roman Catholics. The latter have gradually decreased in numbers; but some still adhere to the Priest: of the former, about thirty, headed by two of the leading Chiefs, Ratapu and Rakau, have joined the Protestant party.

Advancement in Civilization.

Mr. Morgan gives, in his Journal, the following striking proof of the advance of some of the New-Zealand tribes in civilization; the progress of which has, in every way, an important bearing upon the establishment of Christianity among them—

March 3—The millwright having arrived, I held a “Committee” with the Natives in reference to the erection of a wheat-mill. The millwright contracted to erect a double-power mill to grind and dress forty bushels of wheat per day. The cost of the mill, with the dressing machine complete, will be 200*l*. The erection of this mill, and the general desire of the Natives—at least in this quarter of the Island—for mills, to be built for them at an average cost of from 50*l*. to 200*l*., according to the number of resident Natives, is one of the most substantial and decisive proofs we can have of the progress of civilization among them. When I first visited this neighbourhood, eleven years ago, there was not the slightest trace of civilization, and each one was anxious to shed his brother’s blood. For the last five years, by the blessing of God, we have been kept in peace. Numerous Congregations have been gathered, numbers have been baptized, and many are regular Communicants. The Natives also possess, within a few miles around the Station, at least twenty horses; and several acres of wheat have been cut. We have reason to hope that next season the wheat-fields will be very extensive.

The erection of a water-mill, to cost 200*l*., is a great undertaking for a tribe of New Zealanders only numbering, including men, women, and children, between 700 and 800 souls. The amount is to be raised by the sale of pigs and flax at Auckland. It will require their utmost exertions; but I feel sure that they can raise the money within the time mentioned. I drew up the rough copy of the agreement, which was submitted to and approved by both parties. On the completion of the Ngahuruhuru mill, it is proposed to erect one of smaller dimensions at Otawao. One for Pokuru has been commenced by another party, and the Maungatautari Natives have written to the millwright to build one for them.

Eastern District.

General View—Congregations—Communicants.

This district, though further removed from the seat of actual disturbances, has nevertheless suffered through the general excitement pervading the Native Tribes, as well as from contact with the profane and careless among the settlers. In consequence of the length of time and uncertainty attending the transmission of letters from this part of the country, the Committee have received no Reports later than Jan. 1, 1846, at which date Archdeacon W. Williams, in his Report for the year then just ended, thus speaks of the general state of the Mission—

The distracting influence which has been alluded to, as well as that offence which has ever been attendant on the Religion of Christ, have been the cause that many, who had received the Word gladly, have gone back again: so that in many villages the numbers in the Congregations are not so great as they have been, while those who remain stedfast may be regarded with more satisfaction, having endured the trial under which others have fallen. Those who have altogether relapsed are not numerous; but there are many lukewarm professors.

The average amount of the Congregations throughout the District is 6060. The Communicants number 1484. In this number is given, not the average, but the number of persons who, during the year, have partaken of the Lord's Supper. The administration of this ordinance is found to be a powerful means, under God's blessing, of keeping up a right feeling among the Christian population. It is the universal practice of the Missionaries to converse individually with the Communicants, who thus have an opportunity of unburdening their minds, and of receiving that counsel and advice which their cases may require. The Christian Natives receive further instruction in Bible Classes, and those, for the most part, who avail themselves of this advantage, form also the body of the Communicants.

Confirmations.

In January 1846 the Bishop held a Confirmation in this District, of which Archdeacon W. Williams writes, in a Letter dated Turanga, Feb. 11—

The Bishop is at present engaged in a visitation of this part of the Island, which will have occupied about five months before its termination. His Lordship was at this place last month, confirming 460 Natives at Turanga, and 260 at Uawa. This occasion will, I trust, be attended with much good. It has served to stir up the people from a state of lethargy; and I hope that some, at least, may be led to feel the importance of those vows which they made in baptism, and have since renewed. The numbers whom it was judged well to bring forward on this occasion, being those who maintain a general outward consistency of conduct, is about half of those who have been baptized. May the Lord grant that many more may be reclaimed from among the lukewarm and the cold!

The latest date to which accounts have been received is September the 19th. On that day Archdeacon W. Williams wrote from Auckland, whither he had gone to attend a Synodicate on the revision of the New Testament—

The state of the country is still unsettled at the South; but our Missionary work is gradually reviving.

The Rev. O. Hadfield has continued in a state of great bodily weakness, so as to incapacitate him, in the judgment of his medical attendants, from any active Missionary work. He resides at Wellington, in the society and under the kind care of Christian friends.

The Rev. C. L. Reay, who had hitherto been stationed by the Bishop at Nelson, to minister to the Europeans, and at the same time to exercise his Missionary labours among the surrounding Natives, has been lately removed to the Eastern District, to occupy the Station at Hicks' Bay from which Mr. Kissling has been compelled to retire.

General Progress of the Work at Wanganui.

The Rev. R. Taylor reports of Wanganui, for the half-year ending Dec. 31, 1845—

I am thankful to say my Natives are still living in peace. The dying conversation of Turoa*, our late most belligerent Chief, has been like oil cast upon the waters, rendering futile the efforts of the evil spirit to excite his turbulent followers to war.

On Christmas-day I had a numerous assemblage, from all parts of the District, to commemorate the Saviour's birth: 270 partook of the feast which He Himself instituted. I had also a very gratifying meeting of my Teachers, 42 of whom preached before me.

In a Letter dated Feb. 23, 1846, Mr. Taylor writes—

The large bell which the Society has kindly presented to this place has been hung on two fine totara posts, our most durable and precious wood here, which the Natives gave for the purpose. It is not an unnecessary present, as its sound is heard by all in the vicinity, who joyfully obey its loud summons to come and worship their gracious Redeemer.

Interviews of the Rev. R. Taylor with Rangihaeata—Visit of the Governor to Wanganui.

Mr. Taylor having occasion to visit Wellington at the time at which Governor Grey was preparing military operations against the Natives who held possession of the valley of the Hutt, he was employed to persuade them to yield to the terms proposed by the Governor, and to abstain from hostilities. For this purpose he passed from the British camp, on more than one occasion, to that of the armed Natives, who received and listened to him with respect and confidence. He had two interviews with the Chief Ran-gihaeata, and for a time his efforts were successful, though a collision ultimately took place. Upon his return to his Station, Wanganui, he was visited by the Governor. Mr. Taylor writes, in his Journal—

March 17—This morning the Governor accompanied me to Service at half-past six o'clock, and afterward stayed to School. He appeared to be much pleased on hearing the old people repeat their Catechism. After breakfast I took him to see my Infant School. He expressed his approbation of the way in which it was conducted, and left a sovereign to be given as prize-money to deserving children. His Excellency afterward walked through the Pa, and was particularly pleased with William the Teacher's house. He said he should have one constructed like it at Auckland.

The Governor attended early Morning Prayer on each of the three days which he spent at the Settlement, and left 20*l.* toward providing food and clothes for the sick in the little Hospital established and supported by Mr. Taylor.

The Committee regard the condition of New Zealand as being yet far from that degree of Christian advancement which would justify them in withdrawing their aid. They would always desire to continue their labours amid a heathen population until they have, through God's blessing, effectually established the Gospel among them, and can leave them in a condition to support their own Native Pastors. They recorded this desire on a former occasion—in reference to their labours in the West Indies—"to deliver up each Station a well-cultivated plot in the Missionary field, thickly set with fair and fruitful trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord."* The Missionary Stations of New Zealand are yet far below this standard. The Committee cannot but admit the truth, as stated by one of their Missionaries, that "there is a lamentable ignorance among a vast number of those who have been received into the Church by baptism." While the parents, who have been converted to Christianity in mature age, have no just sense of the value of education, nothing is done on their part to procure Christian education for the large class of native children who were baptized in their infancy. Satan has taken advantage of this state of things to ensnare and draw back, if possible, the lambs of the flock into the pit of heathenism. Mr. Kissling writes, June 16, 1846—had been controlled was also laid aside; and, in the absence of a general and regular system of education, they are growing up the martyrs of their own will and ways. . . If children cannot be collected at once as Day-scholars, let Boarding-schools take the lead: the keen eye of the New-Zealander will soon discover and appreciate the boon, and ere long he will avail himself, not of the Boarding-schools only, but of the regular daily instruction wherever he may reside.

* Vide p. 115 of the Forty-first Report.

Missionaries' Land-purchases.

The attention of the Committee has been again called, during the last year, to the large land-purchases of some of the Missionaries of the Society. The Committee have, on former occasions, explained the peculiar circumstances under which Missionaries first became possessed of land, at a time when it had comparatively little value, and when there was no other way of providing for their large families. So long as no charge of neglect of Missionary duties, or of speculating in the sale of lands, could be fairly alleged against any member of the Missionary body, the Committee did not feel themselves called upon to interfere. They had hoped, also, that all ground for interference would have been removed, as soon as a Court had been established for the adjudication of Land Claims, and when Government had themselves fixed the maximum of land to be held by any one person. But Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonial Department having lately communicated to the Committee certain Despatches from Governor Grey, from which it appeared that the Missionaries, and other parties, could not be put in possession by Government of large grants of land legally assigned to them, without the risk of collision with the Natives, bloodshed, and other evils; and that it was of much importance, in Governor Grey's opinion, that the influence of the Society should not appear to be on the side of enforcing claims against the Natives for these large tracts of land, at so fearful a risk—the Committee were led to review the whole question: and, in the view of the many evils and inconveniences which have arisen, and may yet arise, from the Missionaries of the Society being possessed of large tracts of land, they have adopted a Resolution, that no Missionary or Catechist shall be allowed to continue his connexion with the Society, who shall retain for his own use and benefit a larger tract of land than shall appear suitable in the judgment of the Bishop and Governor, or of such other parties as they may appoint to determine this question.*

WEST-INDIES' MISSION.

THE only Stations in the West-Indies still occupied by the Society are British Guiana and the Island of Jamaica; although, as stated in the last Report, they make an annual grant of 100*l.* in aid of the Rev. A. E. Eckel's labours in Trinidad.

Mission Establishment :

2 European Missionaries.	1 Country-born Teacher.
1 European Female Teacher.

The Society's Station at Bartica Grove has continued under the sole charge of the Rev. R. Woodman during the Rev. J. H. Bernau's sojourn in this country for the recovery of his health.

Arrangements—Death of Mr. D. Butler.

To supply the place of Mr. Christian, Mr. D. Butler, a Student in the Institution, was appointed Schoolmaster at Bartica Grove. Mr. Butler arrived at the Station on the 30th of May, and entered upon his duties with diligence and earnestness. It has pleased God, however, that his Missionary course should be short. On the 3d of March, while crossing from the Penal Settlement to the Grove in a small boat, it was struck by heavy rollers urged by a strong land breeze, and swamped. Mr. Butler, being unable to swim, was drowned.

W. B. Pollard, Esq., the Secretary of the Demerara Corresponding Committee, writes, in a Letter dated March 19, 1847—

He was a man of a meek and quiet spirit, and I believe, according to the opportunity afforded him, served his Master in all sincerity. He was a judicious Schoolmaster, and his loss will be severely felt by us.

General View.

Respecting the Indians at Bartica Grove Mr. Woodman reports, in a Letter dated Oct. 10, 1846—

Their demeanour at prayer is very pleasing. They are exceedingly quiet, shunning all noise whatever. They are naturally indolent; but with many this is fast wearing away. The Station has a pretty appearance, with its plain but neat little Church. Mr. Bernau must have had some difficulty in bringing the people on as he has done. He has endeavoured to promote their present comfort as well as their future well-being.

And Mr. Butler wrote, Oct. 7—

We arrived at Bartica on the evening of the 30th of May, and were most kindly received by Mr. Woodman. Our first day, Whit-sunday, was one of peculiar interest, both with regard to the day itself, and the fact of its being the first time we had ever held communion with the first-fruits of the Gospel in heathen lands, and witnessed for ourselves the power of the Gospel upon those who had long been ignorant of the way of salvation through faith in a crucified Saviour.

Schools, and other Branches of Labour.

Mr. Butler then made the following remarks respecting his duties at the Station—

The progress of the children during the quarter, although not so great as one could wish, owing to the prevalence of the whooping-cough among them, has on the whole been satisfactory; and I am happy to perceive a growing attachment, on their part, both to myself and Mrs. Butler.

My other duties have been chiefly in assisting Mr. Woodman in various ways connected with the Mission; as, the Sunday-school, Adult Reading and Bible Classes on Friday and Lord's-day afternoons, and visiting the convicts at Her Majesty's penal settlement.

Mr. Woodman describes the Coloured people who reside at the little Settlement as the least hopeful part of his charge. Nevertheless, he has been encouraged by seeing two of this class manifesting, on their dying beds, the reality of their faith in Christ, and rejoicing in hope of a blessed immortality.*

Incorporation of Knockalva into the Island Establishment—Health of the Rev. F. Redford.

In accordance with the expectations held out in the last Report, the Station at Knockalva has been constituted an Island Curacy, and the Society's Missionary, the Rev. C. W. Winckler, has been appointed to the cure.

It was also stated in the last Report, that the Rev. F. Redford's health had so seriously failed that his removal from Siloah had become essential. On his arrival in this country, it was ascertained that there was no hope of his being able to resume his labours in a tropical climate.

School at Rural Hill—Report of Prattville.

The operations of the Society in this Island are consequently now reduced to the payment of the salary of the Rev. C. A. Cooper, at Rural Hill, and of Mr. F. Byrne, at Prattville.

The School at Rural Hill continues to afford Mr. Cooper much encouragement. He writes, in a Letter dated Jan. 19, 1846—

The people seem rather more awake to the importance of Christian education. Indeed, throughout the ministerial work I know few things more encouraging than the progress which is being made in the religious instruction of the rising generation. I trust the seed is being sown for an abundant harvest hereafter.

And again, Feb. 3, 1847—

I have now been in charge of this Station between four and five years, during which period it has been gradually progressing—its importance certainly not diminishing. The School has now the Industrial System engrafted on it. Last year we had upward of 250 children, and I received from the Board of Education a grant of 40*l.*, which was double that of the previous year.

At Prattville the enlargement of the Place of Worship has been completed; the necessary funds and materials, to the amount of 98*l.*, having been supplied by the Congregation. Mr. Byrne writes, in his Report for the quarter ending Sept. 30, 1846—

The attendance of the Congregation on the Lord's-day continues to be satisfactory and encouraging. On many occasions, notwithstanding the increased accommodation, our Place of Worship has been thronged. The attention during Divine Service is also gratifying.

The Sunday, Day, and Evening Schools have been continued as heretofore; but the numbers are not quite so large as last year.

The number of Communicants has increased to 292. The Sacrament is administered quarterly by the Rev. D. R. Littlejohn.

NORTH-WEST-AMERICA MISSION.

COMMENCED 1822.

Mission Establishment :

4 European Missionaries.		2 Country-born Teachers.
4 European Schoolmasters.		2 Native Teachers.

THIS Mission consists of four principal Stations, for the most part widely separated from each other; so that, as far as intercommunication between the Missionaries is concerned, they may almost be regarded as distinct Missions. In these Stations the degree of success is varied, but, with one exception, decidedly encouraging; and even that exception is not altogether without its testimony to the benefits conferred by the instrumentality of the Society.

Visitation of the Mission by Sickness.

It has pleased God again to visit the Red-River Settlement with a series of afflictive dispensations. From August 1845 to the end of January 1846 a severe fever prevailed, and proved very fatal. A month afterward, another epidemic, the influenza, made its appearance, affecting whole families. In May and June a very large proportion of the inhabitants, at all the Stations, suffered from measles; so much so, that, at one time, out of eighty children belonging to the Day-school at the Indian Settlement, only three were able to attend. This was followed by dysentery, which prevailed to an awful extent. Some idea of the mortality which attended it may be gathered from the fact, that, in one part of the territory, it carried off a sixth of the population. Out of 600 inhabitants, in the Rapids District, there were eleven deaths in one week; and in the Indian Settlement, out of a population of 500, there were nine deaths in ten days. In the midst of these afflicting visitations, it pleased our Heavenly Father to extend His protecting care over the Missionaries, and no harm was suffered to come nigh their dwellings. They were also cheered, as more fully noticed below, by witnessing the effect of their labours in many of their people who died in the Lord.

* Reprinted in part from the last year's Report. Two Stations, at which there were upward of 400 Communicants, have been relinquished by the Society.

UPPER SETTLEMENT AND GRAND RAPIDS.

Labours of the Rev. W. Cockran—His Departure from the Mission.

Notwithstanding the shattered state of his health, the Rev. W. Cockran was able to perform his usual duties until his departure for Canada in June. A portion of his time was occupied in superintending the erection of the new Church at Grand Rapids, the walls of which, when he left, were upward of ten feet above the ground. The need of this building was increasingly felt on account of the crowds who, on several occasions, were unable to find admission into the narrower limits of the old Church. Mr. Cockran was also much occupied in visiting the sick and dying, and, amidst many heart-rending scenes of sorrow, it was no small alleviation to witness the efficacy of that Gospel, which he had for so many years faithfully preached, realized in the experience of his people. Many instances are recorded in his Journal. On one occasion, standing by the bedside of a father who had lost six sons by the fever under which he was himself suffering, Mr. Cockran was suggesting various scriptural grounds of consolation, when the dying man said, "The Lord has been with me in six troubles, and I know He will be with me in this my last. I have not the least hope of recovery, nor have I any wish. I would not live alway. I believe I shall shortly be with Him who has loved me, and died for me. I believe all that has happened to me has been for my good."

The feelings of his people, at the period of Mr. Cockran's departure, were such as might have been expected. The Rev. A. Cowley, who was on a visit to the Red-River Settlement, after he had taken the Service at the Rapids' Church on the 14th of June, remarks—

Never do I expect to forget the last look which some of the people gave their pastor as they retired from the Church, in which, from its very first rearing, they had heard, with so much pleasure and profit, the voice of him whom now, proceeding to their homes at a distance, they looked upon to see no more for ever. Their hearts were too full for words: the only utterance their feelings could obtain was in a flood of tears, as each walked up, silently embraced his hand, and turned away.

On the following day he and his family embarked in a canoe, and, after a voyage of a few weeks, arrived at Toronto. By entire rest, and cessation from public duty, his health is already in some degree improved.

Arrival of the Rev. R. James.

The Rev. R. James, who was appointed to succeed Mr. Cockran, arrived at the Indian Settlement, on the Red River, on the 6th of October, and in a Letter dated November the 12th he writes—

I shall never forget how cheering and beautiful was the first sight of the Settlement after the monotony of our passage from York. We found Mr. Smithurst well, and received from him, and I may say from all, a hearty welcome in the name of Christ our Lord. Mrs. James and myself are both in good health, and, so far, delighted with our Station.

INDIAN SETTLEMENT.

General View—Baptisms—Communicants—Schools.

The Rev. J. Smithurst continues to derive much satisfaction and encouragement from his labours at this Station. In temporal things there has been some vicissitude. The harvest of 1845 was a favourable one, and the hunting during the following winter particularly successful, so that the Indians were enabled to provide their families with European clothing and other comforts which mark an advance in civilization. The erection of a new windmill, to supply the place of the old one erected twelve years ago, which had been useless for above three years, gave a fresh impulse to agriculture. On the other hand, the harvest of last year was a failure, and there was every reason to fear the prevalence of great dearth and scarcity.

In regard to spiritual things Mr. Smithurst reports, Aug. 1, 1846—

Generally speaking, the moral and religious character of the Indians is satisfactory. During the past year there have been 27 Baptisms. Four new Communicants have been admitted, and 4 have died, leaving the number 27. All, so far as I can learn, maintain a consistent walk and conversation.

Respecting the Day-school, in which there are 88 Scholars, Mr. Smithurst reports—

The progress made by the Scholars during the past year has been satisfactory. Their attendance is now very regular, unless illness keep them at home. They improve much in cleanliness, and have far less of the Indian aspect than when I first came to the Station. Indeed, none of the children now in the School, with very few exceptions, ever had any experience of the wandering Indian life. They are all furnished with clothing; but live at home with their parents, and require no provision from us except in times of sickness.

Beside the Day-scholars, 50 adults are regularly instructed in the Sunday-school.

Death of a Pious Adult Indian.

In addition to several other hopeful deaths, Mr. Smithurst speaks of the removal of an old Indian who took care of the Indian Church. He writes in his Journal, July 30—

I was much comforted by his simple and unaffected expression of dependence on the Lord Jesus Christ. There was, in his whole manner, that calmness and quiet composure which indicates the possession of a peace which the world can neither give nor take away. In religious experience I have long considered the old man to be a sterling character.

CUMBERLAND STATION.

General View.

The Rev. J. Hunter has carried on the duties of this Station with great energy and zeal, and his communications abound with expressions of gratitude for the degree of success which has attended his labours. While various secular occupations, especially the building of his house and the cultivation of the soil, have necessarily occupied much of his attention, beside holding Divine Service regularly in the Indian language, attending to pastoral duties, and taking an active part in the Sunday-school, he has been able to make two Missionary journeys, and to adopt prompt and judicious measures for the occupation of hopeful Stations to the northward.

Report for the Year ending Aug. 1, 1846.

In his Report for the year ending August 1, 1846, he states—

Our Christian Indians, with few exceptions, adorn their profession by a holy and consistent life; regularly attend the public Means of Grace when opportunity offers; and cultivate a spirit of piety and devotion in their families, by daily engaging in praise and prayer at their homes.

A passage in Mr. Hunter's Journal furnishes a pleasing corroboration of this statement. Under the date of May 24, at which time many families of Christian Indians were encamped near the Station, he observes—their tents, singing the praises of redeeming love at the commencement of their family worship. This is their invariable practice, both morning and evening, whether present or absent from the Mission Station.

The Report continues—

They are likewise beginning to appreciate the advantages which result from cultivation of the soil, and are making efforts, though by no means so strenuous as one could wish, to obtain a settled home; with a view of abandoning their present migratory state of life, and of obtaining greater facilities for the instruction of themselves and their children.

The parents also appear to value the benefits of education for their children. Our Day-school is steadily increasing, both in numbers and attainments; yet it cannot be concealed that the present wandering state of the Indians interferes very materially with the arrangements of the School, and excites an unsettled spirit in the minds of the children.

The attendance at our Services has averaged, during the winter, about 100—on Christmas-day and Easter-Sunday from 200 to 300 were present—and in the spring and autumn, when the Indians return from their hunting-grounds, we have a good attendance. The attendance at our week-day Services is not so good, as the Indians, in their present condition, are obliged to leave the Station during the week to hunt for provisions for themselves and their families: from 40 to 60 may be considered as the average attendance.

It has been my privilege to baptize 62 persons, so that we have now a total of 274.

The number of Communicants has been 44; but one has recently died, and two—James Settee and his wife—have left the Station. The present number is therefore 41.

I am able to report favourably of the general consistency and growth in grace of these persons, and of their increasing desire for acquaintance with the Lord Jesus Christ and His great salvation.

In the Day-school, of which Mr. Henry Budd is the Native Schoolmaster, there are 34 boys and 31 girls; making a total of 65. The number last reported was 47; but 27 have since been admitted, and 9 have left.

The Sunday-school consists of the 65 Day-scholars, 29 adults—6 males and 23 females—and 6 children: total, 100. The number last reported was 57, the increase during the year having been 43.

Several of the Christian Indians have commenced new farms, and those who had farms have enlarged them; so that an entire island, of tolerable size, is under cultivation with potatoes. About ten have commenced preparing wood for houses; and one house, which will make the fifth Indian house, is now being erected.

In the last Report an account was given of the desire for religious instruction which prevailed among the Indians at Rapid River, who had derived a partial knowledge of the Gospel from some of their number who visited the Cumberland Station for that purpose. Their desire on the subject was so unequivocally manifested, that, in the summer of 1845, Mr. Hunter sent James Beardy, one of the best instructed of his Indians, to visit them, and to impart what knowledge he could to them previous to the arrival of the Catechist, Mr. James Settee, who had been appointed to that Station. In September James Beardy wrote to Mr. Hunter, saying that the people were so desirous of instruction that they would not allow him to return, and that he had therefore determined to pass the winter among them. Upon this determination he acted, meeting the Indians daily for prayer and instruction. On Lord's-days they assembled at the Fort, where a large room, which they completely filled, was assigned to them. Here they engaged in prayer and praise; and as much of the Christian Religion as Beardy could from time to time call to remembrance he imparted to them. "The chief substance of my teaching," he informed Mr. Hunter, "was to show them that they were all sinners; that they had broken God's holy laws; and thus stood in need of the salvation which God had provided through the blood and righteousness of Christ."

By the blessing of God upon these means, no fewer than twenty families had embraced the Gospel, and were anxiously waiting for the Catechist, who hoped to reach the Station in July last.

Other Encouraging Openings—Movements of the Papacy.

This spirit of inquiry does not appear to be confined to the Rapid-River Indians. Mr. Hunter was informed, on good authority, that at Île-à-la-Crosse and Fort Chippewyan, which latter place is about 1000 miles beyond Cumberland House, the Indians were willing to receive any religious teacher who might be sent to them, and that the Church of Rome was availing herself of these opportunities. He writes, in his Journal—

It is in this direction—the north—that there appear to be great openings for Missionary exertions. We may instance the Rapid-River Indians as an example of the spirit of inquiry and desire for instruction which prevail. It is painful in the extreme to be informed that the poor Indians are embracing—through ignorance, and ensnared, as it were, by the exhibition of pictures, crosses, and other vanities—a corrupt faith, while the Priests of the Church of Rome are reaping a golden harvest. I cannot but admire the zeal of the Church of Rome, who have already sent two Priests into this neighbourhood, two more being now on their way to join them, while I am labouring here alone, at a distance of 500 miles from my Missionary brethren, without being cheered or stimulated by the countenance of a Christian brother. The duties incident to the formation of a new Station, among a people just emerging from barbarism, and at such a distance from any Missionary brother, altogether preclude the possibility of my undertaking a journey of about 1000 miles to the northward, which would occupy several months, in order to visit these Indians.

I trust the friends of the Society will, by liberal subscriptions, enable the Committee immediately to commence two new Stations—one at the Île-à-la-Crosse Fort, and another at Fort Chippewyan—by appointing a devoted Catechist to each of these places, and, if possible, a Missionary to the district. I am certain, from the reports which have reached me, both from the gentlemen in charge of these districts and from the Indians, that either Minister or Catechists would here meet with encouragement and success.

MANITOBA STATION.

General View—School—Progress in Civilization.

The spiritual aspect of this Station does not materially differ from that which it presented last year. Mr. Cowley remarks, "Could I but see the conversion of ONE soul resulting from my labour, how should I rejoice!" In some respects, however, there is a gratifying improvement. The new Schoolroom has been opened, and during the winter there have been 20 regular Scholars, beside an ever-varying number from the woods as their parents have happened to be near or otherwise. Respecting these Scholars Mr. Cowley observes, in a Letter dated July 22, 1846—

You can scarcely conceive the pleasure which I enjoy in seeing these boys and girls, once more than half-naked and half-starved, now sitting around me, all clean, well fed, and tidily dressed; sometimes reading, either the Word of the living God, or such other books as they are able; at other times standing by my side, singing with sweet voices the praises of their Maker; or falling down on their knees with me, to pray to God our Saviour. I am sure you would be delighted to join us for an hour, and, though this be denied, that you will not forget to pray for us in this department of our labour.

Respecting the progress of the Indians in civilization, also, Mr. Cowley is able to report favourably. He says, in the same Letter—

I do not know, among all the families living about us, one single Indian who has not a small piece of land planted with potatoes. We number seven houses upon the banks of the river; and the framework of another is erected, and logs cut ready for a ninth. The Indians are also anxious to obtain cattle.

Testimony to the Christianity of the Red-River Indians.

While grieved at the indifference to spiritual things manifested by the Indians in his own neighbourhood, Mr. Cowley has been cheered by visits from several parties of hunters from the Red River, who, when pursuing their avocations in that part of the country, visit the Station in order to enjoy the Means of Grace, and to be refreshed by religious ordinances. Respecting two of these, who were Communicants in Mr. Smithurst's Congregation, he remarks in his Journal, Jan. 24, 1846—

Their conduct, during their whole stay, has been most exemplary. How cheering has it been to witness their daily devotions, both morning and evening! how encouraging and delightful to observe their peaceful life! What a contrast does it afford to that of my people!*

CONCLUSION.

A REVIEW of the events which have occurred in the various Missions of the Society during the past year presents three important facts, to which the Committee would invite special attention.

First—It appears that the ancient false religions, which for more than twenty centuries have held the nations of the earth in abject slavery, are now waning in their influence.

* Further accounts of the North-West-America Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for July 1846, pp. 158—161; and December 1846, pp. 273—290.

Buddhism, which has extended its sway over a larger portion of the family of man than any other superstition, is failing; failing, moreover, even in parts where neither Christianity nor civilization have penetrated. According to the reports of our Missionary, at the Island of Pootoo, the sacred metropolis of Buddhism in China, the number of Priests has been diminished by more than 300 during the last century; and the dilapidated state of their Temples, and the evident signs of contempt for them among the people, show that Buddhism is destined, ere long, to fall from mere inherent decay. The King of Siam sent an embassy to Ceylon, the reputed cradle of Buddhism, to seek elements for rekindling the flame of devotion in his own dominions; and there he learnt, from the representatives of the ancient line of Buddhist kings, that the cause is failing, and that, even with the help of gold from Siam, it can scarcely survive another century.

That Brahminism is declining before the power of Christian Truth, and the progress of European science, is testified by every intelligent observer; by the lamentations of deserted shrines; and by the bitter enmity of enraged devotees.

Secondly—Another great fact which presents itself is, that the Mahomedan and Heathen secular powers are beginning to admit the principle of toleration, in the place of bigotry and persecution.

The edict of toleration in China has been sufficiently tested, and proved to be no dead letter; but the admission of a principle which the Celestial Empire has not the power to contravene. The partial recognition of this principle by the Turkish Sultân, the secular Head and Guardian of Mahomedanism, is a still more astonishing event. And even in Central Africa, as it appears from the Missionaries at Abbeokouta, the same principle of toleration is recognised, and presents an open field to the Teachers of the Christian faith.

The third fact is, the tendency to decay in the lapsed Christian Churches of the East, and the disposition among their members to seek refuge within the pale of Protestantism. Manifestations of this appear in the "transition state" of the Syrian Christians of Travancore; in the accepted aid of our Mission by the Coptic Church; and, upon a still larger scale, in the late defections of Armenian Christians at Constantinople, through the labours of a kindred Society.

It thus appears as though the forces which have long held the minds of men in subjection were withdrawing, and leaving a clear and open field for some approaching contest between other contending parties. There can be little doubt what those other contending parties will be. The troops are mustering. Here and there they survey and cast up the ground for fortifying some strong position. The Missionaries from Rome, and the Missionaries from the Protestant Churches of Europe and America, are the parties taking the field. Each successive year affords fresh proof of the warlike activity in the Romish camp, and sees multitudes sent out on Foreign Missions, who have been trained in the College of the Propaganda. In numbers and activity they far outdo the advocates of the Truth. While we are meditating to send a Missionary or Catechist to a distant tribe of North-West-American Indians, 1000 miles from the Missionary head-quarters of both parties, we hear that four Romish Priests are already among them ! While the Church of England for a whole year seeks, and seeks in vain, for one single Missionary to China, the Romish Agent at Hong Kong negotiates for a contract with a Steam Navigation Company to carry to China 100 Priests within the year ! Their Missionary lists contain a host of Archbishops, Bishops, Vicars Apostolical, Priests, Deacons, Sub-deacons, and Nuns. In extent of ground they surround and overspread our positions. The intrusions into our Missions at Krishnaghur and New Zealand are but faint skirmishes, to be numbered among the many signs which unequivocally proclaim that the battle between Popery and Protestantism must be fought on the Mission field no less than at home.

But there is enough to sustain the confidence of the Committee in the assured triumph of their cause. They fear not the comparison as to the present results of Popish and Protestant Missions, Truth being the judge. They fear not the numbers and the multiplied Orders of Popish Missions, if only they are enabled to send a few faithful witnesses of the Truth, with an open Bible and a simple faith. In very many such trials of the comparative efficacy of the two systems, the Bible has already triumphed among the Heathen.

But, to repeat the words of the zealous Bishop of Colombo, "we have not Gideon's 300 men." Else, like him, we could look without dismay, even though the Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the East should lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude. We have not the men to put the trumpet to their mouth, and to hold up the light in their hand. Like Gideon of old, we desire to associate with us none but men of the right spirit ; men of true Protestant principles, and able to endure hardness for the sake of Christ. Like Gideon of old, we would proclaim, to all others, whosoever is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart.

Such men the Committee invite to join in this holy conflict.

They point to many an important field of labour now vacant; to many a diminished band of Labourers fainting for help; to many an Educational Establishment which waits for its duly-qualified Teacher. Earnestly do they plead with those who are qualified for the work, and whom the providence of God has set at liberty from paramount claims at home, to reflect upon the claims which the Mission field at the present crisis possesses upon the faithful sons of the Church of England.

In the confidence that a great work is before them; that—to repeat the words of one of their Missionaries—"the battle is not yet begun;" the Committee appeal also for the continuance and increase of pecuniary aid. They thankfully acknowledge some increase in this year's Income; but they cannot rest satisfied with their present resources, as if they were either adequate to the work before them, or an offering to the cause of Christ suitable to the wealth and prosperity of the Church of England.

The Committee are aware that some of their friends are looking with solicitude upon the possible influence which the contributions to the Famine Fund may have upon the Income of the coming year. But the Committee rejoice in the largeness of those contributions, as a proof of what England is capable of doing when once aroused to a sense of duty. They notice, with deep interest, that many of the towns and Churches which have made the most bountiful contributions to the relief of our starving countrymen, by large weekly supplies, afford the most liberal support to this Society; and that such support has not yet been withdrawn or diminished. Well persuaded that the self-denial and economy which must have been practised in such cases will never be a subject of regret; and that the cry of the Heathen for the meat which endureth unto everlasting life will never be unheeded, though mingled with another cry for the meat which perisheth; the Committee cannot but look forward with enlarged hope to the coming year. They appeal with increased confidence to the expanded charity, and to the well-exercised compassion, of the Christian world.

But while they thus plead for the external means of carrying forward their work, they must repeat the appeal, often made but increasingly needed, for the earnest prayers of the Church on their behalf, that the Lord of Missions may pour out His Spirit in a life-giving stream proceeding out of the Throne of God and of the Lamb; that the wilderness may flourish like the tree seen in the visions of Patmos, on either side of the river, whose leaves were for the healing of the nations.

BENEFACTIONS, COLLECTIONS, AND ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS,

WITHIN THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31, 1846.*

It being necessary, from the great number of Association Lists, to make up this List to the 31st of December in each year, Benefactions, Collections, and New Annual Subscriptions, which are paid after that date, cannot appear in the List of Benefactions, &c., paid direct to the Parent Society, to be appended to the Report presented to the Annual Meeting in the following May.

Benefactions of 10l. and upward, through Associations, are, after the first year, transferred to the General List of Contributions paid direct to the Parent Society, and continued in that List during the life of the Benefactor. Anonymous Benefactions, and all Benefactions under 10l., are discontinued after having been once inserted.

The Names of Collectors and Annual Subscribers are omitted in all cases where a payment has not been made within the last three years.

Subscribers and Benefactors who pay through the different Associations in London will find their names in the respective Lists of Associations.

Great difficulty being found in making the following List of Contributions correct, the Committee will feel obliged by having any errors, or alterations consequent on death, change of residence, or other causes, pointed out to them.

 Those to which asterisks are prefixed were preached at St. Ann's, Blackfriars; those marked †, at St. Bride's, Fleet Street; the Twenty-third was preached at Christ Church, Newgate Street; the Thirty-first at St. Sepulchre's; the Thirty-second at St. Clement Danes; and the Thirty-third at St. Andrew's, Holborn.

The Collections at the Sixteenth and subsequent Anniversaries include the sums contributed at the Annual Meetings.

St Mary's Chapel, Park Street, Westminster:
Sermon: Rev. W. Short. 57 3 0

 Some misapprehension having arisen with regard to the Association Balance Sheets appended to the Society's Report, the Committee beg to state that there is no connexion between those Balance Sheets and the Balance Sheet of the Parent Committee. The Association Accounts are, for the most part, made up to the period of their respective Anniversary Meetings, and thus necessarily vary from the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet, which includes the actual payments made at the Society's House between April 1st and March 31st in each year; and is, therefore, quite irrespective of the periods at which, for local convenience, Association Accounts are made up and balanced. An Account Current is kept at the Society's Office with each Association, by which the actual transmission of its receipts to the Parent Committee is shown. The appending to the Society's Report of the Balance Sheets of the Associations may be regarded as a universal acknowledgment to the Local Contributors that their Contributions have been received by the Parent Committee; though the varying periods at which, as above stated, those Accounts are made up, render it impossible that their totals should correspond with the amount received from Associations, specified in the Parent Committee's Balance Sheet.

It is further to be observed, that there are other causes of discrepancy, beside that of difference in time, which have the effect of swelling the amount acknowledged in the Association Balance Sheets beyond that which is exhibited in the Balance Sheet appended to the Report; inasmuch as Legacies, Benefactions, &c., although paid direct, are frequently claimed by an Association, the Benefactor having lived within the limits of such Association, though the payment was made direct to the Parent Society. As these Accounts have no reference to the Parent Committee's printed Balance Sheet, there has been no hesitation in transferring such amounts, as desired. The effect, however, of this has unavoidably been, in some instances, that the sums transferred have been twice acknowledged; the Committee's Balance Sheet having been made up before notice desiring such transfer was received at the Society's Office.

N.B. Benefactors of Ten Pounds and upward, whose names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will now find them in the General List.

LEGACIES.

By the Third Law of the Society, Executors paying Bequests to the amount of Fifty Pounds become Members of the Society for Life. If there be more Executors than one, and the Legacy be not of sufficient amount to constitute each Executor a Member for Life, the Executor first named in the Will is considered to be the Member.

Legacies under 100l., which have been acknowledged in former Years, are omitted in the present List.

ABSTRACT OF ACCOUNTS CURRENT OF THE MISSIONS, WITH HOME EXPENDITURE.

THE following Account is given with a view of exhibiting the various details of Expenditure in the different Missions. It will be perceived, however, that the total of each Mission differs from that in the Cash Account, which is caused by the Accounts of the Missions being made up at different periods; and in consequence of the distance of some of the Missions, their most recent Accounts have not been received. Moreover, the Local Contributions in some Missions are included in the Accounts Current; and in others they are not so included, but accounted for separately.
