PROPER FORM OF A BENEFACTION TO THE SOCIETY BY WILL.

No. I.—Form of Bequest of a Common Legacy.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer for the time being of The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East the sum of Pounds free of Legacy duty* for the general purposes of the said Society to be paid within calendar months next after my death, exclusively out of such part of my Personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may be bequeathed for charitable purposes and in priority to all other payments thereout but to be subject to abate proportionably with other Legacies in case my general Personal Estate shall be insufficient for payment of them all in full. And I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society [or each of the said Societies] shall be an effectual discharge for the said Legacy [or Legacies respectively].

No. II.—Form of Bequest of the Residue, or a Share of the Residue.

And in order to give full effect to the bequest hereinafter contained for charitable purposes I direct that my Debts, the expenses of my funeral and of the probate [and execution of this my Will and the Legacies bequeathed by this my Will or any Codicil thereto] shall be paid out of such part of my personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may not be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the primary Fund; and in case only of the same being insufficient for payment thereof then out of such part of my personal Estate as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the ultimate Fund; and subject as aforesaid, I give and bequeath unto the Treasurer for the time being of The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East for the general purposes of the said Society such part of my residuary personal Estate as by the Laws in force may be bequeathed for charitable purposes [or if a share only of the residue be intended to be given, then, instead of the words in Italics, say, "such sum of money as shall be equal to (one-fourth or one-half, according to the intention) of my whole residuary personal Estate to be paid exclusively out of such part thereof as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes or such less sum as the said last mentioned part of my personal Estate will extend to pay"]. And I declare that the Receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society shall be an effectual discharge for the said residue [or sum of money, as the case may be]. And as to the remainder if any of my general residuary personal Estate I bequeath the same &c. &c.

* If so intended.

† In case there be other charitable Legacies, insert here, "other than and except charitable Legacies."

‡ If it be intended also to charge the Debts and Legacies on real Estate, then add "and in the next place out of my Freehold and Copyhold Estates."

§ The latter Clause to be filled up according to the Testator's wishes; but it must not be for any charitable purpose.

NAMES OF MISSIONARIES AND OTHER LABOURERS, MAY 5, 1857.

* By MISSIONARY, is to be understood one in Holy Orders; and by CATECHIST, one who engages in such religious care and instruction of the people as may be consistent with his character as a Layman. The letter (m) means Married.—Wives of Missionaries, &c., though not named, except when engaged in some specific employment, are always expected by the Society to lay themselves out to do good, in every practicable way, among Native Females; such as, cultivating familiar intercourse with them, educating children, and instructing Female Adults.

A STATION is the place at which a Missionary or European Catechist is stationed, or at which Native Christians are located under Native pastoral superintendence in connexion with the Society.

The figures after the Names of the European Labourers sent from Europe show the date of their first leaving Europe. The asterisk (*) denotes that the Missionary is on his way out; The mark (†) that he is on his way home.

XXIII. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society, of whom, Three shall be chosen from the General Body. Three shall be a Quorum.

XXIV. The Life Subscriptions, or a sufficient part thereof to be equal to the Subscriptions of the existing Members for Life, shall be placed in the Public Funds, in the names of Four of the General Committee; who, on their acceptance of the trust, shall sign a declaration of the nature of it, and that they will relinquish the same whenever called upon for that purpose by the General Committee.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXV. In the appointment of Candidates for the Missionary Office, the following course shall be pursued: The Committee of Correspondence having found a person supposed to be suitable, shall determine by ballot to nominate him to the General Committee. Previous to the day of nomination, each Member of the General Committee shall receive notice of such nomination. On the day of nomination, a report shall be made, by some Member of the Committee of Correspondence, of his qualifications; and the General Committee shall then proceed to ballot for him, unless any Member shall declare that he wishes for further information; in which case the ballot shall be deferred till the next Meeting of the General Committee. In the ballot of either Committee, the agreement of at least Three-fourths of the Members present shall be necessary to his election.

XXVI. A Candidate thus chosen shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVII. If, during such preparation, any Two Members of the General Committee should see cause to disapprove of his principles or conduct, they may submit the subject to a Special Meeting of the Committee; and, if deemed proper, the Committee may appoint another ballot, to determine whether he shall be continued as a Candidate; of which special notice shall be given to each Member.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself as engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time, which the Committee shall choose: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society. As soon as he quits England, he shall keep a regular Journal of his studies and proceedings; a copy of which he shall send, as often as opportunity shall serve, to the Secretaries.

XXIX. Each candidate, after due preparation, shall, if not admitted to Holy Orders, be appointed by the Committee to act as a Catechist. If admitted to Holy Orders, he shall be appointed a Missionary.*

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the General Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, suitable provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable. The General Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. That all questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and any Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

XXXIII. That the object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as, in any other respect, to alter the principles and practice of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions, falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference, cannot properly be considered as so bound.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries* or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The following passage, from Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Annual Report, illustrates the practice of the Society in reference to this Rule:—

"The Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] our Missionaries—these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same Colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church."

APPENDIX II. TO THE THIRTY-NINTH REPORT.

REFERRED TO IN THE NOTE TO LAW XXIX. i

REMARKS ON THE CONSTITUTION AND PRACTICE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, WITH REFERENCE TO ITS ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONS.

It is the object of the following Remarks to show, that the constitution and practice of the Church Missionary Society are in strict conformity with Ecclesiastical principles, as they are recognised in the constitution and practice of the Church of England.

Throughout the system of the Church of England there is a recognised co-operation of temporal and spiritual functions in MATTERS ECCLESIASTICAL; that is, the Laity and Clergy have not only their separate and distinct provinces, but, in many important respects, they unite their agency for the accomplishing of Ecclesiastical acts.

For instance, in supplying a vacant Church, a Lay-Patron selects and presents "his Clerk"—as the Clergyman is technically called—to the Bishop; who thereupon invests him with authority to minister in that Church. So, also, there are certain Lay-officers appointed to every Church—the Churchwardens or Sidesmen—whose duty it is, not only to guard, in conjunction with the Minister, the temporalities of the Church, but also to watch over the due performance of Divine Service, the morals of the parishioners, and the conduct of the Minister; and to report, from time to time, on each of these matters, to the Ecclesiastical Authorities. The duty of these officers is implied in the old appellation, "Sidesmen," or "Synodsmen"—men summoned to attend and give information at Synods and Visitations.

The distinction and co-operation of lay and spiritual functions in the Church of England might be further illustrated in the case of Ecclesiastical Courts, and various relations which arise out of the principle, that the Sovereign is the Supreme Ruler of the Church.

Keeping the foregoing distinction in view, the Church Missionary Society may be regarded as an Institution for discharging the temporal and lay offices necessary for the preaching of the Gospel among the Heathen. It is strictly a Lay Institution: it exercises, as a Society, no spiritual functions whatsoever.

Such being the constitution of the Society in theory—are its proceedings conducted in conformity with this theory, and with the Ecclesiastical principles of the Church of England?

In order to review these proceedings, they may be conveniently arranged under the Four following Heads:

I. THE COLLECTION OF THE HOME REVENUE, and THE DISBURSEMENT OF IT ABROAD.

These acts are altogether within the province of Laymen.

II. THE SELECTING AND EDUCATING CANDIDATES FOR MISSIONARY EMPLOYMENT.

In this department there is no necessary encroachments upon spiritual functions. The Colleges in our Universities are Lay-Corporations, and may, in many cases, be administered and presided over by Laymen.

Yet it may be urged, that in this department there is an approach to the peculiar province of Clergymen; because spiritual persons seem the more proper judges of a Candidate's fitness for Missionary employment: and it is generally admitted, that a Bishop may exercise a control over the education and training of Candidates to be advanced by himself to Holy Orders. Now, in both these particulars the Church Missionary Society has carefully guarded its proceedings. The examination of Missionary Candidates is referred to a Clerical Sub-Committee; and the General Committee consult and act upon the report of this Clerical trial and judgment. In respect of the other point, the education and training of Candidates for Holy Orders, the Church Missionary College at Islington has the sanction and approbation of the Bishop of London; who, in this country, admits to Holy Orders all the Society's Candidates: and his Lordship has repeatedly expressed his satisfaction at the results of the system of instruction, as they have been manifested in his examinations for Holy Orders.

III. The Third general head of the Society's proceedings is, THE SENDING FORTH, TO PARTICULAR STATIONS, THE MISSIONARIES THUS ORDAINED, OR OTHER CLERGYMEN WHO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY ORDAINED.

Now, here an objection against the Society has been founded on the use of the term "sending forth:"—it sounds like an exercise of Ecclesiastical power. But, Ecclesiastically speaking, the Bishop of London "sends forth" every Missionary ordained by him. The Law of the land has sanctioned the Two Archbishops, and the Bishop of London, in ordaining persons to officiate abroad. The Secretary of the Church Missionary Society requests, by Letter, the Bishop of London to ordain, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of Parliament, such and such persons, whom the Society is willing to support in some Foreign Station. The Bishop, by the imposition of hands, gives them authority to preach the Gospel, with a view to their Foreign location.—In the case of persons already in Holy Orders, who may join the Society, they may be said to go forth by their own voluntary act; but their Letters of Orders, given by a Bishop of our Church, are their mission and commission, Ecclesiastically speaking.

Hence, to call the acts of the Church Missionary Society—in selecting the station, paying the passage-money, and agreeing to provide the Missionary's salary—to call these acts a SENDING FORTH of Preachers, in an Ecclesiastical sense, is to confound names with things, and to lose sight of all true Church principles.

IV. The Fourth general head under which the proceedings of the Church Missionary Society may be arranged, is, THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MISSIONARIES IN THEIR LABOURS AMONG THE HEATHEN.

Here a distinction must be made between the case of those Foreign Stations which lie within the jurisdiction of a Colonial Bishop, and other stations, which are not so situated, and may therefore be termed Extra-diocesan.

In the first case, the Church Missionary Society has expressly determined, that all its ordained Missionaries shall be submitted for licence to the Bishop of the diocese in which they may be stationed; and that no Missionary shall exercise his spiritual functions in such diocese without a licence. The Society has further recognised the uncontrolled discretion of the Bishop to grant or withhold his licence, and the propriety of specifying in such licence a particular district as the field of labour; so that a Missionary cannot be removed from one district to another without the sanction of the Bishop.

These principles were stated in a Letter from the Society to the Bishop of Calcutta, signed by the Right Honourable the President—December 17, 1835—in a manner so satisfactory to the Bishop, that he embodied them in the four following Rules, expressed for the most part in the words of the Society's Letter: which were, at the Bishop's request, entered upon the minutes of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, as the recognised Rules of their practice:—

"1. The Bishop expresses—by granting or withholding his licence, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approbation or otherwise, of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries afterward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their Ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those—the Committee and Secretary—who still stand in the relation of Lay-Patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his Ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage.—The Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate directions when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop* or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives, further, all such confidential information, on all topics, as the Bishops officially neither could wish nor properly ask [to receive]."

The Bishop also wrote to the Parent Society in the following terms:—"You seem to me to lay down the principle most correctly..... This is to me perfectly satisfactory; as I shall instantly inform the Archbishop of Canterbury, to whom I report all the proceedings of the diocese."—9th June 1836.

It will be perceived, that the Missionaries, thus licensed, stand toward the Bishop in the relation rather of Stipendiary Curates, than of Beneficed Clergymen. For a Bishop in England cannot refuse a licence or institution to a benefice, without assigning a reason which will bear investigation before a Court of Common Law; nor can he deprive a Clergyman of his benefice without a judicial process. But no law has provided any such check in the case of Missionaries: the Bishop has the power of withholding a licence, or of withdrawing it, at his sole discretion, without assigning any cause, as in the case of Stipendiary Curates in this country.

If it be asked, What are the checks and safeguards against the undue exercise of this discretionary power of the Bishop?—it may be replied, in the words of the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Parent Society, April 12, 1837:—

"We are not to take for granted, that discretionary power will be abused; but, on the contrary, to provide, by a cheerful and friendly spirit and conduct, against the likelihood of such an occurrence. If the event of arbitrary conduct should arise, or be supposed to arise, the remedies are—public opinion—an appeal to the Archbishop—and the Society's refusing to make other appointments and locations than those unreasonably objected to. Nothing is the least likely—and probability is the guide of life—to arise to impede or cramp the Committee; since they unquestionably and avowedly possess, The choice of men—The appointment of spheres of labour—The temporal power, including pecuniary support."

But though the Bishop's licence is at once the pledge and proof that the Society's Missionaries are under Episcopal superintendence and jurisdiction, and that the spiritual oversight rests altogether with the Bishop; yet the Society may seem, to some persons, to keep up a kind of spiritual jurisdiction and oversight, by requiring accounts from the Missionaries of all their proceedings, and by giving them directions, from time to time, which may bear upon their spiritual duties. But it must be remembered, that the Society stands toward its Missionaries in the relation of Trustees of the fund out of which their salaries are paid. In the case of a Beneficed Clergyman in this country, the Minister is the guardian and possessor of the temporalities of the benefice, because the benefice is an endowment; and the Patron has no further connexion with the Minister whom he has once presented to the Bishop. In our case, the office of Patron is, in a sense, perpetuated by the payment of the salary, and the possession of all the temporalities of the Mission.

This matter has been well explained by the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, May 26, 1837:—"The Missionary Committees," says his Lordship, "have a far greater latitude in India than any Lay-Patrons at home. Upon presenting his Clerk to the Bishop, the Patron at home is functus officio. The Clergyman is removed, on being once instituted and licensed, totally and for ever from the Patron, and is transferred to the superintendency of the Bishop. The Patron has nothing whatever more to do with him. But in India, the Committee is (1) the continued paymaster of the Missionary after he is duly licensed;—for institution and induction there are none. (2) They correspond with him. (3) They supply him with Catechists. (4) They report his chief proceedings home. (5) They propose removals and changes of Station to the Bishop. (6) They exercise, unavoidably, an influence which does not belong to the mere Lay-Patron; and are aiding, in a variety of ways, to the comfortable and honourable discharge of the Missionary's most exalted and most spiritual duties."

It remains to consider the case of those Stations which are Extra-diocesan; i. e. where there is no Colonial Bishop of the Church of England having jurisdiction over them.

In these cases, the Society has endeavoured to procure for such Stations the benefits of the Episcopal office from the nearest Bishop of the Church of England. Application was made by the Committee both to the late and to the present Bishop of Madras, to extend, as far as circumstances would admit, these benefits to the Mission in Travancore; which, as an independent state, not forming part of the British Dominions, was not included in the diocese of Madras. A similar application was made on behalf of the New-Zealand Mission, to the Bishop of Australia; who at once acceded to the request, and kindly promised to visit New Zealand as soon as his other duties would permit; stating, in a Letter to the Society's representatives at Sydney, "It is highly satisfactory to me, that our friends at home are taking a view of these things which proves them to belong, not only to a MISSIONARY, but also to a CHURCH Society." (See Annual Report, 1838.)

Such is a General View of the Constitution and Proceedings of the Church Missionary Society.

It is not intended to assert, that errors are not sometimes committed in the application of these principles to matters of detail. It must be remembered that Missionary operations are, alas! new and anomalous in the system of the Church of England; and that it is not always easy to draw a definite line between the two provinces which belong respectively to the Bishop and the Committee. It has been observed by the Bishop of Calcutta—Letter, May 26, 1837: "The boundaries of the power of Committees, as they approach to those of the Bishop, can be ascertained, in many points, only by time and observation." Perplexities have consequently occurred; and, unhappily, misunderstandings have sometimes arisen between the Representatives of the Society abroad and Ecclesiastical Authorities. But these are the principles by which the Home Committee have endeavoured to guide the proceedings of the Society; and they confidently respond to a sentiment expressed by the Bishop of Calcutta—"The principles of our new relations are now fully recognised: the details will soon find their level."—Letter, 9th June 1836.

In reviewing the Ecclesiastical relations of the Church Missionary Society, there are two or three points which it seems very important to notice.

1. Missionary operations, as they are conducted by the Church Missionary Society, though apparently anomalous in the system of the Church of England, are yet in strict conformity with its constitution and principles: they are analogous to many other instances of voluntary exertion for the extension of true religion within the Church, in which Ecclesiastical authority and Lay co-operation unite for the accomplishment of the same end: so that these operations may be regarded as the acts of the Church of England, putting forth its energy for the Conversion of the Heathen World. For it has been shown, that the Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth our Missionaries—that these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church. Even in the few cases in which Lutheran Clergymen are employed, this rule is observed; and all the congregations which are gathered into the fold of Christ are trained up as Members of the Church established in this land.

And here it may be observed, that nothing less than the sanction of a duly-assembled Convocation can more fully identify the acts of any Missionary Society, within the Church of England, with the Church.* Without such sanction, all associations of Churchmen must stand in the same position. Still further, not to notice the present abeyance of Convocations, it may be asserted, that even if the Church were to assemble in her provincial Convocations, and to decree and to regulate Missionary operations, such proceedings could not essentially add to, or alter, those important particulars which, under present circumstances, entitle the operations of the Church Missionary Society to be regarded as Missionary operations of the United Church of England and Ireland.

2. It must be ever borne in mind, that Missionary operations are, in their very nature, temporary and preparative;—that they are to be gradually but eventually superseded by a different order of things, when the Heathen Nations shall have become Christianized. In some cases, as in the West Indies, this change is further advanced than in others. Now, it must be expected, that in proportion as this change advances, difficulties and perplexities will arise in our Ecclesiastical relations, peculiar to this TRANSITION STATE—from Missionary operations, to that happy consummation when there shall be an endowed and established system of Christian Instruction, and a territorial division of Ministerial labour.

* The American Episcopal Church has, in Convention, thus identified itself with a Missionary Society.

This consummation the Church Missionary Society has ever kept in view, and devoutly desired; and, as far as possible, has prepared for its approach. In an interview with the Bishop of Barbadoes—April 1835—this point was expressly alluded to; and it was stated by the Committee to his Lordship, "that whenever a district should be brought into the state of an organized Christian community, it should assume entirely the Parochial form, and cease to be occupied as a Missionary Station.—The Bishop entirely acquiesced in this view; and only expressed his anxiety that it should not be so acted upon as prematurely to deprive a district of the Missionary's services."—(Extracts from Committee's Minute.)

3. Lastly, it must be evident, from a review of the whole subject, that our Ecclesiastical relations depend, in many important respects, upon a mutual confidence and good understanding between the Committee and its representatives, and the Ecclesiastical Authorities both at home and abroad. This must be the case, to argue upon no higher grounds, while those relations are governed by Ecclesiastical laws and canons made without reference to Missionary operations, for an Established Church in a Christian country; and where so much is also necessarily left to the discretion of both parties. If we look to our Home operations, the Committee places confidence in the Bishop of London, that he will continue to ordain the Missionary Candidates introduced to his Lordship by the Society, according to the provisions of the Act: and the Lord Bishop of London relies upon the Committee's using every means to select, train, and duly qualify proper Candidates to be thus introduced to him.

So, also, in its Foreign operations, the Society places confidence in the Colonial Bishops—as it has been already shown, in a quotation from the Letter of Bishop Wilson—that they will not exercise an unreasonable or arbitrary discretion, in withholding or withdrawing licences from our Missionaries, or in refusing ordination to our Candidates. And the Bishops, by granting licenses and ordination to the Missionaries of a voluntary Society, whose income is liable to fluctuations, and whose agents are constantly changing, manifestly place confidence in the Committees, that they will use every endeavour to keep up the Missions once established; and that they will not, on their part, act in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner, or withdraw the salary from a licensed Missionary, without reason sufficient to prove to the licensing Bishop the necessity of the proceedings.

It seems impossible to supersede this conventional understanding—as it may be termed—till Missions are supported by endowments, or till a code of Missionary canons be established by competent authority.

This mutual confidence and good understanding now exists, it may be thankfully asserted, between the Committee of the Society and the Ecclesiastical Authorities of every Colonial Diocese in which Missionaries are labouring. And may He, who is the God, not of confusion, but of peace, and "the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls," unite together the hearts and hands of those who are labouring in this Holy Cause—"that all and every of these may, IN THEIR SEVERAL CALLINGS, serve truly and painfully, to the glory of His name!"

At the Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May the 5th, 1857, being the Fifty-eighth Anniversary—

The Right Hon. the EARL OF CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY THE REV. JOHN VENN, M.A., PREBENDARY OF HEREFORD,

On the Motion of the LORD BISHOP OF LONDON, V.P., seconded by the VERY REV. THE DEAN OF CARLISLE, it was

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; that the thanks of this Meeting be given to the Lord Bishop of Carlisle for his Sermon before the Society last evening; to His Grace the Vice-Patron; to the Right Hon. the President and the Vice-Presidents; and to all those friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf; and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the ensuing year, with power to fill up vacancies—[See List, p. iv.]

On the Motion of the LORD BISHOP OF VICTORIA, V.P., seconded by the REV. J. A. JETTER, lately returned from a visit to Turkey, supported by the REV. ROBERT CLARK, B.A., Missionary from Peshawar, it was

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting, while it would express its deep concern at the late manifestation of a fanatical and sanguinary spirit among the revolutionary party in China, and also at the infraction of peace at Canton, as well as the events in Turkey and Persia, would nevertheless remember that the God of nations has often, in the history of Missions, overruled the darkest providences for the furtherance of His truth; and would cherish the hope that He will yet cause the late wide dissemination of His holy word in those countries to bear fruit, and make the wrath of man and the diplomacy of Governments subservient to the entrance of gospel light.

On the Motion of the LORD BISHOP OF RUPERT'S LAND, V.P., seconded by the REV. T. D. BERNARD, Vicar of Terling, Essex, it was

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, although the millions of Asia and Africa invite the friends of Missions to put forth their most strenuous efforts to impart to them the word of life, yet the scattered tribes of the great human family—such as those in North-West America—have a peculiar claim upon Christian sympathy; and the dispensations of Providence warrant the hope that their in-gathering into the fold of Christ may bring unlooked-for blessings to the church, and special glory to the Redeemer of the world.

On the Motion of P. FREDERICK O'MALLEY, Esq., Q.C., seconded by the REV. WILLIAM KEANE, A.M., Vicar of Whitby, Yorkshire, it was

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That while this Meeting thankfully acknowledges the liberal addition to the funds of the Society, chiefly through the exertions of its Associations, and the increase of Missionary candidates, during the last year; yet it would only regard these blessings as incentives to increase their efforts to enlarge both the funds and the agency of the Society, till they shall become more commensurate with the vast resources and the solemn responsibilities of this great Christian nation, and with the amount of success already granted to Christian Missions.

A Meeting of the Society was held in Exeter Hall, in the Evening of the same Day—

THE MOST NOBLE THE MARQUESS OF CHOLMONDELEY, V.P., in the Chair.

The Rev. W. Knight, M.A., Secretary, offered up a prayer; and, after a few remarks by the Chairman, the Meeting was addressed by the Rev. J. Ridgeway, M.A., Editorial Secretary, and Major W. H. Horsley, Madras Engineers—the Rev. D. Hinderer, Missionary from Ibadan, in the Yoruba Country, and the Rev. J. Hawksworth, Missionary from Tiruwella, Travancore—The Rev. J. W. S. Powell, M.A., Rector of Abinger, Surrey, and the Hon. and Rev. S. Waldegrave, M.A., Canon of Salisbury, and Rector of Barford St. Martin, Salisbury.

JOHN XX. 21.

AS MY FATHER HATH SENT ME, EVEN SO SEND I YOU.

ON an occasion such as the present, my brethren, I confess I feel not a little anxious that I may be able to speak a word which may not only bear upon the great work of foreign Missions, but which may tend to the edification of labourers at home. I have entered upon the consideration of my subject without the fear of man, but, I trust, with the fear of God, before my eyes; and I ask your prayers, my Christian friends, that whatever may be rightly spoken at this time, may, by the power of the Holy Ghost, be blessed to the everlasting welfare of souls, for Christ's sake.

The choice of topics for such an address as I am called upon now to deliver is, as you will feel, wide as the Bible itself, for the whole Bible was written for one object. It is able to effect that object: it can make us wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus. The difficulty lay in the selection of the topic which might be the most useful. I have determined to abstain from any subject of that purely Missionary character which would necessarily involve the introduction of Missionary details, inasmuch as they must, as a matter of course, be abundantly set forth at the Annual Meeting. I have selected, therefore, the encouraging words of our Lord to His earliest Missionary agents. They appear to involve—

- I. THE MINISTER'S WORK.
- II. THE MINISTER'S STRENGTH.
- III. THE MINISTER'S ENCOURAGEMENT.

First, then, I would remind you of THE MINISTER'S WORK. It is the very same as that performed by his Divine Master. Christ "came to seek and to save that which was lost;" for "God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved." Accordingly, our blessed Lord, in His most affecting prayer for His people, says, "As Thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world." That He had continually in His mind this great work which was to be entrusted to His Apostles is manifest from the continuation of the same prayer, in which the great Mediator exclaims, "I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word." Our blessed Lord here foresees the breaking-down of "the middle wall of partition" between Jews and Gentiles. He came Himself to be "a light to lighten the Gentiles," as well as "to be the glory of His people Israel." As, then, the Father sent Him, even so sent He forth His ministering servants.

It is true, no doubt, that Christ came as "a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers;" but it is no less true that He came "that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to Thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto Thy name."

Now, let me ask you for a moment to pause and reflect upon the state of the Gentiles as it then was. I need not allude to any descriptions given to us by profane writers: I will keep myself to the written word of God. Turn, then, to Rom. i.: you will read there a catalogue of sins which it is unnecessary for me to quote at length. Turn again to Rom. ii., and you read the effects of sin. God is no unjust judge. He condemns not men on the grounds of laws transgressed, of which they have never heard; but He has taken care that of some law no man shall be ignorant. That law may be from without or from within. It may be the law of Revelation, such as is known to you and to me, as it was known to the Jew of old. It may be the law of Conscience, as it was known to the Gentiles, being written in the heart of every responsible being.

But notice the broad fact—the awful fact—to my mind the overwhelming fact—that St. Paul, writing by the inspiration of the Holy Ghost, says, "As many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law." The conclusion is plain, that "the soul that sinneth, it shall die:" that whether man comes short of the law revealed, and written in a book, or whether he come short of the law unrevealed, but written on the heart, still, as he comes short, so he must perish. The reason of this is clear. Man was in extreme danger of eternal misery, or he was not. If he were not, why did Christ come? Why did the Father send His only-begotten Son? Why was love for the world to be so manifested, even at the extraordinary price of the death of that beloved Son in whom the Father was well pleased? If any man could have saved himself, surely God would have left him to work out that salvation; but if his danger were great, yea, rather, if his lost state were certain, then we comprehend the mercy, the love of God for the world being so great, that He sent His Son to die for them. We therefore bless the Lord “for His inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ.” But we thus bless God, because we feel the necessity of the death of Christ for the obtaining our own personal reconciliation with God. But what we once were in England, the heathen are now in the Mission field. If the death of Christ were necessary for us, it is no less necessary for them. If Christ’s dying were insufficient without our calling upon His name, if we could not have called upon one in whom we had not believed, and if we could not have believed in one of whom we had not heard, and if we could not have heard without a preacher, and if there could have been no preachers except they had been sent—we have only to reverse the picture to see the state of the heathen, and the needs be for our Missionary work; and that, as Jesus came to save the lost, and as the Father sent Him for that purpose, even so sends He His ministers now. The Minister’s work, therefore, is, after the manner of his Divine Master, to go from God to man. In Christ’s stead he prays men to be reconciled to God.

Again, our blessed Lord declared that He was come “a Light into the world;” and again we read that He was “the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.” Let me draw your attention to the state of the world which Christ came to lighten. St. John, in his first Epistle, tells us that “the whole world lieth in wickedness.” Thus, then, we find the whole body of mankind in the darkness of ignorance and sin. Christ came, that men might see the true light and live. “Yet a little while,” said He, “is the light with you. . . . While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light.” As, then, the Father sent Christ, so He sends His Ministers. Thus He said, “Ye are the light of the world.” And St. Paul says of believers, that they “shine as lights in the world; holding forth the word of life.” How is this to be done? How are Ministers thus to copy their Lord and Master? INSTRUMENTALLY, you will at once reply, BY PREACHING THE GOSPEL. Yes, my brethren, but it must be by preaching that gospel which Christ preached, and not another gospel, which, after all, is not another. Alas! though we have much cause to thank God for the increase of Ministers preaching the gospel of Christ, still there is too abundant reason for saying we must not confuse Church principles with the pure gospel. No doubt the true Church-of-England principle is to preach the gospel. Her reverence for the Scriptures—her spiritual prayers—her simple forms—her unadorned buildings—her scriptural Articles—her frequent acknowledgment of the Lord Jesus Christ—all bear me out in this assertion. But this is very different from unchurching other bodies of believers; very different from talking of leaving others to the uncovenanted mercies of God; very different from exalting sacraments over preaching the word; very different from assuming and constantly affirming that none but the episcopally-ordained can expect God's blessing on their labours, and that sending out Missionaries without an episcopal head is so much labour in vain. We do not find Christ wasting time which should be spent in preparing for eternity, in preaching matter such as this; we do not find real apostles for ever laying down crudities about apostolic succession. Nor shall we find the true Ministers of Christ, the real successors of apostles, wiser than their Apostolic Fathers; but we find them jealous with a godly jealousy of the good old apostolic doctrine, which lifts up Christ, that all men may be drawn to Him. We find them, one and all, proclaiming, with Paul, We are "not ashamed of the gospel of Christ." We are "determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified." "We preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks foolishness; but unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God." This is doing as Christ did. He declared, that if men believed not that He was the Christ they should die in their sins. His servants declare "there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." They do not pare down this gracious truth lest they should be thought to encourage a life of ungodliness. They do not add to it to pander to the pride of man. But as they find the truth, so they preach the truth, not seeking to be pleasers of men, but servants of Christ. It is no party question in the sense in which some men use that word, and would fain make all others abjure the name. It is no question of man against man, of high against low, of this great name or of that great name; nevertheless, it is a party question. It is truth against error. It is Scripture against tradition. It is God's truth against the devil's lie. But if it be no party question, it is an all-important question; for, as St. Paul says, "Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." Christ, then, must be manifested simply, fully, freely; for, as Paul teaches us, "God will make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: whom," Paul adds, "we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus." Language may differ, our style of arrangement may differ, our method of addressing others may differ, but the substance of our preaching, if we would enlighten others, must not differ. It must be Christ, and Christ alone, the sinner's hope. Then will men speedily find that their faith does "not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God."

The Minister will also enlighten others PERSONALLY BY HIS LIFE. The gospel preached, shows the way of life: the gospel felt, exhibits the Divine life itself. The Minister, therefore, exhibits a LIFE OF ZEAL. Recollect what Jesus did. He declared His meat was to do the will of Him that sent Him, and to finish His work. How little do the hardest workers here, in happy England, know of the zeal of the Missionary abroad—his exposure to cold, which cannot cool his desire to be the instrument of saving souls; his exposure to heat, which seems to serve only the more to make his heart burn with love to his Saviour's cause; his sufferings from hunger and thirst, which appear only to furnish him with more pointed illustrations of the sinner's longing after righteousness, and the joy felt in heaven as rivers of living water are made to pour forth for the refreshment of the wearied soul.

Remember Christ's self-denial, when He, who "thought it not robbery to be equal with God, made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: and being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross." Thus the Minister, remembering that as Christ was sent by the Father even so is he sent by Christ, says, "We preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake." No office is too low, no labour too great. He becomes all things to all men, if by any means He can save some.

Call to mind the consistency of Christ. "Which of you convinceth me of sin?" was the bold challenge thrown down by the great Captain of our salvation. How carefully does the faithful Minister walk towards them that are without, desiring to be like his heavenly Master, "a burning and shining light," that men may follow him even as he follows Christ!

I will not stay to dwell upon the unity of Christ and the Father, and the important part of the Minister's work to cultivate the spirit of unity amongst any who hold the head, even Christ, inducing them to pray for grace to all them that love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity; but I will just remark, that, as with Him who was sent by the Father, so with them who are sent by the Son, in word and deed they seek the glory of God. Jesus said, "I seek not mine own glory;" but He did aim at the glory of the Father, for God is glorified when souls are rescued from Satan. The great enemy has brought man under his own power. He appears to many to be triumphant. The world lieth in the wicked one, says St. John; but Christ, by death, overcame him that had the power of death, that is, the devil, and he boldly bids His people "be of good cheer." He encourages them with the word, because He lives, they shall live also. But surely no one who understands the Minister's work at all—no one who has advanced beyond the wretched state of those who look upon all religions as if they were alike, and all Ministers as so many hirelings—will doubt that this is the prayer, this is the desire, this is the end of the labours, of every faithful Minister; namely, that he may despoil the kingdom of Satan, and bring glory to his heavenly Master. There is indeed joy in heaven over every sinner that repenteth.

Again, God is glorified when idols are rejected, and God is worshipped in spirit and in truth. You will remember the terms which are used in the Scripture on the subject of idolatry: God is pleased to compare Himself to a husband, and His people to a bride. When His people forsake Him, they are addressed as adulterers and adulteresses, in order to describe the loathsomeness of such a sin in the eyes of Him who demands the affection and the worship of an undivided heart. But idols are creatures of every form. There are the grotesque figures of the Hindu: there are the, to us, more attractive forms of money, pleasure, honour: in a word, the many and various things which are allowed to usurp that place in our hearts, which our God, who is a jealous God, alone ought to occupy. But this is the very object of Missionary work, of Ministerial work, at home and abroad; and no doubt, in the day of the Lord of Hosts, "the lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day. . . . And the idols He shall utterly abolish. . . . In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats; to go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the Lord, and for the glory of His majesty, when He ariseth to shake terribly the earth." Thank God, this work is being accomplished. I look not only to the many bodies of spiritual worshippers in Africa and the East, but to the increased and increasing numbers of congregations in which the word is faithfully preached at home, and who are devout and holy worshippers of the one living and true God.

Once more, God is glorified when man is humbled and Christ is exalted. This was the substance of Christ's own preaching; this is the end of the Minister's labours; and happy is that Minister who finds, as the fruit of his teaching, his poor fellow-worm exclaiming, from the depths of his heart, "God be merciful to me a sinner!" and, in looking unto Jesus, finds Him his "all-in-all." But let me ask, What is it that rescues souls from Satan—what leads to the rejection of idolatrous worship—what humbles man and exalts Christ—but a preached gospel? I need not, in this assembly, say more than that "that sweet story of old," Christ died to save sinners, has proved that it was adapted to men of every age. It is suitable for every want, and is successful in every clime. I will venture boldly to affirm that no philosopher can candidly examine the plan of salvation without coming to this same conclusion; and that wherever the gospel is examined and rejected the fault rests exclusively with the heart, and not the head, of the wretched infidel who thus "rejects the counsel of God against himself." We may be thankful, my brethren, to see how this truth is increasingly recognised in our day. I allude not only to the growth of that great Society, in behalf of which it is my privilege to plead to-night; but I look back to that witty but most lamentable article, which, many years ago, disgraced the pages of the "Edinburgh Review," but which that clever and important periodical, I am sure, would never consent to publish now. We may compare the value set upon the gospel then, with the value set upon the gospel now; and we may bless God, who of His grace has led so many to see "it is the power of God, and the wisdom of God, unto salvation." We may bless God that the world now appreciates more justly the Minister's work, and is ready to condemn the unhappy hireling who calls himself a pastor for the sake of the fleece, but leaves the sheep and the lambs to take care of themselves; while it is ready to acknowledge the honesty, fidelity, and courage of the man who, "counting all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ," is willing to spend and be spent in doing the work of an evangelist, and thus to follow in the footsteps of the Lord Jesus Christ who addressed His servants in the language of the text, "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you."

Leaving, then, this, the first part of my subject, the Minister's work, I proceed to notice, secondly, THE MINISTER'S STRENGTH.

I consider that that Minister is weak indeed who has no personal assurance of the truth which he is called upon to preach. I do not say that a Minister must not preach above his experience. He is not called upon to announce his experience at all. He is called upon to preach Christ crucified, the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour. He is to preach the truth. But, at the same time, I am convinced that a powerful ministry is that which speaks from the heart to the heart; and that, as our blessed Lord exclaimed, "I know Him: for I am from Him, and He hath sent me," even so the Minister should be able to say, with St. John, "that which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of Life . . . that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ. And these things write we unto you, that our joy may be full." St. Paul also said, quoting from the Psalms, "I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak." When men speak with stammering lips, showing either indifference to the truths they utter, or an uncertainty as to whether they are truths at all, one result only can be expected: the hearers will be indifferent too, or remain, at any rate, in uncertainty at least equal to that of the speaker himself. But let a man feel assured of the momentous character of the message he delivers, that it cannot be a matter of indifference to those who hear him, for that while he himself may be a sweet savour of Christ in them that are saved and in them that perish, still to the one he is, alas! the savour of death unto death, and to the other (thank God for it!) the savour of life unto life—I say, when the Minister feels this, he cannot keep silence. He beholds his fellow-men, his countrymen at home, his fellow-creatures abroad, as men alienated from God, strangers from the covenant of promise, under condemnation, waiting only for the decree to go forth which shall banish them for ever to the place appointed for the devil and his angels. He knows the way of salvation has been appointed; he accepts it as revealed; he feels, if men will hear they will believe. "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." He unhesitatingly invites the guilty; He promises wisdom to the ignorant; comfort to the sorrowful; rest, peace, joy, to all who will accept the mercy proffered in the name of the Lord Jesus. Christ's example becomes at once the faithful Minister's practice.

Like his Divine Master, he says, "I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, He gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. And I know that His commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak, therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak." It is this, which, under the teaching of the Spirit, makes the hearer feel there is a message from God to him: it is this which constrains the thoughtless to think: it is this which strengthens and girds up the Minister. He sees the danger; he proclaims the remedy; his heart tells him all the salvation of his hearers turns on his message being received. Regardless, therefore, of being called an enthusiast, indifferent to the worldly consequences of his labour, counting not even his life dear unto himself, he is instant in season and out of season, preaching Christ, and Him crucified, desiring only that he may bring many to share that glory which has been purchased for him by the Redeemer's blood.

This, however, is not all. The Minister feels his strength must daily be recruited, and this by personal application to the Father. Christ said, "As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me." I do not stay, my Brethren, to discuss the controverted point how far this does or does not refer to the sacrament of the Lord's Supper—you who are here probably agree exactly with me on that point; but this certainly it implies, that, as food from our fathers according to the flesh is needful for the growth in physical strength of the children, even so for spiritual strength must application be made for spiritual food at the hand of our spiritual Father, and the food which that Father will dispense is Christ. The Minister has nothing which he has not derived. Without Christ, neither he nor any other Christian can do anything. But the more he draws near to God, the more will he draw from Christ; and the more that he is strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus, the more will he do for the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls. Here, then, is his strength. He sees the difficulties which are before him; he knows the hardness of the human heart; he is personally acquainted with the fact, so hard to realize, that the carnal mind is enmity against God; and he throws himself upon his friend, his Saviour, his God, cheered with such texts as, "My grace is sufficient for thee"—"As I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. . . . Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest."

Again, the Minister's strength will be in proportion as his eye is single to God's glory. Christ's meat and drink was to do his Father's will. The weight which cripples the Minister's usefulness is the thought of self when allowed to take the place of the thought of Christ, which is the case when he seeks his own glory: then his nerve will fail him, his success will disappoint him. Peter looked to Christ, and walked on the sea. Peter thought of self, and began to sink. But this eye to God's glory is very much the same thing, practically, as that living faith which, keeping to Christ, works by love, and overcomes the world, enabling the Minister to say, with the apostle of old, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

But let me add one word to this part of my subject: the Minister never will be strong who does not realize his own weakness. "When I am weak, then am I strong," said the apostle; and so says the Christian Minister.

But I must hasten on to speak of the third subject I was to urge upon your notice, THE MINISTER'S ENCOURAGEMENT.

Time would fail me, and your patience would certainly fail, if I attempted to run through the various grounds of encouragement which must strike the mind of every thoughtful Christian. I might remind you of that forcible and touching speech of an Archbishop, who, in the days when civil and ecclesiastical offices were much more often united than they are now, was Lord-Keeper as well as Archbishop. "I have passed," said Archbishop Williams, "through many places of honour and trust, both in Church and State, more than any of my order in England for seventy years before; but were I assured that, by my preaching, I had converted but one soul unto God, I should herein take more comfort than in all the honours and offices that have ever been bestowed upon me." The hope of saving souls, the seeing souls saved, is, indeed, an encouragement to devote oneself to the work of God, and to persevere in it, beyond, and far beyond, the estimate of those who have never attempted to speak a word for their heavenly Master.

I might speak of the affectionate sympathy for the teacher felt by a loving and grateful people on his separation from them. You have only to read the letters of our Christian and coloured brethren abroad, when they see their devoted pastors removed from them, even though it be but for a season. If the love of sympathy, and the desire of securing affection, be a holy and a right motive, the Minister has a strong encouragement here. But I must mention a few things which strike me as the most forcible encouragements recorded in the word of God. Amongst the chief, I would refer, first, to the certainty of the Lord's presence with His faithful servants. "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." Jesus said, "He that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please Him:" and Jesus also said, in the language of the text, "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you." Paul was thus encouraged—"The Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto His heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever." What, my brethren, is heaven itself, but being where the Lord is? And what is it, I ask, that enables an humble-minded man, acquainted with his own sinful nature, experienced in the plague of his own heart—what, I ask, enables him to stand up before the great, the learned, the mighty ones of earth, and tell them they must be born again if they would enter the kingdom of heaven? What enables him to warn them with the awful truth, that in Christ they are saved, but that out of Christ they are lost? What enables him to cast aside his natural modesty, and in all assurance, whether they will hear or whether they will forbear, to entreat his fellows to come as hell-deserving sinners to Christ? It is, I unhesitatingly affirm, the knowledge that the great King, whose ambassador he is, is Himself at the right hand, ever present with him, bidding him fear not; that He is there, and will never leave him nor forsake him; that the message is not his, but God's; that the success is not his, but God's; that the glory is not his, but God's. He alone worketh great marvels. As the Minister honours the work of the Spirit, so will the Spirit honour him in the results of his labour.

In the next place, the faithful servant of Christ is assured of success. Jesus has Himself said, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." Paul said, "In due season we shall reap, if we faint not." The word, says Isaiah, cannot return void. What encouragement, then, is here to the Minister at home, to the Missionary abroad, and to you, my brethren, who contribute towards finding the funds for sending the labourers forth who may work in the Lord's vineyard! The sound the servants of this Institution give is no "uncertain sound." The result you may expect is no uncertainty either. The husbandman, who sows and expects great things to result, is often disappointed; but this cannot be. Sow the seed. God will water it; the angels will gather it; heaven shall house it; and you shall rejoice in the great day that — round the throne, at God's right hand,

 The saints in countless myriads stand ;
 Of every tongue, redeemed to God,
 Arrayed in garments washed in blood.

Through tribulation great they came ;
 They bore the cross, despised the shame :
 From all their labours now they rest,
 In God's eternal glory blest.

No unimportant part, my Christian friends, will you play at that time. Having made to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness, when you fail you shall be received into everlasting habitations. They that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars for ever and ever. (Dan. xii.)

My brethren, I have endeavoured briefly to touch upon this great subject—the Ministerial work. Whatever is true of the work in Christendom, is no less true of the work in Heathendom. Will any young man hesitate to ask the Lord to make the way plain for his devoting himself to the great and blessed work of saving souls ? When the last great war thinned the ranks of England's armies, the list of candidates to fill their places never was so great. Parents, whose hearts beat with the deepest affection for their noble-spirited sons, never for one moment interposed. The cause of truth and England's glory was enough for them. Will parents interfere now, when the Missionary ranks require to be filled up and increased ? Will England's youth, that feared not the bloody path of worldly glory, now fear the path which will assuredly lead to eternal glory ? Will England's youth, that never for an hour doubted whether they should join an army to destroy life, now hesitate to join the ranks of those whose one great hope is to secure life eternal ? My brethren, notwithstanding these days of high prices, and heavy taxes, God has found the money. Your Society has fully maintained its place. He will find the men : your Mission stations shall not languish.

The harvest is plenteous, the labourers are few. Brethren, one and all, pray ye the Lord of the harvest that He will send forth labourers into His harvest. God will answer your faithful prayers, and a chosen band will go forth, with the blessed motto on their banner, to encourage them in the hour of difficulty and of danger—"As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you ;" and in that great day when the Church triumphant shall be complete, they will hear the voice of the great Captain Himself exclaiming, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant . . . enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

May the Lord grant that this may be your lot, and mine, for Jesus Christ's sake !

REPORT,

&c. &c.

THE Committee have to report, with devout thankfulness to Almighty God, that the Income raised for the Society, during the past year, in this country (exclusive of the sums raised and expended in the Missions), has exceeded that of any former year.

INCOME.

| GENERAL FUND—Associations, Benefactions, Legacies, &c. . . . . | £         | s. | d. |
| Collected for Deficiency of last year . . . . .                | 114,523   | 18 | 11 |
| Fund for Disabled Missionaries, &c. . . . .                    | 6930      | 16 | 6  |

| Total received in the United Kingdom. . . . .                  | £ 123,174 | 12 | 9  |

This statement exhibits an increase of the ordinary income of the Society above that of the previous year of more than 1000*l.*, in addition to the special collections to cover the deficiency of last year. The contributions from the Country Associations have greatly advanced, which is an encouraging sign that the interest felt in the Society's proceedings is on the increase throughout the country.

The sums raised and expended in the Missions have not yet been advised; but they will at least equal those of last year. So that the Committee may announce a grand total of at least 136,000*l.* as having been raised, during the last year, by friends at home and abroad, in support of the operations of the Church Missionary Society.

The largeness of this income is no matter of boasting, but it is to be regarded as a proof of an increasing interest in the cause of Christian Missions; and also as an incentive to elevate the standard of Christian liberality to a point more in accordance with our great privileges as a Church and nation, and the increasing openings for Missionary enterprise.

INCREASE OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

The Committee have also to report, to the praise of “the Lord of the harvest,” a large increase of Missionary candidates, through two sources of supply, in addition to that afforded by their College at Islington. Within the last year no fewer than ten young clergymen and graduates of our Universities have offered themselves; and another zealous clergyman, who, thrice offered himself in former years for Mission work, but was hindered by providential circumstances, unexpectedly presented to the Committee five young men, as his substitutes, whom he had trained and tested as Scripture Readers; and whom the Committee, after examination, thankfully adopted, and at once sent out. They are all now labouring in Africa, with every promise of usefulness.

ISLINGTON INSTITUTION.

Thirty students have been resident in the Institution, for a longer or shorter period, during the past year. The average number in residence has been, as in the preceding year, twenty-one.

The Principal remarked, in his Report for 1855-56, that the number of admissions to the Institution had never, within his experience, been so small. He now reports— “It is matter of thankful congratulation that there has been a decided increase in the number of Candidates accepted on probation during the past year. This may well encourage renewed and believing prayer for the provision of an adequate supply."

Nine students have left the Institution, either for their respective stations, or preparatory to sailing.

"The general state of the Institution," the Principal reports, "has been such as to call for thankfulness, and to encourage hope. There has been satisfactory evidence of the abiding presence of the Spirit of God. A remarkable measure of brotherly love has prevailed among the students, and their zeal has been at once tested, exercised, and sustained, by a participation in varied and peculiar Home Mission labours.

"The studies of the Institution have been pursued with diligence, and with average success. The late examination for Holy Orders by the Bishop of London called forth repeated expressions of his Lordship's interest in the Society's Candidates, and of his satisfaction with the results of their diligence."

Two Missionary schoolmasters are under training in the Highbury Training College.

The MISSIONARIES' CHILDREN'S HOME has had an average of 75 children during the year. It has pleased God to visit the Institution with an attack of scarlet fever, in a mild form, which spread through more than half the children. But all have recovered, through the mercy of God, and the disease has now disappeared.

PATRONAGE.

During the year the Committee have added to their list of Vice-Presidents, the Marquess of Blandford, the Rev. the Lord Wriothlesley Russell, the Lord Bishops of London, of Gloucester and Bristol, of Ripon, and of Graham's Town, Capt. the Hon. Francis Maude, R.N., the Hon. Sydney Roper Curzon, the Dean of Carlisle, and Vice-Admiral Sir Henry Hope, K.C.B.

The Committee have also added to the list of Life Governors, having rendered very essential service to the Society, the Rev. Benjamin Bailey, Rector of Sheinton, late Missionary at Cottayam, in Travancore; the Rev. Henry Powell, Rector of Bolton-le-Moors, and the Rev. John Talbot Johnston, Vicar of Beccles, for many years Missionaries in Ceylon, and lately Association Secretaries; and Major William H. Horsley, Madras Engineers, who for twenty-one years has rendered essential service to the Society's Missions in South India.

ORDINATION OF MISSIONARIES.

Twenty-three of the Society's Candidates have, in the past year, been admitted to Deacons' Orders—Six Students from the Institution, Islington, by the Bishop of London, and one by the Bishop of Ripon; eleven Native Catechists, by the Bishop of Sierra Leone; and five Native Catechists, by the Bishop of Madras.

NUMBER OF MISSIONARY LABOURERS.

The number of European labourers reported last year, has been reduced by three deaths, and two withdrawals, on account of ill-health or other causes precluding them from again resuming Missionary labours. Other labourers having joined the Missionary band, the present number of European labourers and Native Clergymen is as follows—

I. — PASTORAL WORK WITHIN THE COLONY.

Commencement of an indigenous Ministry.

THE Committee have endeavoured to mark from year to year the progress by which this Mission is gradually passing into a self-supporting and settled native church. During the last year an important step in advance has been taken, by the ordination, on Sunday, June 8, 1856, of six native catechists, who have been wholly trained in the educational establishments within the colony, and of two others of the same class, who had formerly resided for short periods in the College at Islington. The previous ordinations of native ministers had been in England, by the Bishop of London. The event now recorded must therefore be regarded as the commencement of an indigenous ministry in the native church of Sierra Leone. Forty-five years have elapsed since the first native was received as a communicant, and now there exists a large native church, numbering 3748 communicants, supporting their own schools, which contain 4499 scholars, and ministered to by ten native pastors. While the Committee thank God for this success, they cannot but point out one inference which may be drawn, namely, that the establishment of the church of Christ in any heathen land is, under the present system of Missions, a work of much time, requiring, also, a large expenditure of life and treasure by the church at home. If we desire to see quicker and larger results, there is need of more strenuous exertions, of larger sacrifices, and, above all, of more prayer to God to make bare His arm in the sight of the heathen, and to pour down His Holy Spirit upon all the agency employed, and upon the hearts of the people, "as floods upon the dry ground."

Confirmations.

Bishop Weeks thus describes a general confirmation which he held in the colony—

You will be pleased to know that I held nine confirmations in this colony during the month of October. It was a soul-stirring season: upwards of 1400 were confirmed, and I hope and believe that the careful and scriptural, and, I may say, prayerful instructions previously given to those candidates by our dear Missionaries, and their most calm and solemn deportment, will, with the blessing of God, be long remembered for their spiritual good. I suffered much from illness during the whole of October, and, had I not made the appointments for the confirmations, I certainly should have remained very quiet; but it appears that my very necessity of going from station to station was of real benefit. We are always learning in the school of experience. May every lesson be sanctified!

Death of the Rev. James Beale.

It has pleased God to remove one of the Missionaries to his eternal rest, the Rev. James Beale, after twenty years of zealous and successful labours in the colony; so that the Committee are constrained to mingle their praises for the advantages so long enjoyed from his labours with their lamentations for his loss. Having been advised to try a sea voyage for the recovery of his health, he determined to visit Lagos and Abbeokuta, chiefly with the view of seeing some of the Sierra-Leone emigrants who had been under his instruction, and who, it was feared, were in danger of being drawn back into the sinful practices of their countrymen.

He desired once more to address to them an affectionate and faithful warning, and to encourage them to stand fast in the Lord. One Sunday he was enabled thus to preach to a crowded congregation at Lagos; but it was his last work: he died the same week.

One of the lately-ordained native ministers, the Rev. Joseph Wilson, thus pours out his lamentation upon this event—

Jan. 17—At the arrival of the mail this morning from the coast, we had the painful intelligence of the death of our dear brother, the Rev. J. Beale. His death is indeed very painful to us, from our not having had the privilege of paying our last regards, in the interment of his remains. He had laboured here for many years among us; but the God of time and eternity, who seeth not as man, whose ways are just and upright, sees Lagos to be the fit and proper place for the grave of this devoted servant. Full of zeal and love for his heavenly Father's cause, he went to this part of his Master's vineyard with a mind to strengthen his brethren, and to speak to the people there of the Saviour's name, and then to return to his appointed sphere of labour at Sierra Leone, where he was anxiously expected by all his brethren and friends. But the evening of his days had arrived: he had fought the good fight of faith, had finished his course: a voice from above called him to his eternal rest. And there, at Lagos, his remains are commanded to wait till the awful morning of the resurrection, when the last trumpet shall sound, and all the nations of the earth be gathered together at the bar of the Judge. But hark! methinks I see and hear him still speaking in the grave at Lagos, standing with his hands expanded, one towards Europe and the other towards Sierra Leone, beckoning, as he calls aloud, "Christian friends of Europe and Sierra Leone, delay not, but come over in haste, and help: the field is extensively wide, and ready for the gospel, but very few are the labourers." By his death we have lost one of our most useful, devoted, and zealous Missionaries, whose memory will never be forgotten while this generation lasts, and Christ's church still stands amongst us.*

General View of the Work.

The extracts from the communications of the Missionaries which may be cited, in order to give a view of the progress of the pastoral work in the colony, will commence with those of the Missionary whose death has been just described. In reviewing the state of the congregation at Pademba-Road church, and the district generally over which he ministered, Mr. Beale writes, Sept. 29, 1856—

In presenting a brief view of the Lord's work in the stations under my care, I feel truly thankful in being able to say, that, in the best things, there seems steady progress. We have all had our trials this half year, and have been led to see and feel that human sympathy and support may soon fail. Happy, thrice happy, we, if led more and more to seek, as our chief aim, the approving eye of our blessed God.

In conclusion, I can truly say that I never was surrounded with more cheering prospects. Services and classes are well attended; the people willing and affectionate; whilst the Lord is, in mercy, continually bearing witness to His own truth, and adding to His church such as shall be saved.

One particular instance may be added, as a specimen of the patience with which this faithful husbandman sowed the seed, and “waited long” for the fruit.

May 8, 1856—This was a happy day at Brookfield. The few faithful ones had looked forward with pleasure to the time when they would be able to worship God in their own little chapel. It was rather long in building, as the people had to find the roof, raise, fill-in, and level the floor, as well as clean the ground: this they could only do as they raised the means: as they are but few, and in the midst of many heathen, they could not get much help. The task being fulfilled, they rejoiced at being permitted to see the opening services. It was a pleasant sight to see in this place, where Satan’s seat is, 263 souls attentively listening to the word of life. For three years I kept up a weekly service near this place, under great discouragements, and often open violence from the heathen. I was then thankful to see a dozen people. It was given up during my absence in England, and the building allowed to fall to ruins. The result has shown that those efforts were not in vain. One solitary inquirer only then appeared to cheer me. Now we have fourteen in class, some very decided Christians, and with every prospect of soon increasing the number.

The Rev. C. T. Frey, in his journal, thus alludes to the exercise of church discipline, which often brings to light those evils in the native church which cause the main trials of a Missionary, so touchingly described by Mr. Beale—

Church discipline is steadily kept up among us. In exercising this branch of duty we meet with very painful instances of ignorance and hypocrisy—yea, now and then with determined wickedness, which cannot be tolerated among Christians. Seven backsliders were re-admitted, after they had expressed sorrow and shame at their former conduct. This statistic plainly tells that we have not arrived yet at a state of great perfection. May God, by His own grace, establish our church in this colony!

The Rev. W. Young draws the following striking contrast between the former times, upon his first arrival in the Mission, and the present day—then removed for about sixteen years from it, when I again returned. When I contrast the state of the people at the first period with the present I can only exclaim, What hath the Lord done! The fallow-ground has been broken up, the good seed prayerfully sown, and it has brought forth much fruit: sheaves have been gathered into the garner; and this portion of our Lord's vineyard is presenting to the eye of faith a very pleasing and encouraging aspect as a parochial charge. I very well remember the time, nearly sixteen years ago, when I contended with fierce and inveterate idolaters, flourishing their sticks and cow-tails before my face, throwing up dust in the air, and turning my preaching into ridicule in the narrow streets and lanes of the village. But now, great is the change in the moral and spiritual condition of these people. In those streets and lanes are living many of the Christian families of our church. The successive and unwearied preaching of the gospel of Christ by His humble servants has effected a great change in them, which is proved by the fact of their casting off idolatry, from the conviction and perception wrought in their hearts by the Spirit of God that it was wrong. Some of these, men and women, I was privileged to baptize two years ago, and they are now added to our church, "clothed, and in their right mind," and are growing, it is hoped, in conformity to the Son of God, and looking for the hope of the gospel. The Christian converts at my station are now formed into a church state. Strictly speaking, there is no direct Missionary work: heathenism is abolished. My whole time is occupied in the instruction of my people in classes, visiting from house to house, preaching, discipline, and ministerial duties.

In another letter, Dec. 18, Mr. Young, whose long experience in Africa enables him to speak with authority, writes—

The five native deacons now working at their respective stations are a great blessing to their people, and a great relief to the European labourers. They are acceptable to their people, and diligent and happy in their work.

The ensuing extract is from a letter of the native minister, the Rev. George Nicol, dated Regent, August 13—

All hearts are cheered at seeing the great success of the Society in the present ripeness of their Sierra-Leone Mission. The School Committee met at the Mission house a few days ago; and it will do the hearts of our Christian friends good to hear their simple but heartfelt expressions of gratitude to God for what their eyes are now permitted to see. Nearly all of them are Johnson's men, whose grey heads show they must have passed through many years. In addressing the Meeting, one and all alluded to that devoted Missionary's time, when the work was in its infancy. "If any one," they said, "had told us at the time that we would have our own sons to teach and preach to us, we would never have believed it." The work of grace in the hearts of some of these simple-minded people is astonishing to me. There is a poor man here who has been confined to his bed for years through sickness. He sits absolutely in ashes, for his bed is only a mat drawn near the fireside: but he is rich in faith. I have invariably returned from a visit to him quickened and encouraged in my own soul. He cannot read the A B C; but it would do the greatest divine good to spend an hour with him. The work is real, not illusory.

Mr. Nicol had been previously engaged at the Fourah-Bay Institution. He thus playfully alludes to his release from scholastic drudgery—

The first time I met my communicants' class I felt myself in another atmosphere. How different, I thought, was my engagement in the College! I come here, not to inform the head, but the heart; not to speak of tangents and cosines, but to declare the truth as it is in Christ. I pray the Lord may teach me afresh. With all my infirmities, shortcomings, &c., I think I can say my heart is in the work, and my object is to preach Christ.

Individual instances of Divine grace.

A few individual instances are, as in former Reports, selected as affording lively representations of the power of the gospel upon the hearts of some among the people. The Rev. F. Bültmann reports in his journal—

June 12, 1856—Buried Jeremiah Reffel, a boy of eighteen years. He was sick for some time of dropsy, and in my late visits I was happy to find his heart evidently wrought upon by the grace of Christ, and he departed this life trusting alone in His merits for salvation. His parents are pious people, and both members of our church. But, old, worn-out people, who receive 2*d.* a day, they lie down to rest about sunset, by which time I have come now and then to their house, and found the old man, with his family around him, at evening prayer. Being himself unable to read, he is one of the most regular attendants at our early morning prayer at church. A still older couple than they, also church people, live in my immediate neighbourhood, whose morning and evening prayer, both very early—between four and five in the morning, and seven and eight in the evening—and always conducted by the husband, are so regular and so devout, as would put to blush—it has done me many a time—thousands of professed Christians, born and bred in the lap of Christianity. It is remarkable how largely intercessory the African's prayer mostly is. Of late, I have now and then overheard this man—who is particularly loud in his devotions, though not at all in order to be heard, but from very earnestness—praying for my absent wife and family at home. I need hardly say how this encourages me under so painful a separation.

Aug. 31—One of my Kent members, who was present last week at the sacrament, has since become totally blind; but, happily, his spiritual eyes are anointed with eye-salve to see that as many as the Lord loveth He rebukes and chastens. Another, likewise present last week, is now apparently fast approaching her end; but her heart, also, is directed, I trust, "into the love of God, and the patient waiting for Christ." His harvest of souls among our liberated Africans is fast gathering in; and one could not love Christ without being cheered, ever and anon, under the drawbacks of climate and lack of intellectual Christian society, by the blessed prospect of so much glory accruing to Him from the hundreds and thousands of souls that were born in gross darkness, but brought to His marvellous light, and are now, here one and there one, daily ripening for eternity.

The Rev. Josiah Thomas, a native deacon, notices in his journal a visit from a woman of the Ibo tribe, who had heard of the Niger expedition which would bring the light of the gospel into her fatherland. She said, "I earnestly pray that God may do for my tribe what He has done for the Yoruba nation. I thank the Church Missionary Society for what they have done for Africa." She then produced 1*l.* in half-crowns, which she begged to give as an anonymous donation, and a thank-offering to God for what He had done for her soul.

Mr. Bartholomew, a native catechist, records the following notice of one of the converts—

July 24—The sea has been very boisterous these few days. James Takeham's canoe was returning home. Being unable to see their way from the violence of the storm, they ran against a rock, and the canoe was dashed to pieces. There were six men in the canoe. Four of them were rescued by Parker's boat, who was coming from fishing; but two of the men, Henry Turner and James Williams, were drowned. Turner was one of our Sunday scholars. He was a pious man, and was fond of the Bible. I became acquainted with him about six years ago, when I was stationed here the first time. He was a liberated African of the Yoruba tribe, and was brought to this colony, through British benevolence, in the year 1838. He often said to me, "I love the Church Missionary Society's teaching, because they do teach nothing but simplicity and truth;" and by their instrumentality he was brought to know how to read a little. I learned from his fellow-sufferers, who providentially were saved, that the last words they heard from him were, "Lord, have mercy on my soul! Lord, Thy will be done!" and he was no more heard.

II.—EDUCATION.

The Fourah-Bay Institution continues under the direction of the Rev. E. Jones, assisted by the Rev. C. Reichardt, Mr. Nicol having been removed to Regent. The measures alluded to in the last Report, of throwing the Institution open for the reception of students who can pay for their instruction, have not yet been carried into effect. The number of pupils, therefore, is only eight. Mr. Jones, in his report, Oct. 31st, 1856, takes a review of his labours since the present building was opened.

We have now completed the eighth year of our residence in our present commodious building. During that period, fifty-one students have been admitted, of whom twenty-four are now in the service of the Society, in the colony, and the Timneh and Yoruba Missions; two have died; and the others, for the most part, are respectably and usefully employed in various situations, some as clerks, and others as teachers to religious bodies unconnected with ourselves. One—Mr. Thomas King—was admitted to deacons' orders by the late Bishop Vidal; three have been sent to England for a medical education; and several are now prepared for ordination.

It is a comfort to reflect, that, with one exception, all are giving us good hope that they are instrumental in helping to carry on the work of the Lord. May the power of the Spirit rest upon them, in opening their eyes to wider views of the evil of sin in their own hearts, enlightening them in the knowledge of the truth as it is in Christ, and strengthening them unto all patience and perseverance in the work whereunto He has called them. The season just past has been a trying one to us all, but the Lord is graciously overruling evil for good, in producing in us greater watchfulness and prayer. . . .

In regard to higher and more important matters, I am truly thankful that here, too, I can report progress. At the last confirmation, the five junior students were confirmed by Bishop Weeks.

The Grammar School is under the care of the Rev. J. Millward, assisted by the native minister, the Rev. J. Quaker. It numbers fifty-six pupils, of whom twenty-seven are boarders. The tutors have been much encouraged by the conduct of some of the pupils in their preparation for confirmation.

The Female Institution has been under the care of Miss Sass and Miss Wilkinson. There are twenty-four pupils, of whom one only is a day-scholar: the rest are boarders. This Institution is not only fulfilling the important office of raising the female education to a nearer level than it has hitherto attained to the male education of the colony, but it also affords the same benefit to natives of Abbeokuta and Fernando Po, several of whom have received instruction in it. The ladies who have devoted themselves to this important and benevolent work speak with much caution of any hopeful signs in the girls, having been tried with many disappointments, "through the natural instability of the African character." Yet Miss Sass is able to write, at the close of the year, Dec. 18—"We have to thank God that He has not left us quite comfortless ;” and then goes on to enumerate by name eleven, educated in the Female Institution, now respectably filling posts of usefulness and importance, and alludes to others who do credit to their instructress. The parents, also, of girls from Fernando Po express the greatest satisfaction and gratitude for all that is done for their children.

III.—EXTENSION OF MISSIONARY EFFORT BEYOND THE COLONY.

Timneh Mission, Magbeli.

The more hopeful prospects of the Timneh Mission, since the removal of the Missionary station from Port Loko to Magbeli, to which allusion was made in the last Report, have been fully confirmed. Mr. Wiltshire, the catechist, has now received holy orders ; and having made further progress in the native language, he is able to address the people in public. He is much straitened in his efforts for the want of translations of the Scriptures, and of native helpers. When he can be further supplied with such auxiliaries, the Committee trust that something of the progress of the gospel which has been witnessed in the Yoruba Mission may be yet seen in the tribes adjoining the colony of Sierra Leone. An incident noticed in the journal of Mr. Wiltshire may be taken as an earnest that native helpers will be soon raised up through the providence of God.

I addressed them on the love of God, and the value that ought to be placed on the word of God. At the conclusion of the service, a Sierra-Leone woman offered up a very fervent, earnest, and appropriate prayer, in which she prayed for the blessing of God on the word, and the spread of the gospel in the world, and more especially among the benighted people of down-trodden Africa. She is a member of the Sierra-Leone congregation at Magbeli, and seemingly a very pious and devoted woman. She is an exception to the generality of the traders in and about the neighbourhood of Magbeli.

Mr. Wiltshire has also visited Rokon, a town at a short day's journey from Magbeli to the eastward. Both towns are under the King Bey Simrah, who resides at a town further to the east ; but this king sent his messenger to Rokon, to give consent to the Missionary to reside there, and to open a school.

In a letter at the close of the year Mr. Wiltshire writes—

The chiefs and people seem inclined to listen to the truths of the gospel, and to give the Missionary less “trouble” in going to them. The chief of Magbeli attends service regularly each Sunday, with his chief officers. Many of the people also attend, and are attentive and orderly. I endeavour to instruct them in their own language, and with such materials as are at present at my command. The want of the Scriptures is much felt. I have been endeavouring to translate the gospel of St. Matthew, as also selected portions of the Prayer-book.

The few children in school take great pleasure in reading the Primer and Barth's "Bible Stories," translated by Mr. Schlenker, as also Watts's Catechism, the greater part of which they can repeat from memory. Many adults are also trying to read, and attend regularly for that purpose.

The chief of Magbeli has recently opened a subscription list among his people and traders to aid him in building a new board church, as the present mud building is too small, and is fast going to decay. He has made a law prohibiting all drumming on the Sabbath-day, and has also stopped all palavers on that day. Several of the neighbouring chiefs, especially those whom I visited at Robenteng and Rokon, have begun to ask for teaching from the "good book." The Lord grant that this little beginning may be productive of abundant good, to the praise and glory of His most holy name!

Linguistic Pursuits.

The Rev. C. Reichardt has continued to study the Fulah language, and has sent home some valuable papers on its structure and grammar. The original seat of this language appears to have been near the centre, or still further to the eastward, of the continent of Africa. It has hitherto been commonly asserted that none of the African languages had been written by the natives, except in a few isolated attempts of individuals. But by a remarkable coincidence, the Committee has received intelligence, both from Central Africa, through the Yoruba Mission, and from Western Africa, through Sierra Leone, that the Fulah language is reduced to writing in the Arabic alphabet, modified so as to suit its peculiarities, and that such writings pass current throughout a large extent of Africa. It is also stated, from Yoruba, that five other African languages, including the Hausa, have been in the same way written in alphabets borrowed from the Arabic. This intelligence gives a great additional importance to the linguistic labours of the Missionaries in the African languages, and also to a projected journey of Mr. Reichardt into the Fulah country, prompted by the following circumstances—

In the northern division of the extensive Fulah tribes, the Imám Ibrahim has recently established himself as king over a vast extent of territory. The brother of Ibrahim has visited Mr. Reichardt, in Sierra Leone, and assures him, that if he will pay a visit to the Fulah capital, Tímbo—from seven to ten days' journey from Sierra Leone—he is promised a welcome by the new sovereign, and every facility to travel to any part of the country. By the success of this man the road is also open to Sego, in Serang kùle—about six or seven days' journey from Tímbo—and no one would hinder a Missionary proceeding to this important people. The openness of the road is demonstrated by the fact that the Sego people now bring by far the greatest amount of gold and silver dust into the colony, their gold-traders having swarmed in Freetown since the establishment of Ibrahim. Mr. Reichardt is told that valuable Fulah manuscripts will be accessible to him, which will throw much light upon the history of this powerful tribe, and enable him to prosecute still further his study of their language. This object is one of great moment; and, as a weapon for future use in the cause of Christ, is worth much risk and labour. The opportunity, however, is strikingly remarkable, as adding one more to those many opening doors which everywhere are attracting the notice and inviting the entrance of our Missionary band, not in Africa only, but throughout the world. Tímbo, indeed, is not new ground to the Society, Mr. W. C. Thomson, one of the Society's agents, having proceeded thither in 1842, and resided for about a year and a-half at Darah, a few miles from Tímbo. His death at Darah in November 1843 closed, for the time, the prospect of a permanent footing at Tímbo, and prevented an advance to Sego, which Mr. Thomson had hoped shortly to make.* The Committee trust, that, in the present instance, the issue will prove that the invitation is from on high, and that the Society may be able to take full and prompt advantage of it.†

death of the excellent Bishop, Dr. Weeks, soon after his return to Sierra Leone from a visitation of the Yoruba Mission.* His brief episcopate has not been without much fruit to the cause of Christ in Africa. His intimate knowledge of the people enabled him to set to work immediately upon his arrival, and to lay the foundation of an indigenous ministry by the ordination of the Catechists. The following Minute, passed by the Central Committee in Sierra Leone upon the occasion of his death, well expresses the value of his episcopal labours in Africa—

It has pleased Almighty God to remove from us by death our lamented Diocesan, nine days after his arrival from his visitation of the Abbeokuta Mission. When Bishop Weeks arrived amongst us, it was with the glad welcome of all; and it seemed to be a special Providence that had marked him out for the West-Africa Episcopate. He had been a long-trying and successful Missionary, was a man of good practical common sense, and possessed much knowledge of the country and people with whom he came to sojourn. But disease soon attacked him, and hindered him in his zealous efforts. He has, however, accomplished a work that will for ever link his name with the Church in West Africa. He has laid deep the foundations of a Native Ministry. During his short episcopate, seven natives were admitted to holy orders in this colony, and three in Abbeokuta. While this Meeting, therefore, deeply deplores the loss the infant church has sustained in his early removal, they feel constrained to thank God that he was enabled to do so much, and that he has left us a bright example of patient, self-denying labours, earnest and devoted zeal, and the most marked spirituality of character.

General Remarks on the Yoruba Mission.

THE last Report stated that the European agency in the Yoruba Mission had been reduced at the close of 1855 to three Missionaries. Three additional Missionaries were soon afterwards sent out. One of the three, together with an older Missionary, have since returned through ill health, so that the number was again reduced. At the close of 1856

Messrs. Townsend and Gollmer returned to Africa with five European catechists,* which raised the European agency to eleven. This number is not, however, greater than the growing importance of the Mission, and the inviting openings before it, demand. The Yoruba Mission comprises four chief stations, viz. Lagos, Abbeokuta, Ibadan, and Ijaye. The two former, which have been longest established, have several out-stations. The Missionaries have been invited to take up stations at large towns lying between the ground already occupied and the Niger river. The past year has been one of internal peace, and exemption from external invasion.

Visit of the Bishop of Sierra Leone.

At the close of the year 1856 the Bishop of Sierra Leone, accompanied by the Rev. Messrs. J. Beale and C. T. Frey, visited the Mission. The season was one of much profit and encouragement, though saddened by the death of Mr. Beale at Lagos, to which allusion has been already made. The Bishop held confirmations at each of the four stations, the candidates being 200 at Abbeokuta, 66 at Lagos, 13 at Ijaye, and 7 at Ibadan; in all, 286. Three of the native catechists, Messrs. Morgan, Moore, and White, were admitted to Deacons' orders.

LAGOS.

The stations at Lagos, with the out-stations at Badagry, Otta, and two in the Ijebu country, have been under the charge of the native minister, the Rev. Samuel Crowther, assisted by native catechists.

Mr. Crowther thus describes a public baptism of converts, and the importance of Lagos as a Missionary station from its commercial connexion with other countries—

Aug. 24, 1856—After searching inquiries were made, and strict examination was passed, I had the privilege of admitting, this day, forty adults, namely, twenty men and twenty women, into the visible church of Christ by baptism: nine of them were liberated emigrants from Sierra Leone, and thirty-one were native converts. The baptism took place during the afternoon service in Yoruba, before a crowded congregation, all our congregations being brought together, on this occasion, to witness the solemn sight; and, I doubt not, many who were yet undecided returned home with deep impressions on their minds. Among the baptized candidates were three persons who were, at one time, proselytes to Mohammedanism. Thus, by persevering labour, through God's blessing, Lagos may become a garden planted and watered by the Spirit of the Lord.

The school appears improving, especially in this station:* there have been several admittances during the quarter. Some of the emancipados have also sent their children; so in this school there is a mixture of Spanish, Brazilian, and Sierra-Leone emigrants, as well as native children, receiving instruction in English and Yoruba. Lagos will be, in the course of a few years, if properly attended to, another nursery, like the colony of Sierra Leone, from which the interior shall be supplied with cultivated shoots from the old trees.

The Rev. C. T. Frey gives the following account of the station in a letter written at Lagos December 4, about a fortnight after his arrival at that place with the Bishop of Sierra Leone—

The station wears a pleasing aspect: every thing is clean and in order. The house is built on an exquisite spot: on the left hand it is open toward the sea; right before it opens the lagoon which leads to Badagry; down from the right hand flows the river which comes from the interior. The next day of our sojourn here being Sunday, the Bishop preached in the morning, while Mr. Crowther conducted the evening service in the Yoruba language. Between three and four hundred hearers must have been present. In the Sunday-school I counted 122 individuals. The day-school is still more numerous. Surely this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes. A former slave-mart is by degrees turning into a garden of the Lord.

The following reflections are from a letter of Mr. Consul Campbell, who showed much kindness and sympathy towards Mr. Beale in his illness, and was a witness of a touching scene at his funeral on the 18th of December—

It was a trying occasion for Mr. Townsend [who had originally gone out to Africa with Mr. Beale]. When he came to the grave, and had proceeded with the solemn but beautiful service, his pent-up feelings gave way. There was not a dry eye among the numerous attendants; and as for the children, they had from the first begun to wipe away their tears, but now they broke out into open lamentations, and gave full vent to their feelings. For a moment the service was suspended, and Mr. Beale's grave was literally watered with tears, not only from infant eyes, but from manhood's.

On my way home from this painful scene and duty, I could not but moralize on the great change that had taken place in Lagos during a few years. For very many years, the tears of stern manhood and tender youth had watered the soil of Lagos; but how different was the cause! Men, women, and youths of both sexes, torn ruthlessly from their families, their homes, and country, brought to this place for sale, chained and huddled together in dungeons called barracoons, there to await their cruel expatriation. How many in this fearful state, unable to bear their sad lot, their separation from their families, uncertain of their future, have, in a paroxysm of despair, sought relief in self-destruction! How many, upheld by some latent feeling of hope, have borne their sad lot, shedding bitter tears over the memory of the past! How many poor children have sought for their lost parents till their feelings became benumbed and indifferent to all around them, and then walked to embarkation on board the slave-ship, like living automatons!

All this is now past and at an end in Lagos. The tears shed over the grave of Mr. Beale were a tribute of deep, heartfelt respect for, and regret at the death of, one who had spent so many years of his blameless and useful life in raising the benighted children of Africa from the state of moral degradation, to be, many of them, good Christians, and useful members of a rising, civilized community.

Translations of the Scripture.

Mr. Crowther's time has been much occupied with translations of the holy Scriptures. He thus describes the eagerness of the converts to possess this sacred treasure—

Applications for Luke, Acts, and Romans, are very frequent. At the arrival of every mail the question is, "Are the books come?" The reading of the translated Scriptures is pursued with diligence by a great many. References to texts during the time of preaching increases an earnest desire to get the whole translated portions. All those who can read English Bibles refer to them. Since the introduction of reading the Psalms in our church services, a greater eagerness for reading has been manifested, because no one is willing to be behind in joining in the responses of the church.

Badagry.

Badagry has been under the care of two native catechists, and has been occasionally visited by Mr. Crowther. The people show as little desire to avail themselves of religious privileges as in former years. The Bishop visited the place, and had interviews with the chiefs, who were afraid that he was about to remove the Mission, and earnestly entreated that they should have a longer trial. This the Bishop and the Missionaries concur in thinking desirable, as the relinquishment of a Mission maintained for so many years, and in the graveyard of which are deposited the bodies of our faithful brothers and sisters who have sacrificed their lives for Africa, would be a discouragement to the whole Yoruba Mission.

Though at first this station held out but little encouragement, yet the patient and persevering labours of the native catechist, Mr. White, have of late been attended with more marked effects. Violent persecution broke out on the part of some of the relatives and neighbours of the inquirers, but the chiefs happily interfered to support liberty of conscience. The following extracts from the journal of Mr. White will show the state of things in Otta. Referring to a conversation with some women on the subject of idolatry, he writes, April the 1st—

What was particularly worthy of notice during the conversation is, there were two men who were very much displeased to see the opposition these two women raised against me. One of them came forward and supported me to the last, proving from his own experience that the word of God is true, and that there is too much deceit and falsehood in their own way of worship. The women then told him, that if their own way is wrong, then let him “receive book.” The young man replied that he will do so before long. It seems the gospel leaven is working particularly in the hearts of the young men.

May 1—The relatives of Odunogun’s wife appeared against him before Oganla, the ruling chief, accusing him of insulting the gods by throwing away his idols and receiving book; his refusal to comply with his wife’s request to consult Ifa respecting the welfare of the new-born babe; and his preventing his wife to perform their idolatrous rites upon the child. He was therefore summoned to appear before Oganla, who expressed his approbation of the steps Odunogun had taken, stating at the same time that the eyes of all Otta are upon him and his book companions; that, should it go well with them, a great many will join them; that Odunogun was to be patient, and to allow his wife to have her own way; that the child is at all events his; that, should it be spared, no one will dare to hinder him from taking him to the house of God.

May 15—To-day, in accordance with the promise of Oganla, the regent chief, of the 9th inst., having, it appeared, conferred with other chiefs, the Gangan was heard, and the herald proclaimed, that whoever there is, man or woman, who is desirous of going to the house of God, is at liberty to do so, and that whoever does not like to go is not compelled; and that, for the future, should any one be found threatening, reproaching, or any way ill-using those who go, will be subject to a very severe penalty. There remains, therefore, no room for excuse: whosoever would, may come.

Aug. 18—Two men, of the Egba tribe, came from one of the farming villages of Abbeokuta, inquiring after me. Mrs. White told them I was not at home, and asked what was the matter. They replied, “We have purposely come to hear God’s word.” Mrs.

White told them she was sorry they came a little too late, and that I had just gone out to speak the word of God. They replied, "Can-not you speak a little to us?" She replied, that, as she cannot speak the language well, she was afraid she might not be sufficiently understood. They earnestly continued, "Do tell us a little about the word of God, for we are intensely athirst after it, and we have nobody to speak of it to us in the farm where we live." She then directed them to one of our people, who but partially satisfied their real want, for they were very anxious to know when it would be the Lord's-day, that they might stay to hear more of these sacred truths. They, moreover, promised to make time to come always, and in a larger body. Here is an appeal! These men, with thousand others, are living a great many miles from Abbeokuta, beyond the reach of the gospel. Might not provision be made that these poor men, who are hungry and thirsty after the bread and waters of life, may be satisfied? Hundreds of other villages are about us, yet groping in darkness, and have never heard of the name of Jesus.

Towards the end of the year a still more favourable turn of public feeling in favour of Mr. White took place: he having been instrumental in mediating with the Egba chiefs on behalf of the Otta people, and also in procuring for them the favourable countenance of the British consul, the whole population of the town united in acknowledging his services, and professed their determination to receive and submit themselves to his instruction. The church and school were filled, and the Sabbath was universally observed. Mr. White did not fail to make the best improvement in his power of these circumstances. In December the Bishop visited Otta, and a large concourse witnessed the baptism by the Bishop of six adults and four children, the first-fruits of the Mission. Mr. White thus describes the scene—

Dec. 7: Lord's-day—Mr. Crowther commenced the morning service. Prayers being ended, the Bishop admitted six adults and four children, including our little girl, into the church of Christ by baptism, and then preached to about 300 people from John xiv. 16. After the service he administered the Lord's supper. In the afternoon Mr. Crowther preached to 119 persons from 1 Pet. iii. 21. The services of the day were very animating and solemn. The people gazed with astonishment, and for many days it was the principal topic of conversation amongst them. May this ingathering of the first-fruits of Otta be an earnest of a yet more abundant harvest!

Ijebu Country.

Two Christian visitors are placed in important towns in this country, namely, at Ofin, where the king resides, who shows himself very friendly to the Mission, and at Ikorodu, upon the river opposite to Lagos. In a visit paid to these stations in April 1856, Mr. Crowther prevailed upon the chief, Atambala, to give him a building for a school-house, and he subsequently reports—

Atambala and his brother supply the school with seven children, regular attendants, two of whom have already mastered the Yoruba primer and Watts's first catechism. Several others, who attend the farms, return home, and spend a part of their time in learning their letters. In this way about twenty children receive lessons daily, besides the Sunday-school, which is also attended by some adults.

On a late visit to Ikorodu Mr. Crowther reports the following very remarkable testimony of the Ijebu chiefs to the advantages of lawful commerce over the slave-trade—

I went round on a visit to the head chiefs, to sound their present state of feeling towards us, which I found to be more favourable than I had ever witnessed. The failure of Kosoko's attempt in October last to attack Lagos, after all the big preparations he had made for its destruction, seem to lower him very much in the estimation of many who to that time had been looking forward to his return to Lagos to re-establish the promised slave-trade.

The advantages of the increase of the palm-oil trade over that of the slave is so much felt by the people at large, that their head chiefs could not help confessing to me, that they, aged persons, never remembered any time of the slave-trade that so much wealth was brought to their country as has been since the commencement of the palm-oil trade the last four years; that they were perfectly satisfied with legitimate trade, and with the proceedings of the British Government.

The chiefs were inquisitive to know more of the English, their trade, their work, and the motives of their benevolent proceedings towards Africa. I did not fail to improve the opportunity, long sought, to give them a right understanding, particularly to the last inquiry, that the foundation of it is the influence of the religion which we desire to introduce among them.

ABBEOKUTA.

The town of Abbeokuta, with its 100,000 inhabitants, is the metropolis of the Yoruba Mission. It is divided into four districts, which have each a resident pastor. Here also is a central training-school, and an Industrial Institution. The number of converts amounts to nearly 1000. The Rev. J. A. Maser and the Rev. G. Buhler resided at Abbeokuta during the first half of the year 1856, until the latter removed to Ibadan. Mr. Buhler thus describes the state of the people at Abbeokuta—

As often as I addressed the heathen in Abbeokuta they listened attentively; but many of them, seeing the danger of their gods, defended them boldly. The people generally have the feeling, that in not many years they all will serve the only true God. The priests and their most zealous disciples make every effort to maintain idolatry, but in vain. Hundreds of those who have not yet joined our congregations have left their idols and sacrifices, and are ashamed of them, and are waiting a better opportunity to embrace Christianity. As far as I am able to judge about our Christians in Abbeokuta, I am happy to say that there are real Christians, in whose sincere and humble conduct one may see that they are children of the light. Others find it hard to give up every thing which they did whilst Gentiles. Great impression is made by the large congregations in Abbeokuta upon strangers. Their unity, love, and their more sincere dealing generally, is striking to the Gentiles. The heathen are offended if they hear of a Christian doing things which they themselves are not ashamed to do.

The journals of the Missionaries furnish many individual instances of the power of Divine grace upon the hearts of the converts. Here, as in other Mission fields, where the Missionaries are faithful in the delivery of the gospel message, the dying Christian is supported by faith in Him whom he has learned to regard as the alone Saviour of sinners, and to whom he has committed himself. The native Missionary, the Rev. T. King, introduces into his journal for September last such an instance—a convert named Somala. He was sinking fast in death, although his countenance was very calm and composed. On being questioned as to prayer, he replied, "What has a poor sinner in my situation to do but that? I have nothing else to do but to call upon God." His confession of trust in Christ was equally explicit. He was as yet unbaptized, and expressed much anxiety on that point. "I wish I had got washed before now." Holding up his right hand to his face, he added, "It is quite unbecoming to go and stand in the presence of the Lord with this filthy body." After the administration of this sacrament, he transferred his solicitude to his children, and entreated that none of his relatives should be allowed to turn their heads again to superstitious delusions. A few days before his death, as he was trying to move himself, with much difficulty, he exclaimed, "What a hard work it is before we can go out of this tabernacle!" Mr. King, who was with him at the time, replied, "So it is; but you are ready and willing to go?" "To go out," he said, "is the only hard business." The Missionary remarks, "His views were as clear as if he were an old Christian. Is not this a brand plucked out of the burning?"

In the earlier part of the year the small-pox was very prevalent in Abbeokuta. The natives have been accustomed to regard this contagious disease as a deity, and reverence it, accordingly, with an adoration profound as the dread which they entertain of it. Two young men, who had placed themselves under Christian instruction as candidates for baptism, were attacked with the disease, but declined, in their affliction, the attendance of their mothers, unless they solemnly promised to abstain from all idolatrous practices. Maternal affection proved stronger than superstitious fears, and the mothers consented, and were soon found at the side of the sufferers. Finding, after a few days, that, by the use of simple medicines, without any sacrifices to idols, their sons were recovered, they opened their ears to the advice and persuasions of their children and other converts. Soon after, they became regular attendants on the means of grace, and candidates for baptism.

The native minister, Mr. King, in his annual letter, relates the following interesting circumstance—

It will not, I trust, prove uninteresting to the friends and well wishers of Africa, to know that anti-slavery blood flows in the veins of native converts. A few months ago, at Ishagga, a town twelve miles on the west of Abbeokuta, was a poor woman, whose ears and heart were opened to receive the truth, that she became an anxious inquirer after the way of salvation. But she was a slave to a woman who was a bigoted Shango worshipper. On hearing that her slave was desirous of following book religion, the mistress was so indignant and enraged, that she positively forbade her going to hear God's word any more, affirming that she did not purchase her with a view to serve God, but to assist her to worship Shango. The poor woman was consequently threatened to be sold into foreign slavery, together with her three children, should she persist in maintaining this book religion. This unprecedented prohibition of the mistress was reported by the resident Christian visitor of the place. The recital produced in the minds of our native converts a holy indignation and Christian sympathy, that they unanimously agreed to subscribe cowries toward their redemption: this they did liberally, and, in order to effect the liberation of the poor woman and her children, about fourteen bags of cowries were collected by all our converts in Abbeokuta. The woman is now enjoying, not only freedom of body, but also of mind, which the gospel imparts, and to which her late mistress is totally a stranger.

Education.

The commencement of a head seminary has been made by Mr. Kirkham, who was trained at Highbury Training College, and joined the Mission in the spring of 1856. Nine of the most advanced pupils of other schools have been placed under his care. Two hours each day are devoted to industrial employments, agriculture, carpentry, and printing. But at present the Institution is only in its infancy. Respecting the character of the pupils Mr. Kirkham writes, Dec. 30, 1856—

Concerning the moral and religious character of the students, so far as I have had opportunities of judging, I think I have reason to be satisfied — perhaps none to be sanguine. Their conduct and conversation stand out in strong contrast to that of the heathen around them, from amongst whom they have been gathered, and perhaps we ought not to expect perfection where privileges have been few. They willingly devote themselves to assisting in the Sunday-schools, and often speak the word of God to their heathen relatives when they visit them. Their deportment towards myself has always been respectful, and, in times of sickness, even affectionate, scarcely ever a day being allowed to pass without some of them coming to visit me.

At the close of the year Mr. Townsend returned to his old Station in Abbeokuta, with three European catechists. The welcome with which he was received is thus described by Mr. Meakin, one of the party—

Dec. 5, 1856—The aspect of the country, as we got nearer, assumed another appearance: the dense bush and jungle, which embraced the banks at first, almost disappeared. The banks, during the greater part of this day's journey, were under cultivation. About 11 o'clock in the forenoon we were cheered by the presence of some of the converts, who came to meet us in a canoe. Their faces beamed with joy and gladness as they beheld their beloved pastor again; and in about an hour another canoe met us, with more of the converts: these preceded us to the landing-place (Agbamaya), eight miles from Abbeokuta, in order to carry the news to those who came to meet us. And now for a scene which would have done the hearts of the friends of Africa good to have witnessed. As we arrived in sight of the landing-place, one long and tremendous burst of cheering, wafted along the surface of the water, greeted our ears: when we reached the landing-place, many were the arms which were held out towards us, as if to clasp us to their hearts, all eager to offer the first welcome. I have seen in England the reception of public men, high in the estimation of the people, but never to equal this; and this is what the softening influence of the glorious gospel has done.

Out-Stations.

The three nearer out-stations, Oshielle, Ibara, Ishagga, have been under the care of native catechists, the European Missionaries being too few to bestow much attention upon them. Mr. Maser gives the following account of a visit to the two remoter out-stations of Awaye and Biolorunpelu—

April 14—Mr. Bühler and myself went towards Ijaye, intending to take our way home to Abbeokuta on the other side of the river Ogun, and to visit Isehin and our two out-stations, Awaye and Biolorunpelu. The 15th we stayed with brother Mann at Ijaye, and left the next morning for Isehin. We reached the river in five hours, and could wade through it. On this spot the people celebrated a festival of Yemaja, the goddess of the river, and offered slices of yam to her, which were greedily devoured by the fishes. After three hours' evening travel we reached the pleasant brook Owire, where we pitched our tent for the night.

April 17—Isehin is not far from our resting-place. It is a nice morning's ride of three hours, through a mountainous country. Out of its high tableland isolated peaks point to heaven, whilst a northerly land-wind is blowing refreshingly in our faces. On the road we meet many friendly people, who salute us cordially. Amongst them is the white man's host of Isehin, who returns home with us, and lodges us in the small and hot compound Mr. Townsend had inhabited on his two visits. The governor of the place called us soon to the palace, where we met a friendly young man, surrounded by heathen and Mohammedans, to whom we said we had come to renew our friendship with him, to show him we had not forgotten him, though it was more than a year since Mr. Townsend had been with him, and had taken land from him to build upon, and left him with the promise of a Missionary settlement in his town. He seemed to be much encouraged at seeing us. The Mohammedans had done all in their power to prevent our coming again to this place. They had cut down the trees planted on the lot given to us, and buried a powerful charm to kill us when we passed over it. It was therefore spread everywhere that we should no more come to Isehin. The king presented us with a hog, which we accepted in sight of all Mohammedans, and went to our lodging. In the evening we saw the lot, which is nicely situated on sloping ground near the road to Abbeokuta. The town stretches itself over a low hill, and is divided into four parts, which are settlements from different immigrations into this town: the finest and highest part is occupied by the Mohammedans and Fulanis. The tents of these latter are conical, and the people have much cattle. In this town is a family called Roberts, from Hastings, in Sierra Leone, who have openly professed Christianity in this distant place. Their son speaks English very well, and they will be a great support when a Mission is established here. They heard gladly that we had already appointed a Christian visitor to this town. We had not a long time to seek congregations. Crowds of women and children were always behind us. We addressed once a large circle of about 100 children, to whom we spoke of the children of England, who loved the black children much. We were obliged to move carefully about, as whenever we hastened a confusion ensued: people being afraid of us were running away, and the little children were falling down in the crowd.

April 18—Heard the praises of Bale and white man to-day, sung by the chief's minstrels, and accompanied by drums. Addressed the people who had accompanied us out of the town. In the evening we took leave of Bale, and we spoke to him of the good which was done to this nation by the English, in sending Missionaries, and watching their coast with cruisers.

April 19—Went to-day to Awaye. On the road is an African fortress against the slave-hunters, on a steep hill called Erin. We found our visitor in Awaye well. The landlord with whom he is lodging has been won for the gospel. He offered us his spacious room to lodge in. Besides him, there is a young Mohammedan who had been led to the way of salvation by a boy who used to pray with him at night, being occupied in the daytime. Lashemeji, the chief, listens himself to the word of God spoken to him by our visitor. He promised to erect a temporary place of worship. Whenever we addressed the people they listened attentively. We had twice service under a tree during the Sunday we stayed there.

April 22—Went from Awaye to Biolorunpelu, which is a journey of full eight hours. We travelled early by moonshine, but were thoroughly wetted by the heavy dew which covered the grass-field through which our way went. We passed the Opeki, a river, near which was Mr. Crowther's town, Oshugun. After having climbed the rocks which surround and shelter Biolorunpelu, we were glad to rest in the house where our Christian visitor lodged. We received much kindness from the owner of this house during our stay, which lasted some days longer than we expected, as Mr. Bühler had a slight fever for some days. I spoke to the chief, whom I visited several times, and observed that many things which had been spoken to him in former times had not been forgotten. He likes religious conversation, which is, for a chief, a rare thing in this country. The day of judgment, and the prophecy of a new heavens and new earth, seemed to make much impression on the old man. On the market-place I heard people exclaiming, "If white man had not come, I would not be here in this my land." I think in these two towns, Awaye and this, is a marked difference between the present state of things and what it was some years ago, when no Christian visitors had been placed there. We spent a refreshing Sunday in this town, when we preached twice under a tree.

IBADAN.

This station was under the care of the Rev. D. Hinderer for the first part of the year, and, upon his leaving Africa through ill health, the Rev. Messrs. Hoch and Buhler undertook the charge. Mr. Barber is the native Catechist.

At this station, as in the earlier days of Abbeokuta, frequent instances have occurred of violent domestic persecution, which have served to show the reality of the work of grace in the native converts, and to purify the infant church from mere formal professors of the faith. Here also, as in other towns, the female converts have proved themselves ready and most faithful to suffer persecution for the name of Christ.

A man of Ibadan, who, at the commencement of Missionary work in that city, had been a regular attendant on Christian instruction, accompanied always by his eldest child, a girl, was persuaded to separate himself from the Missionaries, and, not content with estranging himself, proceeded to restrain his daughter likewise. She was consigned to the father of her future husband for safe custody, and by him placed in chains. An attempt to regain her liberty was followed by more severe coercion, and for several weeks she remained bound in chains; a copy of St. Matthew's Gospel, which she prized, having been taken from her and committed to the flames. Still she persevered in her resolution never to forsake her faith in Jesus Christ, and never again to offer sacrifice to the idols. "You may kill me," she said, "but I shall not depart from the truth which I have found."

The Missionaries have not failed to plead the cause of the persecuted converts, though at the risk of themselves incurring danger. Mr. Hinderer reports—

May 23—Went to the chief to-day, and was fortunate enough to meet him alone. I brought the persecution before him, explaining, and earnestly pleading for, religious liberty in the town. He assured me, that, as nobody in the town ever hurt me, so nobody should ever dare to hurt me while he was living. I thanked him, and told him that was very kind of him; but still, as I had not come to Ibadan for my own pleasure, but to do the work of God among his people, it was not enough for my person only to be safe; for as long as those who desire to serve God were allowed to be persecuted, my work was interfered with, and my life in Ibadan rendered useless; and therefore I begged him once more to do what he could. To this he answered, that he could not force any thing, but we must have patience, and God would make it all right. He told me, also, that he was very glad I had spoken to the balogun, when I met him at his house, in the way I did, about his charging me with having stolen the girls who fled to Lagos on account of persecution; that I told him his threatening was of no use, for I did not fear him, unprotected as I was, with all his soldiers, because God and the truth were on my side. "It made the balogun tremble," he said, "and showed them all that you were not a slave, but a real freeborn."

Upon Mr. Hinderer's departure from Ibadan he received from many of the inhabitants convincing proofs of the respect in which he was held, and of the affection of the converts. He writes—

Our taking leave in Ibadan was very exciting. There was a general inquiry among the people and inferior chiefs, if I was going away because of the unkind treatment of the balogun and the persecutors, and if I would ask another white man to take my place. On the 14th of July we left Ibadan. Many of our neighbours, both men and women, had come in the early morning to take leave of us, and to see us off. Among them were two men who were the chief leaders in persecuting the young women who had fled to Lagos. One of them, in shaking hands, could hardly speak, while tears stole down his cheeks, but merely said, "Don't forget us." The other came after me, saying, as he bade me good-bye, "Won't you send another white man here to be our friend?" while from some of our own people, especially the children, we had literally to tear ourselves away, as they sobbed after us. Late troubles had knit us closer together than we ourselves were aware of.

Ago, or Oyo.

A Christian teacher was placed in the important town of Ago, or Oyo, in the early part of the year 1856. At this place the king of Yoruba resides, who was once an absolute sovereign over the whole country. Slave wars broke up his dominion into a variety of independent chiefdoms. But the prestige of the authority of the king of Yoruba still survives, and in proportion as peace is restored throughout the Yoruba tribes the king is regaining his influence and authority. This town will therefore become a very important centre of Missionary operations. Several of the Missionaries have visited Oyo. The following is the account of Mr. Hinderer's visit in May last—

On the first day we particularly introduced to him G. Williams, as the man who was to talk in his town until the white man should come to live there. He welcomed him very warmly, and knew him again as the messenger whom Mr. Gollmer once sent to him from Lagos. Williams spoke very much to the purpose about white man's teaching the word of God, the English people's kindness in liberating so many of his countrymen like himself, and the king was very much pleased with him. On another day, as the king was conversing with us, he observed a man sitting behind me, with European clothes on: he was an Ijaye man, with the name of James William, a Sierra-Leone emigrant, who had accompanied us from Ijaye to see his father, who is living in the farms near Ago. The king asked him to come forward, and to give an account of himself. James William then related the story of his being captured when his native town was destroyed, of his being sold, shipped by the Portuguese, captured and set free by the English. He spoke of all the English did for him, and so many of his countrymen, in Sierra Leone. The king was quite overcome at this narrative; and, turning ever so many times to his bashorun and other principal men about him, exclaimed, "Now, listen! the word which the white man brings to us is good. Whoever will oppose it, ought to be killed, or driven from his country." But when James William mentioned the name of his father in connexion with the destruction of his town, he exclaimed, "Oh, I know him, and all the circumstances. Oh, war, war!" and he hid his face and wept. It was quite an affecting sight. Everybody was solemn, until the king broke silence again by asking me if I would allow him to make the man a little present. He then ordered half a head of cowries to be given him, after which our assembly broke up. Our last day's interview with him was equally encouraging. Once, after asking his elders around him if they did not entirely agree with him in wishing white people to come with the word of God into his town, and their usual reply, "We wish all that the king wishes," he looked at me, half smiling, and said, "But you must not expect that all things will go right always, without any trouble, for there are many, very many, big eyes;" implying that there must be opposition sometimes, when heathen and heathen priests' interests are at stake. In fact, our injuring the priestcraft is so well known and understood, wherever any thing of our teaching is known, that it is often a subject of conversation among a party of gossippers; and more than once have I heard them enjoying the joke. When, at last, we bade him good bye, he seemed scarcely to be able to bring his mind to the last adieu; which feeling was quite reciprocal, for we quite minded the parting after all his kindness and heartiness. He has also treated us most kingly, in supplying not only all our wants in food and cowries, both to us and to our people, servant and carriers, but made his messenger go with us to take home for us two sheep; besides which he gave Mrs. Hinderer two very handsome and expensive country cloths, whereas we had only a piece of white damask to leave with him as a remembrance. He was much pleased with it though, but said our visit was more to him than any present.

But another pleasing fact, and which filled my heart with thankfulness to Almighty God, was this, that we found a real work of God already begun there. My two services on Sunday, which we had under the roof of the house the king gave us for a temporary dwelling, were attended by about twenty attentive hearers of the town, besides our own people; and my teacher, who had been there about ten weeks, told me there were more or less regular attendants, every Sunday, on his little services, which consisted of the reading of a few prayers from our Liturgy in Yoruba, and explaining some portion of Scripture. Some of them had also made good progress in acquiring to read Yoruba in his Sunday-school; among whom were four Sierra-Leone emigrants, who seem evidently to be in earnest, some young people belonging to the king's head-servant's house, and two women, one of whom, a priestess, had already thrown away her idols. This little work would evidently not have been begun, but for the help of a native teacher. Oh, may the Lord multiply such, and make them truly devoted to this blessed work! *

At a later period of the year Mr. Bühler gives the following report of the Christian teacher who is stationed there—

Sept. 13—The Christian visitor stationed at Ago stopped for some days here, which did him much good. His information of Ago gladdened my heart. The king called him of late, and encouraged him not to be dismayed if the people should not believe his word. "You must only stand in the streets and market, and wherever you like, and speak very bold: they will soon hear you." George William said the people are always willing to hear the word of God, and that fifteen to twenty persons regularly come to him on Sunday, and sometimes more. Of several persons he is persuaded that they are convinced of Christianity.

IJAYE.

The Rev. A. Mann has continued his patient and zealous labours at this town, in which the people are held in abject subjection by the iron arm of King Are. Aware how much his authority depends upon his upholding the native superstition, he will not suffer the people generally to listen to the Missionary. Yet, from a desire to retain a white man in his town, he protects the person of the Missionary, and gives him so much encouragement to persevere as may, he hopes, prevent him from going away in despair. It is not surprising, that, under these circumstances, on one occasion the fury of the idolaters was carried so far as to assault even the Missionary himself. Mr. Mann, witnessing the attempt of a party of Shango worshippers to compel one of the Christian converts to do an act of idolatry, interfered on his behalf, and was violently struck by the mob. At this outrage Are expressed himself much displeased, and appears to have consequently enjoined special caution upon the people; so that Mr. Mann is able to write, at the end of the year—"As matters stand now, we enjoy a respect, and comparative security, with a larger access to the people, as we never did before. That I have bought this boon with sufferings I thank my God and Saviour."

Mr. Mann gives this general view of his work in his annual letter at the close of the year—

Looking through the journals of last year, I must observe a slow but continued progress in the work. The public opinion has undergone a great change for the better. This change dates especially from the fight with the Shango people. As it could not be denied that it was for our religion we suffered wrong, our very purpose of sitting down in the Yoruba towns has been explained more fully. In an occasional meeting of Are with the chiefs it was confessed that they can say no bad word against us: that we are only here for the sake of God's word.

It is only now that I can with surety and inward joy say, the Yorubas will hear and receive this word.

The general condition of the people is also thus faithfully depicted by the native catechist, Mr. Charles Philip, in his journal, under date September 21, 1856—

Our few church attendants are regular at the Sabbath services, and at their respective classes—communicants and candidates. Though severely tried by their relatives, they have manifested no disposition to yield. The fear of Are and some of the inferior chiefs is still very great among the lower classes of the people. But we trust that the name of Jesus of Nazareth will soon bring the desires of His faithful people to perfection. May He hasten the happy period when the people of Yoruba shall turn, from the least to the greatest, to “the Lamb of God, that taketh away the sin of the world.”*

POLYGAMY.

The Committee having been requested by several of the Missionaries to advise them respecting the baptism of polygamists, a Minute on this subject was drawn up, pointing out the scriptural arguments against the admission of polygamy into the Christian church.† Upon the visit of the Bishop of Sierra Leone to the Yoruba Mission the subject was discussed in a conference with the Missionaries, and it was unanimously agreed, that while the wives of a polygamist, if believed to be true converts, might be received to baptism, since they are usually the involuntary victims of the practice, no man could be admitted who retains more than one wife. The following extract from the journal of the Rev. G. F. Bühler, written before the conference with the Bishop had taken place, and before the advice of the Parent Committee had been received, will illustrate the practice of the Mission, and the triumph of Christian principle in the case of sincere converts—

Nov. 23, 1856—Baptized James Oderinde, first a heathen, then a Mohammedan. About two years ago he joined our congregation. At that time he had three wives: one died, the other two accompanied him here; and, being both very zealous disciples of Jesus, they were baptized by Mr. Hinderer. The man himself attended class, Sunday-school, and divine service, regularly, but he found it too hard to dismiss his second wife, being much attached to both. When I came here I spoke several times with him, and explained to him many passages of Scripture. When I spoke to him of Luke xiv. 26 it made a remarkable impression on his mind. His second wife felt for a long time troubled that he should not be baptized for her sake, so she was willing to leave him. After much talking with him, and much consideration and prayer on his side, he agreed, and dismissed her in peace. As he was fully prepared for baptism by Mr. Hinderer, I did not hesitate to admit him. Before the ceremony took place, he arose and addressed the congregation, and the heathen who were present. He shortly alluded to his past history. I never saw such attention, and the impression was very remarkable. It was a day full of joy and rich blessing from our Lord Jesus Christ.

THE NIGER MISSION.

It has been already stated that the Yoruba Mission is stretching its arms towards the Niger, and the concurrent providence of God has provided for the entrance of the gospel into the regions of the Niger, by bringing about a commercial and scientific enterprise, by which the river is to be traversed for five successive years by steamers, and means are to be afforded for the immigration of native traders from Sierra Leone and other parts of the coast.* Those to whom Her Majesty's Government has entrusted the command of the enterprise estimate aright the importance of uniting native Christian teachers with commercial agents: they have therefore concerted their plans in concurrence with the plans of Missionary Societies. Wherever a trading post is formed, there, it is hoped, a native teacher, and a dépôt of Bibles, and a Christian school, will be established.

A free passage has been generously offered to Christian teachers, and for all the materials of a Mission.

Encouraged by these providential facilities, the Committee have decided upon a Niger Mission.* The Rev. Samuel Crowther and another native minister, with other native teachers, will, it is hoped, enter the Niger with the first vessel which ascends that mighty stream. By an equally striking concurring providence of God, the Committee have been enabled to prepare translations of several books of Scripture in the Hausa language, which passes current throughout the lower portion of the course of the Niger. This has been effected by the labour of Mr. Schön, who accompanied the Niger expedition in 1842, and then acquired the language. He has been assisted by two natives of that country, who accompanied the African traveller, Dr. Barth, to England, and were transferred to the care of Mr. Schön, and have proved valuable assistants in the work. Thus the Missionary party will be furnished with the word of God in the language understood by the natives of various tribes and distant countries. The enterprise, both commercial and Missionary, will be mainly a native enterprise, and, as such, should be regarded with special interest, and followed by special prayer on the part of those who see the things which Wilberforce, and Buxton, and other fathers of this Society, desired to see, but did not behold.

Report, to Smyrna and Constantinople, to consult with Missionaries upon the spot on the most advisable steps to be taken. The Committee have received from him much valuable information.* They will only here notice, that the first effect of the famous Hatti-Humaiyun has been violent outbreaks of Mohammedan fanaticism, and cruel persecution in individual cases. A subsequent treaty has also apparently restrained the foreign ministers at the Porte from interposing as formerly on behalf of oppressed Protestants. "In some respects," writes Mr. Wolters, from Smyrna, "it is now worse than before the late firmán. The reaction which has taken place is great; and England, in signing the Paris treaty, has pledged herself not to interfere in the internal affairs of the Turkish Empire." Yet all the Missionaries agree in the expectation that great and beneficial changes are at hand, and that indications may even now be seen of the opening of a great and effectual door, through the progress of the Turkish mind, now that old prejudices have been shaken, and a spirit of inquiry aroused. The time is not arrived for direct aggressive measures, but the preparation of suitable publications should be no longer delayed.

The Committee are anxiously seeking suitable Missionaries, to be sent in the first instance to Smyrna, to study the Turkish language, with a view to their being stationed in Constantinople when they shall be sufficiently familiar with the language and the habits of the people.

Considerable changes have taken place in the Palestine Mission during the last year. The Rev. F. A. Klein, having returned to the Mission in renewed health, has been stationed at Jerusalem. The Rev. S. W. Koelle joined the Mission at the close of the year, and has been stationed at Khaifa, on the bay of Acca, which will enable him to visit Nazareth as an out-station. The Rev. J. Zeller has been compelled to withdraw from Nablous for a time, in consequence of a violent outbreak of Mohammedan fanaticism, occasioned by a sad occurrence at that town, the death of a Mussulman beggar, who accidentally discharged a gun carried by a gentleman who resides in Syria as a volunteer Missionary upon his own resources. This event was seized upon by designing men to exasperate the people, who made an assault upon the Mission house and school, destroying the furniture, assaulting the native Christians with the utmost violence, and, in one instance, causing death. The Turkish Government has awarded compensation, to be paid by the townspeople, but it is thought better to suspend for a time the Mission at Nablous. Mr. Zeller has employed himself in visiting other stations, and in the study of the language.

The number of native Protestants at Jerusalem under the care of the Society amounts to 58, with 26 communicants: at Bethlehem 29, with 8 communicants. Respecting these stations Dr. Sandreczki writes—

I cannot say we are so highly favoured or blessed as to witness strikingly eminent fruits of repentance, of a thorough change of heart and mind. No: ours are the days of small things: our people are very weak still: their progress is slow. However, their conduct, with but few exceptions, has been satisfactory, and some have seemed to feel more deeply that they must do more—that they must fight, and watch, and pray, with increasing zeal. We have not had to complain of any gross infringement of the divine laws, as had been the case last year; and, generally speaking, the knowledge of the Scriptures, and of their saving truth, has awakened their consciences from indifference and frivolous levity. The number of the members of the congregation here remained nearly the same; and although more than half-a-dozen of the natives—Copts, Greeks, Armenians, and Syrian priests—with their families, had applied for admission, we could not grant it, because we were not sufficiently convinced of their sincerity, nor could we employ some of them, as they had desired us to do, and so they soon stayed away.

At Bethlehem two men went back to the church of Rome. I was sorry of that on their account, but not on ours, because they had always behaved in a manner which had made them a burden to me, and a nuisance to the congregation. The remaining, about seven families, have showed a little more zeal this year, and two of the men and one of the women inspire me with the hope that their hearts are touched. In the school most of the children are Greeks. It is but a village school, but the teacher makes the best of his village attainments, and I have reason to believe that he is a sincere Christian.

In his annual letter, January 31, 1857, Dr. Sandreczki writes—

The experience of five years has almost convinced us that we are in the right channel as to our proceedings, and that we must continue the course hitherto pursued. We do not lose sight of the Moslems. And in order the better to qualify myself for the work in prospect, I have commenced studying the Persian language, the eleventh—I might say the thirteenth—language hitherto learnt by me; and this study rather assists me in acquiring a more complete knowledge of the Turkish language, to which I devote much time.

Mr. Klein gives the following general view of the work at Jerusalem, in a letter dated February 19, 1857—

I can say that most of our people love the word of God. Most of the men have a tolerable knowledge of the saving truths of the gospel; and a few have experienced its renewing power in their hearts, and evince in their lives that they are no more children of this world and of darkness. Though they may not have attained that degree of spirituality which I suppose we all here wished them to have attained—and from the want of which persons inexperienced in the work, and ignorant of what our people were before, sometimes infer that they are no true Christians, and that our work has hitherto been unsuccessful—still we, who know what the state of other communities is, where the pure gospel truths are not made known, and who are aware of what our people were before, are thankful for that degree of success which the Lord has hitherto granted to our feeble and unworthy labours; and are encouraged to labour on in patience, hoping for days of the brighter manifestation of the glory of Christ in and among them. I am especially pleased to observe the love which some, even of the women, evince towards the word of God, by the regularity, diligence, and attention with which they embrace every opportunity of hearing it, which I did not observe here some years ago. Another pleasing sign seems to me also to be, that several of our people search the Scriptures diligently at home, and make it the subject of their meditation, conversation, and prayer. How glad was I the other evening, when I went to pay a visit to one of our Protestant families, to find the father of the family sitting in the midst of his children, his brothers with their wives and children all around him, the Bible in his hands, reading and explaining the word of God to those around. This was certainly a scene one might have looked for in vain some years ago; and I know that, in this family at least, the reading of the Bible and praying is no mere outward form. From these and other circumstances I think I am warranted to infer that our work here, though certainly not coming up to the Missionaries' own desires, has not been without success; and this testimony I can bear the more freely, as Jerusalem is not the field where I have hitherto laboured. It is a striking fact, too, that most of the Protestants here come originally from Nazareth, and that we have thus the proof that something good can come out of Nazareth.

Nazareth has been under the charge of Mr. Huber, who acts as a catechist, and Mr. Miller, the schoolmaster. The work has gone on quietly during the last year, and there has been a small increase of Protestants, notwithstanding a violent opposition and persecution on the part of the convents. Mr. Klein visited the station at the close of the year, and reports—

At Nazareth I found the state of things, on the whole, more encouraging than before I left in 1855. The two parties then existing had been reconciled during our Bishop's visit there. Girgis Yacoob had confessed his sin, and, outwardly at least, he is more humble and submissive than ever before, confessing his wrong, and promising never to be disobedient or rebellious again: how far his heart, however, is broken and humble, it is difficult for me to decide. In the spiritual state of the people there is, I think, little difference between the present and the past: still, there are a few who have in their hearts the beginning of a new life; and the steadfastness and perseverance with which even those in whom there appears to be no change of the heart cling to the Protestant congregation, attending the Sunday services and Bible classes, seem to indicate that there is yet the secret power of the gospel which attracts them. They still make a little progress in the knowledge of the truth; and we will confidently hope that God, in His own good time, will quicken this seed sown in their hearts, and cause it to bear the fruits we so much long to see.

Jaffa.

The Rev. William Krusé has continued throughout the year at this station. He conducts the service in Arabic to a small Protestant congregation of fifteen or twenty persons. His medical skill brings him many visitors, to whom he declares the truths of Scripture. Schools are kept for boys and girls. At the close of the year Mr. Krusé writes—

At the beginning of last year we had a good number added to our small community; and this occurred several times during the year, but, without one exception, they have all been scattered again. At the beginning of this year, a man, with his family, joined us: these, I trust, will remain with us. There are others who proposed to join us, but, upon examining them, I generally find they have some temporal gain in view; and I deem it necessary to be careful ere I enrol them as Protestants. As I suppose it is in almost every Mission, so is it here; I have daily cause to mourn over the carelessness of a few of those who call themselves members of our church: neither entreaty, exhortation, nor warning, seems to have any effect on their minds. We can but pray for them, and leave them in the hands of Him who directeth all things wisely. Thus you see my words are verified, "Our prospects are dark:" it is scarcely more than keeping the ground acquired, and cultivating the same. Truly do we find enough to try our faith and patience. Our people are generally regular in attending divine service, and listen attentively to the preaching of the gospel: they also read daily in their families the word of God. In our evening meetings they evince a good deal of knowledge in quoting passages of Scripture; and they not only see the manifold errors of the Oriental churches, but understand what true faith really means; and some show a remarkable gift in controversy: but, with all this, I fear it is but head-knowledge, and that the heart remains unchanged. I could wish to see more spiritual-mindedness exemplified in their intercourse with the world.

It is my opinion, as it ever has been, that no effort should be spared for the instruction of the rising generation; for while the hearts of the adults are entirely engrossed with the things of this world, very little can we hope for from them.

Nablous.

The suspension of this station at the beginning of the year has been already alluded to. At the close, the two teachers of the Bishop's school began to gather together some of the children, both of Christians and Samaritans. Even some of the Mohammedans applied for the re-admission of their children. The schoolroom was still in ruins. It is hoped that the Missionary may be able shortly to resume his residence in the place.

Khaifa.

The Rev. S. W. Koelle commenced his residence at this station at the close of last year. He is diligently applying himself to the acquisition of vernacular Arabic, and is encouraged to hope for a wide field of labour in the immediate neighbourhood of the town.*

a self-supporting basis, In a letter dated April 16, 1857, he gives the following account of the proceedings of the past year—

Almost all I have stated respecting the general state of your Mission in Syra, in my last Report and Journal, is applicable to its condition also during the past year. The three schools continue to progress quietly, and, as I trust, successfully, with the same number of girls, on a scriptural basis, without any marked difficulty or opposition from without; and, by God's grace, I have been enabled regularly and uninterruptedly to teach the sacred truths and history on Sundays and on week-days in the three higher classes. This I continue to consider as a great privilege, and it is my delight. On the Lord's-days there attend nearly always, to my exposition of the gospel, some of our former pupils, or other grown-up persons. If not in many instances, yet in some, I have confidence to say that my instruction has not been in vain. In the lower classes the religious lessons are given by the teachers, under my guidance and supervision. The two public examinations, attended, as usual, by the authorities, were anew encouraging; showing that, besides the Bible instruction, also in the other subjects the progress of the girls is satisfactory. The fact is obvious, that the school receives much favour from the public. If room and means would allow, we could, in a short time, double the number of children. Two female teachers have left during the year, and are supplanted by others. The one received an appointment from Government in the public high school of girls in Syra, and the other in the Island of Milo, where she had to organize a new girls'-school. She is there succeeding very well, to the great satisfaction of the inhabitants and the local authorities. She uses the same Christian books which we use here, and applies for them to me, sending me also punctually the money for every supply. Both these teachers were former scholars of our establishment.

In the sale and distribution of books I meet no hindrance. It is principally to the schools that my exertions, in this branch of my work, extend; but also, otherwise, I find and improve opportunities to dispose of good books, adhering, however, more than formerly, to the principle of sale at moderate prices. A book-shop, which I had opened in the bazaar, did not answer the purpose, because, rent being here very dear, the receipts did not bear a due proportion to the expense. I continue, then, to sell the books from the dépôt in our school, to give of them to the different booksellers, or send them directly to the masters of schools in Syra and other places. I have also given a number of our books to a young trustworthy man, who has begun to act as a colporteur. He went first to the Island of Tino, and was doing tolerably well. It is intended that he visit also other islands; and I can hope that this long-wished-for plan will succeed in giving fair results.

In translations and printing something has been effected also. Of Barth's Sacred History I printed 2300 copies: though not explicitly sanctioned by the Hellenic Synod, it is tacitly permitted, and introduced in several schools in Syra, in Athens, and elsewhere. I think that soon a second edition will be required, for it proves to be a very acceptable and useful school-book. Dr. Barth sent a well-bound copy of it, together with others of his books, to King Otho, and received a very kind and favourable reply to his letter. I have translated, also, another little volume, which may serve as a third part of sacred history. It comprises the Acts of the Apostles, with extracts from the Epistles: besides this, also an epitome of the Church history of the first three centuries. Both these books I intend to print, if I can procure the means; and I trust that they will prove valuable for use in the Hellenic schools and the higher class of the Lancasterian.

The church services I have continued regularly during the year, in English and German. My congregation is still small; but there passes scarcely any Sunday on which I do not have some addition to the attendance on divine worship from the English, Dutch, and German merchant vessels happening to be in our harbour. On one occasion, immediately after I had buried a sailor, there attended five English captains and sixteen sailors. Among those Protestants who reside in Syra there is an aged Italian painter—having lately embraced Protestantism—who not only never fails to be present at my services, but encourages me also by his humble and consistent Christian conduct. There attend, also, occasionally, some Greeks, and even Catholics.

SMYRNA.

Mission Establishment:

- 1 Ordained European Missionary.
- 1 European Catechist.
- 1 Native Assistant.

The testimony of Mr. Jetter confirms the opinion which the Committee expressed in their last Report of the importance of this station as one centre of a Turkish Mission; and of the value of the experience, and knowledge of the languages, of the Rev. J. T. Wolters. Through his assistance new Missionaries would be here trained for their future work in Turkey to the best advantage.

Mr. Wolters gives this review of his labours in his annual letter—

In reviewing the labours of last year, I beg to direct your attention first to the native congregation. The number of native Christians in connexion with our Mission is 20, viz. 15 adults and 5 children. The 15 adults are all church-members and communicants. Two of them live at Cassaba, where I occasionally administer the holy communion. The native congregation here at Smyrna is still very small, consisting mostly of the church-members. Sometimes a few more, either Greeks or Armenians, attend. The service is alternately performed in the Greek and Turkish languages. Four of the communicants are Italians, converts from the church of Rome—a physician, his wife, and two daughters, who are under the more immediate spiritual care of Mr. Dalessio, who visits them every Sunday for the purpose of reading the word of God, exposition, and prayer. On the 24th of December last I had the pleasure, for the first time, to administer the communion to them in the Italian language.

Conversational preaching has been practised by us during the year; and Mr. Dalessio not only avails himself of every opportunity that presents itself, but he seeks these opportunities with his usual zeal and faithfulness. Both here and at Cassaba the word is spoken in season and out of season to many individuals, and we pray that the word of God may not return void. The people generally consent to all we say to them, but there it remains. God's Spirit must touch their hearts and smite their consciences, if they are to come out from a crooked and perverse generation, and follow Christ with full purpose of heart. The fear of man, and worldly interest, keep many back. As soon as they leave their corrupt church, they are looked upon by their nation as outcasts: they are secretly persecuted, or rather, I should say, injured in their worldly affairs; and, knowing that we cannot do more for them than offer them spiritual instruction, they linger and hesitate, and, if they have attended for some time our instructions, they go back and leave us entirely.

In the translational department I have been assisted by a very able and intelligent young Armenian, and by a Greek well acquainted with the language. Nearly all my Greek sermons have been translated into the Turkish language, and may one day be sent forth from the press as messengers of peace. I have printed in Modern Greek a Tract, by myself, which has been well received by the Greeks. In Armeno-Turkish I have printed, for the Prayer-book and Homily Society, the Morning and Evening Prayers and Communion Service of our church; and in Armenian, the Ninth Homily of the Church of England, "Against the fear of death." For the Religious-Tract Society, that beautiful and richly-blessed tract, "The Sinner's Friend," in Armeno-Turkish.

Our bookshop and colportage have been in operation, and the result is, on the whole, encouraging. The number of holy Scriptures, in various languages, either whole or in part, which have been either sold or distributed, is 352; other religious books, of a larger size, and tracts, 1611. Considering the prejudices which the people generally entertain against our books, the above numbers show that there are people who are willing to receive our books, and read them. Sound religious truth is thus conveyed to the minds of many; and we may hope that not all the good seed thus sown will be lost, but, springing up here and there, will bear fruit to the glory of the Redeemer.

In bringing this communication to a close, I must not forget to say a word about the visit of the Rev. J. A. Jetter to this country, by which we have been so much encouraged in our work. His mature Christian and Missionary experience has been very useful to me, and I look upon his sojourn amongst us as a peculiar blessing of the Lord. He came in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, and, in leaving us, he leaves a blessing behind him. I regret that the advanced age of our dear brother may perhaps be in the way of his coming out again, and sharing the labours and trials of a Missionary life in this country. But, be this as it may, his visit to us has done us good, and I have no doubt will tend to the furtherance of the gospel and the glory of God. The oral communications which he, D. V., will be permitted to make to the Committee will be of the greatest importance with regard to this Mission.*

EGYPT.

Mission Establishment:

1 Ordained European Missionary.

The Rev. S. W. Koelle having been transferred to the Palestine Mission, on account of the failure of his health in Egypt, this Mission has again been reduced to a single Missionary at Cairo.

The Rev. J. R. T. Lieder occupies a peculiar position, as a Missionary who has maintained his post for more than thirty years; and whose influence with the Coptic church is powerful for good, especially with the Coptic Patriarch, who is more enlightened than most Oriental prelates, and is sincerely endeavouring to elevate his clergy, and to purify his church.

Mrs. Lieder has a school for girls.

* Further extracts from this letter are given in the "Church Missionary Record," June 1857, pp. 163—165.

The Mission was visited during the last year by Charles Graham, Esq., your late Secretary, who fully confirmed the advice of Bishop Gobat and others, that the Society should enlarge the Mission, as soon as it may be in their power consistently with other claims, by the appointment of young Missionaries, or Scripture readers, who may take advantage of Mr. Lieder's great experience and influence with the people, to commence more aggressive measures upon the motley population of the city and neighbourhood.

BOMBAY.

General view of the Mission.

During the past year the number of Missionaries in Western India has been increased. The Rev. Andrew Burn, B.A., who went out to Sindh in connexion with the Bombay Additional-Clergy Society, having acquired the native language, and having been specially interested in Missions, has been received into connexion with the Society, with a view to the Sindh Mission. It is also a matter of thankfulness, that, during the year, the whole number of European Missionaries have been employed at their respective posts, there being no absentee from sickness or any other cause.

The Rev. George Candy takes this general view of the work at the close of the year—

The work which the Lord of the harvest has committed into our hands is steadily and surely progressing. That work will not be without its full effect in due time; and for that time it is our duty to wait with "long patience." And even now we are not without the effect suitable and proper to the season of waiting: the very progress is an effect for which our praises are due. Who can tell but that the Lord's purpose concerning the people of Western India may be to bring them to Himself, not by distinct and isolated individual conversions, however numerous, but by awakening and moving them by the mass?

Though we have not been favoured with many actual conversions, yet some have been granted to us for our encouragement and consolation; the most remarkable of which is that of Ruttonjee, at Nasik.

I look upon the Christian settlement at Nasik with much hopeful thankfulness. The orphanage continues to make satisfactory progress, and the Industrial Establishment is beginning to assume its due proportions. The settlement has already proved attractive to native Christians, and, if the God of all grace be pleased to vouchsafe His blessing to it, it will become a shining light in the surrounding darkness. Mr. Price is, in most respects, admirably fitted for the post he occupies; and I trust his firmness and discipline will be the means of promoting among the native Christians habits of industry, energy, and self-reliance. I would ask your special prayers for Shurunpúr.

At Bombay itself are stationed the Rev. Messrs. Isenberg, Robertson, Davidson, and Daji Pandurang, the latter having been brought down from Malligám, at which place he has been succeeded in the charge of the native flock by the Rev. Appaji Bapuji, formerly at Bombay. Mrs. Jerrom and Miss White are engaged in female education.

Mr. Robertson has been occupied chiefly in the work of translation. He writes—

Nearly all my time and strength, during the past year, have been laid out in the studies and labours connected with the new and revised edition of the holy Scriptures in the Marathí language—a language spoken by perhaps more than ten millions of the natives of Western India. The Marathí Bible has now been completed in one volume: the former publications were of several portions, not uniformly prepared. This work has been accomplished at the expense of the British and Foreign Bible Society, the kind sister of every evangelical Mission.

Feeble though my health has been, the last four years have been the heaviest of my life. Those who have worked with me, at any time during that period, know how great the toil has been. The work, however, has been pleasant, though hard. We have felt that we were toiling for the preparation of one of the best engines to be used in the war against Satan's kingdom in this pagan land. The greater number of my brethren around me are occupied in holding direct intercourse with the heathen by the living voice: they speak out of the fulness of their heart, and utter the precious gospel-truths which they have treasured up there. But they all look with longing eyes to the dépôt of the Bible Society, and are thankful when they receive supplies of the written word in a tongue which the people understand. This written word is the sword wielded by those who are more valiant than I, and go forward among the thickest of the enemy. My part is a more humble one, but it is necessary. I trust my heart beats with as warm an interest in the struggle as that of those who are more nearly engaged. The glory of the Redeemer, and the salvation of the oppressed heathen under Satan's yoke, is our common object.

One of the native teachers of the Mission, Mr. J. Wilson, notices in his report—

The distribution of the Jubilee edition of the Bible in Bombay has brought that book within the reach of all. Guzarathí and Marathí translations of the New Testament may now be seen on the counting-tables of shopkeepers, and in the libraries of almost all the respectable natives in Bombay. I had, on two occasions, seen the New Testament in Guzarathí lying on the tables of the shopkeepers in the fort. This gave me occasion to enter into some sort of religious conversation with them. They told me that they had no objection to reading the Christian Scriptures.

The Rev. C. W. Isenberg has the general superintendence of the native-Christian congregation at Bombay, which is ministered to by a native clergyman. He also employs his knowledge of many languages in making known the truth to different classes of the heathen around him. The following extracts from his communications will give a lively view of his work—

Our church attendance varies, on Sundays from fifty to ninety, and on Thursdays from twelve to sixty. Our little native church has, by the mercy of God, experienced the following increase since I sent my last journal. At the last confirmation, held by the Lord Bishop at Trinity Chapel on March 31, eleven females and two men, members of our congregation, were confirmed; and at various periods during the last four months and a-half four adult women—viz. three Hindús and one Mohammedan—and ten children, have been baptized. The whole number of baptized members of our congregation must by this time be about a hundred or more. The number of present communicants is between twenty-five and thirty.

The spiritual condition of this our native flock is far from what I should like it to be; but, thanks to God! it is evidently much better than it has been, and than it was last year. There is very evident spiritual growth in several of them, especially in some of our Tamil members.

An Arabic service on Lord's-days, which I commenced soon after my return, for the benefit of a few Christians, natives of Mesopotamia, in connexion with the church of Rome, and for a Jewess, Sumaha, with her family, I had to discontinue, for want of regular attendance on the part of my hearers; and Sumaha, and her two children, join the Marathí services, which they now tolerably well understand.

I have had the privilege of preaching the blessed gospel to the poor at the Native General Poor Home, known by the name of Sir Jamsetji Jejeebhoy's Dharmashala. There are about 400 inmates at that Institution, representing a great variety of human sufferers, poor, maimed, lame, blind, leprous, &c., of various nations and religions—Hindús, Mohammedans, and a few Christians.

I have also lately commenced visiting, on Fridays, the Native Industrial School for youthful offenders at Shivri, seeking to place Christ before these young delinquents, as the only Saviour and Guide who can place their feet in the way of peace.

Our zealous friend and fellow-labourer, Miss White, has assisted me in commencing a regular class of Hindú inquirers, whom she collected from her teachers and their friends at her bungalow, where I meet them every Tuesday evening.

Mr. Isenberg has also taken an active part in translational labours. He has superintended, and sent to this country for revision, a translation of Mr. Pfander's Mizan-ul-huqq. The munshí who assisted in this work "had not long begun to translate it, when he was brought to see the futility of his own, and the solid foundation and divine character of the Christian religion. His intellect is perfectly convinced of the truth of the gospel. He once asked me," says Mr. Isenberg, "to baptize him, and frequently accompanied me to church, when he took his Arabic Common-Prayer Book and Bible with him, and came to me on Sundays between the church hours, asking me to read our church services with him, when he entered apparently with much feeling into them." From his subsequent conduct, however, it is plain that his heart is as yet untouched. "Still," Mr. Isenberg adds, "I entertain some hopes of him. I commend him to your prayers, that he may be plucked as a brand out of the fire."

Education.

The Robert-Money School is under the temporary charge of the Rev. A. Davidson, who is carrying on the school until the arrival of a Principal. A new and commodious building, in a commanding locality, is in course of erection; and the Committee are most anxious, on its completion, to open it with a thoroughly efficient staff of teachers. They are anxiously seeking for an experienced and able man for the head of the establishment. There has been, during the last year, a large increase in the number of scholars, which, at the close of the year, amounted to 450, being too large a number for the limited accommodation of the temporary buildings. It may be regarded as a proof of the success of the school, that the natives have set up an opposition school immediately adjoining the Society's premises, over which was written, in Marathí, that all who did not wish to be baptized and become Christians were invited to attend this school, which was termed the Hindú College. An eloquent Brahmin was also engaged to give lectures in the room. By these means some have been for the present withdrawn from the Mission school. But, like other native attempts to counteract European schools, there is little apprehension of any lasting effect.

Mr. J. Wilson has ably assisted Mr. Davidson in the duties of the school. In his annual report he thus refers incidentally to the value of female education—"When India shall be able to boast of educated and enlightened mothers, we may then expect to see a far superior class of young men attending our schools and Institutions."

Mr. Robertson writes, respecting the vernacular schools—

The number of our Marathí schools was diminished, about fifteen months ago, in consequence of a hard pressure on the finances of our Society. Such as were kept up are doing very well; but, of them all, I am most pleased with the one which is attended by Jews. In this school the knowledge of scripture truth acquired by the pupils is very striking. When one speaks to them of the events recorded in the Bible, many faces beam with responsive intelligence.

Miss White ably superintends eight schools for girls and little boys. The numbers are, of girls, 195; of boys, 164; total, 349. She writes, respecting this branch of labour—

The Hindús are not averse to receive education on Christian principles, as is clearly manifested by them, before they are removed into the Government Institutions lately established in Bombay; and it is with concern I add, that a great number of the most promising males and females have left: the parents have been tampered with by promises of rewards. I have further to state, that the above-mentioned schools are opened with well-taught children, instead of receiving ignorant, untaught children. It is no easy task to teach these poor children their alphabet.

I am happy to say that the attendance and improvement of the children have been most satisfactory. The parents and pupils appear to appreciate the instruction imparted. An important result obtained from your Society's schools is, that the Bible is conveyed into their houses, and that they take delight to hear their children reading.*

NASIK.

Three Missionaries are attached to this station—the Rev. Messrs. Mengé, Frost, and Price. The two former devote their time to itineration in the neighbourhood. Mr. Price has the charge of the duties of the station and the Christian congregation, which now numbers 121 souls, 21 of whom are adult candidates for baptism. Mr. Price gives a cheering account of the success of the various departments of the Mission. The following are extracts from his annual review—

The "feeding of the flock" I have felt to be my chief work. The congregation shows a considerable increase of members; and, on the whole, I trust I am not too sanguine in hoping that there has been a corresponding advance in spiritual things. There have been, and there are, some drawbacks to this satisfaction, in the worldliness of some and the apathy of others. Three have gone to their eternal rest, all of whom were possessed of a simple yet lively faith, which enabled them to welcome death as a friend who came to open to them the door into heavenly mansions. I had much joy in witnessing the quiet and happy departure of these dear old people, who, with little knowledge of other matters, yet knew much of the love of Christ, and clung to the last to the hope of seeing Him, and of obtaining pardon through His precious blood. In others, who still remain, I have been pleased to mark an increasing desire to spread abroad the knowledge of the truth. On a Sunday afternoon, after public worship, several groups of two or three go forth in various directions, seeking opportunities of preaching the gospel. The Monthly Missionary meeting may have done something to stir them up to this and similar efforts.

Preaching to the heathen has been almost daily carried on, in Nasik and the near villages by Sorabji and Krishnaji. I have not been able to join them so often as I wished, owing to the pressure of pastoral duties. A good share of cavilling and opposition has been met with in the town, where Brahminical influence is strong, but in the villages there are many ready listeners. It is some satisfaction to know that the gospel sound is being continually heard by our heathen neighbours, and that few within reach of this place are left without an opportunity of hearing of the everlasting Saviour. Unable, as I have said, frequently to accompany my native helpers in their preaching excursions, I have felt it the more necessary and important to give some time and care to instructing and encouraging them for this work. For this purpose I have been in the habit of spending with them an hour a day. I hope, God helping me, to pursue a more regular plan with them for the future, being persuaded that a Missionary can scarcely be better employed than in endeavouring to qualify his native assistants for their important work; for, after all, if the gospel is ever to be extensively preached, it must be chiefly by their instrumentality.

The Christian Colony, in the immediate neighbourhood of Nasik, has been gradually growing in size and importance. Eight new cottages have been built for the accommodation of families who have come in, and still we are short of room. The new comers are chiefly poor persons from the neighbourhood of Aurungabad, who have heard a good report of the Christian religion, and desire to be instructed therein. Most of them are simple-minded, earnest people, and their steady conduct, and willingness to learn, encourage me to hope well concerning them. I am more and more persuaded of the necessity of such an institution as this to the completeness of Mission agency. What we hoped for from it has been at least partially realized: it has afforded to many an opportunity, which else they would scarcely have found, of receiving regular instruction in spiritual things, and teaching by example has brought within the sphere of their understandings the doctrines and practice of true religion. Some who had been baptized, yet were scattered about, "as sheep without a shepherd," have come and settled down here, in order to avail themselves of the public means of grace. To several it has proved a true "city of refuge." The children of native Christians, who formerly grew up among the heathen, and learned their ways, are now brought under an early moral and religious training, from which we may reasonably expect much good in time to come. And altogether, I feel confidence in saying that whether as regards the native church itself, the inquirers and candidates for baptism, or the heathen population around us, the settlement has already exercised a beneficial influence.

In connexion with this comes the Industrial Institution. A sense of the importance of this branch of labour, in its bearing on the future welfare of the native church, has enabled me conscientiously to devote to it much time and attention. We have been particularly happy in meeting with a master carpenter and blacksmith, both of whom are steady, well-conducted men, who have a thorough knowledge of their respective trades, and take pleasure in instructing the boys. We have now commenced the building of light spring bullock-carts, an article much in demand in the Mofussil, and the manufacture of which will find constant employment for both carpenters and smiths. We have also a bookbinding establishment. At present eight boys are learning trades, and more are ready to begin. Employment has also been found for Christian labourers and inquirers, though we find some difficulty in doing this to the extent we wish, and shall do so, till the scale of our operations is enlarged. Still, none have had an excuse for idleness; and I am bound to add, that, in this respect, there is a marked improvement in our poor native Christians. None expect now to live on charity, who have hands to use, and strength to use them; and most of them work well and cheerfully, earning for themselves an honest living. In this department Ruttonji has helped me greatly, and I cannot but praise God for His goodness.

The baptism of one of the converts, recorded by Mr. Price, is full of encouragement, as the type of a class of inquirers which would be India's best hope. The account is given in Mr. Price's own words.

Ruttonji, a young man of about eighteen years of age, is a member of a very respectable and well-known Parsí family of Ahmednuggur, and received his education in the Government English school of that place. About two or three years ago, he and several companions, young men of various castes, being persuaded of the baselessness of their respective creeds, formed themselves into a kind of deistical society. They met at stated seasons for prayer, and for the worship of the "invisible God." In the darkness of their minds, they examined the Bible and the doctrines of Christianity, not with any view of embracing it, but in order to fortify themselves with arguments against it. Whilst this was going on, Nilchund Shastri, or, as he is better known, Nehemiah Pundit, on his way from England, passed through Ahmednuggur, and, during his short stay there, took the opportunity of delivering several addresses to young men. Our young deists were amongst his most attentive hearers, and the earnest exhortations of the stranger touched their hearts: his arguments convinced their minds. It pleased the Lord, through him, to "speak the word in season," and the result is full of encouragement, supplying, as it does, a practical comment on the Preacher's words—"In the morning sow thy seed . . . for thou canst not tell, &c." All, or nearly so, of this company of young men were aroused to a sense of their danger, and became earnest seekers after truth. In a short time several were baptized by the American Missionaries at Ahmednuggur, whilst Ruttonji was sent by his friends to reside at Nasik. He lost no time in putting himself into connexion with myself and Sorabji, and for nearly three months was a daily visitor at Sharanpúr, joining us in prayer, and receiving instruction from the word of God. At first he was very timid, but gradually, as light broke in upon his mind, he became more courageous, till at length he was enabled to come boldly forward and "take up his cross." Many were the trials, afflictions, and persecutions through which he was called to pass; but out of them all the Lord wonderfully delivered him. It falls to the lot of few, perhaps, to make greater sacrifices, for it may with truth be said, that he "left all to follow Christ"—his prospects of worldly gain and advancement; a comfortable home, and a large circle of loving relatives; and, not least, his wife and child, for whom he has a strong affection. Ruttonji is now usefully employed as my assistant in the industrial department, in which position he renders me most valuable help. His salary is only just sufficient for his actual wants.

The conversion and baptism of Ruttonji and his companions caused great excitement for miles around, and has opened, not only our eyes, but those of the heathen also, to the fact, that Christianity is surely, though secretly, making ground, and undermining the tottering fabric of Brahminism, and all the other forms of error which prevail more or less in this country. On every hand there are indications that the power of the truth is being felt, and that a wide-spread preparatory work is going on. May the Lord vouchsafe a larger blessing, and give us the realization of our hopes!

Itinerating Labours.

Messrs. Mengé and Frost have devoted their time exclusively to itinerating in the districts surrounding Nasik. Such labours do not afford matter for reporting upon until it pleases God to bless the word to the conversion of souls. Almost universally, the word of the Missionaries is listened to with attention and respect. A few ask captious questions, and bring forward their reasons for esteeming Hindúism better suited to themselves than Christianity. At times, instances occur in which words dropped by former itinerating Missionaries, years since, still live in the memory of the people. Mr. Mengé is accompanied by his wife, who addresses the women who cluster around her after her husband's preaching, or often in a separate audience.

Mr. Frost thus gives expression to the feelings with which he reviewed the labours of the year, though he had been several times interrupted in them by severe attacks of fever—

I would state with thankfulness, that although the memory of home and England often add painful thoughts to the peculiar trials of various kinds, within and without, arising from a residence here, still, the desire of serving my heavenly Master among the heathen, which first made me offer myself to the Society, is strengthened, and I more and more wish to spend my days in the Marathí country.

The experience of this year's intercourse with the people, and a more intimate acquaintance with their character, social habits, and prevalent religious opinions, brings more and more before my mind the formidable strongholds of Hindú heathenism. A native who is not influenced by any hope of worldly advantage must indeed be drawn by a mighty power before he can take the decisive step of confessing Christ, and enduring all its well-known consequences. It is only by continued intercourse with the natives, and reading their own books, that this so necessary knowledge can be obtained. I feel sure that the merely being informed of the habits of the Hindús, as many may be while living in England, is quite insufficient to give that realizing apprehension that is so strongly and painfully forced on the mind out here. Thus, for instance, at home we may read of Hindú caste customs, and their doctrines of transmigrations, for in themselves the ideas are simple; but the constant acting out of caste prejudices in its innumerable ramifications must be witnessed to be realized. And as to transmigrations, I am only lately believing and realizing that all the religious thoughts of all classes of the people radiate from that centre, which thus influences practically their daily ideas.

This leads me to express here my strong feeling that our real spiritual usefulness as Missionaries—whether our duties be educational, pastoral, or itinerant—consists in the scriptural exhibition of Jesus Christ. Even when the name of Christ has been often uttered, it too often happens, that, excepting the holiness of Christ's character, the hearers would be able to gather nothing more of Him than they might say is to be found in the Shasters of the Hindú gods. There is too often such a painful omission of those sweet traits in our Lord's character that are so well calculated to draw the hearers to Him in love, and which would unfold to them a gracious Person, as different from any of the heathen gods as light from darkness. How much do we all need the prayers of our brethren at home, that we may so know Christ, by a growing happy experience of Him, that it may be more natural, so to speak, to dwell and enlarge upon the gracious and loving character of Jesus, than to speak of His miraculous power and holiness, and other subjects rather connected with the law than the gospel.*

Testimony of an experienced Missionary the work at Nasik.

The Rev. E. Rogers, who returned to India at the beginning of last year, after a visit to England for the recovery of his health, bears this testimony to the progress of the work at this principal station of the Society—

I observed a very marked change for the better in our Nasik Mission. The Missionaries have now their periodical meetings for consultation and prayer. Native Christians, formerly dependent on the Mission, or on the Missionaries, for support, are now labouring with their own hands, and earning their daily bread. The Orphan and Industrial schools are of great promise. While some of the boys are being brought up to useful and respectable trades, others will, we may hope, be fitted, by God's blessing, to become assistants to us in our Missionary work. We have great need of such assistants now, and shall have, if our work prosper, for years to come. I have great hope, therefore, that Nasik, so long barren and unproductive, will yet become a centre of light, a stronghold of Christian truth, as it has been, in times past, a stronghold of superstition and idolatry.†

JUNÍR.

The station of Junír has been under the charge of the Rev. Messrs. Schwarz and J. Bunter, a native minister. The work at this station is in an incipient state: there are only six native Christians, and a vernacular school of 200 scholars. No baptism has taken place during the last year. That which has occurred at the commencement of many a successful Mission, is now the lot of Junír—violent opposition and bitter scorn on the part of the Brahmins, and rude treatment from the people who are in bondage under their injurious influence.†

MALLIGAUM.

The Rev. E. Rogers, assisted by the native minister the Rev. Appaji Bapuji, is in charge of this station, Owing to its being deprived of a resident Missionary for a considerable time, the work has gone back. The native congregation is reduced to eighteen souls: there have been a few inquirers, but no baptisms, during the last year. There are vernacular schools, containing about seventy children. Mr. Rogers has devoted his time chiefly to preaching to the heathen, and to itinerating in the district. In his annual letter he writes—

In Khandeish there are 2758 towns and villages. It appears from your letters that there are but few coming forward to offer themselves for Missionary work, so I fear it is almost useless to ask the Committee to strengthen their Mission in Khandeish. Still, I do venture to plead earnestly for two more Missionaries—one European, one Native. Appaji and I have the entire Collectorate to ourselves: we have no catechist, no Scripture reader, no Christian schoolmaster. When we are itinerating the little congregation at Malligaum is without a pastor, and consequently without divine service on Sundays. In every place where we go we find willing hearers, and of late we have met with many who seem really anxious to know the truths of our holy religion. Khandeish is, in many respects, a promising field of Missionary labour. Gradually rising in wealth and civilization from a previous state of desolation and wretchedness, the people generally are satisfied with English rule, and probably on that account listen the more readily to our teaching. Schools are being established in almost every town of importance, and a desire for knowledge prevails on all sides. Would that we were able to seize the opportunity to impart that knowledge which maketh wise unto salvation. Another advantage which we have in Khandeish is, that Brahminical influence is not all-powerful here, as it is in some places. We meet with Rajpúts, Sikhs, Bhíls, and men of different sects, who have little or no regard for the Brahmin as a religious teacher.*

THE SINDH MISSION.

In consequence of the accession of the Rev. Andrew Burn to the Mission, it has been determined to occupy Hydrabad, in connexion with Shikarpúr, each for six months in the year, according to the season, while the surrounding country is to be visited as frequently as possible. The older station at Karachí is under the joint care of Messrs. Sheldon and Seal (native minister). Dr. Trumpp's health having been restored, he and Mrs. Trumpp have returned to Karachí, with the view of resuming his linguistic labours in the preparation of a grammar and other books in Sindhí—the Government having cordially entered into his views, and afforded him substantial assistance in carrying out his plans, by undertaking to print the works he has prepared.

Karachí.

The native congregation comprises twenty-six adults. There are nine inquirers. The conduct of the converts affords much cause for thankfulness. Preaching in the bazaars and other public places has been continued, and Christian books are freely circulated.

The English school is under the charge of Mr. Goodall. It is held in the verandah of the building used as a church, and therefore under great disadvantages in respect of proper accommodation. But the number of scholars has increased considerably, and Mr. Goodall speaks with much hope for the future, if only a proper room can be procured.

Hydrabad.

Mr. Matchett removed from Karachí to Hydrabad in April, and was soon afterwards joined by Mr. Burn. Preaching in the city and neighbourhood was immediately commenced, and carried on till October, when the Missionaries took a Missionary tour to the north, chiefly on the east side of the Indus, ending with Shikarpúr. The reception of the Missionaries has been very various. In Hydrabad they have been treated with much respect, and have found willing listeners. In the ancient city of Tatta the people indulged in every kind of insolence short of blows. In Halla, a stronghold of Syuds and Mallas, they were met by contradictions wherever they opened their lips. Yet they persevere in their work, and one or two interesting inquirers have cheered their labours. "Those who are looking on with interest upon our work, from home, as well as the Missionaries engaged in it," writes Mr. Burn, "will need long patience in Sindh. We have but an imperfect instrumentality to bear upon the people: they are grossly ignorant of their own religion, as well as of Christianity. A reading generation has yet to be raised up; the prejudice of the Mussulmans against the gospel is deep-rooted; yet my only anxiety is, that none of us may fail, or be wanting in our work. May God grant the spirit of power, and of love, and of a sound mind!" And in another communication he writes—"Our means of influencing the people have been so far imperfect, as we have had no school, few Sindhí books, the lack of readers of every age, and limited power of speech in the native language. These, though obstacles, so far from being discouragements, are a direction to our efforts to supply the remedy. Every thing has tended to increase our satisfaction in Hyderabad as a Missionary station. I trust that God will grant the best confirmation of our hopes in His time.”*

General view of the North-India Mission.

THE North-India Mission field occupies the greatest extent of country, and numbers the largest staff of European Missionaries, of any of the Society's Missions. The distance between its extreme stations is 1500 miles. But by the wonderful facilities of modern intercommunication the whole district will soon be traversed in a few days, as a message is even now sent in a few minutes. These external aids to the work of Missions may well excite the praise and admiration of the church of Christ, and should prove also an incentive to corresponding energy and largeness of aim in the messengers of the gospel.

The field may be described under three divisions—Bengal—the North-West Provinces—and the Punjab.

I. BENGAL.

Bengal comprises the station of Calcutta, with the out-stations of Thakerpuker and Agurpara, the station of Burdwan, * Further accounts of the Sindh Mission are given in the “Church Missionary Record” for Feb. 1857, pp. 52—57, and the “Church Missionary Intelligencer” for the same month, pp. 35, 36; and of the Bombay and Western-India Mission generally in the “Church Missionary Record” for Dec. 1856, pp. 305 and 307; April 1857, pp. 89, 90; and May, pp. 123, 124; also in the “Church Missionary Gleaner” for Dec. 1856, pp. 134—136.

the district of Kishnagurh, with its nine stations, and the station of Bhagulpur. Within this range are contained classes of heathen inhabitants of the most diverse character, from the highly-educated and acute native aristocracy of Calcutta, down to the degraded peasantry of the plains, and the lawless Santals of the hills. Hitherto, the Society, in distributing its spiritual forces, has provided chiefly for the lower classes of the people.

CALCUTTA.

A zealous friend, M. Wylie, Esq., of Calcutta,* who addressed the Anniversary Meeting of 1855, suggested the appointment of Missionaries specially for the educated classes of Calcutta. At that time there were not the spare means to attempt a new Mission. But the Lord, who raised the desire, has furnished the means. The venerable Bishop of Calcutta, who some years ago collected large sums for the endowment of a Mission in Calcutta, called the Cathedral Mission, having found, after several years' experience, that Missionary work in India can only be effectually carried on through the agency of Missionary Societies in England, has given a public testimony of his confidence in the Church Missionary Society by making over to its management the greater portion of this Mission Fund, sufficient for the maintenance of at least three European Missionaries, with the sole condition that they shall be employed in Calcutta. The Trustees of another Fund have also made over for the use of the Society a commodious parsonage house, and a capacious church, in Calcutta. Thus provided and encouraged, the Committee have already sent out one Missionary, the Rev. R. P. Greaves, M.A., who is to direct his labours especially to the educated classes of Calcutta, by lectures on the evidences of Christianity, or such other addresses as may attract their special attention. One of the Calcutta Cathedral Missionaries has also joined the Society, so that this new department of labour will, it is hoped, be entered upon with every advantage, and it is earnestly commended to the blessing of Almighty God.

The Rev. T. Sandys has patiently and faithfully pursued his Missionary labours as in former years. The large English school upon the Mission premises is now under his superintendence, and he reports favourably of its progress.

* A letter from Mr. Wylie, on the vast importance and requirements of India, is given in the "Church Missionary Intelligencer" for December 1856.

It is very satisfactory to find that the payment of school fees has been successfully introduced. Mr. Sandys states—

In the year before last, when the school had the superintendence of the Rev. E. C. Stuart, and Mr. Thomson as head master, the fee system was introduced by Mr. Stuart, and about 750 Company's rupees, or 75*l.*, was realized towards the expenses of the school; and this year, without Mr. Thomson, and with a native teacher in his stead, the fees have also amounted to about the same sum, viz. 780 Company's rupees, or 78*l.*

Thakerpuker.

The Rev. J. Long has continued to superintend the Missionary operations at this rural out-station, as in former years. Those operations are mainly conducted by native agency. It has been Mr. Long's great aim to exhibit the practicability and advantage of this system. He was happily provided with a head catechist, well qualified for the work, whom it pleased God to take to Himself in the early part of the year. Mr. Long gives the following interesting account of his Christian character, and efficiency as a Christian teacher—

April 1856—The head catechist whom I have lost, Jacob Madhav, was originally a purohit, or Hindú priest, and no doubt, from his employment there, he learned what no books can give the knowledge of—human nature, and the management of adults. He knew his Bible well, and lived on the truths of it. His last words were, "I am a great sinner, but Christ is a Saviour." He died in the Lord, aged fifty. I have found him faithful in the responsibilities I entrusted to him, and he possessed a tact in managing things, which no books or mere training school can give. During several months past I began the plan of giving, from my own notes, the heads of sermons, to the catechists who preached them; and I have been often surprised how he would reproduce in church, to the people, almost every idea I had communicated. I have had him under training the last five years, and am convinced from his case, as well as that of others, that the true way to raise up, at present, village pastors, is to select from among the people those who recommend themselves most by grace and gifts, to make them the media of preaching, while the Missionary aims himself, by a thorough study of the vernacular language and of Hindú modes of expression, to communicate Christian ideas in a garb most suited to the Oriental mind. Sermons cast in the English mode are almost worthless for making an impression on Hindús.

Mr. Sandys has furnished the following interesting notice of the earlier history of this excellent man—

So efficiently had Jacob carried on his work of instructing the candidates for baptism, scattered throughout the district, that, in the month of September 1842, 47 individuals were baptized by me in the chapel at Thakerpuker; and, on the 11th of December following, a further number of 39 individuals were also admitted by me to the same ordinance; giving a total of 86 individuals. During my absence in England, Jacob continued in charge of the district, under the Rev. J. F. Osborne; and after my return, and Mr. Osborne's departure for Europe, the district again came under my care, in which it continued until the return of the Rev. J. Long from a visit to Europe, in the year 1848, when the number of native Christians who were transferred to his care, on his taking charge of the district, amounted to about 300, scattered over about twenty villages.

In a letter towards the close of the year Mr. Long repeats his remarks upon the subject of native agency—

I find, in my own work, that the training up and working a native agency is, and ought to be, more our main aim. I have adopted the plan this year in my district, by supplying the materials of sermons and Biblical instruction to my catechists, and letting them teach the native Christians. It is quite time that European Missionaries should give up the plan of being pastors. I find, at Thakerpuker, matters go on better by my making it my main principle, rather to train teachers to do the work themselves with the people, than for myself to do it directly. But this involves me in much harder work at study, in preparing the raw material. It is true we have a high education in Calcutta, but I find the educated classes show little sympathy in this respect: the curse of caste remains for generations. Even our Christians of the Brahminical caste retain the Brahmin's contempt of the common people, and it is the experience of our Missionaries that they will not answer as pastors. We must have men raised up among the people themselves.

Agurpara.

The out-station of Agurpara has been under the care of the East-Indian catechist, Mr. De Rozario. The chief feature of the work is a large English school, the teachers of which, being all Christians, visit together with Mr. De Rozario the parents and other friends of the children. Mr. De Rozario takes a retrospective view of his labours in a letter, Oct, 8, 1856—

When I entered upon the charge of this Mission, in Dec. 1842, I found only forty boys in the large schoolroom, under the tuition of one Christian and two heathen teachers. I re-modelled the school, and introduced all Christian teachers, and books on Christian principles, as well as the Bible itself, and opened and closed school duties with prayer—a practice which I had originally introduced in the Burdwan English School in 1834. Notwithstanding these clear marks and open declaration of our Missionary object, boys came in from distances of four and five miles, the number increased, the school flourished, and the Lord encouraged us by bringing several souls from darkness to His marvellous light, and to the knowledge of His Son Jesus Christ. Thus the work progressed, and the number of pupils increased to 316 in 1851. This number began to fluctuate subsequently, in consequence of several conversions. Yet in October 1854 we had 276. But the introduction of the pay-system reduced it to 161 in January 1855, which rose again to 204 in July of the same year. Hence we perceive that neither conversion nor the pay-system has had a permanent tendency to check the desire for English education in a Missionary school. But about that time—July 1855—two small schools were established by natives on either side of us, at the distances of one and a half and two miles, whence most of our boys used to come. These schools have since secured Government grants-in-aid, and employed teachers better paid than those in our school. Whether the pupils will be better taught is a question. But the plausibility of a better education, Government affiliation, convenience as to proximity, the purely secular character of these schools, the prospect of eligibility to Government employment, or to one of the colleges of the forthcoming University, are all too attractive and irresistible. Hence our school has been deserted. We have now only 140, including forty-five free boys, who are too poor to pay even four annas per mensem. I apprehend we shall, sooner or later, be under the alternative of either closing the school, or applying for a Government grant-in-aid, if obtainable.

There are now 18 families, consisting of 73 individuals—35 adults and 38 children—to whom I preach three times a week. After the morning service on Sundays I catechize the children. I have also visited occasionally the different families, to read and pray with them in their houses. We have, besides, a monthly prayer-meeting of a Missionary character.

This station has not had the benefit of a resident Missionary; neither has there been any catechist, such as Thakerpuker enjoyed, to devote himself to direct Mission work among the heathen: consequently there has been no Christian community formed, though it may be hoped that a preparatory work has been accomplished in the rising generation. Mr. De Rozario closes his review with the following discouraging remark—"As the heads of the Christian families are either teachers or servants, the congregation changes with the changes of teachers and servants. Should the schools be ever dissolved, the congregation will be dispersed. There are only four families permanently settled in this place, of whom only two are independent of the Mission."

BURDWAN.

The Rev. B. Geidt's annual report of his station has not been received. He and the Rev. A. P. Neele have divided the labours of the station.

Mr. Neele has zealously exerted himself to gain access to the better class of Hindús, and, through the Divine blessing, he has met with encouragement. The following is from his annual letter at the close of the year—

I have continued the plan, mentioned in my last letter, of making calls from time to time at the houses of the educated class of Hindús. By this means I have gained an increased insight into the opinions and mode of thought common among this class; have been enabled to clear away, in some cases, misconceptions with reference to Christian doctrines; to give an answer, in others, to fallacious arguments gleaned from the works of enemies to the truth; and to revive, or at least to administer, a gentle gale to keep alive the still smouldering embers of conviction which lie hid in the breast of many a one who has received his education in some Missionary institution. As a further means of reaching the more educated natives, I delivered, during the hot season, a course of lectures upon the evidences of Christianity. In these lectures I adopted the English language, as being more attractive for those for whose benefit they were designed. The large room in the English school I had lighted up and properly arranged for the occasion. I commenced the lectures, in the first instance, by calling upon several of the most influential natives; and subsequently, in order to keep up the interest, I had a number of circulars printed, which were addressed and sent to the proper parties. I had in every instance very good audiences, who listened with much attention. At the close of each lecture, I encouraged any who wished to make remarks, or bring forward any objections to what had been stated. A few availed themselves of the opportunity; others subsequently called upon me; and one stated his difficulties in written correspondence. The feeble effort made in the delivery of these lectures it pleased the Lord to bless, in bringing to my notice an inquirer into the truth of Christianity, whom four months subsequently, after due preparation and probation, I was privileged to baptize.

The person here mentioned is now employed as head teacher in the English school at Burdwan. He was a Brahmin of about thirty years of age, had received a good education both in Brahminical learning and in English literature, having passed through the Agra Government College, and afterwards the Engineering College at Roorkee. Ill health obliged him to retire from the employment of a civil engineer, and he was living upon his own means. His attention had been drawn to Christianity for some time, and he had had conversations on the subject with other Missionaries. But his mind was still in suspense when he visited Burdwan. He had probably often passed by bazaars where preaching was going on; but his attention was arrested by hearing a lecture addressed to educated classes in the English language. Not aware that the lecture was public, he had listened to it from without, and was thus led to seek an interview with the Missionary. This instance may well encourage the Missionaries to attempt to reach the educated ranks of native society by such means as are adapted to their habits and state of mind. This is the department to which Mr. Greaves has been allotted in the Calcutta Mission.

Mr. Neele writes respecting this convert in his annual letter—"He frequently engages in bazaar preaching. In this he succeeds more in argument than in consecutive address, being well acquainted with the Hindú literature, and with the modes of thought current among his country-people."

An English school at this station is under the care of Mr. Neele, who reports an increase in the number of pupils, notwithstanding perseverance in the paying system. The number is, in fact, higher than it ever was when the school was free. He adds—"I continually find that those who have learned in our schools, even if it have been but for a short time, always meet us as old friends, and are often ready to take our part in discussion with heathen opponents."

KISHNAGURH.

The nine stations of the Kishnagurh district continue under the charge of the same European Missionaries as last year, with the exception of Mr. Lipp, who has returned home on account of health.

It will be remembered, that when the first awakening took place in this district it was divided into several pastoral charges: large churches, and parsonage houses, with boarding-schools, were erected in each, and European Missionaries placed in charge; so that the district presented at once the appearance of Christian parishes in the midst of a heathen land. The awakening had been so sudden, that there were no trained native catechists or schoolmasters. But it was hoped, that, under the pastoral ministrations of zealous and enlightened European Missionaries, the neophytes would grow up into mature Christians, and so become a light to their surrounding countrymen. It will, however, have been evident, from the reports of late years, that the hopes thus cherished have failed. The Missionaries have written more and more discouragingly each year of the state of their congregations. Several of the out-stations have been reported as having relapsed into former superstitions, and baptized converts have apostatized in large numbers. Though there are individual cases of true conversion, and some bright examples of the grace of God, yet, as a Christian church, the Kishnagurh converts exhibit a near resemblance to the churches of Laodicæa or Sardis.

The senior Missionary, the Rev. H. C. Krückeberg, presents the same dark picture of his station, as the report of last year contained. The Rev. J. G. Lincké speaks of the two stations under his charge as "sad and discouraging."

The fond hope expressed in my last annual letter as to the female part of the congregation, especially the young married women, has, alas! been destroyed in the very bud by the early death of Mrs. Lincké, and now hardly any of them are seen at church. In general, the attendance on divine service has greatly fallen off during the past year. As long as Luke the catechist was alive, he managed to get the people to attend church; for it was a principle with him to do so, which he used to express in a simile, saying, "The cowherd is expected to bring his cattle to the water: whether they drink or not, he has not to answer for. To bring them near the water is required of him." You will perceive that my annual reports, instead of becoming more encouraging as time passes on, are getting more and more discouraging and disheartening every year. This sad fact, believe me, weighs heavily on my mind. Truth, however, must be told, and light and shade correctly presented, at least as far as human knowledge and my own experience teach and enable me to do it.

The Rev. F. Schurr, who has three stations at present under his charge, writes—

At Kapasdanga the number of native Christians in the immediate neighbourhood of the Mission premises is about 500, all baptized. A few of the adults only have shown that they are under the influence of grace. There are some 200 more in outside villages, but they never care for the Christian religion, and, when sought for, cannot be found. There must be some 200 more of the young generation, who are neither baptized, nor do their parents send them to school. When I or the readers ask them, they reply, "If you pay us for it." Under such circumstances you will not wonder that I feel discouraged in visiting them any longer, and rather regard them as heathen. (Matt. xviii, 17.)

At Rottenpúr there are some 900 Christians connected with the station, but the majority cannot fairly be counted followers of Christ, as they reject the gospel of Christ, and live in the Mussulman fashion.

Joginda numbers above 300 nominal Christians, most of them baptized. There is not one person among the whole community that can be pointed out as a godly man.

Yet amidst these dark pictures there are evidences that God has not wholly withdrawn His blessing. As evidences of the Divine favour, the Committee refer to the testimony of the Rev. C. H. Blumhardt, who, while he laments with his brethren over the cold and lapsed state of the Christians generally, points out some gleams of hope.

I have lately met with some most pleasing tokens of encouragement among some of the members of my native congregation. Some have been, by the Spirit of God, brought to a sense of their sinfulness, and are now resolved to devote the rest of their lives to the one important matter of the salvation of their souls.

In the course of the last year a Roman-Catholic Priest has been sent here again, after ten years' quiet and peace, for the purpose of renewing the Romish Mission in this district. The Priest is an Italian, and, as far as I know, of a secular order: his name is Limona. He has evidently come here, not for the purpose of making new converts from heathenism, but in order to subvert the faith of those who already confess the name of Christ, but are unsettled and unstable in their mind. It is pleasing to me to observe the contrast between the time when the first Romish Priest came here, in 1846—who was then the means of drawing many of our people away from the truth, though they soon afterwards repented of it—and the arrival of this new man, who came here about eight months ago, but has not been able till now to collect more than three or four disaffected and unworthy members of our flock, and there is no likelihood of his obtaining more. This is a striking proof to my mind that our native flocks, labouring as they do under many and great disadvantages, have, in these ten years past, learned to discern the truth from error and deceit, which shows that our labour is not in vain among them.

Among the evidences of the grace of God in some of the converts, the Committee must also place the exemplary Christian life and death of a native teacher, who during the last year has been taken to glory from the church of this district. Koylas Chunder Mookerjea was the catechist of Nuddea, and died at the early age of 34 years. Mr. Hasell bears a high testimony to him, as one eminently furnished with the gifts and graces of an evangelist. He was the son of a Kulin Brahmin, and, having been a pupil in one of the Society's schools, embraced the Christian religion when twenty years old, notwithstanding the violent opposition of his father and the rest of his family. He was employed for a few years as catechist at Kishnagurh, and in 1852 was removed to Nuddea. Mr. Hasell writes—

A better appointment was never made. Nuddea required a man of peculiar gifts, and Koylas was that man: kind and gentle, yet bold in declaring the truth. He entered upon his work heartily but humbly. Nuddea afforded him ample scope. He taught Scripture and history for two or three hours a day in the schools, and all the rest of his time he devoted to either conference with, or preaching to, adults. As a preacher he was invariably acceptable. He had acquired a fair knowledge of Sanscrit, and a considerable acquaintance with the systems and modes of thought of those about him, and hence was always at his ease. In preaching he never wasted words, but was plain, personal, and practical, adapting his remarks with singular felicity to the mixed nature of the crowd. In Dec. 1854 he wrote to a friend—"It is only for the sake of my family that I wish to remove; but I think now that I should not go: I must and should be settled in one place: then I might be able to do the greatest good to men, and for that I ought to sacrifice family comforts." "We can have no situation in life unmixed with crosses, which it is our duty to suffer calmly." In his journal he thus refers to the same desire, Feb. 19, 1855—"I wish not to leave this place, but to do the Lord's work with contentment and hope, till He vouchsafe to give me success in converting some people here. The schools are very hopeful, and I must teach the word of God to them: some fruit must appear in time." Some Europeans are disposed to underrate the piety of converts from Hindúism, and scarcely admit, that, for the simple love of souls, natives will endure self-denial; but so far as my experience enables me to judge, and I knew him intimately for years, his conduct was a practical exemplification of both the extract from his letter to his friend, as also of that from his journal.

In the midst of his usefulness he was rapidly carried off by fever, in a season of unusual sickness. He died Sept. 2, 1856.

In another communication, March 19, Mr. Schurr records—

One little occurrence has given me some hope, viz. One night I had about twelve Christian ploughboys for instruction, and I asked them whether they were in the habit of praying. Some replied in the affirmative. I then inquired whether any number of their families used to pray. Almost all of them said yes. On inquiring after the names, I found that, with one exception, they were all young women who had been married from the school. This is a hopeful beginning; for when people begin to pray, they show some want, that can only be supplied by God; and this, I hope, will ultimately lead them to become His true children. Our schools are the groundwork of our hopes.

The Committee would here refer to the history of Jacob and to that of Luke, which was sketched in the last year's Report, as pointing to the means which they venture to suggest as most likely, under God, to bring a new blessing to this Mission. These men may have been far above the average of native teachers. But yet the church which has nurtured upon its bosom such men will surely produce many others, who, in a lower degree, might become the most efficient labourers amongst their countrymen. The communications of Mr. Schurr afford a strong corroboration of this view. He has three districts under his superintendence, owing to the removal of other European Missionaries.

Under these circumstances, he has been compelled to devote his attention rather to the guiding and quickening the native teachers, than to the direct instruction of the people. This he correctly styles "an experiment" in the Kishnagurh Mission, though it has been the means, under God, of the success of the Tinnevelly Mission. "I have seen," writes Mr. Schurr, "that several stations under one man can, with efficient native help, be worked more uniformly and satisfactorily than by different Missionaries. The experiment is most gratifying." And again, "In former years it was more a painful duty than a pleasure to report what we ourselves were doing; whereas I have now the satisfaction to record what our native helpers have effected under our guidance and superintendence. I am not now instructing the children so much myself as I used to do, but I am always coming upon the teachers unawares, which keeps them active and cheerful."

Such a system insures the constant intercourse between the Missionary and his native teachers. The benefit of such intercourse consists not only in the instruction and guidance imparted, but also in the communication of spiritual influence through united prayer, and the study of God's word.

The prospects connected with his fellow-helpers seem to have cast a new light upon the work in the mind of Mr. Schurr. He writes, in the conclusion of his communication, in so much more hopeful a strain, that he almost seems to contradict himself.

Of the native communicants several are devout people. The number of mere professors is gradually falling off, and chiefly those partake of the Lord's supper who feel an interest in it. One couple came on Christmas day a distance of thirty miles for the Lord's supper—the only instance of a hungering after righteousness, of this intensity, that I know of. The schools are already bearing precious fruit, and I hope we shall be allowed to reap more fully. In conclusion, I cannot but praise God for the hopeful aspect my three stations are now assuming. The Spirit of the Lord is beginning to work in a few souls, and who knows what rich blessings He has in store for us? The experiment I have in hand has proved hitherto most successful, and I entertain the hope that it will eventually prove more satisfactory.

Mr. Schurr's experiment is termed, in Tinnevelly, the catechist system. It has been sometimes said that it cannot succeed amongst the fickle and degraded Bengalis; but the success of Mr. Schurr and of Mr. Long, as already described, warrant a more hopeful conclusion. Mr. Schurr has himself referred to this point. He writes—

Much has been said to disparage the native character, and wicked it is indeed; but I have seen, if properly instructed and guided, and influenced by grace, the Bengali believer is as useful and faithful a labourer as the European—yea, infinitely superior among his own native brethren, being perfectly acquainted with all their native peculiarities, which we never can attain to. European superintendence is the right thing, and let the natives carry on the daily routine of work. The oppression and ill-treatment of many centuries past has rendered the native character desperately false and crooked; but the gospel, and an impartial administration of justice—which is still a desideratum, and not a fact—will correct it, and many children will be born unto the Lord. Let the friends of the kingdom of God unite their efforts to get rid of the grinding oppression of the planting and zemindari systems, and compel the Government to afford instruction to ALL its subjects, specially the poor—let the word of God be preached and spread far and wide—and the gospel will make its way into the hearts of the Bengalis.

Education—Santipur.

The remarks which the Committee have just offered reflect great importance upon the Santipur Training College, under the Rev. C. Bomwetsch and the Rev. J. A. Stern. This institution is designed, in the first instance, to train schoolmasters, but to keep them also in practice as Scripture readers. Should they prove, after 'a few years' trial, truly converted men, they will be brought back into the College for a special theological training, with a view to their becoming native ministers. The course of instruction extends over five years, and is wholly in the vernacular language. Two great difficulties stand in the way of the progress of this Institution, namely, the want of vernacular educational books, and the want of sufficient previous training in the youths sent to Santipur from the Christian villages. Notwithstanding these drawbacks, a very signal blessing from God has rested upon the Institution.

An examination was held July 12 and 15, by the Rev. H. Hutton and Rev. G. G. Cuthbert—as a deputation from the Calcutta Corresponding Committee—and the appointed examiners, the Rev. Messrs. H. C. Krückeberg, J. Long, and S. Hasell. "The examination, wholly in Bengali, was highly satisfactory in theology, sacred and other history, geography, Sanscrit, arithmetic, art of teaching, singing, &c. There were thirty young men and youths, six of them nearly ready to be sent out as teachers, and about twelve fine and promising lads, all of whom were considered fit for admission. These youths are all sons of native Christians of the Society's Bengal Missions, and afford much promise of future good to those Missions."

The Rev. A. Stern writes with great satisfaction of the work in which he is engaged, and for which his early training in an educational establishment in Germany peculiarly fits him. He speaks of one of the trained pupils, who is now his assistant, as "giving the best hopes of becoming a most useful labourer, both for teaching and preaching. Notwithstanding his youthfulness, he commands the respect of the pupils, and exerts a very beneficial influence over them. He is not only a diligent and well-gifted young man, but also a humble-minded and pious Christian." Mr. Stern sums up his account of the school in these words—

Some of the boys that have gone out do really show that there is a germ of new life in them, and do prove it by faithfully labouring; and some of the letters they write to us show that they are far above the level of their parents, and poor fellow-Christians in the district. Those amongst them who, in the mean time, will really show themselves worthy, will, as the Committee is aware, be re-admitted a second time for a divinity course. And those will be the men who will make real Missionaries, although they must even then, as Bengalis, carefully be put into the way of it.

These last two years two new classes have been admitted; but as the course lasts five years, we shall not have to send out any new scholars as preachers before another three years. From 1860, however, you may expect every year about ten young men. And as they have now every advantage of instruction, we may promise that they will turn out at least useful teachers. The one thing we wish and pray for, is their conversion.

The testimony of the Rev. S. Hasell to the success at Santipur is not only valuable as that of a brother Missionary of much experience, but also because he was himself the first to occupy the station with an English school, which has since been dropped. He writes—

The work is really progressing. There, where for ages Satan has reigned, two Missionaries are labouring; and there is the influence of the training-school, too, bearing indirectly upon the place. The gospel is being preached daily in the bazaars and other thoroughfares: the cautious plan I had conceived of gradually undermining old prejudices, and so gradually working upon the minds of the people, has been abandoned, and an open attack made—results which I never even ventured to contemplate, when, three years ago, I first visited the town.

In the prospects of the Institution Mr. Hasell finds abundant grounds for rejoicing. "Most of the pupils," he says, "are young; but, if the Lord continue to bless the Institution, there will be a class of teachers turned out in a few years fitted for any work that can be set before them among the Christians in the district, and then the European Missionaries will be able easily to superintend the whole."

The two Missionaries, notwithstanding their onerous school duties, preach the gospel constantly to the heathen, and exercise their pupils in the same work.

Nuddea.

The Rev. S. Hasell has removed to Nuddea, where he has hired a small native house, so that the Society is involved in no outlay beyond a small monthly rent; and the place will not be made a Station, except so far as preaching is concerned. The plan Mr. Hasell proposes to himself, under the Lord's guidance and blessing, is, to spend the whole of the cold season of every year in a tent, travelling about from village to village; and, during the heat and rains, to go out daily into the town of Nuddea and the villages around, in addition to teaching in the schools. "On the whole," writes Mr. Hasell, "we are well received, although sometimes interrupted and abused. It is one thing to visit occasionally, and quite another day after day to stand in the market-place as the messenger of truth. I know we have the daily prayers of many earnest friends. May the Shepherd of souls hear them, and vouchsafe to us some fruit, if He see it would be good for us! Humanly speaking, Nuddea is not a hopeful place in itself, for it is one of the very darkest spots in heathendom, and one, of whose inhabitants it might be said God has given them up to their own hearts' lusts: they will never believe! But then we may pause, and ask, "Is any thing too hard for the Lord?"

The Rev. C. B. Leupolt, of Benares, visited the Kishnagurh district at the close of the year, and the testimony of one who has laboured for twenty-five years in another part of North India is very valuable: it is given in this statement—

I went into the Kishnagurh district, and visited many of the stations, and met old friends whom I had not seen for years. I was much pleased with what I saw, and should be thankful if all the district of Benares became a Kishnagurh. There is a great work of God going on there, and a great deal of wheat below the chaff. Brother Lincké has perhaps the most gloomy views of all the brethren in the district; yet when I asked him whether he had any one attending his weekly prayer-meeting, which is entirely a voluntary meeting, and usually a test, he had to state that a large number attended, though he thought not all were truly pious. After spending several happy days among the brethren, I returned.

BHAGULPUR.

The annual report of this station has not yet been received ; but the Rev. E. Dræse has furnished the Committee with full accounts of the Santal insurrection of 1855, and of the various oppressions and wrongs by native officials, which at length infuriated the tribes, and led to the horrible atrocities which will ever characterize the excited passions of the heathen. Mr. Dræse concludes his account with these remarks—Missionaries labouring among the Santals might have served to help the people to a more extensive knowledge, and a juster appreciation of the character of their rulers ; might also have helped them to have their grievances taken notice of. There is, however, no doubt that the preaching of the gospel through the Missionaries would have infused into the race notions more humane than their demon-worship inspired them with, and the rising of the Santals would then not have been attended by the perpetration of such atrocious cruelties as were practised on most of the victims who fell into their hands. The labours of Missionaries among a caste-free people might even have been blessed to the conversion of many, when sympathy for rulers holding the same creed with themselves would most likely have kept the converts from rising at all, and, through their influence over and against their heathen neighbours, the insurrection might have been prevented.

May it please God to awaken our Government to the importance of aiding, by all fair means, the conversion of the Santals, hill people, and other caste-free races in India ! These races, once converted to Christianity, would more effectually secure the internal peace of the empire, than all the war machinery of the Company. Now, every outlaw has a sure refuge among these races. So numerous must have been these refugees, that there actually has sprung up a race, neither hill people, nor Santals, nor Hindús, nor Mohammedans, but composed of all these, or their descendants. These are, in our neighbourhood, called Desmalias, and are notorious for being clever, air, and good-looking, but also for being bent on wickedness. The most daring robbers and most cunning thieves are to be found among them.

Soon after the suppression of the insurrection, the Director of Public Instruction in Bengal addressed a letter to the Corresponding Committee in Calcutta, stating that the Government were willing to give liberal assistance for the establishment of schools amongst the Santals, if the Church Missionary Society would undertake the establishment of them. The Corresponding Committee at once replied, that 'they receive this proposition with much gratification, and will do their utmost to carry it into effect, by arranging, as soon as circumstances will allow, to establish and superintend schools in the Santal districts nearest to Bhagulpur, the funds for the purpose being provided by the Government, to an amount to be afterwards agreed upon."

After various communications respecting the details of the proposed plan, the Secretary to the Government of India officially announced to the Society, under date of 28th Nov. 1856—

The Governor-General in Council, viewing the proposed measure as a grant-in-aid to a Missionary body for the secular education of an uncivilized tribe, considers it entirely in accordance with the views expressed in the Honourable Court's Despatch of the 19th July 1854, and differing in degree only, not in kind, from the grants already made to individual Missionaries for like purposes with the Honourable Court's full approbation and sanction. His Lordship in Council is of opinion, that if the Church Missionary Society, or if any respectable person or body of persons, undertakes to establish good schools among the Santals, the Government is bound to render very liberal assistance, in proportion to the extent to which the work may be carried, subject only to the inspection of the officers of the Education Department, and upon the condition that the Government in no way interferes with the religious instruction given, and that the expense of such instruction is borne by those who impart it.

His Lordship in Council accordingly sanctions the proposed scheme as a wise and perfectly legitimate application of the principle of grants-in-aid, and authorizes the Lieutenant-Governor to carry it out forthwith.

II. NORTH-WEST PROVINCES.

The North-west Provinces comprise the Missionary stations of Benares, with its two out-stations of Gharwa and Chunar; Juanpur, with the out-station of Azimgurh; Goruckpur; Jubbulpur, in Central India; Agra, and its out-stations, Muttra and Secundra; Mirut, and its distant out-stations, Bareilly and Landour; and Kotgurh, in the Himalayas. In each of these stations there are small congregations of native converts, schools, and a resident Missionary—or his occasional visits in the case of the out-stations.

Visitation of the North-West Provinces by the Bishop of Madras.

At the close of last year the Bishop of Madras undertook a visitation of the North-west Provinces and the Punjab, on behalf of the venerable Bishop of Calcutta, whose great age prevents his undertaking so long a journey. The Bishop of Madras is peculiarly qualified for forming an estimate of the state and progress of the North-Indian Missions, from his long experience as Archdeacon of Calcutta, and his frequent visits in former years to these stations. In his official report to the Metropolitan of India he bears this testimony to the work of the Society—

I visited the Missions of the Church Missionary Society at Benares, Juanpur, Azimgurh, Gorruckpur, Agra, Mirut, Simla, Amritsar, and Peshawar. I have to express my unabated admiration and thankfulness of the efficient manner in which they are carrying on their great and important work. At the two old and long-established Missions—Benares and Agra—which have had the benefit of the labours and prayers of dear Corrie and Henry Martyn in their commencement, and have had such a succession of faithful and zealous labourers since that time, I felt that there had been the most marked and manifest progress and improvement. At Benares I merely visited the Mission as a friend. My labours did not commence there; but I could not help feeling, as I stood in the fine church on the Mission premises, which I opened ten years ago, and as I went through the noble institution of Jay Narain's school, that God was owning and blessing abundantly the labours of His servants in a most wonderful manner.

And at Agra every thing impressed me with a sense of progress. The church crowded with happy faces, more than could be accommodated—as the 174 candidates for confirmation almost filled it—the schools, and especially the girls' and the infant-schools—the scene at the Press, with its openings for employment for the native Christians—but, still more, the noble schools at the Kuttra under your single-hearted men, Messrs. French and Leighton—and the Missions in that part of Agra—gave me the abiding conviction that they were not spending their strength for nought, nor their labour for that which profited not.

The other Missions of this Society are, generally speaking, in their infancy. But my heart was cheered to see so many stations in our recently-annexed territories occupied by the Missionaries of this Society. They are, for the most part, well chosen, and the commencement, as far as I could judge, is all that could be desired. At Amritsar, Peshawar, and Multan, you have just the men for the places—clear-headed, judicious, earnest, and full of the spirit of love. The schools are ably carried on, and already give promise of blessed fruit. Indeed, I could not help feeling that it was a most gracious Providence which led the church to seize upon these openings so soon after the annexation, and an indication of the gracious purposes for which these lands have been put into our possession. May all the members of our church, both at home and in this country, be grateful for the mercy vouchsafed, and not be backward to help with their prayers and their pecuniary resources these benevolent designs!

BENARES.

This station has been weakened, in the educational department, during the last year by the absence of Mr. Cobb in Europe, and the departure of Mr. W. Wilkinson from India; also by the loss of Mr. Broadway, by his acceptance of other employment.

The native congregation and the orphan-schools have continued, on the whole, satisfactory. The preaching in the city has been zealously pursued by Mr. Smith and the native catechists. In consequence of the reduction of the staff of the College, Mr. Leupolt was obliged to take part in the instruction of the pupils, in which work he was occupied for the greater part of the year.

Mr. Fuchs mentions an occurrence which is both new and encouraging in the history of the Benares Mission.

One day I met a molwí in the city, and because we could not finish our discussion for want of time, we agreed to meet at the house of a friend of his. I went on the appointed day and hour, with some of our catechists, and was surprised to find there an assembly of about sixty intelligent reading men. We had a long and animated discussion, chiefly on the genuineness and authenticity of the Old and New Testaments; and though they would not give in, as the Mussulmans, as a people, never will, yet the meeting was so far satisfactory, that they did not claim the victory, treated me all the time with respect, and gave me opportunity to explain to them the leading doctrines of the Bible, and to show that in no part of it was any contrary doctrine to be found; that the different books were like so many links of a chain, and therefore no part could ever be abrogated in the sense they speak of. The molwí and some other men of the party visited me subsequently, and I did the same in return.

Education.

Mr. Cuthbert gives the following account of the visit of the Bishop to the College at Benares—

Jay Narain's College.—The enlarged building was first inspected. It seems admirably adapted to its purpose, though, since the paying of the school fees was introduced, the number of pupils has been a good deal reduced: they are now about 430, including those of the branch schools. This is an increase of 100 over last year, which shows that the paying system is becoming more acceptable than at first. The first two classes were examined: their answering, especially in Scripture, was most creditable, both to themselves and their teachers. Their improvement since my last visit, three years ago, is unquestionable, so that I incline to think they are not inferior now to the pupils in any Mission Institution in Bengal. Mr. Cobb, the Principal, has been in England for a year. The Rev. Messrs. Leupolt and Hubbard are entitled to much credit for the efficient state in which the Institution is found.

Thence we went to Mrs. Smith's school for native girls, Hindús. It is most pleasing to see above seventy Hindú girls, of Brahmin and other castes, in attendance at this school, under scriptural instruction, in the very heart of such a city as Benares. The numbers, too, could be considerably increased, Mrs. Smith says, were there funds to bear the expense; and I have no doubt that for such an object funds could be obtained. The school was in nice order, and a class or two examined acquitted themselves fairly. It is true, the children still have to be drawn together by a pecuniary inducement, but it has come down as low as possible, half a pie a day to each girl. Missionaries were obliged to begin with boys in the same manner some forty years ago, and now boys are paying for their education in Missionary schools. We trust a like desire for female education may yet be created. Three girls from this school have been baptized.

During the early part of the year under review, the Missionaries were able to make satisfactory arrangements for placing Gharwa and Chunar under native teachers, as outstations of Benares. At Gharwa, catechist Mohun was placed, with a native reader and schoolmaster to assist him; and at Chunar, catechist Solomon, with a schoolmaster as his assistant.

Chunar.

Chunar is visited at stated periods by the Missionaries at Benares. Mr. Fuchs reports of it—"Mr. Leupolt and myself have visited Chunar alternately, where, besides the services on the Sunday, I looked after the school. By placing Solomon at Chunar, the Mission has been put upon a better basis."

A passing remark in a letter from a newly-arrived Missionary, the Rev. W. T. Storrs, is worthy of notice, as conveying a sentiment which is very frequently expressed by intelligent observers of the work of the Society. "The accounts I read when in England, of the results of Mission work in Benares, had led me to expect less than actually seems to have been accomplished. No one would gain too exalted a notion of what the labours of the brethren here had achieved, from the reports that they have sent."

JUANPUR.

The Rev. C. Reuther has continued in charge of this station. No change has taken place in the small Christian congregation. In his annual review, at the close of the year, Mr. Reuther writes—

Our Mission work is progressing quietly, but yet steadily. We have had, during the past year, many opportunities for making known the gospel in and around Juanpur, and for this mercy I wish to be grateful. Last cold season I was permitted to make three itinerary journeys in the Juanpur district, north, south, and east of our station. Besides this, bazaar preaching has been regularly carried on all the year round.

Juanpur is a Mohammedan town, and therefore rather a hard field. Still, knowledge is spreading, the enemies are being subdued, the gospel is by many admired, and a few come from time to time for more private conversations respecting religion, the value of which they see and feel more and more. I have never looked upon the Lord's work here with more hope and encouragement than I do now.

Education.

There is an English school at Juanpur, and two out-station schools at Zufferabad and Azimgurh, containing in the whole 400 scholars. These schools have received considerable aid from the funds of Government, having obtained grants-in-aid amounting to 348% per annum, and special grants for repairs and school materials of 130%. In reference to such aid Mr. Reuther writes—

There has been fear, among some Missionary friends, lest the receiving of grants-in-aid should tend to secularizing our schools; but this year we have not found it so. We have taught even more Scripture and Christianity than ever before. In this Mr. Tucker, our worthy Commissioner, has greatly assisted us. He gave notice to all the schools in his division that a public examination would be held at Benares, in the presence of the Lieutenant-Governor, on the history and the doctrines of the Bible; that the best teachers and scholars of all the schools would be at liberty to compete; that the most deserving of them would be rewarded by high prizes. This examination is now over: the prizes have been twenty-six in number, of which the highest is 110 rupees, and the lowest 10 rupees; 155 boys have been examined from the different schools of the division; twenty-six went up from these schools, and have carried off eight prizes. The boys have had to compete in this examination with college boys, and scholars of other high schools.

The out-station of Azimgurh was visited by the Bishop of Madras. Mr. Cuthbert thus reports upon the school—

The business of the visitation occupied two days. The first was given to the school, in which are about 200 boys, a considerable increase since my last visit. There was time to examine only two classes, but in almost every subject their answering was most excellent. In Scripture and mathematics it was particularly good, and quite justified Mr. Tucker's high commendation of this school, the state of which, in every respect, reflects the highest credit on its head master, Timothy Luther, a native Christian (brother of Beharri Lal Sing, of Calcutta), who has been in charge of it about four years.

GORRUCKPUR.

The Rev. F. A. Kreiss, who had been associated with the Rev. H. Stern in the care of this station, was suddenly cut off by death in June last: consequently the whole of the Mission has rested upon one European Missionary—comprising two congregations, numbering 214 souls; four schools, with 330 scholars; the management of orphan and boarding-establishments; bazaar preaching; and a district containing more than three millions of heathen, nominally attached to the station. Another Missionary will be supplied as soon as it is in the power of the Committee. Mr. Stern writes, at the close of the year—"The Mission has passed through many trials and difficulties the last year. The work has been carried on as usual. Although we have not to relate great success, yet we are not discouraged. Since sending in my last year's report I have had the privilege of admitting three adult Hindús into the church of Christ. At present we have only one inquirer, a Brahmin, with us."

Mr. Stern writes with much thankfulness of the encouragement which he has received, from the interest shown in his work both by the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-west Provinces, and by the Bishop of Madras, on his late visitation tour. Mr. Stern writes—

In December the school was also examined by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-west Provinces, who distributed the prizes to the most successful scholars. His Honour also visited Basharatpur, and attended divine service there with the native Christians. It is a most gratifying and encouraging circumstance to see the rulers of this country taking a lively interest in our schools, and especially that they exercise the same interest in the welfare of our native Christians, by kneeling side by side with them to worship God in His sanctuary, and by joining with them in the same responses of our beautiful liturgy.

A short time ago we opened another school in the city. The building was erected by the present magistrate, Mr. Paterson, and made over to the Church Missionary Society. It is already filled with 100 boys. This is most encouraging. Had we but the means, we might extend our operations far and wide.

The following account of the Bishop's visitation at Gorruckpur has been furnished by Mr. Cuthbert—

At Gorruckpur, on November 17, we went out to see the Church Missionary Society's native-Christian settlement at Basharatpur, about three miles off. The native Christians—of whom there are about twenty families—met us at the entrance near the church, and into the church we first entered, when the Bishop made a brief address, interpreted by Mr. Stern, who concluded with prayer. After this we went through the village, and entered one or two of the Christians' houses, which seemed, though humble and poor, in good order, with their little stores of grain, &c., laid by. The farm appears well cultivated, and very fertile, but there is need of some effective and judicious superintendant to show the people the way to do things. I have some hope that this may be supplied, and the Christians form a thriving community, and an example to others. Mr. Stern labours earnestly among the people in his large charge, which is too heavy for one Missionary. The Christian girls'-school, with twenty-two pupils, was examined, and found in a better state than at my last visit. The examination of the large boys'-school, containing, with a bazaar-school which was joined with it, 200 boys, was particularly satisfactory, showing a decided advance since my visit in 1854. Most of the native-Christian boys, of whom there are about twenty-five, are taught with the Hindús and Mohammedans in this school. Though our examination was but short, yet I think the state of the school tells strongly in favour of Mr. Stern's attention and efficiency.

JUBBULPUR.

The Rev. E. C. Stuart, whose arrival at this station was noticed in the last Report, has been obliged, by the health of his family, to remove for a time. The station has therefore been under the charge of Mr. Rebsch, a catechist, for the greater part of the time under review. No events have occurred in the Mission of a marked character. Mr. Rebsch reports—

Preaching to the heathen has been regularly kept up. Frequently do we leave our preaching-places with the full assurance that God's word will conquer in India, although we are not able this time to relate any conversions. The gospel has been made known in the city and surrounding villages—still, not yet to that measure as it should. The people generally paid attention, behaved civilly, even kindly towards us. There were several individuals of whom I had much hope, especially in Gurha. I have spoken again and again with them about the necessity of confessing Christ as the only Saviour openly. We prayed together. Still, fear of man seems to be the only hindrance of joining the church of Christ, to which they are already belonging in heart, according to their confession.

Our schools have suffered last year by the introduction of fees: however, the number of pupils is increasing again.

AGRA.

There has been no change in the labourers, or in their work, in this Mission, during the last year. The Rev. F. E. Schneider, who has charge of the congregation in the city, assembling in Abdool Messeeh's Kuttra, reports, that in point of numbers it is rather increasing. Five adults have been baptized in the course of the year. The case of one Brahminee and her son is interesting. Mr. Schneider writes—

A Pundit in Allahabad, well versed in the Hindú Shasters, some time ago received a Hindí gospel, and read it to his aged mother, who, from hearing it, came to the conviction that only Jesus Christ could save her from her sins, and give her everlasting life. In Oude, where they lived, they found no one who could instruct them in Christianity, but were told to go to Agra. They both came here, and applied for instruction and baptism. The mother was nearly eighty years old, and very feeble, and soon after her arrival became very ill, so that little hope remained of her recovery. She loved the Saviour, and trusted in Him, and expressed her great desire to be received into His fold. As she could answer all the questions proposed to her satisfactorily, I baptized her. It was very affecting to witness the tender love with which she committed her son to my care. Three days after her baptism she breathed her last. Her son is still under instruction.

The Christian village and church at Secundra remains under the pastoral care of the Rev. C. T. Hærnle, who gives a satisfactory report of the people. The Bishop of Madras held a confirmation in the church at his late visitation. Mr. Cuthbert thus describes the scene—

We proceeded to the church, summoned by the peal of bells which were presented to the church by the late Lieut.-Governor, the lamented Mr. Thomason, and which had rung out a welcome to the Bishop on our first entering the compound in the morning. We found the church quite crowded with native Christians, most of the congregation of the city church, at the Kuttra, having joined that of Secundra. A large part of the church was filled by the native candidates for confirmation, about 190 in number. There were some friends from Agra also present. Mr. Hærnle read the service, and Mrs. Hærnle played the organ, conducting the service, both hymns and chanting, all of course in Hindústání, and very pleasing indeed. Mr. Schneider interpreted for the Bishop, who, through this medium, addressed the confirmed at considerable length. The whole scene was very gratifying to the eye and the hearts of friends of Christian Missions.

Mr. Hærnle notices the salutary effect produced upon the congregation by the occurrence of the cholera in a very severe form.

Some members of the congregation were brought to serious reflections on the uncertainty of this life, and the necessity of having a sure hope of salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord; and I only wished this beneficial result had been more general and more lasting. There was, however, a marked difference in the conduct of our Christians and that of their heathen countrymen. Whilst these had many curious stories to tell in explanation of the origin or cause of the cholera, and resorted to every description of absurd and superstitious rites in order to get rid of the enemy, our Christians at once acknowledged the hand of God in it, and many prayers were offered up to Him in whose power alone it was to protect them.

Itineration.

Each of the Missionaries takes part in visiting the villages around Agra, and in making occasionally longer Missionary tours. Mr. French writes, in his annual letter—

I have spent about two months in Rajputana last cold season. In the course of the journey the capitals of three native Rajas, i.e. Alwar, Jyepur, and Bhurtpur, were visited, besides many other towns and villages. In the longer local report I shall be able, perhaps, to introduce some particulars from my journals; but on looking back I fear it was not a successful journey, as regards the interest awakened, except in Alwar. The feeling in the Native States is not favourable to the English: they live in fear of being treated as the King of Oude and others have been. They endure with impatience the smothering of their national feuds, border quarrels, and plundering excursions, to which the iron arm of Government constrains them. Altogether I returned much disheartened and depressed, except that I was thankful to have made the effort, and had, moreover, gained some valuable additional experience for future journeyings. I hope within a month from this time to be again on my way in the same direction. All that I have been able to do since, in the way of itineration, has been two journeys eastward, of twelve or fourteen days each, to some villages, where I met with a few genuine inquirers. The dazi, whose case has been frequently alluded to in my journeyings as engaged to the utmost of his power in promoting the conversion of those around him, was baptized by me about three weeks ago in the course of my journey. These villages towards the Ganges are on the whole more encouraging to me than any I visit—indeed, are the brightest point of my work. In one of these lives the youth baptized last year. He resides with his master, a pious Anglo-Indian landholder, who tells me that he is quite different from other youths, and that he trusts him with every thing he has in the world. The youth is a kind of family priest, and is most diligent in instructing the Hinduí-speaking members of his master's family. In another I find a Hinduí soldier retired, who seems to have a very hearty love to Christ, and spends a good part of his day and night in the study of the Scriptures. In the same village the chief native village officer places his whole trust in Christ, and is also a student of the Scriptures. About sixteen miles east of this village is another, where a Mahagan has been evidently impressed to some extent with the truth, and is searching for it in the Bible. This will show you that there are oases in this desert; but for the most part it is a dreary waste.

Translations.

The Missionaries do not neglect to make use of the press for communicating Christian knowledge. Mr. Hœrnle writes, in his annual letter—

The important work of the revision of the Urdu Scriptures is progressing. The New Testament, I am thankful to say, was completed a week or two before I fell ill. The printing of the work has suffered a considerable interruption, but has since been continued to the end of the Epistle to the Hebrews. I trust the whole will, under God's blessing, be ready for circulation in a few months. I am the more thankful that I am enabled to continue this work here, and the more anxious that it should be now completed, as, since nearly a year, not a single copy of the entire New Testament in this language has been available for distribution.

Mr. French writes—

It has been a great comfort to me to be able to send to the press two Hinduí works this year; one rather a lengthy one, on the character, work, offices, and attributes of Christ, partaking of the more theological, but also of the hortatory character; and the other shorter—on the cholera and such like visitations, to convey, if possible, the scriptural views of the objects with which God inflicts these chastisements on a nation.

Education.

The Agra College is under the superintendence of Mr. French, assisted by the Rev. J. Leighton and Mr. Wright. The number of pupils at the close of the year was 330. The studies take a wide range of science and literature, and scriptural instruction is a daily part of the course. Mr. French reports—“Still no converts appear from our College, which is a source of great pain to me; though, indeed, one was baptized in Subathú by an American Missionary, last year—a young Brahmin, having run away from Agra that he might serve God more according to his convictions elsewhere. I have some very nice youths in my head class, who, if but decided, might be great blessings to their countrymen. If ever even a very small body of efficient native pastors can be raised up through the instrumentality of the Agra and Muttra schools, the labour they have cost us would be most amply rewarded.

Mr. Cuthbert thus reports the visit paid by the Bishop of Madras and himself to this Institution—

We proceeded to the Church Missionary Society's College, meeting first, at the house of the principal, the Rev. T. V. French, a clerical and Missionary party to breakfast. After enjoying devotional exercises with them, we went to the College, now just three years erected, and the Bishop examined two or three of the more advanced classes. Their answering, especially of the first two, was excellent, exhibiting a wider range than usual of subjects, and an accurate acquaintance with each, as far as they had gone, as well as plainly evincing the large amount and high order of care and of mind bestowed on their instruction. There are above 300 youths at the College. Messrs. French and Leighton give to it a good deal of their time, and are efficiently assisted by Mr. W. Wright, a young man from the High-bury Training College.

MUTTRA.

The English school at Muttra has been carried on with success throughout the year. The Rev. T. V. French writes respecting it, Nov. 8, 1856—

After some difficulties we obtained a hired room over a shop, where sixty-five English students are daily instructed. They learn the vernacular also from a Pundit and Múnshí. This is a small beginning in a city which, including its suburbs, numbers nearly 100,000 souls, and where one solitary young Baptist Missionary is labouring. The measure of success reached, however, in this first year, has been beyond our hope, as the opposition made was great, and “there was no small stir about that way,” though it cannot, alas! be said of us that we have persuaded and turned away much people. We are fortunate in having the services of a very pious, steady, intelligent, and pains-taking young Anglo-Indian, who acts as head master, and secures great respect. His sole object seems to be to glorify God, and be made a blessing to the native population around. For this object he has sacrificed a more lucrative appointment in a Government office, with hope of pension attached. These cases are rare, and therefore so much the more encouraging. Under him he has his brother-in-law, an Armenian youth, one of my former pupils, who, though younger, is, I trust, animated by a like spirit—at least he certainly might double his salary in a Government office. If our numbers increase, a building will soon be required.

Mr. Cuthbert reports his visit to this out-station—

A branch Mission-school has been lately opened here in connexion with the Church Missionary Society's College at Agra, under the direction of Messrs. French and Leighton, who came on to Muttra to meet the Bishop. It is still only in its beginning, but contains sixty to eighty fine-looking lads as pupils. A very promising young man has been obtained as the head teacher, and Mr. Nicholls visits the school sometimes. As there are but twenty or thirty Christians in all now in Muttra, there is a fine opportunity for the minister to devote himself to Missionary work in a place which is one of the great strongholds of Hindú idolatry.

The Rev. J. Leighton has also furnished the following notice of the school in this out-station—

About three months ago, when we had only fifty-six in attendance, we introduced the reading of the Bible, having allowed the former months for collecting the boys and conciliating their feelings. Muttra, it must be remembered, is a very bigoted heathen city: the consequence was, that the number sunk to twenty-eight. We persevered, however, believing nothing gained until the Bible should be daily read; and in less than a fortnight, all, with one or two exceptions, returned, and the number has since increased to eighty-four. There is still every reason to expect a steady advance, and, under the blessing of God, the accomplishment of our purposes for Muttra; so that, under Jehovah's name, we may set up our banners.

MÍRUT.

This station has been under the charge of the Rev. R. M. Lamb and the Rev. A. Medland. The usual routine of the Mission has been kept up, but no events of much interest have been reported. No adult baptisms have taken place at Mírut, and a few only in the out-stations. Mr. Lamb has spent much of his time in visiting Bareilly and Landour, preaching, in the course of his journeys, to large and attentive congregations. But, though it is hoped that such ministrations tend to disperse a general knowledge of Christian truth, they supply little matter for a report.

Mr. Medland thus reports the state of the English school, of which he has the superintendence—

During the year, or at least previous to the appearance of the cholera, every thing connected with the city Mission-school has gone on satisfactorily: more and higher subjects have been taught, an improvement in the general discipline has been effected, and no cases of insubordination or opposition have occurred. Prior to the commencement of the rainy season our numbers steadily increased, reaching a maximum of 164 on the books. The appearance of the cholera, which raged with great violence in and around the city, produced a panic amongst the natives, and seriously affected the school; so much so, that for many days it was well nigh deserted. We have again, however, nearly regained our former position, the number now being 151.

KOTGURH.

The work at this station has been carried on by the Rev. Dr. Prochnow in a quiet way, amidst much indifference in the people, and opposition on the part of the relatives of those who would offer themselves for baptism. On the first Sunday in Advent Dr. Prochnow baptized two adults, one the wife of his catechist, the other a young man of some station and respectability in the neighbourhood.

III. THE PUNJAB.

The Punjab comprises the stations of Amritsar, the ancient Sikh capital; Kangra, in the mountains; Múltan, which has been occupied during the last year; and Peshawar, which, though the frontier station of India, has been proved, after two years' occupation, to present the same encouraging openings and facilities for the Missionaries as other parts of India.

AMRITSAR.

The Mission at Amritsar is conducted by the Rev. Messrs. Keene and Strawbridge, and the native minister Daoud, together with three native teachers. The number of native Christians is fifty-four, of whom twenty-five are adults. The Bishop of Madras held a confirmation in the Mission Chapel, at which ten converts renewed their baptismal vows. The Mission has been much tried by the misconduct of a native teacher, from whose ability and apparent zeal much had been hoped. Mr. Keene took a Missionary tour of six weeks, in which he had ample opportunities of addressing the people, and disposed of many tracts and portions of Scripture.

Mr. Strawbridge writes, respecting the school—

Mr. Keene has handed over the whole school to me. The number then on the books was about seventy, and the average attendance fifty. I was glad to find, from your letter, that my undertaking the duties of the school commended itself to your approval, and I am thankful to say that I have not been without encouragement. The number of boys admitted during the past year is 194, and the number at present attending the school is 206.

The Missionaries at this station have felt the necessity of providing some means of support for the native converts, to which Mr. Strawbridge thus refers—

It is the duty of every Christian to "labour to eat his own bread." We have established a farm. Hitherto our people have been more or less dependent upon the Mission. This we find to be an increasing evil: besides the difficulty it creates of judging the motives of those who offer themselves for baptism, it entailed endless trouble upon ourselves, and brought the people up in a state of comparative idleness. Providentially, a piece of land was offered us by F. Cooper, Esq., C. S., which we accepted, and upon it were located six Christian families and two unmarried men. Many are the difficulties of obtaining employment for native Christians: hence the plan of establishing a printing press, or some kind of workshop, in almost every Mission. We adopted agriculture.

An encouraging fact must be recorded in connexion with this Mission. Some friends of the late wife of Sir Henry Lawrence having raised a sum of 10,000 rupees as a testimonial to her memory, it has been determined, at the request of Sir Henry, to entrust it to the Church Missionary Society, for the purpose of establishing a school in Amritsar for native females, to be called "The Lady Lawrence school."

KANGRA.

The Rev. J. N. Merk carries on this Mission alone. There are twenty-one native Christians, and a school of eighty children. It has been a year of trials, from the defection of some who had been baptized, and from the disappointment of hopes in other cases. One interesting Brahmin has been baptized, who had been formerly educated in Jay Narain's College at Benares, and had been long connected with Missionaries as a múnshí. He is now a steady and consistent Christian, and employed as a teacher in the school.

MÚLTAN.

Múltan has been occupied during the last year as a station of the Society, the Rev. T. H. Fitzpatrick having removed, in the early part of the year, with the Rev. W. J. Ball, to take possession of that important outpost in the name of the Lord. Mr. Fitzpatrick writes, at the close of the year—

I cannot tell you of converts or hopeful inquirers, or of any striking signs of general awakening. How thankful would I be to cheer you thus if I could; but yet I can say that a very hopeful beginning has been made. The Mission has been established without any expense to the Society, and without drawing upon the resources of any other Mission. The Mission house has been paid for by the contributions of persons who, for the most part, had not previously been solicited for any like object, at least to any great extent: all Mission expenses likewise provided for in the same way. No more eligible site could have been chosen for our residence, and our work of bazaar preaching has been carried on steadily for eight months, with scarcely a day's intermission. We have had no secular engagements of any kind. I preached all the way here from Amritsar, and when I arrived I found every thing ready, my house in order, and I had nothing to do but change positions only, and, instead of the bazaars of Amritsar, stand up in those of Múltan, and proclaim the gospel of the Redeemer.

The effect of bazaar preaching has not been, as yet, that which we long for. As I have already said, we have no converts, or even satisfactory inquirers; but I have had more frequent and satisfactory discussions in the midst of large groups of 100 or so, with learned natives, than I ever had at Amritsar or elsewhere. We have not given away any books gratuitously, but sold a few. There are Mohammedans in the town who have been studying the Bible, after purchasing it, very earnestly, and one has also had an Hindústání Prayer-book for some months, to try and refute the Athanasian Creed and our Articles of Religion; but more than this I cannot say.

Doubts and fears have been created in perhaps many minds, and the gospel is now generally understood by many thousands in its leading doctrines; but I have not seen any spiritual concern awakened—so far, at least, as to lead men not to rest until they find salvation in God. We have an open door, and many adversaries. The difficulties are greater here than at any place I have seen in the Punjab; the people are despised by Hindústánís as corrupt beyond measure. European officers describe them as the very worst of Asiatics.

In a subsequent letter, Mr. Fitzpatrick thus alludes to his encouragements and employments—

Our efforts to provide a Mission house were most warmly supported by the then officiating Commissioner of this division, Major Clement Browne, who, having solicited our occupation of Múltan, also undertook to be personally responsible for the purchase-money of a house, and subsequently, by much exertion, raised a large portion of the sum required. We have obtained in this way an excellent residence, in the very best situation, and the outlay has been exceedingly moderate.

My time has been wholly occupied in preaching to the heathen, instructing Native and (on Sundays) European Christians, and studying the root languages. We have not attempted schools as yet. We have felt a strong desire to make our machinery as simple as possible; and have endeavoured to commence our Mission with a full and earnest ministry of the gospel, addressed to young and old, learned and unlearned, in the bazaars of this city. We would have been glad to open English and vernacular schools, had qualified Teachers been procurable; but not finding any in whom we could place full confidence, we have avoided any effort to instruct the young in this particular way, as likely to prove embarrassing, and interfere, to a great extent, with more general and important duties.

We have found less difficulty in accommodating ourselves to the ignorance of the people, and their several dialects, than I anticipated; and it is now quite plain, that although the lower classes, more particularly, speak a peculiar dialect of their own, called the Múltaní, Urdu, Hindí, Persian, and Punjabi, are also very intelligible to the great body of the people, and we can preach with acceptance, both in the towns and villages, without waiting to acquire the Múltaní dialect.

Our difficulties are those which are common to all others; but I think we have also some, which, in kind or degree, are peculiar to this Mission. Múltan is, I believe, universally considered the worst place in the Punjab. The civil officers have all told me that the people are the most intriguing, and, if they could venture, the most insubordinate, of any in the country. Yet I have had long and important conversations with more munshís, and other educated natives, in this district, during the last ten months, than in the whole of my four years at Amritsar. And now Mr. Ball and I are clearly persuaded that a general acquaintance with the leading doctrines of the gospel is possessed by many thousands of the people of this city and country. We have also observed in many individuals some thoughtfulness, and an evident uneasiness, arising from doubts which have occurred to them. There are a few who possess the word of God, having purchased it from us, or obtained it elsewhere; and of those, some have evidenced a fair acquaintance with Bible history and the gospel plan of salvation.

PESHAWAR.

The Rev. Dr. Pfander, and the Rev. R. Clark, have carried on this Mission during the last year. Lieutenant-Colonel Martin was absent on a visit to England, and did not return till the close of the year; at which time, also, the Mission was strengthened by the additional help of the Rev. J. A. Macarthy. The Missionaries thus describe certain new measures adopted during the last year—

As, notwithstanding our regular preaching in the city, the learned of the place avoided all intercourse and discussion with us, in order, therefore, to stir them up, as well as to show the people that we had no wish to avoid their learned men, nor were afraid of any thing they might be able to advance, Dr. Pfander sent to each of the most eminent among them a copy of the Mizan-ul-huqq, and of the Miftar, as well as of his last work, which had just left the press. The books were variously received: some sent in return their kind and respectful salam; others simply returned the books; and the first among them, a man famous among his people for his learning and devotion, returned them with the following characteristic note, written in Arabic—"To the renowned Priest, the Padre-Sahib, Dr. Pfander—The books on religious controversy you sent me for perusal I return herewith, without having read them. The great God has placed us firmly on the right way, and our knowledge is solid truth, established by reason and revelation, and by external and internal proofs, and we have no wish whatever to call our religion in question. What have we, therefore, to do with false books, belonging to such a people as have turned from the right way, and in behalf of whom it is said (in the Korán) 'God has sealed up their hearts, and a veil is over their eyes?' And again it is said, 'Their's is a severe punishment for what they have forged;' and, further, 'For them is their religion, and for us is our religion.' To write more there is no need: for the wise, a hint is enough.—Hafiz Mohammed, Azim Waiz," i.e. public preacher.

But, notwithstanding this assumed indifference, the measure caused great stir, and numerous reports reached us of replies to be written by the learned molwís of the city, and of public discussions to be held with us. However, these rumours died away, and no invitation to a public discussion has as yet been received by us, nor has any reply to our books appeared. Our object has, however, so far been gained, as it has brought the subject of Christianity more generally before the people, and has shown them that their molwís, notwithstanding their boastings, and all their Arabic learning, are unable either to refute Christianity, or to answer the objections brought forward against the Korán. At last, however, we were invited, in the month of July, by the father of one of the scholars in our school, who is one of the principal men in the city, to a breakfast, in order to meet some of his learned friends, and to have a friendly discussion with them. We of course gladly accepted the invitation; but instead of several, only one of the learned men, Kazí Mohammed-Hajibúddüi, was present. He is a venerable old man, nearly a centenarian, and well acquainted with many of the officers connected with Afghanistan, and is considered a very learned man, while he is, at the same time, very polite and civil in his manners. Our host took, now and then, a lively part in the conversation, and tried to sooth down the old man whenever he was on the point of growing somewhat passionate and violent; and though the discussion led to no practical result, as is generally the case, still I hope it left the impression, both upon our host and his young relatives, who listened and followed with great attention, that we have a good foundation for our holy faith, and that on the ground of God's word we are unassailable. There is no doubt that this private discussion was to be a feeler; and, had the impression been a different one, they would speedily have called us to a public discussion, in order to make open triumph of us. But, ever since, the molwís of the city have been much more silent than before about a discussion.

Public preaching in the city and cantonments has been carried on the whole year, without any interruption. To the cantonment bazaars the two catechists go regularly every evening, except Saturday, and Dr. Pfander accompanies them twice or three times in the week. To the city he goes every other morning, accompanied by one of the catechists, who reads the portion or chapter of the New Testament appointed by Dr. Pfander, and then the latter addresses the people, who gather around them during the reading. We have now four places in the most frequented part of the city-bazaars, where Dr. Pfander preaches alternately.

In his annual letter Dr. Pfander writes—

When obliged to attack the Korán, or to state the reasons why we do not believe in it, I have, of late, more generally confined myself to the argument derived from its disagreement with the Scriptures. I always held that this must be our first and principal point of attack, and my observation has fully borne out that it is that argument which tells most powerfully upon the Mussulmans. However loud some of them, in their desperation, may raise the cry of our Scriptures having been corrupted, so as to be no longer the original Old and New Testament, still, with the more conscientious and thinking part among them, this cry carries not much weight; and a certain veneration of the Scriptures is so general, and the idea that they are in harmony with the Korán is so common, that the fact of the Korán directly contradicting Christ's words is a startling one to them, and will—the more it is brought before the Mohammedans, and the more they convince themselves of its correctness by reading the New Testament, and comparing it with the Korán—go far to shake their confidence in their present belief, and in the divine character of the Korán.

What humbles me deeply is, that I do not preach and testify with more earnestness, more unction, and with more power of the Spirit. This want is, no doubt, also the reason, or at least one of the reasons, why the hearers are not more touched and pricked through to their hearts, and induced to ask, "What must I do to be saved?" Here I can only cast myself down before a throne of grace, and pray for mercy. But, notwithstanding our weakness, the Lord carries on His work, and I feel convinced that the gospel is felt by many who hear it as a power of God which they cannot controvert, though they may not yet be willing to yield their hearts to it. The openings, also, which the new relations of our Government with Afghanistan will, sooner or later, open up for us, are very encouraging, as showing that God is preparing the way for more extended labour. We hope, also, that the Lord will raise up the labourers required for the work.

Mr. Clark takes this review of the progress of the Mission—

The principal characteristic of the past year has been, I think, the gradual settlement of the Mission, its becoming more fixed and rooted amongst this new people, and in the new country in which it has been established. Almost every direct Missionary work that has been attempted has succeeded, and further opportunities have continually offered themselves; so much so, that there is no direct branch of Missionary labour which may not be here engaged in, almost to the same extent, and equally well, as at our older Missionary stations in India. I may especially refer to the preaching of the word of God, both in the city and in the neighbouring villages; to educational labours through the agency of schools; and to the work of translations, or publishing books or tracts by means of the press.

The tribes around Peshawar appear to be, at this time, in a more quiet state than probably has been the case for several centuries; and the political relations which now exist with Cabúl will tend at once to make them more so, and encourage the prosecution and extension of Missionary efforts in this immediate neighbourhood, and ultimately open out vast opportunities for large and extended exertions in other countries and districts, of which it may be difficult to define any limit.*

There have been several inquirers, and a few have been baptized. The history of some of these individuals presents matter of much interest. Dr. Pfander thus alludes to two of the cases—

* An address delivered by Mr. Clark at Oxford, May 29, 1857, is printed in the "Church Missionary Intelligencer" for August 1857, pp. 169—181.

The first noticeable event is the baptism of Yahiya Baker, the first Afghan added to the church of Christ, which took place in January, in the presence of our small native congregation and a few of our Christian friends of the station. He is a native of Candahar, and belongs to a good and respectable family of that city.

His history affords various points of interest, and we will therefore here give some of its details. He was from his youth a contemplative character, and zealously attached to the Mohammedan religion. When grown up he devoted himself to mercantile occupations, and made several long journeys to the countries both east and west of Candahar. His father possessed a very beautiful copy of the four Gospels in Persian, which he was very fond of reading in his youth. And when, in these journeys, he came in contact with Armenians, he availed himself of the opportunity to obtain further information about Christianity; and at Teheran an Armenian priest gave him a copy of Martyn's Persian New Testament. Soon after, he gave up his mercantile occupation, and commenced a retired contemplative life. At this period he gave up all outward observances of his religion; whether out of a conviction of their insufficiency, or because he considered himself now above them, is not quite clear, but it rather seems that the latter was the prevailing view with him at this period. Soon, however, the desire for further information about Christianity became so strong, that he resolved upon a journey to Hindostán for this purpose. He went to Shikarpur, Hyderabad, and Bombay; but, finding no Padre-Sahib who knew Persian, he was returning to his native land, when, on his way back, he met with Mr. Matchett, of our Society, at Karachí, and with Abdullah, the Mohammedan convert. The latter, knowing Persian, acted as interpreter, and he thus obtained so much knowledge of Christianity, as to convince him that in it he would find that life eternal which he had been seeking in vain in Mohammedanism. From Mr. Matchett he received another copy of the Persian New Testament—the copy mentioned above having been taken away from him by one of his relatives after his return to Candahar—and also a copy of the Mizan-ul-huqq. With the reading of the latter he was so much taken, that, on learning from Mr. Matchett that the author of it was at that time at Agra, he resolved to go thither, in order to receive from him further instruction in the Christian doctrines.

Another is a young Brahmin from Jumbú. His attention was first directed to Christianity by an officer at Sealkote, in whose service he was for a short time. When he came to Peshawar he entered our school, with the intention of learning more about Christianity; and, after a few months, he came forward as an applicant for admission into the Christian church. He is an intelligent, earnest, and promising young man, and the first-fruit of our school.

Besides these, we may also mention Dilawer Khan, a jamadar in the Guide corps. He is an Affghan of the Khuturk tribe, and was formerly a very fanatical and bigoted Mussulman; but, being a quick and shrewd observer, he soon discovered the superiority of the European character ; and the truthfulness and straightforwardness of the English officers, compared with the duplicity and insincerity even of those amongst the Mohammedans who bear a high religious character, made a very favourable impression upon him, and did much to remove his prejudices. When in this state of mind, he met, three years ago, an English officer, in the bazaar of Peshawar, speaking to the people about Christianity, and received from him a copy of the Mizan-ul-huqq. The reading of this book opened his eyes : "it caught me," as he expressed himself, and convinced him of the falsehood of the Korán. At first he mentioned his doubts to those mullahs who were his former spiritual guides ; but, instead of removing them, they only abused him, and called him a Kaffir, thus only establishing him the firmer in his new views. As soon as he learned of our arrival, he came and called upon us. His duties keep him almost constantly out on the frontier posts, but, notwithstanding, he has often repeated his visits, with the view of hearing and learning more about Christianity ; and we have good ground to believe that this intercourse has been blessed to him, and has brought him nearer to the gospel ; and we hope that, through God's grace, he may ultimately be led openly to embrace Christianity.

Early in the present year Lieutenant-Colonel Herbert Edwardes visited Calcutta, and attended a meeting of Missionary friends in the Old Church rooms, at which he gave an account of the Mission at Peshawar. Notes of his address have been printed, of which the following extracts are selected, as describing the field of labour, and bearing testimony to the character of the work—

Colonel Edwardes described the Peshawar valley as about fifty miles long from the Eusofoye country to the Kohat Pass, and fifty miles wide from Attock, on the Indus, to the Khyber Pass. It was bounded, north, west, and south, by hills inhabited by wild tribes, and pierced by the Khyber Pass, which was visible as a dark shadow from the city, and called up many recollections of fatal results in our history. The Swat country, on the north, Colonel Edwardes spoke of as having been always independent of all the monarchs that had reigned in those regions, and as being now ruled by a priest in whom were combined the temporal and the spiritual powers. He trusted that this independence would always continue, as there was no reason why we should desire to possess such a country. He then mentioned the Momunds, the Eusofoyes, the Khyberees, Afreedees, Kuttucks, &c., who inhabited the hills to the west and south. Some of these were extremely savage and ferocious, and others more civilized. The valley was continually subject to their incursions, robberies, and murders. The Afreedees especially were fierce and cruel, and Colonel Edwardes believed that there was not a person in the tribe whose life was not justly forfeited to the laws for some atrocious crime. The women were wont to pass their infants three times through a hole in the wall of the house, repeating each time, "Be a thief;" and the smiles of the younger women were always for the most desperate robbers of the tribe. The valley thus surrounded was extremely fertile, being watered by many streams tributary to the Indus. The climate in the cold season was for several months as fine as any that could be desired, with a clear sky, and a bright sun which Englishmen could enjoy; but the hot weather was a most severe trial to the European constitution, and few could long endure it without a change.

After the conquest of Peshawar by the Sikhs, General Avitabile was governor of the district, which he ruled with stern severity, hanging men, not by twos or threes, but by dozens. Notwithstanding this intimidation, he could not stir out without a strong escort; and he effected no good, for cruelty could not be conquered and repressed by cruelty. Still, the Mohammedans were, as a sect, completely trampled under foot by the Sikhs. They had enjoyed undivided sway for ages in the valley, and were among the most fanatical and intolerant of their co-religionists, but were made to feel, in their turn, the intolerance of the Sikhs, being prohibited from making their accustomed calls to prayer, and, under the severest penalties, from killing cows, whose lives were reckoned of equal value with those of human beings. Under the British Government a very different system of rule from that of Avitabile was pursued, and with the best effects, in taming and conciliating the people, who were now confident in the justice of the administration, and had recourse to the public officers for the redress of grievances, and the settlement of disputes, with the certainty of a favourable hearing and an impartial decision.

Among the people thus described, the Peshawar Mission was established, chiefly at the instigation of Colonel Martin, a devoted and consistent Christian, who himself was understood to have given 10,000 rupees for the purpose, the total sum raised for the foundation being 30,000 rupees. But, before this, Colonel Wheler, another devoted man, had personally laboured at Peshawar, and openly preached the gospel and distributed books and tracts in the city, pioneering the way for the organized Mission which was to follow. The Missionaries who first, and still, occupied the field were Dr. Pfander, Mr. Clark, and Colonel Martin himself. Dr. Pfander was a devoted man of high qualifications, who had passed thirty years in Mohammedan countries, had perfectly mastered their religious ideas and controversies, and had exposed the falsehood of their creed in their own language, in books which no one among them had been able to answer. His long and eminent labours had lately been recognised by the Archbishop of Canterbury, who had conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. . . .

Dr. Pfander—who is a perfect master of the Persian language, which, though Pushtú is the vernacular, is commonly understood and spoken at Peshawar—preaches constantly in the city in that language. At first he was opposed by every possible means short of actual violence, but was never intimidated or discouraged, waiting patiently when his discourse was interrupted, and proceeding as soon as silence was restored, or retiring when the tumult was unappeasable, and returning and pursuing the same course the next day. On the principle of perfect toleration of all creeds, the civil power was resolved to protect Dr. Pfander fully, and the police were enjoined to prevent all breaches of the peace, and to apprehend delinquents. On one occasion, the people, who were constantly excited by their mullahs, were more violent than usual, and at length proceeded to acts which led to the apprehension of two who molested the Missionary. They were removed by the police; the mullahs rushed to their mosques and preached armed resistance, declaring that the culprits were holy martyrs, and must be released at any cost. Many fanatics were highly excited by these harangues, and swore that no punishment should be inflicted on the two offenders. In the mean time the two were taken before Lieutenant Urmston, the magistrate, who wrote to Dr. Pfander, to inquire into the circumstances of the disturbance. Dr. Pfander, in reply, with Christian moderation, said that the accused persons had done him no hurt, and he begged that they might be released without punishment. Lieutenant Urmston accordingly, after taking security for their future good behaviour, dismissed them; though, had he been aware of the seditious proceedings of the populace, he would probably not have been so lenient. As it was, the affair happily passed off without further ill consequence, and the preaching has since been continued regularly, till it has ceased to excite tumultuous opposition. This, Colonel Edwardes remarked, was an extraordinary result among such a population. Mohammedans, who acknowledge, indeed, Jesus Christ as a holy man and a prophet, and assign to Him a certain degree in heaven, but are frantic at the idea of His asserted superiority to Mohammed, now hear with comparative calmness the claim of Christ, with the exclusion of every other claim, to the faith and obedience of themselves in common with all mankind.

In Peshawar city the actual presence of the British authority has been instrumental in subduing fanaticism, and affording scope for the free preaching of the gospel; but in the villages, where the same awe of our power cannot exist, Mr. Clark and Colonel Martin, who itinerate among them, have hitherto found themselves protected by the sacred rite of hospitality. In each village there is a place of public accommodation called "the hoojrah," to which the Missionaries always repair, and in which, as guests, they are safe from harm, and are at liberty to preach and teach the word to all who attend upon them. Their labours are conducted in the Pushtú language, which Mr. Clark has studied, and in which he has already published a small tract.

Colonel Edwardes proceeded to speak of the fruit of the Missionary operations, and observed, that, if it were small in actual conversions, it must be esteemed considerable in the general effect produced on a people habitually so opposed to the truth. But there had been one baptism, and that of a man of learning and distinction, brother to the high priest of Candahar. . . . There are other inquirers ; but Colonel Edwardes does not possess accurate information regarding them, having been too much occupied with his own duties to become conversant with details.*

Statistics of the South-India Missions.

THE statistical tables of the South-India Mission at the close of the year 1856 exhibit a very gratifying result : while there is a steady increase in the number of the baptized converts, and in the number of communicants, there has also been a large accession of more than 2000 to the number of those who have renounced idolatry, and have placed themselves under Christian instruction. The whole number of converts, baptized and unbaptized, has risen from 33,121 to 35,799. The communicants have increased from 5201 to 5344. In the number of school-children there has been a small decrease, from 11,617 to 11,294, in consequence of the introduction of fees.

Triennial Charge of the Bishop of Madras.

A general review of the state of Christianity in South India is given by the Bishop of Madras in his third Charge, delivered at St George's cathedral, Madras, on Monday, September 29, 1856.

I never have had to advert to this subject with more grateful emotions and feelings than on the present occasion. My last visit, more than any former one, has convinced me how great things God is doing for us. If ever "the Lord hath made bare His holy arm in the eyes of the people," it is surely among our Missions in Southern India.

In the two great religious Societies, there are not less than sixty thousand Natives under Christian influence and instruction. The Church Missionary Society alone has 33,121; of whom 22,900 have been admitted into the church by baptism. The venerable Society for the Propagation of the Gospel has a number not much inferior in Tanjore and Tinnevely: so that it is a cause for gratitude, if we regard the numbers brought under the influence of the gospel and the teaching of the church.

But it is to their gradual improvement, their growth in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, that I would especially wish to refer on this occasion.

I have been cheered and encouraged beyond expression in witnessing the increasing number of converts, as the statistics of the Missions prove; their growing intelligence and spirituality of mind, as attested by their pastors and teachers; and their more enlarged and extended benevolence, as their charities abundantly testify. There is scarcely a religious or benevolent object in our towns and villages in England, that has not its counterpart established and supported amongst the native Christians. Indeed, the good conduct, the sober habits, and improved condition of the converts, are attracting the attention of the heathen and Mohammedan population, and leaving impressions which must, with God's blessing, help forward the cause of truth beyond all former experience.

Then, when I reflect upon the scenes we were permitted to visit in our late tour—upon the throngs which flocked to our churches, literally "as doves to their windows"—upon the earnest and devout manner in which they entered into the services of the church, both in the responses and the singing—upon the numbers applying for confirmation, above 2500 in the two months—upon the solemn and fixed attention with which they listened to the word of exhortation, and the readiness of their replies when appealed to in support of any doctrine, and in explanation of any statement—if there is not a reality and experience of Christian truth in all this, then there is no such thing as reality and experience in the world. All we have taken for it is only a name, a shadow, a delusion! But I am persuaded that it is a real and abiding work, the work of God, the manifestation of His grace and mercy, the same, in fact, as was exemplified in the church from the earliest ages unto the present time. It is nothing less than the power of God's Spirit, converting and changing, gradually but certainly, the hearts and habits of the people.

But I must be permitted to speak of the two Ordinations which I held in March last at Mengnanapúram and Cochin.

Seven deacons and nine priests were admitted to their respective orders for the Missions. Of these persons, eight were natives. May God keep them humble, watchful, spiritually-minded, and faithful! I was satisfied with the result of the examinations of the candidates. Their doctrinal and scriptural views were clear and correct, their attachment to our church firm and intelligent, their attainments very considerable, and their piety, as far as man can judge, decided and exemplary.

After giving some account of the ordinations and confirmations,* the Bishop proceeds—

What things to record! and what reason for gratitude! What encouragement to proceed on our Missionary work! Oh, that all England could have witnessed the sight! It would have been an answer to all objections, and a motive and incentive to more liberal and enlarged offerings to the Lord in behalf of Christian Missions, and to more earnest prayer and dependence upon God, and it would, I believe, have called forth from many a youth in our Universities the exclamation, "Here am I, Lord, send me" to a scene of duty, which "so well recompenses the labourer's toil!"

I would add to this, my brethren, a word on the intelligence, numbers, and the pious demeanour of the catechists. I was never more favourably impressed with a class of men. In examining and exhorting them, I could not help remarking their correct views of Scripture truth, their earnest and consistent piety, and their zeal and disinterestedness in the cause of Christ. I was happy to find that my impressions were borne out by the testimony of one of the Missionaries: "their views" (he said) "of Divine truth are for the most part full and clear; but what is most important, they appear to me unceasingly to experience its comforting, sustaining, and quickening power, and, as a natural result, feel that it is not to obtain a livelihood, but to labour for the salvation of souls, that they are appointed to the office of catechists: and I feel assured that many of them take delight in the work for its own sake." . . . .

The Government "grants-in-aid" will be of great service to the cause of Missions. When it is considered that there are little less than 20,000 young people under religious instruction, and how much the Societies are crippled for want of means in imparting a thoroughly good education to these young people, I think you will agree with me that it will indeed be a seasonable and happy help.†

MADRAS.

The report of the Mission in the town of Madras for the last year exhibits much of the checks and trials which beset the early stages of the work, in the midst of the counteracting influences of surrounding heathenism. Two years ago there were four Missionaries engaged in the city, so that each department of the work was carried out, and the little knots of native converts were well visited. The failure of health, and other causes, withdrew two of the Missionaries, and the superintendence of the whole work rested upon Mr. Bilderbeck. At the beginning of 1855 he was obliged, by failing health, to withdraw for a time, leaving congregations numbering 596 souls, with 197 communicants, to the care of occasional help. When he returned, at the close of the year, to resume his labours in restored health, he found that the congregations had dwindled to 483, and the communicants to 130. The numbers have nearly recovered their former standard; but such uncertainties show how delicate a plant the native church still is, and how much it needs the prayers of Christians at home for its establishment in the faith. The town of Madras contains 700,000 inhabitants. The chief encouragement which the Missionary records has been derived from his labours amidst classes which may be regarded as the dregs of the population—the fishermen who inhabit the shore, the emigrants who are waiting for vessels to convey them to other lands in search of work, and the horsekeepers in the large public stables. Amidst each of these classes weekly services are held. There is also constant preaching by the Missionary and readers in the chapels of the Society, and in public thoroughfares. In respect of these labours Mr. Bilderbeck writes in his report, June 30, 1856—

It is believed that more is done by bringing the gospel thus to bear upon the masses by daily contact with them, than by any other means. Even children and youths educated in schools want the preached word to arouse them. Experience of twenty-six years has served only to confirm this belief. Alas! what changes in modes and expedients have not these twenty-six years disclosed. Volumes of crude, ill-assorted, and undigested theories have started up in place of settled and direct Missionary work. Verily, all this is the artifice of Satan, his masterpiece, when he could thus pervert and divert the minds of men at a time when his strongholds are assailed. O for simplicity of faith and simplicity of practice! Departure from the one is departure from the other; and in the present aspect of things one is reminded of the question, "When the Son of Man cometh, shall He find faith on the earth?" Are present measures those which most please worldly statesmen and politicians, who say, Civilize and then Christianize; or Him who said, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."

Mr. Bilderbeck also gives in his journal the following encouraging instance of a desire to hear the word of God, on the part of some poor villagers—

July 15, 1857—Went to South Beach, taking a stereoscope with me to gratify the young people among the boatmen. At Nantchicupam, one of their villages nearest the sea, as soon as they found I was exhibiting the stereoscope, an immense crowd was collected, and every one became impatient and eager to have a sight. Apprehending, however, some danger to the instrument, I soon packed it up again, and was going to leave, when some one cried out, "Sir, you have shown us pretty objects by the glass box, but will you now go away without reading to us God's word?" There was reproof and encouragement in this word, and I willingly lingered to tell them of that Saviour in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. All now was order and silence, and they begged I would sit down and read. My friend Cúpá Chetty, their headman, was present, and also reader Thomas. So we all squatted ourselves down on the sand, with the people almost in a semicircle before us. I read the fourth chapter of St. Mark, beginning at the 35th verse, and exhorted them from it. Though the instrument which had afforded them amusement and curiosity was still in my hand, yet it did not divert their attention, nor was there a single question asked any more about it.

At the conclusion, they begged that I would establish a school in their village, a request with which I promised to comply as soon as means can be obtained.

Education.

Several vernacular schools are connected with the Mission for boys and girls, numbering in all 600 scholars. Of this department Mr. Bilderbeck writes—

The female-schools seem to be the most promising of all. Persons educated in them years before are now coming forward boldly to profess Christ: of this description are a few women who have lately been baptized. Indeed, this is a department of work in which success is to be measured, not so much by what is accomplished in weeks or in months, as by what is done in years; for in this country heathen children come to school, not first to learn but to unlearn; and there are influences, too, exerted by relatives and associations around, unfavourable to their acting from conviction, or a higher sense of obligation, even after they have been rightly taught. Hence it is not to be wondered at if years pass over before results appear. "Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain."

A female-school, of a superior and normal kind, is under the superintendence of an English lady, Miss Giberne. An examination of this school took place in November, at which several of the friends of Missions attended. A satisfactory report was given of the result of the examination by the Rev. W. Gray, one of the Company's chaplains, which concludes with this remark—

We all parted highly gratified by what we had seen and heard. We had seen that in Miss Giberne's school fifty young girls were daily instructed in the word of God, and taught to occupy themselves in useful employment. We did not doubt that, under pious superintendence, the good seed thus early implanted will, with God's blessing, spring up to maturity in many a young heart. We felt satisfied that many of the future wives and mothers of India, thus early instructed, will yet greatly influence the moral condition of the future sons of India. The grass may be growing free upon the graves of all who were present that day when these effects may be visible, but the work is of God: He will accomplish it in His own good time. A deep interest was excited by that examination in the cause of native-female education; and I am sure many a secret fervent prayer was offered that day to God, that she who devotes herself so singly to the cause might have grace and encouragement in every difficulty and trial of her labour.

Hindústání Mission.

The foundation and commencement of the Harris school, under very favourable auspices, was noticed in the last Report. The new building has not been completed. The school is still conducted in a temporary abode. Hitherto the hopes of the friends of the Institution, moderate as they were, are "deferred." The stubborn contempt of Christianity which pervades the Mohammedan mind, not only withholds parents from sending their children to a Christian school, but renders the behaviour of the few children who do attend most perverse. Only twelve scholars have been admitted during the year, of whom seven only remained at the close. There is, however, sufficient improvement manifested, in those who have continued any time under instruction, to warrant the hope that faith, patience, and perseverance will at length be crowned with success.

Under these circumstances, Mr. Cradock needs the warm sympathy and earnest prayers of Christian friends in India and England. He is not cast down. At the end of the first quarter he writes—

After all that is discouraging—if it is not premature to pronounce the case thus—there is something pleasant in the occurrences of the last quarter. Of the four who continued to attend for some time, we are able to testify that they improved greatly in their conduct to—wards their teachers, and they often inquired about matters connected with religion, and seemed very willing to be taught; and one of them, who still remains, is very industrious in his studies, and we sometimes venture to hope that he feels the force of divine truth; but this is doubtful. We earnestly hope the time to favour them is nigh at hand, and that God Almighty will grant them mercy. Their case, is humanly speaking, a hopeless one: they are in circumstances a hundred-fold more perilous and lamentable than the Hindú. Of the veil that is on their hearts it may be said that the warp is ignorance, the woof is pride, and the glazing which covers these, and conceals them, is a semblance of truth in their faith. By these three the light of truth as it is in Jesus is kept out. Still, they are in the hand of God, and the worse their state the greater are the reasons why we should strive to bring them to the knowledge of God.*

TINNEVELLY.

General View of the Mission.

A comprehensive and deeply-interesting review of the Tinnevelly Mission has been furnished in the annual letter of the Society's experienced Missionary, the Rev. J. Thomas, who writes—

This present month twenty years ago I landed in India, and, through God's goodness, my labours have been devoted, without serious interruption, to one locality in Tinnevelly, upon the south-east sandy plain of the province. The very spot where my house, with a beautiful gothic church, and boys' and girls' schoolrooms, are now erected, the ground was covered with thorns, and differed in no degree from the general aspect of the country around. But the Lord led me here because this was the part of the vineyard where He had work for me to do.

Mengnanapúram was a Christian village then, and contained 270 inhabitants, and was the principal congregation belonging to the Church Missionary Society in this neighbourhood. I am thankful to say that it contains at present 623 inhabitants, and the whole district has increased in number of Christians from 1459 to 5445, independently of a generation, nearly, which has in the interim passed away from the stage of life. I state these facts, to show that the Missionary enterprise yields a fair return to labour expended in dependence on the blessing of God; and I conceive that this is the shortest way of answering the objections of those who sympathize not with us in the work.

Twenty years ago there was but one native clergyman in Tinnevelly, the Rev. J. Devasagayam, and he a native, not of this province, * Further accounts of the Madras Mission are given (with a plan of Madras) in the "Church Missionary Record" for July 1857, and the "Church Missionary Gleaner" for August 1856.

but of Tranquebar. At present there are nine in connexion with the Church Missionary Society, all of whom are children of the Tinnevelly church. Surely such a result must be regarded as a mark of progress, and a manifest sign of the Lord's goodwill and blessing upon the means which have been in operation. Four of these brethren are now associated with me in these three districts.

The Rev. Paul Daniel, one of these four, was for many year one of my most efficient catechists, and has well earned, by his zeal and diligence, the honourable position which he now occupies. I know that we ought to be extremely careful not to exalt nor glory in any man; but it is right that our friends and supporters should know, that in this person the Lord has given us, without any exception, the most able and eloquent native preacher of the gospel that India has. I have no hesitation in saying, that if such sermons as are generally preached by him were delivered in any pulpit in London, the church would be crowded to overflowing. Nor am I singular in this opinion, for several of my brother Missionaries, after having heard him, have expressed themselves in terms of the highest admiration of his pulpit abilities. It is exceedingly gratifying to see that the people also everywhere fully appreciate his preaching, and listen to him with great attention and delight. To me it is always a great pleasure to be among the hearers while he occupies the pulpit. O that the Lord would raise up many more such men, pious, able, with a full knowledge and appreciation of the gospel scheme of salvation, and withal possessed, like this good man, of profound humility.

The number of Catechists at present in the different districts is forty-eight. I am thankful to say that they give me additional satisfaction year by year, and, what is more gratifying still, very many of them have proved themselves able evangelists while assisting in the North Tinnevelly Itinerant Mission, and have brought back with them, from the brethren engaged in that work, the most pleasing testimony to their ability and zeal. I made arrangements to send twelve during the past year, but, on account of various circumstances, eight only were able to go; but the other four will proceed during next year, besides twelve others whom I hope to send. Each spends a month in the work of evangelizing, and his congregation during his absence is placed under the care of the catechist of the nearest congregation. The advantage to the catechists of this change of scene and work is very great, and they always return to their villages with more activity and zeal, and devote more of their time afterwards to visiting, and preaching the gospel, in the heathen villages in their own immediate vicinity. The congregations, too, are stirred up, by what they hear from the catechists, not only to sympathize in the work of evangelization, but are induced to contribute more willingly in aid of the funds of our local Missionary Society; and, in several instances, headmen of villages have joined the catechists, and gone to assist in preaching the gospel to their heathen fellow-countrymen.

The catechist system has been carried out in Tinnevelly to a greater extent than in any other part of India, and there cannot now, I think, be any doubt that it is admirably calculated to meet the present wants of the church, and that it proves, at the same time, a natural and most efficient mode of preparing men for the work of the ministry. But the Missionary must not expect the system to do any thing of itself. With God's blessing, he must give it life, for success will altogether depend upon him. He should therefore treat his catechists with confidence and respect, as men who hold a highly-important office. He should teach them every thing that bears any reference to their office: he should be kind to them without being indulgent, and strict without being severe. The more they come in contact with him the better, for there is nothing else, as a second cause, that can improve and raise them but his example and influence. A Missionary who treats his catechists as unworthy of confidence, and keeps them at a distance from himself, will, in all probability, find, after years of labour, that he has no efficient men to aid him in his work.

I have frequently heard the catechists preach at our monthly meetings, as in former years, and can testify that the gospel is faithfully set forth by them; and not only so, but in many instances the sermons have been powerful in conception, language, and delivery, and would have done credit to the pulpit of any parish church in England.

Many native Christians have been removed by death this year: at Mengnanapúram alone thirty-three persons were carried off by cholera in a very short time. This scourge comes amongst us annually, making every one feel the uncertainty of life; and it requires much patience on the part of the Missionary, to whom heathen as well as Christians, from every village around, repair at all hours of the day and night for medicine. There is something peculiarly depressing in such a state of things, and nothing but firm trust in God can keep the mind free from distress and perturbation. We had no case within our compound, and I desire to feel how large a debt of gratitude we owe to the Lord for preserving my family and myself from "the pestilence that walketh in darkness."

During the visit of the Bishop of the diocese in March last, 333 persons of all ages were confirmed, when his Lordship delivered a most appropriate address, one which, under the Divine blessing, was admirably calculated to make a lasting impression upon the minds of the candidates.

At service the attendance is from 1000 to 1200, but once a month, when the Lord's Supper is administered, catechists and congregations of more distant places attend, and the number averages, as in former years, generally 1450. Nothing can be more gratifying than the large area of our church, covered by men, women, and children, most of them in neat and clean attire; the chants and hymns correctly and sweetly sung by native children; the service; the deep attention paid to the sermon by the great majority; the Lord's supper afterwards—all are calculated to inspire the deepest gratitude, and elicit the most devout thanksgivings of Almighty God for His “wonderful work” among this people. It is the Lord’s doing, and it is truly marvellous in our eyes.

But let not any person suppose that there is no dark side of the picture—no hollow professors, no careless persons, nor any hypocrite, among such a community—no care or anxiety, nor fears or misgivings, and deep disappointments to the Missionary. It were indeed a marvel were it otherwise, and especially when we consider that the majority of this people were themselves, not many years back, ignorant idolaters, without God, without knowledge, and without any moral principle to guide them. The universal prevalence of human corruption, coupled with these antecedents, do not warrant us in expecting perfection; and yet, strange to say, many persons are greatly scandalized because our converts do not attain to a much higher standard than Christians in favoured England, where the gospel has been preached now for so many generations. Not that there are wanting among our people many bright examples of consistent Christian conduct during life, and of happy deaths when the earthly pilgrimage comes to its close.

Much may be hoped for from the rising generation if they are properly attended to. Time and care are requisite in examining and teaching them, not only on the part of the schoolmasters, but on the part of the European Missionary also. There are three native superintendants employed, one for each district, who examine the schools monthly, and furnish me with a written report of the result, in the presence of the schoolmasters, at the monthly meeting: they are thus kept in full efficiency; for the least falling-off in number or lessons would be detected, and each schoolmaster feels bound to exert himself, or run the risk of ultimately losing his situation.

The proportion of girls who attend the day schools being equal to the boys, is a most gratifying fact, and augurs well for the future race of Christians in Tinnevely, for generally the character of the future man is impressed upon him by the mother. Enlargement of mind, and intelligence superior to people of the same status who are still heathen, will rapidly and surely, under the blessing of God, raise our people in a social, intellectual, and moral point of view.

There is also a Sunday-school connected with every congregation, which is held immediately after the forenoon service. Most of our young people attend, and also the children of the day and boarding-schools. At Mengnanapúram the native deacon takes the class of young men in Tamil, averaging thirty persons. Mr. Valpy and my sons take the classes in English, and teachers from among the catechists and schoolmasters are supplied to the others. This is an additional means of grace of the highest importance to our young people, who would lose much of the knowledge attained while children learning in our village schools, if not kept up in this manner.

Mr. Sargent gives the following account of the Palamcotta district—

The best description of the work is, in its main points, already made to hand, in our Lord’s beautiful parable of the sower. Yet the Committee will desire to hear some account of the growth of the outward church in these parts. In Dec. 1851, we had—

|                                                  |      |
|--------------------------------------------------|------|
| Baptized members .....                           | 662  |
| Now we have .....                                | 1211 |
| Under instruction preparatory to baptism .....   | 316  |
| Now we have .....                                | 625  |
| Communicants .....                               | 109  |
| Now we have .....                                | 319  |
| In our schools, boys, 272 ; girls, 73—Total .... | 345  |
| Now, boys, 343 ; girls, 177 ,, ....              | 502  |

These statistics show that our numbers have nearly doubled within the space of five years. Under these circumstances, it was a pleasing duty I performed in carrying out the views of the Committee, by giving up to the Rev. P. Simeon, my native coadjutor in the work, the independent charge of the southern part of the district, Alvarneri being the station, and a radius of five miles forming the circle which has thus been confided to him. He is an able and devoted man, and approves himself a workman that need not be ashamed.

There is, I am glad to say, a decided improvement among the older members and widows in connexion with our Palamcotta congregation. Mrs. Sargent has a class of about thirty-six of them, who come to our house and receive weekly instruction in the word of God. Almost every one of them has her Missionary collecting pot. Besides these, Mrs. Sargent has also a class, three times a week, of married women, who, being chiefly young persons educated in Missionary boarding-schools, present a very pleasing appearance, and manifest at once the usefulness of such establishments. In this class there is an average attendance of about thirty.

In order to obtain a correct view of the whole Mission, the foregoing cheering accounts must be taken in connexion with reports of less prosperous districts. Such a report is given by the Rev. W. Clark of three districts, of which he has lately taken the superintendence.

My report this year will not materially differ from that of last, yet it has its own peculiar lights and shades, which respectively give occasion for sorrow, or call for hope and thankfulness. One observation, however, may be made, which is equally applicable to the whole period during which I have had charge of this district. We need a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit to awaken a sense of sin, and urge on the converts to the pursuit of holiness. Hitherto I have witnessed no indication of a deep sorrow for sin, no alarm at the prospect of divine wrath. This is a great want, which cannot be compensated by mere numbers. I would not, however, have it inferred that what has hitherto been done is of no value. On the contrary, it is of great importance, because it has been attended by the conversion of many individuals.

By comparing the present and last year's report, you will see that there has been a falling-off in nearly all the items of the Surandei district. This loss, I regret to say, is not likely, to all appearance, to be compensated at present by any new accessions from the heathen. In the Nallúr and Pavúr district, also, there has been a considerable defection from our ranks, chiefly in one village, Alankúlam, amounting to about 500, among whom are some who have been baptized, with even one or two communicants. But this has been counter-balanced by a large increase. After deducting the above backsliders and apostates, there remains an increase of 816 souls. Most of those who have seceded in the Surandei district have returned to Romanism; those in the Nallúr and Pavúr district to heathenism. The case of the latter, though likely to be productive of much ultimate good, has been attended with many sad circumstances. They had been connected with us many years: some were baptized, and one or two were communicants, and there was reason to think, that, however unsatisfactory their conduct might be at times, they would not, as a body, return to the devil-worship of their fathers. They had also derived many indirect temporal benefits from their connexion with the Mission, and therefore might be expected to feel some degree of gratitude. But these reasonable expectations have all been disappointed. Instead of gratitude, we have met with hatred and opposition, and they, instead of walking in the fear of God, have rushed into sin with more than ordinary avidity.

The congregations that have lately been added to the statistics are not yet fully established; but, as far as present circumstances indicate, they are likely to remain firm. They had been under instruction fifteen months before I fully received them. They are in general regular in their attendance in church. There is an interesting class of young men at the principal village, who meet every night, after prayers, to read the Scriptures and learn the sacred songs of the Tanjore poet; and the school in the same village is well attended. So, with God's blessing, we may hope that a good work will be wrought among them. Too much dependence, however, must not be placed upon them. They may prove unstable, like those at Alankúlam, after many years' connexion with us. Nor must much importance be at any time attached to mere numbers. We may hope, indeed, that, if many hear the word of God, many will be benefited; but there will always be some who have no love for the truth at heart. It gives me much pleasure to report that the labours of my assistant, Mr. Savariroyan, have given me entire satisfaction. I have found it necessary to leave the practical superintendence of the Surrandei district in a great degree in his hands; and the prudence, good sense, and activity with which he has discharged his duties, in every case commended themselves to my judgment and approbation. It would be a source of great satisfaction could I have the assistance of some native pastors. Enough work could be found for three or four, and there are central positions in which they could be placed with advantage.

The testimony of one of the native ministers, ordained three years ago, and now in charge of a pastoral district, to the state of the people under his ministerial care, will be read with much interest. The translation is as follows—

Thanks be to Almighty God, who has shed abroad the glorious light of His gospel in this land of outer darkness! There are 1455 converts in the twenty-four villages belonging to this district, of whom 1137 are baptized, and 203 are communicants. I am very happy to say that some of them are really godly persons, who give a deep attention to the work preached to them daily, and receive it as their spiritual food. They not only attend the church regularly, but also have family prayers in their houses, and they try to follow the footsteps of our dear Redeemer. When opportunity offers, they converse with the heathen about Christ, and the only way of redemption. When I enter into conversation with them, I find in them a love to the Saviour, and they strive to bring up their children “in the nurture and admonition of the Lord;” and thus they show forth that they are real Christians by their deeds. They give out of what they have, to various funds, with cheerfulness. Some persons in a village called Puthú Kudy, have made small boxes with a hole in the centre, so as that a doody can be put in. In these boxes they put a few pice during the week, and at a stated time they take these to the catechist of the place.

Zeal for Church Building.

Many instances are given of the zeal and self-denial of the people in securing for themselves suitable buildings for divine worship. The Rev. W. Clark records in his journal—

June 30, 1856—Opened a new church at Rusdhá. It is a very neat building of bricks and mud, with the walls nicely plastered, the roof tiled, and a porch in front. The zeal which the few converts in this place have shown, not only in the building of their church, but also in their walk and conversation, has been quite an example. The whole cost of the church has been about 300 rupees, of which upwards of sixty were given by themselves, and about thirty-five collected among their friends and neighbours. To provide the requisite sum, namely, one-third of the whole amount, they sold two bullocks. As may be supposed, the payment of the remaining 200 rupees has quite exhausted the treasury of our District Church-building fund. The interest of the occasion was increased by the baptism of some of the members of the congregation, and the administration of the Lord's supper to a good number of communicants connected with that and the neighbouring congregations, and, in the evening, by the distribution of rice to the poor.

Love for the word of God.

Many instances are given in the journals of the Missionaries, showing how highly the people prize the Holy Scriptures. Mr. Pickford writes, in his annual letter—

Another feature worthy of remark is the great desire of the people to possess the word of God. In this the demand is always greater than the supply. I trust the time is not far distant when each Christian family will rejoice in the possession of a whole Bible. I have, during the past year, received forty-five copies. How the people became acquainted with the fact that such a valuable consignment had reached me I know not, but I have since been besieged with applications for them. One Christian man visited me weekly for six months, entreating me to give him a Bible; and when at length his importunity had gained the much-desired book, his joy and satisfaction were greater than I can describe.

Mr. Thomas records the following affecting death of a young man in his district—

I will give a brief account of a young man, a member of the congregation of Thirúvaranganary, who died of cholera in July last. His name was Parinbum, aged 28. His father and mother embraced Christianity when he was twelve years old, and with them, two years afterwards, he was baptized. He was very diligent in learning the usual lessons which our people commit to memory, and anxious to understand all that was taught; and, some time after, he was admitted to the Lord's table. About a month before his death, while the catechist was delivering a lecture upon the Lord's supper, he asked what the wedding garment was in which God required that we should appear at the feast; and Parinbum instantly answered, "The righteousness which Christ provided for us by His death." When seized with cholera, he offered up fervent prayers, confessing his sins, and pleading for mercy through the blood of Christ. When his death was near, observing that his wife and mother wept much, he sat up and said, "I have no fear of death: why do you weep and lament? I am going to the Lord: He will never cast me away. He has suffered in order to save me. My last words to you are, trust in Him and obey His blessed will: to Him I commend you;" and, so saying, he expired.

Mr. Sargent records the case of a Brahmin convert who has joined the Mission from conviction of the truth, though, in so doing, he sacrificed good worldly prospects, as well as his circle of relatives and friends. The Missionary, previously to his reception, asked him whether he was prepared to make such a sacrifice for the sake of Christ. He said, "I am ready to give up all." "I added," writes the Missionary, "'Your friends will all cast you off;' to which he replied, with a look I can never forget, 'But will the Lord Jesus cast me off? Will He reject me?' I saw at once that I was dealing with a man in earnest for his soul."

Another convert is thus spoken of—

I may also mention the case of a respectable native Christian from the neighbourhood of Tranquebar, who came to Tinnevely to look after his son. He had lived a careless life, without any fear of God or care about his soul ; but, attending our Mission church, it pleased the Spirit of God to apply the word to his heart, and from that day it became evident to his friends that a mighty change had taken place. As he was poorly a little while ago I went to see him, and felt very much edified by what he testified of the grace of God. His bodily pains he knew were infinitely short of what he deserved, and he regarded them, he said, as the dealings of a kind Father, adding, "O that they may make me cling nearer and nearer to the Saviour, and that I, the poor weak one, may entwine myself around Him as the weak creeper entwines itself around the strong tree."

The Rev. John Dewasagayam gives the character of one of his Christian laymen, who was suddenly carried off by cholera.

May 9, 1856—This was a day of great sorrow to me and to our whole congregation, because our dear and pious headman, Védhamuttu, died last night by cholera. When I visited him yesterday morning, he desired me to commend his soul to our blessed Saviour, who redeemed him by shedding His blood. He appeared to be fully assured of his death.

After his death Mrs. John told me that she observed in him uncommon cheerfulness during divine service on Ascension-day, the 1st instant. He appeared as if he was quite heavenly-minded, and she was thankful to observe him as one of the redeemed souls in the midst of the people, of whom many did not enjoy the service. She informed me, also, how interested he was in the welfare of the four orphan girls whom he recommended several years ago to our boarding-school. He was a warm preacher of the gospel to many Christians and heathen : he visited the afflicted, and exhorted and prayed with and for them. He took, also, much to heart the unhappy state of the backsliders. He was an instrument in the hand of the Lord to bring some of them back. He had some property. I wondered that he was so regular in attending morning and evening prayers daily. When he was absent two or three days, I found frequently that he was in other districts, doing his best to bring the people into the right way, or to settle the disputes. Many people used to call him Gnánigar, or, a wise teacher.

He was active in encouraging the catechists to do their duty. As a headman, he was a decided friend of justice, and a great friend of the poor. We have great cause to lament his loss ; but we have great cause to be thankful that he was a shining light for many years on earth, and is now eternally happy in heaven.

Mr. Pickford reports a remarkable conversion in his district.

The case of Masanamuttu is worthy of mention. He was in former years a great opposer of the gospel, and notorious, even among his fellow-idolaters, for his frequent and expensive offerings to the devil. He is of the Maraver caste, and naturally fearless and straightforward. When his son, nearly eleven years ago, made a profession of the gospel, Masanamuttu publicly renounced him and declared his determination henceforth neither to speak to him nor to eat and drink with him. This son is now a catechist, and has lately been the honoured instrument of carrying the gospel into several heathen villages. He came to me, on one occasion, with a countenance beaming with joy, and said, "The Lord has heard the prayers of many years : my father is a converted man : he has renounced idolatry, and embraced Christianity." I have mentioned the particulars of the case in my journal for the half-year ending June 30, so that I need only say that each successive month has given additional proof of the reality of this change. Masanamuttu was baptized by the name of Gnanamuttu. His consistency, zeal, and progress in knowledge have been a cause of much thankfulness, and it is evident to all that he now loves and values the gospel which he once so violently, in his ignorance, laboured to destroy.

Itinerating Mission in North Tinnevelly.

The itinerating labours of the Rev. Messrs. Ragland, Fenn, and Meadows, in North Tinnevelly, have been continued with uninterrupted zeal, and in the same spirit of faith and prayer as the last Report described. Such a measure of success has been granted, that, during the last year, two important steps have been taken, which show how soon an itinerating Mission generates a settled Mission.

The first step is the appointment of a settled Missionary at a town in the midst of the itinerating district, to receive and superintend the little bands of converts who have been gathered out of the heathen, and have been for a time instructed, and some of them baptized, by the itinerating Missionaries. The Rev. C. Every has been thus stationed at Sivagasi, and Mr. Ragland has handed over to him the care of the converts at Kalbodhu, comprising thirty-three souls, twenty-four of whom were already baptized, and ten of whom were communicants, of whom Mr. Every writes—"The grace of God has indeed done much for these poor villagers within the last two years." Three or four smaller companies of inquirers have, in the same way, been transferred from the itinerating to the settled Mission.

The second step is the opening of English schools in important towns in the itinerating district. Two have been already established at Striviliputthur and Virduputti, and others will be added as suitable masters can be found. This measure has been urgently requested by some of the inhabitants of these towns, in consequence of the interest excited throughout the district by the labours of the itinerating Missionaries.

The following graphic description of the nature of the itinerating work is printed from the Madras Church Missionary Record—

There are generally four distinct encampments existing at the same time: whose white tents, pitched in some thick grove of shady tamarind trees, mark the spot where soldiers of the cross are carrying on their spiritual warfare, and taking possession of the land in the name of their great Captain. Having agreed as to the line of their march and points of attack, they separate, to meet again on some fixed spot to recount their operations, and strengthen each other's hands by prayer and holy intercourse. Each itinerator generally remains one week in the same encampment, seldom if ever more, this being long enough to prevent unnecessary removals, and to attract the attention of the neighbourhood. All the villages and hamlets within a distance of three miles, usually from twenty to thirty in number, are visited in succession, morning and evening; and should there be any catechist from the south in the encampment, the most important of these villages will receive at least a second visit. No morning or evening passes without the preaching of the word of life in at least one village by each of the brethren; and on re-traversing the district a different centre is chosen for each encampment. This occurs ordinarily once in five months. In one part of the district, however, every village receives at least a monthly visit from one or other of the itinerators, and where there are any who have placed themselves under instruction, each week brings them a teacher in succession.

The Missionaries themselves, in a joint letter, thus write, at the close of the year, respecting the help they have received from the south, and respecting, also, their future hopes—

We have again to express our thankfulness that we and our three native fellow-labourers have been permitted, during the past year, to continue, with scarcely the least interruption through ill health, our work of itinerating in North Tinnevely; and, as last year, we have again been gladdened by the assistance of our native brethren in South Tinnevely, and to a much larger extent than before. Twenty-seven have worked with us, each for nearly a month, and three of these on two distinct occasions. The catechists, twenty in number, and three students from the Preparandi Institution have been supported as previously, during the time they have been with us, by the native Church Missionary Association. Besides these, we have had the voluntary and entirely unpaid assistance of four native brethren not in Mission employ, three from the Mengnana-púram, and one from the Suviseshapúram district.

In 1855, besides several bodies who went back almost immediately, two attached themselves, and still remain attached to us. In 1856, though we have had application from several bodies of persons, and though one of these bodies, for two or three months, continued to express a wish to become Christians, only one, that at Kanjaunpatti, has shown even so low a measure of sincerity as to continue in outward connexion with us.

What is the reason of this we feel to be a question worthy of serious inquiry. It was naturally to be anticipated, that, as the gospel became better known, the number of bodies placing themselves under instruction would increase rapidly, would, in fact, be doubled, or trebled, or quadrupled, every year. We have been disappointed. We are listened to, indeed, with attention—sometimes more than formerly. We meet, too, frequently, with persons who seem impressed by what they hear, and who, if we had not been, so often disappointed, we should think were just about to take the decided step. But if the number joining us in a given time be taken as the measure of our success, that of the past year must be put down as no more than that of the preceding. There is nothing we can explain this by, except that what the heathen have seen and heard of us during the last three years has thoroughly taught them that they can expect no help from us in their law-suits, and no protection from us when oppressed. Though we say this, we trust we cannot be charged with any want of sympathy, or an unwillingness to give help where we can do so with propriety. The people at Madhamkoilpatti had long pressed us to assist them in some suits which were going on in the Striviliputthúr court. In reply, we had advised them, as the better policy, if not their duty, to bear patiently, and urged them to relinquish their suits, but by all means carefully to abstain from what we had reason to fear they were doing, mixing up false with true complaints.

Humble as are the expressions of the labourers themselves, the results of these itinerating labours, in the course of three years, will cheer the heart of every intelligent observer of Missionary work; nor can such an one fail to revert in imagination to many other fields, in which faithful servants of God have toiled for far longer periods without such visible tokens of His blessing as North Tinnevelly affords. Thus the Rev. J. Fuchs, who has laboured for ten years in the neighbourhood of Benares, in North India, and whose senior coadjutor has been engaged for more than twenty-five years, writes, at the close of last year—"The villages which I visited in the cold weather have for many years had the opportunity of hearing the gospel, for Mr. Smith has gone over the district repeatedly, and many of them frequently hear us in Benares; yet it is remarkable, yea, mysterious, that, as far as I know, not a single individual of the Benares district has been gathered into the fold of Christ." It is impossible not to pause upon this contrast, and humbly to inquire how far there is a difference in the preparedness of the people for the reception of the gospel—how far there is a difference in the mode of spiritual husbandry—how far the inquiry must be shut up in the sovereignty of Divine grace. “The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.”

Reaction of the Itinerant upon the Settled Mission,

The Rev. E. Sargent describes the direct and indirect influence of the work in the following extract from his journal, August 26, 1856—

I returned last Friday morning from a week's tour with our itinerant brethren, and thankful do I feel for the opportunity of witnessing their plans, and of making common cause with them in the good work. They have cause, I believe, to thank God for the grace vouchsafed to a few, who, through them, have heard the word of life, and are now, in some instances at least, consistent professors of Christ Jesus. But I can speak to another point, viz. the indirect influence of their labours on the church in South Tinnevely. In short, they are to our established congregations what Missions abroad are to our congregations at home. Our people here would not be able to enter into Missionary detail of foreign countries, i.e. they would be unable to realize what we state; but here, men from among themselves, going forth and returning, brings the matter home to them with a reality which nothing else could give.”

Another Missionary, the Rev. A. B. Valpy, thus describes the reaction of the north upon the south—

The influence of the Itinerating Mission upon the congregations of the south cannot be too highly estimated, whether it be by drawing the catechists to labour more directly with them amongst the heathen in the north, or by infusing amongst the congregations themselves, during their periodical visits to the various Mission stations, a spirit of zeal and Missionary devotion.”

Appeal for more itinerating Missionaries.

The itinerating Missionaries have made this touching and generous appeal for further help, in a letter received October 18, 1856, signed by the Rev. Messrs. Ragland, Fenn, Meadows, and their native associates, Vethanayagum Devanayagum and Joseph Cornelius—

We write earnestly to entreat you to do what lies in your power to increase the number of itinerating Missionaries in North Tinnevely, and would feel obliged if you would kindly take charge of 100l.” [raised among themselves] “for the outward passage of the first Missionary. . . . We all join in pledging ourselves, and we would do so thoughtfully and seriously, to endeavour to be more truly earnest in “praying the Lord of the harvest.”

And may we take this opportunity of making two requests? The first is, that those of the Committee who have room in their hearts and in their prayers to remember us and our work by name, will occasionally do so. We want, above all, “mercy to be faithful.” Missionaries are sometimes unduly valued: for ourselves, we can only say that we are ashamed when we compare what has been said of us with what we know of ourselves. Mercy to be faithful, and for this, mercy to be humble, holy, and diligent. Will some of you kindly ask this for us?

And will those of the Committee who have opportunities of recommending the North-Tinnevelly itinerancy to those who might suitably engage in it, kindly aid us in this way also? It is our growing conviction that any increase of labourers that we can reasonably, or even unreasonably expect, will be repaid by a corresponding increase of fruit. As several may have been deterred from offering to join us by a dread of loneliness, or other discomforts, it may be well to say how altogether imaginary such fears are. Every work for God has its trials, and ours is not exempt. But, with the exception of those which are almost wholly inward, and attributable to our own evil hearts, we can scarcely remember one worth mentioning. And our comforts are many. A healthy, cheerful occupation, occasional pleasant intercourse, and frequent pleasant communication, with our other Missionary brethren; the same with our native brethren, of whom the most zealous view our work with peculiar interest. And lastly, and for this to God alone, alone be praise, much peace and “comfort of love” among ourselves. And we are not, God be praised for this too, without hopeful promise of fruit.”*

Education in Tinnevelly.

In the Report of last year it was stated that the seminary at Palamcotta for receiving Christian boys as boarders had been closed, and the pupils transferred to station seminaries, and that a Training Institution and Normal School was about to be opened for the preparation of schoolmasters. These measures render the educational department of the Tinnevelly Mission more complete.

Preparandi Institution.

This Institution, for giving a special training to catechists and young men, with a view to their efficiency as native teachers and ministers, has continued under the able superintendence of Mr. Sargent. The course comprises Pearson on the Creed, Burnet on the Thirty-nine Articles, Paley's Evidences, Ancient History, Church History, Geography, Tamil grammar, and the critical study of Scripture. In June 1856 the number of students was forty-seven, comprising thirteen married and thirty-four unmarried. The numbers at the close of the year were about the same. Mr. Sargent gives this account of the means employed to keep up the spiritual character of the students—

The students have free access to me at all times; but as I endeavour to make my class-room my pulpit, and to take advantage of every opportunity for setting forth vital religion and appealing to the conscience, the duty I owe to them as their spiritual instructor is not left to such private interviews alone. Our Sunday class especially is a season of much profit, I trust, to all, teachers and students. My own class spend an hour with me in my private study between the services, when, after prayer, they each read what they had prepared as practical lessons from the gospel for the day, or some other set portion of Scripture. By way of preparing them practically for their future work, the following plan is adopted—

1. The first class take it in turns to conduct one of the daily devotional exercises, when they deliver an address for about a quarter of an hour, on a passage of Scripture, of which only the skeleton is written out, and shown me the day previously.

2. Every Saturday, upon closing their studies at noon, a special prayer is offered in behalf of all who have gone forth from the Institution, and are labouring in the word and doctrine, whether as catechists or schoolmasters, that God would bless them, and make them faithful agents of the Mission; and finally, on behalf of those students who intend spending the afternoon in visiting heathen villages, and speaking to all who are willing to hear of the gospel of Christ. In this exercise among the heathen the teachers also associate themselves with the students, and thus weekly the villages in the neighbourhood of Palamcotta see these heralds, two by two, coming among them, announcing the only way of salvation through Jesus Christ.

3. Two of the students accompany one of the teachers to the town of Tinnevely every Sunday morning, and two others go with another of the teachers to some other congregations, where they assist in the services and at the Bible classes.

4. One student is sent for a month at a time to have some training with our itinerant brethren in the north, and the report I receive regarding them is generally very favourable.

Vernacular Training Institution and Model School.

This establishment was under the care of the Rev. J. B. Rodgers, who has been specially instructed in the modern improvements in education, assisted by Mr. Scamell, who was educated at Highbury Training College. The schools were opened April 3, 1856. The training class consisted at Midsummer of fifty-four students: the school numbered seventy boys, boarders and day pupils inclusive. There is also attached to the Institution a female department, with twelve pupils, and an infant-school, attended by thirty-five children, from three to ten years of age. The Superintendant, writing in July, says—"The Lord has been with us hitherto, vouchsafing to each one of us a sufficient measure of health and strength to enable us to carry on the work steadily. May He still continue to vouchsafe His presence, and to bless our humble efforts, that they may tend to the furtherance of His cause and the promotion of His glory. We are thankful to say that the pupils in both the Normal and Model schools have taken kindly to our mode of tuition and discipline, and manifest all cordiality in receiving instruction." This establishment partakes of the industrial element. Some of the students have charge of the furniture, premises, &c. "Fifteen of the pupils are told off every week, as a working-party, to attend to the repairs of roads, and to work in the school gardens." The school is one of the most completely organized of its kind in India.

The Committee have the satisfaction of recording the independent testimony of the Government Inspector to the general education imparted in the schools of the Society. The following is an abstract of a lengthened report presented to the Governor of Madras by the Rev. J. Richards—

I now proceed to report on the Church Missionary Society's Native English School at Palamcotta, which I visited and examined on two several occasions. . . . The result was highly satisfactory. I have no hesitation in declaring my judgment, that in the knowledge of English these boys surpass any that I have examined out of Madras. They showed a sound and accurate acquaintance with the structure of the language; they were able to give, with much precision, the meanings of difficult words, both in English and Tamil, together with their synonymes; to analyze sentences, and very fairly to paraphrase them; and my questions elicited a considerable amount of general intelligence. . . . So pleased was I with the two senior boys, that I did not hesitate to offer them situations as Tahlook schoolmasters, which I have reason to believe will be accepted.

After the above statement, you will not be surprised at the expression of my opinion that the school is in a high state of efficiency, which I attribute mainly to the character and attainments of the head master, Mr. Cruickshanks. He is in some respects a remarkable man, an East Indian, considerably advanced in years, and totally blind. But, with all these disadvantages, I have no hesitation in saying that he is one of the most efficient schoolmasters whom I have seen in this country. . . . He has immediate charge of the first and third classes. This, I think, is a remarkably good arrangement, for it enables him to provide that the boys whom he is to instruct in the higher subjects shall be previously well grounded in the lower. It shows, moreover, that he is willing to spare himself no labour in order to promote the efficiency of his school.

Mr. Richards found, among the heathen inhabitants of the town of Tinnevelly, who petitioned for a school more accessible to their children, "a very general satisfaction with the education afforded in the Palamcotta school," notwithstanding the religious instruction there given; and arrangements have since been made to meet their wishes, by removing Mr. Cruickshanks' school to a point equi-distant between Palamcotta and Tinnevelly.

Mr. Richards next comments on the vicious system adopted in the ordinary Village Schools, in which, "as an almost universal rule, there is no attempt made to develop any other faculty of the mind but the memory." He proceeds as follows—

On examining the village schools in connexion with Christian Missions in the province of Tinnevelly, I find a marked superiority over others of the same class elsewhere, and that in spite of many serious disadvantages. . . . The superiority of these schools I attribute to the simple fact, that in them a book, one book only, is read, and read intelligently. The children are taught more or less to understand what they read, and thus the higher faculties of the mind are called into exercise. This book, I need hardly say, is the Bible, than which, probably, no other is better calculated to exercise these faculties; but I conceive any good class book thus read is likely to produce similar intellectual results, though in a less degree. . . . Throughout the obscurest hamlets of at present an inferior race in a remote corner of the peninsula, there is now going forward, through the medium of village schools, what I find nowhere else—a gradual development of the human mind, and a rapid diffusion of actual knowledge; and that not merely of the highest kind, bearing on the moral and spiritual interests of the people, but including much of a miscellaneous nature, bearing on their temporal interests likewise, which is, of necessity, incidentally conveyed. I have thought it of importance, also, to point out for our guidance what appears to me to be the one simple element of this success.

After detailing the results of his general examination of the village schools, Mr. Richards adds—

In the above remarks I have taken no account of the scriptural instruction imparted, which, I need hardly say, forms the prominent feature of the course. In order to enable you to form an estimate of its extent, I will state some of the results of my observations. Here, as elsewhere, the first classes of the various schools were taken together for examination, and I found that they had generally read the whole Tamil Bible; that they had committed to memory the Catechism of the Church of England; two other Catechisms, known as the Doctrinal and Historical Catechism, and selections of scripture texts; and they were able to give the most intelligent answers to questions on what they had both read and learnt. The second classes had read more or less of the Tamil New Testament, and were able to repeat the ten commandments, &c., and answer questions upon them. . . .

I would only further observe on this subject, that so great an extent of scriptural knowledge as I have above indicated, viewed simply as knowledge, communicated to a large body of children, can hardly fail to have the most powerful effect in elevating the condition of the race to which they belong; and I cannot avoid expressing my deliberate opinion, that this is the most successful effort for the improvement of indigenous education which has been yet made in India.

Mr. Richards then makes

A few observations on the boarding-schools. As a general rule, each Missionary has two schools of this description—a boys' and a girls'—attached to his principal station, and, in almost every instance, located in his own premises. Here they receive a superior education to that given in the village schools, under the immediate superintendence of the Missionary, and, in the case of the girls, of the Missionary's wife. . . .

The most pleasing feature in the Missionary school system is unquestionably the girls' boarding-schools. Their instruction is almost entirely vernacular, but, in addition to a sound scriptural education, with a little instruction in geography and arithmetic, they are taught to sew; and, what is of still greater importance, are brought into continual contact with European ladies, and learn to acquire their habits. The manifest influence of this training on their manners, their general bearing, and even on their physical condition, presented a most gratifying spectacle.

With regard to the schoolmasters, Mr. Richards says—

I would only observe, generally, that they were selected, for the most part, for their scriptural attainments: in other respects their standard is as yet low, compared with what it ought to be, though unquestionably higher than that of ordinary schoolmasters. The most promising feature in their case, however, is, that they show great eagerness to improve themselves.

He remarks, that the opening of the Training Institution at Palamcotta will improve the character and qualifications of the schoolmasters, and expresses his confident expectation "that hereafter it will be found useful to the Government."

"In conclusion," he writes, "I beg to commend to your special notice the efforts of both the great Missionary Societies for the extension of native education in the province of Tinnevely, as being full of promise, and well worthy the support of Government."

Consequent on this report, several grants-in-aid recommended in the course of it have received the final sanction of the Madras Government.*

TRAVANCORE AND COCHIN.

Native Pastorate.

The Travancore Mission exhibits the best proof of real progress in the fact that native congregations, which have been gathered together by the labours of European Missionaries, have now been committed to the charge of native clergymen. One of them labours under the superintendence of Mr. Baker, four under Mr. Peet. and one under the oversight of a zealous Missionary friend, who is an English chaplain at Cochin.

Cottayam.

The Rev. H. Baker, who has laboured for forty years in this Mission, writes in his annual review—

Although the returns do not show any considerable increase in the number of the people, or of the children in the schools, yet the Mission is gaining strength, and increasing in usefulness. Here, as in most parts, or in every other part, of the Mission field, as the light increases the darkness becomes more visible; and while we have to thank God for the grace bestowed upon many, the conduct of others shows to what amazing lengths in iniquity they who have not that grace are carried away by Satan. But the Lord reigns, and will bruise Satan under our feet shortly.

Mr. Baker bears this satisfactory testimony to the value of the assistance rendered by two of the recently-ordained native teachers—

The appointment of the Rev. Jacob Chandy to assist in this Mission promises much good, and the congregation at Olesha is already deriving much benefit from his residing in their midst, and visiting its members at their houses, and from his attention to the schools in that division of the Mission. He has been with us but a few months, Further accounts of the Tinnevely Mission are also given in the "Church Missionary Record" for Oct. 1856, pp. 237—239; Feb. 1857, pp. 31, 32; July, pp. 179, 180; and August (with a Map of South India and Ceylon), pp. 209—221; in the "Church Missionary Gleaner" for June and July 1857; and in the "Church Missionary Intelligencer" for August 1857 ("Conversions in connexion with the Educational department of the Tinnevely Mission").

and has been well received by those who are without our pale, both Syrians and heathen.

Many of the Syrian families in connexion with us, have their sons and nephews in the employ of merchants at Cochin. It is a great advantage to them in a pecuniary point of view, and some of them conduct themselves creditably, but their residence in such a place is a great snare to them. The appointment by the Society of a native minister there, in connexion with the Rev. T. Whitehouse, will, under the Divine blessing, be of eminent service to these young persons, some of whom have their families with them.

The Rev. Jacob Chandy, upon being placed in charge of the out-station of Olesha, made it his first endeavour to ascertain by personal intercourse the character of all the converts on the list. This scrutiny by one of their own countrymen, resident among themselves, led to the detection of many unworthy characters, so that the list was reduced in numbers; but the result of Mr. Chandy's labours has been encouraging, and a means of infusing new life into the congregation; so that there is a good prospect of an eventual improvement, both in the number and character of the native witnesses for the truth.

Pallam.

The Rev. E. Johnson reports some improvement in the congregations under his care in the Pallam district. He presented forty-nine candidates for confirmation to the Bishop in the visitation in March. He has bestowed much attention upon the schools of the district. "During the last six months," he writes, "I have made all the schoolmasters attend every Saturday, and have given them instruction in the New Testament, a translation of the abridgment of Bickersteth's Scripture help, and geography. Some of them were most shamefully ignorant of the gospel history. They are all improving, and appear to take a great interest in their lessons." Mr. Johnson has also commenced the instruction of the slaves by instituting a service for their benefit, and instructing their children at school. He writes, at the close of the year—"On Sunday, May 22, I had my first congregation, which I assembled in the verandah in the afternoon: eight men were present. Since then they have come regularly every Sunday afternoon, except when absent at hill harvest. Sometimes as many as thirty are present."

Mundakayam.

The Rev. H. Baker, jun., has laboured in the mountainous district, which is inhabited by the hill Araans, whose willingness to receive the gospel first allured the Missionary to take up his abode amongst them. In a review of his labours, dated Oct. 1856, he writes—

The report of my district is only a repetition of the old tale—much disappointment and many failings, but yet some show of fruit. I divide my present district into two parts, the Mundakayam and the Malkavu, about twenty-six miles distant one from the other. The inhabitants are gradually increasing, and of their general moral behaviour and attendance at the services I have no reason to complain. There are schools in each village, at which all the children are required to attend. In these villages there are nearly 300 baptized Araans and Preparandi. I hope to baptize nearly forty at Christmas. I have not yet administered the Lord's supper in these villages, as I thought a few years—two or three at the least—should be given to test their Christian character. I do think, however, I might admit several of the adults at Christmas, as I cannot but think them really sincere.

The Society's readers at Mundakayam and Malkavu are faithful working men, as are likewise the three teachers at Assapian, Mundakayam and Eermapara. I was much gratified some days ago to have a visit from a man, an old reader, formerly in the Pallam district, but who had been for nearly four years out of employ. He had been my principal assistant among the Cumbucutti Araans eight years since, and now, he said, "he had a son old enough to manage his property, would I suffer him to itinerate again in the hills." He left me before entirely from family circumstances; and coming, I hope, from a love to the hill people, for he has ample to live upon, I was but too pleased to receive him once again.

We have now four boarding-school girls settled at Mundakayam. This is a great point gained. Their knowledge and conduct, while it shames, insensibly leads other women to imitate and follow. Our slave school is still prospering. Many come, and then we hear nothing more of them; but the good news will stick by them in some measure. I hope I may be enabled to baptize some soon; but there are some difficulties yet to be removed. We average sixty each Sunday.

Mavelicare.

The Rev. J. Peet, in his half-yearly report at Midsummer 1856, gives this general view of the state of his own station, and of the Travancore Mission generally—

With gladness of heart, and gratitude unfeigned to the wise Director of all, I am enabled to report that some of the events which have transpired in the Travancore Mission during the present year are of such a highly-satisfactory and encouraging character, as to constitute a new era in its history, whence, with God's blessing, we may fairly hope to be able to report more comfort and more prosperity than it has hitherto been the lot of this Mission to enjoy. Among other causes that lead to this expectation, allow me to name the two following—

1. The comfort and strength derived from the presence, the counsel, and labours of our revered Bishop, especially at the confirmation and ordination services.

Besides being enabled to present numbers of our people for the confirmations held at each of the principal stations in Travancore and Cochin, the Church Mission Agents in these parts had the high privilege of presenting four of their native scholars to the Bishop for ordination; and, after due examination by his lordship, they were admitted to the office of clergymen at the ordination held at Cochin on March 16 of the present year.

These young men are wholly the fruit of the Church Mission in Travancore. Placed under its care in tender years, sheltered from the blighting influences of surrounding moral depravity, trained up in branches of human and divine knowledge calculated to benefit themselves and make them useful to their own countrymen, their instructors had the gratification of seeing the gradual good results of their unremitted labours—of seeing evidences of increasing desires, on the part of their pupils, to choose for themselves the better part, and to become fitted to show to others the way of salvation. Under these encouraging circumstances, our youths were stimulated to pursue their studies with a view to the office of the ministry; and at length their instructors had the happiness of being most conscientiously able to present them to our Bishop as qualified and suitable agents for the great and glorious work of preaching the gospel. In these men we see the fruit of the prayers of Christ's faithful people, and therefore have they a claim upon our sympathizing Christian friends, as well, indeed, as every true member of the church of Christ; and earnest prayers are now respectfully solicited on their behalf, for they much need them.

2. Another event that claims our thanks, and encourages our hearts, is the fact, that the hands of our bitter persecutors have been stayed, and that at present our church here has been rescued from the grasp of the oppressor.

Some few months since I made another direct appeal to the rajah of the country. This time official inquiry was instituted, and the end is, that my Christian people are not now molested on the ground of their religion, and the outward condition of this Mission is more peaceable and happy than it has been for years. To God be the praise!

As regards my own special Mission of Mavelicare, and those of Allepie and Tiruwella, now under my care, the whole of our work is now in full operation; nor, thanks be to God, do I know of any occurrences in these Missions sufficiently distressing or discouraging to require particular notice. Nor would such escape me, as I am out and about in the various districts great part of my time, and have others' eyes which would not fail to see and make known whatever is taking place. In this now very large sphere of action, my more immediate anxiety is rather to consolidate our work than to extend our operations, though giving special encouragement to our newly-ordained brethren to launch out as much as possible. Within our Mission sphere there is yet much to be done, and not a few wants to supply. Among the rest that call forth my attention and my energies, is our need of a new church. Since 1838, when I began the Mavelicare Mission, six substantial churches have been erected: the sixth has just been opened for divine worship, and will be tiled after the monsoon. Now we want, and must have, another, please God, at a place called Elantúr. This district lies at the foot of part of the range of hills that enclose Travancore, and, except in height, have much the appearance of the Nilgherries.

In addition to what the Elantúr people have already done, they will give me twenty rupees (2*l.*) towards the church; a sum not to be despised from small agriculturists, who have had to contend with bad seasons for several past years; but except this I have not a farthing in hand nor a rupee promised: and yet, while water conveyance lasts, I must be up and at it, or wait till another year has rolled away. Stone is being cut, shells are being collected to make chunam (lime), wood is being felled, and, should nothing unforeseen transpire, I hope by this next October the building will be in a good state of progress. But the twenty rupees are gone, and more besides; yet have I faith in a good cause, a necessary work. My object, let me repeat, is to erect a small, but, as the cheapest, a substantial church, neat, plain as possible, but one calculated to last through many years. Could any friends to Christ's cause assist me, so that I could get some 200 rupees (20*l.*) or so, I will see to the rest. At a place where buildings have not been erected it is always difficult to calculate exactly; but I estimate the expense will be covered by about 300 rupees (30*l.*).

This church has since been commenced. "On placing the first stone," in the presence of a large concourse of Protestant and Syrian Christians and heathen, Mr. Peet writes, "I said audibly, 'In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, I lay this first stone of a Christian church, to be raised to the glory of the one living and eternal God.' Upon which all, with united voices, uttered such a loud and hearty 'Amen' as thrilled through and through me. The people knew something of what they responded, and felt a conviction of the truth of our holy religion."

The Rev. H. Andrews reports of this district—

I have had many encouragements, especially in my bungalow school. I have been able to give about an hour daily to hear the English lessons, and to try to make the boys think. I expect much from my first class: the others are either very young, or late additions. The rich Syrians are becoming alive to the benefits of education, and no longer consider sending their children as a favour to us. I have six of the children of the chief families near: they board and lodge themselves, and the last comers pay a small monthly fee. This is a step in advance. Most of this superior class of boys are fine intelligent fellows, and their parents are much gratified at their progress. Most of the slaves attending our slave-school belong to these chief families. Their masters' favourable inclination is a great gain.

Thus far I have spoken chiefly on encouragements, and have many more besides to be thankful for; but, as may be expected, discouragements are not wanting. The greatest, perhaps, has been the relapse of nearly all the converts from heathenism at one of the out-stations, called Karakil. Many causes combined to give Satan this apparent advantage over us. About ten persons, including children, went back to heathenism. If it has led to more jealousy of their own hearts among others of the congregation, it has not been an unmitigated evil. I cannot help thinking, that if their former Missionary Mr. Hawksworth, had been still here, from his acquaintance with the question at issue, and influence over the disputants, this evil might not have happened. However, the adjoining slave-school has given me great encouragement. More than twenty have been baptized from it lately, and many more are candidates. On the whole, as one who has but scarcely entered upon another's labours, I have been greatly cheered by a general view of this Mission.

The native minister, the Rev. G. Matthan, reports of his station—

As to the congregation in this station, which is placed under my charge, I am thankful to say that it is increasing in numbers and improving in its condition. The former will be evident from its statistics, of which, as also of the slave-schools in this neighbourhood, you will have received a copy through the Rev. J. Peet. Some time after my location here, the total number in our communion fell below 320, while now it exceeds 450, notwithstanding a considerable relapse had taken place some time ago, on account of the persecutions raised at the time of the first baptism of slaves. The attendance on the means of grace is both numerous and regular. The Lord's-day is more strictly observed than it used to be. The occasional breaches of it, instead of being winked at as formerly, are brought to my knowledge by the people themselves, and the disapprobation with which the offenders are treated by them enables the minister to administer public censure with effect. Their moral conduct is quite praiseworthy, considering how loose their neighbours are in this respect. The Hindús and Syrians, in the midst of whom they live, bear witness to their superiority in this respect. I have heard it several times remarked, by some intelligent and influential Nairs, that since the gospel religion—a name by which Protestantism is known here—was established among our people, not only drunkenness, adultery, thieving, and other vices, formerly very common, were almost banished from among them, but also evil spirits were obliged to run away from the place, there being scarcely any instances of demoniacal possession, real or imaginary. Any failure of good conduct on the part of any of our people is at once noised abroad, and made matter of reproach, as inconsistent with their high profession, while worse instances in others excite no surprise, and are passed over without censure. I remark upon this subject, not because I think that good moral conduct in any person affords a sure criterion of his being under the influence of true religion, but because the contrary would be a fatal proof of his being a stranger to its power. We are, however, often comforted and encouraged by our heavenly Father with positive evidences in individuals of their being new creatures in Christ Jesus.

Mr. Matthan, in his journal, records the following instance of steadfastness in a family under great trials. One of the principal families in the congregation fell into deep affliction by the death of three members of the family within a short period, which was generally attributed to the anger of a god who was to be appeased by an offering in his temple. The strength of this temptation cannot be sufficiently understood in a Christian land, but here it was a severe temptation. "The father of the family silenced all the counsels of his friends, who urged him to appease the demon by paying an accustomed offering, by expressing his determination to bear the grief of seeing the death of all his remaining family, and, last of all, to meet it himself in its most terrible form, rather than lose his immortal soul by such a palpable act of idolatry." This occurred some years ago. The father at length died, and his widow was left with some very promising children. Two of the most hopeful were suddenly cut off. The temptation which had once assailed her husband now returned upon her. Her minister went to see her, and spoke to her upon the subject. "She said, with tears in her eyes, that though she believed the season to be one of trial to herself, she would rather part with all her children, than do any thing which would ruin her immortal soul."

The newly-ordained native minister, the Rev. Jacob Therian, describes his pastoral charge at Kunnít in these simple terms—

One great good I thankfully observe in them, is their obedience: always willing to acknowledge their faults, but, like children, falling into the same mistakes over and over again. They must be tenderly treated, and it requires much patience in dealing with them. I have a daily evening prayer-meeting in my house, when all my neighbouring brethren attend, and we read a chapter and have a short exposition of it, Besides, we have a monthly meeting held in the houses of our people by turns, when a feast is given to all the members, which, being concluded, we have the reading of the Scripture and prayer. As an instance of their willingness to give out of their poverty for the services of Christ, I might mention that each one of them has set apart one of the best cocoa-nut trees in his compound, the fruit of which is to be devoted to casting a bell for the church. Like the Shanar people of Tinnevely, toddy-drawing is their chief trade.

Slaves of Travancore.

The Rev. G. Matthan takes the following summary review of the effect of the gospel upon the slaves of Travancore, to which allusion has frequently been made in previous reports—

The movements among the poor and degraded class of slaves form a bright exception to the state of things among the Hindús. The enemy, by his infernal machinations, has not been able to shut the opening among them, but, through the grace of God, it is becoming more and more wide. The natural enmity of their heart is not backed by the prejudices of caste, the pride of high birth, and the allurements of a pompously-ceremonial religion, as is the case with the higher classes. Or it may be that God wants to show that Christianity still retains its original character of operating in an order different from that of human improvements; for while these originate among the higher classes, and descend gradually to those in the lower grades of life, the gospel was first more generally received by the poor and despised of the world, the rich and the noble, with few exceptions, having had to follow their example. The work among the slaves began under the most inauspicious circumstances. The different classes of the people, both Christians and heathen, laying aside their mutual quarrels for a while, united in a body to oppose our efforts. The schoolroom where these poor creatures met on Sunday for prayer and hearing the word of God, was more than once set fire to and reduced to ashes. The slaveowners, who imagined that, with the moral improvements of their living property, their hold upon them would cease, persecuted them in the most cruel and relentless manner. Protestant slaveholders alone, with the rest of our people, were favourable to the instruction of these poor creatures. Upon them, also, a share of the persecution fell. They were represented to be generally polluted with their protégées, in consequence of their association with them without regard to caste observances, and were, for a while, subjected to the most ignominious treatment, as that which is usually given to the Pulayas. The village washerman, barber, and others, were prohibited to do their work for them, in consequence of which they were compelled to get others to supply their wants. Many of the slaves, also, were driven to the necessity of running away, and taking refuge in places where their masters could not hurt them. This was a severe loss to their infant congregation here, and continues to be so, for the refugees are, with reason, afraid to return. But it is not so to the cause in general, for these men did not forsake their profession of Christianity, but carried the word of God with them, and spread a knowledge of it among their fellow-slaves in other places; a clear proof, among others, of the reality of the work in their hearts. Thus, chiefly through their instrumentality, schools were opened at Mundakayam, Mr. Baker's principal station, and, through the influence of their example, others at Kawiur, Mepra, and Perunturity, stations in the Tiruwella district. We are at present permitted, through God's blessing, to carry on our work more peaceably. This is mainly attributable to an edict virtually abolishing slavery by the order to the courts of law to take no cognizance of disputes about the ownership of slaves, and to make no distinction between crimes against these and others.

Some interesting particulars occur in the journals of the Rev. Oomen Mamen, a native minister, of the work which is going forward in one of the places mentioned by Mr. Matthan as having had the gospel first introduced by fugitive slaves—

April 21, 1856—Mepra. At six P.M. I reached the slave school. Notice being previously given that all the inquirers should meet in the school this evening, Púwen, the leading man here, and his family, were present on my arrival. Most of the inquirers were present this evening. Two of the slaves brought three lamps and a large quantity of oil. I have never met such a large and interesting company of slaves flocking to our school in so clean and neat dress as on this occasion. I expressed my high opinion of cleanliness, and told them to learn to wash their clothes hereafter. We first sang our favourite hymn, "Jesus alone (is our) trust," then prayed together. On rising from our knees I saw a youth weeping. On my inquiring into the cause of it, he said he wept for his sins. This gave me occasion to preach from 1 John i. 7, "The blood of Christ." Explained the vileness of sin—the death of Christ as the only remedy for sin—the necessity to love Christ—the curse of God resting upon all who do not love Him. (1 Cor. xvi. 22.) All present were deeply attentive: many listened with tears. I sat down and inquired into their trials. They informed me that twenty-seven of them are desirous to be baptized as soon as possible, as they are not kept back by any peculiar hindrance. Among the forty-three slaves present on this occasion, three belonged to heathen masters. One of them, being forbidden to attend divine service, replied to his master, "Sir, God made heaven and earth in six days, and He did not work on the seventh, so that I cannot work on that day: I am wholly at your disposal during the remaining six days." Convinced by this simple statement, the master answered, "If so, you must not work on Sunday." A second slave informed me that his master is much opposed: still, he attends the school without his consent. He said, further, that he was hindered from attending the school two or three Sundays during the late harvest. A third slave came from a great way off: he said, because his master was bitterly opposed he used to attend the school by stealth. He is a nice young man: he expressed his distress because he had no friends for encouragement at the place he lives in. A few young men complained that their wives are opposed to this religion. I think in no other school we have at present so many inquirers as in this.

I cannot express the joy I felt on this occasion. While we were engaged in these holy exercises, the heathen slaves met in a neighbouring devil-temple, to spend the night in singing and shouting in honour of a goddess. We concluded our meeting with prayer.

Another native minister, the Rev. Koshi Koshi, records this touching fact—

The baptized slaves are going on very well. Last Sunday, after divine service at Karakil, I called at the house of a wealthy Syrian, who told me, that, in the stillness of the night, he could hear in his house the united voices of men, women, and children, from their different huts, praying and praising God in the most fervent manner.*

ALLEPIE.

This station has been under the superintendence of Mr. Peet during the last year: a resident Missionary will shortly be located there. Mr. Peet writes, at the close of the year—

The statistical returns for the Allepie Mission show a large diminution in numbers, though happily the church has, to my mind, no cause for regret on that account, as the people have not forsaken their religion, but gone to other places for employment, and one of the out-stations has been included in the Tiruwella Mission. Of the scattered Allepie congregation, some are at the Mauritius, and others at Ceylon, but the far greater part are at present located at Cochin, where Divine Providence has, as manifestly as graciously, provided for their spiritual sustenance.

The remaining congregation at Allepie is much deserving our sympathy, consisting for the greater part of the Cooly class, and residing in the midst of large numbers of highly-influential Moham-medans and Papists, many of whom are constantly using the most insidious arts and disgraceful means to entrap our poor people.

COCHIN.

Cochin is a seaport town, occupying a central position between the most northerly and southerly stations of the Travancore Mission. It was for many years a station of the Society, and enjoyed the zealous labours of the Rev. Samuel Ridsdale; but was given up when there was a paucity of Missionaries, as other stations, more purely Missionary, seemed to prefer a prior claim. Four years ago, a zealous friend of the Society, the Rev. Thomas Whitehouse, was sent to Cochin by the Madras Additional-Clergy Society, to minister to the English congregation. He found some fruit yet remaining of former labours amongst the natives, and also many converts from other stations, who had flocked thither to obtain employment. He immediately commenced with Mission schools, and obtained a native reader to collect a congregation together. At the commencement of last year the Society undertook to supply a native minister for the station, to be under the superintendence of Mr. Whitehouse, and to receive a part of his salary from local funds. The Rev. George Curien was therefore ordained for this station, by the Bishop of Madras, in March 1856. He has a congregation of 200 native Christians, twenty-seven having been baptized during the last year, with forty-seven communicants. Mr. Whitehouse gives the following report of the station, in a letter, Jan. 9, 1857—

Should God spare me to labour here a few years longer, I hope to see our little native-Christian community so organized and established, and, at the same time, made so far self-supporting, that, with God's blessing, we shall hear no more in Cochin of the Protestant native church being broken up, and its members scattered to the winds. Believing, too, as I do, that I can find no greater security on earth for the continuance of sound evangelical teaching than by maintaining inviolate a close connexion with your Society, it will be my constant endeavour, God helping me, to strengthen our bonds of union by every means in my power.

With regard to the native congregation immediately under my supervision, I think I can already see some tokens for good resulting from the valuable assistance rendered by our native pastor. It is composed, as you may imagine, of "a mixed multitude," since they are gathered together from all the stations round, and are not always the most satisfactory or hopeful members of your native congregations.

One thing we can say that is satisfactory of all, that they are, where health and age permit, striving to get their own living, working with their own hands, and not being burdensome to the church.

My native brother, who labours with me, I am thankful to say, seems to have gained the respect of the religious community here, both European and native. His general bearing is so humble and unassuming, that many, who looked upon his appointment with doubting, have become his friends. In order to lead the congregation to understand his position as a regularly-ordained minister, it has been my practice, ever since his ordination, to let him assist me in the monthly administration of the Lord's supper to the European congregation, which has had the happiest effect, and tended, I think, in some measure, to do away with the caste feeling, which cleaves even to those who, in other respects, are right-minded Christians, and which manifests itself in an unreasonable prejudice against any who have a black skin. I believe the native community generally respect him, and he is acquiring increasing influence, and exerting that influence in season and out of season for their spiritual good.

On the subject of education I would just add, that the efforts of the Church Missionary Society in former years have not been lost: they are still fruitful in good; for out of my East-Indian and Indo-Portuguese assistants, three owe all the knowledge of the Christian truth they have to Mr. Ridsdale's Christian schools, and two others are the children of another of Mr. Ridsdale's pupils. I might mention yet another young man, William Da Costa, also trained in Mr. Ridsdale's schools, who, after serving faithfully as second teacher in our Church-of-England Free-school with satisfaction to the Trustees, became head master of the Church-of-Scotland Mission-school at Cochin. Here he was permitted to labour for several years, witnessing a good confession before all men, until suddenly cut off by cholera a few months after my arrival at Cochin, leaving a name still honoured by God's people in this place. That interesting convert, too, of Mr. Ridsdale's, Rama Warma, the son of the Cochin rajah, who was baptized in 1835 by the name of Constantine, after a long faithful service as a catechist in connexion with the Bâsle Missionaries on the coast, was ordained by them a few months since at Cananore. Such events as these verify the promise, "Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days."

I have been here now four years. During this time my neighbour, the Bishop of Verapoli, on several occasions has hurled his anathemas at our Protestant schools, forbidding all Roman-Catholic children attending them, and making a succession of attempts at establishing a school of his own in the place; but they have never outlived three or four weeks, until within the last half-year, during which time an Irish layman of education, and a zealous Roman Catholic, staying in Cochin, has so stirred up his co-religionists, that a more serious attempt has recently been made than heretofore, and two Italian priests are now living in the fort, to superintend the education of the Roman-Catholic children.

Though this is now an essentially Romish place, the high value the Romanists set on our Protestant schools, the decided preference they give to them, and the unrestricted manner in which they confide the children to our care, to be taught the whole truth as it is in Jesus, is something astonishing. Surely the great Head of the church has given us favour in the eyes of this people for some merciful and gracious end, which will, we doubt not, eventually issue in many amongst them seeing the errors of an apostate church, and learning to love and embrace the word of life, which is able to save their souls.

TRICHÚR.

The Rev. H. Harley reports of his district—

In June last I baptized fifteen individuals, and of these nine were adults and converts from heathenism, living at Peyramangalum. There are several more heathen under instruction, who will be baptized in due course; and it is not improbable, that, when the means of grace are afforded, many more will place themselves under instruction. The cause of so many coming over to Christianity here is owing to seed sown many years ago. When I first came to Trichúr I established a school at Peyramangalum, by which means many heathen acquired a knowledge of Christianity. The seed lay dormant for a long period, but now the fruit begins to appear, and may it yield an hundredfold! Here is a direct benefit resulting from vernacular schools, as the people themselves have now acknowledged; and there can be no doubt, as subsidiary means, they are of much benefit to Missionary work.

Mulicherry has been given up as a station for the present, the converts from Popery not being satisfied without a resident Missionary, which the means of the Society will not enable the Committee to supply.

Kunnankullam District.

The Rev. J. G. Beüttler has continued to labour in this district, and has been tried by many disappointments. In the review of his labours at the close of the year he writes—

Looking back upon the past year, I must, in candour, say I have not met with the success I anticipated. There are some Demases and some Alexanders, who do me much evil. Until these hindrances are taken out of the way, my chief work will be to preach in the lanes and high roads. And, after all, sowing is the first work in a new Mission. In Malabar, a cultivator has to wait from seventy to ninety days before he can gather in his harvest of paddy; and ought we not, in gathering in a spiritual harvest, to wait patiently as many months?

The railway also offers an interesting field for preaching the gospel. As it runs only twelve miles north from here, and the engineer of this district being himself a pious man, I have been several times during the year, and my way of proceeding is this—I call one set of Coolies, who generally work in gangs from 50 to 200, under some tree, and make them squat down for half an hour to hear my message. At the end I ask some questions, and then go on to the next gang. Thus I have sometimes been able, in one morning, to preach the gospel to several hundred people. Most of the Coolies are very ignorant, and come from a number of isolated houses throughout the district: therefore this kind of preaching is like seed cast upon the waters, which may be carried no one knows whither. I feel assured the Railway Company will not be the loser by my thus stealing half an hour from the Coolies' working-time.*

Masulipatum.

The chief feature of this Mission is the English school, under the care and superintendence of Mr. Noble, of which another Missionary at the station, Mr. Sharkey, emphatically says—"A great work is in preparation in Mr. Noble's school, in reference to his young converts." The general influence of the sound education here given, and of the Christian character of the superintending Missionary, have exercised a salutary and conciliating influence upon all classes throughout a wide district.

The number of converts in this Mission, of the Telugu-speaking population, is one hundred, and of the Tamil, fifty. Of the congregation Mr. Sharkey thus writes in his annual letter—

Our Sunday services, conducted in Telugu, in Mr. Noble's English schoolroom, have been attended by upwards of 125 souls. For about an hour before the evening service, the young as well as the old, formed into various classes, are instructed by Mr. Noble's converts, whose aid we greatly appreciate, and by Mrs. Sharkey's grown girls. Many of the adults, thus carefully and regularly instructed, make good use of their memories, and afford satisfaction to their teachers. They are most of them poor and illiterate, and belong to the lower orders.

The number of baptisms during the past year is twenty-five. Eight of these were cases of infant baptism, and all the rest of adult. Mr. Sharkey reports—

We mention, with heartfelt praise to God, the consistent walk in general of all our converts, male and female. Our covenant God has indeed kept them, by His mighty power, though beset by numerous enemies, the most insidious and powerful being their own corrupt and deceitful hearts. Some of our young people have, we have reason to think, maintained, in numerous trying circumstances, a calm and patient reliance on the precious promises of Him who is the "faithful and true witness:" others, again, have evinced considerable growth in knowledge and grace. They have, indeed, been gathered, led, and fed, by their great and good Shepherd working in them that which is well-pleasing in His sight.

Education.

In the schools of this station the industrial system has been wisely combined with education. Mr. Sharkey reports—

The vernacular school for boys contained, at the end of the last half-year, twenty-one lads. One half of the day is devoted to study of an elementary kind, and the other half to the trade of weaving, to hat, mat, and umbrella making.

Mrs. Sharkey's female boarding-school prospers. The number on the list at the close of the year was sixty-six. The elder girls continue a great help and comfort to Mrs. Sharkey. The school is partly supported by the proceeds of the sale of the girls' plain and fancy work. The younger children are employed in the afternoons at their spinning wheels. The cotton so spun is woven into coarse cloth by our boys, which is next printed and converted into wearing apparel for the girls.

In 1847 there was only one baptized girl in the school: there are now thirty-three baptized. We have reason to believe that several of them are God's own children.

A public examination of this school took place at the close of the year, at which Mrs. Cotton presided, who has kindly furnished the following account—

In compliance with Mrs. Sharkey's request that I should convey on paper my impressions of the very interesting public examination of her girls'-school, with a view to gratify the many friends in England who have for years supported several children under her charge, I have much pleasure in recalling the scene of this morning, which, from having resided now some years in Masulipatam, I have often seen repeated, and always with increasing satisfaction. The flourishing state of this native girls'-school is a speaking test of the energy and capacity which, in spite of surrounding prejudice and apathy, have successfully pursued a great object. For when we see the material out of which warmhearted, lively, intelligent Christian characters are formed, we can hardly over-estimate the greatness of the work, or the piety and love which prompted it. We saw to-day upwards of sixty Telugu girls, who had been, some nine years, and varying from that period down to a few months, under Mr. and Mrs. Sharkey's roof. By their exertions and prayers, and the help of their Christian friends, these girls are fed, clothed, and, judging from the improvement every six months, blessed with instruction of a very superior order.

Ellore.

The Rev. G. English has continued at this station in charge of an English school, and has availed himself of the opportunities in his power of making known the truth. No late accounts have been received of the work.

COLOMBO AND COTTA DISTRICT.

THE Rev. I. Wood having been compelled by ill-health to visit England, the Rev. G. Parsons removed, in June 1856, from Baddagame, to take charge of the Cotta district. The Rev. H. Whitley has continued in charge of the Colombo district, assisted by the native minister, the Rev. C. Jayesinhe, till Mr. Jayesinhe was removed to Baddagame. The Rev. C. C. Fenn has conducted the Cotta Institution, with the assistance of Mr. Barton, a trained schoolmaster. Mr. E. R. Clarke has been compelled to retire from the Mission through ill-health.

Colombo.

The Mission church in Colombo amply fulfils the hopes in which it was established, both by interesting the European congregation in the work of the Society, and by affording a centre of Missionary operations for the heathen in its neighbourhood. Four full services are regularly held each Sunday, two in English, one in Tamil, and one in Singhalese. The congregation is about 100. Mr. Whitley writes—

Taking, as a test, that to which most persons look first, the liberality of the congregation, we may notice that 220*l.* has been contributed in the year to various direct and indirect Missionary purposes, exclusively from members of the Mission Church congregation. But we can point to other than pecuniary assistance. The congregation supplies us at least with some gentlemen who are willing to aid us with their counsel as members of the Committee of the Church Missionary Association, and with some ladies who manifest a personal interest in our female-schools. By the exertions of the Ladies' Committee, funds are raised which go a considerable way towards the support of the girls'-schools in Slave Island and at St. Sebastian. While, then, there are many other friends of the Society who are not members of the congregation of the Mission church, it is from the latter we derive the greatest assistance. We are thankful for these tokens for good. May the Spirit be poured out upon us from on high, that soon more energy may be put forth, and more influence exerted on behalf of heathen souls.

Before quitting this part of the report, I may add, that when Mr. Knight was in Colombo, he kindly met several members of the congregation at my house, and gave varied and interesting information respecting his tour in South India. This was the beginning, or rather revival, of a monthly Missionary meeting of a few who are interested in the cause. Though our numbers have seldom exceeded a dozen, yet we have kept up the meetings regularly. An address has been delivered, with statistical and other information, for about an hour, when we close with reading of the Scriptures and prayer.

The usual labours in preaching in the village schools, and other stations throughout the Colombo and Cotta districts, have been maintained throughout the year. The local report, published by the Missionaries on the spot, states—

As far as the progress of the work is concerned, we are thankful to say, that, judging from those facts which meet our view, the close of this year seems to leave us in a better position than that in which we stood at its commencement.

In the Colombo and Cotta district we have continued indications of the decline of Buddhism and the increase of an external attachment to Christianity—not unaccompanied, we trust, in many hearts, with that “faith which worketh by love.”

The average number of attendants at divine worship in this district is about 3000, 1200 or 1300 of whom are adults. Of the adults, few, comparatively speaking, derive any secular benefit from their attendance. Some advance has been made, though not to the extent that could have been wished, towards realizing the very important and desirable end of obtaining from the native Christians pecuniary subscriptions for religious purposes. English Christians are right in regarding this as an indispensable test of sincerity. In Pita Cotta, one of the poorest villages in the district, about 7*l.* has been raised, exclusively from the natives, during the last twelve months. The Christians of some other villages have supplied labour, materials, and money, towards the erection of churches or chapels.

The whole number of scholars in this district amounts to exactly 1900; and we have no hesitation in saying that the schools are, on the whole, in a more efficient state than they were at the beginning of the year. We frankly admit that there is still much room for improvement.

This was the beginning, or rather revival, of a monthly Missionary meeting of a few who are interested in the cause. Though our numbers have seldom exceeded a dozen, yet we have kept up the meetings regularly. An address has been delivered, with statistical and other information, for about an hour, when we close with reading of the Scriptures and prayer.

The usual labours in preaching in the village schools, and other stations throughout the Colombo and Cotta districts, have been maintained throughout the year. The local report, published by the Missionaries on the spot, states—

As far as the progress of the work is concerned, we are thankful to say, that, judging from those facts which meet our view, the close of this year seems to leave us in a better position than that in which we stood at its commencement.

In the Colombo and Cotta district we have continued indications of the decline of Buddhism and the increase of an external attachment to Christianity—not unaccompanied, we trust, in many hearts, with that “faith which worketh by love.”

The average number of attendants at divine worship in this district is about 3000, 1200 or 1300 of whom are adults. Of the adults, few, comparatively speaking, derive any secular benefit from their attendance. Some advance has been made, though not to the extent that could have been wished, towards realizing the very important and desirable end of obtaining from the native Christians pecuniary subscriptions for religious purposes. The whole number of scholars in this district amounts to exactly 1900; and we have no hesitation in saying that the schools are, on the whole, in a more efficient state than they were at the beginning of the year. We frankly admit that there is still much room for improvement.

The testimony of Mr. Parsons to the state of the work in the Cotta district is the more valuable and interesting, as of one in temporary charge of the post of an absent brother, and able to compare it with his own station at Baddagame. He writes—

To one whose business in this instance it is to report upon the results of others' labours, rather than of his own, it is a source of pleasure, and a cause of deep thankfulness to God, to be able to state that there is a great and lasting work going on.

As all the catechists preach on Sunday, it seems only kind to them to allow them Saturday for private study. Instead, therefore, of coming to the bungalow for prayers on Saturdays, as hitherto, I requested them to come on Wednesdays, when, after prayers together with the Principal, masters, and students of the Institution, in English, we spend three or four hours together, studying the Scriptures, theology, the preparation of sermons, and the nature of a catechist's duties generally.

On Saturdays the schoolmasters of the district assemble for prayer, and instruction in the art of teaching. I have been led to regard the duties of these two days as, next to the preaching of the gospel, the most important part of my work. I fully believe one hour spent in confidential intercourse with the native helpers worth a day spent in the district; but I do not mean that it should supersede visiting altogether.

Taking a general survey of the whole district, it appears evident that the work has taken a deeper hold on the parts of the district nearest Colombo, and less in those which extend into the country. This is as it should be, and the principal reason is, that the people of the parts nearest have been very much longer under instruction than those of the more distant parts. But this leads us to the confident expectation that a patient continuance of the plans hitherto adopted, when modified only so far as time and circumstances demand, will, with God's blessing, produce a wide-spread and lasting effect over the whole of the Cotta district. In some of the villages to which we refer, professed Christianity has already outgrown heathenism. And though, as a measure of success, we regard this as scarcely worth noticing, as an index to mark the course of events it is valuable, I have been the more careful to mark these features, because I wish to carry back with me to the south enlarged experience, and some tried principles, for my future guidance. And my observations have led me to these two conclusions with regard to the mere human agency of Missionary work—not, of course, forgetting for a moment that the Holy Spirit is both independent of means, and the sole cause of every really good effect: 1st. Though, as Baddagame has proved, to build a costly edifice for the worship of God among a people wholly unable to appreciate it, is unwise, still I think local funds are well applied when spent in building a suitable church in any town or village where the people have even an outward attachment to Christianity. There is a marked difference in the regularity of the congregation, and an outward growth, where churches and chapels have been built; and therefore I would do my utmost to provide every portion of the Cotta district with a suitable church or chapel; and, that we may not be burdensome to the Home Committee, would strive, from local resources, to aid the natives to do these things for themselves, and to draw out their resources. In one or two instances I have adopted the plan of guaranteeing a fixed proportion, say a half, or two-thirds, of the whole cost, upon condition of the remainder being promptly contributed by the natives themselves. 2dly. I am confirmed in the opinion, that the work of evangelization should proceed from the towns to the country, and therefore desire to see every little rising town occupied, as a focus whence the rays of gospel light might shine into the surrounding parts.

The review of the past, and the prospect of the future, are almost always bright pages in the history of any branch of Missionary labour. It is the present alone which sometimes appears clouded and dark. When looking forward to the future, our Christian faith reveals to us a glorious accomplishment of all that the great God has pledged Himself to perform: when reviewing the past, that a great work has been wrought is forced upon our attention. Ceylon, especially Colombo and its vicinity, is not now what it once was. Yet, since the commencement of the work to the present day, we have never heard of any sudden advance. All that has hitherto been achieved bears the impress of Him who is deliberate throughout His operations, accomplishing His ends by slow, successive steps. The work appears "slow" to "impatient" man; but the ripening of the summer fruits is not more certain than is the glorious result of our work, undertaken and prosecuted in dependence upon God's aid, and in faith in God's promises.

Mr. Parsons also gives the following encouraging account of one of the villages of the district—

The village of Gottatuwa, belonging to the Kalapaluwawa, under the charge of the catechist Daniel Jayesinhe, is a most interesting village. The people seem fully alive to the benefits of Christianity. We have occupied the village nearly a year. We were invited first of all to open a school. Mr. Jayesinhe, then in charge, accepted the invitation, and went into the village for that purpose. He found a large bana maduwa in course of erection. This is a temporary building for reading in public the discourses of Buddha. The ordinary means of erecting such a place is by the joint exertions of the whole population of the village. The school was opened, and a service commenced, and many of those engaged in the construction of the heathen place of worship left off, and attended the Christian service. The remainder, finding themselves unequal to the work, remonstrated, but in vain, with their wiser neighbours. The maduwa was therefore left unfinished, and is fast crumbling to the dust, affording an illustration of the decline of Buddhism in the village, as the Christian school is an evidence of the rise of Christianity, and the dawn of a brighter day. Since Mr. Jayesinhe's first visit, the people have, of their own accord, and without any assistance from the Society, built a neat and commodious schoolroom. I was invited to come and open it for divine service, which I accordingly did on Sunday, August 3, 1856. The room was crowded, and I had a very attentive audience. A few weeks after that, I was invited over to select a piece of land for building a church, and to preside at a public meeting for the purpose of setting on foot a subscription list for the building. On reaching the schoolhouse, my attention was arrested by a pulpit which had been made and placed in the school since my former visit. The meeting was held, and a subscription list commenced. The subscription amounted to 6*l.* 16*s.*

Education.

Cotta Institution.—Under the zealous and able superintendence of the Principal, and very efficient co-operation of the Tutor, the Institution has not only maintained its position, but has made a very encouraging advance in all the main branches of an educational establishment.

The number of students at the end of the year was 40 residents, and 100 day-scholars, which is an increase of 40 during the last year. Contemporaneously with this increase, the fees have been raised. The present rate is, for resident students, 12*s.* monthly; for day-scholars, varying from 2*s.* to 6*d.* monthly, according to their place in the classes. The range of subjects over which the studies are carried extends into classics and mathematics, and is limited only by the length of time during which the students continue in the Institution. The boarders are children of families residing not only in the Cotta district, but at Colombo, and on the coast, both north and south of Colombo, and four are Kandians. "Lately, a young Buddhist priest came from Kornegalle, and threw off his robes in order to be admitted as a student, professing, at the same time, his indifference to Christianity." "The great majority of the day-scholars are sons of influential natives in the different villages of the Cotta district. Not a few of their parents are heathen, but probably very few of the sons of these heathen parents will leave the Institution with any attachment to Buddhism, and almost all of them with a strong attachment to the Church Missionary Society." Mr. Fenn bears testimony to the valuable assistance rendered by his coadjutor, Mr. Barton, who was trained at the Highbury Training College. "Both as a teacher and as a trainer of teachers his efficiency seems to increase every year." There is a model vernacular school of 45 pupils attached to the Institution, which has required a great amount of personal labour on the part of the Principal and Tutor to bring it into a state of efficiency. But, as Mr. Fenn wisely observes, "it is of immense importance to have a few really superior vernacular schools, especially near the centre of our operations. When two or three of such have been formed, and firmly established, they may be kept up, and others of the same kind may be opened at a much less expense. Wherever such schools exist, vigorous exertions should be made to obtain pecuniary co-operation from the people, in the shape either of school fees or of subscriptions to the Church Missionary Society. Something of this kind had been endeavoured, it will be seen, in Pita Cotta and Pagodi. The head masters of both the vernacular schools connected with the Institution are pupil-teachers, and still carry on their own studies under Mr. Barton and myself." During the year two pupil-teachers have left, to become schoolmasters under the Society, and both of them give satisfaction.

Mr. Barton, in his annual letter, gives the following excellent description of the object at which he aims—

I have now been labouring in Ceylon for three years, and, during the whole of that period, all my energies have been devoted to the attainment of one object—endeavouring to gather the young Singhalese into the fold of Christ.

During the first year, I laboured, in my opening lessons, to make them familiar with the general truths and facts of the Bible. In the second, the leading doctrines of Christianity were fully set before them by Mr. Fenn. In the third year, I went through the principal prophecies which refer to the Saviour. There are improvements in the character of the educated Singhalese that encourage us to go on; as those changes are, I believe, traceable to the effects of a Christian education. There is more truthfulness and honesty, more energy and activity of mind, and, I trust, a far better state of morals, among those who have been made acquainted with the holy life and character of Jesus, the Son of God.

These changes may be the precursor of a great moral renovation among the Singhalese; and, should the God of all grace accompany it with the outpouring of His Holy Spirit, they will be important auxiliaries in building up a national and spiritual church of Christ in Ceylon.

The following are the concluding remarks of Mr. Fenn upon the annual review of the labours in the district—

On the whole, there can be no doubt that the last year has been, in this station, one of considerable external prosperity. The progress of the Institution, the great improvement of the Model Vernacular School, the successful establishment of a Pita Cotta Church Missionary Association, are points on which one may look back with feelings of much pleasure, and devout thankfulness to God. One thing only is wanting. We still long for greater indications of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. I do not say we are entirely without this. Were it certain that such was the case, we should indeed feel that all our efforts had been entirely lost labour. But I long for, pray for, and confidently, though humbly, expect, a large and abundant exhibition of divine power in the awakening of the careless, the conversion of sinners, and the quickening into spiritual growth and activity of the slumbering and torpid Christians. What is wanted is, that the hearts and affections of the Missionary, the catechist, and the native Christians, should be so constrained by the love of Christ, so filled with joy and peace in believing, they may gladly spend and be spent in making known to others that gospel which has been the source of such blessing to themselves. This must be sought for, and this, ere long, will be attained, by earnest and persevering prayer. "Though it tarry, wait for it: it will surely come, it will not tarry."

BADDAGAME.

In the Baddagame district the work has been carried on as in former years, and the effects of past labours are, perhaps, beginning to develop themselves. The absence of Mr. Parsons, who was required at Cotta to supply Mr. Wood's place, precluded any great extension of the work during the last year. There have been, however, twelve baptisms out of a number of fifty-six inquirers during the year. The schools have been efficiently carried on under the supervision of Mr. Jayesinhe, and the conduct of the Christians has been such as to afford him and their absent pastor, Mr. Parsons, great satisfaction.

The Rev. C. Jayesinhe reports upon this district, at the close of the year—

The congregation is, on an average, twenty-two adults and 141 children. These children are from the schools in the neighbourhood. Various means have been tried to improve the congregation, by visiting houses, entreating and admonishing the people, and by the distribution of tracts; but these means have not yet been effectual in rousing them from their lethargy. Heathen practices, such as the worship of Buddha, incantations to devils, and propiation of idol deities, prevail in and about Baddagame to a fearful extent; yet we have to thank God that our small congregation is steady and regular in attendance on the means of grace, and no instance of any thing contrary to the Christian character in any member of it has come to my notice during my stay among them. Yet temptations of a serious kind have lately abounded on all sides of them, tending to draw them aside from the simplicity of faith that is in Christ Jesus.

The three out-stations, namely, Kuttulanpitya, twelve miles from Baddagame, Balapitty Modera, sixteen miles, and Bentotte, 28 miles, have been visited by me. In each of these stations a catechist is placed, having under him one or two schools. The congregations at these out-stations are small and precarious Cottage lectures are held at Baddagame on week-days. Similar ones are held in the out-stations also. Nothing can be better adapted than these lectures to bring home to the hearts of these ignorant and careless people the truths of religion, but I am afraid few make such use of these opportunities as to know Jesus Christ as their Saviour.

KANDY.

The labours at this station are divided between the Rev. W. Oakley—who has the care of the station church and congregation at Kandy, and makes occasional visits into the neighbouring Kandian districts—and the Rev. E. T. Higgens, whose time is devoted to itinerating throughout the surrounding country. Mr. Oakley, in his annual report, writes—

We can neither report that there has been any large accession of new converts to the church, nor that we have met with many who may even be termed serious inquirers.

In our schools in the Kandian villages, however, there is much that appears both interesting and satisfactory. The amount of correct scriptural knowledge obtained by some of the older boys, and the frequent attendance of some of their parents on the days of examination, lead us confidently to hope for beneficial and permanent results in due time. There have been four adult baptisms during the year, and there are at present seven candidates for baptism.

The subject of a native pastorate having been brought before the members of the native congregation of the station, it is gratifying to report that they have very readily responded to the appeal. The list of subscriptions now amounts to about 30*l.* per annum.

Itinerating Labours.

The result of Mr. Higgens' itinerating labours cannot be expected to appear till God so bless the word in any one place, as to enable a few inquirers to be collected together for stated instruction and worship. In the mean time it is a work of much faith and patience, and at present it does not afford the interest or hopefulness which characterize the same work in India. Mr. Higgens makes the following touching remark in the course of one of his journals—

Aug. 12, 1856—Often, when wandering from place to place, up hill and down dale, with little or no success, even as far as collecting people is concerned, I almost envy our brethren in India, who can go into large villages and towns, with five, ten, and even twenty thousand inhabitants, and stand by their tent, or by an amblam, nearly the whole day, surrounded with listeners. Here the villages contain, on the average, only from twenty to fifty houses, scattered over a wide extent of ground, and perched on little nooks by the hill sides, far separated from each other, and a street is consequently a thing quite unknown. The people, too, are so thoroughly indifferent, and so destitute of any thing like curiosity respecting Europeans and their movements, that one might sit a whole day in an amblam and be but little more noticed by the inhabitants of the village than the paddy birds and crows.

Mission to the Tamil Coolies.

The Mission to the Tamil Coolies on the coffee plantations in the country around Kandy, to which allusion has been made in the last two Reports, has, during the past year, been fully organized, and presents many most encouraging signs of future success.

The Rev. Septimus Hobbs, who had long laboured as a Missionary in Tinnevely, was permanently removed to Kandy at the close of 1855. He is assisted by Tamil catechists from Tinnevely. The Society provides the stipend allowances of the European Missionary, and nothing else. The salaries of the catechists, and all incidental expenses, are borne by the owners and managers of the coffee plantations, and other friends. The Mission is an itinerating Mission. "As a general rule, catechists will only be sent to reside where the people profess a desire to forsake idolatry, and to receive a regular course of Christian instruction, and thus supply the catechist with a suitable field of labour." A few months after the commencement of the Mission, Mr. Hobbs opened a Tamil service on the Lord's-day in Kandy. Speaking of this event, he writes, Feb. 3, 1856—

I have now met with a very great many Tamil Christians from the coast at different times. I have chiefly seen them in very small groups, or quite singly; and the impression made on my mind by the intercourse which I have had with them is most favourable. Indeed, I see more reason than ever for gratitude to God on account of the great work which He is carrying on amongst the Tamil people. Every one who is able to read has his Bible or Testament with him, and it is abundantly evident that they prize these sacred books, and diligently use them. They deplore the absence—until within the last few weeks—of the public means of grace, in Tamil, in this place, in connexion with our church. And when it is known that these Tamil services have been resumed—never, I trust, to be again discontinued—I have no doubt that there will be a good congregation every Sunday, and sometimes—i. e. when many have come in from the estates—a very large one. But whether the Tamil Christians come into Kandy to the church services or not, I have no doubt that numbers of them "remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy," where-soever they may be, and that on other days, also, they do habitually pray alone, and sometimes in company also.

The following extract from Mr. Hobbs' journal will give a specimen of the large numbers of Tamil Coolies who come under the influence of Christian instruction, and of the readiness with which it is received—

Feb. 6, 1856—Assembled a group of Coolies at six o'clock in the morning at the R. estate. Went on to the store of the A. estate, and addressed another group, of about 150. Proceeded to the river, and addressed another group, but most of these were ignorant of the Tamil language, and therefore I was not understood by more than a very few. Returned to a shed, and breakfasted. After breakfast, addressed a fourth group, of about 100. Proceeded towards the bungalow of the ——— estate, and, by the way, addressed a fifth group, making in all about 600 persons addressed to-day on the subject of their souls' salvation. Almost all of them listened with great attention: one or two persons only turned away. Occasionally a remark was made by some of the persons addressed, and I encouraged them to speak.

At the place where we breakfasted I had asked the people assembled whether it was right to forsake the service of the God who made us, and worship devils. They answered, with apparent sincerity and feeling, "We cannot say that it is." One man said, "We do not worship devils now: we worship God since we came here." They were evidently ashamed of devil-worship.

The number of native teachers employed has been six. A great number of estates have been visited, and the gospel preached to many thousands of attentive listeners. Many have been awakened, and some have made a profession of Christianity. Four small congregations are in a process of formation and consolidation in different localities, besides a congregation of about 100 persons, who emigrated some years ago from a Mission of the London Missionary Society in South India, and have ever since made a creditable effort to keep up amongst themselves the public means of grace. They receive the ministrations of Mr. Hobbs and the catechists with pleasure and gratitude. At the close of the year Mr. Hobbs reports—

We calculate that we have had the privilege of addressing about 70,000 adult persons, on the great subject of their souls' salvation, within the last twelve months. The results we cannot calculate, but we see much encouragement. We have found only 370 Protestant Christians. But almost all the multitude of heathen have listened with great attention, and many have inquired further in private about the things which they have heard. I have met with some, who, having heard the gospel in Ceylon, returned to the coast, sought out the nearest Missionary, received further instruction, and were baptized.

JAFFNA DISTRICT.

The Rev. R. Pargiter and the Rev. R. Bren have continued to conduct this Mission, with the aid of eight native teachers. The statistics of the Mission are nearly the same as last year, a few new converts having been received, and a few of the older converts having removed to other stations. The reports of former years have spoken of measures adopted for upholding a spiritual standard among the converts, by the separation of those whose conduct was a disgrace to the Christian name. Mr. Pargiter, in his annual review at the close of the year, thus writes—

My last annual letter concluded with the hope that the past year might be one of good tidings, and that I should have to report some increase to our little company of believers in the Lord Jesus Christ.

The work of pruning, which we considered it necessary to attend to last year, has not been without its benefits. The garden has given signs of increased fertility; and though we have still to mourn over some who appear but very unfruitful trees in the soil, there is an evident progress in many others, and signs of earnestness and piety which cheer us, and lead us to trust that God is increasing within them His work of grace. To secure this has been the great object of our Sabbath ministrations and pastoral visits; and never did I see more the importance of securing this. Those in the church must be thoroughly alive to their eternal interests, and deeply concerned for others, before those out of it will be brought in. We must look to our Christians as centres of influence, as living examples of the power of Christianity to sanctify and make them holy. The absence of this has been the great deficiency hitherto in our churches. But, to secure this, much instruction, and much care and attention, as well as much forbearance and charity, are needed. I have never felt so much interest, or experienced so much pleasure, in ministering to the congregation, as during the past year. It has been to me a source of real delight, and I cannot but regard this as a sign of progress and success. The importance of a stricter observance of the Sabbath amongst our people has engaged my attention, and I hope to be able to report an advancement in this great duty. But it will be a work of time to bring the native mind up to a due appreciation of this day, so as to realize its privileges and blessings.

In reference to the general aspect of the Mission, Mr. Pargiter says—

Much preparatory work has been done. Education has broken the hold of Hindúism on the minds of very many: the ground has been turned up, the seed has been sown, but we want the Spirit. Our help is now, as ever, from above. We feel this more and more as the work advances. God has shown us what we can do. He has also shown us very plainly what we cannot do; and the present state of the Mission is one which calls us away from ourselves, and leads us direct to Him for His help, assistance, and blessing.

Mr. Bren notices—

We have been assisted in our work amongst the heathen by the liberality of the Bible Society, who have supported two colporteurs for a part, and one for a whole year, in permeating the villages, visiting every house, and either selling or giving a portion of Scripture to every one who could read, and who manifested a desire to receive it. Thus, both by preaching and circulating the word of God, the seed has been abundantly cast into the soil.

And again, January 21, "Christian truth is permeating society far more than appears by the number of those who join the church. Many of the people will acknowledge, that, notwithstanding the country remains heathen, the Missionaries—they should say the gospel—have changed the whole state of the land." The result of the sifting process to which we referred last year has been, happily, that while unworthy Missionary agents, dismissed for their serious shortcomings, "have gone back to their vomit again, or are living as heathen, never attending church," "the thoughtful and respectable portion of the population think that the Missionaries are beginning to see things in their proper light; that there are some sincere Christians in the land, whose influence is good, whose religion is the true one." But little advance has been made in the matter of self-supporting schools. Still, the Missionaries hope gradually, as opportunity offers, to make the people round them contribute according to their means. "We have," writes Mr. Bren, "furnished all the assistants, and large numbers of the children, with collecting cards this Christmas, that they may collect all they can. Last year the boys in the English school collected about 4*l.*; and this year, from all sources, we hope that amount will be at least doubled.

It appears that the device of Satan which has raised up Vedantism in India, to counteract the progress of the gospel, has a counterpart in Ceylon. Mr. Bren writes—

There is a class of young men who may be termed "young Sivites," under the direction and instruction of an influential Hindú, who are attempting to create a diversion in favour of the Siva religion amongst the youths who have listened to Christian truths; and it behoves us to act on the offensive, and carry our Christianity into the villages, in the shape of schools, if we would counteract that influence, and prevent its spreading abroad.

† Education.

The educational establishments of the Jaffna district are under the special superintendence of Mr. Bren, who reports that the Copay Tamil Training Institution has in many ways improved, and promises to fulfil the object for which it was established, of supplying the Mission with competent teachers. Of three students who left in March, he says—"They have since been engaged as teachers of vernacular schools, and have conducted themselves satisfactorily. They are the first-fruits, and, we trust, the pledge, of a better race of masters than we have hitherto been able to obtain." Of those now under instruction he says, they "prosecute their studies with diligence and regularity. They have greatly improved during the year, both intellectually and spiritually. There has been a seeking after God and divine things. Although many of the boys are, in name, heathen, in practice they are Christians. Six have been received into the church by baptism, and others are seeking admittance. The youths who were baptized* have all gone on well, but some of them have grown rapidly in grace and the knowledge of the truth. They have spoken, read, and prayed with their fellow-students, and urged them to flee to and follow Christ. The teachers are interested in the eternal as well as the temporal good of their pupils."

The Nellore Girls' Boarding-school is in a promising state. The Government inspector of schools was so much pleased with it, that he recommended an additional grant from Government. This, and the assistance of friends in England, will enable the Missionaries to support from twenty-five to thirty children.

The English school at Chundicully has made good progress, under a master trained at Cotta: the number of pupils has increased to seventy. The Government school inspector examined it for four days, and expressed himself gratified with the result.

The Vernacular schools have been frequently visited, and it is hoped that some improvement is manifest in their efficiency.

Not a little, the Missionaries think, has been already effected by education, though it be of a nature that does not attract much observation, and they look forward to the future with unabated hope. They put their trust in the power of the Divine Spirit, using as a means the preaching of the gospel, while, in order to obtain that blessing from above, they earnestly entreat their friends to aid them by their constant prayers.*

Mission Establishment :

1 Ordained European Missionary.

IN the year 1855 the Rev. David Fenn was compelled by the failure of his health to retire for a season from his labours in Tinnevely, and to seek a change of climate in the Mauritius. He there witnessed the zealous labours, among the Tamil Coolies, of a catechist employed as colporteur by the Madras Bible Society; and he assisted, as far as his health would allow, by preaching in Tamil. At the same time, a zealous friend of the Society being appointed to the see of Mauritius, the Committee felt themselves providentially called upon to open a Mission in that island, for the benefit of the Cooly emigrants, of whom 120,000 have migrated from India as free labourers, intending to return, after five years, to their native country. They are found more accessible to Missionary influence when freed from their old associations, and many, it is hoped, will carry back with them the knowledge of Christian truth. This Mission will afford the great advantage of a change of climate, in which many of the Indian Missionaries may recruit their health, or continue for years Missionary labours, in the languages to which they have been accustomed, which must have been brought to a premature close in India.

* Further accounts of the Ceylon Mission are given in the "Church Missionary Record" for Nov. 1856, p. 268, and April 1857, pp. 104—116.

The Rev. Stephen Hobbs, being advised to leave South India, was transferred to Mauritius in October 1856, and the change of climate has already proved very beneficial to his health.

In a letter dated December 26, Mr. Hobbs gives a hopeful account of the work already set on foot in this island. He says—"I have, to some extent, shared with Mr. Taylor"—a Colporteur in connexion with the British and Foreign Bible Society—"the duties of his little Tamil congregation. It numbers about fifty adults and about twenty children. Most of them are from congregations at Madras or Tanjore, and a few are recent converts, the fruits of Mr. Taylor's own labours. The congregation appears to me to be in a highly satisfactory state. The attendance is very regular, and the attention given to the word of God very marked. It cannot be doubted that the nucleus of a Tamil church is thus formed here, and firmly established."

The Committee have also appointed to this Mission Mr. Paul Ansorge, long a zealous catechist in the Kishnagurh district, but obliged to relinquish his labours in that country on account of health. Being familiar with the Bengali language, he will be able at once to take up that branch of the Cooly Mission.

CHINA MISSION.

General View of the Mission.

THE Committee have had the great advantage, during the last year, of the presence of the Bishop of Victoria, who has kindly assisted at their counsels, and has suggested such measures as the peculiar crisis of the Chinese empire has rendered necessary in the conduct of Missionary operations.

The last year has been one of dreadful events in the convulsed empire of China. Among the Imperialists there has been defeat in war, and famine and pestilence amongst their people. In the camp and city of the insurgents there has been treachery, the murder of rivals, and wholesale assassination of their adherents, to the extent of 30,000 at one time. At length a rupture has taken place between the Chinese local authorities at Canton and the British forces. Already the contest has opened with bloodshed, and the bombardment of a crowded city, but with no indication of fear or weakness on the part of the Chinese. England is sending out a formidable armament. The result cannot be predicted.*

Much anxiety will be necessarily felt with reference to the Missionaries of different Societies, who are dispersed along the coast at various posts of labour. In the Canton district, and more especially on the mainland opposite Hong Kong, their position has been a very serious one; but providentially life has been preserved, although the risk has been imminent.

At the more northerly ports, where the operations of this Society are conducted, the Missionaries, when the last despatches were forwarded, remained uninterfered with; although, so far as Fuh-chau is concerned, tidings of the events at Canton had reached the authorities, and were known to some extent among the people. Yet the Missionaries, although prepared to remove at an instant's notice, should circumstances compel them, pursued, without interruption, their usual occupations.

Amidst all these confused and threatening appearances, the Committee desire to realize the presence and power of God, and entertain the hope that He will not fail to overrule all for good.

Things appear to be on the eve of a great crisis. The Committee encourage the hope that the issue will be the breaking-down of those barriers which have hitherto shut us out, and that facility of access will be afforded to the thronging multitudes of the vast interior, so as to bring the full gospel as well to the insurgent as the Imperialist, to prince and peasant, to the high mandarin and the Chinese beggar. It is this which China needs, now, promptly, extensively, throughout the length and breadth of this woe-stricken land. The world is under the administration of One, who out of evil wondrously educes good; and we doubt not it will be so in this present instance. China within is full of tribulation. Perhaps through this new complication will be discovered a door of hope. The issues are with God. The Committee wait for the uplifting of His arm. "Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the Lord; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it which hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon? Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?"*

FUH-CHAU FUH.

The Rev. W. Welton has been obliged to return to Europe for the recovery of his health, after nine years' residence in China.† His medical skill gained for him a residence within the city walls, which none of the Missionaries of other Societies have been able to obtain. His mild but firm behaviour, amidst many most trying circumstances, gained for the Mission a character and position before the people, of which his coadjutors, the Rev. M. Fearnley and the Rev. F. M'Caw are now reaping the benefit. They also are allowed to reside in the Mission house within the city, and Mr. M'Caw gives the following review of their labours—

In reviewing our work for the last twelve months, it may be well at the outset to inform the Secretaries, who have been made

* At the Anniversary Meeting the Bishop of Victoria described at length, in a speech since published, the prospects of China. One passage will give his Lordship's view of the hopes which may still be cherished in respect of the religious element in the Chinese insurrection.

"I feel, that notwithstanding the corruptions, fanaticism, and blasphemies perceptible in some of the insurgent documents, we should not look with indifference and undue severity of judgment upon this movement, even as it now exists. I cannot esteem it a slight result of this strange movement, that it has given to the reading millions of China a portion of the Protestant version of the Holy Scriptures; that it has led to the circulation of the word of God among that motley assembly of eastern iconoclasts; and that the public manifestoes of the chief enjoin upon his followers the daily offering of a form of prayer which would not disgrace the lips of Christians in this land. I know that we can feel no personal confidence in the leaders of this movement; I know that they will not bear to be judged by the strict standard of British Christianity; I know that, at best, they are but a body of imperfectly-enlightened pagans, groping their way, amid almost unprecedented disadvantages, to the attainment of a better system. But my chief ground of confidence, under God, is, that there is a measure of Christian truth underlying the superstructure of error which has been raised upon it: my principal foundation of hope from this movement is, that the chief has officially recognised, and published with his own imprimatur, portions of the Christian Bible, and is giving to the reading millions of China the word of God—the Protestant version of the Holy Scriptures—in a tongue read and understood by the people."

aware of the difficulties of our position in the city from the continued opposition of the authorities, that we can see nothing calculated to discourage us in our efforts to declare the gospel of Christ. On the contrary, every day brings more hopeful signs for greater success in the future, both as respects the readiness of the people to hear instruction, and their prejudice towards us as foreigners and English is gradually dying away.

It is still true that we have no encouragements from the mandarins and authorities: our relations with them remain just where they have been since the month of May last, when they closed up the shop we rented, and imprisoned the agent we employed to rent it, and frightened the owner out of the country. The shop remains closed still, and we have not thought it prudent to attempt to open it, or lay any claim on it as yet.

It may have been, and I can now perceive has been, in some respects, productive of greater advantage to us generally, that we did not confine ourselves to the more limited duties of preaching in a chapel, as, from our necessarily limited knowledge of the language, little advantage could have been expected; while we have been set at liberty to visit the greater portion of the city, and temples, and the surrounding country with its temples, and to leave books with them for their information.

During the various rounds of our visitations in the city and outside, to the extent, in some departments, of a varying distance of from five to ten miles, we have had daily opportunities of conversation with the natives, and of giving books to those who appeared to us to be able to read them. In the suburbs of the city, and in the country especially, we hence had the greater opportunities, because we could obtain a quiet hearing, and had a retired spot to collect our thoughts, and use to the best advantage our small and imperfect stock of knowledge of this difficult language. This course we pursued during the past winter and spring, and I trust, with God's blessing, a beginning has been made, which will be improved afterwards with a greater knowledge of the language.

During the last quarter of the year 1856 the Missionaries were sufficiently advanced in the acquisition of the vernacular language to commence preaching in the places of public resort, of which they have furnished copious journals. Their reception appears to have been very encouraging. Mr. M'Caw states, on one occasion—

On returning, the greater part of the people accompanied me some distance, asking questions, some of which were in reference to the subject I had preached, and about my country and manners, &c. They have evidently been sadly misrepresented to us formerly, saying they were opposed to us and our religion: on the contrary, every day's experience proves they are delighted at our going among them.

Mr. M'Caw concludes his daily journal in these words—

I now conclude this journal, having given the details almost fully,* that the Committee may judge in what relation we stand to the people of this city, and how we have been received in our first effort to preach the gospel in a foreign tongue. I am rejoiced indeed that the Lord has made His way open thus far, and I believe no one can withstand His will. Yet the Lord's servants have been subjected to trials in all ages of the church, and there is no good reason why we should be exempted from the common lot of adversity. It is a very easy thing for the authorities to forbid every man to allow us the privilege of collecting a crowd at his door; and I shall not be in the least astonished should such be the case some day.

The following are extracts from Mr. Fearnley's journal—

I took up a new position, that I had never occupied before, in a street turning to the right, out of Back Street. In this street itself there were not many persons passing to and fro, but they soon gathered; and from one man, to whom I first began my discourse, they soon became forty or fifty. As often happens, there was one man who undertook to make sport for the rest, interrogating me on the various points of doctrine that I enunciated, the resurrection, admission into heaven, and the omniscient quality of the God I proclaimed. On all these topics he had some half-serious, half-mocking query to put, but by no means to my regret; for we know so well whom we have believed, we are assured so unwaveringly, that "our God is in the heavens," while "their idols are silver and gold," that opposition and mocking interrogatories only serve to nerve us to the contest. And, moreover, a man like the one I have just mentioned probably only represents, plainly spoken out, the inward feelings of many of the audience; and so the occasion is most opportune of satisfying doubts, and removing objections. "What! there is but one, you say, this Jehovah, this Jesus; and you bid us pray to Him, and seek His help, and His protection; and He, one, can hear the prayers, and attend to the wants, of these countless multitudes of men? Never!" And then, of course, I can, as far as my language extends, dwell upon the infinite wonders of our God and our Redeemer; how He compasseth our path, and our lying down, and is acquainted with all our ways: how there is not a word in our tongue, but lo, He knoweth it altogether; how from His Spirit we cannot go, and from His presence we cannot flee. If we ascend up into heaven, He is there; if we make our bed in hell, He is there also: if we take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there His hand shall lead us, and His right hand shall hold us. "But believers in Jesus will go to heaven, will they? and you are a believer in Jesus, and you'll go to heaven; and when will you go to heaven?" I reply, "And let me also ask you one question. Your death-day, when will that be? Know you, or not? Neither know I when I shall go to heaven; but yet I believe, humbly trusting in the alone merits of my Saviour, and eschewing mine own wickedness, that I shall go there." And then I tell them how it remaineth unto men once to die, and after that the judgment, when all that are in the graves shall hear His voice—His voice, the voice of that Jesus whom they now so imperfectly know, and know, many of them, only to smile at His name; and shall come forth, they that have done good unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation.

It was curious to observe how much interest already had been excited in this part of the city. "Books, books!" was the cry everywhere; and I could hear one little boy repeating to a man with whom he was walking some of my remarks respecting the sin of using bad language in the streets. Many shouted, as I thought in ridicule, "Jesus!" "Jesus!" "Jesus is very high!" And, in addition to our common name of "foreign child," I heard one person calling after me, "Jesus's foreign child." So that that wondrous name has already begun its progress here; now in shame and contumely, but to end, we hope, in the mouths of many at least, in glory and reverence.*

NINGPO.

The Missionaries, in their review of the Mission at the close of the year, remark—

Under the head of native Christians there is no increase, for while the increase of baptisms has been twenty (seventeen adults), we have not ventured to put down more than last year as the total number of whom we hope that they have given up their idolatrous customs. We dare not speak very highly of their attainments. Our public services have gone on with little or no interruption. On Wednesday evening we gather together the members of our church to a Bible class. We have now about twenty-five, and it is a most pleasing sight to see them all intent on their book, ready to answer any question that may come up in the passage before us. We have, in this way, gone through the Gospel of St. Matthew, and many have expressed how much advantage they have obtained by this means of grace.

The work of itinerating has not been carried on with so much vigour this year as last, many circumstances having conspired to cause this, especially the threatening aspect of affairs at Canton.

* Further extracts from this journal are given in the "Church Missionary Intelligencer" for July 1857. Notices of Fuh-chau will also be found in the "Church Missionary Gleaner" for April and May 1857.

None of the Missionaries here have, during the autumn, made any tours into the country, or broken any fresh ground.

In the beginning of the year we had two colporteurs at work, distributing the New-Testament Scriptures, in the pay of the British and Foreign Bible Society. They discontinued their work last May, being convinced that the distributions had been carried as far as it was practicable, for they had learnt that numbers, distributed at the time of the public examinations here, were by the scholars committed to the flames: their scruples would not permit them to take them away and use them for waste paper. It seemed a great mark of honesty on the part of one, at least, of these men, who was earning five dollars a month, and who, of his own accord, proposed to return to his labour (of a tailor), where he could not well earn more than four dollars at the most. Still, it must not be supposed that all who can read well have seen even the outside of a New Testament: the scholars of the country are just the persons most difficult to get at: they are very shy of any thing connected with foreigners or their religion.

Mr. Russell has met, in one of his tours, with special encouragement in a district called San-poh. Amidst a crowd of listeners, one young man eagerly pressed forward to inquire, "What is the cardinal truth?" Not discouraged by an insufficient reply from a native catechist, he presented himself again at the close of the day, and, being encouraged by the Missionaries to open his mind to them, it was discovered, that, though he had not received a literary education, he had freed himself from the trammels of the predominant superstitions, and was striving, with others like-minded with himself, and who form a new sect, to acquire a higher degree of moral excellence through contemplation, and the abstaining from animal food and other observances. He received with all readiness of mind the truth of God's word, and was baptized, after many months' probation and instruction, by the name of Dao-teh, "The truth obtained," which had been chosen by him as appropriate to his circumstances. This young man became very zealous and efficient in bringing his neighbours to a knowledge of the truth, so that Mr. Russell was encouraged to rent a house in his neighbourhood, where he spent ten days of Missionary labour, which he thus describes—

In the mornings and afternoons, the catechist, Dao-teh, and I, usually visited in company one or other of the villages or market-towns which surrounded us on all sides, at distances varying from two to five miles. At several of these places we had most delightful opportunities of making known, to unusually attentive and apparently deeply-interested listeners, the precious tidings of the everlasting gospel. In this Dao-teh proved a very valuable aid to us, by being able, from his intimate acquaintance with the different places we visited, to point out to us the most commodious situations for addressing the people, whether in temples, public halls, or large open squares; which experience now leads us to regard as a consideration of much importance. On our return in the evenings from these excursions, we also had an evening service in our own house, open to all our neighbours who felt disposed to attend. The number attending this latter probably averaged from sixty to a hundred each night, who usually listened with the most marked attention to long addresses from the catechist and myself of more than an hour's length, generally concluded by free conversation, of a most interesting character, on the topics introduced into our discourses. After this, we dismissed them in an orderly manner, retaining any amongst them, who seemed unusually interested, to attend the more private reading of the word of God and prayer amongst ourselves previous to retiring for the night.

Soon, however, the jealousy of the people was excited against the residence of a foreigner in their town. The landlord was alarmed, and the Missionary was obliged to release him from his engagement. It is hoped that, in a more quiet way, this locality may still prove a fruitful field of labour.*

The Missionaries at Ningpo, having reduced the vernacular dialect into writing in Roman characters, are making use of this instrument of instruction with much success among their converts. Mr. Russell thus refers to the subject—

I have felt it my duty, in connexion with others of my brethren here, to devote a large portion of my time to the translation into the vernacular of Ningpo the New Testament, and such portions of our liturgical services as are required for our present wants, with other books of religious instruction to be used in our schools. That these labours have not been altogether without their results, I could produce many proofs in corroboration. Amongst them I might instance our catechist, Bas-Sinsang, whose very respectable knowledge of the New Testament is almost entirely to be attributed to his ability to read it in the vernacular. Had he been confined to the delegates' translation into the literary style, it is almost certain it would have continued in a great measure a sealed book to him during his life. I might also refer to Sin Dao-teh, the interesting young man who has been the first-fruits of our labours in the Es-sæn-poh district. Had he not the New Testament in the vernacular, I should have despaired of his ever attaining to much familiarity with its contents, except by the prolonged process of constant oral instruction ; whereas now, after six months' attention to the Roman characters in which the vernacular is written, he can already read, with intelligibility and profit, in his own tongue, the wonderful works of God, as contained in this portion of His revealed will.

Mr. Russell concludes his annual review of his labours with the following remarks—

Having now given a brief outline of the character of my labours during the past year, I would close with a remark or two containing a more general reference to the present aspect of our work at this station. Looking first at the dark side of the picture, I might refer to the continued paucity of real converts and disinterested inquirers, the continued paucity of well-qualified and truly devoted native evangelists, the continued unfruitfulness of our scholastic institutions, the continued suspicion with which our labours are regarded by the literary and wealthier classes, increased by the general impression naturally felt of foreigners sympathizing with, and probably aiding and abetting, the insurrectionary movement in the interior ; but especially to the continuance of the iniquitous opium traffic, by which our name, our country, and our religion, are all sacrificed on the altar of sordid gain, and become a by-word and a reproach among the Chinese.* These things, and others of a similar bearing, are what principally cast shades of discouragement on our Missionary prospects at this port.

Looking, again, on the bright side, I might, on the other hand, remark, that though the number of our converts and inquirers is indeed small, yet this number is gradually and steadily increasing ; and though we may mourn the scarcity of native evangelists of such a stamp as we could desire, yet that we have a few who seem to be faithfully and efficiently prosecuting the work of the Lord amongst their own people. Again, though our schools have hitherto been unproductive of much fruit in present actual conversion, yet we cannot but regard them as nurseries of godliness, from which will, in time, be gathered some of the Saviour's own sheep. Moreover, with reference to the suspicion with which we are still regarded by the educated and wealthier classes, and the apparent cause for it (to which the insurrectionary movement in the interior, connected, as it appears to be, with Christianity, seems to give rise), yet in this we think we can discern glimmerings of hope as to China's future, leading us to anticipate for her fairer and brighter prospects. And lastly, though this monster of the opium trade is still progressing with its wonted strides, yet even here our hearts are cheered by the intelligence which has lately reached us, that men of power and influence at home are now preparing to grapple with the evil, and, with united heads and united hearts, to make such an appeal to the good sense and Christian feeling of our people, as shall cause them to rise as one man for the obliteration for ever of an iniquity which so tarnishes the honour of our country, and so obstructs the progress of Christianity, which is dearer to us than even country itself.

Mr. Gough notices the following instance of wisely accommodating his ministrations to the peculiar circumstances of the people—

During the hot months, especially July and August, I adopted the plan of preaching in the evening to the heathen. Ordinarily this could not be done, for the Chinese generally go to bed early; but during the summer they will be cooling themselves outside their houses after the heat of the day. The little chapel to which I used to go then generally filled at once with a large audience, which gave a more than usually attentive and patient hearing. I asked, last night, a young man, who has lately come to my evening family prayer, and professed to me his belief in the gospel, when he first received the truth, and he referred to those summer-night preachings as the season.

Mrs. Gough, having acquired the language, has been able to establish and maintain a female-school with the prospect of much success, of which Mr. Gough reports—

Mrs. Gough's day-school for the neighbours' children has been going on throughout this year. It is a very interesting charge, occupying a room within our house, and at present consists of thirty-nine girls. They have acquired a good deal of Scripture knowledge, and I think there are some who love the truth. I have a service for them on the Sunday afternoons, in which I question them: there are sometimes twenty or more grown-up people present.

At the close of the year, in consequence of the events at Canton, great fears prevailed among the Europeans of Ningpo lest there might be a general rising against all foreigners. Many fled to Shanghae. The Missionaries of all the Societies met for united prayer and consultation; and at the time the last intelligence was sent, it was determined to remove some of the wives and families of Missionaries to Shanghae. But Mr. Gough, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell, determined to remain with their native converts, until compelled by circumstances to retire. Mr. Russell thus describes the conduct of the converts under these circumstances—

With reference to the native Christians, I would remark, that while some exhibited more or less shrinking from the dangers to which they appeared to be exposed, and a disposition to retire into privacy, if not to abandon altogether the cause they had espoused, yet that others, and they by no means a small proportion of the whole, evinced a preparedness to cleave to us to the last, and if, necessary, to sacrifice even life itself in the cause of Christ. Amongst these latter I might particularize our catechist, who now, for six or seven years, has proved himself in many ways a firm advocate and defender of the truth. This has proved a source of much consolation to my own mind under the severe trials, and, it may be, imminent dangers through which we have been called to pass; but from which, up to the present, the Lord has mercifully delivered us, and will, I am persuaded, still continue to deliver us, until our work is finished; when I trust, as soldiers of the cross, we will be prepared to meet our end with joy, whatever be the end which the Lord in His Providence may appoint us.

Mrs. Gough has furnished the following interesting facts—

Twenty Cantonese, belonging to the piratical junks on the river, went to the taou-tai, who is the principal civil mandarin in Ningpo, and proposed the murder of all the foreigners here. The taou-tai gave his consent; but no sooner had he done so than he conferred with a mandarin of a lower rank, and on his representation that serious consequences might result from such a step, the taou-tai sent word that it must not be done. There is little room for doubt that this is a fact, and the information reached us through native Christians—two of them at least are so, and connected with two of the Missions here—and as it was communicated to them. Can we then doubt for one moment that the Lord's hand has been working for us, and that it was He who turned the heart of that heathen governor to forbid the destruction of His children?

Miss Aldersey has kindly furnished me with a young woman of earnest piety, and her serious, quiet deportment has not been without its effect upon the school. The instruction of the children is confined almost entirely to scriptural knowledge, in the form of texts, catechisms, prayers, and hymns. Eight of them can read well on the alphabetic system, and others are making satisfactory progress. The elder ones learn to write, and copy out texts of Scripture on slates, and all are taught some kind of native needlework.

Our schools are again at work, and every thing around us is going on just as usual. My dear husband has been cheered by an increased degree of earnestness, both amongst the native Christians and those who come to him as inquirers, and we are led to hope that this sifting time may prove a season of blessing to us all.*

SHANGHAE.

The political state of the city of Shanghae has been far from favourable to Missionary exertions during the past year. The duties have been divided between the Rev. H. Reeve and the Rev. J. S. Burdon; but the former has suffered during the greater part of the year from ill-health, which will compel him, it is feared, shortly to leave China. He has exerted himself, as far as his strength would allow, in the instruction of the children at the school, amounting to sixty or seventy boys in attendance, of whom thirty are boarders. Mr. Burdon has also given himself to preaching, as opportunity served, in the city, or in occasional Missionary tours. He became anxious, however, to obtain, if possible, a settled sphere of usefulness in some of the larger cities, where nothing had as yet been attempted in the way of evangelization. During the last quarter of the year he made a successful experiment of this kind. The city of Ping-oo is about seventy miles distant from Shanghae, in a south-westerly direction: it contains about 100,000 inhabitants. A native colporteur, employed formerly by the Bible Society, had visited the city, and hired a lodging in his own name. To this Mr. Burdon afterwards came, and was allowed to remain unmolested for several weeks, till he was obliged to return to Shanghae, to take charge of the Missionary operations there, in consequence of the failure of his coadjutor's health. He wrote from Ping-oo—

At first, when I came, I went daily into the city, and preached, as usual when I am out upon an excursion, in the temples, and in the streets; but this caused such a riot among the boys, both little and great, that I saw it was likely to endanger my stay here altogether. I have therefore discontinued this practice for the last week, and contented myself with speaking with those who come to see me at my own hired house. It cost me a good deal to give up the street-preaching; but we have to learn, as Missionaries as well as Christians, when it is "our strength to sit still." When once the strangeness of a foreigner, in his own dress, dwelling among them, wears off, and there is less danger to my landlord, I shall again go out into the streets and temples, publicly to proclaim the message of salvation; but at present, in a quiet way, I have as many opportunities of speaking for my Master as I want, and the rest of my time I fill up with study. That I am living here is known to most of the people in the city and outside of it, as well as in the mandarin's offices. Whether any steps will be taken to oust me I know not; but this I know, that, if the present be the Lord's time, no power on earth, or in hell, can drive me out, till I accomplish the work He has sent me to do. However, I do not want to boast much. The next mail may carry home news of my entire failure.*

THE first record in the annual review of this Mission, as affecting the whole native race, must be the completion of the holy volume in the native language. The following letter, announcing this gratifying event, is from the Rev. R. Maunsell, dated Waikato River, August 12, 1856. Many hearts will sympathize with the writer as their eyes run over the annexed extract—

The termination of my labours at translation having given a respite from study, I avail myself of this first opportunity to write to you. The whole word of God is now in Maori; and you, I dare say, can imagine the feelings with which I regard the completion, so far, of my labours. I have, through His great goodness, been now spared to assist in the revision of the New Testament and Prayer-book, and to finish an original translation of the Old Testament.

Dark indeed were my prospects, when, this time thirteen years back, I saw my house, with all my books and papers, swept away in an hour and a-half by fire; when my wife, who was confined next day, lay in a wretched native hut; when our assistant, Miss Rymill, was also in considerable danger from an attack on the lungs; and I myself prostrated, my hands having been severely burned while I was endeavouring to extinguish the second fire—which took place in the shed in which, with the remnant of our goods, we had taken refuge.

Still, the feeling has always been strong on my mind, that God had called me to be useful in this particular service. Even when in England, I longed, from reading Martyn's life, to render some service in the translation of God's word, and commenced studying Hebrew, and laying in a stock of books on criticism. Immediately, as soon as my hands recovered, I set to work again at my delightful employment; and, though often discouraged by the apparent impossibility of getting the work printed in this country, yet God—as I have already informed you—opened a way for my object, in a manner particularly gratifying to my feelings; and has enabled me to complete my work just on the anniversary of my time of sorrows. Whatever portion of my time may now remain to me, it is my earnest desire and prayer that I may have grace to give it entirely to Him."

On the reception of this cheering information, the Committee recorded their sense of its importance in the following resolution—

That this Committee praise God for the completion of the whole Bible in Maori, and pray that it may be the means of increasing fruitfulness in the infant church of New Zealand; and they congratulate Mr. Maunsell on the honour conferred upon him by God, of being the chief instrument in the accomplishment of this good work; and they trust that he may be long spared to witness the blessed results of this and of all his other 'labours of love, and patience of hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.'

NORTHERN DISTRICT.

The Ven. Archdeacon Henry Williams gives this general view of the district—

In presenting my report for 1856, I have much pleasure in stating that there has been an evident improvement in the natives generally, in their abstinence from the use of ardent spirits, which appeared last year to be fearfully gaining ground. There is a decided stand in many places to oppose this baneful evil, although there are Europeans who, in direct violation of the law, and regardless of its consequences, lay these snares in the way of the people, the profits being so great.

On the 11th of May I opened the new church at Paihía, a handsome weather-board building. The Bishop held a confirmation on the 15th of May, when thirty-one men and twenty-six women were examined by his Lordship in an exceedingly clear and impressive way. All were edified by his lucid exposition of the fundamental Christian truths. This timely visit we trust may be attended with a beneficial effect.

In March I paid a visit to Kaitaia, and remained two Sundays there. I was, as I always have been, highly gratified by the active state of this station—the communicants about 200, and the teachers 18, in full vigour, who meet Mr. Matthews once a week for instruction and direction. The effect of such a system, so promptly attended to on the part of the teachers, who are conveniently situated for such intercourse, is very evident amongst the community around.

The teachers have found, and the congregations acknowledge, that they receive more solid and lasting benefit by going through a book [of the Bible] in course; and the congregations now fully expect the teacher to give suitable Scripture references, and to make judicious remarks. We are thankful for the help our native teachers render, and fully acknowledge them as fellow-labourers in the vineyard. They are men raised up by the Lord alone, and have come forward under the Spirit's direction. Many of them are chiefs, or sons of chiefs—some of them have been conquered and sold as slaves; but this makes no difference: they all meet in one class, without the least manifestation of prejudice, and the same respect is shown to one teacher as another, if his character and ability be equal.

Two of our teachers have proceeded to the Theological Institution in Auckland, and several more are desirous of following.

The sacrament of the Lord's supper has only been administered once during the year at Kaitaia, to the great disappointment of ourselves and people. The Ven. Archdeacon Williams was with us at the last opportunity, when, on April 6, 233 natives and 7 English communicated at the table of the Lord. The church was over-crowded, whilst numbers could not get in. The Archdeacon preached from Rev. iii. 20. The collection was 19*l.*, which, with a present from the Archdeacon of 21*l.*, we deposited in the savings' bank, as the commencement of an endowment fund. Immediately the natives joined us and our families in setting apart, for the same purpose, twelve head of cattle. We report upon these little items with thankfulness.

We may say that all our people are hearers of the word; and although at one time there were many Papists, we know not of one now, one party of them after another having been won over to the Gospel. Te Morenga, the most influential chief, was the first to call the Popish Bishop. This man, his brothers, and children, could not resist the light of God's word, and one of them is now a teacher of that word. Those tribes who have not regularly-appointed teachers are desirous of that privilege.

Two pious teachers have died triumphantly in the faith. They had built upon the true foundation, gold, silver, and precious stones, and they suffered no loss, for their works were not burnt.

Rawiri, one of the teachers of Parengarenga, said, when dying, "The kingdom of heaven is open to me;" and, after talking a long time of the things of God, he held up his Testament, and exhorted his fellow-teacher to be strong to wield that weapon after he was gone. We found, on our visit there a few weeks ago, that his peaceful and solemn manner of dying had left a solemnizing effect upon the Parengarenga church.*

MIDDLE DISTRICT.

The Rev. R. Burrows resides at Auckland, and acts as general Secretary of the Mission. He gives the following report of his observation upon the state of the natives—

Since my return from England I have visited all our stations in the Northern District, except Taupo and Wakatani, Mr. Preece's station, which is now left. In my journeys I have had abundant opportunities for the exercise of my ministry, and of observing the effects of the gospel upon this once savage people. It has proved the power of God unto salvation to many. Not a few are now in glory, I have no doubt, who were once degraded cannibals; and although the great majority of our baptized natives show but little spiritual life, there are to be found among them men and women who love and fear God, and evidence the genuineness of their faith by their works. It is a truth acknowledged by all our Missionaries, that our best and most substantial converts have been called to their rest, thus taken away from the evil to come.

Mr. Burrows states that the chief cause of anxiety, for the future spiritual condition of the natives, is the want of young men of piety to enter the Institutions for training up a native ministry. The present class of teachers have been almost all brought out of heathenism, and find it difficult to acquire or impart knowledge beyond the first elements of Christian truth. He adds—

We do not wish to get rid of these men: they are valuable helps, and, for the most part, greatly respected by their people; but we do wish to see men training to fill their places when gone. Some of the best among them have been called away, and others must shortly follow. We have need, indeed, to pray that the Lord of the harvest would prepare and send forth more labourers into His harvest.

You will be glad to hear that some efforts are being made to draw out local resources. The Parent Committee's resolution to withdraw by degrees all contingent supplies has set some of our friends to work: others, no doubt, will follow.

Auckland.

The Rev. G. A. Kissling has the charge of St. Stephen's church, at which services are held in English and Maori; and he has also a Normal school for native pupils. In his annual report he writes—

The importance of having in this centre of attraction a place of worship in which both races may “hear in their own tongues the wonderful works of God,” has been seen and felt by Christians of all denominations.

No doubt we have had evidence of the Lord's presence among us, and tokens that His hand is not shortened to bless us and our labours. Drunkenness is clearly on the decrease. The Maori prisoners in Auckland gaol have come down to two in number, and, on the whole, a healthy reaction seems to manifest itself in the life and conduct of the natives of the neighbourhood. There is a greater longing for the word of God, and a better disposition to receive religious instruction and spiritual advice. These glimmerings of hope cheer the heart of the Missionary on his gloomy path of toil.

During the past year the number at St. Stephen's school has been four males and eighteen females. It has been proposed to organize this school on a new principle, viz. to admit proficient scholars from other establishments, with a view to qualify them to become native teachers and native ministers in the country. Six such students are already under my charge: five of them are married men, and their families are to reside with us also. Some of them are already here: others are daily expected. Two of them have come from Mr. Maunsell's establishment; two have been sent from the Kaitaia district by the Rev. J. Matthews; and the other two are from the vicinity of Auckland.

The English congregation at St. Barnabas has, during the past year, paid 100*l.* to the funds of the Church Missionary Society, in consideration of a part of my time being given up to them.

A school-house for both races, native and English, has also been erected on the site of St. Barnabas by local contributions, the cost of which has been 140*l.* In the midst of all my trials and infirmities, I have cause to thank God for His blessings, and take courage for the time to come. To Him be all the praise!

Archdeacon Brown combines a general view of the district with some important remarks respecting his own station, Tauranga—

The number attending divine service throughout the district is, I believe, as large as ever, but their Pas being very much deserted, the natives are scattered in small groups at their various plantations, and discipline and influence are not as firmly maintained as when the Missionary had frequent opportunities of meeting them in larger bodies for divine worship. To counteract in a measure this evil, I continue to assemble our native teachers' class on the Saturday, and instruct them in the portions of Scripture from which, on the following day, they address their countrymen; and as we all preach from the same texts, a certain degree of unity is kept up in public worship. The average number of teachers attending this class during the past year has been fourteen.

Our boarding-schools have had an average attendance of forty boys and girls, who have been supported by a Government grant of 150*l.*; while the whole system of religious instruction has been left so unfettered, that in every department it may be looked upon as a purely Missionary school.

The Rev. R. Maunsell reports the adoption of measures which are peculiarly interesting as steps towards a permanent and self-supporting system.

We have adopted the plan of electing churchwardens, into whose hands I have consigned the secular arrangements connected with our church. The plan has been found to answer admirably. The people have already commenced, under their direction, to cut and drag timber for the erection of a chapel, the plans and drawing for which have been presented to us by a friend in Auckland. If this contemplated structure look as well in material as it does on paper, it will be a great ornament to our station. We have in hand upwards of 160*l.* for this object, none of it money from the Society.

Our collections during the past year (chiefly congregational) amounted to 33*l.* 0*s.* 3*d.* Of this money I appropriate that collected on the station towards the erection of a place of worship; that collected on the out-stations I divide amongst the itinerant monitors who visit them, chiefly with this object, that the people may be brought into the habit of recognising the propriety of paying their teachers.

In my school I see much cause for thankfulness. Our young people keep up their average of 85; our books, Dec. 31st, exhibiting a result of  $85\frac{196}{365}$ . Some of our monitors are very worthy people, and take a deep interest in our prosperity. We have sixteen young men in the Institution: six of these act as itinerant monitors, in which duty they are assisted by three monitors who reside at the native settlements in this neighbourhood, and attend our Scripture classes.

In a later communication, at the end of the year, Mr. Maunsell writes—

Our school, thank God, is prosperous. Our average, you will see, was eighty-five and a fraction for the year; sixteen young men among the number, some of whom give us hope that they will be useful among their fellow-countrymen. Our head monitor, John, has been restored to us most wonderfully from sickness, after we had lost all hope of him. He is a truly worthy man, with his heart in the Saviour's cause, of much influence, considerable powers as a speaker, and a large amount of knowledge, for a native. The more I see of the operations of this kind of Institution, the more deeply do I feel that this is almost the only way in which Missionary operations in this island should be conducted, and for this reason—the people are scattered, and the single-handed European Missionary, no matter how zealous, cannot properly visit them, much less teach at their villages, with any effect. The young men taught here travel through the district, and, when they come back, are under instruction: I go round twice a year to administer the sacraments.

The Rev. T. Lanfear records a proof of the confidence which the natives repose in their Missionaries—

About the end of March, a party of natives of this district, being on a journey for the purpose of visiting their friends at the Bay of Islands, fell in with a powder dépôt on the island of Kanare, and, the same being entirely unguarded, they took from it 108 casks, which they conveyed to their own home. The great body of the natives, disapproving of this theft, offered their services to procure its restoration, and went to demand it accordingly, but were refused, with the exception of a portion of it, which they obtained. The bulk of it, amounting to 80 casks, was held until the 8th of November, when the parties holding it delivered it up to myself, to be by me conveyed to Auckland; and thus an end was happily put to an affair which, at one time, appeared threatening.

It ought to be remembered that the natives were under peculiar temptations to take the powder, since the Government forbids the sale of it to them. This being the case, their jealousy is naturally accounted for, whilst they behold those whom they regard as strangers among them holding, as it were, the power of life and death in their own hands, and forbidding the same to themselves.

The general tone of religion is perhaps not different from what it was last year, in the attention paid to the outward means of grace; but I observe it is the lowest where the natives are most exposed to the debasing influence of a white population, such as is generally found in the bush. On the other hand, it is pleasing to remark the greater attention which others manifest towards their religious duties, as well as gratifying to find the goodwill and kindness with which, for the most part, the visits of the minister are received; and that instances are not wanting in which it is still seen that “the gospel of Christ is the power of God unto salvation.”

The Rev. J. Morgan bears this testimony to the value of the native teachers—

against superstition in every form, and faithfully preach Christ crucified. These are as salt among the mass, and their testimony and example are blessed by God to the preservation and establishment of many of their brethren in the sublime yet simple truths of the gospel. They have also rendered valuable assistance in visiting the distant out-posts, travelling, on an average, about 100 miles on each journey. We purpose, God willing, to continue these journeys each month, except the two months of harvest, when each man is required to attend to his own crops. This system of Maori visiting promises, under the divine blessing, to be productive of much good, and they enable the resident Missionary to maintain a more regular intercourse with the outposts.

The monthly Missionary prayer-meetings at the station with the native teachers, on the first Monday in the month, have been held by the resident Missionary; and a general meeting of the principal teachers of the districts of Otawhao, Taupiri, and the Wesleyan station, Waipa, has been held alternately at each station every four months, and generally attended by the three resident Missionaries, as well as the Maori teachers. At these conferences and meetings for prayer, any subjects bearing on the spiritual advancement of the Aborigines, prepared by either Missionary or native teacher, are discussed. We have found the meetings refreshing to our souls, and beneficial to our people.

The Rev. S. M. Spencer notices in his report the value for the word of God manifested by the people.

With increasing intelligence, an increasing desire for understanding the Holy Scriptures is apparent, and the common practice of assembling in parties after public worship, to propose questions upon the discourse, often in the presence of the Missionary or teacher, is doubtless attended with good results, and therefore not to be discouraged, as these discussions are conducted with a greater reverence for the word and ordinances of worship than formerly. They are much in the habit of reserving passages of Scripture for an opportunity to have them expounded.

The Rev. B. Ashwell has a flourishing school at Taupiri, of which he gives this report—

Our school continues to give us much satisfaction, especially our native teachers. We number in all, adults and children, sixty boarders. I am thankful to say we are doing a little to render it self-supporting. Several acres of land are now sown with wheat, potatos, and maize; and, should it please God to send us a plentiful harvest, we shall be enabled to support a third of the children. The Government allowance does not provide for more than twenty-eight children. Voluntary contributions, and our own efforts, have hitherto enabled us, through the blessing of God, to keep a school, averaging from fifty to sixty boarders, for the last eight years. One of our greatest difficulties is to keep a sufficient number of clothes to ensure the comfort of the children. Prints, calicoes, linsey-woolsey, flannels, and blankets, form a heavy item in our expenditure. Any contributions in such clothing, from the friends of New Zealand, would be received with much thankfulness, and would lighten our labour in this great work.*

The Rev. T. S. Grace occupies an isolated and wild position on the lake of Taupo, in the centre of the island. He has contended with many difficulties, but in his review of his labours at the close of the year he writes—

On a more general view, things are more encouraging: we often see fruits of righteousness where we least expected. I have been greatly astonished at the truly Christian way in which our people have settled some important disputes, which at other times would have ended in war.

Te Heuheu tells us that we have “tied his hands, that he cannot fight.” A little while ago he came from a journey to Hawke’s Bay, where he had been to prevent Te Hapuku, and some of his people, from fighting about some land that has been sold. According to native custom, he related to us all that had happened from the time he left Taupo to his return. In speaking of the difficulties they met with on their return, through bad weather and scarcity of food, &c., Mrs Grace asked him if he had ever been on that road before. As the tears started into his eyes, he replied, “Yes, mother, I know that road well: it is one of our roads on which we used to go to kill men. I have killed and eaten many a man on that road. I am sorry for it now, but I knew no better then.” The first dawn of light appears to have broken over the darkness of his heart: may God grant that it may increase more and more. He has been a great warrior: he is still a remarkable man, who, beneath a boisterous, and, at times, forbidding manner, has an amount of good sense and honourable feeling that I have not met with in any other chief.†

EASTERN DISTRICT.

Archdeacon William Williams, in his annual review at the close of 1856, writes—

In the report of 1855 I had occasion to notice the difficulties through which the church in New Zealand has to struggle. At Turanga we have still to lament the lukewarmness of the greater number of professing Christians; and one of the fruits of it has been an expedition in August last, in which a large number of the people joined against a small tribe at Uawa. The ground of it was, that a young woman had been disposed of in marriage, by her own immediate relatives, in a manner at variance with the wishes of others who were not so nearly connected. An enormous payment was exacted, which led the oppressed party to abandon the locality altogether. This, however, became a turning-point. I had opposed the system in vain for a long season, but now nearly all who had been concerned saw that they were proceeding on a downward course. I called a meeting on their return, the result of which was a general agreement to give up this un-Christian practice. Good has thus been brought out of evil, and there has been an improvement ever since in our Sabbath congregations, and in the attendance of our Bible classes.

Another event has also recently occurred, which is a cause of much thankfulness. One of our largest tribes, Ngatimaru, had withdrawn two years ago from our general congregation in consequence of a serious quarrel, and continued to separate themselves after peace had been made. Now, at length, they have returned, and we are no longer as a house divided against itself. During this separation, the attendance at the Lord's supper has been extremely small, so that the communicants throughout the district of Turanga and Uawa have been only 386.

In the month of February the Bishop held successive confirmations throughout the district. The numbers at Turanga, Uawa, and Tokomaru, were 162.

Upon a survey of the proceedings of the past year, I see much reason for thankfulness. We have been troubled on every side, but not distressed; we have been perplexed, but not in despair. The toil of our hands is in the way of being brought to a successful issue. We see among the natives a decided improvement, but we look chiefly, under God's blessing, to the influence which our teachers' school must exercise, not only upon our own district, but also upon the natives generally. Still, this is but the seed time, and we must wait with patience for the harvest.

The important Institution for training native teachers, which was placed under the charge of the Rev. W. L. Williams, has been removed from Turanga to a more eligible station a few miles distant, where sufficient land has been obtained to provide food for the students. The removal has occasioned great trouble and expense, and has occupied much of the time of the Missionaries; but the best hopes for the future prosperity of the native church depend upon such Institutions, and they need the earnest prayers of all who are interested in the establishment of Christianity among the natives. The archdeacon gives the following annual report of its progress—

The work of instruction has proceeded regularly, with the exception of six weeks, during which the natives removed to the new station. The average number of students has been about twelve, and of these seven have been with us upwards of two years. Their general conduct has been steady, and consistent with the Christian profession, and there is an increasing desire to obtain information. Twelve months ago some of them had an idea of returning home, thinking that they had obtained nearly all the knowledge which was to be had. But further instruction has given them a better insight into their deficiencies. Two of the number we consider as candidates for ordination, but we do not propose to send them to the Bishop until they shall have remained with us another year, because they will require this additional instruction to place them in a position which will be satisfactory to us. A striking remark was made by one of the natives, when it was proposed that he should return home to occupy the post of teacher—"We have now read through the Gospels in one class, but the Epistles are very difficult, and I want to read them also."

The Rev. C. Baker's report of the Waiapu District, on the East Cape, exhibits mingled trials and encouragements. The following extracts are from his annual report—

Marriages have been more in number than in former years, and it is gratifying to witness the respect paid to the ceremony. Fees have been required, but they have been cheerfully paid.

In February the Bishop held confirmations at several of the villages, and on the 17th of that month the new wooden church was opened by his lordship. From 700 to 800 natives were present. In the morning about 350 partook of the Lord's supper; in the afternoon three of my children were confirmed; and in the evening 232 natives received confirmation. The whole, throughout the district under my charge, were 436. The addition to the church by baptism has been 54 adults and 127 infants. There are a good many on the books who are candidates for the sacred ordinance. The communicants have not diminished. Many more would have had a place in the list but for strict vigilance: 700 have, however, maintained a deportment held to be consistent, in general, with their profession. The public means of grace have been well attended at the different villages. The schools are but indifferently attended, owing to the way in which the people are scattered throughout the week-days at their plantations. At several of the villages considerable preparations have been made towards the erection of wooden churches.

It is a matter of thankfulness to God to witness the cheerfulness with which the natives set about and proceed in the heavy undertaking of building churches wholly at their own expense. They commence by purchasing tools, calling upon their friends to aid them with supplies, and all that are able assist in the general work. Collections are made wherewith to purchase nails, paint, glass, &c., and no foreign aid is sought for. Whilst the expenditure of time and means is great, and the sacrifice is for a time felt, the advantages are also considerable, and of a permanent character. A great number of young men have been induced to try their powers at sawing timber and carpentering, who otherwise would have been ignorant and listless. A few having been taught, have imparted their knowledge to others. The erection of the church at the station has given an impulse to many. The amount of knowledge acquired here is now being carried to the villages, not only in connexion with this station, but also to those belonging to Te Kawa-kawa. Then it is presumed, that inasmuch as the people can build wooden churches they can improve their own dwellings, and that hereafter they will build wooden houses for themselves. I would not have it thought that the favourable account here given indicates a great improvement in the spiritual condition of the people: it is not intended to convey this idea; but it does show that the profession of Christianity has not been abandoned, and that there is ample scope for ministerial operations. The field is large and promising. For the young there is no adequate provision. Some land has been given up for a boarding-school, and more may be obtained, but nothing can be accomplished unless more strength be given. I am enfeebled from a long course of active service, and frequent rheumatic affections. Assistance must either be afforded me, or my sphere of labour occupied by a clergyman of more bodily strength, or else the promising field will soon be overgrown, and much that has been done be in a great measure lost. Surely this people will not be abandoned, seeing how much is being done by them in co-operating with the Society in carrying out the great objects it has sought to promote.

The Wairoa District, in Hawke's Bay, has been more exposed than other localities to the contaminating influences of ungodly Europeans, and the general account of the natives is less encouraging. The Rev. J. Hamlin, who has charge of the district, labours with much patience under many disadvantages, one of which has been, that he has remained a deacon for twelve years, though in the pastoral charge of an extensive district, having a large number of communicants. During the last year the Lord's supper could not once be administered in the district.

Mr. Hamlin records one circumstance of interest, which occurred at the close of 1855—

A dispute arose between two parties about a block of land, amounting to about 200 acres. One party cut the boundary line, and claimed the block, and the other party cut the boundary line, and claimed it also. Fearing it might come to blows, I sent word to both parties to meet me on the disputed boundary, which they accordingly did. On arriving at the spot, I asked one party if they would give up the block in question to the other. A warm negative was the reply. I then turned to the other, and inquired if they would give it up to the others. The same return was made. I next asked if both parties would agree to a division. This also was negatived. I told them I had one question more to put to them, and this was, whether they would give it up to me for school purposes? This was answered warmly in the affirmative, and so the matter ended. But, before parting, I observed I would give them six weeks to consider the decision they had come to. Should they alter their mind in any way they could agree upon, well and good; but should they still adhere to the decision they had come to, a deed would be made, and they would be required to sign it. Both parties shook hands, and returned home light-hearted.*

WESTERN DISTRICT.

The hopes of the Committee expressed in the last report, that the western coast between Wellington and Taranaki might be occupied by a chain, though with distant links, of Missionary stations, have not been fulfilled; the Rev. A. Stock having resigned his Missionary post, and accepted a chaplaincy in Wellington, and the Rev. W. Ronaldson having been appointed to a district east of Wellington.

Archdeacon Hadfield gives the following report of the district generally—

I have been engaged in the same duties as in previous years. It must not be implied from this that the converts are making no progress. What I mean to convey is, that the duty of the Missionary continues very much the same—the same constant teaching, the same exhortation, the same periodical visiting, being required now, in order to keep alive an interest in the gospel, as in former years. I am quite sure it is a mistake to assume too readily that the Christian religion will work its way among the native converts without constant supervision of their proceedings, and personal intercourse between them and their minister.

There is no doubt that the natives of this island were very much distracted a few years ago, during the excitement which prevailed in reference to the gold-fields of Australia. But this excitement has now passed away, and they are, in this district, fast returning to the state in which they were before. They are again becoming more thoughtful, more regular in their attendance at church, and more desirous of drawing closer to the Missionary. I am happy to say that I have always had a large party of sincere, consistent Christians, who have never wavered in faith or practice. The average attendance at the holy communion, in the various villages, is 350, and three-fourths of these have been constant attendants at that holy rite for the last ten or twelve years. I have, during the year, baptized 33 adults and 44 children.

I am very happy to have to report the fact, that the Bishop has appointed the Rev. Riwai Te Ahu to co-operate with me in this district. He joined me in October last. I look forward to much benefit to the people from his ministrations. His faith, and love, and earnestness, and zeal, are very evident, and are questioned by none. He is highly esteemed by all the natives in this part of the country, of whatever tribe they may be, and he is much respected by all the English who know him. He is wholly supported by internal resources, half his stipend being paid by an annual private grant from the Governor, and half by regular contributions from the natives. It was highly gratifying, one Sunday in November last, during a visit paid for a few days to his relatives by the Rev. Rota Waitoa, while I was suffering from a temporary attack of illness, which prevented my taking part in the services, to have my place supplied by two of my early converts, the only two Maori ministers in New Zealand; the one reading prayers, and the other preaching an admirable sermon to the people of his own tribe. In concluding these few remarks, I must express my deep conviction of the blessed results to the natives of this country which have flowed from the labours of this Society, and my heartfelt gratitude to the great Head of the church for the privilege I have enjoyed in being employed in such a work.

The Rev. R. Taylor arrived at Wanganui in August, with the native chief Hoani Wiremu, or John Williams, who accompanied him to England. Mr. Taylor was welcomed by a deputation, bearing a congratulatory address from the inhabitants of Wanganui; and the natives, on his landing, hailed him with a loud "Haere mai!" (Come hither!) the native salutation, all being drawn up on the beach to receive him.

It usually occurs that the absence of a Missionary from his post leads to some relaxation on the part of the people in their attention to their religious duties. The change of a pastor, even in a settled church, is often accompanied with such incidental evils; much more in a Mission station. Mr. Taylor found it so upon his return to Wanganui. The Roman Catholics had also been busy in trying to seduce his people, and the ruinous effects of the great earthquake gave a melancholy appearance to the station. Mr. Taylor, however, has begun, with his accustomed vigour, to restore the work of the Mission, and to resume his former position.

"John Williams," says Mr. Taylor, "had a most enthusiastic reception from his tribe. He has conducted himself with great propriety since his return, and has gained the esteem of both races. I feel assured that his visit to England will prove a blessing to the natives. He has seen much, and has a very reflecting mind, which will enable him to draw much good from what he has seen.”*

THIS Mission continues under the temporary charge of the Rev. Thomas Hillis. The country has recently been visited by an epidemic, so severe, that in the Pomeroon district a great many of the Indians have been taken off, whole families having been buried within a very short interval. Happily, nothing like this has occurred at Bartica; and the last letters report the violence of the disease was abating, and the Mission was becoming more healthy.

In a letter dated July 28, 1856, Mr. Hillis thus describes his mode of teaching—

My method of teaching these poor people is very plain and simple, scriptural and impressive. I find a vast deal of good done by preaching a short sermon of this kind in my visitations, whenever I have an opportunity by meeting a few persons together: in fact, we are continually preaching, and, on these occasions, we can enter practically into the case of the individuals present, a thing which we could not do in a public discourse. It is gratifying to find they have never insulted me, though I have been so plain and pointed; but I always prove to them that my object in doing so is for their benefit, present and eternal.

One aged adult has been baptized during the year; and another, “for years a regular attendant at church, and a steady, exemplary communicant,” has entered into rest.

The severe sickness, to which allusion has been made, at one time seriously thinned the school, the Indians having fled far up the creeks, and taken their children with them. Nearly all, however, have since been brought back, and the boys'-school now numbers 36, the girls' 42—32 of the latter being boarders. The boys'-school is self-supporting, so far as regards food and clothing.

General View of the Field of Labour.

DURING the last year there has been published by the Hudson's-Bay Company a more accurate census of the population of their vast territories than had previously existed. The census gives the following result in respect of the Indian population—

Of this Indian population, the 80,000 who are on the west of the Rocky Mountains have been as yet wholly neglected : no Missionary has laboured amongst them. The Committee have, indeed, within the last few months, sent out a schoolmaster, at the instance of a zealous naval officer who was about to proceed to that station, and who kindly afforded a free passage, with the consent of the Admiralty. The schoolmaster will be stationed at Fort Simpson, and the Committee hope soon to send a Missionary to the same station, or to Vancouver's Island.*

Of the tribes on the east of the Rocky Mountains, the Esquimaux have as yet been scarcely reached by Missionary operations. Their language has been only partially reduced to writing. The labours of the Missionaries have been devoted to the Indians. Yet of these 55,570 a large proportion, viz. 25,000, are Plain Indians, who inhabit the countries watered by the Saskatchewan, up to the Rocky Mountains, and who have hitherto resisted the progress of civilization, and have been often at war with the more peaceable tribes, so that Missionary efforts have only very partially reached them. The labours of the Mission have been directed to the remaining 30,000, scattered over a country of which the longer diameter is more than 1500 miles, and the shorter about half that distance. The stations of the Society may be arranged in six groups, which may be termed, from their central stations, the Red-River District, the Fairford District, the Cumberland District, the English-River District, the York District, and the Moose-Fort District.

Red-River District.

The Red-River Settlement contains the only European settlers in the whole of the country, with a large settled population of half-breeds. They are divided between Protestants and Roman Catholics.

The former Upper Church of the Society was transferred to the Bishop upon his arrival in the country. Here his residence and college are situated. It may therefore be regarded as the centre of the civilization of the territory. Here the Bishop holds his ordinations and visitations, of the last of which the following interesting particulars were furnished by his Lordship, in a letter dated June 9, 1856—

Last week, on the anniversary of my own consecration (May 29th), I held my third visitation of the clergy. Archdeacon Hunter gave us a very admirable sermon from Eccles. xi. 6, 'In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand;' after which I delivered my charge. I hope to bring it home with me, and to commit it to the press soon after my arrival. It was rather singular that a large body of Plain Indians should have come to the Red River at the very time. The day after my visitation they came to pay me a visit, to the number of nearly 200. We had held, in the morning, the meeting of the Corresponding Committee, so the clergy were still with me. They arrived in the afternoon, some on horseback, some in carts, some on foot; and, after firing off a quantity of gunpowder as they approached, they took up their place in two semicircles on the lawn. We had a very long conference, having addresses on either side ; Archdeacon Cockran beseeching them, in very pointed words, to give up the pursuit of war and their roaming life, and to settle down. Archdeacon Hunter then addressed them in their own language, and afterwards, at my request, offered up a prayer in Cree. We gave them some bags of flour and a bag of pemmican, and a few special presents to the four chiefs. It will, I think, be productive of good, and tend to break up their customs and prejudices.

One of the chiefs, who has been long under training, has since been baptized by me. He is the chief of the Portage-la-Prairie Indians, and, in baptizing him, I selected the name of our excellent President, baptizing him Henry Pelham, and his son John Pelham, after the Rev. J. Pelham, of St. Marylebone. Our own chief, Pigwys, happened to be present at the time, and, after the baptism was over, gave him an excellent address, beseeching him to pray to God, to lead a new life, and to beware of the other Indians, who might endeavour to draw him off from God.

The Canada mail brought me, through the arrival of Sir G. Simpson, intelligence from Moose and Fort George. It brought fresh proof of the zeal and activity of Mr. Horden. Since my own visit, or in the course of less than six months, he had carried through the press a calendar for the Indians, with a text of Scripture for each day ; also a Hymn-book, with fifty hymns for public worship. The two little works are beautifully printed in the syllabic character : the very sight of them filled me with joy. Mr. Watkins is going on well, but still feeling the extreme difficulties of his position from its loneliness. As, from want of intercourse with a larger number of Indians, he has some time on his hands, he was employed in translations, and had just completed the first book of Samuel. Let me say, while on the subject of translations, that the Rev. T. Hurlburt, of the Canadian Wesleyan Missionary Society, and who is now at Rossville, Norway House, in this country, having succeeded Mr. Mason there, was with me last week. He is a good Indian scholar, especially in the Chipewy dialect. From the conference we had together, I do not doubt that a translation of the New Testament can be carried out, and, soon after, of the Old, which will be used in common by the Missionaries of the two Societies—those of your own and the Wesleyan Society. There will be the most hearty co-operation in the matter, as far as I can see ; and one object of my visit to England would be, to propose the matter to the Bible Society. Of their willingness to undertake the publication I do not entertain any doubt. If Archdeacon Hunter, Mr. Horden, and Mr. Hurlburt could be brought together, with Mr. Budd and one or two others now in the land, we might do any thing in translations, but distance is a great barrier. However, on this subject I am full of hope."

The Bishop, shortly after this date, came to England. The Committee have since had the advantage of many conferences with him upon the state and prospects of his diocese.

The Missionary head-quarters of the Red-River district are at the Grand Rapids, where the Mission Church, St. Andrew's, is situated, under the care of Archdeacon Hunter. Here services are conducted in the English and Cree languages. The Archdeacon reports of it, July 31, 1856—

I am glad of an opportunity to bear my humble testimony to the self-denying and persevering labours of those who have preceded me in the work at this place. It was my privilege to have the charge of this station during the winter of 1851-52, and I am thankful to report that I discover perceptible traces of progress since that period, both in temporal and spiritual things. Here we have a noble stone church, well filled every Lord's-day with attentive and devout worshippers, where the pure word of God is preached, and the sacraments are duly administered according to Christ's ordinance. Around the Lord's table we gather nearly 200 communicants to celebrate the dying love of their Lord and Saviour. Occasionally I have read prayers and preached in Cree, for the benefit of my hearers to whom that language is familiar, and I have reason to believe that they have found the service both refreshing and profitable to their souls.

This district, or parish, consists of a continuous line of houses for nearly ten or twelve miles along the banks of the Red River, extending from Park's Creek above to Mapleton below; and the number of the inhabitants, I am disposed to think, is over a thousand.

On Whit-Sunday last the Bishop held a confirmation in my church, when seventy-seven were admitted to the rite, viz. fifty-four girls and twenty-three boys. It was a solemn and interesting service, and the Bishop preached an excellent sermon on the occasion.

A model school is under the charge of the Rev. W. W. Kirkby, who has had much experience in education: he also has the general superintendence of the Society's schools in this district. In his annual report he states—

I am glad to say that the schools in the Settlement are in a very healthy condition. All appear to be making very good progress. I have given out time-tables, and I hope next year to place them upon an uniform plan. On this account I shall be glad when they are all taught by masters who have been some time under training, and have learnt the system I practise here. I am glad to say three are such, and I have a fourth now in training, and will soon be competent to fill up any vacancy that may occur.

The Indian Settlement was placed under the charge of Mr.

Cowley, after his return from a visit to England.* Archdeacon Cockran, the founder of this settlement, has furnished the Committee with a review of its early struggles and subsequent success, from its commencement in the year 1832 to the present time. The Annual Reports have sufficiently testified to the civilization and Christian character of this Indian community. The Archdeacon writes —

In the year 1832, the first attempt to cultivate the soil and locate the Indians was made. Three families were induced to make a feeble effort. In the year 1849, forty-seven Christian families, consisting of 256 individuals, were found worshippers of the true God, the creator of heaven and earth, the God of love, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, and many of them walking in all His commandments and ordinances blameless. In the present year, 1856, when the census was taken in May, the population of this parish, and its dependencies, amounted to 125 families, consisting of 600 individuals; but these statistics do not exhibit the whole benefit conferred on the human family, by planting the standard of Christianity and civilization here. Many families have migrated from this place: some have gone on hunting excursions, and are now settled elsewhere; many of our young men have entered the Hudson's-Bay Company's service; some have migrated to the United States, and others to Oregon.

“The communicants of this station are 149: the greatest number present at one time, 140. Total number of baptisms administered in this parish in fifteen years, 545; total of deaths in the same time, 308; balance in favour of the increase of the human family, 237. When the Bishop of Rupert's Land administered the sacred rite of confirmation, seventy-two persons made a public confession of their faith before the church of God. There are also three day-schools in connexion with this parish, which communicate a large amount of useful and scriptural knowledge, particularly during the winter months, to 123 children. In the summer the attendance is irregular, owing to the various agricultural operations, in which the children act an important part.

The out-stations of this district are Islington (or White Dog) and Fort Alexander to the east, and Portage la Prairie on the west. These stations are all comparatively in their infancy.

The Rev. Robert M'Donald is stationed at Islington. He says, February 9—“While there is much to exercise patience, there is also, at times, something to encourage hope. Opposition to the Gospel seems to slacken at Islington itself, although around it there may be greater bitterness and animosity felt against it." The congregation is "at times about fifty, and at other times as few as ten or twelve. There is generally in summer a larger attendance than in winter; but we had, this winter, often upwards of thirty for more than a month." The school at present numbers ten pupils, of whom four can read in the New Testament.

A church and parsonage have been erected by Archdeacon Cockran at Portage la Prairie, the population of which at present consists of settlers from the Red River; though it is confidently expected that many Indians will be gathered there. Since the return of the Rev. C. Hillyer to this country the duties of the station have been performed by Archdeacon Cockran and the Rev. W. W. Kirkby, who have spent each a month in turn at the place. Mr. Kirkby says, January 2, 1857—

I am much pleased with all I see here. A great work has been effected since my visit in 1852.* A comfortable church, school, and parsonage have been built by the active energy of Archdeacon Cockran, assisted by the contributions of Christian friends. So far as I can at present judge, I believe that there is also a work of grace going on in the hearts of many of the people, and that many a poor Indian will be brought into the Redeemer's fold. I have had some very interesting conversation with those who are here now, and believe that some have a real desire to leave heathenism, and embrace the glorious gospel of the blessed God.

Fairford District.

Fairford, or Manitoba, is under the charge of the Rev. W. Stagg. The Indians in this district are chiefly the Saulteaux, who have always been less accessible to Missionary influence than the Crees. At the close of the year Mr. Stagg writes—"The attendance of our people at the means of grace has been very encouraging. Some attend morning as well as evening each day, and it is seldom we have to complain of a person being absent from the preaching of God's word on the Sabbath."

Mr. Stagg having been joined by Mr. Settee, they have been able to give more attention to travelling. The gospel has thus been preached to a larger number of natives than in any previous year. Mr. Settee took most of the travelling during the summer months. Berens River was visited once, * "Church Missionary Record," Jan., 1854, pp. 5—8.

and Manitoba Post twice, by him, besides shorter journeys.* As soon as winter set in, and the lakes were safe, Mr. Stagg started, with Luke Caldwell, for Fort Pelly and Touchwood Hills, the latter a post 100 miles north-west of Fort Pelly. He writes—

We were thirty-eight days absent from home, and travelling nearly the whole time. It was the severest part of the winter, but, thank God, we took no harm. We travelled at least 750 miles. The largest number of natives we saw was a Sauteaux camp of twenty tents near Touchwood Hills. We also saw some of the Plain Crees. We found the natives everywhere willing to listen to the word of God, and some very anxious to receive further instruction in the truths of the gospel. I have engaged Luke Caldwell for three years. He attends school in the morning to receive further instruction. He is a very prayerful young man, and feels much for his countrymen still in darkness. I felt his value while travelling so many miles with him alone this winter. Many a night in the silent woods we enjoyed our evening prayer before wrapping ourselves in our blanket for the night.

The most glorious triumph of the gospel during the past year is the conversion of our chief, Pasermas, now Walter Webb Woodhouse.† This old man is a noble character. He is very zealous for the ingathering of the heathen, and is doing more good, as I felt forced to remark the other day, after hearing him, than many a well-paid teacher. The old man said on Sunday, when giving an address, “We were once like men lost in thick woods, not knowing where to get out; but now we hear the gospel we enjoy liberty. Why should we not listen?”

The Cumberland District is from 300 to 500 miles from the Red River. Christ Church is the chief station, with the out-stations of Nepowewin and Moose Lake. This district has been under the charge of the Rev. Henry Budd, the native minister, until the Rev. H. George removed to it at Midsummer, to be associated with Mr. Budd in charge of the station. Mr. Budd writes—

The Indians are induced to build more houses every summer, to meet the increase of population. The church is well filled every Lord's-day when the Indians are all at home, and not employed in hunting, trapping, &c. The services on Sundays, as well as on the week-days, are conducted in the native language, and have been well attended. The Cree language is now reduced to writing, and most of the Prayer-book translated and printed. The young men and the young women leaving the schools are able to read the English and the Cree too; and join in the responses of the church, which makes them doubly interesting. The duties of the station assume more of a parochial aspect. No heathen rites, no sound of drum, are to be heard in the neighbourhood: that, we trust, has died away for ever here, and the more peaceful sounds of prayer and praise have occupied its place.*

The number of communicants at this station, when the Indians are all at home, amounts to upwards of 100.

One extract from the journal of Mr. Budd bears a striking though incidental testimony to the Christian habits of the Indians.

June 23—I went over to a widow's house, where I held prayers with her and her grandchildren. I occasionally go to this house and hold prayers, &c., for the old widow has scarcely courage to assemble her children and grandchildren for prayer. This is the only house, to my knowledge, where daily worship, morning and evening, is not kept up regularly, except when the widow's son-in-law is at home.

Mr. George, soon after his first arrival, wrote as follows, June 29—

I scarcely wish that this, my first Sunday, should pass without expressing my surprise at the advanced state of the adult Indians in Christian knowledge, and also of the very efficient progress of the school-children, many of whom are able to read the English and Indian Testaments beautifully. The services of the day are conducted with great solemnity, and the loud and heartfelt responses of the people plainly show the depth of their zeal and earnestness in our blessed religion. Their singing, though out of tune, is nevertheless done with so much good spirit, that I scarcely like to interfere and introduce harmony, fearing that I may be the cause of preventing many uniting, who may not be able, from want of a musical ear, to join. But, as regards the responses, I do not hesitate to say that the Indians put some of the congregations in the Settlement to the blush, and that I have not heard the like since I left my own country. It is needless to tell you what I think of Mr. Budd: in one sentence, he is the pattern and model of a Missionary. Would to God we had twenty, nay, double that number, for our work, as such men seem alone fit to reach the heart of the Indian, which, as we are well aware, is alone to be done by the medium of their own tongue. It is long since I spent such a Sabbath; and if all future Sabbaths are spent with the same feelings of gratitude, and with the same improvement, I shall never regret having entered upon this work and labour of love.

The Missionaries make occasional visits to the out-stations. Mr. Budd writes respecting such a visit to Nepowewin—at 7 A.M.; and all the people at the place, and my own men, were present at the morning service. When the morning service was over, I administered the sacrament of the Lord's supper to fifteen communicants. In the evening we had as many as in the morning. Some heathen Indians came in the house, which gave us an opportunity of speaking to them on the great subject of religion. A few families are thinking about getting baptized; but their knowledge is so imperfect, and I cannot take it upon me to baptize them, until I am here myself on the spot, and ascertain their true character.

The station of Moose Lake is under the charge of an Indian catechist, John Umfreville. Notwithstanding great discouragement from their heathen relatives, five families have boldly professed Christ, and persevere in diligent attendance on the means of grace. As an evidence of permanent occupation, a strong framework Mission house has been erected. Its commencement is thus described by Mr. Budd, July 14, 1856—"All hands to the wood this morning. We selected a nice point of rocks, which commands a fine view of the lake and surrounding objects. A few yards from the spot stands a large Mittawin tent, devoted to the service of the devil. I set my own two men to dig the place for the foundation to the very rock, so that it will be, literally speaking, a house built on a rock. The place is a beautiful spot, and, with the Mittawin tent close by, the house will form a considerable contrast."

The extreme north-westerly district of the Mission has its station on English River, selected by the Rev. R. Hunt, after a year's experience, and much inquiry, as well as personal examination of different localities, with a view to a centre of operations for the different tribes which roam over a vast tract of country to the north and west. A large Roman-Catholic Mission is stationed still further to the north-west, at Isle-à-la-Crosse. Mr. Hunt especially needs the prayers and Christian sympathy of friends, as occupying the most advanced post of the North-West-America Mission, in the utmost severity of its inhospitable climate, with precarious means of subsistence, and in the vicinity of an antagonistic Popery.

In his annual letter, at the close of the year 1856, Mr. Hunt describes his Missionary labours as directed to the Indians, "not only very widely scattered over a vast and trackless waste, but, as fur-hunters, necessarily and almost constantly wandering, and speaking many different dialects." On one or two occasions in the course of the year they assemble together for the purposes of trade; “but when these great gatherings disperse, they spread themselves over the country, each family of two or more adults occupying the ground over which it hunts for that season, the nearest family being a day’s journey off, or perhaps more, whilst there are numerous other tribes quite out of the reach of the Missionary.” Mr. Hunt has one native teacher, and with his help, and the previous labours of the Missionaries at Cumberland, 233 Indians attached to this station have been instructed and baptized; 73 are communicants; and a school has been established in which there are 76 scholars on the books, 16 being boarders: the attendance of others depends upon the residence of their parents at or near the station. A church is in progress, but it will require several years to complete it. A few Indian families are gradually building their huts around it, and applying themselves to agriculture. Mr. Hunt writes—

Our spirits have been much refreshed by the company and help of the Rev. Henry Budd, native Missionary, who has confirmed the souls of the heathen by his earnest daily addresses during nearly three weeks, and sermons to the converts on three successive Sundays, equally important and appropriate. On Christmas-day he assisted me to administer the Lord’s Supper to 57 natives. In the church, during his visit, I have done little more than introduce him to the persons and characters of our dear people, and act as his reader, &c. In the study, he has gone through and corrected with us our translations of St. Peter’s Epistles, and I have made arrangements with him to send our future translations for his inspection.

Mr. Hunt has given much attention to the Syllabic system, so as to make it available for all the dialects of the Indians. The Committee have, in their Annual Reports, frequently noticed the providential facilities which this system affords for imparting to the Indians the power of reading and writing the word of God. They are able, in a very short time, to acquire the system, and they have no difficulty in teaching it to each other, without the aid of Missionaries. The Cree language is sufficiently current amongst all tribes to make the translations of the Scriptures in that language available, with a few dialectic alterations, for the whole territory. It is to the adaptation of the present Syllabic system of Cree writing to all other dialects that Mr. Hunt has devoted much time and ability, and it may be hoped that the result will crown his labours with success.*

York Factory, 700 miles north-east from the Red River, is the port at which the annual vessel arrives with supplies for the Red River, and from whence the produce of the fur-trade is shipped for England. It is important, also, as connected with a large out-station to the south, at Severn, and another to the north, at Churchill.

Large numbers of Indians visit York Factory occasionally, of whom many are taught the Syllabic system, and furnished with parts of the Scriptures. All the Indians residing within reach of the station are baptized, and are regular in their attendance on the means of grace.

In a letter, dated Sept. 18, 1856, Mr. Mason writes—

It is my pleasing duty to inform you of the progress and prosperity of this Mission station. The Christian Indians have been very regular in their attendance on the means of grace, and the blessed effects of the gospel are becoming more visible and apparent to others, as well as being more fully experienced by themselves. They listen with devout attention, from Sabbath to Sabbath, to God's holy word, and punctually perform family-worship morning and evening. The visit of our good Bishop has tended to confirm and establish them in the truth, as well as encourage ourselves who labour for their spiritual benefit. Our minds have been cheered and comforted by his godly advice, and I trust the good seed he has sown will appear after many days. ✓

Mr. Mason reports, that, at Severn, about 150 Indians are accustomed to assemble together for divine worship and mutual edification. One of the party has learnt by heart the whole of the Common Prayer in Cree, that he may lead their worship in the dark winter nights, when they have no means of obtaining a light. Mr. Mason has visited Churchill during the last year, which was once a settlement of importance, as the ruins of European houses and a fort testify. Here he met many families of Indians, and a few Esquimaux, and his very brief visit was employed in reading and conversation, and by their instruction in the Syllabic system.*

Moose-Fort District.

Moose Fort, situated at the bottom of James' Bay, about 700 miles in a south-easterly direction from the Red River, is the centre of a district of much importance from the number of Indians connected with it, and with its out-stations at Albany on the west, and Rupert's House on the east.

During the winter, few Indians visit the station, so that Mr. Horden's situation is then, as he describes it, "somewhat akin to that of a pastor of a small village at home." This, however, is the season when he prints off a supply of books for the year. A printing-press was sent out by the Society a few years ago, with Syllabic types, and by its means a large amount of Scripture, of prayers, and of hymns, have been scattered abroad.

In respect of translations of the Scripture, Mr. Horden writes, at the close of the year 1856—

I have the Gospel by St. Matthew completed, and Mr. Watkins has the Gospel of St. John. I trust that St. Mark's and St. Luke's will be finished before summer. I have by me the first book of Samuel, by brother Watkins, but which, with my own epistles and gospels, I have as yet been unable to print. Brother Watkins' industry does him great credit.

Mr. Watkins expresses a confident hope, that the whole of the New Testament will be shortly ready for a final revision, and for printing.

Separating after Christmas, the Indians do not assemble again in large numbers until Easter. Then the services become well attended, and the congregations large and interesting. Short extracts from Mr. Horden's journal will give a lively view of his ministrations.

Thursday, March 20—I met the Indians to-day in church, and was glad to see a tolerably large number. I called on one of them to address God in prayer, which he did in a very feeling manner, thanking God for enabling him to see the church once more, and requesting help, that he might be enabled to live more and more to His glory. He was very fervent, expressed himself very intelligently, and I trust he will receive the blessings he so much longs for.

Sunday, March 23—I had exceedingly well-attended services, at both English and Indian, the church being nearly full. Only one Indian at the place was absent, and he, poor fellow, was too ill to move. Fifty-three gathered around the table of the Lord. In the evening I visited the poor sick man, conversing with him on what was celebrated that day, and read to him such portions of Scripture as were calculated to raise his spirits, and fill his mind with joy and thankfulness on account of what had been accomplished for him as on this day.

The short summer is generally spent in visiting the distant out-stations. During the last year, in June, Mr. Horden visited Rupert's House, and, in July, Albany, from whence he proceeded several hundred miles inland, towards the Red River, to meet the Indians at Osnaburgh, especially a tribe called "the Cranes." After eight days' sojourn at Albany, Mr. Horden thus recapitulates the result of his labours—

I found a large number of Indians assembled at Albany, many of whom are Roman Catholics, and attend on the ministrations of their priests. The greater number of my Indians were here, and I met them in the cooper's shop, which was placed at my disposal. As a body, I have found improvement in them, and have been unable to discover, as on a former occasion, a jealousy existing among them as to who shall be considered chief. Most of my people have been very attentive to the word of truth, and have evinced an earnest desire to increase in knowledge and spirituality, and have been constant in the services I have held for them. My services were numerous, and had for their aim the benefit of four different classes, the Indians of Albany, the Saulteaux from the inland posts, Osnaburgh and Lac Seul, the children of the establishment, the servants at Albany, and their families, together with the servants of the inland posts just mentioned. I occasionally visited the Lac Seul Indians at their encampment.

The following is an extract of his letter, describing a Sunday spent on his journey, and his views of the distant out-station of Osnaburgh—

On Sunday morning, between five and six o'clock, I was awoke by the Albany Indians at their devotions; and from that time until evening, the hours passed happily and profitably. We were no less than thirteen in number in the morning; and, besides having regular services with my companions, I divided them into classes, taking a few at a time, and teaching them in my tent. In the evening two more joined us. Our encampment, too, was picturesque—on a rock, with a foaming torrent roaring near, which a few trees only veiled from our sight. As I neared Osnaburgh, I saw more Indians, who accompanied us to the house, so that the place, which, on my arrival, was almost as silent as the grave, was in a few minutes alive with the laughter and chatter of many of my red brethren, who, according to custom, came to examine my canoe, which was now fit for nothing but to be put into the fire. I arrived at the right moment, for I soon had the happiness of meeting "the Cranes," a band very desirous of being instructed in the religion of Jesus. They longed so much for the word of life, that they scarcely gave me any rest; and on taking a walk on the sandy margin of the lake, I have come upon a party of them sitting together, a little way in the woods, endeavouring to teach each other to read.

The majority of the Cranes, and the greater part of those east of Osnaburgh, appear strongly impressed with the conviction of the superiority of the Christian religion over the superstitions of their forefathers. It is not to be supposed that they are a moral people: they are now very far from it. They have many crimes among them, but so much the greater the necessity of their being duly instructed in the purity of the gospel of Christ. But I am quite unable to visit this distant spot, nearly 700 miles from Moose, as it requires: it ought to receive a visit every year, and that I cannot give it, without being obliged to leave unimproved portions of the great vineyard already brought under cultivation, and bringing forth fruit. Allow me, therefore, to hope that some means will be devised, by a consultation with the beloved Bishop of this diocese, whereby the benefits of my late visit may be secured and strengthened.

Fort George.

There remains one station to be noticed, that of Fort George, where the Rev. E. A. Watkins has laboured for several years, but with very few opportunities of reaching the Indians, and still less the Esquimaux, for whose sake especially the locality was selected as a Mission station. The Company's post, however, has been relinquished, so that the Mission is necessarily brought to a close, and Mr. Watkins has been directed to proceed to the Red River, to labour in some more populous district of the territory. The following extracts will give an interesting view of the labours in which he has been hitherto engaged—

My sphere of labour has been of very limited extent, as the whole number of residents at the Post, including children and the members of my own household, does not exceed thirty, whilst the Indians, who occasionally visit the place for the purpose of trade, always come in small parties, and make but a very brief stay.

But the Indian congregations vary considerably, though they are always small. For several successive weeks during the winter there have been no Indians at the Fort, except one young woman and one boy, so that my efforts have necessarily been limited to these two. At other times there are six present, and occasionally twelve, but I have never once throughout the whole year had as many as twenty, except for about three weeks in the summer, when the inland Indians visited us. The highest number even then did not exceed eighty, and this was but for once.

Mr. Watkins made a Missionary tour in the course of the year to the Great and Little Whale Rivers, to the north of Fort George, of which he thus writes—

The journey which I was permitted to accomplish was to the Great and Little Whale Rivers, and was taken in the summer. At the former of these places I spent eleven days with a party of about 120 Indians, and at the latter, thirteen days, where I met with about eighty Indians and forty Esquimaux. I was much grieved at the evident reluctance which the Indians manifested to attend the various services and classes, and I felt it my duty to rebuke them sharply for their indifference. The Esquimaux, on the other hand, much encouraged me by their regular attendance and fixed attention. On my way to the north, I met with a party of eighteen Esquimaux, at a little distance beyond Cape Jones, and had the privilege of instructing them twice. I promised to remain a day or two with them on my return, but unfortunately they had proceeded to a lake inland, so that the opportunity was lost.

Before I parted with the Esquimaux I distributed a number of books amongst them, all in the Syllabic character, some manuscript and others printed. They will thus be supplied with a prayer, and a variety of passages selected from the precious volume of inspiration, though I regret that they are unable to read any more than a few words. However, they may, perhaps, acquire a little further instruction from some of the Indians, as the characters are the same, with one or two exceptions. Or even if they should not, yet I hope that the fact of their having these books in possession will sometimes call to mind some of the truths they heard during our short visit. They will also be able to exhibit the books to others of their countrymen who have not heard the sound of the gospel, and thus I hope the message of redeeming love will be disseminated.*

After this enumeration of the various districts under Missionary influence in Rupert's Land, it must be stated that much yet remains to be done ere the evangelization of the Indians can be accomplished. Nearly two-thirds of the territory has as yet been untrodden by the foot of the European Missionary, and no larger proportion of the whole Indian population has been brought under Christian instruction.

CONCLUSION.

THE Committee feel it incumbent upon them, after thus reviewing the operations of the year, to add a word of caution, that they may not lead any to over-estimate the progress of the work of Missions. Though they can tell, through the great mercy of God, of work accomplished in the Colony of Sierra Leone, and in New Zealand, and in North-West America, yet these are comparatively insignificant tribes of the great family of uncivilized man—scarcely in the proportion of one to three thousand. Though they can tell of a great work accomplished in South India, yet, taking all the converts of all Protestant Missions in India, there is not one in a thousand yet brought into the fold of Christ. And then, if the eye traverses the map from Constantinople, through the Turkish empire, Persia, Arabia, Central Asia, and China, and then ranges over Central Africa, it will have traversed more than half the population of the world, scarcely yet touched by Missions.

Nevertheless, the foregoing Report shows that the work of evangelization, though slow, though often imperceptible, though sometimes interrupted, is still a sure work. “So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground . . . and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.” Forty-five years are spent in Sierra Leone, yet at last there is a Native Church established, with an indigenous ministry. In New Zealand, the people now nearly all profess Christianity. In North India, however, more than 40 European Missionaries labour a whole year, and scarcely 100 are added to the number of converts. In South India the journals of the Missionaries speak of many relapses—of many checks—yet at the close of the year more than 1000 converts have been added.

The conclusions to be drawn from these facts are—

That the conversion of the world is a great work, as yet scarcely commenced.

That the agencies now in operation are able, if adequately enlarged, and accompanied by the Spirit from on high, to accomplish that work. And,

That if the church of Christ desires to prosecute the work in earnest, it must put forth a far larger amount of effort, and of self-sacrifice, and of persevering prayer, than it has hitherto done.

Encouraged by the large income of the last year, by many tokens of sympathy, and by offers of co-operation, the Committee, at their last meeting, before resigning their annual functions, resolved to encourage their successors to enter, in the strength of the Lord, upon an era of more enlarged effort and of bolder aggression. With this resolution they closed their annual proceedings a few days ago. But since then it has pleased God to lay an additional obligation upon the Committee about to be elected. He has put it into the heart of an old friend of the Society to give a donation, expressly to encourage the Committee to send out additional labourers, in the confidence that God will provide, from year to year, the means of their support. That donation is 10,000*l.*, together with a sum, in the Long Annuities, equivalent to 1000*l.* a-year for three years and a half! “Enlarge, then, the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes; for thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited. Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more. For thy Maker is thine husband; the Lord of Hosts is His name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall He be called.”

APPENDIX.

(See p. 59.)

THE Committee of the Church Missionary Society having learnt that cases have occurred in the Missions, of baptized converts, who reside among the heathen, falling into the practice of polygamy; and having been also requested by some of their Missionaries to explain their views upon the question of the admission of polygamists to Christian baptism: the following Minute upon the sinfulness of polygamy generally, as well as upon the particular question alluded to, is printed, and circulated for the information of the Missionaries of the Society.

12th Jan. 1857.*

An examination of several passages of Scripture which bear upon the subject of polygamy, will show that the Divine ordinance of Marriage is confined to one wife; and that, under every dispensation, offences against this ordinance have been marked by Divine disapprobation.

The original institution of marriage in Paradise, even as recorded in the brief narrative of Moses, is decisive against polygamy, and was declared to be so by the Prophet Malachi, under the old dispensation, as well as by our Lord Jesus Christ Himself.

Gen. ii. 23; Mal. ii. 15, &c.

Gen. ii. 23. "And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.

24. "Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh."

The Prophet Malachi refers to this primæval institution of marriage in condemnation of those, in his days, who had married more than one wife.

Mal. ii. 14. "Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the Lord hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15. "And did not He make one? Yet had He the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That He might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth."

Lowth, as quoted by Scott, thus explains the passage—

"The Prophet puts the Jews in mind of the first institution of marriage . . . (as Christ did afterwards on a like occasion) and tells them, that God made but one man at first (the word rendered 'one' is masculine), and made the woman out of him, when He could have created more women, if He had pleased: to instruct men, that this was the true pattern of marriage, ordained for true love and undivided affection, and best serving the chief end of matrimony, namely, the religious education of children."

Scott adds—"The Lord God . . . breathed into his nostrils the breath (or spirit) of life, and man became a living soul." But had He not 'the residue of the spirit'? Was His life-giving power exhausted? and could He not have created many women for this one man, had He seen good? But He meant that a godly posterity should be trained up, which would best be done by the joint care of both parents, living together in love, and uniting their instructions, examples, and prayers, for that end; to which polygamy and divorces would have been alike unfavourable."

The 16th verse, as it stands in the authorized version—"For the Lord, the God of Israel, saith that He hateth putting away"—implies, that the first wife had been put away before the second marriage; and it condemns that practice: but some versions give a different interpretation.

The first record of a case of polygamy is, before the flood, in the posterity of Cain (Gen. xvi. 3.), by Lamech, who is marked as, in another respect, a lawless character.

A significant indication of the Divine will was however given at the flood, when, by Divine appointment, Noah and his three sons entered the Ark, each having one wife.

After the flood several instances are recorded, amongst which the following only seem to require special notice.

The case of Hagar, whom Abraham took at Sarah's request, is that of a concubine rather than of a second wife, and she was eventually put away by the Divine command.

Jacob was led into polygamy by the fraud of his father-in-law. And it is especially noticeable that such polygamy as his, the marriage of two sisters, which was not unlikely to have passed into a precedent by so illustrious an example, was expressly condemned in the Levitical law (Lev. xviii. 18). Though it is to be observed, that some among the Jews, and many Christian commentators, regard this passage as an express prohibition of polygamy of every kind; as the term "sister" is often used for any daughter of Israel.

Moses gave a prospective command to the future kings of Israel, not to "multiply wives." (Deut. xvii. 17.)

David's violation of this Divine law was followed by the fearful consequences of incest, murder, and rebellion in his own family, and by the extravagant polygamy of Solomon his son, who "took 700 wives and 300 concubines." (1 Kings xi. 42.)

The inspired writings of Solomon, both the Book of Proverbs, written, as is generally supposed, before, and the Book of Ecclesiastes after, his fall, form a powerful corrective to his example, by the earnest entreaties they address to men to adhere strictly to the purity of the original institution, of one woman to one man. (Prov. v. 15—18; Eccles. ix. 9.)

The New Testament is explicit in condemnation of the practice. It must be borne in mind that there is no evidence that polygamy was regarded otherwise than as an offence by the Jews in our Lord's time, or that it was commonly practised. It was also forbidden by the Roman law. The custom which commonly prevailed, both amongst Jews and Romans, of frequent divorces and re-marriages, would supersede the form of polygamy consisting in the retention of the first wife. Two of the Evangelists record discourses of our Lord which, in condemning the one practice, equally prohibit the other.

Matt. xix. 3—8; Mark x. 2—9.

The narrative of St. Mark is as follows:—

2. "And the Pharisees came to Him, and asked Him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting Him.

3. And He answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?

4. And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5. And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6. But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.

7. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8. And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."

1. Our Lord here refers to the first institution of marriage in Paradise, as the standard by which all questions respecting marriage are to be judged. "From the beginning of the creation God made them male and female." "They twain shall be one flesh." These sentences as directly condemn polygamy, as they do the particular case stated by the Pharisees. Polygamy is at variance with the Divine institution of marriage.

2. Polygamy has been unlawful "from the beginning of the creation," before the human race was divided into tribes. Therefore it must be unlawful in all countries and under all dispensations. Even the provision for divorces, in the Levitical Law, did not justify the putting away a wife and marrying another. This very provision testified to the sinfulness of the practice, and was a national stigma. "He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so." (Matt. xix. 8.) Such was the hardness and wickedness of their hearts, that Moses introduced civil regulations respecting divorces, that no wife should be put away without a legal process. (Deut. xxiv. 1—4.) But even such regulated divorces were violations of God's original ordinance; and therefore the precept of Moses gives no countenance whatever to polygamy.

Matt. xix. 9—12; Mark x. 10—12.

Mark x. 10. "And in the house His disciples asked Him again of the same matter.

11. "And He saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12. "And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery."

Our Lord held this second conversation "in the house," apart from the Pharisees and their captious questions, with His disciples, who asked Him again "of the same matter." Here he combines together the putting away one wife and the marrying another: declaring that a man so acting, violates the seventh commandment, and commits adultery against his first wife. The stress of the prohibition falls upon the second marriage, for the putting away a wife without marrying another would be no adultery. This is, therefore, a direct prohibition of a second marriage during the life of the first wife. Paley thus reasons upon the parallel passage in Matthew—"The words of Christ may be construed by an easy implication to prohibit polygamy: for if whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery, he who marrieth another without putting away the first, is no less guilty of adultery; because the adultery does not consist in the repudiation of the first wife (for, however unjust or cruel that may be, it is not adultery), but in entering into a second marriage during the legal existence and obligation of the first." (Paley's Moral Philosophy, Book III. Part 3. c. 6.)

St. Matthew adds—

10. "His disciples say unto Him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry."

Upon this Whitby remarks—"If, under the prohibition of divorce, that of polygamy had not been contained, there would have been no cause for this inference of Christ's disciples, seeing they might have had a remedy by taking one or more other wives, whom they loved better."

Luke xvi. 16, 18.

On another occasion our Lord again solemnly annulled the apparent licence given by Moses, showing that it was no part of the moral or eternal law of God: and that the putting away a wife and marrying another was adultery.

16. "The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17. "And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18. "Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery."

1 Cor. vii. 2—4.

St. Paul condemns the state of polygamy by these emphatic words—

2. "To avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3. "Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4. "The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife."

On the last verse Whitby remarks—"Here is a plain argument against polygamy; for if a man hath not power over his own body, he cannot give the power of it to another, and so he cannot marry another." All the directions contained in this Chapter are grounded upon the assumption that one wife only was allowable. And this Epistle was addressed to a newly-formed church, in a city of the loosest morals; so that the circumstances of the converts bore a very close resemblance to those which are now found in our Missions.

After such express prohibitions of polygamy, and the general current of revelation against its practice, under every form, it cannot be argued that the word of God gives any countenance to it, because a few instances are recorded in Scripture, without a note of condemnation, or because of one or two texts of uncertain interpretation.

It will only be necessary to notice two such texts, which have been sometimes cited in discussions upon the subject.

The text 2 Sam. xii. 8. has been sometimes referred to as countenancing polygamy. Nathan said to David, "The Lord gave thee thy master's wives into thy bosom." But as Saul had only one wife (1 Sam. xiv. 50), and David had married her daughter several years before, this interpretation is inadmissible. The text refers probably to the fact that all the females who composed Saul's family, or court, came into the power of David.

It has been argued also that St. Paul, in his Epistles to Timothy (1 Tim. iii. 2.) and Titus (Tit. i. 6.), having given directions that a Bishop should be the husband of one wife, seems to allow a Layman to be the husband of two or more. But it is uncertain whether the Apostle refers to polygamy, or to the practice condemned by our Saviour, of putting away a wife, on unlawful grounds, and marrying another. The latter interpretation must be given to the parallel expression (2 Tim. v. 9.), a widow "having been the wife of one man." This is therefore the most natural interpretation of the words in both cases. But even if the former expression be taken as referring to polygamists, no argument can be raised from it in favour of polygamy. Rather, if a pastor is to be "an example of the believers in purity" (1 Tim. iv. 12.), and to "show himself in all things a pattern of good works" (Titus ii. 7.), what is enjoined upon the minister, binds the people.

After this review of the Scriptural argument against polygamy, there should be no difficulty on the part of the Missionaries in plainly stating to the heathen or Mahomedan, that the practice is contrary to the will of God. The natural conscience of every man must bear some witness, however faint, to this truth. The condemnation of the practice by the Roman law, and by other heathen nations, is a testimony to this fact. The original creation of one man and one woman, may be appealed to as enforcing the true nature of Marriage. The saving alive in the Ark of men with one wife each, which is a type of admission into the Church of Christ, together with the providential equality of the sexes in every land, and at all times, may be pointed out as corroborative testimony to the continued force of the original institution. Various other moral considerations may be urged, to show that upon the principles of natural religion the practice is unlawful. Much may be thus done to inculcate upon the native mind right notions of marriage, before the question arises of their admission as candidates for Christian baptism, as well as to inspire all who have embraced Christianity with a just abhorrence of the practice of polygamy.

The foregoing review will also help to decide the question of the admission of a polygamist to baptism. The sin may have been commenced in ignorance, but its continuance, after Christian instruction, must bring guilt upon the conscience. The polygamy which is prohibited by the law of God is not only the taking, but the having and retaining more than one wife. Baptism, upon every view of the ordinance, carries with it a public profession of submission to the law of Christ, which the polygamist habitually violates. In the case of those, especially, who are baptized according to the adult service of the Church of England, no man can honestly declare that he will "obediently keep God's commandments, and walk in the same all the days of his life," when he purposes to live with two or more women, as wives, at the same time.

Or the argument may be thus shortly given—

A state of polygamy is unlawful within the Church of Christ, even though commenced in ignorance,

1. Because it has been declared by God to be contrary to the Divine institution of marriage.

2. Because it has been pronounced adultery by Christ.

3. Because it is written—"Let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband."

Therefore a polygamist cannot be lawfully admitted by baptism into the Church of Christ.

It has been argued, in favour of admitting polygamists into the Christian Church, that there is no precept in the New Testament, nor any Canon of the early Church, forbidding their baptism.

But the holy Scripture forbids not the baptism of an offender against the Divine laws, but only the offence.

With respect to the early Church, this explanation is given in the oriental Canons which bear the name of St. Basil the Great, in the year 340. The 80th Canon declares—"The Fathers say nothing of polygamy, as being brutish, and a thing unagreeable to human nature. To us it appears a greater sin than fornication."

It has been objected, also, that if polygamists be thus absolutely condemned, and if baptism be refused to those who have more than one wife, it will compel men to put away those who have been regarded as their wives. This, however, was obviously the dilemma in which our Lord placed many to whom His words respecting divorce were addressed. If their unlawfully-divorced wife were still alive, he declared that they were living in adultery. All the practical difficulties apprehended in the one case belong to the other.

It has been argued, indeed, that Christ Himself forbids a man to put away his wife; but it seems to be forgotten, that this prohibition applies only to the true wife to whom he is joined under the universal law, "They twain shall be one flesh." The so-called second marriage is no marriage upon the principles of natural and revealed religion, but an unlawful connexion. Compare with the Divine law, "Let every man have his own wife, and every woman her own husband," the licentious precept of the Korán, "Take in marriage, of such other women as please you, two, or three, or four, and no more." This is a clear case, in which the law of man makes the law of God of none effect: and as the law of God overruled the law of Corban amongst the Jews, so it must be in this case: or, to take an instance very likely to occur at the present day, if a heathen in his ignorance has entered into an obligation to sacrifice to an idol, he is released from such obligation when the law of God is made known to him.

A case is recorded in the Book of Ezra, which should have great weight with those who argue the question upon considerations derived from the hardships to the women and children who may be put away. During the captivity, the people of Israel, Priests and Levites, had married heathen wives. Much might have been pleaded in respect of such wives and their children; but under Ezra's remonstrances the people determined, "Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God: and let it be done according to the law." (Ezra x. 3.) The last clauses of this text intimate that a proper reverence for the word of God will overcome a variety of perplexing questions, which may otherwise entangle a scrupulous mind.

At the same time, as far as marriage constitutes a civil contract by the law or custom of any country, it must be explained to the converts that they are bound to fulfil such obligations by providing for the wife or children, and in every other lawful way repairing the injury which a separation may occasion to the woman, while they repudiate cohabitation. Serious difficulties will doubtless sometimes occur, as in every transition from a wrong to a right course of action. These difficulties will vary according to the laws of marriage and divorce in different countries: cases must therefore be dealt with according to circumstances. Whatever unhappiness or injury may arise from an act of religious duty must often be borne as the fruit of an original fault, though that fault may have been committed in ignorance.

It must be added, however, that the practical difficulties of the case are far less than might be supposed. It is only a few, of the higher and wealthier classes, who can afford to keep many wives. The lower classes, the poor, to whom, especially, the Gospel is preached, seldom take second wives.

In many countries, where, in common parlance, polygamy is said to prevail, one woman only is regarded as the wife, and the rest as concubines. And it has not yet been pleaded that a man should retain his concubines when he enters the Christian Church.

It has been alleged, that, by refusing baptism to polygamists, converts may be kept out of the Church of Christ, and deprived of further instruction, and that the heathen may be the more prejudiced against the truth.

To this allegation it might be answered, generally, that many other things in the Christian system will appear hard sayings to some who will go back. But it is not necessary to repel a polygamist from Christian instruction; baptism may be deferred till increasing light in the minds of the parties, or the Providence of God, remove difficulties out of the way. It is the testimony of many Missionaries, that comparatively few polygamists seek baptism, for the natural conscience feels the difficulty, and shrinks from a Christian profession, however favourably disposed in other respects: it is scarcely possible to conceive, that one who truly believes in God would be willing to continue in a course of polygamy, after he knows the truth. There is little fear of sincere converts, therefore, being repelled; while the fact of each Christian convert being the husband of one wife, in a land of sensuality, is both a test of sincerity, and a striking evidence of the power of religion. This produces a general impression, amongst the reflecting members of the community, favourable to Christianity.

It has been the main object of these remarks to place the question simply upon Scriptural grounds. But it must be remembered that many obvious evils must arise from the admission of polygamists to baptism. It would be very hard to convince baptized converts, tempted to sin, that there is any real difference between admitting a polygamist into the Christian Church, and allowing polygamy to those already within it; or that it is just to put a polygamist out of the Church, who has become such after baptism, when another polygamist, who had become such before baptism, might be admitted, and remain one of its members.

It must also be added, that much greater danger arises from any apparent toleration of polygamy than many Christians would suppose. Doubts or suggestions respecting the strictness of the original law of marriage, and inferences from the example of the Patriarchs, have ever found too ready entrance into the corrupt heart of baptized men. In many periods of Church History this root of bitterness has sprung up, and many have been defiled. Even at the close of the last century, a question respecting the lawfulness of polygamy was introduced, and spread amongst religious people, to a most pernicious extent. The commentator Scott, upon the passage in St. Matthew, already quoted, speaks of the serious evils which he had witnessed from unwarrantable inferences from our Lord's words. The present day has witnessed the fearful abominations of the Mormonites. These things are enough to warn Christians against any thing which tends to unsettle the original and universal law of marriage—"They twain shall be one flesh."

THE Committee of the Church Missionary Society request the Treasurers or Secretaries of Associations to transmit to the Society's House in Salisbury Square, as soon after the 31st of December as possible, the Contribution Lists and Accounts of their respective Associations, made up in the manner in which the same are printed in the Parent Society's Report. The names of the present Officers and the date at which the Accounts of the Association are closed should be specified. Where the Account or the List is a printed one, two copies should be forwarded.

The Society's General Accounts are closed on the 31st of March, and all Moneys and Lists belonging to the year must be received at the Society's House by that date, in order to the Lists being inserted in the Report.

The appending to the Annual Report of the Lists and Accounts of the Associations is a general acknowledgment to the Local Contributors that their Contributions have been received by the Parent Society; and the Committee are desirous of preventing the dissatisfaction which they are aware is occasioned by the omission of the Lists in the Report in consequence of the Money or the List having been received after date, and too late for insertion.

Where an Association has Branches connected with it, it is manifest that the Accounts of the Branches must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association some time before the period for forwarding the Accounts of the Association to London. When this is not done within a reasonable time, such Branches should be considered as self-excluded, and the Accounts forwarded without them.

To prevent mistakes, it is requested that Branch Associations will in every case forward their money and Lists through the Association with which they are connected, and not direct to the Parent Society.

The Committee return their cordial thanks to the Treasurers of Associations, and to those friends who kindly fill the office of Secretary—an office which, they are well aware, draws largely on the time and attention of those who occupy it, but on the efficient discharge of the duties of which the prosperity of an Association chiefly depends.

* * The Committee would be glad to receive information respecting any names in the List of "Benefactions of former Years," which should be expunged, or altered, from death or other causes.

Erratum—In the Terling List of Contributions, page (51), for "including Benefaction of 5*l*. by Lord Rayleigh,"
read "including Benefaction of 50*l*. by Lord Rayleigh."

I.—BENEFACTIONS OF FORMER YEARS, TO MARCH 31, 1856, WHETHER PAID DIRECT TO THE PARENT SOCIETY OR THROUGH ASSOCIATIONS.

* * The following List does not contain Benefactions under 10l., nor Anonymous Benefactions, of whatever amount.

THE Committee of the Church Missionary Society request the Treasurers or Secretaries of Associations to transmit to the Society's House in Salisbury Square, as soon after the 31st of December as possible, the Contribution Lists and Accounts of their respective Associations, made up in the manner in which the same are printed in the Parent Society's Report. The names of the present Officers and the date at which the Accounts of the Association are closed should be specified. Where the Account or the List is a printed one, two copies should be forwarded.

The Society's General Accounts are closed on the 31st of March, and all Moneys and Lists belonging to the year must be received at the Society's House by that date, in order to the Lists being inserted in the Report.

The appending to the Annual Report of the Lists and Accounts of the Associations is a general acknowledgment to the Local Contributors that their Contributions have been received by the Parent Society; and the Committee are desirous of preventing the dissatisfaction which they are aware is occasioned by the omission of the Lists in the Report in consequence of the Money or the List having been received after date, and too late for insertion. )

Where an Association has Branches connected with it, it is manifest that the Accounts of the Branches must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association some time before the period for forwarding the Accounts of the Association to London. When this is not done within a reasonable time, such Branches should be considered as self-excluded, and the Accounts forwarded without them.

To prevent mistakes, it is requested that Branch Associations will in every case forward their money and Lists through the Association with which they are connected, and not direct to the Parent Society.

The Committee return their cordial thanks to the Treasurers of Associations, and to those friends who kindly fill the office of Secretary—an office which, they are well aware, draws largely on the time and attention of those who occupy it, but on the efficient discharge of the duties of which the prosperity of an Association chiefly depends.

* * The Committee would be glad to receive information respecting any names in the List of "Benefactions of former Years," which should be expunged, or altered, from death or other causes.

Erratum—In the Terling List of Contributions, page (51), for "including Benefaction of 5l. by Lord Rayleigh,"

I.—BENEFACTIONS OF FORMER YEARS, TO MARCH 31, 1856, WHETHER PAID DIRECT TO THE PARENT SOCIETY OR THROUGH ASSOCIATIONS.

* * The following List does not contain Benefactions under 10l., nor Anonymous Benefactions, of whatever amount.

As it is probable that, for want of information, the names of persons deceased may appear in the following List, the Committee request the favour of such instances being pointed out to the Secretaries.
