LONDON:
GILBERT AND RIVINGTON, PRINTERS,
52, ST. JOHN'S SQUARE.

O Merciful God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified, give to every member of the same the spirit of love and of power and of a sound mind, that they may be established in the truth of Thy holy Gospel, and not carried away like children with every blast of vain doctrine : but may obediently fulfil Thy holy commandment, and send forth Thy true and lively Word to be a light to all the world. Grant also to those who shall be the heralds of Thy salvation in distant lands that they may constantly speak the truth, and patiently suffer for the truth's sake ; so that by these, Thy faithful ministers, Thy Holy Name may be for ever glorified, and Thy blessed kingdom enlarged, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

STATIONS, CLERICAL OR LAY MISSIONARIES, AND NATIVE CLERGYMEN

SUPPORTED EITHER DIRECTLY BY THE SOCIETY, OR BY NATIVE CHURCH FUNDS AIDED BY THE SOCIETY.

MAY 1, 1877.

*. * A STATION is the place at which a Clerical or Lay Missionary is stationed, or at which Native Christians are located under Native pastoral superintendence in connexion with the Society. The letter (m) means Married. — Wives of Missionaries, &c., though not named, except when engaged in some specific employment, are always expected by the Society to lay themselves out to do good, in every practicable way, among Native Females; such as cultivating familiar intercourse with them, educating children, and instructing Female Adults.

The figures after the Names of the European Labourers show the date of their first connexion with the Society's Missions.

The asterisk (*) denotes that the Missionary is on his way out. The mark (+) that he is on his way home.

The mark ‡ denotes that the Name to which it is prefixed is that of an Agent supported by Native Church Funds. The Native Ministers in New Zealand are supported partly by Subscriptions from Native Christians, and partly from the rents of lands belonging to the Society in the Colony.

The PRESIDENT shall be such Temporal Peer or Commoner as may be appointed to that office; and VICE-PRESIDENTS shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the Churches of England and Ireland, who, being Members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such other persons as, being also Members, shall be appointed thereto.

Benefactors of Ten Guineas, or upward, and Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upward shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Auxiliaries and of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Honorary Members for Life, or Honorary Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. The Committee may summon a Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society [at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum] at any time, and they shall do so on receipt of a requisition in writing, addressed to the Secretaries, and signed by not less than Fifty Members of the Society, and specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Laws and Regulations of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones made, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special General Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland; and of all Clergymen who are Members of the Society and have been so for not less than one year. Of the Twenty-four Lay Members, Eighteen shall be re-appointed each year from the existing Committee, and Six shall be elected from the General Body of the Society.

XII. The Committee shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, a Committee of Finance, and a Committee of Estimates, and shall have power to fill up vacancies. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same for confirmation to the Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate to the Committee, proper persons as Patrons, President, Vice-Presidents, Honorary Life Governors, Honorary Life Members of the Society, and preachers of the Anniversary Sermons.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt means of obtaining Subscriptions, Benefactions, and Collections in Churches, Chapels, and at Meetings; to take a general oversight of the Associations; and to nominate, from time to time, to the Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents and Representatives of the Society for these objects.

XV. The office of the Committee of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to nominate them to the Committee, to superintend their instruction, to recommend their location, and to correspond with them when sent out, and generally to direct the foreign work of the Society.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Finance is, generally to superintend the accounts and financial affairs of the Society.

XVII. The office of the Committee of Estimates is, to prepare and submit to the Committee an Estimate of the probable expenditure of the Society, and from time to time to note and to report to the Committee how far the expenditure corresponds with the sanctioned Estimate.

XVIII. The Committee of Correspondence shall elect from among themselves, at their first Meeting in every year, a Clerical Sub-Committee, for the examination of Missionary Candidates.

XIX. The Committee shall receive and deal with the Reports of the other Committees, shall decide upon the countries where Missions shall be carried on, and shall superintend and control the affairs of the Society in general.

XX. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject, in the case of the appointment of Secretaries, to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting. One, at least, of the Secretaries shall be a layman.

XXI. The Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; but should the second Monday be a Bank Holiday the Meeting shall be held on the day following. The other Committees shall meet as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on. All Committee Meetings shall be opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy.

XXII. The Patrons, Vice-Patron, President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex officio, Members of all Committees. Governors, being Members of the Established Church of England, or of the Church of Ireland, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the Committee.

XXIII. Five Members shall be necessary to form a Quorum of the Committee; and Three of each of the Committees provided for in Law XII.; in each case exclusive of the Secretaries. In cases of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XXIV. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three Members of the Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary, or in his absence by one of the other Secretaries.

XXV. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society, of whom not more than two shall be Members of the Committee. Three shall be a Quorum.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXVI. In the selection of Candidates for the Missionary office the following course shall be pursued. The cases of Candidates who are already in Holy Orders, or who are University Graduates, or whom it is proposed to send out without further training, shall be considered by the Committee of Correspondence, the Candidate having (as a rule) appeared in person before them, and a report having been given, after a personal interview, by one or more members of the Clerical Sub-Committee. If any Member of the Committee of Correspondence shall show reason for requiring further information, the consideration shall be deferred till a subsequent Meeting of that Committee. Other Candidates shall be examined by the Clerical Sub-Committee, which shall report to the Committee of Correspondence.

XXVII. A Candidate nominated by the Committee of Correspondence, and accepted by the Committee, shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time that the Committee shall decide, and be subject to such Regulations as may be established by the Committee for the direction of Missionary Candidates: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall be sent out, either ordained or unordained, at the discretion of the Committee*.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, such provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable as in the judgment of the Committee is suitable. The Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support. The Committee shall be further empowered in special cases to make such arrangements with those employed by them as they may think fit.

GENERAL.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. All questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and a Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the Church of England, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

XXXIII. The object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as in any other respect to alter the principles and practices of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference, cannot properly be considered as so bound.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The following passage, from Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Annual Report, illustrates the practice of the Society in reference to this Rule:—

"The Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] our Missionaries: these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same Colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church."

APPENDIX II. TO THE THIRTY-NINTH REPORT

REFERRED TO IN THE NOTE TO LAW XXIX.

REMARKS ON THE CONSTITUTION AND PRACTICE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, WITH REFERENCE TO ITS ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONS.

It is the object of the following Remarks to show, that the constitution and practice of the Church Missionary Society are in strict conformity with Ecclesiastical principles, as they are recognized in the constitution and practice of the Church of England.

Throughout the system of the Church of England there is a recognized co-operation of temporal and spiritual functions in MATTERS ECCLESIASTICAL; that is, the Laity and Clergy have not only their separate and distinct provinces, but, in many important respects, they unite their agency for the accomplishing of Ecclesiastical acts.

For instance, in supplying a vacant Church, a Lay-patron selects and presents "his Clerk"—as the Clergyman is technically called—to the Bishop; who thereupon invests him with authority to minister in that Church. So, also, there are certain Lay-officers appointed to every Church—the Churchwardens or Sidesmen—whose duty it is, not only to guard, in conjunction with the Minister, the temporalities of the Church, but also to watch over the due performance of Divine Service, the morals of the parishioners, and the conduct of the Minister; and to report, from time to time, on each of these matters, to the Ecclesiastical Authorities. The duty of these officers is implied in the old appellation, "Sidesmen," or "Synodsmen"—men summoned to attend and give information at Synods and Visitations.

The distinction and co-operation of lay and spiritual functions in the Church of England might be further illustrated in the case of Ecclesiastical Courts, and various relations which arise out of the principle, that the Sovereign is the Supreme Ruler of the Church.

Keeping the foregoing distinction in view, the Church Missionary Society may be regarded as an Institution for discharging the temporal and lay offices necessary for the preaching of the Gospel among the Heathen. It is strictly a Lay Institution: it exercises, as a Society, no spiritual functions whatsoever.

Such being the constitution of the Society in theory—are its proceedings conducted in conformity with this theory, and with the Ecclesiastical principles of the Church of England?

In order to review these proceedings, they may be conveniently arranged under the Four following Heads:—

I. THE COLLECTION OF THE HOME REVENUE, AND THE DISBURSEMENT OF IT ABROAD.

These acts are altogether within the province of Laymen.

II. THE SELECTING AND EDUCATING CANDIDATES FOR MISSIONARY EMPLOYMENT.

In this department there is no necessary encroachment upon spiritual functions. The Colleges in our Universities are Lay-Corporations, and may, in many cases, be administered and presided over by Laymen.

Yet it may be urged that in this department there is an approach to the peculiar province of Clergymen; because spiritual persons seem the more proper judges of a Candidate's fitness for Missionary employment; and it is generally admitted, that a Bishop may exercise a control over the education and training of Candidates to be advanced by himself to Holy Orders. Now, in both these particulars the Church Missionary Society has carefully guarded its proceedings. The examination of Missionary Candidates is referred to a Clerical Sub-Committee; and the General Committee consult and act upon the report of this Clerical trial and judgment. In respect of the other point, the education and training of Candidates for Holy Orders, the Church Missionary College at Islington has the sanction and approbation of the Bishop of London; who, in this country, admits to Holy Orders all the Society's Candidates; and his Lordship has repeatedly expressed his satisfaction at the results of the system of instruction, as they have been manifested in his examinations for Holy Orders.

III. The Third general head of the Society's proceedings is, THE SENDING FORTH, TO PARTICULAR STATIONS, THE MISSIONARIES THUS ORDAINED, OR OTHER CLERGYMEN WHO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY ORDAINED.

Now, here an objection against the Society has been founded on the use of the term "sending forth:"—it sounds like an exercise of Ecclesiastical power. But, Ecclesiastically speaking, the Bishop of London "sends forth" every Missionary ordained by him. The Law of the land has sanctioned the Two Archbishops, and the Bishop of London, in ordaining persons to officiate abroad. The Secretary of the Church Missionary Society requests, by Letter, the Bishop of London to ordain, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of Parliament, such and such persons, whom the Society is willing to support in some Foreign Station. The Bishop, by the imposition of hands, gives them authority to preach the Gospel, with a view to their Foreign location.—In the case of persons already in Holy Orders, who may join the Society, they may be said to go forth by their own voluntary act; but their Letters of Orders, given by a Bishop of our Church, are their mission and commission, Ecclesiastically speaking.

Hence, to call the acts of the Church Missionary Society—in selecting the station, paying the passage-money, and agreeing to provide the Missionary's salary—to call these acts a SENDING FORTH of Preachers, in an Ecclesiastical sense, is to confound names with things, and to lose sight of all true Church principles.

IV. The Fourth general head under which the proceedings of the Church Missionary Society may be arranged, is, THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MISSIONARIES IN THEIR LABOURS AMONG THE HEATHEN.

Here a distinction must be made between the case of those Foreign Stations which lie within the jurisdiction of a Colonial Bishop, and other stations, which are not so situated, and may therefore be termed Extra-diocesan.

In the first case, the Church Missionary Society has expressly determined, that all its ordained Missionaries shall be submitted for licence to the Bishop of the diocese in which they may be stationed; and that no Missionary shall exercise his spiritual functions in such diocese without a licence. The Society has further recognized the uncontrolled discretion of the Bishop to grant or withhold his licence, and the propriety of specifying in such licence a particular district as the field of labour, so that a Missionary cannot be removed from one district to another without the sanction of the Bishop.

These principles were stated in a Letter from the Society to the Bishop of Calcutta, signed by the Right Honourable the President—December 17, 1837—in a manner so satisfactory to the Bishop, that he embodied them in the four following Rules, expressed for the most part in the words of the Society's Letter: which were, at the Bishop's request, entered upon the minutes of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, as the recognised Rules of their practice:—

"1. The Bishop expresses—by granting or withholding his licence, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approbation, or otherwise, of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries afterward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their Ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those—the Committee and Secretary—who still stand in the relation of Lay-patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his Ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage.—The Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate directions when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop* or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives, further, all such confidential information, on all topics, as the Bishops officially neither could wish nor properly ask [to receive]."

The Bishop also wrote to the Parent Society in the following terms: "You seem to me to lay down the principle most correctly.....This is to me perfectly satisfactory; as I shall instantly inform the Archbishop of Canterbury, to whom I report all the proceedings of the diocese."—9th June, 1838.

It will be perceived, that the Missionaries, thus licensed, stand toward the Bishop in the relation rather of Stipendiary Curates, than of Beneficed Clergymen. For a Bishop in England cannot refuse a licence, or institution to a benefice, without assigning a reason which will bear investigation before a Court of Common Law; nor can he deprive a Clergyman of his benefice without a judicial process. But no law has provided any such check in the case of Missionaries; the Bishop has the power of withholding a licence, or of withdrawing it, at his sole discretion, without assigning any cause, as in the case of Stipendiary Curates in this country.

If it be asked, What are the checks and safeguards against the undue exercise of this discretionary power of the Bishop?—it may be replied, in the words of the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Parent Society, April 12, 1837,—

"We are not to take for granted, that discretionary power will be abused; but, on the contrary, to provide, by a cheerful and friendly spirit and conduct, against the likelihood of such an occurrence. If the event of arbitrary conduct should arise, or be supposed to arise, the remedies are—public opinion—an appeal to the Archbishop—and the Society's refusing to make other appointments and locations than those unreasonably objected to. Nothing is the least likely—and probability is the guide of life—to arise to impede or cramp the Committee; since they unquestionably and avowedly possess, The choice of man—The appointment of spheres of labour—The Temporal power, including pecuniary support."

* The Three Bishops of India, and the Bishop of Australia, are the Presidents of the Corresponding Committees in their respective dioceses.

But though the Bishop's licence is at once the pledge and proof that the Society's Missionaries are under Episcopal superintendence and jurisdiction, and that the spiritual oversight rests altogether with the Bishop; yet the Society may seem, to some persons, to keep up a kind of spiritual jurisdiction and oversight, by requiring accounts from the Missionaries of all their proceedings, and by giving them directions, from time to time, which may bear upon their spiritual duties. But it must be remembered, that the Society stands towards its Missionaries in the relation of Trustees of the fund out of which their salaries are paid. In the case of a Beneficed Clergyman in this country, the Minister is the guardian and possessor of the temporalities of the benefice, because the benefice is an endowment; and the Patron has no further connexion with the Minister whom he has once presented to the Bishop. In our case, the office of Patron is, in a sense, perpetuated by the payment of the salary, and the possession of all the temporalities of the Mission.

This matter has been well explained by the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, May 26, 1837:—"The Missionary Committees," says his Lordship, "have a far greater latitude in India than any Lay-patrons at home. Upon presenting his Clerk to the Bishop, the Patron at home is functus officio. The Clergyman is removed, on being once instituted and licensed, totally and for ever from the Patron, and is transferred to the superintendency of the Bishop. The Patron has nothing whatever more to do with him. But in India, the Committee is (1) the continued paymaster of the Missionary after he is duly licensed;—for institution and induction there are none. (2) They correspond with him. (3) They supply him with Catechists. (4) They report his chief proceedings home. (5) They propose removals and changes of Station to the Bishop. (6) They exercise, unavoidably, an influence which does not belong to the mere Lay-patron; and are aiding, in a variety of ways, to the comfortable and honourable discharge of the Missionary's most exalted and most spiritual duties."

It remains to consider the case of those Stations which are Extra-diocesan; i. e. where there is no Colonial Bishop of the Church of England having jurisdiction over them.

In these cases, the Society has endeavoured to procure for such Stations the benefits of the Episcopal office from the nearest Bishop of the Church of England. Application was made by the Committee both to the late and to the present Bishop of Madras to extend, as far as circumstances would admit, these benefits to the Mission of Travancore; which as an independent state, not forming part of the British Dominions, was not included in the diocese of Madras. A similar application was made, on behalf of the New Zealand Mission, to the Bishop of Australia, who at once acceded to the request, and kindly promised to visit New Zealand as soon as his other duties would permit; stating, in a Letter to the Society's representatives at Sydney, "It is highly satisfactory to me that our friends at home are taking a view of these things which proves them to belong, not only to a MISSIONARY, but also to a CHURCH Society." (See Annual Report, 1838.)

Such is a General View of the Constitution and Proceedings of the Church Missionary Society.

It is not intended to assert that errors are not sometimes committed in the application of these principles to matters of detail. It must be remembered that Missionary operations are, alas! new and anomalous in the system of the Church of England; and that it is not always easy to draw a definite line between the two provinces which belong respectively to the Bishop and the Committee. It has been observed by the Bishop of Calcutta—Letter, May 28, 1837: "The boundaries of the power of Committees, as they approach to those of the Bishop, can be ascertained, in many points, only by time and observation." Perplexities have consequently occurred; and, unhappily, misunderstandings have sometimes arisen between the Representatives of the Society abroad and Ecclesiastical Authorities. But these are the principles by which the Home Committee have endeavoured to guide the proceedings of the Society; and they confidently respond to a sentiment expressed by the Bishop of Calcutta—"The principles of our new relations are now fully recognized: the details will soon find their level."—Letter, 9th June, 1836.

In reviewing the Ecclesiastical relations of the Church Missionary Society, there are two or three points which it seems very important to notice.

1. Missionary operations, as they are conducted by the Church Missionary Society, though apparently anomalous in the system of the Church of England, are yet in strict conformity with its constitution and principles: they are analogous to many other instances of voluntary exertion for the extension of true religion within the Church, in which Ecclesiastical authority and Lay co-operation unite for the accomplishment of the same end: so that these operations may be regarded as the acts of the Church of England, putting forth its energy for the Conversion of the Heathen World. For it has been shown, that the Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth our Missionaries—that these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same colony. The services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church. Even in the few cases in which Lutheran Clergymen are employed, this rule is observed; and all the congregations which are gathered into the fold of Christ are trained up as Members of the Church established in this land.

And here it may be observed, that nothing less than the sanction of a duly-assembled Convocation can more fully identify the acts of any Missionary Society, within the Church of England, with the Church*. Without such sanction, all associations of Churchmen must stand in the same position. Still further, not to notice the present abeyance of Convocations, it may be asserted, that even if the Church were to assemble in her provincial Convocations, and to decree and to regulate Missionary operations, such proceedings could not essentially add to, or alter, those important particulars which, under present circumstances, entitle the operations of the Church Missionary Society to be regarded as Missionary operations of the United Church of England and Ireland.

2. It must be ever borne in mind, that Missionary operations are, in their very nature, temporary and preparative;—that they are to be gradually but eventually superseded by a different order of things, when the Heathen Nations shall have become Christianised. In some cases, as in the West Indies, this change is further advanced than in others. Now, it must be expected, that in proportion as this change advances, difficulties and perplexities will arise in our Ecclesiastical relations, peculiar to this transition state—from Missionary operations, to that happy consummation when there shall be an endowed and established system of Christian Instruction, and a territorial division of Ministerial labour. This consummation the Church Missionary Society has ever kept in view, and devoutly desired; and, as far as possible, has prepared for its approach. In an interview with the Bishop of Barbadoes—April, 1835—this point was expressly alluded to: and it was stated by the Committee to his Lordship, "that whenever a district should be brought into the state of an organized Christian community, it should assume entirely the Parochial form, and cease to be occupied as a Missionary Station.—The Bishop entirely acquiesced in this view; and only expressed his anxiety that it should not be so acted upon as prematurely to deprive a district of the Missionary's services."—(Extracts from Committee's Minute.)

3. Lastly, it must be evident, from a review of the whole subject, that our Ecclesiastical relations depend, in many important respects, upon a mutual confidence and good understanding between the Committee and its representatives, and the Ecclesiastical Authorities both at home and abroad. This must be the case, to argue upon no higher grounds, while those relations are governed by Ecclesiastical laws and canons made without reference to Missionary operations, for an Established Church in a Christian country; and where so much is also necessarily left to the discretion of both parties. If we look to our Home operations, the Committee places confidence in the Bishop of London, that he will continue to ordain the Missionary Candidates introduced to his Lordship by the Society, according to the provisions of the Act: and the Lord Bishop of London relies upon the Committee's using every means to select, train, and duly qualify proper Candidates to be thus introduced to him.

So, also, in its Foreign operations, the Society places confidence in the Colonial Bishops—as it has been already shown, in a quotation from the Letter of Bishop Wilson—that they will not exercise an unreasonable or arbitrary discretion, in withholding or withdrawing licences from our Missionaries, or in refusing ordination to our Candidates. And the Bishops, by granting licences and ordination to the Missionaries of a voluntary Society, whose income is liable to fluctuations, and whose agents are constantly changing, manifestly place confidence in the Committees, that they will use every endeavour to keep up the Missions once established; and that they will not, on their part, act in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner, or withdraw the salary from a licensed Missionary, without reason sufficient to prove to the licensing Bishop the necessity of the proceedings.

It seems impossible to supersede this conventional understanding—as it may be termed—till Missions are supported by endowments, or till a code of Missionary canons be established by competent authority.

This mutual confidence and good understanding now exists, it may be thankfully asserted, between the Committee of the Society and the Ecclesiastical Authorities of every Colonial Diocese in which Missionaries are labouring. And may He, who is the God, not of confusion, but of peace, and "the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls," unite together the hearts and hands of those who are labouring in this Holy Cause—"that all and every of these may, in THEIR SEVERAL CALLINGS, serve truly and faithfully, to the glory of His name!" H. V.

* The American Episcopal Church has, in Convention, thus identified itself with a Missionary Society.

At the Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May 1, 1877, being the Seventy-eighth Anniversary—

The Right Hon. the EARL OF CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the warmest thanks of this Meeting be given to the Bishop of Durham for his Sermon before the Society last evening, and that it be forthwith printed and circulated.

On the Motion of the LORD ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY. Vice-Patron, seconded by the RIGHT HON. THE EARL OF NORTHBROOK, V.P., supported by the REV. JOSEPH WELLAND, B.A., Missionary from Calcutta,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting, while devoutly thanking God, as well for the increased supply of Missionary candidates as for the new openings presented in Africa, China, India, and elsewhere, would recognize the duty of humiliation before God for the lukewarmness of past years, and the call to earnest prayer for a large outpouring of the spirit of zeal and devotion.

On the Motion of the REV. J. IRELAND JONES, M.A., Missionary from Ceylon, seconded by the REV. F. F. GOE, M.A., Rector of St. George's, Bloomsbury,

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That, in view of certain tendencies in the Church at home, the growth of the Native Christian communities in the Mission-field abroad renders it more than ever important that the Society and all its agents, in loyally adhering, as they have ever done, to the order and discipline of the Church of England, should hold fast and bring into rightful prominence its great doctrines of justification by faith only, and the authority of the Holy Scriptures as the sole standard and rule of faith.

At a Second Meeting, held in Exeter Hall, on the Evening of the same Day—

The Right Rev. BISHOP CROWTHER in the Chair,

Addresses were delivered by the Rev. W. S. PRICE; E. HUTCHINSON, Esq.; the Rev. W. DENING, Missionary from Japan; and the Rev. J. W. BARDSLEY, M.A., Vicar of St. Saviour's, Liverpool.

PREACHED

AT ST. BRIDE'S CHURCH, FLEET STREET,

ON MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 30, 1877,

BEFORE THE

Church Missionary Society,

BY THE RIGHT REV.

THE LORD BISHOP OF DURHAM,

VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE SOCIETY.

Lord of all power and might, who art the Author and giver of all good things, graft in our hearts the love of Thy Name, increase in us true religion. Let Thy continual pity cleanse and defend Thy Church. Preserve it evermore in the true faith. Be merciful to it, and bless it, and cause Thy face to shine upon it, that so it may hold forth the Word of life to all nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EZEKIEL XLVII. 12.

“AND BY THE RIVER UPON THE BANK THEREOF, ON THIS SIDE AND ON THAT SIDE, SHALL GROW ALL TREES FOR MEAT, WHOSE LEAF SHALL NOT FADE, NEITHER SHALL THE FRUIT THEREOF BE CONSUMED: IT SHALL BRING FORTH NEW FRUIT ACCORDING TO HIS MONTHS, BECAUSE THEIR WATERS THEY ISSUED OUT OF THE SANCTUARY: AND THE FRUIT THEREOF SHALL BE FOR MEAT, AND THE LEAF THEREOF FOR MEDICINE.”

FROM the Fall onwards through nearly 4000 years was the Almighty graciously pleased to reveal from time to time to His faithful servants glimpses of that tender love towards mankind which had been purposed in the counsels of the Triune Jehovah before the foundation of the world. And often in the darkest periods of His Church's history, when it seemed on the verge of perishing through the assaults of external foes, or through its own lukewarmness or unfaithfulness, did God vouchsafe, by the mouth of His holy prophets, the brightest and most cheering revelations of future grace and glory, in order that He might confirm the faith and renew the strength of those who amidst previous discouragement and difficulty waited upon the Lord. Of this character is the scene presented before the eyes of Ezekiel by the Holy Spirit, of which my text forms the conclusion, and which is well described in the heading of the chapter as the “Vision of the holy waters and the virtue of them.”

The prophet, although a captive in a heathen land, is brought in the visions of God to the land of Israel, and beholds, issuing from the secret place of the tabernacle of the Most High in Jerusalem, a little rill of water; narrow and shallow. But as, by direction of his heavenly guide, he follows the course of this stream, and passes time after time through its waters, he finds after a thousand cubits that the waters are to the ankles ; and after another thousand cubits the waters reach to the knees ; and again a little space and the waters were to the loins ; and at the last measurement the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over. Now whilst commentators have varied in their interpretation of some of the minor details of the vision, none, I believe, have disputed that this gradual increase of the stream issuing from the sanctuary, from the Holy of Holies, is a vivid representation of the progress of the waters of eternal life ; which, deriving their source from the hidden counsels of mercy and wisdom of the Triune Jehovah, at first presented, as they gushed forth from the cross of the despised Galilean, an appearance so humble as to be most distasteful to the pride and foolishness of man ; but yet did rapidly and irresistibly overspread nation after nation, and shall continue to flow on with increasing might, until the whole earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of God as the waters cover the sea.

Nor are the inestimable benefits which the Gospel conveys to a ruined world less forcibly portrayed. "These waters," says the prophet, "go down into the desert and go into the sea." "Everything shall live whither the river cometh." It traverses the desert, and its barren sands are overspread with verdant and fruitful trees. It flows onward to the sea whose bitter waters had destroyed all life, and the poisonous waters are at once healed, and teem with a great multitude of fish. The influence also of these typical waters is as permanent and extensive as it is beneficial ; for it is written, "By the river upon the bank thereof on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed ; it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary : and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine." Such too have ever been the blessed results of the everlasting Gospel of the grace of God. Whenever the waters have indeed issued from the sanctuary, whenever the pure Word of God has been preached, the Holy Ghost has accompanied that Word with His soul-regenerating power. The poisonous and dead sea of the world has been healed of its destructive influence. Its inhabitants, with no spiritual life in them, but dead in trespasses and sins, have been quickened by divine grace. The barren desert of this earthly existence, which sin has made desolate by its withering blasts of sickness, and disappointment, and separation, and death, is gladdened through the Gospel of life and immortality, with resignation, patience, peace, hope, joy in believing, and all the varied fruits of the Spirit. Nor are these life-giving blessings of the Gospel exhausted or diminished by the lapse of time. They are trees whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: but as months and years and ages pass, they shall still continue to yield new fruit. The Gospel of Christ is like Him who brought it down from heaven to man; the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever. The revolutions of nations have only manifested that the kingdom of Christ is one that cannot be shaken. The lapse of ages has only accumulated fresh evidence that the waters of life are inexhaustible. The discovery of new lands and people has added fresh trophies to the power of the cross, and proved that wherever human beings are found, however differing from ourselves in habits and knowledge, the Gospel is needed, is adapted, is intended for those human beings. The tree of life still continues to flourish and expand. No efforts of godless men or evil spirits have been able to uproot it. No devices of subtle enemies or false friends have succeeded in poisoning its fruits or contracting its shade. Still does it stand forth, the tree of God's own planting, in the midst of a suffering, perishing world; offering health to the sick, and food to the hungry, and shelter to the weary. To the end of time the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.

Let me remind you a little more in detail of some of the important truths implied in my text.

First, it sets forth the Gospel of Christ as the one only remedy for man's spiritual diseases. "The leaf thereof for medicine," or, as we find it translated in the margin of our Bibles, "for bruises and sores." The prevalence of disease throughout the world, the various forms in which it presents itself, the countless train of sufferings which attend it, and the death to which it finally and irresistibly pursues its victims, all present so true and lively a picture of the extent and consequences of sin, that the illustration is often employed in Scripture to represent the perilous condition of man as a sinner in God's sight. Sin is the soul's loathsome malady. It may manifest itself differently in different individuals. It may be moderated in its external symptoms by a variety in disposition or education or opportunities. But still it is universal in its influence. It has formed part of our moral nature from the first moment of our existence, for, as by one man sin entered into the world, so hath the corruption of Adam's nature been transmitted to all his posterity. And this leprous birth-spot has grown with our growth, and tainted thought, word, and deed. And whither can we flee for aid? The sinner cannot find it in his own efforts and fancied merits. It costs more to redeem a soul, or to heal a wounded spirit. Men, indeed, have in every age since the Gospel was revealed, and not least in these days of advanced science and philosophy, falsely so called, endeavoured to deny the extent and even the existence of the disease, or to invent some remedy less humiliating to the pride of the human heart. But the anxious inquirer finds all these to be but profane and vain babblings. They fail to bring relief to the sin-smitten sufferer. For such there is but one physician, but one medicine—Christ Jesus the Lord; who giveth His own blood to be the healing balm, and who applieth His perfect righteousness and all-prevailing intercession as the never-failing remedy for every form of the soul's disease, though its virulent plague-spots be red like crimson, and the sufferer be on the very verge of death. "For if any man sin we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and He is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." And thanks to God you, my Reverend Brethren, in many and many an instance have found the promise to be true. You have witnessed again and again how the hungering, perishing soul has fed on the leaf of the tree of life and found it to be for medicine. You have gone to the bedside of the dying child of God. He may have been one whose earthly lot has been that of destitution, sorrow, and pain. He will, he must be one, if truly quickened by the Holy Spirit, who has learned much of the exceeding breadth and spirituality of God's law, and who is conscious that his own sins are grievous, their burden intolerable. Yet, as you have listened to his utterances full of peace and joy in believing, your own faith in the power of the Gospel has been strengthened, and you have been encouraged to go on determined to know nothing, to teach nothing, among your people but Jesus Christ, and Him crucified, as you have heard him, in response to your instructions, say, "Yes, my sins are more in number than the hairs of my head: none can tell how oft I have offended; how often I have broken that perfect law given me for my rule; how often I have lightly esteemed that precious blood whereby I was redeemed; how often I have grieved that Holy Spirit who has striven with me; how often I have preferred this corruptible body and transitory world to my soul's salvation, and an eternal inheritance of glory. Yet, though my sins be countless as the sands, my soul can magnify the Lord, and my spirit rejoice in God my Saviour. My spiritual leprosy, however loathsome and deadly, has met with a remedy all-sufficient. The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin. It is God that justifieth. It is Christ that died, yea, rather, that is risen again. This tree of life healeth all my diseases: and in every doubt of unbelief, and assault of Satan I flee to it for shelter, and find its leaf to be for medicine." And does this blood-bought remedy lose its virtue when carried from our favoured country to distant lands? Oh, no! the leaves of the tree of life are for the healing of the nations. Its blessed effects are everywhere the same, because the disease is everywhere the same; and wherever sin abounds, grace doth much more abound. The unhappy heathen mother, whose heart was once torn by the conflict between parental affection, and anxiety for her own salvation, and who had been taught that her only escape from endless misery was to sacrifice the fruit of her body for the sin of her soul, now can clasp to her bosom the babe she fondly loves, for she has learnt that Jesus Christ is the one propitiation for sin, and has presented to him the sacrifice of a contrite, grateful heart. The miserable

Indian faquir who has spent years in self-torture with the vain hope of atoning for his sins, and yet never could get rid of the harassing fear that he had not done enough to deserve heaven, now listens with overflowing heart to the Gospel of free grace, and rejoices in the liberty wherewith Christ has set him free. The degraded African whose only idea of the Deity had been that of an Evil Spirit, and who hated whilst he feared the god whom he worshipped, now has heard the welcome tidings that God is love, and no longer shudders at the prospect of entering into God's presence, since through the light of the Gospel his terror is exchanged for Hope. Surely, brethren, by the power which the doctrine of Christ crucified has of supplying all the spiritual necessities of the whole human race, and by all the blessed results which have attended its partial propagation, should we deem it our plain duty, and most honourable privilege, to endeavour to plant in the most distant portions of a suffering, dying world, that tree of life whose leaf shall be for medicine.

But, further, my text states that the fruit shall be for meat. Christ as the bread of life, is the food which nourishes and strengthens the soul, and enables it to grow in holiness. And hence Evangelical doctrine is the one adequate motive to enable man to contend successfully against the world, the flesh, and the devil. This is not the popular opinion of the day, which would decry all dogmatic teaching as old-fashioned and unsuited to this age of development, and which expects that it can regenerate corrupt human nature by disquisitions on morality and the duties of social life. Most vain hope, most idle dream! which thinks to rear the superstructure when it is undermining the foundation; which imagines it shall reap the ripened fruit, when its unwise efforts have been directed to uprooting the tree. We question not, indeed, that much may be effected in the improvement of mankind by inferior agents and motives. Many evil habits may be renounced from motives of self-interest. Many good resolutions may be persevered in through the energy of the natural character. But it is the cross of Christ alone which can prevail upon men not merely to crucify one fleshly passion, but the flesh itself, with all its vile affections and lusts. It is the doctrine of the Gospel, when engrafted in the heart by the Holy Spirit, which enables the sinner not only to amend his life in one or two points, but to abound in all the fruits of righteousness to the glory and praise of God. And hence it is that we find the Apostles, in their preaching and writings, holding forth dogmatic truth, or, in other words, the simple Gospel, the old old story, as the power of God unto salvation—the one lever mighty enough to raise man's earth-bound heart and life into an atmosphere of purity and holiness. And what is true of individuals is true also of nations. The tree of Divine truth is the only tree where fruit can be for meat to satisfy the craving after a higher moral condition, which still can be traced in fallen man, despite his universal degradation. True it is, we allow, that many national blessings may be enjoyed independently of Christianity. A love of liberty, a spirit of patriotism, a high tone of civilization and of intellectual refinement—all these fruits may grow on the tree of unsanctified human energy. But we have only to turn to the history of heathen Greece or Rome in ancient times, or to that of heathen China or India in modern days, to learn how sensuality and selfishness and cruelty reign undisturbed in every nation, however civilized, when the True God is not present; whilst our increasing information respecting the manners and practices of heathen peoples gives an unvarying contradiction to the often-repeated and as often-refuted objection to missionary effort, viz. that it is better to leave the heathen undisturbed to their ancient creeds, which are more suitable to their national character, and which inculcate all such duties as are needful for them to know. Nor has the time passed away when such assertions are still made and credited, although they have been disproved by fact upon fact; and public documents and the researches of individual travellers have alike testified that language can scarcely be too strong when it is used in describing the excess of impurity, treachery, and violation of every social and domestic duty, which receives sanction from the traditionary lives of the false gods whom the heathen worship. But when Christianity has gained admittance the change has been as great as beneficial. The cannibal tribes of the South Sea Islands, with whom it had been the chief occupation and interest of life to make war on each other, and avenge, in the blood of their enemies, the wrong done to their ancestors, are now united in the bonds of Christian brotherhood and seek to emulate each other in acts of forgiveness and charity. The wild Aborigines of America, whom civilization, after having cruelly expelled them from their homes, shamelessly proclaimed as beyond the reach of improvement, and maintained that the red man must pine and perish before the white man, have now been won by the preaching of the Gospel to lay aside their wandering and dissolute habits, and in Christian villages to acquire habits of industry, and a taste for the comforts of domestic life. The wretched Negro, whom the cupidity and lust of his fellow-man had degraded to the lowest stage of humanity, now, under the influence of Christianity, has been freed from the shackles which enchained mind and body, and proves himself the equal of the European in intelligence and energy. And far more than all this, inasmuch as its results shall endure when time shall be no more, these tribes and people are walking in the paths of faith and holiness. The Gospel, which has improved their earthly prospects, has revealed to them the assurance of life eternal; and if this tree of life has been to them a shadow from the heat of temporal distresses, much more to their souls the fruit thereof hath been for meat and the leaf thereof for medicine.

Again, we learn from the text and its context that the law of the kingdom of grace, like that of nature, is one of constant progress and increase. The little rill deepens and widens into the mighty river; the grain of mustard seed becomes a great tree; the leaven, so small as to be hidden in the surrounding mass, yet leavens the whole lump. True it is that it is not for human foresight to fix the time and manner and measure of this increase. The kingdom of God cometh not with observation. The conversion of nations, as of individuals, is the prerogative of God the Holy Ghost, and His ways are not as our ways; He works according to His good pleasure, as the wind bloweth where it listeth. Hence in the context it is not the prophet, but the heaven-sent messenger who comes to instruct the inspired penman, who, with the line in his hand, marks out the various stages of the on-flow of the waters of the sanctuary. To human judgment the means may appear inadequate, the signs obscure, which indicate the progress of Christ's kingdom; and the believer is sometimes tempted to cry out with the unbeliever, "Where is the promise of His coming?" But each year, each age, each Church is accomplishing the task assigned to it in the secret counsels of Him with whom a thousand years are as one day, and who, at the set time, can make the feeblest instruments the irresistible agents in bringing to pass His purposes of mercy. Some commentators have thought that, in this prophecy of Ezekiel, in the flowing of the holy waters towards the East, and the healing of the bitter waters of the Dead Sea, was set forth the future conversion of the Jews, that through them the whole world may be evangelized: so that to the seer was vouchsafed dimly in a vision a glimpse of that glorious prospect which the Apostle foretells in unambiguous language, when the re-engrafting of Israel into the Church of Christ will be as life from the dead to the Gentile world; and that when God remembers his holy promise and Abraham His servant, Zion shall lift up her voice with strength to proclaim to the uttermost parts of the earth, with unparalleled success, the glad tidings of salvation. But whether this interpretation of some expressions in the context be correct or no, the general meaning of the passage is unquestioned as predicting that of the increase of Christ's kingdom and government there shall be no end. Living waters, writes the prophet Zechariah (xiv. 8), re-echoing the teaching of my text, and of so many other like prophecies, "living waters shall go out from Jerusalem, half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea; in summer and winter shall it be: and the Lord shall be king over all the earth." In every direction, in every clime, shall the waters of life spread; the summer's drought shall not exhaust their abundance, the winter's frost shall not check their progress, until the whole earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea (Hab. ii. 14). And if God's gracious purpose be so distinctly revealed, then man's duty is as plainly taught. For, inasmuch as it is the rule of the Divine government to work His ways upon earth by human instrumentality, and every promise of blessing from on high implies that man shall be the channel through whom that blessing shall be conveyed, it necessarily follows that the moment we are assured that it is God's will that the heathen should be His inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth His possession, we must receive it as a command which may not be forgotten, which must not be neglected, to tell it out among the heathen that the Lord is King, to go into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.

There is but one objection of any weight which can be urged to justify a want of interest in the Missionary cause. It is that the spiritual destitution nearer home is so vast, the claims of our own ignorant and degraded countrymen for Gospel privileges so urgent, as to absorb all that we can offer of money or effort. When we read a statement made this year on good authority ("Home Mission Field" for January, 1877), that the population of England is increasing annually at the rate of considerably more than a quarter of a million, and that there are now some five millions of souls without the means of grace, even when every allowance has been made for the labours of those who are not of our communion, the painful question naturally presents itself, Is it right to seek out the distant desert of heathendom, when the moral wilderness at home, of ignorance, vice, superstition, infidelity, is so extensive, so parched? When the most self-denying efforts can hardly grapple with the practical heathenism close at our doors, is it wise, is it just to send forth the most devoted of our labourers to sow the seed and reap the harvest at the Antipodes? The answer to this question is obvious to every humble student of the Scriptures. God's command is distinct, and in hearty believing obedience to that command may we most expect His blessing to rest on our Church and country. And thus earnest self-denying efforts for the propagation of the Gospel abroad become a most effectual means of spreading true religion at home. For it is the arm of Jehovah alone which can stem the torrent of ungodliness in our land which now makes the heart of the righteous sad: it is the Spirit of God lifting up the standard Who alone can resist the enemy when he is coming in like a flood. (Isa. lix. 19). We can build churches and schools, and find preachers and scripture-readers, but the attentive ear, and the understanding heart, and the new life is the gift of the Holy Ghost. And can we expect that He will bless our efforts at home, if we neglect our duty abroad? Can we reasonably ask that He will largely increase His compassion towards us, if we selfishly contract ours towards our fellow-creatures. It may seem at first sight the dictate of sound reason to plead, "First evangelize more entirely your own country, and then extend your charity towards distant lands." But it will be found more in accordance with Scripture and apostolical practice and heaven-taught wisdom to say, "Seek to evangelize the world, and in so doing you will evangelize your own country." It seems an unwise proceeding to an ignorant person, unacquainted with commercial transactions, that so many articles of value should be exported hence to other countries. Such an one would argue, "Keep all your wealth at home : you need it for yourselves : wait till all your neighbours have enough, before you waste your riches upon strangers." But the merchant well knows the fallacy of such reasoning : he knows that every enlargement of his commerce abroad creates an increase of substance at home, and that England herself grows rich by spreading her riches throughout the world. Even so is it with the riches of the everlasting gospel. Keep them to ourselves, and they will waste away and be lost ; scatter them far and wide, and they will be repaid an hundredfold into our bosoms. God has in His unsearchable counsels given to this country an influence and authority throughout the globe never enjoyed by any nation before : and except this gift be employed for His glory, and in extending His kingdom, it will be to us as a cankering rust to weaken and destroy our national prosperity. There is a very solemn warning in the verse immediately preceding my text : "But the miry places thereof and the marshes thereof shall not be healed ; they shall be given to salt." Where the healing waters reach, but do not flow on, and remain stagnant, producing nothing but noisome vapours and rank marshy weeds, there shall then be barrenness for ever. The very retaining of the waters, instead of speeding them onwards, renders the spot more accursed than if the waters had never reached it. And if England's Church fail of being a Missionary Church, and keep to herself the gospel prepared for all creatures under heaven, it will sap the very foundations of its usefulness at home. If England's favoured sons fail of holding forth to them that sit in darkness that Saviour who is the light of the world, then their candlestick of gospel privileges must be removed, and they themselves immersed in that spiritual darkness from which they refuse to deliver others.

Again, if the words of my text indicate the diffusive character of the gospel, the figure made use of is well calculated to check our entertaining too sanguine and mistaken conceptions as to the easy and immediate conversion of the heathen. The river, as it advances towards the ocean, must meet with many interruptions. Its broad surface will often be agitated by storms: its waves will dash against many a rock: and even at times the stream itself will seem to be diverted from its course and driven back by the obstacles it encounters. Yet to one who watches from some lofty eminence the windings of the river, does it clearly appear that, in spite of the various interruptions, the waters continue to advance. And have we any just reason for expecting that it shall be otherwise with regard to the holy waters of the sanctuary? One, indeed, there is who, from the height of His mediatorial throne, ever watches over the welfare and increase of that Church which He has purchased with His blood, and, as He watches, "sees of the travail of His soul, and is satisfied" (Isa. liii. 11). But we, as we endeavour to speed on these healing, fertilizing waters, must be prepared to meet with many an obstacle, many a check. Nay, are not these hindrances and disappointments the very ground upon which the unbeliever and worldling base their plea that the picture of my text is but an illusion, and its prediction but an idle dream? "Nearly 2500 years," say they, "have elapsed since the prophet saw this cheering vision; more than 1800 years have passed since the little rill burst forth from the cross of Calvary, and where are the evidences of the healing influence of its holy waters? More than one-half of the known world is still immersed in heathen darkness, and a large portion of the professing Catholic Church is overspread with error and superstition." There is, we must own, but too much truth in this painful charge. And one chief and most obvious cause of this slow progress of Christianity is that the Church of Christ, from age to age, has allowed its conscience to be so deadened by worldliness and lukewarmness, that it has never realized, as it ought, its high calling as the herald of the glad tidings of salvation to the whole world: whilst it also could, I believe, be easily shown from the record of Missionary labours, in any period of the Church's history, and pre-eminently during the present century, that whenever the pure seed of God's Word has been faithfully scattered, the Lord has poured down showers of blessings far in excess of the inadequate efforts of the labourers. But if the success of Missionary endeavour has been far greater than we have had any right to expect, considering the fewness of the preachers, and the little interest and self-denial manifested in their behalf by the Church at large, it would be still a most mistaken interpretation of the prophet's vision, and of the many promises in Holy Writ of the increase of Messiah's kingdom, if we imagined that it is inconsistent with these bright and certain anticipations, that sin and error and superstition should maintain a mighty and even increasing hold upon a large portion of the human race. Is not the Church of Christ, so long as it continues on earth, to be a Church militant? Is Satan yet bound? is the natural heart less hostile to the reception of the truth? Is the Church of Christ so pure and holy that it no longer needs the fiery trial of opposition and seeming want of success to purge the gold from the dross; requires no winnowing through false teachers of the wheat from the chaff? Nay, does not the Word of God expressly teach us that the tares are to grow with the wheat until the great harvest-day? that the conflict between light and darkness, truth and error, will be as fierce as ever until the end of this dispensation; and that as the coming of the Lord draweth nigh the war will wax fiercer, iniquity shall abound, the love of many wax cold, and Satan revealed as having great wrath because he knoweth that he hath but a short time (Rev. xii. 12)?

Already may we discern many a sign of this final dying struggle of the prince of this world. We should indeed be blind and ungrateful if we did not, as we contemplate the condition of the Church of England at home and abroad, acknowledge a remarkable outpouring of the Holy Spirit, in the increased and increasing zeal and faith and love of many of its members ; but we should also be blind and self-deceived if we failed to discern the old enemies of the truth, unbelief and superstition, close at hand, invested with more than former power, making their assault on the very citadel of our Zion, so that those who would earnestly contend for the faith once delivered to the saints must prepare themselves for a warfare more trying and severe than any which the Church has been called previously to endure. And if our national Church, together with the whole Church of Christ, has never been threatened before by foes so many and so strong, her faithful handmaid, the Church Missionary Society, cannot expect to escape from her share in the conflict. Hitherto her course has been like the holy waters of the text. The little rill which burst forth at the commencement of this century, and which seemed at first to the critical eye of a worldly generation so small and insignificant, has marvellously widened and deepened and overspread many a spiritual desert with those trees of grace whose fruit is for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine. These blessed results have not indeed been without many a conflict, many a disappointment, but through wisdom and grace abundantly vouchsafed to the managers, they have been guided successfully through these dangers, so that in the present day many of those holding the highest official positions, and consequently capable of forming an independent judgment, bear their disinterested testimony to the reality and usefulness of the work of this Society. And now, when so many favourable circumstances seemed to promise a future free from hindrances, and bright with success, a new and most perplexing form of opposition has manifested itself, to teach us, we doubt not, to beware of being tempted to rely on an arm of flesh, and to be satisfied with human favour and popularity, which so often prove a snare.

As the natural consequences of the Sacerdotalism which is so rapidly spreading, and so seriously endangering the spiritual life and truth of the Church at home, a deliberate attack has been made on the principles and practice of the Church Missionary Society, which, if successful, would be fatal not merely to its progress, but to its very existence, and which is the more insidious and dangerous because it proceeds from those who are sincere advocates for missionary effort. They assert that "the conversion of the world has been entrusted to the Church as a corporate body" (Bishop of Colombo; see Church Missionary Intelligencer, November, 1876). And in one sense we should all agree to this statement. "Ye," writes St. Paul, to the laity as much as to the presbyters of the Corinthian Church, "Ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular" (1 Cor. xii. 27). And his view of what constitutes that corporate body he sets forth at the commencement of his letter, when he describes the Church of God as consisting of all that in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both theirs and ours (1 Cor. i. 2). Each of you, Brethren, if "sanctified in Christ Jesus," whether you be a layman or a clergyman, are members of this spiritual body, and as such have each of you your sphere of work, your official duty, in aiding to save those souls for whom the Lord and Head of the whole body shed His precious blood. "Ye," said that Lord Himself, to every one of His followers, before the Apostles or the seventy were chosen and sent forth, "Ye are the light of the world" (Matt. v. 14). So that every member of the holy Catholic Church is called by the Lord Himself to bear his share in carrying out the apostolic injunction to all believers, to shine as lights in the world, holding forth the word of life (Phil. ii. 15, 16). But it is not in this comprehensive and scriptural sense of the term "Church" that some demand that the Church should have the sole direction of the whole field of Missionary labour. There is no more common source of fallacy than the use in different senses of a word which has different meanings; and under the ambiguity of this word "Church" many a sophism has lurked, which it is not always easy to detect and expose, so that some are perplexed and staggered by the high-sounding claim that it is the Church, and not a voluntary society, which should alone send forth and direct the preachers of the Gospel. It is obvious, of course, that a Church so numerous and extended as the national Church of England, can never itself in its aggregate capacity undertake the task of regulating and superintending the countless practical details connected with the work of Missions, but must entrust its responsibilities to a limited number of its members, authorized to act in its behalf. Hence the important question arises, what shall be the safest depository, who the most faithful representatives, of the will of the Church to make God's ways known upon earth?

Some would at once answer that in an Episcopal Church the Bishop, as the acknowledged head, should have absolute control over every detail and every person connected with the mission, from the aged missionary, with forty years' experience, to the humble native catechist just entering on his work. Where to teach, whom to teach, what to teach, should be left entirely to the will of the Bishop, whose directions are to be obeyed without remonstrance, without hesitation, inasmuch as in spiritual matters, as it has been asserted, "the Bishop's word is law" (see Ch. Miss. Intell., Nov., 1876). It is thus, it is maintained, and thus only, that unity in doctrine and discipline can be preserved. Yes, unity might thus be secured, but it might be the unity of error, not of truth; the oneness of form and ceremony, but the destruction of all spiritual life. Absolute despotism, as has often been argued, would be the best form of government in Church or State, if there were any security that the ruler would be perfect. But since this never can be the case in this fallen world—and despotic power ever gives evidence of its inherent faultiness by acts of wrong and oppression—it has been the wisdom of our nation, alike in Church and State, to limit by strict laws the extent of power entrusted to those in authority, and carefully to define what the superior may demand, and what the inferior must obey. Hence it is not absolute, but canonical obedience, which our Church claims in behalf of those to whom the chief government of the Church is committed; nor, so long as her counsels are regulated by a wisdom gained by long experience, will she be disposed to entrust to any foreign Bishop, in countries where the wholesome check of public opinion does not operate to the same beneficial extent as in our own, an authority which is not confined within the same wise and just limits which curtail, but at the same time protect, the exercise of rightful prerogative by the Bishops at home.

Others, again, who allow the folly and danger of giving absolute command over a Mission to the individual Bishop at its head, advocate the appointment of a Board of Missions, nominated by the whole Episcopate, or by the Houses of Convocation, and that to this Board all doubtful questions should be referred, and its decisions be accepted as final, inasmuch as they might be considered as conveying the judgment of the whole Church. But here again we discern that primary fallacy of sacerdotalism, which would represent the Church as consisting wholly of the clergy, and would ignore altogether the right of the laity to have any voice in spiritual matters. And even if on this Board of Missions there were admitted a just proportion of laymen, would it carry with it the confidence of Christian people, composed as it must be of such discordant elements, in the present divided and distracted condition of the Church? Or would the Evangelical section of the Church, that Church's most faithful members, those who in past days have done most for Missions, find themselves adequately represented on such a Board? Rather would not the other schools of theology act as they have ever done, and combine to exclude them altogether, or to reduce their representatives to so insignificant a minority as to secure that they should have no share in the management? Assuredly if the large and influential Evangelical section of our Church is to bear its part in the Missionary field, inasmuch as it can only aid in propagating that form of doctrine which is in harmony with its own views of what is essential truth, it must ever accomplish its important task by the instrumentality of a Voluntary Society. But is its voice, therefore, which has been raised so long, so faithfully, so successfully, not the voice of the Church? We confidently affirm that it is; and as the Evangelical body in the Church of England is the most faithful exponent of her Articles and Liturgy, neither tempted, on the one hand, to obscure their teaching by overlaying it with rubbish borrowed from the corrupt Church of Rome, nor seduced, on the other hand, to sacrifice dogmatic truth to the popular idol of the human intellect; so may we boldly maintain that the Church Missionary Society, as a Voluntary Society of Evangelical laity and clergy, more truly represents the will of the Reformed Protestant Church of England, and more distinctly speaks with the voice and authority of that Church, than would any single Bishop, or Board of Bishops, or Diocesan Synod, or Provincial Convocation.

Once more, let us never forget, in connexion with all Missionary work, the most essential condition of all success set forth in the words of the text, "because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary." The message which the missionary has to deliver, and the spirit in which he has to proclaim it, must be alike learnt at the throne of grace. Hence, at the origin of the Church Missionary Society, an appeal was made in its earliest regulations that every member should "pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs." And it has been in this spirit of prayer that the work has ever since been conducted. The Committee have been men of prayer; they have constantly gone to the sanctuary for wisdom and guidance. Its supporters have realized the power of prayer; in the family and in the closet from hundreds and thousands of lips and hearts has the earnest cry ascended to the sanctuary, that the dew of God's heavenly blessing might richly descend on the workmen and their work. And if in answer to these constant intercessions there has been vouchsafed to the Society marked and increasing success, I know not that the favourable result of these many prayers has been evidenced in any way more remarkably than in the manner in which the Missionaries have been kept, by God's grace, sound in their faith and holy in their lives. The petition has ascended to the sanctuary that the Lord of the Harvest would send forth the labourers, and those who have gone forth have proved by word and deed, in life and death, that they have been His labourers, sent forth by Him. They have varied in abilities; they have differed as to apparent success. Some have gone forth only to exhibit in an early death the power of that Gospel which they had longed to preach; others have been spared through many a year to invite, and not in vain, a heathen multitude to avail themselves of the healing efficacy and cleansing power of the tree of life. But it is well worthy of remark, and claims our heart-felt gratitude to the Hearer of prayer, that very seldom has any anxiety been caused to the Society by the unfaithfulness or misconduct of any of its Missionaries. They have gone forth in the strength of the Lord, and for His Name's sake, to preach to the Gentiles, and the arm of His love and power has upheld them from falling. Unharméd by those captivating snares of unbelief and superstition which have caused so many in our own land to stumble, they have continued loyal to their Lord and to His Church, earnestly contending for the faith once delivered to the saints, and proving themselves, like the early Missionary Barnabas, good men, full of the Holy Ghost and of faith. We have had a most gratifying, though melancholy, evidence of the Christian consistency and self-denying fidelity of our Missionaries in the recent troubles which have befallen the Church in the Diocese of Colombo. They have been exposed to a trial of their wisdom and faith of no ordinary severity. Isolated in their position, with no opportunity of consulting the Committee at home as to the course which they should adopt, with strong pressure put upon them by those in authority—a pressure so strong, that he who used it hesitates not to describe it by the unusual term of “coercion,” with the threat before them, after years of hard and faithful service, of having a stigma cast on their fair fame by the withdrawal of their licences (a punishment ordinarily reserved for the case of those guilty of some serious moral offence), they yet wavered not as to the path of duty, for they saw clearly that the preservation of the simplicity of the Gospel was at stake, and that the faith of their converts would be imperilled by the introduction of ceremonies and ornaments too much resembling the idolatrous rites which these converts had so recently renounced. Oh, how galling to the natural heart! how calculated to excite bitterness of spirit, that in return for all the discouragements which they had endured, and the difficulties which they had surmounted, in Missionary work, they should secure from him who was set over them, himself a novice in the Missionary field, nothing but censure and the severest form of penalty. Yet the Bishop himself honourably bears witness to the gentleness of spirit manifested by these sorely-tried ministers of Christ; more than once personally thanks them for the attention and deference shown to himself; and in writing to the Secretary of the Society on this painful subject, says, "Let me bear my testimony to the piety, zeal, and ability of the Missionaries, and to the charity, moderation, and respect for myself, which they have displayed, even while repudiating my authority on essential points." All honour to these brave humble men of heart, who were content to bear reproach and injury rather than compromise the simplicity of that Gospel which they had received of the Lord Jesus! All praise to the Giver of all good, who granted to His faithful ministers to exhibit the meekness of wisdom and charity whilst they quitted themselves like men in standing "fast for the faith" (1 Cor. xvi. 14), and who chose rather to endure the bitter pang of being separated from their beloved flocks, and debarred from all ministerial work, than by a submission to unjust and illegal demands to sanction the introduction into the Native Church of practices which they rightly deemed to be symbols of vital error. May He, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy, and who has hitherto so wonderfully and graciously directed the counsels of the Society, and upheld the steps of its Missionaries, still vouchsafe to be their Ruler and Guide, so that with unwavering zeal and faithfulness, undeterred by the misrepresentations of opponents, or staggered by the compromising suggestions of half-hearted friends, they may continue to plant in the most distant and dreariest deserts of heathendom that tree of life, "whose fruit shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine!"

THE following system for spelling NATIVE NAMES is recommended to the Society's Missionaries generally for adoption in their letters and reports, unless any of them should prefer a still closer approximation to the more elaborate scheme of Professor Lepsius. This system should not be applied, of course, to those well-known places of which the spelling has become so fixed that it would be mere pedantry to disturb it; as, for instance, Tinnevelly and Mysore.

RULES FOR PRONUNCIATION.

The powers of the vowels are as follows:—

a as in 'about.'	î as in 'pique.'
â usually as in 'father' (in North-Indian words as in 'all').	o as in 'not,' or as in the French 'bonne.'
e as in 'hen.'	ô as in 'note.'
ê as in 'fête.'	u as in 'full.'
i as in 'thin.'	û as in 'truly.'
	ai as i in 'thine.'
	au or ou or ow as in 'bough.'

It needs only to be noticed further that—

y always sounds as in 'you.'	gn as in 'poignant,' 'Epagne.'
g „ as in 'go.'	ng as in 'thing.'
j „ as in 'join.'	ei as in 'vein.'

h has always a separate sound, except in ch as in 'church,' and sh as in 'she.'

c whether for k or s, being superfluous, is not used.

Doubled letters should each be pronounced distinctly, as in Italian.

ae represents a sound intermediate between a in 'mat' and e in 'met.'

The above Rules are not adopted in the N.W. America Mission.

REPORT,

&c., &c.

WHERE there is life there is growth. Where increased blessing is given, increased responsibility is incurred. Answers to prayer are calls to sacrifice.

The expenditure of the Society under all heads during the past year has grown to the sum of 210,859*l.* Of this, 18,228*l.* is due to special work, such as the Mission to Central Africa and the work among the liberated slaves of Mombasa. The remainder, 192,631*l.*, is due to the general operations of the Society. In their Report of last year the Committee brought pointedly before their friends the embarrassment in which they would find themselves, on account of the increase of missionary candidates and the occupation of new fields, unless the ordinary income of the Society were materially increased. While the year just concluded supplies abundant ground for hearty thanksgiving, it affords proof that this necessity has not yet been realized as it needs to be. The total receipts from all sources have reached the sum of 190,693*l.* Of this 14,699*l.* is for special funds, the remainder forms the ordinary income, and is made up as follows:—Associations, 128,638*l.* 10*s.* 7*d.*; Benefactions, 14,242*l.* 10*s.* 4*d.*; Legacies, 24,688*l.* 15*s.* 5*d.*; Sundries, 8425*l.* 2*s.*: Total, 175,994*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.* To this has to be added a balance in hand from last year, amounting to 2719*l.* 5*s.* 4*d.*, which (setting aside the special funds and the expenditure connected with them) leaves an excess of expenditure over income of 13,917*l.* 6*s.* 6*d.* This deficiency, together with a deficiency on the East Africa Fund of 3529*l.* has been temporarily supplied from the Capital Fund.

The amount from Associations, while above the average of the last five years, has fallen off from last year to the extent of 5142*l*. This diminution, the Committee are thankful to believe, is due rather to depression of trade throughout the country, and not to any diminution of interest in Missions or of attachment to the spiritual principles of the Society, nor yet to any willingness that the Committee should abstain from further extension. The Committee do not think that the Missionary zeal of the Society's supporters has reached its spring-tide. They believe that by the grace of God it will rise higher and higher until His purposes are accomplished and the Gospel has been preached as a witness in every land.

While, therefore, it will be very carefully considered whether any reduction can be made without injuring the work, the Committee do not contemplate any reversal of their past policy of advance, or any serious retrenchments, until the mind of their friends, and the will of God indicated thereby, is more fully known. They must, however, place very clearly before their friends that the decision of this question rests—not with the Committee, but with each one of them.

The Committee cannot but fear there are not a few real friends of the Society who refrain from exerting themselves in promoting its interests or increasing its funds from the feeling that it can now, as it were, take care of itself, and that having, as it were, received a momentum from the self-denying earnestness of those who have gone before, the Society needs nothing more from them than the merest touch in order to keep it going forward. Such a misapprehension must be at once removed. That the Society has received a mighty momentum, even from the Hand of God, the Committee cannot for one moment doubt; but no less must it be borne in mind that there is also a mighty vis inertiae at work, which must necessarily lessen its speed, unless there be the constant putting forth of the same Divine Hand working through the zeal and energy of His servants. Let only the need of personal exertion in this matter be realized by each one—let only the resolve be made by each one who loves the Society and its work, that by the grace of God at least another 20,000*l* shall at once be added to its permanent income, and the Committee are fully assured that, whatever may be the financial condition of the country, Christian self-denial and self-sacrifice will be equal to every emergency, and that when the next Anniversary comes round, they will have a more satisfactory balance-sheet to offer than they are able to report to-day.

The Committee would also submit to their friends the following passages from a letter received by their Secretaries a few days ago:—"There is a rumour of expected deficiency in the Society's income to the extent of 15,000*l.* Is it so? In face of the ever-mournful cry from the heathen hundreds of millions, and the engaged responsibilities, and the vouchsafed blessing, none of us can view with unconcern the possible necessity for receding from occupied ground, or crippling enterprises that have been begun in faith. The seventy-five aspirants now under training—a number unprecedented in Church Missionary annals—stand for as many encouragements and claims. We thank God for them. They are answers to prayer. Shall the grace which has gathered them find us unready? The Committee have expended trustfully, year by year, what was in their hands, advancing to new territories as the providence of God has opened doors and beckoned them in. They have rightly done. Let them go on to put faith in God, and He will not fail them. 'The silver is Mine and the gold is Mine, saith Jehovah of Hosts.' Of the propriety of a special appeal the Committee will judge. If it be determined on, and if, before it goes forth, you think well to have an earnest of success, and if a few others will join, I shall be humbly glad to devote 1000*l.* thus to the Saviour's purpose. I wish to keep within my province, and to be as one among several contributors. Nor am I disposed to make conditions as to numbers or amounts. I do desire common action, so that if such a scheme be not put forth this year, I will reserve my offering for a future occasion, holding it meanwhile as sacred to the Lord. We should indeed aim chiefly at raising the rate of giving over the whole range of our collections. Have occasional proposals of this kind a tendency to take the place of a wider-spreading and deepening zeal? Rather the energies of the body will be quickened by the healthful stimulus, and some who have little realized hitherto the pressing demand will be roused to sacrifices proportioned to its intensity and vastness. May God make me more worthily your brother and fellow-servant, ONE OF THE HON. ASSOC. SECRETARIES AND HELPER ONCE IN THE MISSION-FIELD.

Already three friends have expressed their readiness to follow the example of the writer of this letter; another promises 500*l.*, which he will double, if necessary; and another sends 100*l.*, making up 4600*l.* towards the deficiency.

The Committee refrain for the present from making any special general appeal beyond the notice in this Report; but they will be truly thankful if God should put it into the hearts of any of His people who have the power to do so, to come forward and give further help in wiping off the adverse balance. If there should remain any deficiency, it must be met from the working capital, to be repaid when the opportunity is given; but the Committee would exceedingly deprecate that step if it could be avoided, as that capital is not a whit more than is really necessary to carry on the work, and requires increase rather than decrease.

PATRONAGE.

The names of the Bishops of Truro, of Down and Connor and Dromore, and of Meath, have been added to the list of Vice-Presidents. The Earl of Northbrook and Sir William Muir have accepted the same post. The following, having rendered essential services to the Society, have been nominated as Honorary Governors for life:—The Rev. Edmund Davys, M.A., late Vicar of Holy Trinity, Leicester; the Rev. Dr. Dixon, Vicar of St. Matthew's, Rugby; the Rev. F. G. Lugard, M.A., Vicar of Norton, Worcester; the Rev. Josiah Pratt, M.A., Vicar of St. Stephen's, Coleman Street; the Rev. Edward Smart, M.A., Rector of Denbigh; J. B. Alexander, Esq., of Newcastle; Alexander Beattie, Esq., and Colonel Caldwell. The Committee have lost during the year one of their oldest and most honoured members, John Fryer Thomas, and many other friends both at home and abroad. Among the home friends may be mentioned Charles Dallas Marston, Edward Burnard Squire, Justice Archibald, Benjamin Shaw, and Thomas Clegg, of Manchester, whose earnest and liberal efforts for the development of useful trade on the coast of West Africa are well known to the friends of the Society. The list of European labourers who have been called to their rest contains some well-known and honoured names:—John Rebmann, of East Africa; Edward Roper, of the Yoruba country; Ashton Dibb, of Tinnevely; Thomas Chapman and Basil Taylor, of New Zealand; and James Robertson, of the Nyanza Mission, who had scarcely put on his armour when he was called to lay it down. Truly may the Committee say of them all, in tones of happy confidence—"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, for they rest from their labours, and their works do follow them."

MISSIONARY CANDIDATES.

In respect to labourers, the Committee have again to give thanks to the great Lord of the Harvest. The steady flow of men that commenced three years ago has been more than sustained. The total number accepted during the year has been fifty-five, the exact number of the previous year; nineteen prepared to go forth at once, and thirty-six for training at Islington or elsewhere. Of the nineteen qualified labourers six are already in Holy orders, and four hope to be ordained before the end of the year; two are Medical Missionaries, five are Educational agents, and two are Industrial. Of this number Oxford contributes two, one of them, the late tutor of the Society's college, to be the Rugby Fox Master at the Noble High School, Masulipatam; Cambridge, four, one of them an old scholar of the same school; Dublin, three; and the London Divinity Hall, Highbury, one. The total number under training at the present time is eighty-one:—fifty-eight in connexion with the Society's college at Islington; fourteen in the preparatory class at Reading; two preparing to be medical missionaries; six at St. Paul's College, Hong Kong; and one preparing for the work elsewhere. Surely He who by His constraining love is leading so many to devote themselves to this work will not fail to open the hearts of His people at home to supply the means required for their maintenance.

ORDINATION OF MISSIONARIES.

During the year nineteen of the Society's labourers were admitted to Deacons' Orders, viz. seven Europeans by the Bishop of London, and one by the Bishop of Sierra Leone; and eleven Native and country born, by the Bishops of Mauritius, Wellington, and Rupert's Land, and Bishops Burdon and Russell. Twelve of the Society's Missionaries, including one Native, received Priests' Orders during the year.

NUMBER OF LABOURERS.

Fifteen European Clergymen, eight Laymen and two female teachers, have been sent forth from Europe or received in the Mission-field during the year; one European Layman has been ordained in the Mission; thirty-two European labourers of all classes have, on account of death and other causes, ceased to be connected with the Society. The number of European labourers in connexion with the Society at present is as follows:—

Abroad—
Missionaries in Holy Orders	176
Lay Missionaries	34
Female Teachers	12
	222
At Home—
Missionaries in Holy Orders	25
Lay Missionaries	7
	32

Of the Native ordained labourers, four have died during the year, and two have been transferred to the Native Church of Sierra Leone. The number at present is 176—an increase of two on the total of last year. There are also nine country-born Clergymen labouring in the Society's Missions.

SIERRA LEONE.

No change took place in the European staff of the Sierra Leone Mission until quite the close of the period to which this Report refers; when the Rev. A. Menzies, Superintendent of the Sherbro Mission was compelled to return to this country through failure of health; and when also the Rev. C. A. Reichardt, who for some years has been engaged in Linguistic Missionary labours in this country, once again returned to Sierra Leone, where, in addition to that necessary and important work, he will be able, if it please God, to render valuable assistance in the Fourah Bay College.—Mr. Schapira was admitted to Deacon's orders last September.

As regards the Sierra Leone Church, the most important Energy of the Sierra Leone Church. outward event of the year has been the sudden cessation of the Annual Grant of 500*l.* from the Local Government. This caused some pain and perplexity, but the Committee are thankful to be able to add that the Native Church did not prove unequal to the emergency. The congregation of Pademba Road, one of the latest transferences from the Society, at once doubled its subscriptions; and there is reason to believe that other congregations, stimulated by their energetic English Bishop, will follow this good example. The conduct by the Sierra Leone Church of its newly undertaken Missions in the Bullom and Quiah countries, will be watched in this country with prayerful and hopeful expectancy.

The first heading in last year's Report of the West-Africa Mission, was—Congregations still connected with the Society in the Colony. CHARLOTTE having been transferred in October, 1876, the only congregation that can now bear the above designation is that of Trinity Church, Kissey Road, which is retained as a ministerial sphere for the Secretary of the Mission, and in connexion with which there are 1413 Native Christian Adherents, of whom no less than 560 are Communicants.

Work among the Mohammedans in the Colony.

Efforts among Mohammedans in Sierra Leone. The Mohammedan population here have been visited from time to time, and the gospel of Christ has been preached to them, both at their homes and at my own house. A great many strangers, acquainted with the Arabic language, called on me, with whom I had long conversations, and presented them with Arabic Bibles. I have also been visited by Arabian Sherifs, who passed here on their return from Mecca. I addressed them on Sunday afternoon at their head man's houses, and a great many were present. The Word of life has been spoken to some whilst on their sick-beds, and they appeared to be glad to see me, for they asked me to come again and speak to them. A school for Mohammedan children was opened in March, 1876, where 87 children have since then been admitted—44 boys and 43 girls. They receive instruction in English and Arabic, are taught to repeat passages of Scriptures and Hymns, and say the Lord's Prayer in English and in Arabic. Evening classes for adult Mohammedans have been held, when the Old and New Testament has been read and explained to them. I had, at times, as many as thirty present; but the classes have been discontinued of late, on account of my illness and the heavy rains, and my going up into the interior. I had none to take them for me in my absence, but I trust to commence again so soon as God will restore me to proper health.

The building used for the school-room is one known by the name of "The Almshouses," which was at the disposal of the Bishop, who kindly allowed Mr. Schapira the use of it. In another communication Mr. Schapira writes :—

The Bible-classes for Mohammedan adults are continued daily, and with success. I have been blessed to see myself in the midst of thirty-five Mohammedans. Most of them were strangers, brought by their friends. Some of them brought gold from Sangara, Fourah Bay, and Uto. I preached the salvation of the Gospel to them by an interpreter. After I finished, the words were discussed amongst themselves ; and those who attend our Bible-classes tried to prove to their friends that Jesus is not only the Prophet and Servant of God, as the Mohammedans style Him, but the Son of God. I have here three Mohammedan candidates for baptism, who are under daily instruction. One of these is an interesting inquirer. He came from the Yoruba country, about seven days farther than Abeokuta ; and religious instruction was his sole object in coming here. His father was a priest, and he heard some Missionary there preaching the Word of God, which left a strong impresson on his mind. He lately heard of our school for Mohammedans, and made up his mind to come here. He was recommended to the Bishop, and the Bishop forwarded him at once to me. He appears to be a very zealous and earnest searcher after the truth. My instructions to him must be through an interpreter, and I must confess that I find it at times a blessing to my own soul when I see that jet-dark soul yearning after light. May God make him a worthy bearer of the Cross ! He is still young, and maintains himself by making and selling country cloths. He labours till 3 p.m., and spends the rest of the time at our school. Also the other two appear to be earnest searchers after truth. Some come to my house in private, to whom the Word of God is read, taught, and explained. I have presented some with Arabic Bibles, and I found them on Fridays engaged in reading the Word of God in the same Bibles ; in general, they read the New Testament, for some of them have some knowledge of the Old Testament, but not the New.

ing it was affiliated to Durham University. By February of the present year the number of students had risen to thirteen resident and three non-resident. The curriculum of study is that of the Durham University, embracing the subjects for the Licence in Theology and for the ordinary Arts degree. Five of the students are Theological, and two Medical; all are (voluntarily) members of the Durham University Prayer Union. Mr. Sunter is able to speak highly of their industry and moral character. In addition to the subjects required by the University, the Theological Students are carefully taught in Hebrew, Arabic, and the Mohammedan controversy. A small ecclesiastical district (St. Clement's, Cline's Town) is connected with the College by the Principal being its incumbent, and furnishes the theological students with spiritual work. An intelligent and appreciative English-speaking congregation (with fifty communicant members) attends the little church, and a Timneh service is held every Lord's-day morning at Cline's Town wharf by the junior tutor.

The GRAMMAR SCHOOL had, at the date of the latest accounts, 104 pupils. Their moral and spiritual tone, Mr. Quaker considers, is much improved.

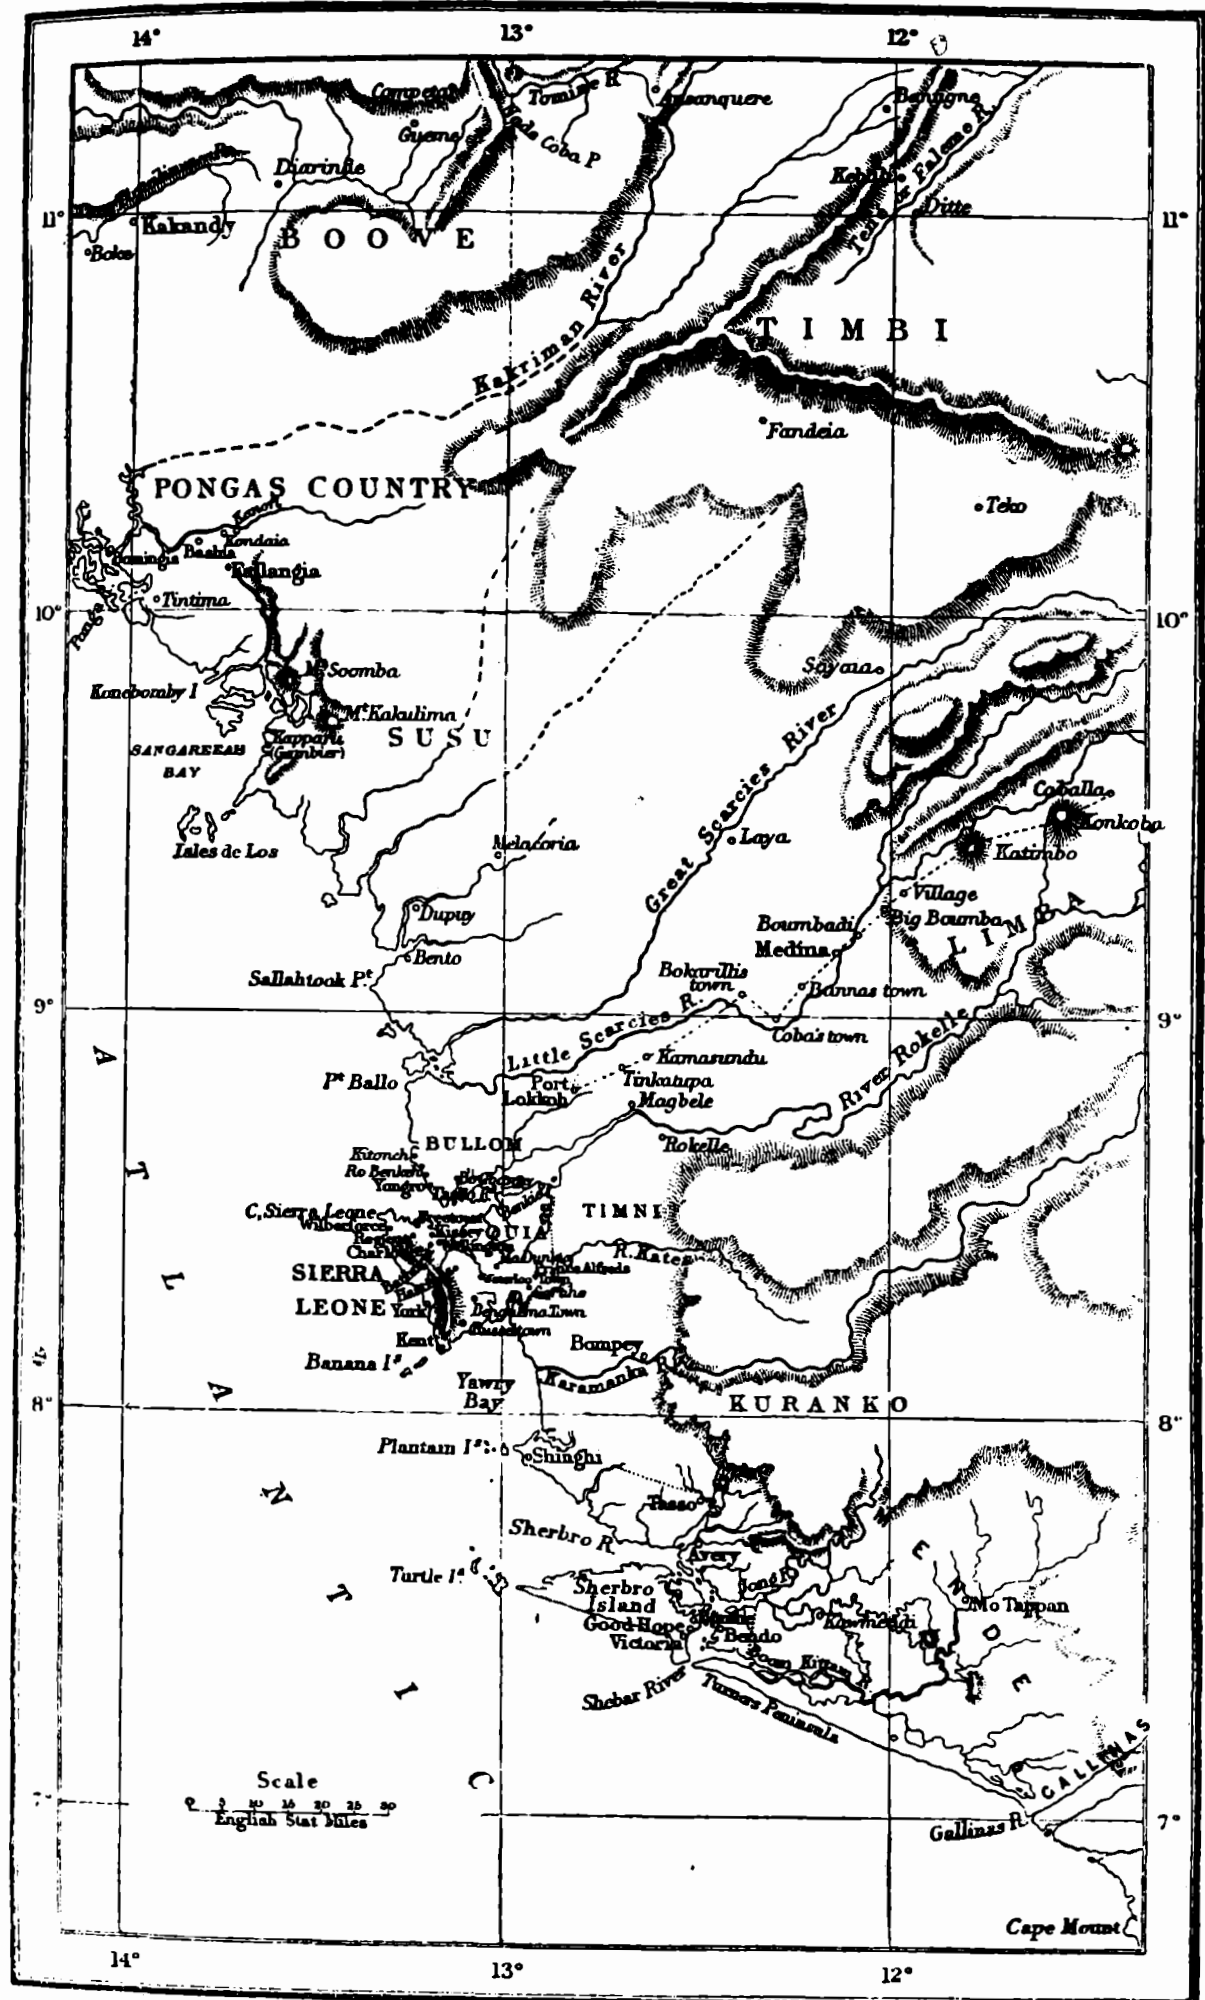

Eighty pupils, belonging to the upper and middling classes of Natives, are now receiving a superior education at the FEMALE INSTITUTION.

Missionary Efforts in the adjoining Countries.

The Committee have still been unable to re-occupy PORT LOKKOH. Mr. Schapira has, however, visited the place several times in the course of the year. One adult has been baptized, a goldsmith by trade, who bears a good name and character. The Mission is strongly opposed by the Roman Catholics, who are perseveringly endeavouring to establish themselves at the place. At present the prevalent feeling among both the Native rulers and the population of Port Lokkoh is in favour of receiving Protestant Missionaries only.—Last November Mr. Schapira, accompanied by several Native Christians, one or two of whom were volunteers, conducted an exploratory tour to a considerable distance beyond Port Lokkoh, carrying the message of salvation to fifty-eight towns and villages in the interior, and meeting everywhere with a kind reception.

The Rev. A. Menzies was carrying on the work of the SHERRBO Mission with circumstances of encouragement, when, as already mentioned, broken health brought him home. In his Annual Letter he was able to speak favourably of his Native helpers, though he regrets that some of them cannot yet speak the Native language.—At Bonth the congregation has increased from 150 to 190, and the communicants from 86 to 134. The contributions from these comparatively few Native Christians amounted to upwards of 80*l*. Several of the communicants interest themselves personally in the conversion of their heathen neighbours. Some of these latter willingly listen to the preaching of the Gospel; though none are mentioned as asking for baptism. One of the leading Native Christians, who had received public commendation from the local British Government for his successful efforts in making peace among the chiefs in the interior, gave 20*l*. to the Sherbro Mission Fund as a thank-offering to God.—Mr. Menzies made several journeys into the neighbouring country in the course of the year, reaching, on one occasion, a town in the Gallinas country 120 miles from Sherbro. Many of the petty chiefs in these parts have embraced Mohammedanism, and, whether from this or from other causes, will not consent at present to have Christian teachers settled amongst them, though they and their people listened with attention to the preaching of the Gospel.

SIERRA LEONE & ADJOINING TERRITORY

General.

THE return home of the veteran Missionaries, Townsend and Hinderer, with little hope of ever going out again, and the call to the presence of the Lord of the ardent and true-hearted Edward Roper, have sadly reduced the staff of European labourers connected with the Mission. On the other hand, the Mission has been strengthened by the addition to it of the well-known African brother, Henry Johnson, late of Sierra Leone.

LAGOS.

The organization of the Lagos Church is, perhaps, scarcely advancing with the rapidity that was expected. The Church Committee and the Church Council have been duly established, after the model of Sierra Leone, as also a School Board, of which the Society's well-known and laborious Missionary, the Rev. J. B. Wood, is chairman. At present, however, only one congregation, that of Ebute Ero, is connected with the newly-constituted Church, all the other congregations being as before, dependencies of the foreign Missionary Society; though some of them are liberal in their contributions for religious objects.

The Committee deeply regret to say that a great fire broke out in Lagos, on the 30th of January last, and devastated a large portion of the town, destroying also the churches of Breadfruit and Ebute Ero.

Native Congregations.

The Rev. T. B. Wright, the Native curate of the Faji congregation (assistant to the Rev. J. B. Wood), writes as follows:—

There has been a marked change amongst the chiefs of this place, who had previously felt no interest whether in religion or education. At the beginning of this present year, however, the ex-king Docemo gave over to the Rev. J. A. Maser three of his children to be taught to read and write, and also three others to the Wesleyan minister. One of his chiefs followed his example. The ex-king also expressed a wish that a chapel might be built for him near his palace.

Change of feeling among the old chiefs of Lagos.

On June 25th, sixteen adult women were received into the visible Church by baptism.

Mohammedan young men sometimes visit our church. There were three such this year, who afterwards remarked to friends of theirs the comprehensiveness of our prayers, how that we pray for the sovereign, for oneself, for the sick, for the poor, and for all sorts and conditions of men.—I have had twenty-four inquirers this year—eight men and sixteen women. Amongst these was a Mohammedan woman, who, on giving me her name as a candidate for baptism, was asked what led her to take this step. She answered, she had embraced Mohammedanism seven years ago; that lately she had accompanied a Christian relation of hers to church, where she saw and heard things that struck her. Asking her how she used to pray when a Mohammedan, she said that she never said anything, and that her worship consisted simply of standing, stooping, and sitting.

Work among Mohammedans in Lagos.

Mr. Wright's own personal history is interesting. Kidnapped in early youth, shipped on board a slaver, liberated by an English corvette, landed at Sierra Leone, he was there placed under instruction and brought to the knowledge of his Saviour. Subsequently, nearly thirty-five years ago, when a little over twenty-five years of age, he was persuaded to emigrate to Jamaica. Returning to West Africa, he became an agent of the Society at Badagry, where he stood his ground with great firmness, when assailed by the hostile heathen faction. In his last Annual Letter, he thus refers to God's providential dealings with him:—

St. Andrew's Day of 1871, and March 12th of this year, are days ever to be remembered by me as being the days I was ordained to deacon and priest's orders. Who could have predicted this of me whilst running wild amongst the lads of my country, mixing joyously in the religious rites of my parents? Who could have thought this when, separated by the cruel hand of war from those dear to me, and when under the deep fears of dying among my miserable companions within the holds on board the slaver? Who could have dreamt such of me, whilst labouring in the plantations in Jamaica? Truly “great and marvellous are Thy ways, Thou King of Saints!” May God make me good in myself, and truly useful to His own glory!

The work at Breadfruit, during the year 1876, was under the care of the Rev. James Johnson (Native African). In pastoral matters there has been a decided advance. The Communicants have increased from 333 to 418. In the statistical year which terminates on the 30th September, 1870, there were only two adult baptisms, but on the 19th of November following, eighteen more adults were received into the visible Church. The class of candidates for confirmation comprises 106 persons, and that of candidates for baptism forty-nine. The whole number of Native adherents connected with Breadfruit, Mr. Johnson reckons at 800. Since June, 1874, the congregation have subscribed 1290*l.* for various religious purposes. Referring to these and other similar points, Mr. Johnson writes:—

We are most thankful for these things, but desire to see more deadness to the world, a steady growth in grace, more simple trust in Christ in all who bear the name of Christ, and a larger ingathering of harvest from amongst heathens and Mohammedans. Our regular Church machinery, Sunday services, and Bible-class meetings, and our visits to them, are so many witnesses for Christ to these; but the consistent, blameless, and active lives of believers would be a testimony too strong for them to gainsay. At my monthly meeting of district visitors it has often been mentioned that the inconsistent lives of some Christians have always been employed against them, particularly by Mohammedans. The charge cannot be denied. This inconsistency shows itself sometimes in a breach of the seventh commandment, and at other times in the use of charms made by heathens or Mohammedans. This is the fault not so much of those who had been heathens as of intelligent young people, the children of professedly Christian people sometimes, of whom better things are expected. Our duty as ministers is, as I conceive, to labour to make the people have a familiar and practical acquaintance with Scripture and the Christ of Scripture. This is the lever to pull them up with, and to be effective it must be read to the people, young and old, in Native accents, however apt some of them may be in the use of the English or other languages.

The Sunday Schools are prosperous, numbering 186 adults and 112 children. The Weekday Schools, on the other hand, have declined, the number of children falling from 242 to 205 ; the former number being itself a decline of forty-five from the preceding year.

As regards Evangelistic work, Mr. Johnson writes :—

This department continues to receive attention. The Society's school agents are doing what they can in it in conjunction with their regular work, and so the class of district visitors. Some of them have been particularly earnest. The dispute among Mohammedans on account of Jalla lo 'ddin's Commentary, and the bitter party feelings it has produced, aid us with regard to them. Our weekly and monthly report meetings show that the minds of some among them are not so much at ease as once they were ; but the fear of man in some, and the restraints of our religion in others, continue to keep them back. The opposition of the priests is always sharp. We avoid public controversy with any number of them and their people together, but it is sometimes inevitable. Met with and spoken to individually at home they are generally free, and often acknowledge what they otherwise may not. A Mohammedan man, to whom one of our visitors had frequently spoken in favour of Christianity, has recently left Lagos for Ebute Meta on the mainland, and attached himself to the Church there. He did not think it safe to embrace Christianity here among his Mohammedan friends. Two whom I had expected to baptize this time still hold back. One is a pretty good scholar in the Koran, and a Mohammedan by birth. Both have learnt to read our Scripture in Yoruba, and often attend our services.

Efforts for the conversion of Mohammedans.

That there is some strength and activity in Mohammedanism at Lagos is evident from the following extract from the same letter :—

A visit with one of the schoolmasters to a special Mohammedan service, October 16th, during the last Ramadan fast, showed the strength of the religion we seek to subvert ; and this was the meeting only of a party. Their large extemporized tent was literally crammed with worshippers, all sitting on sheep-skins spread on the earth floor. The women were curtained off. There must have been over 1200 persons present. Three priests officiated. A chapter from the Koran was read, and a running comment made upon it. The reading, particularly in one case, was very good ; and several felt proud of the reader's ability, as they often nodded to us and directed our attention to him. Several seemed earnest in their worship. With others, especially the women, it was evidently a merely formal worship. Offerings for the use of the priesthood were many and various. The people were vociferous in praises to God and Mohammed. We have here a mighty work to do, and may God give us wisdom and power and blessing! We cannot take the citadel which we desire to take without His help, and real, earnest diligence on the part of the Christian Church. They were very civil to us.

Mr. James Johnson having been appointed by the Committee after consultation with Bishop Cheetham, to take the lead in the Abeokuta Mission; the leadership of the Society's attack upon Islam in the Yoruba and Niger districts will now devolve on another African clergyman, the Rev. Henry Johnson, who has been recently studying Arabic in Palestine. For the present Mr. Henry Johnson also succeeds to the care of Breadfruit; but he will be largely relieved of the pastoral duties by his assistant, the Rev. S. Pearce; and he will advise with the Committee, whether Lagos or some other place will be the best head-quarters of the proposed efforts on behalf of the Mohammedans.

The work at Palm Church, Aroloya, was, during the year 1876, under the superintendence of the Rev. A. Mann, who expects to be relieved from this duty, before long, by the more complete organization of the Native Christian community. Mr. Mann, however, does not deny that his fears are greater than his hopes as to the consequences of the change. While the Committee entertain a different view, they acknowledge the perils attending the step that is contemplated, and they ask the earnest prayers of God's people on behalf of the infant Church. Mr. Mann's Native helper was the Rev. N. Johnson, brother of Mr. Henry Johnson. The Native adherents number 172, and the Communicants seventy-five. The adult baptisms were nineteen.

The Pastor of Ebute Ero is the Rev. W. Morgan. The Native Christians are 278 in number; and there are 78 Communicants. The corresponding numbers for 1875 were 240, and 60. Twenty adults have been baptized during the year. One of these was an old war-chief, who publicly renounced idolatry in 1854, but who from some cause not clearly stated, did not confess Christ by receiving baptism until the year just concluded.

At Ebute Meta, a suburb of Lagos in the mainland, peopled mainly by Christian refugees from Abeokuta, the work was conducted during the year 1876 by a European superintendent, the Rev. V. Faulkner, and a Native deacon, the Rev. C. Phillips; (more recently Mr. Phillips has been transferred to the Ondo Mission). The Native adherents increased during the year from 373 to 409; and the Communicants from 183 to 212. Twenty-four adults were baptized during the year. Mr. Faulkner, it should be added, was absent on a visit to England during eight months of the year. Mr. Phillips, in his journal, writes as follows:—

I have not that close acquaintance with the people individually which I would like to have. This is because they live mostly in their farms at a village about three hours' walk from this place. As a rule, they remain in their farms during the whole week, and only hasten home to attend their class-meetings and the Sunday services. But they seem to be trying to lead a life conformable to our holy religion. They contrast very favourably with our people at Lagos for simplicity and sincerity. Of course, their living separately, and their consequent freedom from the influence of Mohammedanism, heathenism, and secular civilization, are to be considered. The heathens here live outside the Christian village, excepting three or four houses of those who had been living here before the lands were measured out to the Christians.—The following short story may illustrate the simplicity of the people. Our Scripture-reader was once passing by the house of a woman. As soon as she saw him she called him and desired him to pray for her. On asking her what should be the special object of prayer, she said she found it very difficult to control her tongue, and she felt persuaded that prayer could do it.—One pleasing feature of their character as a people is their respect for the Word of God. The translations of the Bible are their chief delight. They are appropriately termed "book-people" by their heathen countrymen. Their knowledge and understanding of the Scriptures is surprising, especially that of the older members. Another pleasing feature is their delight in prayer. One cannot listen to their simple and earnest pleadings at our prayer meetings, and perceive their cheerful steps to the house of prayer, without feeling that they are men of prayer. I must also notice their liberality and readiness to do anything to help forward the Word of God. They are comparatively very poor; but I trust I can say of them as St. Paul did of the Macedonian Christians, that "their deep poverty aboundeth unto the riches of their liberality." But they are not without their peculiar faults (besides some that are characteristic of Africans generally). The spirit of discord is prevalent among them. They are too prone to exaggerate the offences done to them, and too hard to be reconciled. They belonged to different townships in Abeokuta, and are too often jealous of each other. We are daily praying and striving against this sin.

Christians.

I have been trying, also, to do some evangelistic work. I have many opportunities of conversing with heathens or Mohammedans during my visits among the congregation, frequently meeting on these occasions their heathen friends who come from the interior and lodge with them. The Christians themselves do their best to bring them to Christ. They speak to them in their houses; they persuade them to attend our religious services; and by these means they sometimes become the instruments of their conversion. I did not confine my evangelistic efforts, however, to the houses of the Christians, but both Mr. Doherty and I made frequent visits to the houses of the Mohammedan and heathen houses that surround us. In some places we met with stubborn resistance. Some try to avoid us altogether by quick consent to all we say; but some give us a willing hearing, and even beg us not to be tired of coming to speak to them. But though many promised to give up false religions and attend our services, yet but few have fulfilled their promises. We sometimes itinerate to distant villages.

Education.

Of the TRAINING INSTITUTION the Rev. J. B. Wood reports as follows :—

Feb. 1877.—The work has gone on as in former years. The number of students in residence during the year was twenty-six. One of the most promising students in the first class was called to his rest in November of 1876. He was the son of the Society's catechist in Ondo. His father came thence in September to see him, being fearful he would have already passed away. After his father's arrival in Lagos he rallied somewhat, and became anxious to go to the Ondo country with his father. It was thought best to allow this, so he went; but the hope of being benefited by the change was not realized. He died on the 10th of November, and his remains lie in the first Christian's grave in that dark land. The remaining five students in the first class were appointed at Christmas, two to Lagos, and three to Abeokuta, and have gone to their places.—The plan of feeding the students in the house, instead of making them allowances, has more than realized our anticipations.

The FEMALE INSTITUTION has enjoyed for another year the zealous and able superintendence of the Rev. A. and Mrs. Mann. The average number of pupils was forty-nine. Scriptural instruction, it need not be said, occupies the chief place, while due attention is paid to all the branches of secular education.

Missionary Extension from Lagos.

Mr. Faulkner has made Missionary excursions into the country lying to the west and north-west of Lagos, and has been very favourably received. Porto Novo and one or two other places are already (partially at least) occupied by the Wesleyan Missionary Society; but there are several towns and villages altogether unevangelized, where Christian teachers would be allowed to reside and to preach the Gospel without molestation. The chiefs of Ado, an old and well-known stronghold of heathenism, have formally given permission to this effect, while the people of Okeodan have now for many years invited the agents of the Mission, and express themselves much aggrieved that the invitation has not been complied with.

LEKE.

This station, it will be remembered, lies on the sea-coast, forty miles east of Lagos. It is the centre of work among three Yoruba-speaking tribes, called respectively Jebus, Ijos, and Ondos. The population in the immediate neighbourhood of Leke is Jebu: Ode Ondo, the capital of the Ondos, lies three days' journey to the north-east. The Ijo territory is intermediate between these two.

At LEKE itself there is now a Christian congregation of ninety persons, with fifty-six candidates for baptism. Many of the candidates are runaway slaves. One of them, however, is an Ifa priest, whose accession to the Christian Church will, it is hoped, bring many new inquirers within the sound of the Gospel.

The most important of the out-stations is Palma, also on the sea-beach, thirteen miles west of Leke. The attendants at public service there number about forty, being for the most part nominal Christians from Lagos. There are, however, one or two candidates for baptism from among the native population, who are principally "the hard-hearted Jebus."

The second out-station is Itebu, the first little Ijo town eastward of Lagos. It forms a link between Leke and Ondo. A zealous and faithful Catechist, whose labours were much blessed at Palma, has lately been removed hither, and Mr. Hinderer is hopeful that a good impression will soon be made on these "wild forest people." The Rev. C. Phillips, one of the newly-ordained African brethren, has been transferred thither from Ebute Meta, and Mr. Hinderer hopes and prays "he may in time prove a kind of apostle to these dark, savage eastern people."

The king of Igbo-bini (the Ijo metropolis) has, notwithstanding his promise to the contrary, refused to allow Christian teachers to reside in his capital. Subsequently, on a visit from one of the leading Catechists, he endeavoured to apologize and to explain away this conduct; but his town has not yet been occupied by the agents of the Mission.

At Ode Ondo, also, affairs are unsettled, owing to the turbulent character of the population. A church, however, has been erected at the place, which was opened for public worship on Christmas Day last.

BADAGRY.

The Rev. Daniel Coker is now the Native Pastor of this place. Nothing of stirring interest has taken place. The Native Christians number 110. Five adults have been baptized during the year, and there are sixteen candidates for baptism. Visits have been paid by Mr. Coker to Iworo and other neighbouring towns. The chiefs of these places have freely entered into religious conversation, but no marked results have followed.

ABEOKUTA.

Since the return of Mr. Townsend to England in April, 1876, the work at IKIJA has been under the care of the Rev. W. Moore. The Native adherents number 233, of whom sixty-six are Communicants. There were four adult baptisms during the year.

AKE has been under the charge of the Rev. D. Williams, also an African clergyman. After referring, as his brethren do, to the Dahomian troubles, and to the evangelistic work in the farm villages, Mr. Williams adds:—

There were a few deaths among my congregation, and these all died in faith. The accessions to the Church from the heathen were 45 in all. The total number on the list of candidates for baptism is 84; candidates for the Lord's Súpper, 92; communicants, 308. From cases of excommunication of offenders, &c., the number always dwindles down instead of increasing.

The Rev. W. Allen writes under date IGBORE, 15th November, 1876, as follows:—

I am very happy to state that our congregation has been steadily progressing in spiritual life. Some of them are moved to see and appreciate the mercies vouchsafed to them. [Mr. Allen then gives several instances.] Our annual collection towards the Native Pastorate Fund has not been very good, owing to the Dahomian yearly disturbance of the country; for when it is the harvest-time for gathering what has been planted, all the people are called away from their farms to repair the town walls and re-dig the trenches, and afterwards they must sit and watch night and day, so that the town be not taken by surprise. It is only after the river rises and is not fordable, and the Dahomian season is over, that people can be at liberty to return to their farms; but, alas! all the produce of their farms is by that time damaged, and unfit for the Lagos market, &c. The Native merchants and traders also suffer as well, and this yearly disturbance to all parties in general renders all who might contribute largely unable to do much.

There are many openings now in farm villages about, but for want of means the Church Council cannot at present take upon themselves to send any teachers to them. The three farm villages under my superintendence are progressing satisfactorily. A fourth has been visited by an indefatigable evangelistic preacher, named J. P. A. The name of the new village is Asésé; the number of persons already gathered there amounts to sixteen.

The King of Igbore is very much for us, and has already given two of his children to be instructed, with promises to send more.

The Report for 1875-6 mentioned the laying of the foundation of a church (the material edifice) at OSHIELLE. In the course of 1876 it was completed. The Native Christians contributed liberally in money and voluntary labour, and large aid was also received from the Local Fund. The area of the church is 63 feet by 33, and the walls are 15 feet high.

Mr. Moore writes:—

One of the chiefs of the town, the elder son of the late Oshielle, the founder of the town, has been so pleased with the church that he asked Josiah, our head leader here, whether it would not be well for them, as chiefs of the town, to write to thank the Queen of England for granting the means for building such a fine church in their town. In reply Josiah explained to him that the means by which the church had been built did not come directly from the Queen's Government, but from a certain Society composed of State of philanthropic and godly individuals of the Queen's subjects, called mind the Church Missionary Society. Then he asked Josiah again to among the know what they should do to assure the said good people that heathen chiefs of they appreciate what has been done in their town. Josiah Oshielle. replied, "The good people would have neither gold nor silver of you; but they would be highly pleased to hear that, since the building of the church, many of you have become regular attendants on the means of grace." "That is not hard," he replied.

But their continued negligence in attending the house of God, after the opening of the church, shows that he ought to have said, "That is too hard for us to do, for our unconverted hearts could not dispose us to frequent the place where we shall be told our faults and not our earthly fortune." The head chief and several others did attend the church at the opening of it on the 9th of October; but since that, one thing or another prevented their doing so. They continue, however, to be very friendly disposed towards the holy religion. They need converted hearts to enable them to embrace it. Oh, for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, to open their eyes to see the things of God, and to enlighten their understanding to understand the love of Christ for sinners! However, the building has been attracting the attention of some of the poor people to attend the public worship of God, so that we have the satisfaction of seeing some new faces among us in the church every Lord's Day since the opening of it.

The Native adherents at Oshielle are 170 in number, of whom eighty-two are Communicants. Three adults were baptized during the year.

At the out-station of Iseyin the adherents number thirty-four, the Communicants five, and there was one adult baptism.

Systematic Missionary itineration is conducted by Native Catechists in the farm villages round Abeokuta. The reception met with has not been discouraging, though no striking results have as yet followed.

IBADAN.

The Rev. Daniel Olubi is the Pastor and Missionary of this station. The Native Christian adherents number altogether 431, of whom no fewer than 192 are Communicants. Fourteen adults were baptized during the year ending September 30th, 1876, and twenty-seven adults on the 24th December following. There are three congregations at Ibadan itself, Kudetì, Oke Aremo and Ogunpa; and there are three out-stations; Oyo, the royal Yoruba city; Ilesha, an Ijesha town subject to Ibadan; and Ogbomosho.—Kudetì is the mother church. Its congregation consists mainly of poor persons, but they are liberal in giving. At Oke Aremo the Christians are steadily increasing in number. Mr. Olubi speaks of the Ogunpa Christians as having a "faith fresh and warm towards the service of the Lord." At Oyo the king is friendly, takes a lively interest in the Mission, and has given considerable help in building the church, towards which the Ibadan Christians had liberally contributed. There are several inquirers, and at the date of his letter (26th December, 1876) Mr. Olubi was hoping on his next visit to the Yoruba metropolis to baptize six candidates. At Ilesha the constant disputes between its inhabitants and their Ibadan rulers retard the progress of the work. From fifteen to twenty persons attend Divine Service on Sundays. The Scripture-reader at Ogbomosho is entirely supported by the Ibadan Christians.

The following account given by Mr. Olubi of the death of old Ebenezer Mele will be read with interest:—

July 23rd.—We had only the morning service. Ebenezer Mele gently fell asleep early this morning, and, we humbly trust, in the saving arms of Jesus. Mele having lost his only organ of speech, he could only talk by signs. Three days before he expired, he was observed pointing every now and then to the ceiling; they supposed he wanted some means of relief. He continued in this state for two days. One of his sons asked, "Do you mean Heaven?" With a smile, he nodded yes, and next day he died.

OTA.

The Missionary of this station is the Rev. James White (African). The Native adherents number eighty-six, and the Communicants forty.

The church, of which the foundation-stone was laid on the 29th September, 1875, has been completed, the little flock of Native Christians having exerted themselves very creditably for the purpose. The king (a heathen) issued a proclamation that the church would be opened on such-and-such a day, and that all his subjects were to meet him there on the occasion. He was not, however, himself present at the opening; and the assemblage, though very large, was somewhat inattentive and disorderly. The number of attendants at public worship has for the time increased. No adults were baptized during the year, but there are three or four Candidates. Both here and at the out-station of Igbesa while the chiefs, perhaps from political motives, are desirous of being on good terms with the Mission, yet on the whole neither they nor the population generally manifest any willingness to embrace the Gospel. The king of Igbesa, however, who, though always friendly, had never been baptized, died on the 15th of October last, "praying to God," writes the Native resident teacher, "for the forgiveness of his sins through His Son Jesus Christ." He was deeply lamented by his family, though uncared-for by his subjects.

extension in the
country.

Throughout the Yoruba country, kings and chiefs are becoming more trustful in the British Government, and more disposed to reciprocate its friendly advances. The Committee are anxious to enter by the door thus opened. Entrusting Abeokuta and the Egba tribes to Native Christian zeal, superintended by the African brother, James Johnson, the Committee are desirous that European leaders should carry the glad tidings towards Ketu on the west, and, through the Ondo and Ibadan territory, towards the Niger on the east. Whether these plans can be carried out, depends on the liberality of the friends of the Society.

NIGER MISSION.

Onitsha, 1857 ; Akassa, 1861 ; Lokoja, 1865 : Bonny, 1866 ; Brass, 1868 ; Osamare, 1873 ; New Calabar, 1874 ; Asaba, 1875 ; Kipo Hill (Egan), 1876.

Conducted by Native African Teachers, under the superintendence of the Right Rev. Bishop Crowther.

THE following extract from the Abstract Report, read at the Society's annual meeting at Exeter Hall, may very properly preface the review given in these pages of the Niger Mission :—

“The presence of their old and respected friend, Bishop Crowther, whom they are sure the friends of the Society rejoice to welcome again on this platform, enables the Committee to leave to him to furnish particulars respecting this deeply interesting Mission. It is, under God, due to his zeal and tact in dealing with Native princes that so many stations have been occupied as posts of operation along the river—the highest, at Egan, being no less than 350 miles from the mouth. But the very success of the Bishop in thus multiplying stations has proved to him a source of the greatest difficulty in managing the Mission, and the only satisfactory remedy would be to supply the Mission with a good and suitable steamer of its own, by which means the Bishop would not only be enabled to visit the existing stations more regularly, but also, with the good hand of his God upon him, to establish new stations higher up the river both on its eastern and western branches. The cost of such a steamer, it has been ascertained, would be about 4000*l.*; but the expense of subsequent working would probably be less than the amount now paid annually to the Trading Companies on the river for freight and passages. The Committee, especially at the present time, cannot employ their general funds for this purpose; but they cannot doubt that friends will be forthcoming who will be glad of such an opportunity of testifying their thankfulness of the grace that years ago rescued the poor slave-boy Adjai and led him on from step to step till he became the faithful, judicious, and energetic Missionary Bishop, respected and beloved by European and Native alike.”

for Bishop Crowther.

The isolated position of the agents on the stations up the river, some of whom are young and inexperienced men, demands much sympathy, and from the cause above referred to, the Bishop finds much difficulty in being much with them.

In the year 1875 Bishop Crowther saw reason to remove Mr. P. J. Williams, the Scripture-reader of AKASSA, to Lokoja, and had almost decided, while on a visit to the place, to abandon the station altogether. At this juncture he received a letter from some young persons at a provincial town in England, begging him not yet to give up Akassa, as they had begun to make it a special object of their prayers. The receipt of this letter seemed an indication of God's will; and the Bishop therefore appointed an Akassa youth to be Assistant Schoolmaster and Reader, until a more experienced agent could be obtained from Lagos or Sierra Leone.

There were suspicions that the chiefs at BRASS, even some of those favourable to the Mission, were concerned in the hostilities which Commodore Hewett suppressed in his recent expedition up the Niger. However that may be, the Mission work has, to all appearance, progressed greatly, the congregation having largely increased. The Native Christian adherents now number 394, of whom seventy-three are Communicants. King Okiya, though still unbaptized, not only regularly attends Christian worship, having erected a shed for that purpose near his own house, but has also openly renounced the worship of idols and abandoned several superstitious practices. Other converted chiefs have subscribed liberally, one as much as 30*l.*, to complete the internal fittings of the church. The Missionary at Brass is the Rev. T. Johnson.

The Missionary at NEW CALABAR is the Rev. W. E. Carew. This is comparatively a new station. The first examination of the school took place in March, 1876. The second examination was in the October following, when the king and twelve of his principal chiefs were present, as also a European merchant from the river. All appeared to be interested by the examination; but at its close the Bishop had to remind the chiefs of their still unfulfilled engagements as regards pecuniary contributions. After various empty excuses, the chiefs renewed their promises; and Mr. Carew had since received considerable instalments of the sum that was due.

The Missionary of BONNY, the Rev. Dandeson Crowther, still, as in former years, receives much support from the European and African supercargoes and traders connected with British mercantile houses. They have recently borne the main expense of establishing and supporting an afternoon school for the Native ship-boys and a night school for the coopers and carpenters.

Persecution at Bonny and steadfastness of converts.

Persecution still continues. Five Native Christians were placed almost shelterless in the midst of a forest, exposed to the sun by day and to noxious insects by night. It was with difficulty their fellow-Christians could supply them even with food. Of two of these Mr. Crowther writes:—

Pardon, gifts, and promotion were offered, should they recant, but if not, their sufferings would be intensified. To this message one of these imprisoned converts calmly replied, “Tell the master I thank him for his kindness; he himself knows that I never refused to perform duties required of me at home; but as regards turning back to heathen worship, that is out of my power, for Jesus has taken charge of my heart and padlocked it—the key is with Him; so you see it is impossible for me to open it without Him." The other answered, that they need not try to tempt him with any worldly offers ; and added, in reference to their threats of prolonging and intensifying his sufferings, "I have made up my mind, God helping me, to be in chains, should it so please the Lord, even till the coming of the judgment day."

After several months the release of these converts was procured by a strong and united remonstrance on the part of the European traders and ship-captains. Mr. Crowther writes again :—

The masters of our converts thought that the greatest punishment they could inflict, was to get them far away from Bonny out of the influence of the Church; hence it became a practice for every master to pick out the believers, and send them to the fair to trade and others to the plantations. What result does this punishment produce? There is an open place cleared in the bush near the markets, existing at this present time, in which during the last twelve months, prayer meetings are held on Sundays. The converts meet there, and invite their Ibo friends to hear the glad tidings of the Gospel read and explained by a schoolboy of ours, who has now grown up, was baptized, and is among those sent to the markets. The converts, it is said, take it by turns to pray, and to set forth the Gospel, so far as they can do so from the knowledge they have obtained from our preaching. About thirty persons continually assemble on Sunday in this open place.

Effect of persecution on the propagation of the Gospel.

OSAMÂRE is still under the charge of the Rev. J. Düring, who is assisted by a Scripture-reader, and also, during the year under review, by a Schoolmaster recently arrived from Sierra Leone. The Bishop, on his visit on August 20th, 1876, preached to a congregation of ninety-two persons, twenty of whom were resident mercantile agents, or members of their families, while the remainder were natives of the place. Akoko, one of the two head chiefs, and Odogu, the war-chief, regularly attend service together with some members of their households. Two Natives of Osamâre have recently renounced idolatry.

At ONITSHA the work of God has grievously suffered from the fall of one of the agents, an ordained minister. Dissensions also have prevailed among the agents to a deplorable extent. Cruel and degrading superstitions still prevail in the district, and human sacrifices are not yet extinct; and there are frequent hostilities between the petty chiefs, often leading to bloodshed. Signs of a better feeling, however, are springing up. Mr. Perry mentions, for instance, an increasing opposition to the practice, formerly almost universal, of not allowing twins to live. The School at Onitsha, which numbers forty-five children, has received the kind countenance of several of the resident agents of British mercantile houses. Some of these were present at the public examination, and expressed themselves much pleased with the progress the children had made in the knowledge of Holy Scripture, English Grammar, Geography, &c.

The Rev. Edward Phillips finds a few at ASABA who regularly listen to the Word of God on the Lord's Day. Fear of domestic persecution still keeps them back from openly confessing Christ. The chiefs had promised to send their children to school, but the promise was not kept. Three youths, however, persisted in attending, and overcame the opposition of their parents. A neighbouring town to the west of the river, in the direction of Benin, has addressed an invitation to the Missionary agents at Asaba.

During the year 1875 the Rev. T. C. John and the Rev. C. Paul, were the Missionaries at LOKOJA. Mr. John, towards the close of 1876, left Lokoja, in order to visit England, for the purpose of helping forward, in conjunction with the Rev. J. F. Schön, linguistic and translational Missionary work. Mr. Paul commences his report for 1876 with expressions of joy and thankfulness at the happy political changes which have taken place in Lokoja and the surrounding districts. Peace now prevails everywhere. Umoru's firm government seems to have struck terror into the surrounding districts; while at the same time, though a Mohammedan, he does not at present in any way interfere with the evangelistic efforts of the Missionaries. The principal Mission Church at Lokoja was opened for the first time after rebuilding on Christmas Day, 1875, and the Bunu chapel on the morning after, St. Stephen's Day. The church accommodates 300 persons, and the chapel 150. The languages used in the former of these two places of worship are Hausa and Nupe alternately. There were no adult baptisms during the year, and there are but three Catechumens; yet Mohammedans and heathens frequently visit the Adult Sunday School, where the truths of the Gospel are plainly set before them. The Day Schools are still very irregularly attended.

The two hostile chiefs, brothers, at Gbegbe, a former station, have come to terms, and Akaia, to whom the possession of Gbegbe itself has fallen, has invited Bishop Crowther to occupy it again.

The station at KIPO HILL, in the neighbourhood of Egan, farther up the Niger, has been visited by the Rev. C. Paul, who, at the date of the Bishop's Annual Letter, was temporarily residing there with his family, to superintend the erection of the Mission buildings.

EAST AFRICA MISSION.

(Commenced 1844.)

European Mission Establishment:

Commander Russell, R.N. (m), 1876, Lay Superintendent.
 Rev. William Salter Price (m), to Western India, 1849; to East Africa, 1874; at home.
 Rev. James Abner Lamb, to Yoruba, 1861; to Sierra Leone, 1870; to East Africa, 1876.
 Rev. Harry Kerr Binns, 1875.
 Mr. William Harris (m), 1875; at home.
 Mr. John W. Handford, 1875.
 Mr. George J. Clark (m), 1876; at home.
 Mr. E. A. Praeger, 1877.
 Mr. John R. Streeter (m), 1877.

MR. PRICE, after ably and successfully inaugurating the work of the Mission in its new form, was compelled by the state of his health to leave Mombasa for England, at the close of July, 1876. The duties that had devolved upon him were then divided into the two branches of spiritual and secular, and entrusted respectively to the Rev. J. A. Lamb and Captain Russell, by whom they have been energetically carried on. There are at the same time difficulties from within and from without, which seem to afford special evidence of the antagonism of the great enemy against the Mission, and which therefore call for very special prayer on its behalf.

The stations connected with the Mission are three in number: (1) FRERE TOWN, on the mainland opposite Mombasa; (2) RABAI or KISULUTINI, also on the mainland, some fifteen miles from Mombasa; and (3) MPWAPWA, several hundreds of miles distant, being about 200 miles due west from Zanzibar, in the Usagâra mountains, on the borders of the Ugogo country.

FRERE TOWN, situated as above described, is a settlement for liberated slaves. It comprises 220 acres of land, the property of the Society. It has a fine clear beach open to the south-west, excellent water, good natural drainage, long fresh grass, and clumps of cocoa-nut trees and mangoes; and it is unoccupied by any Native dwelling-houses. About 400 liberated slaves are now collected at the settlement; buildings are in course of erection; and the remaining 200 acres of land are being gradually brought into cultivation.

Mr. Lamb gives the following summary of the work at Frere Town during the year:—

Everything is quite in its beginning at present; but there is much to be thankful for, and much of promise for the future, if the Divine blessing is vouchsafed. The Native Church at present consists almost entirely of liberated Africans, emigrants from India. Many of them have doubtless laboured under great disadvantages there, by having been detached from means of grace, or brought up under the degrading influences of the Roman Catholic religion; and their Christianity is of a very low type. But this is by no means the case with all; and we hope that those who have enjoyed the privileges of a regular Christian training will prove a leaven amongst the less favoured. They have already commenced making contributions, with a view to the ultimate establishment of an independent Native pastorate, and subscriptions of at least two pice are made at the weekly classes of Church members and candidates for Church membership towards a fund for that purpose. Mr. David, the Native catechist, who has recently been transferred from the Rabai station to this, is a very able and useful man. The school thrives under Mr. Handford's management, and it is quite a pleasure to go into it and see the good order of the children, and the progress they have made. The newly liberated slaves are all under instruction with a view to baptism (except the children who have been baptized, and two women who are of unsound mind). Their ignorance and inaptness at receiving the truths of the Gospel is inconceivable to a purely English mind. To Him alone, who can of stones raise up children unto Abraham, will be all the glory when any of them have been enabled to receive the truth in the love of it, and have laid hold on the great salvation. There are several boys in the school who give fair promise of being one day preachers of the Gospel to their fellow-countrymen.

The Committee are glad to confirm the report of their Missionary by the two following independent testimonies. Capt. Boys, R.N., of H.M.S. "Philomel," in a private letter to a friend, wrote as follows:—

On the 18th of November, 1876, I anchored at Mombasa, for the purpose of surveying the approach to the harbour. The Mission is situated at the head of the harbour, a small but very pretty little harbour. Mombasa, or Mombas, on which a large Arab town is built, is only an island. The Mission is on the mainland, and forms quite a little colony of itself, numbering at present about 350. It is here that the freed slaves are sent. On arrival they are separated from the rest for a few days for purposes of hygiene; then the men are given materials, and are allowed time to build a cottage for themselves—only poles and mud are used, and the cottages are thatched with palm and other leaves dried; then they select themselves wives from the women generally, and live in their new cottages, which are built in rows called streets, named after the several tribes. Thus each tribe is kept separate. The men have to work so many hours every day, and are paid by the Church Missionary Society four dollars, or about sixteen shillings, a month. Last year this Mission cost the Society over 8000*l.*, mainly borne, of course, by the special East Africa Fund; but it is a noble work, and, with such a man as Mr. Lamb at the head of it, is sure to prosper. Mr. Lamb seems in excellent health, and is full of energy. Mrs. Lamb was only just recovering from a severe attack of fever when we arrived, but she is also most indefatigable, and an excellent helpmate for him. She takes her Sunday class of girls, who are just beginning to read the Gospel of St. John, and has an afternoon sewing-class every day. There is an English schoolmaster, and several Native teachers and catechists trained in schools at Bombay and in other parts of India. Their school numbers about ninety children, there being from eighty-two to eighty-five present on the three occasions I paid it a visit. I spent both Sunday afternoons with the Lambs, and went to the Sunday-school with him afterwards. The schoolroom is a very nice building, full of doors and windows, and, after opening school with prayer, a hymn was sung in English by the whole of the children. Hardly one of these children could speak a word of English, and yet they sung this and other hymns with wonderful clearness and expression, and especially Sankey's Hymn No. 70. It was a sight worth seeing to hear these eighty children, ages varying from sixteen and seventeen down to two and three, all as black as coals, standing up and singing. After this the classes were formed, the seniors learning texts, and having them explained to them in their own language; others learning a new hymn, and others again having the rudiments of our faith explained most simply to them in their own language. After Sunday-school is over, Mr. Lamb always goes among the freed slaves with an interpreter, reading and talking to them for an hour or two, while the children, with Mrs. Lamb and as many volunteers as choose, attend afternoon service, performed in the Native language, in a room set apart for a church. In the weekday schools the upper class were doing sums in multiplication and subtraction, learning to read English and writing, the lowest class of infants learning the alphabet. I only wish that Mr. Wright and others belonging to the C.M.S. could have seen what I have seen; they would have been more than pleased, and, with me, must have felt that God's blessing was resting upon this work.

of the Mombasa
Mission.

"An East African" writes to us under date Zanzibar, Dec. 14, 1876:—"At a time when, in spite of the complicated state of affairs in Europe and other parts of the world, so much attention is being concentrated on the vast, and still but little known, continent of Africa, and when Mission after Mission is being sent out from home for purposes of exploration and civilization, it may not prove uninteresting to many of your readers to know something about the progress that is being made by the oldest established Mission in East Africa—that of the Church Missionary Society at Mombasa. This Mission was established as long ago as 1844, but up to the time of Sir Bartle Frere's visit in 1873, the progress made was not very great. Since then a great change has been effected. There are now in the Mission at Frere Town, Mombasa, 400 freed slaves, received at various times from her Majesty's Consul-General at Zanzibar. All these are fed, clothed, and lodged, besides being taught intellectually and mechanically at the sole cost of the Mission, as Government gives no assistance whatever. There is at present a staff of Europeans and Natives who are earnestly and heartily throwing themselves into their work and producing good results. But it is well known that Mission work in East Africa is very trying to Europeans, and those who come here must necessarily, for health's sake, return to England after a few years, others coming out to carry on the work, and thus large sums of money must frequently and unavoidably be spent for passages, &c. At Frere Town houses are being erected in European style, so as to afford more accommodation in a more healthy manner. Roads, too, are being constructed in the neighbourhood, one of which, 14ft. wide and five miles long, has been completed between the landing-place [on the river bank] and Kisulutini, a smaller station of the Mission, formerly occupied for nearly thirty years by Mr. Rebmann. All this work causes and needs a great expenditure of money, which, as I have stated, has hitherto been provided by the Society alone. In former times, Mombasa was the most important port in East Africa, and from its possessing so fine a harbour—lately surveyed by her Majesty's ship 'Philomel'—and also from its being the nearest route through Chaga and South Galla territories to the Victoria Nyanza, it is more than probable that it will yet recover more than its former greatness. With regard to the expense of keeping up a Mission such as this, the majority of whose community consists of freed slaves captured by her Majesty's men-of-war in these waters, it has been from time to time suggested and urged that the Government should recognize their partial responsibility for the welfare of such freed slaves by affording some pecuniary support to the Mission; and though various suggestions have been made as to the amount and mode of payment, yet when Sir Bartle Frere was at Zanzibar, Mr. Clement L. Hill, secretary to his Mission, urged that support be given to the Mombasa Mission, and stated that he thought a bonus of 5*l.* per head should be paid for every freed slave, young or old, who should be handed over to such Mission. It must be borne in mind that substantial support was afforded to the negroes on the West Coast. Mr. Hill's suggestions have not, however, been acted upon, and thus the whole burden has still to be borne by the Mission; and yet great and good progress has been made, and no doubt will continue to be made while earnest, good, and energetic men, such as are at present in charge, can be found for the work. Let the Government do its part in this great work, and there is no doubt that, when the British public know what is being done at Mombasa, their hands will not be backward in supporting with their means the labours of the Church Missionary Society in East Africa."

Mr. J. R. Streeter is an industrial agent. His work will be to develop the industrial resources both of Frere Town and RABAI. For this purpose he spent some time, early in the present year, in Egypt, to make himself acquainted with cotton-growing and other branches of tropical agriculture. Mr. Streeter reached Mombasa in March, 1877. It is fully hoped that, at least as regards all secular expenses the, Mission will become, before long, self-supporting. Land for cultivation may, it is believed, be obtained to almost any extent at Rabai.

At Giriama, about fifteen miles from Rabai, a few Native converts have been gathered together by voluntary Native Christian effort in the first instance, though subsequently receiving instruction from the Society's agents. "The Christianity of the Giriama Native Church," writes Mr. Lamb, "seems to be simple and sincere; and its bursting forth like a fountain in the desert, without direct Missionary operation, though really an offshoot of Mr. Rebmann's work at Rabai, is a cause for wonder and joy."

MPWAPWA, though connected with the East Africa Mission, as being geographically nearest to it, was first taken up in connexion with the Nyanza Mission. It is situated, as mentioned above, in the Usagâra mountains, on the borders of the Ugogo country, 200 miles west of Zanzibar. Mr. Clark, an engineer and Lay Missionary, who was appointed to open the station, reached Mpwapwa on the 24th of August, 1876, in company with Mr. O'Neill, of the Nyanza Mission, and Mr. Hartnoll, mate of the "Highland Lassie." After seeing all the different detachments of the Nyanza expedition pass through, Mr. Clark and Mr. Hartnoll were left alone at the station. The latter, who was under a temporary engagement only, rendered much help to Mr. Clark in the erection of the Mission-house and laying out of the grounds. Mr. Clark not only built a substantial residence, but also conciliated the affection of the Ugogo people, and made some progress in the acquisition of the language. Broken health has brought him home to this country for a season; but the Committee hope shortly to reoccupy the station with a Medical Missionary and other agents.

The purchase of land at Frere Town, the erection of buildings, the making of roads, and the maintenance of 400 Africans, could not be effected without a large outlay. The East African fund is not only exhausted, but a debt incurred from it to the general funds of the Society of 3500*l.* Towards this, an application has been made to Government for 2000*l.*, which there is every prospect of obtaining. Unless the East African fund is replenished, it will be impossible to receive any more of the captives liberated by H.M. cruisers.

PART OF CENTRAL AFRICA.

This is a detailed historical map of Lake Victoria Nyanza and its surrounding regions. The lake is centrally located, labeled "VICTORIA NYANZA" with dimensions "Speke 3740 - Stanley 3808". To the north are the mountains of Kivu and Kilimanjaro. The map shows numerous rivers flowing into the lake, such as the Nile, Albert, and others. Various tribes and territories are labeled, including Uru, Usoga, and others. Key locations like Mombasa, Zanzibar, and the Salt Plains are also indicated. The map includes latitude and longitude markings and is attributed to "Stanley's Geog. Estab." at the bottom.

NYANZA MISSION.

European Mission Establishment:

Lieut. George Shergold Smith, R.N., 1876.
 Rev. Charles Thomas Wilson, 1876.
 Dr. John Smith, 1876.
 Mr. Thomas O'Neill (m), 1876.
 Mr. Alex. M. Mackay, 1876.

A BRIEF review of what God has enabled the Society and its agents to accomplish in this Mission, since its first undertaking, will not be unacceptable. Mr. Stanley's letter in the Daily Telegraph, giving an account of King Mtesa's wish to receive Christian teachers, and challenging Protestant Missionary Societies to meet the opportunity, appeared on November 15, 1875. The offer of 5000*l*. from an anonymous friend (followed shortly afterwards by an equal offer from another) was received by the Society on the 18th of the same month. Five days afterwards the Committee, regarding the invitation and the offers combined as a call from God, resolved, in humble dependence upon Him, to attempt the great enterprise. By April, 1876, the European agents had been selected and appointed. By the 26th of June following, the whole Mission party were at Zanzibar. On the 14th of July, the first division started, consisting of Messrs. O'Neill and Clark, and 50 porters, Mr. Clark having been appointed for Mpwapwa, 200 miles from the coast, where, as previously mentioned, the Committee had resolved to form a permanent station. Fifteen days afterwards the second division set off, consisting of 110 porters, under the Rev. C. T. Wilson's leadership. These were followed in the end of August by Mr. Mackay, with 214 guards and porters, and on September 14th by the rearguard, composed of the leader of the expedition, Lieutenant Shergold Smith, R.N., its medical officer, Dr. John Smith, and 80 porters. From Mpwapwa the expedition went forward in two divisions; the first caravan, under Mr. O'Neill and the Rev. C. T. Wilson, leaving on October 7th, and the second on October 21st, under Lieutenant Smith, and Dr. Smith and Mr. Mackay. Lieutenant Smith has forwarded several letters to the Committee by caravans met with on the route, the last being dated from Unyanyembe, 18th of January in this present year. A little beyond Mpwapwa Mr. Mackay was compelled to return to the coast from temporary failure of health, where, however, he diligently employed himself in gathering a second party, which he despatched, under a leader recommended to him by her Majesty's Consul-General, Dr. Kirk, in March last. He himself hopes to lead a third party in June, accompanied also by a young English artisan, who has been recently sent on to him from this country. Lieutenant Smith's despatches give favourable accounts of himself and his companions, and breathe also a spirit of cheerful trust in God, which is very encouraging to observe.

Letters were written by the Committee to King Mtesa and King Rumanika, which were forwarded last autumn; and Lieutenant Smith, in one of his more recent communications, states that he had heard from an eye-witness that the letter to King Mtesa had safely reached its destination, and that Mtesa's desire to have Christian teachers with him was still unabated.

The European staff of the expedition having been, for the time at least, so much reduced, Lieutenant Smith proposes, after occupying Kagei as the temporary head-quarters of the Mission, to visit King Mtesa, and to come back from him to Kagei, visiting King Rumanika, of Karagué, on the return journey.

While these pages were correcting for the press, a telegram arrived from Zanzibar, stating that on the 29th of January Mr. O'Neill and Mr. Wilson reached Kagei, on the southern shore of the Victoria Nyanza.

MEDITERRANEAN MISSION.

(Commenced at Malta in 1815.)

I. Turkish Mission.—II. Asia Minor.—III. Palestine.

SYRA having at length definitely ceased to be occupied by the Society, all the stations of the Mediterranean Mission are now within the Turkish Empire. The thoughts which this fact at this time must suggest to the Committee, and to the members and friends of the Society generally, need not be expressed. The Committee would content themselves with asking for prayer on behalf of the brethren and sisters in the Ottoman empire, in their present critical position, that their minds may be stayed upon God and kept quiet from fear of evil, and that the ultimate issue may be a freer course for the Word of God among the followers of the false prophet.

I. Turkish Mission.

CONSTANTINOPLE.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. Sigismund Wilhelm Koelle, Ph.D. (m), to West Africa, 1847; to Palestine, 1856; to Constantinople, 1862.
Rev. Robert Hopkinson Weakley (m), 1860.

DR. KOELLE, who deservedly occupies this honourable but difficult post, writes under date of the 28th November, 1876, as follows:—

The state of Turkish society during the year under review has been decidedly unfavourable to direct Missionary efforts. The increasing impoverishment and distress—arising from the inability of the Government to meet its liabilities to its servants and its creditors, and from other causes—together with the war which had to be carried on against insurgent Christian subjects and vassals, all tended to produce irritability and to stir up the ever-lurking fanaticism of the Mohammedan population.

In the month of February the Society sent out a small box of copies of a Turkish tract on the Death of Christ, printed in London by the Christian Knowledge Society. This tract consists of two parts: the first setting forth the grounds the Christians have for believing that Christ actually died upon the cross, and the second showing the weakness of the foundation upon which the Mohammedans rest their denial of that fact. The whole is a dispassionate exposition of facts, and is evidently written with the studious desire of avoiding anything that could at all be regarded as needlessly irritating. Yet this tract was confiscated in the custom-house, and condemned by the Ministry of Instruction to be burnt, as “not proper for circulation in this country;” whilst at the very same time a succession of articles were being published in Turkish periodicals violently attacking and vituperating the Bible, with the express sanction of the self-same Ministry of Instruction.

Beyond this the Government has not interfered with our quiet, unostentatious work ; and our Sunday service in the Turkish language could be continued throughout the year without any hindrance. But even in this we felt the effects of the time, for during the greater part of the year hardly any unbaptized Turk attended.

In the early part of the year I had to dismiss from the Society's service one of our two Native readers for having married a Mohammedan woman during my absence at the Conference in London, and for concealing the fact. Soon after, when the woman and her mother discovered that he was a Christian, they quietly repudiated him, saying, "We do not wish to cause you trouble, so simply stop away and ignore the past ; but if not, we will expose you to the authorities." He has since acknowledged to me the wrong and folly of his conduct, and has left for the interior, to pursue his former avocation of a native doctor and apothecary. Ahmed Agha, the other reader, carried on his work perseveringly, in spite of frequent rebuffs and occasional abuses for having left the Mohammedan religion. Not a month passed without his being able to circulate some of our publications, though in his respect also the unfavourableness of the times made itself felt.

Mr. Weakley, whose health has been very uncertain, has been engaged mainly in translational work.

II. Asia Minor.

SMYRNA.

(Commenced 1830.)

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. John Theophilus Wolters (m), to Syra, 1837 ; to Smyrna, 1842.

As stated in the Report for 1875-6, the Rev. J. T. Wolters is now the only European Missionary at this station. In his Annual Letter, dated 24th November, 1876, Mr. Wolters, after speaking of the great excitement then prevailing, caused by the political events of the time, observes :—

And yet, I am very thankful to say, we have not been left without some tokens for good in our "work of faith and labour of love" among the Natives around us. Our Native helpers have been about among the people as much as possible, and one of them especially has even had access sometimes to Turkish prisons, and spoken to the inmates of those miserable abodes of Him who was the "Friend of Sinners." He has also had frequent intercourse with some of those few Mohammedan inquirers, to whom my son had often preached the Gospel in a conversational way. They still remember my son affectionately, and have not quite abandoned the hope of his return to Smyrna. Our agent B. also goes about among the people, holding conversations now with a Turk and then with a Christian, setting before them the claims of the Gospel. Our colporteur P. (a converted Turk) can hardly sell any books among the Turks at present; among the Christians he is more successful. Our book-store is still working well. The sale of Holy Scriptures and other Christian books and tracts, is going on encouragingly.

III. Palestine.

(Commenced in Jerusalem, 1851; Nazareth, 1852; Salt, 1873; Nablous, 1876; Jaffa, 1876.)

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. F. Augustus Klein (m), 1851.

Rev. John Zeller (m), 1855.

Rev. Theodore Frederick Wolters (m), 1860, Secretary.

Rev. Franklin A. S. Bellamy (m), 1873.

Rev. J. R. Longley Hall (m), 1876.

Rev. Christian Fallscheer, joined in Palestine, 1876.

Mr. James Huber (m), to West Africa, 1850; to Palestine, 1853.

Mr. Nyland, joined in Palestine, 1876.

It was mentioned in the Annual Report for 1875-6, that as the result of the "Mohammedan Conference," the Committee contemplated strengthening the Society's Palestine Mission. Some of the plans there mentioned have been carried out. The Rev. T. F. Wolters has been transferred from Smyrna, and is now (acting) Secretary of the Mission at Jerusalem. A new station has also been opened at Jaffa, being occupied by a new Missionary, the Rev. J. R. Longley Hall. An experienced and devoted English clergyman whom the Committee had hoped to send out as permanent Secretary, at Jerusalem, was providentially hindered from going thither. On the other hand, the Rev. F. Bellamy has rejoined the Mission, and is stationed at Nazareth, taking also the oversight of several schools for the children of the Druse chiefs in the Hauran. The Rev. J. Zeller, thus relieved of the charge of Nazareth, hopes to establish and conduct a Præparandi Class at Jerusalem. Also the Missionary agencies in Palestine, which have been hitherto worked under Bishop Gobat's auspices, and by means of his diocesan fund, have now been transferred to the charge of the Society. These agencies comprise a large boarding-school at Jerusalem, a Mission at Nablous, and schools at Ramleh and Lydda. This aged and honoured friend of the Society, in making the transference, felt great satisfaction in the confidence that the work would be carried on in the same principles and in the same spirit as heretofore.

The Rev. F. A. Klein gives the following general review of the results of the last twenty-five years' work in the Mission:—

twenty-five years of Protestant Missionary work in Palestine.

Twenty-five years ago the education of the youth of this country was sadly neglected. Bishop Gobat had opened a school at Jerusalem, and another at Nablous, but besides these there was scarcely anything worth mentioning in the whole country. Since that time our Society has been instrumental in opening a number of schools in towns and villages in various parts of the country, and thereby imparting sound Scriptural and general instruction to hundreds of Native boys and girls who would otherwise have grown up, like their parents, in lamentable ignorance and degradation. An impetus in the cause of education has been given to Latins, Greeks, Armenians, yea, to Moslems also, who were obliged to open schools where there had been none, and to improve those already in existence.

Protestantism was formerly cried down in this country, chiefly by the fanatical and envious priesthood, as "farmasoonism," i. e. freemasonry, which they understood to be the denial of the existence of a God, and consequently utter indifference to religion. Our position is now materially altered; and though we are still bitterly hated, and opposed by fair and foul dealings, chiefly by the Latins, and thwarted wherever possible by Moslems, still the general opinion regarding the Protestant religion is materially altered. Many Greeks and Latins openly confess that ours is the religion of the Bible; and a goodly number would join us if they had faith and moral courage enough to give up the worldly support they receive from their convents, and to suffer something for Christ's sake. Moslems confess that ours is the best religion professed by Christians; and if we enjoyed religious liberty and equality in this country in practice as we have it on the paper of firmans,

I have no doubt that here and there a Moslem would embrace Christianity, and many more be brought seriously to inquire into the subject of Christianity; though the doctrine of the Trinity, and chiefly that of the divinity of Christ, will always remain a most formidable obstacle in the way of Mohammedans.

Though we have in our congregations a number of unworthy individuals, and a good proportion of mere head Christians, whose understandings are enlightened but whose hearts are not converted; we still have a small number of individuals on whose hearts and lives the Word of God has exercised a decided influence, and whom we rejoice to regard, with all their defects, as true disciples of Christ.

JERUSALEM.

During the year 1876 the Rev. F. Klein and the Rev. Chalîl Jamal had charge of the Society's work in Jerusalem. Henceforward the latter will be the Pastor of the Native Congregation, assisted by the counsels of the Rev. J. Zeller, who will reside at Jerusalem.

The Præparandi Class, which has been partly at Jerusalem and partly at Nazareth, is now concentrated in the former place, and will be Mr. Zeller's principal employment. Mr. Klein will devote himself to Evangelistic work, chiefly of the literary kind, for the benefit of the Moslems.

Mr. Chalîl Jamal has given a lengthened report of the Jerusalem Congregation, a report which gives indication both of faithful labour on his own part, and also of the grace of God in the flock over which he watches. The following account of one who recently died in the Lord will be read with interest:—

Oudy Azzam, aged about sixty, died very suddenly in forty-eight hours of apoplexy. A few hours before he died he was heard to say, "The Saviour, the Saviour who came to save the world, is come!" This deceased and much-beloved brother was one of the first-fruits of Palestine, and an intimate friend of the late Bishop Bowen when a Missionary in Nablous, and he may justly be called one of the pillars of the Native Protestants of all Palestine. He was a most zealous man, and a very earnest and sincere Christian. No opportunity was lost by him without speaking of his Master to Moslems, Jews, and Christians. He read his Bible, I believe, five times most carefully, and, as we had no Concordance in Arabic, he used to write down every passage that forbids the making or the worship of images or pictures, and also the passages that speak of Christ as the only Mediator

Protestant in Pales-

or Intercessor, &c. He never missed the morning family prayers, and used to read two chapters every morning, one from the Old and the other from the New Testament, in a regular order.

The Schools at Ramallah, Bir Zeit, Beit Sahûr, and Tayyibeh are going on satisfactorily. At two of these places, Bir Zeit and Beit Sahûr, there are a number of Moslem boys, who attend regularly. The girls' school at Jerusalem, which was attended in the previous year by from twelve to fifteen Mohammedan girls, has lost several of these in consequence of the disturbed state of the country and the religious excitement of the Moslem population.

JAFFA.

The Rev. J. R. Longley Hall has opened the work at this station, with which Ramleh and Lydd are connected as outposts, in a spirit of faith and hope and prayer. He writes, under date February 13th, 1877, as follows:—

The services are conducted as usual. The numbers vary considerably (sometimes there are fifty or sixty, sometimes only ten), but I think the tendency is decidedly to increase. The congregation is composed almost entirely of Greeks. I do not know of one Latin who attends, and there are not more than six professed Protestants. I do earnestly pray and trust that many may be brought to Christ as their Saviour. The formalism and utter indifference that abounds, the shallowness of thought, and the little attention that is given to religion by these poor creatures, the insincerity of almost all—these things make one's heart ache, and one's spirit well-nigh fail; but oh, how strikingly they teach one that it is "not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit"!

The school, here in Jaffa, which ought to have commenced on January 1st, has not yet begun. Forms and desks have been made for the rooms, and I am getting the necessary school-books, but my illnesses have prevented me from looking out for a school-master. I trust, however, with the Lord's blessing, that we may really commence immediately after Easter. There are numbers of children in the streets who go to no school at all, but who are quite ready to come here when our school opens. The Greek Church have closed their school, and the Latins confine their attention to the girls. There is therefore no boys' school in the town.

The work in Ramleh and Lydd is going on satisfactorily on the whole. I found the school-children terribly deficient both in Scripture and in secular subjects, but I think that they now make an effort to rectify this. I have arranged to hold an examination at each school myself every three months, and to get one of my brother missionaries to conduct a still more thorough examination every six months. I trust that in this way both teachers and pupils may be stimulated to put forth their best efforts.

The Protestants of Lydd have much gratified Mr. Hall by their energy and self-help.

A letter received from Mr. Hall, dated April 27th, conveys the additional intelligence that he had just opened the Jaffa school, with a competent teacher, attended by thirty children; that he has also a night school, attended by about fifty men; and that Mrs. Hall has opened Bible Classes for women.

The population of Jaffa is rapidly increasing, and now amounts to about 17,000.

NAZARETH.

It was mentioned in the Annual Report for 1874-5 that at the close of the Crimean War, the prestige then attached to the English name led many Native Christians in Palestine to attach themselves to the Protestant Mission. This took place in the Nazareth district, as in others. Subsequently, however, not a few of these either relapsed altogether into their old superstitions, or have at least practically given up all attention to Protestant teaching. It has been thought better therefore to cease regarding them as connected with the Society. By this stricter reckoning the number of Native Christian adherents in Nazareth and its out-stations would not exceed 300, with perhaps between thirty and forty Communicants.

The state of the Nazareth Protestant Christians is not satisfactory. This is mainly in consequence of dissensions and party-spirit; and though indications of improvement have recently appeared, it is yet too early to judge what reliance may be placed on these favourable symptoms. May He who was once known as the "Nazarene," guide and bless the efforts of those who are labouring there in His name.

At the out-station of Shefamer, where the Rev. Seraphim Bontaji is stationed, the Native adherents number seventy-five, of whom eighteen are Communicants. Mr. Bontaji reports that most of them "are growing in Spirit, loving one another, and keeping the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." The Schools both at Shefamer and at Acca are prospering.—Schools seem to be unquestionably the best basis for evangelistic effort in Palestine. Good schools are attended not only by children from the Greek and Latin Churches, but also by Moslems and Druses, who are thus brought under the sound of the Gospel.

It has not been found possible to occupy SALT during the year with a European Missionary; and the work there has languished.

PERSIA.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. Robert Bruce, M.A. (m), to North India, 1858; to Persia, 1869.

MR. BRUCE reckons the number of Native Christian adherents at 100. Of these, thirty-one are Communicants. No adults have been baptized during the year. Mr. Bruce is assisted by two Protestant Armenians, Mr. Melcom and Mr. Carapit Johannes. The latter of these two brethren was formerly in the Society's Mission at Nasik. Mr. Melcom takes part in the pastoral work, while Mr. C. Johannes is mainly engaged in education.

Divine Service is conducted in the Persian language on Sunday mornings, and a shorter form on every day of the week. Mr. Melcom conducts service in Armenian on Saturday and Sunday evenings. There is also a Sunday-school, which is attended by the majority of the congregation, young and old. A Church Committee has been formed, consisting of three independent lay members, besides Mr. Bruce, Mr. Melcom, and Mr. Johannes. The Mission premises now contain a commodious Mission-house, a handsome boys' schoolroom (to be used only as a chapel), and a girls' schoolroom. A building for a boys' boarding-school is also in contemplation. The Schools now in existence are attended by 112 boys and 45 girls. Mr. Bruce writes:—

We have spent 600*l.* on building this year, and every one thinks the work has been done cheaply and solidly. We shall require perhaps 600*l.* more to finish the school and boarding-house. We have great reason to be thankful to our God for putting it into the hearts of so many Christian friends to subscribe so liberally to the Persian Fund. The money has just come in as we wanted it, and we are very desirous of expressing our gratitude to the kind donors. I am determined never to go into debt for Mission-buildings, and always paid off every penny that was due on the Friday of each week, and I never once had to say to the workmen, "You must go away and come again for your pay." It is remarkable that the two months the building was stopped by order of the Grand Wazir, I could not get money, and as soon as we recommenced the work, money came in sufficient for all our wants.

Mr. Bruce has met with much opposition. This has been stirred up chiefly by the Armenian and Roman Catholic ecclesiastics. It is through their intrigues that an almost complete stop has been put to the work among the Moslems, which at one time seemed most promising. The governor of Teheran has recently issued strict orders that no Mohammedan pupils should attend the school, at which there were at one time thirty Moslem pupils. Great efforts were made by the enemies of the Mission first to get the school abolished altogether, and, failing in that, to have the teaching of God's Word prohibited in it. They endeavoured also to have Mr. Bruce's Church-services forcibly suppressed, and to prevent the building of his schoolrooms. These efforts have been only successful so far that Mr. Bruce has been obliged to promise to use his chapel as a schoolroom, the Moslem religious dignitaries objecting to the erection of any new building intended solely for Christian worship. The Prince Governor also repeatedly desired Mr. Bruce to promise that he would never offer prayer or preach in the new schoolroom. Mr. Bruce of course refused to do so, and would probably never have been allowed to complete the building, but for the kind intervention of the British Ambassador. At the date of Mr. Bruce's Annual Letter, divine service was held in Mr. Bruce's sitting-room. He contemplated using the schoolroom for this purpose in the spring, and quite expected that when he did so a fresh attack would be made on him.

Special obstacles in Western India.

WESTERN India is one of the less successful of the Society's Missions. As compared with South India, this may be accounted for by the greater length of time during which Protestant Missionaries have laboured in the Southern districts. As compared with non-Indian Missions, it may be observed that by far the larger part of the population of Western India lie helplessly bound, as it were, in the iron grasp either of Hinduism or Mohammedanism. Hinduism is, perhaps, the most paralyzing system of error that the great enemy of souls has devised; and the very enervation of soul and conscience which it produces, is itself one main cause of the difficulty which Christ's soldiers find in rescuing men from its thralldom. Mohammedanism contains elements of truth which would render its terrible defects and errors at once evident to its votaries, if they could but be induced in a spirit of candour and earnestness to study God's written Word, and to compare it with the teaching of the false prophet. But, warned as they are from earliest childhood, that all doubt or inquiry in religious subjects is, in a Mohammedan, absolutely sinful, the difficulty is to induce them to take this first preliminary step. However, the Christian Church must confess with shame that it has never yet properly girded itself to the assault on Islam, and therefore cannot be said fully to understand either the special circumstances of Mohammedans or the best methods of gaining access to them. This reproach applies with peculiar force to English Christians, inasmuch as in the British Empire there are upwards of forty millions of Moham-medans, converts from whom would receive a protection not enjoyed in other countries. The evangelization of Moham-medans is a subject which will more and more attract the attention of the Committee and the Missionaries.

BOMBAY.

Native Christian Congregation.

This is under the charge of the Rev. Appaji Bapuji, from whose Annual Letter the following extracts are subjoined:—

The present number of the congregation is 135, viz. eighty-nine, the old number, eleven received by baptism during the year, and thirty-five who came from other stations. Out of these 135, eighty are communicants. The attendance on Sunday services has increased, and is encouraging; the average is above sixty-five, and the desire for coming to church regularly is growing. One or two members of the congregation try to influence others in this respect. The general conduct of the congregation, with a few exceptions, is satisfactory. Several of them suffered much during the year, for want of employment. Others also came from other stations in search of work; and others, again, who were temporarily employed, lost their work. Besides the Sunday services we have a weekly prayer-meeting. The attendance at it is encouraging.

During the year I had two Sunday-schools—one at the house of Mrs. Robertson for the benefit of her boarding school, and the other at the Zenâna mission-house at Mazagon. The attendance at the former was from eighteen to twenty, and at the latter was from sixteen to thirty. At times we had a few intelligent young men at our Sunday School. One of these is an inquirer. At both the Sunday Schools the children gave me much gratification by their general knowledge of the Holy Scriptures.

During the year seven adults were received into the Church by baptism.—One of these was the mother of Mr. James Parker, a steady member of our congregation. For a number of years she held out hopes of becoming a Christian, and several times she fixed the time of her baptism, but, when spoken to by her heathen relatives, withdrew. I had many a conversation with her on the subject. Often, when her son was away from her, she used to pray to the Lord Jesus Christ to bring him back in safety. During her last illness she felt her sin and sinfulness, especially her withdrawing from the promise she had made of confessing the Saviour. One day she expressed her strong desire for baptism, and I was sent for. Some of her friends thought she would be baptized privately, because she was so timid before. When she heard of it, she ordered the door of her house to be left open, so that anybody who wanted to see the ceremony could see it. She also specially invited those who had urged her to become a Christian. Not a few people were present at her baptism. After her baptism she asked pardon of those with whom she was angry as a heathen. Subsequently to this I visited her several times. Formerly she showed a great care and anxiety whenever her son was away; but now, as one having a sure and certain hope of resurrection and heaven, she said to me, "I shall see my son in heaven before the Lord Jesus Christ." She urgently asked her grandson to become a Christian. She died in great peace and consciousness, continuously praying to Jesus to receive her soul, until she expired.—Another case is that of an elderly Brahmin, who had heard the truth when travelling, in the city of Agra, and who on his return to Bombay was attracted by the preaching at our shop, and was baptized after due trial and examination. He gives evidence of his true faith in his Saviour.

Preaching to the Heathen has been carried on by Mr. Appaji regularly once a week. The Day Schools have improved. Here, as in other parts of India, the supply of competent Christian teachers seems to be increasing.

It is well known that Ritualistic and Romanizing influences are, at the present time very powerful in Bombay, even within the pale of the Church of England. The Committee ask for prayer that Mr. Appaji and the Christian Natives under his pastoral oversight may be enabled to stand fast for those great Reformation truths of justification through faith only, and the supremacy of Holy Scripture as the sole rule of faith, which are so especially assailed by the movement just referred to.

Evangelistic Work.

Of the Mohammedan department of this work, the Rev. J. G. Deimler writes:—

Work among Mohammedans in Bombay.

The Mission to the Mussulmans has been carried on by the Society's missionary and two catechists. One of these, Daud Mohkam, I am thankful to say, has of late enjoyed better health than before. The other, Gabriel, has been working among the Arab and Persian-speaking population of Bombay, among whom he makes himself very useful in conversation, and in distributing tracts and portions of Scripture. He is at present preparing in Arabic a Galla woman for baptism. (Daud Mohkam has also two Portuguese Roman Catholic lads under instruction, who wish to join our Church.) Our Mission-work has chiefly consisted in preaching in the streets, and in visiting shops, markets, and houses. A Hindustani school, containing now about forty children, has been opened; it is taught by a Christian convert from Mohammedanism, and gives fair promise of success. Mrs. Deimler has carried on her zenana-visiting so far as her time and strength have allowed, and has translated into Hindustani a small tract for use in zenanas.—Sharifabai, the Christian woman mentioned in former reports, carries on the good work of making known Christ and His salvation amongst her own countrywomen at Kûj in Cutch, sending in reports from time to time.

ROBERT MONEY SCHOOL.

This Institution is still under the care of the Rev. T. Carss. The students number 241, of whom thirteen are Protestants, nine Romanists, fifteen Jews, fourteen Mohammedans, ninety-eight Brahmins, and ninety-two Hindus of other castes. Mr. Carss writes:—

The Government Inspector expressed his entire satisfaction with the teaching and discipline of this Institution. The School continues to be successful in doing its chief work, viz. making known the truths of revelation to the rising generation. There are indications, neither few nor slight, that our labour is not in vain. We who are engaged among the educated classes have a difficulty in drawing up our reports from which other labourers are free. Many of our lads read our reports, and I feel sure that nothing would tend more either to destroy that confidence which is so desirable, and which may be so helpful, or to produce hypocrisy and vanity, than notices of conversations and incidents which could be identified by those to whom they refer.

NASIK AND SHARANPUR.

THE work connected with this station was divided during the year 1876 between the Rev. C. F. Schwarz and the Rev. C. S. Cooke, Mr. Schwarz taking charge of the congregation and girls' schools, and Mr. Cooke of the Mission district and the male educational department. There were some difficulties at first in the apportionment of the work; but through the Christian spirit and good sense of the two brethren concerned, these obstacles were overcome, and Mr. Cooke's work was commenced most hopefully, when, in the mysterious but unerring providence of God, and to the great disappointment of himself and the Committee, Mr. Cooke was compelled, by failure of health, once again, and it is feared finally, to leave Western India. Mr. Cooke thus reports of the Mission District :—

The Mission District may be divided as follows :—

Firstly, Nasik.—Nasik being a large town, with a population of 30,000, we have four preaching-stands in different quarters of it. During the rains, two bands of evangelists, under the superintendence of Rev. L. Maloba and Mr. Gorê, five afternoons in the week, declared from these places alternately the great salvation. For a time we experienced much opposition. A Hindu preacher was put forth to annoy us. At first he confined himself to shouting out the praises of Hindu deities. Seeing that this did not excite us, he began to abuse Christianity. Finding us still passive, he became bolder in his opposition. He would stand near us and try to draw away our hearers, and would endeavour to turn whatever was said into ridicule. Realizing that, by giving way, we only encouraged him in fresh aggression, we determined to make a stand against him. So I sent him a message that, if he did not desist, I would ask the magistrate to protect us and our religion from his blasphemies. I told him that, by using language calculated to lead to a breach of the peace, and by determinedly wounding our feelings, as he was in the habit of doing, he had placed himself in the power of the law. His reply was, "I am ready to suffer for my religion." As he still continued to trouble us, I put my threat in force, and complained to the magistrate. Since then we have not been molested, and our preachers obtain more or less attentive hearings.

—There has been one conversion of great interest from Nasik, viz. that of a Brahman, by name Balwantraï Diwákar. He is about forty-six years of age. His father, I understand, held high office in the court of the Gaikawar. When travelling for the sake of his health, he made the acquaintance of two missionaries, from whom he received a copy of the Bible and some other good books. From the study of these books he realized that God is willing to bestow rich spiritual gifts upon believers; but that without being a worshipper of the true God, and His Son Jesus Christ, such blessings cannot be enjoyed. In 1874 he came to Nasik to reside with his relatives. He then visited the Rev. C. F. Schwarz. From the conversation that he had with him, Mr. Schwarz thought that Balwant would at once declare himself a believer, but, owing to the solicitations of his wife and relatives, the visit was not repeated until August last. On resuming his visits, he showed a great desire to be further instructed in the truth, and to be allowed to publicly confess the Saviour, by being baptized in His name. With tears in his eyes, he said to me, "I shall no longer think of washing in the Ganges; Jesus is now my Ganges." On Sunday, the 5th November, he was admitted to the visible Church of Christ by baptism. For years past he has been in the habit of committing to memory beautiful pieces of poetry and prose from some of our best Christian English authors. The apt and accurate manner in which he quotes from these authors while conversing on general subjects is really marvellous.

We have recently opened a branch Mission at Deolali barracks, about eight miles from Nasik. Several Christian families are employed at this station on Government works. An evangelist has been put in charge. He has a Christian community of twenty-five souls to minister to, besides a considerable Missionary district to preach the Gospel in from village to village. He is assisted for the present by a Christian schoolmaster.

Makmalábád is our third station.—Two evangelists labour here. They have a large district assigned them, in all the villages of which they are expected to preach, several times in the year, the Gospel of our Blessed Lord and Saviour. Makmalábád has now its little church, built from funds collected by the Rev. R. A. Squires, in which the Rev. L. Maloba and the Scripture-reader in charge officiate on alternate Sundays. The Christian community number twenty-two souls. Lately there has been the conversion of an old man from this village, which has had great interest for me. When I was in charge of the mission in 1869, this man's son was a pupil in the Makmalábád School, then under Mr. L. Maloba, who has since been ordained. The lad expressed a great desire to become a Christian; but, on account of his tender age, I did not like to baptize him against the wishes of his parents. The boy suffered much for his faith. To remove him from the missionary's influence the father sent him to a distant village. From here he ran away to me, professed his faith with tears, and implored me to baptize him. Seeing how much he was in earnest, I felt I ought not to refuse; accordingly I complied with his request. I shall never forget the scene which ensued upon my driving this lad down to his village, and announcing to his father that he had been baptized. Many of the villagers turned out. The wail for the dead was got up. The father commenced to beat the boy most unmercifully. So violent was the conduct of the father that I had to charge the patel to protect the boy from his rage. On the patel interfering, the father said that he was only good now to be beaten, and that if he might not beat his son he would not keep him. The lad was accordingly cast out, and I need not say how gladly I received him into the orphanage. You will realize, then, how great was my joy, and deep my thankfulness, when the father of this boy presented himself in August last as an inquirer, since which time he has given us every satisfaction, and was baptized a month ago.

The fourth station, viz. Buldâna, in West Berar, has been lately added to the Nasik Mission. Until June last it was under the charge of the Rev. L. Maloba, who, to the regret of the Europeans (for whom he conducted Divine Service) and Native Christians, was then transferred to Nasik, that he might have an opportunity of studying with me for priest's orders. Buldâna is at present in charge of a catechist, aided by an evangelist and a Bible-woman, and is occasionally visited by me. The Native Christians number fifty-nine. There is but one inquirer at present.

Besides these regular out-stations we occupy two large districts—the one to the west and the other to the east of Nasik. Each of those districts is assigned to a pair of evangelists. We hope that openings may soon arise, so that central positions may be occupied in them. For the present the agents go out from Sharapur on their preaching-tours through these districts.

Notwithstanding Mr. Cooke's removal, and the interruption of the work, the Committee cannot but rejoice in his prosperous commencement of a Divinity Class. Mr. Cooke writes:—

Four members were admitted in June last to the Divinity Class who by their consistent walk and diligence in study, have given me every satisfaction. The course of study adopted is as follows:—1. Scripture: The Epistle to the Hebrews, devotionally and critically; Dr. Pinnook's Analysis of the Old and New Testaments. 2. Pearson on the Creed. 3. The Articles of Religion, with Scripture proofs. 4. The Book of Common Prayer; Wheatly. 5. The Evidences of the Christian Religion, by Paley, and Dr. Mitchell's Letters to Indian Youths. 6. Ecclesiastical History (first three centuries). 7. Sermonizing.—The chaplain of Deolali barracks examined the theological students, and expressed himself highly pleased with the result. Five afternoons in the week these young men are engaged in preaching the Gospel in the town of Nasik.

The Schools have been reported favourably of by the Government Inspector. The Anglo-Vernacular School has now the advantage of a Native Christian Head Master, who is an undergraduate of the Bombay University.

Miss H. Schwarz teaches thirty-four boarders and twelve day scholars in the Sharanpur girls' schools, and is also making endeavours to gain an entrance into the zenanas at Nasik. Occasionally she accompanies the Native Bible-women in their visits to outlying villages. The reception met with varies. Those spoken with sometimes listen with willing attention, but at other times show much ignorance and superstition.

MALIGÂM.

The Missionaries of this station are the Rev. W. A. Roberts and the Rev. F. G. Macartney, the latter of whom has but recently passed his examination in the vernacular. Mr. Macartney was transferred to Maligâm from Nasik on the Rev. C. S. Cooke's return to that place. The Rev. Shankar Balawant is the native pastor of Maligâm. No adults have been baptized during the year, nor is mention made of any inquirer with the (at present) doubtful exception of a Brahmin youth at one of the out-stations. By births, and immigration from other places, the Native adherents have increased from 77 to 84. Mr. Roberts longs to see in them "more spiritual life, and more interest in the progress of the Gospel."

The town and bazaar preaching has been carried on regularly both to Hindus and Mussulmans. The audiences have been gratifyingly large and attentive. Two hundred and sixty villages and small towns have been visited during the year in the surrounding district. In these rural parts, there is no lack of listeners, and there is little or no opposition.

Of the Schools, Mr. Roberts writes as follows:—

The schools continue in a satisfactory state. The Christian teachers, assisted by the Catechists, give daily instruction in Scriptural subjects. I have myself given Bible lessons to the upper boys three times a week. At my annual examination of the schools last month, I was much pleased with the Scriptural knowledge throughout them. As far as Maligâm is concerned, our connexion with Government does not curtail this instruction. The teachers at their examination showed they had given careful attention to the part of St. John's Gospel they had been studying with me twice a week.

The small school at Dhûlia has recovered from the depression I reported last year.

AURANGABAD.

The Rev. Ruttonjee Nowrojee (Ratanji Nauroji) a convert from Parseeism, is the Missionary at this station. In the trying condition of the Western India Mission generally, Mr. Ruttonjee's Annual Letter, here printed almost exactly as he wrote it, will be read with much joy and thankfulness, independently of its additional interest as being the production of a Native brother:—

I am thankful to report that during the past year nine adults and thirteen children have been added to the Church by baptism. The present number of my congregation is 295, out of which 115 are communicants.

the preaching of the Gospel on

While the scattered Christians had the means of grace brought within their reach, the heathens have not been neglected. I have visited several new towns and villages, and our visits have been appreciated. To many our message was wholly new. For the first time in their life they were told that there was One Supreme Being of infinite love and compassion, who had sent His only-begotten Son to save this apostate world of ours. Others had some idea of our religion, having either read in Christian books, or heard from those who came in contact with Christian preachers. During our stay at Pyton, where we were joined by a number of Christians, both from Jalna and Ahmednagar, we preached to upwards of 5000 pilgrims, who heard us, day after day, with increasing attention and pleasure. We have experienced little or no active opposition from the people at large; but the bigoted portions of the Brahmin and Mohammedan communities are not backward in showing their ill-will and contempt of us. To mention one instance—a young Mohammedan trooper, appointed to keep peace in the great fair, was so enraged at our preaching, which he attended daily, that he came upon me with sword in hand, looking “exceeding fierce,” and challenging religious discussion. Carefully avoiding all appearance of uneasiness or agitation, I quietly asked him to come to me on the next day. Contrary to all expectation, the man retired, and called early on the following day, and from that time he became one of my most attentive hearers. At parting he besought me, with tears in his eyes, to forgive his rudeness and violence, acknowledging his ignorance of our Scriptures, and expressing his astonishment that the Christians possessed so much fair argument on their side, besides patience and forbearance, which he did not himself possess.

There is an indication of an awakening amongst the Mangs. Upwards of fifty, living in two or three villages, have given in their names as candidates for baptism. They are all under instruction. I have already baptized three of them, but the others are lacking moral courage. I hope, however, that most, if not all, of them will join us in time. It must be borne in mind that it is not only the higher classes that have to make sacrifices, when they make a public profession of Christianity.

Among my inquirers there is a young man, of Maratha caste, who has greatly cheered me. About two years ago I gave him, at his urgent request, a Marathi Bible, and lost sight of him altogether, until very recently, when he called on me. Unassisted and untaught, except by the Spirit of God, he has attentively and repeatedly perused the sacred volume, and has thereby acquired extensive knowledge of God's will revealed therein. I was surprised at the pains he had taken in making a sort of concordance for his own use; and such is his love for God's Word that he is constantly quoting suitable texts in his conversation. He lives in a town forty miles from Aurangabad, where he is employed by the landlord of the village as schoolmaster. I have visited him there, and was glad to find that he had drawn two men, like-minded with himself, who meet daily for the reading of the Bible. I have not pressed upon him the subject of baptism, because I perceived that, as the truth was so powerfully influencing his mind and heart, he would of his own accord ask, like the Ethiopian nobleman, "What doth hinder me to be baptized?" And my expectation has already been realized. In the last letter which I have just received, he tells me that since I gave him the Word of God which has shown him the way of life, I should baptize him "in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins." He has wife and friends, a good employment and position, but he is willing to forsake all for Him who, though He was rich, yet for our sakes became poor, that we through His poverty might be rich.

the private study of God's Word.

Mention was made some three years ago of an agent of the Society in connexion with this mission, who was dismissed for misconduct. His was a sad case. At first he joined the Romanists for pecuniary gain, and subsequently he went over to heathenism to get a wife. But we never ceased feeling deeply, and praying earnestly, for the man; and the Lord has both heard and answered our prayers. He has confessed his sin, and expressed his deep sorrow before the whole congregation; and I have received him back into the Church, being satisfied with the sincerity of his repentance.

The Mohammedans, as a body, are very inaccessible to Christian preachers. As is the case everywhere, they stumble at the divinity of our blessed Lord, and in fact they fiercely reject the doctrine of the glorious Trinity. I encourage them to visit me at my house; and often two or three come together for religious conversation. I find that a quiet conversation with one, and that to the point, is as good, and in most cases better than speaking to a number of them; for these individual visitors, after hearing all that we say, repeat the same to their friends and acquaintances. There was a Mûnshi in this neighbourhood, who was in the habit of visiting me almost daily for the space of three years. At first he would oppose most bitterly—taking particular pleasure in putting a Christian man's patience to the test. Often would he wake me out of bed in order to know whether I should be put out, and forbid his coming. He understood Marathi sufficiently to follow our evening service; and although he did not, he said, believe in all that we did; he always joined us in our prayers. He has recently removed to another place; and I offered him a copy of the Hindustani New Testament, as a parting gift, which, to my great surprise, he declined to accept. I think he did this to avoid raising unnecessary suspicions of his people. His letters to me are full of grateful acknowledgments for the kindness shown, and interest taken in him; and the following extract from one of his letters will speak for itself:—"You must think of me, a poor sinner, in your prayers. I purchased a New Testament, in Urdu, from a catechist who brought round Bibles and New Testaments for sale, and have profited by reading it."

BULDANA is no longer a station of the Society. It will henceforth be regarded as an out-station under the superintendence of one of the Missionaries at Nasik. An account of it has already been given in connexion with that station. The Gosâvi and his son, whom Mr. Lucas Maloba mentioned in his Annual Letter for 1875, have recently followed him to Nasik, where they are under instruction, and will, it is hoped, shortly be baptized.

Rev. George Shirt (m), 1866.

Rev. Alfred Yarnold (m), 1871; at home.

Rev. John Bambridge, 1876.

THE Rev. G. Shirt thus speaks of the weakened condition of this Mission during the year:—

The past year has been one of trial for the Sindh Mission. Our senior Missionary, Mr. Sheldon, was in England, recruiting his health. In February, our youngest missionary [Mr. Cowley, now, May 1877, assisting his father, Archdeacon Cowley, in Manitoba] went to England, as he thought, for three months only; but by sickness and a train of providential circumstances, he has been guided into another part of the mission-field. In May, Mr. Yarnold proceeded to England on medical certificate, thus reducing our European staff to one, at which number it remained until just before Christmas Day we had the joy of welcoming back Mr. Sheldon to resume his old charge at Karachi.

The Rev. J. Bambridge, ordained on Trinity Sunday, 1876, was appointed to reinforce the Sindh Mission, and arrived at Karachi on January 5th, 1877. Shortly after his arrival it pleased God to visit him with the severest of all earthly bereavements in the removal of his beloved partner to her heavenly rest.

KARACHI.

The statistics of this station show an increase in the number of Communicants from 18 to 28. The Adherents are 68 in number, as compared with 62 in the year previous. There were three adult baptisms. Mr. Shirt writes:—

In the Native Church during the past year there seems to have been progress, not so much in numbers as in life. There is, of course, in our Native brethren much to lament—but this may be said of any English congregation—yet I thoroughly believe that many of them are striving according to their light to follow their Saviour. Their attendance at the means of grace is generally good; a prayer-meeting held amongst themselves is well attended; and our Sunday afternoon Bible-class, in which we confine ourselves chiefly to the study of the Psalms, has generally brought about fifteen of the reading members of our flock together. There have been several instances of a readiness to give to the work of the Lord.

The Vernacular Schools are prospering; the English schools not so much so.

HYDRABAD.

Until May (in 1876) the station was under the charge of the Rev. A. Yarnold. The Native Christians number only 14, of whom eight are Communicants. Mr. Shirt, whose annual letter was despatched while still at Karachi, remarked on the work of the year at Hyderabad to the following effect:—

After Mr. Yarnold left for England, I paid the station a monthly visit, examining the schools, preaching in the town, and holding Sindhi services in our little mission-chapel. These services were generally very well attended, and the preaching of the Gospel had an intelligent and thoughtful audience. We look for some of these coming out and embracing the Gospel, but it is sad to feel that the "more convenient time" for which many of them are waiting will never come. There have been no adult baptisms during the year. This station, being left alone for eight months, has demonstrated that Native agents, to be of any use, must be spiritual men, and that, to hold their own in the face of an insolent enemy, they must be men of character. May God give us men of this stamp, and may we through His grace, both by precept and practice, lead such on to their high privileges; for I am persuaded that an army of European missionaries will never roll away that spirit of indifference which everywhere prevails; our hope under God must be in our Native brethren exhibiting in their lives the grand doctrine that to them "to live is Christ."

Subsequently, after removing to Hyderabad, Mr. Shirt, under date 23rd February, 1877, wrote:—

We get good audiences at bazaar-preaching at present, so we are anxious to continue, as God had given us power, testifying to the sinfulness of man and the power of the Gospel. On Sunday evenings, our little mission-church is often nearly full of young, intelligent men, who come to hear the Sindhi sermon. Were the sermon in English, I should fear that they had come to hear how well they could understand the discourse; but surely there must be some higher motive drawing them to listen to the Gospel in their own tongue! This seems to me to be a matter for encouragement, but short of real conversions I cannot feel happy. May God soon give us these!

The Brahmo Somâj, which led away some of the young men whom we once regarded as hopeful inquirers after Christianity, does not seem to be making any progress here.

CALCUTTA AND NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

(European Missionaries first arrived, 1816.)

I. Bengal.—II. North-West Provinces.—III. Panjab.

WHAT has been said of Western India applies in great measure to North India also. North India has indeed its encouraging and hopeful features; but yet its apparently slow progress, and the weakness in some places of the Native Christian congregations, cannot but lead the Committee, as well as the friends of the Society generally, to much prayer and searching of heart.

Three Provincial Native Church Councils have been recently established for the collection and disbursement of Native Church Funds. Every Native congregation or group of small congregations is also to have its Church Committee, on whom will devolve duties resembling those of churchwardens in this country. The Church Committees will in their turn elect lay delegates, who, together with the Native pastors, and with a Chairman and Treasurer chosen by the Parent or Corresponding Committee, will form the Provincial Council. The Chairmen appointed for the Provincial Councils are: Mr. Vaughan for Bengal, Mr. Brocklesby Davis for the North-West Provinces, and Mr. Robert Clark for the Panjâb. Before long, the presidents' chairs in these Councils may be filled by Native brethren; and in this and other ways Native Indian Bishops may exercise their due influence and functions.

CALCUTTA.

THE Committee regret that no reports of the Native Christian Congregations of Calcutta, connected with the Society, have been furnished to them, either by the respected (Native) Pastors of these congregations, or by any other parties. The review of this interesting department of the work must be therefore omitted.

Education.

Though among the Students of the CATHEDRAL MISSION COLLEGE—seventy-five in number, mostly non-Christians—there has been again during another year no case of baptism or application for baptism, yet Mr. Dyson's report will give to many of those who read it a stronger impression than at any former time, that the college is doing a real work both in giving to the Native Christian population weight and influence and consequently increasing opportunities for serving Christ, and also in imparting knowledge of God's Word to Heathen students. The following are extracts from Mr. Dyson's most valuable and interesting report:—

During the year the college staff has been composed as follows:—Rev. S. Dyson, Principal; Rev. C. Baumann, Ph.D.; R. J. Bell, Esq.; Babu R. P. Ghôse, M.A.; Babu J. N. Banerjea, M.A., Pandit; and Babu P. Ghôse.

At the end of the session the number of students on the rolls was seventy-five, distributed among the four classes as follows:—First-year class, 20; second-year class, 28; third-year class, 8; fourth-year class, 19; total, 75. About half the students in the upper department, and nearly half in the lower, are science students. Those of the former—that is, those who are studying for the B.A. Examination, read only mathematics, English literature, and Scripture in our college; physical science, physical geography, and chemistry they study in the adjacent Government Presidency College. The science students in the lower department read only chemistry in the Presidency College. The rest of their subjects of examination, viz. mathematics, history, Sanscrit, deductive logic, and Scripture, are taught in our college. At present the numbers of candidates for university honours in the two branches of arts and science are very nearly balanced; but the better class of students are electing science, and their number is increasing; and as it is vain to expect that we shall ever possess the costly appliances and the qualified professors to teach physical science, we have increasing reason to be thankful that the Government has sanctioned this arrangement, by which a number of intelligent young men are brought under Christian influence and receive Scriptural instruction who would otherwise be lost to us.

We have been enabled to continue our Saturday religious addresses throughout the year, and again have to thank various gentlemen who have taken part in this work. Sir William Herschel gave an interesting and instructive address on Religion and Science, in connexion with the spectroscope, which he explained and exhibited. Colonel Haig and Touch and the Rev. A. Clifford also again have assisted. Dr. Milman, the late lamented Bishop of Calcutta, also in January very kindly came to the college, and gave us an earnest and very impressive address on Plato and Revelation. Although unintended, this lecture was in effect the continuation and sequel of one which Sir William Herschel, Bart., had given the previous session on Socrates. As regards these religious addresses, as also our systematic class instruction on the Life of our Lord, the conduct and attention of our students, as far as it is apparent to us, is, I may say, without exaggeration, satisfactory. Of course, we who are in intimate intercourse with the students every day soon distinguish the degrees of seriousness and religious earnestness which exist among them. The difference as regards the mental attitude to the lecture on Scripture among the students of the higher department, between those who have been in the college a year or more, and those who have recently joined us, is very marked. It is impossible not to notice the expression of listless indifference which the countenances of the latter exhibit; but there is a public opinion clearly established in the class, and careful and thoroughly prepared exposition (by remark and question) of the words and events of our Saviour's life, ere long produces a change. The conceited and self-sufficient remarks also of the new comers, who show that they possess only the merest surface (and generally erroneous) notion of Christianity, require considerate and kindly patience from us, which pity for them and the consciousness of truth are sure to inspire, and which at once apparently both humbles them and secures their respect. Generally I have little reason to complain of captious and wilful opposition to the teaching of the Gospel; but then, on the other side, my classes consist mainly of those who have been longest in the college. The Scripture lesson is, I think, at once the most difficult and the most interesting. It is impossible to particularize in what a great variety of ways the words of Scripture, besides the positive truths which they teach, incidentally afford occasion for touching upon and exposing various injurious ideas and prejudices generated of Hindu philosophy and polytheism with which the people of the country are permeated. Our main effort, however, is to touch the consciences of our students with the solemn truths relating to our sinful condition, and the only means of deliverance from it which the Holy Scriptures alone disclose. Much of this teaching does, we are convinced, yield present results, not merely in the imparting of correct religious ideas and the uprooting of false, but also in the quickening of conscience, the elevation of moral feelings, and generally the stirrings of a religious life. No doubt many of our students leave the college with the conviction that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the only true religion; and, so far as they are under any religious influence at all, that influence is Christian. What is imperatively needed is a large increase of missionaries (specially qualified) to visit these young men after they have left us, and have entered upon the occupations and seductions of the world.

The result of the university examinations, though generally unfavourable as regards the colleges in Bengal, compared with those in the North-West Provinces and Oudh, were relatively satisfactory as regards this college. Two of our students received Government senior scholarships of Rs. 20 per month. One was gained by a Bengali student, who had been educated at the C.M.S. Mission school at Agarpâra, whence he had obtained an exhibition of Rs. 5 a month in this college, and the other by a Native of Ceylon. Both are non-Christians, though, like many others, they know more about Christianity, as they confess, than about any other religion.

Higher Secular Education of Native
Christians.

The promising Native Christian student whom I referred to in my last report as having been compelled, through weak eyesight and failing health, to give up study for some months, went in for the B.A. examination, but failed—only in mathematics—having done exceptionally well in the long list of other compulsory subjects. In spite of his failure, I consider that he passed a very creditable examination. He is now head-master of the C.M.S. Mission school at Mirzapur, Calcutta. Another Native Christian student, who during his college course has worked very hard—in truth more severely than wisely, for he has been attempting to secure several scholarships at once—is now going in for the B.A. examination; but his health is very much impaired, and for about two months, recently, at the most critical period of the session, he has been compelled to absent himself from college, so that no very sanguine hopes can be indulged of his success Were our Native Christian students sufficiently numerous and of the right missionary spirit, it would still be impossible, under present circumstances, to form them into a theological class for preparation for the ministry contemporaneously with their studying and preparation for the necessary examinations for these eminently desirable university degrees. And if, on the other side, during or after their university studies, the Holy Spirit were to move them to devote themselves to the onerous and important work of furthering the kingdom of Christ as missionaries and ministers, the liberal education they have already received would, under the inspiration of the high motive, enable them to qualify themselves [to a certain extent] even without any special instruction for that holy office [which, however, the Society will be prepared to provide means for supplying]. Perhaps the preferable line of action to be followed by us, in order to promote the missionary and aggressive influence of the Native Church, may not be so much expecting and making special arrangements for the ordination of these young Native Christians of the higher class, as helping them in every legitimate way to qualify themselves for occupying high and influential secular positions in the world. Filling such spheres, their light would shine more conspicuously, and to a greater distance, while they would have full scope for any direct missionary work which they might feel inclined to undertake. Subsequently, if deemed expedient, and they themselves desire it, they might [after due preparation, if needed] receive holy orders. The Nonconformists possess members of their communities who maintain themselves in secular employments, occupying remunerative and respectable posts under Government, and who yet are recognized as Christian ministers and missionaries, and have received some kind of ecclesiastical sanction. What unquestionably is most needed is an increase of unpaid and voluntary missionary agency (and that agency is, we are thankful to acknowledge, increasing), and that in all our schemes and consultations for augmenting the number of ordained Native missionaries, we always keep it deeply impressed on our minds that the Christian ministry is God's gift, for which we are to pray. We can give the theological instruction, but He can give the men, and support them too.

The annual examination of the highest classes of all the C.M.S. Anglo-Vernacular schools in Bengal has been held, as usual, for the purpose of selecting successful candidates for the ten exhibitions of Rs. 5 per mensem, tenable for one year, which this college annually gives. The successful candidates must, as an indispensable condition of admission to the college, subsequently pass also the university matriculation examination. Examinations for the theological scholarships, which are restricted to Native Christian students, have been held twice a year, as well also those for the extra provisional St. John's scholarship, which, we are sorry to add, now expires. The subjects for examination are usually some selected portions of Holy Scripture, along with other books, such as Archbishop Secker's "Lectures on the Church Catechism," "History of the Early Christian Church," Liddon's "Bampton Lectures," Paley's "Horæ Paulinæ," Butler's "Analogy" (second part), Smith's "Old and New Testament Histories." The candidates for these scholarships at present are few, but they are increasing in number, and will steadily increase. It is important that the funds available for these scholarships should be kept up and augmented.

The hostel for the accommodation of Native Christian students is not yet satisfactorily utilized. The number of bond-fide college students has not increased, and, indeed, as there is at present such a paucity of these students, we could hardly expect that the accommodation provided would be at once taken up. There is room for about a dozen, but at present the number of inmates is six, of whom three are pupils of the C.M.S. school at Mirzapore. In course of time they may pass into the college. All have conducted themselves entirely to my satisfaction. The elder students are actuated by religious principle, and recognize their responsibility as senior members of the institution.

AGARPÂRA.

Nothing specially worthy of note has occurred at this station, where the faithful East Indian brother (Rev. F. J. De Rozario) who has the general charge of the work, is now well stricken in years. The Native Christians are 190 in number, and there are 64 Communicants. Nearly 800 children are under instruction, of whom 220 are girls. Miss Neele, whose head-quarters are at this station, continues her zealous labours in the cause of female education. She writes:—

Effects of Mission Girls'
Schools.

I have to record a most decided improvement in the general conduct and order of the pupils, both of the Orphanage and the Boarding school—the insubordination, which formerly troubled me so much, having almost entirely disappeared. The boarding-school has now become quite established, and we have admitted a larger number of paying pupils during the last six months than any previous period of similar duration. It is true the payment is but small, and not anything like sufficient to make the school pay its way: but boarding-schools for Native girls are as yet in their infancy in India. Indeed, from the last report of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, I see there was still, when it was published, no other real girls' boarding school but this; though Mrs. Vines has now established one at Agra, and Mr. Clark will doubtless soon set his on foot at Amritsar. I would request that in case the friends of missions should reply very liberally to the appeal for the Amritsar school, any crumbs that may be left over may be gathered up for Agarpâna. Three girls have married from the Boarding School; one to an ordained Native missionary belonging to the Scotch Free Church. She has, I am thankful to say, thrown herself heart and soul into her husband's work, and her letters are often quite touching, speaking of one and another whom she has taught, and of whom she has hopes, but "Satan keeps them back."

Our Normal class has yielded fruit this year, as it has supplied two Zenana teachers to other stations, and one of the pupils has been appointed as teacher here; besides this, some of our girls from the orphanage, who have married during the year, are acting as teachers in the localities where they have settled.

The Hindu Day Schools under Miss Neele's care are going on satisfactorily. In the Zenana work Miss Neele is helped by two ladies of the Indian Female Instruction Society. The help of a female Medical Missionary would be much valued. Of one hopeful pupil in the Zenanas, Miss Neele writes as follows:—

Miss Hamilton saw her a short time since, when she mentioned her great wish to see me; for during a serious illness, from which she did not expect to recover, she had determined to confess her faith in the Saviour, if restored to health. I am quite hoping to be able to visit her next week; she has already suffered for her love to the Bible, and I quite believe she is a true lover of Christ. Should she have courage to confess Him, as we hope, it will most probably close our work for a time in that neighbourhood; but it is the Master's work. He will overrule all to work out His own will, and may He give us the "right judgment," neither to be over-precipitate nor faithlessly dilatory.

KRISHNAGAR.

Town Station.

The Rev. C. H. Blumhardt had still the charge of the work connected with this station during the year. This faithful and now aged labourer sees a marked improvement in the respect paid to the public means of grace; "the church is always full of devout hearers, listening attentively to the Word of God preached to them." The numbers, however—400 Adherents, and 65 Communicants—do not appreciably differ from those given in the preceding year. And a sad indication of spiritual weakness is to be found in the fact that no mention is made of any voluntary efforts for the conversion of their countrymen, and that there has been no adult baptism during the year. A suitable Native Pastor has not yet been found for them. Preaching to the heathen has been carried on by Mr. Blumhardt and his Native Assistants, and Zenana work by his daughter. No special visible result is recorded.

The District.

No statistics have been received of this department of the Krishnagar Mission for 1876. Those for 1875 were 5244 Native Christians, 269 Communicants, and four adult baptisms. The Rev. A. P. Neele, who had then charge of the district, but who left India for England at the end of March, 1876, has kindly since his return to this country furnished a report, from which the following is an extract:—

I am glad to say that, before I left, the repair of the buildings throughout the district was almost entirely completed, including the churches as well as the mission-houses and schools, &c. This work was absolutely needful, and I am glad that the brethren who carry on the superintendence of the mission will be relieved from a good deal of secular care for some time to come.

The missionary's occupation in the district was much the same as in former years, consisting of constant journeys through the mission-stations, holding services in each in turn, visiting the little knots of Christians living in scattered hamlets, instructing the Native brethren employed in the various departments of the mission, receiving and reading their reports, inspecting the ramified school-work that is carried on throughout the district, carrying on the considerable secular work that is unavoidable in connexion with the varied agency employed, and seizing every opportunity for evangelistic work among the heathen.

The Native brethren—the two pastors and the catechists—have carried on the superintendence of their several congregations as before, and they generally secure the respect of their people. But there is among the community, owing to improving worldly circumstances, a growing independence, not always of the kind that we could wish to see developed. The schism that, in consequence of this spirit, had occurred in one congregation has, I am thankful to say, been healed, and a better feeling was existing in the outlying hamlets. There were indications of improvement in some of these points which had been and still are causes of anxiety. The people of these hamlets are shut off from constant intercourse with the better-instructed classes of the community; they are also mingled very closely with their Mussulman neighbours, and are thus tempted to assimilate to them in many superstitious observances. In one or two instances we heard of a stand being made against this conformity, and of signs of a reformation. In one large village near to Solo a good Christian catechist has been located. It is a place in which the majority of the inhabitants are nominally Christian, but there was no qualified spiritual teacher among them. The results had been evil, inasmuch as, although the place is less than a mile from Solo, the women especially were unwilling to go there; and a great deal of ignorance, particularly on their part, had ensued. The catechist and his wife are exercising much influence for good among them, and nice gatherings of people to worship are now to be seen in the place. There are in this neighbourhood some brethren who believe they possess a gift for composing Christian hymns, and they have made a compilation of a large number, which they proposed to print for use at village prayer-meetings.

Good influence of a Catechist and his wife.

The schools have, as usual, occupied a good deal of time in the missionary's tours; and they consist not only of those in the Christian villages, but several in the outlying Hindu or Mohammedan villages, the number of which has been considerably enlarged in connexion with the St. Peter's Church Fund.

Mr. Vaughan, the Chairman of the Bengal Native Church Council, has been appointed also to the charge of the Krishnagar districts. His report of the religious condition of the 6000 Krishnagar nominal Christians, though not substantially disagreeing with Mr. Neele's, brings out in strong relief the darker features of the Mission, especially the lamentable rarity of signs of individual spiritual life among the Native Christians. He is able, however, to mention tokens for good; and the Committee firmly believe that, in answer to prayer, a brighter day is coming.

Training Institution and Higher Schools.

These are under the charge of the Rev. F. Gmelin, who reports of them as follows:—

The Training Institution consists of two classes. The senior students, eleven in number, will finish their four years' course of studies next year. Mr. Blackett was present at the annual examination this year, as the representative of the Secretary of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee. He expressed not only approval of all he saw and heard, but surprise. He had no idea that such a thorough education was given here.

In addition to the Training Institution and Boys' Orphanage, there are seven schools under my charge. One of the schools is at Krishnagar, itself. This is the model and practising school for the students of the Training Institution, and in it the orphans receive their education. Five of the schools are at Santipur, a populous Hindu town, about twelve miles from Krishnagar, and one is at Navardîpar (Nuddea), a Hindu town, about eight miles from Krishnagar. Both Santipur and Navardîpar are hot-beds of Hinduism. Navardîpar is often called the Oxford of Bengal, from the number of "tols" or colleges there, which are visited by young men from all parts of India for the purpose of studying Sanscrit. Our school at Navardîpar is a Higher Class English School, which prepares students for the Calcutta University. Three students have passed this year. Two of the schools at Santipur are Middle Class Vernacular Schools. Two of the schools are girls' schools, and one is a night-school for adults.—We receive grants-in-aid from Government for four schools; the other three are supported by the Society. These seven schools contain 612 pupils, chiefly Hindus and Mohammendans. They are taught by thirty-two teachers, of whom fifteen are Christians, including four pupil-teachers and two female teachers. All the pupils receive regular instruction in the truths of Christianity, imparted by the Christian teachers. The head teachers in all the schools are Christians—a point on which I have insisted often at the risk of losing the schools altogether. I consider this of the greatest importance, and one step at least towards the gradual employment, as a rule, of only Christian teachers in mission-schools—a point of great consequence to the future success of missions.

BHÂGALPUR.

This station is still, as before, under the charge of the Rev. E. Drøese, who is assisted by Mr. Pohlenz, and by nine male and four female Native Christian helpers.

The Native Christian Congregations comprise 342 souls altogether, the number for the previous year having been 325. Mr. Drøese reports of them as follows:—

The Native Christian congregations in connexion with the Bhâgalpur Mission are three—one at Bhâgalpur, one at Jamâlpur and Monghyr, and one at Sâhîbganj. The Bhâgalpur congregation counts, inclusive of 114 orphan children, 250 souls. Their subscriptions to the Pastoral Fund, this year, have amounted to a little over Rs. 80. Attendance at Church services has been satisfactory. The Jamâlpur and Monghyr congregations count, together, ninety-two souls. A catechist, residing at Jamâlpur, conducts Divine Service for them, in the morning at Jamâlpur, and in the afternoon at Monghyr. The attendance is better at Monghyr than at Jamâlpur. The daily routine of duty performed by the catechist is directed and supervised by the Rev. J. Love, the chaplain. The missionary goes over from time to time, for the sake of administering the Holy Communion, and doing other work among the people. Five adults were baptized at Jamâlpur and one at Monghyr. The congregation at Sahibganj consists of but twenty souls, which number includes also our readers there and their families. These meet for worship every Sunday. Some of them come for attending on the Holy Communion, and for our Church festivals, to Bhâgalpur. As regards the moral conduct of the people, the missionary had nothing to complain of in the year, and he is happy to be able to state that there are, among our Native Christians at Bhâgalpur and the other stations, some who are, as regards true spiritual life, in no way behind godly people in Christian countries. The thing which always, more or less, saddens the heart is that our Native Christian congregations are still so small.

Of another branch of the work, Mr. Drœse writes :—

Preaching to the Heathen and Mohammedans in the town and district of Bhâgalpur has been carried on by the missionary and his helpers in the work in the usual way, but with somewhat more of encouragement than in the previous year. Not that any number of converts can be pointed to (for only six adults have by baptism been received into Christ's Church), but that the people have attended the preaching of the Word with more attention than we are used to witness. Also a greater number of Christian books have been sold. Mr. Pohlenz remarks that on the Sonpur fair, which he attended in November, he went round to the shops where books are sold, and was informed by them that their sales were not half what they had been in former years. So they have to say, whilst missionaries can say that they sell every year more of their books. At one time people would not accept our books gratis, and now they are glad to pay for them. Who knows but the time may be very near when the Lord will open His heavens and pour down streams of blessing. Though the Missionary counts already three scores of the years of his life, he does not see why even he might not, before departing this life, see with his eyes what for so many years has been the earnest expectation of thousands of the Lord's people. Many of the people of the land are convinced of the superiority of the Christian religion to their own. It would require nothing more but for the Lord by His Spirit to give the impetus, and everywhere thousands of men and women would turn to Jesus, and own Him their Saviour and their Lord.

Educational Missionary work, i. e. work among the young (pastoral for Native Christian children, and evangelistic for heathen children), is conducted with patient industry, the whole number of scholars amounting to 300. At the central Anglo-Vernacular School conducted by Mr. Pohlenz, there are 91 scholars, of whom 53 are Christians, 23 Hindus, and 15 Mohammedans.

SANTALIA.

Need of
Santalia.

The SANTAL Mission is attracting, at the present time, the most earnest attention of the Committee. Ardently do they long to be able to occupy more largely this most inviting field. The sole hindrance is and has been the fewness of Missionary candidates from the Church at home. Four Europeans—a German brother, the Rev. J. Blaich, having been added to the force during the year—and one competent Eurasian Missionary, are now at work. The statistics of the year are not yet completed, but the whole number of Native Christian Adherents cannot fall far short of 1500; and at each of the three stations, TALJHARI, HIRAMPUR, and GODDA, there have been several adult baptisms, as well as many indications of a willingness among the people generally to receive Christian instruction. The Santâls have a simplicity and truthfulness of character, which very especially wins the affection of Missionaries labouring among them.

At TALJHARI the Mission has been strengthened by the addition of Mr. Blaich, who relieves the Rev. J. Brown of his Hindi duties, so that the latter can give himself more exclusively to the Santâls. Mr. Brown's department is the pastoral work, in connexion with which there is nothing of special interest to record.

The Rev. F. J. Cole, who has charge of the educational work connected with Taljhâri, writes of the boarding-school as follows:—

Fruits yielded by a Mission School.

I can speak very highly of the piety of some of the boys. I have not had reason on moral grounds to reprove a boy during the past year. The school, at the commencement of the mission, was completely heathen. Now the school is mostly Christian. I have selected six of the brightest and most pious lads, and am training them for readers and catechists. Two of them are Pahâris, who, I hope, will soon go to their own people and tell them the good news. Our first converts were schoolboys, and, humanly speaking, by means of these boys the Santal Church has sprung up.

Only two have been baptized from the boarding-school this year; they were both Mussulmans. It is now six months since they became Christians. Both are nice intelligent young men, and are going on well.

The Pahâris, referred to in the above extract, are an aboriginal tribe occupying the hills, several of whom became Christians some years ago, when they were serving in a regiment, which was then stationed at Bhâgalpur and was subsequently disbanded. Mr. Cole writes respecting them:—

There are very many Christians amongst these people, but they have been sadly neglected. No missionary has been set apart for them, not one since Mr. Droege has learnt their language. It is a call from God that some one should go and tell them too of a Saviour's love. There are Christians who were baptized in Bhágalpur, scattered over the hills, wandering sheep who have no shepherd. I could tell you now of a marvellous turning towards Christianity by these people, yet am afraid to do so, for fear of raising hopes destined to be blighted. I have hope, for Christ has love, and God has power, to make Jesus Christ King on these lovely hills. I visited lately the Pahâri, Maisc, whom I had the pleasure of baptizing last year. He is a noble fellow. I told you that all his villagers left him when he became a Christian. He is still alone on a solitary hill, but yet he tells me he is not alone. His face beamed with pleasure when he told me that he had found Christ precious to him, and that he could not go back to the old things again. There are a few Christian Pahâris about two miles from his house. They go to him every Sunday and hold service together, thus strengthening each other in their common faith.—The Pahâris are very dear to our hearts, but we are helpless. I have now to teach Bengali, Hindi, and Santâli in our schools, and three languages are enough, without beginning another.

The following extracts from Mr. Cole's letter, referring to other branches of the work, will also be read with interest:—

I have just come in from the north of the district, having gone on an expedition to see if a suitable place for a new station could be found. I am wonderfully pleased with the place. There are thousands of Santâls; and very few Hindus amongst them; thus they are not so contaminated as in many places. I had most attentive hearings, and the people seem anxious to learn. I hope, in the providence of God, to go there often, as no missionary has ever visited those parts before to preach to the people.

Our dispensary continues to be well attended. During the past twelve months we have had over 4000 visits. Two young men, Native Christians, after attending the dispensary for some little time, whilst continuing their studies in the boarding-school, have passed well in the Government examination for Native doctors. They are now studying under the care of the Civil Surgeon of Bhágalpur, preparatory to their entering the Government College for Native Doctors. They are both spoken of very highly in the reports. I trust that they may be of great service and influence among their own people.

This has been a very busy year in a literary point of view. Last year we revised St. Matthew's Gospel in Santali. This year we have translated and revised St. Mark and St. Luke. St. Matthew and St. Mark have been printed for us by the Bible Society, and they are now printing St. Luke. We hope soon to have St. John ready.

The Rev. H. Davis is the Missionary of HIRAMPUR. The Native Adherents number 230. There were 36 adult baptisms during the year; of which, however, only six will appear in the statistics, the remainder having taken place subsequently to September 30th.

Desire for the education of the children is increasing among the Santâl parents; so that the boarding-schools are beginning to be in a measure self-supporting. The following extract from Mr. Davis's Annual Letter is interesting and suggestive:—

sion by means of
School.

We have had one very interesting baptism this year. The head school-boy of 1875 (about twenty years of age) asked to be allowed to commence a school in his own village. About two months after this, I had a letter from him, saying he thought of becoming a Christian. Two months later he asked for baptism. About this time I was very ill with intermittent fever, and I was unable to baptize him. During this time he was most anxious for baptism, and thought every day as lost, because he was not a Christian. Before his baptism I asked him when he was first led to believe in Christ as his Saviour. "Long ago," was his reply, "when I was a school-boy of Mr. Brown's, at Dûmka." A case such as this teaches us to work on in faith. Here was a young man who surpassed all his class-mates, even the Christians, in religious and secular knowledge, apparently indifferent, but whose heart was being moulded by the Heavenly Master, and who was at last led to confess Him before men.

The Native Christians connected with GODDA number 232. Eighty of these are Communicants. Twenty-one adults were baptized during the year. The Rev. A. Stark, who is the Missionary of the station, writes:—

Openings
among the Pahâris.

The population of this district is quite a mixed one, consisting of Hindus, Mohammedans, Pahâris, and Santâls. Of the bulk of all four classes, I may safely say they are extremely ignorant and superstitious. Very few beyond those taught in our schools can read. There are not many Brahmins, and these are cultivators as well as the rest of the people. The Mohammedans know nothing of their religion, observe many Hindu rites, and may be said to retain only the name of Mohammedans, the rite of circumcision, and the practice of abstaining from swine's flesh. They even bow down to Hindu idols. The Pahâris are a simple and primitive race, worshipping devils and various kinds of grains. They are exceedingly open to embracing Christianity, if we had only the men and means to work them up. They are the same race that formed the bulk of the Bhâgalpur Christians some years ago; and among whom I worked about four years—from 1852 to 1856—as a schoolmaster under Mr. Drøse. They are thus my first love in mission-work. I have just returned from spending three weeks among them, and have been very much cheered. I have succeeded in bringing three lads to my boarding-school, and expect some more. I return to the Pahâris on Monday for a few days more; I feel that here there is an open door. The number of my Pahâri Christians is now twenty-nine. On the 19th of this month I baptized eleven, of whom six were adults. The trouble is, they have quite a distinct language, which I must begin to study now. I learnt it in my youth, and it may come back easily. I am happy to say there have been baptisms out of all the four races in the district. In all there have been forty-six baptisms, viz. twenty-one adults, and twenty-five children under twelve years and infants.

Three young men have just passed from Mr. Stark's Training School, whom he considers competent for the work of Evangelists.

II. North-West Provinces, Oude, and Central Provinces.

BENÂRES.

“HOPE deferred,” and “Though it tarry wait for it,” are still the expressions that naturally occur to the mind on reading the letters and reports of the Benâres Mission.

Of the Native Christians the Rev. J. Fuchs writes :—

I wish I could speak with confidence of real progress in the congregation. Some individual members have evidently increased in grace, but as a body they are sadly in want of unity, brotherly love, and spirituality of mind. And here I cannot conceal from you one grievous case of immorality. Both guilty persons have been excommunicated. In this distressing affair one good feature among our people became markedly manifest, and that was the universal detestation shown to so wicked a deed.

No suitable man has yet been found to succeed Samuel Nand as Pastor for the City congregation. Babu Timothy Luther, the Native Christian head-master of Jay Narain's School, is, however, a great stay and support to the congregation, as well as a comfort to his European brethren.

Evangelistic work is carried on by the Native agents of the Mission; the European staff being too weakened to give more than occasional help beyond the established North Indian custom of the winter itineration. Mr. Fuchs has had, however, much interesting intercourse with two Bengali Babus of high social standing, and has met with decided encouragement in connexion with one of them.

The Schools are suffering from diminution (actual and threatened) of Government grants, owing to financial difficulties. The principles enunciated in the Educational Despatch of 1854, which have never been disavowed, would rather point to retrenchment in the higher Government Colleges.

At JAY NARAIN'S SCHOOL, of which, during 1876, the Rev. S. T. Leupolt was Principal, and which educates up to the Matriculation standard, the average attendance for the year 1876 was 453 (against 456 for the year previous). For the month of December, 1876, it was 497. The above are the numbers given in Mr. Leupolt's Annual Letter for 1876. The number given in the Society's Report for 1876 was 412, which must have been reckoned on some different principle. The School did well at the Government departmental examination, but its success at the University Entrance Examination was only moderate. In regard to more important matters, Mr. Leupolt writes:—

I had hoped to see this year some fruit of our labours, especially as, at the close of 1875, a Bengali youth had expressed his earnest wish to become a Christian, and had, with a view to this, asked for further instruction in our most holy faith. I missed him a few days after he had preferred his request, and assigned his absence to sickness; but, as I have not since seen him, I have no doubt his guardians heard of his desire of embracing Christianity, and have withdrawn him from the school to prevent it. I have had no reason to complain this year of want of attention during either my own Bible-classes or those held by Babu Timothy Luther, the head-master. I find that the boys only require to have the facts and doctrines of Christianity set before them in aspects intelligible to them, and to have pointed out to them in what respects the provisions of the Gospel meet and suffice for the wants and requirements of their spiritual life, to attract and rivet their attention. Many of the Native Scripture teachers have not the power—or I should say, rather, have not the training—for so presenting the Gospel message to their hearers. These remarks do not apply to the teaching of the head-master, Babu Timothy Luther, as his class always looks wide-awake and attentive during the Scripture hours.

Acceptance of Christian teaching by heathen youths in the higher Mission Schools.

Government has been pleased, in direct defiance of the despatch of 1854, again to reduce our grant-in-aid by Rs. 20 per annum, to date from 1st January. At the same time, it has given a grant of Rs. 20,000 towards a new building for its own Zila school.

In connexion with the above remarks, Mr. Leupolt strongly urges the establishment of a Readers' and Catechists' Seminary for the N.W. Provinces. This wish had been anticipated by the Parent Committee, who had requested the Rev. C. E. Vines to open a class of that description, and have designated the Rev. H. M. M. Hackett to take part in the same work.

At Chunar two adults were baptized. One is well spoken of; but the other, sad to say, shortly after relapsed again into Mohammedanism. Nothing worthy of note has occurred in the out-stations of Gharwar and Araurah.

The statistics for Benâres for 1876 rate the Native Adherents at 390, and the Communicants at 130. In the preceding year, the numbers were 488 and 131. The variation is not explained.

No Report or Annual Letter has been received from GORAKPUR.

ALLAHABAD.

The Rev. B. Davis is the European Missionary at this station, and the Rev. D. Mohun is the Pastor of the Native Christian congregation. The Native Christians at the date September 30th, 1876, were 475 in number, and the communicants 160; the corresponding numbers for 1875 having been 484 and 135. The diminution in the former item is probably owing to removals; while the advance in the number of Communicants indicates, it is to be hoped, an increased willingness to confess Christ before men. One adult was baptized during the year—a young woman who had been instructed by Mrs. Davis—and at the date of writing his Annual Letter, 28th November, Mr. Davis was hoping in a few weeks to baptize four others, all young men.

Of the Native Christians, Mr. Davis writes:—

Our Native Christians have given us satisfaction by their good behaviour, on the whole, during the year. Our church is now pretty well completed, and all paid for. We have recently added a harmonium, that hitherto used belonging to David Mohun. His youngest daughter, Grace, is our organist—Harriet, who had acted in this capacity, having been married early in the present year.

Evangelistic work is reported of as follows:—

Opposition
from Mo-

Our preaching in the city on Mondays, and in the Colonel Gunge Bazaar on Fridays, has proceeded with very little interruption during the year. The constant opposition of the Mussulmans, through their paid preachers, has been alluded to from time to time in my journal. May the Lord cause even this to work for His own glory! Our catechist goes regularly once and sometimes twice a day to different parts of the city and neighbourhood, to read and speak to the people. He also gets good opportunities of reading and speaking in the “lines” of the Native Infantry, where he has been very well received by the men.—The mela at the beginning of the year was attended by us as usual, for about a month, and I paid a short Missionary visit to the neighbouring country district during the Christmas holidays.—Our out-station, Jhusi, has been carried on with a view to conveying to the people of that and other surrounding villages the message of salvation through Christ, which I believe the Native Agent stationed there does zealously, as far as he has opportunity.

In reference to the Educational work of the station, an erratum in the Report for 1875-6 may here be corrected, the number of boys in the Schools being there given as 48 instead of 408. The number is now 410. Mr. Davis was hoping, when he wrote his Annual Letter, November 28th, 1876, that several of his pupils would be successful at the Calcutta Entrance Examination, which was then going on. Seventy girls are now under instruction, the number in the previous year having been fifty-six.

Mention has already been made of the appointment of Mr. Davis to the Chairmanship of the North-West Provinces Native Church Council, a post which his prolonged Missionary experience and other qualifications seemed to indicate for him. The Committee trust that, in this new work, Mr. Davis will be remembered at the Throne of Grace by many at home, who would thus help in building up the walls of Zion, "in troublous times," and under those trying circumstances with which Missionary efforts are attended in this part of the Indian Peninsula.

AZIMGARH.

The Rev. B. H. Skelton has charge of this station. The Native Christian Adherents number thirty-two; of whom twenty-eight are Communicants. No adults were baptized during the year nor are there any avowed candidates, though both Mr. Skelton and his Native helper, Qasim Khan, have had some regular visitors for Bible-reading throughout the year.

JABALPUR.

The Rev. E. Champion's Annual Letter begins as follows:—

After a period of trial, anxiety, and labour, this year seemed about to close without affording us any corresponding fruits or compensating encouragements. Our anticipations, however, were agreeably disappointed, when, a few weeks ago, a whole family came forward (after long hesitation), and offered themselves for baptism! Such an offer of itself (after our long experience) would not, of necessity, have produced within us feelings of happy anticipation; but when it was made with evident sincerity and earnestness, and when we considered that the head of the family held a good situation, and was in need of nothing of a worldly character from us, we indeed thanked God and took courage.

There is nothing special to record respecting the little community of Native Christians. In numbers (136 Adherents, and 30 Communicants) there is a slight advance on the preceding year. Of direct Evangelistic work Mr. Champion reports:—

Preaching to the heathen has been carried on as usual in Jabalpur, and in our out-stations of Ságar, Mandla, and Nursingpur, as well as in the various fairs in the districts which bear the names of these towns. Sâgar and Mandla have each been held by a solitary catechist ; but it is my hope soon to be able to reinforce them by assistants, for no one, who has not actually experienced it, can understand how great a trial it is to be the solitary representative of Christianity amidst multitudes of unbelievers and scoffers.

As one only of these out-stations (Mandla) brings me into the midst of Gonds, I have, I regret to say, seen less of them this year than heretofore. They have, however, not been forgotten, and next year I look forward, if possible, to take a long tour among them.

Volunteer
Native
Christian preachers.

In a tour I took to Sâgar and back I was joined by two of our Christian teachers as volunteer preachers. They were at their own charges, and chose thus to employ their time during the Christmas holidays. Their assistance was very helpful and efficient, and it is very encouraging to find such evidences of spiritual life.

I perceive, I think, that a change has come over the people as to the spirit in which they receive our preaching. There is certainly less opposition, and especially there is less bitter opposition. For this I am deeply thankful. On the other hand, some (townspeople chiefly) are not content with defending their own religion ; they now often attack ours, and produce their weapons from among the representations of English sceptics and others, which are supplied them in Vernacular publications of different kinds.

In August, 1876, Mr. Champion paid a visit to the Maharajah Holkar at Indore. The Maharajah kindly consented to receive a Hindi New Testament.

LUCKNOW.

No Report or Annual Letter for 1876 has been yet received from this station. Its Missionary is the Rev. C. G. Daeuble. As an interesting Report which Mr. Daeuble kindly sent us for 1875, reached London too late for insertion in the annual volume of 1876, some extracts from it may be properly inserted here :—

The Lord Bishop's visit in November, 1874, was a season of special blessing to our Church. Thirty-eight members of our Church were, after previous instruction, confirmed by the Bishop. And not those alone, we trust, but the whole Church was confirmed in the faith. The Zahûr Bakhsh Chapel was filled to overflowing, and the number of Communicants reached the number 117. Although so hard-worked during his stay at Lucknow, the Bishop visited every part of our Mission. It is greatly to be desired that such visits of the chief pastor be more frequent than is now possible.—The complaint of our inability to secure a suitable Native pastor for our church has become a standing one. Whatever human agency could do to supply this crying want has been done, and still without success. Thus the vine is still without its proper support.

The bazar-preaching in the city of Lucknow has been very irregular during the last hot and rainy season. (The cold season is usually spent in itinerating in the district.) This irregularity was owing to several causes. One was that, as evangelistic work in the district appeared to be more hopeful than in the city, four out-stations were commenced at the beginning of the hot season, and all the Native agents, with one exception, removed there. The second reason was that owing to a new order from the City Magistrate, five of the seven preaching places mentioned in our last report had to be given up. It was mentioned in our last report that the Mohammedans had commenced something like an organized scheme of preaching in the city. The above orders were issued to prevent disturbances between them and our preachers.

In a letter dated Nov. 10th, 1876, Mr. Daeuble gives the cheering intelligence that a Native brother, by name Joseph Carter, had been designated as Pastor of the Native flock.

FAIZABAD.

The Native Christian congregation at Faizabad consists of sixty-seven persons. The number of Communicants is not given. Seven adults have, during the year, been received into the visible Church by baptism.

The statistics for the previous year, 1875, had been fifty-nine Native Christians, twenty-four Communicants, and two adult baptisms. Mr. W. Baumann, who was in charge of this district during the greater part of 1875, is now a student at Islington, with a view of returning to North India more fully qualified for his work. (Mr. Baumann received deacon's orders from the Bishop of London on Trinity Sunday, 1877.) The Rev. J. P. Ellwood took Mr. Baumann's place at Faizabad, removing thither (from Lucknow) in March, 1876. Ten days after reaching Faizabad, he and Mrs. Ellwood were called upon by their Heavenly Father to part with an infant child. "When we were fairly engaged in our work," Mr. Ellwood remarks, "the conviction gradually asserted itself that all had been ordered by a wise Providence, and that our dear child probably had been taken away to endear us to the place and prepare us for our work of toil and care."

Of the work itself, and its present condition, Mr. Ellwood writes:—

The Native congregation has, since the Mission was started in 1872, met for Divine Service in a room in the mission-house. It now numbers sixty-seven, including the catechists and readers working in the out-stations, who come in on Sacrament Sundays as opportunity affords. The room was too small for the congregation. An old bath-house has been therefore adapted to serve as a church and school. Mr. Baumann began the work before leaving. The building was thoroughly repaired, re-roofed, the bath filled up, windows and doors made, and everything requisite for conducting Divine Service in decency and in order was obtained by the liberal contributions of the Europeans and Native Christians. The building will seat about 150 Native Christians comfortably. Part of the room has been screened off for a boys' day-school. The school has been opened with two teachers and about twenty boys in daily attendance. The new church was opened for Divine Service in August. Three converts were baptized during the opening service. The Native Christians entered heartily into the affairs of the church. They formed a Church committee and took upon themselves to defray the necessary expenses of the service. A Church fund has been started, and will, we hope, in time form a nucleus for a Native Pastor's Fund.

Difficulty of finding support for Native
Christians.

During the past year four men and three women have been received into the Church by baptism. Only two are now in connexion with the Faizabad Mission. One is dead; the others have left the station, but are well reported of. We have now four inquirers, who promise well. Faizabad does not offer to our intelligent converts any prospect of employment, as the public offices are crowded with men who not unnaturally wish to keep out every Christian. The poorer class of converts, on the other hand, cannot bear the brunt of the battle alone. Hence all our converts of late have gone to other stations where they could meet with employment and Christian brethren of their own standing. This state of things is to be deplored; but what ought to be done is a problem not easily solved. Workshops might be started and carried on with success, but here we are paralyzed by the want of funds. It was suggested by Mr. Barry, the Secretary, when he visited Faizabad, that a visit to the Gorakpur Mission might furnish us with some well-tryed scheme for our present necessity. If possible, before the hot weather sets in, we hope to pay this visit.

Opposition
from Mo-
hammedans and Hindus.

The preaching in the bazaars and other places has been continued as in past years. Native gentlemen have been visited, and many of them have reciprocated our friendly feelings, but others, either from fear or suspicion, have not returned our visits. The past year has been especially trying to us; we are opposed in many of our preaching places both by Mohammedans and Hindus. In the bazaar may be seen on one side of us the Mohammedan preacher, inveighing against Christianity; on the other, the Hindu brawling with all his might to entice our hearers away. For a time this opposition ceased, but as soon as they heard of more baptisms the old spirit of enmity broke out afresh. But amidst it all we still have some attentive listeners. The Master is there also to smile upon our poor endeavours, and we feel that we are not alone.—One convert who was baptized and afterwards died in faith, said that he owed his conversion to impressions first made by hearing a missionary regularly discussing the truths of the Gospel in the bazaar at Mîrat.

Mrs. Ellwood has been steadily endeavouring to improve the Zenana schools, and to open bazaar schools for girls of the lower classes. Difficulties of various kinds have to be overcome.

At the four out-stations of Ajodhya (a modern city on the site of the ancient capital celebrated in the Ramâyana) Akbarpur, Sultanpur, and Partabghar, work has been steadily carried forward, but nothing of especial interest has occurred.

AGRA.

The European Mission staff at Agra, not including the out-station at Sekandra, consisted during the year 1876 of the Rev. C. E. Vines, M.A., the Rev. T. R. Hodgson, the Rev. J. A. Lloyd, M.A., and Mr. A. H. Wright. Of these, Mr. Vines is engaged both in preaching to the adult heathen, and in the superintendence of St. John's College. Mr. Hodgson and Mr. Lloyd, the latter of whom had only recently joined, were at the close of 1876 also employed in the College; and Mr. A. H. Wright, besides assisting in the College, conducted a training-class for schoolmasters. Five Native Christian agents co-operate with Mr. Vines in his evangelistic work, while eight are teachers in the College. The Rev. Madho Ram is pastor of the Native Christian congregation.

The statistical returns for Agra and Mattrā for 1876, are—Communicants, 88; Native Christian Adherents, 288; Adult baptisms, 2. These numbers do not appreciably differ from those of the preceding year. The letters of the Missionaries, however, give an account of patient toil, conducted in a spirit of faith and prayer, to which fruit will be assuredly granted in due time.

Mr. Vines thus reports of the congregations:—

The congregation in the Katra (market-place) has maintained its position during the year as a community governing itself by means of its Church Committee. Outwardly there has been peace, and I hope there has been spiritual progress. The sermons of the Rev. Imad-ud-dîn of Amritsar, who visited Agra during the year, have been profitable, and have been appreciated by his more educated hearers. Our missionary meetings have been sustained month by month, and have been interesting, and, I hope, have excited interest. Sometimes strangers, English and Native, sometimes the members of the mission, or the congregation, have spoken. Being partly in English and partly in Hindustani, our English friends in the station have been able sometimes to take a part. I have nothing especial to notice concerning Mattra.

Of the Bazaar-preaching, Mr. Vines writes:—

Opposition
from Mo-

This has been carried on by the appointed catechists, with the help of the Christian teachers in St. John's College, the Rev. Madho Ram, and myself. We have had, occasionally throughout the year, meetings for consultation and prayer, in which we fixed the times and places for preaching, and sought to stir up one another to greater zeal in the work. For some months the Mohammedans have sent a hired preacher, procured from Delhi, into the bazaar. This man generally takes his station at a little distance from the Christian preachers, and speaks against Christianity with great volubility and with some knowledge of the Holy Scriptures. Sometimes he has come into the crowd round our preachers, and has joined other Mohammedans in endeavouring to stop their preaching by noisy opposition. I have been especially thankful for the fulness and freeness with which one of the catechists was enabled to proclaim the love of Christ for sinners. Although naturally timid, he has considerable power in meeting opponents, but still more, when the audience is a quiet one, in setting forth the love of God and Christ for man. Having passed the examination for head catechist held in our North-West Provinces' Conference this year, he has now been recommended to go for six months to the LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL, that he may prepare for ordination. He has been learning a little Greek with me, that he may be able to read the New Testament in the original.

Other special efforts in the city are thus noticed:—

I have mentioned in former letters the Chamars (leather-workers), a low-caste not reckoned as Hindus, but a very important one in the Agra and adjoining districts, as being very susceptible of religious impressions, and, like cobblers in other countries, inclined to speculate on religious topics. We have worked amongst them in Agra for some years without visible fruit in conversion; but in Delhi great numbers have become Christians. Our plan of working has been to employ a reader to visit them morning and evening in their homes, which are grouped together in separate quarters and alleys of the city.

The reader teaches them to read the Hindi Testament, and to learn and sing Christian hymns to Native tunes. I occasionally meet larger gatherings of them for conversation and prayer.

The efforts of the Rev. Imad-ud-dîn to reach the Mohammedans of Agra I consider to be one of the most important features of our work this year. He came in April, at my invitation, to take for a time the post of Haileybury lecturer in connexion with the college. He has employed himself in giving lectures, visiting privately amongst the Mohammedans, and preparing the commentary on the Acts which he had commenced before leaving the Punjab. Eleven of his lectures have been published and circulated amongst educated Mohammedans. They were on such subjects as "The Knowledge of the True God," "The Soul of Man," "The Trinity in Unity." Abstracts of these lectures were also published in the Delhi Gazette, and attracted some notice from English readers. The lecturer was rather afraid of appearing publicly in Agra, lest some violence might be done to him by the Mohammedans; but prayer was offered to God, and there was never any disturbance, although the lectures were frequently given in the open air and by lamplight in our college compound. Great interest attached to these lectures, as Imad-ud-dîn was formerly a resident of Agra, and studied at the Government College here. Many of his fellow-students are holding important official positions in Agra and the districts around it. He was also, which perhaps excited his former co-religionists more than all, formerly a preacher in the great mosque, the Jáma Masjid of Agra, situated under the Fort.

Special effort for Mohammedans.

Several short Itinerations have been conducted by Mr. Vines with the Catechists, whenever he could get away from the College. One of the places thus visited is Túndla, a large junction-station where a railway town has sprung up. A few Hindustanis here seem to be "searchers after truth;" and a small community of Bengali clerks, who live separate from the rest of the population, are "much open to Christian influence."

The Educational branch is next reviewed. Mr. Vines writes:—

In St. John's College, for the first hour of every day, the Bible is taught, from the highest college class down to the lowest school class. The Scripture teaching is entirely in the hands of the missionaries and the Christian teachers, and I believe, notwithstanding the fact that this hour is entirely lost to their secular studies, that so far from being unpopular amongst the boys, it is to them the most interesting lesson of the day. As to numbers, the books show a steady increase during the last twelve months. The number on the books is now 312, as against 272 in 1875. The Christian boys in the college number about fifty. There is also a branch school in one of the suburbs of Agra, with an average attendance of 70 boys.

Unfavour- The Government of the North-West Provinces has not yet able atti- restored our grant, though they were directed to do so by the tude of the Supreme Government. There is still a correspondence being local carried on by the two Governments on the subject, but in the British face of a financial difficulty I fear we shall never get our rights Govern- restored. At the present moment, lacs are being and have been ment expended on the restoration of old buildings, but we are denied authorities the comparatively small sum of Rs. 300 per mensem. Many towards other mission schools have been deprived of their grants—educa- amongst them our Mohammedan and heathen girls' schools, of tional effort. which we had four.

Our Christian girls' boarding and day school has prospered. The numbers are not great, but a nucleus has been formed of a large school, and we hope that when the promised help from Miss Webb's Society arrives, and our new buildings are constructed, we shall be able to provide a good Christian education for the girls of the North-West Provinces. This school is Mrs. Vines's special charge.

A very important branch has been recently added to the Agra Mission—a Training Institution for Schoolmasters. Beginning in July, 1875, with two students, the number had increased by December, 1876, to nine; and its principal (Mr. A. H. Wright) had just received several applications for admission.

A Native
Church
Missionary
tion.

An interesting feature of the Mission is a Native Church Missionary Association, having for its main object co-operation between the Christian teachers of St. John's College and other mission agents, for evangelistic work. "This object," their Report observes, "has been carried out, and the Missionary volunteers of St. John's College have pretty regularly sallied forth with the other agents of the Society, in proclaiming to their fellow-countrymen the unsearchable riches of Christ." This has been done every evening of the week except Saturday in selected thickly-populated localities in different parts of the city. Much opposition has been met with, Moslem preachers haranguing the people from the opposite side of the street. The St. John's preachers have studiously refrained on these occasions from all public attacks on Mohammedanism, their chief aim having been "to proclaim the love and mercy of God in Christ Jesus to fallen man." The Association has also a paid agent of its own, a young man trained in the Lahore Divinity School.

The large orphanage at Sekandra, containing 330 children, though not dependent on the Society's funds for the maintenance of the children, occupied much of the time of the Rev. J. Erhardt and some of his fellow-labourers. A good knowledge of Holy Scripture, is the first object aimed at. Industrial work, such as that of carpenters, tailors, blacksmiths, printers, cooks, and table-servants, is also taught. Four of the first-class boys have joined the recently-opened Normal school at Agra. One of the teachers offered himself for the work of a Reader, and has been accepted by the Conference. Several adult orphans are in the employ of the Society, one of these being the Head-Catechist at Agra; and three at the date of the last Report of the Orphanage were Students at the LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

There are three Catechists connected with Sekandra, and four Readers. These, together with Mr. Erhardt himself, have attended Melas, and preached along the high roads and in the neighbouring cities and villages. During the year under review their attention has been called to "the numerous, very poor and oppressed agricultural communities nearer home." These were found to be "very eager hearers, listening far into the night."

Mr. Erhardt thus reports of the Colporteurs supported by the Roxburgh Fund :—

In place of one who had been superannuated, I took a strong young fellow, by birth a Brahmin, but who had become an inmate of our Orphanage. He desired that I should engage him on this work for two years, with the view of his becoming a reader eventually. The name of this young colporteur is Christopher. I trust he may come up to the meaning of his name, and become a faithful agent to his master. Bhola Nath (another agent) is steadily doing his work, for which he seems to have been born. He is a poet and singer. When he raises his voice he draws crowds after him. To our ears he is not very harmonious, but Natives like him much, and he invariably secures a good sale of his books. There is no doubt the sale of books and tracts has got a new impulse. It is partly owing to the more attractive form of the publications. We have books with pictures and coloured paper, and people like them very much. The old tracts they refuse, and rather pay a little sum for a new one than take an old one gratis. It is marvellous what a change has come over the people in the few years I directed these colporteurs.

Increased demand for Christian Books.

ALIGABH.

The Missionary of this Station (with its outposts of Hatras, Bulandshahar and Soron) is the Rev. J. Stuart. The Native

Christian Adherents are 60 in number. Of these 20 are Communicants. The School children number 158, of whom 25 are girls. Two adults were baptized during the year.

The removal by death of Mrs. Stuart, though for herself "far better," has been, humanly speaking, a grievous loss to the Mission.

No details are given respecting the Christian Congregations. Mr. Stuart observes :—

Open-air
preaching
at Aligarh.

This is a preaching mission. We visit the surrounding villages in the morning and the bazaar in the evening. I generally follow up my old Jabalpur plan of preaching an hour or so after dark; it answers well. I often prevail upon the congregation—the semi-circle next to me—to be seated upon mother earth, when the outer ring stands behind. I believe, if I had sitting accommodation for an out-door meeting, I might swell the audience to any amount. I have a difficulty sometimes in restraining discussion, or rather in keeping it within profitable bounds; but many such are, I believe, bonâ-fide inquirers, seriously wishing to have some doubt solved. I always try to discriminate and encourage such, especially as they are so shy of coming to one's bungalow.

There is a girls' school at Aligarh which Mr. Stuart opened "in memoriam," after his beloved partner had been called to her heavenly rest. Twenty-five girls are in constant attendance, of whom one-fourth are Brahmins. A competent Christian woman is in charge of it. Of Schools of another description Mr. Stuart writes :—

Another agency which I started during the year is going on, I hope, satisfactorily—village vernacular schools. The same teacher goes to one village in the morning, and to another in the evening. The boys all get up verses of Scripture, and, although heathen, their one text-book is the Bible. Besides being inexpensive, I am daily more and more convinced that of missionary agencies this is one of the most important. When I go to examine, the parents come and sit by with the greatest apparent interest. Other villages are begging me to send them a teacher, promising to feed and lodge him.

Mr. Stuart thus speaks of Hatras :—

Open-air
preaching
at Hatras.

In Hatras—a city of 33,000, of vast wealth, with no lack of intelligence—the preacher can always count upon a large outdoor audience. In all my recollections perhaps I never had a more earnest audience than among these people this morning in the bazaar. To literally and naturally describe them in a few words would be to say that before me stood a dense mass of open-mouthed, laughing-eyed people, old and young, Brahmin and low-caste, who seemed fairly to forget themselves in a comparison of their own religious system with ours. I am constantly meeting with men who are sincere in extolling the excellencies of Christianity, and who believe in the Hindu creed just as little as myself; but to "have the courage of their opinions" would cost them the loss of father, mother, wife, child—all!

At Bulandshahar nothing specially noteworthy has occurred; but Mr. Stuart speaks of the work at Soron as "decidedly looking up." The Christians have come out, it will be remembered, from a very low heathen caste, known by the name of Mehta (Sweeper). The attendance has more than quadrupled; and two or three small Mission Schools have been established in neighbouring hamlets. It was here that the two adult baptisms took place, of which, however, no details are given.

MIRAT (MEERUTH).

The Rev. H. Hoernle is, as before, the Missionary of this Station. Two events have occurred during the year: one very sad—the fall of the Native Pastor into the sin of drunkenness; the other joyful—the baptism of a family who had long been inquirers, bearing an excellent moral character, but who had hitherto been unable to face the opposition which they knew would be stirred up. Since their baptism they have been reviled and threatened and urged to recant, but have not met with any serious practical molestation. No special change has taken place in the condition of the Native Christians, who consist, as before, of (1) the city and cantonment congregation, mostly Government pensioners, and (2) the three Christian villages of IKIA, Kanker Khara, and Malyana. The statistics give 344 Adherents, with 111 Communicants.

DEHRA DHUN.

The Rev. C. T. Hoernle, who speaks of himself as feeling the growing infirmities of old age, still has charge of this district, being assisted by a Native brother, the Rev. J. Richard, who acts as Pastor to the Christian Communicants of ANNFIELD. The statistics for 1876 are, Adherents, 369; Communicants, 157; Adult baptisms, 11. The colony at ANNFIELD has suffered somewhat from bad harvests, yet its temporal condition is on the whole fairly prosperous. "The framework is pretty complete," writes Mr. Hoernle, "but it greatly lacks the life-giving Spirit." The following extract from Mr. Hoernle's Annual Letter, referring to Annfield, will be read with interest:—

Interesting Bap-
Annfield.

The four families who were mentioned in my last letter as under probation were baptized on the following Christmas Day. They were together nineteen persons: four men, six women, and nine children, of various ages. It was indeed "a happy day" for our Christians in these isolated jungles. As on the previous evening the school-children were assembled round a beautifully dressed and lighted fir-tree, presented by a kind friend; so now the party for baptism, with their witnesses, gathered round the font, as it were a spiritual tree, decorated by their bright and happy faces, and the earnestness with which the elder candidates made their responses. The whole congregation took a great interest in this service. Our little church in the wilderness was so crowded as to give me the impression of its beginning to be too small. My heart was particularly rejoiced at the sight of the two eldest children (about ten years of age). Coming last to the font, they folded their hands upon it, and looked at me so open-heartedly and innocently, whilst I received them into their Saviour's fold, as to leave a very hopeful impression on me and all that saw it. Who could help remembering their Divine Friend's invitation, "Let them come unto Me, for of such is the kingdom of God"? And may He keep them and the others safe from this world's temptations, which are sure to come!

Evangelistic work is continued. Mr. Hoernle often meets with "intelligent acknowledgment of the superiority of Christian truth over their idolatrous practices;" but further than that his hearers at present will not go.

KÔTGUR.

FROM KÔTGUR (or Kôt-guru the fortress of the religious teacher) the Rev. W. Rebsch reports another year of patient labour, and hope deferred. In respect to the Native Christians, 53 in number, Mr. Rebsch writes:—

The services at church were well attended by most of our Christian community, though some but seldom made use of the means of grace. One has left us entirely, as the Church Committee found him guilty of sins which could not be passed over without severe punishment. Another member, excluded the year before from the Holy Sacrament of the body and blood of Christ, has asked fervently to be accepted again to full membership, to which the Church Committee gladly acceded, as they were of opinion the party had been sufficiently punished.—For some years I have encouraged our Native brethren to become landed proprietors on a small scale like other hill-men, it being a shame in many places in the plains that so few of our Native Christians have their own houses and land, and therefore can so easily go about the country as beggars, or leave their situations on the most trifling occasion. Almost all our Native brethren took up the idea, and have got their own land and cattle now—some more, some less. In consequence of this position, our brethren have felt the necessity of doing something for the furtherance of the Work of God. They have formed a Missionary Association for mutual help, for spreading the Gospel among the hill-people. One Scripture-reader supported by the Association has been working among the villagers here, and one in Simla ; and their funds are prospering. It has originated entirely among our Native brethren, and is also managed by them. I only countenance it, and encourage them sometimes with advice. A great part of the money collected has come from Europeans, but nearly all Christians in Kôtgur give monthly something according to their ability.

 listic

 Native
 Christians.

No adults were baptized during the year. Evangelistic work in the neighbouring towns and villages has not been neglected. As a rule the heathen met with in these Missionary itinerations hear the Word of God attentively and respectfully. Two of Mr. Rebsch's Native brethren made a lengthy excursion through a part of the country where the people had previously heard but little of the Gospel, and returned much cheered by the reception they met with. In the Schools 115 boys and 25 girls receive instruction in the Word of God.

Mr. Rebsch superintends a branch Mission among the fluctuating and migratory Native community of Simla. Towards the close of the year 1875, the Rev. J. Kadshu was brought from Lahore, to be Pastor of the Simla congregation, but in November of the following year it pleased God to remove this Native brother to his heavenly rest. During the year Mr. Rebsch sent two young Native Christians to be prepared for Mission work among the hill-people; one to the Amritsar Training College for Schoolmasters, the other to the LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

KANGRA.

The Missionary of this station is the Rev. C. F. Reuther, who reports as follows:—

Nothing of importance has occurred in the Kangra Mission during the past year. The work has been quietly carried on according to the opportunities which have been afforded to us. The number of Native Christians has decreased, several families having left us, partly from ill-health, and partly in search of employment. One young man has gone with his family to the Lahore Divinity School to study theology. Instead of those who have left us, five members have been added to the Church by baptism, one adult and four children. Thus our Christian congregation numbers at present forty-three members, of whom the greater part are at Kangra, and the rest at Dharmsala. Their contributions for religious purposes, amount to nearly eighty rupees. Their conduct has been Christian-like, and they have grown in grace.

Street preaching, domiciliary visitation, and preaching-tours have been carried on by Mr. Rebsch and his Catechists, but without any marked and visible result. The influence of the temples is very great in Kangra and the neighbourhood, and is of course hostile. In the Schools there are 229 pupils, of whom 49 are girls. The Gospel lessons are much appreciated by the children.

AMRITSAR.

The statistics of the Amritsar Mission for the close of 1876 give the following numbers: Communicants 92, Adherents 273, Adult baptisms 13; the corresponding numbers for the previous year being 80, 271, and 7. No Report has been received from Amritsar for 1876. A deeply interesting pamphlet has, however, been forwarded to the Committee, containing an account of the first meeting of the Panjâb Native Church Council, of which, as stated above, the Rev. Robert Clark has been appointed the Chairman. Great interest was excited both among the Native Christians and among those of the European residents who sympathize with Missionary efforts.

The Rev. Sadiq Masih, the Pastor of the Amritsar congregation, gives the following very interesting account of two conversions at Batâla, one of the out-stations of Amritsar:—

I went to Batâla to baptize a Brahmin, by name Bhagwân Dâs. He was the Government rent-collector of a district near Batâla, had been an inquirer for a long time, and was well acquainted with God's Word. God had given him several times the opportunity of entrance into the Church; but he was waiting for what he considered a suitable time. At last he suddenly applied for baptism, which I gave him in a tank near the high road. Shortly afterwards, by the time we had arrived at the catechist's dwelling the people surrounded the house in crowds, and his wife also, with her three little children, came crying. Their intention was quickly to carry off Bhâgwân Dâs and make him a Hindu again, inasmuch as he had not yet eaten anything from the Christian's house. Six days after his baptism his wife died of cholera. Then a little girl died. Then his mother fell sick, and was on the point of death. She had not yet recovered when his only brother was carried off by fever. He had trouble on trouble, also, from the people of the city. They entreated and threatened him by turns to make him forsake his new faith; but up to the present time he remains firm by the grace of God, openly associating with Christians, and joining in their worship.—Another man, a moulvie who lived at Batâla, and who was the leader of a Mohammedan congregation, has been baptized in Amritsar. God, in His mercy, has given him companions in his profession; for his brother was a Christian before him, and his children were admitted into the Church along with him.

Two remarkable conversions.

LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

The Missionaries labouring in this important Institution during 1876 were the Rev. W. Hooper, the Rev. T. R. Wade, and the Rev. F. A. P. Shirreff. In his Report for the half-year ending January, 1877, the Principal (or as he terms himself, hoping for Mr. French's return, the officiating Principal) writes as follows:—

Satisfac-
dition of the Lahore
School.

The principal thing to report is the goodness which our Heavenly Master extends to us in maintaining the numbers of the students. Our difficulty is no more to induce students to come, but to make a selection among those who offer themselves. Three students left us at the end of June, having completed their time here.—During the long vacation the remaining students were received in various places and took part in the mission work going on in them. Mr. Shirreff kindly took charge of the only three whose location was difficult, and travelled about with them. Two others spent their vacation at Jhang. This somewhat inaccessible, but very healthy and very interesting, station has long lain on the conscience of the Church Missionaries in the Panjâb, but no one was available to send there, notwithstanding the repeated entreaties of some of its Christian inhabitants. It is a matter for thankfulness therefore that some feeble attempt has been made to occupy it, even for three months in the year.—We have just been joined by a most promising youth, one of the many who are the crowns of joy and the hire of the labour of the Rev. R. Bateman. He does not pledge himself to devote his life to missionary work, i.e. as a profession, but he is laudably anxious to learn all he can of the meaning of God's Word and the truths of Christianity, so that he may be an intelligent and useful Christian in whatever employment it may please God to call him to.—Our present number of students is sixteen, exclusive of the pupil-teacher. Three more are expected as probationers in a few weeks. This will raise the number to nineteen; but one of the students is entirely paid for by the Rev. G. R. Gordon, so that we shall not exceed the number of studentships provided by friends at home.—One remarkable feature of the present set of students is that a large majority of them came from the North-West provinces. Only six are from the Panjâb proper. This state of things has been, I think, gradually coming to pass ever since the Institution was established. It seems to point to the need of such an Institution down country besides.

In speaking of the religious character of the students, Mr. Hooper, after mentioning other marks of true spirituality, writes:—

But besides this, their anxiety for the souls of others, their gladly putting themselves out to do good to others, their carrying on missionary work with individuals for a long time unknown to me, the wisdom and the patience with which they converse and argue with them, and other traits of the same sort, have convinced me that their prayers are no outward form of words. And the best of it is, that commonly the most intellectual are the most spiritual, and the one whose intellect is most beset with difficulties and questions is sometimes the one who most exhibits the power of a simple faith in Christ.

It is a blessed, happy work this, the happiest that I have ever been engaged in all my life; and if I was to think only of my own comfort, I would beg to be kept here always; but while there are others who will soon be able to do this work better than I, and while Benares, my first love, is so neglected as it is, "my soul is not at rest."

Mr. Hooper remarks also that among the seventeen students who were with him at the date of writing the above Report, six were converts from Hinduism in adult life, and that of the rest some were children of converts, while others had been brought up in Christian orphanages. None of them were converts from Mohammedanism. Two or three years ago, when Mr. French was Principal of the Divinity School, the converts from the creed of the false prophet outnumbered those from Hinduism. It may be added that Mr. Hooper has especially studied the Hindu controversy, as Mr. French had the Mohammedan.

The subjects taught, at the date of Mr. Hooper's Report, were or had been—The Books of Samuel, the latter half of Isaiah and the Book of Psalms, the Epistles to the Corinthians, and the Book of Revelation; in Christian doctrine, the Sinlessness of Christ; Church history from 1290 to 1517; the History of the Jews intermediate between the Old and New Testaments; and Pandit Nehemiah's Refutation of Hindu Philosophy.

In a later communication, Mr. Hooper expresses still more satisfaction and thanksgiving at the present condition of the Divinity School, regretting at the same time that the Society's Annual Report for 1875-6 did not more strongly call attention to the improved condition and prospects of the College towards the close of the period then under review. Mr. Hooper writes:—

The school is in a far more flourishing state than it ever was before; but also we are beginning to see the dawn of that state of things which French held out before the eyes of the Christian public at first. I mean, that the school is beginning to be sought after now by men of great intellectual power and great social importance (e. g. a Moulvie of great distinction in Delhi, recently converted); and we, seeing and recognizing the significance of this fact, intend to begin now to raise the standard of admission, so that eventually we may have only those of higher power and influence. The immediate effect of this may be a slight fall in our numbers; but I am sure this will be but temporary, and be compensated by greater gain.

The following extract from one of Mr. Shirreff's letters will be read with interest:—

Mr. Hooper sends such full and interesting reports of the Divinity School that I shall not be expected to write much about it. The students, for the most part, show remarkable intelligence in grasping and retaining the instruction they receive. Our friends at home would, I am sure, be astonished at the minute accuracy with which numbers of questions were answered in the examinations we have recently held. It would be unfair to expect to find much energy and force of character in the students; but I doubt whether a school or college could be found anywhere containing a set of pupils more well-behaved and painstaking than ours.

PIND DÂDAN KHAN (JHELUM ITINERANCY).

The branch of the work during the year just closed was but little connected with Lahore; but the Committee have not yet decided on terminating the connexion altogether. The work was conducted, during the year, by the Rev. G. M. Gordon, assisted by a native brother named Yakub. Mr. Gordon writes:—

Our chief interest at the beginning of 1876 was a promised visit from the Bishop, a visit to which subsequent events had given a melancholy prominence. It is hardly likely that so remote a place as Pind Dâdan Khan will ever be visited by a Bishop of Calcutta again. Bishop Milman came on February 18, looking remarkably well, after a very cold and wet night's journey from Gujrat in a dooly, followed by another down the Jhelum in an open boat. Our little church was filled by a congregation of twenty, most of whom had come from distances of from five to fifty miles. Mr. Jacob and Mr. Lapsley took part in the service, at which the Bishop confirmed seven candidates—four European and three Native—and gave a very solemn and fatherly exhortation; the singing being led by an harmonium, which was his own kind gift to the church. The Native Christians who were confirmed were Yakûb and his wife, and Gûlab Khan. A few weeks later the scattered members of that little congregation heard one by one, through various channels, that their chief pastor was removed, and we sadly realized that Pind Dâdan Khan, Rawal Pindi, and Peshawar had been the Gilgal, Bethel, and Jericho of our honoured leader's departing steps. God grant that some true "sons of the prophets" may be raised up at each.

I have not been able yet to replace the loss of my Native brother Andreas, but I believe that Yakûb does his best as the "Luke" of the Pind Dâdan Khân Mission. He readily consented to my proposal, that he should take up his quarters at Kariyala, a village thirty miles from Pind Dâdan Khan, where there is an inquiring Moulvie, who gave him quarters in his own house. This hospitality to a disciple of Christ so stirred up the enmity of the lambardar (headman) of the village—a bigoted Mohammedan—that he incited the people to deny the Moulvie access to the village well and the village bakery, and to withdraw their children from his school. Yakûb then wrote to me that he had left the Moulvie's house, and as no one else would give him quarters for fear of the lambardar, he was living with his wife and child under a tree. By the assistance of the officer of the district, I was able to obtain shelter for Yakûb; and when the opposition of the headman was withdrawn people were peaceable enough. The Moulvie at first seemed to succumb to the opposition which his Christian principle aroused, and withdrew himself awhile from instruction. Now he is creeping out again, comes to Yakûb after his day's work, for prayer and reading, and joins the service in the little Christian mosque which I have erected at the place. When urged to make a bolder stand for Christ, he tearfully pleads his difficulties, but does not attempt to justify his faint-heartedness.

A timid and persecuted Mohammedan inquirer.

The expectation of Christ's coming and kingdom is alive amongst Hindus as well as Mohammedans. They find nothing unfamiliar in the thought of the absorption of all creeds, castes, and languages into one at His reign. The former often reconcile this doctrine with their popular belief in one whom they call "the 10th Incarnation;" while the latter speak of Iman Mehdi as the coming deliverer. But the Mussulman holds among his traditions, "Mal Mahdyio illâ Tsabni Mariyamâ;" i. e. there is no Mehdi save Jesus, Son of Mary. An old Sikh one day stopped me on the road, with the question "When is Christ coming?" as though it lay much on his mind. A Mohammedan officer, who made me his guest, hoped that His Coming might be near, "for, when He comes, I will lay my turban at His feet," and he gracefully suited the action to the word.

Expectation of Christ's coming among Hindus and Mohammedans.

DERA ISMAIL KHAN.

The Rev. W. Thwaites is the Missionary of this station. The Committee have not received any Report or Annual Letter respecting the work of the year.

BANNU (BUNNOO).

This station lies on the borders of Affghanistan to the south-west of Peshawar, and to the north-west of Dera Ismail Khan, nearer to the latter than to the former. Its Missionary is the Rev. T. J. L. Mayer.

Visible encouragement has not been abundant; and in Mr. Mayer's little flock of fourteen Native Christians there has been much to try him. One adult baptized during the year apostatized a few weeks afterwards. But Mr. Mayer's hopes are unabated. In his Annual Letter he writes:—

The spring lies deep, and has hardly bubbled yet to the surface; but there it is. It shows itself in the steady decrease of crime, the secret purchasing of religious books, the boldness of leading Mohammedans who have at last begun to desire that their sons shall be instructed in the Gospel of Christ, and the conversations and inquiries of learned men with our own countrymen here.

One of the chief events of the year under review was the opening of the new church, of which Mr. Mayer gives a very animated and graphic description, from which the following passages are extracted:—

nnu at open-
; of a
urch.

Thank God for a sight of such a day as this. I had everything finished off yesterday (January 30th); the last touches put to the font, the wall round the church compound plastered, carpets laid down inside, and our table and little pulpit put in ready. I sent out during last week about fifty invitations to the Maliks and Lambardars (Native headmen) of the country, and the gentry of the city. They were all there. I had service in the English church at 11 a.m. The little church opened about 12.30 p.m. It was crammed; men who have a seat in the Lord Lieutenant-Governor's durbars were standing amongst the crowd; and a wonderful mixture it was—chief men of the city, chiefs of these frontier tribes, and men from the Government offices. Here stood a Brahmin jostling a Qazi; there sat a man from some idol temple next an old Mission schoolboy. There was the Sikh and the Brahmo Somaj man, the rough frontier Mohammedan, and the representatives of the English Government. So one's text suited such a day. It was Isa. lvi. 7, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations." I had painted and put up this text on a board outside in three languages, Urdu, Pushtu, and Hebrew. They were noisy outside during the prayers, but inside extremely quiet, so before preaching I had to ask those next the door to quiet the rioters outside. They were hushed in a moment; and the whole sermon was heard, I am glad to say, by a huge crowd outside.

The School has advanced in numbers, 123 being present at the examination held by the Government inspector.

Mr. Mayer's experience agrees with that of his brethren, that there is no insuperable difficulty in persuading Moham-medan boys to receive Christian instruction.

In the cold season just concluded, Mr. Mayer has been itinerating in the Marawab district. He was much pleased with the open and truthful character of the population. They are Mohammedans. One of their Akhunds (religious teachers) who was "a splendid Arabic scholar," was much gratified on being presented with an Arabic Bible, and burst into exclamations of delight at the first chapter of Genesis.

MULTÂN.

At the date of Mr. W. Briggs's Annual Letter, he himself (a Lay Missionary) was the only European labourer at this station. The Native agents also are all laymen. The Native Christian Adherents number only 46; but of this small number no fewer than 30 are Communicants. Two adults were baptized during the year. Two Native Evangelists have laboured faithfully and zealously during the year in Multân itself and in the outlying towns. Two colporteurs have also been at work, and the sales of Bibles, Gospels, and Tracts have far exceeded those of any former year. The Schools are prospering, and Mrs. Briggs finds increasing access to the Zenanas.

PESHAWAR.

The following extracts from the last Local Report, drawn up by the Senior Missionary of the station, the Rev. T. P. Hughes, will bring clearly out the leading characteristics of the Mission and its present condition:—

The Church Missionary Society established the first permanent mission to the Afghâns in 1855. The first Missionaries were Colonel Martin, Rev. Dr. Pfander, and Rev. Robert Clark. Colonel Martin is a retired Indian officer, who consecrated the double gift of himself and his money to the work of God at Peshâwar. Dr. Pfander was the eminent controversialist, the author of the Mizân-ul-Haqq and other works. The Rev. Robert Clark is one of the Society's Senior Missionaries in the Panjâb, and is now stationed at Amritsar. The mission at its commencement received considerable aid both in money and in moral support from the late Sir Herbert Edwardes, who was at that time Commissioner of the Division. Some apprehension of danger was felt from the propagation of the Gospel in so bigoted a stronghold of Mohammedanism. But Herbert Edwardes was too brave a man, too wise a politician, and too bold a Christian, to share such fears. At a meeting in Peshâwar he ginning of

uttered the following memorable words:—"In this crowded city we may hear the Brahmin in his temple sound his sankh (conch-shell) and gong; the muezzin on his lofty minaret fills the air with the "azán" (summons to prayer); and the Civil Government which protects them both, will take upon itself the duty of protecting the Christian Missionary, who goes forth to preach the Gospel. Above all, we may be quite sure that we are much safer if we do our duty than if we neglect it, and that He who hath brought us here with His own right arm will shield and bless us, if in simple reliance upon Him we try to do His will." Noble words, when we remember that Sir Herbert's predecessor had only a few months before fallen by the hand of an assassin. And God honoured that Christian ruler in that very place; for he it was, who, in the terrible mutiny of 1857, held the bigoted Mohammedans of Trans-Indus territory with a firm hand, and made loyal soldiers of Afghán levies.

converts.

The Pesháwar Mission bears evident signs of the wisdom and forethought of its able founders. There are large and commodious Mission Houses and Schools, and all the apparatus required for the operations of Missionary work. There are now some seventy Christians on the mission-roll, twenty-five of whom are communicants. A day of small things, but despise it not. The Afgháns in days of yore came down from their mountain fastnesses and conquered India, and if ever through God's grace a large Afghán Church should be gathered, it will make its influence felt over the wide-spread plains of Hindustán. Some of us may perhaps live to see the day when the people of India shall yield to the spiritual power and influence of Afghán Evangelists.—Amongst our Afghán converts there have been men who have done good service to Government. When Lord Mayo wished to send some trusted native on very confidential and very important service to Central Asia, it was an Afghán convert of our Mission who was selected. Subadár Diláwar Khán, who had served the English well before the gates of Delhi, was sent on this secret mission to Central Asia, where he died in the snows, a victim to treachery. Some three years ago, an officer employed on a special service of inquiry as to the doings of the Wabhábis, wanted a trustworthy man to send to ascertain the number and condition of those fanatics who now reside at Palosi on the banks of the Indus. An Afghán convert was selected for this difficult and dangerous undertaking.

The Native Christian Church is presided over by the Rev. Imám Sháh, a convert from Mohammedanism, who was ordained deacon and priest by the late lamented Bishop Milman. On Sunday morning there is an average attendance of forty-five; Sunday evening, thirty; Wednesday, twenty-five; daily morning service, twelve; daily evening service, twenty. The Christians who reside near the Church attend the daily evening service very regularly. The daily service is a shortened form compiled from the Liturgy, the liturgical form of prayer being well suited to converts brought in from the ranks of Mohammedanism. Occasionally some of the Mohammedan guests of the Mission attend; and as part of the chapel is screened off for those ladies who prefer seclusion, it has often happened that Mohammedan ladies have been present at the service. The present Mission chapel, whilst sufficiently large for our small congregation, is situated within a walled enclosure, and therefore no testimony to the existence of Christianity in the midst of a populous frontier city. The Missionaries are anxious to build a suitable church in a more public place, and are about to put forth an appeal for funds [for this purpose].

The Boys' Schools under the management of the Rev. Worthington Jukes contain four hundred pupils. Mohammedans in all parts of India are strongly prejudiced against the study of English, and consequently there is some difficulty in inducing them to enter either Mission or Government Schools. Still about one-third of the pupils in the Mission Schools at Pesháwar belong to Islám.

The Girls' Schools, and the Zenanas under instruction have an attendance of nearly a hundred pupils, most of them being Mohammedans. Female education is still in its infancy. It is, however, remarkable that in former years, before the English came in possession of the country, the Afghán women were taught to read and write; and many of the old manuscripts of Pushtu books have been written by Afghán women—and even in the present day the girls are taught with the boys in some of the village Masjids.

Bazaar or street preaching is regularly carried on in the centre of the city every Tuesday and Friday. A few years ago bazaar preaching in Pesháwar was attended with some danger, and on one occasion the life of one of the European Missionaries (Mr. Tuting) was attempted. The crowds, however, are now more orderly, and there are frequently attentive congregations. But it is not the most favourable way of bringing the Gospel before Muhammadans. In private interviews the evangelist stands face to face, eye to eye, and heart to heart with the opponent or the inquirer, and can speak as one fallen sinner should speak to another.—Such opportunities are found in village itinerations, and in the Mission Guest-house. When the Missionaries first came to Pesháwar it was not considered safe to itinerate from village to village, but now they are received by the people with kindness and hospitality, and are permitted to discuss religious subjects in their midst without hindrance. Sometimes the chiefs use their influence to afford opportunities for discussions with the Moulvies (priests) in their mosques. The Mission Hujrah, or Guest-house, is one of the most interesting and encouraging features of our work, for it is in the conversations held there with our numerous Afghán visitors and guests that the clouds of ignorance and prejudice which overshadow the mind of the stranger are speedily removed by the warmth of social intercourse. By treating them kindly, influence and respect are gained; and it has invariably happened that those who have come from a distance and have stayed in our Hujrah and have mixed with the Native Christians, have confessed that Christianity is very different from what they had formerly supposed it to be. Sometimes they take away with them Christian tracts and books; and in this way the light of Gospel truth often penetrates a dark spot where it would be fatal for the Missionary to enter. Quite incidentally it has come to the knowledge of the Missionaries that a learned Moulvie in Kashgar has for some time been in possession of several Christian books and has been engaged in the careful study of them.

Mr. Jukes, who has charge of the Educational department of the Mission, writes as follows:—

ance of Scriptural teaching by heathen students in Mission Schools.

I have been much gratified in witnessing the increasing inquiring character of my pupils the more the truth is set before them. I have the Bible taught in those classes only where I can insure the efficiency of the master, and the confidence of the boys in their master. If a boy comes to school without having learnt his appointed lesson, I simply request him to leave the class while the Bible is being taught, and never has this punishment been inflicted more than once on the same boy. The Scripture lesson is invariably learnt very well. On account of the scarcity of Christian teachers, much of the Christian instruction in the lower classes was at one time necessarily dispensed with; but this I have now rectified. I expected one lad to come forward boldly and receive baptism; and for a time he boldly rejected all the solicitations and entreaties of his mother to go home with her from my house, but ultimately yielded, not being able to stand the fearful filial demands made upon his young and sensitive heart.—Special efforts are being made to get in Afghan boys from the villages. Many of them come and go—our discipline, though very lax, proving far too severe for them. Some five or six have been reading very steadily indeed, and I must say I am perfectly surprised that any stay with us at all, for they undergo no small amount of persecution by living in our compound, being daily taunted by their fellow-countrymen with being Christians. Government offers far handsomer scholarships if they will read in Lahore, than we can afford to offer. I trust that the grace which I see working silently in the hearts of one or two will some day be made manifest to the world. One of them—a Mohammedan—showed a peculiar affection and brotherly love to the above-mentioned Hindu boy whilst living here with me.

The following passages from Mr. Jukes's Annual Letter will also be read with interest :—

I hope Cábul will be occupied before long. The Cábuli Armenians are in friendly relationship with those of Pesháwar, and would therefore be our allies, more especially since some of them have been educated in our school. The difficulties met with by Mr. Bruce at Julfa, would not arise here as far as the Roman Catholics and Armenians are concerned, for of the former there are none, and all the latter are very friendly; but those from the Mohammedans would be perhaps a little enhanced, for they have not yet forgotten the reverses they met with in the Cábul expeditions. A few Cabulis have received baptism at Pesháwar from time to time, and there have been many more inquiries. On his visit to Peshawar, his Excellency the Viceroy, in the interview he kindly had with us, spoke in no ambiguous language about the desire of Government to occupy Cábul and other large cities of Afghanistan with European Residents, and if the present Viceroy continues to be armed with similar advice from the Home Government, he may hope to bring about more friendly relationships with the Cábul Amir, in which case we may probably see an English chargé-d'affaires in Cábul before long; and, with such protection, we ought to be allowed to reside there.

Native
Church in Madras.

THE organization of the Native Christians connected with the Society in Madras is assuming more and more of an independent character. The European Chairman of the Church Council (Rev. R. C. Macdonald) having resigned on being appointed joint Corresponding Secretary with the Rev. David Fenn, his place was filled by a Native brother, the Rev. W. T. Sattianâdan. The (Parent) Committee heartily rejoice in this development, and only wish it had taken place sooner, and that in Madras and all the Society's Missions the principle had been earlier and more firmly grasped, which is thus expressed in the Society's paper on Native Church organization, issued in July, 1861 :—"It is expedient that the arrangements which may be made in the Missions should, from the first, have reference to the ultimate settlement of the Native Church upon the ecclesiastical basis of an indigenous Episcopate, independent of foreign aid or superintendence."

The Madras Native Christians connected with the Society are divided into two pastorates, the Southern (Rev. W. T. Sattianâdan) containing 353 Adherents, of whom 340 are baptized, with 170 Communicants; and the Northern Pastorate (Rev. V. Simeon), containing 479 Adherents, and 240 Communicants. In the former of these two pastorates, the numbers for the years 1867, 1875, and 1876 were respectively :—of baptized, 232, 315, and 340, and of Communicants, 116, 137, and 170 ; while the contributions for the same years were (omitting annas and pice) Rs. 468, Rs. 978, and Rs. 1070. The following extracts from the Report of the Southern Pastorate will be read with interest :—

As usual the two open-air meetings in the week at the North gate of the Memorial Hall, and in front of the Lecture Hall, have been conducted with regularity. The average attendance is as follows :—In the Memorial Hall 148 ; in Chintadrapettah 83. Some members of the congregation have continued to render their [voluntary] help in these meetings. These have not been altogether without fruit. A Hindu youth who used to frequent the meeting at Chintadrapettah for the express purpose of ridiculing the preachers and tearing away tracts, became so altered that he purchased a copy of the New Testament and a large number of tracts, and having read them with care and attention, has been convinced of the truth of Christianity, and is preparing for baptism.

A course of lectures in English has been given in the new Lecture Hall at Chintadrapettah for the benefit of the educated Hindus and Mohammedans. The attendance has been very fair. It is a matter of congratulation that the large debt on the Lecture Hall of Rs. 500, has by the munificence of the Bishop of Madras been cleared off.—It is a matter of gratification that the pastorate can point to some male and female members who feel it a duty to visit the houses of many respectable Hindus and commend the truths of the Gospel to both sexes.

A passage from Mr. Sattianâdan's Annual Letter may be fitly subjoined here:—

My brother-in-law, Mr. Samuel John, has given himself entirely to the work of presenting the Gospel to the educated Natives of Madras. He constantly visits Native gentlemen in their homes, and holds meetings in different parts of Madras, in the houses of some of them, when he reads a paper introducing and enforcing religious topics in a simple and homely style. This is generally followed by a friendly talk or discussion. The Rev. D. Fenn, who has quite identified himself with this effort, generally presides at these meetings, and tries to throw as much Christian influence into them as possible. The other day Mr. Fenn had a meeting in his own house, where, besides several European ladies and gentlemen, about forty Native gentlemen were present, and seemed to enjoy it very much. Such social gatherings will gradually tend to soften prejudice and race feeling, and to promote the interchange of thought, and will thus pave the way for the free promulgation of Christianity. My own circle of acquaintance among the educated classes is gradually widening; and opportunities often occur of influencing them, not simply by means of lectures, but also by personal intercourse in their homes and offices.

The European lady mentioned in a previous report as labouring in the Zenanas of Madras in connexion with the Society, is still so employed. Twelve houses are at present regularly visited by her. She speaks of two of her pupils as "hearing of Jesus with pleasure, often speaking feelingly of His love," but still unable to break off heathenish observances when there is any family festival, allowing these observances to be foolish, but not yet regarding them as wicked.

Mrs. Sattianâdan, the wife of the Senior Pastor, is also engaged in the same work, and visits 45 Zenanas containing 106 young ladies belonging to respectable families. Though none of these, during the past year, have made an open profession of Christianity, several show much interest in their Scripture lessons. One of them, who has her Bible always with her, and constantly reads it to her relatives and friends, sends her subscriptions regularly to Miss Annie Sattianadan's Juvenile Missionary Association. Mrs. Sattianadan also superintends six Girls' Schools, four for the upper and two for the lower classes.

Work among the Mohammedans.

The Rev. Malcolm G. Goldsmith is in charge of the adult branch of this Mission. He was much interrupted during the year by weakness of health and consequent compulsory removal for six months to the Nilgherry Hills. There, however, he met with some Mohammedans, to whom he had opportunities of making known the Gospel. An extract from his Annual Letter is subjoined:—

Work
among
medans.

Constant practice enables one better to understand or anticipate the objections of Mohammedans or to meet the enemy on his own ground. A serious difficulty, only to be overcome by practice and special Divine grace, is the irritation caused by unreasonable arguments or violent acts. The latter generally take the form of tearing up some tract; but as the triumph of this procedure is incomplete so long as the Christian does not lose his self-command, it is important that he should be then in full communion with his God, and in calm realization of the nature of His work; when this is the case, the triumph may be reversed, for none appreciate the virtue of patient forbearance better than the Mohammedans. I am frequently now of late invited to sit down and talk in their verandahs or houses; this is a great advantage, for in such gatherings everything is more polite and orderly, and there are better opportunities for explanation.

The HARRIS SCHOOL (140 pupils) has been under the charge of the Rev. H. R. Kendall. No recent information has been received respecting its operations. A letter from Mr. Kendall, however, dated 6th June, 1876, and printed in the Intelligencer, for October, 1876, gives a very interesting account of the opening of a branch school called the Gore Langton School (after Lady Anna Gore Langton), and intended specially for members of princely and noble Mohammedan families. About fourteen pupils were attending it at the date of Mr. Kendall's letter, six of these being sons, nephews, and other near relatives, of the Prince of Arcot.

Madras Itinerancy.

The Itinerancy is under the charge of the Rev. W. P. Schaffter. In Pastoral work, he acts as Chairman of a Native Church Council, connected with which there is a Native Pastor, the Rev. T. Ephraim. In Evangelistic work he is assisted by another Native clergyman, the Rev. J. Cornelius.

The statistics for 1876 are as follows:—Adherents, 680; Communicants, 285; Adult baptisms, 5. The corresponding numbers for 1875 were 619, 261, and 8.

The following extract from Mr. Schaffter's Annual Letter is very important, and may be compared with remarks to the same effect made by the Rev. D. Jayasingha, and which will be found farther on in the Report of COTTA in Ceylon. Mr. Schaffter writes:—

The Native Church.—The more I see of the working of the Native Church Councils, and of the influence they exert upon the Native Church, the more I feel that this is the right and the quickest way of making this Church independent. My only regret is that in all instances this plan has not been adopted from the very beginning in all missions. Why should not a congregation, which has but lately come out from heathenism, be at once taught to do all it can towards its own church support? As heathen they receive no foreign help towards the support of their own religion; for us to volunteer to help them when they become Christians is to introduce among them a new system; and, when once introduced, it takes a long time to wean them from it. It takes time for a Native congregation to make up its mind to take an active interest in their own Church matters. They will plead poverty, want of time, absence from home in search of work, &c., for being unable to contribute towards their Church expenses, such as building their own prayer-house, catechist's dwelling, and salary of catechist or pastor. The missionary's duty is not to hurry them, but, abiding firm in these requirements, to argue, reason with, and try to persuade them, that these are their duties, and to show them ways and means by which these duties can be accomplished. If they cannot afford a prayer-house worth Rs. 40, let them erect one worth Rs. 5, on which they will not have to spend any money, but only labour; one giving the posts cut from his own trees, the other palmyra-leaves from his own property, another the fibre to tie the posts together, while the rest supply the labour. After some time, they will of their own accord gradually improve this building, till that which at first looked more like a cow-shed gets the appearance of a prayer-house. But we must not try to move faster than the converts can follow us.—The members of the Native Church Council of this district have begun to realize the responsibility of their position. They are also the elders of their respective congregations, and, as such, are also accepted by their people as coadjutors to their catechist. The catechist in spiritual matters works with them, and in secular matters works through them.

Of the Native Mission agents Mr. Schaffter writes :—

and cou-

On the whole, the catechists and readers have worked well.—Some months ago cholera raged in Mévalur; many of the Christians were attacked by it, and several died. The adjoining villagers placed this village in quarantine. Panic seized the people of Mévalur, and they were preparing to flee from the village and desert it. The catechist stood firm to his post; upheld the people by his teaching and preaching; went, day and night, in and out of their houses, fearless of contagion, visiting the sick and administering medicines; congregated the people two or three times during the day, and even during the night, in the church for prayer and Bible-reading; and thus proved himself a true pastor of his flock. Such was the panic among the people that, had it not been for the exertions of the catechist, many of the sick would have died from want of proper nursing, their own friends having deserted them from fear of the disease.—Some people at Tachur have recently come over to Christianity. I ordered one of these catechists to that place to reside there; but, I did not know at the time I sent the order that his wife was dangerously ill. The good man, however, did not commune with flesh and blood, but, commending his wife to the Lord in prayer, started off to the place. After being there for some time, the prayer-house he put up in was burnt down by the Roman Catholics. For about two months, he was without a home. The few inquirers were not able to give him a shelter, as they themselves are miserably poor, and their houses mere huts, barely large enough to contain their own families. Thus, under trees, or under cover of mats, now and then in the verandah of some friendly heathen, the catechist found shelter for the night, and had to be contented with whatever food the poor converts could cook for him. The Roman Catholics also assailed him with mockings and railings. Still he clung to his post, and worked hard for the spiritual and temporal welfare of his flock. I am thankful to say that his wife has partially recovered, and is quite out of danger. Agents such as these are a great comfort; but, alas! all are not of the same stamp. Some few disappoint us sadly.

collector.

In a village called Manimangalam, only the other day, the catechist met with an intelligent bazaar man, who, when asked whether he read the tracts, &c. he received on different occasions, produced a thick, well-bound book. It contained all the handbills and tracts he had received and read. "See," he said, "what I do with the books I receive. I read and think over them. I know that mere reading is not enough. I must do as is stated in those tracts. But I am helpless. If I become a Christian, I shall be made an outcast."

OOTACAMUND.

The Rev. S. Paul, a Native brother, has charge of this station, under the superintendence of the Rev. R. C. Macdonald of Madras. The number of baptized Christians is 270. Of these 135 are Communicants. Six adults were baptized during the year. A sum of Rs. 417 was raised by the contributions of Native Christians for Church purposes. The Anglo-Vernacular School contains 102 boys. It has for its head-master, a Native Christian who is an undergraduate of the Madras University. Mr. Paul has no doubt that the spiritual state of his flock is "gradually improving."

DR. SARGENT commences his Annual Review of the districts under his charge, by lamenting the loss which the Tinnevely Mission had just met with, in the removal to his heavenly rest of the late Rev. A. Dibb, and the consequent interruption of the Theological class of candidates preparing for ordination. There was also a disappointment connected with a new work which had just been commenced among the heathen women of the higher classes. This effort had been entered upon by Mrs. Lewis under most encouraging circumstances. She was joined by a young lady who had given herself to Missionary work, from Melbourne in Australia, and was giving promise of future usefulness. The Australian sister was suddenly called away from all earthly labours by an attack of cholera, and Mrs. Lewis was compelled to return to England by failure of health.—Another sad and humiliating fact is that from the Committee's inability to send out educational Missionaries from England, the higher education of young men in the district, which was at one time in the Society's hands, has now, for a while at least, passed away. The Committee have at length been able to appoint to this work Mr. Henry Schaffter, who they have every reason to believe will prove competent to its demands; but the "non-Christian" Hindu High School has now obtained a commanding position, having 400 students, 40 of whom are preparing for Matriculations. And it is less easy to regain ground that has been lost, than to retain it in the first instance.

Of the Native clergy in the district, 28 in number, Dr. Sargent records his "decided opinion that the agents ordained as Pastors maintain an irreproachable character, and assume a position among their countrymen which commands much more influence than they ever exercised as laymen." In the Church Councils, Dr. Sargent desiderates "more independence of mind and action among the members in discussing Church matters." In the united districts there are altogether six honorary Catechists; two who held this office, both of them devoted men, died during the year. Dr. Sargent hopes that this number will in due time be greatly multiplied.

In PALAMCOTTA there are 4365 Native Christian Adherents, of whom 855 are Communicants; 69 adults were baptized during the year. The corresponding numbers in the previous year were 4394, 848, and 52. There are six Native Pastors. The Palamcotta church has recently been enlarged and re-roofed. The first service held in the building thus altered was on October 29th, 1876. Thirteen hundred and thirty persons were present at Divine Service, of whom 313 partook of the Lord's Supper. Twenty-one adults and 35 children were baptized on the same day. In reference to the adult baptisms, Dr. Sargent writes:—

On Sunday, 22nd October, when, for the last time, we held service in the schoolroom, I gave notice that next Sunday the church would be re-opened for service; and knowing that the baptism of several children had been postponed for the occasion, I gave notice to the mothers of my readiness to baptize their little ones; and then, turning to the male part of the congregation, I observed, "What a pleasing offering it would be if, in addition to the help you have kindly rendered in the material building, you could each one come up to the font on the ensuing Sunday with some Hindu brother whom you have been the means of leading to Jesus!" I knew there were a few Hindus listening to me at the time who were lingering on the border-land. Next day, one of our oldest converts came to see me, and in his company a Native friend. I asked who he was, and received the reply, "He is one who now comes an offering unto the Lord. What you said yesterday touched us both, for it was by my persuasion he attended our church, and, hearing what you said, he came to me as his old friend, and intimated his determination openly to profess the Christian religion." Some time after, another of our old converts came to see me as I was walking in the garden, and, observing a friend coming up behind him, I said, "Who is that?" "He is what you called yesterday 'an offering to Jesus,'" replied Kistna Pillay, who has been the means of bringing several such offerings before to the Lord, by his loving, Christian example and persuasion. I was pleased to see these men, and made arrangement for examining them in the knowledge of the Gospel preparatory to accepting them as candidates; and when I referred to the Creed and Ten Commandments, I found that they had already committed them to memory, so that it was evident their minds had been directed to this subject long since; but they had been unable to come to a determination.

Interest-
tisms in
velly.

At DOHNAVUR there were, at the date of Dr. Sargent's Annual Letter, four Native Clergymen, 441 Native Communicants, 3656 Adherents; and there had been 43 baptisms during the year. The corresponding numbers for the previous year under the three last items were 438, 3565, and 82. Dr. Sargent writes:—

The death of the Rev. P. Abraham, of the central station, has created a loss, not only to his own circle of friends and people, but to me personally, for he helped me greatly in wisely managing all the secular affairs of the district, and keeping the accounts so regularly and clearly. He was a man much respected, not only by our Christians, but also by the heathen. In all my large and frequent dealings with him, I never discovered any approach to equivocation or double-dealing. And here I must say what I feel to be due to Native helpers generally, that, where confidence is not blindly, but wisely and kindly, reposed after some time of probation, the almost sure return on the side of the party confided in is strict integrity and conscientiousness. This has been my experience. The constant show of suspicion I have never known to raise a Native in his character, or make him more reliable.

In the PANNEIVILEI district there are five Native Clergymen, 565 Communicants, and 2789 Adherents. The adult baptisms during that year were 25. The statistics of the previous year gave 489 Communicants, 2628 Adherents, and 41 adult baptisms. Dr. Sargent writes:—

Before Mr. Simmons went home, he laid before the Committee a statement or review of seven years' work in the Panneivilei district. He showed how there had been a falling off, begun before he took charge, and that the district had not fully recovered its numbers when he left. The following comparison of statistics shows that there has been a turn in the tide since then:—1871: Adherents, 2289; Baptized, 1755; Communicants, 457; in 1876, Adherents, 2789; Baptized 2163; Communicants, 565. The numbers for this year are not only greater than those of 1871, but greater also than those of 1864, the year with which Mr. Simmons made his comparison. This gradual increase is due to the general influence of the established Christian congregations. Many, who formerly backslided, have come back and drawn others with them. Many are induced to become Christians [i. e. to join the visible Christian community] because so many of their relations are Christians. This is not a high motive; but it is one which we, as teachers, cannot disallow.

At PANNIKULLAM there are four Native Clergymen. The Communicants number 604, and the Adherents 2533. Twenty-one adults were baptized during the year. In the previous year, the Communicants were 626, the Adherents 2551, and the adult baptisms 23. Dr. Sargent writes:—

In this district especially, if I cannot report large increase in numbers, I certainly can say that the condition of the congregations as regards their Christian profession is greatly improved, especially in the two places which have been occupied by pastors. The people are now more diligent and regular in attendance on the means of grace. Many of them have given up several of their bad ways, especially Sabbath-breaking, and have shown more of a true desire after prayer and reading of the Bible than they have ever shown before. The minutes of the Church Council for 4th July, 1876, will have shown what are the weak points and drawbacks in this district. Our only hope is in faithful and persevering effort, and God's blessing thereon. Individual cases of conversion of an interesting character have not been wanting during the past year, but they lie wide apart among a vast rural population.

The diminution of eighteen in the number of Adherents is accounted for partly by the transference of some villages, containing seventy-four Adherents, to the Pannivilei district, and partly by the removal of several families, some to the Nallur district, and some to districts connected with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.

The Statistics of the NALLUR District are as follows:—Four Native Clergymen, 559 Communicants, 3006 Adherents, 33 adult baptisms. The corresponding numbers for the previous year were—514 Communicants, 2898 Adherents, and 30 adult baptisms. The following very interesting passage occurs in Dr. Sargent's report of Nallur:—

I was pleasingly struck with a place called Kaliyanipuram, a village I had not visited since first I went there with our late dear missionary Thomas in 1837, and again with our then Secretary of the Madras Committee, John Tucker—persons whom I gratefully acknowledge to have in no small degree influenced my own religious views and missionary character. I went to this same village a few weeks ago. How changed was everything! Then a mud wall and thatched prayer-house only—now a neat, substantial church, everything clean, and the people clean. But what a change in greater things! Then there was not to be found a woman who could read, or a girl that attended school. Now there is a flourishing girls' school, and very many of the women can read! As I sat in the church, preparing for the time of service, and waiting till all should be assembled, I said to those who were present, "Let us not lose time; let the girls open their Bibles and read." I was particularly pleased with the nice way in which they performed this duty, and told them so, when the catechist said, "I think you would be pleased to hear the grown-up women read." Immediately those who had Bibles opened them and read the passage following that read by the girls. I felt at once how changed for the better the place was since I was last there.

There are four Native Clergymen at SURANDEI. The Communicants number 506, and the Adherents 2495. Twenty-one adults were baptized during the year. The statistics for the previous year were 517 Communicants, 2437 Adherents, and 22 adult baptisms. Dr. Sargent writes:—

This district has been strengthened by the addition of a pastor who has taken up a station in the far west, and so relieved another pastor of a great deal of travelling, setting him free to closer application to work in his own neighbourhood. This measure will, I am sure, be productive of good in every way. The congregation of Surandei itself was never in a flourishing condition as to numbers. Generally speaking, there has been no falling off in this part of the mission; but so also there have been no accessions from among the heathen, except in small numbers. The number of the true, contrasted with nominal professors, is small. The people are not alive as they ought to be to the duty of supporting their own teachers. Few among them give more than one rupee a year as their rate of contribution to the Church Fund.—The eastern portion of the district forms the Ukkirankottei pastorate, Rev. Antony James, late of Ootacamund. The people of this village are fair specimens of what the Gospel has done to elevate the humble. They are among the oldest Christians in this part of the country. A great number of them have gone to other places for superior education. They have succeeded, and contrived to work their way upwards. Few villages can boast as this can of having given so goodly a number of agents to mission work and to other offices of trust and emolument.

The statistics of NALLAMMALPURAM give 416 Communicants, 1679 Adherents, and 6 adult baptisms during the year. Dr. Sargent writes:—

I like to occupy my mind for a while about this place, for it takes me back to the days of my youth, and so supplies ground of praise and thankfulness to the Hand that has thus far guided and blessed. Has the seed sown in bygone days been lost? Certainly not! There are several unsatisfactory characters in this pastorate, and many who have only a decent exterior, attending the means of grace as convenience allows them; but there are not a few others who, by their consistent lives and love of prayer, love of Sabbath, of God's house, of the Sacrament, love of fellow-Christians and professed love of Christ, lead us to indulge the good hope that they are Christians in truth.

I was much pleased to receive Rs. 70 from one of the leading men of Nallammalpuram to purchase a stone font for the Palamcottah Church when it was being enlarged and renewed. He is the son of my old friend the Nâdan, who gave the large brass candlestick to the Suvisêshapuram Church.

It is an interesting fact that Nallammalpuram is the first circle in Tinnevely where a Native Vice-President has conducted the affairs of their Church Council. The minutes of proceedings were sent to the Corresponding Committee last month. The Rev. M. Savariroyan only regrets that this honour has come upon him at a time when all around looks threatening with scarcity and famine, and their means, but not their hearts, are so greatly contracted.

In reference to the change mentioned in the preceding paragraph, Dr. Sargent has written an admirable and touching letter to the Nallammalpuram Council and its Vice-President, from which, the following extracts are here inserted :—

I rise from my knees to write you this letter. I mention this Letter that you may see how much importance I attach to the measure from proposed, and that you may sympathize with me in this view of Bishop the matter. You all know with what loving concern the Church Sargent on Missionary Society have always regarded the Church established Native Church in this Province. That Christian family, assailed by so many self-sup- fears, weaknesses, and persecutions, has, nevertheless, day by port. day increased, and, as the prophet says, "The little one has become a thousand." For a long time, however, one token of growth and strength in this family was wanting. There was too much dependence on the long-tried support of the Mother Society. From joy of sitting in the parent's lap, you shrunk from the effort of putting your feet to the ground, and walking by yourselves. For a short time past a new order of things has been introduced. The truth of the Saviour's word that "it is more blessed to give than to receive" has been recommended to the test. And as the circle of Nallammalpuram has been one of the most forward to show its regard for the support of its own teachers, I am wishful that the Society's kind and honourable intention in regard to the Church in Tinnevelly should have its beginning with you. The Home Committee's kind wish and intention is this, that the Native Church should both support itself by its own contributions, and also should direct and manage its own affairs by its own judgment and counsel. And therefore they have decided as a beginning that in the absence of the European President, a Vice-President from among yourselves should conduct the affairs of your councils. I am in doubt whether this plan will commend itself to all who have a share in such proceedings. I am mindful how gladly and lovingly you all receive me when I come among you. You all welcome me much as children do their absent father when he returns home. Now hear that father's advice.

You, my dear sir, are one of the few old labourers still left in the Mission-field; I might say of you as was said of Reuben, "Thou art my first-born, my might and the beginning of my strength," for you were one of the first company of catechists that studied under me for ordination, nearly thirty years ago. Be you one of the first to exercise this office of Vice-President.

And now to all the members of the Council I would say, in the words of St. Peter, "Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous,"

1 Pet. iii. 8. I may remark, without blaming any one in particular, that as yet our Church Councils do not fully come up to the mark intended. Some members do not attend punctually; others allow things to pass as if they were afraid to be thought obstructive. Things move too smoothly when I am among you, and I therefore sometimes think that many of you have not been thinking for yourselves. Now you have got your own dear pastor to preside, one of your own countrymen. Think for yourselves, discuss whatever is likely to be profitable, suggest any new plan of usefulness, if you can, either in reference to the support of your teachers, or the promoting the interests of our converts, the edification and spiritual progress of all our Church members. But whatever you do, do all in love and meekness, desiring to glorify our common Master, the Lord Jesus. And the Lord be with you all.

SIVAGÂSI.

This district, at the close of the year 1876, had the advantage of the labours of the Rev. R. R. Meadows (Chairman of the Council) and five Native ordained brethren. The statistics—3939 Native Adherents, 574 Communicants, and 60 adult baptisms—do not appreciably differ from those of the two preceding years. Failure of health has recently compelled Mr. and Mrs. Meadows to return to England, after many years of faithful service, to the deep grief of their loved and loving Native brethren and sisters in Sivagâsi. The Rev. Hugh Horsley, who has been living with Mr. Meadows while studying Tamil, has now passed his examination in the language, and hopes to begin evangelistic work among the heathen of the higher castes.

SARAH TUCKER INSTITUTION.

The Rev. A. H. Lash begins his Annual Letter with the expression of thankfulness to God for being permitted to return to Tinnevely in renewed health and strength after an absence of between two and three years, and for being enabled to bring with him a fellow-labourer (Miss Buée), who has already given efficient help to himself and Mrs. Lash. Mr. Lash gives the following sketch of what the Sarah Tucker Institution has effected since its re-opening in 1868 :—

During these eight years and a half 250 girls have been admitted to the institution, 162 have left, and 88 remain, including three employed as teachers. Of the 162 who have left us, 47 were removed by friends or left from other causes (such as incompetency) before their course was finished; of the remaining 115, 90 have been employed as teachers, five as Bible-women, and two in a medical capacity, principally in Tinnevelly, but also in Madura, Ceylon, Madras, Tanjore, and the Mauritius. During this time 87 students have passed the Government examination for school-mistresses, and have obtained third-grade certificates.

Though it cannot be denied that the attainments of the students, especially in secular subjects, had suffered, during Mr. Lash's sojourn in England, from the absence of a resident European Missionary; yet Mr. Lash thinks that "it reflects great credit upon the Native masters, mistresses, and matron, of the Institution, that no serious irregularity had occurred, and that so much fair work had been done."

The Branch Schools of the Institution are an Evangelistic agency for the girls of the non-Christian "high-caste" children. It need scarcely be said that the Society does not recognize "caste" (which is a totally distinct thing from rank) among Christians. Among the heathen, caste-distinctions are very powerful realities, though based on false and pernicious theories. It should also be borne in mind that in Tinnevelly the Sudras regard themselves as "high-caste," the bulk of the Native population being, in their view "out-caste." Of these Branch Schools, Mr. Lash writes:—

Our progress in this portion of our work has been remarkable, and especially encouraging during the last eight months. I have mentioned in former reports that the district of Tinnevelly was behind some portions of the Presidency, and especially of the town of Madras, in the matter of female education among the non-Christian high-caste people. Our Mission-schools, and especially our girls' boarding-schools, had done a great and good work among the Christian female population; but the caste Hindu community had been entirely untouched and uninfluenced. Our first caste-girls' school was opened in the town of Tinnevelly in 1871; and before we left India in 1874 we had opened twelve schools of this description, in some cases after much opposition; and of the 750 girls who attended our thirty-two branch schools, about one-half were non-Christian girls of the higher castes. While we were in England, little was done in the way of extending the work. A great advance has been made during the eight months since our return. In 1874-75 there were twelve schools, with 365 caste girls; in 1876, there were twenty-two schools, with 822 caste girls. Our total numbers are as follows:—In twenty-two town schools for caste girls, 828; in two Palamcottah schools for Christian girls, 80; in sixteen village schools—mixed Christian and heathen girls, 322; the total being 1230 girls in forty schools.

The Brahmins have not yet sent their girls in large numbers, though there are pleasing indications of a change in their views also. I opened one school for Brahmmins several months ago, and this week have opened a second.

Mr. Lash adds the following important and suggestive remarks :—

Importance of educated Native female agency.

Thousands and tens of thousands of caste-girls, in this district alone, are now for the first time coming voluntarily within the influence of the truth; and it must be our endeavour to take advantage of the opening. This is a work to be done, not by English, but by Native Christian, women. English women have laboured singly and as helpers to their husbands; they have been blessed to raise up the agency best fitted for reaching the great masses of the heathen. By God's blessing on the past labours of His devoted servants we have now a Christian population of more than 60,000 from which to draw our supplies of teachers, and I have no hesitation in saying that a Native Christian educated woman, living a holy and consistent life, in the midst of a large heathen village or town, and doing her duty in her little school as in God's sight, is a more powerful argument in favour of Christianity, to the Native who watches her, than her most devoted English sister could be.

III. Travancore and Cochin.

(Commenced in 1816.)

The Mission is divided into six districts: 1, Cottayam, Pallam, and Mundakayam; 2, Mavelikara and Tiruwella; 3, Alleppe; 4, Alwaye; 5, Trichur; 6, Kunnankulam.

European Mission Establishment:

 Rev. John Martindale Speechly, M.A. (m), 1860; at home.
 Rev. Ralph Henry Maddox (m), 1863; rejoined 1876.
 Rev. William Johnson (m), 1866; at home.
 Rev. Frederick Bower (m), 1866; at home.
 Rev. John Hunter Bishop B.A. (m), 1867.
 Rev. John Caley (m), 1871.
 Rev. William J. Richards (m), 1871.
 Mr. Martin Browne, 1876.

THE Travancore (Native) Government have recently drawn up and published a census of the population subject to them, from which it appears that one-fifth of the whole population is Christian, viz. 466,874 out of 2,808,891; and that of the Native Christians, 295,770 are Syrian, 109,820 are Roman Catholic, and 61,284 are Protestant. Of the Protestants 17,235 are in connexion with the Church Missionary Society.

One extract from the document will be read with interest. It is as follows:—

By the indefatigable labours and self-denying earnestness of the learned body of the Missionaries in the country, the large community of Native Christians are rapidly advancing in their moral, intellectual and material condition. The proportion of educated among them [which is considerably higher than among the Hindus and Mohammedans] will be much greater before long.

CAMBRIDGE NICHOLSON INSTITUTION.

The Rev. J. M. Speechly being compelled, by temporary failure of health, to leave India in March, 1876, the charge of this Institution devolved on the Rev. W. J. Richards, who was removed to it from the Cottayam College. An addition has been made to the European staff of the Institution in the person of Mr. M. Browne. Mr. Browne, who arrived on Christmas-day, 1876, and whose accession Mr. Richards regards as a great increase of strength, will devote himself mainly to the training of those students who intend to become schoolmasters, Mr. Richards retaining under his more exclusive instruction those who desire spiritual work. The Divinity Class numbered five throughout the year. Two of these will be ordained, it is hoped, in September or December of the current year. Six students entered on work, during the year just closed, as teachers in schools.

COTTAYAM COLLEGE.

The Rev. J. H. Bishop writes:—

I am thankful to be able to report that the work in the college has gone on satisfactorily through another year. The following are the statistics in regard to numbers and religion:—Boarders: Foundationers, 24; Day Boarders, 20; Day Pupils, 165—Total, 218. Protestants, 75; Syrians, 99; Roman Catholics, 12; Hindus, 32—Total, 218.

It should be remembered that there is a very large number of Christians in Travancore—according to the returns of the late census, actually one-fifth of the whole population. This estimate, of course, includes Syrians and Romanists. Hence a larger educational agency for Native Christians is required for Travancore than for other parts of the mission-field. However, in the course of a few years, if a vigorous educational policy be pursued, we may hope that it will result in the raising up of well-educated and pious Native Christians, some of whom might be selected or ordained for educational posts of importance in our institutions. We have already one Native clergyman attached to the CAMBRIDGE NICHOLSON INSTITUTION.

Beneficial effects of Mission Schools and Colleges for Native
Christian
men.

I cannot understand why there should be any prejudice against Christian schools and colleges, where [as at the Cottayam College] the pupils are nearly all [by outward profession] Christian youths ; for, by judicious management, evangelistic work may be carried on by means of these young men. A missionary spirit may be kindled in their midst. The seed sown in the class-room may thus be multiplied and scattered by youthful hands ; and it is impossible to say how much the Native Church may be thus directly or indirectly benefited by her own children. On the other hand, if no provision were made for the godly training of Christian young men, they would be sent to Government schools, and perhaps entirely withdrawn from parental and Christian influence. In the Cottayam College our endeavour is to maintain a healthy Christian tone : to show the young men that there is no opposition between secular and religious studies, that all truth comes from God, and all our work should be done to His glory ; and that there is a more excellent way than following our individual interests—that of love to Christ, which should constrain us to give up ourselves to His service in promoting the salvation of our fellow-creatures. And I am glad to be able to testify that some of our young men are walking in that way. The distinction between “Hindu day-schools,” and “Christian boarding-schools” should be borne in mind, the former being a direct agency on the educated heathen mind, the latter being an agency whose object is ultimately to reach Hindu society by the moral and intellectual advancement of the Native Church.

COTTAYAM DISTRICT.

The Church Council of this district has had for its chairman the long-tried veteran Missionary, the Rev. H. Baker. From his Annual Letter it appears that the Native Adherents have increased, during the year ending Sept. 30th, from 9997 to 10,684, and the Communicants in a still larger proportion, from 1868 to 2029. Sixty-nine adults were baptized within the same period. One very interesting conversion is described in the following extract from Mr. Baker's letter :—

A Tamil Brahmin, who held a post in a Government office, after having had some two years' intercourse with me, determined to avow his faith in Christ. His wife accompanied him ; she was young and in delicate health. The whole race of Pandya warriors were now excited. I was charged with keeping the woman prisoner. The Tahsildar came at my request ; it was shown that the man and wife were free, and had been here and with Mr. Koshi some days. . . . However, the woman determined to return, for her friends told her she would be married to a Pariah, directly she was baptized. The man yielded all his property to his wife and mother, and witnessed a noble confession before a crowd of these people, and never hesitated. He has read the Scriptures carefully. I baptized him Satia Dâsen, in a crowded church. He has now been reading daily with Mr. Koshi, and also endeavouring to get hold of English. He is young, quick and intelligent, and his earnest desire is to teach his caste people. With a full heart and ardent soul he has been led by God's Spirit, and not by man. His written questions to me through the post last year showed great inquiry and thirst for truth ; and now he expresses a true satisfaction in what he has done. His mother, wife, and uncle are most attached to him. For some days my house was opened to Brahmins, and I had great opportunities of telling them what they had never heard, and many remain very friendly ; some, however, are most bitter.

MÂVELIKARA.

In the districts connected with the Mâvelikara Church Council, the Native Adherents number 6214 ; the Communicants, 1790 ; and the adult baptisms during the year were 310. The corresponding numbers for the previous year were 6262, 1635, and 150. The Committee devoutly give thanks to God for the 310 who have thus been enabled openly to confess Christ. The increase of Communicants is also a symptom of life. The small diminution in the number of Adherents is doubtless owing to some unstable souls having been led away by the " six years' delusion " of Justus Joseph and his family. There is some reason to hope that the Joseph family are beginning to be convinced of their errors. But they are scarcely as yet sufficiently humbled to make a full open confession ; and even should this grace be vouchsafed to them, their influence for good, humanly speaking, at least in Travancore, is lost for ever. Mr. Caley writes,—

Work has been carried on vigorously in the pastorates, but it has been more difficult than usual during the past year. Mr. Kuruwella, who was removed to Kannit in place of Justus Joseph, has baptized some heathen during the year, and there are some more who are " almost persuaded." His work has been as much that of a missionary as a pastor, for he has gone to nearly all places in the mission.

During the coming year I shall have to look after Alleppie as well as Mavelicara, so that I shall require more help. The pastors are not afraid of work, however, even outside of their own pastorates; so I trust we shall manage until the Committee send us some more men.

We expect (God willing) to take up three or four new stations during 1877. In January, 1876, I commenced work at Rani for the C.M.S. for the first time, and we have now more than thirty under instruction there. We have made Rani the base of operations for the east and south-east.

Last year I told you that we were expecting to receive grants-in-aid from the Travancore Government for some of our schools. I entered twelve schools, and received half the working expenses for all of them, viz. Rs. 3 per mensem for each school. This has enabled me to open new schools; but it has not increased our number of scholars; for a great many private schools have been commenced in hope of getting a grant, and some of our schools have been somewhat thinned in consequence.

Illustration of Native Christian piety in Travancore.

In a village in the Maramannu parish, several godly women were in the habit of meeting daily, alternately in their houses, for prayer and reading. They held it twice a day—at noon and night. In a meeting in which I presided, observing a woman weep, I inquired the cause, when another, who also was affected, replied, "We weep not because our sins are not pardoned, but the sense of our Saviour's love to us melts our hearts." There are a good many individuals in the Syrian Church, especially women, who still lead holy lives since the revival, without being led away by fanaticism.

Signs of spiritual revival in the Ancient Syrian Church.

In February last, a fast of three days being celebrated in the Maramannu Syrian Church, I was invited by the priest Titus, the brother of the Bishop, to preach on the occasion. I delivered two sermons in one day to a large audience. In the Syrian Church of Chenghanûr, service being daily held every night since the revival, I had frequent opportunities to address the people at the request of their priests, Joseph and Koshi, who are very active to promote true religion in their parish. In a school-room close by, pious women meet every morning for prayer, conducted by those priests or some good young men. At Putthen-kavu, my native place, several Syrians meet for prayer and hearing God's Word every Sunday afternoon in a prayer-house built since the revival. The visit of a Protestant pastor or reader to any of the Syrian prayer-houses is much esteemed and enjoyed by them.

ALLEPPIE.

The Rev. W. Johnson, after ten years of steady work, has returned to this country to recruit his health and strength. Thirty-seven adults were baptized during the year; and the Communicants have increased from 183 to 211. The total number of Native Adherents declined during the same period from 832 to 811. The latter number is, however, still a considerable advance on that given for 1875, which was 707.

TRICHUR AND KUNNANKULAM.

These stations, during 1876, were under the charge of the Rev. F. Bower, unaided by any European helper (except Mrs. Bower) or ordained Native brother. Each of the stations, as remarked last year, ought to have two European Missionaries attached to them. Instead of this, Mr. Bower himself has been compelled to leave from failure of health; and there is the greatest difficulty in supplying his place. The statistics of Kunnankulam are not given. Those for Trichur are—Adherents, 586; Communicants, 229; and adult baptisms during the year, 13.

Mr. Bower writes:—

The congregations of Trichur and Kunnankulam have given me more or less satisfaction, although I have been obliged to work on single-handed without the aid of a Native clergyman. I am thankful to be able to say that both congregations take much more interest than formerly in the welfare of their respective churches, and contribute more willingly to the Church Funds. Their contributions, as you will have observed, notwithstanding their limited means, are slowly increasing. Many are exceedingly poor, both at Trichur and Kunnankulam. There is reason also to believe that family prayer is much more attended to than it was a few years ago. Our people at Kunnankulam have now been more than two years without a resident missionary; and I regret to say that some of them have been called upon to suffer great persecution.

Preaching to the heathen has been carried on much as usual, and we have generally been encouraged by the reception the Gospel has met with from the greater number of all classes. I find, however, that men of the old school, fifty or sixty years of age, are generally very bigoted; indeed, some of them would, I am persuaded, do almost anything to uphold Hinduism. On the other hand, not a few educated Hindus are practical infidels, and seem to be very fond of reading the works of Bishop Colenso and others. When preaching in the streets of Trichur some four or five years ago, I was bitterly opposed by a young Tamil Brahmin, well educated and remarkably shrewd. During my first and second discussions with him he lost his temper completely, and looked as though he could have almost killed me. The third discussion lasted about an hour, and at the end of it he acknowledged that Christianity was certainly better than Hinduism, and said that he was inclined to believe that our religion was after all true. He became calm, and very politely apologized for being so angry and rude on the two former occasions. Ever since that day he has been friendly and kind not only to me, but also to our people; and last week I was glad to hear that this haughty Brahmin, almost immediately after our last discussion, purchased a copy of the Scriptures, and I am told that he already possesses a wonderful knowledge of the New Testament. It is a grand thing that we have the Bible Society working with us for the evangelization of India.

IV. Telugu Mission.

The Telugu Mission comprises Masulipatam, 1841; Ellore, 1854; Êzwâra, 1858; the Koi Mission (Dummagudem), 1860; Raghapuram, 1872.

European Mission Establishment:

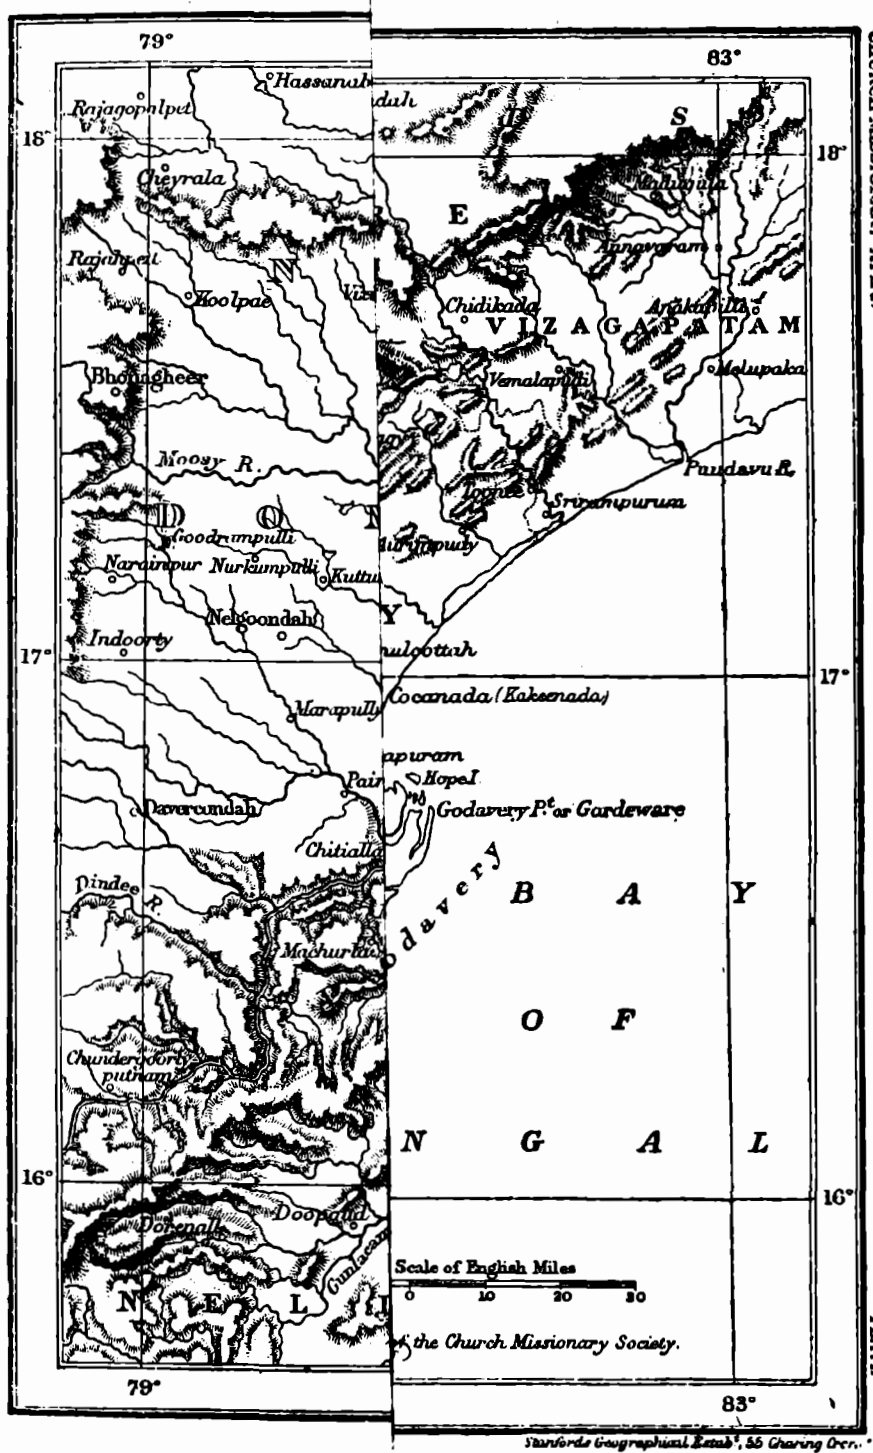

Rev. Frederick William Nassau Alexander, M.A. (m), 1857.
 Rev. William Ellington (m), 1860.
 Rev. John Sharp, M.A. (m), 1861.
 Rev. John Harrison (m), 1867.
 Rev. Joseph Edwin Padfield (m), 1868; at home.
 Rev. John Cain, 1869.
 Rev. Walter Clayton (m), 1869.
 Rev. William George Baker (m), 1872.
 Rev. Alfred Morgan (m), 1872.
 Rev. William Mitchell (m), Travancore, 1872; Telugu, 1874; at home.
 Rev. James S. Stone, 1875.
 Mr. John Thornton (m), 1864, Training Master; absent on leave.
 Mr. Thompson, joined in India, 1875.
 Mrs. Sharkey, 1843.

DURING the year 1876 there were 150 adult baptisms in the Telugu Mission. The number of Native Adherents advanced from 3804 to 4013, and of Communicants from 565 to 570.

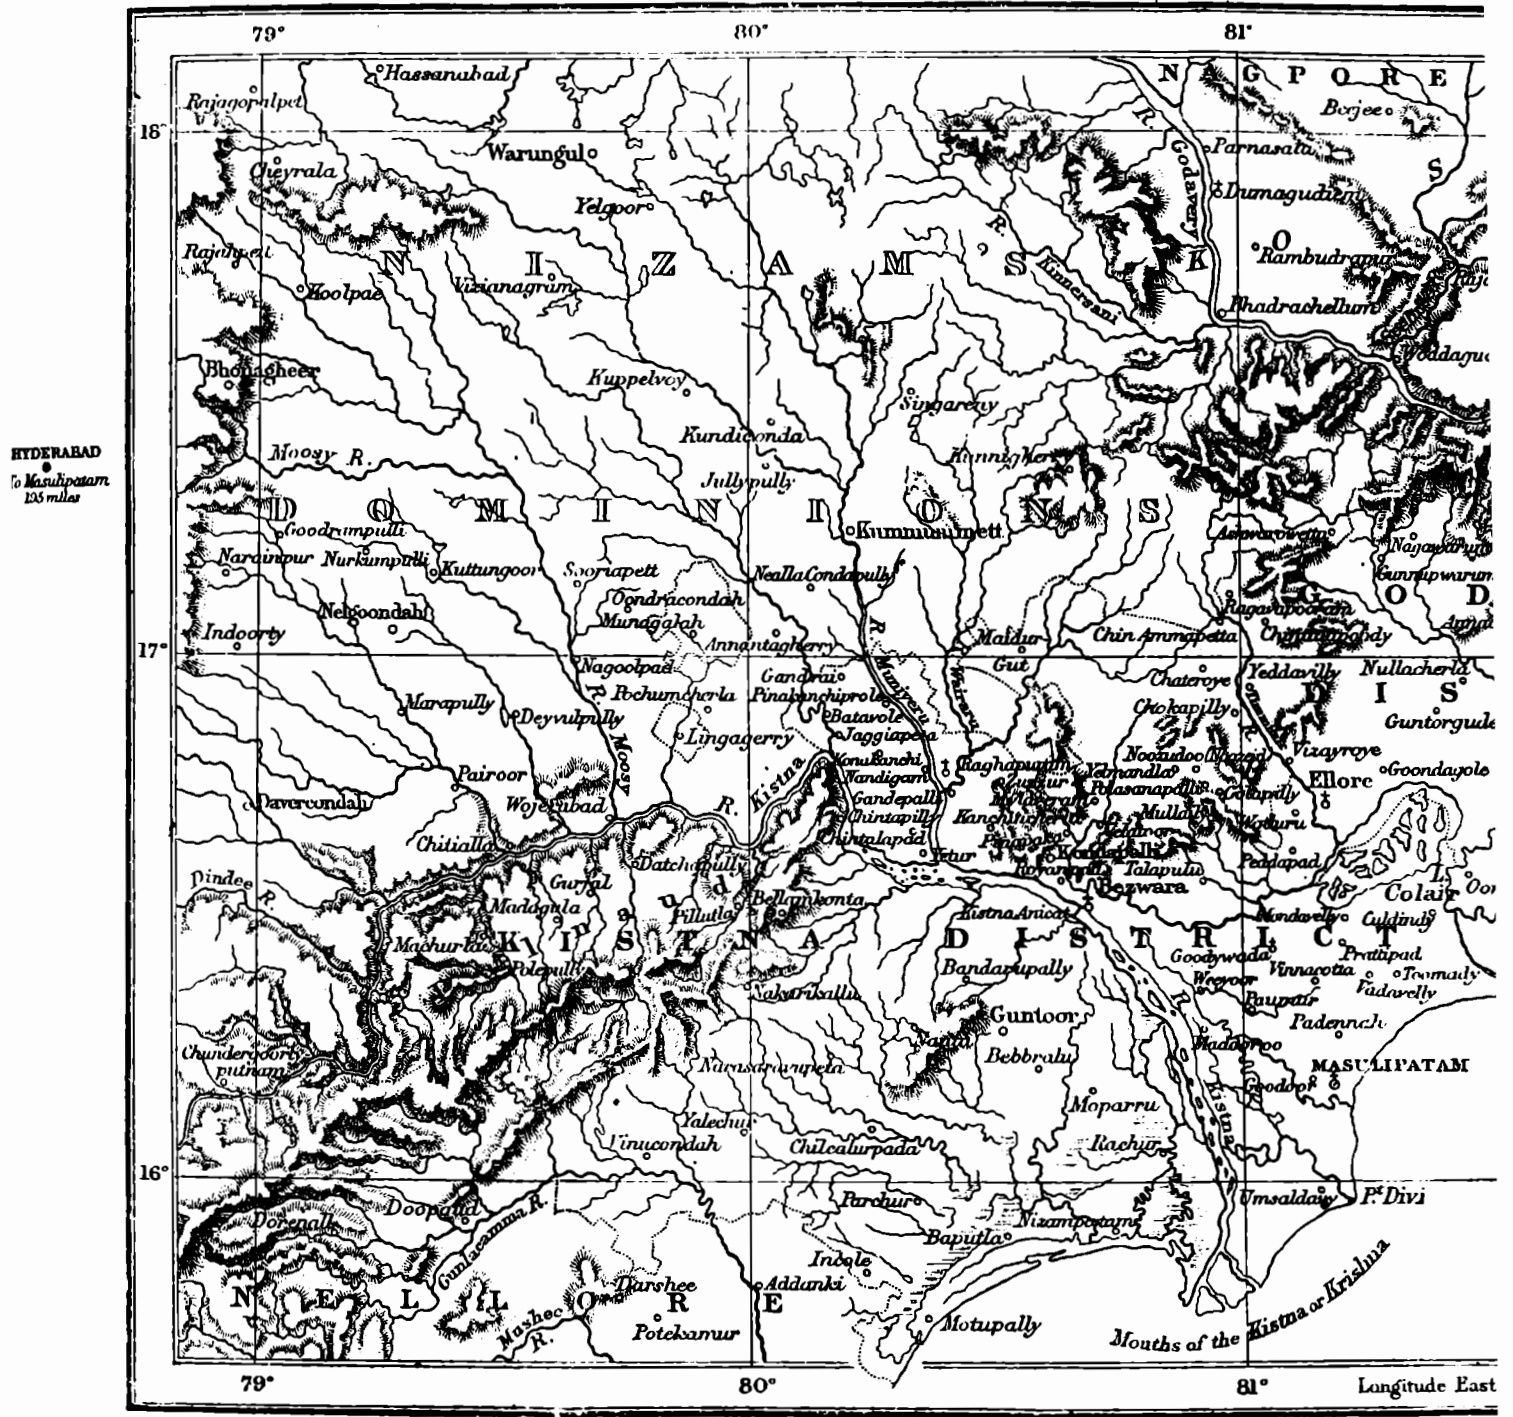

The Rev. F. W. N. Alexander, who is now the Senior Missionary of the Mission, writes:—

We held this year, in Masulipatam, our first session of the Telugu Provincial Council. For a considerable time its organization has been settled, but from the want of district councils in some Telugu of the districts, and from other hindrances, the start has been Provincial delayed. We made a most encouraging beginning. The Native Council. clergy threw themselves earnestly into the movement. The speeches were both practical and interesting. It was no small thing to see Europeans, and [those who had been] Hindu Brahmins, Sudras, and Malas, brought together for the first time into council for the Church of the living God.

MASULIPATAM.

It is a matter of great gratification to the Committee that Mr. Sharp's persevering cries for help at the NOBLE HIGH SCHOOL have at length met with a response from the English Universities; two thoroughly competent Oxford graduates, the Rev. E. N. Hodges, late Tutor at the Church Missionary College, and the Rev. A. W. Poole, having offered themselves for work in connexion with the school, and hoping to go out in the autumn of this present year. The school has suffered, however, from the weakness of the staff. The attendance has fallen from 215 to 194; and while the Government inspectors speak of it as "a model institution" for its order and discipline and excellent appliances, they did not give so favourable a report as to the success of the secular instruction. "Another year," writes Mr. Sharp, "has passed away without a single convert to cheer us." Two young Brahmins high in the school avowed, in October, 1875, their resolution to become Christians; but, subsequently, alas! partly by argument and partly by other influences, they were led to change their minds.

The VERNACULAR TRAINING SCHOOL is for the present conducted by the Rev. W. G. Baker. Thirty-six Native Christians and six Hindus are under training in the Institution as teachers. Attached to it is a Practising School with sixty-five boys, and a School for Mohammedans with seventy-five boys.

By a letter from Mr. Sharp, dated Sept. 19th, 1876, it appears that at that date there were three Mission Schools for Native girls of the higher classes, attended by 120 pupils.

MASULIPATAM DISTRICT.

The Adherents in this district number 1429, the Communicants 153; the corresponding numbers for the preceding year being 1350 and 150. Fifty-two adults were baptized during the year. The Missionary in charge is the Rev. W. Ellington.

In special work among the heathen of the higher castes, Mr. Ellington has been recently assisted by "an excellent colporteur," who is "very successful in getting the caste people to listen to passages from, and to buy portions of, the precious Word."

Mr. Ellington has now six Catechists of Māla descent, whom he is instructing and training for ordination; but many months may elapse before they will be sufficiently prepared.

A section of this district, known in the Mission as the Gudivāda Sub-district, is under the charge of a Native brother, the Rev. A. Bushanam, one of "Noble's converts." The work around Gudivāda is almost entirely among the villages, and the converts gathered in are from the lower heathen castes. From Mr. Bushanam's Annual Letter two interesting extracts are here subjoined:—

Testimony of a heathen to the character of a Native Christian agent.

A sub-catechist and his wife, supported by kind Christian friends in England, are called respectively Amwellbury catechist and schoolmistress. The latter conducts the small vernacular school in the village in which they are stationed, while the former itinerates in its neighbourhood. His work is to preach the Gospel to the heathen, and to prepare the catechumens for baptism. The schoolmistress, as opportunity affords, also instructs the women of the village, and wins their affections by her good manners and lovely disposition. When I was in the village last month, I went out as usual one morning to preach the Gospel to the caste people, and the conversation turned upon the benefit accruing to a man who has a good wife. I told them the careful management of his household affairs, and the good training of the little ones in the house, entirely depend upon the mistress of the house; the master has to look after the work in the fields, but she has to conduct the house properly for the happiness of her husband. I quoted several passages out of that beautiful book, the Proverbs of Solomon. While men and women were listening to my words, a very old man, who has a field close to our catechist's house, stepped forward, and said before all the people, "There is not one woman in this village who is like the wife of your teacher. She is a good woman, and I often hear her singing beautiful Christian songs, and offering up prayers with her children when the husband is absent from home."

With deep regret, for the work's sake, the Committee have to record that just before these pages were printed off, intelligence had been received that Mr. Bushanam has been called away from the scene of his earthly labours to the immediate presence of his Lord and Saviour.

BEZWÂRA.

The Rev. John Harrison is the Missionary of this station. Its statistical returns give 42 Communicants, 762 Adherents, and eight adult baptisms during the year. The corresponding numbers for 1875 were 46, 602, and 31. No special mention is made in Mr. Harrison's very interesting Annual Letter of the spiritual condition of the Native Christians. They have shared with the population generally in the distress caused by the famine.—As regards the extension of the work, Mr. Harrison writes :—

There has been during the last two years much progress and some disappointment. The number of adherents has increased from 603 to 762, and during the same period the baptisms have been 58. Had there been no going back, the number of catechumens would have been 91 more. In 1874, whole villages became Christians, and when I enrolled the names, all insisted on being put down. I always do this with reluctance, knowing that, in a year or so, many will cool down and become careless, and that their names will have to be struck off. Some months ago I struck off 101 names from the various villages. Already ten of those whose names were thus removed have returned. I strike off only the apparently dead branches, i. e. those who cease trying to learn and neglect coming to daily prayers. Glancing at the whole work, however, there is great cause for thankfulness. The religion of Christ has taken a firmer hold, and has spread into many new villages. Indeed, there are eight villages containing many families desirous of enrolling their names, of which I have taken no account in the above figures. They are all to the northward. The most northward town is just on the border and within half a mile of the Nizam's territory. Hitherto a semicircle, with a radius of twenty miles, drawn on the north bank of the Kishna, having Bezwarah as a centre, included all the Christian villages. To travel over all my villages involves a journey of nearly 200 miles.

The villagers are simple people, and show much pleasure at seeing me. In villages where they are not willing to become Christians, they are always willing to listen, and bring a Native bed for me to sit upon, on which they spread a Native white cloth. I begin by getting them all to sit on the ground, and then make a speech to them, or read a passage of Scripture that will enable me to set forth the need and value of the one true religion, pointing out the uselessness of mantrams (charms) and idols, and that only by Christ is heaven attainable, &c. If there are with me one or two agents (which is generally the case), we sing a hymn. When I have finished what I have to say, there follows a conversation, in which I am asked many questions, and many objections are raised. There are often a few who speak in defence of idolatry. The statement that the caste people will take away their living is generally made as an excuse for not becoming Christians; but nearly always the majority agree that what I say is good. The other day one said, "In your religion we cannot tell lies." I said, "No, you must give over telling lies." "That is just impossible," he said; "we cannot give it up." At this point another took up the matter and said, "What nonsense! If you try for two or three months you can give it up. It is easy enough by practice to give over lying. Have not plenty of people become Christians? How did they do?"

RAGHAPURAM.

This district is combined with that of Masulipatam under Mr. Ellington's care. The Adherents number 729, and the Communicants 210; the corresponding numbers for the year 1875 being 665 and 228. The causes of increase in the one case and diminution in the other are not given.

DUMMAGUDEM.

The Rev. John Cain and the Rev. J. V. Razu (a Native brother) are the Missionaries at this station. Mr. Razu is a pure Telugu, and though imperfectly, if at all, acquainted with the English language, is a Native gentleman of high social antecedents, having been engaged in the Public Works' department before and after his conversion, and having received there a higher salary (with excellent prospects of advancement) than he could expect to obtain from any Missionary Society. The Native Christians to whom Mr. Razu ministers are, some of them, Kois, belonging to a distinct nationality, and the rest are of Mâla descent, probably also of a different race from Mr. Razu, and certainly altogether dissimilar in position and habits of life. Mr. Razu is a man of specially manifest Christian character; but it is clear, from what has been written, that his (temporal) relations to his much-loved flock differ in some respects from those in which most of the Society's Native pastors are placed. Mr. Cain thus writes respecting his Native brother:—

There is no need of my saying how thoroughly I appreciate Razu's work, and that there is the closest union between us two, and that whatever hindrances there may be in other parts of India of thorough unity between the European missionary and the Native pastor or missionary, none such exist here.

The Native Adherents connected with Dummagudem number 332, of whom 62 are Communicants. Sixteen adults were baptized during the year. No special account is given of the character and conduct of the little Native Christian community. Respecting the extension of the work Mr. Cain writes :—

Amongst the Mâlas the work promises to extend, more especially as we now have Christians at Injiram, a village in the Nizam's country, forty miles farther down the river on the right or south-western bank. Some comparatively well-to-do Mâlas of that village had been long dissatisfied with their own religion, when they heard of the Christian religion from a visitor, a Christian of Mâla origin, from Dummagudem. During his stay he instructed them as much as he could, and on his departure left with them some Christian books, which one of them could just manage to read. By these means they learnt the elements of Christian truth, and were satisfied that Christ is "the Way, the Truth, and the Life." Some of them came to Dummagudem and asked for baptism; this, of course was postponed, and we sent them away with a Christian teacher to instruct them more fully in "the faith." After some time longer, Razu visited the village, and, finding that they had made good progress in Christian doctrine, and had withstood every temptation from their own village superiors and from the caste people for miles around, baptized ten adults and four children in the Godavari, which flows close by their village. A Christian reader (supported by the Walter Jones Fund) and a young teacher are now living in their midst; and the work promises to spread in the villages on the British or north-eastern side, lying between Dummagudem and Injiram, more especially in those villages which have been most regularly visited in past years.

ELLORE.

The statistics of Ellore for the year 1876 are as follows :—Adherents, 846; Baptized, 528; and Communicants, 103. The corresponding numbers for 1875 were—Adherents, 733; Baptized, 392; and Communicants, 76. The Missionaries of the station are the Rev. F. W. N. Alexander and the Rev. A. Morgan. Mr. Alexander writes :—

You will be glad to hear that the importance of introducing the principle of self-support from the very first in every new congregation is most carefully attended to. As soon as Sunday services begin in any place, we commence an offertory. The inquirers bring their grain in a wicker measure or earthen pot, and this is afterwards sold and applied to the purposes of the Native Church Fund. Besides this, every Christian and inquirer is called upon to give an annual contribution. Some of the older Christians give eight annas, but the average is about four annas per man. The collection of this money is a most difficult task. The people are not unwilling to give, but they are, for the most part, very poor, and depend for their bread on daily labour. A large number do not earn more than two annas a day, and I should say that the majority do not get more than four annas for their day's work. But I do not think the Christians give liberally or freely. I am content, however, to persevere in prayer and effort till the Lord, who is "the Giver of all grace," cause them to abound in this gift also. —We are also attending to the question of self-government. The unit of organization with us is the village Panchayat. A certain number of elders are appointed in each congregation. Weightier matters are decided by sub-committees of the district council meeting in each centre, and appeals go up from these to the district council, which meets, on an average, twice a year in Ellore.

The instruction of the converts is systematically carried out. Progress in this respect is slow, partly from interruptions caused by field work, and partly from want of intelligence in the bulk of our male converts. It takes a long time to teach them a few verses of the Bible, or to give them the outlines of a Scripture story : but still they do learn, "here a little and there a little," words which make wise unto salvation, and I humbly believe that a large proportion of the converts have received it to the saving of their souls.

The Bishop has ordered us to begin ordination classes for the best of our catechists. The necessity of preparing Native pastors for the Telugu mission is, I believe, of pressing importance. Though the Ellore district is more compact than any other in the mission, the adherents, 846 in number, being contained within twenty-nine villages, and the farthest village being only twenty-five miles from head-quarters, yet it has already become impossible to give proper ministerial services to them all within anything like a reasonable time. Had we Native pastors properly trained, and then ordained, we could leave to them the ministration of the Word and Sacraments, and go ourselves more frequently to the recent converts and to "the regions beyond."

Three new villages were occupied this year. One of these is a Chaklar (leather-workers) village, and as there have been few accessions from this caste in our mission as yet, I am specially glad to have fruit from amongst them as from among other Gentiles. The Chaklar converts have had to give up their enam (i.e. glebe) fields, and other remunerations connected with their employment as village servants. I see every indication of large accessions from the Mâla caste. They are coming now quicker than we can properly receive them. I do not see any stir whatever among the caste people.

ander has six others supported by the Walter Jones Fund.

The Rev. A. Morgan, who has charge of the Anglo-Vernacular Schools of the Ellore district, writes as follows :—

The chief point of interest within the last year has been the introduction of two more Christian boys into the Anglo-Vernacular Schools. You may remember that a little more than three years ago (Oct. 1873), two Christian boys were passed up from one of the preparatory schools to the A. V. School, when one of the teachers, and all the Hindu boys (with the exception of one or two) left our school, and formed themselves into a school of their own. Since that time my predecessors gradually worked up our school again to its former standing in numbers; and it has been my privilege to see the downfall of the rival school, and the return to us of many more boys. Now, after the inspector's last examination, two other Christian boys requested admission to our A. V. School. I was a little afraid that a similar result as in 1873 might follow their admission. But such was not the case. The principle of non-recognition of caste in our schools appears to be understood; and now the four Christian boys in different classes are sitting side by side with those heathen boys who three years ago turned their backs upon us and left us. They look over the same books, lend each other their pens, &c., if wanted, and sit close to each other. The four Christian boys are very intelligent, standing high in their classes; while one of them has gained the second scholarship, although the class numbers twenty boys. The A. V. School now numbers 144 boys, including both Hindus and Mohammedans—the Hindus being a little superior in numbers. I have sent up for the Matriculation Examination six boys.

Mission

I regret to say we have had no conversions in our schools; and at times there is but little to encourage one. But we know the promise that God's Word shall not return to Him void; and on this we rest in all our work. For the last few Sundays I have been most pleased to see some eight or ten young men from my highest class, and from the Government offices, attending our English service in the church. They appear to be very attentive, and remained throughout the whole service.

Besides our Anglo-Vernacular School there are, under my charge, two branch schools, containing 160 and 110 boys respectively. All three schools show a large increase in numbers as compared with the past year.

It is my earnest prayer that the coming year may be richly blessed in the conversion of some of our boys.

Mrs. Morgan has interesting work among the girls of the upper classes, ninety-five girls attending her school, with prospect of continued increase.

CEYLON MISSION.(Commenced 1817.)

I. Colombo and Cotta. II. Baddegama. III. Bandy.
IV. Jaffna.

THE Society's Ceylon Mission has been, it is well known, the occasion of much anxiety during the year just concluded. The Committee have felt called upon to make, on behalf of their Native Christian brethren and of the Society's Missionaries, a resolute stand for simplicity of worship and purity of doctrine, as well as for the constitutional rights of presbyters and laymen connected with the Church of England.¹ The Committee have received from many of the larger Associations in England, and from the Irish Auxiliary, as well as from valued individual friends, distinct and warm expressions of sympathy and approval; and they are assured at the same time they may rely on the prayers of members and friends of the Society generally that those who have to deal with the question may be endued with needful wisdom and firmness and patience, so that all may result in the glory of God and the furtherance of His truth. "We are thankful to be able to report," write the Missionaries at their last annual Conference, "that, notwithstanding untoward events, advance and improvement, to an unprecedented degree, have attended our labours. The number of attendants at public worship has increased by 1193. The Communicants are 280 more than last year [an increase of more than one-fifth]. There have been 126 adult baptisms; and we have at present on our lists the names of 471 adult candidates for baptism. The subscriptions from Native Christians amount to Rs. 13,442, which is Rs. 1417 more than last year. The Tamil Cooly Mission statistics show an addition of fifteen catechists—forty now as against twenty-five last year—and a large increase in the local subscriptions. Native evangelists, unsupported by foreign aid, have greatly extended our borders, and awakened a spirit of inquiry in large numbers of heathen. Our schools—in particular the Collegiate School in Kandy—have added to the number of our converts. Opposition and persecutions have also been met with. Several individuals at different stations have been called on to suffer for Christ's sake."

The Committee cannot but join with their Ceylon brethren in thanking the Great Shepherd and Bishop of souls for comforting His servants in the midst of their trials with such manifest tokens of His presence and blessing.

COLOMBO.

THE English-speaking congregation of Christ Church, Galle Face, was ministered to by the Rev. J. I. Jones until the close of 1876, when he was brought home by Mrs. Jones's failing health. The Rev. Henry Newton, A.M., then Incumbent of Portarlinton, Ireland, had previously offered himself, and had been gladly accepted by the Committee, for the vacant post. Mr. Newton reached Colombo in January, 1877, and entered on the work immediately.

The Rev. W. E. Rowlands has charge of the Tamil Branch. Nine adults have been baptized during the year; but owing to migrations the number of Native Christian Adherents has declined from 808 to 797, and that of Communicants from 161 to 153. Mr. Rowlands, whose annual letter, as will be perceived from the extracts hereunder subjoined, gives its usual indications of vigorous and thorough work, reports as follows:—

Voluntary efforts of Colombo Native Christians. The Slave Island Congregation (which you are aware is our largest) has been very much tried. Within twelve months its pastors have been four times changed. . . . One of the most pleasing circumstances in connexion with the Slave Island congregation has been the formation of a new Sunday-school by a few Christian young men, who have carried it on regularly and perseveringly, have taught the children, several of whom are heathens, a great deal of Scripture truth (as I can testify from occasional examinations), and have encouraged their attendance by monthly presents of little books, &c., paid for frequently out of their own pockets. The average attendance at this little school has been twenty-two.

Despite many migrations amongst the residents at Marandâna, Haltsdorp, and Mutwal [suburbs of Colombo], the congregations in those parts of the town have kept up well; and at the two latter places afternoon services have been commenced and very fairly attended. In the month of April I placed a catechist at Galkissa, a southern suburb of Colombo, to look after the Christians living there. This Catechist also works along the Galle Road—from the third to the ninth mile from Colombo—and preaches regularly to the coolies on Mr. Soysa's cinnamon estates.

In respect to Native contributions, the year just ended has been the best we have ever had; not that the receipts on account of the Native Pastor's Fund have been unusually large, for they have only exceeded the sum raised last year by less than Rs. 5. But, in addition to this, further subscriptions have been received towards various special objects, making a total of Rs. 875 : 46, or an advance of Rs. 100 upon the receipts of any previous year. Then there has been a substantial help in another way by means of the Tamil C.M.S. Juvenile Association, in connexion with which Native boys and girls have collected (partly from Natives and partly from Europeans) Rs. 192 : 20. This sum, if added, will bring our collections during the year to Rs. 1067 : 66.

Adult Baptisms in Colombo. There have been nine adult baptisms. Two of those who have come forward and confessed Christ are Jaffna young men, both fairly educated. One of them is now a post-holder at Anurâdapura. His father is a most determined Sivite, and altogether opposed to his son's becoming a Christian.—Another man, a native of India, a mason, about twenty-five years old, has cheered us very much by his consistent conduct hitherto. He was led to desire baptism, partly through the influence of a Christian young man in whose compound he lives, and partly through having read the New Testament for some time by himself. He was baptized in February last, and ever since has not only been most regular in attending all means of grace, but has evinced an earnest desire for more spiritual instruction; and his countenance shows plainly enough the happiness that instruction has brought to his heart. Soon after his baptism he placed in our boarding-school the heathen girl to whom he was affianced, and he has paid her school-fees regularly from his own earnings. God willing, she, too, is to be baptized next Easter Sunday.

Perhaps it is as much with regard to schools as anything that we have reason to feel encouraged. We began the year with six schools, and have now ten, and, with two or three exceptions, they have been very satisfactory. When I wrote my last Annual Letter, our new boys' boarding-school was in course of erection. By the end of March it was sufficiently completed to allow of bringing the boys into it, and it has now for some time been in thorough working order. Dormitory accommodation limits our number of pupils to forty, and we have for several months had thirty-nine. The conduct of all the boys, as well as the improvement in most of them, has been satisfactory. The girls' boarding-school, too, has been fuller this year than during any previous one. The average attendance has been twenty-two, and lately the number has been twenty-five, which is as many as we can take in. In both boys' and girls' boarding-schools there are some children from heathen families; and we feel not a little thankful for the opportunity of teaching them—as we can so well do in a boarding-school—those precious truths which are “able to make them wise unto salvation.” Mrs. Rowlands and I had long wished to do something for the good of the little Mohammedan girls of Colombo; and with a view to this we opened, a few months ago, three new schools in different parts of the town, which, through God's blessing, have not proved unsuccessful. Into each of them, some Mohammedan girls have been admitted (as well as Hindus and Roman Catholics); and in one of them—situated at Mutwal—there were no less than fifteen Moor girls (out of a total of twenty-nine on the list) on the 30th September.

Efforts for
medans in Colombo.

Our work at Negombo, ten miles north of Colombo, and upon the neighbouring estates has been carried on at some disadvantage, in consequence of a necessary change of catechists.—At Galle there has been decided progress. The catechist stationed there has, I believe, done his best; and on two occasions when I visited Galle, for the purpose of inspecting our work there, a nice and attentive little congregation met for service.

The Committee deplore the loss (by death) of the pastor of the Singhalese congregation in Colombo, the Rev. C. Jayasinha, for many years a faithful agent of the Society; and one of the very earliest of the Society's ordained Native labourers. Mr. Jayasinha was called to his rest in November, 1876.

COTTA.

In the Cotta district the number of registered Adherents is 780. This is a decline of nearly 200 from the numbers given in the Report for 1872-3. If the change arises from greater strictness in reckoning or in discipline, it is a matter of satisfaction. It arises partly also from the cause referred to below in Mr. Dowbiggin's annual letter, the removal of Native Christians from the Cotta districts to settle in other parts of the island. A noted Buddhist opponent of the gospel seems to have made the Cotta district the special object of his attack. It does not appear, however, that any professing Christians have been drawn aside by his controversial efforts. The absence of adult baptisms will be observed. There are, however, several candidates, who, it was hoped at the date of the annual letters, would very shortly be admitted into the visible Church. The Communicants have not fallen off, the numbers being 158 for 1872, and 160 for 1875. In contributions for religious purposes there has been an advance from 75*l.* to 113*l.* The Rev. R. T. Dowbiggin, who is the chairman of the Cotta Church Council, reports of the whole district as follows :—

Attach-
the Cotta
Native
Christians to the Church
Society.

I would prefer to be silent on this occasion in order that I may not refer to painful subjects, but if I write at all I must refer to them. Our time, thoughts, and energies have been engaged in a struggle for existence, as it were, instead of being used against the host of heathenism which surrounds us. I am thankful to say that, to a man, the people of this district have clung to "the traditions which they have been taught," and are determined to stand by the Society which has laboured in their midst for upwards of half a century.

Longing
after increase of spiritual life among the Cotta
Christians.

1. Pastoral Work.—With reference to the whole district, a most cheering feature to my mind is a very general feeling among the pastors and most influential laymen that the tone of spirituality amongst us is too low, and this has led to much earnest prayer and diligent effort to bring about an improvement in this respect. When we feel our coldness, and long for life and warmth, it is, I think, an indication that God is about to bless us, and this stirs us up to "inquire for it" (Ezekiel xxxvi. 37.) The number of Christians in the district does not seem to increase; but the cause is not far to seek. It is not that conversions do not take place; but it is owing in a great measure to the fact that most of our young people, who, by our means, are brought to the knowledge of the truth, move out into the world to obtain a livelihood. In this way Colombo, Kandy, Gampola, Kurunaegala, and other places number on their lists those who were both naturally and spiritually born in Cotta. This the Lord will remember "when He writeth up the people."

2. In the Liyanwela district, mission-work has now been carried on for about three years in connexion with the Cotta Native Church Missionary Association. As yet no adult baptisms have taken place; but spiritual fruit has been manifest. A Christian family who was found living there has, by God's blessing, been brought to live a higher Christian life; and the youngest son especially, who three years ago scarcely knew the mere elements of Christianity, is now the brightest and most spiritually-minded of the family, and is most diligent in the study of God's Word and in his efforts to make known the Gospel amongst the villagers. There are also those who are inquiring the way to Zion with their faces thitherward. These, who are young people, six in number, have lately had their sincerity severely tried; and I am glad to say that they have stood firm and acted up to their convictions. About a mile from Liyanwela a great Buddhist festival has been held, to which, except the Christians and Catechumens, every man, woman, and child in the village went and made offerings of flowers, food, or money. These six young people—three men and three women—were also urged to attend and make their offerings. In some instances threats were made of personal violence if they did not go; but not one of them went, and the consequence is that they are now marked out for persecution, reproach, and insult. May the God of all grace give them strength to endure the trial, that they may come forth as silver purified seven times in the fire! [A more recent letter from Mr. Dowbiggin states that on the 8th of April, 1877, six converts were baptized at Liyanwela.]

Effects of the evangelistic efforts of a Native Missionary Society.

3. Of Educational Work I must enter into particulars that you may form some idea of what we are doing in this district. The schools number forty-one, of which nineteen are boys' and twenty-two are girls' schools. The total number under instruction in all classes of schools is 2269—of girls 940, and boys 1329.

The Cotta English School is, upon the whole, very satisfactory, and with the grant-in-aid from Government is self-supporting. Compared with 1870, the number of boys has more than doubled. In 1870 there were 58, and now there are 122 boys on the list, with an average attendance of upwards of ninety. The school was examined for a grant-in-aid by the Inspector of Schools, September 7th, who reported:—"A remarkably good examination in every particular." I am glad also to be able to report that twenty-one boys wish to become candidates for baptism, some of whom are already under instruction. The knowledge of the Scriptures is very good throughout the school, and some boys show a real pleasure and willingness to learn the Scripture lessons. The boarding establishment in connexion with this school has also been satisfactorily conducted during the year. There are now twenty-eight boarders, varying from nine to sixteen years of age. One is the son of a Cotta pastor, another the son of a Baptist minister, three are sons of C.M.S. catechists, five are sons of Kandians, and of the whole number eight are Buddhists. Every attention has been paid to the religious instruction of the boarders, and the master in charge reports that two boys, sons of a Roman Catholic, having seen the errors of Romanism, have become Protestants. Two Kandians have openly professed their belief in Christianity, and are being prepared for baptism. The total of money paid by the boarders as fees was Rs. 1949 : 75, which, after paying all expenses, left a balance of Rs. 454 : 65, which was placed to the credit of the English School.

The Girls' Boarding-school has been carried on as usual and with much of the success which has attended us in former years. I gladly report good conduct, satisfactory progress in their studies, and, thank God, very good health among the children. Fees to the amount of Rs. 1064 : 21 was received during the year, and, as heretofore, no expense was incurred by the C.M.S. At the present time (December) there are forty girls in the school, five of whom were confirmed in February last, and there are two more candidates for that rite and four for baptism. As it is remarked by every visitor to the school, I would allude to the singing of the children, which is certainly far superior to that of any other Sinhalese children in the island.

4. Preparandi Institution.—I think I may safely say that a marked improvement is manifest in almost every branch of the work carried on in the institution. The missionaries appointed by the Conference also report improvement in the way the students passed the examination in December and July last. I quite feel, as it is remarked by the examiners, that there is plenty of room for improvement. The students spend six hours a day in class, and, as the number of subjects is very large, the work is heavy, and necessitates diligent preparation for the various lectures. As last year, the students have conducted services on Sundays, and gone to Colombo on Wednesdays to preach with the catechists at the Court-house and in the streets. I am glad to say that Mr. Jones reports improvement in their manner and matter when preaching.

The reports of the Native Pastors (Rev. H. De Silva, Rev. D. Jayasinha, and Rev. H. Kannangâr) indicate fidelity and diligence; but, for the most part, they contain nothing that specially claims insertion in these pages. As powerfully correcting, however, the erroneous notion that the principle of self-support should not be introduced on the first admission of Native Christians into the visible Church, the following remarks of the Rev. D. Jayasinha are worthy of note:—

Had not the faulty system of dependence on a foreign Society occupied its place for so long a time, the independence of the Native Church would have been established many years ago. Christianity is looked upon by the heathens as a religion professed by its adherents, not for the sake of the salvation of their souls, but merely for the sake of worldly honour and emolument. The wrong idea which the heathen entertain about Christianity will remain as a stumbling-block for advancement of the Gospel of Christ among them, so long as the Native Christians lean upon the Society. But when the Native Christians are grown in the grace of God, and lean upon the Divine Head rather than on European resources, and seek for human aid rather from themselves than from a foreign Society, then will not only the wrong idea which has so long existed in the minds of the heathen vanish away, but also the Native Church may exercise a powerful attraction on the heathen population by which it is surrounded. As when a mother has kept her child in her arms, not allowing him to exercise his limbs, he will not be able to walk for a long time without the help of the mother, so the C.M. Society will have to lay hold of the Native Christians by the hand for some years, until they become able to walk alone. But in new missions and infant congregations self-support is more easily introduced than in those where the Native Christians have been long accustomed to lean upon the Society. There is reason to expect that in the rising generation it may easily be introduced—for instance, the boys and girls who are still living at home are forward to contribute for the support of their pastor, and for the evangelizing of the heathens around them. This may be verified by referring to Mr. Dowbiggin's report of the evangelistic work carried on in Hêwâgam and Raigam Corles, and to the amount of help received from those infant congregations towards the support of the catechists stationed in that district.

II. Baddêgama.

Baddêgama, commenced 1819; Bentot, 1861.

Rev. John Allcock (m), 1864.

BADDÊGAMA.

THE Rev. J. Allcock returned to this station, after two years' stay in England, early in the year 1876. Writing under date 30th November, 1876, Mr. Allcock reports:—

During the two years that I was away in England, there was not a single conversion from heathenism. I have brought this fact to the notice of the representatives of the congregations in the Church Council, the agents, and the Native Christians. I for my part feel very ashamed and humiliated.

Revival of the work at Baddêgama.

We began a daily prayer-meeting at Baddêgama on the day I arrived, and it has, by God's grace, been continued ever since. The average attendance has been twelve. The daily text on the Tract Society's almanack is always made the subject of the address. The Lord has graciously heard our prayers, and given His Holy Spirit to those that asked Him.—God has given us another evangelist to occupy a new out-station at Elpitiya, in the interior, about fifteen miles from Baddêgama. Some promising inquirers and candidates for baptism have already been gathered together. By the kind help of Christian friends at Holbrook, Suffolk, I have been enabled to open a boys' and a girls' school at a village about four miles north-west of Elpitiya, to which about sixty boys and girls have been attracted. Both master and mistress are well-trained faithful Christians. The mistress was taught in Baddêgama Girls' School, and has done much to win her father, mother, and four sisters to Christ. Her father and mother were baptized this year in Baddêgama Church, at the venerable age of seventy.—At Dodanduwa, one of our members has been blest in bringing a whole family to Christ. The husband was formerly addicted to drink. He is now, thank God, a new man; and I hope to baptize his wife and three children next Sunday.—Another zealous Native Christian at Kosgoda has also been much blessed. I baptized what I may call his first-born son in the faith a few weeks ago. Through his confession of Christ there are six fresh inquirers, one of them a Buddhist priest. A boys' school has been opened at Kosgoda, which is attended by thirty children, including his own boy and girl. I asked our Native brother one day how his eyes were opened. He replied that eight or nine years ago, D. A. and H. G. were preaching in the street of Kosgoda. He was then a leader of the enemies of Christ, and did everything in his power, by abuse and cavilling, to hinder the preaching of the Gospel. When the evangelists returned home, he followed them, and stood listening outside the room; and, to his astonishment, he heard them praying for those who hated them and despitefully used them. He had never seen such charity to all men, such meekness and forgiveness before. He did not there and then profess Christ; but the exhibition of such a Gospel spirit has been fixed upon his memory ever since.

An in-
conversion.

I have admitted twenty-eight into the visible Church by baptism since my return, most of them adults. They are the fruit of both evangelistic labours and school-teaching. The evangelistic work has been carried on by seven catechists and readers, with myself. One is stationed at BADDÊGAMA; one at Môpa-lagama, eighteen miles east; one at Dodanduwa, six miles west; one at Balapitiya, fourteen miles north-west; one at Bentat, twenty-eight miles north-west; one at Elpitiya, fifteen miles north; one at Kitulampitiya, ten miles south. I reckon that there are not less than 100,000 heathen in this district. We have embraced every opportunity of proclaiming the Gospel by the waysides and in the police-courts of Galle, Balapitiya, and Elpitiya. In this way many thousands of heathen have heard the Word of Christ. As a rule, we have not met with much opposition, but much attentive listening.

There is one thing which calls for humiliation and prayer. Our evangelistic Christian workers are only very few. There are still many Christians who have unbelieving wives, husbands, brothers, sisters, kindred, servants, and children; and who yet show no signs of great heaviness and continual sorrow, and of wishing that themselves were accursed for Christ, for their brethren, their kindred according to the flesh.

In 1870 there were eleven schoolmasters and 9 mistresses, 242 boys and 215 girls, and 11 schools; 140 Native Christians, and 64 Communicants. Our returns this year show 14 schoolmasters, 20 mistresses, 740 boys, 623 girls; 374 Native Christians, and 146 Communicants.

THE Rev. H. Gunasêkara, as chairman of the Kandy Singhalese Church Council, reports as follows:—

The districts now connected with the Kandy Singhalese Church

Council are KANDY (the town), the suburbs of Katukaelê and Gaetaembê, Gampola, Nâwalapitiya and Pussellâwa, and Kurunaegala. I carry on the work in the town of Kandy, the Rev. Bartholomew Pîris Wîrasinha has charge of Katukaelê and Gaetaembê, a catechist is placed at Gampola, and another catechist works at Kurunaegala.

The congregation in the town of KANDY worships at Trinity Church. It numbers 167 adults and children, and 37 Communicants. Pastoral work is carried on by means of Sunday and weekday services in the church, by a Bible-class for young men on Sundays, by prayer-meetings in houses, and by pastoral visits to Christian families. Evangelistic work is carried on by preaching in the streets and the veranda of the Police Court-house on weekdays, and in the Gaol on Sundays, and also by the instruction of candidates for baptism. Besides these ordinary ways of setting the Gospel before Christians and heathens, a series of special services were held for a period of six nights successively, and the Gospel was preached to a number of people, the great majority of whom were Christians. The money received into the Church Fund from this congregation has been Rs. 1716 : 96.

As regards the work at Katukaelê and Gaetaembê, the means employed to bring the Gospel before the people are the same as at Kandy. Mr. Pîris reports a slight improvement in attendance at Divine Service and in pecuniary subscriptions. The total number of members of the congregation at Katukaelê is ninety-four; the number of Communicants is seventeen. The congregation at Gaetaembê numbers thirty-five adults and twenty-seven children. The number of communicants is twelve. Two adults were baptized at Katukaelê and one at Gaetaembê. The total amount of money received from both these districts into the Church Fund is Rs. 464 : 50.

The work at Gampola, Nâwalapitiya, and Pussellâwa suffered somewhat from the death of Mr. Simon Dias, the catechist, in May last, who was very earnestly working there. The work amongst the Christians in these towns has been carried on in the same manner as in Kandy and Katukaelê. As the result of preaching in the villages, the present catechist mentions two cases of hopeful inquirers—one a Romanist, and the other a Buddhist. The general characteristic of the people he describes to be great apathy to the concerns of the soul. Three adults have been baptized at Gampola, and eight candidates for baptism are reported.

At the town of Kurunaegala the influence which the C.M.S. agents had over the congregation is, I am afraid, gradually declining. Most of the influential and well-to-do members have promised to subscribe monthly towards the salary of the English chaplain. However, the subscriptions promised to us are still paid. A catechist is working here, who has more evangelistic work than he can well overtake.

It is to be remarked that the Missionary in charge of the itinerating work must necessarily superintend the work of the catechists here and at Gampola, &c., as their duties at present are both evangelistic and pastoral. Although these catechists draw their salary from the Church Council, it does not and cannot superintend their work.

For some time no independent lay representatives from either Gampola or Kurunaegala have attended the Council. This will show you that the Church Council system is not working as it should.

A higher standard of piety than is seen now among our people is greatly to be desired. Considering the position, means, and influence of the members, especially of my own congregation, I have greatly to deplore that there is not more energy and activity and interest in endeavouring to spread a knowledge of the Gospel and gain converts from heathenism. If there were, by the blessing of God, more faith, earnestness, and zeal amongst the members of my congregation than seen at present, they would surely be a blessing to the whole of the Kandyan country. These remarks apply also to Gampola, and in a still greater degree to Kurunaegala.

In another letter Mr. Gunasêkara states that the members of his own congregation had established an Anglo-Vernacular Mission School at their own expense.

The Tamil congregation at Kandy was under the pastoral care of the Rev. J. Peter. In February, 1877, Mr. Peter disconnected himself from the Society. No special event or incident is to be recorded in connexion with it.

SINGHALESE ITINERANCY.

The Singhalese Itinerancy is now divided into two parts; the Eastern conducted by Mr. Coles, with his head-quarters at KANDY; and the Western under the charge of Mr. Unwin, who resides at KAEGALA. Mr. Unwin was appointed to Kaegala by the Conference in January, 1876. The whole number of Native Christian Adherents connected with the Itinerancy is 1135. These being mostly new converts or Catechumens, it is less surprising that only 102 of the whole number are Communicants. Mr. Coles writes as follows:—

In this Itinerancy there are 22 congregations, being an increase of 4 during the year; 46 adults and 22 infants have been baptized; 67 catechumens are preparing for baptism, and we have 184 inquirers on our lists who are receiving instruction in the cardinal doctrines of Christianity. The number of schools is 36, attended by 1097 children, showing an increase of 12 and 300 respectively; and the total subscriptions have been Rs. 4514, of which Rs. 2900 were received from Native Christians.

It has already been mentioned in the extract given above from Mr. Gunasêkara's report that the Catechist at Kurunaegala, though receiving his pay from the Kandy Church Council, is necessarily under the superintendence of the European Itinerant Missionary. The Talampitiya district (mentioned below) is in the neighbourhood of Kurunaegala. Mr. Coles writes:—

A wealthy and munificent Native Christian.

In the North-Western Province, and principally in its chief town, Kurunaegala, much work has been done, in which the Catechist has taken the most prominent part. He is much esteemed by the people. The Christian community at Kurunaegala still liberally subscribe towards our work, and assist and encourage the catechists and teachers in various ways. There have been twelve baptisms in the town, and Rs. 400 have been given by the people there. At Munamali, twelve miles to the west of Kurunaegala, the work commenced last year has made good progress; a school has been built and furnished by the Native gentleman who pays also the salary of the mission agent, and five adults have been baptized. This gentleman takes a great interest in the work there, and he went with his family to be present on the first occasion when baptism was administered. The school is also very successful, and the children show an unusual amount of interest in religious matters. Another school has been opened, and is supported by another Native Christian, twenty miles to the north of Kurunaegala.

Answer to prayer in the de-

The churches in the Talampitiya district show, however, the most life and vigour. The Native evangelists of Talampitiya have laboured most diligently in the country all around with the most encouraging results. They have succeeded in forming two new centres of Christian instruction, and about 100 persons are now regularly taught by them. Thirty-five persons have been baptized, and many more are now preparing for baptism. Our Christians here were falsely accused of assault on a petty Government official. It was decided that the charge should be heard in the Supreme Court, in Kandy, and this was done on March 21st. We were apprehensive that possibly they might have to suffer even as evil-doers, because the false might be accepted as the true. Much prayer, however, was offered to God, that He might deliver His people from the hand of their enemies, and this He answered far beyond our greatest expectations. The case was tried before an English jury, who perceived at once that it was a conspiracy against the Christians, and, as far as they were concerned, completely false. They therefore addressed the judge and said that no defence was necessary, and that they were unanimous as to the innocence of the Christians. The latter were then acquitted, and our joy and thankfulness can be better imagined than described.

In the Anurâdapûra district we have considerably extended our operations, and in one portion of it, the extreme north, with much success. The catechist located there has worked most untiringly, and the people have appreciated his labours, carried on through many difficulties. Several new schools have been opened, and there is a good number of catechumens.

In the town of Kandy itself missionary operations have been carried on by preaching in the streets, prison, hospital, and bazaar preaching-room, which is now well furnished for this purpose. Mr. Gunasêkara, a catechist, and one or two students from the COLLEGIATE SCHOOL, assist very much in this work ; and we all feel that we have reason to be thankful for the attention that is generally paid to the Word of God, especially in the prisons. Here a good number of persons have declared that they are determined to become Christians, and have received instruction separately for baptism. In the streets of Kandy our audiences are still large, and generally attentive. Sometimes one or two amongst the crowd wish to commence a discussion, but almost invariably the majority present wish us to continue our discourses, and ask the would-be disputants to desist from their attempts.

Mr. Unwin writes :—

The post assigned to me by our Conference in January last was a portion of the Kandyan Itinerancy amongst the Sinhalese, making my head-quarters at KAEGALA, a little town lying twenty-three miles to the south-west of Kandy. Kaegala forms the centre of the district known as the Four Korles ; its population (in 1874), was 1197. There is a church here, built by the residents, in which, besides regular Sinhalese services every Sunday, I hold an English service once a fortnight for the benefit of the English-speaking portion of the community. These are chiefly Sinhalese proctors, burghers, &c., with a very few English. I arrange, as far as possible, to give one week to the work in and around Kaegala, and the next to the more distinctly itinerating work in the village districts.—In May, while I was absent in Colombo, from illness, God was enabling a little band of believers in a village six miles from here to stand firm against persecution from their heathen neighbours. In taking up the paper one day in Colombo, I read that the people of a village called Dîwela, indignant that some of their number were wishing to embrace Christianity, had held opposition meetings, when their priests were called upon to read their sacred books. The result was, that one night a lighted torch was applied to the roof of our school (only recently put up by themselves), and a portion was burnt. Happily our schoolmaster there got aid in time, or the whole school would have been burnt. When this took place we had no baptized Christians in the village excepting the schoolmaster and his wife. The Catechumens hardly knew sufficiently the subjects of Christianity to admit of this, though they had entirely renounced Buddhism, and were proving by their conduct their sincere wish to become Christians. There is now (October 30th) a little Christian congregation of seven, including the schoolmaster and his wife; and I have a list of thirteen more who are willing to come under instruction, and some of whom have already made considerable progress in learning the lessons appointed for them.—Another triumph for the cause of Christianity from this district is that a learned Buddhist priest, after having for more than a year past examined more or less secretly the claims of Christianity, came to the determination of casting off his yellow robes prior to putting himself under us for Christian instruction. This he did in the presence of myself, the catechist of this district, and another Kaegala Christian, as we were journeying together towards Talampitiya. He has since gone to the Baddêgama district, to be with the Rev. J. Allcock. It is pleasing to mention, in connexion with this priest, the encouragement and help he received from two of our leading Sinhalese proctors here, to whose houses he was in the habit of going as a pandit in Pali and Elu, and who spoke to him on the subject of Christianity. This event, which took place in the early part of August, made a great stir in Buddhist quarters here, more especially as he was well known for his learning and other qualities.

TAMIL COOLY MISSION.

The Rev. William Clark writes as follows:—

In my last annual letter I called your attention to dangers which were threatening us. In this I have, with a sad heart, and yet with the hope of better things to come, to record the occurrence of those dangers. The year opened with much in the state of the Mission to encourage, notwithstanding the signs and premonitions of difficulties from without. There was a good balance in hand to begin with; new fields had been occupied; the agents were working cheerfully and well; there was reason to anticipate continued support; and Mr. Cavalier was rapidly preparing to enter upon actual duty in the Southern Division. He had passed a creditable examination in an unusually short time, and had only to take priest's orders to enable him to devote his whole time and strength to the work allotted to him. But, ere many months had passed, ominous sounds were heard. The Mission was threatened with absorption, and then, failing that, with destruction. Happily, through God's blessing, that attempt was thwarted. The Mission, however, is by no means in a happy condition. The minds of the converts, though reassured by the admirable resolutions of the Committee, are still, to a large extent, unsettled by uncertainty and anxiety as to the future.

I am very thankful to say that our income has increased by over 200%. ; and we have a larger number of catechists in employ than we had last year. We have, moreover, a large number of supporters among the public. The converts also have been firm, and, except in one instance, have shown no inclination to forsake us. In other respects, too, there have not been many matters calling for correction or anxiety. The machinery of the Mission is working smoothly, and the people are attached to us. Among the heathen we are well and kindly received.

In Mr. Clark's division of the Mission (the Northern District) the statistics were—837 Native Adherents, 195 Communicants, and 22 adult baptisms.

In the Southern District, which is under the charge of the Rev. A. R. Cavalier, the Native Adherents numbered, at the date of the last returns, 636, and the Communicants 157. The adult baptisms during the year were fourteen; and at its close there were 116 adults preparing for baptism, a larger number than in any previous year. The district includes 689 estates, in which are employed about 120,000 coolies. Mr. Cavalier writes:—

To do the evangelistic work of this large district there are at present nineteen catechists, and three others who combine the duties of catechist and schoolmaster. Most of the estates are now visited by them monthly. They ask permission from the resident European superintendent, and, when allowed, preach to the coolies on the parade-ground before or after work. In the evening they visit the coolies in their homes, read to them, and endeavour to explain the Gospel plan of salvation. It is difficult to estimate the results of this work. Large numbers of people are interested, who yet hesitate to take the decided step of becoming Christians; many wish to do so, but are kept back by the influence of relatives. [The fourteen adults baptized during the year, and the 116 catechumens have been already referred to.] There are now 396 adult Christians and 124 children on the list, making a total of 520. During the latter part of the year the attendance at the services has improved very much; but many of the people have long distances to walk; and we have so much heavy rain, that they cannot come regularly. We endeavour to meet the difficulty by holding services in a number of places; and there are now twenty-two small congregations assembling each Sabbath-day in this division. In two districts I think the time has come for placing the congregations under the care of resident ordained pastors. In Dikoya, where there are 167 Christians on the list, divided into four congregations, they have agreed to commence a pastor's fund from the 1st January, and I trust we may be able to raise about Rs. 25 a month. A catechist, whose ordination has been put off owing to our unsettled state, will, I trust, be ordained as the pastor of the district. In Dimbula also we have a congregation which is advancing rapidly, and I hope it will not be long before we are able to give them a pastor.

Our educational work has made decided progress; there are twice as many scholars as at the commencement of the year. We have now twenty schools with 610 scholars. There are several estates on which schools will be commenced as soon as I can find good masters. Indeed, I believe I should now have double the number of schools if I had been able to get the men.

In taking a review of my first year of active missionary work, I find much to call for praise, and can truly say the Lord has been our Helper. We have had trials, and the faith and steadfastness of the Christians have been put to the test. During the early part of the year we had cause for anxiety, and it became evident we were nearing a struggle; but for the last six months our dangers and difficulties have been very great. The peculiar constitution of the Tamil Cooly Mission has been violently assailed; and attempts have been made, not only to drive us from our posts, but also to hand over the care of our Native Christian congregations to teachers of pronounced Ritualistic views. But I am truly thankful that these troubles have not shaken the faith of the Native Christians; and, although there has been held out to them the powerful influence of official favour, there are very few who have departed from the simplicity of the Protestant faith.

The KANDY COLLEGIATE SCHOOL is henceforth to be denominated TRINITY COLLEGE, KANDY; the church (for the Singhalese congregation) in its immediate neighbourhood being called Trinity Church. The upper department of the college will consist of undergraduates of the Calcutta University, some reading for the First Arts Examination and others, having passed that stage, for the B.A. degree. The lower department will be termed the Trinity Collegiate School. The average attendance at the close of 1876 was 106. Further information is given in Mr. Collins's own words, who writes:—

I trust that, though at present you cannot find a graduate in honours to help me, you will kindly bear in mind that one is still needed. With such aid our higher students would increase in number.

The discipline of the school is a very decided advance upon that of former years. Much of this success, I have no doubt, is due to the exertions of our excellent friend Mr. Dunn. . . . A very important point in our present management is that we employ no second-rate teachers. The second master in the lower school is an F.A., and a candidate for the B.A. degree; the third also has just passed his F.A. examination.—A. S., who has been about two years in the school at the Society's expense, and has just passed the Entrance Examination of the Calcutta University, has been remarkably industrious and very conscientious. He obtained, at our last annual examination in September, the prize—books to the value of 2*l.*—kindly given by Mr. Oakley for the best essay on a subject connected with Christian Evidences. The subject was "Evidences of Design in Creation."—I reported last year an interesting case of conversion from Buddhism in this school. I have now another candidate for baptism, in a very intelligent lad from Anurâdapura, an orphan, whose uncle and guardian is president of the Gamsabhâwa (Buddhist Village Society) of that district. I shall probably baptize him in the course of a few weeks.—Our new school-buildings are now to receive an addition in the form of six private rooms for boarders. This is due to the liberality of the Kandian chiefs, who have voted me Rs. 2000 from a surplus fund they had in hand from the money they subscribed towards the Prince of Wales's reception. I shall also, with this help, be able to furnish the upper school with benches, and so convert it also into an excellent public lecture-room. We shall thus be able comfortably to commence a course of (public) Science Lectures—a plan I have long wished to carry out.

JAFFNA.

THE Native Christian adherents connected with the Jaffna Mission and Native Church Council numbered, by the returns for the year just concluded, 767, the number in the preceding year having been 731. There were ten adult baptisms. A small diminution in the number of Communicants, from 305 to 298, may arise from there having been no Confirmation for some time previous to the date to which the returns refer. The contributions from Native Christians amounted to Rs. 1638.

Mr. Simmons, as Chairman of the Jaffna Native Church Council, reports as follows:—

ative ourers
ngers.

(1.) The grace of God has been manifested in the labourers whom He has called to the work.—The Pastors have, I believe, shown themselves approved unto God, workmen that need not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth. They have manifested real interest in leading on their people to greater spiritual attainments; and the means they have used have been in harmony with God's Word and our Protestant Church. Yet even of these I rejoice with trembling, when I see the pleasing but delusive manner in which error is running through the Church even now at our very doors. It is difficult to make men understand the danger of small beginnings, which have a fair appearance, but which, nevertheless, contain the germ of a great departure from spiritual truth.—The Catechists, of whom there are twelve under my superintendence, have also, as a body, given good evidence of being true men. Those who are able to attend the weekly class have shown interest in the study of God's Word, a spirit of prayer, and an evident desire to conform their lives to Scripture teaching. There has been a willingness to enter upon any proposed effort for preaching the Gospel to the heathen.—I would, at the same time, remind friends that God's grace has great obstacles to overcome in the hearts even of the regenerate. . . . The normal state of a Hindu is to be heavily in debt. . . . Caste is a bond which still limits the liberty of God's children. . . . Only two things will effectually eradicate these evils—a great outpouring of the Spirit, or a complete reformation in the national character; the one may be speedy, the other must be slow and gradual.

(2.) The grace of God has been quickening and strengthening the Christians generally. What I have said of the teachers will also apply to the congregations. There has been new life in some, growth in others; the grace of God has had the same obstructions to contend with, but it is conquering in all who have yielded the heart to Christ. I cannot but hope that a goodly number of our Christians have bowed the heart to Him as their Lord and God. Earnest, prayerful efforts have been continued for larger spiritual blessings, and they have not been in vain. The pastors, Mr. Hensman especially, speak of some being revived, and of some growing in knowledge and grace. The best ground for hope arises from the fact that more interest is manifested in the Scriptures. A Native brother says, writing of a village in the district where he labours:—"Many of the mothers here take delight in God's Word. Several, who had ceased reading it daily, now find it a rich pasture for their hungry souls; they can say, 'I do not forget Thy commandments.'"—The liberality of the people has not flagged, except in a few individuals. The CHUNDIKULI congregation has fulfilled its promise, and has paid sufficient for its pastor's salary and house repairs.—I would not forget to mention the Protestant and Evangelical spirit which was called forth this year. The Native independent laymen were the chief movers in the matter; but I would not have our friends forget the weakness of human nature.

among Native
Christians.

(3.) The grace of God has been shown in conversions from heathenism. During the year there have been ten adult baptisms—In KOPAY, 5; NALLUR, 1; Kokoville, 1; CHUNDIKULI, 3.—Of these, eight were learning in some of our schools. In an English school at Kopay, containing about twenty-five lads, six were candidates for baptism. All of them were well instructed in the Bible truth, and all seemed very earnestly to desire to be Christians. We baptized three of them, postponing the baptism of the others for reasons of a family nature. Each of those lads stands alone in a heathen family.—An old heathen man at Chundikuli was baptized. Several of his sons had been converted, but the father remained a bitter opponent to Christianity. He was visited with severe sickness, and by it God bowed his stubborn will; the truth entered his heart, and he has now been walking as a new man for several months.—Another man, a connexion of the same family, has been visited by affliction with like happy results. He was a warder in the jail, and was beaten almost to death by several prisoners. He has been in the hospital for four months; there he has been humbly learning God's Word, and only waits for baptism until he can come to church and publicly confess Christ.—Affliction has been sanctified, also, in a third case. The man was related to quirers in

Christians, and had read the Bible, but had not renounced heathenism. His little boy was seized with cholera. Then his conscience was awakened, and he showed great concern for the child's soul. He prayed very earnestly for the child's salvation and for the pardon of his own sins, and he determined to confess Christ at once. He and his wife have both been very ill; so he has not yet been baptized, but we believe he will remain steadfast.—At a moonlight preaching a young, zealous Sivite was deeply convinced that Jesus was the Saviour. He has not yet openly embraced Christianity, but he is constantly preaching against Sivism and for Christ; his former associates have forsaken him.

The Bishop of Colombo (Dr. Copleston) visited Jaffna in January of the present year, and confirmed 85 Candidates.

Evangelistic Work beyond the Pastorates.

Mr. Simmons writes:—

We have itinerated through Pallai district and several parts of the Vannie [the northern portion of the mainland of Ceylon, lying immediately south of the peninsula of Jaffna]. Sixty-two days have been spent in this special work. We have sold eight Bibles, two Old Testaments, fifty New Testaments, more than 500 single Gospels, and several thousand tracts. The catechist of Pallai says that more than fifty heathen are now reading God's Word, more or less earnestly, and eight or nine of them are under regular instruction. At Pûnaryn there are some hopeful inquirers, who have been stirred up by our itinerating visit there.

Education.

The KOPAY TRAINING INSTITUTION has seven youths in the training class, and eighteen younger boys in the preparatory boarding school.—In the Girls' Boarding School there are 48 students who pay a small fee of 2s. 6d. per month. As the desire for female education increases, the fee may be raised.

All the other schools of the district are under the care of the Rev. D. Wood, who writes as follows:—

The number of English Schools is the same as reported last year, namely, three. They are all conducted without cost to the Society, the income being derived from fees and Government grants-in-aid.

1. The Chandikuli English Seminary.—This school has occupied a great deal of my time and attention. On school-days I have spent four hours and a half in teaching. The subjects taught in the upper school are Holy Scripture, English Grammar, Study of words (Trench), English Literature, Geography, (physical and political), Arithmetic, Euclid, Algebra, Trigonometry, and Latin composition. There has been a slight increase in the numbers, being 266 this year, as against 245 last year.—In June a small class completed the usual course of study. Two of the students in this class were Christians; the others were nominally heathen. I did hope and pray that all might leave the school Christians; but while they profess to believe that Christ is the only Saviour, they shrink from an open profession of Him. This is the case with many others at present in the school.—During the year two lads made an open profession of their faith in Christ by receiving the rite of baptism in the presence of a large number of their school-fellows.—2. The Kokoville English School. Of this school the only thing of special interest to be noticed is the baptism of one of the pupils who had been under instruction for some time. The average daily attendance for the year has been twenty-three.—3. Kopay English School. This school, thanks be to God, has furnished three converts during the year. Mr. Simmons examined them, and remarked that he had never known candidates for baptism better prepared as regards knowledge of Christian truth. I am thankful to say there are others under instruction whose baptism is delayed for a time for family reasons. The number on the list at the close of the year was twenty-eight.

Anglo-Vernacular Schools Mr. Wood does not find to work satisfactorily in the Jaffna district.—In the Vernacular Schools he has introduced some improvements, and has very satisfactory reports of their religious influence. There are numbers of children, of heathen parents, who openly express their desire to be Christians; and in one village “nearly all the boys in the upper classes are asking to be baptized.”

Summary of the Ceylon Mission.

MAURITIUS MISSION.

(Commenced 1856.)

Division of the Mission : 1. Tamil-speaking Coolies (Madras Branch).
2. Bengali and Hindustani-speaking Coolies (Calcutta Branch).

European Mission Establishment.

Ven. Archdeacon Stephen Hobbs (m), to South India, 1839 ; to Mauritius, 1856 : at home.

Rev. Frederick Schurr (m), to Bengal, 1845 ; to Mauritius, 1874.

Rev. Paul Ansorgé (m), to Bengal, 1845 ; to Mauritius, 1857.

Rev. Nigel Honiss (m), to South India, 1860 ; to Mauritius, 1876.

Rev. Henry Dison Buswell (m), to Ceylon, 1862 ; to Mauritius, 1866.

Rev. William Bartlett Chancellor (m), to East Africa, 1873 ; to Seychelles, 1874.

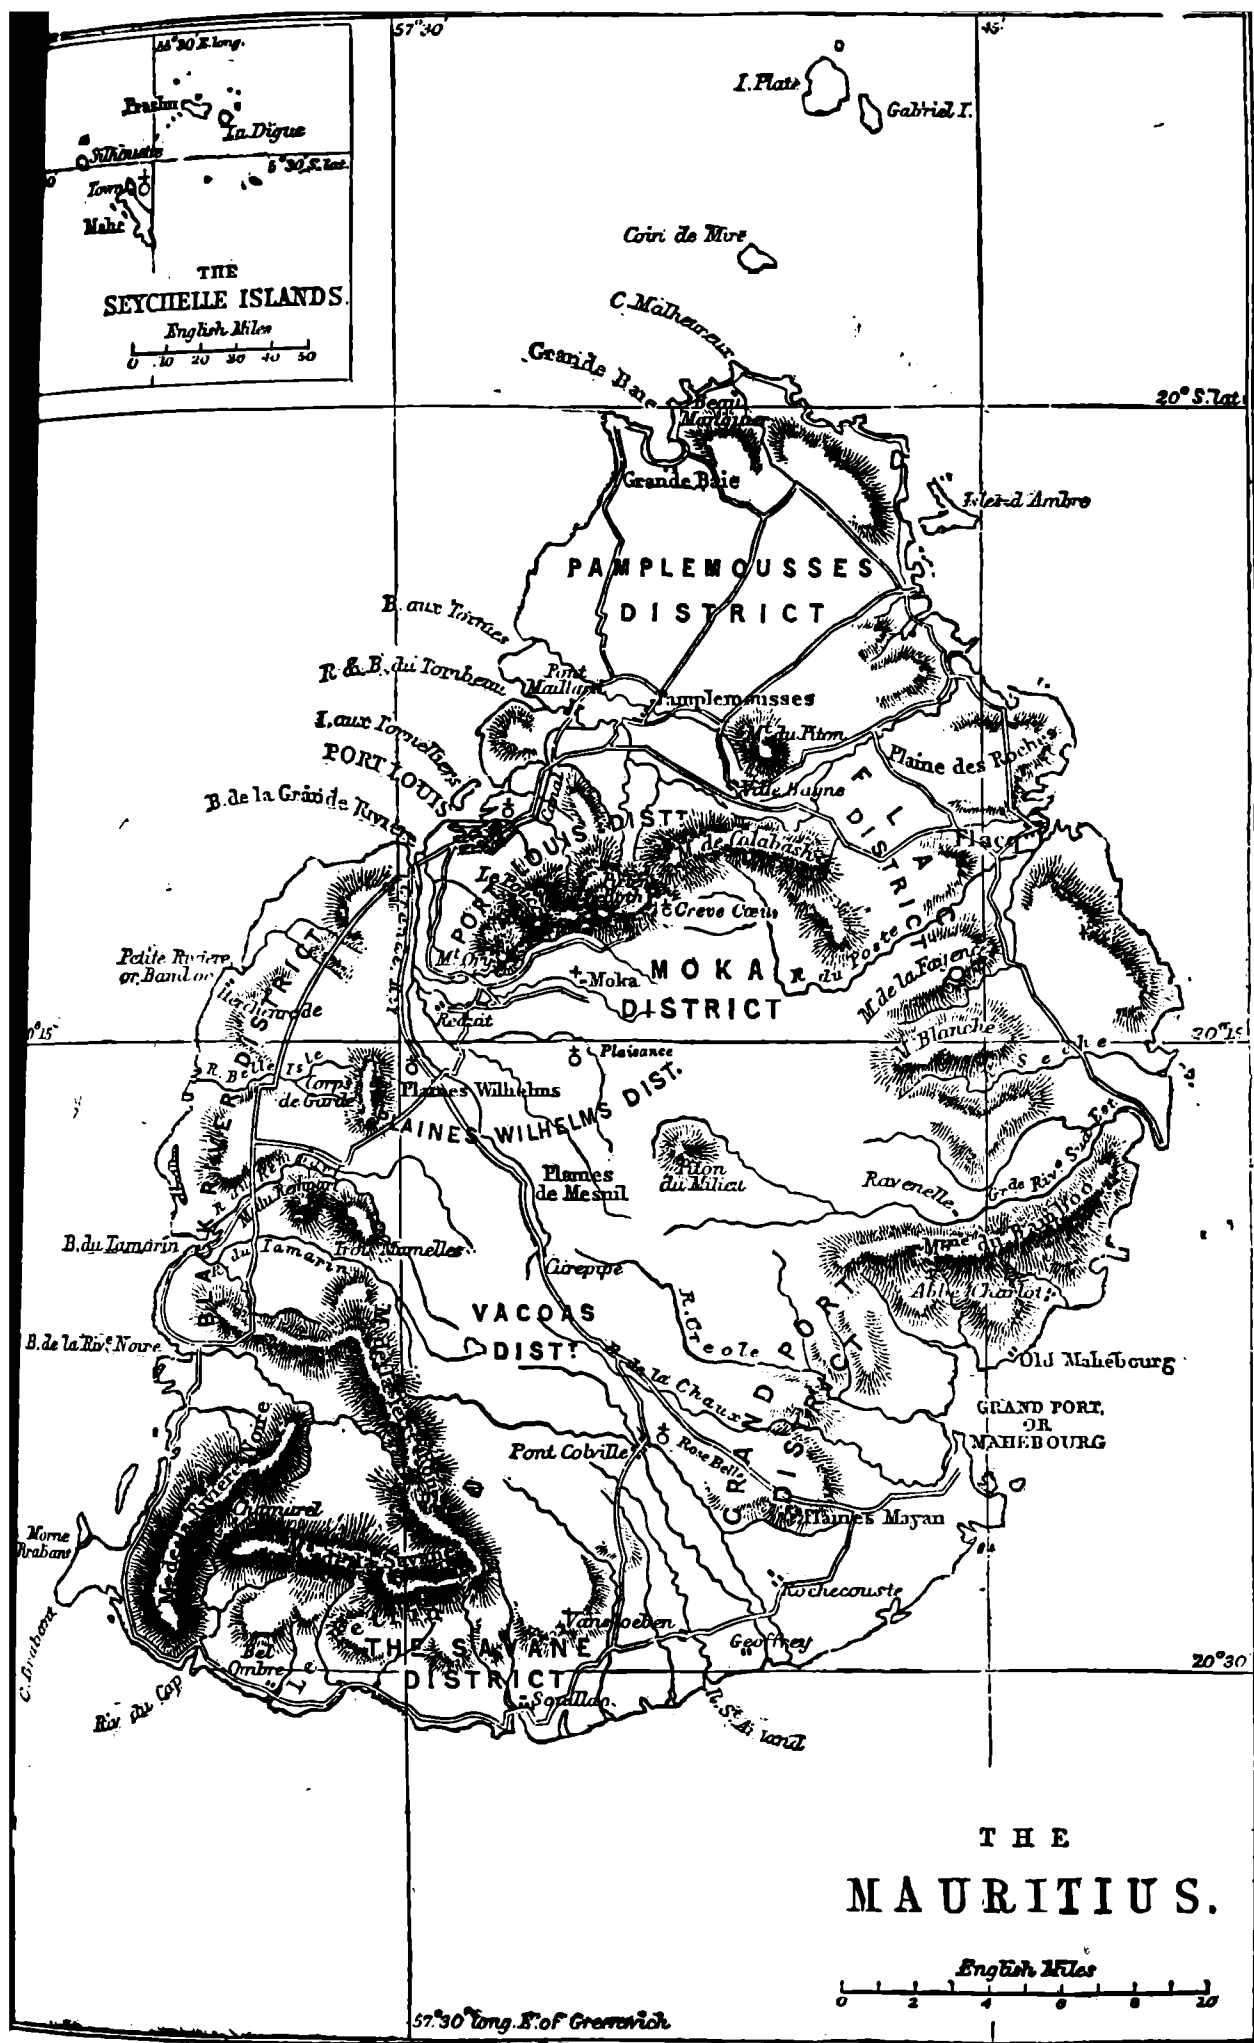

MADRAS BRANCH.

At the close of 1876, the Tamil work in Mauritius was under the charge of Archdeacon Hobbs and Mr. Buswell. Mr. Buswell had but just returned to the island after seventeen months' absence, and the Archdeacon was on the point of leaving for England. The Rev. N. Honiss has, however, since joined the Mission. His acquaintance with Tamil, and his experience of the work in Tinnevely, will enable him, if it please God, at once to render efficient service.

Archdeacon Hobbs had charge of the work in the northern districts of Pamplemousses, Flacq, Port Louis, &c.; while Mr. Buswell took the superintendence of the southern division.

As regards the Native Agency for the Madras (or Tamil) Branch, the Local Report for 1876 states :—

In the last Annual Report, an account far from satisfactory had to be given of the means at the disposal of the Association for carrying on the Tamil portion of its work. Out of four Native agents, one experienced catechist had just gone away on leave to revisit his country and friends; and the expectation that had been entertained of a strong reinforcement from Tinnevely had proved fallacious. With much thankfulness it is now noticed that this enfeebled state of the Mission was not of long continuance. Early in the year intelligence was received that a catechist, highly recommended, was on his way from Madras; and before his arrival another eligible candidate for the service was met with in the colony. Both these men have been employed as teachers in India for some years, and possess the advantage, also, of acquaintance with other Indian dialects besides their own,—a qualification of peculiar value for evangelizing work amongst our mixed population. The absent catechist above-mentioned, has since resigned; but the staff being still stronger by one than it was before he left, the long-desired opportunity for stationing a resident catechist in the village of Pamplemousses has at length been afforded. The other new agent is located for the present at PLAINES WILHELMS.

The Missionaries give a satisfactory report of these Native agents; and they have just had the happiness of witnessing the admission to Holy Orders of one of the number, Mr. John Gabb, after nine years' faithful service as catechist. The ordination took place at St. Thomas's Church on the 24th December.

It is proposed to form a class of Tamil Præparandi at Beau Bassin, under the care of Mr. Buswell, who had before diligently and successfully undertaken the same duty.

CALCUTTA BRANCH.

Central and Northern Division.

In seven of the nine civil districts into which Mauritius is divided, this department of the work is under the care of the Rev. P. Ansorgé, assisted by the Rev. C. Kushalli, and eighteen Native Christian teachers. (The two remaining districts, Grand Port and Savanne, which are the southernmost, are in the charge of the Rev. F. Schurr). The districts under Mr. Ansorgé's charge are (see map) Pamplemousses in the north, Port Louis and Flacq in the north-west and north-east, Moka, Plaines Wilhelms, and Vacoas in the centre, and Black River in the west.—The Calcutta Native Christians of these seven districts were, by the latest statistics, 798 in number. The number fluctuates yearly, through returns to, and arrivals from, the Indian continent. The Communicants were 131. Twenty-six adults were baptized during the year. Mr. Kushalli writes:—

In looking back upon the past twenty-five years, I cannot but thank God that, whilst there were then but a very few Native Christians, there is now a great change, for there are little congregations in all the districts of the island. In the congregation of St. Paul's, signs of growth in grace and activity are manifest. The Christians are generally diligent in attendance on the means of grace and the various religious meetings.—A Mothers' Meeting is conducted once a month by Miss L. Ansorgé. Some of the women are specially active, going from house to house, telling the blessed news of our Saviour, and exhorting their hearers to turn unto the Lord.—Thirty leading members of the congregation have cheerfully charged themselves with the payment of my stipend, which has hitherto been borne by the Association; and others are paying the salary of the sexton, and support widows and other poor.

Southern Division.

In the districts of Grand Port and Savanne, where the Society's work is carried on by the Rev. F. Schurr with the help of Native coadjutors, there are 147 regular attendants at public worship; and there were nine adult baptisms during the year. His head-quarters are to be at Rose Belle, not far from Pont Colville. At the time of writing his annual letter, however, Mr. Schurr had been pressed by Bishop Royston to fill up a temporary vacancy at Port Louis, the capital, a request which the Bishop's valuable services to the Society both now and in past years rendered it impossible for Mr. Schurr to decline.

The Native Christians under Mr. Schurr's charge number 54. Only five of these are Communicants. Nine adults were baptized during the year.

There are five Præparandi students at Rose Belle. In Mr. Schurr's absence a Catechist has charge of them, giving them Scripture lessons and taking them out with him on preaching excursions. Mr. Schurr visits Rose Belle once a week to direct and superintend their studies.

The Persian, Mirza Abdul Karim, whose conversion and baptism were mentioned in the Report for 1873-74, and whose baptismal name is George Christian Hope, is now one of the Society's Catechists in Mauritius, and is known by the name of Hope Mirza.

SEYCHELLES.

The Rev. W. B. Chancellor is carrying on the work at this station with great zeal and energy. He has now a community of about 100 souls to manage and provide for most of them having come to him in a shocking state of ignorance and vice. In a recent communication Mr. Chancellor writes:—

A mother taught to pray by her daughter.

The other night, as I was going the rounds, I saw two persons kneeling in a corner of the girls' room. I went near, and found one of our little girls, Marie Fanchou by name, teaching her poor old heathen mother to pray. Yes, there was the poor old sinner on her knees beside her little daughter, learning from her lips the Lord's Prayer. Surely we may regard this as the first-fruits of the seed sown. I have since ascertained that our children are in the habit of teaching their parents their prayers when they come up here to see them. I trust that our dear children may be instrumental in teaching their sinful parents to say from their hearts, "Our Father."

During a recent visit to Seychelles, Bishop Royston succeeded in having the land at Venn's Town finally made over to the Society. The Bishop will kindly forgive the Committee for inserting the following extract from Mr. Chancellor's Annual Letter :—

Important help rendered by the Bishop of Mauritius.

If Bishop Royston had not been here, I question very much whether the land would have been recovered for some time to come. The Bishop has such a quiet but firm way of putting things that one cannot well escape him: he is my ideal of a bishop, and never in all my life have I met a man who bore in so marked a manner the impress of his Master. His visit has done us all good: he has both strengthened our hands and cheered our hearts.

Forty-seven children are now under Mr. Chancellor's care; of whom thirteen were confirmed by the Bishop last Advent Sunday.

HONG-KONG.

THE Rev. A. B. Hutchinson writes as follows:—

An aged

The past year has witnessed a larger addition to our numbers than has before fallen to our lot to record; fourteen names have been added to us by baptism—four children and ten adults. One of these, Lam A Kam, is an aged woman, sixty-eight years of age, the last survivor of her family, who has thus found, by Divine grace, the joy of the new relationship which belongs to those who are called to join the family of the redeemed. It is surprising that one so aged and so unlearned should be able to grasp both the outward form, as well as the inward and spiritual meaning, of the Creed. At her own touching request (“Please not delay long, for I am very old, and would fain confess Christ before men ere I die”), and also at the request of the Church members, I baptized her on the second Sunday in Advent. This aged sister’s energy would put many a young Christian in England to shame. She has walked two miles to church and back for several months past.

Notwithstanding these baptisms and the accession of some inquirers, our total return (including inquirers) is only twelve in advance of last year. Nine of our Church members have left Hong-kong to reside permanently elsewhere, quite out of reach of our own ministration, yet not lost to Christianity. Five of these went to Honolulu, and I am hoping ere long to hear of their welfare. Eight of those who have thus left the neighbourhood were Communicants; and thus, although six have been admitted for the first time to the Lord’s table, the total is two less than last year.

is becoming more hopeful. Mr. Hutchinson has paid two or three visits to the place; and some adult baptisms have taken place. Among others the one mentioned in the Report for 1875-6, as postponed from being insufficiently prepared, has now been admitted into the visible Church.

Under date 11th April, 1877, Mr. Hutchinson writes:—

Last week I again visited Wong-pi. Five candidates for Adult baptism were presented by the catechist. Three of these he recommended for baptism, the other two to be examined as a preliminary, they having only declared themselves inquirers since my previous visit. I was glad to be able to accept two; a farmer, aged forty, and a tailor, aged twenty-five. The former can hardly read a character; but his heart has grasped the central truth, "Christ in all." Both answered very satisfactorily my questions on the Creed, the Lord's prayer, and the commandments. I was much struck with the clear view they had of the spiritual meaning and grasp of the decalogue, its exceeding breadth. As the younger said, "My heart often breaks the commandments, though my body does not."

On the 19th April in the present year, 1877, Mr. Hutchinson had the great pleasure of presenting to Bishop Burdon twenty-eight candidates for Confirmation. Four of these were from Wong-pi on the mainland. These latter were much struck with the Mission Schools in Hong-kong, and expressed a strong desire to have such at Wong-pi.

Mr. Hutchinson reports with much sorrow that his faithful fellow-labourer, the Rev. Lo Sam Yuen, is in a very feeble state of health.

FUH-CHOW.

The Rev. J. R. Wolfe has been for another year practically without the help of any European fellow-labourer, Mr. Sedgwick having removed from the Mission before he had acquired the language, and the two younger brethren, Rev. R. W. Stewart and Rev. Ll. Lloyd, not reaching Fuh-chow until 14th November, 1876. He has had, however, throughout the year, the help of his faithful Native brother, the Rev. Wong Kiu Taik; and the ordination of four other Chinese fellow-labourers is mentioned below. The year has been one of great blessing, though accompanied with severe persecution. Mr. Wolfe, in his Report for 1876, gives the following review:—

Blessings bestowed on the Fuh-chow
Mission, in the midst of

The past year has been a year full of trials, chiefly from without, to this Mission. But it has also been a year fraught with spiritual mercies, rich with the Divine blessing on the general work of the Mission, and I trust not without some spiritual benefit to my own soul also. Indeed, with the exception of this monster city of FUH-CHOW, which still continues dead and barren, every part of this now extensive Mission-field has been visited during the year with some rays of heavenly light, and has felt, more or less, the quickening and gracious influences of the Divine Spirit. Severe trials have abounded, and persecutions have been more frequent and violent than have ever been known here before, but, on the other hand, the blessing of Divine grace, and the presence of the Divine power, have never been so bountifully bestowed, or so powerfully displayed in the Fuh-chow Mission. Not only has a larger number than in any previous year been added to the visible Church of Christ; but real progress has been made, I am confident, in the spiritual life and in Christian experience, by not a few of the converts. This is manifested in an increased prayerfulness and earnestness for the salvation of others, as well as in a patient endurance under persecution, and a willingness to contribute, according to their means, towards the support of the Church. I have admitted by baptism during the year 259 adults and 53 children. A very large increase also has taken place in the number of communicants, the number now being between 700 and 800.

Passing from this general summary, to report of the character and present condition of the Native Church, and of its history during the year, the first point noticed shall be the Ordination of four Native Christians by Bishop Burdon, which took place at Fuh-chow on Easter Sunday in 1876. After giving some very interesting details respecting these brethren, Mr. Wolfe goes on to remark, in language glowing with Christian affection:—

ordained Chinese Ministers at Fuh-

I have not spoken too highly of these four men. I love them as dear brethren in Christ, and fellow-workers in "the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ;" and I have no hesitation in saying that I consider most of them more hard-working than myself, and some of them wiser than myself in their plans for carrying on this great work. My aim is to draw them out, and make them self-dependent, so that when the day of trial comes (and it seems drawing closer and closer) these men will be able to act and plan and manage for the Native Church, independently of the advice and presence of the foreigners, to whom they are now only too prone to look for everything. We must not be discouraged if in this effort mistakes and errors of judgment are sometimes made. It cannot be otherwise. We are fallible men.

But we must trust our Native brethren, in spite of repeated temptations to do otherwise.

Mr. Wolfe adds:—

These ordained men have been a great help to this Mission. They now occupy four central positions in the country, and superintend the work in their districts in a remarkably efficient manner. Ordination has given them a position of great influence with the Natives, especially with the Christians, who really look up to them. Their ordination has also given our work a real impetus; and the Native Church is beginning to feel all the importance and responsibility of a regularly organized body. They reside in the four important cities of Lo-Nguong, Ning-Taik, Hok-Ning-Fu, and Ku-Cheng. Each has charge of the district connected with the city in which he resides; and all the catechists and teachers in these districts come regularly, once a month, to their respective district cities, and meet together for prayer and reading and general consultation, for two successive days, under the presidency of their ordained brother. Essays on certain subjects are prepared and read and discussed on these occasions by the catechists. An account is given by each of his work during the month, of his trials, of his joys and his sorrows, so that mutual prayer and sympathy are excited. I find this plan works admirably. It gives the Native clergy just what we want them to have, self-dependence, and the practice of self-government. It is not beyond the range of possibility, that one of these Native clergy may yet become the Native Bishop of Fuh-chow.

The names of these brethren are Tang Tang-Pieng, stationed at Hok-Ning-Fu; Ting Sing-Ki, at Ku-Cheng; Su Chong-Ing, at Lo-Nguong; and Ling Sieng-Sing, at Kiong-Ning-Fu.

Of the other Native helpers Mr. Wolfe writes:—

Our present number of Native Catechists is eighty. Of course among so many men, there must be great diversity of power, talent, and attainments. There are none employed, however, who have not, as far as we can judge, undergone the great change from death unto life. Many of them are men of great natural eloquence and fervid zeal; some of them are men of very small literary attainments; others of them are fairly educated; and some there are amongst them who can more than hold their own in any encounter with the literati of their own country. Every opportunity is embraced of increasing their knowledge of the Sacred Scriptures; and many of them, I am bound to say, know their Bibles remarkably well. I feel that whatever their literary attainments or non-attainments may be, they are all influenced by one spirit, and actuated as far as we can judge by the love of Christ. Many of them have endured much persecution and shame for the sake of Jesus, and have shown great patience in so doing. We lost two of our catechists during the year by death. Their last moments were lighted up with the glorious hopes of a blessed immortality; and they left behind them the testimony that their end was peace.

In addition to these eighty paid Catechists, and the five Native clergy, we have got a staff of over 100 volunteer helpers, duly organized, under the superintendence of the various catechists all over the country. We call them “exhorters.” They meet regularly twice a week, for reading and prayer and general improvement, with the different catechists or Native clergy, as the case may be. Their duty is to visit the villages in their neighbourhood, and exhort all to repent and turn to the Lord, and on Sundays to hold services in the villages for the old people and children who cannot come to the church at the station. These men are quite a power. We select our students from this class, thus giving us an opportunity of knowing something of the qualifications of our future catechists before calling them to be students. If they do not show tact and ability and aptitude for teaching and exhorting, during their office of exhorters, of course we pass them over. We try to select the best in every respect as students, and this system gives us a better chance of finding out who are the most suitable.

Preparation for the future supply of agents is not neglected. Mr. Wolfe writes:—

At the beginning of the year we had twenty-five students in our Preparandi class; but from various reasons, in the course of the year the number was reduced to seventeen. The Rev. Wong has given the most of his time during the year to teaching this class. My own time has been so much occupied in the general work of the Mission in town and country, that I have not been able to do more in connexion with it than the general superintendence and guidance of the studies carried on by the students. At the beginning of the coming Chinese new year, we shall have a larger number of students than we have ever had yet. I am glad to be able to report that this class, even with the comparatively small amount of personal teaching by a foreign missionary, has been quite a success. The students have worked very hard, and have manifested a very great desire to gain a knowledge of the Sacred Scriptures. We have some very hopeful men amongst them.

The following extracts from Mr. Wolfe's Report will give some view of the character of the Fuh-kien Christians generally:—

I may mention here that we have had several deaths during the year among the converts; and as far as we can see, every one of them died full of peace, and in the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ.

A Conference, intended henceforth to be annual, was held early this year, on October 1st, partly in consequence of the persecutions, which extended all over the Mission and seemed to threaten the existence of this little Church. The Conference was remarkably well attended; each station sent a representative, and some of them two, so that 160 in all attended the meetings. A few of the representatives could not speak the Fuh-chow dialect, and had to address the conference through an interpreter. It lasted ten days, and was a season of spiritual improvement to us all. Much earnest and united prayer was offered up, which I have no doubt was heard in heaven. Much encouraging information also was given from the various stations, and a warm desire evinced by the whole body to make a strong advance during the coming year. The question of schools for the country stations was fully discussed, and some valuable hints thrown out respecting the general question, which will not fail to be of use to us in taking action in the matter during the coming year. One catechist was disconnected by the Conference, because he did not give a satisfactory account of church funds of which he had the management. The general persecutions throughout the Mission, and the causes of them, were discussed; and it was placed beyond a doubt by the evidence, and the testimony from all quarters, that the gentry and the literati were at the bottom of all the opposition, and that the hatred of these classes increased in proportion as Christianity advanced. Prayer to God for the gentry and literati, that God would open their eyes and change their hearts, was earnestly offered up by the Conference. Many valuable papers and speeches were read and delivered by the Native clergy and catechists; and I trust they all returned to their respective stations, strengthened and refreshed and encouraged for the conflicts and labours of another year.

Annual conference of Fuh-Kien
Christians.

Of the out-stations, Mr. Wolfe writes :—

There are now about seventy out-stations in connexion with this Mission. In most of the old stations there has been a steady advance.—In the Lieng-Kong district, two new out-stations have been occupied during the year, and increased interest has been manifested, though the Lieng-Kong city, like most of the cities, has given us very little encouragement.—In the Lo-Nguong district considerable interest in the truth has been awakened in several villages. The Christians of Siu-Hung have shown great zeal during the year. Several of them devote their Sundays to visiting and holding services in the neighbouring villages and

hamlets. In Tong-A and Wong-Puong, which are offshoots from Siu-Hung, the number of Christians and inquirers has considerably increased during the last six months. The progress at Long-Tung has cheered us very much. The numbers during the year have increased to sixty or seventy, and among these are the very men who broke down the chapel at the beginning of the year, and who tried to compel the Christians to worship the idols. They have now given up idolatry themselves, and probably in a few weeks will have to undergo the same trials which they so recently inflicted upon their now Christian brethren. Fourteen have been added to the A-chia church during the year from some of the adjoining hamlets; while the head man in the village of A-chia, who had been for so many years hesitating and halting and struggling, has at length decided, and was baptized during the year. The little church has been completed also, and was opened by the Bishop on the occasion of his visit to this place in April. Other stations in this district have also presented some features of encouragement, and two new stations have been opened. But the city of Lo-Nguong itself, though not absolutely barren, has been comparatively destitute of results. We have opened a Book Depository here during the year; and two or three literary men have been interested, and one of them is a regular attendant at the various services.—In the district of Hok-Ning-Fu, though none have been as yet baptized, the willingness of the people to attend the services and listen to the preaching &c., is most encouraging, and raises great hopes of future blessing. We have succeeded, after considerable difficulty and controversy with the gentry, in securing large and commodious Mission premises in the very heart of this prefectural city. Efforts will be made by us (God willing) during the coming year to extend our work throughout the teeming population of this prefecture.—The district of Ning-Taik has been, during the year, in a very disturbed state, in consequence of the severe persecutions and the martyrdom of one of our dear converts. The gentry and officials have shown themselves very hostile, and have impeded our progress in every conceivable way. But even here, we have occupied several new places, and if we had only the men ready, we could occupy a dozen or more outstations in this district. Sioh-Chuo and Ting-Sang-Ka, two stations within this district, have made fair progress; and about twenty have been added to the Church by baptism in these two places during the year. Chek-Tu also has grown, despite the violent persecutions which have agitated it during the year. My own life has been threatened in this place, and on my recent visit the tools of the leading gentry attempted to excite a tumult against me. But God graciously preserved me; and I was enabled to preach on several occasions in the places of public concourse, to large and attentive audiences. The city of Ning-

Taik stands proudly aloof from the Gospel ; but the city congregation is slowly being increased from the surrounding hamlets.—At our Annual Conference this year on October 1st, we divided Ku-Cheng into two districts, north and south. The northern part is under the charge of the ordained man who resides in the city ; the southern part, under the charge of the first convert of A-chia, who is now a candidate for ordination. This man has been remarkably blessed in this Mission-field. The whole of the Ku-cheng district has given me great encouragement during the year, with a corresponding amount of care and anxiety. The persecutions have been frequent and violent, but the progress has been substantial. Several new stations have been occupied, and nearly 200 admitted into the visible Church of Christ. The city congregation has been increased considerably, though a few unsatisfactory ones have been expelled. The congregation at Lau-Ah has increased to seventy, and the neat little church at this place is nearly completed. Two literary graduates have been baptized here during the year, and their conversion has excited considerable interest. The congregation at Ang-Iong has become too large for the building, and they have formed themselves now into three distinct congregations, in three centres, which have been occupied as stations during the year. The Tong-Liang church is nearly completed ; and the head man, who principally built it, and who is also one of the gentry, has sent his eldest son to our theological class to be trained as a catechist. There is a great work going on over this entire Mission-field, and I most earnestly pray that no disturbing influence, from within or from without, may be permitted to hinder or mar the progress of this work.—The work at Sang-Iong still progresses, though the persecutions in the neighbourhood have been very bitter, and some of the converts beaten nearly to death.—The Iong-Ping district has been a great source of trial to us. The gentry and officials have opposed our occupation of this city in every possible way. Our chapel there has been in ruins for the last five years ; and no sincere attempt has been made by the authorities to restore it to the Mission. The out-station of Nang-Sang, however, not far from Iong-Ping, has proved very successful ; and I am looking forward with great hopes to the success of the Lord's work in connexion with this station. About a dozen have been added to the Church in this place during the year, the first-fruits of Iong-Ping unto Christ. I have had within the last day or two an important interview with the members of the Board of Foreign Trade at their invitation to discuss the Iong-Ping and other difficulties, and try if some arrangements could not be made. I am glad to say that after three hours of boisterous talk and controversy, we settled the matter, if not in all points absolutely satisfactory to the Mission, yet in a way that gives us back our chapel, and free access to the city. I explained fully to them the position of Protestant missionaries and converts with respect to submission to the "powers that be;" and in course of conversation, the President made an important admission, to the effect that English missionaries, especially those connected with Fuh-chow, have always conducted themselves in a becoming manner towards the authorities, and that he could not remember a single instance in which he had to find fault with the conduct of the Native converts as regards their duties to their own authorities.—The Kiong-Ning-Fu chapel difficulty is not yet settled. The authorities seemed indisposed to arrange more than one difficulty at a time, and I fully expect that the Kiong-Ning-Fu difficulty will be allowed to drag wearily along for years. In the meanwhile, though we are not allowed to have our chapel in the city, we have occupied a station within a few miles of its walls, and the people seem deeply interested and anxious to learn.—The Taik-Wha district has also given us more or less encouragement. We have occupied three new stations in this southern district during the year. Years ago, in the A-chia station, six or seven Taik-Wha men, who were staying at the village, were converted and baptized by myself. Soon after they returned to their native place, they repeatedly, and for years, sent requests to me to establish a Mission in their district. At first we had not the suitable men to enable us to comply with their request, though we never forgot the existence there of the little band of Christians all alone so far away. At length God gave us the suitable men, and how could we any longer resist this Macedonian call? This is how we have come to occupy stations apparently out of our usual course.

Severe persecutions, and steadfastness of Native Christians under them.

Almost every portion of this Mission-field during the year has been the scene of most bitter and most violent persecutions. At one time it looked as though the enemy were allowed to put forth all his malice ; and the very existence of this infant Church seemed to be threatened.—At Ni-Tu, in the district of Ning-Taik, the gentry and literati, the Scribes and Pharisees of China, led a crusade against the Christians, barbarously beat several of the brethren, and cruelly murdered one of the most zealous and devoted of their number. I rejoice to say, that though many of the inquirers have been frightened away from us, not one of the baptized has gone back, even when death was the threatened penalty of adherence to their faith. At Chek-Tu, also in the same district, through the influence and under the direction of the leading gentry, our chapel had been forcibly taken from us, the houses of some of the Christians destroyed, and one of them nearly beaten to death. He was, in consequence, for several weeks unable to leave his bed; and at one time we scarcely had any hopes of his recovery. Owing to the influence of his wife, who remained a bigoted heathen when he became a Christian, and to the continued threats of the persecutors, the poor man succumbed to the storm, and for a time separated himself from the persecuted Church. I rejoice now to say, however, that he has returned, and not only so, but he has brought his once bigoted wife with him to the Church, and she is now apparently more zealous and devoted than himself.—At Li-Iong, in the Ku-Cheng district, the Christians have had to endure severe sufferings for the sake of Christ. One of their number has been severely beaten, solely because he refused to worship the idols. He still lies dangerously ill, and there is scarcely any hope of his recovery. It is the more sad, as he has a large family, and two aged parents, dependent upon him for support. At another village the gentry threatened to bury alive any who dared to become Christians; and this dreadful threat had the effect of driving many away from the Church.—At Kiong-Ning-Fu, where a deeply interesting work had been started, and many inquirers gathered in, the gentry of the city pulled down the chapel, most barbarously treated the catechist and some of the Christians, and hunted the rest of them, like dogs, from their homes in the city.—The same persecuting conduct took place in the city of Iong-Ping-Fu, and our chapels are in ruins in both these latter cities.—In the city of Taik-Wha, in the southern district, the Christians have been most violently threatened, and in some instances their paternal property has been taken from them, and there is no redress.—This is what awaits the converts to Christianity in the Fuh-chow Mission, and this is what many of them have endured. In the face of all this there are some foolish people who will be bold enough to tell us that there are no sincere converts in China!

Mr. Wolfe concludes his report as follows:—

My journeys during the year have been rather extensive; and I have been very much cheered and encouraged by the readiness with which the people generally have listened to the truth, and by the general knowledge of Christianity which prevails in the old districts where we have been labouring for years. It is no strange thing now to be accosted and greeted by Christians along the way throughout these districts. There are many all over the country, who, in consequence of our preaching and teaching, have given up their faith in idolatry, and who, though they have not the courage to come forward boldly, are not far from the Kingdom. There is a very general feeling among the people in many parts of the country, that their own systems have failed to satisfy the mysterious longings down deep in their natures. Let us take advantage of this feeling, and present the Saviour of the world to their thoughts. I would suggest, nay, I would most earnestly entreat, that two new centres be occupied in this province as soon as possible, by at least two foreign missionaries in the first instance, in districts where the Gospel has not yet been heard, or not much preached.

NINGPO.

The Missionaries of this station and its out-stations are the RIGHT REV. BISHOP RUSSELL, the Rev. F. F. Gough, the Rev. J. Bates, the Rev. J. C. Hoare, B.A., and Miss Laurence. There are also four Native Pastors connected with the Mission, the Rev. Sing-Eng-Teh, the Rev. Wong-yiu-Kwông, the Rev. Dzing Kyi-ao, and the Rev. O Kwong-yiao; the three last having been ordained during the year.

Full statistical returns, and other details, of this Mission have not been received; but several points of much interest are brought out in the communications that have been received from the Missionaries.

Bishop Russell writes :—

The event of chief importance which occurred during the year, in connexion with our Ningpo Mission, was the ordination, on Trinity Sunday, of three Natives to the diaconate, and one to the priesthood. The subsequent conduct of these men seems fully to justify the step then taken in admitting them to Holy Orders. Wong-yiu-Kwông, with whom I have had most to do, and who assists me in conducting the Sunday services at this place, has lately preached, in my hearing, some very able and thoughtful sermons, to which I listened with great interest and profit. The only fault of his discourses, which time will no doubt correct, is that they are too elaborate and refined for his congregation, more after the model of Barrow than of Moody. In other respects, too, he gives me much satisfaction. Of Dzing Kyi-ao and O Kwong yiao, Mr. Gough and Mr. Bates will no doubt give an equally favourable report.

The following very interesting account of the ordination has been furnished by Miss Laurence :—

Ordination at Ningpo. The ordination had been early fixed for Trinity Sunday, in time to let friends at home think of us on that day. Mr. Brereton arrived from Peking ten days previously. The examination of the candidates was held at Mr. Hoare's house outside the city. On Thursday morning they were engaged on Mr. Gough's paper on the Scriptures; in the afternoon on questions on the Thirty-nine Articles by Mr. Moule. On Friday morning they wrote answers to the Bishop's questions of a general character, and in the afternoon the sketch of a sermon on St. John xvii. 3, "This is life eternal," &c. Mr. and Mrs. Valentine, with Mr. Palmer and family, arrived on Thursday, Mr. Moule on Friday, so that by Saturday there were eight English clergymen belonging to our Mission in Ningpo. We could not but note with thankful recognition of Fatherly care the wonderful coolness of the weather. Had it been such a day as we frequently have in the beginning of June, it would have been very trying. As it was, a cloudy, breezy day dispelled our apprehensions, especially on Bishop Russell's account, to whom it was a day of such deep solemnity as well as thankful joy. At the morning service an address was given by the Rev. R. Palmer of Shau-hing. The Ordination service, in the Jing-eng Đông (Grace Church—literally "Hall of Benevolent Grace,") began at eleven with the singing of a short hymn to the tune of Sicilian Mariners. The row of twelve surpliced clergy looked very imposing in our little chapel. Mr. Moule preached an interesting sermon on 1 Chron. xii. 33—"Of Zebulun such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand which could keep rank: they were not of double heart"—which the Bishop is having printed in Shanghae for circulation among the Natives. The Ordination service had been entirely re-written by the Bishop, and was printed by Mr. Valentine in good clear Roman letter, some dozen copies being also written out in the Chinese character. The deacons were of course ordained first. Wông-Kiu-kwông was appointed to read the Gospel. He retains the mastership of the school until Mr. Hoare is able to take it, and acts as the Bishop's chaplain on Sunday. Dzing-Ts-sing (or Dzing Kyi-ao), son of the valuable catechist whose premature death was so mourned by his friends, has been appointed to the pastorate of the Ningpo church, in connexion with and at present under the direction of, the Rev F. F. Gough. O Kwông-yiao is in charge of the Z-Kyi church. These three, having audibly and reverently answered the questions put to them, were then ordained in that solemn and affectionate manner which even those who know Bishop Russell can hardly realize until they have seen him among the Natives. The priests, Sing-Eng-teh, who was ordained deacon last year at Scen-poh, Mr. Hoare, of Ningpo, and Mr. Brereton, of Peking, were then questioned in English and Chinese, and all the clergy present joined with Bishop Russell in the imposition of hands. The Veni Creator, which is really fairly and metrically rendered, was sung to St. Matthias. Several of the foreign residents responded to the Bishop's invitation to be present, and expressed themselves much interested and gratified at the ceremony. At the Communion service there were present eighteen foreigners and upwards of sixty Natives; and I think few who were there will forget the services of that day.

The Rev. J. C. Hoare (son of Canon Hoare, of Tunbridge Wells) who reached Ningpo in February, 1876, has not only been diligently studying the Native language, in which he has made good progress, but has also superintended the Boys' Boarding School, an institution containing at present only ten pupils, but which will probably, as time goes on, become most important to the Mission as a nursery for Native Evangelists and Pastors. The School, which till lately was open only to the children of Christians, is in future to be recruited by the most promising youths from the open Day Schools both in the country and city.

In Miss Laurence's Girls' Boarding School twenty-two girls are under instruction. Hitherto nearly all have left on completing their twelfth year. Now, however, none are admitted except under a written engagement to remain until they are eighteen. Two Day Schools, also under Miss Laurence's charge, are in a satisfactory condition, though very small at present.

Out-stations.

The out-stations, with their smaller outposts, are variously reckoned at fifteen, sixteen, and seventeen. Together, they form the four united districts of (1) Saen-poh; (2) Saen-nen; (these two lying to the north of Ningpo); (3) the Eastern Lakes, and (4) the Western Hills—the last of the four including one or two small posts in the southern region. The principal Mission Station in Saen-poh is the walled town of Kwun-hae-wae, where the Rev. Sing Eng-Teh, ordained deacon in 1875, resides. The principal station of Saen-nen is the city of Z'kyi, an important place and the headquarters of the Mandarin of the district, where the Rev. O Kwông-yiao resides, whose ordination is described above. The distances, by cross country-roads, from Ningpo to the different out-stations vary from ten to thirty miles. They are usually approached, however, by the river or canal, an easier but more circuitous route.

The Missionary statistics of the year for the out-stations are as follows:—Communicants, 147; Adherents, 313; adult baptisms, nine. In the preceding year the Adherents numbered 279, and the adult baptisms 21.

The Rev. J. Bates, who in conducting the evangelistic work of the out-stations, comes much in contact with Native Christians scattered throughout the district, writes as follows:—

During the past year I have endeavoured to visit all the out-stations, and to make myself acquainted with their present condition, so far as the season and my opportunities would allow.

It is encouraging, amidst the abounding heathenism and superstition of this country, to be associated with a body of some 300 Christians, who are broken up into little companies, in various directions, and who are like so many bright spots in the midst of the spiritual darkness by which they are surrounded. They are for the most part very poor, but in not a few cases it may be said of them that they are "rich in faith." They have to hold their way under much opposition, and at the cost of much self-denial. I am personally acquainted with some whose lives are a testimony to the Gospel, as being "the power of God unto salvation."

But there are still literally masses of heathen in these districts to whom the Gospel is a strange doctrine. Many have never yet heard it, and to others it is incomprehensible. To reach these people we have got but a small band of labourers. On this account I have been constrained more than ever before to impress upon the minds of the Native Christians the duty of doing all they can themselves to promote the spread of the Gospel. It is too evident that, as a rule, they are liable to imagine that Christianity is to be propagated by the foreign missionary and the paid agents of the Society. They do not always feel that they have also a part, and that an important part, to perform as well. I do think it is time well spent, and likely to be productive of good results, if we labour much and frequently in stirring up the minds of our Christian converts to zeal and earnestness in the cause of Christ. There should be special occasions for united prayer, and special opportunities for study and mutual conversation on the Word of God.

And believing that Native Church self-support is closely connected with the life and vigour of the Native Church itself, I have endeavoured to encourage regular and increased contributions towards the Native Church Fund. There has been considerable misunderstanding about the nature of this fund; and consequently many have held aloof, and have been unwilling to contribute. But I believe there is now a better feeling. Many are at present coming forward to contribute who before gave nothing. I know of some who have denied themselves of a little wine, or something else, in order that they might be able to contribute. There is a poor widow at the Lakes' district who lays up a few cash regularly week by week, and in this way is able to hand in some 700 or 800 cash (about 3s.) at the end of the year—a small sum indeed—but we know that our blessed Lord said of one, "This poor widow hath cast in more than they all." Z-Kyi is another example of liberal giving. The total number of Christians there is (including children) twenty-five. They are for the most part very poor; and yet I find that they contributed some 20,000 cash towards the Native Church Fund alone last year; and in the present year they are striving to exceed this amount by 4000 more. The secret of all this is the way in which the subject has been brought before them. The Native pastor tells me that he is in the habit, once or twice in the year, of giving them a feast at his own expense. At the close of the feast he communicates to them any religious intelligence he knows or he hears of, and finally makes a collection.

The Rev. Sing Eng-Teh, referred to above, has written an interesting annual letter, for which, however, there is not room in these pages.

Miss Laurence itinerated during the months of September and October, and found many ready listeners, some of them asking intelligent questions and seeming to be really interested. In connexion with one of her Missionary tours, Miss Laurence mentions the following incident :—

Zeal of a
woman.

Last week I was at a small place, new to me, but in the beat of our mission, where an interesting work has been begun by a poor woman, a member of the Z-kyi Church. She has been a Christian eight years. Three years ago she got into trouble about a bad man on whom she had taken pity, and was compelled to leave the place for a while. She went to Ts'o-tsin, where she now is, to a daughter's house; but, finding this daughter had opened an opium-smoking den, she soon left her and took separate lodgings. She reads the Roman letter well, and has taught her son, a boy of ten, so that they can sing hymns together. Three women and one man are now accepted candidates for baptism as the result of her influence during the past three years. She greeted me on my unexpected arrival with the words, "This is the Saviour's mercy." When she had told me her history, and I asked why she had not gone back to her home now that the reports had doubtless died away, she said, "Now that the Lord has given me these brethren and sisters, how can I leave them?" Six or seven persons assemble in her room every Sunday, and she conducts the service, reading the New Testament through in order. She has also read "Line upon Line." I read one of Bishop Russell's sermons through to a listening roomful.

Ningpo

Miss Laurence being desirous to translate into Chinese Lord Hatherley's work on the "Continuity of Scripture," Bishop Russell wrote to the noble author, and in reply received not only the permission asked for, but also a donation of 20*l.* towards the necessary expenses.

SHAU-HING.

The Missionaries of this station are the Rev. J. D. Valentine and the Rev. R. Palmer. Mr. Valentine was compelled by temporary failure of health to be absent from his station for about five months. After a visit to Japan Mr. Valentine returned to his station early in November, 1876, much refreshed in body and mind.

The Native Christian Adherents of Shau-hing now number 29. Fourteen of these are Communicants, and six adults have been baptized during the year. The corresponding numbers for 1875 were 23, 5, and 15.

By Bishop Russell's advice, the station has been divided into two districts, Christ Church under Mr. Valentine, and St. Saviour's under Mr. Palmer. Nothing of special interest is recorded respecting the Christians baptized previously. Of the adults admitted into the visible Church during 1876, three were mothers of converts who had been baptized in former years. Preaching to the heathen has been steadily carried on both by Mr. Valentine and by Mr. Palmer. There is no difficulty in obtaining attentive audiences; and the excellence of the doctrines of Christianity is acknowledged, generally speaking, with readiness and apparent sincerity.

HANG-CHOW.

The Rev. G. E. Moule visiting England with the sanction of the Committee, his brother, the Rev. A. E. Moule, from Ningpo, has taken the superintendence of the work at Hang-chow. The Native Adherents number fifty-eight, of whom twenty-nine are Communicants, the corresponding numbers for 1875 having been forty-nine and twenty-three. Nine adults were baptized during the year.—The Hang-chow dialect differs widely from that of Ningpo; and Mr. (and Mrs.) A. E. Moule have been studying it, since their arrival at Hang-chow, with great diligence.

There is nothing of very special interest to record respecting the spiritual condition of the little Christian flock, or of the converts that have been added to their number during the year. Mr. A. E. Moule, however, speaks of being much cheered by the true love and Missionary zeal of a Native lay fellow-labourer, who, with two of Mr. Moule's theological pupils, "has in hot weather and cold very diligently evangelized two of the suburbs of this great city."—The hospital, under the care of Dr. Galt, has received 269 in-patients during the year, of whom 232 were victims to opium. The out-cases have been 4000. Mr. A. E. Moule, or one of his Christian Native helpers, has addressed the patients weekly; and one or two of the Native brethren have also had “very animated conversations” with the patients and sold a number of books. A former patient has written to Dr. Galt, expressing his belief “in the doctrine of Jesus Christ,” and asking for a copy of St. Luke’s Gospel, that he “may be able to tell others about God.”—A grant from the Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge has enabled the Missionaries to print an edition of the Prayer-book in Roman type.

The small number of Adherents at Hang-chow, as compared with the Ningpo Mission, may be accounted for (1) by the more recent date of its first occupation, and (2) by the numerical weakness of the agency employed. One consequence of this weakness is that it has not been possible to conduct any systematic itineration in the neighbouring country. In China, as in India, the rural population has always been a more encouraging field than that of the large cities; and the facilities for travelling in the districts around Hang-chow are much inferior to those that exist at Ningpo.

SHANGHAE.

The Rev. T. McClatchie and Mr. G. Lanning are labouring at this important station. Bishop Russell thus describes a visit which he paid to Shanghae:—

On November 30th I started for Shanghae, and on the following Sunday (Advent Sunday) I preached two missionary sermons for the C.M.S. in the cathedral, in which I asked for help towards the erection of a little church near my house. The response to my appeal was 435 dollars, or about 100*l.*, which I hope will be enough, in addition to what I had previously received, to enable me to complete the work. The previous Thursday (St. Andrew’s Day) had been observed by the Dean (Mr. McClatchie) as a day of intercession for Christian Missions; when there was a large attendance in the cathedral of Missionaries and others, and the Dean gave a Missionary address, having asked Mr. Muirhead, the senior Missionary of the L.M.S., to read the lessons for him.—I stayed at Shanghae for ten days, and was, as usual, deeply impressed with the great importance of the place in a Missionary point of view, from the great influx of strangers into it from all parts of China, many of whom belong to the rich and influential classes.

There is an English School in connexion with the Shanghae Mission, supported not from the General Funds of the Society, but from a special Shanghae Schools Fund, a fund which belongs to the Society but is appropriated to educational purposes in Shanghae. The School is under the charge of Mr. G. Lanning. The average number of scholars during the year 1876 was thirty, their ages varying from ten to twenty-three, and the average age being sixteen. Mr. Lanning writes:—

I frequently meet in their school exercises with observations of their own which show that they apply their instruction to themselves. One boy concluded an answer to a question on God's judgments on idolaters with a fervent wish that China might be brought to a knowledge of God before it is too late. Similar remarks are frequently to be met with, and give great encouragement to me, as they are evidences that the Word spoken has not been in vain. It is a fact worth naming that I have had no objection urged against the Scriptural instruction; and this is the more remarkable since many of my scholars are sons of men of high standing among the Chinese, who are, I believe almost, if not quite, inaccessible to the Missionary. I do think that schools of this kind are amongst the best means of obtaining a Christian influence over the upper and middle classes of China.

A great drawback to the success of Missions is the openly wicked lives of many professing Christians (Europeans). This seems unusually the case here. Wickedness of the grossest and most palpable kind is rife in Shanghae. Sabbath-breaking is the rule, though happily there are many exceptions. Infidelity is common. Every kind of immorality seems to flourish. To so great an extent have certain forms of vice spread, that a strong leading article was written on the subject in one of our daily papers only a week or two ago.

Bishop Russell, who visited Mr. Lanning's School three times during his stay at Shanghae, was much pleased with the whole aspect of the establishment. The Bishop calls attention to the fact that the School is nearly self-supporting, and bears testimony to Mr. Lanning's anxiety to promote the temporal and eternal welfare of those committed to his charge.

PEKING.

The Society's Missionaries at this Station are the Rev. W. H. Collins and the Rev. W. Brereton. The latter arrived at Peking for the first time on the 20th of November, 1875. On the 17th of May he went to Ningpo to receive priest's orders from Bishop Russell. While visiting the Society's stations in the Chekiang province (to which Ningpo belongs), Mr. Brereton was attacked by sickness, and, on partial recovery, was medically advised to proceed to the well-known sanatorium, Chefoo. He returned to Peking in September, 1876, and at the date of his annual letter—17th November—had been fully restored to health ; but his acquisition of the language and entrance on full missionary work has been thus, in the providence of God, seriously retarded.

Terrible effects of opium-smoking.

The work at Peking has progressed, though it has not been marked by any very striking feature. Eight adults were baptized during the year. The Native Adherents now number fifty-five, of whom thirty are Communicants. No account is given of the little congregation meeting in the city itself. In the country stations the additions have only made up for the defections. Two or three have fallen away, because they did not meet with the temporal help which they apparently expected. Two have relapsed into opium-smoking. “If,” observes Mr. Collins, “the friends of Mission work could only see and feel, as we do, the terrible evils of the use of opium, they would not cease their efforts until England cleared herself of this guilt.” The weight of Mr. Collins’s testimony on this subject is enhanced by the fact that he is not only a Missionary of twenty years’ experience, but was before taking orders a fully-trained medical practitioner.—The recent political complications between England and China, seem to have had an unfavourable effect on the minds of the Pekinese ; offensive epithets having been more frequently heard by the Missionaries during the year, and the people showing greater unwillingness to listen to the daily preaching at the Mission Chapel. Mr. Collins has, however, as in former years, administered medical aid to many Chinese patients, by which opposition is naturally to some extent disarmed.

AND JAPAN

JAPAN MISSION.

(Commenced 1869.)

European Mission Establishment :

Rev. John Piper (m), to China, 1866 ; to Japan 1873 ; Secretary of the Mission.

Rev. Herbert Maundrell (m), to Madagascar, 1863 ; to Japan, 1875.

Rev. Charles Frederick Warren (m), to China, 1864 ; to Japan, 1873.

Rev. Walter Dening (m), to Madagascar, 1870 ; to Japan, 1873 ; at home.

Rev. Philip Kembell Fyson, B.A. (m), 1874.

Rev. Henry Evington, B.A., 1874.

Rev. John Williams (m), to East Africa, 1874 ; to Japan, 1876.

THE Rev. John Piper, who is the Secretary for the Japan Mission, writes :—

During the year 1876 the Government has issued a proclamation forbidding the wearing of the two swords by the class called Sa-murai (the literati). This abolition of a custom centuries old, which has fostered the pride and idleness of so large a class of vigorous men, was a bold measure, and a step in the direction of true progress. But when we remember that for ages the sword has been looked upon as the very “soul of the Samurai,” we cannot be surprised that the old Conservative spirits showed manifest signs of great displeasure with the progressionist party at the helm of national affairs.

Collateral
encouraging circumstances of the Japan
Mission.

2. The adoption of Sunday as a day of rest for all Government offices is an act which cannot be thought of with other feelings than those of true gratitude by all who desire to see Japan won for Christ. Sunday is so bound up with our Divine religion that it imperceptibly—but not on that account any the less effectually—familiarizes the people generally with the God of the foreigners and the Bible.

3. The virtual abolition of punishment to extort confession of guilt is another important step in the right direction. The laws of this country are undergoing a radical change in the hands of French legal advisers to the Government, and the Code Napoleon is being adapted to the wants of Japan. This will, no doubt, pave the way for a satisfactory adjustment of the extra territorial difficulty, and finally result in the opening of the empire to foreigners, and, as a consequence, facilitate the spread of the Gospel of God.

4. The Emperor's visit and progress overland to the north, as far as Hakodati, this year, is another of those acts so different from the exclusiveness of old days, which tends to impress the country people with the fact (difficult indeed for them to realize) that the head of their “divine kingdom” is human, and not divine.

5. The peaceful solution of the difficulty between Japan and Corea, which existed at the beginning of the year, is a similar testimony, showing that the Government of this country does not desire war if it can possibly be avoided, notwithstanding the warlike spirit of its new soldiers, proud of their training under the systems of European Powers.

6. And finally, the speedy suppression of another serious insurrection in the south-west, some months ago, witnesses to the already firm grasp which the Emperor and his advisers have got over the whole land.

I think you will agree with me that all these things, together with the fact that no serious obstacle has been put in the way of Christianity, and that large numbers are inquiring and listening to the Gospel, are encouraging signs for all engaged in the salvation of sinners. Let all who are interested in Christ's cause pray that the one thousand Protestant Native Christians in Japan may so walk and live as to help forward the opening of their long-closed country to the truth of Jesus, which alone can make them truly free.

NAGASÂKI.

The Rev. H. Maundrell, formerly of Madagascar, is the Missionary of this station. The Native Christian Adherents number eighteen, of whom nine are Communicants. Ten adults were baptized during the year. Mr. Maundrell writes :—

There has been a perceptible improvement in the behaviour of the congregation at Deshima. We have now a small Christian flock, a suitable form of morning and evening prayer, some fair singing, Holy Communion administered, and better conduct on the part of the non-Christian attendants.

Character of Japanese
Christians.

I shall endeavour to bear in mind the sound principle, urged by the Committee, of dealing with new Missions and infant congregations. Judging from the independent and patriotic character of the Japanese, it appears that it will not be difficult to early introduce the principle of self-support and self-government. There is even danger, according to what one hears about the “Union Church” at Yokohoma, of the Native Christians being unwisely precipitate in this respect. As the Native Church grows, both the missionaries and the Native agents will need much wisdom and grace that both may see how best to work together for the spread of the kingdom of Christ.

Twelve converts—ten adults and two children—have been baptized during the year; and during Bishop Burdon's visit to Nagasaki, in the month of June, eight of our Native Christians—six men and two women—were confirmed.

One encouraging incident that I must relate is the desire on the part of four of our converts to become evangelists to their fellow-countrymen. Two of these are natives of Saga, and the other two of Higo. All four belong to the Samurai (literary) class, and are very fairly educated. I scarcely yet speak of them as a preparandi class, though they are so in reality, having placed themselves under daily instruction, with a view to future usefulness. They are promising young men; and, should no unforeseen obstacle occur, they will become, I trust, in due time, the means of extending our operations to Saga and Kumamoto, two principal towns in the island of Kiushiu.

OSÂKA.

The Missionaries at this station are the Rev. C. F. Warren and the Rev. H. Evington. The Native Adherents at the close of 1876 numbered sixteen, of whom five were Communicants.—Seven adults were baptized during the year, one of whom has since left for Yedo, where Mr. Piper speaks well of her; and another, alas! towards the close of the year, “cast a cloud,” Mr. Warren writes, “over our otherwise bright sky by the course he pursued at his father’s funeral.” Six candidates were confirmed by Bishop Burdon on his visit to Osâka in July, 1876.—The three services mentioned in the Report for 1875 (Sunday morning and afternoon, and Thursday evening) have been continued. The average attendances at these services (17, 31, and 15) have not increased; but while still attended by some heathen—three or more Buddhist priests are occasionally present—they seem to have been increasingly beneficial to the Native Christians; and “the more settled character of the congregation marks a decided advance.” This is further aided by Sunday Bible-classes, in which both Missionaries take part.—One of the Native Christians, a jinriksha-drawer (somewhat corresponding to a bath-chair man in England), shows much zeal; and it is proposed to put him under a regular course of training, with a view to future work. Mr. Warren specially asks for prayer on his behalf.—There are six catechumens under regular instruction twice a week.—The Missionaries have also undertaken itinerating work in the villages within treaty limits, Mr. Warren taking one portion of the district, and Mr. Evington the other. They propose to visit the villages periodically during the summer and autumn months, and to follow up any opening that may present itself. The presence of a foreigner at the village inn will usually attract an audience of from ten to fifty persons, who are, generally speaking, attentive listeners, as well as quiet and respectful.—The following extract from Mr. Warren's annual letter, dated 18th December, 1876, will be read with interest :—

Day of Intercession for Missions.

St. Andrew's Day, 1876, was well observed as a Day of Intercession for Missions. Three services were held in our chapel, and a prayer-meeting in the house. One of the American Episcopal Missionaries officiated at an early Communion service, and gave a suitable address. Mr. Evington took the second service at mid-day. In the evening, at 6.30, I conducted a service in Japanese, consisting of the Litany and special prayers, and an address on a portion of the Lord's Prayer. There were forty Japanese present, some being Christians from the American Episcopal, and American Board, Missions. It was a truly charming sight, and marked a decided advance in our Mission since St. Andrew's Day last year. The prayer-meeting, with which the day was concluded, was well attended by members of the three Missions, and was presided over by Mr. Leavitt of the American Board Mission. The review of the day only deepens the conviction in my mind that a Day of Intercession for Missions, when duly observed in the Mission-field, cannot but be a means of rich blessing. May God preserve the Church from formality in this matter, and make each returning Day of Intercession more solemn, spiritual, and profitable, to His own glory and the advancement of His kingdom !

YEDO.

The work at this station (the capital of Japan) has begun to yield fruit. Four adults were baptized during the year. Five Native brethren now join with the Rev. J. Piper in partaking of the Lord's Supper.

At the close of 1875 Mr. Piper rented a house as his own residence, admirably situated for Missionary purposes, near the main street of the city. Part of it, which had been a large store or shop, he has fitted up as a chapel, at an outlay of 60*l.*, received from friends at Yedo and in England. The chapel will hold 150 persons. The first service held in it (before the fittings were completed), was on Epiphany (6th January), 1876, being one of the days of the "Week of Prayer," when fifty foreigners were gathered together. Mr. Piper writes :—

Hopeful beginning at Yedo.

We may indeed, then, look back on the year 1876 with "thankfulness and praise." It has been a year of first services, so far as our Society is concerned, in the capital of this Empire:

—The first service for worship, though mainly consisting of foreigners, on the Epiphany; the first baptism on Whit Sunday; the first confirmation on Sunday, October 1st; and the first administration of Holy Communion in the Japanese language on Sunday, October 15th. Also yesterday, Christmas Day, we held the first Church Council—composed of four Native brethren and myself—to discuss how best to further the cause of our Lord and Master in this city. [According to the Society's nomenclature, this should be termed a Committee, the term Council being restricted to bodies representing a plurality of congregations.] After service in the morning we asked the Christians to dinner, and then held the Council (Committee) above mentioned. I was elected Chairman, and one of them Secretary. So far as I can, I intend to impress upon them that the moment they become Christians it is their duty, and ought to be esteemed a privilege, to set about doing something for the spread of the Gospel which they have embraced.—Our preaching services for the heathen have been very well attended in the summer months; as many as 120 have sometimes been present.

NIIGÂTA.

The Rev. P. K. Fyson is the Missionary of this station. He writes as follows:—

Itself a large town, the only open port on the west coast, NIIGÂTA is the capital of one of the most populous provinces—if not the most populous province—in the empire, the seat of several important Government schools, and a great stronghold of Buddhism, as evidenced by both the number and the size of the temples.

Amongst the encouragements of the past year, I cannot but feel very grateful to God that He has permitted me to see some fruits even in the first year of my work here. It is not yet twelve months since I began to preach, and I have already had the privilege of baptizing two converts. The first baptism was on September 10th—a young man named I—, of the Samurai (literary) class, occupying a Government situation, and brother of my teacher. He has just left for his native place, about forty miles distant, having been transferred to the local office there. The other convert, named M—, also of the Samurai class, was baptized on November 19th. He intends entering one of the Government schools here, and I hope will be the instrument of bringing some of his fellow-students to Christ. Other encouraging facts are, that a good number of inquirers have come to me from time to time, and that I have sold altogether over $40, or 8*l.*, worth of books. Another cause for rejoicing is, that Dr. Palm, the Baptist medical missionary here, has received much encouragement in his work, and now has a congregation of nearly thirty members.

Amongst discouragements are—1. The fact that I have been able as yet to get little or no hold on the students in the various schools, though a fair number of the hospital students come to the Sunday evening service. 2. That amongst the inquirers so many have evidently been actuated by merely mercenary motives. 3. That others, who promised well for a time, have gone back.

I have no candidates for baptism at present, but I cannot but think that the seed sown will bear fruit in time.—I feel convinced that, although Niigata is one of the strongholds of Buddhism, and although the temples are still crowded on occasions of great festivals, yet Buddhism is fast losing its hold on the people, even the lower classes, whilst amongst the educated classes there are, I think, very few indeed who believe in that creed. The students in the schools seem to be to a great extent imbued with the prevailing spirit of infidelity; but the questions put, both by them and inquirers who have come in many cases from distant country districts, show that, at any rate, a knowledge of the facts and chief doctrines of Christianity is spreading throughout the land, and that cannot but be productive of good. There is no open opposition to Christianity here; nor do the people seem deterred from coming to inquire by any fear of incurring the displeasure of the Government. What does deter many is an ignorant fear of Christianity itself. The lower classes especially still hold to the belief in which they have been brought up, that the religion of Jesus is something not only supernatural but infernal. In fact, sad to relate, the word Kiris'tan (Christian) is, in the minds of many in this part of the country, almost equivalent to magic or sorcery, and I am afraid it will take some time to disabuse the lower classes of this idea.—In my opinion, our great want is Native evangelists to itinerate through the country.

HAKODATI.

If the work at this station is still in its infancy, it seems to be a healthy and thriving infancy, and to give promise, with God's blessing, of a vigorous manhood. The Native Christian Adherents are as yet only nine in number, three of these being Communicants. Three adults were baptized during the year. The Rev. W. Denning writes:—

The usual services at this station have been carried on. The attendance during the summer was frequently very good; and even in the winter, considering all the drawbacks, it was very encouraging. The Sunday morning congregation is usually composed for the most part of villagers from the country, who come in, every day to sell vegetables, and return to their homes in the afternoon. Four or five Bible-classes have also been held every week. I have endeavoured to make them as informal as possible, striving to elicit from each person attending them an expressions of their spiritual difficulties, which I try to clear up. The attendance at these classes varies very much, but we are seldom without two or three gathered in His name.—The baptisms during the year have been four in number. The three adults are most decided Christians, making every effort to teach their fellow-countrymen. One of the converts, baptized on Whit Sunday, has gone home to her kindred, and is telling them “what God has done for her soul.” Her husband is here, and is a most diligent learner and teacher.—Ono, a village twelve miles distant, makes our first out-station, being regularly worked by Ogawa, the first convert, who has taken up his residence there. The first service at Ono was held on September 13th, and since that I have visited the place, and preached and conversed with the people once a week. On one occasion we had 300 attendants at the service, and as a regular thing we got over a hundred.

Conversation with Inquirers has been extremely interesting, There have been a large number of inquirers, some from the lower classes, and others from the Samurai, or literati. Many of these have returned to their distant homes in the interior or on the main island, bearing with them some knowledge of the way of everlasting life. An interesting work has been going on among carpenters, no less than five having become very much interested in Christianity, three of whom have applied for baptism.

Cheering accounts from I. of Satsuporo continue to reach me. He has passed a most creditable examination in the Agricultural College, and is likely to hold an important office in the department for the development of the resources of Yezo. Some five or six persons are in the habit of meeting with him to read the Scriptures, and he has succeeded in selling a large number of religious books.

The opposition of both the Shintu and Buddhist priests has been very great.

Mr. Dening also paid several visits to the Ainos, an aboriginal tribe in the northern island (Yezo). His journeys among them were replete with interest; but there were no special results of a Missionary kind. In the spring of the present year Mr. Dening came to England on a visit, having previously welcomed a fellow-labourer, the Rev. J. Williams, late of the East Africa Mission.

NEW ZEALAND MISSION.

Retirement of Bishop
Williams.

THE Committee must commence their review of the New Zealand Mission by referring, which they do with deep feeling, to the resignation of the venerable Bishop of Waiapu (BISHOP WILLIAMS), who for the last fifty years has been identified with the Society's work in New Zealand, for the first thirty-three years as a Presbyter, and for the last seventeen as one of the Chief Pastors of the New Zealand Church. Under all the vicissitudes of Maori Christendom, the Bishop never failed to prove himself a true Missionary; and now that increasing infirmities have compelled his retirement from active service, the Committee are sure their friends will join them in the prayer that his remaining days on the river's bank may be spent as in the land of Beulah, brightened and cheered by the manifestation of the Saviour he has had grace so long and faithfully to serve.—Two other faithful European labourers—Mr. Chapman, long disabled from the laborious activities of his earlier Missionary career, and Mr. Basil Taylor, in the prime of life—have been removed during the year to their heavenly rest. Of Mr. Chapman, a New Zealand newspaper writes as follows:—

Character
of a de-
sionary.

Mr. Chapman came here [in 1830] with the estimable partner of his joys and sorrows, with all the buoyant spirit and hope of youth. Counting his life as nought, he fearlessly faced death in its worst form, so that he might win souls for Christ, and spend and be spent in His service. He was one of the most successful missionaries, "an Israelite indeed in whom was no guile." His people loved and venerated him as a father; and Mrs. Chapman's life among them can be gathered from the touching inscription on her gravestone; no high-flown language or false adulation nothing but the heart-rending cry of bereaved children—"Mother"—"KO MATA, 1855."

The necessity of maintaining and augmenting the supply of faithful men for the Native ministry is increasingly felt both by the Committee and the Missionaries. It is hoped that St. Stephen's College at Auckland, and the School at Te Aute, may be instrumental in God's hand for this purpose. The Bishop of Wellington has a small class of Maori preparandi receiving instruction from one of his clergy. The Rev. E. C. Stuart also, formerly the Society's Secretary in Calcutta, who is now, it is hoped, permanently connected with the New Zealand Mission, hopes to make himself acquainted with the Maori language, and to throw himself heartily into the same important work. India's loss will thus be New Zealand's gain.

THE steady advance which has for some years characterized the extreme northern districts through God's mercy, still continues. Several of the Native clergy are most highly spoken of by Archdeacon Clarke and Mr. Matthews; and the practised eye of Mr. Stuart gives great weight to the very favourable impression which he too has formed of them. Diminution of intemperance, increased acknowledgment of the sanctity of marriage, attention to the public means of grace, activity in church-building, and greater liberality in contributions for the support of their ministers, are also tokens for good.

KAITAIA and WAIMATE are both included in the Waimate Archdeaconry (Ven. E. B. Clarke). The European labourers are the Archdeacon himself and the Rev. J. Matthews;

Mr. Puekey being now regarded as a miles emeritus. Eight Native clergymen are under the Archdeacon's superintendence. These, Archdeacon Clarke writes, "are working most zealously, and all bear testimony to their usefulness." The statistics of the Archdeaconry give the following numbers: Native Christian Adherents, 5036; Communicants, 928; Adult Baptisms during the year, 38.

Speaking of his own more immediate district, WAIMATE, Archdeacon Clarke writes:—

Waimate.

The encouraging signs of the previous year have continued. Our work has become comparatively settled, and with the same daily and weekly routine which characterizes a parochial charge at home. Strangers attending our services are struck with the devoutness and heartiness of the congregations. Old settlers, who make no profession of religion, often contrast the present condition of the people to what it was eight or ten years ago. Retailers of intoxicating drinks complain that they do not sell a fifth part of the spirits which they once did. In every one of our congregations we can point out one or more who were once notorious for their bad lives, who never appeared at church, but who now are regular in their attendance, and in their daily conduct give reason to hope that the change is not only external.

One neat little wooden church, capable of seating 140 people, has been lately erected by the Natives at Waimamaku, on the west coast, at a cost of 245*l*. Having completed that, the people are now busily collecting funds with which to build a residence for the pastor whom we hope soon to send to them.

It was mentioned in the Annual Report for 1875-6, that the Rev. Matiu Kapa (p. 223), ordained on 24th August, 1875, was to be stationed at Waimamaku, the place named in the preceding paragraph. In the following passage of his annual letter, the Archdeacon explains how that arrangement was set aside:—

The Kaikohe and Mangakahia people have completed the endowment for the support of their pastor, and are now preparing timber for a house. We propose that the Rev. Matiu Kapa, who was placed there temporarily a year ago, shall have the permanent charge of the district with his head-quarters at Kaikohe. He was originally intended for Waimamaku, but so won the hearts of those amongst whom he laboured, that they would not hear of his leaving them, and offered to do anything to retain him. The Waimamaku people naturally complained of the others for forcibly detaining their minister, as they expressed it. Ultimately it was settled that the Rev. Meinata te Hara, now at Kaitaia, should take the post at first intended for M. Kapa.

The Archdeacon continues —

Two of our old and well-tried teachers have gone to their rest, Peaceful Henari Tipi and Piripo Rangiataahua. They were both among the first-fruits of the Mission in New Zealand. Having known them from my childhood, I can testify to the consistency of their lives. During the terrible relapse, which commenced immediately after Heke's war in 1846 and continued to within the last six or seven years, they remained true to their profession. When I took charge of this district eight years ago, they were two out of the six or seven who regularly attended the services, and when, in after years, that congregation increased to from seventy to 100 persons, they were very seldom absent from their places. I frequently visited them in their last illnesses. Christ was all in all to them.—We are greatly encouraged by the increased number of young people who attend at the table of the Lord. They are carefully watched over by their pastors, and thus assisted on their heavenward way.—the baptisms greatly exceed those of former years. This is to be attributed to the fact that the two Native clergy who work with me, the Revs. H. P. Taua and M. Kapa, have followed the people into their out-of-the-way "Kaaingas," which it was impossible for a single-handed missionary to reach. Others, again, are the children of some who, at one time, were in connexion with another Mission, but whom, for some reason, the missionaries of that Society have not been able to visit for several years.

Peaceful departure of two old and well-tried Native Teachers.

Fruits of labours of Native Pastors.

Mr. Matthews gives the following account of another Native labourer recently removed to the presence of the Lord:—

We regret to say that our old and long-tried itinerant preacher, Joseph Wilson (Hohepa Poutama), has been taken from us. His desire was fulfilled "that he might die in his work;" for he all but died in the act of preaching, at a village nine miles off, to an assembly of seventy or eighty Maoris, from the first line of the morning hymn, "Awake, my soul, and with the sun." He was universally respected by all the tribes. He had a powerful voice and a remarkable preaching talent, and he never spared either chiefs or people if they were inconsistent. Even the hostile Chief Heke, when near death, asked Mr. Matthews, "Where is Joseph?" and on his hearing of this he set out on a journey of eighty or ninety miles to visit him, but he was only in time to see Heke's remains. He was truly a man of one book, and that was the Bible. The fifth and eighth chapters of Romans were his peculiar favourites.

Death of a zealous itinerant preacher.

The Rev. E. C. Stuart has also furnished much interesting information respecting the work in this district. He thus describes the last Annual Meeting of the Native Church Board for the Waimate Archdeaconry:—

Annual Meeting of a Native
Church Board.

The Archdeacon is chairman, Mr. Matthews of course is a member, and the nine Maori clergymen and twelve lay representatives make up the Board. Its constitution and order of proceedings are conformed as far as practicable to the rules of the Diocesan Synod. The lay members are elected for a period of three years by the adult male members of the congregations. Where they attend from a distance, the congregation, through its churchwardens, makes a grant of travelling expenses where necessary. Eleven of the representatives were present, and a very respectable and intelligent set of men they seemed to be. Some of their speeches were capital—vigorous, sensible, and to the point, as the Archdeacon assured me. And I could see that they took a lively interest, and had their full share of weight, in the deliberations. Besides the members there was a large assemblage of other Natives, some of whom came from far distances.

The proceedings opened on Thursday, the 11th, with a preliminary service in the church; it was well filled with a congregation of about 250. The service was very hearty and devotional, and included an administration of the Holy Communion. I preached, through the Archdeacon's interpretation, on the last verses of the Epistle, Rom. xii. 4, 5, and the service was so arranged that all the nine Maori clergymen took some part. It was indeed an interesting occasion, and the appearance of our Native brethren, many of whom one knew as workmen that need not be ashamed, was very pleasing. I may mention that each day during the time we were together, there was morning and evening service, taken by the Maori clergy in turn. They arranged all this amongst themselves. I was present at all these services, at which there was always an attendance of from eighty to 100 adults. A hymn was sung; then the Psalms of the day read; then some other portion of Scripture, and a short address, concluding with prayer. The Board met for business on Friday and Saturday. The first matter was a rendering of accounts by the lay representatives, of the Church funds for the preceding year. These were read from written statements drawn up in a clear, business-like way. The total amount contributed in the year is 836*l.* 5*s.* 0½*d.* Sums amounting to 105*l.* 8*s.* 9*d.* were handed over for special funds, of which 5*l.* 18*s.* 6*d.* was amount of collections for the Melanesian Mission.—I omitted to mention the Archdeacon's opening address, in which he reviewed the events in their Church of the last year, and touched on the questions to be discussed. The business then proceeded according to a programme arranged by a small committee of the Native members the previous evening. One of the resolutions was to express their gratification at my presence amongst them, as representing in some sort the Kamatua, the Venerable Fathers, the Parent Committee. I replied, expressing the thankfulness which filled my heart at the sight of such a meeting, regarding it, and other signs of a revived life in the Maori Church, as the gracious answer to the prayer of faith which had never ceased to be offered for them by the Committee and other praying friends at home, even in the times of greatest trial and darkness.

WAIKATO AND TAUPIRI.

In these districts the Native Christian Adherents are estimated at 400, and the Native Communicants are 50. The Rev. B. Y. Ashwell writes:—

The Native Church of Taupiri, Waikato, and its neighbourhood still continues in a very lukewarm and dead state. The settlements in the vicinity of English towns seem to be absorbed in the one desire of getting money; and, although the Native villages are free from downright immorality in its worst aspect—drunkenness and licentiousness; yet card-playing and other amusements, introduced by the white man, has induced an apathy and indifference to the Gospel, so that the missionary is greatly grieved in visiting; the contrast to former times is so marked. The Native Church on the Waikato holds no bright light to draw back again to the Gospel even their own tribes and kindred living in the adjoining district; for the Kingites justly point to them and say, “We are a better people than many of the so-called Maori Christians.”

TAUPO.

The Rev. T. S. Grace, Missionary of this station, after a sojourn of seventeen months in England, set sail again for New Zealand in December, 1876, charged at his own request with the duty of re-organizing, as far as possible, the TAUPO Mission. In that district there were at one time twelve churches with large Native congregations, with the usual accompaniments of schools and prayer-houses and Native teachers. All this was swept away by the war; but several of the Maories are now pressing for the return of Mr. and Mrs. Grace. Mr. Grace proposes to begin by rebuilding the Mission-house (with houses for Native teachers), and establishing Industrial Schools for girls and boys.

The Rev. T. S. Grace, jun., a clergyman from the diocese of Nelson, and son of the Society's Missionary, visited Taupo in November and December, 1876, travelling thither from Wanganui. He found the Natives friendly (generally) everywhere. In the Tuhua district—a tract of country lying to the west of Lake Taupo, about sixty miles from north to south, and forty from east to west—the Natives, who are all Kingites, have adopted a new superstition, an offshoot of Hau-hauism. It is not worth describing. Even here, on one or two occasions, Mr. Grace preached to very attentive audiences; and the people, when remonstrated with for abandoning Christianity, attributed it to their having been left without a Missionary. The Waikatos to the east of Taupo, who are Queenites, received Mr. Grace more cordially. They are very much demoralized, but have renewed Christian worship, appointing a Lay Reader to conduct service; and they expressed their pleasure at the prospect of Mr. Grace, sen., returning to them, and establishing his proposed Industrial Schools.

II. Eastern Division.

Eight stations have been occupied in this division in the following chronological order:—1. Tauranga, 1835; 2. Maketu, 1835; 3. Rotorua, 1835; 4. Tauranga, 1840; 5. Waiapu (East Cape), 1842; 6. Wairoa, 1844; 7. Heretaunga (Te Aute and Napier), 1844; 8. Tokomaru, 1863.

European Mission Establishment:

Ven. Archdeacon Alfred Nesbit Brown (m), 1829.

Rev. Geo. Maunsell (m), 1866.

Rev. Seymour Mills Spencer (m), 1841.

Rev. Samuel Williams (m), (honorary) 1846.

Ven. Archdeacon William Leonard Williams, B.A. (m), 1853.

Mr. W. Reynolds, joined in the Mission, 1873.

THE retirement of BISHOP WILLIAMS has been already referred to (p. 204). Archdeacon Leonard Williams writes as follows:—

The state of the Church throughout the district is, in some respects, more encouraging than it was a year ago. The listless indifference of the past few years seems to be giving place to an important reaction, which is indicated generally by larger congregations and an increasing demand for religious books, and in some places still more by vigorous efforts to check the prevalence of intemperance. The leaders in these movements have great need of our prayers, that they may act always in humble dependence on Divine grace, and so insure the success of all their labours. Our Native Church Board, necessarily put off last February, was held at Waipiro in November. The meeting was a very interesting one.

I am thankful to notice a little improvement in some of the Government schools ; but the religious instruction of the children is not satisfactorily provided for. This was one of the subjects which received the attention of the Native Church Board at Waipiro. It is, indeed, one of the most pressing questions the Church has to grapple with ; but for the satisfactory solution of it we need, I think, a larger staff of Native clergy.

There are at present no young men who can be looked upon as candidates for holy orders. At the same time, there are one or two middle-aged men who might do good service if, after a little preparatory training, they were admitted to the ministry. This training I may perhaps be able to give them, if I am permitted to carry out my contemplated move to Poverty Bay in the coming autumn.

TAURANGA.

The Rev. G. Maunsell is now appointed to this Station. When it is mentioned that in the whole district there are only 150 Maories whom Mr. Maunsell can regard as Adherents, it will be seen what a grievous blow the work of the Society has received in this place, and how much has yet to be done in bringing matters back to their former condition. Among the Maori population there is much scepticism and much openly expressed disregard to religion. The improvement during 1876, the first whole year that Mr. Maunsell has been labouring among them, has been but slight. The children are growing up, for the most part, uneducated ; the population being so scattered that the Government day-schools do not supply their want. Mr. Maunsell urges the establishment of day-schools, such as are so successfully conducted at Napier and Te Aute.

ROTORUA.

The labourers in this district (including the lake and mountain country of the interior of the North Island with the coast of the Bay of Plenty from MAKETU to Cape Runaway) are the Rev. S. M. Spencer and the Rev. Ihiaia Ahu. Mr. Spencer estimates the Native Christians of his district at from 5000 to 6000. The extent, however, to which these are neglecting their profession may be partly gathered from the fact that the number of infant baptisms during the year, though exceeding that of former years for some time past, amounts to no more than 38. On the other hand,

Mr. Spencer notices an increasing attendance in many places on Sunday and daily worship. Hau-hauism had never been embraced to any extent in this district.

TE AUTE AND NAPIER (HERETAUNGA).

The Rev. S. Williams, the Missionary of this Station, has resolved henceforward to draw no salary from the Society, and to give his labours to the Mission gratuitously. He writes as follows :—

We are now drawing to the close of another year, during which we have continued to enjoy peace between the two races, and I trust that it has not been without its attending blessing. We were, however, visited for several months with a fearful scourge—the typhoid fever having spread through several of the villages with great virulence. It had the effect of convincing the believers in a new superstition of the utter inability of their so-called prophets to render them any assistance. We were particularly successful in our treatment of the disease.—I have regularly visited the several Native villages in the district, when I have generally found the people attentive to their religious services, and anxious for more frequent visits than any one person can possibly give them. It has been gratifying also to observe a strong determination to promote a reformation in the matter of intemperance.

The boys' school at Te Aute has gone on very satisfactorily, even more so than we dared to expect; and the number of scholars has steadily increased to thirty-four, quite as many as could be accommodated; so that we are obliged to enlarge our buildings.

The Boarding School for girls at NAPIER is, through God's mercy, in a prosperous condition. During the year 1876 it was under the care of Archdeacon and Mrs. Williams. Miss Kate Williams, daughter of the Bishop, also renders assistance. Thirty boarders, mostly Natives, one only being purely English, are thus being brought up “in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.” The Archdeacon hopes to enlarge the building so as to accommodate fifty girls. Such is the desire of many among the Maories that their daughters may receive a superior education, that, in the scanty supply of Protestant Schools, several Protestant children have been sent to Roman Catholic establishments.

III. Western Division.

The division was first occupied by Bishop Hadfield in 1839. It now comprises two stations: 1. Wanganui, 1840; 2. Otaki, 1842.

European Mission Establishment:

Rt. Rev. the BISHOP OF WELLINGTON (m), 1838.

Rev. James McWilliam, joined in the Mission, 1874.

THE Bishop of Wellington writes as follows, under date January 8th, 1877:—

Before you receive this, Mr. Burrows will have informed you of the death of the Rev. Basil Taylor, of WANGANUI, who died at Auckland on the 3rd November. The disease which ultimately proved fatal had for some time before depressed him, and deprived him of his previous energy. He was much beloved by the Natives. He occupied of late years a very difficult post; the recent wars having probably demoralized the Natives more in this district than in any other. This arose in some measure from their being scattered over a very large area, rendering it impossible to afford adequate superintendence.

I visited Wanganui during the year, and proceeded on the coast for sixty miles beyond it, and shall visit the district again, God willing, early in March. On the two previous years I visited the Natives on the coast to the extreme end of the diocese. After much consideration, the conclusion I have arrived at is, that a mere visit once or twice a year is almost useless, and that little success can be expected on efforts to gather these scattered sheep again into the fold, until some clergyman either resides among them or visits them regularly and frequently. The present is a most trying time for all these Natives. Unless they have ministerial superintendence, there is too much ground for fearing they will be led away either to new forms of superstition or to apostasy. There is now manifested a considerable desire to live in accordance with the rule of the Gospel. I sincerely hope that some young, active, and energetic clergyman may soon be found to occupy the vacant post at Wanganui.

At the present time the Rev. James McWilliam and myself are the only Maori-speaking English clergymen in the diocese.

Mr. McWilliam has been labouring in OTAKI and its vicinity with great diligence and success. Besides his regular missionary work, he has had three young men reading with him preparatory to ordination. During the last six months, in the absence of a regular schoolmaster, he has had much of his time occupied in the school. He is assisted by two Native deacons. The Rev. Rewiri Te Wanui resides at Otaki, and visits the neighbouring villages. The Rev. Henari Te Herekau is at Manawatu; he has been most energetic, never failing at short intervals to visit every small village in his district, and has done this with the best results.—I have just returned from Otaki. Last Sunday was most interesting. A large congregation assembled in my old church. Mr. McWilliam and the two Native deacons just named were present. I then ordained one of the students who had been reading during the last two years with Mr. McWilliam—Pineaha Te Mahauariki. I had baptized him while an infant in 1842. He was some time at the Otaki school. He was also a short time at St. John's College, Auckland. He acted for some years as a teacher at Manawatu. I have always known him as a man of unblemished character. There were eighty-seven Native Communicants at the Lord's Supper on the day of the ordination.

I have appointed the Rev. Pineaha Te Mahauariki to Wairarapa, which is to the east of Wellington, whither he will proceed next week to begin his labours. In October I visited Papawai, a central place at Wairarapa, where some of the most influential Natives reside, and where others assembled to meet me. They appeared very desirous that the Native whom I told them I purposed to ordain should come and reside among them. I am happy to say that both the English settlers there and the Natives have promised me contributions towards his support. I have a high opinion of one of the other students under Mr. McWilliam's tuition. He possesses good abilities, great energy, and much Christian zeal. I venture to hope that I may be able to ordain him within the next twelve months, and should much like to place him on the coast to the north of Wanganui. But I fear that I should not be able to expect, either from the Natives or the settlers there, much assistance towards his maintenance. I last summer confirmed fifty-three Natives in the Otaki district. I have every reason to think that the Divine blessing continues to rest on the Native Church; but the labourers are few. We need help, and above all the prayers of the Church.

Deacon.

P.S. January 8th, 1877.—Since writing the above, I have heard of the Native deacon's reception at Papawai. The Rev. A. Knell, who resides at Greytown, about two miles from Papawai, and has some knowledge of the Maori language, writes under date of the 1st instant as follows:—"I am very much pleased with what I have seen of Pineaha; he is a better man than I had even hoped, and I think he cannot but be successful in his work. He, for his part, is much pleased with Papawai, and the Natives he has met with there. He says the words of all of them are good. This morning he called to tell me he had a good congregation, and had baptized five children. He looked very pleased and happy. He does not seem a man who would be easily disheartened. At present he is staying with Mainhera (the principal chief) at Papawai, with whom he is much pleased; indeed I fancy the good impressions are mutual. Poor old Ihaka

From ST. ANDREW'S the Rev. R. Young writes under date, 21st November, 1876:—

North American Indo-European Christians.

In my last annual letter I expressed a fear that the want of energy and thrift of the Native half-bred population would prevent their coping with the more active and industrious emigrants from Lower Canada and the old country. I think the impression of their lack of energy partly arose from the listlessness of discouragement. To see all their efforts, year after year, defeated by the grasshopper paralyzed their energies. With brighter prospects some active qualities are aroused. Not only was a considerable quantity of fresh land broken up this year, but next year I think we shall see more ground cultivated than ever before.

The congregation have subscribed liberally in money and labour to the repairs of the roof of the church. The leading inhabitants of Park's Creek, which may be regarded as an out-station of St. Andrew's, held a public meeting, at which they resolved to build a church, the schoolroom in which service had hitherto been conducted having fallen into a dilapidated condition. With a grant of 37*l.* from the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, and some help from other quarters, they hope to erect a wooden structure, sufficient for their purpose, the area of which will be 40 feet by 22.—The Sunday Schools of St. Andrew's and Park Creek are in full working order, and form one of the most hopeful parts of the work.—The Mothers' Meetings are greatly valued by those who attend them, and Mrs. Young is much cheered by manifestations of the grace of God in the hearts of some of those for whom she is thus labouring.—The Young Men's Association meets with a fair amount of encouragement and success. Mr. Young writes:—

The young men are often a source to me of much anxiety. They crowd the church; and many of them appear at times deeply impressed. But they are reserved to a painful degree, proud, and changeable as the wind. It is very difficult to get hold of them during the week. I get an opportunity now and then; and my Sunday-school superintendent, an earnest Christian himself, quite a young man, uses his influence for good. I look forward and yet trust to secure a nucleus around which those who are seriously impressed, and in whose hearts it may please God to begin a true work of grace, may rally. Once let the young men realize that if they come out on the Lord's side there is a fellowship of Christian young men to whom they can pin themselves, and I feel it will be a great step. One or two efforts in this direction have so far failed. Our Young Men's Association, being an old-established institution with traditions of its own, though very useful in its own way, yet fails of this thorough character. I look hopefully forward to the next confirmation season, and feel sure that, with God's blessing and His overruling hand, it will supply the want.

The Native Christian community at St. Peter's (INDIAN SETTLEMENT) numbers 745 souls. The Communicants are registered at 180; the number for 1875 having been 196. No reason is assigned for this variation. The pastor of the Settlement, the Rev. G. Cook, gives some instances of supporting and consoling grace granted to members of his flock in their dying hours; and speaks with pleasure of their devout and earnest demeanour at the Table of the Lord, and at other public ordinances. As regards temporal matters, they have at length, after many years of desolation through the ravages of the locusts, been blessed with an abundant harvest.

A later communication, 18th December, 1876, brings the sad tidings that small-pox had broken out in the Settlement with much violence. It was, however, checked by the humane and active exertions of the local Government.

ST. CLEMENT'S (MAPLETON) is ministered to by the Rev. Alfred E. Cowley, son of the Archdeacon, and recently transferred to Manitoba, from the Sindh Mission in Hindustan. Mapleton, however, the Archdeacon observes, is so fast changing its character from the growth of the colony that "it affords little to tell of such work, strictly, as our Society stands engaged to perform."—The Rev. W. H. Moore, late Pastor of Mapleton, died in October, 1870.

Of SCANTERBURY the Archdeacon Cowley writes:—

The spiritual stamina of our Christian Indians at Scanterbury, I fear, is not very healthy. The Christian chief there, however, thank God, is a bright exception. He was brought up in our school, and still reads Ojibewa fluently. He is in the habit of holding service with his fellow-Christians on Lord's-days, and of reading God's Holy Word to them.

FORT ALEXANDER.

Archdeacon Cowley writes:—

At LANSLOWNE and in its district there are, in connexion with the mission, some 165 Christian Indians and twenty-three Christian half-breeds. There is also a solitary European there. Of the whole, about thirty-six persons are in regular and full communion. Many of the Indians live in houses upon the banks of the river, where also they cultivate the soil and eat of its products. But, alas! the great business of the Indians is hunting, and to this their poverty still impels them. Trapping the fur-bearing animals exposes the Indians to much hunger, fatigue, and cold; but these are not its greatest evils. They suffer intellectually and spiritually while absent from the public ordinances of religion; and the children, being with their parents, unlearn all that has been taught them at school. The Church of Rome, also, has been very diligent in its efforts to proselytize our people, and to introduce among them the worship of the blessed Virgin Mary, and all the other errors and superstitions of its own teaching. Still through God's mercy our numbers have increased during the past year, and their consistency, upon the whole, has been maintained. On each of the four Sundays which I spent at Lansdowne the attendance and behaviour at Divine Service was good and decorous, and at the Lord's Supper reverent and devout. Your catechist is very persevering in his duties—it is a great pity his education is so imperfect—and withal, I trust, a thoroughly God-fearing man. The Indians (Sotos) seem fond of him, and appear to confide in his goodness; they are often at his house, leaving him but little leisure.

Black River [an out-station from Lansdowne] is a small stream flowing into the lake Winnepeg, at perhaps some twenty miles north of the Winnepeg River; its banks are wooded and low; but they say the soil is good and fruitful. The Indians whom I saw at Black River have all joined our Church, except two—a heathen and a Roman Catholic—and all have remained faithful, notwithstanding the vigorous and sustained efforts of a priest of Rome to lead them away. The woman whom I appointed to keep school there last winter for the benefit of the Indians has done well. I found her teaching a prosperous school, with some twenty names upon the book, most of whom could read in the first book tolerably well, and some even in a higher book; several could write on slates.

FORT FRANCIS (now called ALBERTON) is occupied by the Rev. Robert Phair. It lies about half way between the city of WINNEPEG to the west, and Thunder Bay, or Lake Superior, to the east, being rather more than 200 miles from each of these two places. The Indians, thinly scattered about in the district, are of the Soto tribe. Owing to the scantiness of the Society's resources, and the exigencies of other places, Missionary work here in past years was feeble and intermitted. Meanwhile intercourse with Europeans generally was gradually increasing; so that the Indians, while not losing their native superstition, have imbibed western vices. The present occupation of Fort Francis, which began towards the close of the summer of 1874, will prove, it is hoped, permanent; until at least the Society's labours are rendered unnecessary by the activity of the Church of the country. Mr. Phair, while fully stating the difficulties above mentioned, acknowledges with thankfulness several signs of encouragement. A desire for education is increasing; the Indians are beginning, though slowly, to conquer their natural indolence and to cultivate the plots of ground reserved for them near that station by the Government; and Mr. Phair's two fellow-labourers—one of mixed descent, at Long Sault, forty miles to the north, the other, a pure Indian, at American River, twelve miles from Fort Francis—are working zealously and obtaining some influence with the Native population. In the summer large numbers of Indians pitch their tents at the station itself, which gives Mr. Phair good opportunities for preaching the gospel to them.

SWAN RIVER DISTRICT.

The statistics of this district—seventy Adherents, eight Communicants, two adult baptisms—will show that but little progress has yet been made. It was first occupied in 1864, but the occupation has been intermitted and irregular. The Rev. J. Reader, who is at TOUCHWOOD HILLS, the principal station, is very desirous for European fellow-labourers. With the demands made by the immense populations of China, India, and Japan, it must be very doubtful whether such help can be given by the Society. It seems rather a sphere into which Native labourers should be pushed forward, responsibility being boldly (with prayer to God) thrown upon them, and one being tried after another, until by such trial a qualified brother is found. And if additional European evangelists are required here, they should be sent and supported by the Church of Manitoba.

CUMBERLAND DISTRICT.

DEVON, with its out-stations of Cumberland, Moose Lake, and Grand Rapids, was during 1876 under the care of a Native clergyman, the Rev. H. Cochrane. In his statistics Mr. Cochrane does not estimate the number of the Native Christians generally. Of Communicants there are at Devon 201, at Moose Lake two, at Grand Rapid twenty-four.

Twenty-five adults were baptized during the year, respecting whom no particulars are given. Moose Lake is mentioned by Mr. Cochrane as a part of his district where the people are still living in heathen darkness, and to which he wishes and hopes for the future to devote more of his time and labour.

Western Division.

European Mission Establishment :

Rev. J. Hines (m), 1874.

THIS division of the Mission is geographically the same as the Saskatchewan Diocese. The Bishop warmly supports the Society's efforts, and has kindly consented to be chairman of the Society's Saskatchewan Missionary Conference. The Rev. J. Mackay, a country-born clergyman of mixed descent, and one of the Society's Missionaries, is the Local Secretary of the Mission.

Treaties have been entered into by the local British Government with the Indians of this diocese at Fort Carlton, and also farther to the west at Fort Pitt. At the Carlton treaty, four out of the eight chiefs were Christians connected with the Society. Adequate portions of land are reserved for the Indians by these treaties; and there is reason to hope that they will settle down to agricultural pursuits. The Committee desire to occupy the openings thus presented; and with this view an industrial agent, Mr. T. Clarke, has already been sent to strengthen the Mission. Mr. Clarke sailed from Liverpool in May of the present year.

Mr. Mackay, who now resides at CARLTON, on the Northern Branch of the Saskatchewan River, was formerly in charge of STANLEY. That station is at present without any resident Missionary or Native Clergyman, the work being carried on by Mr. John Sinclair, a Native of Stanley, and a Cree Indian. The latest account of the work at Stanley is given in a letter from Mr. Mackay, dated 21st November, 1876, when he had just returned from a visit to the place. The Sunday Services have been regularly conducted by Mr. Sinclair, who is a fluent reader and preacher in his own language. Of the converts connected with the station, Mr. Mackay reports, without hesitation, that there is among them "a large amount of evident sincerity in their Christian profession. The instruction of the young is carried on with great difficulty from the necessarily nomad habits of the people. Progress has been made even in this branch, notwithstanding. In March, 1876, Mr. Stanley presented to the Bishop of Saskatchewan fifty-nine candidates for confirmation, nearly all of them young people, and on the whole decidedly "further advanced in knowledge" than the candidates presented on the last occasion five years previously. As regards Missionary spirit, Mr. Mackay writes:—

Our Stanley Indians still continue to show a Missionary spirit, which, if properly directed, might make up in some measure for our inferiority, in point of numbers, to the trained agents of the Church of Rome. This summer, one of our Christian Indians undertook a Missionary visit to Pelican Lake, and his visit was most acceptable to his countrymen. When he left to return to Stanley, they all accompanied him to his canoe, and, before embarking, he knelt with them on the shore and commended them in prayer to God. This Indian is this winter at Deer Lake, and I trust is doing some good among the Natives of that part of the country. Voluntary efforts of Native Christians.

A large band of Chipewyans visited Stanley this autumn, and remained a considerable time at the station. Sinclair laboured diligently among them while they remained, and some of our Christian Indians also took an active part in leading them to a knowledge of the truth. These Chipewyans are professedly Romanists, but they have been taught very little beyond reciting a few prayers. It was noticeable that for the first time they pitched their tents among the Crees. Formerly, when any Chipewyans visited the station, they always formed a separate camp.

The activity of the Church of Rome should, however, be borne in mind. Their stations, as compared with those of the Society, are in the proportion of two to one; and "in the number of their agents," writes Mr. Mackay, "they out-number us still more."

In temporal matters, the changes that are taking place elsewhere are not likely to affect the state of the Indian population in the Stanley district for years to come. The land offers few attractions to the agriculturist; and it is separated by 300 miles of trackless wilderness from the nearest point to which, as far as can be judged at present, steam communication is ever likely to be extended. The Stanley Indians, however, while not abandoning their occupation as hunters, are beginning to adopt more civilized habits, building houses, and cultivating plots of land, at convenient places in the neighbourhood of their hunting-grounds.

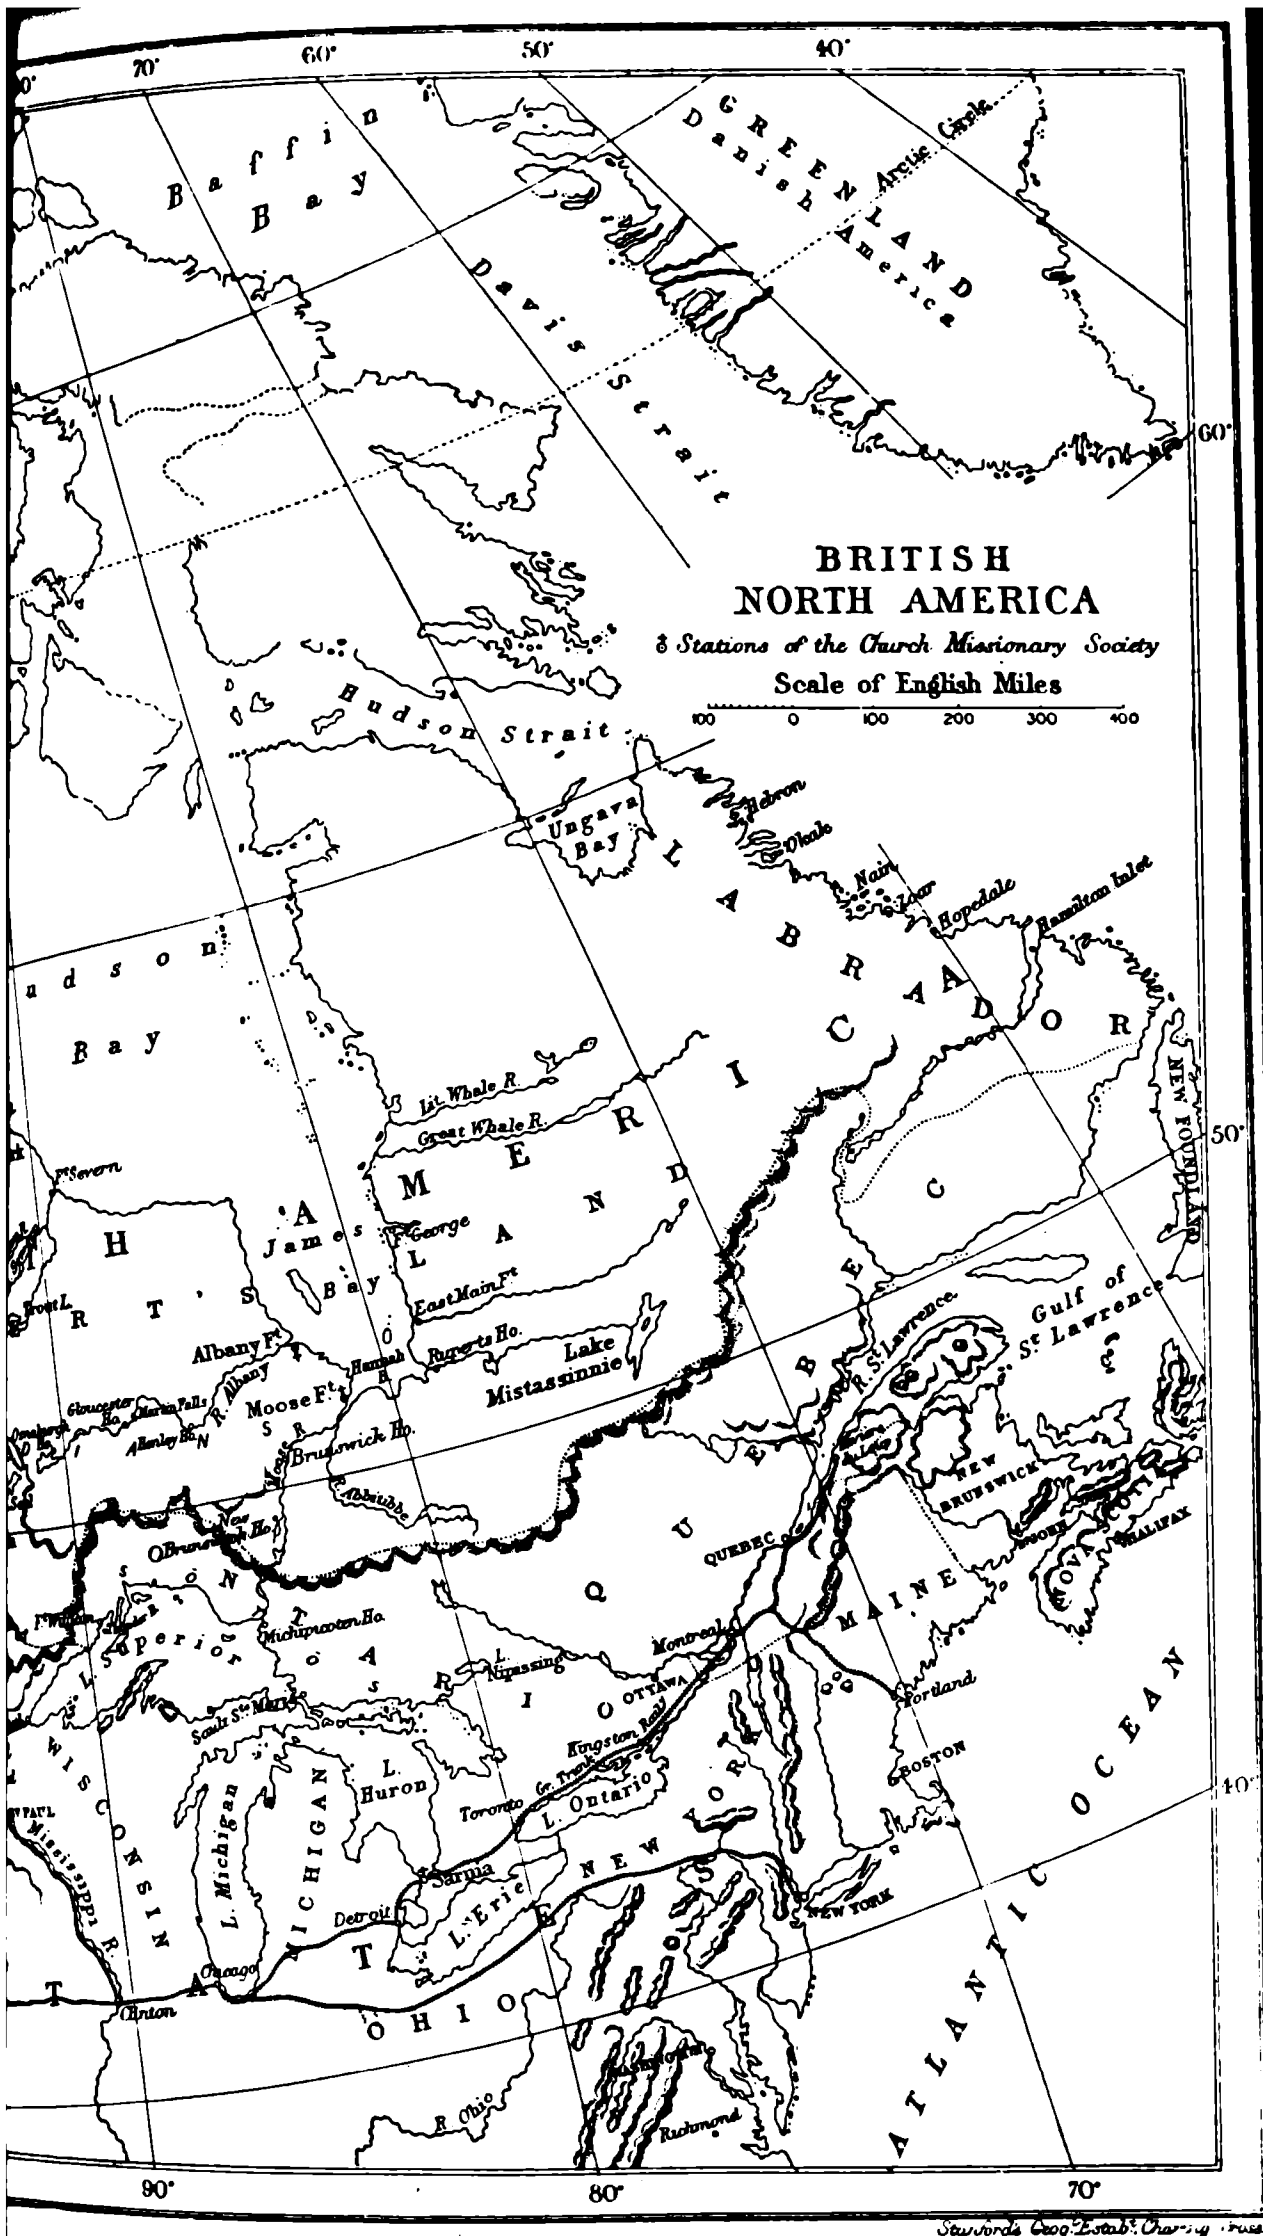

Of the station at ASISIPI the Rev. J. Hines is not only the Missionary, but the founder. The station is situated about fifty or sixty miles north of Fort Carlton. Mr. Hines has been enabled to labour with much diligence and patience under circumstances of but chequered encouragement. The Native chief of the place has abandoned all heathen rites, and is a regular attendant at divine service; but for some reason which cannot be ascertained, still refrains from asking for baptism. The farming operations have not been successful; but the Indians are not discouraged, as the summer, they say, was an exceptional one, there having been several severe frosts in June, July, and August. Four adults have been baptized during the year. Mr. Hines has succeeded in inducing twenty-five families to settle down at Asisipi to the work of farming. All these are under Christian instruction, and thirty-six children attend the day-school.

At his late conference with the Plain Indians at Fort Carlton, the Lieutenant-Governor expressed himself much pleased with what he heard of the work at Asisipi, and appointed the two Native chiefs of that locality to be the head chiefs for the whole Cree nation. Mr. Hines is also to receive a pecuniary grant from the Government for educational purposes.—The following extract from Mr. Hines's letter will be read with much interest:—

The inward conflict.

One evening, after class was over, I asked if they thoroughly understood what they had just been saying. They said they were able now to understand and talk about God's Word and His Son Jesus; but at first they could not understand it, even though it was in their own language. I told them that soon perhaps they would find something that would interrupt them, when they were thus thinking about what is good, and would change their thoughts by something that was not good. This would be the Wicked one, who is not pleased when we are good, but wants us to be wicked like himself; and he is very strong too, and if we try to resist him in our own strength we are sure to fail; but if we ask Jesus to strengthen us, He will give us strength. The chief, who had been silent all the time, now said, "Often when I am alone I try to think about what you have been telling me; but all at once my thoughts are led on to something that is not good, and then I feel something telling me not to think of what the minister has been telling me, but to follow on in the way of my forefathers: then something tells me that I ought to obey God's word rather than man's; and there is at times such a struggle going on in my mind which makes me feel very uncomfortable." I told them that more or less they would feel this opposition going on in their minds, until God saw fit to take them to Himself. I also told them that this is one of the greatest proofs we can have that we are trying to please God; because, if we were not trying to please Him, but living on in the ways of sin and wickedness, the prince of wickedness would not molest us.

RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF ATHABASCA, D.D. (m), 1865.
Rev. William D. Reeve (m), 1869.

THE Bishop of Athabasca (Dr. Bompas) gives the following general view of the work in his diocese:—

The Missions are as follows:—

1st. The Tukuth Mission, of which the head-quarters are at FORT MACPHERSON, Peel's River, where a Mission-house is now erected. This Mission is occupied by Archdeacon McDonald, who, after about twenty-five years' service in the Mission, of which nearly fifteen have been spent in his present remote and isolated position, was appointed last year to the Archdeaconry of Mackenzie river. This Mission comprises the Tukuth nation and the Eskimo, the former of whom evince a most gratifying zeal for Christian instruction. The latter nation also (the Eskimo) is fully open to the reception of the Gospel.

2nd. The Mackenzie Mission.—The head-quarters of this Mission are at FORT SIMPSON, Mackenzie River, where missionary operations have now been conducted for nearly twenty years. A handsome church has been erected, and a roomy Mission-house. The station has been in charge for the past five years of the Rev. W. D. Reeve, who, by his quiet Christian demeanour, has won the affections of the residents. There are two branch stations connected with this Mission, one at Fort Norman and one at FORT RAE, both of which exhibit promising features. It is intended to leave them for the present in charge of catechists, to be superintended by the Fort Simpson missionary.

3rd. The Athabasca Mission.—This it is intended shall be occupied by the Bishop; his head-quarters being at FORT CHIPEWYAN, Athabasca Lake, where it is proposed to form a Mission Dépôt for the supply of the more Northern Missions. The Indians here are of the Chipewyan race. An important branch of this Mission is to be at FORT VERMILLION, Peace River, for the benefit of the Beaver Indians. The Rev. A. C. Garrioch has been nominated to the charge of this Mission.

Tukuth Mission.

This Mission is under the charge of Archdeacon McDonald. Its latest statistics, those of 1874, were as follows:—Native Christians and Catechumens, 1450; Communicants, 101; Baptisms, Adults, 160, Children, 154. The Archdeacon, in his last annual letter, dated 25th January, 1876, and received in London on the 6th September following, writes as follows:—

Character
of Tukuth
Christians.

The majority of the Indians belonging to all the different tribes have been visited by either my brother or myself, at their camps, or at some appointed rendezvous. The preaching of the Word has been listened to with undiminished avidity, accompanied with an earnest desire for regular Christian instruction. The Christian converts have on the whole been correct in their conduct. It is not pretended that all evince an ardent longing for the knowledge of Divine truth. But there are many that appear to be imbued with a spirit of sincere piety, which is manifested by a profound reverence of God, a growing humility, and strenuous endeavours after a conformity to the Divine will. The number of Communicants has greatly increased. There has been also a large number of baptisms; of adults 160, and of children 154. Additional Christian leaders (unpaid) have been appointed. There are eighteen altogether. All I trust have their hearts in the work. Daily morning and evening prayers are conducted by them, and they are diligent in teaching and exhorting according to their ability. Contributions have been given by the Indians to the value of over 20*l*.

A recent letter from Bishop Bompas gives the information that he had been able, in June, 1876, to visit the Tukuth Mission, and to administer the rite of Confirmation to many of the Native Christians.

Eastern Division.

James's Bay District, 1851; York District, 1854.

European Mission Establishment:

RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF MOOSONEE, D.D. (m), 1851.

Ven. Archdeacon W. W. Kirkby (m), 1852.

Rev. J. H. Keen, 1875.

Mr. Edmund J. Peck, 1876.

THIS Division of the Mission is coextensive with the diocese of Moosonee. The Bishop, who still retains his name on the list of the Society's Missionaries, has under his episcopal supervision two European and two Native clergymen; all of whom are agents of the Society. The European clergymen are—Archdeacon Kirkby, of YORK; and the Rev. J. H. Keen, who is more immediately associated with the Bishop at MOOSE. The Native brethren are—the Rev. Thomas Vincent, stationed at ALBANY, which may be regarded as an out-station from MOOSE; and the Rev. John Sanders, recently ordained, and appointed to the more distant out-stations of Matawakumme and Flying Post, about 500 miles south of Moose.

MOOSE.

The accounts from this station—the Bishop's own headquarters—are satisfactory. The Indians are much delighted with their newly-printed Cree Psalters, which they are now able to make a good use of in public worship. The ordination of Mr. Sanders, referred to above, took place at this station on Sunday, the 14th May, 1876. A very large congregation was assembled, and all present seemed deeply impressed with the proceedings.—The school for the Indian children was well kept up through the winter.—The English resident officers of the Hudson's Bay Company are, some of them, a special comfort to the Bishop, and a strength to the Native Christian community.—The Bishop's account of a journey to several of the out-stations in the summer of 1876 contains some interesting and illustrative passages. Of his visit to Rupert's House, which lies due west from Moose, at the south-east corner of Hudson's Bay, the Bishop writes:—

The Indians were very numerous, had made good hunts, were well in health, liberal in spirit, and as eager as ever for the word of life. No children are more attached to an earthly father than these Indians seem to be to me. I have not seen them for two years; yet a stranger, judging from their appearance in the house of God, from the manner in which they used their books, and their general demeanour, must have thought that they had the means of grace constantly among them, that they had daily access to their church, and that a minister's voice was always ringing in their ears. And yet how different is the reality! I here confirmed seventeen persons, and administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to fifty.

Eagerness of Moose Christians for the word of life.

After remaining a week at Rupert's House, the Bishop returned to Moose, and after a few days set sail for Fort George and Whale River, which lie on the eastern coast of James's Bay, to the north of Rupert's House. Fort George is a rendezvous for Cree Indians. At Great Whale River both Indians and Eskimos are found; while Little

Whale River is more exclusively an Eskimo centre. The Bishop writes under date, 23rd August, 1876 :—

instruction among North American Indians
mos.

At Fort George I found but a small number of Indians, most of them having gone on to Great Whale River to engage in a whale fishery there. But those I did see showed their usual avidity for instruction, and with them I spent four days. It grieved me much to be unable to assure them that they would have a clergyman of their own by the ship; they have waited patiently year after year. I trust they will have but little longer to wait, for scarcely any field in the world seems whiter to harvest than that comprising the north-eastern coast of Hudson's Bay. I here baptized ten, confirmed seven, and administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to four persons.—I then went on to Great Whale River, which we reached on Friday, July 28th, and where I remained eight days. The Indians were very numerous. With many of them I was much pleased, though many of them are deplorably ignorant. But what can be expected? I had not been to Great Whale River for five years; some of the poor creatures had not seen me for ten; and could I hope to find a strong remembrance of divine things among a people so circumstanced? Rather let me thank God that all knowledge of Christ had not become entirely obliterated from their minds.—But the Eskimos: how can I sufficiently praise their constancy? They hold on to the scant knowledge they possess with a tenacity which astonishes me. Instead of going back, they go forward; what one knows he seems anxious to impart to others; some whom I baptized I had never seen before; and one young woman, the most intelligent of the whole party, had never seen an European house or book until the summer of 1875, and yet now handled and read her precious little volume as if she had been instructed in it from her infancy.

The above letter was written by the Bishop before he had heard that the Committee had found one whom they deemed a suitable agent for the Eskimos. Mr. E. J. Peck set sail for Hudson's Bay in June, 1876; and under date 2nd January, 1877, writes from Little Whale River as follows :—

of work among

I have received wonderful help, which has furthered my work in a remarkable manner. This came by having the company of an Eskimo interpreter during my journey: from him I learned much of the language as well as from reading the Labrador Testament, which I have been carefully studying ever since my departure from London. On my arrival at the station, I found that the Labrador Testament was in a great measure understood. I have therefore spread the contents of the same by every possible means. I have committed portions of it to memory, which I use in conversation.* Five chapters are also brought into the syllabic characters. Thus two Eskimos who can read these characters are now able to read to their own people the wonderful truths which are contained in the opening chapters of St. John's Gospel. Texts are also written in large type. These will be read by my helpers, viz. Adam Lucy, the interpreter, and John Molucto, who, with his son Moses, do all they can to assist me. The body of Eskimos arrive in March or April. The number of Eskimos whom I have already ministered to are about forty; there is nearly that number here at present. I am now teaching them to read in the Syllabic characters. They show much aptitude and willingness to learn. Most of them can now read fairly John iii. 16. I also teach Adam Lucy and Moses Molucto to read in English, their knowledge of the English language being fair. Perhaps God may call them to His work.—I have at present a collection of nearly three thousand words, nearly all of which I know.—I have made good progress also in the study of the Indian language.

ALBANY (with its out-stations of Martin's Falls, Osnaburgh, &c., &c.) is, as above stated, under the charge of a country-born brother, the Rev. T. Vincent. Mr. Vincent has under his care 440 Native Christians, of whom 52 are Communicants. Mr. Vincent's visits to the out-stations were somewhat interfered with by various causes. Being, however, at Albany when a large party of Osnaburgh Indians came thither, Mr. Vincent made the best use of the opportunity. Most of them showed a longing desire for more acquaintance with the Gospel.

YORK.

Archdeacon Kirkby is still the Missionary of this station; with its out-posts at Churchill to the north, Severn to the west, and Trout Lake to the north. All the Indians connected with York itself are now Christians by profession. The whole number of Indian Christians under the Archdeacon's charge is not given; but the Communicants number 70: 61 at York, 4 at Severn, and 5 at Trout Lake. Twenty-three adults were baptized in the year ending 14th September, 1876. The contributions of the Native Christians during the same period, in cash, in kind, and in labour, are estimated at 36*l.* 8*s.* 6*d.*

In a letter dated 14th September, 1876, the Archdeacon writes from York as follows:—

The event of the year which has most filled my heart with grateful praise is the death of heathenism at this station. This took place last Whit-Sunday, when Beardy, the chief of the Death of heathenism at York.

Character

Samatawa tribe, and sixteen others of his party, were baptized in the name of the Lord, having, as I trust, first given their hearts unto Him. And these were the last of the heathen here. After years of toil and trial, the Gospel of Jesus has triumphed, and heathenism, with all its cruelties, has become a thing of the past. But though the Natives here are now all professing Christians, I do not say that they are all the true children of God, as such is not the case. There is still much of sin and imperfection in many of them. This, however, I can say, that there is not a house or tent in which prayer is not daily made to God, and not a single individual among them who does not regularly attend the services of God's holy day. I bless God for condescending to use me in any way in the advancement of His glory here.

In reference to the out-stations, the Archdeacon speaks of the latest news from Churchill as being encouraging; the infant church there appearing, through God's mercy, to grow stronger and stronger. From Trout Lake the news was not so bright. A new church is building at Severn, at an expense of 100*l.*, besides voluntary labour supplied by the people, capable of holding 200 people.

In the summer of 1875 Archdeacon Kirkby paid a visit to Winnepeg (Red River) to seek medical aid for himself, and also to confer with the Governor in matters pertaining to the welfare of the Indians. He writes:—

I had two or three interviews with Governor Morris on the behalf of the Indians. They wish him to have a treaty made with them similar to what has been made with their friends and countrymen at Norway House and elsewhere. By these treaties every Indian man, woman, and child receives 1*l.* each per annum, and the chief 5*l.* Schools are built, and teachers provided at 60*l.* per annum; and, where the land can be cultivated, draught animals, seed, farming implements, &c., are provided. The latter, of course, would not pertain to this place; but the former benefits would be great if wisely applied. The Governor received me most courteously, listened patiently to the reasons advanced, and requested me to embody them in the form of a memorial, to be sent to him by this winter packet.

NORTH-PACIFIC MISSION.(Commenced 1856.)European Mission Establishment:

Mr. William Duncan, 1856.

Rev. Robert Tomlinson, B.A. (m), 1867.Mr. W. Henry Collison (m), 1873.Mr. H. Schutt (m), 1876.METLAKAHTLA.

THE Governor-General of Canada and Lady Dufferin visited Metlakahtla last August, and though the visit was quite unexpected, and many of the Indians were absent at the time, it was a source of much gratification. Lord Dufferin, in a speech delivered at the Government House, Victoria, referred to his visit in the following terms:—"I have visited Mr. Duncan's wonderful settlement at Metlakahtla, and the interesting Methodist Mission at Fort Simpson, and have thus been enabled to realize what scenes of primitive peace and innocence, of idyllic beauty and material comfort, can be presented by the stalwart men and comely maidens of an Indian community under the wise administration of a judicious and devoted Christian Missionary."

Lord Dufferin's visit to Metlakahtla.

The following deeply interesting extracts from the Annual Letters of Mr. Duncan and Mr. Schutt will call forth much joyful thanksgiving and earnest prayer. Mr. Duncan writes, under date 14th March 1877:—

As in all the previous years of this Mission's history, so the last has been fraught with many tokens of our tender Shepherd's care over us. All praise be to His holy Name! Would that we could respond with more devotedness of heart and life to His blessed service!

Mr. and Mrs. Collison started from here for their new field of labour among the Hydahs of Queen Charlotte's Island, on the 30th October last, just two weeks after the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Schutt, whom we welcomed to Metlakahtla on the 16th October.

You will be glad to learn that the Native teachers still continue, as a whole, to be faithful to their work. Judging that the time had come to place some of the most efficient in a more prominently recognized position in the Church, I called upon all the male members of the congregation to nominate and elect ten of their number (one for each of the ten companies into which the settlers are divided) collectively to form a Church Committee and Select Council, with whom the Missionary may confidingly advise in all matters affecting the interests of the Mission. On the Sunday following their election they were formally introduced to the congregation, and especial prayer was offered on their behalf. Our (larger) Native Council having now become a ponderous body, I have thought it good to rearrange it. I now place our sixteen chiefs on first rank, elderly men on the second rank, and all young members on the third rank. This body, with the Constable Corps, are equally divided into the several companies. Each company has now its recognized Native teacher, besides a captain to manage its business affairs.

Our catechumen class-meetings have been held as usual, and a goodly number of fresh members added, during the past year. At the next visit of Brother Tomlinson (whom we expect here shortly) arrangements will be made for baptizing all the adults we consider sufficiently prepared. Several families (some fifty souls in all) have joined our settlement last year, and were formally admitted on New Year's Day. They came from Fort Simpson, from four tribes on the coast, and from a tribe living on the Skeena River.

In law matters the past year has been a trying one. Several of the Naas River Indians having broken the law, a conspiracy was formed to defy our interference. All lenient measures having proved ineffectual, we were obliged to send a large force of Metlakahtla Indians, along with some of Mr. Tomlinson's people, to arrest the offenders. I am very thankful to record that no blood was shed (though the struggle was very threatening); the law triumphed, the ringleaders were arrested, and the remainder gave themselves up, even coming in their own canoes to Metlakahtla. Thirteen in all were punished, and a most salutary lesson taught all the tribes around, which I don't think will need repeating. The result to the offenders has proved most satisfactory. Not only did each avow his penitence in very humble terms, but several have determined to begin a new career, and have joined Mr. Tomlinson's Mission. I am happy to say that all the surrounding tribes have now begun to appreciate, and even to applaud, the peace and security which have been established among them by Metlakahtla means.

Advance
in secular prosperity at Metla-

Our disbursements during the past year from our Secular Fund and trade profits were spent in painting and sanding the outside of our new church, and building a gallery; but our principal outlay was made for our saw-mill. Seeing last spring that our old mill would be unequal to the work of providing material as quickly as would be required for the building of our new town, I resolved to get new and better machinery. In the summer we put the new machinery up by Indian workmen, and our work was so far successful that we were enabled to more than double the result of the old mill. Last November, having a good opportunity of engaging an experienced sawyer, I resolved still further to improve our mill, as it has a very extensive and important work before it. The white man I engaged is now busy with seven Indian workmen, and in a few days we hope the mill will be running again, and able to produce 5000 feet of lumber per day. Even at this speed, I don't think we shall accumulate lumber, so anxious are the Indians to build their new houses.

Mr Schutt writes :—

My first impressions of Metlakahtla were very good ones. Upon landing, on the morning of October 16, 1876, we were met by Mr. Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. Collison, who warmly welcomed us. A great many Indians also were waiting to greet us, which they did very cordially; and, to my great surprise, many of them did so in very fair English. We were soon settled down in our new home, which consists of a really very good house, with large and airy furnished rooms. The view from the house is a very pleasant one, being over the village on one side, and over the sea on another. On the Wednesday evening I attended Divine Service in the school-room—a new and very commodious structure. Over 300 Indians were present, the men taking one side of the room, and the women the other. This is an arrangement of their own following. They were all present before the commencement of service, and were very attentive. They sang with great feeling, and in a manner that would have done credit to any English congregation, the hymn, “Safe in the arms of Jesus.”—On Sunday I attended service in the church, a remarkably large building, and not yet quite finished. It is the largest church in British Columbia, and is capable of seating 1200 people. The church was almost full of Indians, all clean and tidy, and many of them well dressed. As in the schoolroom, there were no late comers. They are remarkably attentive and devout in church, no such thing as a head turned being seen. The singing was very hearty, hymns being sung both in English and in the Native tongue.—A very marked and interesting feature of the mission is the Sunday-school. In the morning, at the ringing of a bell the children and young people assemble—the girls in the school and the boys in the market-hall. Mr. Duncan and myself attend to open the schools, after which the teaching is carried on entirely by Natives who have been prepared for the work the evening before. Immediately after morning service the men assemble in the market hall, the married women in the school, and the old women in the church, when Sunday-school again is held for an hour, and, as before, under Native teachers. The zeal and earnestness which the people show in their attendance at Sunday-school is most praiseworthy, and such as is rarely seen at home.

Two weeks after our arrival, brother Collison left Metlakahtla to commence mission work among the Hydahs in Queen Charlotte's Island. On the following Monday I opened the day-school, having for my assistant a Native girl named Sarah Legaic. The morning was very wet, yet nearly 100 children assembled. This number has since increased to nearly 200. The children are very fond of singing, so are also the young women and men. Two of the latter have harmoniums in their houses, for which they paid seventy dollars each. These they are learning to play. During the winter we have had regular singing practices in the mission-house; and now the young people can sing a considerable number of Sankey's hymns, which they like very much. Some of them have been translated into the Native tongue by Mr. Duncan.

KINCOLITH.

The Rev. R. Tomlinson is the Missionary of this station. His annual letter (dated 12th March, 1877) indicates increasing evidence of the blessing of God and the special work of the Holy Spirit. In that letter Mr. Tomlinson writes:—

Missionary progress at Kincolith. During the summer a change was silently going on at Naas, and many were led to look into and examine their position. The result was a conviction that the days of their old superstitions were numbered. One and another joined us when we assembled last New Year's Day to enter on the village-roll the names of those who had come during the year, and who wished to be enrolled as bonâ-fide settlers at Kincolith. We enrolled these families, numbering, with a few single individuals and one who was too sick at the time to attend, fifty souls; among these are three of the head chiefs—one of them once the fiercest savage on this river. "Is anything too hard for the Lord?" I may add that these results are in a great measure due to the efforts of the Christians here.

Visit of Mr. Duncan to Kincolith. We had long been expecting a visit from Brother Duncan to join me in the examination of the catechumens with the view to the baptism of such as were approved of. Hitherto something had always interfered with his coming. On the 3rd of January last I wrote to him to try and come. He came; nor did he come alone. When the Christians at Metlakahtla heard of the move at Naas, and how many had joined us, many of them volunteered to accompany him; and this feeling was so strong that several had to be refused for fear, as he thought, of overcrowding us. This is but another proof of the brotherly feeling which existed between these two Missions from the first. Brother Duncan and his party spent from Saturday evening to the following Thursday with us. On the Wednesday evening previous to their departure we had a special service, at which fourteen adults were baptized. During his stay we had also the opportunity of consulting him as to how best we can lay out our ground. We are at present engaged in drawing up a plan, and expect, please God, to have three or four houses built during the summer. Meanwhile we must not expect that the devil will let go his hold without a struggle, and already we see signs of opposition cropping up. This opposition arises from a party who hate anything like vital religion; they are joined by a few white men, to whose immoral lives the Christian conduct of many of the Native Christians is a standing rebuke.

A saw-mill has been erected at Kincolith also, as well as at Metlakahtla. This not only supplies material for building the new houses, but also gives employment to those of the settlers who are neither fur-hunters nor skilled workmen. Mr. Tomlinson writes further:—

Shortly after the receipt of Mr. Wright's letter, suggesting the propriety of taking up the work among the Kitiksheans through the Native Christians, Brother Duncan and I held a consultation on the subject. . . . I had visited them myself several times, and had good reason to think that the Gospel was taking hold in the hearts of many. We now decided to send two Native teachers to make a tour among their tribes. The results are most cheering. They were well received, and at each of the villages they found a little knot of anxious inquirers. At one village they found a man who, after the fishing last spring, had spent a couple of months at Kincolith, where he had learnt from one of the Christians a few hymns, prayers, and texts in his own language. These he retained in his memory, and, when he returned to the village, he regularly held a little service every Sunday in his house, and taught such as joined him what he knew. Nor is this the only case. At the Kittackdamix, a village at the head of navigation on the Naas, there resides a chief who, driven some two years ago to seek medical aid at Kincolith, there learned about God. Of this man I could say much, but must postpone it for another opportunity. At present I would only add that few, if any, among the Niskahs have shown a more childlike faith, coupled with an earnestness and anxiety to spread the Gospel.

It was mentioned in the Report for 1875-6 (and is also referred to in the extract from Mr. Duncan's letter given above) that the Committee, in compliance with the very earnest representations of Mr. Duncan and Mr. Collison, had authorized the latter to open a new Mission among the Hydah Indians, QUEEN CHARLOTTE'S ISLANDS, his place at Metlakahtla being supplied by Mr. H. Schutt. Mr. Collison left Metlakahtla for his new destination in October, 1876, and reached Masset, in Queen Charlotte's Islands, on the 1st of November. The most recent letter received from Mr. Collison was written three months later. He had been able to communicate some instruction to them through an interpreter, and found the Indians generally willing and even desirous to listen to the Gospel, though the medicine-men had begun to exhibit determined hostility.

* During the past year two Native Ministers, and the Charlotte Station, with its Native Christians, have been transferred to the Native Church at Sierra Leone. The Society has withdrawn in all from eighty Stations, chiefly added to Parochial Establishments in the West Indies, or transferred to the Native Church of Sierra Leone, containing at the time of transfer twelve Native Clergy, 4990 Communicants, and 13,316 Scholars.

CONCLUSION.

THE Committee cannot conclude without humbly and devoutly thanking the great Lord of the harvest for another successful year in the foreign Mission field. In South India, in Ceylon, in the Fuh-Kien province of China, and in North-West America, there has been a large ingathering of converts. In New Zealand, the Native Church—once, to some extent, fallen and desolate—seems to be rising again from the dust. The infant Churches of West Africa, South India, Ceylon, Mauritius, and China, are, by God's grace, growing in spiritual life, and consolidating also their outward structure. A most hopeful beginning has been made in the Japan Mission.

At the same time they are constrained with deep concern to acknowledge that there are fields which, although much labour has been expended upon them, have yielded but scanty returns. Fields there are also, which once gave promise of an abundant harvest, but over which there seems to have fallen a blight of coldness and lifelessness. Among those specially calling for the dew of heaven may be mentioned the Palestine Mission; the Missions in Western India, the North-West Provinces, and Bengal—especially the Krishnagar district; and some of the North China stations. Shall not prayer go up unceasingly for the Spirit from on high, that the wilderness may become a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest? No truth would the Committee desire to have more prominent in their own minds, and in the minds of all who take a part in the Society's work than this—"Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."

Once more the Committee would remind their friends that the large increase in the expenditure of the Society is mainly due to the advance of the soldiers of the Cross into new districts, and the occupation of new outposts. The occupation in West Africa of Port Lokkoh and Leke, mainly taken up with a view to advance into the interior—the rapid progress of the Niger Mission, under its energetic Bishop—the settlement for liberated slaves at Frere Town, and its little sister in the Seychelles—the Mission to Nyanza, and the hopeful beginning in the Usagâra mountains—the extension of the Palestine Mission to Jaffa, and to Salt and the Hauran beyond the Jordan—the addition of Persia to the Society's list of Missions—the new efforts on behalf of the 20,000 Indians of the Saskatchewan Valley, the Hydahs of Queen Charlotte's Island, and the Eskimos of Hudson's Bay—all these are instances of new work recently taken up by the Society; and if in connexion with them are considered the efforts that have been made and are making to increase the strength of the Japan, the China, and the India Missions, the Committee feel sure that the friends of the Society will not only see good reason for the large increase of expenditure, but will rejoice that the Committee have heard so plainly the order of their great Commander to go forward. And, while the world is again disturbed by the clash of arms, and the nations of the earth are mustering to battle "with confused noise and garments rolled in blood," the servants of God will rejoice to realize that the armies of the living God are also on their march—that they are carrying onward into yet unconquered regions the peaceful banner of the Prince of Peace, "of the increase of whose government and peace there shall be no end," and that when all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them shall be as the chaff of the summer threshing-floor which the wind carrieth away, His kingdom shall be established, which shall be from sea to sea, and from the flood to the world's end, and it shall be for ever.

threatening.

The Committee would do wrong if they omitted to record their conviction that there are difficulties, beside financial ones, and more grave, which at the present moment beset their work. They fully believe, however, that there are none which need cause dismay, if only the Society is true to itself and to its Lord. Once Missionary enterprise was coldly looked upon except by a few earnest and simple-hearted believers in the Lord Jesus. Now it is universally recognized as the duty of the Church of Christ, and persons of very various opinions are warmly coming forward in its support. The Committee of the Church Missionary Society would heartily rejoice in the widest preaching of the true Gospel by whomsoever undertaken. Yet they cannot but sorrowfully affirm their conviction that in some of the forms of Missionary organization now advocated, there are elements of very real danger. And they would be false to their own consciences as well as to their constituents, and would therefore not be doing their duty in the sight of God, if they did not resolutely persevere in taking measures to insure the faithful preaching of the full and unadulterated Gospel among the heathen, and to defend the Native Christian congregations connected with the Society from erroneous doctrine and superstitious ritual. It has been, and ever will be, the aim of the Committee to secure the distinct and emphatic utterance by the Society's agents of those great truths of the sole supremacy of Holy Scripture as the Rule of Doctrine, and of justification 'only for the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ by faith,' which have been so frequently assailed, and which are so indispensably necessary for an intelligent and vigorous piety. By the present mode of conducting the Society's operations this security exists. If submission were made to claims recently advanced, it would exist no longer. That submission the Committee have declined to make; and in so doing they doubt not they have received, and still will receive, the firm and zealous support of those who subscribe to the Society's funds and remember it in their prayers, and who constitute, thanks be to God, an immense and powerful body. But God forbid that the Church Missionary Society should ever trust in its own strength, though it is a strength which He Himself has graciously given. As in former days of comparative weakness, so now when its strength is increased—the number of its supporters multiplied—and its work grown to be almost co-extensive with the world—surely its determination shall remain the same to look to Him alone for guidance and strength and blessing, and to Him alone to ascribe all the glory. "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is Thine; Thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and Thou art exalted as Head above all. Both riches and honour come of Thee, and Thou reignest over all; and in Thine hand is power and might, and in Thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Now therefore, our God, we thank Thee, and praise Thy glorious Name."

PRAYER USED AT THE ANNUAL MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful FATHER, we give Thee humble thanks for the light of Thy Gospel. Make us more grateful for this Thy mercy, and more zealous for the salvation of all mankind.

Visit in mercy the Church of Christ ; enrich it more abundantly with the grace of Thy Holy Spirit ; and bless its endeavours to make known Thy Truth. Unite, as one man, all who are truly labouring for Thee. Disappoint the designs of Satan. Let all Christian Societies live in harmony and love ; give them wisdom in all their plans ; perfect Thy strength in their weakness ; and direct their labours to Thy glory !

The Harvest truly is great, but the Labourers are few ! O Thou Lord of the Harvest, send forth Labourers into Thy harvest ! Fill with Thy Spirit those whom Thou hast sent forth ; and enable them faithfully and boldly to preach, among Jews and Gentiles, the unsearchable riches of Christ. Keep them from the snares of the world, the flesh, and the Devil ; deliver them from all evil ; and make them wise to win souls.

Upon all the Native Converts whom Thou hast gathered to Thyself, through Thy labouring servants throughout the world, pour out Thy Holy Spirit, that, as Thou hast begotten them again unto a lively hope, so they may ever be followers of Thee as dear children. Deliver them from all remaining darkness and ignorance ; destroy and abolish in their hearts all that remains of Satan's kingdom ; grant that their faith, and hope, and love may grow exceedingly ; make them to be ready to every good work, and more especially to exert themselves for the salvation of those around them ; that so, by their zeal and faithful testimony, by their holiness and fruitfulness, they may glorify Thy name before their countrymen, and bring in unto Thee, from the midst of them, such as shall be saved.

Have compassion, O Most-merciful Father, on all those who have come under instruction, though they be not yet altogether Christians. Convince them effectually, by Thy Word and Spirit, of their sinful and miserable state ; pour upon them the spirit of grace and supplication, and draw them to Jesus.

Take away blindness from the Jews. Let them receive Thee, O Jesus, as their Messiah, and proclaim Thy saving Name among the Gentiles.

Deliver all Mohammedans from the delusions of the False Prophet ! O Thou True Prophet of Thy Church, enlighten them by Thy Holy Spirit, and bow them down at the foot of Thy Cross !

Pity blind Idolaters, who are kept in cruel bondage by the god of this world. Turn them from idols, that they may serve the Living and True God.

O Thou Almighty Saviour, who by the right hand of God art exalted, and hast received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, shed forth His light and grace on this dark world !

Cause all Christians, we beseech Thee, to sow bountifully ; that they may reap also bountifully. O Thou that lovest a cheerful giver, let all grace abound toward them, that they may minister liberally of their substance to the making known of Thy Name !

With these our humble prayers, we join our praises and thanksgivings for what Thou hast already done in making known Thy salvation : perfect Thy work, O Lord ; shortly accomplish the number of Thine elect ; and hasten the coming of Thy Kingdom.

Be present with us, O Lord, at this time. Give us all a single eye to Thy glory. May Thy blessing rest upon our meeting ; and may all our hearts be this day quickened and encouraged to fresh and persevering efforts in Thy Service.

We ask these mercies for the glory of Thy Name, through the merits and mediation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ ; and would ascribe to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Three Persons in One God, everlasting praise. Amen !

OUR Father which art in Heaven : Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; but deliver us from evil ; for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER USED AT THE OPENING OF MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE.

ALMIGHTY GOD, our Heavenly Father, who hast purchased to Thyself an universal Church, by the precious blood of Thy dear Son, we give Thee hearty thanks that it hath pleased Thee to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee, and to appoint our lot in an age and country, where the true light shineth. We bless Thee that Thou hast awakened us in some measure to feel our responsibilities. We praise Thee for what we have seen and heard of the power of Thy word among the heathen; we adore Thee for Thy many servants who have gone out from amongst us to toil and suffer and die in making known Thy salvation; and we thank Thee that Thou dost allow us, unworthy sinners, to unite together in this work of faith and labour of love.

We humbly confess our past lukewarmness in this Thy service, notwithstanding these Thine inestimable benefits and mercies. For our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us our past negligences, and so endue us with Thy Holy Spirit, that we may more earnestly seek Thy glory in the salvation of souls.

Grant us, we beseech Thee, Thy very present help at these our meetings. We ask, most gracious God and Father, for a constraining sense of the love of the Lord Jesus, and for wisdom to direct us in all our endeavours. Increase upon us the spirit of power and of love and of a sound mind. Give us faith and courage; give us zeal and patience; give us a single eye to Thy glory, and help us to bear and to forbear. The silver and the gold are Thine, O King of kings! Supply us with what is needful for our great work, and make us faithful stewards of Thy bounty, for proclaiming to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

We pray also for all who are united with us in the direction of this sacred cause. May Thine especial blessing rest upon our Committees, with their Secretaries, throughout the world. Bestow on them the help that we feel so needful for ourselves. Enable them to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, and ever to find favour in the sight of all with whom they may have to do.

Especially we beseech Thee to look, O most merciful Father, upon our Missionary brethren. Draw out our hearts towards them more and more; and while they are bearing the burden abroad, give us grace to help and succour them by our sympathy and prayers at home. Bless every letter written to them from this house, and all our intercourse with them. We pray for them that they may be filled with Thy Spirit. Grant that the same mind may be in them which was also in Christ Jesus. Let them never lose their first love. Raise them above the cares of this world. Help them to deny themselves and to endure all things for the elect's sake. Give them the tongue of the learned. Clothe them with humility. Teach them to follow peace with each other, and with all men. Support them under spiritual distresses, temptations of the adversary, bodily sickness, domestic anxieties, and hope deferred. And so confirm Thy word from their lips by the power of the Holy Ghost, that through them multitudes may be turned from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto Thee, our God.

We most heartily thank Thee, O Lord, for those whom Thou hast already sent forth through this Society; and we pray for a yet larger outpouring of a Missionary spirit on our younger Clergy, on the members of our Universities, on those who are elsewhere preparing for this holy work, on the young men of all ranks and orders throughout our land. And herein do we implore Thy special favour on our Islington Institution, that its numbers may be replenished continually; and that none may go forth thence but such as shall be able ministers of the New Testament, full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost.

We praise Thee, O Thou God of all grace, for the Converts, the Native Catechists, and the Native Clergy, whom Thou hast granted to us in our several Missions. As Thou hast raised the Native Churches thus far, bring them, we pray Thee, to full ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ. Pour out upon them Thy Holy Spirit. Stablish, strengthen, settle them, and so enlarge their liberality, that they may both maintain Thy word among themselves, and may make it known to the regions beyond them, till all the Gentiles hear the glad tidings of Thy love.

And now, O Lord God, be Thou in the midst of us to-day. Give us a constant sense of Thy presence, and may all our undertakings be begun, continued, and ended in Thee, to the honour of Thy great name, for the sake of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

MEMORANDUM

DRAWN UP FOR THE INFORMATION OF FRIENDS OF THE SOCIETY, STATING THE NATURE AND CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE DIFFERENCES THAT HAVE ARISEN BETWEEN THE BISHOP OF COLOMBO AND THE MISSIONARIES; AND DESCRIBING AND EXPLAINING THE ACTION OF THE COMMITTEE.

THE Church Missionary Society first commenced work in Ceylon in 1818. The population among whom it labours comprises Tamils in the northern parts of the island, Singhalese in the south, and people of both races at Colombo and in the central province. The Singhalese heathen are Buddhists; the Tamils are Hindus.

The operations of the Society comprise—(1) a Church for an English-speaking congregation at Colombo, (2) a Singhalese Mission at Colombo, (3) a Tamil Mission at Colombo, (4) a Singhalese Mission at Cotta, (5) a Singhalese Mission at Baddegama, (6) a Singhalese Mission at Kandy, (7) a Tamil Mission at Kandy, (8) the Kandy Collegiate School, (9) the Singhalese Itinerating Mission in the central province, (10) the Tamil Cooiy Mission in the same province, (11) a Tamil Mission in the Jaffna Peninsula. Some of these agencies work within the same area, and yet are quite distinct, owing to the difference of language.

The Society has now fourteen European Missionaries in Ceylon, of whom twelve are in holy orders. The senior Missionary, who is also the Secretary, is the Rev. William Oakley, who unites unimpaired intellectual vigour with upwards of forty years' local experience. It is unnecessary to refer to the other Missionaries individually. It will suffice to observe that, like Mr. Oakley, they are men of approved piety, fidelity and good sense, and also, with the exception of the two juniors amongst them, possessing considerable Missionary experience, gained during a length of service varying from seven to twenty-eight years. There are thirteen Native Clergy connected with the Mission, two of whom are paid directly from the funds of the Society, and the rest from Native Church funds, controlled by Native Church Councils, and aided by liberal grants from the Society.

The registered number of Native Christians connected with the Society in Ceylon is 5518, of whom 938 are connected with the Tamil Cooiy Mission; of these 1181 are communicants, 250 of them connected with the Tamil Cooiy Mission.

Until the year 1845 Ceylon was under the episcopal authority of the Bishop of Madras. In that year its first Bishop was appointed, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Chapman, who was succeeded first by Bishop Claughton, afterwards by Bishop Jermyn, and in 1875 by the present Bishop, Dr. Copleston. Dr. Copleston was consecrated on the 23rd December, the consecration having been delayed some months in consequence of his not having reached the canonical age of thirty years. He set sail for Colombo almost immediately, and reached it on the 7th of February, 1876. It may be here mentioned that Bishops Chapman and Jermyn were both of them usually regarded as belonging to the High Church school, and that neither they nor Bishop Claughton ever expressed to the Committee any dissatisfaction with the principles on which the Mission was conducted.

On Bishop Copleston's arrival in Ceylon, it very shortly became manifest that he and the Chaplains whom he brought with him held what are commonly called ritualistic opinions, adopting the Eastward position and other ritualistic practices. But, deeply as this was to be regretted, it was not of itself the immediate cause of the unhappy rupture between him and the Missionaries. Had he adopted the course taken by his predecessors, there seems no reason to suppose that the peaceful and successful operations of the Mission might not have been carried on as in former years. Such, however, did not prove to be the case; and although he possessed no missionary and very little ministerial experience, having been scarcely four years in Holy Orders, and a Fellow and Tutor of his college up to the time of his consecration, he had not been six weeks in his new diocese before he began to propose fundamental changes in the position of the Missionaries and Lay Agents of the Society, and in the manner of carrying on their work. According to the statement of the Rev. J. I. Jones, one of the Society's Missionaries (see p. 254), the Bishop "wished that the Missionaries should carry on their work under the 'sanction' of the Chaplains; that they should be, as it were, in the position of Curates, the Chaplains standing to them in the relation of Rectors; that the Chaplains should have a right of entrance into and some control over all Missionary schools in the districts in which they resided, and that no Native Agent of the Society should be appointed to work in such districts, although, perhaps, for many years included in the Society's field of operations, without the consent of the Chaplains." In his own letter also to the Rev. O. C. Fenn, one of the Secretaries of the Society, dated July 17, he claimed the "right to assume the control of" (i.e., as his letter clearly shows, the entire management of) "any part of the Church's work, which has hitherto been," as he expresses it, "entrusted to the (Society's) Missionaries."

The changes which the Bishop first proposed to make had reference to the Tamil Cooiy Mission; and seeing that this Mission is peculiar in its character, and that a right understanding of its constitution is necessary in order to form a correct judgment on the points at issue, a brief description is here given. It scarcely need be stated, as it must be well known, that extensive districts in the island of Ceylon are occupied by Coffee plantations, which are worked by coolies speaking the Tamil language, from the mainland of India. In the year 1854 advantage was taken of the presence in Ceylon of one of the Home Secretaries of the Church Missionary Society, the Rev. W. Knight, who was on a visit to the Society's Missions in Ceylon and India, to bring more prominently before the planters the spiritual destitution of the coolies. His representations were warmly responded to, and the Tamil Cooly Mission was started.

The plans were laid on the following basis:— "The planters engaged to raise funds, and pay all the salaries of the Native agents employed, and meet all the other expenses of the Mission. The C.M.S. engaged to provide the Native teachers from its Tinnevely Mission, and to supply a European Missionary to superintend their labours. A large number of the European planters at that time were Scotch Presbyterians; others belonged to different English Nonconformist bodies; so that perhaps more than one-half of the planting community were, as they still are, non-episcopal. This, however, did not hinder them from active co-operation in the work. A committee was formed for the collection of funds and general management of the Mission, to which men of different denominations were elected; but the entire management and working of the spiritual operations of the Mission was placed unrestrictedly in the hands of the C.M.S. On this basis and plan the Mission was founded, and has all along been worked. The Committee, of whom the English Missionary who superintends the Mission is ex-officio secretary, manages the secular affairs of the Mission, accepts and sanctions the appointment of Native labourers selected by the superintendent, and has the power, on his representation, of dismissing them if necessary; but the whole active direction and superintendence of their labours is in the hands of the European Missionary or Missionaries (always C.M.S. men appointed by the Home Committee) in charge of the Mission.

"The whole working of the Mission is strictly in accordance with the doctrines and discipline of the Church of England. The European Missionary or Missionaries in charge (as has been said before) are C.M.S. men. The Native labourers are all drawn from the C.M.S. Mission in Tinnevely. Candidates for baptism are taught and received according to the Church of England rules and principles, the Prayer Book is used in all the public services, candidates are prepared and presented to the Bishop for Confirmation, the Lord's Supper is administered according to the order of the Church of England: in a word, the Mission, although supported by men of different denominations, is worked on Church of England principles, and is, to all intents and purposes, a Church of England Mission, and has been so from the beginning."*

In order that a closer insight may be obtained by those who desire it into the exact working of the Mission, there is printed a statement of the origin of the Mission, the Rules and Regulations, the Plan of the Mission, and the Duties of Catechists, which are found in each Report of the Ceylon Tamil Cooly Mission.

* From an article in the Intelligencer for December, 1876, by a Missionary of the Society, on "The Ceylon Tamil Cooly Mission."

It may be added that the number of coolies among whom the Mission is actively at work is about 200,000. The number of Catechists is thirty, and there is about double that number of Schoolmasters. There is also a native Ceylon man connected with the Mission, who was ordained and licensed by the Mission, who was ordained by the late Bishop of Colombo. The whole is superintended by the Society's Missionaries, the Rev. W. Clark and the Rev. A. R. Cavalier.

The constitution of the Tamil Cooly Committee and their refusal to acknowledge the authority which he claimed over the lay agents employed in the Mission "obliged" the Bishop, as he says, "to ignore it, and organize that part of the work of the Church of England" (i.e. that part of the work of the Church Missionary Society) "on a new basis." (See the Bishop's letter below, dated Colombo, July 17.) The assertion of this claim by the Bishop led to a controversy between him and the Missionaries, which resulted in a withdrawal of the licences of twelve of them, eleven European and one Native, who were present at the Missionary Conference, the twelfth European happening to be absent.

A detailed statement, written by the Rev. J. I. Jones, at the request of his Excellency the Governor of Ceylon, of the various claims put forth by the Bishop of Colombo, and of the circumstances which led to the withdrawal of their licences, is printed below (p. 254).

Up to the time of this withdrawal of the licences of the Missionaries no communication whatever had been made to the Committee by the Bishop. Then first he addressed the Rev. C. C. Fenn on the subject in the following letter:†—

Colombo, July 17th, 1876.

DEAR MR. FENN,—You will have heard from the Clergy of your Society of the strong measure which I have felt it right to take, in order to compel the recognition of my authority on points in which it is disputed. I need not tell you how much pain the present position gives me, or assure you that it is in order to bring the difficulty to a conclusion in the shortest possible time that I have had recourse to the extreme measure at the outset; nor is it out of any disrespect to the Church Missionary Society that I do not address their Committee on the subject, but because it is the essence of my position that I should not recognize your Committee as having any authority in my diocese.

The main points at issue are, I believe, two—the Bishop's right to assume the control of any part of the Church's work which has hitherto been entrusted to your Missionaries; and, secondly, the Bishop's authority over all congregations throughout his diocese, and all persons who minister in them, whether Clergy or laymen.

The former question is but a rider to the second. It is, however, a consequence of the principle, but a consequence to which I should think it most unjust to press the principle in ordinary instances, and when my authority was not disputed. I should, indeed, probably be willing, if the principle of my ultimate authority over all congregations and all who minister in them were freely conceded, to promise that I would not withdraw any definite work from the care of the Church Missionary Society without consultation with your Committee. In what terms the principle above referred to may need to be worded I cannot at present say, but on the spirit of it I shall insist to the utmost. As long as it continues to be resisted by your Society I shall refuse to return the licences now revoked, or to admit any other Clergyman connected with your Society to any post in the diocese. Such, at least, is the determination by which I shall abide until required to do otherwise by my ecclesiastical superiors.

† It is right to state that subsequently to the receipt of this letter, information was received from the Rev. R. E. Copleston, the father of the Bishop, that his son had telegraphed to him expressing his wish to have it withdrawn, but as the Bishop has referred to it in later correspondence, the Committee cannot do otherwise than print it.

You know enough of the Tamil Cooly Mission to understand that it was not an ordinary specimen of the Mission of your Society, but stood on a peculiar footing. The greater part of the funds were provided, not by your Society, but by a Committee here, composed of members of various sects as well as of the Church. The very matters in which my authority was denied, were, I believe, habitually referred to that Committee, on which sat several Dissenting ministers. As neither this Committee nor its "agents" recognized my authority, I have been obliged to ignore it, and organize that part of the work of the Church of England on a new basis.

I point out the peculiar character of this Mission in order to remove the apprehension that I am likely to deal in a similar manner with any part of the work of the Church Missionary Society, more strictly so called. I would remove this apprehension, lest it should make your Committee hesitate about advising their Clergy to submit to my demands.

Before I conclude let me bear my testimony both to the piety, zeal, and ability of the Clergy to whom I am referring, and to the charity, moderation, and respect for myself which they have hitherto displayed, even while repudiating my authority on essential points.

And may I add, my dear sir, an expression of the regret which I feel that this, my first communication to you about the affairs of the diocese, should be of so painful a nature.

Believe me,

Yours very faithfully

R. S. COLOMBO.

This letter is marked "Private" because it is not addressed to your Committee, but you may make any use of it you please.

The following letters were subsequently received:—

Bishop of Colombo to Rev. C. C. Fenn.

DEAR MR. FENN,—There are one or two points in which I would add a remark to my last letter.

As to the Tamil Cooly Mission, it is not as a Mission of your Society that I am opposed to it, but as one in which my authority was not recognized, and which was subject practically, if not theoretically, to a Committee of various sects. Of those who have opposed me in the matter—aymen I mean—the majority have put their opposition on the ground that "it never was a Church Mission," and that "the Bishop has nothing to do with it;" that Messrs. Clark, &c., were the servants of the Committee, and the like. And such has been the point of view from which both Mr. Clark and Mr. Cavalier have, on the whole, spoken to me. Though Mr. Clark told me that this relation to the local Committee was not acknowledged, numerous letters and conversations have shown that it was the view taken by a considerable number of the subscribers. Finding that Mr. Clark repudiated my authority in act, and that many of the local Committee were likely to go far beyond him in theory, I thought it quite useless to consult them, but better at once to take that part of our work into my own hands.

I may have done wrong in not going through the form of consulting them. Your own Committee I should certainly have consulted had you not been at the time committed by the action of your representatives here to a refusal. Promptitude appeared to me necessary, as the best means for securing a speedy settlement.

But to show you that I have no wish at all to drive out your Society from any part of its work, I now offer all that I could ever have offered.

If my claims with regard to a veto on the appointment of Catechists and authority over congregations are conceded, I will restore the Tamil work to the Church Missionary Society on the following conditions: First, that I have an adequate guarantee that the local Committee, as at present constituted, shall have no control whatever over the management of the Mission; Secondly, that the freedom of the Chaplains to minister, open schools, and hold services for the coolies shall be recognized.

[If the former of these conditions cannot be granted, your Society cannot allege that I am dealing with a Mission which is bond fide theirs; if the latter were refused, I should have been obliged, sooner or later, to request you to give up the work.]

I must add, with much pain, that I could not in any case return a licence to Mr. Clark. Had I known what I know now about the degree of control over this Mission claimed and practically exercised by Dissenters and various laymen, I should have protested against it before I left England, and felt it my first duty to get its constitution altered.

From a letter which Mr. Clark sent me on April 5th I hoped that, as far as the relation to Chaplains was concerned, all would work easily, and I thought for some time that all difficulties were removed; but in May the whole matter was reopened, and the true state of things gradually grew plain, viz. that it was determined to keep the Tamil Cooly Mission quite clear of the other Clergy and also of the Bishop.

There is one other point with regard to this Mission to which I would allude. It has been absurdly supposed that I wished to take possession of the chapels, schools, and funds which belong to the Tamil Cooly Mission Committee. Need I say that such a thing never entered my head? I did not disown it because it had never occurred to me. On the contrary, I am willing, if the Church Missionary Society will work the Mission on my terms, to buy the buildings myself of the Tamil Cooly Mission Committee, and lend them to the Church Missionary Society. As to the other and far more important matter, the claim of a veto on Catechists and authority over all congregations as to the place, time, and manner of service (not for needless interference, but for ultimate security), there is not much to add.

It is not a personal or a local question; but I feel that since the oversight of the whole Church here has been committed to me, and so large a part of the work is done through Catechists in unconsecrated buildings, rarely visited, I cannot do what I have so solemnly undertaken without that authority to be resorted to if needful. I believe it to be part of the spiritual powers conferred upon me by my admission to the diocese, though it is not guaranteed to me by law. The law leaves me my remedy against the Clergyman, but though, until the other is conceded, I must have recourse to this, I am not willing to accept it as a substitute for my proper spiritual authority.

As to the exact language in which this admission, to be made on the part of the Clergy now under revocation, should be worded, I will accept whatever is recommended by the Bishop of Lichfield, if he is kind enough to undertake the task of recommending terms.

Once more let me add my deep regret that I should be in opposition to your Society, for whose work here I have so high a regard, and among whose clergy there can be few of higher character and devotion than some of those who are now suffering for what they think their duty.

Believe me, dear Mr. Fenn,

Yours very truly,

R. S. COLOMBO.

Bishop of Colombo to Committee of Church Missionary Society.

Colombo, July 27th, 1876.

GENTLEMEN,—I have to inform you, with much regret, that a Clergyman, the Rev. W. Clark, hitherto supported by your Society, is now engaged in a course of open opposition to me, and to the work carried on under my sanction in this diocese.

I considered it my duty, for reasons into which I will not enter, to withdraw Mr. Clark's licence, and very solemnly to prohibit him from performing any spiritual functions in the diocese. This prohibition he has not, I believe, literally disobeyed, but he continues to superintend work from which I have withdrawn all sanction; to appoint Catechists and issue directions.

He is also encouraging certain Native Clergymen, who have been under his influence, in open repudiation of my authority.

The following resolutions, passed at a meeting of supporters of the Tamil Cooly Mission, will show you how far Mr. Clark can be considered as acting in allegiance—I will not say to the Bishop—but to the Church of England:—

That, in view of the fundamental constitution of the Mission, the Committee entirely repudiate the right of the Bishop to interfere in its affairs as he has recently done.

That the Committee have the fullest confidence in the present superintendents of the Mission, and sympathize with them under existing circumstances, and resolve to continue the operations of the Mission as before.

That the Committee express its warm gratitude to the Church Missionary Society for the assistance rendered to the Mission, and hope that it will continue its support.

This is the work—confessedly not Church of England work—in which Mr. Clark, in open contempt of his Bishop, is engaged.

You will, I believe, observe that the question is not whether I was right in forbidding Mr. Clark to take part in this work, or whether I was right in withdrawing my sanction from it, but whether, such being the case, he can be any longer supported by your Society.

Having now informed you that Mr. Clark is neither recognized nor tolerated by me as having any place or office in this diocese, I call upon you to recall him and publicly to disown his conduct.

I am sending a copy of this letter to several Churchmen in England to be used as they may think fit.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

R. S. COLOMBO.

Bishop of Colombo to Rev. C. C. Fenn.

Colombo, Aug. 1st, 1876.

DEAR MR. FENN,—I have sent by this letter to your Committee which can meet but one answer. The Tamil Cooly Mission or the majority of its supporters, have openly repudiated the character of a Church of England Mission, that it would be impossible for me to allow any Clergyman connected with it, until a clear statement of the Church of England character had been made, and this, I fear, is out of the question.

On the general matter, let me assure you most decidedly that I cannot, unless under the express direction of my superiors, the Bishops of the Province, withdraw my authority over all congregations and all who minister in them. You will agree with me, that it is unlikely that the Bishops will put such coercion upon me. I do hope, therefore, that a concession will not be delayed in any hope of my giving way. I have a serious duty to perform, and I trust I shall not shrink from any consequences which it may involve.

Believe me,

Yours very faithfully,

R. S. COLOMBO.

Upon the revocation of their licences by the Bishop, the Missionaries, after taking legal advice in the Island, drew up an appeal to the Bishop of Madras, as the Metropolitan Bishop for the diocese of Colombo, against the action of the Bishop of Colombo; but before it could be sent, the Metropolitan had addressed so strong a remonstrance to the Bishop of Colombo on the action he had taken, that the licences, with the exception of Mr. Clark's, were restored. The following are the letters of the Bishop of Colombo to the Rev. W. Oakley, and to the Committee on this subject:—

Bishop of Colombo to Rev. W. Oakley.

DEAR MR. OAKLEY,—I have received a letter from the Metropolitan (written, of course, before your appeal could reach him, in answer to my letter of mine, dated July 15), in which he expresses strong disapproval of the step I took in withdrawing your licence, and counsels me to restore it.

Such counsel has, I consider, an absolute claim on my obedience. I have therefore cancelled the revocation of July 11, and beg that you will resume your duties.

You will understand that this involves no concession on my part of the claims which I have advanced, and on which I shall continue to insist, by all means in my power.

I remain, &c.,

R. S. COLOMBO.

Bishop of Colombo to Committee of Church Missionary Society.

Colombo, Aug. 14th, 1876.

GENTLEMEN,—In reference to the unhappy difference which has arisen between your Society in this diocese and myself, I was unwilling at first formally to address you, lest I should appear to recognize you as having authority, other than that of patrons, in this diocese. But I now think that I should have done better to have accepted of a fact which is virtually, if not in theory, the same, and acknowledged at the outset that it was the Committee of the Church Missionary Society that I was dealing.

I was not at any time forgetful of the great claims which your Society has on the gratitude of the Church in Ceylon, and I have been reminded of them by the Metropolitan, the Bishop of Madras. Nor was I unconscious of the length of time during which, in so many places, the Church of England, through her own remissness, has been content to leave her Missionary work to the great measure to your Society, and to grant it, by something approaching to prescription, a virtual independence. To this the Bishop of Bombay has called my attention in a letter full of wisdom and charity. Still less could I ignore the personal excellence of the very Clergy on whom, not for punishment, but for coercion, I passed what their own determination rendered so heavy a sentence. I felt these things, and the sense of them, let me assure you, has been continually present with me. But I felt also the paramount necessity of asserting and insisting on a claim, without which my office cannot be executed or the unity of this Church secured. And I knew that the force of my insistence might be measured exactly by the force with which the considerations which it set aside were felt. The strangeness, the apparent needlessness, the painfulness of the step taken to enforce my claim, were deliberately contemplated and accepted by me as the measure of the importance with which that claim was regarded by me, and of the energy with which it must be asserted.

That the earnest advice of the Metropolitan has made it my plain duty to return the eleven licences, I heartily rejoice; and I trust that the painful part of our negotiations is over. But I cannot but assure you that that restoration involves no concession of the claim which I have advanced of authority over congregations and lay ministers, or of the conditions which I have laid down (in my letter to Mr. Fenn of July 21st) in reference to the Tamil Cooly Mission.

The circumstances of this diocese, its comparative compactness and advanced condition, render it essential here to insist on principles of unity, which must still, in larger and less advanced dioceses, be impractical, and perhaps unnecessary. And if you should agree in this distinction, you would, I hope, consider it possible to yield a point here, which in some other parts of the world you still withhold.

I hope, indeed, that you have already done so, and that some direction to your Clergy to that effect may be already in the post. For the present, at any rate, I will offer no further arguments.

It is with much pain that I have to tell you that I have restored but eleven licences out of twelve. That of the Rev. W. Clark, withdrawn for causes which did not apply to the others, remains still revoked. I suppose I need not go at length into the reasons which compel me to regard Mr. Clark as standing on an altogether different footing; he has offered me no explanation of the various charges which I have considered serious against him, but has treated me with an open contempt which has been a grievous scandal; and whatever explanation there may have been for earlier matters, his recent attitude of violent antagonism—I might use stronger words—has made it impossible that I should for the present readmit him. Not literally disregarding the revocation of his licence, he has continued to manage the Tamil Cooly Mission, even after its connexion with the Church of England has been openly and frequently repudiated, and to oppose, by means secret and public, the work of Clergy who are authorized by me.

Mr. Clark has gone so far beyond defending the right of the Church Missionary Society to the Tamil Cooly Mission, and is in my judgment guilty of such serious faults, both before my interference with that Mission and since, that I cannot regard it as probable that his licence will be restored. At present he has no sanction or toleration from me, and holds no post in the Church, but is acting in scandalous opposition to me; I therefore most earnestly and solemnly call upon you to recall him, or to desire him to desist from his present course, and to seek, if possible, to justify himself before me. His continuance in the present attitude is a sad scandal to the Church at large, and must do very much to produce an inveterate hostility between different parts of it.

The recall of Mr. Clark is, I believe, an essential condition of any happy working of your Society here; if that obstacle be removed, I feel sure that, under the conditions which I propose or claim, we can work on with perfect harmony, and with little or no hindrance to that due measure of freedom which your Clergy have been accustomed to enjoy.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

R. S. COLOMBO.

It should be added that in a letter of much courtesy from the Bishop of Bombay upon the Ceylon difficulties, dated Poonah, August 2, 1876, he describes himself as "entirely endorsing the principles" of the Bishop of Colombo, although he urges that alterations should be introduced with all tenderness and consideration. (See p. 257.)

On the 26th October the Committee passed the following resolutions on the points at issue:—

RESOLUTIONS.

- I. That this Committee exceedingly regret "the unhappy differences" between the Bishop of Colombo and the Missionary Clergy of his diocese, which form the subject of his Lordship's letters to them of July 27th and Aug. 14th; and they earnestly pray that these differences may, by the gracious influence of the Holy Spirit, be speedily brought to an amicable and satisfactory termination.
- II. That, in reference to the Bishop of Colombo's letters above mentioned, and to the letter of the Bishop of Bombay, dated Aug. 2nd, 1876, the Committee submit to their Lordships the following observations:—

(1) That the Church Missionary Society has never asserted for itself any independence inconsistent with its character as a Church of England Society, nor ever claimed for its Missionaries any exemption from the rightful jurisdiction of the Bishops of the several dioceses in which they are located.

(2) That when a Mission has been established by the Society, and the ordained Missionaries attached to it have been duly licensed by the Bishop of the diocese, the Society is entitled to expect of every succeeding Bishop that he will not withdraw the licence from any such Missionary, except for some sufficient and duly assigned legal cause; nor can it be admitted that the Bishop has authority to assume to himself the management of such Mission, or any part of it, or to transfer the charge of it without the consent of the Society to any Clergyman of his own appointment.

(3) That with regard to the authority of a Bishop over Clergymen, Lay Agents, and Congregations, when claimed as a matter of right, the extent and the manner of its exercise must be determined in conformity with the laws and established practice of the Church of England, and not by the conception of that authority which an individual Bishop may form.

III. That in regard to the requirements of the Bishop of Colombo, respecting—(1) the discontinuance of the Society's connexion with the Tamil Cooly Mission Association; (2) the recognition of "the freedom of the Chaplains to minister, open schools, and hold services for the coolies;" (3) the recall of the Rev. W. Clark; and (4) the claim of the Bishop to "possess a veto on the appointment of Catechists, and to exercise authority over all congregations as to place, time, and manner of service," the Committee would reply,—

(1) That the Tamil Cooly Association has raised and administered a local fund for the support of Lay Catechists, has arranged that the Catechists so supported should be under the superintendence of the Society's Missionaries, and has by special rules carefully guarded against any infraction of Church of England principles in the management of the Mission; that this arrangement has been carried on with no expression of disapproval on the part of successive Bishops of Colombo during a period of twenty years, and does not violate any law or principle of the Church of England; and that therefore the Committee cannot recognize the right of the Bishop to demand its discontinuance or to take the work of the Mission into his own hands.

(2) That the Committee have no power, even if they had the wish, to prevent the Chaplains from ministering, opening schools, or holding services for the coolies; but if it be meant that the Chaplains have, or should have the right of interfering with the work of the Church Missionary Society, or of taking any part in it except by permission, the Committee must emphatically decline either to recognize or to grant any such right. The custody of the Society's buildings, and the direction of the Society's Native Lay Agents, must remain in the hands of its Missionaries.

(3) That the Rev. W. Clark having appealed to the Acting Metropolitan against the withdrawal of his licence, the Committee feel that due respect for the Metropolitan requires them to suspend consideration of the Bishop's requisition until the appeal has been decided. At the same time they are bound to say that Mr. Clark has been a faithful and laborious Missionary of the Society for the last twenty-eight years; and they consider that, in declining to surrender the conduct of the Tamil Cooly Mission, he did that which he was bound to do in fidelity to the trust committed to him.

(4) That the Committee cannot admit the claim made by the Bishop of a veto on the appointment of Catechists, or of such unlimited authority as he appears to claim over all congregations as to the place, and manner of service, to be in conformity with the laws and practice of the Church of England; and they sincerely regret that under the present circumstances of the Mission in Ceylon, they cannot see their way to comply with the Bishop's request, and to him authority which, on his own admission, is not "guaranteed to him by the Society."

IV. That the Committee respectfully and solemnly protest against the mode adopted by the Bishop of enforcing his authority by the use of the ecclesiastical power of withdrawing the licences of Clergymen against whom no fault is alleged, "as a punishment, but for coercion," in order to compel submission to an exercise of authority beyond that which the law confers.

V. That copies of the first two Resolutions be sent, with an accompanying Letter, to the Bishop of Bombay; and that copies of all the foregoing Resolutions be sent, with an accompanying Letter, to the Bishop of Colombo.

VI. That the Committee thank the Tamil Cooly Mission Association for the confidence shown to them, and assure the Association of their purpose, under God, to adhere faithfully to an arrangement which has continued so long, and with so manifest a blessing.

VII. That the Committee thankfully appreciate the love for the truth manifested by the Jaffna Christians, as well as by those connected with the Tamil Cooly Mission, in the petitions addressed to the Committee, and would assure their brethren of their hearty sympathy with them in their present distress and anxiety, of their intention to do all in their power to preserve among them the purity of the Gospel and the simplicity of public worship, and of their prayerful hope that the efforts made for this purpose will be successful.

VIII. That copies of the petitions of the Jaffna and Tamil Cooly Christians be forwarded to the Bishop of Colombo, and that his attention be earnestly directed to the distress and anxiety occasioned to the Native Christians by the practices recently introduced into his diocese.

IX. That the Committee heartily approve of the course pursued by the Ceylon Missionaries throughout this difficult crisis, and warmly thank them for having with such energy, fidelity, and wisdom, defended the position and principles of the Society.

X. That a Memorandum be drawn up for the information of friends of the Society, stating the nature and circumstances of the differences that have arisen between the Bishop of Colombo and the Missionaries; and describing and explaining the action of the Committee.

With reference to the above Resolution II. (1), the Committee think it right to call attention to the principles of the Society in regard to the episcopal superintendence of its Missionaries, especially as the Bishop of Colombo, in his circular to the Native Clergy, dated Colombo, July 16, 1876, speaks of "the long tolerated but now acknowledged freedom of their Society," and as there may be an impression in other quarters that the practice of the Society in this respect is irregular and unconstitutional.

In the year 1835 these principles of the Society were stated in a letter from the Society to the Bishop of Calcutta (Bishop Wilson) and were embodied by him, for the most part in the words of the Society's letter, in the four following points, as the recognized rules of the Society's practice:—

"1. The Bishop expresses — by granting or withholding his licence, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approval or otherwise of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries forward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those (the Committee and Secretary) who still stand in the relation of lay patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage. The Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate direction when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives further all such confidential information on all topics as the Bishops officially either could wish nor properly ask to receive."

These recognized rules of the Society's practice are referred to in the Fundamental Laws and Regulations of the Society, which are printed in every Report. The principles embodied in them have been acted upon by the Committee in carrying on their work in every part of the Mission field, and as they were considered at the time "perfectly satisfactory" by the Bishop of Calcutta, so they have rarely failed to satisfy the ecclesiastical authorities of the Church of England both at home and abroad.

There can be no doubt that the unhappy differences with the Bishop of Colombo have mainly arisen from the fact that he has adopted views of episcopal authority not only very different from those usually held by Bishops of the Church of England, but also distinctly at variance with the authoritative interpretation of its laws. This will be seen clearly by comparing a passage from the letter of the Bishop to the Rev. W. Oakley, dated Colombo, July 12th, 1876 with an extract from the judgment of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, in the case of "Long v. the Bishop of Capetown." These are placed in parallel columns to facilitate comparison.

The Bishop of Colombo. The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council.

"If by 'what can legally be demanded' you mean 'what is not legal to demand,' your words contain an ample recognition of the Bishop's authority; but if you mean 'the demand of which can be enforced by law,' then you would remind you that the Bishop has authority of which the law takes no account, and is bound to make demands of spiritual nature which he cannot legally enforce."

The Bishop's conception of episcopal authority will explain the ground on which he claims right in matters with regard to which he himself states that they are not guaranteed to him by law; while this authoritative statement of the highest Court of Appeal in the Church of England will show that the Committee are only maintaining the rights of the clergy in declining to acknowledge as binding upon them an assumed authority which is not legally recognized.

In regard to Resolution III. (4), the Committee would wish it to be understood that, in refusing to concede the claim made by the Bishop of Colombo to a veto on the appointment of Catechists, they do not deny that cases may occur in which it may be advisable to obtain the approval by the Bishop of laymen engaged in spiritual work, especially when they are employed to minister regularly to settled Christian congregations. But coming as the question did in the form of a claim to an absolute power unknown to the Church of England, as vested not only in the Bishop himself but even in any Chaplain whom he might please to appoint to exercise it, the question could not be detached from all the serious issues involved in the action of the Bishop.

The Petitions of the Jaffna and Tamil Cooly Christians, referred to in Resolutions VII. and VIII., together with the other documents, plainly indicate the apprehension of the petitioners—an apprehension which is shared by the Committee—that compliance with the demands of the Bishop would have been likely to result in handing over the work of nearly sixty years in a field which the Lord hath blessed to those whose aim it would be to introduce into the Native Church a ritual, practices, and doctrines opposed to the simplicity of the Gospel, and altogether alien to the Protestant and Reformed Church of England.

In conclusion:—The Committee cannot but think that one effect of the present proceedings in Ceylon will be to deepen the conviction in the minds of the Protestant members of the Church of England that, in the present state of their Church, an essential security, under God, for the continuance of the simple Gospel of the grace of God in Church of England Missions is the maintenance of voluntary Societies pledged to Scriptural and Protestant principles, and to lead any friends who may have been disposed to sympathize with the desire to abolish such Societies, and to substitute for them a Board of Missions, to see that they have hardly counted the cost.

The Committee are well aware that the course of action which they have taken, and which they are steadily resolved to pursue, will meet with no favour at the hands of those whose desire it is to deprive the Church of England of its Protestant character, or who accuse the Church Missionary Society of being false to its title because it refuses to acknowledge an absolute authority which is inconsistent with the constitution of the Church of England. But they have a firm conviction that those who love the memory of the Reformers, and who live by the truths for which they died, will at this crisis support the Society more cordially than ever, and enable it to bear to the ends of the earth the knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus.

The Committee are truly thankful for the prayers which they know well have been offered up for them at a time which has indeed been one of anxious thought and deliberation. They cannot doubt that those prayers have been heard and answered; and they would ask their friends, in their Master's name, "not to faint" in this duty, but to make constant and earnest supplication that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil the same, to the glory of God, in the maintenance of His truth and the extension of His kingdom.

STATEMENT furnished at the desire of his Excellency Sir W. H. Gregory, K.C.M.G., Governor of Ceylon, &c., of the circumstances connected with the withdrawal by the Bishop of Colombo of the licences of twelve Missionary Clergymen.

The Church Missionary Society, whose Missionaries have been, through the action of his Lordship the Bishop of Colombo, deprived of their licences, has carried on extensive operations in Ceylon for nearly sixty years. Through God's blessing on its efforts there are, at the present time, between four and five thousand native Christians in connexion with its congregations, and more than seven thousand children under instruction in its schools.

For the carrying on of its Missionary operations, the Society has employed two classes of agents, Ordained Clergymen and Lay Catechists.

The Society has in its regulations definitely fixed the status of the Clergy whom it sends forth. They are licensed and superintended by the Colonial Bishops of the Church of England, as are the other Clergy of the Church officiating in the same colony. The Society stands to them in the relation of Lay Patron, selecting them in England and supporting them in the Mission-field; but the Bishop of the diocese to which they are appointed licenses them, superintends them in all their ecclesiastical duties, visits their congregations, and confirms and ordains the candidates presented to him by them.

The Catechists and other Lay Agents of the Society have always been regarded as holding an entirely different position. Selected, trained, and superintended by the Missionaries, they have been considered responsible to them, and, through them, to the Society by which they are employed and paid. They are not licensed by the Bishop, and have therefore not been regarded as being under his direct authority. They work under the direction of the Missionary, who is responsible to the Bishop for all that is done in his district, whether by himself or his native Agents. In this way the Bishop's control, though not direct, is effective and sufficient.

This distinction in the position of Clergymen and Catechists has, from the foundation of Missions, been recognized in India, and by successive Bishops in the Indian dioceses as well as in Ceylon. There have been occasions when individual Bishops have expressed the desire that the Catechists should be more immediately subordinated to themselves, but this has never been put forth as a claim to be insisted on, until in connexion with the unhappy circumstances to which this statement refers.

These remarks are essential to a right understanding of the state of things which has arisen in Ceylon. They show that the plan on which Missionary work has been carried on is not a new one, and that it has hitherto received from nearly all Bishops full sanction, while by some it has been warmly supported, as being at once simple and efficient. It has remained for Bishop Copleston to endeavour to overturn it, and to withdraw the licences of the entire staff of Missionaries, with one exception, because they sought to maintain intact a system which had worked satisfactorily for so many years.

On the arrival of the Bishop in February he was welcomed by the Missionaries; and shortly after, he visited several of the stations, every information was given him, and the fullest opportunity afforded of making himself acquainted with the details of the work, and the agents by whom it was being carried on.

At the various Mission stations the Bishop expressed himself much pleased with and interested in all he saw, and appeared gratified at the success with which the work had been attended.

Very shortly after his Lordship's arrival, however, he, in conversation with some of the Missionaries and others, propounded plans which created much anxiety in the minds of those interested. A prominent idea in these plans was the depriving the Missionaries of the liberty which they had long enjoyed, and practically subordinating them to the Chaplains, whose appointment in several instances is in the Bishop's own hands. Among the men connected with the Church Missionary Society in Ceylon is a Clergyman who has laboured in the diocese more than forty-one years, another of twenty-eight years' service, another of twenty-five, another of nineteen, and several of more than ten; but apparently neither years nor experience were to weigh with the Bishop against the plan which he desired to see carried out. His Lordship wished that the Missionaries should carry on their work under the "sanction" of the Chaplains; that they should be, as it were, in the relation of Curates, the Chaplains standing to them in the relation of Rectors; that the Chaplains should have a right of entrance into and control over all Missionary schools in the districts in which they resided, and that no Native Agent of the Society should be appointed to work in such districts, although, perhaps, for many years included in the Society's field of operation without the consent of the Chaplains. Some of these Chaplains, especially those in the interior, who are supported either partly or entirely by their congregations, are young men of limited ministerial and no Missionary experience, and entirely unacquainted with the native language, and the Missionaries very naturally protested against such an arrangement.

One portion of the Society's work especially seemed threatened by the Bishop's action, namely, the Tamil Cooly Mission, commenced about twenty-five years since for the evangelization of the coolies on the coffee estates, and since then maintained and liberally supported by the planters. In his journeys through the hills the Bishop, with more or less clearness, on several occasions intimated his intention to introduce important changes into its management and arrangements. This led to correspondence between the Bishop and the Superintendent of the Cooly Mission, the Rev. W. Clark, and afterwards between the Bishop and the Secretary of the entire Mission, the Rev. W. Oakley.

In the letters which passed the Missionaries pressed for a recognition of their former independence and permission to carry on their work in the independence of the Chaplains. The Bishop, on the other hand, while expressing his appreciation of their efforts, and endeavouring to allay apprehension, strongly maintained his right of interference, and intention to curtail the independence which from the beginning of the Mission had been maintained.

Strong feeling was in this way excited, and great anxiety was felt owing to uncertainty as to the course which the Bishop contemplated, and the results which were likely to ensue. The Bishop's letters, though evidently framed with the desire of removing this feeling, were in their character hardly calculated to do so.

While this correspondence was in progress, a step taken by one of the Chaplains showed in what direction matters were tending, and to what they were likely to lead. He wrote to a Missionary who, in the exercise of his ordinary duties, had held service in the Tamil language in a coffee store in his neighbourhood—where all services were usually held—expressing surprise that he had done so without previous communication with him, and claiming the Native Christians, as well as the European residents, as being under his spiritual charge. Such claims the Bishop himself afterwards condemned as inadmissible, but they sufficiently indicated what the Chaplains had gathered from the expressions used by his Lordship in his letters and in conversation.

Matters thus threatening were nearly brought to a crisis by the endeavour of the Bishop to compel acceptance of his terms by a young Missionary, Mr. Cavalier, who presented himself for admission to Priest's orders, at first declining to ordain him except on conditions which he could not accept, and objecting to his consulting his seniors before giving his reply. The concessions demanded would have pledged Mr. Cavalier to work under the sanction of the Chaplains, and would have yielded to the Bishop the right to remove, or demand the dismissal of Lay Agents at his will. Eventually Mr. Cavalier was allowed to consult others, and the Bishop, under strong pressure from without as well as within the Mission, ordained him without exacting any pledge, but intimating that he intended carrying out his own plans.

There are in several parts of the island churches open to all denominations of Protestant Christians, and also some which are consecrated. These churches, the latter especially, are generally under the control of a Chaplain, who introduces, almost at will, whatever he may think desirable in the way of ornament, &c., and who also arranges hours of service.

In places where Mission churches have not yet been erected, the Missionaries have been in the habit of availing themselves of these for the Native services, but generally without the idea of such an arrangement being permanent. It was both inconvenient and undesirable that the Mission congregations should be dependent on the arrangements of a Clergyman in no way connected with them. Occasionally, too, cases occurred where Native Christians, who, as converts from heathenism, were very sensitive on the subject of idolatry, were offended at figures in painted windows, &c., which Europeans would not have objected to, and the introduction of crosses, &c. These reasons, taken in connexion with the claims which would virtually have subjected those congregations to the Chaplain in whose church, though under another Minister or Catechist, they assembled, led the superintendent, Mr. Clark, to decide on removing his people from these churches to buildings which, as the property of the Mission, were under his control.

places, and the Catechists assembled their congregations for service in Mission school-rooms.

On receiving intelligence of what had been done, the Bishop wrote direct to one of the Catechists, countermanding the orders he had received from the Superintendent, and directing him to resume the service in the church; and then wrote to Mr. Clark, calling on him to clear himself from the charge of acting so as to cause schism.

The Missionaries were at this time, early in July, assembled for their half-yearly Conference, and Mr. Clark had thus an opportunity of obtaining the opinions of most of his fellow-labourers. It was felt that as the Catechists were the agents of the Society in London, neither could the Bishop claim, nor the Missionaries grant, absolute authority over them without the sanction of the Parent Committee first obtained, and further that the Bishop's action in countermanding the Missionary's orders to his own subordinate, without previous reference to him, was arbitrary and without precedent.

Mr. Clark, therefore, after consultation with his brethren, wrote to the Bishop to the effect that most reluctantly, and with all respect for his Lordship's office, he had been obliged to direct the Catechist to carry out the directions he had previously given, and at the same time he wrote through Mr. Cavalier to the Catechist giving him these instructions.

This occurred on the 7th of July. On the 10th the Bishop sent for Mr. Cavalier, and conversed with him, advising him to withdraw from the position he had taken up in reference to the matter. On the 11th the Bishop, accompanied by his Chaplain, met the Missionaries assembled in Conference at Kotté, six miles from Colombo. He began the interview by inquiring whether the directions which Mr. Clark had issued in opposition to his orders had received the sanction of the Conference.

In reply he was informed that while individual Missionaries had expressed their opinions and had concurred with Mr. Clark, the subject had not been dealt with by the Conference. Of the Clergymen present, two at least had not been called on to express any opinion on the question. One had joined the Conference only that morning, and had only a general knowledge of what had occurred.

The Bishop expressed his surprise and displeasure at the step which had been taken; he further urged claims to what would amount to absolute and irresponsible power over Lay Agents and congregations. The Missionaries expressed regret that unintentional discourtesy had been shown to his Lordship, in not communicating with him previous to confirming the orders given to the Catechist; but on the question of principle declared themselves unable to yield without the permission of the Society of which they were the Agents. They requested the Bishop to allow them opportunity to consult the Parent Committee, and to suspend action in the meantime. This the Bishop declined doing, and at the same time announced, that from that very day he had himself taken possession of the Tamil Cooiy Mission, removed from its superintendence the Missionaries previously in charge, and placed it under the direction of the Archdeacon. The Bishop thus not only demanded the authority previously laid claim to, but also the power to transfer to his own direct management, without any reference to the Society which had originated and carried it on, a branch of the Mission employing about thirty Agents, Clerical and Lay, besides Schoolmasters, and embracing the whole of the coffee districts in its operations. It can hardly be matter for surprise that the Missionaries respectfully but firmly declined to submit.

Neither during this interview, nor previously, had the Bishop given any intimation of his intention to withdraw the licences of the Missionaries. He laid before them no definite terms, written or otherwise, for their acceptance.

The interview, after its commencement, was little more than a general conversation between the Bishop and two or three of the senior Clergy present, in which they respectfully stated their views and the principles on which they were acting. At its conclusion the Bishop rose, made some remarks on the unwillingness of the Missionaries to submit to him, and, as he said, share with others the perils of the Church, and said he must do that for which he had come prepared. He drew from his pocket a document in which the names of the Missionaries were already inserted in pencil, filled them in with ink, and then read it aloud.

It was a revocation of all licence and permission to officiate or minister in the diocese, and was addressed, without exception, to all the Clergy present. He announced that this revocation would become final in the case of all whose submission did not reach him before the following Sunday.

Being asked whether he withdrew the licences on account of any overt act, or merely on account of difference of opinion, the Bishop replied, "I decline to assign any reason."

A Missionary said, "My Lord, what do you demand of us? I do not understand what you wish us to do." The Bishop answered, "You ought to have gathered that from what I have said." It was again asked whether what he desired was that the Missionaries should formally express regret for countermanning his directions to the Catechist. He answered, "That is only part of what I demand."

Before leaving, the Bishop thanked those present for their respectful and Christian demeanour towards him.

After the Bishop's departure, the Missionaries passed and transmitted to his Lordship several resolutions, of which the following is one:—"The Members of the Conference, as Clergymen and loyal Members of the Church of England, desire to express their adherence to the principles and discipline of that Church, as by law established, and their readiness to comply with every requisition of the Bishop of the diocese which can legally be demanded from them."

To this the Bishop replied, "There is nothing in your communication of to-day which the least alters the position."

On the 13th of July, two days, be it remembered, after the licences had been withdrawn, the Bishop laid before the Conference a written statement of his claims, and certain resolutions which he desired the members to adopt as a condition on which their licences, with the exception of Mr. Clark's, should be returned. The claims included many the propriety of which the Missionaries had never questioned; such as the right of the Bishop to receive all necessary information as to the preparation of candidates for confirmation, &c., but at the same time others which, not merely as abstract questions, but also in view of the position which the Bishop had adopted in reference to the Tamil Cooly Mission, it was impossible to admit. To allow the right of veto on the appointment of Agents would have at once deprived the Missionaries of all power of protesting effectively against an act which they could not resist otherwise than as one of spoliation.

On the 14th the Bishop again met the Conference, not having given any previous intimation of his coming. He expressed his regret that his former propositions had not been accepted, and said he now wished to suggest a plan which would tend to obviate inconvenience to the congregations who had been deprived of ministrations through the withdrawal of the licences. He proposed that, although the withdrawal of licences legally incapacitated them from taking service, and though their doing so would render them liable to legal penalties, any who were prepared to take the consequences should continue their ministrations as heretofore, and that he would not regard their so doing as contumacious, or a spiritual offence. He added that as legal processes required time, the penalties might not be enforced for many weeks.

The Missionaries replied that they could not accept, as a solution of present difficulties, a compromise which would place them in the position of breakers of the law. The proposition made by the Bishop is so extraordinary that attempts have since been made by those who professed to speak with authority, to deny the correctness of the account here given. The proposition was, however, in writing; and when present are prepared, if necessary, to support, by affidavit, the agreement of the contents of the document read by the Bishop, and the remarks made by him in reference to it, with the statement as given above.

The Bishop then inquired what course the Missionaries would adopt should he see fit to return their licences? It was replied that if all were returned they would of course resume their duties. The Bishop declined to return all, saying that under no circumstances would he restore Mr. Clark's. The Missionaries felt that they had, as a body, been dealt with arbitrarily and unjustly, if not illegally, and they therefore respectfully informed his Lordship that they were unwilling to receive back the licences of any unless all were restored. The Bishop declining to concede this, all negotiations ceased.

It will be perceived from the foregoing—

1. That the Bishop withdrew the licences of twelve Clergymen, not accused of any offence against either ecclesiastical or civil law, without any previous warning or intimation of the course which he was about to adopt.

2. That he included in his sentence ten Missionaries, against whom his only ground of complaint was that they had advised a certain course of action which he regarded as an infringement of his right.

3. That among those deprived were at least two Clergymen who had never been consulted on the matter in question, and had expressed no opinion regarding it.

4. That afterwards, to avoid scandal, the Bishop suggested the evasion of his own sentence through breach of the law.

On the matters in dispute it is admitted that various opinions may be held. The right of the Bishop to withdraw licences, where such a course becomes necessary, is not denied, but it is maintained that, in the present instance, the punishment was out of all proportion to the alleged offence, being such as could hardly be exacted had the Missionaries been guilty of the grossest misconduct; and that the Bishop's power was exercised arbitrarily and unjustifiably, without consideration of the position of the Missionaries as responsible to the Parent Society in London, or the congregations which have been, through his action, deprived of Christian rites.

Since the circumstances recorded above, the Bishop has issued three remarkable documents, two of which bear testimony to the fact that he was not forced to the steps complained of through any failure of respect or reverence on the part of the Missionaries.

In a letter to the Churchwardens of Christ Church, Colombo, justifying the withdrawal of licences from their Minister, the Bishop says, "I am most thankful to be able to inform you that in the course of these negotiations, painful as they have been, Mr. Jones has displayed the utmost gentleness, charity, and respect for my office."

In a circular sent to several Clergymen of the diocese for distribution, his Lordship says, "These Clergy whose licences are withdrawn are, I believe, doing what they think to be their duty in maintaining the long tolerated, but never acknowledged, freedom of their Society; I, on the other hand, believe that my duty is to compel them and their Society to submit. Our negotiations, painful as they have been, have, thank God, throughout been conducted without anger, and in a spirit of prayer and charity."

The third document is a letter addressed to two Native Ministers who had not previously come into collision with the Bishop in any way. They have long been employed in connexion with the Tamil Cooly Mission, and on the attempt of his Lordship to transfer that Mission to other management, they were directed to discontinue their connexion with Mr. Clark, and to receive their orders from the Archdeacon. They replied that as they were the paid Agents of a Society in London they must, before making any change, refer to the Secretary there. The following is the Bishop's answer:—

Colombo, July 28th, 1876.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—You are, I think, aware that the work in which you have been hitherto engaged has been re-organized by me on a new footing. Until the arrangements connected with that re-organization are complete it is not well that you should go on with your ministrations as heretofore. You must be aware that I have withdrawn my sanction from the work conducted by the Tamil Cooly Mission Committee, as at present constituted; such work, therefore, cannot be encouraged or assisted by any Clergyman of the Church of England without the gravest violation of duty. Now that I have plainly told you that your ministrations in the neighbourhood of Gampola and Pusellawa have not my sanction, I hope you will see that it is right for you to discontinue them. If you do not I must of course withdraw your licence, and once withdrawn it will never be restored. But I trust that my earnest remonstrance and entreaty will be enough. Consider the terrible sin which you will be committing if you set at nought the authority under which God has placed you, in deference to any merely human directions. Consider whose counsel ought to weigh most with you, that of your Bishop, or that of a brother priest, himself under the grave censure of his Bishop. Desist for the present from the action which you have begun in defiance of my authority and opposition to the work sanctioned by me; even if you are not convinced that you are bound to do so, yet do it unconvinced rather than run the risk of committing sin of which you hardly know the magnitude.

Your faithful servant in Christ,
R. S. COLOMBO.

This is a letter to men whose only fault is that they continue quietly and unobtrusively the services in which they have long been engaged, yet it threatens the withdrawal of their licences, and assures them that if they are deprived of them they will never be returned.

Such unwarrantable severity needs no comment.

The Missionaries have appealed to the Metropolitan and await his decision, but in the meantime some fifty congregations are without sacraments, and cannot, without considerable difficulty and inconvenience, obtain marriage and burial.

J. IRELAND JONES,
Missionary of the Church Missionary Society, and late Commissary of the Bishop of Calcutta and head of the Ecclesiastical Establishment in Ceylon.

LETTER FROM THE BISHOP OF BOMBAY TO THE HONORARY SECRETARY OF THE CHURCH
MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Poona, August 2nd, 1876.

DEAR SIR,—The fragrant memory of the single half-hour which I spent in the Church Missionary Society's Committee Room last month encourages me to think that any communication from me will be received by your Committee not only with the consideration which my office would suggest, but with something of personal kindness.

I have heard with the deepest concern of the difficulties which have recently arisen between my dear brother and friend of Colombo and the Church Missionary Society's Missionaries in his diocese.

I have communicated fully with him on the subject, and have told him that I intended to write to you by this mail. Since doing so I have issued to the Clergy of this diocese a circular letter, or pastoral, of which I enclose a copy; the spirit of it will, I hope, coincide with the way in which the Home Committee is disposed to view this, as I apprehend, very serious crisis in the history of the Society, and of its relations to the Church of England at large.

I apprehend that the whole question of the relations between the Bishops and the Church Missionary Society have to be looked at from two points of view, that of the theoretically best plan of Church government, and that of what has, as a fact, up to this time been sanctioned or not interfered with by the Episcopate. These I shall venture to call respectively the ideal and the historical aspects of the question.

Ideally I can have no doubt whatever that the whole of the Church work in every diocese ought to be under the direction of the Bishop in a graduated scale of directness, so that whereas as a matter of fact individual Clergymen will direct their subordinates in all the details of their work, and will themselves manage the affairs of their congregations with very little direct interference on the part of the Bishop, there must always be an ultimate reference to him as the fount (under our Lord Jesus Christ) of all ecclesiastical authority within his diocese. When I speak of this as what must be required, from the ideal point of view, I do not mean to say that I regard it as a beautiful theory incapable of being carried into practice. I mean rather that I must regard it as a principle the formal repudiation of which would put any Bishop who approached the subject from at all the same side as myself in a terrible, practical difficulty. I should not dream of inventing a new form of test, by asking any Clergyman who applied to me for a licence to subscribe to any theory which was not to be found in so many words in the formularies of the Church of England. But there are principles the direct negation of which would put one in a position of great difficulty, however little right one might have to demand their affirmation.

From the historical point of view, this question, like most others of the kind, presents itself in a much less simple form, and is capable of being handled in a much less uncompromising spirit. I take it that the Church is like any merely human society in this, that she is in a measure bound by every prescription which she has herself allowed to grow up; and that she is unlike any human society in the degree of equitable consideration which she requires her officers to exercise when they are acting in her name. I feel for myself, when I am acting as her representative in her relations with the Church Missionary Society, that she would wish me to bear in mind on her behalf that the Society was up and doing in publishing the Gospel among the heathen at a time when she, as a corporation, was confining all her endeavours to her own children at home. And, therefore, although I hold that through her Bishops she claims a voice, and ought ever to have claimed a paramount voice, in all that is done by her children combined in voluntary associations for the spread of the Gospel, I hold also that that claim must be exercised only with a tender regard for any right which she has allowed to become prescriptive, although they were not at first acquired by her express and deliberate permission.

I must therefore express to you, and ask you to communicate in full to your Committee, my most earnest hope that nothing may occur in consequence of the Colombo difficulty which might imperil the relations of the Society with the Bishops of other dioceses. The crisis has, in my opinion, become so serious that any rash practical assertion of claims on one side, or any formal repudiation of them on the other, might become the cause of widespread commotion and difficulties, of which it is impossible to see the end. Of difficulties arising here between myself and the Clergy of the Society, I do not feel in the least apprehensive; what I dread is that some utterance may be elicited from the home Society as to the rights of the Clergy against the Bishops, which might make me feel that to issue fresh licences to Clergymen who were sent out on that understanding would be impossible. When I read the promises made at ordination, I feel how impossible it is to allow that a Clergyman can ever so bind himself to a voluntary Society which sends him out, as that the Bishop should cease to be the ultimate referee as to questions connected with the spiritual charge of the people. To this position I fear that one at least of the Ceylon Clergy, now under suspension of licence, has committed himself. It is my constant hope and prayer that the Committee at home may not so support him in that position as to make me feel that any Clergyman recommended by them to me for a licence was practically pledged to its maintenance, and I cannot but think that many of my brethren whose attitude on such matters is not quite the same as my own, would feel that there was a hollowness and unreality about the whole relation between themselves and Clergymen coming out on such terms, which would so try the sense of honesty on both sides, as to rob the solemn ordination vows of their meaning, that anything was better than to keep up in the sight of God and the Church a relation which had so lost its true meaning.

I trust, dear Sir, that I have not in these last few words gone beyond what it was an absolute duty to say. I have tried throughout to write lovingly and sympathetically, and I am sure all of your Committee to whom I am personally known will believe me when I say that it has been deeply painful to have to write on such a subject at all. But I owe it to my brother at Colombo to say how entirely I endorse his principles. Trusting that out of all which at present looks so dark, there may yet, in God's good time, be brought a blessing to the Church and to the Society,

I am, dear Sir,
Yours most truly,
L. G. BOMBAY.

MEMORANDUM

UPON THE RESOLUTIONS PASSED AT THE CONFERENCE OF THE BISHOPS OF THE PROVINCE OF INDIA AND CEYLON, HELD AT THE PALACE, CALCUTTA, ON THE 7TH AND FOLLOWING DAYS OF MARCH, 1877.

The following Resolutions have been communicated to the Church Missionary Society by the Bishop of Calcutta :—

Resolutions passed at the Conference of the Bishops of the Province of India and Ceylon, held at the Palace, Calcutta, on the 8th day of March, 1877, adjourned from the 7th day of March, 1877.

THE RELATION OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES TO DIOCESAN ORGANIZATION.

Unanimously resolved :—

I. "We, the Metropolitan and Suffragan Bishops of the Province, desire to record our high appreciation of the work done on behalf of the Church of England by the great Missionary Societies which have voluntarily laboured in her name. In view, however, of the revival and extension of the corporate work of the Church, we feel the necessity of considering and more accurately defining the relation of those Societies to Diocesan organization."

II. "We further consider that the question of the conditions under which Lay Agents are to be employed in the Church is one which demands the serious attention of the Church at large."

III. "Pending the full consideration of these important subjects, we resolve—

(1) "That the Bishop of every diocese is in the last resort responsible for all teaching given and all work done within his diocese in the name and under the authority of the Church."

(2) "That in accordance with this principle every appointment to the discharge of spiritual functions in the Church ought to be made with due recognition of the ultimate right of the Bishop to be consulted on such appointment, and to exercise a veto upon the same."

(3) "That it follows from the same principle that like recognition ought to be accorded to the ultimate right of the Bishop to be consulted with regard to any change in the management, order of service, or place of worship, of any congregation."

IV. "We severally undertake to bring the whole matter before our respective dioceses, and, through the Metropolitan, to forward a copy of these Resolutions to the Metropolitans of the other Provinces of the Anglican Communion, with an expression of our hope that they will lay the same before their Suffragans, and obtain from them the opinion of their respective dioceses upon the subjects referred to."

V. "We further resolve to meet at such time and place as may be settled by the Metropolitan, to consider the replies which may have been received, and to take steps for ultimately bringing the whole subject before the proposed Pan-Anglican Synod."

CONSECRATION OF CHURCHES.

At the adjourned Conference, held on Monday, March 12, it was resolved :—

I. "That the idea of consecration implying that the person or thing consecrated is thenceforth wholly and permanently given up and dedicated for ever to sacred purposes, no building can be in the proper sense of the term consecrated unless the site and the building are, at the time of consecration, legally conveyed and given over to the Church for ever. The Bishop on the part of the Church receives the gift at the hand of the founder or founders, and solemnly consecrates it for ever."

II. "That such being the true idea of consecration, no church which is intended to be a permanent consecrated building should be built upon a site the title to which is in any way insecure or of a temporary character, and every care should be taken for legally securing the site before the building of any church is commenced."

III. "That inasmuch as it is the law of the Church that buildings which, either through insecurity of title to the site or other circumstances, cannot be permanently dedicated and consecrated, should be licensed by the Bishop, no building should be used habitually, nor, except under pressure of necessity, even occasionally, for the celebration of the Holy Communion, without his licence or permission."

SYNODICAL ACTION.

Upon this subject it was resolved :—

"That the time has come for taking steps to provide a system of Synodical action, both Diocesan and Provincial, and that we undertake to ascertain the feelings of the Clergy and Laity of our several dioceses in regard to the constitution of Diocesan Synods."

ECCLESIASTICAL COURTS.

At the adjourned Conference on Friday, March the 9th, it was resolved :—

"That it is to be desired, with a view to securing to the Clergy and Laity a right of appeal, which at present in the case of revocation of licence they have not, that in the case of any proceedings being taken against any Clergyman, the opportunity should be offered to him of submitting his case to an informal Court held by the Bishop, the Bishop undertaking in that event to recognize the right of appeal to a similarly informal Court held by the Metropolitan, whose decision shall be held to be final."

MEMORANDUM

ON THE FOREGOING RESOLUTIONS, ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, JUNE 26TH, 1877.

WITH a view to the full consideration, in all their bearings, of the Resolutions forwarded by the Bishop of Calcutta, it is important that prominence be given to the following general principles:—

I. The right inherent in the individual members of a Christian Church to combine for the institution and maintenance of organizations for the extension of the Gospel at home and abroad, and to control, within proper limits, the organizations thus created by them, is in accordance with the recognized custom of the Church of England and the teaching of the Word of God; and in the case of the Church Missionary Society this right has gained strength by long prescription.

II. The management of Mission work which is carried on by funds raised through the agency of Societies in England cannot be justly claimed by any Diocesan organization, but must be regulated, as hitherto, by an arrangement between the Bishop of a Diocese and the Societies which supply the funds.*

III. There is an evident distinction between a Bishop appointed by Letters Patent to exercise a legally defined jurisdiction, and a Missionary Bishop consecrated under Royal Licence, and entrusted with the superintendence, management, and direction of Missionary work, or with the development of the organization of Native Churches. The former is a constitutional ruler, invested with legal powers, and restrained within legal limits. The latter is a superintending Missionary in Episcopal Orders, possessing jurisdiction over those who voluntarily submit themselves to him, and exercising authority (beside that which is inherent in the Episcopal office) of such kind and extent as may be agreed upon by the parties concerned, viz., the Bishop himself, the Society that supplies the means to carry on the Mission, and the Clergy who place themselves under his control. To the first class belong such Bishops as the Presidency Bishops of India; to the latter, such as Bishop Crowther of the Niger Mission, Bishop Russell of the North China Mission, and Bishop Steere of the Universities' Mission to Central Africa. Bishop Sargent and Bishop Caldwell, though in a somewhat different ecclesiastical position, may be placed in this latter class, as having been entrusted with the superintendence of the Native Church in South India.

IV. There is also an obvious difference between countries in which the resident English are bonâ fide colonists, and exceed, or are likely to exceed, in numbers the Native population, such as North-West America and New Zealand; and countries, such as India and Ceylon, in which, owing to climate, Englishmen can only be sojourners, and their numbers in proportion to the vast Native populations never otherwise than insignificant. In the former case Missionary work may gradually become absorbed in the Diocesan organization of the Colony, and the English and Native races amalgamated in the same Church. In the latter no such absorption or amalgamation can take place. Where the Anglo-Saxon cannot be at home, there neither can his Church. Except to a very small extent, the English, constantly coming and going, do not learn the language of the Natives, nor the Natives theirs. While the English wish to enjoy the order and discipline of their Church exactly as in England, the Native Christians already show signs of desiring for themselves a Church modified to some extent in its forms, its ceremonies, and its organization, to suit their Oriental nature and their Oriental life. Hence it is essential that the ultimate formation of an independent Native Church be steadily kept in view, and no action taken which would interfere with or hinder such a consummation.

* "One thing is absolutely certain, namely—that as long as Societies collect money—and Missions, like other things in this mixed existence, are dependent on money—so long Missions must be dependent upon Societies; and the general feeling of the human race in its most civilized form, in these British Islands, is that he who keeps the purse, whether he be the House of Commons, or be he what he may, will necessarily expect that he is to have some power."—Speech of ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY, at O.M.S. Anniversary Meeting, May 1st, 1877.

It is in the light of these principles that the Resolutions of the Bishops should be considered; and if these principles are accepted by them it will not be difficult to arrive at a satisfactory arrangement with regard to details.

1. (Episc. Resol. III., 1, 2).—The Committee see difficulties in the way of accepting, without considerable qualification, the statement: "That the Bishop of every diocese is in the last resort responsible for all teaching given, and all work done, within his diocese, in the name and under the authority of the Church;" especially as it is clear that as regards Missionary work the extent of that responsibility and the mode in which it is exercised must be determined by the position which the Bishop holds towards the Mission. (See above, paragraph III.). If the Bishop be a Missionary Bishop, charged with the management of a particular Mission, it might in some cases be arranged that no appointment of Missionary agents of any kind should be made without his approval. In the case of a constitutional Bishop, charged with the administration of a diocese, it would seem to be most in accordance with the principles of the Church of England, that he should claim to exercise a veto upon the appointment of a Missionary in holy orders only for some legal disqualification; and that with respect to Lay Agents, he should be, as Bishops in England are, content with regarding the Clergy of the diocese responsible for the teaching and conduct of such as are under their direction and superintendence. The Committee, however, recognize the desirableness of, as far as practicable, presenting to Bishops for ordination those Catechists acting as pastors or quasi-pastors of Native congregations, of whose fitness for the ministry there is sufficient proof.

2. (Episc. Resol. III., 3).—In their Resolution II. 3, of October 26th, 1876, the Committee of the Church Missionary Society have stated "That, with regard to the authority of a Bishop over Clergymen, Lay Agents, and congregations, when claimed as a matter of right, the extent and the manner of its exercise must be determined in conformity with the laws and established practice of the Church of England;" and in their Resolution III. 4, they have expressed themselves to the same effect with regard to the authority of the Bishop "over all congregations as to the place, time, and manner of service." But while they firmly maintain this principle they freely acknowledge the propriety of giving it at all times the fullest consideration to the Bishop's views in regard to buildings which are used habitually as places of worship. In this matter they do not apprehend any difficulty, provided that there exists a mutual confidence between the Bishop and the Committee. But the events which have occurred in the Tamil Jooly Mission in Ceylon make the Committee feel that such a mutual confidence cannot be maintained unless the Bishop recognizes on his part, in accordance with their Resol. II., 2, of October 26th, 1876, the propriety of not assuming to himself, either wholly or in part, the management of a Mission carried on by the Society, nor of attempting to transfer it, without the consent of the Society, to a Clergyman of his own appointment.

3. Consecration of Churches (Episc. Resol. I., II.)—These Resolutions confirm the opinion the Committee have long entertained as to the nature and results of consecration. In a Memorandum on the Ecclesiastical relations of the Church Missionary Society in India, drawn up in July, 1858, which received the approval of the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishop of Calcutta, there occurs the following paragraph:—"Another point, which has been the subject of arrangement between the Indian Bishops and the Society, is the Consecration of Missionary Churches. The legal advisers of the Society having given an opinion that, by the Ecclesiastical law, the consecration of a church carries with it various legal responsibilities which the Society cannot properly undertake, and Missionary operations being in their nature temporary, and introductory to a more settled system, the Society postpones applying for the consecration of its churches until it is prepared to transfer these churches to a more permanent footing."

Under these circumstances it was suggested by the Archbishop of Canterbury, in a Conference held at Lambeth between his Grace and Bishop Cotton, and referred to in a letter from the Rev. H. Venn to Bishop Milman, dated Jan. 10th, 1872, that a solemn dedication service might be used; and at a meeting of the Bishops of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, held at Nagpore in November, 1873, a Resolution was passed, agreeing to such a dedication. In December, 1875, the opinion of eminent counsel was obtained by the Society as to the plan by which this Resolution might best be carried into effect. The Committee are under the impression that the present Bishop of Calcutta expressed his approval of the arrangement proposed, on the occasion of the interview he had with them previous to his departure, premising only that in most cases such a service might, in the absence of a Bishop, be conducted by a Presbyterian. Knowing the Native feeling on this subject, the Committee will be glad if this arrangement can be generally carried out.

In regard to the licensing of places of worship unsuited for consecration, the Committee would refer to the correspondence on the whole subject with Bishop Milman, especially to the letter of the Rev. H. Venn, of Jan. 10th, 1872, in which the following paragraph occurs:—"Your Lordship suggests that, till consecrated, our better class of churches might be licensed. The Committee are, however, informed by their legal advisers that the licensing of buildings was scarcely known in the Church of England till it was thought to be needed against the penalties of the Conventicle Acts. They also advised us that the legal effect of a Bishop's license is so uncertain that it would be unwise to introduce it into our Missionary system. The Committee must therefore respectfully decline to receive a licence for any of their buildings." To this Resolution the Committee continue to adhere.

4. Synodical Action.—In view of the principle laid down above, in paragraph IV., and of the importance of keeping in mind the future independence of the Native Church, it seems to the Committee impossible to carry out with advantage any system of synodical action which would embrace both the English congregations and the Native Church. Let appropriate systems of Church organization be introduced, but let them be kept distinct.

5. Ecclesiastical Courts.—As the Church Missionary Society is a Society of the Church of England, and its Missionaries Clergymen of that Church, and as the Church of England has its authorized modes of procedure in all legal matters, which, as the Committee are advised, will prove sufficient for all purposes, the Committee cannot think it desirable that any informal Court should be set up which is not recognized by that Church.

6. (Episc. Resol. IV., V.)—However advisable it may be that the questions suggested by the Conference of the Bishops of India and Ceylon should have the fullest consideration on all hands, and however valuable a Provincial Conference of Bishops or a Pan-Anglican Synod may be as a deliberate body, the Committee of the Church Missionary Society would suggest the importance of bearing in mind that neither of them has any legislative or judicial functions in the Church of England.

7. The Committee of the Church Missionary Society would take this opportunity of again expressing their conviction (see Resolutions of Committee of July 22nd, 1873) that the time has come when, in the interests of the Native Church, the Episcopal office should be conferred, in their more important Mission fields in India and elsewhere, upon leading Missionaries, or Native clergymen, with a view to their exercising Episcopal functions in the Native Church independently of the existing Diocesan Bishops. Just as there are to be found ministering within the same local area to people of different languages, different Missionaries independent one of another, and yet belonging to the same Church, so the Committee are assured that Missionary work has, in some of the Missions of the Society, reached such a point that the Native Churches cannot be properly or efficiently organized and superintended until the same principle is recognized in regard to Bishops, and Bishops, European or Native, are appointed to superintend these Churches. An example of this kind is found in the American Episcopal Church, where a Bishop has been appointed to superintend mission work among the Indians, thus exercising authority, as the Committee understand, in the same area with other Bishops of the same Church, but independently of them.

Bishops appointed by the Crown for European work in India and Ceylon may beneficially discharge Episcopal functions in those Missions—and the Committee would be unmindful of the past if they did not gratefully acknowledge the kind interest and consideration almost invariably shown by successive Bishops of this class; but their inexperience of missionary work, their want of acquaintance, for the most part, with the Native languages, their very position as Bishops so appointed, together with.

in some instances, their extensive dioceses and multifarious duties, must necessarily preclude their taking that part in the organization of the Native Church which its growth and development imperatively demand.

Travancore, the Telugu Mission, the Punjab

Mission, and the Ceylon Mission, all call for Missionary Bishops; and nothing, the Committee are persuaded, would more tend to remove present difficulties than the appointment of experienced Missionaries, or competent Native Clergymen, to that office.

APPENDIX C.

FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH, 1877.

DURING the past year eleven agents have been removed from the Fund, and nineteen new men have been appointed, showing a total increase of eight new agents, or forty-five compared with thirty-seven in the previous year. This total is made up as follows:—two ordained agents, forty-one lay agents, and two female agents. (See List, p. 276).

The total payments for the year have been 1209*l.* 14*s.* 8*d.* (See Account, p. 291), representing as nearly as possible the income of the Fund for one year, and being an increase upon the previous year's payments of 370*l.* 7*s.* 3*d.*

It will be seen that many changes in the agents have occurred under the various Missions during the year. There are also alterations in the amount of salaries paid to the agents. These circumstances, which are likely to recur from year to year, render it somewhat difficult to keep the expenditure in due proportion to the amount of income of the Fund. There is, however, a considerable balance of interest in hand (accumulated whilst the agency supported by the Fund was being formed), from which any future excess in expenditure may be met.

AFRICA.

NIGER MISSION.

There have been in this Mission during the past year two ordained agents (one of whom is now disconnected), and five lay agents. Bishop Crowther in his Report thus speaks of the Brass Station :—

During my absence up the Niger, a bolder and more decided step was taken by the king ; he made up his mind and delivered up three of his large idols to his daughter to be taken to the Rev. Thomas Johnson, saying that he had given them up as objects of worship ; his charms and other objects of confidence he threw into the river, as he was ashamed to show them as objects of his hitherto trust and confidence. The daughter of the king, who was bearer of these forsaken images, was some years ago a boarder at the Mission station under the late Mrs. Johnson, who was indeed an humble and unassuming wife of a Native minister. Chief Oruwari, who had given up his idols last year, had also cleared his house of the long-forsaken charms, by bringing them in a box to the Rev. Thomas Johnson. These objects of their worship are really a heap of confusion. This is the effect of the operations of God's Holy Spirit in the hearts and consciences of the king and chiefs and people in Brass Mission.

Of Akassa Station and the agents employed there, he says :—

This station was near being given up last year, especially as the services of Mr. P. J. Williams were to be transferred to Lakoja, in the upper station ; there being no suitable person to be employed as Scripture reader near at hand to replace him. Before I could finally decide what to do I received a letter from a party of young persons at Exeter, begging me not to give up Akassa yet, because they had gathered from one of the Church Missionary Society's publications that I would be obliged to do so ; that I should bear patience with the people longer, that place being a special object of their prayer. This letter was signed by upwards of twenty persons, and came to my hand at Akassa when I was considering what arrangements I could best make.

The receipt of this letter I considered an indication from God what steps to take, which decided me at once to act upon the plan I was conceiving, to appoint James Broom Walker Apre, the first Akassa boy received into school at this place, and the only one who has remained with us to this time, as assistant schoolmaster and reader ; and his uncle, Abraham Angawari, as keeper of the station, till I could get an experienced reader or catechist from Lagos or Sierra Leone, to be stationed at Akassa. Mr. Williams' translations of passages of Scripture, Prayers and Catechisms, through the assistance of Apre, were delivered to him to be used at service time among his country people whenever he could get them together.

The kind letter of the young Christian friends at Exeter was placed in Apre's hand to take a copy of, and to reply to, by himself, what arrangements had been made to keep up Akassa still as a Mission station, in answer to their prayer by the God of Missions; James Apre was settled by being married to a young ransomed woman of his own choosing, because his countrymen would not give him any of their daughters to wife, unless he relapsed to their superstitious practices, which he would not do. May the Lord make use of this young teacher to open the eyes of the blind, superstitious, and indifferent Akassans, to see the error of their ways and turn to the Lord their God!

EAST AFRICA MISSION.

At Mombasa and the out-stations there are six lay agents, and two female agents engaged in the work amongst the Native tribes bordering on the coast, and in the Liberated Slave Settlement at Frere Town.

The secretary of the Mission, the Rev. J. A. Lamb, writes:—

Mr. David, the Native catechist who has recently been transferred from the Rabbai station to this, is a very able and useful man. The Native Church at present consists almost entirely of liberated Africans, emigrants from India. Many of them have doubtless laboured under great disadvantages there, by having been detached from means of grace, or brought up under the degrading influences of the Roman Catholic religion, and their Christianity is of a very low type. But this is by no means the case with all, and we hope that those who have enjoyed the privileges of a regular Christian training will prove a leaven amongst the less favoured.

Mr. J. W. Handford, the English schoolmaster at Frere Town, also writes:—

All the children are particularly well clothed through the earnest industry of Mrs. Lamb, and on Sunday especially they are a very pretty sight. They are regularly taken to bathe at 5.30 a.m., and the number of sick in the hospital is gradually becoming less. It is now a very important time with the children, for they must either learn now or never. ~~Moses~~, I am pleased to say, is of very great assistance to me, and his patience with the children is very admirable. Elizabeth (or Bella), too, takes pains with the children, but she is so frequently away with an internal complaint, that it makes the work fall very heavy on us, and I am greatly in want of another assistant, whom I trust the Lord will speedily raise up to assist in this important work. The children still kneel on the ground and write on the benches; but I hope, in a very short time, to be supplied with desks, which will be an important addition, and secure better writing.

PALESTINE.

There are five agents at work in this Mission—two catechists and three schoolmasters.

Of the work at Nazareth and its out-stations the Rev. T. F. Wolters thus writes :—

I was impressed with the staunch Protestantism of many of the foremost members of the congregation. There is, undoubtedly, a more or less clear conviction in the minds of several that Protestantism is a purer form of Christianity than that presented in the Latin or Greek Church. There is more than this. There is in some, at least, perhaps in more than would at first sight appear, a foundation of right feeling, of desire to be guided by the Word of God, and of endeavour to give expression to this desire when the way in which this must be done is laid before them. It will scarcely excite surprise that this "foundation" is covered up by much that is inconsistent with the profession of Christ's disciples. We must not forget the depths of ignorance and superstition out of which these people have come, nor the force of habit. I was pleased to find that the congregation in Nazareth has united in forming a fund for the maintenance of a native pastorate, or some other direct Missionary object. The association is at present managed by Dr. Vartan; the money comes in in small dribblets; it is so hard for natives to learn to contribute for any such object; and in the present instance it will be long before sufficient money will have been collected to accomplish anything. Still the effort shows that there are materials to work upon. The question, How far are the members of the congregation under the influence of the Spirit of God? is very hard to answer. The question has always been present to my mind during my stay in Nazareth, and the attempt to answer it has invariably ended in sorrow and disappointment. There is not much difference in conduct between our people and those of other communities.

With respect to Akka, the Rev. F. A. S. Bellamy writes:—

Acca, six hours from Nazareth.—A house is rented (very commodious) for master's residence and school. Forty boys, Latins and Greeks, formerly a few Moslems, since removed by authority. Eight or ten assemble with the master on Sunday. There is room for an evangelist to work here with the master.

I understand that some society is very willing to open a school for female education here. The master told me that the opportunity would be eagerly seized.

It would be well to urge this on some friends of female education in the East.

INDIA.

NORTH INDIA MISSION.

In this Mission there are eleven lay agents under the superintendence of the Church Missionary Society's Missionaries at Burdwan, Benares, Azimgarh, Gorakpûr, Lucknow, Fyzabad, and Amritsar. A good idea of the work done by them may be obtained from the following extracts from letters from some of the superintending Missionaries:—

The Rev. J. Fuchs, of Benares, writes:—

You will expect to learn to what extent, and in what way, the direct preaching of the Gospel has been carried on; and here I must first repeat what I stated in the former two Annual Letters and Reports, that myself can see no prospect and possibility to take a leading part in this most important branch of our work, as long as I shall be left alone, but can only occasionally join the Native brethren at the preaching places in the city. Only in the cold season I manage to get out in the district for a couple of months. At a weekly prayer and Bible meeting, chiefly for the evangelists, I have opportunity to discuss with them all matters that refer to their work. I think to be justified in saying that they, and Aman Masih in particular, discharge their duty ably and faithfully. The reader, Iiwan Masih, has this year been accepted by the Calcutta Corresponding Committee. He is the most fluent speaker of our men; his language, both in Hindi and Urdu, is beautiful, but he has not much in him to give. I continually urge upon them the importance to cultivate acquaintance with single individuals, and to visit them in their houses as often as can be, which I also do in the small circle of houses to which I have access, and from which I also receive visits.

Last month Peter Babu and Iiwan Masih were sent out on a preaching tour westward, towards Allahabad; and Aman Masih, with Rahimbakhsh, to the annual large mela at Baliah, near Buxar; and at present the former, with Iiwan Masih and Pundit Dhar, have gone southward of Ahrawrah, to look up the followers of that Ramaya who was baptized here in 1860, and promised first to become an extraordinary powerful preacher, that crowds of people followed him from place to place, but who afterwards became morally a bad man and a false teacher. I was induced to institute an inquiry after these people (he, Ramaya, died a few years ago) by one of his chief disciples, who lately paid me a visit. I learned from him that, according to their creed, Ram, Christ, and Mohammed, were manifestations of the same one God. He wished me to engage him as a preacher, but I told him that he first must be instructed in the true way, and become a disciple of Jesus, to which he did not give his consent. I am now very desirous to hear whether these people are not better prepared to accept the pure Gospel than other heathen are. I have mentioned Pundit Dhar as one of Rahimbakhsh's companions, whom I have given to him on trial as an assistant. He is a Christian Pundit, who is well versed in Sanscrit, a remarkably good speaker, and very fond of arguing, before whom no village Pundit can stand; but he has not yet learnt to sit humbly at Jesus' feet to be instructed by Him, and therefore the fulness of the blessing of the Gospel is as yet little known to him. He is useful for attack and pulling down of Hinduism, but not for building up in the true faith.

At the same time this party started for Ahrawrah, Aman Masih, with Dand our musician, and a colporteur, set out for Tasseram, on the Calcutta road, where Dand has had long since an ardent desire to visit an old friend, whom he is confident to draw after him, with his family. In that neighbourhood is also a raja, at whose place he was in former years staying a long time, who also ought to hear the Gospel. I shall join Albert at Gharwa a few days' hence.

From this you see that we earnestly endeavour to make Christ known in the city, and as far in the country as we are able to reach and look around, watching where an opening might come in view.

The Rev. H. B. Skelton, of Azimgarh, also writes:—

The two catechists here, Qasim Khan, who was at Lahore, and Japheth, who was with Mr. Fuchs at Benares, have this cold weather been itinerating round the neighbourhood, making our present branch schools (six in number), all about four miles off the city, their centres. To one of these I have been out to-day with the head master and a senior boy. We went to give the boys of the School a small treat—running races, &c., for small presents and sweets. I hope it will give the catechists, whom we met there, a better standing, and also in the minds of the people associate the school with ourselves. I cannot tell you of any very visible results from our school-work. The children are grounded in Scripture. The last papers which we set for the senior classes, on the facts and doctrines of the Bible, were answered better than they would have been in most English schools, I think. This is all we can do—sow the seed—and there seems no reason why we should see more fruit from our labours than many a Christian schoolmaster in England does.

Both Qasim Khan and myself have had some regular visitors for reading and Bible study during the year, but we can say no more.

Also the Rev. J. P. Ellwood, of Fyzabad, reports as follows:—

Out-stations.—We have four out-stations in connexion with Faizabad, and a dozen more might be opened if we had the men and the means to carry them on. The following is a list, with the men engaged at present:—Ajodhya: Catechist, Anand Masih; Reader (at present vacant).—Akbarpur: Catechist, Joseph Balfour; Reader, Alfred.—Sultanpur: Catechist, James Jackson; Reader, Silas Brown.—Pertabgurh: Reader, Amos. In each out-station, as in Faizabad, there is a regular list of preaching places. In the three latter it embraces many villages at a distance regularly visited in the routine of the work. Faizabad and Ajodhya are centres of activity, where crowds may be found every day to hear the Word. Ajodhya is the most important of all the out-stations as a preaching place, and should be well manned. Fortunately it is near Faizabad, and help can be sent during the Melas, which are continually taking place. Thousands of pilgrims flock to it from year to year to bathe in the sacred waters of the Sarju, and to make their offerings at its time-honoured shrine. It is a city full of wickedness and idolatry, where temples are almost as numerous as dwelling-houses. Its fame is spread far and wide in Hindustan, and its name has been carried down to posterity in that famous epic poem, the "Ramayana." Hence it may be called the Bethlehem and Jerusalem of Hinduism.

Akbarpur.—Akbarpur is about thirty miles from Faizabad, and is on the line of rail to Jaunpur. It is said to have been founded by King Akbar of Delhi. An old bridge and mosque bear witness to its antiquity. This old bridge divides Akbarpur from Shazadpur, a very promising place, the population of which is daily increasing. A Sunday-school has been started in the bazaar where the catechist lives, and is progressing nicely.

Sultanpur and Pertabgurh.—These stations are both on the Allahabad road—the former thirty-six miles from Faizabad, the latter about sixty-five. These stations are not on a line of rail, consequently the travelling is very expensive; added to which, the great distance, especially of Pertabgurh, makes it difficult to visit these stations in the hot weather and rains as often as desirable.

SOUTH INDIA MISSION.

The Fund supports thirteen lay agents in this Mission, under the superintendence of the Society's Missionaries at Ellore, Masulipatam, and Bêzwâra. The following reports have been received :—

The Rev. F. W. N. Alexander, of Ellore, writes :—

The statistics herewith sent (see List, p. 277) show a considerable advance upon the numbers reported last year. There has not been the full measure of progress that I hope to see; but I cannot doubt that a good work has been done by means of the Walter Jones Fund. Its operations extend to three of our circles, and I will briefly review the work in each of these.

1. Peddapadu.

The catechist, Kandavalli Peter, is in charge of this circle. Five of its towns contain Christians and inquirers. The most hopeful congregation is in Chirivada, where there are a large number of promising inquirers. In this town we had thirteen baptisms during the year, viz., two men, two women, and nine children, and there are still a good number who, I trust, will soon be brought into the fold of the Good Shepherd. The new inquirers of Kotta Peddapadu, mentioned in last year's Report, have continued steadfast in the faith, but I have not as yet been able to baptize any of them. No new inquirers have been added this year, and I do not know how it is the work is so unfruitful in that direction, for not far off in the Masulipatam district there has been a great increase, while with us there has been little encouragement for a long time. The catechist is good and faithful, and no fault can be found in him in that respect.

2. Polsanipilli.

In the first of these hardly any progress has yet been made. One woman has been baptized and married to a Christian man of another village. The inquirers on the whole are very rude and stupid, as mentioned in the last Report. During the visitation of cholera at the beginning of the year, the chief man among the inquirers was driven by fear to worship the cholera goddess, and was visited, for his misbelief, by an attack of the dreadful disease. He recovered, but lost two of his children, and then repenting of his sin, he declared his sorrow before the congregation. Notwithstanding these discouragements there are two young men and several boys, besides the women reported last year, who are very hopeful in their profession, and I have no doubt in due time they will be baptized. Two of the girls from the school have been moved up to the station boarding school, and even this is not a small thing to gain, for we may hope they will be fitted hereafter, by a thoroughly Christian education under our own eyes, to do good to their relatives and friends. I have changed the teacher here for one more promising, but this will not appear in this year's Report.

There are some very hopeful inquirers here, and I anticipate much help towards the progress of the gospel by their aid. In this place twenty men and one boy have been enrolled as inquirers. The school is small, but there are some hopeful boys to be found in it.

3. Vemulapilli.

The work in this circle is entirely supported by the Jones Fund. The progress anticipated last year has not been realized. The cholera was very grievous in the villages round. Many heathens were carried off, but not one Christian or inquirer suffered. Nevertheless the heathen have been deterred by this plague from joining the Christian church. As I write there is much destitution from failure of crops, and this is made worse by the exportation of grain to parts more distressed than our own. Grain is selling at famine prices, and there is great destitution. This hinders the people from learning about their souls, though it is meant to act otherwise by the God who in mercy has sent to warn them. From these causes I am not able to report any extension on the Vemulapilli side. I hear, however, that there are two villages where the people seem anxious to become inquirers, and I have taken steps to forward their desire. But though no new inquirers have been added, I feel glad to report that five more persons have been baptized in Vemulapilli, following those who were baptized a year ago. One of these is an old woman the wife of the chief Christian in the place, and another a young woman, his adopted daughter. These two are very hopeful Christians and contrast favourably with the other women of the place. Even the wives of our Christians are far from hopeful, and I have not yet baptized any of them, save the old woman above mentioned. The other three newly-baptized persons are young men. Two of them are brothers, and their father, though nominally an inquirer, is I fear far from the kingdom of Heaven. He tried to stop his sons from being baptized at the very moment when they were setting out for Church, but I am glad to say he was prevailed on to let them come forward and be baptized. We are building a new school-room in this village, and I hope it will soon be finished.

4. Pragadavarum.

This place got a discouraging Report last year, and I am afraid it is almost worse now. One family have drawn back from pressure brought to bear upon them by relatives, but I do not despair of them yet, as the wife is daughter of our best Christian in Vemulapilli, and she is desirous of going with her husband to her mother's village, where they can profess Christ without persecution. Only one family remain firm, but it is a very hopeful one. The husband and wife are earnest in their profession, the children are intelligent and interesting, and a brother also joins them in their devotions. As mentioned in last Report the males of this village are addicted to toddy drinking. Even my own servants got drunk here this year and last, the toddy being so cheap and plentiful. With this great moral evil to draw them back, they choose the evil and despise the good. Yet we are justified, I think, in keeping an evangelist here. There is a large Sudra town, and I had large and attentive audiences every day. There is also a large settlement of Chucklers (leather workers) and I had a most attentive hearing from them. In fact they promised to give us twenty children to begin a school, if we would give them one separate from the Malas. This we could not do, but their readiness to hear encourages us to hope that some day or other, they will receive the truth among them.

Pragadavarum is also a good centre for preaching in the country round. For these reasons, though the school is small and the inquirers few, we are justified in keeping the evangelist here.

Conclusion.

To sum up the foregoing remarks, I may mention, there are six agents supported by the Fund at a cost of Rs. 45 (4*l.* 10*s.*) per mensem. They have Christians and inquirers in nine villages, and they preach in all the villages within easy range of their centres. They have under their care ninety-eight baptized Christians and 102 Catechumens. Twenty-four of the former are Communicants, and there are ninety-eight children in the schools. It must be remembered that the work is nearly all new; except that in the Peddapadu circle, it has all been begun within the last two years, so that we may expect by the good help of our God, to see it largely increase in future. There is much to disappoint and somewhat to encourage us, so that we may fairly go on in full assurance that "in due time we will reap a reward, if we faint not."

The Rev. A. Bhushanam (since deceased), of Masulipatam, reports:—

The two readers employed by the Jones Fund have made very good use of their time and opportunities last year, and shown themselves as men who have trained their people well in the first rudiments of Christianity. I am quite delighted to see their respective villages, and find in the people some amount of true knowledge which makes them wise unto salvation. In the course of this year, if it please the Lord, I am going to admit some of the people of these places by baptism into the visible Church of Christ. At first, many came to be under instruction with various motives, but when the village tyranny broke out, and several were actually beaten, most of them gave way to it, and only a few remained steadfast, and are so up to the present day. It has pleased the Lord to visit one of the readers with a domestic affliction, by removing his wife from this world of woe to the other, where joy and peace reigneth. She died in the faith and was conscious up to the last moment. Her parting words to her husband were, "Be thou faithful unto death, and bring up the little ones in the fear of God." I always liked her, as being an amiable and quiet person, and she has left a good name behind her in the village, where her husband is still working, not by her teaching only, but also by her Christian example. Though she was not trained in any one of our boarding-schools, yet she became very useful to the work, as she was a person of common sense and good manners. The poor husband lost in her a good wife, and his poor children a kind mother, and the villagers too seemed to have felt her loss very much. They said they had seen the difference between the happy death of a Christian and the gloomy views of a heathen at his death-bed. The former event has encouraged some of the people, and made them go through any amount of trial for the sake of the true religion.

The Rev. J. Cain, of the Koi Mission, thus writes:—

Amongst the Malas the work promises to extend, more especially as we now have Christians at Injiram, a village in the Nizam's country, forty miles further down the river. Some comparatively well-to-do Malas of that village had been long dissatisfied with their religion, and were seeking peace when they heard of the Christian religion from a visitor, a Christian Mala from Dummagudem. During his stay he instructed them as much as he could, and on his departure left with them some Christian books, which one of them could just manage to read. By these means they learnt the elements of Christian truth, and were satisfied that Christ is "the Way, the Truth, and the Life." Some of them came to Dummagudem and asked for baptism ; this, of course, was postponed, and we sent them away with a Christian teacher to instruct them more fully in "the faith." After some time longer, Razu Garu visited the village, and, finding that they had made good progress in Christian doctrine, and had withstood every temptation from their own village superiors and their caste people for miles around, baptized ten adults and four children in the Godavari, which flows close by their village. A Christian reader (supported by the Walter Jones Fund) and a young teacher are now living in their midst, and the work promises to spread in the villages on the British side, lying between Dummagudem and Injiram, more especially in those villages which have been most regularly visited in past years.

MAURITIUS.

There is still great difficulty experienced in obtaining native agents for this Mission, and one only remains on the list in connexion with this Fund. Of him the Rev. F. Schurr reports :—

Mr. J. Datta (or Dutt), the catechist, arrived from Calcutta in March, during Mr. Kushalli's duties in town. The latter visited Christians and heathen at Rose Belle, and the adjacent estates, being well known to many people; and on June 9th, 1875, he held a meeting in the school-room, at which 11s. 5d. was collected, and is now reserved as a nucleus for a fund to build a chapel and house for the catechist or future Native pastor. The sum required for this object will probably be from 600*l.* to 700*l.* We have begun to ask the residents of this island for contributions, but the times being hard but a small amount has come to hand.

The catechist has been in charge of the preparandi, and given them Scripture lessons, and taken them out with him on preaching excursions, thus to teach them practically. I have visited them once a week with few exceptions, superintending and directing their duties.

These young men have already proved very useful, for one of them frequently accompanies the catechist to the camps and hospitals with the message of love, and sometimes he goes alone, as the case may require. Another one left in June, and is now employed by Mr Ansorgé as Scripture reader. Two others are now carrying on the school at Cherry, the master having been dismissed in November last so they must attend to that school till another master is procured.

NOTICE TO TREASURERS AND SECRETARIES OF ASSOCIATIONS

THE Committee of the Church Missionary Society request the Treasurers or Secretaries of Associations to transmit the proceeds of their respective Associations, together with the Contribution Lists and Accounts, as soon after the close of their Financial Year as possible.

The Society's General Accounts are closed on the 31st of March, and all Moneys belonging to the year must be received at the Society's House by that date, in order to secure the insertion of the Lists in their proper places in the Report.

The Lists and Accounts (written legibly to avoid mistakes in printing, and made up in the manner in which the same are printed in the Parent Society's Report) must, in order to secure insertion, be sent in not later than the 31st of March. But both labour and expense may be saved to the Society by sending in the Lists and Accounts as much earlier as is possible. The date at which the Accounts of the Association are closed, and the names of the Local Officers, should be specified. Should no names be given, it will be assumed that they remain the same as in the previous Report, and the List will be so printed. Where the Account or the List is a printed one, two copies should be forwarded.

Where an Association has Branches connected with it, the Accounts of the Branches must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association some time before the period for forwarding the Account of the Association to London. When this is not done within a reasonable time, such Branches must be considered as self-excluded, and the Accounts forwarded without them.

To prevent mistakes, it is requested that Branch Associations will in every case, where practicable, forward their Money and Lists through the Association with which they are connected, and not direct to the Parent Society.

The Committee would also point out, for more universal adoption, the convenience of making remittances on account whenever any considerable proportion of the year's receipts is in the hands of the Local Treasurer. This course would tend to equalize in a greater degree the Income and Expenditure in the earlier months of the Society's Financial Year, and save the Society a considerable yearly sum.

The Committee return their cordial thanks to the Treasurers of Associations, and to those who kindly fill the office of Secretary—an office which, they are well aware, draws largely on the time and attention of those who occupy it, but on the efficient discharge of the duties of which the prosperity of an Association chiefly depends.

N.B.—Benefactors of Ten Pounds and upward, whose names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will find them in the List of "Benefactions of Former Years."
