whenever he can spare time for that purpose. When they came last week, they brought some of the leading heathen men with them, who are very anxious to learn about Christianity. They said that fifty persons had already come and "kneelt down," and that there were several more who are almost persuaded.

Some time ago we used to have two men itinerating regularly; but they became six-year men, and left off preaching to the heathen. Since then we have had no men set apart specially to that work; but it has by no means fallen into abeyance. The pastors with their readers, as well as the Mission readers, continue this most important branch of our work. Continually going about, I have opportunities innumerable of speaking to the heathen. On great occasions, such as large festivals, &c., it is usual for several parties to disperse themselves about and continue the preaching for two or three days. Mr. Joseph of Patapally and myself have arranged for a regular Mission in January next among the pilgrims going to and coming from Chouramala. Four centres will be occupied, God willing, for several days; and thus we hope to set forth the truth to a great number of somewhat earnest, but blind and erring men.

Native
Christian
laymen voluntarily conducting Divine Service.

I am increasing the spiritual agency by getting some laymen of good character to conduct Divine Service in some of the out-stations once or twice a month each.

There are in all fifty-two village schools, fifteen of which are connected with the Palayan congregations. In all the schools we teach Holy Scripture to all the classes. In each of the Palayan schools the schoolmaster acts also as a Catechist. He has to teach as many children as he can get to come until noon, for five days in the week; the afternoon and Saturdays he has for evangelistic work and the preparation of sermons. What we are aiming at now is, that each child shall be able to read the Bible fluently; also sign his name and learn simple accounts, so that his master may not be able to cheat him. More may be aimed at afterwards.

In the boys' boarding-school there are thirty-seven scholars who learn English. In this way it acts as a feeder for the COTTAYAM COLLEGE and the CAMBRIDGE NICHOLSON INSTITUTION. Amongst all the ways proposed and tried for helping the Syrian Church, I believe one of the best is for us to educate our own agents well and lead the way. Now that we are doing more work with fewer Europeans, it is most important that our Native agents should be well educated.

The Sunday-schools are in their infancy; though some of them have already done a good work. A very short time ago, I heard a Syrian Catanar (Presbyter) mention with gratitude the help he had received from two young men who had been sent by one of our pastors from his Sunday school.

TRICHUR AND ALWAYE ITINERANCY.

The northern part of Travancore, that is to say the country lying between the Cottayam district in the south and Trichur in the north, has hitherto been, from force of circumstances, all but neglected and passed by. Its Evangelization is the work which Mr. Maddox, on his return to the Travancore Mission, was invited to attempt. He writes:—

I made Cochin my head-quarters for some three months, in accordance with instructions from the Committee, and set myself to work at once to organize an itinerancy in the country lying between Trichur on the north, and Cottayam on the south. I travelled (for exploration) by boat and by land through the greater part of the country, visiting the more important centres. From Trichur to Cottayam is a little over eighty miles, and the breadth of the district averages about twenty miles. This wide stretch of country, with its large population of Syrians, Syro-Romanists, Romanists, Hindus, and Mohammedans, has never yet been systematically worked. Preaching-tours at distant intervals have been carried out; missionary visits have been made to some of the chief Syrian Churches; schools here and there have been carried on for a time, and then abandoned. There is therefore hardly anything to show for such labour as has been expended. There are no Protestant congregations, no catechumens, no inquirers, no schools, no agents. The densest ignorance prevails everywhere. The condition of the nominal Christian communities in the country is deplorably low. The Hindus are shy and reserved; and I regret to say that some of my greatest difficulties in dealing with them, on the subject of religion, arise from the ignorance, superstition, and degrading customs and ceremonies, of the so-called Christian Churches in the country. The Syrian Christian Church in this district has not been touched by the wave of reformation and revival which in God's good providence has rolled over the Churches of the south. The Catanars [Clergy] as a body are careless, ignorant, worldly-minded men. The recent visit of the Patriarch to this country has apparently confirmed both Catanars and people in their superstition. Nearly all the Syrians in these parts have disclaimed Mar Athanasius and his reforming policy, and have submitted themselves to the Patriarch. Bibles have been put out of the churches. Services in the Syriac language [not understood by the people] and other superstitious observances, where they had been abolished, have been restored. The Patriarch, before he left the country, laid a strict charge on all Catanars and people under his authority to beware of missionaries, and neither to entertain them nor wish them God-speed.

Missionary difficulties in hitherto unevangelized districts of Travancore.

The Roman Catholics in this country are very strong.

My first tour for preaching was in company with a volunteer Evangelist. He was a teacher from the south, formerly a fellow-worker in the Mâvelikara district. Next I was accompanied by two volunteers from the Cambridge Nicholson Institution divinity class. They worked during their long vacation. There were many difficulties. We had no suitable centre. The absence of mission-houses, churches, and schools in the country made it exceedingly difficult to travel from place to place. In the south, the Syrian Christians are our hosts; the church rooms are placed at our disposal; Catanars and people vie with each other in showing you attention. Here all is reversed. One day, when travelling with the Rev. A. Thoma, pastor of Cochin, we tried in vain to secure shelter even from the mid-day sun. Neither Syrians nor Romanists would open their doors to us. After preaching and talking and distributing books, we had to rest under the shade of a tree as the best shelter we could find for the day.

I have now a house at Alwaye, and a small place at Kandenade, where I can put up when I visit the district. In each place, we have two itinerating catechists, who work each in a given area, and also a book depôt. At Kandenade I have commenced a school for Syrian and other boys, where they may learn the elements of English also. I have also employed a slave Christian convert to visit among the large slave communities in the country. The feeling against allowing the slaves to learn and become Christians is strong almost to violence in the country, and it is shared, I regret to say, equally by Hindus and Syrian Christians alike.

Our work has not been without many encouraging features. People listen readily to the preaching of the Gospel in the open air; many purchase the Scriptures, although the Roman Catholic and Syrian priests discourage and forbid; some come to our house and are under regular instruction, although they cannot be said as yet to be catechumens. I could instance men of good social position who come to see me whenever I visit their neighbourhood, and seem to take real pleasure in conversing on religious questions. Two or three Syrian Catanars are willing to join us as soon as they can see their way.

THE Rev. F. W. N. Alexander writes :—

The Provincial Council for the Telugu Christians connected with the Society, held its second meeting in Ellore this year, and proved a decided success. Delegates came from all parts of the mission-field except Dummagudem. The subjects discussed were of great practical utility, and there was a general expression of opinion as to the great interest and utility of the gathering. A proposal from the Madras Corresponding Committee to have a special evangelistic agency connected with the Provincial Council was very warmly taken up; and the Missionaries in charge of districts agreed to preach sermons for the fund throughout the Mission.

MASULIPATAM.

No Report or Annual Letter has been received of the NOBLE HIGH SCHOOL, which is under the charge of the Rev. J. Sharp and the Rev. E. N. Hodges. From the Madras Record it would appear that the number of pupils at the close of 1877 was 234. A deeply interesting account has, however, been given by Mr. Sharp under date October 8th, 1877, of the conversion and baptism of one of the students, from which the following extracts are subjoined :—

The young convert was eighteen years of age on September 27. His convictions quickened into real earnestness some three months ago or more, and he has been reading the New Testament and such portions of the Old Testament as he could get hold of in Telugu with avidity during this time. He has been very eager to get any tracts or little books on religious subjects in Telugu, and he has, I believe, been practising private prayer regularly. I waited till he was fairly turned eighteen, that there might be no cause to show that he was a minor, and then permitted him to come when he liked. He came on Saturday afternoon, October 6th, and at once wrote a letter to his father, saying that he had resolved to be a Christian. His father is an old Veidika Brahmin, held in the highest veneration as a Maha Rashi in the town on account of his strictness in religious ceremonies. This son is the only surviving one out of three, and of the three daughters one is a widow.

The aged father and mother, the former nearly blind, the widowed sister and some other relations, came to my house soon after five p.m. They soon settled down with him on the ground under my verandah. The mother held the son very tightly clasped in her arms, sitting behind him, the father in front. The usual affectionate entreaties were plied in many forms with wearisome repetition to induce him to go back with them, or to go to a married sister's house for that night alone, with profuse promises of the liberty to follow his own choice, which would be given him in the morning, if he should still wish to be a Christian. He was wise enough firmly to resist all such deceptive solicitations. When their appeals were almost more than he could bear, he prayed audibly for help to the Lord Jesus, and entreated Him to bring his parents after him, instead of his going back to idolatry and them. Sinayya Garu, Mr. Thompson, Mrs. Sharp, and I, sat or stood by while this heart-rending struggle went on for four hours. After a time the young man became worn out with it, and got away in the dark into my bedroom. His relations up to that time had been tolerably quiet, and had several times tried what good-natured craving and flattery would do. But when he had escaped from them, and we tried to persuade them to go home for the night, they began to be very noisy. Their cries and entreaties gradually changed into howls and shrieks, and abuse of us and of our religion. It was eleven before we could take our food and have prayers, and nearly midnight before we got to bed. When all was quiet the youth broke his caste by asking for a good draught of water, as he was extremely thirsty and exhausted. Of his own accord, also, he took off his sacred Brahminical thread, and gave it to me.

At four o'clock in the afternoon of the next day (Sunday) we took him in a bullock coach to the church, and during the Telugu service I baptized him.

To-day (Oct. 8) school has gone on as usual, as the boy has been in his class. Of course he has had to bear a good deal of banter. But as the attendance both at the High School and the Branch has not been affected by the occurrence, and I have not yet heard of any boys leaving the school on account of this event, I think public opinion here views these conversions very differently from what it once did. Mrs. Sharp has been admitted this afternoon, as usual, to a Zenana, and has had a very pleasant visit.

The TRAINING INSTITUTION has been under the care of the Rev. W. G. Baker. Thirty-two students were under his care at the date of his Annual Letter. A spirit of discontent broke out among the pupils on their being required to undertake some manual labour for their own service. The labour was not of a kind that Hindus would regard as discreditable for men of good position. Several left in consequence. Most of the malcontents subsequently wished to return; but it was judged expedient formally to expel the ring-leaders. Mr. Baker believes, however, that "the boys in general come up to that standard which one could reasonably expect." Some of them he regards as not only real but also intelligent Christians.

MASULIPATAM DISTRICT.

The Adherents in this district number, by the most recent returns, 1401, and the Communicants 176. The adult baptisms during the year were 49. The corresponding numbers for the previous year were 1429, 153, and 52. The diminution in the number of adherents has probably arisen from the famine and accompanying cholera, the mortality having been great, and many having left their homes in search of work. The district is at present under the charge of the Rev. W. Clayton, who writes as follows:—

Of the twenty-eight villages in which there are Christians in this district, there are several which need the exhortation to "strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die"—villages from which better things might be expected. I am sorry to say that in some places Sunday has not been properly observed. But the past year was one of peculiar trial. Often the people had to go far away from their homes in search of work, on account of the famine, to villages where they were under no good influence. There are, however, signs of life in many of the villages, one of which is an increasing desire on the part of the heathen around to become Christians.—The subscriptions from the Native Christians are quite equal to those of last year; altogether they amount to upwards of Rs. 420. A goodly number, also, came forward for confirmation last month—nearly 200 offered themselves, 130 of whom our Bishop confirmed.

During the past year I have received several applications for schools and Christian teachers from heathen villages. In one case three men were sent as a deputation to me for this purpose, to a place where I was staying, seventeen miles from their own village. Mala in- I was much struck with their manner. They were more intel- quirers.

ligent, cleaner, and altogether different from most Mâlas. When I went to the village, a good number soon gathered round. I told them, as simply as I could, the old, old story, explaining also that if they really became Christians, they must give up work on Sunday, attendance at heathen festivals, drunkenness, and any other sins they might be in the habit of committing. Then I urged them to count the cost, as the heathen would probably persecute them, &c. I added, further, that our own good resolutions were worthless, unless aided by God's Holy Spirit. I said also that they must show they wanted a teacher by providing a place for him to teach and live in. One of the men who first came to me at once pointed out a house belonging to him which, he said, we might have. After further speaking we had prayer, probably the first time that most of them had ever knelt in prayer. Last week the catechist brought me the names of 170 people—men, women, and children—from this village, who were wishing to place themselves under Christian instruction. Though I believe that most of them are really in earnest now, it very often happens that a half of those who first give in their names never get beyond inquirers.

BEZWÂRA.

The Anglo-Vernacular School at Bezwâra, attended by 121 boys, is under the care of the Rev. M. Ratnam. One of the pupils, a Brahmin boy, expressed a desire to be baptized. He has been forcibly removed by his kinsmen, but there is good reason to believe that he holds fast to his faith in Christ. Three boys were sent up to the Madras Matriculation Examination, of whom one passed.

RAGHAPURAM.

During the year 1876 this district was under the charge of a Missionary residing at Masulipatam, who combined the supervision of it with that of the Masulipatam district. The Rev. W. Ellington, however, the Missionary referred to, has now been relieved of the charge of Masulipatam by the Rev. W. Clayton, and has taken up his residence at Raghapuram. The progress of the work has been somewhat impeded by the famine. Ten adults have been baptized. The Adherents, however, owing to the famine, have decreased from 729 to 718. The Communicants, however, are 213 as compared with 210. Mr. Ellington writes:—

This district has suffered from three causes—the loss of the resident missionary in 1875, the cholera the year after, and the famine following on immediately. We began in February last to give a meal a day to the weak and aged, and the timely aid which Mr. Darling sent enabled us to continue to do this until the beginning of August; and since then by means of the help we have received through the Madras Committee, we have both been supporting the weak, and giving employment to the able-bodied on useful relief works. As many as sixty-nine Christians from this village were away at the Government relief works; and our school, which has now fifty children in it, was then so deserted that neither my wife nor I could for some days bear to go and see it. On one occasion when I said, "But why do not the little children attend? They can earn nothing by staying away," the teacher replied, "The parents keep them sleeping as much as possible, so that they may not think of and cry for food." In the case of the distant schools and congregations it was worse. We have now, however, to thank God that the worst is past, though prices are still high. During the last year we have had twenty-six deaths, but only one marriage.

Effects of the South Indian
famine.

On December 13th we had a visit from the Bishop of Madras, and forty-nine persons were confirmed by him.

The number of villages in which there are Christians continues to be about fifty, but it is not easy, just now, to give the exact number of the Christians themselves. Several have migrated during the famine, who may or may not return to their former abodes. A few from distant villages have gone to Dummagudem, and this I cannot regret, as Messrs. Cain and Razu will be well able to look after them there.

The first duty I addressed myself to, after coming to live here, was that of trying to devise the best plan for improving the agents. I have made arrangements whereby a class of six can come to me for instruction and assistance in their studies twice in each month. The subjects are those appointed for the Bishop's Prize Examination—the two Books of Samuel, Second Epistle to the Corinthians, and Ephesians, chap. iv. to vi. To these I am trying to add two others—the Prayer-book and Early Church History.

For the vast regions lying beyond, we must try and do what we can. One man is wholly employed in selling books and tracts. I am trying to arrange so that another may devote part of his time to this work in the town of Jugiapettah. I hope to be able to make a tour myself to the town of Nelgondah in a few weeks.

ELLORE.

The Rev. F. W. N. Alexander writes :—

The statistics of Ellore show a total of 900 persons under instruction as compared with 846 in the former year. Baptized

Christians are now 605 against 528 in 1876. The increase is not very much, but taking into consideration the famine pressure that has been on us, it is satisfactory. Eighty-three names have been removed from the lists as of careless and unworthy inquirers; but the number has been made up by the natural increase of the Christian community, and by accessions within older congregations. This year, the first for many a long one, no new village has been occupied. When the June rains set in, many Ellore Christians found food and employment from their more favoured brethren in the Godaveri sub-district. This will serve to connect the people of the two districts into a close bond of Christian union. Though falling short of actual starvation, the famine was very severe in these parts. The poor lived for a time on fruits and roots of the jungle, and on the soft heart of the cedar and date trees; and if it was not for this precarious supply, many must have died. This unusual food brought on cholera, and we have to lament a large number of deaths this year. Liberal assistance began to reach us in August, and did a great deal of good.

Advance of female education.

Mission education is very flourishing in Ellore. Taking both boys and girls together, there cannot be less than 600 children under instruction at Ellore, and over 400 more in the district. When I joined the station in 1857, there was only one school of fifty pupils in Ellore.—Our chief encouragement this year is from female education. We have finished a new schoolroom on our side of the town, and it is now occupied by seventy-five caste girls and Mussulmans. In the centre of the town we have another school with forty children, Mussulman girls only. The caste people of Ellore are showing decided readiness to put their girls under Christian instruction. The deputy-inspector of schools, himself a heathen, proposes to establish in Ellore a school for Brahmin widows, with a view to fit them for being teachers in caste girls' schools. Miss Davies, from Australia, is a willing and powerful helper in this good work. It is most interesting to see the Hindu and Mohammedan girls come constantly to our house to see and speak with our ladies. They are taught in our Gospels, they learn our formularies, and attend a Sunday-school especially established for them.—I have the satisfaction of seeing six of the Christian boys of Mala origin now reading in the Ellore High School. Only two years ago, when the first of them was admitted, all the Hindu scholars and teachers left in a body. This year only one Christian boy was qualified in the branch school to enter the higher classes. He came up, however, and not a single objection was raised. Still more surprising, a very worthy master of the same class, formerly one of my pupils, was chosen to give Scripture instruction in the other branch school, where none but Hindus or Mussulmans are to be found, and even this did not create any stir. Thus has this good principle

been securely established, in Ellore; and Native Christians are no longer debarred from the advantages of higher education provided at the expense of Christians in England. All the Christian boys so promoted have taken good places. One of them has won a scholarship, and is in the matriculation class.

DUMMAGUEDEM.

The European Missionary at this station is the Rev. John Cain. His fellow-helper, the Rev. I. V. Razu, though a Native of South India, may also be appropriately termed a Missionary, inasmuch as those amongst whom he principally labours (the Kois) are not only heathen but also of a different nationality from himself. The Native Adherents connected with the station now number 348; of whom 69 are Communicants. Eleven adults were baptized during the year. Out of the whole number of adherents (348), only 59 are Kois; but both Mr. Cain and Mr. Razu believe that real progress has begun amongst this interesting tribe.

Of the state of the non-Koi Native Christians connected with the station the reports of the Missionaries give no special account.

The Koi Christians Mr. Cain rightly regards as those through whom the heathen Kois are to be reached.—To strengthen them is therefore his first object; which he will aim at, as far as human means are concerned—by carefully teaching their teachers—by endeavouring to raise up teachers and pastors from among themselves—by accustoming them to depend directly on the Great Head of the Church, instead of on the agents and resources of the foreign Society—and, lastly, by stirring them up to labour for the evangelization of their heathen fellow-tribesmen. But although it must be admitted that, in modern times at least, the most successful of all Missionary efforts have been those made by unpaid Native Christian evangelists; there is yet ample room also for those agents who, from circumstances, will need some modest temporal support; and the Committee therefore acutely share in Mr. Cain's regret that the inadequate supply of funds from the Church at home has compelled the curtailment of expenditure on this head.

Several leading men among the Kois have begged that schools might be established amongst them.

The following extract from Mr. Razu's letter will be read with interest:—

Steadfastness and resignation of a Koi Catechumen.

This year the work in Pedda Nallapalli and Chinna Nallapalli has made real progress. One of the Kois in Pedda Nallapalli is the Samatu Dora, or headman of the twenty-five villages around here, and was for a long time a bitter opponent and reviler of the Gospel. For about a year he has now been a most regular attendant at church. About three months ago he told me that he felt convinced that the Christian religion was true, and desired to be baptized. This year has not only been one of great distress in consequence of deficient rainfall last year, but we have been visited by cholera, which carried off many people, and caused such fright that many of the Kois left their homes and fled for a short time to the jungles. At that time the headman above mentioned, trusting in His Heavenly Father, refused to flee, and remained manfully at home. The same headman lost all his cattle, and was told by his heathen friends that it was in consequence of his being a Christian, when he replied, "Never mind—it was not for cattle that I became a Christian. The Lord gave, the Lord has taken away, and, if He think fit, can give me again." Other Christian Kois also showed undaunted faith when troubles came to them.

As regards extension Mr. Cain writes as follows:—

Missionary openings in the valley of
very.

There is abundant work for two missionaries—one to make the Kois his especial care, and the other one the Hindus; for the longer I am here the more plainly do I see that we ought not to regard this station as a kind of offshoot from the missions of the lower district, but rather as a basis for work amongst the Kois to the north of the river, and amongst the Hindus living in the Nizam's dominions on the other side of the river. A missionary provided with a good boat, built expressly for navigation on this river, would have a splendid field of labour in the villages as yet totally unevangelized, lying on the banks of the river from the north side of the Eastern Ghauts to the foot of the second barrier.

General.

THE organization of the Native Christian congregations connected with the Society in Ceylon, anticipatory, according to the Society's minute of July, 1861, to "the ultimate settlement of the Native Church upon the ecclesiastical basis of an indigenous Episcopate, independent of foreign aid or superintendence," has received further development during the year. The complete system of Church Committees, District Church Councils, and a Provincial Church Council, as explained in the Church Missionary Intelligencer for February, 1878, has now been introduced into the Society's Ceylon Mission. It is true that the power of these bodies, or at least the root of their power, is almost exclusively pecuniary. But not the less on that account do they furnish opportunities for training and preparing the Native Christians for self-government in matters ecclesiastical. The chairman of the Ceylon Provincial Church Council is the Rev. J. I. Jones.

COLOMBO.

It is on so many accounts desirable to bring together supporters of the Society's work, from among the European residents of any place where the Society is labouring, that the Committee cannot but rejoice in the continued existence and prosperity of the English congregation of Christ Church. This church was built some years ago with the consent of the then Bishop (Dr. Chapman), at a time when it was supposed that the Corresponding Secretary of the Mission would be a clergyman residing in Colombo. Its present zealous incumbent, the Rev. H. Newton, is supported by the congregation, though he is at the same time one of the Society's Missionaries and is endeavouring to acquire the Singhalese language.—The congregation sent to the Bishop of Madras 230*l.* as a contribution in relief of the sufferers from the Indian Famine.

Work among the Tamils.

This is still under the charge of the Rev. W. E. Rowlands, whose deeply touching and interesting Annual Letter needs no introduction. Mr. Rowlands writes:—

The loss that our Mission has sustained in my beloved wife's removal is one that can scarcely be over-estimated. Having once "put her hand to the plough," she never thought of "looking back," and the answer she invariably gave to friends who spoke of our returning home was in spirit just in accordance with these words which I see she had written in her little daily text-book:—"What would you say if your labourers left their work at noon-day?"

The number of our congregations is the same as last year—seven—including Negombo [on the sea-coast about sixteen miles north of Colombo] and Galle; but Divine Service is held in nine distinct places, some of the congregations being subdivided. The number of adherents in connexion with these congregations is 1070 as compared with 790 last year, showing an increase of 280, principally traceable to the fact that in certain localities more Christians from India have been resident than usual. The average attendance at Divine Service throughout the year has been 402. It must be borne in mind that many of our people are at the bidding of their employers, and therefore unable to do as they like even as regards going to church. The prayer-meetings held in different places during the week have been better attended than formerly, and our special meetings held during the week following the Day of Intercession for Missions were taken up with great interest.—The Slave Island Sunday-school has been perseveringly maintained by the same young men who carried it on last year, and another has been commenced at Maradâna which bids fair to do very well. In both these little Sunday-schools more of the children are heathens than Christians.

The sum total of Native Contributions and Collections for the year is Rs. 995:75; Rs. 72 less than last year. But this arises from the accidental circumstance that no special effort has been made to obtain funds for church building, towards which object we received Rs. 160 last year.

But the most cheering fact of the whole year is that the number of baptisms—both of adults and children—has been much larger than on any previous occasion, twenty adults and thirty-two children, in all fifty-two. One man was brought to a knowledge of Christ entirely through our preaching in the Colombo jails. He was for several years under instruction, and during the whole of that time manifested an unwavering desire to receive baptism—a desire which would certainly have been complied with sooner, but that he was on more than one occasion removed to some other jail at a distance from Colombo. Two others of the candidates were girls from our boarding-school, one of whom had been betrothed in her childhood to a heathen—the young man to whom I made allusion in my Annual Letter last year. As soon, however, as he became a Christian, he desired that the girl too should receive regular instruction, and requested that she might be admitted into our boarding-school, where he paid her fees from his own earnings.

It is a striking instance of God's mysterious dealings, that during last year, when we had a larger number of pupils in the Girls' Boarding-school than at any previous time since its opening—25, the full number admissible—I should have been obliged temporarily to close it. I am doing everything in my power to secure the services of a lady who will make it her special work; and I pray that God, who can very easily provide for His own, will stir up the heart of some one to come out to Ceylon for this particular object.

The Boys' Boarding-school has continued throughout the year in a very satisfactory condition, both as to discipline, general conduct, and progress in learning. The number on the list has been thirty-seven, only three short of our full number. The master makes it his constant endeavour, I am sure, to lead the boys' hearts to Christ.

Of the Boys' Day-schools in Colombo, I have nothing particular to report. Of the Girls' and Infants' Day-schools, three opened in 1876 (to which I have lately added another) were set on foot specially with a view to attracting, if possible, little Mohammedan girls, and this object has, to some extent, been attained. There are 115 children attending these five schools—64 little boys and 51 girls—and amongst the latter there are 20 Mohammedans, Moors, and Malays, some of whom have been quite regular in their attendance from the first, and can therefore now not only read Tamil very fairly, but repeat from memory a great many texts of Scripture and two or three hymns. These little schools owe their origin entirely to a suggestion of my beloved wife, and will always be associated with her memory. It was very affecting in one of them to find that every child could say by heart a little prayer she had written for them in Tamil, asking for the forgiveness of sins through Jesus Christ, and the cleansing of the Holy Spirit.

COTTA.

The Cotta station has been very considerably strengthened during the year, by the appointment of the Rev. J. I. Jones to take charge of the COTTA TRAINING INSTITUTION. By mutual consent between Mr. Jones and Mr. Dowbiggin, the former has also taken the Chairmanship of the Cotta Native Church Council. Mr. Dowbiggin will thus be enabled to give more of his time to Evangelistic work, among both adults and children. The new arrangement had scarcely, however, come into operation at the date of Mr. Dowbiggin's Annual Letter, November 30th, 1877.

Of the Native Christians (numbering, with Catechumens, 873) Mr. Dowbiggin writes:—

There has been an increased attendance of adults at the services on the Lord's day. The number of Communicants is also larger, 184 as compared with 160 last year. There have been eighteen adult baptisms (inclusive of Colombo, twenty), and there are eighty-three candidates for baptism. Four additional Sunday-schools have been carried on, and the average attendance at the thirty-two Sunday-schools has been 727. When it is remembered that more than half of the Sunday scholars are Buddhists, we have great cause for thankfulness that so many come voluntarily to receive purely religious instruction on the Lord's day.—The subscriptions in the district amounted to Rs. 1028:83.

Mr. Dowbiggin continues:—

Success
granted to the efforts of the
*Cotta Church Mission-
ciation.*

Evangelistic Work has been carried on both in Colombo and in the Héwágam and Rayigam Korales. After about three and a half years of patient labour (connected with the Cotta Church Missionary Association) at Liyanwela, we have been privileged to reap some fruit. In April last six young people, varying in age from eighteen to twenty-five, were baptized. One of the six was the daughter of Christian parents; but all the rest had been brought up in Buddhism, and, until we began to preach Jesus, knew no other religion. I remember one of the six, a young man of twenty-five, asking me a great many difficult questions about animal sacrifices, the killing of fowls and animals for food, &c., which I tried to answer fully on the occasion of my first visit to Liyanwela three years ago. At that time it was thought by the catechist that he was only asking captious questions with a view to annoy or puzzle the missionary. He nevertheless used to stay for exposition of the Scriptures, and was in the habit of attending our services. At the end of three years he openly professed his faith in Jesus, and was baptized. Nearly all of those baptized at Liyanwela date their first desire to become Christians from observing the conduct of our teachers as contrasted with Buddhists.

The work in the Preparandi Institution has been carried on steadily during the year. Once a week the students have gone to Colombo for street-preaching and gaol-visiting, and on Sundays have assisted in carrying on services in the villages near Cotta. During the year four students completed their course of study and were employed, two in the Kandy and two in the Cotta District. Four new students were accepted on probation.

1. The schools now number forty-four, as compared with twenty in 1870. Three schools have been opened during the year—two for boys and one for girls. Sir C. P. Layard, K.C.M.G., remarks in his Administrative Report of the Western Province for 1876, as follows:—"I do not know a more gratifying sight than that which may be witnessed on any occasion of a collective examination of the girls educated in the Church Missionary schools of Cotta and the Salpiti Korale, an attendance of well-behaved, well-dressed, and even accomplished young women, whose manners would do credit to an European community." Such is the testimony of a civil servant of fifty years' experience; one who is not wont to bestow praise where it is not due. The number of children on the lists in all classes of schools is, of girls 962, and boys 1221—a total of 2183. The schools have been carried on at a cost of Rs. 11,415 : 86, and towards this sum the C.M.S. has contributed Rs. 1500, which is expended solely on vernacular education.—The English school at Cotta maintains its efficiency, and, with grants-in-aid, is self-supporting. The number of boarders is twenty-five, and day-boys ninety-seven, which gives a total of 122 on the list. Two young men who had been educated in this school gave each of them half of his first month's salary as a thank-offering to the Society. Both of them were admitted into the office of the Surveyor-General.—In the girls' boarding-school there are at present forty-one girls, six of whom are Tamils that we have taken in until Mr. Rowlands can reopen his girls' boarding-school at Borella Road. Four girls were baptized last Christmas, one is a candidate for that rite, and seven are being prepared for confirmation. The school passed a good examination in November, 1876. We are under a deep debt of gratitude to those ladies who, through Miss Webb and others, sent us boxes of work from England to be sold for the benefit of the school.—No less than fourteen young people, the fruits of our school-work, were admitted into the Church by baptism. One of these is the daughter of a devil-dancer; she has bravely confessed Christ, and is enduring persecution for His sake.

Rev. John Allcock (m), 1864.

BADDEGAMA.

THE Rev. J. Allcock has conducted another year's patient and prayerful labour in this district, with many signs of God's blessing. The Native Christian Adherents have increased from 374 to 462, and the Communicants from 146 to 151. Twenty-six adults were baptized during the year. Mr. Allcock's Annual Letter is rather a collection of salient points in the year's history than a systematic review. It is not the less interesting on that account. He writes :—

Thank God the daily prayer-meeting has been carried on for another year. It is held at 6 p.m. The average for every day during the year has been fifteen, Sunday excepted. Some have been a little weary, others complain about the steepness of the hill, and others think it is too much of a burden to come every day ; but, thank God, we have persevered, and have been encouraged by many answers for our prayers.

The amount of our Native subscriptions is larger than last year, notwithstanding the dearness of rice during the famine.

We are making great efforts to enlist more unpaid volunteer evangelists, and we have succeeded to some extent ; but the practical difficulties to flesh and blood are enormous. They complain, " Sunday is our only day, and we are employed all the week, and we want rest. How can we walk six miles on our day of rest ? " We have about ten volunteers who have been preaching for the last three months ; and I hope the number will be increased after Christmas.

When at Holbrook, 1875, I was much rejoiced by the gracious results of the evangelistic services of Alfred Clark, the working-man. The thought struck me, " May not God have given us some Singhalese Alfred Clarks whom we might bring forward, and whom perhaps we have kept back ? " I invited Abraham from Talampitiya, in the Kandy Itinerancy, to come here. I had my serious doubts whether caste prejudices and jealousies would not destroy his usefulness ; but, thank God, all our best people have received him with Christian love, and have worked with him most cordially. He speaks with all the feelings of a man who has been grievously injured by Buddhism, which he regards as a masterpiece of Satan's cunning. I am glad to say that his presence and evangelistic addresses have been most edifying and profitable to our leading Christians. The catechist at Dodanduwa says that he expects many of the Buddhists there will be converted. The celebrated priest of the neighbourhood (younger brother of Mr. D. Wirasûriya, one of our leading Native Christians) sent for Abraham to the Pansala or priest's house. In the temple a crowd of Buddhists assembled to hear Abraham give the reasons why he forsook the ancient religion of Buddha. The chief aim of the priest seems to have been to show that Abraham was not a man of learning, acquainted with Pali grammar, but an illiterate, ignorant brawler. The priest asked a few foolish and hackneyed questions : " What place had God to reside in before and when He made the heavens and earth ? " " When was the creation of God ? " &c. Abraham replied, " Things of eternity and infinity do not belong to our finite understandings. Let us go to the finite things of God's creation. Who is the maker of man, beasts, birds, and creeping things ? It is an axiom with your grammarians that every sentence must have an agent. Who is the agent of all creation ? "

A Native Christian proctor finding that one of his clients, who A Native came from an interior village, was living in a state of the most horrible and degraded immorality, offered me sixty rupees if I would send a teacher of the Gospel to the place. I have done so, and I believe that a most gracious work of God will follow. This village is about six miles from Kosgoda, where the proctor lives, and he goes there himself to preach the Gospel on two or three Sundays during the month. Two other Native gentlemen have given liberally towards the building and establishment of Christian schools in heathen villages. A Native Christian lawyer.

After we had preached on seven moonlight nights in Gona-pinuwala, the leading Buddhists of the village sent us a challenge to meet one of their noted preachers and a pupil of Migettuwattê's. He is a layman of the Goldsmith caste, and lives at Galle. Our champion was Mr. Sirimanna, catechist of Balapiti. He is most certainly in his proper position when engaged in controversy with the Buddhists. His facts and logic were simply irresistible. I never heard the hollowness of Buddhism more manifestly exposed. It was shown to be a giant cheat, a miserable system of the dry bones of moral precepts without any truth, life, or way to redemption. The Buddhist champion went away dumbfounded, and did not speak his appointed time. In his attacks on the Bible he manifested such gross ignorance of Old Testament History that he became a laughing-stock. His hearers were inclined to bring one of the school-boys to give him a little instruction. Controversy with Buddhists.

A young man, who was a disciple of the notorious adversary, Migettuwattê, has been converted and baptized this year. He attended our moonlight preaching in Kosgoda school-room. The subject was, " How long halt ye between two opinions ? " When we repeated the solemn question at the end of the address, and pressed it upon the Buddhists present, this young man, with much presumption, began to ask blasphemous questions, cavilling against the sacrifices of harmless animals ordained in the Old Testament. From that day, however, he began to associate with the old man who was baptized last Christmas. A few weeks afterwards he made a public profession of his faith in that God and Saviour whom he had previously blasphemed.—The blessing of God has rested on our new out-station at Elpitiya. I was enabled to occupy this new outpost by the aid of 30*l.* which Christian friends sent me from Holbrook for paying an evangelist and opening a girls' school. It appears to me their offerings, and self-sacrifices of faith, and their faithful prayers have prevailed with God. In a year we have four baptized adults and six anxious inquirers. The Bishop (Dr. Copleston) paid a visit to this out-station in September last, and was very much pleased with the conduct, intelligence, and answers of these candidates for baptism. He kindly commissioned me to give a Singhalese Bible to two of them. I was astonished at the Bishop's power over the Singhalese language.—Forty-one persons have been admitted into the visible Church by baptism. Twenty-six of these were adults, and fifteen infants.

THE small but influential Singhalese congregation connected with the Society at Kandy, numbering (inclusive of Catechumens and children), 174 persons, is, as before, the charge of the Rev. H. Gunasêkara. The Communicants number 39, and there have been three adult baptisms. The candidates for baptism are nine in number, five of whom seem to be hopeful cases. Mr. Gunasêkara would rejoice to see in the members of his flock more signs of spiritual life and of zeal for the welfare of the Native Church. Evangelistic work is regularly carried on by this esteemed Native brother in the streets, in the verandah of the Police Court, and in the bazaar preaching-room; and also on Sunday morning at seven o'clock in the gaol. It was the preaching in the gaol that led to the profession of faith in Christ by two of the adults whom Mr. Gunasékara baptized during the year under review.

The Rev. B. P. Wîrasingha has the pastoral care of the congregations of Katukaelê and Gaetaembê, numbering altogether 175 Native Christian Adherents and 26 Communicants. No adults were baptized during the year, but there are some hopeful and interesting candidates. Contributions for religious purposes have increased.

TRINITY COLLEGE, together with the Collegiate School attached to it, contains 114 students. Its Principal is the Rev. R. Collins, who was assisted during the year by Mr. T. Dunn, to whose ability and tact Mr. Collins bears strong testimony, and by competent Native teachers. Mr. Collins writes :—

I have had the satisfaction of baptizing during the year two of my pupils—one a very interesting and, I believe, most sincere Singhalese, and likely hereafter to take a prominent position among his countrymen. He is now the head boy of the school. Also one, at least, of the students who have just passed the Calcutta University Entrance Examination, will be, I trust, a worker in the Lord's vineyard. Conversion of a Buddhist.

I sent up four boys for the Entrance Examination: all passed in the second division. This is the second year we have passed all the candidates presented from this school. Last year an F.A. and two entrance candidates were presented, all of whom were successful. All these boys have been pupils in this school for some years. We have two students for B.A., and one for F.A., besides the matriculation class. It is, however, doubtful whether the B.A. students will be able, after all, to present themselves for examination, owing to the serious expense of a voyage to Calcutta, and the necessary residence there for a time. This difficulty can only be removed by scholarships, and I am thankful to report that I have had the offer of between Rs. 5000 and Rs. 6000 from some Singhalese gentlemen, the interest of which is to go to found a scholarship for this school.

I have received Rs. 2000 from the Kandyan chiefs for building purposes. With this sum I have built five private rooms for boarders, in addition to the two large dormitories I had previously erected.

TAMIL COOLY MISSION.

In the course of the year just concluded, the Bishop of Colombo offered to recognize the Tamil Cooly Mission in the same way as it had been recognized by his predecessors, if a guarantee could be given that the Mission was conducted on Church of England principles. Though the Committee did not see the need of such a guarantee—as the rules of the Mission provide that such shall be the case, and no evidence had been adduced of their having been transgressed—they readily acceded to the Bishop's wishes, and a guarantee was accordingly given. This step was at first misunderstood by the local Tamil Cooly Mission Committee; but the Parent Committee rejoice that the explanations they have offered have proved satisfactory. They have assured their friends that no change of plan or principle is intended, and that the Society is determined as ever to maintain the just liberties of the Mission and to preserve to the Tamil Cooly Christians purity of doctrine and simplicity of worship. The Committee have full confidence that the laws and established practice of the Church of England will protect the due freedom of their Missionary operations, notwithstanding the difficulties attendant on the transition from the early days of evangelistic effort to the establishment of that indigenous and self-governing Native Church which they have always regarded as the ultimate issue of a successful Mission.

The Guarantee referred to is expressed in the following terms:—"The Tamil Cooly Mission, as a part of the work of the Church Missionary Society—which is a Church of England Society—is carried on entirely on the same principles as every other part of the Church Missionary Society in Ceylon; the clergy, catechists, and readers connected with the Tamil Cooly Mission standing in the same relation to the Bishop and Diocese of Colombo, as do the other clergy, catechists, and readers of that Society."

The work of this Mission, like that of all others connected with the Society, is of two kinds, (1) Evangelistic efforts among the heathen, and (2) Pastoral, for the benefit of the Native Christians. It is of course with the former of these two that the local Tamil Cooly Mission Committee is directly concerned.

The Rev. W. Clark and the Rev. A. R. Cavalier are the two European brethren engaged in this Mission. Mr. Clark, the senior of the two, interests himself in the whole work, but has (or had, during the year under review) also special charge of the Northern district. He writes:—

The work of the Mission has been carried on with as much energy and regularity as circumstances would permit. I have myself visited the estates as frequently as I could.

The Rev. P. Peter (Native assistant), has been active and diligent, and the catechists have, for the most part, done their work faithfully. There has been a good deal of sickness among them, which has somewhat interfered with their work.

Our congregations have done well, on the whole. In the Northern district there have been nineteen adult baptisms, and the Adherents and Communicants now number respectively 868 and 209.

Our schools have not been so successful this year. Good teachers are obtained with great difficulty. Still, some of the schools have succeeded really well. As our schools are usually dependent on local support, they are very apt to fluctuate,—the departure of one influential man being sufficient to close a school altogether.

Our funds have somewhat increased. The strong feeling which was aroused disposed many to give liberally, and we shall get about 1400*l.* or 1500*l.* which is, however, less than we hoped for.

Mr. Cavalier reports of the Southern District as follows:—

The ordinary work of the Mission in this division has been carried on with a greater degree of regularity than before, the increased staff of agents enabling us to be more punctual in visiting estates and more attentive to the Christians. We have, however, suffered a good deal from the effects of an unusually wet season, and at one time during the year more than half the catechists in the division were laid up by illness in consequence.

During the period under review I have baptized seven adults, each of whom had been under preparation some months. A considerable number of inquirers were prepared, but returned to India before arrangements could be made for their baptism. We trust that in their own country they may continue to seek after the truth and help to swell the numbers of the Christian Church there. In this Mission we cannot expect to have large and settled congregations. The coolies are constantly coming and going.

ANURÂJAPURA.

This ancient city has now become one of the Society's Missionary stations, the Rev. G. F. Unwin removing thither in February, 1877. Mr. Unwin writes:—

My work at Anurâjapura is, as it was in Kaigâlê, of two kinds—town work, including, fortnightly English services, preaching in the streets and hospital and the prison, and village itinerating.—I have eight village schools, besides the one here, which is Anglo-Vernacular.—Large coloured Scripture prints (I have five of Old Testament subjects and five of New) I find of great service both in daily reading with the people here and when I travel. I visited a new village not long since, where there seemed an opening for a school, and fastened

Does God really listen to people when they pray to Him? up against the walls (mats suspended from the roof) my Scripture print. It was that of Eli and Samuel. I let them first satisfy their curiosity by a good look at the picture, and then, as they gradually asked its meaning, I told them the story. Many thus came and went in the course of the afternoon; but I was particularly struck with one old man's question. Having listened, he went away; but later on, returning, asked with apparent earnestness, "Does God really talk to people like that, or listen when they pray to Him?"

One great hindrance to the advance of Christianity here is the utter disregard to religion shown by those in responsible positions under Government. To mention only one thing—the erection of our public buildings is carried on on Sundays as on other days. I have had, also, great trouble in getting agents both willing and able to give themselves to the work here, Anurâjapura being regarded as a very unhealthy place.

Mr. Unwin's Annual Letter closes with a lengthened and painfully interesting account of the sad apostasy of a young lad who had given promise of being a useful helper. Mr. Unwin justly remarks that "such incidents may show quite as much as our successes, what need we have of the increased sympathy and prayers of all God's people, whether at home or here."

IV. Jaffna District.

Nallur, commenced 1818; Chundikuli, 1842; Kopay, 1847.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. Jonathan D. Simmons (m), to South India, 1860; to Ceylon, 1875.
Rev. David Wood (m), 1867.

THE Native Christian Adherents connected with the Society at Jaffna number 780; of whom 329 are Communicants. The corresponding numbers for 1876 were 767 and 298. Thirty-four adults were baptized during the year. There have been considerable accessions also to the list of Catechumens; although from emigration and from mortality through the prevalence of cholera, the increase in the total number of Adherents has been scarcely appreciable. One interesting fact is thus recorded by a Native Pastor:—

We fixed a day for the baptism of a young candidate and waited for him in the church, but he did not make his appearance. On the next morning we learnt that his father having understood that he was to be baptized on that day, closely watched him. But the boy openly told his parents that he wanted to be baptized, and set out to go to the church. His father flogged him severely, and tied him to a post, and thus prevented him. But the boy insisted much, and expressed his fixed resolve to become a Christian. His parents at length left him to his own course, saying that they will take no interest in his welfare nor give any help towards his education.

The Rev. J. D. Simmons writes :—

The high prices of food, owing to the famine in India, have affected our church funds. We began the year with Rs. 300 in the Church Pastoral Fund, but we closed it with only Rs. 25 in hand. The amount contributed to this Fund is Rs. 1044, being Rs. 208 less than last year. Many have promised to try, not only to raise their subscriptions in the current year to what they were before, but also to redeem the deficiency of the past year.

Another source of anxiety has been the illness of two of the pastors.

The prospect for a succession of efficient labourers is not so bright as I desire to see it. You kindly gave a grant to enable me to open a theological class for young men of promise, who had finished their secular education, and I thought I knew of three or four who would willingly join the class; but when our terms were made known, no one came forward to do so. We have now come to the conclusion that, instead of a regular class, we must carry on three or four young schoolmasters in theological studies whilst they continue their present work. Several are anxious to do this. This plan has disadvantages, but no other course appears practicable at present.

The number of adult baptisms in the year is thirty-four—a number considerably above our average. Last year there were but ten, and the year before fifteen. There are also forty candidates for baptism. God does not limit His blessing to any one form of labour for Christ. Some of these converts are the reward of faithful work in schools; some were converted by the Word preached in public; others heard it spoken more privately in the house; again, others were brought to Jesus by the prayers and efforts of children and friends. Sickness and affliction also were instrumental in leading some. Some of the converts have had no slight amount of trials to endure for the Gospel's sake. One man's wife was so violent on the day fixed for his baptism, threatening to drown herself and the children during his absence, that he had to postpone his public confession of Christ; and on the day of baptism he appeared in borrowed clothes, as his wife had hidden his own. He has been faithful and persevering in efforts to win her to Christ, and there is good hope of his success.

Our evangelistic work in the Wannie is extending year by year;

though somewhat impeded during the last twelve months by the prevalence of cholera. [The Wannie is a tract of country on the mainland of Ceylon, opposite the Jaffna peninsula.] A good school bungalow and a house sufficient for a catechist and schoolmaster have been completed this year at Vavonia-velankulam; also three schoolrooms and a small house in villages near Mullativo.

The Educational work in the Jaffna peninsula is under the care of the Rev. D. Wood, with the exception, however, of the Kopay Training Institution, and the Girls' Boarding-school, which Mr. Simmons superintends. Mr. Simmons writes:—

In the Kopay Institution four students finished their course in May last, and are now employed by us as schoolmasters. There are at present eight youths in the training-class, and thirty-four boys in the boarding-school. The conduct of most of them has been good, and the piety of some is manifest.—In the Girls' boarding-school several students finished their course and left in April, and their places were filled up with young girls drawn from the day-schools. The grant obtained by Government examination was Rs. 642, the largest ever received. It has been the constant care of all connected with the school to lead the girls to Christ, to give them a good knowledge of the Bible, and some instruction in the principles of the Church of England, as well as to train them in general knowledge and usefulness. There are forty-six in the school.

Mr. Wood has found the work much interfered with by cholera and the high price of food—the latter owing to the Indian famine,—which have proved serious hindrances. The Chundikuli English Seminary was specially affected, being indeed practically closed for four months. It may be hoped, however, that the decline is only temporary. Taking the schools under Mr. Wood's care, as a whole, the numbers on the lists have decreased from 2499 to 2257. Four pupils have been baptized from the schools during the year.

Work among Madras Coolies.

The Society's work among the Tamils is divided between the Rev. H. D. Buswell and the Rev. N. Honiss ; Mr. Buswell taking the central districts and Mr. Honiss the northern. (The work among the Tamils in the southern districts is conducted by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel.)

Mr. Buswell has been tried both by the weakness of his own health, and by sad instances of moral and spiritual frailty among the agents and the members of the congregations. On the other hand his Native brother, the Rev. J. Gabb, has proved himself a most unwearied and faithful labourer.

Twenty-six adults were baptized during the year, one of the most interesting of these being a Chinese. Mr. Buswell expressed the hope that regular work among the Chinese resident in the colony would soon be begun. An intelligent Chinese Christian had recently arrived from Calcutta who was receiving instruction for this work from Mr. Andrews, the civil chaplain of Port Louis, formerly one of the Society's Association Secretaries in Ireland.

The preparandi class under Mr. Buswell's care numbers only three students at present. Three have been placed out during the year as schoolmasters; two of whom are also engaged in instructing catechumens.

Mr. Honiss, who is stationed at MOUNT PITON, writes as follows:—

In our present quarters we are surrounded by the Indian population, and the situation is healthy, as well as picturesque.

Small
prayer-houses on Mauritius
sugar estates.

There have been fourteen adult baptisms during the period under review. Nine of these were all from one estate, where they have built a small prayer-house, ten feet long, by seven feet wide. I am strongly in favour of making the people build these little prayer-houses. Every little village in India has its own sacred place for worship. It may amount to nothing more than two or three stones, with a little whitewash and a dab of red paint. But there it is, always in their midst. Why should we not utilize this idea when they become Christians? To the European, that small prayer-house is but a miserable hovel. But what if communion is held there between the awakened spirits of men, and the God and Father of all? The hovel then becomes a Bethel, as much so as Westminster Abbey or St. Paul's.

Day-scholars are admitted into our boarding-school, in which we have an average attendance of nearly fifty. All of them are daily taught that they are by nature and practice sinful, and that "Christ came into the world to save sinners." At morning prayers all are expected to repeat some passage of Scripture. In the Christmas examination, when fifty-five were present, the boarding-boys were particularly good in this respect—one boy repeating as many as sixty-seven texts and ninety-eight hymns in Tamil or English.—I have also the management of four other schools in different parts of the district. Besides the Christian education for the children, we thus gain an introduction to the parents in their homes. I see an obvious difference in camps where we have children under instruction, and in others where we have not. In the former case I am a recognized friend.—I look forward to the time when we may have a school in every camp. These schools can be carried on with little or no expense to the Mission. So far, my schools have not cost the C.M.S. a rupee. The boarding-school is sustained by the contributions of those kind friends who have hitherto charged themselves with its support; while the grants from the Local Government have proved sufficient for the working of the day-schools.

The Indian in Mauritius has lost, in a measure, the cunning, cringing ways of his countrymen. He has seen more of the world, and has learnt to recognize his rights as a British subject. He knows there is a great gentleman called the Protector of Immigrants, whose special business it is to look after the rights of the Indian. He is better clothed, better fed, and better housed than in his native land. He can be polite without being cringing. With all these improvements the Indian in Mauritius does not appear to be any the nearer to the kingdom of heaven. He is far more ready to adopt the white man's vices than his religion. On the day of the Port Louis races, which the Indians patronize as well as the Europeans, I saw more drunken Indians than during my seventeen years' residence in India.

Work among Calcutta Coolies.

This branch of this Mission is divided between the Rev. F. Schurr and the Rev. P. Ansorgé; the latter being assisted by, or perhaps rather giving the assistance of his counsels to, a Native Pastor, the Rev. C. Kushalli. Mr. Schurr takes charge of the work in the two southernmost districts of Grand Port and Savanne, Mr. Ansorgé in the rest of the island. Mr. Schurr also conducts a Præparandi Institution.

Of the Native Christians Mr. Ansorgé writes:—

St. Paul's Church at PORT LOUIS is now complete. If our friends at home who have helped us could see the church on a Sunday, with its congregation, its Native Pastor and Native organist, I am sure all would feel still more happy for having contributed towards its completion.

I am glad to state that the Christians have continued regularly their payment of 3*l.* per month for Mr. Kushalli's part payment of his stipend. The conduct of the Christians has in general been satisfactory. I doubt not that the Lord has a good many chosen ones among them, though there are a few sad exceptions. The attendance for Divine worship on Sundays has increased. Besides St. Paul's Church at Port Louis (spoken of below), Sunday services are conducted in four different churches belonging to English congregations; and I most thankfully acknowledge the kind help thus afforded by the English chaplains. Three services are held every Sunday at Plaisance [Mr. Ansorge's own residence]. There is also a regular service conducted at Rodus Bois, on the property of a Protestant English gentleman, who has given us a house for the purpose of getting the Christians in his neighbourhood for Divine worship. On his estate we have about forty Christians, all labourers.

Evangelistic efforts Mr. Ansorgé thus describes:—

Myself, Mr. Kushalli, and all my seven catechists, have proclaimed the Gospel to Hindus and Mohammedans in town and in the country, in prisons, in hospitals, and in the camps on the sugar estates. Two of our Christians help without receiving pay. Catechist Hope Mirza, whom I have stationed at Moka, has visited many estates. But the glad tidings of Jesus are brought not only to the men, but also to the women, as my daughter Louisa goes with the Indian Bible-woman, visiting the camps in the neighbourhood.

The statistics of Mr. Ansorgé's districts are:—Native Christian Adherents, 856; Communicants, 174; baptisms during the year—adults, 62; children of converts, 10; children of Christian parents, 27: Native Scholars—Boys, 115; Girls, 96.

The work among the Calcutta coolies in the southern districts of Grand Port and Savanne is carried on as before by the Rev. F. Schurr. Mr. Schurr is assisted by three Native Christian fellow-labourers. The Native Christian Adherents under Mr. Schurr's charge are sixty-two in number. Six of these are Communicants, and six adults were baptized during the year.

The Immigration Dépôt at PORT LOUIS is visited on the arrival of any new immigrants by Mr. Kushalli and two Catechists. If any Christians are found, they are immediately informed of the opportunities for attending the means of grace, and are provided with portions of Scripture; and if about to be sent into the more distant districts, they are advised as to the best way of communicating with the nearest Mission Station.

SEYCHELLES.

On the Seychelles islands the labourers on the estates are mostly natives of East Africa. The solitary Missionary, the Rev. W. B. Chancellor, has laboured with patient industry, and has established an Industrial Home for African children on a mountain 2000 feet above the sea. Of this work Bishop Royston, and Lieutenant Sanders, of H.M.S. Fawn, have written in warm terms.

HONG KONG.

THE Society's Missions in China have the advantage of being under the Episcopacy of two Bishops, not only sympathizing with the spiritual principles of the Society, but possessing also Missionary experience gained by actual service.

HONG KONG is in the diocese of BISHOP BURDON. The Committee are glad to entertain the hope in which the Bishop has himself encouraged them, that he will be able personally to initiate and superintend Missionary operations at the Society's expense at Pakkoi, on the mainland. The arrangements for this, however, are not yet completed.

In Hong Kong itself the Society's Missionary (Rev. A. B. Hutchinson) writes as follows :—

The number of our Communicants has increased to fifty ; eight of the additional fifteen being the outcome of the Church itself, and seven the result of other labours in Melbourne and elsewhere.

Of the candidates for baptism, two are old scholars from our Taiping-shan school ; two are men who have heard the glad tidings at St. Stephen's ; three are at the station at Wong-pi ; four at the new station, Tseng-ün, and two are being prepared by the itinerant evangelist on the island.

We have had fewer baptisms than in the previous year ; but this is partly because I have been prevented visiting Wong-pi, as I purposed doing in December. I hope to be there very soon after the Chinese new year commences (Feb. 4th). I have baptized altogether eight adults and three children, whilst six Natives, members of our Church gathered in other lands, have joined our ranks on returning to their native land. These, with a member of the London Mission who has (with full consent of his former teachers) become an assistant evangelist, and thirteen adult candidates for baptism, bring up our numbers to 123.

Quite unexpectedly, three members of the Church of England baptized and confirmed in Australia, have recently come to see me, expressing an earnest desire to labour for Christ in China. This, together with other circumstances, has encouraged me to attempt extension in various directions, and if I can carry out all my plans, we shall then have as our out-stations, Wong-pi, fourteen miles S.E. Canton (Salary, Society); Tseng-ün, eighty miles north (Salary, Society); Kong Mun, south (Salary, Local Fund); Yan Peng, south-west (Salary, Local Fund); Tsang Ching, north-east (Salary, Rev. E. Davys).

FUH-CHOW.

character and constitution of the Fuh-Kien
Native
Church.

The Fuh-Kien Mission stands prominently forward in the evident and abundant tokens of the presence and energy of the HOLY SPIRIT. The Native Christian Adherents have increased from 1700 to 2300 (not including 800 in the geographical district of another missionary body, who for some reason not fully explained to the Committee, seem resolved to force themselves on the care of the Society's agents). "All these," writes Mr. Wolfe, "are bitterly hated, and too often cruelly persecuted, by the governing and influential classes of their own countrymen, while they are despised as fools by the masses. Many of them, it is true, are weak, and need much teaching and shepherding, and often cause much anxiety and care. Joy and sorrow, sunshine and clouds, have alternated in our experience of the Native Christians during the year. . . . The joy and the sunshine have predominated." The Christians are ministered to by three Native clergymen (one much-esteemed brother having died during the year), ninety-three paid catechists, and about double that number of unpaid "exhorters"—these being aided by the advice and guidance of three European Missionaries. Every Native Christian is urged to do what he can for the evangelization of his countrymen; but the "exhorters" are a recognized class of voluntary helpers, who work under a certain system of rules. Many of them show great zeal and intelligence.

In the Training College, Mr. Stewart, one of Mr. Wolfe's younger colleagues, is carefully preparing for future usefulness twenty-nine Chinese students, varying in age from seventeen to thirty, and selected from the "unpaid helpers." Mr. Stewart's Native colleague is a Chinese graduate, who has lost all, including wife and child, for the Gospel's sake.

The Annual Conference of the Fuh-Kien Christians was held in October, 1877. Three hundred Native Christians, agents and independent delegates, were assembled on the occasion. It was a time of spiritual benefit to all. The Conference pronounced against the custom of betrothals in early childhood.—In the twelve districts into which the Fuh-Kien Mission is divided, 274 adults have been received into the visible Church by baptism during the year; and a very large number of inquirers have placed themselves under regular instruction.

The following passages are extracted from Mr. Wolfe's wonderfully interesting Annual Letter:—

One earnest and familiar voice and form at our conferences we shall hear and see no more in our earthly assemblies; the Rev. Su-Chong-Ing has been called away to his heavenly rest. His end, as we learn from the Christians who were with him when he died, was perfect peace. Though a young man, he has done much good service for the Master. His first employment as a catechist was in the city of Ping-Nang. He was the first to occupy that station, and endured a good deal of persecution from the gentry and literati of that place. The chapel was ultimately pulled down, and he had to fly for his life. He held an honorary official rank, for which he had a button. He was degraded from this rank, on the representation of the magistrate, of being a propagator of heterodoxy. He was afterwards for a short time in the students' class at Fuh-chow, and was subsequently employed as a catechist at different stations. He had charge of the Ku-Cheng station at the time of his ordination two years ago by Bishop Burdon. He was afterwards removed, partly for the sake of his health, to Lo-Nguong, to take charge of the congregation in that city, where he continued to the time of his death, a few days ago. He leaves a widow and four children entirely unprovided for. May the God of the widow and the Father of the fatherless provide for them and help them! Mr. Su was a man of commanding voice and figure, of great eloquence and quiet earnestness. He possessed a good knowledge of his Bible, and his sermons were full of scriptural instruction. He excelled in his mode of preaching to the heathen, and he was invariably listened to with attention and respect.—The Mission has also lost the services of the Rev. Wong, who resigned, and has set up as a medical man on his own account. He is a true Christian, and will have many opportunities of doing good to the cause of Christ in his new profession. I trust he may embrace these opportunities, and be the means of leading many to the Physician of souls.

Death of a faithful Chinese pastor.

The Mission is now divided into 12 districts, as follows:
1. LO-NGUONG. 2. NING-TAIK. 3. Hok-Ning-Fu. 4. Southern Ku-Cheng. 5. Central KU-CHENG. 6. Western Ku-Cheng. 7.

Kiong-Ning-Fu. 8. Iong-Ping-Fu. 9. Hing-Wha-Fu. 10. Taik-Wha. 11. Lieng-Kong. 12. FUH-CHOW and vicinity including two Hiens. Two, and sometimes three, of these districts are at present superintended by one head Catechist, while the whole twelve are visited by ourselves, the English missionaries.

Continued progress in Fuh-Kien. The Lo-NGUONG district has suffered from the severe and long continued illness of the Rev. Su-Chong-Ing, which has now resulted in his death. Still the work has made fair progress. In each of its eleven out-stations some advance has been made. Though the city itself has been quite barren of results, the city congregation has been somewhat increased. There were thirty-eight baptisms during the year, and the Lord's Supper was administered to over eighty Communicants on the occasion of my last visit towards the end of the year, in December. Very few of the female members of this city congregation are able to attend the public services in the Church, in consequence of the long distances they have to walk and their own crippled feet. A great desideratum in this and in all our stations is an intelligent female agency to teach the women. The book depôt has been in operation, and, though but few except the Christians have availed themselves of its privileges, the Curator has kept the little chapel in the depôt open for preaching and conversation, and many, through his means, have heard the Word of God. The Romanists in the neighbourhood have given the Christians much trouble; and the persecutions on the part of the heathen gentry and magistrate have considerably harassed the converts during the year, and have kept many inquirers from joining the Christian ranks. The magistrate of Lo-Nguong publicly flogged one of the Christians for no other reason but because he refused to worship at the tombs of the ancestors. The work at Seu-Hung and Tong-A has made considerable progress; and though there have not been many baptisms in these places this year, a goodly number have joined the congregations, and are preparing for admission by baptism.—Wong-Pwong and Iong-Tung, have during the year given us very great encouragement. At the latter place the converts, about sixty in number, have subscribed $100, and with the help they received from us were enabled to purchase a large house to serve as a church. There have been thirteen baptisms at Wong-Pwong, and altogether a deeply interesting work has been going on there during the year. There are some very earnest "exhorters" at work in this station, voluntarily assisting the Catechist.—Achia has been much disturbed during the year by the intrigues of the hostile gentry; but it has made steady progress notwithstanding, and seven have been added by baptism.—Oh-Iong has not made very much apparent progress during the year; only twelve have been baptized. This is accounted for by the fact that we had, from certain circumstances, been compelled to abandon our little chapel there, and remove several miles away to another place. We have again returned, and God has wonderfully provided a suitable chapel for us in the old village.

The NING-TAIK district now contains twelve out-stations, in most of which considerable interest has been manifested during the year.—At Chek-Tu there have been nine baptisms, and the people have shown a great readiness to listen to the public preaching of the Word. The severe opposition of former years seems to have subsided a little.—Lek-Tu also has made an advance; nine have been baptized, and the people show an encouraging willingness to listen.—The older stations of Sioh-Chuo, Ting-Sang-Ka, Ni-Tu, and Sioh-Iong, have not been destitute of encouragement; though the number of baptisms at these places have been very small, compared with former years. A large class of women has been formed at Sioh-Chuo by the intelligent and energetic young wife of the Catechist in charge, who is a daughter of our beloved brother Su, just departed. The congregation at Sioh-Chuo continues steady, and several have this year joined the inquirers' class.—The flock at the comparatively new station of Chung-Iong has greatly increased during the year, and twenty-one have been baptized. Here also the Catechist's wife, assisted by a very excellent Bible-woman, has formed a class for women, and a large number attend, and altogether a most deeply interesting work is being carried on at this station.—Other surrounding villages have asked for teachers, but we have found it impossible to comply with their requests. Our object is, if possible, to open a station as a centre of light to many surrounding villages, and not to send a Catechist, even if we could afford it, to every village that may ask for a teacher.

progress in Fuh-Kien.

The progress in the KU-CHENG districts, though not so striking as last year, has given us much encouragement and cause for thankfulness to God. Persecution has continued more or less all the year round. A good deal of excitement has been produced by the hostile attitude of the new magistrate towards the Christians; and a large number of those, who last year had placed themselves under Christian instruction at the various stations have left us in consequence. But a goodly company of men and women have continued with us.

The city of Ku-Cheng, the head-quarters of the central district in this Hien, had had the advantage of the judicious and energetic labours of the Rev. Ting-Sing-Ki during the year. The city congregation has been enlarged by forty-eight baptisms, though a good many inquirers and candidates for baptism who worshipped with us in the church at the beginning of the year, left before the end.—There are altogether fifty out-stations in the entire Ku-Cheng Hien, twenty-six of which are within the central district, and are carefully superintended by Mr. Ting. The progress made in some of these stations has been much greater than in others,

Continued but very few have been altogether destitute of interest and progress in encouragement, while in several of them the Lord has been Fuh-Kien. manifestly working.—At Ngu-Tu a very great interest has been excited, and the number of inquirers have increased during the year to eighty or ninety. More than forty men attend regularly at the service, and keep the Sabbath, and have become candidates for baptism. Recently three influential men have joined this number of learners. These men just mentioned had taken a leading part in the collecting of funds for the erection of a large idol temple in the neighbourhood. They were the moving spirits in its erection, but when it was nearly completed they declared it to be the work of the devil, and abandoned it altogether. They attended the services and prayer meetings in the chapel, and placed themselves on the list of candidates for baptism. They now attempted to undo the work which they had been the chief instruments of inaugurating. They tried to persuade the people to pull down the temple, and even made an attempt themselves to lead in its demolition. In this, however, they failed. These three men had frequently heard the truth from the catechists and exhorters; and no other motive can be discovered for their sudden conduct, after all the trouble they had taken in connexion with the temple, except that which they themselves declare, viz. that they had discovered the truth to be with the Christians! The catechist here is one of our late students, and a very earnest and intelligent young man. His wife also is doing a very good work among the women, forty of whom have formed themselves into a class under her instruction. Both of them in their heathen state, practised the “curious arts” of necromancy, but when they became converted some years ago, they, like the Ephesians of old, who “used curious arts,” brought the collection of their valuable books together, and burned them. Nineteen have been baptized during the year at Ngu-Tu.—Sek-Lek-Tu is another station in this district in which much encouragement and success have been vouchsafed. The little chapel has become too strait for the numbers who now attend. Twelve have been baptized this year, one of whom is a literary graduate. The friendly feeling manifested here by all classes in the village towards Christianity is also very encouraging. It was recently proposed by the Rev. Ting that one of the usual monthly district meetings of workers should be held at this station, instead of at Ku-Cheng city. The chapel being too small for such a gathering, one of the head-men of the village, a heathen, at once came forward and offered the use of one of the large Ancestral Halls for the meeting. He removed all the idols and other insignia of idolatry out of sight, and undertook at his own charges the expense of getting it ready for the occasion.—At Ku-Long also, considerable interest has been manifested, and many from the surrounding villages have placed themselves under instruction. The catechist, the old Ang-Long tailor, has been The Ang-busily employed during the year superintending and teaching the Long tailor. various classes which have been formed in three or four of these villages.—The Lau-Ah congregation has not given us the encouragement this year that we had at one time anticipated from it. A few have been baptized; but two unworthy members have been expelled.

The Southern district of Ku-Cheng, of which Ang-Long is the centre, contains twelve stations.—The progress at Ang-Long has been steady and satisfactory during the year. Twenty-eight have been admitted to baptism, and there are at present a fair number of inquirers and candidates. Most of the stations Continued of this district have made decided progress during the past progress in year, and fill us with hope.—Cho-Long, a comparatively new Fuh-Kien. station, having been opened only twelve months, has a class of forty inquirers, twenty of whom are ready for baptism on the next visit of the missionary.—Tong-Liang has given us much anxiety and sorrow, and also much cause for thankfulness, during the year. The head-man, who was one of the duly constituted gentry class of the district, became a believer in Christ some two years ago. His eldest son also believed and manifested great interest in the spread of the truth in his immediate neighbourhood. Remark- The father, as soon as he was converted, determined to build a able an- church in his village, which he did principally at his own expense. swer to prayer. It was finished about the beginning of May last; and we were invited by our dear friend to come and formally open the church for divine service. This we did on Sunday, May 13th. There was a very nice congregation; and after the second lesson I baptized two adults and two children, the latter being the youngest son and grandson of our friend. Mr. Lloyd and myself were filled with joy at what we had been privileged to see and take part in, and left the village greatly encouraged with reference to the progress of the Lord's work in this place. During the summer the interest increased, and between forty and fifty individuals attended the services in the new church. Our friend was full of enthusiasm, and about the end of September came down to Fuh-chow to consult with me about plans for a school which he wished to establish in his village. I promised to do what I could to forward his views, and to bring the matter before the conference, which was to assemble early in October. He made his appearance at the conference, but the same evening was attacked with cholera, and notwithstanding all our efforts to save him, died the following afternoon (Sunday), full of peace and faith. His eldest son was with him the whole time. His death was a great sorrow to us all, and filled us with anxiety on account of his wife and younger son. These members of his family never believed in the Saviour, and they were rather violently opposed to the erection of the church, and all the other plans in favour of Christianity which the father and his eldest son inaugurated. Now that her husband was about to be taken home dead to her from Fuh-chow, we fully expected that both she and her younger son would take some violent measures against Christianity and against the eldest son, and greatly hinder the interesting work going on in the neighbourhood. The conference earnestly prayed on Sunday evening for the widow and her younger son. In public and in private they were constantly prayed for, and God was asked to turn this apparent calamity into a great blessing to His own cause in Tong-Liang, and to the family of our deceased brother. On the following Thursday morning, accompanied by several of the Christians, the funeral procession commenced its mournful journey to the distant village of Tong-Liang, among the wild and romantic mountains of Ku Cheng. The poor woman was overwhelmed with grief on receiving her husband's corpse. But our prayers respecting her and her younger son have been signally answered. She never uttered a word of reproach, except against herself, for not having attended to her husband's exhortations to her to become a Christian while he was alive. "He is now gone to heaven," she said, "I must strive to go there too." Her younger son is also wonderfully subdued, and both are earnestly striving to become Christians. The poor widow especially shows great anxiety, and exhorts all who are within her influence to become Christians and prepare for heaven.

The Eastern district of this Hien has not been so encouraging this year. Sang-Iong-Chong is the head-quarters of this Missionary district. There are only six stations open in this district. Most of the Christians, about fifty in number, belong to the village of Li-Iong, where at present there is no chapel. The converts walk to Sang-Iong to service, about four English miles. The work at Li-Iong was at one time full of hope, and even still is not without encouragement; but persecution has been so severe and persistent, that many became alarmed, and disheartened, and discontinued to attend the church. Among the Christians of Li-Iong, however, there are several very earnest men who have made real sacrifices for the cause of Christ.

The district of Kiong-Ning-Fu is under the superintendence of the Rev. Ting, the Native Missionary at Ku-Cheng. At present it contains only two stations, which on the whole have given us encouragement during the year. The opposition of the gentry and officials of this Fu has been very great; but our reception by the people everywhere has been most cordial and pleasant. We have been expelled from the city of Kiong-Ning-Fu, and at present I can see no prospect of a reoccupation of this most important place. But we are determined by the help of God to draw our missionary lines closely round the walls of this hostile city, by planting stations in its densely populated villages, as God may give us the means and opportunity for doing so.

The Long-Ping-Fu district is superintended by a catechist. It contains seven stations. Most of these were occupied towards the end of last year. We are still kept out of possession of our chapel in the city of Long-Ping. As the work in most of these stations is comparatively new, the progress is naturally slow. The people, however, are friendly, and received the catechist very cordially.—At the older station of Nang-Sang the progress has been considerable, and about thirty meet together on Sundays and other occasions to worship God. The opposition of last year has completely subsided. The people, now that they know something of Christianity, are not so easily led away and deceived by the hostile representations of the gentry. Nang-Sang is a large and important place, and should Christianity take root here, it would have an influence on all the surrounding districts.—The station of Chong-Hu-Pwong, within the same district, has given us much anxiety, and has called forth much prayer during the year. The opposition from the leading gentry has been most bitter and persistent, and the hopeful and promising work commenced here about thirteen months ago has been completely stopped. It is a very large place, and we still hold on, hoping almost against hope. Not one now dares to come to our chapel, and the catechist is much discouraged. The gentry have put out placards threatening death against any one who should become a Christian.

Fierce opposition to the Gospel from Chinese gentry.

The district of Hok-Ning-Fu, still confined within its city walls, has been under the charge of the Rev. Tang. We have not been able to occupy any of the large towns or villages in this district during the year, chiefly from want of the suitable men, but also from the want of sufficient money. Romanism abound in the large villages in its northern parts. The first-fruits have already been gathered in the city of Hok-Ning-Fu. Four have been baptized this year, and several others attend the services and profess to keep the Sabbath. Compared with most of the other cities embraced by our mission in this province, the success vouchsafed in this city has been encouraging, and the interest seems deepening every visit we make to it. One of the converts brought to Christ in this place died early in the year, and left behind him a cheering testimony of his faith in Christ.

Hopeful beginning at Hok-Ning-Fu.

The Lieng-Kong district has given us very little encouragement during the year. The city has proved a barren field. There has not been a baptism here during the year. Preaching in the chapel and in the streets has been carried on with more or less activity, but no results have appeared.—There are five stations in this district besides the city. Two of these have been only very recently occupied.—At the Tau-Ka station, a very interesting work was commenced about two years ago. A large number attended regularly the little chapel, and much real interest was manifested by the people. But here, as in so many other places, the gentry by their threats and opposition—and in this instance backed up by the officials—have frightened away the people from the chapel, and are now endeavouring to turn us out of the place. Yet in face of all this opposition a few have boldly confessed Christ, and have been admitted by baptism into His Church.—At Tang-Iong there have been seven baptisms during the year, and there are several inquirers. But the Christians have not manifested that spiritual life which we earnestly desire to see in them. The church at this place has been finished during the year. The magistrate of the district at first refused to allow the sacred name of Jesus to be placed over the entrance, and summoned the catechist before him, demanded of him by what authority he erected the chapel at Tang-Iong, and threatened to have it taken down. I at once wrote to this official, stating that he could take the chapel down if he were so minded—that of course the Christians would not resist his authority, but reminding him at the same time that the toleration of Christianity was provided for by the laws of the Empire. We heard no more threats from him of pulling down the chapel.

Hing-Wha-Fu.—This is a district south of the Min and only recently occupied. It lies on the way to our Taik Wha district, and is one of the most thickly populated districts in the province. We occupy at present two stations, one in the Fu city, another in Hang-Tau. The latter is a very large town, having a much greater population than the city itself. There have been four baptisms at Hang-Tau during the year, and at present there is a class of between thirty and forty inquirers. There are seven inquirers in the city station. Hing-Wha is the stronghold of Buddhism in Fuh-Kien. In all its large towns and cities there are large and beautiful Buddhist temples, which are kept in capital repair, and are constantly filled with the devotees of Sik-Kia (Sakya Mûni or Gautama).

The Taik-Wha district contains three stations, viz., Taik-Wha city, Pe-Hu, and Ku-Iong. Taik-Wha city has not been very successful during the year, but Ku-Iong and Pe-Hu, especially Pe-Hu, have manifested some interest in the truth. There are six inquirers, and two baptized at Ku-Iong, and a class of thirty five candidates and inquirers at Pe-Hu. Ten have been baptized during the year at Pe-Hu, and altogether the work in this region promises to be very successful in the future.

The city and district of FUH-CHOW still present a hard surface and a barren soil. Only one has been added to the church this year by baptism from heathenism. Preaching has been carried on in the chapels and streets by the catechists and students, but the huge city of Fuh-chow still turns a deaf and indifferent ear to the message of salvation. But we hope now that as one of our number takes sole charge, and gives his undivided energies to the training of the large number of students, the city work, at least as far as the C.M.S. is concerned, will be brought into greater prominence, and we hope, with the blessing of God upon our efforts, prosecuted with greater success.

SPEAKING of the combined districts of NINGPO, SHAO-HING, and HANG-CHOW, BISHOP RUSSELL observes :—

The number of substantially built churches in this province up to the present time, connected with the Church Missionary Society, in which Divine Service is celebrated in almost as due form as in our churches at home, is nine—four in the city of Ningpo, one in Z-Ky'i, one in Kwun-hæ-we, two in Shao-hing, and one in Hangchow. These churches seat on an average about 150 persons each. In addition to them the C.M.S. has twenty smaller places—rooms—scattered about the province, principally in the vicinity of Ningpo, Shao-hing, and Hang-chow, which will accommodate about fifty persons each, in which Divine Service is also regularly, though not so formally conducted. When I call to mind the fact that all these stations have been opened, most of them with considerable difficulty, these churches built and these rooms set apart for the worship of Almighty God since the commencement of the Society's work in this province, not quite thirty years ago, and with an instrumentality altogether inadequate for such a vast undertaking, I am compelled to exclaim, even as regards these external matters, "What hath God wrought?"

NINGPO.

BISHOP RUSSELL writes :—

The first thing of importance connected with our affairs in this province which I have to bring before your notice is the meeting of the Native Church Council in the month of February. The following minutes of this meeting were taken by Mr. Bates, and will give you some idea of our present ecclesiastical position.

Ningpo
Native

"Ningpo, February 21st, 1877 (8th day of the 1st moon of the 3rd year of the reign of the Emperor Kwông-fü). At ten o'clock a.m. Divine Service was held in Mr. Hoare's school-room. There were present the Bishop, the Revs. F. F. Gough and J. Bates, four Native ministers, four catechists and twelve lay representatives. Prayers were read by the Rev. F. F. Gough, and the Bishop delivered an address suitable to the occasion, selecting as his text Ephesians iv. 16. The address was followed by the administration of the Holy Communion. At two o'clock p.m. the Council reassembled. After prayer by Mr. Gough, the Bishop called upon the Secretary, the Rev. 'O Kwông-yiao, to read over the rules for the Council's guidance which had been approved and sanctioned at the previous meeting, which having been done, the Bishop recommended all the members to furnish themselves with copies of these rules for their information and direction. The Rev. F. F. Gough, as Treasurer of the Native Church Fund, then presented a statement of the contributions made to this fund during the past year, which amounted altogether to 184,620 cash—$175. The Bishop took occasion to compare these receipts with those of the previous year, showing that, while advances had taken place in some instances, there had been a falling off in others. . . . After various subjects had been discussed, the question as to the parties who shall be paid from the Native Church Fund was next considered. According to the Council's rules, only those Native pastors and catechists who are in charge of stations having at least ten Communicants are eligible. Taking, then, this rule as a guide, the Bishop stated that only four persons could probably come under this fund, viz. :—The Rev. Sing Eng-teh, Kwun-hœ-we; the Rev. Dzing Ts-sing, Ningpo; the Rev. 'O Kwông-yiao, Z-Kyi; Mr. 'En Kwông-tsing, Tong-un. It was decided that these four should in future be paid from the Native Church Fund."

Bishop Russell next refers to the opening of a new church near his own house. He writes :—

Having had myself to superintend the building of this edifice, ^{Erection} with a very slender acquaintance with church architecture, ^{of a} and with workmen under me who needed a considerable amount ^{church at} of watching as well as teaching, it has cost me the expenditure of more thought, time, and money than I care to admit. Kind friends, however, came to my aid both here and at home; and now, thank God, the work is finished to my great joy, with the exception of a small belfry, which I hope soon to put up, and all expenses paid for. On St. Andrew's Day (Nov. 30th) we had the great satisfaction of formally dedicating it to Almighty God, and at the same time of conducting in it an Intercessory service on behalf of Christian Missions. The following is a short account of the service, kindly written by Miss Laurence for insertion in one of the Shanghae papers :—

"The little church connected with the Church Missionary Society in Ningpo, towards the erection of which the Shanghai community have kindly contributed on different occasions, was opened on Friday, November 30th. Admission was by tickets, which were given to the foreign heads of the various missionary bodies represented in Ningpo, and was almost exclusively confined to full Church members, so that an interested adult audience was secured. The church measures fifty by thirty feet, and will comfortably seat two hundred persons. The pulpit, reading-desk, Communion-table, and chairs are all complete, and a small stone font stands in front of the Communion-rails. The whole cost is a little over $3000. The only want is an harmonium, which we hope to have supplied in time. The service, entirely in Chinese, consisted of a short special service lately compiled by the Bishop for such occasions, the usual morning prayer, with the introduction of special collects for the day of Intercession, and a sermon. The introductory service was read by the Bishop; morning prayer by the Rev. F. F. Gough; the lessons by two of the Native Clergy; and the sermon was preached by the Bishop. The various Missions were well represented by foreign as well as Native friends, who helped to make the singing hearty and harmonious. The Venite and Jubilate were fairly well sung; as were translations of the hymns, 'Jesus shall reign,' 'Hail to the Lord's Anointed,' and 'Jesus, engrave it on my heart.' The sermon, on 'To me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I might preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,' was listened to with marked attention."

In the city of Ningpo itself the Native Christians (including Catechumens and children) number 165. Of these, no fewer than ninety are Communicants. Four adults were baptized during the year. The Native Christians are connected with two churches, known respectively as Grace Church and Bishop Russell's Church. The pastor of Grace Church is the Rev. Dzing-Ts-Sing, of whom Mr. Gough speaks with much affection and esteem, characterizing his sermons as "spiritual and profitable." He was one of those to whose training the Revs. G. and A. Moule have given so much care.

Preaching to the heathen is kept up in various Mission-rooms and preaching-chapels in different parts of the city, by the Rev. Dzing-Ts-Sing and two or three Native lay-helpers. Mr. Dzing writes as follows :—

sions of a Native
Chinese clergyman
of the present condition
of the Ningpo
Mission.

When we look around us, it seems now as if there were some little symptoms of awakening. Ordinarily in the afternoons, or during the hot season in the evenings, we throw open the church-doors for preaching to the heathen. Amongst those who then come in, and those whom I meet with, there are some who still scoff at and slander us; yet there are often many who confess that their former ideas were mistaken, and allow that their past opposition was entirely wrong, so that there are not a few who gladly inquire into and openly praise the doctrine. . . . We see at present, in Ningpo city and the neighbourhood, all is peaceful, and there is no persecution; yet at the same time there is no advance in the Church. Is this peace because God is exerting His Providence, or is it because the preachers of the Gospel are not very earnest, and the devil is therefore quiet and does not raise any opposition? If this is the case, the present calm ought rather to be to us a cause of anxiety.

Mr. Gough's step-daughters conduct a boarding-school and three small day-schools, attended by both Christian and heathen children. Under their supervision a Chinese Bible-woman is also at work, earnestly, though sometimes cast down. Three candidates now under instruction for baptism were brought in by her instrumentality.

The Rev. J. C. Hoare, who has been appointed to the very important and deeply interesting work of training Native Christian agents for the Mission and the Native Church, writes as follows :—

At the commencement of the year we numbered ten students. Since that time our number has been raised to seventeen, exclusive of David Armstrong, whom you sent out last year [a Chinese youth converted in England]. Six of these are students of a suitable age for systematic theological training. They form the first class. The second class consists of boys of from seventeen to fifteen years of age, who have already laid the foundation of a good Scriptural knowledge. The third class are a group of small boys aged thirteen. All have been selected with care, special attention being paid to their knowledge of the Chinese classics and written language, without which a Native agent must necessarily be greatly hindered in his work. In the Scriptural training I employ the ordinary methods used in England [in addition to the Chinese plan of copious memoriter repetition], according to the ages and requirements of the students. The younger boys daily repeat large portions of Scripture, whilst the older students, who have already committed the whole of the New Testament and several books of the Old to memory, have been analyzing and otherwise studying the Epistles with me. In addition to this, we have a daily Bible-class of the whole college, in which we are reading through the Old Testament. When we pass beyond the Bible on to other subjects, our teaching has to be carried on almost entirely by means of lectures, there being scarcely any suitable text-books in the Chinese language. Greek has also been introduced ; but whether the experiment will be successful is regarded by some as at least an open question.

It is also our object to train the students in active work. One of them has been assisting in Mrs. Russell's school, close at hand. Others have been with me when I have gone out preaching, and I hope that we may be able to give all the older students practice in preaching and in teaching.

We do not forget the old maxim, "Mens sana in corpore sano." Cricket is entered into with the greatest zest. Partly owing, perhaps, to this healthy exercise we have been wonderfully free from fever and ague through a very wet season.

On the whole, though we have had our difficulties and trials, I cannot but look back on the year without the feeling of deep thankfulness. . . . The Lord Himself has been with us, teaching us all in a way that man can never do.

Of the Girls' Boarding-school Miss Laurence reports as follows :—

Our numbers have risen to twenty-six ; but they are mostly very young. I find it the best plan to admit them young, as they are generally more easily taught, and the parents are more willing to bind them to me for the required number of years. There have been no baptisms during this year, but I hope that two or three of the girls are seriously purposing to apply for the rite next year. The studies are still chiefly confined to Scriptural works ; and a great deal of time is given to various kinds of needlework.

Out-stations.

The out-stations number in all about sixteen, and belong to the four districts of (1) Saen-poh; (2) Saen-nen; (3) the Eastern Lakes; and (4) the Western Hills. (Saen-poh and Saen-nen lie to the north-west and north of Ningpo.) In the early part of 1877 these were under the charge of the Rev. J. Bates; but subsequently the sub-districts nearest to Ningpo, viz. those of Tsông-gyao, Gao-sen, and Tsong-tseng, were placed under the care of Mr. Hoare.

The statistics for the year give 139 Communicants, 330 Adherents, and sixteen adult baptisms; the corresponding numbers for the previous year being 147, 313, and nine.

Mr. Bates writes:—

I sincerely trust that most if not all our Native Christians are continuing steadfast in their profession according to the degree of light which they possess. I have endeavoured, during the past year, to build them up in the faith by special meetings for prayer and study of the Scriptures.

Slow progress in parts of China.

I often make inquiries among our catechists and Native Christians as to what the cause can be of our apparent slow progress. But they invariably have but one set of answers ready—the obstructive customs of the country, prejudices against foreigners, and false rumours against Christianity. Whilst acknowledging that there is much truth in such views, one cannot help feeling tired and disheartened in listening to them. “Is anything too hard for the Lord?” . . . Rather ought we first to look into our own hearts, examine our modes of working, and see if anything be amiss there, and then betake ourselves in humility and confidence to the Throne of Grace.

SHAO-HING.

The Missionaries at this station at the beginning of 1877 were the Rev. J. D. Valentine and the Rev. R. Palmer. These brethren each take charge of a separate district, the districts being designated by the churches at their respective head-quarters—Christ Church for Mr. Valentine, and St. Saviour's for Mr. Palmer.

To Mr. Valentine the year has been one of some trial and disappointment. No adult has been baptized during the year; nor has there been any addition to the Communicants. The present number of Communicants in Mr. Valentine's district is 12, and of Adherents 27. After speaking of some things that have caused him sorrow, Mr. Valentine continues:—

At the same time I must allow that the Sunday services have been as fairly attended as in any previous year; that the contributions of Native Christians have been as liberal as one could expect; that the progress made by the two students under my care has been somewhat gratifying; and that the few children we have been able to gather together have learnt a little of Christian truth that may hereafter make them "wise unto salvation."

In my catechumens' class I have now three persons: one is the wife of one of our Church members, the other two are young men in our employ. I am afraid to be too sanguine about them, but pray earnestly that they may be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

The two young students above referred to in my preparandi class are, I believe, both of them really converted men. Besides studying, they have each had a fair amount of preaching to do. I have now a monthly meeting which they and the senior catechist attend, and which is refreshing to the soul.

My little printing-press has been kept at work during the year printing books in the Roman character for Ningpo and for this Mission.

The Native Christians connected with St. Saviour's, Mr. Palmer's district, are only seven in number, two of these being Communicants, and do not give much manifestation of zeal or spiritual life. Four adults, however, were baptized during the year.

Bishop Russell thus describes the dedication of Mr. Palmer's church (the Church of our Saviour):—

On Thursday, October 11th, I had also the pleasure of dedicating another church, built by Mr. Palmer, about the same time as my own, not far from his residence in the city of Shao-hing. It is a pretty edifice, with belfry and all the usual appendages of an English church complete. The cost exceeded mine by at least $1000. The whole was collected amongst his friends at home with the exception of a grant of 100*l.* from the S.P.C.K. We had an interesting service, commencing with a short dedicatory form read by myself, then morning prayer by Mr. Palmer, lessons by Mr. Gough and Mr. Valentine, and sermon by me on Matt. xviii. 20, "Where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them." The congregation consisted of adult members of the three Protestant denominations represented in Shao-hing, who, after the conclusion of the service, were hospitably entertained by Mr. P. at an excellent feast, and then left highly gratified with the day's proceedings. On the following Sunday I had the pleasure of administering the rite of confirmation to twelve of Mr. Palmer's and Mr. Valentine's Church members.

Immediately after the dedication, Mr. Palmer was struck down by dysentery, and was compelled to leave first for Shanghai, then for Japan, and finally for England.

One or two of the Native Christians attached to Mr. Palmer's district, belong to the out-station of Si-bu, where preaching (to the heathen) has been regularly maintained once a week, and a large number of the people have gained some knowledge of the elementary truths of the Gospel. A Native helper has also visited many of the villages in the district, and reports a general readiness of the people to listen to the Gospel and to buy copies of the New Testament.—Itineration has been impeded partly by the weather and partly by the failure of Mr. Palmer's health.

Mr. Palmer has met with friendliness and courtesy from the Chinese of all classes during the year, including the Mandarin himself.

HANG-CHOW.

The Rev. A. E. Moule and Dr. Galt laboured at this station during the year under review, being joined in the latter part of it by the Rev. J. H. Sedgwick, transferred hither from Hong-kong.

Mr. Moule, in his Annual Letter, speaks first of various matters which are to be deplored, and which call for earnest prayer. Such are—the religious apathy among the heathen—some cases of inconsistency among Native Christians, and of falling away among inquirers—the parent Society's straitened condition financially, leading as this did to Mr. Elwin's detention in England—and lastly, the strong divergence of opinion and feeling among European Missionaries respecting the term-question. Mr. Moule has also passed through deep sorrow in the loss of a beloved mother, whose affection and prayers were to him a tower of strength and a source of much consolation.

Matters for thanksgiving, however, have been neither few nor small. Mr. Moule writes:—

Encouragements
at Hang-chow.

Our Encouragements, are—(1) health granted to myself, enabling me to continue at my work throughout the year; (2) the absence of rumour and disquiet among the Chinese—a state of things in very marked contrast to the well-nigh frantic panics of the summer of 1876; and (3) there have been no deaths amongst our Christians. But (4thly) and chiefly, through God's guidance and merciful help, we have been enabled very considerably to extend our work. Whereas, twelve months ago, we had, in the city, only two places for evangelistic preaching (viz. the vestry of our Mission church opening on to the street, and the hospital chapel, open twice a week), we have now four, Dr. Galt having enlarged his hospital porter's lodge so as to seat about twenty persons, and I myself having opened a book-shop, with an inquirer's room, in the great street of the city. Then, again, twelve months ago, we had only one preaching-room outside the city; but now we have four, viz. (1) a little room, three miles from my house, beyond the Periwinkle Gate; (2) the house at Pondhead or Dan-de; (3) a small Mission-house in the district city of Fu-yang, thirty miles up the Tsien-tang River; (4) a room at Da-Kyien-Ay'i (Great Valley Stream) in the Chu-ki district, sixty-five miles due south of Hang-chow. A year ago we had a foot-hold in only two districts, namely, the Siau-shan and Wu-khang hiens; now we have work in four, namely, Siau-shan, Wu-khang, Chu-ki and Fu-yang, and "beckonings" from two others, Sin-ching and Lung-yiu. At Fu-yang we encountered much opposition at first, the landlord being threatened with violence, and the city being placarded with notices warning the people against dealings with foreigners. The magistrate, however, behaved honourably, and issued a suitable proclamation. I have recently secured better premises, and Dr. Galt hopes to visit the station occasionally, and to prescribe for out-patients. (5) God has granted us (utterly unworthy as we are) some tokens of His blessing in connexion with almost all our agencies. At Dan-de (see map), our first out-station, there are interesting inquirers. One man, named Wang, a native of Canton, who came into this neighbourhood sixteen years ago, in command of a small body of troops, and who since has engaged in trade, has heard, and we trust has received, the Gospel at Dan-de. His hope is to learn something of foreign medical practice from Dr. Galt, and then to settle down in the district city of Lung-yu (see map), about 150 miles up the river, where his mother is living, and there to preach the Gospel as a voluntary agent. Then, again, the little preaching-room, outside the Lo-s (Periwinkle) gate has been the indirect cause of a most hopeful and interesting movement. A man from Da-Kyien-Ay'i (Great Valley Stream), a village in the Chu-ki district, sixty-five miles south of Hang-chow, was attracted, on a visit to the city, by the words "Holy Religion of Jesus" written in Chinese characters over the door of the Mission-room. Having been directed for explanation to the catechist, he remained in Hang-Chow for a fortnight, studying the Bible and conversing with the Christian teachers. Declaring himself a believer in the Gospel, he returned to his home with the expressed intention of, for a time, concealing his newly-found faith. His observance of the Lord's day, however, brought the truth to light; and to his joyful surprise his kinsmen showed no ill-will, but themselves became inquirers. Nineteen in all have been baptized in this village. Fierce persecution, however, has begun, and I ask for prayer on behalf of this infant Church. Then, again, in the Book-shop, although there has not been much bookselling, yet, in the five months since its opening, two interesting inquirers have appeared as the fruit of the conversations held there. One of these is a "centurion" in the Tartar garrison, an officer who was distinguished, two years ago, for drunkenness and violence. He subsequently reformed his character, and had become remarkable for gentleness towards his men, for abstinence from wine, and for general respectability: but, more than this, he seems to hear, and to embrace with real interest and intelligence, the blessed news of salvation through the Lord Jesus. He has been several times to church. His wife is much interested in religion, and the officer himself is pointed at and sneered at in the garrison as a Christian.

The number of baptisms [26 adults and five children] is more than treble that of 1876; the Communicants have increased from twenty-nine to thirty-six; the number of Christian adherents is nearly double that of 1876 [amounting on 30th September, 1877, to 102], (and since September 30 more than twenty new inquirers and catechumens have come forward); and the Native contributions have increased.

The Hospital under Dr. Galt has received about 200 opium patients and forty-five general patients, besides administering relief to nearly 4000 out-patients. Mr. Moule and the Catechist come regularly to address the patients on religious subjects. Mr. Tai, the Chinese Christian artist, often converses with the patients on religious subjects; as also Dr. Galt's Chinese Christian pupil. Many of the patients seem to have been impressed; and five of their number confessed their faith in Christ by receiving baptism.

SHANGHAE.

At SHANGHAE the work is conducted by the Rev. T. McClatchie and three Native Christian assistants. The Adherents number altogether 64, of whom fourteen are Communicants.

Nothing of special interest has occurred during the year.

PEKING.

The Rev. W. H. Collins writes as follows:—

In the city our prospects seem very dark. In the early part of the year we admitted more than the usual number to the outward and visible Church, but I grieve to say the greater part of these have proved themselves unworthy. I do not think they were insincere in their profession, but they have been unable to resist subsequent temptation.

Our country station gives more satisfaction. There we have added six to our numbers, and have not had to complain of their falling away, as in the city. It may be that the temptations in the country are fewer, but there seems to be a greater earnestness among our members there. We are continually attempting to enlarge the area of our country work, and hope, next year, to be able to report greater success.

Mr. Collins's colleague, the Rev. W. Brereton, has been chiefly engaged in the study of the colloquial. About the close of the year he began to experience the great joy of being able to tell the story of redeeming love so as to be understood by his Chinese hearers.

General.

THE progress in Japan is encouraging. The number of Native Christians connected with the Society now amounts to eighty-eight; and there have been eighteen adult baptisms during the year just concluded.

The evidences and claims of Christianity are frequently discussed in the Japanese newspapers; and letters written by Native advocates of the truth are freely inserted. The suppression of the Satsuma rebellion, and the publicly announced intention to withdraw State aid from Shintoism and Buddhism, are regarded by the Missionaries as auspicious events.

The portions of Holy Scripture now translated into the Japanese language are the earlier chapters of Genesis; the four Gospels; the Epistles to the Romans, Galatians, and Hebrews; and the Epistles of St. John.

Miss Laurence, of Ningpo, who has recently visited Japan to recruit her health, writes:—

Secular
progress
in Japan and character of the Ja-
people.

The secular progress in Japan is very wonderful. In Yedo, or, as it is now called, Tokio, a first-class education in every conceivable branch of knowledge is within reach of every young man of moderate abilities. Foreign systems of education are being adopted throughout the country, even in remote villages; and the women share to a great extent the advantage of education. I met troops of girls coming out of the Native day schools, with their bundles of books.

The people at first sight are doubtless more attractive than our poor dear slow Chinese. Exceedingly cleanly in their persons, graceful in their dress, displaying great taste in their houses and gardens, genuine lovers of pleasure and beauty in every form, they much more easily adopt foreign habits, and assimilate themselves to foreigners. One thing which struck me very much was the absence of quarrelling and fighting; and I was told that there was very little of either in the schools. Politeness characterizes even the Japanese coolie. But there is a dark side to the picture. Fickleness and inordinate self-conceit are the roots of bitterness from which many a troubling plant may yet spring up.

TOKIO (YEDO).

The Rev. J. Piper writes as follows:—

Our Christians have been regular at the Sunday Services and come pretty well to our Thursday evening Bible class. We have enjoyed the Holy Communion monthly, and all our hearts, I trust, have been drawn together in the bonds of Christian fellowship. There are two features in our little flock which especially encourage us. (1) They begin to associate with and visit each other because of their common faith; and (2) the majority of our married Christians have partners who also have embraced the truth—thus they help each other.

There have been seven Baptisms—five adults and two children.

We have been much pleased and comforted to watch the progress of the above persons, whose ages range between twenty-eight and thirty-eight years, in their search after and interest in the Gospel.

As regards preaching to the Heathen, although our chapel has not been so well attended this year as last, we have had good audiences almost every time I preached. The thinner attendance is easily accounted for. The civil war in the south-west of Japan, which lasted seven or eight months, unfavourably affected certain classes of the people in their attitude towards the Gospel. Then the partial closing of a bridge for general traffic near our house, and the opening in its stead of another some distance off, has diverted from us the stream of passers-by.

Besides our regular services in the chapel, I have made several excursions into the outskirts of the city, distributing tracts and telling of Jesus.

Mr. Piper has had many conversations with inquirers, and has also been engaged in literary and translational work.

NAGASÂKI.

The Native Adherents at this station are twenty-nine in number, of whom thirteen are Communicants. Six adults were baptized during the year. The Rev. H. Maundrell, under date 22nd December, 1877, writes :—

Mission-work has had to be conducted under some disadvantages, during the year now drawing to a close, in Nagasâki, on account of its proximity to the disaffected provinces. The services and preaching at Deshima church, however, have continued uninterruptedly. The attendance has averaged from twenty to fifty on Sundays, and rather less on weekdays. But more than formerly of those who do come are inquirers.

I thank God, also, for the regular, and, I think, appreciative, attendance of the Native Christians at both the ordinary services and the Holy Communion. Five men have been baptized; but owing to the unsettled state of the country, about the same number are no longer with us.

In reference to the need of special preparation for those intending to become schoolmasters, catechists, or ordained ministers, you will be glad to know that the building for which the Committee made me a grant has been finished, and that it was opened on St. Andrew's Day. Three young men are admitted as students. Another is equally desirous of becoming a teacher; but his (as yet heathen) wife and parents do not sympathize with him in this desire, so for the present he is a non-resident student. While I am writing this, they are sitting before me in the class-room of the College, writing their first examination paper—one on Genesis and Exodus. . . . knowledge of it will admit them to the sciences, as well as being invaluable to them in the study of theology and Church history. They come to me with the advantage of having had a fair Japanese education.

OSAKA.

The Rev. C. F. Warren, under date 9th January, 1878, writes :—

It is cause for devout thanksgiving to the King of kings, who ruleth over all, that the civil war which has darkened the year just closed, with its attendant bloodshed, destruction, and misery, is at an end. Japan is at last a united empire.—It is remarkable how little our work in Osaka has been affected by the war, no difficulty has been placed in the way of gatherings for Christian work or worship in the Native city. Surely we may see here the finger of God.

Until August 23rd our Church Services were held in the little chapel erected three years ago, or, when that was not available, in a room. They are now carried on in the new church, which was opened on that day. During the year 1877 there were two Sunday services, and one on Thursday evening. Since the opening of the new church the averages have shown a decided and cheering increase.—The Holy Communion has been regularly administered. The Native Communicants, six in number, seem to be growing in knowledge and grace, and in power to bear witness for Christ.—The growth of the Sunday afternoon Bible-class, and the intelligent interest manifested in the subjects under consideration, are most hopeful signs. The last quarter of the year shows an average attendance of just twenty. Some of the classes have been of very great interest, both the matter and tone of the remarks made by our Native brethren being cheering and edifying. Each class is commenced with a hymn, after which I offer an extempore prayer. After the lesson one of the Native Christians always closes with extempore prayer.—The Catechumens' Class has been held with but few interruptions during the year. A number of those under instruction at the beginning of the year, and who subsequently joined the class, have gone back. Thank God, some very hopeful candidates remain, whom we hope to baptize shortly.—In July I commenced a Weekly Class for Women, both baptized and catechumens. The average attendance has been from eight to ten. Lessons on fundamental truths, chiefly founded on the Apostles' Creed, have formed the course of instruction. Mrs. Warren always joins us. My heart has been cheered again and again at the clear apprehension of truth, and the apparent love for it, manifested by these women.

Conversations in the chapel or church with inquiring visitors have been continued, though not without interruptions, owing to the pressure of other duties. For several months the number of visitors was almost overwhelming.

We have hitherto been unable to form a regular class of theological students, but have commenced working in that direction with such material as we have at hand. At present I meet two of our Christians twice a week to study the Old Testament; and Mr. Evington has a weekly class for the study of the Gospels.

I am thankful to be able to report that the bond of union between all Protestant Missionaries here not only continues unbroken, but is evidently growing in strength. It has never been my lot to dwell in the midst of a body of men of different views, who seemed to love one another so fervently in the bonds of Christian fellowship as do the missionaries in this district. The Day of Intercession was the occasion of a recent manifestation of it. At 9 a.m. Christians connected with the American Episcopal Mission, American Board Mission, and the C.M.S. Mission, knelt together (both Missionaries and converts) at the same Lord's Table.

In a more recent communication Mr. Warren adds :—

I write a hasty line to inform you that of those formerly reported as under instruction, four men and three women were, on Sunday, the 10th March, admitted by baptism into the congregation of Christ's flock. We believe that their faith is both intelligent and sincere.

The Rev. H. Evington has also been diligently employed, chiefly in work of a directly Evangelistic character, in the chapel, in private houses in the city, and in the country villages.

The Native Adherents at Osaka are twenty in number, and the Communicants six, as stated above.

NIIGATA.

At this infant Mission station the Adherents are only five in number, three of these being Communicants. The Missionary (Rev. P. K. Fyson) writes as follows :—

There has been much to be thankful for in the conduct of those already baptized. Of the two young men who became converts last year, one was transferred to a situation in his own native town, and therefore, though I frequently hear from him, I am not so well able to judge what amount of spiritual progress he has made. The other, who stayed in Niigata, has given decided evidence of growth in grace, and has been a great help to me in the work in various ways.

During the present year there have been two baptisms—one an old man nearly seventy years of age, and one a young man, first brought by the old man ; the wife of the old man also I hope to baptize shortly. The old man himself is one whom I felt specially confident in admitting into the visible church. He had scarcely missed a single service, Sunday or weekday, for more than ten months before he was baptized. Also, he gave more evidence than any of the others of consciousness of his own sinfulness.

The local officials of Niigata seem to have an antipathy to Christianity. This is far from being always the case in Japan.

HAKODATI.

There are now nineteen Native Christian Adherents at Hakodati, of whom four are Communicants. The Rev. W. Denning will, it is hoped, have returned to the station before this Report is issued. The Rev. J. Williams, his colleague, wrote under date December 18th, 1877, as follows:—

It is now ten months since Mr. Denning returned to England. Having been in the country only three months, it was not to be expected I could fill the place of one who had resided three years in Japan ; but I am thankful to report progress.

Mrs. Williams and myself have struggled hard to master the language, and, though we cannot yet claim the victory, we do not acknowledge defeat. When Mr. Denning left Hakodati, I was not ready to conduct the various meetings which he had organized ; but most providentially, at this juncture, a Christian layman, who had himself recently found, or, to speak more correctly, been found by, the Saviour, volunteered to help us. We thankfully accepted the proffered aid ; and for three months Mr. Hellyer—for that was his name—took a Bible-class regularly twice a week. Strange to say, the numbers attending the classes became greater than in Mr. Denning's time, as though to rebuke our unbelieving fears. When business called away our friend from Hakodati, I commenced to take the classes myself, and have continued to do so regularly ever since.—Our catechist O—, who is quite a young man, only twenty-one, has laboured most earnestly to keep the work going, holding two classes during the week, and preaching every Sunday.—I made my first attempt at preaching within ten months of my arrival here, and since that time have preached as often as I conveniently could.—The average attendance at our services has been, I think I may safely say, fully 100.

The services at the out-station of Ono were discontinued throughout the summer, owing to the simple fact, that no one came to them, the farmers declaring themselves to be too busy in the fields all day to spare time for anything else. We have lately recommenced the services, and a fair number come together to hear the Word preached.

Three adults received baptism at our evening service on the 28th October. There were about 150 persons present, and I must say they were as attentive and well behaved as any congregation at home would have been under similar circumstances. All had been under instruction for some time, and all promise well. One of them (Daniel) is a soldier in the fort here. At first he seemed to be rather conceited; but, after a while, a great change came over him, he became very attentive in class, and his answers showed that he took a deep interest in the subject under discussion. He has often brought his comrades with him to class, and is not ashamed to ventilate his opinions before them. We pray that by God's grace he may become "a good soldier of Christ Jesus."

NEW ZEALAND MISSION.

(European Missionaries first arrived in New South Wales, 1810; proceeded to New Zealand, 1814; Mission confined to the Northern Island.)

DIVISION OF THE MISSION.

- I. Northern Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Auckland.
- II. Eastern Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Waiapu.
- III. Western Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Wellington.

In New Zealand, as in the Society's other Missions, the great question of Native Church Organization has met with much attention, and received many practical illustrations.

Very much interest will be attracted by the following article from the Auckland Church Gazette, headed Native Church Boards, and drawn up, it is believed, by the newly consecrated Bishop of Waiapu, Dr. Stuart:—

Native
Church Boards.

The Native Church Boards were constituted by a statute of the General Synod in 1868, and consist of the Bishop, or, in his absence, of his Commissary specially authorized, the licensed clergy, English and Native, ministering to Natives, and one or more Lay Representatives from every Native Parish or Parochial District. About the same time the Missionaries of the C.M.S. received instructions from the Committee in London for the formation of 'Native Church Councils,' differing but slightly in their constitution from the Church Boards, and with exactly the same objects, viz. the organization and self-government of the Native Church. As these Boards and Councils are almost identical in constitution and object, the provisions of the General Synod have been found sufficient.

The first Church Board of the Northern Archdeaconry met at Waimate on April 22, 1872, under the presidency of the Bishop. Since then annual meetings have been held at different places, and each one has been more interesting than its predecessor. Many of the Lay Representatives have to ride great distances to attend the Board, spending four or five days on the road. On the last occasion fifteen Lay members were elected, and all were at the Kaikohe meeting, though some had come from distances of sixty or a hundred miles.

The Boards have stimulated all to greater activity in Church work by giving each member of the congregation a voice in the administration of the Church funds. One has only to see the eagerness with which the proceedings of the Board are read, to be convinced of the utility of these annual meetings. The renewal of life in the Native Church in the Northern part of the diocese is mainly due, under God, to the increase in the staff of the Maori clergy, and to the establishment of the Church Board.

With regard to the late meeting of the Waimate Archdeaconry at Kaikohe, all who wish well to the Maori Church will be gratified to learn that with the exception of only one, every resolution originated with the natives, in witness of which fact were the many resolutions handed to the President written in pencil and on scraps of paper torn from soiled pocket-books. To those ignorant of the Maori manners and customs, some of those resolutions may appear almost frivolous but they emanate from the laudable desire of 'doing all things decently and in order.' On the first day of the Kaikohe meeting, sixteen notices of motion were given, and two select committees appointed. On the following day every point of each motion was fully discussed, and the concise reports of the committees would not have disgraced any civilized body.

The English portion of the Church in New Zealand might with advantage follow the example of the Maories in their loyalty to the Board, which is practically their Synod.

THE districts of KAITIA, WAIMATE, PAIHIA, and KAIPARA are all comprised in the Waimate Archdeaconry. The statistics (5265 Adherents, 880 Communicants) do not appreciably differ from those of last year. There are few, if any, professed heathen Maories left in these parts.

The Native Church of this Archdeaconry has suffered a very severe loss in the death of the Rev. Matiu Taupaki, Pastor of Paihia. The very high esteem that he had obtained may be judged of by the two following extracts. The first is from a letter written to an Auckland newspaper by its Paihia correspondent:—

It is with much sorrow that I write to inform you of the death, after a short illness, of our Maori minister, the Rev. Matthew Taupaki, who was taken away on the 11th of July. The immediate cause was bronchitis, the attack having been brought on by labouring at an oar, and then sitting still in the boat after making sail. The boating expedition was to carry his colleague in the ministry, Hare Peka (Charles Baker), who was lying sick in Matthew's house, to Kawakawa, for medical advice. Matthew's constitution had been, I believe, impaired by over-work. He had many districts under his charge, which he visited travelling on horseback, or pulling his own boat. Of an eager temperament, he would never forego the smallest detail of duty, but was everywhere at his post at the appointed time, reckless of exposure, and this upon a salary of 50*l.* a year.

It would be hard to say whether he was the most beloved by his English or by his Native parishioners. With the former he was as a personal friend, for they recognized in him one of Nature's gentlemen—simple-hearted, truthful, and without a thought for self. Among the latter, his word was law; and this, although he was a Rawara, isolated among Ngapuhi.

The second testimony is from Archdeacon Clarke himself, who writes:—

On my arrival I heard Matthew Taupaki was very ill. I went up to him immediately on landing. . . . Death was unmistakably stamped on his face. . . . His mind was beautifully bright and clear, and he spoke of dying without fear. I went up again after tea, intending to stay the night with him. At 9.45 his happy spirit left for its heavenly home. . . . Alas for the Native Church! how are we to fill his place? God only knows. As for myself, I feel that I have lost my right hand; of all our Native clergy he was the one we could have least spared. As a proof of the estimation in which he was held by the Missionaries, I may mention that at our last conference, while discussing the suggestion of the Committee in the matter of a Maori Bishop, he was spoken of as the only one eligible for the office.

Further details are given in a journal of the Rev. B. Y. Ashwell, of Waikato, who happened to be on a visit in that part of the island. Mr. Ashwell writes:—

Death of a Native
Pastor.

July 6th.—Hearing that my dear Native brother minister, Matiu Taupaki, was very ill, I went to see him. He was in great pain. I prayed with him, and he afterwards said to me, "God would not send pain if it were not necessary for us; He loves us too well—and you know 'God is love.'" "Yes," my reply was, "all His will is love." What a family likeness (if I may so express myself) in all God's children! The same language, "God is love," "He so loved us," &c. July 7th.—I again visited him. He was in great pain, but in much peace. He said to me, "Christ my rock and my salvation—no other name for lost sinners. Oh, speak of Him to my poor people!" July 9th.—I again visited him. I said to him, "Matiu, is Christ your only hope? His precious blood? His spotless righteousness?" He whispered, "Christ only! in whom we have redemption, through His blood, the forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace." July 12th.—Our dear Christian brother was buried at Paihia. About 100 Europeans and 100 Natives—200 in all—attended his funeral, a solemn and comforting service. July 29th.—I had native service.—Church quite full—all very attentive. . . .

NEW ZEALAND (NORTH ISLAND)

Whilst talking to some of the Natives, many came up and said, "The Church in Ngapuhi is dead. Our father, Matiu Taupaki, our dear, dear minister is gone, is gone, is gone, and there is no one like him." This they said with tears, and then came an outburst of genuine sorrow. I said to them, "Be not faithless, but believing, Christ, the living Head, cannot die. The bond between you and that dear Native minister is a real bond—an union for eternity."

The Rev. Meinata Te Hara, late of Kaitaia, takes Matiu Taupaki's place at Paihia, and will, the Archdeacon believes, prove a not unworthy successor.

Of the eight Native clergy labouring in the Archdeaconry at the close of 1877, three only were in priests' orders; but it is with the greatest satisfaction that the Committee hear that the five deacons were all to receive priests' orders in the January following. As regards self-support, temperance, general consistency of conduct, and attendance at the means of grace, the Archdeacon is able to give a favourable report. This report is fully confirmed by Mr. Ashwell, of Waikato, who has recently visited these districts.

The Rev. J. Matthews's Annual Letter from KAITAIA shows that, by the grace of God, he is able still to "bring forth fruit in" comparative "old age." It is replete with interest in other respects also; but there is not space for its insertion in these pages. One passage, however, of it may be referred to, in which he speaks of the forty unpaid lay-helpers in the district, "many of whom give evident proof of being good and sincere Christians, and are men of good preaching abilities, such as makes it a treat to hear them. They conduct Divine Service, according to the Prayer Book, in an orderly and intelligent manner." This may be held out as an example to the Native Christians connected with the Society's other Missions; whom it is necessary now to make acquainted with the fact that the pecuniary expenses of their public worship and pastoral care cannot with justice be supplied from the funds of a Missionary Society.

helpers.

The Native Christians of KAIPARA, numbering 300, are under the care of the Rev. F. T. Baker. Thirty of their number are Communicants. They are very much scattered, owing to their being employed in gum-digging. Religious services among them are frequently conducted by unpaid Native laymen.

WAIKATO.

The Rev. B. Y. Ashwell gives the interesting information

Work
among

that his faithful Native fellow-labourer, the Rev. Heta Tarawhiti, has paid two visits to the district where the so-called Maori king resides. He was well received; and the Maori king, though head of an organization for the spread of Hau-hauism, has invited other Natives, even Queenites, to reside in his neighbourhood, promising not to interfere with their worship. He would not, however, express his consent that an English Missionary should reside amongst them. The Kingite Natives are becoming more quiet and courteous in manner, though they still retain a strong feeling against the British Government.

Work
among Hau-haus.

Early in the present year Mr. Ashwell spent about three weeks in the immediate neighbourhood of the Hau-haus. His lodging-place was an inn close to a bridge over the Waipa river, which the Hau-hau Natives were frequently in the habit of crossing. Many of his old acquaintance and of the sons of his old acquaintance, came to see him. They were not unfriendly; but their feelings towards Christianity, especially among the younger men, were very painful. Yet the affectionate reasonings and entreaties of the Missionary, in which Christ crucified was evidently set forth, will not have been without effect. They acknowledge the Divine Trinity, but seem to regard their own Maori king as a superhuman being. The king himself, however, is said to be opposed to this view of his own dignity.

TAUPO.

The Committee have appointed the Rev. J. Sidney Hill, late of the Yoruba Mission, to co-operate with the Rev. T. S. Grace. Meantime Mr. Grace has been far from idle. He has visited the Kingite Natives, and has striven earnestly to remove their prejudices, to conciliate them to the Mission, and to set the Gospel before them. An account of his interesting visit to Opitiki will be found farther on.

II. Eastern Division.

Eight stations have been occupied in this division in the following chronological order:—1. Tauranga, 1835; 2. Rotorua and Maketu, 1835; 3. Turanga (now including Wairoa), 1840; 4. Waiapu (East Cape), 1842; 5. Heretaunga (Te Aute and Napier), 1844.

European Mission Establishment:

RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF WAIAPU (Dr. E. C. Stuart) (m), to North India, 1850; to New Zealand, 1876.

Ven. Archdeacon Alfred Nesbit Brown (m), 1829.
 Rev. Seymour Mills Spencer (m), 1841.
 Rev. Samuel Williams (m), (Honorary) 1846.
 Ven. Archdeacon William Leonard Williams, B.A. (m), 1853.
 Rev. George Maunsell, 1866.
 Mr. J. Thornton (m), to the Telugu Mission, 1864; to New Zealand, 1877.

THE recent widely-lamented death of Bishop Selwyn, the first Bishop of New Zealand, has been almost simultaneous with that of the venerable Bishop Williams, of Waiapu. For more than half a century Bishop Williams stood in the forefront of the battle, first with heathenism and then with the many evils that beset the Maori Church. He was, in fact, the apostle of the eastern districts of the island. The Committee unfeignedly rejoice at the election to the vacant see of their valued Missionary and late Secretary at Calcutta, the Rev. E. C. Stuart, and pray that a double blessing may rest on his labours.

TAURANGA, ROTORUA, AND MAKETU.

In speaking of the general state of the Native Church in his Archdeaconry (which includes these districts), Archdeacon Brown refers to the "sad indifference to spiritual matters manifested by the great body of the Natives, especially in those districts which have been most affected by the war." Drunkenness, he thinks, is diminishing; but scepticism, he fears, is on the increase.

The Rev. G. Maunsell is diligently at work among the Maories in the neighbourhood of TAURANGA. All of these were at one time Christians by profession, and attentive, on the whole, to religious ordinances. The war alienated them from the Society's Missionaries, and led them to secede from the Christian Church. At present the attendants at Divine Service, connected with the Mission, number 300. The remainder are (1) the Hau-haus; (2) Te Kooti's party; and (3) those that are indifferent to religion. The Hau-haus, though their system is widely discordant with Holy Scripture, willingly receive Mr. Maunsell's visits, and, indeed, urge him to come to them more frequently. The followers of Te Kooti are still more friendly, and are nearer to the truth. They take much of their worship from the Bible, chanting psalms and numerous texts; and in their prayers there occur such phrases as—"Enlighten us by Thy Holy Spirit;" "Wash away our sins in the blood of Jesus." But, on the other hand, they practically reject the sacraments, and keep their Sabbath on Saturday instead of Sunday. Among the third, or "indifferent" party, there are some signs of improvement. A few are beginning to attend public worship; and a considerable number of Bibles and Prayer-books have been sold among them. In their intercourse also with the Missionary, intolerance and dislike have changed to tolerance and personal regard. But the work is still arduous, and Mr. Maunsell much needs the prayers of God's people.

Sad as the condition of ROTORUA and MAKETU is, compared with days long gone by, the Rev. S. M. Spencer speaks without hesitation, of order reasserting itself among the Maories, of Gospel teaching being more highly prized, and of the schools as being well conducted and doing good service. Mr. Spencer also testifies to the increasing acceptability among the Maori Christians of their own Native Pastors.

The gospel preached to the murderers of Volkner.

In October, 1877, Mr. Grace (of Taupo) went to Opitiki, to set up a tombstone over the grave of the martyred Volkner. Large numbers of Maories, many of whom took part in the murder, and who still keep aloof from Christian ordinances, assembled on the occasion. "I stood," writes Mr. Grace, "on the very spot where, on March 6, 1865, I stood for many weary hours, being tried for my life, while many of those on whom I now gazed were there thirsting for my blood. They now sat before me quiet and subdued, thoughtful and grave, and I would hope, in many cases, penitent." He pleaded earnestly with them, telling them he desired not so much to call their sin to remembrance as to bring them to Christ.

WAIAPU, TURANGA, AND HERETAUNGA.

These districts belong to the Archdeaconry of the Ven. Leonard Williams, who reports, with thankfulness, a favourable and important reaction throughout the whole district. In temperance and in other respects there has been decided social amelioration. The demand for religious books, especially the Prayer Book, has been very great. Several churches have been built or repaired during the year, and nearly 170*l.* contributed for the endowment of Native clergy. Very few (if any) professed Hau-hatis are to be found in the Archdeaconry.—The two boarding-schools for boys at Tu Aute and girls at Napier are prospering. The nine day-schools set on foot by the Government are slightly improved; but the religious instruction of the Maori children is still inadequately provided for.

III. Western Division.

First occupied by Bishop Hadfield in 1839. It now comprises three stations: 1. Wanganui, 1840; 2. Otaki, 1842; 3. Wairarapa, re-occupied, 1877.

European Mission Establishment:

RT. REV. THE BISHOP OF WELLINGTON (m), 1838.
Rev. James McWilliam, joined in the Mission, 1874.

WANGANUI.

This district has for several years had but little of Evangelistic or pastoral effort bestowed upon it. This arose from the enfeebled health of the Missionary formerly in charge of it, the Rev. B. K. Taylor (who, however, was much loved by the Christian Natives), his removal by death in November, 1876, and the inability of the Society to supply any European successor. At the Auckland Missionary Conference a resolution was passed in favour of sending to the district a faithful and able Native brother, the Rev. W. Pomare. This does not seem to have been done. The Bishop of Wellington writes:—

In October last I had great satisfaction in admitting Arona Te Hana to Deacon's Orders at Otaki. He had been a student under the Rev. J. McWilliam. He proceeded immediately after his ordination to the WANGANUI district, taking up his residence at Putiki. Since his arrival there, he has spent the greater part of his time in visiting various parts of that populous district. At first, many attempts were made to persuade me that a Maori clergyman would not be well received in the district. I now learn that he has been everywhere well received, and that his energy and earnest manner of conveying instruction are commending him to all.

I hope to visit Wanganui in a fortnight, and to be able to induce the Natives there to do something towards making a permanent provision for one or more clergymen, but with what success I cannot say. I shall also hope, after consultation with Arona Te Hana, to initiate some plan of obtaining the co-operation of the more thoughtful Christian Natives to endeavour to revive religion among the people to the north of Wanganui. It is sad to think of the large population there at present totally neglected.

Acceptability of Maori clergymen among their own countrymen.

OTAKI.

The Rev. J. McWilliam is the Missionary of this station. It has pleased the Lord of the Harvest to accompany Mr. McWilliam's steady labours with tokens of blessing. Three Churches have been built during the year, almost solely by the Natives; and a marked improvement has taken place in almost every respect.

WAIRARAPA, one of the old C.M.S. districts, after many years' relinquishment, is occupied once again; now, however, not by a European Missionary, but by a Native Pastor and Evangelist. The Bishop writes:—

Acceptability of Maori clergymen among their own country-men.

The Rev. Pineaha Te Mahanariki is working well at Wairarapa. His labours seems to be highly appreciated, both by English and Natives. He worked for some time under many difficulties, having no house of his own, and there being no place of worship at any of the places at which the population could easily assemble. A house has now been set apart for his own use by a chief for an indefinite period, and a church is being erected near his residence at Tiroroere. I spent Christmas day with him and his people there, and administered the Holy Communion to twenty-seven persons.

MANITOBA.

THE Rev. R. Young, who now co-operates with Archdeacon Cowley as joint-corresponding Secretary of the Mission, still undertakes the pastoral duties of St. ANDREW'S. His Annual Letter gives an interesting, and on the whole a cheering, account of the congregation under his care. Though of mixed descent, it has long been exclusively Christian; and hence the application of the Society's money to its benefit may seem to be one of doubtful appropriateness. Mr. Young has accordingly called upon the congregation to furnish his own salary; and now that the grasshopper plague has passed away, it seems not improbable that this may be effected. During the summer a considerable number of Indian children attended Mr. Young's Sunday Schools; the wigwams and tents of the Indians, which during summer and harvest are scattered along the banks of the river, being specially visited for that purpose.

At the INDIAN SETTLEMENT the statistical returns show a decrease in the number of Native Christians, from 745 to 718. From what cause this arises does not appear. The mortality has been considerable, forty-four deaths; but, on the other hand, there have been six adult and thirty-nine infant baptisms. Their pastor, the Rev. G. Cook (a clergyman of mixed descent), writes:—

Not a few of our Christians have during the past year given satisfactory evidence of piety and spiritual growth. Many of them are within easy access of the rising village of Selkirk, with its ale-houses and pernicious influences. As yet, however, I have had no occasion to grieve over the fall of any of the more decided inquirers after the truth.—Death has been busy amongst us. Three of our Communicants, after a long and somewhat painful illness, passed from the Church militant to the Church triumphant, leaving behind them sufficient testimony of their faith in Christ Jesus.—On the 21st of October last we had the pleasure of presenting to our good Bishop fifty candidates, young and middle-aged, for confirmation.

FORT ALEXANDER.

Of LANSDOWNE Archdeacon Cowley writes:—

Lansdowne is still in charge of Mr. W. Dennet, a catechist; but the Rev. Patrick Bruce is to succeed him next spring. It is a pity Mr. Dennet's education is not equal to his piety; he has done, I think, nobly at his station, reading God's Word and praying with the people. If evidence of the success God has granted him were asked for, I think I might point to the action of the Roman Catholics placing two priests and a schoolmaster there to hold their own.

When the Parent Committee were considering, in the autumn of 1877, what reductions could be made in the Society's expenditure, inquiries were directed as to the possibility of retiring from FORT FRANCIS on Rainy River. In reference to this subject Mr. Phair writes:—

religious advance at Fort Francis.

The Indians of the Rainy River are well known as the most difficult portion of the Ojibbeway (Soto) tribe. Living along the line between British and American territory, their prejudices have been strengthened from long contact with the vices of white men; while their aversion to his religion is much greater than when Mr. Mason and others attempted to impress them many years ago. When I took charge of this district the Indians were in a transition state. Having ceded their lands to the Government, they had their minds filled with the loftiest expectations never to be realized. The reaction came, and, Indian-like, they said, not so much in their haste as in their folly, "All men are liars." Consequently tobacco was despatched by special messengers from band to band, requesting unanimous resistance of the new religion so much hated among them; and, worse than all, they easily found white men willing and ready to help them in their attempts to frustrate the Gospel. . . . I shall hardly ever forget the impression made upon me when several hundreds of naked savages, with guns and knives, came running down to the river to meet me. I had the greatest difficulty to obtain a hearing among them. Now the complaint often is: "The Catechist did not come to have prayer with us last week." At first the women and children were clothed in rabbit-skins, and had their faces painted as many colours as the rainbow. Now they are nearly all clean and tidy. On my first arrival there were but few houses in all the district. Now nearly all the families have their little houses, and some of them are as neatly kept as those of the white men. When I first came many of the Indians spent their time in begging and stealing, and but few of them cared to cultivate the soil. Now the Indian may be seen ploughing his land and sowing wheat like any white man. I believe in a short time many of them will be in a position of comparative independence. On my last visit, not many days ago, I was delighted to find several tolerably well prepared for the winter in respect of food. One great difficulty in the beginning was want of buildings either for the catechists or myself. Now we have all comfortable houses; and, in addition to the two school-houses on the river, we have an Indian school-chapel in which to teach parents and children during their stay at this place in the summer months.

Not a few of these people are fast being weaned away from heathenism. I might have had several baptisms already, had I been anxious to do so, but I wish them to be well prepared.

SWAN RIVER DISTRICT.

The Rev. G. Bruce (a country-born brother), stationed at FAIRFORD, writes as follows:—

The Indian congregation continues to be well attended, and whenever I visit them they appear to listen to God's word with due reverence. Heathenism is quickly passing away. Its stronghold is at "Dog Creek Reserve," about eighty miles from Fairford, where the chief and all his leading men are heathens. In a visit I lately paid to them the old chief said,—“I admit the praying religion is good, and I like to hear about it, and I thank you for coming so far and telling me about it; but I cannot think of making up my mind to adopt your religion for mine. I am too old also to be able to follow up such a holy religion. My young people can do as they feel disposed, and, if they join the French or English creed, it will be immaterial to me.”

Christianity too
holy a religion to be adopted.

The schools have been here regularly attended, and, on the whole, the scholars are going on well.

There are two other places closely connected with this—"St. Martin's Lake" and "The Kisiskatchewan Reserves,"—the former sixteen miles off, the latter thirty miles. The chief at "St. Martin's Lake," is still a heathen; but at times he is "almost persuaded to become a Christian."

The baptisms for the year ending Easter, 1876, to Easter, 1877, number 40 infants, 36 adults; total, 76. Communicants, 67; burials, 9; marriages, 8.

The Rev. J. Reader is the Missionary at TOUCHWOOD HILLS.

From this station, as a centre, he has visited Fort Pelly, Qu'Appelle, and Little Forks. The newly appointed Governor, Mr. Laird, who is the first holder of the post since the transfer of the country from the Hudson's Bay Company to the Canadian Dominion, has shown a most kind and favourable disposition towards the Mission, and towards the Indians generally. The Indians, on their part, are almost everywhere expressing a wish to settle down and cultivate the ground. They also now show signs of accepting the Gospel, at least outwardly. Their movement in this direction, however, is slow; and the Missionary is very careful not to admit to baptism any that do not appear to possess the requisite qualifications.—Mr. Reader begins to feel more at home in the use of Cree, and trusts he sees indications that God is about more evidently to bless his labours.—The number of Native Christian Adherents may be estimated at about 150. It is difficult to ascertain more accurately, from their being so scattered; and it is, perhaps, for the same reason that there are only ten registered Communicants.

CUMBERLAND DISTRICT.

During 1877, as during 1876, DEVON was under the care of the Rev. H. Cochrane, the son-in-law of the deceased well-known Indian brother, the Rev. Henry Budd. Mr. Cochrane's charge includes the out-stations of Moose Lake and Grand Rapids. Mr. Cochrane's letters show, writes Archdeacon Cowley, that "he continues to itinerate extensively among the Indians of his district," and "that the Lord is working with him, inducing many Indians to receive the truth."

CUMBERLAND HOUSE has now a resident clergyman of its own, the Rev. B. M'Kenzie (in deacon's orders), who, like Mr. Cochrane, is a Native of the country and of Indian descent. Mr. M'Kenzie first reached Cumberland House on the 1st of July, 1876. The Indians connected with the station comprise some fifty or sixty families, with about fifty children of school age. There are seventy Communicants. The families are much scattered, which necessitates much travelling on the part of their pastor. Between 1st July, 1876, and 1st July, 1877, there were fourteen (infant) baptisms, seven burials, and ten marriages. This does not seem to indicate diminution of population. Mr. M'Kenzie describes his flock as being very regular in coming to Divine service on Sundays. They are very attentive during service, and thoroughly enjoy the singing. "In point of morals," he adds, "they compare favourably with any people that I have ever been amongst." The visits of the pastor are always welcomed by them; and in other ways, as for example, by presents of food, and by voluntary labour in his garden, they have shown him much kindness.—A modest Mission-house (24 ft. by 20) was erected in the summer and autumn of 1876, in the erection of which Mr. M'Kenzie had not only to use his own personal labour, but also to instruct the Indians how to work. The erection of a School-house, 30 ft. by 20, also to be used as a church, was to be the work of the summer of 1877.

Rev. J. Hines (m), 1874.

Mr. T. A. Clarke, 1877.

THIS division of the Mission is co-extensive with the Diocese of Saskatchewan. In a circular, lately issued, appealing for pecuniary help, the zealous and Missionary-hearted Bishop, Dr. McLean, writes as follows:—

The Diocese of Saskatchewan has an area of nearly 700,000 square miles. It presents a most interesting field for effort among the Indians. The tribes within its bounds are the Plain Crees, the Blackfeet, and, for some time past, the Sioux refugees of the United States. The great majority of all these are still heathen. The treaties formed by the Dominion with the Crees and Blackfeet, and the admirable order established in the country by the mounted police, open the way for bringing the Gospel to bear upon them under far more favourable conditions than any formerly presented. Missionary openings in Saskatchewan.

The Rev. J. A. Mackay (country-born), Secretary of the Mission, writes under date 15th September, 1877:—

I am thankful to inform you of the safe arrival of myself and party, including Mr. Thomas Clarke, at this place (BATTLEFORD) on the 8th inst.—I have had encouraging meetings with the Indians. The chief and several of his band are willing to place themselves and their children under Christian instruction. They are also very anxious to be instructed in agriculture. Two days after my arrival, I accompanied the chief, at his desire, to choose a reserve for his band. I was not successful; but I have no doubt a good location will be found in this neighbourhood.—I have commenced building a small log house, but it will be hard work for us to get housed before winter. At present we are living in tents.—Government buildings are being put up at this place, which is the seat of Government for the North-West territories.

The work at STANLEY has been for many months without any resident clergyman. The Catechist at present in charge, Mr. John Sinclair (a pure Indian), is a man of sincere piety and average intelligence, and is also a fluent and effective preacher in his own language; his education, however, has been very limited. The Bishop of Saskatchewan, who is now in this country, has arranged with the Committee to ordain one of the students of the Islington College, and to place him at Stanley, with the view of his giving Mr. Sinclair some theological instruction and at the same time learning from him the Native language.

At ASISIPI the Native Christian Adherents now number 132. Twenty-two adults were baptized during the year; seventeen children are at the Mission School. Mr. Hines writes:—

The numbers appear small; but you must bear in mind the infant state of the Mission, the scattered population of the N. W., and also that the Missionary, who is also the founder, has had to contend not only with heathenism, but also with the powers of the Church of Rome. Perhaps you will ask, "How have you conquered their superstitions and won their affections?" My answer is, By trying to keep constantly before them the simplicity and adaptability of the Christian religion, as drawn straight from the Word of God, and by avoiding all comparisons and animadversions on other sects. This, I know has always been the practice of dear Bishop Bompas, and I have proved its success here.

The hopes of an educational grant at Asisipi from the Government have been disappointed, the number of children not meeting the Government requirements.

RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF ATHABASCA, D.D. (m), 1865.
 Rev. William D. Reeve (m), 1869.

BISHOP BOMPAS gives the following rough estimate of the general statistics of his extensive diocese, the sparse and scanty population of which is almost exclusively Indian:— Total estimated population, 10,000; connected with the C.M.S., 3000; connected with the Romish Mission, 5000; unconnected with either Mission, 2000.

These statistics do not include, apparently, the whole of the Tikuth Mission, part of which is beyond Bishop Bompas's diocese, being in the territory of Alaska, which a few years ago was transferred from the Russian Empire to the United States.

In his Annual Letter, dated 20th August, 1877, the Bishop writes:—

Our mission party now numbers eight—four ordained, and four unordained, three of each being married. You may be sure that we should welcome an addition to our number, though the scarcity of supplies necessitates caution in increasing our staff.

A Missionary here ought to be a school teacher, or a farmer, or a doctor, or else endeavour to combine all three, as well as being a preacher of the Gospel. In the northern parts of the diocese, a little gardening is indeed all the cultivation that can be attempted, but in all parts schooling for both old and young (for both are alike ignorant), and medicines for the sick, are much required.

I have been enabled within about the last thirteen months to traverse the extreme breadth of the diocese from north-west to south-east—a distance of about 2000 miles—passing over, in going and returning, about double that distance, and visiting all the Mission stations and other posts on my route.

FORT CHIPEWYAN is Bishop Bompas's home, so far as he has one. During his travels the care of the station devolves upon Mr. Bunn, a country-born schoolmaster, who has proved himself an efficient labourer.

The Mackenzie, in its north-westerly course from Fort Chipewyan, passes through Great Slave Lake, on the northern border of which is FORT RAE, now occupied by Mr. William Norn, country-born. The Rev. W. D. Reeve, who had been residing there, quitted it for Fort Simpson in the latter part of 1876, by Bishop Bompas's wish, leaving

Mrs. Reeve, however, at the post. Mr. Reeve writes, under date 2nd July, 1877:—

I have been absent from Fort Rae more than nine months since last July, and have therefore seen very little of the Indians, who are still nearly all nominally Romanists; but my dear wife, besides holding school with the Protestant children at the fort, and a service on Sundays, has seen many of them during my absence, and by her kind attention to their ailments, and readiness to help them at all times, has gained so much of their affection that they parted with her with great regret, and some of them even wept when she came away. The Indians attribute our efforts to do them good to our belief in the teaching of "God's Book." With this thought in their minds I cannot but hope that in time, by God's good Providence, it will lead them to embrace and follow that doctrine the fruits of which they see and admire.

Mr. Norn has also the Hay River Indians under his charge, and is entrusted with the duty of visiting all the Indians round Great Slave Lake.

Of FORT SIMPSON the Bishop writes:—

Signs of improvement at Fort Simpson.

FORT SIMPSON, the first establishment of our Mission stations, presents a more cheering aspect than before, in respect to the Indians trading there. Last spring I was pleased to see the church there for the first time quite full of Indians attentively listening to God's Word. I trust that their natural listlessness is giving way to the claims of the Gospel, and that with a little more perseverance we shall see their hearts won for Christ. The Rev. W. Reeve has now returned to this post.

Of FORT NORMAN, which is still farther down the river, not far from Great Bear Lake, Mr. Reeve writes:—

and spiritual progress
at Fort Norman.

I have but recently returned from a short visit to my old friends at Fort Norman, which has given me great pleasure. When I was there three years ago, there were no buildings belonging to the Mission; now there are two small houses and a nice little church. A piece of ground has also been broken up which produces cabbages, turnips, and some other vegetables. Prayers were well attended every evening. There were seldom less than forty present, and frequently upwards of fifty, including children. The hymns and prayers were joined in very heartily, and great attention was paid to the address. Hardisty (the Native Catechist) has spent part of the last two winters with the Indians in their camps, and most of them now know portions of the prayers and hymns. Nideshi, who has always been the most eager to learn, knows by heart several hymns and prayers, and can repeat the decalogue in brief, each day's work of creation, and several short lessons.

FORT VERMILLION is thus referred to by the Bishop :—

I have had pleasure in visiting Mr. Garrioch's station at Fort Vermillion. His house is nearly finished, and he has a good garden, and the Indians appear to be attaching themselves to him.

Tukuth Mission.

Archdeacon McDonald still has charge of this Mission. At the date of the last Annual Letter received from him, which was written on the 27th of January, 1877, and which reached London in the October following, the Native Christian Adherents were reckoned at 1450, and the Communicants at 112; the corresponding numbers for the year immediately preceding having been 1450 (the same) and 101. In 1876 there were but four adult baptisms, while in 1875 the number had reached 160. During 1876 Bishop Bompas visited the Mission, and confirmed 133 candidates. The absence of adult baptisms is accounted for by the Archdeacon's having been unavoidably prevented from taking his usual missionary journeys.

The winter of 1875-6, until the 31st of March, Archdeacon McDonald spent at his head-quarters, FORT MACPHERSON, on Peel River, doing what he could among the few Indians that remained there, and probably engaged also in literary work.

In February, 1876, Mr. Kenneth McDonald, the Archdeacon's brother, visited an encampment formed of united parties of Indians from Peel River and from La Pierre's House (Rat River), who had taken up their quarters at a spot seventy miles south-west of Fort MacPherson. Here Mr. K. McDonald found the two (unpaid) leaders, John Tchietta and Willian Sekut, very diligent in conducting daily morning and evening prayers, and giving instruction according to their ability. Tchietta had a day-school with forty pupils, and though not a man of much teaching power, was doing good service.

On the 31st of March, 1876, the Archdeacon himself set out on a missionary tour, intending to reach the Youcon in Alaska (a territory far to the north-west, belonging to the United States), where there are many Indians to whom he had preached in former years, and some of whom he had been instrumental in bringing to confession of faith in Christ. But the scarcity of food that prevailed throughout the dis-strict at the time prevented his going farther than Rampart House, after having spent a week, on the way, at La Pierre's House. The Archdeacon, therefore, returned to La Pierre's House, where, after a few days, all the Indians of that district were assembled. The time was "pleasantly passed" in giving them daily instruction; and by the end of May, the greater number of them were reading the New Testament in Tukuth.

On the 2nd of June Archdeacon McDonald returned to Fort MacPherson to meet the Bishop. After a stay of four days, during which he confirmed twenty-three candidates, Bishop Bompas started for the west, and visited successively La Pierre's and Rampart House, confirming several candidates. The visit was, however, cut short by the failure of food.

In December, the Archdeacon again attempted his long-projected Missionary journey; but, after reaching Rampart House, was a third time driven back by the same cause as before—scarcity of provisions.

If the year thus reported of, 1876, was in some respects disappointing, there is every reason to believe that the Indian Christians were growing in knowledge, and, some of them at least, in grace also. Nor is there any reason to doubt that the Gospel was still sounding out from them to their heathen fellow-tribesmen.

RIGHT REV. THE BISHOP OF MOOSONEE, D.D. (m), 1851.

Ven. Archdeacon W. W. Kirkby (m), 1852.

Rev. John Henry Keen, 1875.

Rev. Edmund J. Peck, 1876.

BISHOP HORDEN begins his Annual Letter for 1876, dated September 4th, with the following encouraging words:—

We have been enabled to lengthen our cords, and I trust that,

God being our helper, we have likewise strengthened our stakes. Extension
 The cords now embrace nearly the whole of the diocese, and at scarcely an individual therein can now complain, "No man Moosonee. careth for my soul." People speaking the various languages of the land hear and read therein of the wonderful works of God, and of reconciliation through the atoning blood of Christ. Cree, Soto, Eskimo and Chipewyan have all some of the precious food, the right use of which will make them strong in the Lord and ready to do battle in His cause.

Bishop Horden speaks of "the good work" at MOOSE as "proceeding quietly," the congregations being almost invariably very good, and the school very well attended. He finds the Rev. J. H. Keen to be a very efficient coadjutor.

The Rev. T. Vincent, a country-born labourer, carries on the work, under Bishop Horden's guidance, at ALBANY, which is on the western shore of Hudson's Bay, about 100 miles north-west of Moose Factory, and where the Cree language is spoken. He has also out-stations among the Sotos of Osnaburgh and Martin's Falls. The Indians who form the congregation at Albany are engaged during the winter in fur-hunting for the Hudson's Bay Company, travelling sometimes to long distances for this purpose, their families for the most part accompanying them. Several parties, however, come in at Christmas and Easter to partake with the Missionary of the pledges of their Saviour's love. During the summer months they remain at the station, still in the employment of the Company; and attend divine service with great regularity. Bishop Horden visited Albany in June, 1877, and confirmed thirty-nine candidates. Mr. Vincent believes there have been many true conversions among his people. At his visit to Osnaburgh Mr. Vincent received a very warm and hearty reception from the Christian Indians, and noticed a marked change for the better since his previous visit. Among the heathen Indians of that neighbourhood, polygamy and conjuring are mentioned by Mr. Vincent, as the two great visible obstacles he has to encounter.

Fourteen adults were baptized by Mr. Vincent during the year; and there are 48 Communicants under his pastoral care.

The out-station of Matawakumme, among Soto Indians, is occupied by the Rev. John Sanders, a country-born brother.

Bishop Horden thus reports of his work:—

I have just returned from a visit to Matawakumme, and all I saw there gave me much satisfaction. Mr. Sanders had prepared me a goodly number of candidates for confirmation, and had many ready for the reception of the Supper of the Lord. He has built himself a house and made himself a garden, quite establishing a home. He has attended, too, to the education of the young, and there are now scarcely any connected with the post, whether Indian or half-caste, unable to read the Word of God either in English or Indian.

Besides Mr. Sanders's work at his principal station, he has made several journeys in his district, going thrice to Flying Post and once to Misenabe and Brunswick. Each of these journeys received God's blessing, and through them many have been brought into the fold of Christ.

The European masters of Matawakumme, Metachewun, Flying Post, and Brunswick are all Communicants. This is a source of the deepest gratitude.

In reference to the work among the Eskimos, at LITTLE WHALE RIVER, now conducted by the Rev. E. J. Peck, Bishop Horden writes:—

The great event of this year has been the establishment of a mission among the Eskimos. The load of anxiety removed from my mind by the occupation of Little Whale River was a heavy one. I knew the needs of the poor Eskimos; I knew their longing for the Word of Life; and I knew too how very inadequately I could fulfil towards them the duties of a spiritual father. Correspondingly great was my joy when I saw the long-expected messenger arrive. I thank the Committee for "a" man; I thank them doubly for "the" man. Patient, humble, prudent, loving, he wins the hearts of all with whom he comes in contact, while his diligence is patent to all by the progress he has made in the study of the difficult languages with which he has to deal. He is now with me, and will study divinity until February, when I hope to ordain him.

YORK, with its out-stations of Severn and Trout Lake to the south, and Churchill to the north, is still under the charge of Archdeacon Kirkby.

The statistical returns of YORK itself give the following figures:—Communicants (Native Indians), 45; Infant baptisms, 26; Deaths, five. Surely the Indian population here is not dwindling away.

Adult baptisms have ceased, from the happy cause that all the Indians of the neighbourhood have already entered the visible Church.

Of the Native Christians, Archdeacon Kirkby writes :—

There is a marked earnestness among my people, for which I thank God. A spirit of great liberality has been given to them by Him, so that out of their own great need—yea, deep poverty—they have helped me much in Church-work. One poor man brought me, at the beginning of the year, a silver fox as his gift, saying that he valued the house of God himself, and so wished the people of Severn to have one likewise. This was literally giving to God of the best, as that is the most valuable fur in the country. That one skin realized 2*l.* 10*s.* in the trading-room here, and probably in value was a fourth of his winter hunt.

Liberality
of Indian Christians.

Trout Lake and Severn are thus referred to :—

At Trout Lake the Indians received me with every demonstration of delight. A salute of over fifty guns was fired to welcome me ; and, during my stay there, twice a day did the Christian Indians of the place assemble together to worship God. And no greater argument in favour of syllabics is needed than to state that of the 350 souls (about) there, I did not see five adults unable to read that blessed Word for themselves. How different from the statements of Bishop Burdon regarding the poor converts in China ! Some who, on my previous visits, clung rather to their heathenism, this time very gladly placed themselves under Christian instruction, and were diligent in learning all they could. The fact is, the poor Indian feels that he has a sore need. He sees that the Christians possess something which he has not, and so is restless until he also knows something of the Saviour's love. Only a few outsiders now remain at Trout Lake. The church at Trout Lake had been at a stand-still for a little, but a good deal of wood for it was cut and brought to the place by the Indians whilst I was there ; and Mr. Todd, the gentleman in charge of the fort, will help it on all he can.

Joyful reception of the missionary by Christian
and heathen Indians.

From Trout Lake I went down to Severn, and was quite as warmly, but more quietly, received. The poor people there had suffered much from want of food during the preceding winter ; and not a few of their friends had, I fear, been starved to death. The church, though not quite finished, was sufficiently completed to use for Divine Service.

From Churchill also there are “good accounts.” “The Indians keep well together, are diligent with their books, and thankfully use the little church when they come to the Fort.”

NORTH-PACIFIC MISSION.

(Commenced 1856.)

European Mission Establishment :

Mr. William Duncan, 1856, } Secretaries.
 Rev. W. H. Collison (m), 1873, }
 Rev. Robert Tomlinson, B.A. (m), 1867.
 Rev. Arthur James Hall, 1877.

THIS Mission has recently had the advantage of a visit from Dr. Bompas, the hardy, self-denying, and devoted Bishop of Athabasca, who had what he describes as a "race with winter" in crossing the Rocky Mountains. The Bishop found Mr. Duncan carrying on his work with unabated energy, zeal, and Christian hopefulness. Mr. Duncan himself writes as follows :—

Our numbers in METLAKAHTLA have kept on steadily increasing as usual, and now we number about 1000 souls.

In January this year we had 67 adults baptized, and in December and January 64 children. The Bishop also confirmed 124 in January. Many refused to be confirmed till they had proved their sorrow for some recent faults. The Bishop did not think it wise to administer the sacrament to any Indians at present.

We have already 15 houses of the New Town up ; but on account of depression in the fur trade and failure in fishing, the Indians are too poor to make much progress in building at present.

I have put before the Government a scheme for promoting fresh industries among the Indians which if carried out would greatly augment their resources.

We are steadily progressing in translation, and shall soon adopt the new Litany in our services. The progress the Indians are making in English seems to make it unnecessary to translate the Scriptures into their tongue. They prefer reading in English, and a translation would not be read if printed; besides, from the nature of the Tsimshian, it would be poor and imperfect at best.

During the absence of Mr. Duncan at Victoria, spiritual excitement arose at Metlakahla, which, originating in what was good, developed unhealthy excesses that had to be repressed.

Mr. Collison has been admitted to both deacon's and priest's orders by Bishop Bompas (acting for the Bishop of Columbia) and now returns to Metlakahla. Mr. Duncan and Mr. Collison are appointed joint-secretaries for the North Pacific Mission: and the Mission will thus, in all its Stations and departments, receive, in a more recognized manner, the benefits of Mr. Duncan's experience.

The work in QUEEN CHARLOTTE'S ISLAND will still be under the Rev. W. H. Collison's superintendence; but a country-born Christian of mixed descent is to be the resident agent of the Mission.

The Rev. A. J. Hall has commenced new work at FORT RUPERT.

The Rev. R. Tomlinson, at KINCOLITH, has earnestly asked to be sent farther onward in the direction of the Rocky Mountains, to labour among the Kitikshian and other Indians that are to be found in those parts. The neglected condition of these scattered tribes is described by Bishop Bompas in touching terms; and the Committee have cordially acceded to Mr. Tomlinson's proposal. Mr. Schutt, with his own full consent, has been directed to take Mr. Tomlinson's place at Kincolith. No intelligence of special interest has been received from this station.

The Committee have received much valuable advice from Bishop Bompas as well as from Mr. Duncan; and they humbly pray in all earnestness and with expectant faith that the plans which they have thus been led to adopt may receive the needed blessing from the Great LORD OF THE HARVEST.

CONCLUSION.

IN closing their Report for another year, the Committee must express their deep sense on the one hand of the goodness of God toward the Society in the past, and on the other of the solemn, ever-increasing responsibilities which are involved in its present position. Each year brings its anxieties and difficulties—often sudden and unexpected—yet each year as surely brings also the needed strength and guidance.

One friend after another is called to his rest, friends who for many a year had proved as towers of strength to the Society by their strong attachment to its principles, their sound wisdom in council, their large-hearted liberality, their able, earnest advocacy, so that in their removal the hearts of those that are left are ready to look up wistfully to heaven and say, "Alas, Master, how shall we do?" And yet the Lord Himself has not failed. "He buries His workmen, but He carries on His work;" manifesting again and again that He can use the feeble as well as the strong.

But the Committee are assured they may also bespeak the full sympathy of warm and zealous friends in the convictions which year by year with increasing power the Lord has been bringing home to their minds in respect to the greatness of the work which He has been pleased to entrust to the Society. No one, they think, can thoughtfully contemplate the course of this world's history since the foundation of the Society without clearly perceiving the presence of His hand whose overruling providence ordereth all things in heaven and on earth. Scarcely a year passes that does not witness the removal of obstacles, and a freer course given for the word of the Lord. Two events stand prominently forward in the year just closed. First, the action taken for the complete suppression of the slave-trade by the Khedive of Egypt and the Sultan of Zanzibar, affording an entrance for the heralds of the Gospel in East and Central Africa, such as was never before; and, secondly, the severe blow given to Mohammedan influence by the military disasters of the Turkish Government, which, whatever may be the precise issues of the terrible conflict carried on since the last anniversary of the Society, may well be expected to have the effect of affording greater facilities for preaching the everlasting Gospel among the followers of the False Prophet, and of securing liberty of conscience for those who for centuries have been the victims of a relentless religious tyranny. These are only examples of what has been going on from year to year in all quarters of the globe,—until the voice of Providence seems to be taking up the word of grace, and echoing it afresh in trumpet tones, in the ears of a half-awakened Church, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."

Meanwhile how does it stand with the C.M.S.?

Let the truth be told.—Encouraged by the growth of the Society's income in 1874, as well as by the awakening of a new spirit of prayer for Missionary labourers, the Committee at once began to devise liberal things—old Missions were pushed forward, new Missions were commenced. The result of this was an expenditure last year of some 13,000*l.* over income; and this year, though economy has been practised and retrenchments made, there is still an excess of expenditure over income of more than 4000*l.*, while even old and tried friends are asking how the Committee can expect last year's effort to be repeated. Again, there is not one important Mission Field of the Society from which the Committee have not before them at the present moment earnest appeals from those on the spot for more labourers to take up fresh ground, or to occupy more efficiently that which they hold. And yet, at the same time, the Committee have a resolution uncanceled upon their minutes, and they have acted upon it strictly in their late location of Missionaries, that except in the new Mission to the Nyanza, for which special funds are given, no Missionary shall be sent out from this country except to fill up a vacancy. Further, the Committee would call attention to the fact already mentioned, that the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge have given but one man each to the work of the Society during the past year, and Dublin not one. Moreover, it ought to be made known, that when an appeal went forth for volunteers in connexion with the recent martyrdom of the Society's Missionaries on the Victoria Nyanza, and an ordained clergyman was specially asked for, while offers of service poured in from officers of the navy and other professions, not one among the clergy of the English and Irish Churches was found willing and able to respond.

To-day the Committee would ask humbly, yet very earnestly: What is the meaning of all this? Does it mean that the servants of Christ, at all events in connexion with the Church of England, have not yet realized the world's need or their own responsibilities in respect to it? Does it mean that those amongst them to whom He has entrusted the wealth of this world, are, for the most part, forgetful of the account which they will have to render to their heavenly Lord, and are laying up treasure where moth and rust doth corrupt, instead of putting it out in His service? Does it mean that the spirit of ease and luxury and self-pleasing has been allowed too effectually to enervate many in the Church of Christ, so that there is an unwillingness to make sacrifices and to endure hardness for His sake? And is this the cause that among those who are specially pledged to take up their cross and to follow Christ, so few are prepared in a spirit of self-sacrifice to encounter the trials and hardships and dangers of a Missionary?

The Committee cannot forget, and the Lord Himself does not forget, the amount of self-denying zeal and love represented by the 220,000*l.*, entrusted to their charge during the past year. With their whole hearts they bless God for the little band that goes forth year by year, counting not their lives dear unto them, so that they may finish their course with joy. Yet they cannot allow that there is cause for gratification only. They must with all humility, but with all earnestness, place on record their solemn conviction, that if the work is to be accomplished which the Lord has set before His servants, there must be a fresh baptism of the Holy Ghost and of fire, such as was experienced by the Church in the early days of its first love. Let this spirit, then, the spirit of whole-hearted consecration, be earnestly sought of the Lord, and sought believingly and expectantly. The rich shall then no longer hold back their wealth, but rejoice in the privilege of casting it into the treasury of the Lord, as some already have learned to do, with a free and ungrudging hand. Parents shall no longer seek to dissuade their sons and daughters from the life of a missionary, but render up their children as a free-will offering to God, and gladly send them forth, saying with full hearts, "Go, and the Lord be with you." And these shall no longer refuse themselves; home ties, and home comforts, and home prospects shall be esteemed as dust in the balance when weighed against the constraining love of Christ. And the word of the Lord by His prophet Malachi shall have its blessed accomplishment:—"Prove Me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

The Committee would add one further word. Looking to the past goodness of God to this Society, they cherish the confident hope that He has yet a great work for it to do, and a rich blessing yet in store, of which the past is only the first fruits. They have good hope, even as they earnestly pray, that the old Church Missionary Society, so dear to many hearts, both in heaven and on earth, will be honoured yet more than heretofore in helping to gather in the world's great harvest. But whether this be so or not; whether it be given to this Society to maintain its present place amid the agencies for the world's evangelization, or whether this honour falls to others; every one who truly loves the Saviour, and longs for the coming of His kingdom, rejoices, yea, and will rejoice in this, that whatever hindrances may arise to the spread of the Gospel—whatever opposition be encountered—whatever dangers threaten—the purposes of God shall assuredly have their accomplishment; the tide of Gospel knowledge shall rise higher and higher; and ere long the heart of every true and loyal soldier of Christ shall be gladdened by the sound of great voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign for ever and ever."

PRAYER USED AT THE ANNUAL MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful FATHER, we give Thee humble thanks for the light of Thy Gospel. Make us more grateful for this Thy mercy, and more zealous for the salvation of all mankind.

Visit in mercy the Church of Christ; enrich it more abundantly with the grace of Thy Holy Spirit; and bless its endeavours to make known Thy Truth. Unite, as one man, all who are truly labouring for Thee. Disappoint the designs of Satan. Let all Christian Societies live in harmony and love; give them wisdom in all their plans; perfect Thy strength in their weakness; and direct their labours to Thy glory!

The Harvest truly is great, but the Labourers are few! O Thou Lord of the Harvest, send forth Labourers into Thy Harvest! Fill with Thy Spirit those whom Thou hast sent forth; and enable them faithfully and boldly to preach, among Jews and Gentiles, the unsearchable riches of Christ. Keep them from the snares of the world, the flesh, and the devil; deliver them from all evil; and make them wise to win souls.

Upon all the Native Converts whom Thou hast gathered to Thyself, through Thy labouring servants throughout the world, pour out Thy Holy Spirit, that, as Thou hast begotten them again unto a lively hope, so they may ever be followers of Thee as dear children. Deliver them from all remaining darkness and ignorance; destroy and abolish in their hearts all that remains of Satan's kingdom; grant that their faith, and hope, and love may grow exceedingly; make them to be ready to every good work, and more especially to exert themselves for the salvation of those around them; that so, by their zeal and faithful testimony, by their holiness and fruitfulness, they may glorify Thy name before their countrymen, and bring in unto Thee, from the midst of them, such as shall be saved.

Have compassion, O Most-merciful Father, on all those who have come under instruction, though they be not yet altogether Christians. Convince them effectually, by Thy Word and Spirit, of their sinful and miserable state ; pour upon them the spirit of grace and supplication, and draw them to Jesus.

Take away blindness from the Jews. Let them receive Thee, O Jesus, as their Messiah, and proclaim Thy saving Name among the Gentiles.

Deliver all Mohammedans from the delusions of the False Prophet ! O Thou True Prophet of Thy Church, enlighten them by Thy Holy Spirit, and bow them down at the foot of Thy Cross !

Pity blind Idolaters, who are kept in cruel bondage by the god of this world. Turn them from idols, that they may serve the Living and True God.

O Thou Almighty Saviour, who by the right hand of God art exalted, and hast received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, shed forth His light and grace on this dark world !

Cause all Christians, we beseech Thee, to sow bountifully ; that they may reap also bountifully. O Thou that lovest a cheerful giver, let all grace abound toward them, that they may minister liberally of their substance to the making known of Thy Name !

With these our humble prayers, we join our praises and thanksgivings for what Thou hast already done in making known Thy salvation : perfect Thy work, O Lord ; shortly accomplish the number of Thine elect ; and hasten the coming of Thy Kingdom.

Be present with us, O Lord, at this time. Give us all a single eye to Thy glory. May Thy blessing rest upon our meeting ; and may all our hearts be this day quickened and encouraged to fresh and persevering efforts in Thy Service.

We ask these mercies for the glory of Thy Name, through the merits and mediation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ ; and would ascribe to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Three Persons in One God, everlasting praise. Amen !

OUR Father which art in Heaven : Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; but deliver us from evil ; for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER USED AT THE OPENING OF MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE.

ALMIGHTY GOD, our Heavenly Father, who hast purchased to Thyself an universal Church, by the precious blood of Thy dear Son, we give Thee hearty thanks that it hath pleased Thee to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee, and to appoint our lot in an age and country, where the true light shineth. We bless Thee that Thou hast awakened us in some measure to feel our responsibilities. We praise Thee for what we have seen and heard of the power of Thy word among the heathen; we adore Thee for Thy many servants who have gone out from amongst us to toil and suffer and die in making known Thy salvation; and we thank Thee that Thou dost allow us, unworthy sinners, to unite together in this work of faith and labour of love.

We humbly confess our past lukewarmness in this Thy service, notwithstanding these Thine inestimable benefits and mercies. For our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us our past negligences, and so endue us with Thy Holy Spirit, that we may more earnestly seek Thy glory in the salvation of souls.

Grant us, we beseech Thee, Thy very present help at these our meetings. We ask, most gracious God and Father, for a constraining sense of the love of the Lord Jesus, and for wisdom to direct us in all our endeavours. Increase upon us the spirit of power and of love and of a sound mind. Give us faith and courage; give us zeal and patience; give us a single eye to Thy glory, and help us to bear and to forbear. The silver and the gold are Thine, O King of kings! Supply us with what is needful for our great work, and make us faithful stewards of Thy bounty, for proclaiming to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

We pray also for all who are united with us in the direction of this sacred cause. May Thine especial blessing rest upon our Committees, with their Secretaries, throughout the world. Bestow on them the help that we feel so needful for ourselves. Enable them to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, and ever to find favour in the sight of all with whom they may have to do.

Especially we beseech Thee to look, O most merciful Father, upon our Missionary brethren. Draw out our hearts towards them more and more; and while they are bearing the burden abroad, give us grace to help and succour them by our sympathy and prayers at home. Bless every letter written to them from this house, and all our intercourse with them. We pray for them that they may be filled with Thy Spirit. Grant that the same mind may be in them which was also in Christ Jesus. Let them never lose their first love. Raise them above the cares of this world. Help them to deny themselves and to endure all things for the elect's sake. Give them the tongue of the learned. Clothe them with humility. Teach them to follow peace with each other, and with all men. Support them under spiritual distresses; temptations of the adversary, bodily sickness, domestic anxieties, and hope deferred. And so confirm Thy word from their lips by the power of the Holy Ghost, that through them multitudes may be turned from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto Thee, our God.

We most heartily thank Thee, O Lord, for those whom Thou hast already sent forth through this Society; and we pray for a yet larger outpouring of a Missionary spirit on our younger Clergy, on the members of our Universities, on those who are elsewhere preparing for this holy work, on the young men of all ranks and orders throughout our land. And herein do we implore Thy special favour on our Islington Institution, that its numbers may be replenished continually; and that none may go forth thence but such as shall be able ministers of the New Testament, full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost.

We praise Thee, O Thou God of all grace, for the Converts, the Native Catechists, and the Native Clergy, whom Thou hast granted to us in our several Missions. As Thou hast raised the Native Churches thus far, bring them, we pray Thee, to full ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ. Pour out upon them Thy Holy Spirit. Stablish, strengthen, settle them, and so enlarge their liberality, that they may both maintain Thy word among themselves, and may make it known to the regions beyond them, till all the Gentiles hear the glad tidings of Thy love.

And now, O Lord God, be Thou in the midst of us to-day. Give us a constant sense of Thy presence, and may all our undertakings be begun, continued, and ended in Thee, to the honour of Thy great name, for the sake of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

APPENDIX A.

REPORT OF THE

HENRY VENN NATIVE CHURCH FUND.

FIVE years have now elapsed since this Fund was instituted. During that time an annual statement of its receipts and expenditure has appeared in the Reports of the Church Missionary Society. The Committee fear, however, that these notices may not have sufficiently attracted the attention of their friends and supporters; and they believe that a special Report of the Fund may serve a good purpose, by drawing fresh attention to it, and by giving a more detailed account of the manner in which the annual income has been applied.

Immediately after the death of the Rev. Henry Venn, in January, 1873, the Committee of the Church Missionary Society resolved that steps should be taken to raise a memorial to him, to keep alive the name of one whose labours on behalf of the Society had been so manifold, and attended with such marked blessing.

The result of their deliberations was the institution of this Fund, the object and plan of which is thus stated in a paper which was prepared in April, 1873, and has been widely circulated among the supporters of the Church Missionary Society. It is described as “a Fund for aiding in the internal development of the Native Churches. It will be administered under the direction of the Church Missionary Society; and from it grants-in-aid will be made, not only to Native Churches to assist them in providing for their own bishops and pastors, but also to Native Missionary Societies employing evangelists of their own.”

In December, 1873, a considerable sum having been received, arrangements were made for the administration of the Fund. The General Committee of the Church Missionary Society resolved that the money thus subscribed should be invested in the names of four trustees, the interest being applied to the objects of the Fund; and that every year a Sub-Committee should be appointed "to consider applications made for grants, and to recommend to the General Committee suitable cases, with the amount to be granted in each instance."

The first Sub-Committee was appointed in May, 1874, and the following grants have been made out of the income of the Fund:—

GRANTS MADE IN FEBRUARY, 1875.

4. To the Tamil Cooly Native Missionary Association	20 0 0
5. In aid of the Missionary operations carried on by the Chinese Christians at Fuh-Chow	50 0 0
	£415 0 0

GRANTS MADE IN JANUARY, 1878.

I. Grants to Native Churches :—

1. To the Bishop and Pastorate Council of the Church of Sierra Leone, on the understanding that Kissey Road Church and District be transferred to the said Fund	£220 0 0
2. To the Native Church Council at Lagos	50 0 0
3. To the Funds of the Niger Church, under the direction of Bishop Crowther	110 0 0

II. Grants to Native Missionary Societies :—

1. To the Native Missionary Society at Sierra Leone, to assist their Missions established at Bullohn and Quiah	20 0 0
2. Also for additional expenses on account of the Sherbro Mission	50 0 0
3. To the Native Church Missionary Association at Gorakpûr, in North India	25 0 0
4. To the Cotta Native Church Missionary Association	15 0 0
5. To the Tamil Cooly Native Missionary Association	15 0 0
	£505 0 0

Under the head of Grants to Native Churches it will be seen that the familiar names of the Sierra Leone and Niger Missions have hitherto been most prominent. But the Committee anticipate that before long the Native Churches in India will also have reached such a stage of development that they will be entitled to draw assistance from the Fund. Three Provincial Councils have been already established in South India, each embracing a wide area and representing a large number of Native congregations. These Councils are not yet presided over by Native clergy, but a step in advance has been made in the province of Tinnevely, where the District Native Church Council for the district of Sivagási has been placed under the presidency of the Rev. V. Vēdanāyagam. In the Missions of North India, also, similar arrangements are contemplated. Thus steps are being taken to train the Churches of India in self-government, and they show a growing power of self-support. For some time, however, these Christian communities will require assistance from without. At present the pecuniary help thus needed is very large, and is supplied from the general funds of the Society; but when the strength and liberality of the Native Christians have increased, a moderate subsidy from the Henry Venn Fund may render the Society's grant unnecessary,—thus at once placing the Native Church in a more independent position and setting free the Society's funds for its own proper evangelistic work.

In reference to Native Missionary Associations the Committee are thankful to report that the establishment of the Fund has been the means of encouraging some Native Churches to make efforts at self-extension, by undertaking Missionary operations among the heathen around them. Some were already at work in this way. Bullom and Quiah are districts in the neighbourhood of Sierra Leone, where the Society's agents had been labouring for some years. They have now been taken up by the Native Church at Sierra Leone, the members of which during the year 1875 contributed no less a sum than 500%. for work in those districts. The Chinese Christians at Fuh-chow are another instance of zeal for the spread of the Gospel. A body of voluntary agents carry the name of Christ to the surrounding towns and villages; and the Committee have voted a grant to this Association to assist them in supplying themselves with portions of Scripture and tracts for distribution. There is reason to hope that systematic efforts in the same direction, on a more extended scale than at present, will be made in India: schemes for such efforts being already under consideration.

The present income of the Fund, as has been said, is small. It is hoped that the circulation of this Report may be useful in showing how large a field is being opened up for the employment of it, and may elicit additional contributions from the supporters of the Church Missionary Society. The present generation is reaping the harvest sown by the faithful labours of such men as the late Rev. Henry Venn. Be it our part to follow in their steps, as they followed the mind of Christ; to try to carry out the plans which their wisdom suggested, to help the Native Churches to lengthen their cords and strengthen their stakes. Thus we may hope that we shall be "hastening on" the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and bringing nearer that glorious time when "the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

APPENDIX B.

REPORT OF WALTER JONES NATIVE MISSION FUND, FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 1878.

AFRICA.

NIGER MISSION.

THE agents connected with the Walter Jones Fund, in this Mission, are one clergyman and five laymen. One lay agent was dismissed during the year. Those specially mentioned in Reports received from the Missions are—at AKASA, Mr. Apre; at BRASS, the Rev. T. Johnson; and at Bonny, Mr. J. Boyle.

Mr. Apre is thus referred to by Archdeacon H. Johnson:—

When the Bishop, in consequence of Mr. John's absence in Sierra Leone and England, and Mr. Paul's removal to the newly formed Station at Kipo Hill, found it necessary to provide for Ekoja, he transferred to it from Akasa Mr. Pythias Williams, a young and energetic Teacher from Sierra Leone. In his stead, a real "son of the soil," the first fruit of the Akasa Mission, was left in charge. I was favourably impressed by Mr. APRE's manner. Born, and for the most part bred, in the country, it is needless to say that he was at "home" in the language, manners, and customs of Akasa. He had the privilege a few years ago of being taken to Lagos by Bishop Crowther. This no doubt accounts for the immense disparity that exists between him and those by whom he is surrounded. As to the latter, I do not know any people apparently more hopelessly degraded anywhere. Their migratory habits make it difficult to get at them; but Mr. Apre said that he occasionally followed after them in order to speak to them the Word of God.

Of the work at Brass, in connexion with the Rev. T. Johnson, the Archdeacon writes:—

In the year 1867, Bishop Crowther met with King Okiya at the Nun. The King begged him to come to his country to establish Schools, and do for his people at Brass, what was being done for Bonny. "Assuredly gathering that the Lord was calling him," the Bishop hastened to the place, where he was soon joined by the King. The following year saw the work actually begun. The Lord greatly assisted His servants, so that in less than three years the work had assumed such a decidedly aggressive attitude as to alarm the Juju priests, and make them tremble for their own reputation and their future means of subsistence. A violent persecution was set on foot at the instance of the crafty priests. The converts stood firm, but matters came to such a pass that the resident Teacher, Mr. (now Rev. T.) JOHNSON, found it prudent to follow the advice given to him to betake himself to the shipping for a time; as his house was threatened to be burnt over him, and his life was otherwise in the greatest danger. But he did not cease to go among the converts to encourage by his presence and advice those whose faith was undergoing such a severe trial. At length the fiery storm blew over, but only to revive in a fitful blaze in 1874. However, its force was spent, and it soon died out, and in all human probability will never be revived again.

Now, what is the result of nine years of unremitting labour at Brass? On Sunday, November 4th, there were no less than 480 persons present at the morning service (including six Europeans), and in the evening, notwithstanding a drenching shower, there were as many as 226. The next day being the first Monday in the month, the usual Prayer Meeting was held, when the church was nearly half filled. The King and some of his Chiefs residing at the village of Tuwon were present at both the services and the meeting. The next day (November 6th) saw the church once more filled. A Confirmation Service was held, and the Bishop administered the holy rite to fifty-eight persons. Those three days were among the happiest I spent in my trip to the Niger Mission.

King Okiya has now asked for a Teacher for Nembe, his capital, which is about thirty miles from the coast. Thus the work is gradually extending, under the auspices of the King himself, and the influential men of the country. The influence of the heathen priests has collapsed ignominiously.

Bishop Crowther writes of Mr. Boyle, at Bonny:—

As Mr. JAMES BOYLE, the schoolmaster, has all the time exerted himself most praiseworthily, I am glad he will be left in charge of two churches at Bonny, viz. St. Clement's and St. Stephen's, together with the Boarding School. I have promoted him to the rank of a first-class catechist, at a salary of 50*l.* per annum.

EAST AFRICA MISSION.

Seven agents (six male and one female) are employed in East Africa.

Mr. GEORGE DAVID and Mr. JONES, catechists, and Mr. MOSES WILLING, a schoolmaster, continue to do good service. The Rev. J. A. Lamb is desirous that Mr. David should be admitted to Holy Orders. No special mention is made of the other four.

PALESTINE.

Three schoolmasters are supported by the Fund, one at Acca and two at Salt.

The School at Acca has suffered from an outbreak of small-pox in the locality. At the date of the last accounts the children were beginning to return.

The School in Salt is reported of as going on very favourably.

INDIA.

Sixteen agents are employed in India. The only information specially bearing on their work is the following report from the Rev. F. W. N. Alexander, of the Telugu Mission :—

I have the pleasure to forward herewith a statistical return of the agents and congregations connected with the Walter Jones Fund, in the Ellore District. It shows a total of 132 Baptized persons, and 91 Catechumens, making a total of 223 persons under instruction, as contrasted with 194 persons reported under instruction at the close of the previous year. The figures now given are not unfavourable, especially when we consider the affliction of famine and sickness that prevailed during the year. But I cannot say my impression of the state of the work is as favourable as these figures would warrant.

1. Peddapad.—Every agent except KANDAVALLI PETER has more or less declined. Peter's work is in the immediate neighbourhood of the Krishna Canal. The people there have reaped a plentiful harvest, and so have escaped famine and cholera which raged in other parts. They are all cultivators, and have had food enough and to spare, and have gained high prices for their surplus grain. I am thankful to say they have in some measure shown their gratitude by offering to help in the rebuilding of their church, which was burned down three years ago. The congregation in Nayedugadem has been strengthened by the marriage of several good Christian girls from the boarding school to their young men, and I have good hope that these girls will be centres of light to all that are round about them. The inquirers in Peddapad stand firm, but they have made little progress in knowledge, and I have not yet been able to baptize any of them. Your agent, Kandavalli Peter, who is in charge of the circle, is a decidedly pious and able young man. This year he won the first place in the Bishop's Bible Prizes. It is worth Rs. 30, and was competed for by all the agents in our C.M.S. Telugu Mission, and by those in the Cuddapah Mission of the Propagation Society, so that it is truly an honourable distinction to have won it. He has joined the Ordination Class, and I have no doubt we will see him soon in Holy Orders.

2. Rajarâm.—I cannot give an encouraging report of Rajarâm, from the first it has been barren, the pressure of famine coming upon them this year scattered the people, and I had to close the school and remove the teacher. It is still visited by a Reader from a near station, but I am greatly afraid the bulk of those who are now called inquirers must have their names removed from our books. I have still hope of a few that they will not forsake the fountain of living waters.

3. Bataharagudem.—Near to them is Bataharagudem. The famine pressed sore upon this place, and the people were reduced to the last extremities. They supported life for a time on wild roots, and leaves, and fruits. This unwholesome food was attended by a dread attack of cholera. Eleven of our adult inquirers besides children were carried off, and two whole families were entirely swept away. This dreadful shock no doubt weakened their faith, and it was followed by the death of the man who first induced them to embrace Christianity. I had only time to receive his testimony of faith in Jesus, and to close his eyes. His son, aged fourteen years, who was apparently a promising inquirer, and the wife performed his funeral ceremonies according to Heathen ceremonies, and though not actually removed from the roll there is little hope of their return to steadfastness. The remaining inquirers stand firm, and I have a good hope to see some of them brought into the kingdom of God if we faint not. The agent here has some good points and some failings. He seems, however, to do his work well though not perhaps in the prayerful sanctified spirit we should like to see.

4. Vennalapalli.—In the Vennalapalli circle there are three villages, containing Christians and inquirers; it was most severely visited by famine and the Christians were sorely tried. Three young men baptized at the beginning of the year under such happy circumstances, have proved themselves unworthy of our holy profession. Church discipline has been enforced in their case, and I hope two of them may be restored, but the youngest I fear can never “recover from the snare of the devil, as he is carried captive at his will.” The women of Vennalapalli are still very unpromising. They do not seem to make any progress. I fear the root of the matter is not in them. Pragadavaram which is also in this circle continues much in the same state as before. One family only has joined us. The others cannot make up their minds to self-denial and a holy life required by the Christian profession, and so they cling to this present evil world. In Singaraipapalam there are a few Christians and inquirers lately come from another part of the District. They are regularly seen after and services held for them by the Catechist in charge of the circle.

5. Hope of increase.—The year did not close without giving us hope of increase. Guzza Peter, the Evangelist in Pragadavaram, has found an open door amongst the relatives of his converts in Chintalapudi. This is a very important town on the borders of the Nizam. It is the Government and commercial centre of a large district. I trust soon to put a good man there, and I look confidently for a large increase in that direction as soon as the present distress is past. I am going to ask for the support of the new agent from the Walter Jones Fund first, because the whole of the work in that direction is paid for from the Fund, and secondly, because our estimates are largely cut down, and the General Fund does not supply us with the means of carrying out this extension. I have also the pleasure to report that we have erected a good school-church in Vennalapalli, and purchased houses there and in Bataharagudem, for the agents in charge. I feel strongly that this expense should be borne by the Fund, for it is impossible to carry on Church extension without Church building, and this requisite ought, therefore, to be charged to the Fund.

MAURITIUS MISSION.

The agents in Mauritius are four in number. No special account has been received of the work of any of them.

PROPER FORM OF A BENEFACTION TO THE SOCIETY BY WILL.

No. I.—Form of a Bequest of a Common Legacy.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer for the time being of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East the sum of _____ Pounds *free of Legacy duty for the general purposes of the said Society to be paid within _____ calendar months next after my death, exclusively out of such part of my Personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may be bequeathed for charitable purposes and in priority to all other payments thereout but to be subject to abate proportionably with other Legacies in case my general Personal Estate shall be insufficient for payment of them all in full. And I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society [or each of the said Societies] shall be an effectual discharge for the said Legacy [or Legacies respectively].

No. II.—Form of Bequest of the Residue, or a Share of the Residue.

And in order to give full effect to the bequest hereinafter contained for charitable purposes I direct that my Debts, the expenses of my funeral and of the probate and execution of this my Will and the Legacies bequeathed by this my Will or any Codicil thereto† shall be paid out of such part of my Personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may not be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the primary Fund‡ and in case only of the same being insufficient for payment thereof then out of such part of my Personal Estate as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the ultimate Fund: and subject as aforesaid, I give and bequeath unto the Treasurer for the time being of The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, for the general purposes of the said Society, such part of my Residuary Personal Estate as by the Laws in force may be bequeathed for charitable purposes [or if a share only of the Residue be intended to be given, then, instead of the words in Italics, say, "such sum of money as shall be equal to one fourth or one half, (according to the intention) of my whole Residuary Personal Estate to be paid exclusively out of such part thereof as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes or such less sum as the said last mentioned part of my Personal Estate will extend to pay"]. And I declare that the Receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society shall be an effectual discharge for the said residue [or sum of money, as the case may be]. And as to the remainder if any of my general Residuary Personal Estate I bequeath the same, &c.§

* If so intended.

† In case there be other charitable Legacies, insert here, "other than and except charitable Legacies."

‡ If it be intended also to charge the Debts and Legacies on Real Estate, then add, "and in the next place out of my Freehold and Copyhold Estates."

§ The latter Clause to be filled up according to the Testator's wishes; but it must not be for any charitable purpose.

-BENEFACTIONS OF FORMER YEARS, TO MARCH 31, 1875.

WHETHER PAID DIRECT TO THE PARENT SOCIETY OR THROUGH ASSOCIATIONS.

The following List does not contain Benefactions under 10l., nor Anonymous Benefactions, of whatever sum.

N.B.—To save expense of printing, the following List is revised only once in three years. Additional sums will be added in a Supplementary List during the intervening two years.

The Committee would be glad to receive information respecting any names in this List of Benefactions of former years" which should be expunged or altered, from death or other causes.

NOTICE TO TREASURERS AND SECRETARIES OF ASSOCIATIONS.

The Committee of the Church Missionary Society request the Treasurers or Secretaries of Associations to transmit the proceeds of their respective Associations, together with the Contribution Lists and Accounts, as soon after the close of their Financial Year as possible.

The Society's General Accounts are closed on the 31st of March, and all Moneys belonging to the Society must be received at the Society's House by that date, in order to secure the insertion of the same in their proper places in the Report.

The Lists and Accounts (written legibly to avoid mistakes in printing, and made up in the manner in which the same are printed in the Parent Society's Report) must, in order to secure insertion among the Association Lists in the Report, be sent in not later than the 31st of March. But both labour and expense may be saved to the Society by sending in the Lists and Accounts as much earlier as possible. The date at which the Accounts of the Association are closed, and the names of the Officers, should be specified. Should no names be given, it will be assumed that they remain the same as in the previous Report, and the List will be so printed. Where the Account or the List is printed one, two copies should be forwarded.

Where an Association has Branches connected with it, the Accounts of the Branches must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association some time before the period for forwarding the Accounts to the Association to London. When this is not done within a reasonable time, such Branches should be considered as self-excluded, and the Accounts forwarded without them.

To prevent mistakes, it is requested that Branch Associations will in every case, where practicable, forward their Money and Lists through the Association with which they are connected, and not direct to the Parent Society.

The Committee would also point out, for more universal adoption, the convenience of making payments on account whenever any considerable proportion of the year's receipts is in the hands of a Local Treasurer. This course would tend to equalize in a greater degree the Income and expenditure in the earlier months of the Society's Financial Year, and save the Society a considerable yearly sum.

The Committee return their cordial thanks to the Treasurers of Associations, and to those friends who kindly fill the office of Secretary—an office which, they are well aware, draws largely on the time and attention of those who occupy it, but on the efficient discharge of the duties of which, the prosperity of an Association chiefly depends.

B.—Benefactors of Ten Pounds and upward, whose names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will find them in the List of "Benefactions of Former Years."
