STATIONS, CLERICAL OR LAY MISSIONARIES, AND NATIVE CLERGYMEN

SUPPORTED EITHER DIRECTLY BY THE SOCIETY, OR BY NATIVE CHURCH FUNDS SUBSIDIZED OR AIDED BY THE SOCIETY.

MAY 1, 1880.

A STATION is the place at which a Clerical or Lay Missionary is stationed, or at which Native Christians are located under Native pastoral superintendence in connexion with the Society. The latter (as) Agents are expected by the Society to lay themselves out to do good, in every practicable way, among Native Women: and cultivating familiar intercourse with them, educating children, and instructing the adult women. The figures after the Names of the European Labourers show the date of their first connexion with the Society's Missions.

The mark † denotes that the Name to which it is prefixed is that of an Agent supported by Native Church Funds aided by the Society. The Native Ministers in New Zealand are supported partly by Subscriptions from Native Christians, and partly from the rents of lands belonging to the Society in the Colony.

The Names of Native Clergymen are printed in italics. The figures after their names show the dates of ordination.

All the names under one station or department of work are printed in order of date, without reference to nationality, sex, orders, or other difference.

XXI. The COMMITTEE shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; but should the second Monday be a Bank Holiday the Meeting shall be held on the day following. The other Committees shall meet as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on. All Committee Meetings shall be opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy.

XXII. The Patrons, Vice-Patron, President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex officio, Members of all Committees. Governors, being Members of the Established Church of England, or of the Church of Ireland, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the COMMITTEE.

XXIII. Five Members shall be necessary to form a Quorum of the COMMITTEE; and Three of each of the Committees provided for in Law XII.; in each case exclusive of the Secretaries. In cases of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XXIV. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three Members of the COMMITTEE, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary, or in his absence by one of the other Secretaries.

XXV. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the COMMITTEE, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society, of whom not more than two shall be Members of the COMMITTEE. Three shall be a Quorum.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXVI. In the selection of Candidates for the Missionary office the following course shall be pursued. The cases of Candidates who are already in Holy Orders, or who are University Graduates, or whom it is proposed to send out without further training, shall be considered by the Committee of Correspondence, the Candidate having (as a rule) appeared in person before them, and a report having been given, after a personal interview, by one or more members of the Clerical Sub-Committee. If any Member of the Committee of Correspondence shall show reason for requiring further information, the consideration shall be deferred till a subsequent Meeting of that Committee. Other Candidates shall be examined by the Clerical Sub-Committee, which shall report to the Committee of Correspondence.

XXVII. A Candidate nominated by the Committee of Correspondence, and accepted by the COMMITTEE, shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time that the COMMITTEE shall decide, and be subject to such Regulations as may be established by the COMMITTEE for the direction of Missionaries: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society.

XXIX. Each Candidate, when duly prepared and finally approved for Missionary work, shall go out, either ordained or unordained, at the discretion of the COMMITTEE*.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the COMMITTEE: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the COMMITTEE, at the Station committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, such provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable as in the judgment of the COMMITTEE is suitable. The COMMITTEE shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support. The COMMITTEE shall be further empowered in special cases to make such arrangements with those employed by them as they may think fit.

GENERAL.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. All questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between a Bishop of the Church of England abroad and the COMMITTEE, shall, in the absence of any tribunal having legal cognizance of the same, be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the Provinces of Canterbury and York, whose decision thereupon shall be binding upon the Society and its agents and representatives.

The proposed reference shall be made by the COMMITTEE, through His Grace the Primate, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the COMMITTEE may deem advisable.

XXXIII. The object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as in any other respect to alter the principles and practices of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The Bishops of the Church of England, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] the Society's Missionaries; and in the event of their being appointed by the COMMITTEE to labour at stations within the jurisdiction of a Bishop of the Church of England abroad, it is the practice of the Society to apply to the Bishop for licenses, in which are specified the districts to which the Missionaries have been assigned. This is done on the understanding that licenses will neither be refused, nor when granted be withdrawn from the Missionaries during their connexion with the Society, except for some assigned legal cause.

At the Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May 4, 1880, being the Eighty-first Anniversary—

The Right Hon. the EARL OF CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

AFTER PRAYER AND THE READING OF A PORTION OF HOLY SCRIPTURE,
THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY THE REV. H. WRIGHT, M.A., Honorary Secretary;

On the Motion of the RIGHT REV. THE LORD BISHOP OF GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL, V.P., seconded by EARL CAIRNS, V.P., and supported by the REV. J. R. WOLFE, Missionary from Foo Chow, it was—

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be adopted, and printed under the direction of the Committee; that the thanks of the Meeting be given to the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Rochester, for his Sermon before the Society last evening, and that it be printed and circulated; that Captain the Hon. Francis Maude, R.N., be the Treasurer of the Society, and that the Committee be appointed for the ensuing year, with power to fill up vacancies.—[See List, p. iv.]

On the Motion of the REV. JOHN C. RYLE, D.D., Bishop-Designate of Liverpool, seconded by the REV. C. T. WILSON, B.A., Missionary from Uganda, and supported by the REV. C. F. WARREN, Missionary from Japan, and the VEN. ARCHDEACON KIRKBY, Missionary from North-West America, it was—

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That this Meeting again acknowledges with heartfelt thankfulness to Almighty God the tokens that have been received during the past year of the effectual working of the Holy Spirit in connexion with the Society's work both at home and abroad; and while regarding with deep interest the desire for education and civilization that is manifesting itself in many of the nations among whom the Society's Missionaries are labouring, this Meeting would express its firm conviction that these cravings will only prove helpful to the progress of the kingdom of God so far as they are accompanied by the simple, faithful preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the power of the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; that the only way, therefore, of securing increased success in the work is the continuance on the part of the labourers in the resolute determination to know nothing but Jesus Christ and Him crucified, and an increase on the part of the friends at home of the spirit of fervent and believing prayer.

At a Second Meeting, held in Exeter Hall, on the Evening of the same Day—

STEVENSON A. BLACKWOOD, Esq., C.B., in the Chair,

Addresses were delivered by the Chairman; Mr. R. W. Felkin, Missionary from Uganda; the Ven. Archdeacon Kirkby; the Rev. A. E. Moule, B.D., Missionary from China; and the Rev. W. Doyle, M.A., Minister of the Stowell Memorial Church, Manchester.

SERMON,

PREACHED

AT ST. BRIDE'S CHURCH, FLEET STREET,

ON MONDAY EVENING, MAY 3, 1880,

BEFORE THE Church Missionary Society,

RIGHT REV. THE LORD BISHOP OF ROCHESTER,

VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE SOCIETY.

JOHN xi. 39.

“JESUS SAID, TAKE YE AWAY THE STONE.”

IN a village street under the “purple brow” of Olivet an agitated group had gathered round a tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. Some of them had come from afar, for they bore marks of fatigue and travel; while others were from the city on the other side of the hill.

But on one foremost figure all eyes were gazing; for His dignity was only matched by His sweetness; and while His cheeks were wet with recent tears, His frame shook with such strong emotion, that on reaching the grave all He could say was, “Take ye away the stone.” In a moment of intelligible sensitiveness a relative reminded Him, that her brother had lain there four days. But the delay was only for a moment; the irresistible summons was pronounced, “Lazarus, come forth!” and “when he that was dead came forth bound hand and foot with grave-clothes, Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.”

You may have already felt how this great miracle is also a parable of the co-operation of human effort with Divine grace in the conversion of the world. Lazarus lay dead in his tomb, and the mass of mankind is "dead"—"in trespasses and in sins." The stone before the sepulchre which closed in the decay and shut out the sunlight, means the blind superstition, and subtle mysticism, and stubborn prejudice, and abominable idolatry that hide God from the heathen; and He, who with the same words that wakened the dead could also, had it pleased Him, have rolled away the stone and unswathed the limbs of His friend, and did not, because He desired to stir faith and reward effort, makes us fellow-workers with Himself in His Redeeming Purpose; and giving us the Gospel, nay, being Himself the Gospel, bids us proclaim Him to the world.

Men, brethren, and fathers—one in the joy of our common salvation and in the hope of the appearing of Christ our King—what words can I find adequate to express the grandeur of the subject on which I this day address you; or the conviction of my heart, that this beloved and honoured Society, in the principles she represents and the doctrines she declares, and the methods she adopts, and the support she conciliates, is not only foremost among the spiritual forces promoting Christ's kingdom among men, but is also one of the most vital and potent institutions of our dear English Church? For this work is so essentially noble, even from the lowest point of view. If truth is the most precious inheritance of man, then the wider the surface it covers, the deeper the problems it solves, the darker the sorrows it heals, the loftier the hopes it inspires, the more beautiful and magnanimous is the task of proclaiming it. The entire world would execrate the selfishness that deliberately concealed an effectual cure for some cruel and infectious disease. And ours is a faith which, in its ideal of a perfect life, in its story of an atoning sacrifice, in its bond of a human brotherhood, in its hope of union with God, at once meets, absorbs, surpasses, and glorifies whatever is to be found in other faiths that have satisfied or attempted to satisfy the religious instincts of men; and if we did not do our utmost to tell our fellows of it, and to press it on their acceptance, the cavil would be unanswerable, either that we secretly doubt its integrity, or greedily monopolize its joy.

Oh, sheep of Christ whom He has bought with His blood—other sheep He has, which He must find and bring that they may be one flock with you; and you must search them out and bring them to His feet. They are very dear to Him. He has never forgotten them, never forsaken them. Some rays of His glory glimmer on their souls ; and in a passionate hunger for truth, which some of us might do well to imitate, many of them bear untold anguish to catch a glimpse of His face. Send them the Gospel of His love. Do it quickly, for the time is short ; boldly, for you must not be ashamed of His testimony ; trustfully, for it is the " power of God unto salvation ;" wisely, for He does not want our mistakes. Be patient, for " long sleeps the summer in the seed." Be gentle, for the Cross makes wounds enough without our adding to them. Be hopeful, for all He has is ours. Be humble, for if they have much to learn, they may have something to teach.

Manifest Christ's life of love in your own joyful and steady sacrifices ; and in resembling Him you will show them the nature of God.

There is the Grave, the Stone, and the Command.

In the Grave we are to see Heathendom. If the angel of the Apocalypse, flying in the midst of heaven with the everlasting Gospel, should strike the globe in the middle of the Pacific, and then turn westward about 40° north of the equator, first he would come to Japan, that imitative and keen-witted race, where, ten years ago, our one English Missionary saw this notice : " The evil sect called Christian is strictly prohibited ;" and now 5000 persons confess Jesus Christ, and our own Society alone has nine Missionaries there.

On west, to the mighty Empire of China, with its many zones of climate, its teeming millions, its indefatigable industry, its good-humoured materialism, the nation which, if it knew its strength and could find its Tamerlane, might soon overrun the world. Here the Society has 100 new out-stations during the last nine years ; 8 Native Clergy against 2 ; 180 Native teachers against 53 ; 4054 Native Christians against 853.

On over the steppes of Thibet to the crest of the Himalaya, at whose feet nestles the jewel of the East, sunny and fertile Hindoostan, with its manifold races, and ancient civilization ; also with its ineffable wickedness and its history red with blood. Here we have 109 Native Clergy against 57 nine years ago ; 1700 Native teachers against 1370 ; 90,000 Christian adherents against 64,000 ; 1109 schools against 787 ; 41,000 scholars against 32,000. The tide of life is rising, though it be far from its flood.

On over Egypt, the eyebrow of Africa, into the heart of that vast continent, where if there is blackness of darkness, dawn is breaking. In all parts of that enormous territory Satan's power is being attacked. On the East Coast this Society has eight Missionaries against one seven years ago. The banner of the Cross floats over the fountains of the Nile. In the south, the great sister society holds an intrenched position. In the west, Sierra Leone recalls our distant and grateful memories. We have also the Yoruba and Niger Missions, with 23 Native Clergy against 11 ; 96 Native lay agents against 41 ; 7500 Christians against 2300.

Crossing the Atlantic, towards the Pole we reach the spacious plains and mighty rivers of the North-West, where among the roots of the Rocky Mountains, Duncan has given an heroic example of energy and skill in evangelizing almost the lowest races that the Gospel can reach ; where, moreover, in the basins of the Saskatchewan, the Nelson, and the Mackenzie, in a land that some imagine to be a frozen morass shut in by impenetrable pine-forests, we have 14 Missionaries against 10 ; 12 Native Clergy against 8 ; 62 teachers against 19 ; 11,600 Native Christians against 4200 ; and it seems to me a sagacity, with no slight statesmanship in it (and reminding those who knew him of the vigorous intelligence of Henry Venn), thus to be occupying a territory which, in the time of our grandchildren, may rival the greatest of our dependencies for resources, population, and enterprise.

Christian brethren, I am not at all apprehensive of wearying you with these facts. I should much more dread fatiguing you with tumid or rhetorical emotion. Yet there is very much more land to be possessed ; and while we ought to be unspeakably grateful for what has already been done, and should be on our guard against a feeble dastardliness about this enormous enterprise—the work we are now doing can only be adequately figured by a handful of pioneers cutting at the Andes with penknives ; and the one conviction of all others I would press on you is this, that you will never carry the strongholds of heathenism with a rush. Some of you will remember Edward Irving's grand though eccentric sermon on "Missionaries after the Apostolical School," where he observes that "to be a Missionary is the highest preferment in the kingdom of God," and that "the four principal things in the propagation of the Gospel are wisdom to address the worthiest people, entire dependence upon God, exemplification of the doctrine, and constant debate with the children of men." But I may also remind you of a sentence of one of the ablest Christian thinkers of our time, who writes,* "It does appear that among the gifts of our countrymen the rarest is knowing and doing justice to the religious beliefs of other nations."

* "Word, Work, and Will," p. 294.

We talk of heathenism, but are we at the pains to reflect that between the fetishism of the savage of the Niger and the serene mysticism of the Brahmin there is a chasm as wide as the Mississippi? Under any circumstances it is hard, and ought to be hard, to change the religion, whether of an individual or a race. It is hard, because it is so noble. I suppose if anything under the sun should be dear to an honest man it is his religion. It colours his life, shapes his principles, points his motives, consecrates his actions. It is inherited from his parents; it twines round the roots of his childhood; it smiles on his bridal; it softens the shadows of his grave. And when the religion you propose to substitute is a religion with a cross in it, with no material prosperity for its reward, and a world to come as its distant recompense, is it wonderful that one who asks what the exchange will bring to him, and is told "the reproach of Christ," is slow in giving his reply? Glance at this in detail, and it may become even plainer.

The Karen, the Bedouin of the Jordan Valley, the negro of the Zambesi or the Congo may present types of a mental and moral quality not indispensably claiming for their suitable handling gifts or culture of an exceptional kind. Though, indeed, it should never be forgotten that savage races are not necessarily deficient in mental force or quickness, and that it needs practised skill, vivid fancy, solid patience, rare sense instinctively to divine what needs instant killing, and what may be left to perish of itself.

But approach the Mussulman—proud heir of a line of conquerors—who looks on the rest of the world as still existing by his clemency, whose Missionary zeal at this moment is so fierce and energetic that in Africa his competition may run us very hard, and who simply disdains other faiths as not worth reasoning about; tell him about the Incarnation, and his answer, if he gives you one, will make you shudder for years. This I am sure of, that if you had ever talked with Pfander, as I once did at Constantinople, on this matter, you might not indeed despair, for God is with us; but certainly you would not go with tripping gait and a too complacent cheerfulness to try a fall with Islam.

Or go to the Brahmin. He cherishes a faith which has flourished for three thousand years. His language is the root-tongue of all the dialects of Europe. His sacred books date from seven hundred years before Christ was born. He boasts of a hundred and eighty-five millions of fellow-worshippers. God he considers solely as an Intelligence.

His castes* have been regarded as efforts of separation, whereby the best may be ultimately selected for serving Him. What some call the multitudinous idolatry of three thousand gods, others ingeniously explain to be only an indefatigable attempt to find what God is, and where, with the one desire of being finally absorbed in His Essence. Is it quite so easy to win these dreamy but subtle thinkers into a newer and simpler faith?

Once more go to the Buddhist, and there are four hundred and ninety millions of Buddhists, if you include the disciples of Confucius. Their founder lived six hundred years before Christ. The Buddhist is far more catholic and democratic than the Brahmin. The poorest and vilest may become one with Boodha, and when his faith is perfected he is swallowed up in God. The one infallible diagnostic of Buddhism is "a belief in the infinite capacity of the human intellect." Well, is not it plain what skilful and thorough intellectual treatment such a man needs, and is it not desirable to try to give it him? No man has a better claim to be heard on this subject than Professor Monier Williams. But he thus writes in "Indian Wisdom": † "It appears to me high time that all thoughtful Christians should reconsider their position, and readjust themselves to their altered environments. The sacred books of the three great systems opposed to Christianity are now becoming accessible, and Christians can no longer neglect the duty of studying their contents."

You here to-night, who know the joy of knowledge and the passionate force of a new and lofty idea, I ask, is it not true what Pascal said, that man's dignity consists in his faculty of thinking, and that, though he is miserable, he knows it, and there is his greatness? These thinkers of the East—and, remember, it is truth that ultimately rules the world—they cannot, indeed, cover the earth with iron bars, or talk by wires, or span the ocean with steam; such is our greatness. But often they are far deeper and subtler thinkers than we are; and when we go to them, as it is our duty to go, and ask them to listen to us, as it is our privilege to ask, let us beware how we blandly invite them to exchange their faith for ours, unless meeting them on their own ground, and contending with weapons which they can appreciate, we suitably propose to them a life that they can venerate, and a Person whom they can adore. Otherwise they will hardly take the trouble of laughing at us, much less of answering us; and quietly dismissing us with an urbane silence, they will wrap themselves in the mantle of their pride, and rejoice that at least Thought is free.

But Jesus said, "Take ye away the stone."

It may be roughly observed that there are three stages in Mission work, with usually a logical order of their own. Though, of course, when it pleases Him, God confounds this order, by cutting across it, or anticipating it, thereby manifesting His sovereignty, and doing all His work Himself.

There is the work of preparation by civilization and education, in which the stone is rolled away for light and air to come in.

There is the work of evangelization, by which the Word of God is spoken straight into the spirit—"Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead."

There is the final work of watering, and watching, and maturing the young life just born by pastoral care and superintendence—"Loose him, and let him go."

To my own mind nothing is more conspicuous or admirable in the operations of this Society than the patient, resolute courage with which, even at the risk of misconstruction from unreasonable friends and coarse sarcasm from enemies, they have planted schools and cultivated the arts of life. No doubt it is possible to put civilization in the place of Christ, and you cannot regenerate man by refining him. Yet it must not be forgotten that in some heathen races both conscience and intelligence have in a certain degree to be created before there is a capacity either for morality or faith. Physical habits have to be formed, methods of life to be learned, not only for material comfort, but for moral education. Industry everywhere is the best safeguard against viciousness, and the arts of peace are the surest protection against war. In some tribes a language has to be framed; in almost all the vocabulary must be enlarged before the terms of our religion can be imparted or understood. To give a human being self-respect is a help to the cultivation of conscience. Unless he learns to observe, to reason, to compare, to remember, how can he be an intelligent hearer of the Word of life? But all this means prodigious labour, unwearied patience, and much sympathy. Past efforts in New Zealand, present efforts in Frere Town and Uganda have deserved, and ought to deserve, the gratitude of practical men. Taking our fellow-creatures as we find them, we feel it our duty to make the best of them, and to help them to live for both worlds.

So too with education. Possibly a few may still be of opinion that the sole function of a Missionary Society is to preach to adults. Yet what in that case would become of the young? In India, no doubt, a certain provision is made by the State, but the teaching is entirely secular, and the Redeemer of the world is only offered a place in the Pantheon of universal benefactors. If this Church Missionary Society did nothing outside its schools, it might claim to be approaching the heathen at the most impressionable period of life. In India alone it expends £10,000 a year on education; and in addition to about 1000 primary schools for boys and girls it controls 12 institutions for the training of Native pastors, evangelists, and teachers; 50 institutions where the youth of both sexes are boarded and lodged; 70 institutions for higher general education, whether high-schools, middle-class, or Anglo-vernacular schools. A sub-committee has recently reported especially on the higher education now given in them, that even as an evangelizing agency it has done, and is capable of doing, much good; and they give instances of Native Christians now Missionaries, or occupying influential positions in many parts of India, who owe their conversion to the Society's schools for higher education, and who in all human probability would, but for these schools, never have come into contact with Divine truth at all. And if I might add a word here on two departments of secular knowledge especially useful in taking away the stone from the sepulchre, I should name history and science. History, as Bishop Caldwell has strikingly put it; since how without history is it possible to trace the providential government of the world, or to elucidate one of the most remarkable evidences of our religion in fulfilled prophecy? Science—for the study of God's laws in the methodical and exact observation of His works is both the readiest and surest way of exploding the monstrous legends of a polluted mythology. When to the contemplation of God in His works the Church adds the revelation of God in His Word, she completes the system of full-orbed knowledge. Science is then seen to be only a stair leading to God; not the entire account of Him: we approach to observe, and we remain to adore.

Then when the stone is rolled away, and the voice can penetrate the tomb, the vital summons is delivered—"Lazarus, come forth." This is the central, the normal, the essential function of the Missionary—to preach Christ as the wisdom of God and the power of God. There are three kinds of power at work in the world, each in a sphere of its own—force over the senses, truth over the intellect, love over the will. As to the first Christ says, "My kingdom is not of this world;" and what is analogous to that in our case—I mean State patronage—would be only a fatal embarrassment to us. All we ask is to be left alone, with hands and lips free. But truth and love we know, for we have tried them; and they are essentially contained, completely revealed, and harmoniously united in the Incarnate Son. The Person of Christ is the Gospel of our Salvation. In His life He is the Pattern of Righteousness; in His death He is the Propitiation for Sin; in His Resurrection He is the Conqueror of Death; in His Ascension He is Priest upon His Throne. Here, too, lie concealed the characteristic dogmas of our religion in their humbling and unpalatable account of sin and helplessness, as well as in their lofty and exalting revelation of God's purpose for us, and our own vast possibilities. And it is only by the unflinching exposition of man's depravity and weakness with the elevating exposition of the mystery of regeneration and the glory of redeeming love, that the conscience of the heathen can be reached and wounded, and his mind and spirit exalted with the vision of God. Sin the curse of the world, and death its wages; salvation, both from its deserts and dominion, the free and present gift of God to all who repent and believe; the Holy Ghost the author of regeneration and holiness; Scripture our rule of faith; Baptism and the Lord's Supper effectual signs of grace to believers; the Church at once the body and handmaid of Christ: here is our message, to be preached, indeed, with tenderness and wisdom (not as you would fire live shells into an enemy's camp), still unreservedly and continually, at the risk of misconstruction and contempt; also (as the Apostles have taught us to do), didactically rather than emotionally, aiming at the understanding as the fittest passage chamber to the soul, with a sagacious sympathy that approaches them on the side where they are most vulnerable, and with the honest recognition of truths which they hold in common with us, and which we desire to use as paths into the territory beyond.

Then when the dead comes forth living, yet hampered with grave-clothes, it is the pastor's office to loose him and let him go. It cannot need a lengthened argument to enforce the necessity of a careful, and patient, and systematic supervision of baptized converts for months and years afterwards. The Acts tell us that; also, that this can ultimately be most effectually done by a Native pastorate, a moment's reflection may show. Of course, if the Churches in the East are to be kept steady in their hold of catholic truth and fellowship, generations may pass before they can safely dispense with the guidance of their European fathers. Yet the sympathy of common blood, of national history, of local association, of early training is vital and lasting; and if the Church is to spread widely and deeply—if she is to attract to herself the masses of the people, and to build the Church of Asia on the one foundation of Jesus Christ, there must be ample elasticity both in local arrangement and external machinery; and the Church will grow only as she is wide and free. And, my brethren, shall she grow? These “fields white unto the harvest,” shall our hands reap them for the Lord; or shall He come and find us sleeping, and so hire others into our places? No words can exaggerate the solemn responsibility which rests with those I see before me to-day, and to whom my heart goes out in the sympathy of one who, for the best years of his life, joined with them in their hallowed activities, hopes to be considered their brother still. It is not too much to say that on the provincial clergy of England the progress of Missions must depend; for in the great towns, London most of all, the clergy are like men buried up to their waist in a great earth pit of conflicting duties, only half free for work outside. Definite, complete, vigilant parochial organization is the vital element under God of our Society’s success; and I am sometimes tempted to tremble when I see how great a power is in the hands of the clergy, for which some of them do not seem to care. May I quote here the unimpeachable testimony of an impartial and incorruptible witness? In a letter written just fifty years ago to the Resident Masters of the University of Oxford, after noticing certain presumed irregularities in the practice of the Society—all of which, be it observed, have since been eagerly and successfully imitated by other Church Societies—John Henry Newman then proceeds: “In the case of this Society the authority of our ecclesiastical rules is acknowledged by its very name, which its regulations so well bear out, that you may search in vain through them all for any principle of a sectarian tendency;” and he adds, with the object of gaining for it the support and steadying influence of the entire Church, “It is only necessary for the clergy of each diocese and archdeaconry to take up the management of the association in their own neighbourhood.” *

And, brethren, that we may do this, and with both hands, earnestly, what shall we ask of God?

Is it faith? Well, we do want faith, and our prayer must ever be, "Lord, increase our faith." For surely it is true, that if there is faith on the earth when the Lord comes back, it will be greatly due to Christian Missions. They are the protest of vital godliness against a formal and languid religionism. They are the direct challenge of those who tell us that Jesus never rose; they are the emphatic antidote to that sickly and feeble creed, which, with courage neither to believe nor to deny, begins by telling us that life is a journey between two nights, and ends with the consolation that "at intervals a paternal smile traverses Nature." It is the resolute courage that looks right into the tomb with its fetid air and ghastly decay, because He bids us do it, who whispers while we do it, "Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?"

Yet we do believe a little, or why are we here to-day? We believe in the redeeming purpose of God, and that it is His will presently to gather together in one all things in Christ; and though He seems to be waiting, He knows why He is waiting; and be sure, that when all things are made plain at break of day, there will be no flaw in His perfect righteousness, no speck or stain on the mercy of His heart. And we believe in the Intercession of the Son; that, as He said to His disciples about Lazarus, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the Glory of God"—though Lazarus did die—so in some mystery of His love, this condition of the Heathen may have a compensating side to it; and that as He looks down on the dark places of the earth, and speaks to us about them, He says, "Obey Me, yet trust Me."

And, indeed, we believe in the Holy Ghost, the Author and Giver of life, with every fibre and pulse of our being. Perhaps the most consoling feature about these latter days, not too full of consolation, is that the Church's faith seems stirred and invigorated about the work of the Spirit; that this Purpose of the Father, not spent at Pentecost, is being fulfilled to us who believe.

Yet it must be "faith working by love," for, indeed, it seems to me that our great lack is of love; and that because there is so little love—and therefore so little sacrifice—the reproach of a living preacher is so true, "The great vice of human nature is slackness about good;" and so this great daughter of the Church has her checks, and delays, and disappointments in her onward march with the message of salvation; not because Christ stints His grace, but because His people grudge their offering. For if money is the test of character, slender gifts are the language of lukewarm love.

Also, I think that if ever Christ deserved to be honoured, and His goodness conspicuously recognized, it is to-day. A year of almost unexampled commercial depression has, nevertheless, terminated with a heavy inherited embarrassment entirely swept away, and with what might be almost called the insignificant accident of £3000 on the debit side.

Moreover, twelve months ago, a shadow on the horizon had gathered into a black mist; and the mist might mean a storm. That, too, has disappeared by God's great blessing on sagacious, kindly counsel; yes, and let me add, on the conscience of a young Bishop, about whom none, however seriously they felt compelled to differ from his convictions, ever seriously doubted his love to Christ. Surely all here this evening will ask for him, what he bids us ask for in his own touching language, that he may resume his blessed work with "humility and wisdom, and a deeper spirit of prayer." Therefore I say let us bless God for His goodness. While we ask Him to help us to love Him, we will show that we love Him by our gifts; and pray Him not only now, but to-morrow and continually, to bestow on us more of a holy, and serious, and steady, and yet passionate devotion;—a love which is not so much a sentiment as a force in our nature; a love which grows from continual communion with Christ, and adoring contemplation of Him, so that if the fancy sleeps the will is true.

O Jesus of Nazareth, who from Thy Throne above the stars lookest down in compassion on the heathen that have not known Thee, and on the people that have not called on Thy Name; so steep us in the spirit of Thy Atoning Passion—so persuade us of the loss of those who miss Thee, and of the peril of those who forget Thee; that this very night, as did our fathers of old, we may make Thee an offering in some way worthy of Thy unspeakable goodness, and our own indebtedness; and thus, made mighty in the power of Thy Resurrection, and consecrated with the fellowship of Thy sufferings, we shall ever rejoice to remove this stone from the Sepulchre, and to push the Triumph of Thy Cross.

The following system for spelling NATIVE NAMES is recommended to the Society's Missionaries generally for adoption in their letters and reports, unless any of them should prefer a still closer approximation to the more elaborate scheme of Professor Lepsius. This system should not be applied, of course, to those well-known places of which the spelling has become so fixed that it would be mere pedantry to disturb it; as, for instance, Travancore (Travankur), and Lucknow (Laknau). Other well known names, spelt correctly according to this method, are not pronounced accordingly by English residents. For example, the a in Lagos is always pronounced by English residents, when speaking English, as in the word make.

a as in 'about.'	i as in 'pique.'
â usually as in 'father' (in North-Indian words as in 'all').	o as in 'not,' or, as in the French 'bonne.'
e as in 'pen.'	ô as in 'note.'
ê as in 'fête.'	u as in 'full.'
i as in 'thin.'	û as in 'truly.'
	ai as i in 'thine.'
	au or ou or ow as in 'bough.'

It needs only to be noticed further that—

y always sounds as in 'you.'	gn as in 'poignant.'
g „ as in 'go.'	ng as in 'thing.'
j „ as in 'join.'	ei as in 'vein.'

h has always a separate sound, except in ch as in 'church,' and sh as in she; th and dh should, therefore, not be used in South Indian names to express the dental t and d.

c whether for k or s, being superfluous, is not used.

Doubled letters should each be pronounced distinctly, as in Italian.

ae represents a sound intermediate between a in 'mat' and e in 'met.'

The above Rules are not adopted in the N.W. America Mission.

REPORT,

&c., &c.

"TRULY God is good to Israel." The Committee cannot otherwise begin this Report than by calling upon the friends and members of the Society to unite with them in rejoicing before the Lord for the willingness with which His people have offered to Him for the work.

The offerings of all kinds which have been received during the past year for the general work of the Society have reached the grand total of 221,723*l.* The Associations have remitted 141,685*l.* (nearly 10,000*l.* of it being received from the Hibernian Auxiliary). Benefactions have produced, 23,805*l.*; Legacies, 19,922*l.*; and Sundries, 9296*l.*; making a total of 194,708*l.* There has been received in addition, for the Deficiency Fund, 27,015*l.*; making a grand total of 221,723*l.*

The result is that the Deficiency of 1877 and 1878, amounting to 24,757*l.* (20,567*l.* being borrowed from the Capital Fund, and 4190*l.* being an adverse balance brought over from last year), has been wiped off; the Capital Fund being restored to its original figure, viz.: 68,281*l.*; and the year's expenses have been met by the year's income, with the exception of a small adverse balance of 3342*l.*

It should be mentioned, that there is included in these figures (as the Committee consider ought always to be the case in order to give an exact view of the Society's position) the balances due on Special Mission Funds. This will explain the slight apparent discrepancy between the above statement and a sentence that has appeared in a paper on the Day of Intercession, in which account was not taken of Special Funds.

The practice of earlier remittance which some of the associations have adopted (for which the Committee are very thankful) and the introduction of new financial arrangements, have rendered it possible to carry on the operations of the Society with a somewhat smaller working Capital Fund than was previously considered necessary. The Committee have therefore resolved to set apart 60,000*l.* as the permanent working capital of the Society, and to place the remainder of the Capital Fund to a separate account, to be called the Contingency Fund, which may assist in equalizing the Income in years in which Legacies and Benefactions are below the average, and to which, on the other hand, additions will be made in those years in which Legacies are above the average. The Contingency Fund will also be a source from which grants may be made for building and other capital expenditure. It is proposed to meet the adverse balance of the past year from this Contingency Fund, thus enabling the Society to begin the year with a clear balance sheet.

For these results the Committee feel deeply thankful to Almighty God, and to the friends, rich and poor, who, moved by His Spirit, have so zealously come forward in a time of such wide-spread commercial and agricultural depression.

At the same time, an examination of the figures of the past year is sufficient to show that the regular income of the Society is not upon a footing equal to the expenditure of 200,000*l.* per annum. For although the Associations are 6700*l.* in advance of last year, nearly 4000*l.* of that sum is due to payments of long outstanding legacies in Ireland. It is also probable that in analyzing the Association returns, it will be found that considerable sums are due to the special appeals. The Committee do not consider, therefore, that the results of the year relieve them from the obligation under which they felt themselves of adopting such measures of retrenchment as may, in the course of the next three years, more nearly equalize expenditure and income. The arrangements which the Committee have decided upon have been the subject of the most anxious and careful consideration; and though they must necessarily cause pain in some quarters, yet the Committee have the confident hope that, with God's blessing, the effect will be not only to place the finances of the Society on a more satisfactory footing, but also ere long to set the Society free to enter with new vigour upon those regions of the earth where the name of the Lord Jesus Christ is yet unknown.

That this may prove to be the case, the Committee throw themselves afresh upon the warm and hearty co-operation of the friends of the Society, which never yet has failed them. They ask most earnestly, for the Master's sake, and for the sake of the souls for whom He died—

“Souls in heathen darkness lying,
Where no light has broken through,” that there may be no relaxation of effort—that every member and friend of the Society may continually hear the Master's voice bidding them go forward, “forgetting the things that are behind, and reaching forth unto those things that are before," until the oft-repeated prayer is fulfilled, and His way—even the King's highway of peace and holiness—is known upon the whole earth, His saving health among all nations.

A sum of 2000*l.* has been received during the year from some 12,000 contributors, for the formation of a Frances Ridley Havergal Memorial Fund—a testimony of no mean value to the holy and widespread influence of the writings of that gifted lady, that breathe so sensibly in every page the spirit of loyalty to her King. The interest of this Fund will be expended on the training and employment of Native Bible-women, and in the translation and circulation in India, and (should the fund allow) other Mission fields, of suitable and selected portions of Frances Ridley Havergal's books, whereby "she, being dead, may yet speak." This fund, it should be stated, is mainly due to the editor and the readers of the valuable popular newspaper, Hand and Heart.

MISSIONARY CANDIDATES.

The restraint under which the Committee have felt themselves to diminish, instead of increasing, the number of European Missionaries, has naturally affected the offers of service. Two University men only have been accepted during the year—one from Oxford, and the other from Cambridge. Seventeen students are leaving the Society's College, to be ordained in the course of the next few weeks; but the Committee have directed that all of them, save one, an African, shall for the present obtain curacies in this country until they can be prudently sent out. The Committee have also directed that, for the present, the number of men under training shall be limited, so as to supply not more than eight or nine in each year. It is with much pain and unwillingness that the Committee feel compelled to adopt a repressive policy of this kind, but the number of Missionaries now in the field involves an expenditure considerably greater than can be met by the probable income of the next two or three years.

PATRONAGE.

To the list of Vice-Presidents will be added, on their acceptance of the office, the names of Dr. Walsham How, Bishop of Bedford, and of Canon Ryle, Bishop-Designate of Liverpool. The Committee desire also to add the names of Dr. Moorhouse, Bishop of Melbourne; Dr. Cowie, Bishop of Auckland; Dr. Sweatman, Bishop of Toronto; Dr. Ridley, Bishop of Caledonia; Dr. Barclay, the Anglican Bishop in Jerusalem; Dr. Speechly, Bishop of Travancore and Cochin; the Very Rev. J. S. Howson, D.D., Dean of Chester; the Very Rev. J. J. S. Perowne, D.D., the Dean of Peterborough; the Very Rev. C. J. Vaughan, D.D., Dean of Llandaff; Dr. Perowne, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Cambridge; Arthur Mills, Esq., and Alexander Beattie, Esq., the former of whom as a member of Parliament, and the latter as a member of Committee for fifty years in India and England, have rendered valuable service to the Society.

The following having rendered very essential services to the Society, have been added to the list of Honorary Governors for Life:—The Rev. J. Deck, M.A., Vicar of St. Stephen's, Kingston-upon-Hull; the Rev. J. F. Fenn, B.D., Vicar of Christ Church, Cheltenham; the Rev. A. Baring-Gould, M.A., Vicar of Christ Church, Winchester; the Rev. Canon Richardson, M.A., Vicar of Camden Church, Camberwell; the Rev. J. E. Sampson, Vicar of Barrow-on-Humber; Joseph Hoare, Esq.; Dr. Shann, of York; and E. P. Williams, Esq., of Surbiton.

Among the officers and friends of the Society who have been removed by death during the past year, the Committee cannot refrain from giving the foremost place to their beloved fellow-labourer, Samuel Hasell. In the fullest sense, he lived for the Society, for he recognized in it the cause of his Lord and for it he died, passing from the very midst of service to receive at his Master's hands his sure reward. The Committee are thankful that there has been provided in his place one in whose hands, by the grace of God, the work is being carried on in the same spirit—the Rev. Henry Sutton, Vicar of St. Cleopas, Liverpool. Two noble names have been lost from the list of Vice-Presidents during the past year—names that may well be mentioned in the same breath, for, though they occupied widely different spheres, both alike in an eminent degree represented all that is best in the English character; both were alike in the union of energy and firmness with singular gentleness and kindness of heart—both alike in their stern fidelity to conscience and to God—both alike in their warm, unwavering attachment to the principles of this Society: Charles Baring, the Bishop of Durham; John Lawrence, the Viceroy of India. From among the lay members of the Committee, William Ballance has been called home; and among the Society's clerical friends may be specially mentioned, Edward H. Carr, Rector of Bidborough; and Henry Moule, the aged Vicar of Fordington.

ORDINATION OF MISSIONARIES.

Twenty-three European Missionaries, including five Laymen already engaged at the Missions, and four Natives have been admitted to Deacon's orders, viz., one by the Archbishop of Canterbury; sixteen by the Bishop of London; three by the Bishop of Calcutta; one by the Bishop of Madras; one by the Bishop of Sierra Leone; one by the Bishop of Rupert's Land; two by the Bishop of Saskatchewan; one by the Bishop of Auckland, and one by the Bishop of Waiapu. NUMBER OF LABOURERS.

During the year 1879-80, thirteen European Clergymen, three Laymen and two Female Teachers have been sent out from England or received in the Missions; and thirteen European labourers of all classes have, through death or other causes, ceased to be connected with the Society. The number of the Society's European labourers, on May 1st, 1880, is as follows :—

Abroad—

Lay Missionaries	37
Female Teachers	9
	— 217

At Home—

Missionaries in Holy Orders	40
Lay Missionaries	5
Female Teachers	6
	— 268

The present number of ordained Native labourers is 188. There are also eleven country-born Clergy engaged as agents of the Society.

Missions.

WEST-AFRICA MISSION.

(European Missionaries first arrived in 1804.)

IN all parts of the West Coast of Africa the Native Church continues to give proofs of the benefits resulting from the vigorous and able administration of Bishop Cheetham. At Sierra Leone itself, all the churches connected with the Society have been attached to the Native Church Fund, with the exception of a small chapel and district attached to Fourah Bay College. The Cathedral has not hitherto been connected either with the Society or with the Native Church organization; but negotiations for the transfer of this also to the Native Church are now in progress between the Bishop and the Government. The number of Communicants belonging to the Church of Sierra Leone is nearly 5000. These represent a community of about 14,000 persons.

Advance
of the Sierra Leone
Church.

During the year the Sierra Leone Church has formed a separate pastorate in the Sherbro country, and has thus relieved the Society of its SHERBRO MISSION.

The Rev. M. Sunter, Principal of FOURAH BAY COLLEGE, who is assisted by the Rev. C. L. Reichardt, and by a Native Tutor, Mr. N. S. Davis, returned to Sierra Leone, and to his duties at Fourah Bay, after an absence of eight months, in February of the current year. In a letter dated the 16th of that month, he expresses his conviction that God's blessing is resting on the College, and that its prospects are very hopeful, more so than at any previous time. The Native African tutor, Mr. Davis, had just returned from a successful tour on the coast, which he had made for the purpose of stirring up an interest in the College. Mr. Sunter recommenced work with six students. By the 15th of May the number had increased to fifteen; six on the foundation, one supported from the funds of the Niger Mission, three resident pay students, and five evening-class students. The evening students all pay fees. Since the affiliation of the College to the University of Durham in 1877 nine students have received degrees in arts, or been admitted as Licentiates in Theology. One of these is Mr. Sunter's very competent coadjutor, Mr. N. S. Davis. Mr. Davis, together with two other of Mr. Sunter's old students, Mr. N. H. Boston and Mr. Samuel Hughes, were to be ordained by the Bishop of Sierra Leone (Dr. Cheetham) on Trinity Sunday, 1880. Mr. Davis will retain his post in the College; the other two are ordained to positions in connexion with the Sierra Leone Native Church. A fourth, a former student, who re-entered the College under the new scheme, and who is now a Licentiate in Theology (Mr. David Brown), was ordained at Rio Pongas for that Mission. It is believed that Fourah Bay College is rising in the estimation of the civilized Africans of the West Coast generally, and that its secular department will become self-supporting. The Church Missionary Society will, for some time to come, so far as its funds allow, assist in the provision of theological teaching.

The well-known and thoroughly efficient GRAMMAR SCHOOL of Sierra Leone (containing between seventy and eighty students), under purely Native management, is entirely self-supporting, and reflects the utmost credit on its equally well-known head master, the Rev. James Quaker.

The ANNIE WALSH MEMORIAL SCHOOL is under the care of Mr. and Mrs. Burton, who has recently been joined by Miss Young. The number of pupils has increased during the year from forty-five to sixty-eight. Of the latter number twenty-nine are boarders and thirty-nine day scholars. Further advance in this direction is expected; the building having been recently enlarged so as to accommodate eighty boarders and 150 day scholars. The students belong to the upper classes of Native society, and pay fees for their education. Natural Science, French, and Music are among the subjects studied; while the elder girls are instructed in cookery and other household accomplishments. Scriptural instruction has its proper supremacy; and in some at least of the students Mrs. Burton hopes she can trace the working of the Holy Spirit.

Mr. Burton acts as the Society's industrial agent on the West Coast, and was absent from the colony for four months of the year superintending the erection of the new Training College at Lagos.

PORT LOKKOH.

In the absence of the Rev. A. Burtchaell, who is in England to recruit his health, Mr. J. A. Alley is the only European Missionary resident at Port Lokkoh. He reached that place in December, 1878, and has been diligently studying the Timneh language. He has also made some efforts to preach the Gospel to the heathen through the comparatively unsatisfactory medium of an interpreter. While the majority of hearers disregard the message, a few seem to Mr. Alley to be sincere inquirers. A Native chief named Kondito has given one of his sons to be brought up in the Christian religion.

The Rev. C. L. Reichardt, of Fourah Bay, who visited Port Lokkoh, in October, 1879, and who has some acquaintance with the Timneh language, expresses his firm conviction that "a young life and a new zeal is to be felt in Port Lokkoh." Mr. Reichardt made some excursions from Port Lokkoh into the interior. The inhabitants were friendly, and seemed disposed to listen to the Gospel; but the whole country is so filled with devastation and terror, arising from the actual or apprehended inroads of Fulah slave-hunters, that the door is almost closed for the present against any extension of evangelistic effort beyond the immediate neighbourhood of Port Lokkoh itself.—More recently (January, 1880) a visit was paid to Port Lokkoh, by the Bishop of Sierra Leone, who was accompanied by Mr. Lamb. Besides the encouragement thus given to Mr. Alley and the other agents, the Bishop confirmed four candidates, three being Sierra Leone emigrants, and the fourth a consistent Timneh Christian, who was instructed by Mr. Schlenker, and baptized by the late Mr. Beale, thirty-five years ago.

Mr. Alley is every now and then encouraged by proofs that Mr. Schlenker and his labours at Port Lokkoh are not forgotten in the locality.*

LAGOS.

THE European Missionary staff at Lagos at the commencement of 1880 consisted of the Rev. J. A. and Mrs. Maser, the Rev. A. and Mrs. Mann, the Rev. J. B. Wood, the Rev. V. Faulkner, the Rev. C. H. V. Gollmer, and Miss A. J. Boyd. Mr. and Mrs. Maser are, however, probably now (1st May, 1880,) on their way home, in accordance with the furlough arrangements rendered necessary by the climatic circumstances of the West-Africa Missions. Mr. and Mrs. J. Field and the Rev. C. B. Gillings had to return home during 1879, the former on account of Mrs. Field's failure of health, and the latter being himself invalided.

Advance
of the Native
Christian Community in Lagos.

In pecuniary liberality, self-reliance, civilization, and mental culture, the advance of the Native Church in Lagos cannot be mistaken. The leading Native laymen find scope for the willing exercise of their powers, not only in the Native Church Council, but also in a School Board, which latter, it need scarcely be said, is conducted on thoroughly Christian principles. It is anticipated that before the next anniversary the Committee will be able to complete the transfer of all the congregations to the Native Church organization. The help given by the Society's missionaries will then be almost confined to the Training Institutions and the superintendence of the superior female education. The Lagos Church Missionary Association has sent during the year 180% to the General Funds of the Society; and the whole amount of the year's contributions for religious purposes by the Native Christians connected with the Society in Lagos, reached the sum of 3000%. An illustration of some of the characteristics of the Lagos Native Church is furnished by Archdeacon Henry Johnson's account of the BREAD-FRUIT Sunday School. "It would be a complete study," he observes, "to any one coming from England or America, having some acquaintance with Sunday Schools as carried on in those countries. Here there is a class of small boys who also attend the day-school, there a class of girls of the same age. In one room there is a mighty class of infants. Yonder you find a very large and intelligent class of English-speaking Native young men under an able gentleman who had received his education in the Fourah Bay College. The teacher is explaining difficulties, or is meeting objections advanced by some of his shrewd and inquisitive scholars. Elsewhere you see old men and women spelling out the Bible in Yoruba, and so on, in a descending scale, until you come to a class consisting of old women whom it has been impossible to teach to read. Many of these can repeat from memory a large number of texts, and even whole chapters from the Word of God. They are especially fond of the 23rd Psalm, and will go through it in a sing-song tone like the Mohammedans chanting the Suras of the Koran; but whilst the latter (if an ordinary Mohammedan) performs his exercises in a language 'not understood' by himself, these, on the contrary, repeat the psalm with the spirit and the understanding also, and, while swaying themselves from side to side, will show by their radiant countenances that they understand and enjoy these beautiful portions of God's Word." Every year brings its accession of converts from Mohammedanism and heathenism, many being influenced by Christian friends and acquaintances in the town itself; while the chapels in the farm-villages on the mainland, where the Christians reside for many weeks at a time, are frequently attended by heathen of the locality, who thus become acquainted with the Gospel.

At present the FAJI and EBUTE-META congregations are on the funds of the Society, while BREAD-FRUIT and EBUTE ERO are connected with the Native Church organization. Ebute Meta, during the year 1879, had a European missionary for its pastor, the Rev. V. Faulkner; the other three were under the care of Native clergymen, Bread-Fruit having been in the temporary charge of Archdeacon Johnson of the Niger Mission.

At FAJI, on the 31st of August, 1879, fourteen adults were received into the visible Church by baptism, some of whom had been previously Mohammedans.

The Native Christians at EBUTE META consist mainly of refugees (and their children) who fled from Abeokuta in the outbreak of 1867. If those Native Christians who remained in Abeokuta may seem to have evinced greater courage, it must be admitted that the Ebute Meta refugees have always shown a warm affection for the Mission and the Missionaries. The difference of conduct between the two sections may have arisen in many cases from individual or tribal circumstances little understood in this country. Since the year 1869 the Native Christian Adherents at Ebute Meta have risen in number from 95 to 580, and the Communicants from 63 to 238. That this advance is partly owing to the grace of God in the conversion of the heathen, may be hopefully gathered from the fact that during these eleven years there have been 180 adult baptisms. In the year just concluded, nineteen heathen became Catechumens, and twenty adult Catechumens received baptism. Half of the newly baptized are Egbas, of the same race, that is to say, as the inhabitants of Abeokuta. Deaths and removals have been unusually large; but the whole number of Adherents has, notwithstanding, increased from 550 to 580, and of Communicants from 228 to 238. The pecuniary contributions of the members of the congregation have advanced from 127*l.* to 171*l.*

BREAD-FRUIT has been under the care of Archdeacon Johnson since February, 1877. His report, recently received, embraces the whole of that period. It is exceedingly interesting, but too long for insertion in these pages; one extract has already been given. The total number of baptisms for the three years was 215, of whom 121 were adult converts from heathenism or Mohammedanism.

The main features of the year at EBUTE ERO have been the baptism of nine adult converts and the introduction of stricter discipline among the Communicants.

No report has been received of the TRAINING INSTITUTION, the FEMALE INSTITUTION, or the GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

ONDO.

The Rev. C. Phillips (Native African) is in charge of the work at this station. The Native Christian Adherents connected with it number 82. Of these 13 are Communicants.

Mr. Phillips speaks favourably of the attendance of his flock at the public means of grace. In their moral conduct he marks decided improvement. The number present at the Sunday services rose at one time to 116, including several of the heathen. The sudden death, however, on August 4th, of a chief named Nasi, who was an inquirer, being ascribed by the heathen priests to his having given up his "Ifa," terrified many and sensibly diminished the congregation. Mr. Phillips has made attempts to stir up the Christians to self-support as regards church expenses. It will be humiliating indeed if, in this respect, the motives of the Gospel prove less efficacious, now that they are Christians, than superstitious fears in their times of heathen darkness. No adult convert was baptized during the year. There are several candidates for baptism, but it has been thought better to give them a little longer probation. Others, persons of influence and position, are kept back by their attachment to polygamy.

The unsettled state of the country, produced by the wars in the interior, has very much impeded evangelistic work.

In the Day School, containing 24 children, progress has been made. Some of the Ondo children can now read and write intelligibly in Yoruba (of which language Ondo is a dialect), and are making progress in English.

BADAGRY.

At Badagry, with its out-stations of Iworo, Ajido, and Oke Odon, the native population (Popo) continues, as before, obstinately to reject the Gospel. The small Christian community, numbering about 120 persons, of whom 51 are Communicants, is mostly of Yoruba descent; and the services are conducted in the Yoruba language. There always have been zealous believers and workers among them; some that have passed away to their rest, and whose labours and prayers will yet produce fruit. The whole district has been in past times evidently in a special sense Satan's seat. Superstition, however, is gradually losing its hold. The British Government has lately extended its territories and influence in this neighbourhood, and has taken more active measures than formerly to restrain the still independent native chiefs from molesting British subjects. The effects of this policy, if pursued with wisdom, justice, and moderation, will be manifestly favourable to missionary effort.

The agent in charge of this station is the Rev. D. Coker, an African clergyman. Mr. Coker received priest's orders at Lagos from the Bishop of Sierra Leone on the 2nd of March, 1879. Three adult converts were baptized during the year.

OTA.

The Rev. J. White, a Native Missionary, who has occupied Ota for the last twenty-five years, has just been appointed to the charge of a congregation in Lagos. Its inhabitants have now for years had Christian teachers amongst them, and have from the first stubbornly rejected the Gospel. Yet, whether from political or other reasons, they are very desirous that the Mission should not be withdrawn. When the Lagos Finance Committee seemed likely to take a step in that direction, a proclamation was issued by the king and elders, on the 20th of November, 1879, that the whole town, without exception, should consider it their business to attend the house of God regularly on Sunday. There was probably no intention that this command should be literally obeyed. It led, however, to an increase in the congregation, which varied during the remainder of the year from 100 to 200. Six candidates were confirmed at Ota by the Bishop of Sierra Leone on the 5th of February, 1879. The Native Christian community amounted, at the date of Mr. White's Annual Letter, to 88, of whom 40 were Communicants. There was no adult baptism during the year.

ABEOKUTA.

Abeokuta has been the scene, during the last two years, of a hard struggle against many evils, which had recently been brought to light in the Christian community, particularly in connexion with domestic slavery; but it is hoped that by the grace of God, the result of the struggle will be a higher standard of Christian life in the Egba Church. The zeal, energy, and perseverance with which Mr. James Johnson (another well-known African brother) has thrown himself into this conflict deserve the highest praise, and will doubtless yield good fruit. He will probably be appointed to the important pastorate charge of Bread-Fruit Church, Lagos; while the Rev. V. Faulkner takes his place for the present at Abeokuta.

IBADAN.

The work at this station is conducted by a Native clergyman, the Rev. D. Olubi. The Native Christian Adherents number 442, of whom 198 are Communicants. "We are still," writes Mr. Olubi, "in the midst of trouble and discouragement arising from the war; and the churches in Ibadan have been under great difficulties." Twenty-two adult converts, however, were baptized during the year, and twenty-nine children. Of the children, eight were baptized on their own confession of faith, being old enough to answer for themselves. At the out-station of Ogbomosho persecution was raised against the Christians, by the heathen relatives of a deceased Christian, when the son of the deceased wished to bury his father in the mission churchyard. The mission chapel was destroyed; but the disturbance was soon quelled, perhaps through the influence of the chiefs of Ibadan, who, though all of them heathen or Mohammedan, are friendly to the Christians.*

BISHOP CROWTHER, having been detained at Lagos during the year by the severe illness of Mrs. Crowther, has not been able to visit the different stations, and has in consequence not sent his usual report.

In addition to the appointment of two European lay agents in connexion with the "Henry Venn" steamer (Mr. Ashcroft and Mr. Kirk) to strengthen Bishop Crowther's hands, which has been mentioned or referred to in previous Reports, it has been thought desirable to appoint a Niger Finance Committee, composed partly of Europeans and partly of Africans, under the presidency, of course, of Bishop Crowther, and having as its Secretary the Rev. J. B. Wood, of the Lagos Mission.

At BONNY, the favourable change spoken of in the Report for last year has developed itself with great rapidity, and with hopeful prospect of permanence. "Bonny," writes one of the agents, "is become a Bethel." The principal idol of the late persecuting chief, Captain Hart, has been brought to England ; and many of his household, men, women, and children, now come with joy to the house of God. Both of the churches are crowded every Sunday, chiefs attending as well as their people. The 29th of April, 1879, being the fourteenth anniversary of the formation of the Mission, was signalized by a thanksgiving service held at St. Stephen's Church, at which more than 500 persons were present, including King George Pepple and some of the chiefs. As the year went on the attendance continued to increase. On Christmas Day 920 persons were present. On December 28th the number exceeded 1000. The first adult baptisms for four years took place on Whit Sunday, 1879. Eleven converts, who had stood firm during all the weary months of persecution, were then received into the Church. A rich and influential woman named Orumbi has avowed herself a Christian. Since then 100 converts belonging to the neighbouring households meet in her house for family prayer. In nearly half the houses of Bonny family prayer is now held every morning and evening. It must not be supposed, however, that opposition has entirely ceased. Two powerful chiefs who still support the Juju superstition have erected idols in the place of those previously belonging to Chief Hart, which had been removed or destroyed. Attempts have been made to punish Orumbi and others for refusing to sell on the Lord's Day. In connexion also with the hostilities which have unhappily arisen between Bonny and New Calabar, some of the chiefs have not only offered sacrifices to idols, but endeavoured, though unsuccessfully, to compel their Christian attendants to take part in the ceremony.

Progress
at Brass.

The news from BRASS also calls for thanksgiving to the Lord of Missions. On the death of King Okiya a great effort was made to suppress Christianity at Nembe, the town where he resided. Okiya's brother, who still adheres to the tribal superstitions, declared that the ground on which the chapel is built belonged to himself, and that the chapel must be demolished. The heathen faction also seized a woman who had been one of the late king's wives, and threatened to kill her, on the ground that her influence had prevented Okiya from returning to idolatry. The Christians felt their lives imperilled, and made preparations for self-defence. On the 21st of December they repaired to church fully armed. So many of the unbaptized joined them, that it was clear they were the stronger section of the community. The opposing party were soon intimidated; the woman whom they had seized was released; and a law was passed securing religious liberty for all who wished to profess Christianity and to follow its observances.

When the news of what had taken place at Nembe reached Tuwon, near which place the Mission station is situated, the chiefs and people of the latter place unanimously resolved to destroy their idol temple; and the resolution was carried into effect immediately.

Later accounts from Brass, however, bring the unwelcome intelligence that difficulties had arisen with the British naval authorities which caused much alarm. Some of the inhabitants of Brass had been guilty of plundering wrecked vessels belonging to British subjects; and it was far from clear that some at least of the nominal Christians were altogether free from complicity in the crime. A heavy fine was ultimately inflicted upon the inhabitants of Tuwon, Nembe, and another neighbouring town.

No reports have been received from AKASA or NEW CALABAR.

Archdeacon Crowther visited ALENZO and OSAMARE in June and July, 1879.—At Alenso the congregation numbers between 60 and 70 people. The chiefs acknowledge the superiority of the Gospel, and its moral teaching, to their own superstitions; but they are unwilling at present to take any step towards carrying out their convictions. Their human sacrifices have not been discontinued.—In Osamare there has been no change.

The history of the ONITSHA Mission during the year is melancholy, though at the same time deeply interesting, and affording occasion for thanksgiving to God. Until nearly the close of October, 1879, the prospects of the Mission were very encouraging. The congregations both at Onitsha itself and at the out-station of Ijawo were steadily increasing, having risen to the number of 350 and 260 respectively. Some influential chiefs were regular attendants at Divine service. The Native Christian community had indeed passed through a season of alarm and trial, but the occasion had strikingly called out their courageous adherence to the truth. The circumstances were as follows. A cruel custom has prevailed in Onitsha of destroying twins immediately on their birth. On the 27th of July, at the very time, providentially, when Archdeacon Crowther was on a visit at the station, the wife of one of the converts had twin children born to her. At first the parents themselves were overwhelmed with terror; “but,” observes Archdeacon Crowther, “the sweet influences of the Gospel had taken hold of the hearts of our converts and softened them to pity and to love.” “The children shall not be thrown away,” was the cry. “Send for our minister” (the Rev. S. Perry). An aged Christian woman was persuaded to act as nurse. The Christians determined to act with boldness. No concealment was attempted; but, on the contrary, guns were fired as an open expression of joy and thankfulness. On hearing, however, what had taken place, the heathen—king, chiefs, under-chiefs, and people—were infuriated. Messengers were sent commanding both the immediate destruction of the infants, and also the offering up of two human sacrifices to expiate the guilt of having kept them alive so long. An angry mob surrounded the gates of the Christian compound, endeavouring to force an entrance; but the Christians were successful in repulsing them. The struggle was obstinate, but no blood was shed; and the matter was at length compromised by the removal of the children from the place. Archdeacon Crowther took them with him to Lokoja, where both were comfortably provided for, though one has since died. Just three months after this; on October 24th, the British Consul, in H.M. ship Pioneer, arrived off the town to make inquiry respecting repeated outrages inflicted on British traders by some of the inhabitants of Onitsha and its neighbourhood. While the conference was going on between the Consul and the chiefs of Onitsha, a mob plundered several houses in the factories, including those of the Mission. The factories are about four miles distant from the town. During the night the Pioneer and the trading steamers were fired on by the Natives. Next morning the huts in a suburb close to the factories were destroyed by the Consul's order, and no answer being vouchsafed to his demands, Onitsha itself was also shelled and burned, and the inhabitants dispersed, the king fleeing into the bush. The Mission families, together with several of the Native Christians, removed to ASABA on the opposite side of the river. Before long, however, a considerable number of the Christians re-assembled at Onitsha itself, where dwelling-houses were soon again erected. These meet together every Sunday, and once in the week also, for united prayer, one of their number reading to them a portion of Scripture. Mr. Perry, who subsequently came to Bonny to consult with friends there, has recently visited Onitsha, and has been requested by the chiefs to return. He has proposed to them that a piece of land should be set apart for the residence of the Native Christians, where twins would be allowed to live, and where, in all other respects, liberty of conscience would be allowed.

GBEGBE has now been re-occupied by a Native agent of the Mission, who hitherto found the king friendlily disposed. As he has not yet acquired the language spoken in the town, the work is quite in its infancy.

A somewhat lengthened report has been received from the Rev. T. John at LOKOJA. With liberal help from English friends, 25*l.* being also raised on the spot, the Lokoja church has been re-roofed with corrugated iron. The first service held there was one of thanksgiving, conducted by Archdeacon Crowther, on the safe arrival of the twins from Onitsha. Until its completion services were held in the verandah and porch of the Mission-house, the attendance varying from 50 to 100. The Lord's Supper was administered in the Bunu chapel. The usual attendance of the Bunu Christians, at their own ordinary service, was 110. The whole number of Communicants, including both congregations, is 56. Mr. John preaches in Hausa, in the open air, to large and attentive audiences. Nupe is the original language of the greater part of the population; but Hausa is very generally known, and its use seems likely to increase. Opportunities for preaching the Gospel are also found in domiciliary visitation. Mr. John is engaged in translating a portion of the Prayer Book into the Hausa language. The wide diffusion of this language, which easily can be, and indeed frequently is, written in Arabic characters, and the prospect of its utility for the propagation of the Gospel, are illustrated by the fact that Mr. John has been able to make good use of Hausa tracts written by the Rev. Mr. Krause, of Tripoli.

KIPO HILL, at which the Rev. C. Paul is stationed, was visited by Archdeacon Crowther in August, 1879. Kipo Hill lies on the southern or right bank of the Quorra branch of the Niger, opposite Egan. Egan is a large town, and contains within its precincts several British mercantile establishments—or factories, as they are called in the Niger districts. Kipo Hill derives its importance from the Mission station, under the protection of which a Native population is gradually gathering, composed mainly of Mohammedans and heathens, several of whom, however, frequently attend Christian worship. It is situated in the midst of beautiful scenery, on a road much frequented by traders. Mr. John (of Lokoja), who has also visited Kipo Hill, suggests the erection of a Mission Hujrah (guest-house) like that established by Mr. Hughes at Pesháwár. Mohammedans would thus have an opportunity of listening, in quiet, to the sweet story of Redeeming Love.

Yimaha has been abandoned by the European merchants in consequence of ill-treatment received from its inhabitants. The king has subsequently expressed regret and penitence as well for this misconduct as for having rejected the offer of Bishop Crowther. But the project of occupying it as a Mission station has been postponed.

An interesting event in this Mission has been the exploratory voyage of the "Henry Venn" steamer, under the command of Mr. Ashcroft, for over 500 miles up the Binne branch of the river Niger, revealing tribe after tribe waiting for the Gospel of salvation.

The Royal Geographical Society has recently voted a gold watch, of the value of 40*l.* to Bishop Crowther for his services rendered in past years to the cause of Geographical research.*

EAST AFRICA MISSION.

Kisulutini, 1844; Frere Town, 1875.

(Commenced 1844.)

THE East Africa Mission seems now to have passed into that condition which, through God's great mercy, can be predicated of so many of the Society's Missions—steady progress.

Both at Frere Town and at Kisulutini, most of those that have put themselves under instruction have been led to do so, not by any mental conviction, but by providential circumstances, being fugitive or rescued slaves, or the children of such. It is not surprising, therefore, that in many cases there should be, comparatively speaking, little indication of the life-giving power of the Gospel. The Committee thank God, however, that such indications are by no means wanting.

FRERE TOWN.

The Missionaries labouring at this station are the Rev. A. Menzies, Mr. J. W. Streeter, and Mr. J. W. Handford. As regards the progress of the work, very favourable testimony from an independent source has been kindly supplied by the Rev. J. S. Knight, Chaplain of H.M. ship "London." (See Church Missionary Intelligencer, March, 1880, p. 167.)

* See also C.M. Gleaner for Nov., 1879, and Feb. and March, 1880.

The Native Christian Adherents number 448. Thirty-two adults were baptized during the year 1879, the first-fruits of the seed sown by Mr. Price and Mr. Lamb. These baptisms took place on Easter Sunday, 1879. Mr. Menzies hoped that some ten or twelve more would receive baptism on Easter Day, 1880. Of those baptized in 1879 twenty-eight were freed slaves. These, with only two slight exceptions, have proved faithful to their profession. "There is a great difference," Mr. Menzies observes, "between the two classes of Africans at Frere Town; the Bombay Africans being naturally indisposed to labour, while the freed slaves are industrious and hard-working. Among the latter the husband and the wife may often be seen together in the field turning up the ground with large heavy hoes; and many of the women are eager to learn to sew." The baptized among their number, with a few like-minded companions, also assemble three days in the week for half-an-hour's instruction in the early morning. Two evenings in the week they learn reading and writing. The Sunday services are fairly well attended, the average being 270 in the morning, and nearly the same number in the afternoon. Among the Bombay Africans, however, there are also several earnest Christians with whom Mr. Menzies has enjoyed much earnest Christian communion. Both sections now meet for Divine worship under the same roof, and the service is partly in English and partly in Suaheli. The use of English will be relinquished when Mr. Menzies has made further progress in the knowledge of the vernacular. Yet all is not bright. Drunkenness, a prevailing vice among the heathen round them, is sadly prevalent, and other cases of immorality not unfrequently grieve the Missionaries.

George David, a Bombay African, is being prepared for ordination by Mr. Menzies, who speaks well of his progress, and who, together with Mr. Streeter, has a high opinion of his qualifications in other respects.

The schools are under the care of Mr. J. W. Handford; one hundred and twenty children are under instruction. A great number of them, Mr. Handford confidently believes, "are striving to serve their Saviour and to walk in His paths." They read well and intelligently, both in English and Suaheli. Their singing is also extremely good. Mr. Knight, the naval chaplain above referred to, examined the first class of boys on the parable of the sower, and found that they could not only understand and read English well, but seemed also thoroughly to enter into the idea of learning things spiritual from things natural. "Very few first-boys' classes in an English Sunday school," he observes, "would surpass them in attention, reading, or answers to questions."

KISULUTINI.

The European Missionary of this station is the Rev. H. K. Binns. The statistical returns are : Native Christian Adherents, 294; Native Communicants, 21; adults baptized during the year, 17; children at school, 14 boys and 16 girls. The "Adherents" have, of course, all put themselves under Christian instruction and renounced heathenism; otherwise they could not bear that name. A large number of them, however, are not only still unbaptized, but are extremely ignorant. They still consist of the three classes of (1) East African immigrants from Bombay, (2) Wanika converts, (3) Fugitive slaves from the neighbouring districts. Those belonging to the first of these classes were Christians by profession before they settled at Kisulutini. It is well that they should be under the sound of the gospel; but many of them show little or no indication of having undergone spiritual renewal. As regards the remainder of the community, Mr. Binns is able to report favourably of those recently baptized, and entertains good hopes of many of the catechumens.

The Giriama Christians are still steadfast in the faith, though there is some difficulty in making satisfactory arrangements for providing them with the means of grace. A new site has been purchased for them in a favourable locality, where they will be assembled together under the leadership for the present, at least, of Abe Sidi, the first convert.

A Wakamba village recently invited the Missionaries to visit them. Mr. Binns and Mr. Streeter went to the place. In token of their sincere desire to forsake their superstitions and to receive a Christian teacher, the chiefs took off the chains from their necks, a thing unheard of previously, and gave them to Mr. Binns. Upwards of one hundred villagers were present on the occasion; and large numbers of them were induced to commit to memory a Suaheli translation of the late Mr. Dallas's well-known prayer, "O Lord, give me Thy Holy Spirit, for Jesus Christ's sake."

Another interesting event of the year was the visit of Mr.

Binns, of Kisulutini, to the Teita country, a range of hills midway between Mombasa and the Chagga country. He found there a healthy upland district, inhabited by a large population, engaged in agricultural pursuits, who seemed ready to welcome a European Missionary. Doubtfulness in regard to funds has alone hindered the Committee from occupying this hopeful field.*

NYANZA MISSION.

RUBAGA.

THE Nyanza Mission has passed through several vicissitudes. The Rev. C. T. Wilson, after spending many months in Central Africa without any missionary associate, was joined by Mr. Mackay in August, 1878. The first meeting between these two missionaries, since their parting from each other near Mpwapwa, took place at Kagei, on the southern coast of Lake Victoria. After various mishaps they reached Rubâga (the capital of Uganda) on the 6th of November, and had a favourable interview with Mtesa two days subsequently. Almost immediately afterwards, news was brought of the approach of the missionary reinforcement (Mr. Pearson, the Rev. G. Litchfield, and Mr. R. W. Felkin), that had come by way of the Nile. On the 19th of November Mr. Wilson went to meet the Nile party, with 300 porters supplied by Mtesa. Mr. Wilson and his new comrades reached Rubaga on the 16th of February, 1879, and had their interview with the king on the day following. Though very much out of health, Mtesa exerted himself to give them a cordial reception. In the interval, when Mr. Mackay was alone in Uganda, missionary work was carried on with much vigour; and Mr. Mackay seemed to be on excellent terms with the king and chiefs and people, the Arab traders alone maintaining a sullen and bitter hostility. In the end of February and the latter part of March, difficulties arose from the arrival of a party of Romish missionaries. Perplexed by their presence and their statements, and misinterpreting a letter from Dr. Kirk, Mtesa changed his demeanour towards the Mission, though by no means becoming altogether hostile. On the 9th of April, 1879, Messrs. Stokes and Copplestone arrived viâ Zanzibar, having come from Kagei at the south of the lake in canoes. Their interview with Mtesa followed almost immediately, when they were courteously received.

At length, after some oscillation of purpose, the Uganda monarch resolved, with the full approval of the Missionaries, to send envoys to this country, and thus ascertain something of the real greatness of England and its rulers. The chiefs despatched on this errand left Rubaga on June 14, and reached England in April, 1880, having travelled through Egyptian territory in company with Messrs. Wilson and Felkin. As far as can be gathered, the impressions produced on the Uganda envoys has been such as will prove favourable to the interests of the Mission in Mtesa's dominions.

Critical condition
Mission.

The later accounts from Uganda itself for some time became gradually more and more favourable. The Missionaries, reduced in number to three, were able to resume their Sunday services at the court. At the very height of the difficulties above described, Mr. Mackay had been able to write, "The glorious work has been begun in Uganda. For more than a year the Gospel has been preached. Mr. Wilson did his duty alone for several months. . . . Much of the Gospel has been read in court, and has not been read in vain." Even at that date many lads and young men had been taught Suaheli, a language akin to their own, and into which large portions of Holy Scripture had been translated. It was not long before Mtesa openly gave permission for the chiefs and their followers to learn reading. Suaheli alphabets and primers in English characters were printed by means of a small press belonging to the Mission. The number of scholars increased rapidly, and many became possessed of Suaheli portions of Scripture, which they were able to read and understand. Opposition was to be expected, and soon manifested itself. The leading chiefs were resolved not to abandon their ancient superstitions. They insisted that the king, whose sickness had now increased, should consult a sorceress who was supposed to be tenanted by their national object of worship—the god, or demon, of the lake. When Mtesa seemed somewhat dissuaded by the earnest remonstrances of the Missionaries, the leading chiefs threatened to depose him, and enthrone one of his sons in his place. The king at length gave way; and in a solemn baraza (darbar) Mtesa and all his chiefs declared their intention to return to the religion of their forefathers, rejecting alike Christianity and Mohammedanism. The Missionaries were to be allowed to remain in the country, but forbidden to teach. This took place on Dec. 23rd, 1879. The date of the last communication from the Missionaries is Jan. 7, 1880. Their letters breathe a spirit of trust in God, and firm belief in the ultimate triumph of the Gospel; though, humanly speaking, it must be altogether uncertain whether they may not be compelled shortly to quit the country. But Gospel truth has been lodged in many minds, and portions of Scripture are still possessed by many of the inhabitants of Uganda. The Lord of the Harvest will not allow the seed thus sown to be altogether fruitless. The Committee do not see any cause, in the present state of the Nyanza Mission, either for despondency, or for relaxation of effort.

Messrs. Stokes and Copplestone, who left Rubâga for the south on the same day that Mr. Wilson, with the chiefs, went northwards, returned to UYU, where Mr. Copplestone has established himself, Mr. Stokes coming forward to Zanzibar, where he is now waiting to escort the chiefs back to Uganda.

The retirement of Colonel Gordon from the Government of the Soudan cannot but be deplored by all those who knew and rejoiced in his noble efforts to heal “the open sore of the world;” but it affords an opportunity to the Committee of offering to him their tribute of sincere gratitude, not only for his efforts in this direction, but for his kind and generous assistance to the Missionaries of the Society passing through his territories.

MPWAPWA.

The Mpwapwa Mission has been strengthened, its staff now consisting of four Missionaries—Dr. Baxter, Mr. T. J. Last, Rev. J. C. Price, and Mr. H. Cole. The two former of these have mastered the language; and evangelistic work is actively progressing.

Mr. Last has paid much attention to linguistic studies. He writes :—

You will be glad to hear that I have been working as much as my time on hand would allow at the Gogo language. I have been able to collect together elements of the Grammar. What I have collected in Gogo is in much the same form and quantity as Dr. Steere's Suaheli Grammar. I am now revising it; it may be an useful help towards studying the language.

Mr. Last has also collected vocabularies of the dialects of neighbouring tribes. The Committee earnestly trust that the reports from Mpwapwa for the year 1880 will show that abundant opportunities have been given to all the Missionaries to carry on the great work itself, for which these studies are preparatory.

EXTENSION.

MAMBOIA, a populous centre, about three days N.E. from Mpwapwa, on the road between that place and the coast, has been occupied as a new station; and extension is looked for westward from Mpwapwa, in Ugogo, so as to facilitate communication with the interior. UYUI also, mentioned above as the residence of Mr. Copplestone, which lies midway between Mpwapwa and the Victoria Nyanza, may now be regarded as one of the Society's stations.*

Death of Bishop
Gobat.

DURING the year under review the Palestine Mission has lost the fatherly oversight of good Bishop Gobat. Going forth as a missionary of this Society in 1825, he has been gathered home at last as a ripe shock of corn—beloved and honoured by all who knew him, and especially by the Native Christians, to whom he was a true father. The manifestation of respect on the day of his funeral from persons of all ranks and creeds, Mohammedan as well as Christian, was a noble testimony to the power of a consistent Christian life. Only a few weeks intervened before there joined him in the presence of their Redeemer the spirit of her who had been from the first the partner of his labours and the sharer of his sorrows and his joys. The

THE NILE BASIN, &c.

Committee hailed with thankfulness the appointment of Dr. Barclay to be his successor; and they would ask special prayer for him and for the work in the Holy Land, that the evidences of the presence of the Holy Ghost may be more clearly manifest in that dry and thirsty land, that it may become again, in the truest sense, "a land which the Lord God careth for."

The object of the Palestine Mission is the spiritual enlightenment of the Mohammedans. The means judged most suitable for that purpose are the preaching of the Word, and the establishment of schools for children, among the Native Christian population. Most of these schools are occasionally attended by Moslem children; and Moslem adults not unfrequently listen to the public preaching of the Gospel, or visit the Mission reading-rooms where Christian books are placed in their hands and the Scriptures are expounded. The advent of religious liberty in this and other parts of the Ottoman Empire cannot, it is hoped, be far distant. Until that time arrives, visible success on a large scale among the Mohammedans can scarcely be looked for. Meantime it is satisfactory to observe indications, at least in some places, that the Native Protestants of Palestine, nearly all of whom are connected with the Society, are growing in strength and spiritual life.

The PRÆPARANDI INSTITUTION of this Mission is conducted by the Rev. J. Zeller at Jerusalem. Three pupils passed out during the year. One of these is now schoolmaster and catechist at Abûd under Mr. Hall, another is assistant-teacher at Nazareth, and the third is engaged in the printing press. Four more will, it is hoped, be ready during the present year. A new class of seven probationers entered the institution in November. The subjects of study, as specified by Mr. Zeller, are Bible history, evidences of Christianity, Arabic grammar and literature, algebra and geometry, logic, general history, and geography.

JERUSALEM.

The Native congregations, at Jerusalem itself, at Ramallah, at Tayibeh, and at Birzeit, are under the pastoral care of the Rev. M. Kavar, who is assisted by the advice of the Rev. J. Zeller. The Adherents number 400, of whom 63 are Communicants. Mr. Kavar observes that "they all like the ordinances of our Church, and accept the preaching of the Gospel with joy." Both Mr. Zeller and Mr. Kavar speak of "the deplorable" (temporal) "condition of the peasantry."

JAFFA.

The Missionary of this station is the Rev. J. R. Longley Hall. Mr. Hall was seriously unwell in the autumn of 1879, and had to return to England to recruit. After two months' stay at home Mr. Hall, through the mercy of God, was so far restored that he was able to proceed again to Palestine, reaching Jaffa on the 19th of January. The Rev. Nasir Odeh, a Native Syrian, recently ordained in this country after studying at the Society's College in Islington, was in charge during Mr. Hall's absence; and Mr. Hall was very thankful for the wisdom which had been given to Mr. Odeh in meeting several difficulties that had arisen.

Mr. Hall gives no account of the general spiritual condition of his flock. The weekly Bible Class he considers as very successful. Greek Christians frequently come to it for the purpose of discussing religious questions.—The Schools have suffered from the protracted illness of one of the teachers and from the opening of a rival Greek school.

In the out-stations connected with Jaffa (Ramleh, Lydd, and Abud), things are beginning to wear a brighter aspect. In Ramleh, notwithstanding troubles arising from the misconduct of some of the Native agents, both schools and Bible classes are working well.—At Lydd the boys' and girls' schools are each attended by about 100 children. Sixteen of the boys are Mohammedans.—In Abud the Native teacher holds his ground well, in spite of considerable opposition from both Greeks and Mohammedans. Several Mohammedan boys attend the school.

GAZA.

At this recently occupied station the prospects of the Mission in the earlier months of 1879 were very promising. The schools were well attended; a reading-room was opened, in connexion with a dispensary, which many Moslems even of the higher classes visited regularly, reading the religious books they found there, and where the Gospel was read aloud and explained several hours every day. The adversary, however, soon raised up hostile influences. Jesuit priests, by large offers of money, endeavoured to deprive the Society's missionary (Rev. A. W. Shapîra) of his residence and his schools. A Superior, sent from the Greek convent at Jerusalem, earnestly begged the parents belonging to his community to withdraw from Mr. Shapîra's teaching, threatening them with spiritual penalties if they declined to do so. (The result of this was still doubtful at the date of Mr.

Shapîra's Annual Letter.) And lastly the Moslems withdrew many of their children. By great efforts most of the Moslem girls and one-third of the boys were persuaded to return. The dispensary and reading-room still seem to be of great service in disseminating Christian truth, especially among the Mohammedans.

NABLÛS.

In Nablus and its out-stations of Rafidieh, Nief-el-jebil, and Zebabdeh, under the care of the Rev. C. Fallscheer, there are 189 Native Christian Adherents, 61 Communicants, and 147 children attending the Society's schools.

Mr. Fallscheer's Annual Letter supplies no details respecting the spiritual condition of the congregations under his care, except the fact that a mothers' meeting, held once a week, is visited by from 15 to 25 women who eagerly listen to the Word of God. One at least of Mr. Fallscheer's congregations is not unfrequently attended by Moslem hearers.

The schools are doing good service. That at Nablus itself numbers 32 pupils, amongst whom are 12 Samaritan boys, who willingly learn not the Pentateuch only (the Scriptures acknowledged by their sect), but the whole Bible, including the New Testament. Some of Mr. Fallscheer's schools are attended by Moslem children.

NAZARETH.

The Rev. J. Huber is the European Missionary at this station. The Rev. W. T. Pilter also resided there while learning the language. (Mr. Pilter subsequently removed to Beyrout, to act there as chaplain to the British Syrian Schools, according to an arrangement between the two Societies.)

A bad harvest, locusts in several places, and a terrible murrain sweeping away some 40,000 or 50,000 cattle, have caused much distress among the population generally.

The Native Christian Adherents connected with Nazareth and its out-stations number 450, of whom 60 are Communicants. The attendance at the Sunday services has been good; the Bible classes, in Nazareth itself, for men and women, are regularly attended; the Native Church Fund is slowly increasing; and the work of the Edinburgh Medical Missionary Society, under Dr. Vartan, which is of course auxiliary and friendly to Mr. Huber's efforts, has been consolidated.

The Schools generally are well attended, numbering over 400 pupils, including the girls in the schools of the Female Education Society. At Nazareth itself the Greek Bishop has opened a rival school superior to that which his community possessed before, which has drawn away some scholars; but Mr. Huber's school is still attended by above 100 children. The demand for education is spreading. In some villages even the Mohammedans ask for Mission schools. Of the 400 children mentioned above as attending the Society's schools, nine are Moslems. "Wherever we have a school," remarks Mr. Huber, "we have a footing, a place of our own where we can go at any time, where the people can come to see us, and where we can speak to them freely."

The Roman Catholics have spent much money on their Mission in this neighbourhood during the year, chiefly in buildings of considerable size and imposing appearance. Mr. Huber does not, however, seem to think that they have really gained any additional strength.

At Shefamer the church has been completed, and a large school-room has been built, together with a dwelling-house for the Native Missionary. A girls' school at Shefamer is still wanting, and the want is much felt.

A house for a Native Missionary has also been built at Medgedel, where the Mission has a school which is doing good service.

SALT.

Salt is occupied by a Native clergyman, the Rev. Chalil Jamal. The population is reckoned at 8000, of whom two-fifths are Christians and the remainder Mohammedans. They gain their subsistence from the cultivation of the soil, the principal products being corn and grapes. Of late years the inhabitants have lived together amicably; but within the last few months a few fanatical Moslems from Nablûs have come to reside in the town, and have imbued some of its inhabitants with their own bitter feelings against the Christians. From any overt hostility, however, they are deterred by the authority of the Pasha of Nablûs, under whose jurisdiction Salt is, and who, though a Moslem, has shown much kindness to the Salt Protestants. The Native Christians connected with the Society's Mission number 219, of whom 30 are Communicants. The former of these numbers is an increase of 50 during the year. Some of the new-comers are of course very ignorant. The Protestant community of Salt is in a prosperous condition as regards temporal matters. "We enjoy perfect liberty," Mr. Chalil Jamal writes, "and full privileges in the local mejlises (civil courts)." The spiritual condition of the congregation has also its encouraging aspect. The means of grace appear to be valued, and Mr. Chalil Jamal gives instances of the power of the Gospel as manifested in different members of his flock.

The school is attended by 36 boys and 14 girls. The children underwent a public examination on the 16th of August, 1879, when the Pasha presided and closed the proceedings with a complimentary address. In connexion with this branch of his labours, Mr. Chalil Jamal mentions the following incident:—

One of our schoolboys, whose parents are Greeks, was once accused by the Latin priest of having insulted the crucifix. I sent the boy with his father to the Latin priest, to clear himself of this accusation. As the priest was not in his room, his schoolmistress met them in the court of the convent. “Mistress,” said Wakim, “did you hear me insult the crucifix?” “No,” you did not insult it,” was her reply, “but you blamed one of our schoolboys for crossing himself. But,” she continued, “why don’t you worship the Virgin and the Cross?” “Because it is written,” said the boy, “‘Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve; also the angel said to St. John, ‘Worship God.’” “But she is our advocate and intercessor,” said the mistress. “No! it is written, ‘We have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous. For there is One God and One Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus.’” “But they are the way to heaven,” said the mistress. “No, ‘I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life,’ said the Lord Jesus. ‘No man cometh unto the Father but by Me,’” was the reply of the young champion of the Cross. Then the mistress turned aside with anger, and said to his father, “Take away your son from them before he is fully spoiled and corrupted.” “If you call this corruption,” said the father, “I wish that my son may be corrupted and spoiled more than he is.”

Scriptural knowledge and intelligence of an Arab Protestant schoolboy.

The work in the HAURAN, under the Society’s zealous Missionary, the Rev. F. A. S. Bellamy, has presented no feature of special interest during the year.*

PERSIA MISSION.

(Commenced 1856.)

THE Rev. R. Bruce writes as follows :—

The year 1879 has been one of trial. A few who walked with us do so no longer. Still, our numbers are nearly the same as they were at the close of 1878, viz. :—Native Communicants, 55; Christian Adherents, 147. Schools: boys, 152; girls, 52.

We have had much cause for gratitude to Almighty God for all His mercies during the year. We have not had one case of serious illness in our little flock. He has made our enemies to be at peace with us. Our work has not been interrupted for a day. Our congregation seems also to be growing in liberality. The total subscribed by the Native Church in 1878 was Krs. 539; in 1879 they have given Krs. 669. The Pastorate Fund has grown as follows:—December 31st, 1877, Krs. 200; December 31st, 1878, Krs. 657; December 31st, 1879, Krs. 890.

I have given all the time I can spare from other Mission occupations to going carefully over my revision of the Persian translation of the New Testament. Early in the year I finished the first revision of Genesis, Exodus, and Leviticus, and hope soon to recommence work at the Old Testament.

On the 31st December, 1879, to Mr. Bruce's great joy, he was joined by the Rev. E. F. Hoernle, M.B., who, though in priest's orders, is also a fully trained medical man.

One of the Society's Indian Missionaries, being medically ordered to travel for the benefit of his health, went up the Persian Gulf in the Government telegraph steamer, visiting the principal telegraph stations, and holding services among the European residents. He writes:—

I endeavoured to make my journey a missionary one, and therefore took with me New Testaments and portions of Holy Scripture in Arabic, Persian, Hebrew, and Armenian, to the value of Rs. 50, from which I sold about Rs. 40 worth. I am indebted to the Bombay Bible Society for supplying the books. My chief sales were effected at Bussorah and Bushire. At several places I had interesting conversations with individuals. At Bushire I was quickly relieved of my stock of Armenian Testaments. I also sold here several copies of the "Mizan-ul-Haqq" ("Balance of Truth"), one of Dr. Pfander's famous books against the Mohammedan religion. It appears that one of these came into the hands of the Mohammedan priests, in whom it enkindled the Persian spirit for discussion. I was therefore invited to meet the Mohammedan doctors for public disputation; but as they could speak neither Urdu nor English, and as I am as yet but imperfectly acquainted with Persian, rather than be at the mercy of an interpreter, I deemed it prudent to decline. I hope, if another opportunity offers, they will not get off so easily. There is indeed a great work to be done in the Persian Gulf.—I must not omit to mention a most interesting interview which I had at Bushire with the Archbishop of the Armenian Church, who was on a tour of inspection through Persia. He seemed much interested in the account I gave him of the work of our great missionary societies. We had a very long conversation, in which the Archbishop expressed his desire for the union of the Armenian Church with some other great Protestant body. I do not know if he is a reader of the Church Times, but he seemed to have his doubts about the real Protestant character of our dear old Church of England. I am afraid that the Armenian community is not so enlightened as its good Archbishop. They were very hospitable, however, and well disposed. They profess to be very Protestant; but I am afraid that in not a few things they have departed from the Apostolic faith. I saw a good deal of them, as I remained in Bushire for ten days.

CALCUTTA AND NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

(European Missionaries first arrived 1816.)

I. Bengal.—II. North-West Provinces.

General.

IN the conflict which the Church of Christ is carrying on in India against Hinduism and Mohammedanism, though there are many cheering symptoms, it yet becomes increasingly evident that there must be no relaxation of effort. The power of absorption which characterizes Hinduism is by no means extinct. The non-Hinduized aboriginal population, comprising still several millions of souls, if it be a favourable field for missionary exertion, yet gives many signs of slowly succumbing to Hindu influence, wherever at least this is not confronted by the living Christian preacher. On the other hand, European culture, apart from the Gospel, practically influences but few, and over most of those few exercises a comparatively feeble power. The non-Christian Indian theist shows, generally speaking, exceedingly little moral courage in opposing the ancient and popular superstitions. The Indian atheist is equally powerless as regards the masses, not to mention that his triumph, were it possible, would but make the darkness more intense.—In India, then, as elsewhere, the only means of drawing men towards the Gospel seems to be the plain and loving proclamation of the Gospel itself. In reference to the effect actually produced by Christian Missions, the testimony of the deistic leader, Keshab Chander Sen, is worth quoting, as it cannot be supposed he would have delivered it, except under a conviction of its truth. “India,” he observes, “is unconsciously imbibing the spirit of a new civilization, and succumbing to its irresistible influence. It is not the British army that deserves honour for holding India. If to any army appertains that honour, that army is the army of Christian missionaries, headed by their invincible Captain, Jesus Christ. Their devotion, their self-abnegation, their philanthropy, their love of God, their attachment and allegiance to the truth—all these have found and will continue to find a deep place in the gratitude of our countrymen. It is needless for me to bestow eulogium upon such tried friends and benefactors of our country. They have brought us unto Christ. They have given us the high code of Christian ethics, and their teaching and example have secretly influenced and won thousands of non-Christian Hindus.”

In this description of the Christian missionary the Hindu reformer may well have had before his eyes one whose loss during the past year all India, and especially North India, has had to deplore—the Rev. Joseph Welland of Calcutta. To the Society his loss in human estimation seems for the moment irreparable. But the Committee, with their missionary brethren, remember that “their invincible Captain” is Jesus Christ—wonderful in counsel and excellent in working—and they are content to trust Him with the care of His own work.

The resisting power of Hinduism is greater in the Calcutta diocese than in any other part of India; and accordingly, except among the non-Aryan tribes, the evidences of success are less visible.—Week by week and day by day, salvation through Christ is proclaimed in the crowded streets, in country villages, in vernacular schools, and in the college class. Many thousands of Christian tracts and portions of Holy Scripture are silently doing the same work. The houses of the rich and influential are constantly visited by the Christian missionary or the Zenâna teacher. Many a fervent prayer accompanies and follows all these efforts. They are not fruitless.—Yet the result in North India is at present, in a purely missionary point of view, for the most part underground and invisible. In many quarters a higher moral tone has been produced, and the belief in the unity and personality of the Supreme Ruler has been strengthened. But instances of evident and true conversion are still rare. Some, however, have been granted, during the year, among both Hindus and Mohammedans; as will be seen from the ensuing pages.

The Rev. H. P. Parker, M.A., of Trinity College, Cambridge, who was before joint-secretary with Mr. Welland, is for the present the Society's sole Corresponding Secretary for North India. Mr. Welland and Mr. Parker were also united, when the former was in Calcutta, in charge of the Old Church, the ministerial duties of which had for several years been undertaken by the Society's Corresponding Secretary or Secretaries. In July, 1879, the Committee appointed to the duties of the Old Church (the patronage being in their hands) the Rev. C. S. Harington, M.A., of Oriel College, Oxford. Mr. Harington sailed for Calcutta from England in the following November, and has been doing good service in Calcutta from the commencement of the present year.

I. Bengal.

Districts : Calcutta, commenced 1816; Burdwan, 1817; Krishnagar, 1831; Bhâgalpûr, 1850; Santâlia, 1856.

THE PRÆPARANDI CLASS for the Bengal Mission, under the care of the Rev. W. R. Blackett, and which during the year 1879 was carried on at Krishnagar, must be regarded as being still quite in its infancy. Four of the students, however, out of seven who were under Mr. Blackett's care at the end of 1878 were sent out to work during 1879; one of these is labouring in Calcutta, two in the Krishnagar district, and one at Nadiya. They have hitherto, Mr. Blackett states, shown more grace and energy than he had ventured to hope. The other three, together with one new student, form the existing class. Mr. Blackett has read with them the Gospel of St. John, some of the Psalms, the Books of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon, with part of the Book of Job; also a large portion of the Prayer Book, and of an Introduction to the Bible, and Barth's Church History. The students have also preached in the bazaars, under supervision. The Bishop of Calcutta had an interview in January, 1878, with the members of the class, and was pleased with them.

The plan that has worked so well in Travancore, of uniting, under one Principal, the Theological Class and the Class for Schoolmasters, has been tried under Mr. Blackett at Krishnagar. It does not seem, however, to suit the circumstances of Bengal. The two Institutions will now be separated; and it is proposed that the Theological Class should be removed to Calcutta. The Rev. G. H. Parsons, recently joined, is to take charge of the Schoolmasters' department.

CALCUTTA.

The CATHEDRAL MISSION COLLEGE was conducted during the year by Dr. Hoernle, and the Rev. R. J. Bell, together with two Assistant Professors engaged in Calcutta itself. The average daily attendance at the College was 56, that of the previous year having been 52. Nothing of special missionary interest is mentioned in Dr. Hoernle's annual letter. The Committee have resolved no longer to continue the Cathedral Mission College in Calcutta as an institution for training students for university degrees. It is satisfactory to remember that there are Christian colleges in Calcutta connected with other Missions—so that Christian students desiring degrees will not be obliged to resort to the Government colleges. Simultaneously with the issue of this resolution to India a request has been received from the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, that the buildings thus set free may be utilized for the accommodation of the Theological præparandi students mentioned above as being under the able management of the Rev. W. R. Blackett. The Committee have gladly acceded to this request; and they regard it as one of the most hopeful signs for the future of their North Indian Missions, that Divinity Colleges under efficient management are now established, or in course of establishment, in Bengal, in the North-West Provinces, and in the Panjâb.

The Native Christian Congregations connected with the Society in and near Calcutta are those of Christ Church, Trinity Church in Amherst Street, Kistapur, Bonhoogly, Thakurpukur, and Kidderpur.

Trinity Church has for its pastor the Rev. Piâri Mohan Rudra, and Kidderpur is under the care of the Rev. Modhu Sudan Seal. From neither of these gentlemen has any report been received.—The other four congregations, though two of them, Thakurpukur and Kidderpur, have their own Native Pastors (Rev. Rajkristo Bose and Rev. Molam Biswas respectively), have been reported of by the Rev. E. K. Blumhardt. The whole number of Native Christians in the six congregations is a little over 1000. Mr. Blumhardt notices improvement at Thakurpukur. A Church Committee has been formed there. A Church Committee has likewise been formed at Kistapur, where there is also an advance in the better observance of the Lord's Day. "The Bonhoogly congregation," Mr. Blumhardt observes, "is a cheering spectacle." Its congregations have from the first been trained in independence, and still maintain that character.—Evangelistic efforts are made in connexion with all these congregations; and it is not surprising to find that those connected with Bonhoogly are the most promising.

At AGARPÂRA there are 166 Native Christian Adherents, of whom 56 are Communicants. One adult was baptized during the year. In the Schools there are 330 boys and 80 girls. The girls consist of 47 inmates of the Orphanage, and 33 in the Boarding School. The expenses of the Orphanage are not borne by the Society, except that the Society's agents undertake to superintend it. This superintendence, during the year 1879, has been conducted by the Lady who has had charge of the Boarding School. Ten of the girls were under training to become schoolmistresses; four of these are now employed. Some of the children, both in the Boarding School and the Orphanage, seem to give decided indications of true conversion.

KRISHNAGAR.

The Sudder Station—Santipur and Nadiya.

The Sudder Station (i. e. the town of Krishnagar) was under the charge, during 1879, of the Rev. W. R. Blackett; Mr. Blackett was also in charge of the BENGAL PRÆPARANDI CLASS, which was then carried on at Krishnagar.—The registered members of the Native congregation here have increased in number very considerably, from what cause it is not stated, perhaps from some different mode of reckoning. Forty-eight candidates were presented to the Bishop for confirmation in January, 1879. The wife of a Native pleader, who was himself received into the Christian Church in 1878, was baptized in June, 1879, and seems to be a sincere convert.—It has been mentioned before that the Students of the Divinity School (BENGAL PRÆPARANDI CLASS) regularly preached in the bazaars. This has been carried on twice a week, and the teachers and other agents of the Mission have also taken part in it.—The students of the Government College are for the most part hostile, and are, in fact, the only section of the Native population by whom such hostility is manifested. A few of these however come to the Missionary on Saturday to read the Bible in English. Their object may be to improve themselves in English; but some seem really interested.

Santipur was visited by Mr. Blackett in the course of a missionary tour during the cold season of 1878-9. The preachings and conversations carried on there by himself and his pupils (who accompanied him) he regarded as decidedly encouraging, while Mrs. Blackett's work among the women seemed still more interesting.—The only fact mentioned respecting Nadiya is that one of the four trained Students sent out in 1879 is stationed there, and is doing well.

The statistical returns for these three stations give 280 Native Christian Adherents, 50 Communicants, and two adult baptisms.

The Districts.

No detailed report has been received of the work in the districts, which, as before, is under the care of the Rev. J. Vaughan, assisted by the Rev. H. Williams. It has been, however, a year of steady prayerful labour, accompanied with proofs of the power of the Holy Spirit on the one hand, and the activity of the great enemy and the virulence of human depravity on the other. The Christians, together with the rest of the population, have suffered much from extensive floods, with which the locality has been visited.

BURDWAN.

Early in the present year 1880 the Rev. E. H. Thornton was transferred from Calcutta to this station. During 1879 it had been under the care of the Rev. E. K. Blumhardt, who could only visit it occasionally from Calcutta. Nothing of special interest occurred, but Mr. Blumhardt is of opinion that at the out-stations of Bankura and Râniganj his successor will find "a most interesting sphere of work." *

BHAGALPŪR.

At BHAGALPUR, which, with its out-stations of Jamalpur and Sahibganj, is under the care of the Rev. E. Droese, the whole number of Native Christian Adherents, including 107 children in the Orphanage, is about 370, nearly the same number as that mentioned in the Report for the year preceding; the additions from the Satguruas, mentioned below, being, unhappily, rather more than compensated by the gradual falling away of the Pahâri (hill-men) Christians. No means seem yet to have been devised for retaining hold of these, who at one time seemed so promising.

Sahibganj may be regarded as the head-quarters of the work, both among the Pahâri Christians who are under Mr. Droese's care, and among the Satguruas. Among the Christians of Jamalpur and of Bhagalpur itself, nothing of special interest has occurred. Mr. Droese thinks he observes some improvement in their conduct; but no indications are mentioned of any zeal for the evangelization of their heathen neighbours. In reference to the conversions from the Satguruas, who are a newly formed Hindu sect, Mr. Droese writes:—

About the middle of the year two Satguruas—a newly formed Hindu sect of that name—and one orthodox Hindu, friendly to the sect—all three pretty well to do, respectable, cultivators—were baptized; in the latter part of the year several Satguruas and one household of orthodox Hindus declared their willingness to join the Christian Church; and several months later, viz. in the beginning of the current year, twenty-one souls (children included), and two Sundays after four more adults and two children were, through baptism, received into the Church of Christ. Thus the little Church of Satguruas converts, formerly consisting of only three members, has, within less than a year, increased tenfold; and there are some fifteen or sixteen more, almost all adults, who have joined in our daily and Sunday services, and are under instruction for baptism.

able movement in the neighbourhood
pur.

One man who had been especially bitter against our few Native Christians and inquirers, was, at the end of the last cold weather, attacked by sickness, and confined to his bed for several months. When he felt that he would not recover, he called for an elderly Satguruas woman, who, amongst the people of the village, goes by the appellation of Bhaktin (a saint), and said to her, "Now tell me all you have learnt from the missionary's daughter about Jesus Christ and His religion." The good old woman, who had not then been baptized, told him all she knew, and stayed with him to nurse him. Some ten or twelve days after he became unconscious, and the people came to take the body away to the Ganges, according to Hindu fashion; but before this could be done the man revived. Soon after he seemed again to die and be revived; and the same thing happened a third time. On his reviving the third time, he said, "Oh! when my soul is about to leave my body, then it sees a dark, dreadful place, and gets frightened, and comes back. Oh! how can I die?" After a while he said to] the Satgurua woman, "But now I know what I shall do. Go, there is my lota (brass drinking-vessel), cleanse that with your own hands, for you are as good as a Christian (that from the lips of a Hindu means as impure as a casteless Christian); cleanse that lota well, so that the old touch (means idolatrous Hindu touch) may go off, and then go and draw water with that lota from the Christian well with your own hands, and bring me the water. I will drink it from your hands, and then I shall be able to die (in peace)." The woman did as he wished, and he drank the water from her hand, and thus broke his caste and broke with Hinduism. He then asked the Satgurua woman to go and call in his father, mother, brother, and his wife and children. He first turned to his wife and said, "When I am dead, go and join the Christians, and have my children brought up as Christians. My son, my son, you by no means let him be brought up as a Hindu." His parents and brother he exhorted in a similar manner. Soon after he expired. The only three Christians of the village were on a two-days' business expedition at the time; and all that could be done for the poor man was done by that (then still unbaptized) Satgurua woman.

Conversion from a newly founded
sect.

The singular circumstances attending the death of this man made a deep impression on many, and from amongst those thus impressed are the converts who were lately baptized. The Satgurua woman was, of course, amongst the number. She is above middle age, but is, for a Hindu woman, still wonderfully active and strong. Her husband died when she was still young. Her only daughter disappeared, and no one knows what became of her. After this painful trial, the Hindu faqir, who founded the sect of Satguruas, appeared in the neighbourhood of her village. She joined that sect, going to the matter heart and soul, and earning for herself the title of Bhatkin. On our coming into contact with the Satgurua people, she from the first took to us decidedly. Last year she made up her mind to be baptized; and this she told her brother, with whose family she lived. He forbade her ever to think of such a thing. The first Sunday after this, she said in the morning that she would go and attend prayers with the Christian brethren. The brother told her that if she did so she must not return to his house any more. She replied, "Well, I will go, and God will take care of me." "Then put off," her brother said, "that necklace and the other silver ornaments. These have been bought with my money." She did so, and left the house. Her little nephew, to whom she had acted as a mother, joined with her in begging that he might go with her. This was refused, and she went and lived with the Christians. The brother remained very bitter for some time. After the death, however, of the man above alluded to, he gave up his enmity to the truth, and was baptized, together with his sister, his wife, and children, a few Sundays ago; and his sister lives now again in her former homestead.

In the educational work, there has been no change and no event of special interest. About 150 children are under instruction.

SANTALIA.

The TALJHARI district is now under the care of the Rev. A. Stark and the Rev. Robert Elliott. The latter of these is still new to the work. Mr. Stark is also assisted by a Native brother, the Rev. Bhim Hasda. The district now attached to Taljhari comprises 887 Native Christian Adherents, of whom 330 are Communicants. Forty-five adult converts were baptized during the year. The contributions of the Native Christians for religious purposes are stated to amount to Rs. 178. Some growth in Christian liberality would seem to be desirable; though doubtless the Native Christians, with few if any exceptions, are in poor circumstances. Intemperance, a sin to which the Santals were much addicted, seems to have met with a check, at least among the Native Christians. "The cases of open sin or drunkenness have been very few indeed," Mr. Stark writes, "during the past year." A new work at Taljhari is the opening of a Præparandi Class. It consists of nine young men who are under training to become teachers, preachers, or Native pastors.

The Rev. Robert Elliott, who, previously to being admitted to holy orders, had received a complete medical education, superintends a dispensary at this station, which he finds very helpful to missionary work. The patients listen always most attentively to the preaching of the Gospel, and appear, by the questions they ask, not only to understand, but also to be impressed by what they hear.

Mr. Stark again urges the "open field" that is to be found among the Pahâris. He is confident that if only a Missionary were set apart for them, there would be a still greater ingathering of souls among the Santals. Two of the Præparandi are Pahâris, and have already begun to preach occasionally to their fellow-tribesmen.

GODDA was, during the year 1879, under the care of the Rev. J. Tunbridge, who was admitted to deacon's orders in November, 1879. Congregations and villages that were formerly part of the Mission district of Godda have been recently transferred to other districts. The Native Adherents of Godda now number 216, and the Communicants 42. Twenty-eight adults were baptized during the year. Most of these were Pahâris, not Santals. The low moral tone of the Godda Native Christians has caused much pain to the Missionary. Six persons were excommunicated during the year for immorality. Native agents, also, are needed of a higher spiritual tone, and altogether a better stamp. Mr. Tunbridge hopes for much from the Præparandi Class at Taljhari. Meanwhile the stern discipline administered to offending Native Christians has had a very favourable effect on the heathen ; to whom these spurious or weak Christians had been a great stumblingblock.

From the Rev. F. T. Cole and the Rev. J. Blaich, no Reports or Annual Letters have been received.*

Growth of the Native
Church Council in the North-West Provinces of India.

RESPECTING the N. W. Provinces Native Church Council favourable reports have been received both from its Chairman, the Rev. B. Davis, and from other sources. There is a great desire among many, if not all, of the Native Christian congregations to unite themselves more and more closely with the Council, a desire which will doubtless overcome some practical difficulties that seemed to be in the way. Almost all those congregations which had separate funds of their own have surrendered the control of these funds to the central body. The strength which this generous self-abnegation gives to the new movement will be at once perceived. The stations of Agra, Lucknow, Mîrat (Meerut), Gorakpur, Allahabad, all now claim to fulfil the conditions for receiving help from the W. C. Government Fund. By the rules of that fund every organized Native Church Body, supplying from its own resources two-fifths of its own church expenses, will receive from the fund a sum, to be spent on evangelistic work, equivalent to that which the Native Church Body itself raises for that purpose.

BENARES (BANÂRAS).

The Rev. B. Davis gives a succinct review of the work at Benares and its out-stations, from which the following extracts are subjoined :—

At Banâras we have five Hindustani services on Sundays—one for a few Christians living near the civil station, in what is called the Drummers' Chapel, usually taken by Timothy Luther, the Native head-master of Jay Narain's School ; two at Sagra, and two in the City Church, shared between Aman Masih (the pastor), Mr. Hackett, when in Banâras, and myself, Mr. Treusch also helping us the Sundays I have been away at Jaunpur. Our pastor has, I believe, taken good care of the flock, and has also helped in the care and instruction of inquirers. He has held weekly meetings, in addition to his part in the Sunday duty, and has always joined me in the Sunday-school for our Native Christian children.—We have the goodly number of five Native helpers regularly engaged at ten different preaching-stations in the city; besides one of our Jay Narain's masters, who assists in the same once or twice a week. Aman Masih takes part with them twice a week, and I also go twice, generally to the stations Bhairo Nath and Aurangabad. As these names imply, the one is a centre of Hinduism, and the latter mostly attended by Mussulmans. We have had various inquirers during the year, of whom four have been baptized.

The work in Jay Narain's School has, of course, occupied a large part of my time, and I trust profitably, with a view to our great object of making known the truth as it is in Jesus to all classes of the people. I have endeavoured to carry it on with as little change as possible of the plans of my predecessors. The chief alteration is that, at the opening prayer-time daily, the whole school is now collected into two divisions (one comprising the higher English classes, and the other the rest of the school), for a catechetical exposition of what is read, the one part being taken by myself, and the other by the head-master, T. Luther. The classes for more regular Scriptural and religious teaching are taken by myself or Timothy Luther or other Christian teachers. Twelve boys expect to present themselves for the University Entrance Examination next week, of whom we hope about half will pass, and one goes in from Jaunpur School.—Mr. and Mrs. Treusch have carried on their labours most successfully in the Girls' Normal School, in which there are now seventy pupils—a greater number, indeed, than can be comfortably accommodated. These include some who are not looking forward to engagements as teachers, but are simple boarders for general education.—Mrs. Grime, with the exception of the time when she was called away to Agarpara, has taught in the two large city girls' schools, containing now 340 girls, on alternate days, and has also given lessons each day in the Girls' Normal School. I think the Lord has helped her efforts to secure the affection of the children to a great degree.

The out-stations are Gharwah and Ahrowrah and Chunar lying south-west of Banâras: these are under the care of Mr. Hackett, who conducts service, both in English and in the Native church, once a month at the latter station.

The statistical returns for Benares and its out-stations give the following numbers:—292 Native Christian Adherents, 123 Communicants, four adult Baptisms. The contributions of the Native Christians for religious purposes are estimated at about Rs. 100. In this last point there seems room for improvement.

Jaunpur may now be regarded as an out-station from Benares. It is thus reported of by Mr. Davis:—

Jaunpur, towards the north, about forty miles off by rail, is under my care, where I take services once a month, viz. two Hindustani, and usually one English in the evening, to which once a quarter a fourth morning service is added for the Communion in English. There are commonly from twelve to eighteen in each congregation.—The school appears to be in good order and doing well.

AZIMGARH AND GORAKPUR.

When, in April 1878, the Rev. H. Stern, who had charge of Gorakpur, left that station for Europe, it was placed under the care of the Rev. B. H. Skelton, who then removed to Gorakpur, still superintending his former station of Azimgarh. Mr. Skelton has conducted his varied duties with patient and assiduous fidelity; but no event of any special interest has occurred at either of the stations. The High School at Gorakpur has prospered numerically, the numbers having increased during the two years from 100 to 150. Mr. Skelton's Annual Letter contains no statistical returns. ¶

JABALPUR.

At this station the Rev. E. Champion was labouring for several years without any European fellow-labourer. This was deplored both by himself and the Parent Committee, as it shuthim out from the work on which his heart had been so much set among the Gonds. Towards the close of 1878 the Committee were at length able to supply Mr. Champion with two helpers, in the persons of the Rev. T. R. Hodgson and the Rev. H. D. Williamson, the latter of these being appointed to the Gond Mission, while the former was to take up the work in Jabalpur itself. Mr. Champion himself, however, to the regret of the Committee and of his younger coadjutors, who speak warmly of the value of his counsels and sympathy, was suddenly (it is hoped temporarily) brought home by circumstances early in 1880 to this country. Mr. Hodgson, who was designated from the first for Jabalpur, but who had been detained for three years at Calcutta by the exigencies of that Mission, reached Jabalpur in November, 1878.

The Native Christian Adherents connected with the Jabalpur Mission number 124, of whom 28 are Communicants. Two adults were baptized during the year. Owing to changes by death and removals, these numbers are lower than those of the year preceding. There is at present no Native pastor in Jabalpur. A Native Church Committee, however, is in active operation, which sends its delegates to the Provincial Church Council, while the Missionary himself discharges the necessary ministerial duties. One hundred and sixteen rupees were raised by the congregation during the year for the relief of the poor and for religious purposes.

Of the two adult baptisms, one was that of a young woman brought to the knowledge of the truth by means of her mistress, a good Christian lady of Jabalpur. Of the other Mr. Hodgson gives the following account:—

Hafiz was a young Mussulman, who was held in considerable esteem among his co-religionists on account of his learning. They tried every means in their power to prevent his baptism, even going so far as to inveigle him into a marriage, solemnly promising that his religious convictions should not be interfered with. They brought their most learned Maulvies to reason with him, and they threatened him with all kinds of pains and penalties on his becoming a Christian. One night he had fairly to take refuge with me from their violence. The Maulvies refused to meet him in public discussion in my presence, but did not hesitate to assail him alone. The poor lad's firmness was tried in every way, and at times I feared he would yield to their persistent attacks; but God strengthened him through nine long months of preparation, during which time, indeed, he did not escape the wiles of the devil, and at times caused us to fear. At the end of those nine months he was admitted into the Church of Christ by public baptism, being immersed at his own request. He had to sacrifice, for the sake of Christ, much worldly ease and comfort, as well as the honour which he might easily have had among Mussulmans. Soon after his baptism he published, in the Nur Afshan, an Urdu newspaper, his "reasons for accepting Christ and rejecting Mahommed"—a very interesting document. Since his baptism he has been going on well; and his example, in more than one case, to my own knowledge, has had an effect upon the Mussulmans.

Conversion of a
medan.

In evangelistic work, Mr. Hodgson is aided by four Native agents, two at Jabalpur itself, and two at Damoh, an out-station sixty miles off. The supervision of the two latter is most kindly undertaken by the civil surgeon of the station. In Jabalpur, preaching has been conducted steadily in the bazaar, morning and evening, throughout the year; the audiences, which vary from 30 to 150, being as a rule very attentive.

In the schools there are under instruction 545 boys and 73 girls. Instead of the old Government reading books have been substituted the school manuals issued by the Christian Vernacular Education Society, which Mr. Hodgson describes as being of a thoroughly Christian character, and at the same time exceedingly well adapted for teaching purposes. The schools have been fairly successful in the Government examinations.

MANDLA.

This is a new station, which has been occupied as a centre for work among the Gonds; its Missionary is the Rev. H. D. Williamson. Mr. Williamson has now passed his examination in the Hindi language, which is spoken and understood by many of the Gonds, though they have also a vernacular of their own. There are no Gonds in Mandla itself, nor indeed are they to be found in any of the towns of this part of India. They must be sought out in their own villages by itineration. Mr. Champion and Mr. Williamson made a very interesting tour for this purpose in April and May, 1879. The audiences were small, as a Gond village is often composed of not more than six or eight huts, but were uniformly attentive and (apparently) interested. Mr. Williamson purposes to build, at suitable centres, rest-houses (small huts, with a verandah, sufficient to keep out the sun and rain), for the temporary accommodation of the Missionary or Catechist; so that the district may be visited more regularly.

There are four good schools, numbering on an average twelve pupils in each. The children show themselves not incapable of learning, and Mr. Williamson speaks of it as very interesting to see “the wondering and delighted faces of the boys’ fathers, who squat by and listen when the schools are examined.” Mr. Williamson adds:—

I hope those who, at the conference in Salisbury Square in February, 1877, spoke so encouragingly and warmly for the poor Gonds will not forget their words then and our need now; for we want their prayers, their efforts, and their sympathy that God may bless us, our work, and us in our work.

LUCKNOW.

In the spring of the present year, 1880, the Parent Committee were induced by financial considerations to consider from what portions of the field it would be possible to withdraw the European Missionary, in order to maintain other Missions in adequate strength. Among the principles that guided them in their inquiries were—the desire to concentrate round important centres, and the importance of selecting as fields from which to withdraw (where withdrawal is necessary) those where the work can in a measure be taken up by other existing Protestant Societies. It was accordingly resolved to withdraw the Society's European Missionary force from Oude (Lucknow and Faizabad), the Native Christian congregations continuing to be connected, if they so desire it, with the Society's Native Church Council for the N. W. Provinces. The Rev. J. P. Ellwood and the Rev. G. B. Durrant were the Society's Missionaries at Lucknow during the year 1879. The Rev. D. Solomon is the Native pastor. Mr. Ellwood writes:—

The Native Christian Congregation (389 Adherents and 120 Communicants) is still in the charge of the Rev. D. Solomon, who, in addition to his pastoral work, preaches in the bazaar twice a week. He is a most faithful worker and pastor. During the week he holds prayer-meetings among the Native Christians, and tries in every way to remind his brethren of their heavenly calling. The Native Christians show a willingness to help themselves and promote the interests of the Native Church.—Mr. Solomon is also the superintendent of the Sunday-school. The members of the Native congregation willingly assist in teaching the children. There are sixty scholars.—In November we had our usual Christian Mela in commemoration of the laying of the foundation-stone of the new church. A special service was held, and the church beautifully illuminated in the Native style. Amusements were prepared for old and young. The affair was all arranged and carried on by the Native brethren.

The Lucknow Main School is in the charge of Mr. W. Seetal, a Native Christian of zeal and ability. The following interesting event in connexion with it is mentioned by Mr. Ellwood:—

Nearly seven years ago, I appointed to the second mastership of our Main School a young man from Canning College, well recommended to me by its Principal. Since that time Nehal Singh has worked faithfully at his post, showing himself a steady, intelligent, and upright young man. On joining our school, he knew very little of Christianity. For a long time he acted as my moonshee, in addition to his other work; and this gave me many opportunities of speaking to him. At length at his own request I began to give him regular instruction. It soon became evident that he was passing through spiritual conviction. We brought his case before the Lord, both in private, and at our monthly meeting; and our gracious Lord soon answered our prayers. He declared himself ready to become a Christian, but his wife was not willing. We encouraged him to commit her case into the hands of the Lord. The ladies of the Zenana Mission, my dear wife, and the Bible-woman visited his wife frequently. After a short time, she declared her intention of following the footsteps of her husband in the way of life. On Christmas Day I baptized them both before a large congregation. I believe them to be thoroughly in earnest, and trust they will prove bright ornaments in the Christian Church. It was very encouraging to find that the Christian influence of the head-master, Mr. W. Seetal, and the Bible-teacher, J. Webb, had proved a great help to Nehal Singh in his search after truth—a living proof of the good influence of the lives of our Native Christian brethren. This is not the first instance of the kind in connexion with our dear brother Seetal.

The six out-stations will now no longer be connected with the Society. It does not appear that at any of them there were any Native Christians besides the Society's agents. At one of them, however, a place called Man, there is a Brahmin inquirer, for whom, with his family, Mr. Ellwood asks the prayers of God's people. There were inquirers also at Mahlî-hâbâd, who were under Mr. Durrant's instruction. If nothing can be done for these out-stations by the Native Christian congregation of Lucknow, it may be hoped they will be visited by agents of the American Missionary Society.—The Book-stall at the Railway Station has been very useful.

FAIZABAD.

The Rev. A. W. Baumann was the Missionary at this station during 1879, by whom the work at Faizabad itself and its three out-stations was conducted with vigour. He reports as follows:—

The number of the Native congregation was augmented by persuading about thirty Native Christians of the regiment to join the Sunday services, and to send their children to our school. When these troops were, with others, sent to the seat of war, the Faizabad congregation was again reduced to its real strength of about seventy souls. Four adults were baptized in this year. Three of these have since their baptism proved themselves useful and steady Christians. The great difficulty is how to provide work for new converts, so that they can earn their own livelihood.

Diminution of prejudice and more serious attention to the preaching of the Gospel among the heathen. The great annual fairs at Ajudhya, held in honour of Rám, the favourite god of the Hindus in these parts, has been visited by myself, and about twelve or more of our Mission agents, some of whom were kindly sent for the occasion by our missionaries at Benares and Lucknow. The great questions of dispute on these occasions, as well as in the bazaars, are now, Who is Christ? What is the human soul, and what is its destiny after the death of man? One cannot help noticing that our answers satisfy them much more than they used to do some ten years ago, and that there is less of that wrangling and obstinacy seen now than there was in former years, when questions about the rightful possession of the country, the legal use or abuse of certain meats and drinks, the question of high and low caste, and the like, were discussed sometimes in a most bitter tone.

AGRA.

The Missionaries at this station are the Rev. James Erhardt, the Rev. J. A. Lloyd, Mr. A. H. Wright, Mr. M. Hofer, and Mr. P. M. Zenker. Miss L. Ellwanger has charge of several girls' schools. The Rev. Katwaru Lall is the pastor of the Agra congregation, and the Rev. Madho Ram of the congregation at the out-station of Mattra. The Native Christians at Agra and Mattra together number 364, and the Communicants 143; the corresponding numbers for the previous year having been respectively 316 and 107. The Native Missionary Association is again flourishing, the sum collected during 1879 having been 20%. A monthly children's service has also been recently introduced, taken in turns by the pastor (Katwaru Lall), Mr. Lloyd, and Mr. Zenker.

Mr. Zenker, who has charge of the evangelistic department of the Mission, has, in a lengthened and interesting Annual Letter, given several graphic sketches of what has been done both in Agra itself and in the out-station of Tündla. The aspect of the work is very various. A Catechist will sometimes commence his address in an open street and continue for some time with scarcely a single hearer, and yet, half an hour afterwards, the same man, in the same place, will be surrounded by a large crowd of eager and attentive listeners. The efforts among the Chamars or heathen workers seem hopeful. Though none were baptized during the year, considerable numbers attend classes, where they sing, and commit to memory, Christian hymns. The following extracts from Mr. Zenker's letter, on two different subjects, will be read with interest:—

During the first years of my missionary labour here in India, I could not take a sanguine view of the effects of preaching and teaching on the Natives, Christian or non-Christian. But as years rolled on I gradually had to change my opinion. Hope grew stronger, and now, when I look forward into the future, it seems to me as if already I saw the hill-tops rosy with the light of the Sun of Righteousness, and I could almost shout for joy. I formerly expected too much of our Native Christian brethren, and paid too little attention to the serious and painful difficulties which they have to face in rendering asunder (as they often must) ties of family and friendship. Now, however, that the preparation of Church History in the Vernacular has led me to a closer study of the life and circumstances of the Christians of Apostolic times, my eyes have been opened to the unfairness of my former views. And though by no means unaware of the shortcomings of our Native brethren, I yet see how vast the change is which the Word of God has wrought.

It interests me deeply to hear sometimes from the preachers under my charge what objections are raised by Hindus and Mohammedans in the bazaar, for our Native brethren often hear things which escape us foreigners. The most profound metaphysical questions (e. g. the omnipotence of God, the free-will of man, the nature of sin, the apparent conflict of moral duties) are handled—though, of course, rarely understood—by these men with as much self-possession, I might almost say, as we talk about the wars between ancient Persia and Greece. Strange mixture this of the grand and the little in the minds of these Indians, who, on the other hand, are quite ready to talk by the hour about a thing hardly worth a penny!

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE (of which the Rev. J. A. Lloyd is Principal, assisted by Mr. A. H. Wright) has, in the eyes of the Committee, two objects in view—the education of Native Christian youths, and the evangelization and conversion of Hindu students. As regards the latter of these two objects, no special evidences of success are mentioned in the reports of the year. With a view to the former, a Boarding School or Hostel has been established under Mr. Wright's care, of which he reports as follows:—

The Boarding-school, or Hostel, started at the request of the North-West Provinces Conference, began in 1879 with four pupils. At the end of the year there were eleven, all paying Rs. 5 a month for their food and tuition, so that the Institution is practically self-supporting. I hope gradually to collect together in the boarding-schools all the best Christian youths of the province. The student who got a "first" in the matriculation examination was a boarder from Lucknow. His brother is reading in the College Department for his F.A. The Society's wish is to make St. John's College the educational centre of the North India Mission; and it is only by such an establishment as this that the idea can be worked out. I attribute very much importance to this glorious opportunity of having a number of educated young men for some years under Christian instruction. A plot of ground has just been bought for a site for the new hostel, to be commenced this year (1880). It will accommodate fifty boarders. At present we are using part of the Lower School for this purpose.

By aid of money given from Haileybury College (England) one of the Christian masters, Mr. Thomas, has been instituted Haileybury Teacher and Lecturer, and gives fortnightly lectures on religious subjects to the higher classes of the school. The meeting in the city for the same purpose, referred to in the Report for 1878-9, it was not found practicable to carry out.

In the School department of St. John's College, which is under the able management of Mr. Wright, there has been an attendance of nearly 300 boys, somewhat lower than the average of recent years, owing to the unhealthiness of the season. "The mortality," remarks Mr. Wright, "has been appalling." More died in the N. W. Provinces from fever in 1879 than from famine in 1878. The school has prospered in respect of secular education, and there is a good staff of Christian teachers. Of the eight English-teaching masters six are Christians.

Mr. Lloyd is of opinion that as regards acceptance of the Gospel, much may be expected from work among heathen students taught in Christian schools, after they have left the school or college. He is very desirous that this branch of the work should be definitely taken up. For the present, he has obtained for this purpose, by means of funds given from Haileybury College, the services three days a week of the Rev. Mr. Banerjea, B.D., of the American Mission.

The Girls' Boarding School, which suffered for awhile after the removal from India of Mr. and Mrs. Vines, is now taking a firmer position again. It contains 46 pupils, of whom 34 are boarders. It very much needs a new boarding house, which the Society's funds in their present condition cannot supply. Miss Ellwanger opened in 1879 the fourth of her city girls' schools. One hundred and eighty girls are now under instruction in connexion with the Mission. The Zenana work has extended itself. An increased number of ladies are at work, supported by the Society for the Promotion of Female Education in the East, but labouring in connexion with the C.M.S. Agra Mission.

Out-stations.

Nothing of special interest has occurred, either at Mattrā or Bindraban.

Sekandra (Secundra) has been under the care of the Rev. James Erhardt. Its Native Christian Adherents number 179; and its Communicants 90. "Our little Native community," Mr. Erhardt writes, "have given us joy by their quiet and steady Christian behaviour." Three adults were baptized during the year. The contributions of the Native Christians for religious purposes are not large, amounting to rather less than 150 rupees; but it is satisfactory to observe that they furnish from their own number five voluntary unpaid Native agents.

A terrible epidemic in the neighbouring districts has greatly interfered with itinerating efforts. The Roxburgh colporteurs have worked with great diligence, and travelled far; but with only half the results of former years. "The villages and the whole country," observes Mr. Erhardt, "are impoverished to an extent incomprehensible in Europe."

The notice of Agra should not conclude without a reference to the loss which the Mission has incurred in the decease, at Ramsgate, on the 6th November, 1879, of its late Senior Missionary, the Rev. C. E. Vines. Mr. Vines, who was a graduate of Trinity College, Cambridge, sailed for India in 1862. He was connected with St. John's College, Agra, during the whole of his missionary career. While health and strength lasted, he was a most efficient Missionary; and to the last his singular devotion and choice Christian spirit gained the deep respect and love of all that knew him.

ALIGARH.

Vigorous open-air preaching before (apparently) attentive and interested audiences still seems to be the most prominent characteristic of the work of this station. Its Missionary, the Rev. J. Stuart, is of opinion that several would have come forward as candidates for baptism, but for the fear of losing all means of maintenance through taking such a step. The temporal support of inquirers and converts is a very difficult problem, but one that should be practically met by the Native Church, wherever such a body exists. It is proposed to bring the Aligarh Mission into closer connexion with the Native Church Organization of the N. W. Provinces; and it is possible that Mr. Stuart himself may remove to some district where the special difficulty just referred to does not act so deleteriously on Missionary progress. These changes are connected with the plans of Missionary concentration that have been already described. One adult convert was baptized during the year at Soron. Four other candidates were desirous to be admitted at the same time, but were deferred until they had been further instructed.

MIRAT (MEERUT).

The European Missionary at this station is the Rev. J. G.

Hermann Hoernle. The Native Christian congregations, numbering nearly 320 souls, are under the care of a Native pastor, the Rev. D. Jeremy. There are 91 Communicants. Eight adults were baptized during the year. Their missionary zeal is attested by the existence and success of a Native Evangelical Association. Mr. Hoernle's lengthened and interesting Annual Letter contains some valuable and forcible remarks on the importance of cultivating self-support and self-reliance, and his efforts in that direction seem certainly to have met with success. The Native Christians, as well as the Missionary himself, were much cheered by a visit from the Bishop of Calcutta in September, 1879. Fifty-four candidates were confirmed, and the Bishop was present at a Christian mela, or social gathering of Native Christians, at which nearly 300 persons were present, the arrangements being conducted by leading members of their own body, and the expenses being met partly by their own offering and partly by contributions obtained through their solicitations from local friends.

A weaver, who with his family was baptized three or four years ago at a village called Sibbi, has recently been joined by his son-in-law, who had at one time been one of his bitterest opponents. The conduct and influence of this good man in his own village is thus referred to by Mr. Hoernle :—

The weaver, with his family, and that of his son-in-law, seem to be getting on very well in their Native village, working at their trade and supporting themselves as they used to do before. Persecution and annoyance have ceased, and he is now on the most friendly footing with the people in the village. I asked one of the head men there, on my last visit, how it was that they were now quite reconciled to his Christianity? He answered, "Well, you see; first, we were all very angry with him for forsaking us and taking up with the Sahibs, and we annoyed him in every possible way. We threatened him with many things, and even ill-treated him, because we did not wish him to get the high hand over us. But when we saw that nothing came of it, that he did not assume in any way to be better than we, or to lord it over us, when he bore and suffered everything in silence and with a smile on his lip, when he did not retaliate or lay any complaint against us, but went on his way quietly and lived peaceably, then we felt that it was of no use persecuting him, and we became again friends as in former times." I replied, "Yes, I am very glad to see that good-fellowship exists again amongst you; and I hope you will be just in your hearts, and acknowledge that there must be something in that religion which can teach such patience and forbearance to such an ignorant man as this man is." "Yes," said another man, "he never gets angry, that's what astonishes us; he is certainly better than we are."

Evangelistic work has been regularly carried on in a village near Mirat, called Khálidpur. A faqir some years ago persuaded several families to renounce idolatry and worship the Creator only; but he also taught them that the soul perishes with the body. For some time, therefore, they were no more desirous than their neighbours to listen to the Gospel. Lately, however, they have made repeated applications for the establishment of a Mission School in the village. This Mr. Hoernle has consented to do, they having paid in advance a considerable portion of the monthly expenses of the school, and having also promised that the master shall have full liberty to make known the Gospel both to themselves and to his pupils.

The Anglo-Vernacular High School has 313 pupils on the rolls, of whom 26 are Christians, the remainder being, in about equal numbers, Hindu and Mohammedan. The head master is a son of the Native Pastor, Mr. Jeremy.

ANNFIELD, DEHRA DŪN.

The chief events of the year 1879 at this station were, the visit of the Bishop of Calcutta, the admission to priest's orders on that occasion of the Native Pastor (the Rev. J. Richards), and the reception into the visible Church by baptism of the rest of the inquirers mentioned in last year's Report (pp. 106, 107).

The whole number of Native Christian Adherents now amounts to 458. The accession just referred to caused an increase of 39. The Communicants number 214. The Rev. C. T. Hoernle is still the Missionary of this station, though, from increasing years, he contemplates retirement at the close of 1880.*

General.

IN the Panjâb Mission, visible signs of success, as indicated for instance by the number of adult baptisms, have been more abundant than in former years, and than in most other parts of North India; but yet not so numerous as the missionaries had at one time anticipated. There was, and is still, a movement going on in many minds; but the great enemy has been on the alert, and with too much success, to divert it from the right direction. "In the villages and in the country," writes the Rev. R. Bateman, "increasing numbers take an intelligent interest in Christianity, and are ready and anxious to meet with a Christian teacher. But there are only a few who show signs of sorrow for sin and anxiety for salvation. The uneasy feeling which educated Hindus suffer from, through the absurdities to which their old faith commits them, is to a great extent smothered by a new "Aryan" or deistic teaching. The teachers of this Aryanism conform to all that caste requires, and give up nothing that is agreeable to their tastes. In my experience," he adds, "I have not come across one in whom I have seen any good fruit, in truthfulness, humility, or morality, as the result of embracing Aryanism. Its adherents vie with Mohammedans, and surpass common Hindus, in their eager hostility to Christianity. The spread of this eminently easy persuasion is one of the reasons why converts from Hinduism are so few."

Deistic movement in the Panjâb Its sad consequences.

Two or three incidents may here be mentioned relating to individuals, but illustrative generally of Native Christian character. "I was passing a village, late one evening," writes a missionary, "where a solitary Hindu convert lived. I found that he had not yet returned from his shop. Going there to look for him, I saw my friend crouched over his Prayer-book, on his knees, saying evening prayer, and, without a salaam or salute, received an invitation to join him. It was no small privilege to join such an one in such an exercise after a weary day of contact only with heathen. Alone in his faith—Hindus and Mohammedans persecuting him, his wife reviling and his own son sometimes even striking him—he braces himself for every effort, and refreshes himself in every distress, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving. I met the same man lately on his return from Amritsar. He had there been solicited to become an Aryan, and had given audience to his would-be instructor until he failed to give any definite reply to the question, 'What, then, must I do to be saved, if I renounce Christianity?' " "On my arrival yesterday," writes the same missionary, "at a village where several converts have been recently baptized, the old disciple (a faqir) clasped me in his arms, and then, instead of the usual salutation which, as a Mohammedan faqir, he would have given to his teacher, he said, 'I believe in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen,' and then released me. Last year, I found him apparently at the point of death, so much so that his coffin had been made, and was lying then in front of him. We all prayed very earnestly that his life might be prolonged. The same day he ordered his coffin out of the house, saying he should not want it now. Another year has been given him, and he has been appointed an evangelistic agent by the Panjâb Native Church Council. Another faqir, who was turned out of his holding on becoming a Christian, has built a house by the road-side in a desolate place, where he has planted a number of trees, and is digging a well. He there receives large numbers of travellers, provides them with water brought from a great distance, gives them often a night's lodging, and preaches Christ to them. He is very popular, and some of the heathen, who have enjoyed his hospitality, have petitioned Government to help him in building his well."

Missionary extension on and beyond the frontier is loudly called for, and apparently much facilitated, by recent public events; and it is earnestly longed for by the Committee. But their hands are in a great measure tied by the inadequacy of the funds at their disposal.

It need scarcely be stated, and yet ought not to be omitted, that in every part of the Panjâb and Sindh the missionaries of the Society feel themselves powerfully supported by the affectionate kindness and the untiring missionary zeal of their learned and gifted Bishop, Dr. French.

The PANJÂB AND SINDH NATIVE CHURCH COUNCIL held its fourth Annual Meeting on the 27th, 28th, and 29th days of December, 1879, under the presidency of its vice-chairman, the Rev. R. Bateman. Its Chairman, who is no other than the Society's highly esteemed missionary, the Rev. Robert Clark, is still detained in Europe by the state of his health.

From the printed report sent home the meeting seems to have been an interesting and important occasion. Mr. Rallia Ram, Lay Delegate for Amritsar, in a paper which he read at the meeting, after explaining why the Council could not show a larger amount of work actually performed, remarked :—

From another point of view the Council seems to have done much during the last three years. Many useful subjects deeply affecting the welfare of the Native Church have been thoroughly ventilated, and we have a collection of valuable opinions upon them. With the aid of experience thus gained we can carry on our work efficiently. The future Native Church will study with advantage the Reports of the Church Councils of former years. The organization of the Council has directed our attention to subjects on which we scarcely ever bestowed much thought. Did we feel, so deeply as we do now, that the support of pastors, and the support and extension of the Church, devolves on us as a duty? The Council has been the means of bringing the Native Church to feel the sense of its duty towards its pastors and teachers, and towards the heathen also. Is this no work?

Council.

Mr. Mya Das, the Lahore delegate, similarly observed :—

Little children first look all around to see what is within their reach. So do we. Before the starting of the Church Council our Native brethren knew little of the numerical or spiritual strength of the Church. I can say for myself, and others like me, that we wondered who there would be to speak when the Church Council assembled, and what they would talk about. But I know that, after its first meeting, those very persons were astonished and delighted, and discovered their mistake, and learnt that there are among us plenty who can speak, and, by God's grace, can act as well. Thus we all rejoiced in seeing and conversing freely with one another, and learnt our first lesson.

The PRÆPARANDI INSTITUTION for the Panjâb and Sindh Mission is, it need scarcely be said, the LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL. The Rev. W. Hooper, its late Principal, left it on the 11th February, 1879, when there was a large gathering of Native brethren to present him with tokens of affection and esteem, and to receive his parting exhortations. The Rev. A. P. Shirreff then became Principal of the College, assisted by the Rev. H. U. Weitbrecht, who is also the acting Secretary of the Panjâb Mission. On the day after Mr. Hooper left, the students went out in two small parties for evangelistic tours. Some went with Mr. Shirreff to Jhelam and Gujrat; others with Dr. Weitbrecht into the Ferozpur district. Before the end of the month all had re-assembled at Lahore, and the theological classes were resumed. The Acts of the Apostles, the Book of Genesis, the Life of Our Lord, Old Testament History from the captivity of the ten tribes to the era of Nehemiah, the Thirty-nine Articles, Pastoral Theology, Homiletics, Church History from the sixth to the tenth century, with Hebrew and Greek Grammar, formed the subjects of the year's study. At daily prayer in chapel Mr. Shirreff expounded the Second Epistle of St. Peter and the two Epistles to Timothy, and Dr. Weitbrecht the Books of Job and Ecclesiastes. At the end of the term, July 14th, five students had completed their course. Three of these have taken employment under the Society, while two are working under the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. When Mr. Hooper left, there were ten students. In April, 1880, there were nine, four new students having taken the place of the five that had left.

KANGRA.

The Rev. R. Bateman, who is in charge of this Mission, sojourned in the district during the hot weather of 1879.

The inhabitants of Kangra itself, so far as Mr. Bateman could judge from their demeanour at street preaching, are more averse to the Gospel than those of any other place with which he is acquainted. This, however, is not the case in the neighbouring villages.

The Kangra School is flourishing in a secular point of view, and has also, through the grace of God, yielded spiritual fruit. The head boy was baptized by Bishop French in July, 1879, and seems to be a promising and consistent Christian. It is hoped that in a year or so he will enter the Lahore Divinity College. It is an interesting though not an unprecedented fact, that the heathen school-boys and their masters subscribed as much as eleven rupees for the support of this boy when he joined the Christians. This was a spontaneous token of sympathy and admiration for the evident genuineness of the conviction which led him to forsake all and to follow Christ. He has five brothers, who have declared their intention to kill him for disgracing their family by his Christianity.

No Report has been received this year from KOTGUR.

AMRITSAR AND BATALA.

The whole number of Native Christians connected with Amritsar and its out-stations (BATALA, NAROWAL, Klarkabad, Fatehgarh, Jandiala, and Tarantaran) amounts to 521. At the close of 1878 it was 432. There have been 105 baptisms during the year, of which 40 were of adult converts.

At AMRITSAR itself—where the Rev. Imad-ud-din ministers in the church, pastoral visitation being conducted by the catechist—ten adult converts were received by baptism into the visible church. Two of the converts were Mohammedan young men of education and intelligence.

The Christian Settlement at Klarkabad is under the care of the Rev. R. Bateman. He writes as follows:—

The work there has an element of secularity in it which is wearying to the flesh, and not always refreshing to the spirit. It has been an anxious year, because the ten years' lease on which the land was given to the original managers expired in March; and if Government had been disposed to press for a literal fulfilment of the conditions on which the land was granted, it might justly have been resumed. The conditions I refer to were that if, at the end of ten years, a large proportion of the land (2000 acres) was not brought by the said Native Christian managers under cultivation, as a bonâ-fide Native Christian settlement, the land should revert to Government; if otherwise, the managers should acquire proprietary rights. It was patent that at the end of the first seven years these conditions had been in no respect fulfilled, and that the progress made during the last three years, which caused the settlement to be pronounced "bonâ-fide Christian," was the result of European, and not of Panjâbi effort. The Government has not thought it right to resume the land, but proposes to make me responsible lessee at an enhanced rent for a term of five years; at the end of which time it will be competent to Government to appoint, as permanent proprietors, all or any of the original trustees, with such others as it may think fit. I have accepted the responsibility, and in five years I hope to have such a Christian village as shall satisfy the Government in all respects.

The Christian community has increased very much during the year, chiefly by the baptism of converts from the agricultural class. At one time there were forty-five candidates, of whom, after public examination, thirty-one were baptized on one day.

A church (the material building) was begun at Klarkabad in March, 1879, the first stone being laid by the Bishop of Lahore. Mr. Bateman hoped to have it opened by Easter, 1880. A well has also been sunk, water having been reached at a depth of sixty feet. It is proposed that the Amritsar Boys' Orphanage should be removed to Klarkabad.

Evangelistic work in connexion with Amritsar and its out-stations has been conducted with assiduity and zeal by the Rev. W. Keene, the Rev. R. Bateman, and the Rev. Mian Sádiq. The general effects of these efforts, with some illustrative incidents, have already been stated in the introductory remarks on the Panjâb Mission.

Passing to the Educational department of the Mission :—

The Boys' Schools, which contain about 700 pupils, not including the Christian Boarding School at BATALA, are in charge of the Rev. A. T. Fisher, a graduate of the University of Cambridge. Mr. Fisher reached India for the first time in February, 1879. On the 11th of that month he entered on his work at Amritsar, taking charge of the Central School, and himself teaching the highest class in Scripture, English, and mathematics. This he has continued to do ever since. Mr. Fisher has the assistance of an excellent Native Christian head-master ; “who, together with his wife,” Mr. Fisher writes, “sets a good kindly example to the rest of the Native Church.” Of the 25 Native masters, four only are Native Christians ; but this number is an increase of two from last year. So great is the demand for Native Christian masters that they can obtain three or four times the amount of salary given to equally efficient non-Christian teachers. Even those thus obtained are, for the most part, not natives of the Panjâb, but Bengalis. In carrying out the wish, therefore, of the Parent Committee, that all the teachers should be Christians, it will be necessary largely to diminish their number. This would involve some falling off in the number of scholars ; but the missionary quality of the education given would be greatly improved.—Mr. Fisher also superintends the Branch Schools. The NAROWAL School is under the care of the Rev. B. N. Ghôs, who is also, without remuneration, the pastor of the congregation. It is the first year for a long time, in which there have been no converts from Narowal School. This arises from the fact that parents now will not let their boys remain until they are of an age to declare themselves Christians. The sister of a late scholar has been baptized, and there are others of whom hopes are entertained. Prayer is especially solicited on behalf of the lad (now a young man) who was tortured back into Mohammedanism in 1873, after he had applied for baptism, and who has never been happy since. Fatehgarh School, which receives a grant of Rs. 30 a month only from the Society, has two Christian teachers, and is exerting a very important influence on the neighbourhood.

Mr. Fisher thus concludes his report :—

There has been one baptism of a student, and one of a master, in our schools, during my superintendence ; but the baptism of the student was due chiefly to home influences, while the teacher had been long an inquirer. Nevertheless, the school supplied Christian instruction to the one, and honest, hard work and support to the other. It is rather indirectly than directly that Christian education is affecting the mind of the people. Few who are at all educated dare to advocate idolatry; they all seem to claim that they really worship the one God. The great difficulty in the work—as in most other work for God—is this, that one's mind is so apt to be absorbed by the necessary duties, and the cares and responsibility of superintendence and administration, as to lose sight of the deep spiritual issues at stake, and to think more of the good order and high standard of teaching in the school than of the conversion and spiritual growth of the individuals. Only the power of the Spirit of God can keep alive in us a keen sense of the needs of those amongst whom we work, and arouse in them a sense of their own need of a Saviour.

superior Mission Schools.

The Alexandra School was opened on the 1st of November, 1879, with twenty-four girls present. Before the end of the month there were thirty, and in January there were forty-five. Of these eight were day-scholars and thirty-seven boarders. In the other girls' schools the whole number of pupils is 273.

The Amritsar Local Report thus speaks of BATÁLA :—

The Christian Boarding School, now numbering 32 pupils, goes on its round of steady work, and hearty play, the one developing the mental, the other the physical energies of the lads. One of the boys has passed the Middle School and another the Panjâb Entrance Examination; the result of another examination is not yet known. What, from a Missionary point of view, is even better than intellectual progress, is the evangelistic effect which, we have good reason to believe, the Boarding School has on Batála itself. The lads are trained to take a warm and practical interest in the conversion of the heathen around them. Not unfrequently, on Sunday afternoons, the Gospel message is bravely delivered by the elder boys in the streets of Batála, their younger companions supporting them by singing hymns and bhajans. There is a decided improvement in the manner in which the young evangelists are now received, and the high moral standard of the school, independently of actual efforts to convert, make it as a light in a dark place, attracting those who judge of Christianity only by its effects on the life.

The Batála
Boarding School.

There has been much Gospel seed sown in Batála, and the villages around, by the Rev. Mián Sádiq and others. There is certainly increase in religious knowledge, and more readiness to listen. A lad from the city mission school carried the Gospel back with him to his village, and in that spot four persons seem to be preparing to confess the Christian faith in baptism. In another hamlet there is an inquirer whose family is likely to accompany him to the font.

Converts at Bātāla and their trials.

Of actual adult baptisms there have, in 1879, been five. The results of one of these has been sad and disappointing. A woman who had been baptized soon after her husband, and who appeared to be a promising convert, was enticed away by her Moham-medan relations. Her husband searched for his lost partner, and the little one whom she had carried off with her, and found them in a mountain village at a considerable distance. Almost beyond our hopes (though we had followed him in prayer), the husband brought his wife and child home rejoicing. But U— is still unsatisfactory, and has not yet been received back into the church which she was tempted to desert. The last adult baptism has excited much interest here. A Sikh youth, the son of a priest, after violent opposition, which he endured with great firmness, joined the Christian flock. With quiet resolution, the lad had the long hair, which is the badge of the Sikh religion, cut off, and showing to his father his clipped head, let him know his final decision was made. This brave lad is the first Sikh who has ever been baptized at Bātāla.

The convert B—, who was baptized last year, has maintained a gallant fight, single-handed, for about eleven months, against bigotry and persecution, he being the only Christian in his village. He was once actually driven out of that village, his own mother loading him with abuse, his wife and son actually attacking him. However, the brave man returned, and has continued to “hold the Fort,” under most difficult and painful circumstances. A trifling incident, which has just occurred, shows that B— carries his Christianity into the ordinary concerns of life. He was employed to buy some blankets, which he procured at a very cheap rate. The price was paid to him, but in about an hour he came back and said that a mistake had been made, that he had been given three rupees too much. This man, with poverty written on his worn face, his shrunken frame, his tattered dress, gave back the three rupees which his now enlightened conscience would not allow him to keep.

It is proposed to open on New-year’s Day a Reading-room in the city of Bātāla. It is to be supplied with wholesome and attractive periodicals; but its chief object is to place within the reach of Heathen and Mohammedans religious books, specially copies in various languages of the complete Bible, a work too bulky for many to buy. The Reading-room will be placed under the charge of a Christian, who will, we hope, have many opportunities of conversing on the subject of religion with those who come to read.

LAHORE.

The Native congregation at Lahore is thus reported of by Dr. Weitbrecht :—

The congregation of the Bazaar Church consists chiefly of Government clerks and pensioners, tradesmen, and others who have collected by the gravitation which draws people towards the capital of a province. The Native Christian households from which it is drawn number 195 persons, of whom 24 are Communicants. It does not, I fear, exhibit the purity and missionary zeal which should distinguish a Church of Christ in the midst of the heathen ; and we have to lament some cases of great moral laxity and callousness. On the other hand I trust that the congregation is making some progress towards self-support, and that the work of the pastor who was ordained last Christmas will have its result in a greater care for the means of grace and a higher tone of Christian life. The Rev. Yaqub Ali has hitherto been carrying on his work at some disadvantage owing to sickness and distance from the work ; it being very difficult to obtain a suitable house. He had been assisted by Mr. Baptist, Head Catechist, who has also looked after the Christian soldiers at Mian Mir. It is in contemplation to transfer him there for this purpose.—Our reader Paul has visited the villages round Lahore and preached to the people.

Evangelistic work, in the open air, and in houses kindly afforded by the American Missionaries, is carried on by the teachers and students of the LAHORE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

JHÎLAM ITINERANCY : PIND DÂDAN KHAN.

The Rev. C. P. C. Nugent laboured at Pind Dâdan Khan throughout the year 1879, regarding the Rev. G. M. Gordon as his chief. Being only a student in the vernacular, his work was in the incipient stage. But the beginnings were full of promise. It was therefore with deep regret that the Committee received the tidings of Mr. Nugent's being compelled, by failure of health, to return to England.

MÛLTÂN.

No Report has been received of the Native Christian congregation at this place.

Mr. W. Briggs, who has charge of the schools, was called away in July, 1879, to Kashmir to assist Mr. Wade under the pressure of the famine. On his return, shortly before Christmas, he found that most of the senior scholars had left school and entered the railway service. Lads with the least smattering of English can thus earn from Rs. 20 to Rs. 30 a week, which is better pay than most of their teachers receive. These ex-students are spoken well of by their employers. Notwithstanding these losses, the schools closed for the Christmas holidays with 600 on the lists. Mr. Briggs has also the joy of reporting that one of his most promising pupils was baptized in May, 1879, by the Bishop of Lahore, and is now a student at the Christian Vernacular Education Society's Training Institution at Amritsar. The Shujahabad School is in a very efficient condition. The new head teacher has held meetings for religious discussions with moonshees and other educated people of the place, almost every Sunday since he joined the school.

BELUCH MISSION (DERA GHAZI KHAN).

The Rev. Arthur Lewis and Dr. A. Jukes (a Medical Missionary) have made DERA GHAZI KHAN their head-quarters during the year. Like Mr. Nugent at Pind Dadan Khan (until he was compelled to leave India), they are acting, for the present at least, under the guidance of their more experienced brother, the Rev. G. M. Gordon. Mr. Lewis expresses it as the joint wish of Mr. Gordon, Dr. Jukes, and himself, that their work should be henceforth called the Beluch Mission, and not the Dera Ghazi Khan Mission. Dera Ghazi Khan scarcely seems to be the best point from which to reach the Beluchis. It is possible that another place, mentioned below, named Choti, may be selected as the head-quarters. Mr. Lewis's main work during the year has, rightly, been the study of the vernacular languages (Hindustani and Beluchi). He has already begun to preach in the Bazaar. Dr. Jukes has entered on the initiatory work of his department with much spirit, but the details of the plans of operation have not yet been fully decided upon. He was enabled to effect the cure of the chief of the Legbari tribe, whom he had visited at Choti, his residence. When recovered, the chief promised to build a hospital and bungalow if the Missionary would come and live there. This incident may give an opening among the Beluchis, "for which," remarks Dr. Jukes, "we have long been waiting and praying."

DERA ISMAIL KHAN.

The Missionary at this station during 1879 was the Rev. Wm. Thwaites, with whom is connected, at the out-station of Tank, a Native Medical Missionary, the Rev. John Williams. There have been two adult baptisms during the year, and there are still, as in the year previous, several inquirers.

These, however, have not been formally enrolled as Catechumens, and the number of Native Christian Adherents remains as before, at thirty. The two inquirers baptized during the year are going on well. One is engaged in the police, and the other is living with relatives at Bannu.

The school has prospered in every way. The numbers have increased; it has been well reported of by the Government Inspector; and (best of all) seven of the boys have declared their wish to become Christians. Five of them were removed from school in consequence; but Mr. Thwaites is still hopeful concerning them.

Mr. Williams continues to meet with encouragement at Tank. The report of the complete immunity enjoyed by the hospital at Tank during the raid of the Waziris was only partially correct. The friends of Mr. Williams among the raiders did indeed strive much to help him, and were successful to a great extent. Much of the property, however, as well his own as that of the dispensary, was destroyed. Mr. Williams is of opinion that the evil has been turned to good. He speaks of much more interest being taken in Christianity; and there are several inquirers, one of them a man of much influence, of whom he has great hopes.

BANNU.

The Rev. T. J. L. Mayer, who is now recruiting his health in this country, has written an interesting review of his work there during the last four years. The limits of this volume will only allow space for a summary of Mr. Mayer's statement.

Three converts have been baptized.—The congregation has risen from one despised lad to twenty men, women, and children, some of whom are doing the work of God on the frontier.—The school has risen from 65 to 200; and the Missionary is now able, in the midst of a fanatical people, to insist that each boy shall go through a course of Scriptural training. During the last three years, boys from this school have passed an examination in the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and John, and in some books of the Old Testament that would have done credit to one of the best English Sunday Schools.—A shop for Christian books has been opened in the city that pays half its own expenses.—At bazaar and street preaching, instead of excited crowds shouting and wildly brandishing their arms in the air, may be seen a quiet orderly assemblage, seated on the ground, and listening with attention.—Translations have been made of the Psalms of David and the Gospels of

Progress at

Matthew and Mark into Pushtu.—In the minds both of the people on the frontier and of those on the hills beyond there is now a very friendly feeling towards the Mission, and the relations of the Mission with the Ghilzis and Waziris are most cordial. Mr. Mayer has been much touched, since coming home, by many most kindly letters that he has received both from Natives of position and from his old scholars.

PESHÂWAR.

It is not generally known that Peshâwar, though now for thirty years subject to the British crown, is within the limits of Afghanistan proper, and is situated in the midst of an Afghan population. The Peshâwar Mission is specially a Mission for the Afghans. Its Hostel is filled with Afghan pupils; its guest-houses are exclusively for Afghan visitors; the itinerations of its Missionaries are in the midst of Afghan villages; and the Zenânas visited are those of Afghan ladies.

The European Missionaries at Peshâwar are the Rev. T. P. Hughes and the Rev. Worthington Jukes.

The Native Christian congregation is under the care of the Rev. Imam Shah, whose name sufficiently indicates his nationality. Mr. Imam Shah's report is of the work of the last four years. During that period there have been eighteen baptisms, eleven of which were of children of Christian parents, while the other seven represent conversions from heathenism or Mohammedanism. Amongst the adult converts, the Native pastor mentions a Saiyad (reputed descendant of Mohammed) who now resides at the Lahore Divinity College, while studying at the Government School—and a pensioned Havildar of the Corps of Guides, a man of distinguished bravery, and a friend of the well-known Dilâwar Khan. Three inquirers are at present under instruction. The congregation has been reduced in number, through the removal of several Native Christians, some to other parts of India, and some to their rest above.

The evangelistic efforts of the Mission consist of (1) the reception of Afghan visitors and guests at the Hujrah, or guest-house, in the Mission premises, (2) itinerations in the villages, and (3) bazaar preaching. Of these three modes of work, Mr. Hughes regards the first as the most interesting and hopeful. Many Afghan Mohammedans, who, if they met the Missionary in the Bazaar, would be fanatical opponents, when seated under the shade of a tree in the Mission Compound, or in the large library of the Mission-house, enter into controversy in a friendly spirit. Itinerating efforts have, however, also met with encouragement. In every village the Missionary is received with kindness; and religious conversation and even controversy, conducted with discretion, excites very little opposition. The Maulavies (Mohammedan priests) prefer carrying on religious discussion in their mosques; and even there the Missionaries gain access, and are able to state the leading truths of Christianity to bigoted Moslem divines.

Of the educational branch, Mr. Hughes writes :—

There are three boys' Schools in connexion with the Peshâwar mission; the Central School, in which the pupils are educated up to the matriculation standard of the Calcutta and Panjâb Universities, and which is well reported of by the Government Inspectors; a Vernacular School in the centre of the city; and the Cantonment School. They are under the superintendence of the Rev. Worthington Jukes, assisted by two able Christian Masters, Messrs. Datta and Ghôs. In order to induce Afghan boys to come into Peshâwar to study in the Mission schools, we have established in our Mission compound a Pathân Hostel, in which there are at present twelve pupils, three of whom are the sons of leading Afghan gentlemen. The pupils of this hostel are brought into close contact with the Missionaries; and it is hoped that a healthy influence is exerted over them. Since the establishment of the hostel, five of its pupils have embraced Christianity. The difficulty in inducing Afghan boys to go to school is very great; for, being agriculturists, their fathers prefer keeping them at home to follow the plough, rather than being educated for posts under Government. Government is now giving scholarships of ten rupees each to boys studying in the Lahore Government School, but with little or no success; for out of a number of pupils receiving these scholarships, only two have passed the necessary examinations, one of them being a convert of this Mission.

From Mr. Hughes's departure for England, in 1875, until quite recently, the work in the Girls' Schools and Zenanas were under the care of Mrs. Imam Shah. At present an English lady (Mrs. Scott) acts as honorary superintendent.

Mr. Hughes and Mr. Jukes are engaged in translating the Pentateuch into Pushtu.

The Beyrût Arabic Bible is much appreciated by the village Maulavies, some of whom are very good Arabic scholars.

Mr. Imam Shah visited Kâbul in the end of July 1879, leaving that city early in August, just three days before the massacre of the British embassy. The few days of his remaining there were spent among a small group of twelve Armenian Christians, the remnant of a much larger community. Though “very superstitious and ritualistic in their opinions,” they received Mr. Imam Shah with much cordiality, and accepted Christian ministrations at his hands.

KASHMIR.

The Missionaries at Kashmir are the Rev. T. R. Wade, and Dr. E. Downes.

The recent famine, and its deplorable consequences, have so occupied the time and strength of the Missionaries, that there has been little possibility of Missionary work. Preaching has been conducted regularly for the benefit of the coolies engaged in erecting the Orphanage, both by Mr. Wade himself, and by his Native assistants. The Orphanage was erected at the expense of the Maharajah, and contains at present nearly 200 children. These receive regular Christian instruction, and can now repeat a number of short poems and hymns, in English and Urdu, and the Lord’s Prayer in Kashmiri. (It will be remembered that the expenses of feeding and clothing the inmates of orphanages are never borne by the Society.) Mr. Wade, notwithstanding the interruption caused by his labours in relieving the famine distress, has been enabled to go through the first rough Kashmir version of the New Testament as far as the Epistle to the Galatians.

Dr. Downes’s Annual Letter gives a dark picture of the temporal condition of the population. Though Dr. Downes entertains, and has expressed, strong opinions respecting the inadequacy of the relief measures adopted by the Kashmir Government, his relations with the Maharajah are amicable, at least so far as concerns courteous receptions, non-interference with the Mission body, and supply of rice for the hospital. The hospital, which only a few years ago was a tent pitched under a tree, has now become an imposing pile of buildings. Fifty or sixty patients are constantly residing there. The famine and the miserable condition of the people, seem to Dr. Downes to have a most adverse effect on the prospects of spiritual success.

A sum of 1100*l.* has been supplied to the Mission, in successive instalments, for the relief of the famine distress, from the Society’s Indian Famine Fund.

Sindh.

KARACHI.

THE Revs. J. Sheldon and J. Bambridge are the Missionaries at this station. Visible progress has been much impeded by the prevalence of severe sickness. Though two adult converts were baptized during the year, the little band of Native Christians has been reduced, through deaths and removals, from 90 to 80. The number of Communicants, however (36), has not diminished. The Native Christians have exercised much patience during their trials; and their attendance at the services has been good. Of the two adults baptized, one died after a protracted illness. Mr. Sheldon gives the following account of this interesting case :—

He had been educated in our Mission school, where he had been taught the elements of our Christian religion. Years passed away, but the good seed sown was not lost. When engaged as a clerk in a public office, he was, with other members of his family, again brought under our influence, and became a candidate for baptism; but, owing to the remonstrances and threats of his friends, his heart failed him, and on the day appointed for the rite he was not to be found. Shortly afterwards he was prostrated with fever and an affection of the lungs, of which he died. During his illness he had no real peace of mind till he found it in the Lord Jesus. And then his testimony of his faith, both to the members of his family and to those of his caste who had striven hard to keep him in idolatry, was remarkably clear. Again and again he asked for prayer, and seemed greatly comforted, as the end drew nigh, that he could place his full trust upon his Redeemer, and through Him have a good hope of eternal life. This conversion and testimony not only proved useful as a witness of the power of the Christian faith to the heathen, but also confirmed the faith of the Native congregation.

Conversion on his dying bed of a pupil at a Mission School.

The Gospel has been proclaimed to the heathen at several preaching places in the city, and also in the surrounding hamlets. One of the new converts, and several of the inquirers, have acknowledged that they received their first impressions when listening to the preaching in the bazaars. Nearly 3000 Christian tracts and books have been sold and distributed; and portions of Holy Scripture were also distributed to the Native regiments passing through Karachi to Southern Afghanistan.

Mr. Sheldon adds :—

With the more educated classes we have cultivated friendly intercourse, and for their benefit have delivered lectures monthly on the subject of religion. The attendance on the whole was good. Difficulties unknown in former years have arisen, which, together with the practical atheism now, alas! on the increase, and due, as I believe, in a great measure to the secular course of instruction given in the Government schools, have made this part of our labours peculiarly trying.

Of the Anglo-Vernacular School Mr. Bambridge writes :—

We have at present rather more than 100 scholars on the registers. Owing to the increase of business in Karachi, in connexion with the Afghan campaign, many promising boys have left school, some of them obtaining good situations. At the beginning of the year the school was visited by Sir Richard Temple, Governor of Bombay. His Excellency was pleased to inscribe in the visitors' book a note, in which he remarked, "The institution appears to be worthy of the distinguished Missionary Society to which it belongs." The day after the visit, his Excellency sent us Rs. 100 as a donation. Shortly after, the school was officially inspected and examined by the Bishop of Lahore and the Rev. R. Clark, C.M.S. Secretary for the Panjâb and Sindh, both of whom left upon record their testimony to the value and efficiency of the school. At the Government examination, held by the Educational Inspector in Sindh in October last, our school fully maintained its credit. During the past year we have introduced the new series of the Christian Vernacular Education Society's reading-books. They are well adapted in every way to a Mission school. The Bible lesson is still one of the most interesting of the day; and in the matriculation standard I find time to teach Christian Evidences as well. The monthly examinations in Scripture show that our Bible-teaching is not lost.

The Vernacular Schools are attended by 358 boys and 28 girls.

HYDRABAD.

The Rev. G. Shirt is the Missionary of this station. The Native flock numbers only fifteen persons, of whom seven are Communicants. There has been one adult baptism during the year. In addition to the fifteen mentioned above, there are many others who regularly attend the services, and assist their baptized friends in many ways, contributing also to the Native Church Fund.—Of the convert referred to, Mr. Shirt gives the following account :—

Conversion of a Brahmin.

He came to me four years ago, in Karachi. I then thought him very unpromising—in fact, if I had followed my own judgment I should not have considered him an inquirer at all; but, at the entreaty of some of the native Christian brethren, he was allowed to live in the Mission compound. He was a Brahmin; but had never learnt to read; and he was, moreover, addicted to many of the bad habits so common to men whose profession is to visit several shrines. After being with us for a short time, he found that he could not stand the taunts of the people of the town, so he went away to the Panjâb, and was eventually sent back to me, at his own request, by Mr. Shirreff, of Lahore. His progress in learning the doctrines of Christianity was slow, but it was sure; and his conduct was good. His former habits had all been given up, so I baptized him in May last. His life since has been consistent, and he looks upon the change wrought in himself as a sufficient proof of the supernatural power of Christianity.

Of the English school Mr. Shirt writes :—

Our English-teaching Boys' School has increased in numbers. This year there are 121 pupils, against 94 last year. One boy has passed the matriculation examination in the University of Bombay, and several have passed the Government test for admission to the lower grades of its service. As I feel the great importance of this school, I give nearly five hours a day to it, though aware that casual and distant observers may have doubts about the propriety of so much time being spent in school-work; but if such people could only accompany us on some of our preaching-trips, and could there see the difference between boys educated in our Mission schools and the mass of the people, they would, I think, feel with me, that a man might well devote a whole life to our school, provided that other branches of the work are not overlooked. Scripture instruction is given by myself and the catechist. In the two upper classes it is given in English, and in the other classes in Sindhi; and this, like our other work, is tested by monthly examinations.

A Vernacular Boys' School has 138 pupils; and there is also a small school attended by boys and men of the sweeper caste. This latter was started at the request of one or two intelligent men belonging to that section of the community. In both of these schools Scriptural instruction is effectually imparted.

Seventy-seven girls are under instruction. "There is no doubt," writes Mr. Shirt, "that they take a real pleasure in learning, whether the subject be sacred or secular." Mrs. Shirt has, in addition, a large Bible class of respectable Hindu women on Sundays in the girls' school-room, which is attended also by a few of those who were previously in the day-school.

Public preaching is kept up in three places in the town of Hyderabad before attentive audiences. Sakkar has been visited five times for the same purpose; and a week was also spent at Shikarpur. These places lie north of Hyderabad, towards the border of the Panjâb. The school vacation, in the hot season, was mainly spent in a preaching trip to the south. Speaking generally, the reception met with was favourable. At Shikarpur, however, one of the most debasing forms of idolatry seems to be on the increase, patronized chiefly by ignorant men of the trading class, under the guidance of the Brahmins.

As regards literary work, the Psalms have been carried through the press; and the translation, in manuscript, of the Proverbs and the book of Zechariah has been completed. Two of A. L. O. E.'s booklets have been translated and published in Sindhi by the Panjáb Religious Book Society, and about two-thirds of the Pilgrim's Progress have been rendered into the same language. The sale of Christian literature has considerably exceeded that of former years. With the activity of his present Native Christian bookseller, and a greater variety of books, Mr. Shirt expects a still larger increase during 1880. The concluding words of Mr. Shirt's Annual Letter should be quoted:—

There are opportunities enough in connexion with this Mission to occupy the energies of three men, and yet for three years one has had to stand alone. To this I can only say, "God's will be done!" *

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

I. Bombay.—II. Brittan.

General.

IN Western India the weakness of the Mission staff, if it has retarded, has not stopped, the progress of the work. The Native Christian community is increasing, in numbers slowly, but in strength more rapidly. The Native agents show more zeal, and are more intelligent and better organized. There is among the Christians generally a greater desire for education, and more willingness to make sacrifices for obtaining it. A Native Church Council for Western India, similar to those so happily inaugurated in Tinnevely, Travancore, and the Panjáb, is in formation.—On the whole, the Mission was never in a more hopeful state, and the Committee will most heartily thank God if the funds at their disposal will enable them to strengthen it, both by addition to the number of its Missionaries, and by bringing forward superior Native labourers.

I. Bombay.

Bombay, 1820.

THE Native Christian congregation connected with the Society at Bombay is under the charge of the Rev. Appaji Bapuji. Though two converts received baptism during the year, the numbers have diminished from 90 to 80, owing to families leaving for up-country stations.

The Rev. Jani Alli's domiciliary visits among heathen and Mohammedans, though not altogether discontinued, have been somewhat interrupted by his other duties. No incident of special interest has occurred in connexion with this branch of the work.—Mr. Appaji Bapuji, with the voluntary help of Mr. Anandrao, one of the masters in the Robert Money School, carries on public preaching to the heathen, regularly twice a week from the preaching-room. The audiences are fairly large, and, generally speaking, quiet and attentive.

Mr. Jani Alli, besides assisting in the Robert Money School, has charge of a hostel for the reception of Christian boys who attend either the Robert Money School or (if they have matriculated) some Christian College in Bombay. He has at present nine students thus living with him. Nearly all have done well in their examinations.

Mr. T. Carss, Mr. Joseph Jackson, and the Rev. Jani Alli, assisted by a Native Christian Teacher, Mr. Anandrao, are employed in the ROBERT MONEY SCHOOL. During the year just concluded, the School has been instrumental in bringing a young Brahmin to the open confession of Christ. Mr. Carss thus refers to this gratifying event:—

A young Brahmin, about eighteen years of age, was brought to me in the early part of last year by Mr. Anandrao, our Christian master. His knowledge of the truth was very slight and very imperfect. I at once received him into the school, and made arrangements for him to live here. He received religious instruction, not only in the school, but also privately, and he seemed to receive the truth in the love of it. He most willingly and entirely renounced everything connected with Brahminism, and became more and more anxious to confess Christ in baptism. As his very long probation fully satisfied me of the sincerity of his convictions, I baptized him on New Year's Day, in our Mission church, in the presence of the whole of our Mission body in Bombay and of some native Christians; and I have faith to believe that the devout prayers of those who surrounded the font will be heard, and that he will remain Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end.

Mr. Carss adds:—

My own view of missionary education is that, unless there is direct preaching of Christ and Him crucified in a school, it does not deserve the sympathy or confidence of the friends of Missions, however efficient it may be in an educational point of view. Educational success I regard merely as a means to an end,—namely, to bring a large number of boys under the sound of the Gospel. The school is opened with prayer either by Mr. Alli or by myself, and I trust that a spirit of prayer pervades all our work. The Bible is taught daily by our Christian staff,—namely, Messrs. Alli, Jackson, Anandrao, and myself; and as even the secular subjects are taught, I trust, in no secular spirit, frequent opportunities are found or made of speaking of Christianity. The claims of the Gospel are also affectionately pressed upon the boys individually.

The Native teachers, not including Mr. Jani Alli (who has other work besides the Robert Money School), cost altogether, during the year 1879, Rs. 5624. Of this sum Rs. 3160 was met by the fees, Rs. 1810 by the Government grant, leaving Rs. 654 to be borne by the Society. The pupils number 279, classified as follows:—Protestants, 15; Romanist, 1; Jews, 16; Mohammedans, 4; Brahmans, 60; other Hindus, 183.

NASIK AND SHARANPUR.

THE Rev. W. A. Roberts is the Missionary of this station; and the Rev. Lucas Maloba is the Pastor of the Native congregations connected with it. During the year, twelve adults and thirty-nine infants were baptized. This would have effected a considerable increase in the whole number of Native Christians, had not many been compelled to go to other stations in search of employment. The actual numerical advance has been, in baptized Christians from 373 to 380, and in Communicants from 107 to 134. These are found at or near either Sharanpur itself or one or other of the out-stations—Makhmalabad, Camp Deolali, Igatpûri, Wadala, and Patherdi.

“Our Native Christian Community,” writes Mr. Roberts, “needs more spiritual life and more unity.” The large increase in the number of Native Communicants followed upon a visit from the Bishop of Bombay, in December, 1879, when 44 candidates were confirmed. Mr. Roberts was also much encouraged by a recent visit from the Metropolitan, and the kind and hearty interest shown by him. Two of the adults baptized were mentioned in the Annual Report for 1878-9 as inquirers, one of these being a Brahmin of Nasik, and the other the son of a Patil (Village Headman) of Makhmalabad. This latter was first impressed while a mere child, at the Makhmalabad Vernacular School. Ever since, he has had leanings towards Christianity; but the wrench from family ties that baptism involves, long deterred him. The grace of God has at length been victorious, so far as the young man himself is concerned; but the father still remains unreconciled. Another of the converts is a Mahar of the same village. Many of the Mahars of Makhmalabad have lost their faith in idolatry. The other heathen of the village are for the most part much irritated by these signs of the power of the Gospel.

Conversion of the son of a Village Headman.

Sharanpur is also a centre of evangelistic work. This is more directly Mr. Roberts's own department. He has under him seven catechists and readers. These during the year visited 650 towns and villages. One catechist is permanently settled in Nasik, being, so far as is known, the only Native Christian family among 30,000 persons. Many come to his house and hold conversation with him; and the Missionary and others come over from Sharanpur to help him in the open-air preaching. This branch of Missionary effort is conducted in Nasik with special vigour in the rainy season, when itinerating in the neighbouring district is necessarily to a great extent hindered. The audiences are mostly large, and often most attentive.—Two readers are stationed at Sinnar, a town of 13,000 inhabitants, twenty miles from Nasik, and one at Gangapur, five miles distant. The evils of isolation at Sinnar are guarded against by occasionally changing the agents employed.

The Schoolmasters' Training Class consisted of only three students at the date of Mr. Roberts's Annual Letter. He speaks of the orphanage, however, as supplying four intelligent boys for the class. One teacher had been supplied during the year to the Malegâm Mission.

MALEGÂM.

The Rev. F. G. Macartney is the Missionary of the station. He is assisted by a Native Pastor in feeble health, the Rev. Shankar Balawant. There are 110 Native Christians connected with Malegâm, of whom 39 are Communicants. About seventy of the Christians live in Malegâm itself, the remainder are scattered about in six different places, more or less distant. There is considerable difficulty in supplying these last with the public means of grace, or with such other encouragement as they seem to need. Prayer must be offered up for a mightier work of the Holy Spirit in them, that they may strive together for mutual edification and for the conversion of their heathen neighbours, and that so watering others each one may be watered himself. The resources of a Missionary Society cannot do more than provide for their being occasionally visited.—No adult baptisms took place during the year.—Evangelistic work has been carried on as usual, but with no special features of interest. At Dhûlia, where Paulus Ramchandra, a Brahman convert, was recently baptized, the audiences have been large and attentive, probably in consequence of the excitement produced by that event.—About 150 children are under instruction in the Mission Schools.

AURANGABAD.

The Missionary of this station is the Rev. Ratanji Nowroji (a convert from Parseeism). His last Annual Letter, like its predecessors, is full of interest. Extracts are subjoined:—

I am permitted, in the good providence of God, to review the past year with unmingled feelings of joy and gratitude. With the Lord's blessing, I have completely recovered from the severe accident mentioned in my last Annual Letter, and have been able ever since to carry on my work without interruption.

Progress at Aurangabad. During the past year there have been fifty-seven baptisms, of which thirty-two are adults and twenty-five children. Subtracting eleven (the number of deaths) from 364 (the number of Native Christians given last year), and adding the baptisms, we have a total of 410 baptized Christians, of whom 200 are Communicants.

The school-house that was commenced last year at Lohogar has been satisfactorily completed, and the double duty of teaching and preaching has been faithfully and prayerfully carried on by Khanduji (the first convert). I have already baptized four families living in the village, consisting of seventeen souls, and there are several other families there and in the neighbourhood who are under instruction for baptism. Khanduji, who enjoys the goodwill and confidence of all classes of the people, continues, after school-hours, to visit some of the neighbouring villages, where he meets with much encouragement. The people of Lohogar, both high and low, are friendly disposed to our work. Even on intensely cold nights, they have sat up with us till midnight, enjoying our Kirtan, which helps us to convey Christian truths in sacred songs and hymns, sung to native tunes, with suitable explanations and exhortations.

Towards the latter part of November last, the Bishop of Madras came here on his sixth visitation. [Aurangabad is in the Madras diocese.] There was a united Confirmation service held in the Mission-church, when fifty-eight of my people were confirmed. On Sunday following the Bishop attended the morning service. On Monday the Bishop visited the Mission-school, and very kindly entered his satisfaction with what he saw and heard in the school visitors' book. From the school the Bishop walked over to the Mission-church to meet the agents of the Society and the members of the congregation. The agents were asked to give some account of their work, with which his lordship expressed himself as much interested. The Bishop was pleased to see a few young men whom I had trained some years ago as carpenters; and, on learning that it was my desire to have a school of carpentry for the training of Christian lads, gave me a handsome contribution towards it. I have three Christian carpenters, who have undertaken to work on their own responsibility, on my supplying them with a workshop and the necessary tools, and who in return bind themselves to train as many Christians lads as I entrust to their care and training.*

truth be repeated of the Madras diocese. Here, as in the North, there is the vigorous proclamation of a pure Gospel, there is the steadily, and even rapidly, progressing Native Church, there are proofs of the presence of the Spirit of God, and there are also fields that call for additional labourers. But the Mission is older, and all its departments, excepting the higher English education, are more advanced.

Native Christian Congregations.

THESE congregations, numbering 891 Adherents and 406 Communicants, are under the pastoral care of the Rev. W. T. Sattianâdhan and the Rev. V. Simeon, and are connected with a Native Church Council, of which Mr. Sattianâdhan is the president. Each pastor has also his own Church Committee, of which he is the Chairman.

The following extracts from the Annual Letter of the Rev. W. T. Sattianâdhan will be read with much interest:—

Committee
at Madras

My Church Committee consists of seven members. One of them is a graduate, and three are undergraduates, of the Madras University. [It must be borne in mind that in the Indian Universities no one can be an undergraduate without passing a severe examination, and that many rest content with that honour, seeking no further academic advancement.] They meet in the Lecture Hall every second Saturday of the month. All matters connected with the pastorate are freely discussed. The members are thus kept not only fully informed of the condition of the Church, but are also led to take a more active and personal interest in its progress and government. Mr. Nîtianâdham, the Secretary of the Committee, is employed under Government, and is of great service to me in my work. Another member, Mr. Dêvasagâyam Ishu, is a medical student, and often helps me, with my son John and son-in-law Mr. Hensman, in Sunday duties. Another member, Mr. Andrews, assists me much in the open-air preaching, prayer-meetings, &c. You will thus see that it is my aim to develop the lay element as much as possible, and enlist it in the service of the Church.

This year there have been thirty baptisms in connexion with the pastorate. Of these, eighteen are adults, or children able to answer for themselves, who have been converted from heathenism.

Two cases, incidentally connected with the pastorate, and not included in the above number, deserve a special notice.—One is a young Brahmin from Madura. He was for some time educated in the American Mission School at Madura; and the seed of God's Word then sown in his heart has now ripened in his conversion for God's glory. He wrote to me from Tuticorin, where he was employed, intimating his purpose to receive baptism from me. As I was quite ignorant of his antecedents, I gave him no reply. One evening, all on a sudden, he made his appearance, and seemed really in earnest for baptism. His father and several other relatives came up from Madura, and used a variety of means and influences to induce him to return home with them. But by God's mercy he stood firm. I baptized him in August last in our church at Chintadrepettah. His name is Somasundram. Immediately after on the same day, his father and other relatives had an interview with him, during which he stood firm against all entreaties and enticements and threats of violence. His relatives then returned to Madura. The other day, having heard of the death of his father, Somasundram left for Madura, with a view to settle his affairs, as he was the only son of his father. He has sent me two letters since, relating all the trials which he encountered from his relatives, and his purpose to stay at home and manage his affairs as a Christian. I hope he will have grace to remain steadfast unto the end, and that he will be the means of bringing his young wife and other relatives to the foot of the cross.—The other case is a young Vellâl, named Bramawian, who was a pupil in our own Anglo-Vernacular School at Strivilliputtur, in North Tinnevely. He too wrote to me, expressing a wish for baptism, from Strivilliputtur, which, you know, was my former sphere of labour. With the concurrence of Mr. Arden, he visited Madras, and after a probation of a few weeks was baptized last month by the name of Dêvanâyagam. His friends did not give him trouble like Somasundram's. He has a fair knowledge of Scripture, and seems earnest and sincere.—I cannot conclude this brief account of these two converts without mentioning Mr. Arden's great kindness to them. When I told him that their stay in the parsonage might affect our Hindu girls' schools close by, he at once received them into the Mission-house, and treated them with true Christian sympathy and tenderness. Dêvanâyagam is still at the Mission-house, and arrangements will, perhaps, be made by Mr. Arden, after Christmas vacation, by which he may enjoy the benefit of further education at the Madras Christian College.

As an instance of the reproductive and aggressive character of Christianity, I may mention another very interesting case. Dr. Munisawmi is an assistant surgeon in charge of the Civil Hospital at Pullâchy, in the Coimbatore district. He was a member of my congregation at Madras, and still keeps up his membership by continuing his subscription to our Church Fund. At his earnest request I visited him at Pullâchy in September last. To his numerous patients, from all castes and classes, both at the hospital and in private families, he speaks about Christ earnestly and impressively. I accompanied him to several villages, and, wherever we went, the people flocked to him in numbers, with presents of fruit, &c., and spoke to him in terms of endearment and esteem.

In his own family his influence and example are excellent. He has also prepared three heathen lads, of good family, for baptism. I examined them, and was very much struck with the knowledge of Christianity which they possessed, and with the careful manner in which they had been prepared for the sacred rite. These three youths, and his own child, a nice little boy of about fifteen months old, were baptized by me on a Sunday. The large hall, which was used for service, was quite full. Besides the few Christian residents of the place, there was a large number of respectable officials and inhabitants present, viz. the Tasildar, or Native magistrate, the overseer of the district, and other leading members of the heathen community.

Mr. Arden, mentioned above by Mr. Sattianâdhan, is the Rev. A. Arden, the Society's South India Secretary.

Education.

Twenty-three Vernacular Schools, containing (on the rolls) 797 boys and 460 girls, were under the charge of a Native clergyman, the Rev. J. Cornelius, who, since the date of his Annual Letter, has been removed from the scene of his earthly labours. No special spiritual results were mentioned by him as having manifested themselves during the year. But it is gratifying to learn that, besides the Scripture lessons given on the week-days, there was an average attendance of above 400 voluntary pupils on Sundays, when the instruction given was of course exclusively religious.

MOHAMMEDAN MISSION.

The Missionaries engaged in this department are the Rev. E. Sell and the Rev. M. G. Goldsmith.

Mr. Sell has charge of the HARRIS SCHOOL, which is intended specially for Mohammedans who pay only half the fees charged to Hindus and others. It is now attended by 120 pupils, a large proportion of whom are Musalmans. Two of the students gained Government Scholarships at the University Matriculation Examination. Both are Mohammedans. One of them, who stood higher in the list than any other Musalman in the Presidency, has since become a student at the Madras Christian College. His Grace the Duke of Buckingham, Lieutenant-Governor of Madras, kindly presided at the last Annual Prize-Day, 11th March, 1880, when the Bishop of Madras, and several members of the Mohammedan nobility and gentry were also present.

Mr. Goldsmith, who takes Scripture classes in the Harris School four days a week, remarks, "I value more and more that mode of 'opening and alleging.'"

Mr. Goldsmith also endeavours to find access to the adults. For this purpose a weekly meeting is conducted by him or under his superintendence, in a house on the east side of the Mohammedan quarters. Near his own residence also, on the north side of Triplicane, the Missionary finds access to many private Mohammedan houses. The discussions thus held there seem to him more promising than the less definite work among groups of men standing on the roadside.—In the latter part of August, during the Ramazan holidays, Mr. Goldsmith accepted an invitation from the Wesleyan Mission at Mysore, where he stayed for one month, and came in contact with some new sects of Islam. One of these sects consists of the followers of Sayad Ahmad Khan Bahâdur, of Aligarh, in North India. They may be styled the rationalists of Islam, and are making a movement somewhat similar to that of the Brahmo-Somaj amongst the Hindus. Many of them admit that our Lord actually died on the cross, denying the usual Mohammedan allegation on this subject. They stumble, however, at His Divine Sonship.—The last year's experience confirms Mr. Goldsmith's previous conviction, that constant intercourse and testimony do not irritate, but are rather greatly calculated to allay bitterness and opposition, by removing misconceptions and replying to false representations. It was a remarkable and very gratifying illustration of this, that Mr. Goldsmith's visit to Mysore was followed by a small influx of Mohammedan boys into the Wesleyan school at that place.

PALÂVARAM (MADRAS ITINERANCY).

These two names are given to the Society's work in the neighbourhood of Madras, in the Collectorate of Chinglepat. It at one time formed part of the itinerating field of the late Rev. David Fenn.

The Missionary in charge during 1879 was the Rev. J. D. Thomas. The total number of Adherents is 570, of whom 556 are baptized (the rest being catechumens), and 253 are Communicants. Six adult converts have been baptized during the year. The number of children in the schools, many of them of course heathen, has increased from 177 to 854. The most important of these schools is the Anglo-Vernacular School at Pûnamalli, which is under a Native Christian F. A. Master, and where the fees have been raised to an equality with those of the Government Schools, without any consequent diminution in the number of pupils. [The letters F.A. indicate that the person to whose name they are attached has passed the

First Arts (Intermediate) Examination at an Indian University. This examination is of course more advanced than that for matriculation.]

Mr. Thomas's Annual Letter is very interesting; but in these pages there is only space for the account of one of the conversions above referred to:—

at Madras.

A young man of respectable Hindu caste, was sent out to me in February last by Mr. Goldsmith. He was desirous of baptism, but wished to avoid the excitement that would follow if the ceremony took place in Madras. I gladly received him. I found he was one who heard me preach in Tamil at Trinity Church, Madras, the Sunday after my return to India, in 1866, and with whom I had some conversation after the service. I appointed him an assistant in my day-school at Palâvaram, and said he might live in the boys' boarding-school, as two other unmarried young masters were doing at the time, and pay the cost of his food. This would save him the drudgery of cooking for himself. He declined the proposal, saying he would prefer cooking his own food, if I supplied the means. I knew that caste feeling was at the bottom of this; but I consented to his wishes, telling him I hoped that, as he grew stronger in the faith, he would be able to overcome all caste prejudices, which were contrary to the spirit of Christianity. He began the plan of cooking his own food separately, under the trees in our compound, and carried it on for nearly a month. After this, as I anticipated, he discarded this mode of procedure, and partook of his meals regularly from the school cook. Everything, of course, was done cleanly, and he was not asked to eat anything he did not like. I had frequent serious conversations with him, and devoted time to "expound unto him the way of God more perfectly." His friends soon discovered where he was, and came here to entice him back by various devices. Once, contrary to my advice, he went home. The result was that he was beaten, his clothes were taken from him, and he was locked up in an inner chamber; but he effected an escape and returned. At length, after a probation of two months, I baptized him by the name of "John David." Mr. Samuel John, of Madras, who had been the chief means of bringing him to the knowledge of Christ, stood as his witness. John David frequently went to his own house after his baptism, and does not appear to have met with more violence. The practice of removing the "kudumi," or top-knot of hair, from the head of a new convert before his baptism has been discarded in most of the Tamil Missions, as a non-essential practice. Accordingly, nothing was said regarding it in this case; but I noticed, some time after his baptism, that John David had removed his "kudumi," and asked why he had done so. He told me his friends said they did not believe he was baptized, because he had not removed it, and therefore, to convince them, he had cut it off. He now lives in Madras with Mr. S. John, and attends the services at Mr. Sattianâdhan's church, and I trust is "cleaving to the Lord with purpose of heart." *

II. Tinnevely.

The Mission is divided into 10 districts, viz. 1, Palamcotta; 2, Mengnânapuram; 3, Dohnavur; 4, Paneivilei; 5, Pannikullam; 6, Nallur; 7, Surandei; 8, Nallammalpuram; 9, Suvisêshapuram; 10, Sivagâsi and Sâchiapuram (North Tinnevely).

THE advance of the Native Church in Tinnevely during the last twenty years (that is to say, of that part of it which is connected with the Church Missionary Society) was recently summarized by Bishop Sargent in a paper read by him at the Bangalore Missionary Conference of 1879. In the interval between 1858 and 1878, the Native clergy increased from nine to 58, the baptized Christians from 18,000 to 34,000, the catechumens from 10,000 to 19,000, the Communicants from 4000 to 8300, and the children attending the Society's schools from 7400 to 13,400. The funds contributed by converts for religious and charitable purposes have increased from Rs. 7700 to Rs. 24,500, far more in proportion than the number of converts. Meantime the number of European Missionaries had diminished from 14 to 5, and of Native catechists from 208 to 142. The European Missionaries have had their place supplied by Native clergymen, while the pastoral and evangelistic work of the catechists is now to a considerable extent discharged by voluntary unpaid labourers. This diminution in the number of Missionaries—as may be said also of a similar diminution in Travancore—while it has of course enabled the Society to send additional labourers to the field, has been a wholesome stimulus to the calling out of Native Christian energy.

Growth of the Native
Church in Tinnevelly.

Bishop Sargent, in his Annual Letter, discusses at length the result of the gradual withdrawing of European Missionaries from the districts, and the substitution in their place of Native clergymen. There is only space in this Report for the following extracts:—

The C.M.S. have avoided both extremes. In every measure they have adopted they have sought the golden medium, and have withdrawn the European agents only by degrees—e.g. Sattankulam and Pavur and Pannavadili were given up more than twenty-five years ago; Dohnavur, ten years ago; Nallur, ten years ago; Pannikulam, seven; Paneivilei, seven; Mengnânapuram, three years. In almost all these cases sickness called the missionaries home, and the vacancy was allowed to remain.

Bishop
Sargent's remarks on the substitution of Native pastors for European Missionaries.

Let the Committee kindly bear in mind that, when I assert the progress and stability of the work now in operation, I am assigning a reasonable cause, viz., the development of our ordained native agency; for whereas, in several of these districts, the missionary had but one or two native pastors, now every district has at least four such helpers. One has five, another has eight, and Mengnānapuram twenty-one. These men, by their ordination, are placed in a conspicuous position before the Church and before the heathen. Their consistent character, their preaching, their frequent administration of the Sacraments, must have their due influence; and, as for myself, so long as the native pastors and I have love and mutual regard for each other—abound in prayer and active service in our great cause—I have no fear for results. The agents generally, and the people, are not, I know, easily reconciled to the removal of European missionaries from the stations which they before occupied. They see in this plan the measure which is to work for the withdrawal of the C.M.S.'s support; and they fear some sudden resolve may bring this to an issue before they are prepared fairly to support themselves. I explain, and assure them, that the Society will never act unwisely or unkindly towards them; that the measures adopted, if properly viewed, are all intended for their good and for their exaltation; and, especially with regard to the pastors, I show them how much confidence is reposed in them by the withdrawal of the European missionary. With many I have succeeded in persuading them to a right view of the case. The unordained frankly speak of the wish for the European missionary at the station as for a thing of glory—the open and ready protection which his presence offers to all who are oppressed by wrong. This is the secret in the mind of ninety-nine out of a hundred. But the Committee will thus see that when converts are made under our native pastors there are not the same secular motives to induce them to become Christians; and, if they are persecuted for their profession, it is more or less their sincerity of purpose that must sustain them.

In his Annual Report, this loved and honoured Missionary Bishop further remarks:—

ment of
proved stable up to the present time.

This year and the previous one form an eventful era in our Mission in this province. The year 1878 left us not as it found us. In many villages and hamlets of the Tinnevely Province the Gospel wave stirred up the hitherto stagnant pools; and the hand of time and progress may be said to be on the move. Famine and the kind hand held out from friends in England produced a great change on the minds of multitudes who hitherto cared little about the Gospel message. Many joined us no doubt in expectation of obtaining aid. An intelligent knowledge of Christianity and an earnest desire in reference to spiritual things were professed by very few. Still the field was now opened out to the Gospel plough; and we have not been slow to improve the opportunity. The year that now closes has been a season of sifting and testing. I am thankful to say that comparatively speaking very few have gone back. Of the many thousands who joined us, some 300 at the most throughout the Mission in Tinnevelly have left us, some to their old heathen ways, others to the Romanists, who were ready to render them further aid by loans of money. I still would speak with hesitation regarding many who as yet remain with us. We have been wonderfully free from cholera, and until that scourge come upon us it is hard to say how many will remain firm.

The Society will remember that for several years past I had very frequently told them, in speaking of efforts among the heathen, that one thing was observable everywhere and reported in almost every conversation in our Church Councils, viz. that the heathen had ceased to offer objections against Christianity. The high-caste men might now and then show decided opposition to what was advanced by Christian preachers, but the humble classes had given that up altogether. In this way it seemed as if to some extent the masses of the heathen were feeling less enmity to Christianity—and were being prepared to give up idolatry.

One undoubted good resulting from these accessions has been the activity it has thrown into our older converts in reference to doing something themselves in declaring the Gospel to the heathen. Hitherto we always had scattered throughout the Mission a few faithful and good men who gave themselves some trouble in this matter. Few results, however, followed in the way of conversions. And this lack of success acted on the body of our Christians as a discouragement. No sooner, however, was it seen that the hearts of the heathen were softened towards us, and that not a few were renouncing their idols, than many of our Christians took heart and began to go among their heathen neighbours and invite them to accept the Gospel. In the several Districts under my supervision there are above 380 men and some 20 women engaged in this way. They give one day in the week to this duty and afterwards in their several prayer-meetings narrate the incidents of their day's work.

Increased evangelizing activity Tinnevelly
Native
Christians

One of the chief events of the year was the ordination held at Palamcottah under Commission from the Lord Bishop of Madras, when 9 men were admitted to Deacon's Orders and 8 to Priest's Orders. We have now throughout the Tinnevelly Mission 57 men in Holy Orders, who exercise their office under Episcopal Licence and under direct Episcopal supervision. I attribute the external progress and the internal improvement of our Congregations in great part to the salutary influence which these men exercise.

And here I must say once for all, that the steady progress which I am able to report in all departments of the Mission work bears unmistakable evidence to one great fact, the solid and wise foundation laid by our Missionaries in the several stations opened out by them from the beginning.

The following table will show our present congregational number compared with those of the previous years. It is, however, to be borne in mind that the Sivagasi District is not included in this list.

Number of villages containing Christians .	710	746
Number of Adherents	45,734	48,502
Number of Communicants	7,366	8,223
Number of baptized	31,160	34,000
Adult baptisms during the year	729	1,427
Burials during the year	1,012	770
* Children attending school	10,613	10,821
Contributions to Native Church Fund .	Rs. 12,248	Rs. 13,200
„ Local Church expenses .	—	8,103

These numbers show an increase of 2768 souls on our rolls for the year 1879. A fair number must be allowed for births, but this number has been more than equalled in the loss by death and in the removal of a good number to other places in search of a livelihood. Not a few of them have gone to Ceylon. If the total adherents in the District under me, 48,502, be added to the number in the Sivagasi District, 4629, the Tinnevely returns will show a total of 53,131. I have spoken of the valuable aid which the Pastors afford our work wherever they are located—let me now also make honourable mention of a class of men handed down from former Missionaries in our several districts, as being especially helpful in matters which we could not give over to the Pastors alone. I mean our Inspecting schoolmasters. They not only help in educational matters, but in other secular affairs of the congregations. The majority of these men are as highly educated as any in our Mission; and having been so long in the exercise of their duties and so constantly moving among the villages, that they are thoroughly acquainted with the traditions of their several districts and become in most of our Church Councils valuable Secretaries and advisers, their influence among the people is very great. I feel very much indebted to them for the kind and efficient help they have always afforded me.

The Rev. T. Kember was sent out late in the autumn of 1878 to undertake the charge of a THEOLOGICAL CLASS. In accomplishing this task there were, and are, many difficulties to be overcome, both theoretical and practical. To form and carry out a plan which shall at once, attract the most eligible students, supply them with the most useful and suitable instruction and training, and afterwards retain them for the employment of the Society and the Native Church, is here, as in other Missions, a problem hard to solve. The plans adopted in Tinnevely itself, in past years, were in many respects very successful; but not being adapted to the present more adult state of the Native Church and wider diffusion of high education, they were abandoned; and a satisfactory substitute scarcely seems as yet to have been found. At the end of September, 1879, Mr. Kember examined a number of candidates for admission to his class, and selected nineteen. The majority of these seem to him below the standard of attainments and qualifications needed. He is, however, exerting himself to the utmost for their improvement.

The Training Institution for Schoolmasters is also under Mr. Kember's care. Sixty students are connected with it. No particulars respecting its course during the year have been communicated to the Committee.

Female Education.

The Rev. A. H. Lash's report is, as usual, deeply interesting and most encouraging. It is subjoined, with but little omission:—

There is a slight mistake in the notice of my work in the last Annual Report, where it is stated that the whole number of scholars under our care had declined from 1690 to 1470. The whole number of scholars under our care last year was 1700; the 1470 did not include the Institution and boarding-schools. The numbers this year continue much the same, as we have had no available teachers, and no new schools have been opened. There are, however, many towns waiting for schools, and I am making arrangements for the opening of eight or ten new schools next year, when teachers will be available.

We have had a happy and prosperous year in the SARAH TUCKER INSTITUTION, thank God! The health of the students has been very good; and their conduct, with two or three exceptions, has been satisfactory. There are 123 boarders in the Institution, and a few day-scholars. The boarders are the children of the following classes:—Native clergymen, 20; catechists, schoolmasters, &c., 71; clerks in Government employ, 21; farmers and cultivators, 11—total, 123. It will be seen by this that our girls are nearly all the offspring of educated parents. During the year, sixty-five of our students were confirmed by Bishop Sargent. The result of the Government Examination for Teachers' Certificates was very encouraging. In the second (or higher) grade, twenty-seven candidates appeared (in Tamil only) from the whole Presidency; of these only three passed in the first class, and those three were our students. In the third grade, ninety-seven candidates went up for examination from the Presidency; forty-seven were successful, and fifty failed. The first eight names on the list were our students.

We had a most cheering visit from the Rev. F. N. Alexander, of Ellore; he asked for teachers to go with him and help to establish an Institution similar to ours in the Telugu country. Two of our best students immediately volunteered to go, but their parents would not consent. We are, however, preparing a third student for the work, whose mother has agreed to accompany her. She will have to learn Telugu.

The boarding-schools continue to do well, and to be much valued by our Mission agents.

Old students of the SARAH TUCKER INSTITUTION.

We have had pleasing letters from several of our old students who have left us and are settled in distant places. One, who passed a very creditable examination in the second grade, married an overseer on a coffee estate in Ceylon; he is an educated man, and writes English well. They both correspond with me in English. In his last letter, he says that his wife has followed my advice that she should do something for God, and has gathered together the little children on the estate, and is teaching them to read, and "about Jesus Christ." Another student, a daughter of a C.M.S. Native clergyman, married an S.P.G. agent, who is now preparing for holy orders in Madras. Meanwhile, she herself is engaged as head-mistress in a Wesleyan Mission-school in Madras, where she has a master and assistant under her, and more than 100 girls.

Branch Schools.—The interest of the people in female education is steadily increasing, and we have had many petitions for schools. Many of the teachers continue to exert an excellent influence over the women of the towns in which they labour.—The head girl of one of our largest schools married an educated man the other day. Her father is the richest man in the town, and of good caste. I called upon him, and, as she was one of my old pupils, she and her husband came to see me. She told me that she still continued the practice of morning and evening prayer to the true God, and daily reads her Bible, and I was very thankful to hear that she has induced her husband to join her in these exercises. Though not yet baptized, they have both ceased to engage in heathen rites and observances.

Lecture by a Brahmin on Natural Theology.

Usborne Memorial School.—The Young Men's Association in connexion with this school is doing even better this year than last. I have been able to arrange a capital course of lectures, both European and Native friends helping me most kindly. We have a lecture by a European on Monday, and one by a Native the next. The average attendance at the lectures has exceeded 100. One of the lecturers, a Brahmin, chose for his subject "Natural Theology," and discoursed eloquently (in English) of the evidences of the existence of God, and also of His glorious attributes to be found in His works. Among other things he said, "It is written in the the Bible, 'The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God.' It does not say the fool thought in his heart there is no God. He may have tried to persuade himself of the non-existence of a God by saying it, but no one can really think there is no God." Speaking of the difficulties which attend the search after Truth, he exclaimed, "Now we see through a glass darkly, but then face to face." In his address there were frequent quotations from Scripture, uttered in a reverent spirit; and the tone of the lecture throughout was such as might have been expected rather from a Christian than from one who still clung to the outward forms of Hinduism.

SIVAGÂSI.

This Mission district is connected with a Native Church Council, of which the Rev. V. Vêdanâyagam is the chairman.

The statistics for the whole district give the following numbers:—Adherents, 3980 (of whom about half are still Catechumens); Communicants, 542; Adult baptisms during the year, 58. At the close of 1878 the Adherents numbered 3676, and the Communicants 514.

Mr. Vêdanâyagam's report is, however, this year confined for the most part to his own sub-district of Vageikulam. The numerical advance there, during the year, has been from 1512 to 1786. Small incipient Christian congregations have been formed in six new villages, and forty-five persons have come over from Romanism in the town of Strivilliputtur. With respect to the internal condition of his flock, Mr. Vêdanâyagam notices with thankfulness, that the evil practices of heathen neighbours are more carefully avoided; and also that strict observance of the Lord's Day, thirst for private devotion and the reading of the Bible, love for souls, and zeal for the glory of God, are more evidently manifesting themselves. The contributions of the Native Christians, notwithstanding a bad harvest, have risen from Rs. 1288, to Rs. 1350.

As an illustration of one of the various ways in which God brings fresh converts into the Church, the following passage in Mr. Vêdanâyagam's Annual Letter will be read with interest:—

A Brahmin man, living at a town called Kalugumalei, having read the New Testament for several years together, and being influenced by a learned native Christian of that place (who was baptized by the Rev. D. Fenn in my church here in 1870), boldly came forward for baptism, and was baptized by me at Sâchiapuram in April, 1873, while Mr. Meadows was in England. He remained at Sâchiapuram, not going back to his home, lest he should be disturbed by his heathen relatives. He fully expected to be rejoined by his wife and children within a short time. But he was disappointed. The separation continued for seven years. After three years, however, one of his sons—a boy of ten years old—contrived to join him. For a time his wife remained as unconcerned as ever. Last April her husband went to Kalugumalei, to preach to the heathen assembled there at its annual festival. While there, the boy, who had accompanied his father, was asked to pay a visit to his heathen mother. On seeing him so unexpectedly, with such a pleasing countenance and winning affection, her hardened heart was at once melted into tears, and she embraced him and kissed him with the tenderest affection. The boy repeated his visits to her, and entreated her to follow his father's example. His quick-witted remarks and affectionate entreaties at length overcame her, and she resolved to cast in her lot with her husband and children. I then lost no time to send her with them at once in my own bandy to Sâchiapuram, where she was baptized by Mr. Horsley, and is now living with them as happy as if she had found a great treasure. She had, however, to undergo persecution a few weeks since. She went with this little boy to Sheranmadêvi, a town eighteen miles south-east of Palamcottah, to make settlement of some of her property. Her heathen relatives, the Brahmins, there treated her and her son very cruelly, beating them with brooms, which is considered the meanest way of treating a slave in this country. But she often speaks with joy of being privileged to suffer thus for Christ's sake. The other day she came and spent a few days with us, condoling with us in the loss of our last child. Her words of comfort were like those of an experienced Christian, so seasonable and so to the point.

Vernacular education is progressing, though the parents (even among the Native Christians) still very inadequately appreciate its advantages. Eighty famine-orphan children have been placed out in Christian families, at the expense of the Indian Famine Fund.

SÂCHIAPURAM.

The Rev. H. Horsley was the Missionary of this station during 1879. As before, he undertook the double duty of watching over the Native Christians of a small district, and conducting Evangelistic work over a larger area.

The Native Christian Adherents in this district amount to 728, of whom 124 are Communicants. The cause of the differences between these numbers and those of the preceding year (665 Adherents, and 133 Communicants) is not stated.

In Evangelistic work, Mr. Horsley had four Native helpers, who were largely engaged in preaching to the adults. But what he regarded as his most efficient Evangelistic agency for the educated classes was the Anglo-Vernacular School at Strivilliputtur. One of its heathen pupils was convinced of the truth of the Gospel, and received baptism. The baptism took place at Madras, and is narrated in the extract from Mr. Sattianâdhan's Annual Letter.

Early in 1880 Mr. Horsley returned to England to recruit his health.

Sâchiapuram is now attached to the Sivagâsi Native Church Council, and the work will thus come under the view of its chairman, the Rev. V. Vêdanâyagam.*

II. Travancore and Cochin.

(Commenced in 1816.)

The Mission is divided into six districts: 1, Cottayam, Pallam, and Mundakayam; 2, Mâvelikara and Tiruwella; 3, Alleppie; 4, Alwaye; 5, Trichur; 6, Kannânkulam.

TRAVANCORE.

THE Committee rejoice to report that with the hearty and generous concurrence of the Bishop of Madras, the Travancore Protestant Christians have now a Bishop specially appointed to watch over them, in the person of Dr. Speechly, long well known as one of the Society's Travancore Missionaries, and deservedly much beloved both by his European fellow-labourers and by the Native Christians generally. The Missionaries and Native Christians of Travancore have given to their new diocesan a most hearty welcome, while at the same time warmly expressing their grateful and affectionate feelings towards Bishop Gell.

At the Bangalore Missionary Conference of 1879, the Rev. W. J. Richards read an interesting Review of the progress of the Travancore Mission during the twenty years from 1858 to 1878. Extracts from that paper are here subjoined:—

The growth of the Church can be gauged from the following statistics:—

In 1858 the congregations of the C.M.S. in Travancore and Cochin were ruled by Missionaries, assisted by Native pastors. There was no compactness nor common action, except what occurred without premeditation and from the acceptance of common principles and common aims. But the arrangement of the Native Church into pastorates, and the combination of these pastorates into a Council, in which they were represented by clerical and lay delegates, altered materially the state of affairs.

The following has been written in Malayalam by a native clergyman. It is interesting, as showing how the Native Church Council is regarded in its own home:—

Native
Council.

“Ten years have elapsed since the Native Church Council began. If we compare things before and since, there can be no doubt that many changes for the better have taken place. Ten years ago the Anglican Church in Travancore was in religious matters like the infant child of a rich and influential father. There was no crying and no want. There was no reason why the Christians should even wonder how their affairs were carried on. If any danger threatened, close by was the missionary. Whether it were to build a church or repair one, no responsibility rested on the congregation. The only fault possible was the not sending their children to school. Were they sick, medicines were at hand; and if any of the congregation were poor, there was no lack of ‘charity.’ For the performance of services, for instruction, and other spiritual matters, in some congregations a pastor was stationed, and in every place there was a reader. The Church members needed to know nothing about salaries. For everything there was a sufficient income from the foreign Society. . . . In 1869 the Church Council commenced. The then senior missionary was chairman; all the pastors, and a delegate from each pastorate, formed the Council. At first fifteen pastorates were included in one Council, each pastorate having from 500 to 1000 souls in four or five congregations. It was the rule that the Council should meet four times a year. After this arrangement had lasted three years, the Council was divided into two, and each pastorate was represented in its district Council by two lay delegates and a native clergyman. Since the foundation of Councils every expense, of whatever nature, has been shared by the various pastorates. . . . Many ill-informed members of the Church are quite unable to comprehend the matter, and are filled with dread. Thoughtful persons, however, agree that the action of the Parent Committee in establishing Councils was wise. They are aware that, if there be a Church, it should be self-supporting, and they only regret that they had not been (previously) gradually fitted for the burden.”

It need only be added that a united Council, with the Bishop of Travancore or his deputy as chairman, meets every year, or as the case may require. This is the Provincial Council.

The outward lives of our people, the failings of some, the falls of others, are not unknown to us ; nor are the consistent lives, and, as a consequence, the believing deaths of many. The great majority of our congregations are, by God's grace, an example to Syrian and other Christians around. "We observe the Sabbath ; we avoid law squabbles ; all disputes of 'brother against brother' are settled in Christian Panchayats ; we educate our children, and pay for the same in greater proportion than others ; our clergy are supported by our gifts, not by the sale of sacraments and prayers for the dead ; the marriage bond is sacred ; drunkards and other open sinners are marked men ; we are not dependent upon the Mission for our support." These may well be the honest words of the Anglican Protestants of Travancore—Deo sit Gloria

CAMBRIDGE NICHOLSON INSTITUTION.

This is the THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE, and also the SCHOOL-MASTERS' TRAINING INSTITUTION for the Travancore Mission and Native Church. Its Principal is the Rev. W. J. Richards. At the close of 1878 it contained twenty-two students. Ten left in the course of 1879, of whom seven took employment under the Society. Eleven were admitted during the same period ; so that at the close of the year 1879, the number of students was twenty-three.

The character and conduct of the former students now at work in the Mission and the Native Church have been such as to win from the Missionaries a good report. Otherwise nothing of special interest seems to have occurred during the year.

COTTAYAM.

THE COLLEGE.

At the beginning of 1879 the College was under the care of the Rev. F. W. Ainley, assisted by Mr. Martin Browne. Early in the year, however, Mr. Ainley, to the great regret of himself and the Committee, was invalided and compelled to return to England. Later on, Mr. Browne was removed to the Telugu Mission. The Rev. A. F. Painter was called away from Trichur to fill the vacancy. In the interval between Mr. Ainley's removal and Mr. Painter's arrival, Mr. Richards of the CAMBRIDGE NICHOLSON INSTITUTION took charge. These changes, and similar movements among the Native Masters owing to the unhealthiness of the year, were not favourable to the educational efficiency of the College. It would appear, however, that the College has not suffered as regards Bible teaching. As large a proportion as usual obtained certificates and prizes in the Peter Cator Examination. (This Examination, which is in Scriptural knowledge, is held at Madras, and is open to the whole of South India.) But the most encouraging feature in the year's work is the conversion of a heathen student, thus described by Mr. Richards, writing under date 12th Aug., 1879:—

sion of a Chetty youth in
core.

Yesterday, Sunday morning, about seven o'clock, I was told that two college boys were in the verandah waiting to see me. One of them, in the matriculation class, a Christian, said to me, "Sir, I have the joyful news that Kaduttha wishes to become a Christian." Kaduttha is a Chetty boy, aged eighteen, in the college upper 4th class. When we remember that in all the past sixty years of C.M.S. work in Cottayam, although this class, the Chetties, have been sending their boys to the various Mission schools, yet there has never, to our knowledge, been a Chetty converted to Christianity, my joy of yesterday morning may be imagined.

I carefully questioned him, and the boy, apparently too nervous to speak English, told me he could not rest until he joined us, as he felt sure that ours was the only true religion. His friend, the Christian boy, interposed, saying he wished to be baptized without any delay. I feared to be too hasty in such a solemn matter. Kaduttha also wished to press it, but I proposed that he should perform some overt act which would be a Rubicon between him and heathenism, and would be taken by his friends and relations to be a step irrevocable, and so I asked him if he were ready to sacrifice for Christ his Kudumi (tuft of sacred hair), and he was quite ready. As yet he had spoken of the change in his mind to no one except the college boy who brought him to me and, as I have since heard, to a teacher. We had prayer together. I then sent for Rev. O. Mamen, who happened to be in Cottayam at the time. He spoke very kindly to Kaduttha, and we again prayed together, and then, before Mr. Mamen, my wife, and the college boy, I cut off his Kudumi, or sacred tuft of hair. It was a most solemn moment, and we sent up from our hearts prayer for him to Jesus, the King of such witnesses. (John xviii. 37.)

He joined the Institution students at church, and afterwards went to the house of his old teacher, Mr. P. Koshi, of the Model School. Here he was surrounded by his old mother, his sisters and their husbands, begging him to turn back, and bewailing him as one dead. Two of his nearest male relations came with him to my house, asking me to let him know that his duty was to go home and see his mother and his poor old father, aged sixty-eight. Kaduttha stood firm, and answered them that he could not go back, as he felt sure there was no salvation revealed elsewhere out of the Christian vedam. His mother begged him hard to return, blamed him for leaving her without a word, and asked me to send him back until she was "gone." I told her his love would only increase by his becoming a Christian; that she must not try to quench the fire God had kindled ; and that he was quite free and, being of age, able to choose for himself ; but I said that if these efforts were of no avail, that it would be kindness to let him go with me, as, though now half-past three, he had scarcely broken his fast. So we salaamed to her and he came away with me. He has, since then, taken of our food and so has quite broken caste.

His mother it is who has been so determined that he shall learn English, &c., and she seems a fine specimen of a good mother for a poor heathen. To-day (Monday) the same things, the same wailings, &c., have been going on ; but the boy still remains here in the Institution.

In his Annual Letter, written three months afterwards, Mr. Richards speaks of the new disciple as sincerely endeavouring "to adorn the doctrine of God his Saviour."

The number of students is 209. Of these, 52 are boarders, the rest day-scholars. Sixteen of the day-scholars are heathen. The rest are Christians, Protestants, Syrian, or Romish.

Nothing of special importance has occurred in the CORTAYAM DISTRICT. Several persons have, however, left the "six years' party," and returned to the Church.

MUNDAKAYAM AND THE ARRIAN MISSION.

This branch of the work was formerly conducted by the late Rev. H. Baker. While he was alive, his name was great, and his influence unbounded. None durst rise up against those whom he befriended. Since his death many heathen, jealous of the wealth and position which the Christian Arrians have acquired for themselves, made a determined effort to ruin them. Mr. Caley, however, who succeeded Mr. Baker in this post, took prompt measures to meet the emergency. A similar course has been pursued by Mr. Maddox, who is now in charge, Mr. Caley being on furlough in this country. This entails much harassing labour, for which Mr. Maddox feels that his other numerous and onerous duties almost incapacitate him.

PALLAM.

The Rev. Koshi Koshi, a senior Native clergyman, is gratefully reported of by Mr. Maddox as labouring faithfully and successfully at this station, and thus enabling the European Missionary to devote his energies to the less settled pastoral districts and to evangelistic work.

ALLEPPIE.

pastor in charge of the Native Christian flock has not only worked well among his own countrymen, but has managed to keep together the English congregation, who in return have shown their appreciation of his services by contributing largely to the Pastor Sustentation Fund.

Comparative effects of Secular v. Mission Schools. The whole of the district has been visited by itinerant readers and by Bible and tract colporteurs. In some more important centres, regular bazaar preaching has been carried on. In his itinerations, Mr. Maddox often meets with young men brought up in the Rajah's English School. These, though courteous in manner, are bitterly hostile to the Gospel. There is a marked difference between them and young men educated at the superior Mission Schools. The former, Mr. Maddox remarks, despise all religions; the latter, while shrinking from the sacrifices involved in openly confessing Christ, feel and acknowledge the excellence of Christianity.

TRICHUR AND KANNÂNKULAM.

These districts have been under the charge during the year of the Rev. R. H. Maddox, who is assisted at Trichur by a Native pastor, the Rev. Jacob Chandy. Mr. Maddox considers that in each of them there are signs of steady improvement. The Adherents in the two stations combined number 831, and the Communicants 351. Ten adult converts have been baptized. Disorder and quarrelsomeness prevailed at one time of the year to a considerable extent at Trichur. This, however, was effectually checked by the suspension of the ringleaders from the Church—a step which was taken by the advice and with the concurrence of the Bishop of Madras.

An event of some importance, and which Mr. Maddox regards as auspicious, has recently taken place in connexion with the more Protestant Christian population of Trichur. The allegiance of the great bulk of the Roman Catholics has been transferred to Bishop Mellus, the representative of the Syro-Chaldean Church. Mr. Maddox regards Bishop Mellus as an enlightened man, and really anxious for the spiritual good of his people. Even though the change should not in itself be of any permanent importance, it certainly has for the time rendered a large portion of the community more accessible to the Gospel. Mr. Chandy, with the approval of Bishop Mellus, has conducted a Bible Class twice a week for the benefit of the deacons and other students who are in preparation for the ministry under the Bishop's care.*

IV. Telugu Mission.

The Telugu Mission comprises Masulipatam, 1841; Ellore, 1854; Bézvâra, 1858; the Koi Mission (Dummagudem), 1860; Baghapuram, 1872.

The TELUGU PROVINCIAL COUNCIL was held this year in Ellore. "We have never," remarks its Chairman, the Rev. F. N. Alexander, "had a stronger and more interesting gathering."

The TRAINING INSTITUTION for the Telugu Mission is under the zealous care of the Rev. J. E. Padfield, who reports as follows:—

Our number of students is thirty-nine, of whom fifteen are in the fourth-grade division, which reads English; whilst the other twenty-four are in the fifth-grade division, which is purely vernacular. Our good Bishop gives annual prizes, to be competed for in Scripture subjects that he himself fixes. Any Church of England Christian under the status of catechist can go in for these. This year there were eighty-one examined amongst the Telugu Christians, the bulk, if not the whole, of these being either Native agents of this and the S.P.G. Missions or our own students, of whom there were ten. It is gratifying to add that the first three on the list were our students. We have had, however, a disappointment as regards the six candidates whom we sent up for the fifth-grade Government certificates. Only one passed. The rock on which the rest have split is Arithmetic. Many people in England think the natives of India are great at mathematics; but, as far as my experience serves, this is their very weakest point. The raw material sent in to us is, as a rule, very poor indeed. Not only are the bulk of our Christian Malas of a very low social and intellectual status, but, in years gone by, the men sent out as Native agents were not properly trained and educated. It was almost impossible to avoid this, as the demand for agents far exceeded the supply. I am sure, however, that the tone of the Institution is being gradually raised. We have a few very promising students indeed, and I hope great things of them. May God grant an answer to our prayers and efforts!

MASULIPATAM.

The Rev. E. Noel Hodges, who is at the head of the ROBERT NOBLE SCHOOL, writes as follows:—

year with joy and gladness. A former pupil, Koti Adinarayana, a respectable Sudra, confessed Christ on the 20th December last. He had been a class-mate of Ramasastrulu, who was converted in 1877. He was very much impressed at that time, and I well remember Ramasastrulu bringing him to visit me soon after our arrival in Masulipatam. Soon afterwards he left school, and we did not often see him, as he became a vaccinator, and was obliged to go to a distant part of the country. We did not, however, lose sight of him altogether, and latterly, being at work in the villages near Masulipatam, he came often to see us, and indeed at length placed himself under Mr. Poole's instruction. Several times within the last few months we hoped he was coming out, but from various causes he held back. At the time when he declared himself, he came over to our converts' bungalow, adjoining mine, and wrote a letter to his father, who presently came, and the usual scene took place. We did not, however, allow any but three or four of his relatives to come further than the gate. After repeated efforts on their part to induce him to come with them and learn his own religion before joining ours, which he met with a quiet but steadfast refusal, they left quietly, but not before the father (who had adopted this boy, having no children of his own) had taken up a handful of dust and cast it in the air, with words and gestures intended to signify cursing and repudiation. We were much relieved that all passed off so quietly, compared with former occasions. It was also a great comfort to Poole and myself to have Razu Garu, of Dummagudem, at hand, who did much to strengthen and uphold the convert, as did also our dear fellow-labourers, Anantam and Sinaqqa. The following morning (Sunday) Adinarayana was baptized by Razu Garu in the presence of the Telugu congregation, and a stranger would not have known that there was anything more than ordinary in the service. We are glad that he is continuing at his work as vaccinator, and will thus be able to maintain himself, in great measure, and also to assist his father, as he did before. The father's chief grief seemed to be, not the change of religion in his son, but the thought that he would henceforth lose his support. This, however, rests entirely with himself; for, as we tried to show him, our religion does not teach us to neglect the plain duties of life, but, on the contrary, enforces them with a higher sanction and a nobler motive. Unfortunately, it is doubtful whether it would be right to allow him to live with his father, considering the peculiar temptations which would surround him in a heathen household. We wish it were otherwise, for the complete separation of the Native Christians of the higher classes from the rest of the Native community is an evil. It retards the progress of Christianity by fostering the natural prejudice against it as a foreign religion.

The school, in general, has gone on fairly well, numbering at

THE TELUGU COUNTRY.

The Anglo-Vernacular School at this station was, during 1879, under the care of a well-known Native clergyman, the Rev. M. Ratnam. It contains 119 boys. The Scriptures are carefully taught; but nothing of special interest has occurred during the year.

ELLORE.

The Missionary of this district is the Rev. F. W. N. Alexander.—Its statistical returns register 774 Adherents and 111 Communicants. These figures are diminutions from each of the two preceding years; yet Mr. Alexander's report is hopeful and encouraging. The diminutions are apparently owing to the famine; not so much, however, from deaths or removals as from the deterring effect on inquirers, who seemed to think that the famine and its concomitant diseases had been brought upon them by some deity or demon, who was displeased at their having left idolatry.—The District Council is slowly gathering strength.—About 100 Hindus and 110 Mussulman girls are attending the Schools. This work is supplemented by Zenana teaching. Thirty Hindu and six Mussulman houses are visited by the ladies engaged in this work.—The following letter will be read with interest, and the Committee must acknowledge with thanks the generous testimony that Mr. Alexander gives to the soundness and good effects of the plans they have adopted:—

Progress
in Native
Church organization in the Telugu
Mission.

Looking back, as I do, almost to the beginning of congregational life in our Mission, I can say truly, "What has God wrought!" Especially in Church organization there has been wonderful progress; and we owe it all to the impulse of the Parent Committee from without. Only we ask not to be pressed on too fast; let us develop slowly and surely, and we shall do well. If the Committee would only push us on in the matter of the Native pastorate, an immense step in advance would be taken, and this, more than anything else, would help to develop the Native Church. The absence of Native Christians belonging to the middle-classes is a serious drawback. Humanly speaking, it seems impossible that we should ever evangelize the country with agents and congregations of Mala origin; but our duty is clear, to go on with all our might, and do our best with the agency God has given us.

DUMMAGUDEM.

The Rev. J. Cain is the Missionary of this station, assisted by a well-known Native brother, the Rev. I. V. Razu Garu. Mr. Cain, who has been labouring here since the close of 1873, and has recently returned to England to recruit his health, gives a brief review of the history of the Mission during the last ten years. The Mission was first established with a special view to the Kois, an aboriginal race settled in this neighbourhood. Unhappily some of the Native agents then employed proved untrustworthy, and the injurious consequences resulting therefrom among a timid and suspicious race, such as the Kois are, have been felt to this day. It was also found impossible to limit evangelistic labours to the Kois alone. This, however, offended them, and strengthened their apprehensions that the wish of the Missionary was to do away with all distinctions of race, and to bring all, Kois included, who regarded themselves as doralu (lords), down to the level of the very lowest. But yet the good work has not been in vain. Including Kois and Hindus, there were baptized, in the years 1862-69, 51 adults and 60 infants; and in the years 1870-79, 166 adults and 179 infants. The Native Christian community thus formed, numbers at the present date, including Catechumens, 362 souls. These are scattered about in twenty villages, and are connected with the four central congregations of DUMMAGUEM itself, Nallapalli, Jinnelagudem, and Jujiram. The Koi Christians (65 in number) form portions of the Nallapalli and Jinnelagudem congregations. Of the whole number of Adherents, 97 are Communicants, an increase of 15 on the number given last year. Nine adult converts have during the year confessed their faith in Christ by receiving baptism.

At the time when fears were entertained of the Rampa rebels making a raid on Dummagudem, a number of the Nallipalli Christian Kois promised to be ready, in conjunction with heathen friends, to defend the house and premises of their beloved pastor, Mr. Razu Garu.—In the small congregation of Christian Malas at Jujiram the fire of Christian zeal continues to burn brightly. Both men and women esteem it their privilege to be pioneers of the work in far-distant villages.

The Rampa rebellion has interfered very considerably with the itinerating labours of the Walter Jones agent.

CEYLON MISSION.

(Commenced 1817.)

I. Colombo and Cotta. II. Baddegama. III. Bandp.
IV. Jaffna.

Progress
in Ceylon.

IN the spiritual life, the energy, the self-reliance, and the improved organization of the Native Christians; in the accession of apparently sincere inquirers, and of converts from heathenism who give proof of being spiritually born again; and, lastly, in the large and vigorously-grasped opportunities of making known the Gospel to adults and to children; this Mission has, through the good hand of God, enjoyed another year of prosperity and blessing. There are Missions where heathen join themselves to the visible Church in larger masses; but there is none where the Native Christians show more vigour, where the public preaching of the Gospel is more attentively listened to, and (more especially) few, if any, where the Mission schools yield so large a number of intelligent converts.

It is well known that in Ceylon, as in the Church of England at home, a contest has been for some time going on in defence of those Gospel truths which are to the Committee dearer than life itself, and compared with which all questions of ecclesiastical organization sink into insignificance. The Committee would again bear their cheerful testimony to the noble and forbearing, though firm, attitude maintained by the Society's missionaries.

The position which the Bishop of Colombo felt it his duty to take of refusing licence or ordination to any members of the Church Missionary Society, led the Archbishop of Canterbury to offer his friendly intervention. As is well known, the points at issue were carefully considered by the Archbishop of Canterbury and the four prelates—the Archbishop of York, the Bishops of London, of Durham, and of Winchester—who had kindly consented to be associated with him in the matter. They had long interviews with the Bishop of Colombo, who came from Ceylon for that purpose, as well as with the President and Secretaries of the Society. The result was a document for which the Committee of this Society were deeply thankful to God. It asserted in no doubtful terms the soundness of the principles which have guided the Society in the past, and for which it has during the last four years been contending; and was one therefore upon which the Committee had no difficulty in expressing their willingness to act. Communication then followed between the Bishop of Colombo and the Committee. The Committee need not say that they entered upon the negotiations with a deep sense of the responsibility that lay upon them to do all in their power to bring about a peaceful issue. They fully believe that the Bishop desired to meet them in the same spirit. The Committee are deeply thankful to report, that without making any concession that might prove injurious to the work, arrangements have been made under which the Bishop is prepared to license and ordain the members of the Society, and to supply episcopal oversight to the Mission. As much must depend on the spirit in which these arrangements are carried out, the Committee ask for the prayers of the friends of the Society, that to the Bishop, the missionaries, and all concerned, there may be vouchsafed an abundant measure of the spirit of power and of love, and of a sound mind.

I. Colombo and Cotta.

Tamil Branch.

THE Rev. D. Wood is in charge of this department. Twenty-two adult converts have been baptized during the year. In the number of Adherents, among whom catechumens are included, the changes have been chiefly owing to removals. The number of adults, 866, is twenty-six more than last year, while the number of children is thirty less. The total is 1088, as against 1092 of the year preceding. The number of Communicants appears to have increased from 234 to 266. The average attendance at public worship is a little over 500, and the weekly prayer meetings are fairly attended. Mr. Wood would gladly see a greater thirst for the public means of grace, but states that many of the congregation are hindered by their duties as house-servants. The total contributions for religious purposes amounted to Rs. 1189, an increase on the sum raised last year. A District Church Council meets as often as is necessary for business and consultation.

Mr. Wood has twelve schools under his care, with 381 pupils. The boys' boarding-school contains 50 inmates; ten of these are nominally heathen, but have expressed their wish to be received into the Christian Church. Of the boys attending the day-schools, three are Protestants, nine Roman Catholics, 56 Mohammedans, eleven Hindus, and three Buddhists.

Preaching in the streets, regularly conducted, has drawn together large audiences. The Tamil-speaking people have listened quietly and with great attention. The Singalese, incited by the blasphemous harangues of a Buddhist priest, have been sometimes noisy and uproarious. This was subsiding towards the close of the year, and its effect, Mr. Wood is persuaded, will be to induce some to inquire more seriously into the truths of the Gospel.

In the Galle and Negombo districts there is much to encourage. The catechists labour with zeal and efficiency; the congregations prosper, many of the people coming several miles to be present at Divine service; and the schools have done fairly well. The two schools at Galle are attended chiefly by Mohammedans.

Singhalese Branch.

No special report has been given of the Colombo Singhalese congregation. It is connected with the Cotta Native Church Council, of which, during the year 1879, the Rev. J. Ireland Jones was chairman. Mr. Jones also superintended the Evangelistic work. Public preaching was conducted four or five times a week in the streets or other places of concourse. The audiences were large, and even more attentive than in former years. One evening in the week the Tamil and Singalese evangelists (European and Native) united together, and addresses were delivered in both languages. Many Mohammedans were often present, and listened attentively. It was during the latter months of the year that the opposition of the Buddhist priest referred to above (in the notice of Mr. Wood's labours) caused annoyance.

COTTA.

The PRÆPARANDI CLASS under the Rev. J. Ireland Jones has been kept up, consisting at the present time of six students, three having been appointed during the year to regular work. One at least of these promised to be a very useful man.

The Native Christian Adherents number 1148, of whom 211 are Communicants. These numbers are a small increase on those of last year. Twenty-two adults have been baptized during the year, and there has been an increase in the annual contributions for religious purposes, which now amount to Rs. 1455.

The Evangelistic work in the districts beyond the pastorates is, as in previous years, under the care of the Rev. R. T. Dowbiggin. The expenses have been borne by the Cotta Native C. M. Association, assisted by a grant from the Henry Venn Native-Church Fund. The districts thus occupied are four in number—(1) Liyanwela, (2) Angampitiya, (3) Yatiantota, (4) Makumbara and Panágoda. At Yatiantota the salary of the catechist is supplied by the Christian liberality of a gentleman who owns property in the neighbourhood. Speaking of these districts generally, there is much opposition, the Buddhist priests here, as recently in many other parts of Ceylon, exerting themselves actively; but almost everywhere also there are inquirers and candidates for baptism. Advantage is taken of a civil institution recently introduced into Ceylon, termed Village Councils. One of these, meeting at a place called Hanwela, is regularly attended by two of the catechists, before the president of the council takes his seat, when a large audience, gathered from all parts of the Hêwâgam Corle, listens, usually with apparent attention and interest, to the Gospel message. The catechist at Makumbara gives the following interesting incident:—

Successful evangelistic efforts of a Native C.M. Association.

One of the candidates is enduring constant persecution. She says, 'The Christian religion is true, and I must believe it, for therein is salvation, and there is none in Buddhism. Though you kill me, I will not abandon it, and I must be baptized.' On some Sabbath days she went to the church at Talangama. A younger sister used to accompany her; and in order to prevent their elder daughter going to church, her parents sent their little girl away from home, thinking that she would not venture to church alone. But she espied some women going to Colombo to sell vegetables, and she went with them as far as the church that she might hear the Gospel. On Sunday, the 28th of September, she was baptized by the Rev. H. de Silva, the pastor at Talangama. Her younger sister is also now anxious to become a Christian. While the parents were thus endeavouring to hinder one child from becoming a Christian, both of their daughters have been turned unto the Lord. That she might not stand alone, even from her own family, the Lord provided her with a companion, and to Him be praise.

The Educational branch of the Cotta district is also under Mr. Dowbiggin's charge. There are 45 schools, containing 2577 pupils, which latter number is an increase of 188 from last year. The good quality of the secular instruction given is freely acknowledged by the Government inspectors, and is further attested by the amount of the Government grants. In a Missionary point of view, there are no schools in any part of the Mission field throughout the world in which it has pleased God to grant more evident success. Twenty-four of the scholars, children of heathen parents, were baptized in the course of the year, on an intelligent profession of faith. Buddhist parents, whether from sounder views of religious liberty or from other causes, do not adopt the same violent modes as those used by the Hindus for suppressing religious convictions.—The old Cotta Institution, though now called the Cotta Boys' School, may be said to have been revived; the difference being that its present Principal (or Headmaster, as he is termed) is a Native gentleman, Mr. William De Silva. Of its 75 students (22 of whom are boarders), nine received baptism during the year.—Nearly 800 pupils, many of them children of Buddhist parents, attend Sunday schools, where the instruction is purely Scriptural and the attendance entirely voluntary.

II. Baddégama.

Baddégama, commenced 1819; Bentot, 1861.

THE work in this district has been characterized for many years by steady progress, in spite of much opposition. The Missionary is the Rev. J. Allcock. The Native Adherents are 523 in number. Of these no less than 151 are Communicants. Twenty-seven adult converts were baptized during the year.

The Native Christians, Mr. Allcock thinks, are increasing in liberality. Inordinate love of money and a quarrelsome spirit seem to him the faults to which they are most tempted. As regards morality, in the more restricted sense of that word, they are for the most part outwardly blameless. One sad exception to this occurred during the year, but the church discipline which was exercised in reference to it seems to have had a salutary effect, both on the offenders themselves and on the Christians generally.

In the schools over 1700 children are receiving instruction from forty-three schoolmasters and schoolmistresses. In many of the schools there are inquirers. Mr. Allcock holds firmly that “if the master or mistress is faithful and fervent, and prays, the conversion of many of the children will follow, as surely as the night follows the day.”

The following illustrative extracts from Mr. Allcock's Annual Letter will be read with interest:—

The catechist of Kitulampitiya lost his wife with almost the startling suddenness of the prophet Ezekiel. She was attacked with a disease, and dead in less than fifteen minutes, leaving behind a bereaved husband and six little motherless children, the eldest not more than ten years. She was surrounded by many heathen relatives, many of whom her death deeply impressed. She was quite ready, and appears to have had some premonition of the approaching preferment. The few minutes and the little strength she had to spare were spent in purely spiritual conversation. To her husband she said, "I count myself a blessed woman in being called to the eternal home first." Until the time that the body was put in the coffin the children thought that their mother was only sleeping. The father said, "It is not right to bury her till they are undeceived." He took them and said, "Children, this is not your mother, but the nest in which your mother once lived! Your mother has gone to heaven; you will never see her again on earth." To which one child replied, "Oh, yes, father; we shall see mother again at the resurrection day."

chist's

We have to record another conversion in the village of Baddegama itself. Sinhaley Appuhamy is about fifty years of age, and had for a long time been the diligent and mighty agent of the great adversary. When strong men fall on their knees, and by promises, professions of faith, and the reception of the heavenly sacrament, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, we do and ought to rejoice and be glad. His little boy, of about six years of age, knelt on his left side, and entered into the same covenant relationship with God. He was not so much moved by the preaching of the Gospel as by the fruits of faith and the grace of God which he had observed in some Christians. He said that the charity, humility, spirituality, happiness, and zeal and activity of some Christians, whom he knew intimately, won his heart to the Gospel. He added, "Not one true Buddhist priest or a layman have I found, but I have found a few true Christians. I perceive that the really pure people and well-wishers of the world are the true Christians."

III. Kandy.

Kandy, commenced 1818; Itinerating Mission, 1852; Tamil Cooly Mission, 1855; Kurunêgala and Kaegāla, 1880.

Town Congregations.

THE Native Christian congregation in the town and suburbs of Kandy are connected with a Church Council, of which the Rev. H. Gunasêkārā is the chairman. He is also the pastor of the Central congregation that worship at Trinity Church. Notwithstanding many untoward circumstances, which need not here be specified, this congregation has increased during the year from 208 to 230; and Mr. Gunasêkârâ has had the joy of receiving into the Church eight adult converts. In November, 1878, twenty candidates were confirmed by the Bishop of Colombo in Mr. Gunasêkara's Church. Preaching in the streets has been carried on by Mr. Gunasêkara, as in former years.

TRINITY COLLEGE has been during the year under the care of Mr. T. Dunn. The secular success of the school continues to be satisfactory. The students number 118, of whom twelve are boarders. In the examination by the Government Inspector, 90 per cent. obtained passes. Three Kandian boys, who are still in the school, received baptism. It is, however, matter for regret and humiliation that these lads should have been so far denationalized as to have sought baptism from a European rather than from a Singhalese clergyman. Others are inquirers; and Mr. Dunn believes that some of these will soon make an open confession of their faith in Christ. A large proportion of the pupils were Christians by profession previous to their first admission to the College or Collegiate School.

TAMIL COOLY MISSION.

The European Missionaries connected with this Mission are the Rev. W. E. Rowlands and the Rev. A. R. Cavalier, assisted by a Tamil clergyman, the Rev. P. Peter. Mr. Cavalier was alone during a large portion of 1879, and quite recently (June, 1880) has been ordered to England, invalided. The Native Christian Adherents number 1260, and the Communicants 349. Forty-one adult converts were baptized during the year. The Native Christian agents are 71 in number. The large proportion which Native agents bear to the number of Adherents, and the fluctuation in the number of the latter, are explained by Mr. Cavalier's remarks on the peculiarly evangelistic character of the Mission. Mr. Cavalier writes:—

Evangelistic character of the work in the Tamil Cooly Mission.

This is eminently an evangelistic Mission. We have but little pastoral work, and the little congregations we are able from time to time to gather together are often broken up, owing to the migratory habits of the people. They come over from India for the coffee crop, much in the same way that Irish labourers come to England in the season to pick hops. On the arrival of a gang of new coolies, the catechists seek out any professing Christians amongst them, and, if their moral conduct is good, their names are inserted on our register. If there is a church near, they are invited to it; or, if not, we endeavour to hold service as frequently as possible on the estate for them. But congregations thus formed are liable at any time to be broken up by removals to India or to other coffee districts in Ceylon.

During the year I was permitted to receive thirty-six adults into the Church by baptism. Several others, who had been under preparation, left the island and returned to India before they could be baptized; but we trust they may help to swell the number of true believers in India. In one case a man, who had long gained his living as a fortune-teller, heard the catechist preaching. He had a book of extracts from heathen sacred writings, which he consulted as an oracle to foretell lucky days, or the results of business transactions, &c. But the preaching touched his heart, and he came to the catechist an earnest seeker after truth. He gave up his old mode of life, sent his fortune-telling book to me, and commenced earning his living in a small bazaar, or shop, where his work was harder and his income much less than formerly. At length he was baptized, and I was much encouraged by his simple expressions of faith in Christ, and in Christ alone. In another instance, a man belonging to the thief caste heard the catechist preach, and afterwards came forward for conversation. He acknowledged the guilt of his calling, and the evil of his past life, asked if God would pardon him, and promised to give up stealing. He has now been some months under instruction, and will, I hope, be shortly baptized.

Conversion in connexion with the Tamil Cooly Mission.

KANDYAN ITINERANCY.

The Rev. S. Coles writes as follows :—

The whole of the Itinerancy has been under my charge throughout the year. This has necessitated an amount of travelling and fatigue greater than I could bear, and brought on two attacks of fever, which compelled me to rest awhile. The reduction of the Society's grant and the commercial depression in Ceylon itself have also thrown difficulties in my way. Native pastors are much needed for my larger congregations; but [from internal difficulties] it has been impossible to obtain them. The Great Head of the Church, however, is with us, and blesses our efforts on His behalf. We have 28 congregations, consisting of 1176 members, and 39 schools, attended by 1396 children. There have been 82 baptisms during the year, 37 of which were adult. There are 49 candidates preparing for that sacrament, and 155 inquirers into the truths of Christianity. The Gospel has been preached to more than 100,000 persons during the year, and contributions amounting to Rs. 2457 have been given by natives. The catechists, readers, and teachers have, on the whole, worked well, and much assistance has been given by several voluntary native helpers.

Conversion of a heathen husband through the instrumentality of his wife.

The Talampitiya district has continued to be the brightest spot in my field of labours. One of those lately baptized there is a very interesting case. In India and Ceylon, marriages are arranged by the parents or relatives of the bride and bridegroom, and the missionary is often powerless to interfere. In this case the bride had been taught in our school, where she became a Christian; but her parents gave her in marriage to a Buddhist in an adjoining village, where there was not one Christian. She, by her example and entreaty, succeeded in overcoming the prejudices of her husband, and persuaded him to examine the claims of Christianity. It was a happy day for her when her husband made a public profession of his faith, and was admitted into the Church of Christ. On the day of his baptism, he promised to bear the expense of some repairs in the church, and both he and his wife are exerting their influence for good amongst their neighbours.

At Héwādiwela, a neighbouring village, the past year has been one of very hard labour and self-denial to many of the Christians, who have been building a church, which is now nearly ready for use. The stones, timber, and unskilled labour being thus provided free of cost, I hope to finish the building for 100*l.*, which otherwise would have cost more than 300*l.*—There have been several baptisms at Mitænwela, a village about twelve miles from Kurunégala.—At Kaegāla English and Singhalese services have been held regularly by Mr. A. Suriârachchi, and three persons have been baptized. In addition to these, [a young man has renounced Romanism and joined our Church.—In the districts near Kandy, progress has been made. The congregation at Gampola is increasing. Twelve persons have been baptized there, and the contributions received have been more than is required for the support of the catechist.—South-east of Kandy, much itinerating work has been done, and there have been three baptisms.—In the north the work has been hindered by famine and sickness.

Revival of the work at Ratmîwala.

Some will be interested by the re-appearance of the name of Ratmîwala in the Society's Report. Work of a very interesting character in that village is referred to in the Society's Report for 1851-2 (p. 154), and in the Reports for some of the succeeding years. The Christians of the village had relapsed generally into a state of carelessness and sin; and the village was for some time left without any resident agent of the Society or Native Church. A few of them, however, stood fast, and came frequently to Divine Service at Kandy, a distance of twelve miles. A short time ago they asked Mr. Coles to resume work amongst them. Mr. Coles replied he could only do this on condition of their repairing their place of worship and teaching their children. This they have done; and now services are regularly held every Sunday, and a school is kept by one of their own number. Early in 1879 Mr. Coles visited their village, and baptized eight persons.

KURUNÉGALA, now under the care of the Rev. J. Ireland Jones, had long been an out-station of the Kandyan Itinerary. The Singhalese Sunday service was attended, at the date of Mr. Jones's last Report, by from 30 to 40 adults, most of them persons of education and position, and some holding important posts under Government. Several of the staunch supporters of the Mission are old Cotta students.—Large and attentive congregations listen to the preaching of the Gospel in the streets or in the open spaces near the Court houses.

IV. Jaffna District.

Nallur, commenced 1818; Chundikuli, 1842; Kopay, 1847.

THE Pastoral work of this district is conducted by four Native clergymen (Rev. J. Hensman, Rev. E. Hoole, Rev. T. P. Handy, Rev. G. Champion) and one or two candidates for Holy Orders. These are connected with a Native Church Council, of which the Rev. J. D. Simmons is the chairman. The statistical returns give 822 Adherents, 329 Communicants, and 18 adult baptisms.

Mr. Simmons writes:—

In the Kopay Pastorate there has been a work of deep interest. Some of the Christians whose love had grown cold have been stirred up to consecrate themselves anew to the Lord, and to seek grace to live more to His glory. A large number of the congregation were thus quickened. It led to much prayer for themselves and others, and also to zeal for the conversion of heathen friends and neighbours. Several who had been inquirers previously, but who had become careless, have now become real candidates for baptism, and show much concern about their salvation. The Sunday-school teachers have also begun to manifest great desire for the salvation of the children.—The movement at Copay led to prayer-meetings being established in the other pastorates. I trust that real, permanent good will remain as the result of this movement. One good sign is greater liberality. The total amount given for charitable purposes during the year is Rs. 1762 against Rs. 1494 for 1878.—The Pallai and Mullativo congregations have suffered from the want of ordained Native pastors. I have with difficulty visited the former, and administered the Lord's Supper four times in the year instead of once in two months; and the latter I have been able to visit only twice.—I am thankful to say our Christians generally earnestly desire to preserve for themselves and their children the precious treasure of Gospel truth in its simplicity

The transference to Colombo of the Rev. D. Wood, who had charge of the educational department of the Mission, was mentioned in the Report for 1878-9 (p. 142). The late Rev. E. Blackmore was brought over from Tinnevely to supply his place. Mr. Simmons writes:—

Peaceful decease of
sionary.

Mr. Blackmore was a man of singularly beautiful Christian character. He soon won the esteem of all who knew him, and the love of those who were more closely associated with him. His faith in the finished atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ on the cross, and in His intercession at God's right hand, was always clear and steadfast. If there is one thing more clearly testified to than others by his life and death, it is the truth that the Gospel of Jesus Christ, as taught by the Church Missionary Society, is sufficient to produce holy and active living, and to secure a joyful and an abundant entrance into the kingdom of God at death. Our dear brother's voice sounds in our ears—"Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." *

MAURITIUS MISSION.

Commenced 1856.

Division of the Mission: 1. Tamil-speaking Coolies (Madras Branch), 1857; 2. Bengali and Hindi-speaking Coolies (Calcutta Branch), 1867; 3. The Seychelles Islands, 1875.

General.

As regards the steady influx of inquirers and catechumens into the outer and inner courts of the visible Church, and also, it is hoped, as regards the spiritual building up of individual believers, this Mission has presented the same encouraging aspect as in former years. A new feature is the outward organization of the Native Church by the introduction of a Native Church Council similar to those established in South India. Difficulties that seemed likely to retard this movement were overcome by the kindly support of the Bishop of the diocese, and by the loyal and strenuous perseverance of the Society's Missionaries.

The increased opposition of Romish Missionaries and Hindu priests referred to in the Report for 1878-9, still continues.

The PRÆPARANDI CLASS has been suspended for a time. Two out of the six students of which it was composed have, however, been engaged as catechists of the Society.

Work among Calcutta Coolies.

This branch of the work has been disturbed by various causes. The Rev. P. Ansorgé, after nearly thirty-five years of zealous labour, in connexion with the Society, has returned to his native land. The Rev. F. Schurr, at ROSE BELLE, is not in strong health, and has met with some difficulties and disappointments.

The Rev. C. Kushalli at PAMPLEMOUSSES, who was associated with Mr. Ansorgé, will now be similarly aided by the advice of Mr. Schurr. In connexion with the North Indian Branch there were 145 baptisms during the year, of which number 108 were of adult converts. Owing, however, to the migratory habits of the population, the whole increase in the number of Adherents was only 27, from 1096 to 1123. The Communicants number 193 as compared with 198 for the year preceding.

Work among Madras Coolies.

The South Indian or Tamil Missionary work of the diocese is divided between the Church Missionary Society and the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, the latter labouring in the towns of Port Louis, Mahebourg, and Souillec; while the Church Missionary Society is responsible for the rest of the island. The work of the C.M.S. is under the care of the Rev. N. Honiss, with the exception of that in the lower part of the Plaines Wilhelms and Black River (Civil) Districts, of which the Rev. H. D. Buswell takes charge.

In Mr. Buswell's district, the Adherents number 187, and the Communicants 65. Thirteen adults have been baptized during the year. Mr. Buswell thinks there has been some change for the better in the spiritual tone of the Native Christian congregations. The Mission has suffered a serious loss through the resignation of Mr. Buswell's Native helper, the Rev. J. Gabb.

Mr. Honiss now resides at PLAISANCE, in the centre of the island. The Native Christian Adherents under his care have increased in number, from 203 to 226, the Communicants from 23 to 43, and the children in the schools from 310 to 360. Fourteen adults have received baptism during the year. Two of these were influenced by a convert mentioned in the previous Report, as having been brought to the faith through the instrumentality of a sister of the late Mr. Dévasagayam. Another, seriously impressed in his childhood in a Mission school at Madras, sought for Christian instruction when an inmate of the Pamplemousses Government Hospital, the seed being thus found after many days.—Mr. Honiss speaks of his Native brother, the Rev. T. Ephraim, as being a great help to him. Mr. Ephraim resides in the north of Mauritius, and is becoming increasingly valuable, inasmuch as to his previous knowledge of Tamil, English, Telugu and Hindustani, he is now becoming acquainted with Hindi and Creole.

Mr. Honiss also takes charge of the (now) combined “Madras” and “Calcutta” Boarding School. This the Bishop regards as a most important work. Many of the inmates are orphans; not, however, foundlings, as in the orphanages of North India, but children of Indians dying in Mauritius, far away from country, home and friends. It has therefore a just and strong claim on the Christian philanthropy of all interested in Mauritius, though it is not an object for which the Society’s funds are available.

SEYCHELLES.

At the beginning of 1879 the Society’s work in Seychelles was superintended by the Rev. W. B. Chancellor, who, though still on the Society’s list, was for the time holding the post of Civil Chaplain of Mahé. Mr. Chancellor was assisted by Mr. H. M. Warry and Mr. Pickwood. Early in the year Mr. Chancellor was compelled, by failure of health, to leave the Seychelles, and ultimately to return to England. The Rev. H. D. Buswell visited Seychelles in April, staying there for four months.

The number of children in the African Industrial School has declined from 56 to 38. The parents (themselves Africans) have not yet learnt to appreciate education. Some years ago the Government made a grant of land to the school, but they do not otherwise contribute towards its expenses. The plantation, consisting of coffee, vanilla, and coco trees, gives promise of yielding fair produce; but it is not expected that the institution will become self-supporting. The Committee have decided not to admit any more children to the School, unless

Work has also been commenced of a more directly missionary character at a place called Pointe-au-Sel. A large number of Africans attend service there twice a month, and some are under instruction with a view to receiving baptism.

CHINA MISSION.

In reviewing the events of the year in the China Mission the Committee cannot refrain from referring first of all to the loss that has been sustained by the death of the deeply beloved Bishop Russell. The public press, the colonial chaplain of Shanghai, his brother missionaries, the native clergy and converts, vied with each other in their tribute of respect and affection for his memory. And not these only. The official despatch from her Majesty's representative at Peking to the Marquis of Salisbury announcing his death concludes with the following words:—"On the few occasions on which I was in contact with him, I was much impressed by the apparent simplicity and unassumingness of his character. He seemed thoroughly intent upon the work that missionaries are sent out here to perform, and upon that only." They are thankful for the prospect of his being succeeded by another devoted missionary of the Society, the Rev. George E. Moule, whose aim, they believe, will be to follow in the steps of his predecessor.

Southern Division.

HONG-KONG.

The Rev. E. Davys and the Rev. J. Grundy were the Missionaries at this station during the year 1879. Early in the present year Mr. Davys' state of health compelled him to return to England. Mr. Davys reports as follows :—

Progress
in Hong Kong, and in the affiliated stations

In the island of Hong-Kong itself are great numbers of Chinese residents, and visitors, from various parts of the mainland. Our church opens upon the large recreation ground where multitudes congregate, and which most new comers visit. When the bell sounds for the daily evening preaching, hundreds flock in, coming and going. Thus the seed is very widely sown, though it is hard to follow up particular cases. The Rev. Lo Sam Yuen opens his room for inquirers after every preaching. Several earnest men have been baptized during the year.

The new work in the out-stations on the Mainland is very hopeful. In the populous town of Kong Moon we have a faithful Catechist and a comfortable house for preaching. There have been already two baptisms, one, of a very promising young man whole wife and mother and suffered persecution for Christ's sake. At Hok-Shan we have three Catechists, the building purchased by the Native Church at Hong-Kong in the rural district, and a preaching-room just opened in the city. Several have been baptized. At Lo Teng, a fine city on the west, we have a Catechist and assistant. Four intelligent men were baptized at Mr. Grundy's first visit. It is a place scarcely before visited, where infanticide and superstition reign undisturbed. At Yan Ping we have several Christians and a school. In Heung-Shan city we have obtained a larger room, and are protected by the authorities. At Kowloong there is an increasing Church with a school. At both Shek Taan and Whampi there is encouragement; and we have sent a Catechist to explore, and, if possible, to remain at the "Fu" city of Mau-Ming, in the south-west of the province. This work, I am convinced, may, with God's blessing, be most successfully extended, if the means of the Society permit.

FOO-CHOW.

At the commencement of 1879 the Missionaries residing at this station were, the Rev. J. R. Wolfe, the Rev. R. W. Stewart, the Rev. L. Lloyd, and Dr. Van Someren Taylor. Mr. Wolfe left Foo-chow for much-needed rest and change in the middle of the year, reaching England on the 17th of August. The Native clergymen connected with the Mission are the Rev. Wong Kiu Taik, Rev. Ting Sing-ki, and the Rev. Tang Tang-Pieng.

The statistical returns for Foo-chow give the number of Native Communicants at 1000; of Native Christian Adherents 3000; and of baptisms during the year, adults 363, children 71, a larger number than ever before.

In the Foo-chow Mission, as a whole, the year just concluded has perhaps been more eventful than any of its predecessors. It has been a year of much persecution and of great advance, a year in which the Native Christians have been most deeply tried, but in which, while some have fallen away, very abundant proofs have been given of zeal and spiritual life. Severe punishments have been inflicted by the Chinese authorities, sometimes on Native Christians, and more frequently on heathen who have sold property to the Mission—simply, as it appears to the missionaries, in consequence either, in the one case, of the faith they possess, or, in the other, of their having indirectly forwarded the work in which the missionaries are engaged. Meanwhile the literati (or Chinese gentry) and their tools, have in several places beaten, robbed, and molested the converts, without being in any degree checked by the magistrates. Such, also, is the bitterness and great power of the class just referred to, that even where the magistrates have shown themselves more just and friendly, the Christians could only obtain an inadequate protection.

Steadfastness of Christians under

tion.

"The firmness," writes Mr. Stewart, "that the converts have shown this year under trial should for ever set at rest all doubt as to the reality of the work. One word at any time in denial of their Master would have freed them from their tormentors, yet not in one case has that word been spoken; they have preferred to wander houseless, and foodless, or languish in Chinese dungeons, that they might obtain a 'better resurrection.'"

No account has been sent to the Committee this year of the Annual Conference of the Fuh-kien Christians.

In the THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE forty-five men have been under training during the year. The work has been somewhat interrupted by the troubles of the year, especially those connected with the Wuh-Shih-Shan lawsuit. Several books of Scripture, however, have been very carefully gone through, as also the first nineteen of the Thirty-Nine Articles, Mr. Moule's treatise being used as the text-book. The Foo-chow dialect is the medium of instruction, but the Chinese classics are not neglected. The burning of the college buildings in 1878 was a great loss. The money, however, that had been subscribed by friends in England and expended on the College has been refunded by the Mandarins, and will be applied to the erection of a new edifice so soon as a suitable site can be obtained.

The DISTRICTS into which the Fuh-kien Mission is divided are—FOO-CHOW city, LIENG-KONG, LO-NGUONG, NING-TAIK, KU-CHENG, KIONG-NING, LONG-PING, HING-WHA, TAIK-WHA, HOK-CHIANG.

No special mention is made of the work in the city of Foo-CHOW itself. Of the country districts, those forming the inner circle—LIENG-KONG, LO-NGUONG, NING-TAIK, and HOK-CHIANG—have been under the care of Mr. Stewart; while those of the outer circle—KU-CHENG, KIONG-NING, LONG-PING, HING-WHA, and TAIK-WHA—have been the field of Mr. Lloyd's labours.

Commencing with the inner circle, Mr. Stewart thus writes of LIENG-KONG;—

in the Lieng-Kong
district.

The interest in the city of Lieng-Kong, after so many years of almost lifelessness, is steadily increasing. There were eight candidates for baptism, of whom six were admitted. The little congregation on Sunday has increased to about twenty, and an attempt is being made, with some success, to carry on a Sunday-school.—At Tau ka one or two have joined lately, and are now regularly attending service. The catechist is listened to with great attention wherever he goes, and has gained the respect of the people in a wonderful way, owing very much to his grey hairs and courteous manner. The number willing to boldly confess Christ is, however, still very small.—At the new stations of Chia Sioh there has been a most interesting case of a woman who, believing herself possessed by an evil spirit, came down to Foo-chow in obedience to a dream which she had, and, joining the Bible-women's class, was completely cured, without the aid of anything but faith on her part, and prayer on the part of the Christians. She has now gone back to her own village, able to read her New Testament very fairly, and burning with desire to teach her neighbours and friends.

The Lo-NGUONG district may be next noticed. Mr. Stewart writes :—

literary
Nguong.

This year there has been a remarkable awakening in the city of Lo-NGUONG. I found, on my visit, a band of ten or twelve men, well educated, of the literary class, meeting every night in the chapel for prayer and the study of the Bible. I also baptized sixteen who had been for at least six months in constant attendance at the services, and who answered at their examination very well. Nearly as many more were left over till the next visit. The numbers seem so rapidly to be increasing in this place, that of all other places it demands our prayers.

At Wong Pwang five this year were baptized, and a much larger number left over till the next visit. Four years ago there were only two or three converts, and now there is a regular attendance of about fifty.—At Tong A, the Christians have enlarged their little chapel, which will now seat between seventy or eighty. There was a large number of candidates for baptism, but, on examining them, I thought it was well that they should wait a little longer. At four miles' distance from Tong-A is the small village of Sieu-Hung. We walked over to it after morning service, and, as we drew near, the sound of Christian singing met our ear, and almost immediately we came in sight of the pretty little church, built in foreign style. On entering, my friend, one of the English merchants, and I were delighted to find a congregation of about forty. Being the afternoon, the attendance was not so numerous as in the morning, those living at a long distance not being able to remain for it. At this place there were ten candidates for baptism, and all were admitted.—At Lauyong we have no chapel as yet; the number of Christians is, however, increasing, and six or eight of the men walk over every Sunday to the Achia chapel, about eight or nine miles distant, the road between being a steep mountain path. This little body of converts have been called upon already to suffer very severely. Two of them were imprisoned by the mandarins on an entirely false charge. Every endeavour to obtain their liberation was tried, but without success, till a few months ago, when at length they were given their liberty. However, while there, the mandarin admitted that there was in reality no charge against them; still, by means of heavy bribery, the gentry were enabled to keep them still in prison. However, while there, they did good work for the cause of Christ. First of all, the jailor himself was impressed by their behaviour as well as their words, and, before very long, openly joined “the doctrine.” This was followed by the conversion of one of their fellow-prisoners, and, owing to the friendship of the jailor, they were allowed to hold service in the prison every Sunday; they were also given small positions of trust in the place, and the good to the Church which resulted from their imprisonment was altogether perhaps greater than if they had never been imprisoned.

NING-TAIK has been under the care of Mr. Tang Tang-Pieng. More than 100 persons have been baptized during the year. There is an absence of persecution in this district, which it is difficult to account for. At a place called King-Se-Kung, three miles from the city, great interest has sprung up, and there are now 100 Adherents.

The HOK-CHIANG district has only been recently taken up by, or rather forced itself upon, the Society's Mission. For five or six years it existed and grew rapidly as an independent Church. The Native Christians rented and built their own chapels, chose those best fitted amongst them to act in turn as catechists and teachers, and meeting twice on every Sunday, read together the proper lessons for the day, and the whole service according to the English Prayer Book; and the blessing of God seemed to rest upon them. At length, in January, 1879, in accordance with the earnest request of these Christians, the Society's missionaries sent down to them six trained catechists. It will be matter for intense grief and humiliation if this should have the result of their doing less for themselves. Mr. Stewart writes :—

Conversion of a Chinese man by means of his little girl, and his subsequent experience.

Of these six stations, Keng-Táu has the largest congregation, now numbering about 160. A site has been presented for a church by an aged Christian man, who had for years been the great supporter of the work there. This old Christian is an illustration of the blessing that may be hoped for from teaching children. Some ten years ago his little girl, who had been taught at one of the American chapels, was lying apparently on her death-bed. There was no one else then in the house who believed but this little girl. She asked her father to bring her Bible and hymn-book and read out to her; he did so, and day after day read in the New Testament the words of the Saviour she had learned to love. As time went on she got better, and finally recovered; and, when she did, she begged her father and mother to keep on reading the Holy Book and believe in the Lord Jesus. The result was that first the mother believed, and then he did. When his friends heard that he was about to join the Christians, they said to him, "You have always been in debt, and now, if you keep one day in seven, you will be worse off than ever." He replied that he believed in God and must keep His commandments—even if he starved, he must do so; but that God could help him. I asked him how it had fared with him since. He replied, "Teacher, before I believed I never ended the year without being in debt; but now, these ten years, I have never once been hard pressed and I have always had enough for my wants."—At Keng-Kiang the work was being greatly blessed, and the Christians had just built a beautiful chapel and catechist's house, the value altogether amounting to about $1100, and of this they only received $210 from foreign sources. Persecution then sprang up and has been most severe.—At Hong-A there is an attendance on Sunday of about fifty, and a class every evening of from eight to ten young men, steadily working together through the New Testament.

Mr. Stewart adds :—

Growth of self-support in the Fuh-Kien Mission.

The strong feeling now being evinced by the converts all over the Mission to purchase or build chapels for themselves is, we think, a most hopeful sign. Where the converts themselves build or buy a chapel, there is reason for hoping that they will look upon it as their own, and take more interest in it than when it is merely rented year by year by the foreign Society.

Mr. Lloyd's report is of a similar character with that of Mr. Stewart. Of KU-CHENG he writes :—

ably smaller than in 1878. This is, no doubt, to be accounted for by the persecutions and troubles which have arisen everywhere. It is a cause for deep thankfulness that very few indeed of those who have been baptized have gone back.

In the city of Ku-Cheng, there have been several baptisms. One case I might mention. Some years since a young man, well educated, embraced Christianity in the city. The other members of his family still clung to their idols. This young fellow was asked to join our students' class, which he did, and a year or two since was sent forth as a catechist. He has prayed constantly for his father and brothers, and this year his younger brother has been baptized. I was very pleased with his appearance, and also with his answers. He was formerly a Taouist priest, and since his conversion he has fearlessly exposed all the trickery by which he imposed on the people. The Taouist priests are in great consternation, and beg him not to do this, but he tells them he cannot but do so. The father of these young men is, and has been for some time a regular attendant at our services.

The work at Ngu-Tu is still progressing, although there is not, I think, quite so much interest evinced as in 1878. The Bible-woman appears to be working diligently amongst the women, and several were presented for baptism when I was there, of whom three were accepted, as they seemed to understand clearly the leading truths of our faith.

district.

I am thankful to be able to record five baptisms at Sek-Paik-Tu during the year, and four at Sek-Chek-Tu, about a mile and a half distant. Former reports have alluded to the intense wickedness which exists amongst the people, crowded together so thickly in this region, and it is to be hoped that many will ere long come to the light. Our American brethren have also opened a chapel at Sek-Chek-Tu, so that they have abundant opportunity of hearing of the true God and Jesus Christ, whom He has sent.

The state of the Church at Lau-A last year, and at the beginning of this, caused us much anxiety. A satisfactory change has now taken place. The inquirers have, for the most part, returned, and the congregation now numbers between fifty and sixty. The catechist's wife has a nice class of women under instruction, and her example appears to be exerting an influence over them for good in every respect. The church at this place is now completed, and is a nice roomy building. There have been six baptisms at Lau-A during 1879.

At Chek-Pó the work appears to be bearing fruit this year, after a long sowing time, one of the principal families in the place having declared themselves to be Christians. This is the result of the example shown by the uncle, who has been baptized several years. Until this year these people have been accustomed to speak with the greatest disdain of the foreigners' religion, and of their determination to adhere to the teachings of Confucius. However, all is changed now, and the male portion of the family, with one or two exceptions, attend the services regularly.

At the village of Wong Chong Yong, about three miles from Lau-A, five persons have been baptized during the year.

The southern or south-western division of the Ku-Cheng district is sometimes called the Ang-Long district, Ang-Long being its missionary centre. Mr. Lloyd reports of it as follows :—

in the Ang-Long
district.

The state of the Ang-Long District is, on the whole, satisfactory, and the absence of persecution from this particular region may have the effect of causing the people to embrace Christianity more readily than where they have to suffer loss and shame for doing so. At Ang-Long itself there is now only one family entirely heathen, and the church is quite filled with worshippers. We had quite a grand reception when the Bishop visited the village in March; and I shall never, I think, forget the sight presented by the long procession of Christians walking along the mountain-path. There have been thirteen baptisms at Ang-Long this year.—Pa-Lau. This is a small village, about two miles from Ang-Long, and contains about forty Christians. These are hoping next year to build a small church, towards the erection of which they have subscribed $60. The Mission has granted $70 from private funds, and they hope to collect the rest from the Native Church. Five persons have been baptized this year.—Cho-Yong. This village is on the road from Ku-Cheng to Chwi-Kau, and a good deal of interest has been manifested in the Gospel. I spent the last Sunday in October there, and was pleased to find over forty persons at the service. These people are most of them farmers, living on the surrounding mountains, who find it very difficult to get to church in wet weather. I was rather surprised to see a man walk in just before service, with two rice-baskets, one on either end of a bamboo, and still more surprised when, having placed the baskets on the floor, he took from each a baby-boy—twins! This man lived some three miles away, and I had the pleasure of baptizing him, his wife, and his three children. There have been twelve baptisms at Cho-Yong this year.

This district (Ku Cheng) has again been superintended by Rev. Ting Sing Ki, but it was decided at the conference to remove him to Ning Taik, where we hope his zeal and energy will have a good effect. The number of baptisms in this district has been about sixty.

KIONG-NING district is in a critical condition. Mr. Lloyd asks for prayer on its behalf. Those (heathen) Chinese who have let or sold houses to the Mission or the Native Church, have been severely punished by the magistrates. There has been one baptism (the first) at Siong Po, and there are several inquirers.

No special advance has been made in the LONG-PING district, but the following extract from Mr. Lloyd's report of it will be read by many with deep interest :—

In this district, in November last, died Ung-Kung, the Ang-Decease long tailor, whose energy and zeal in the cause of Christ are well known to all who have read Mr. Stock's book. His brother of the Ang-Long was with him when he died ; and the old man's face was full of joy when he reached Foo-chow to tell us that Ung-Kung had died. "gone home." I see that when he bade Mr. Mahood good-bye, in 1875, he said he was afraid he should never see him again. Well, on earth he did not ; but now they have met in the better home, where partings are all o'er.

In the HING-WHA district there are only two chapels, one in the city and one at Ang-Tau, a large town six miles distant, containing a larger population than the city. At this last place there are about thirty Christians, all men. Some of these are still catechumens.

There are five stations in the TAIK-WHA district. At one of these, Pe-Nu (erroneously called Pê-Nî in the Report for 1878-9) there is still much interest shown, the number of Christians exceeding seventy. Some persecution has taken place lately, but the district magistrate has issued a proclamation forbidding the ill-treatment of those holding the doctrine of Jesus Christ. Pe-Nu is the southernmost of the Foo-chow stations, being 145 miles south of the city. At U-Iong the Adherents have increased in number from fifty to seventy.

The attack made by a hired mob on the houses belonging to the Society in the city of Foo-chow, referred to on page 143 of the Report for 1878-9, was followed by a law-suit, the story of which and of the circumstances connected with it, is given in the Intelligencer for December, 1879. The result, the Committee regret to say, is that the Society's Missionaries are no longer able to reside in the Native city.*

NINGPO.

THE most prominent event of the year in this Mission is one that has been already referred to, p. 117—a sad and solemn event, though one which has its joyful aspect, and which should certainly call forth no feelings of despondency. It is that the Great Head of the Church has been pleased to summon to the rest of Paradise one whom He saw to be ripe for that blessed change, who had fought the good fight and finished his course. On the 5th of October, 1879, BISHOP RUSSELL fell asleep in Jesus.*

The Society's Missionaries now labouring at Ningpo are the Rev. F. F. Gough, the Rev. J. Bates, the Rev. J. C. Hoare, and the Rev. R. Shann. The Native Christian Adherents number 565, and the Native Communicants 215. The baptisms during the year were—Adults, 23; Children, 26. These statistics do not include Shao-Hing or Hang-Chow.

Mr. Gough, who labours in the city of Ningpo, gives no account of the Native Christian congregation there. In the daily preaching to the heathen there has been a little more encouragement, though on one occasion the chapel-opener, a zealous Chinese Christian, was attacked and beaten by some Native literary gentlemen. Mr. Gough's daughters have a few small schools for Native girls under their superintendence.

The TRAINING COLLEGE is under the care of the Rev. J. C. Hoare. The following extracts from Mr. Hoare's account of it will be read with much interest :—

We now number twenty-nine men and boys in the college. One only was passed out at the commencement of the year, the rest either having not completed their course of study, or else being wanted in the college itself.—Of men over twenty years of age we now have five, three of them under training for the work of catechists, one of them acting as assistant with the boys, the fifth having charge of the day-school connected with the college. The three under training for catechists are employed every Sunday up country in conducting services and preaching. They return on Monday night, and spend four days in study, starting out again on the Saturday. The first class of boys are five in number. I could not wish for a better evidence of the result of a Christian training, both at home and at school, than the conduct of these lads. They are steady, quiet, well-behaved, and have given me complete satisfaction throughout the year. They have, moreover, made good progress in their studies. Some of them have shown great aptitude for mathematics, and make rapid advances in Algebra and Euclid. Greek still forms one of their subjects of study, and during this year we have been reading a Native history. Scripture and theology, I need not say, take much of their time. The plan that I have adopted for the study of Scripture has been to read and study either the first or second lessons appointed in the regular course of morning and evening prayer. In this way we have gone through the prophets this half year. Next year I hope to take the New Testament lessons. This year I have been also going through the Prayer book with the first class and the men, making them write a short commentary as we study it.—With the younger boys, Scripture, mathematics, and a little history, have taken up all the time that can be spared from the study of their own language. Some of the brightest amongst them are also making fair progress in Greek. They all show very fair ability; some of them would compare well in this respect with any English school-boys.

Apart from the regular methods of education, I have started two institutions which bid fair to be useful. The first of these is a Debating Society, in which all the students take a lively interest. One debate, on the proper relations of Christians towards the heathen processions and theatricals, showed that the students had thought well over the matter, and used their Bibles to some purpose. Most of the questions raised deal in this manner with matters of practical conduct. The second institution is a sort of general information class in which the students take the part of questioners, whilst I endeavour to answer. They are at liberty to send in questions on any topic whatsoever, and I do my best to give them answers.

There are also five Country Schools under Mr. Hoare's care, four of which are conducted by students of the Training College. Several of the boys have been baptized, and, in some cases, have been the means of bringing their parents too.

It has been stated in the extracts already given from Mr. Hoare's Annual Letter, that three of those whom he is training for the work of Catechists are employed on Sunday with a view of practising them in their future work in conducting services and preaching. Their efforts have not been unblest.—At Tsong-gyiao, one of the stations thus occupied, several have been baptized, and the services are thronged every Sunday with Christian inquirers.—Also at Pú-kèo-wóng, which is worked in a similar way, there are five or six candidates for baptism.—The plan adopted in both these places seems a very wise one. A schoolmaster is stationed at the place, to keep a school, and conduct services if necessary; while the itinerating evangelists visit it occasionally.

Miss Laurence has at length returned to England on well-deserved furlough. She left Ningpo in June, 1879.

SHAO-HING.

The Rev. J. D. Valentine was without any brother missionary at this station during 1879, though on the 23rd of January, 1880, he was joined by the Rev. J. B. Ost.

In his Annual Letter Mr. Valentine reviews the past year with some depression. No fresh inquirers had been met with; there had been some apparent declensions among the Native Christians, and no visible results were seen in the evangelistic work. One passage from Mr. Valentine's Annual Letter will, however, be read with interest:—

On Christmas Day I baptized, among others, a man of about seventy years of age. This old man is the father of my solitary Native assistant, and had been waiting for baptism for two or three years. His wife and two grandchildren were baptized some time ago. His son, the Native assistant (whom I baptized some years ago, and afterwards trained for the post he now occupies, and occupies very efficiently), is the young shoemaker, mentioned in one of my Reports, whose mother found fault with him for being so fond of reading—a thing she would not be likely to do now, for she hears him preach every Sunday afternoon in our little church, and very sound Scriptural teaching it is that he gives. His old father bears now the expressive name, “Following the Light.” Some few years ago, and at the time his son became a Christian, he was in charge of a little Buddhist temple on one of the hills near here. His son's exhortations to leave the temple and to go home and hear about the Christian religion were unheeded for some time. At last the truth of his son's remarks about idols flashed upon his mind. He saw the idol-makers construct the idols of wood and clay, and then carry them up the hill to the temple, and he thought all at once, “What my boy says is right. If these idols had any power, they wouldn't need anybody to carry them up there.” And forthwith he left the temple, returned home to where his son was then living—in a little village outside the south gate of this city—little by little took in the truth, attended church regularly—often walking ten miles on the Sunday to do so—and, as I have said, is now numbered amongst the few here who call on the name of the Lord Jesus.

HANG-CHOW.

The European Missionaries at this station are the Rev. A. Elwin and the Rev. J. H. Sedgwick. These are assisted by two catechists.

Mr. Elwin gives the following encouraging summary of the results of the last five years:—

The following table will give some idea of the way in which the work has increased. The Christians mentioned are all adult baptized Christians; I have not reckoned infants. Table 1 is copied from the Rev. G. E. Moule's Annual Report, sent home October, 1874. No. 2 is the corresponding report for this year for Hangchow only. No. 3 is the full Report this year of the Hangchow Mission, including out-stations:—

No. 1.—Missionaries, 2 ; Native Christian Teachers, 2 ; Communicants, 21 ; Native Christians, 36 ; School, 1 ; Scholars, 11 ; Native Contributions for all religious purposes, $13. Progress at Hangchow.

No. 2.—Missionaries, 2 ; Native Christian Teachers, 3 ; Communicants, 31 ; Native Christians, 70 ; Schools, 2 ; Scholars, 23 ; Seminarists, 2.

No. 3.—Missionaries, 2 ; Native Christian Teachers, 8 ; Communicants, 118 ; Native Christians, 187 ; Schools, 4 ; Scholars, 35 ; Voluntary Helpers, 6 ; Out-stations, with regular services, 11 ; Seminarists, 8 ; Native Contributions for all religious purposes, $67 : 64.

It will be seen from the above that there has been considerable increase. This, however, has been in the out-stations.

The city of Hangchow has not made the progress that could be wished. In the Hangchow Mission, in the first ten years of its existence, three persons on an average were baptized each year. The following five years the average number was thirty-four. During the past year a Native Church Committee has been elected, with representatives from Hang-chow and the out-stations. A Native Church Fund has also been established.

The most interesting feature of the Hang-chow Mission is the work at Great Valley, in the Chu-chi district. The evident indications of the putting forth there of the power of the HOLY SPIRIT and the results that have followed, will be remembered by most readers of this Report. The little flock thus newly gathered into Christ's fold have had many trials during the year just concluded. Mr. Elwin, writing under date 29th November, 1879, reported as follows:—

In October, 1877, Mr. Moule reported a "Christian element" in four or five villages. In October, 1878, he reported "Christian adherents" in fourteen or fifteen villages. Now, in November, 1879, I can speak of baptized Christians in twenty-four or twenty-five villages. Mr. Moule spoke last year of ninety-two baptized persons. I can speak to-day of eighty-six communicants and 102 adult baptized Christians.—There has been one death in the Chu-chi district. Old Lebbæus—Luke Chow's second brother—died November 20th, after a short illness. When asked by one, "What is the matter with you?" he answered, "My Heavenly Father is calling me to go to heaven." Almost the last words he spoke were, "Jesus is calling me to go home." This old man was among the first baptized at the Great Valley, the date of his baptism being October 4th, 1879. For sixty years he worshipped idols, was without God and without hope in the world. For two short years he endured the Cross here in this sinful world, now he is with that Saviour whom he loved—the first redeemed one from the Chu-chî district who has entered the Golden Gates. —I am sorry to say the Christians have had to suffer much this year, especially during the last six months. Open persecution had been tried and failed. It was therefore decided to try what more secret measures could effect. The Christians suddenly found their things stolen, their crops destroyed, the pathways leading to their fields dug up, their trees cut down. Shortly before the last time I went to the Great Valley, the heathen had said to the Christians, “If the foreigners come, we will rob; if they stay away, we will not interfere with you.” I said to Luke Chow, “Would you like me to stay away?” He answered at once, in his usual energetic manner, “What! and make the people think we are afraid of the devil?”

On the visit just referred to I was accompanied by my wife and three of our children. On arriving at the Great Valley, we found the Christians assembled from all parts to greet us. Some of the women had walked seven miles, over high mountain passes, in order to see us. How they managed it with their small feet I do not know. We took up our quarters in the church, which is an upstairs room, and is entered by a trap-door in the middle of the floor. In the morning, at 10 a.m., the Christians assembled to partake of the Lord’s Supper. There were forty-three altogether, most of whom for the first time partook of that sacred feast.

Mr. Elwin, accompanied by Mr. Sedgwick, paid another visit to the Chu-chî district in the end of February and the beginning of March, 1880. At Great Valley Stream, which they reached on Monday, the 1st of March, they heard that only two days before, one of the converts, in consequence of refusing to join in idolatrous ceremonies, had been attacked by the heathen, and dragged to a heathen temple, where they endeavoured to compel him to worship the idols. His Testament and some money were stolen from him. The fields and gardens of the Christian converts had been reduced to a sad state of desolation; and nothing had been done in the way of restoration, though the Mandarin had promised much. The Missionaries left Great Valley Stream on Tuesday, to visit several places in the neighbourhood where there were Christians. On Tuesday night the heathen cut down 300 or 400 trees belonging to Luke Chow’s brother, with whom the Missionaries had been staying. The good work, however, is still progressing in the neighbourhood. At one place, where no European had ever been before, the Missionaries found eleven applicants for baptism, some of whom had been inquirers for three years. Four of these were baptized, the rest being deferred from not having sufficient knowledge. “We have now thirty places," writes Mr. Elwin, "where God's people are to be found."

The hospital, during Dr. Galt's absence, has been used exclusively for the curing of opium-smokers. The average number of inmates has been only nine. A Native assistant ministers the medicine, while Mr. Sedgwick endeavours to point them to Him by whose grace alone they can permanently overcome their evil habits, and in whom alone they can find a certain cure for their soul's sickness. The patients usually remain in the hospital for three weeks, during which time they are expected to attend morning and evening prayer. Religious books are provided for them, and they are occasionally visited both by the Missionary and by a catechist. Six former patients, now cured, have declared themselves candidates for baptism, though only one lives near enough to Hang-chow to receive instruction from Mr. Sedgwick.

The other branches of the work comprise, in Hang-chow itself (besides the pastoral care of the Native Christians), small day and Sunday-schools, daily preaching in the preaching-room and in the book shop, and the instruction of the Seminarists or theological pupils. To these may be added the out-stations of Dan-de (or Pond-head), and Fu-yang and Li-tswen. In none of these departments of the work has anything occurred, during the year, calling for special notice.

SHANGHAE.

The Rev. Canon McClatchie is the only ordained Missionary at this station; though the Society may be said to be further represented at Shanghai by Mr. G. Lanning, whose work is referred to below. The preaching, or rather the conversations about the Gospel, in the Keang Fuh Tang (hall for discoursing about happiness), excite much more interest than in former years, though objections are freely offered. The great sympathy shown to the Chinese by Christian nations has had a great effect.

Nothing of special interest has occurred in connexion with the Shanghai boys' school, which, as before, is under the able management of Mr. G. Lanning. Forty-seven Chinese boys are thus receiving a Christian education. Some of these are the children of Native Christians.

From PEKING the Committee have decided to withdraw. Their reasons for taking this step were stated in the "Resolutions" adopted on the subject, to be—the isolated position of Peking in respect to the Society's other Mission stations in China —the impossibility of strengthening the Missionary staff at the present time, on account of the financial state of the Society—the importance of extending the Society's work from other centres in China, where the Society is labouring, as soon as funds will permit—and the presence of well-manned Missions at Peking belonging to other Protestant Societies.*

JAPAN MISSION.

Nagasâki, 1869; Osâka, 1874; Tokio, 1874; Hakodâti, 1874; Niigâta, 1876.

General.

THE Rev. H. Maundrell, of Nagasâki, makes the following remarks on the present Missionary aspect of Japan :—

Missionary aspect of Japan.

There is no opposition—at least open opposition—to missionary enterprise; and there is no doubt that a correcter knowledge of the merits of Christianity is spreading among all classes. Of this we have repeated assurances; but, nevertheless, there seems to be a deep-rooted indifference in the Japanese generally to the claims that the Christian religion has upon them, and an apparent determination not to place themselves under its obligations. I am afraid that this is owing, in no small degree, to the influence that ungodly foreigners must have upon all classes of the Japanese at the open ports. When the majority of foreigners, both European and American, apparently do not value even the mere outward observances of Christianity—one must not be surprised if the Japanese, with few exceptions, are led to regard Christianity with indifference, and to be satisfied with a godless civilization instead. One of the leading men in the present Japanese Government is said to have remarked, “If we except the missionaries, and compare the lives led generally by the foreign residents in Japan with the lives of our own people, there is no balance, in our opinion, in favour of the former."

It was expected that the whole of the New Testament would be in circulation in Japanese in April, 1880. The honour of this achievement belongs, as Mr. Piper is careful to observe, to the American Missionaries.

TOKIO.

The Revs. J. Piper and J. Williams are the Missionaries at this station.

The Native Adherents now number thirty-four, and the Communicants thirteen, the corresponding numbers for the previous year having been twenty-two and ten. The increase of the Sunday congregation has been very gratifying both to the Native Christians and to the Missionaries. There have been twelve baptisms during the year, seven of these being adults. All the converts thus admitted promise well.—The man wounded in the Satsuma rebellion, whose conversion was mentioned last year, is now usefully employed as master of a Mission day school, attended by sixteen boys and fifteen girls, in the instruction of whom Mrs. Piper and Mrs. Williams also take part.—The preaching place in the city has been very well attended, and was the means divinely used for the conversion of some of those recently baptized.—Several inquirers come regularly to read the Bible and attend the Sunday services. One of these, a soldier of considerable intelligence and some education (being able to read Chinese), is a very careful student of God's word.

Both Mr. Piper and Mr. Williams mention with much thankfulness the merciful preservation of the Mission buildings from the fire which devastated a large portion of Tokio the day after Christmas day, 1879, and which at one time seemed approaching the Mission station. Mr. Piper thinks also that the liberal contributions of the foreigners in relief of the distress thus occasioned, will have a favourable effect on Missionary work.

NAGASÂKI.

The Missionaries at this station are the Rev. H. Maundrell and the Rev. W. Andrews, the latter of whom is at present chiefly employed in learning the language.

The progress at Nagasâki has been most cheering. No fewer Progress than forty-two adults with seventeen children have been ad- at Na- mitted by baptism into the visible church during the year. gasâki. The whole number of those who have renounced idolatry and placed themselves under Christian instruction now amounts to 110; of whom 39 are Communicants. Of the adult baptisms, 17 were at Nagasâki itself and 25 at Kagoshima. No special account is given in Mr. Maundrell's Annual Letter of the circumstances of these baptisms; nor of the conduct of the Native Christians generally, except that at Nagasâki the Sunday services are attended regularly, and at Kagoshima rather less so. Mr. Maundrell visited Kagoshima three times during the year; and one of the præparandi students resided there from the beginning of May till the close of 1879, doing the work of a catechist with zeal and fidelity. A second out-station is Saga, formerly the residence of a Daimio, and thus the capital of a Japanese sub-kingdom. Three or four of the præparandi students have their home at Saga; one of them working here as catechist during the latter part of the year. The little church at Saga consists of five persons.

In the Præparandi Class, called also St. Andrew's College, twelve young men are under training for future usefulness. All these give proof both of spiritual life and of intellectual capability. The subjects taught, mostly through the medium of English, have embraced (besides Scriptural studies), Paley's Natural Theology, Robertson's Sketches of Church History during the first six centuries, Pearson on the Creed, Euclid, and English Literature. Mr. Maundrell looks forward to some four or five of their number being, ere long, admitted to the ministry.—A Girls' Training Institution has also made a very promising commencement.

OSÂKA.

The visible progress of 1878, at this station, was not continued in 1879. No fresh converts were admitted into the Church, and the number of Communicants remains at the same number as before. The Native Adherents, 35 in number (including catechumens and children) contributed for religious purposes during the year over 12*l*. They have also undertaken to make one of the preaching rooms in the city their own station.—The Osâka Theological Class contains three students.

NIIGÂTA.

At this station there has been another year of patient effort, with no incident of special interest or encouragement. There are six Native Christians, who are all Communicants. There have also been a few applicants for baptism; but Mr. Fyson has not felt justified in admitting any of them to that sacrament.

HAKODÂTI.

At Hakodâti, as at Osâka, there has been a disappointing intermission in the visible progress by which some former years were characterized. The Committee do not for one moment attribute this at either place to any relaxation of zeal or effort on the part of the labourers. Sometimes the real progress is equally great when it is unseen. There were no adult baptisms during the year. The Native Christian Adherents are now 12 in number as compared with 15 for the previous year. The number of Communicants is unaltered—eight. The services in the church have been well attended. A large number of the better classes—merchants, Government officers, and schoolmasters—are often present. They listen with quietness, solemnity, and apparently earnest attention to sermons over an hour in length. Mr. Dening's two Native helpers give him much satisfaction. In the month of August they were both away on evangelistic tours; the whole expense of their journey being borne by the Native Christians. Mr. Dening has been recently asked to be one of the fortnightly speakers at the (Native) Hakodâti Literary Society. He was cautioned not to introduce the subject of Christianity in his first address, though he might do so afterwards. He accepted the invitation; but it was while he was delivering his first lecture that the terrible fire broke out which destroyed a large part of the town, including Mr. Dening's own residence. Mr. Dening records, also, with much pleasure the happy intercourse he enjoyed in the summer "with a goodly number of the Japanese Christian students of the Satsuporo Agricultural College."

Mr. J. Batchelor, a European lay agent, who has been studying and working with Mr. Dening, is now able to preach in Japanese, and has also begun to learn the Aino language, having a great desire to labour among that people.*

NEW ZEALAND MISSION.

European Missionaries first arrived in New South Wales, 1810; proceeded to New Zealand, 1814; Mission confined to the Northern Island.

DIVISION OF THE MISSION.

- I. Northern Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Auckland.
- II. Eastern Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Waiapu.
- III. Western Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Wellington.

I. Northern Division.

1. Bay of Islands (Paihia and Waimate), commenced 1814; 2. Auckland (Hauraki), 1833; 3. Kaitia, 1834; 4. Waikato, 1840; 5. Kaipara, 1877.

Archdeacon Clarke's Annual Letter appears to embrace the whole of the Society's work in the districts north of Auckland (KAITIA, WAIMATE, PAIHIA, and KAIPARA), including also such Maori work as the Society has in the immediate neighbourhood of Auckland.

The Archdeacon writes :—

Character of Maori Christians in the extreme north of New Zealand.

The work has now become strictly pastoral. We have here no professed heathen, nor any followers of those newly formed religions which are to be found south of Auckland. The whole of the Natives of this district may be regarded as professedly Christian; and their manner of life, I venture to say, will compare favourably with the same number of any Christian, so-called, community in the world. Take, for instance, the practice of family prayer. I do not suppose you could go to any Maori hut where morning and evening prayer were not the rule. It has also become a habit with all—old and young—to attend the Sunday services, and I know of none who systematically absent themselves. I should be sorry, however, to give a false impression. There are some, indeed, who give satisfactory proof that they are being led by the Spirit of God—that there is a real heart-work begun in them; there are more who are not yet a cause for joy; and there are still others who occasion much grief. At the same time we can thank God for some who not long ago, though nominally Christian, walked in darkness, who are now rejoicing in the light.

There is less intemperance than ever; in fact, I have not seen a drunken Maori during the year. Unfortunately, of late years, these people are acquiring a taste for horse-racing, and there is scarcely a country race got up by the settlers of which one or more Maories are not members of the race committee. They naturally regard them as civilized institutions, and as signs of advancement. It is useless to dissuade them, for they point to English gentlemen, leading members of the community, who promote them.

The Maori population of this district amounts to about 6000 or 7000. Of these, the number tabulated as Native Christians connected with the Society, is 4870. The Communicants number 936. Thirty-one adults have been baptized during the year. Particulars are not given respecting these ; but they are probably persons who were born in the troublous times of 1844 and the three or four following years, and who, from various causes, had not subsequently been received into the visible Church. Three new churches have been built by and for the Maories during the year. These buildings are in all respects equal to the country churches of the European colonists, and have cost from 200*l.* to 450*l.* each. They will in every case accommodate the whole of the population of the settlements in which they stand—from eighty to 200 respectively. Endowments for the maintenance of Native pastors, and funds for building new churches, are still in progress, so that ere long every Maori settlement of any importance will have its church, and will have also a minister, either resident, or visiting it periodically.

As regards the Native clergy, Archdeacon Clarke writes :—

The Native clergy are, on the whole, doing their work satisfactorily, and increasingly acquiring the respect of both races. Under God, the changed aspect of affairs is due to their influence and zealous labours. One dear old man, Rev. Piripi Patiki, of Hokianga, is getting blind, and is able to do little more than preaching in conducting the services. His memory is well stored with Scripture truth, and he preaches with more unction than ever. It is wonderful to hear him referring to chapter and verse, and quoting passages with scarcely a verbal inaccuracy. He speaks from heart to heart. It is as if, though the organs of external sight have failed, the eyes of his understanding are opened and quickened by the Spirit to discern the wonderful things of hidden truth.

The Rev. Wm. Pomare, of Mahurangi, has been appointed by the Bishop of Auckland to be one of his chaplains.—On Sunday, 18th January, 1880, at St. John's Church, Waimate, Bay of Islands, a Maori of the Rarawa tribe in the extreme north of the island, was added to the staff of the Native clergy of the diocese of Auckland, bringing up the whole number to fourteen. the Ahipara district. In his boyhood he was a pupil at the Mission School at Waimate. In 1877 he came to Auckland to be prepared for the ministry, and received instruction there from Mr. (now Bishop) Stuart.—Louis King, a Native Christian from the Waimate archdeaconry, and a promising theological student at St. Stephen's, Auckland, has, in the inscrutable providence of God, been removed by death. When his sickness came on (consumption) he returned to his own village, Ahipara, where, as long as he had strength, he worked faithfully as a Lay-helper. "He was a shining Christian," remarks Mr. Matthews, "and thoroughly a gentleman in manners." He could read and speak English well. "Let us have you to preach to us to-day," the Ahipara congregation would often say to him, "we want something fresh." He passed away in peace and joy, giving a good testimony to the last.

Zealand
Native
Council.

The NATIVE CHURCH BOARD of the Waimate Archdeaconry met at Oheawai, six miles from Waimate, on the 14th January, 1880. The Bishop, Archdeacon Clarke, the Rev. J. Matthews, and six Native clergy were present, with fifteen Lay representatives. The Bishop congratulated the Board on the steady increase in the income of the Native Pastorate Fund. He also referred with great thankfulness to the voluntary efforts of the Native Readers. "Some excellent speeches were made," observes the Auckland Church Gazette, "practical and to the point, by Lay representatives as well as by clergy, and from the beginning to the end of the meeting, with much plain speaking, there was no instance of breach of charity or want of courtesy."

The WAIKATO district, which includes the "King Country" (the residence of the Maori "king" and his adherents), and which extends 120 miles and more up the Waikato valley, is, as before, under the care of the Rev. B. Y. Ashwell and the Rev. Heta Tarawhiti. The latter, supported by the advice and prayers of his now aged European brother (or, as he regards him, father in Christ), has planted himself at the very headquarters of Hauhausism, and is filled with thankfulness at the reception that he has met with. Thirty Hau-haus regularly assemble with him for prayer and reading the Word of God. "My hopes have been exceeded," writes Mr. Ashwell; "there are no impossibilities with our gracious God."

TAUPO is reported of under the Eastern Division. Though the old station Pukāwa is in the Auckland diocese, the eastern shores of the lake are in the diocese of Waiapu ; and the access to the Taupo district is at present from the Waiapu side.

II. Eastern Division.

1. Tauranga, 1835 ; 2. Rotorua and Maketu, 1835 ; 3. Turanga, or Gisborne (now including Wairoa), 1840 ; 4. Waiapu (East Cape), 1842 ; 5. Napier (Te Aute or Mohaka), 1844 ; 6. Taupo, 1855.

It will be remembered that the Bishop of Waiapu, Dr. Stuart, was formerly the Society's Secretary in North India. His past experience has enabled him, more quickly than would be the case with an ordinary stranger, to perceive the difficulties and weak points of the Mission and the Native Church. Bishop Stuart's view, however, of the Maori work in his diocese is, on the whole, favourable and hopeful ; though the Committee fear that he has been suffering physically from toilsome journeys and over-exertion of other kinds.

His able coadjutor, Archdeacon L. Williams, speaks strongly of the need of a suitable training institution for Native candidates for the ministry. The Committee do not feel able to add to the Missionary staff in New Zealand ; and, on the other hand, it would be difficult to divert to such work any of the Missionaries already in the field, except by throwing on Native agency work now done by Europeans. The last step will probably have to be adopted, although it is clear that the undesirableness of doing so is increased by the very fact just referred to—the inadequacy of the instruction and training that the Native clergy have received. There are superior schools at Te Aute and other places, young men trained at which, if spiritually qualified, might speedily acquire the requisite theological knowledge ; but none of these appear as yet to have been moved by the HOLY GHOST thus to consecrate themselves to the Lord's work. Earnest prayer and waiting upon God for the outpouring of His Spirit, would seem to be especially needed at this time on the part of the Maori Christians and their Missionary friends. It should be added, however, that a Divinity Class has been carried on at Gisborne (Turanga) by the Archdeacon. Some of its members are Native pastors. Three pastors are spoken of as being "in residence" for the purpose ; while other pastors and lay readers of the neighbourhood have shared in the benefits of the homiletic lessons given. The Bishop of Waiapu expresses himself as much cheered by the success of this scheme. He hopes that younger and better educated

In the ROTORUA district the Rev. S. M. Spencer reports continued progress in the return of the Maories to Christian religious observances.

In the OPOTIKI district there are also signs of a change for the better. Hauhauism, there, was so extreme and violent as to have caused a reaction. This reaction indeed has extended along the coast from Opotiki to Hicks Bay, and thence as far south as Napier.

In the neighbourhood of TAURANGA, on the other hand, Mr. Maunsell's hopes are at present but faint, so strong is the current of opposing systems. Archdeacon Brown, however, now the oldest Missionary in the Society's employment, remarks, "We fight on, not as uncertainly," and expects victory still, encouraging himself in this anticipation by the gratifying marks of progress in other parts of the New Zealand Mission.

TAUPO was visited by the Bishop of Waiapu, and Archdeacon W. L. Williams, in May, 1879, Mr. Hill being also one of the party. The population is very sparse. The number given in the Government census was 850; but the Archdeacon thinks this is an excessive estimate. The most populous place is Tokamaru, near the south end of the lake, not far from the late Mr. Grace's old station, Pukâwa. Many of the people there profess to regard the Waikato king as their God, and speak very bitterly against Christianity. The rest, with the exception of a small party on the east shore of the lake, who are apparently going on well under the leadership of their Native teacher, seem to be indifferent, though they received the Bishop and Archdeacon in a friendly spirit, and seemed grateful for the visit.

"Our progress here," writes Archdeacon W. L. Williams, from TURANGA (GISBORNE) "is sufficiently slow, but it is gratifying to be able to report some little progress, though it be but slow." Sunday schools are gradually increasing; and there is a growing sense of responsibility in this matter among the adult members of the Maori community.

TE AUTE, which is in the neighbourhood of Napier, may be regarded as the head-quarters of the Society's honorary missionary, the Rev. Samuel Williams, to the good effects of whose work and great personal influence, Bishop Stuart bears testimony. Early in the present year (1880), the Bishop, who resides at Napier, conducted episcopal and missionary tours, toilsome land journeys, through the country intervening between Napier and Poverty Bay. In one of these journeys, on the 13th February, 1880, the Bishop consecrated a neat wooden church at Hatipe, four miles from Wairoa, built entirely at the expense of the Maories and by Maori carpenters. Five hundred Maories were present. The next day a public feast was given by the Maories, when Mr. Tamihana, the Native clergyman of the district, deposited before the Bishop a bag containing 70*l.*, to be spent in building other churches in the diocese. On this occasion, an adherent of Te-Kâtism (a new Maori heresy) made a speech in defence of his own tenets. He was, however, vigorously and successfully replied to both by Mr. Tamihana, and by a Maori Member of Parliament who was present.

The NATIVE CHURCH BOARD, which held its last meeting at Gisborne, on the 3rd and 4th November, 1879, is manifesting an increased interest in matters connected with the work of the Church. On the occasion referred to seven clergy and seven laymen were present, under the superintendency of Bishop Stuart. The deplorable condition of the northern part of the Waipatu diocese was noticed ; and a resolution was passed recognizing, in a very hearty manner, the responsibility of using every effort for the recovery of those who had fallen away.

III. Western Division.

First occupied by Bishop Hadfield in 1839. 1. Wanganui, 1840 ; 2. Otaki, 1842 ; 3. Wairarapa, re-occupied, 1877.

WANGANUI has now for some time been without a European Missionary. Were the Society's resources larger, it might be difficult to resist the claim that a Missionary should be placed there at the Society's expense. With the pressing demands, however, from other parts of the heathen world, and bearing in mind that in New Zealand itself the professed Native Christians (not to speak of the European settlers) exceed in number those that have never joined, or have apostatized from, the Christian Church, the Committee feel that they cannot contemplate any increase in the number of European missionaries now in the colony, and must rather expect that such vacancies as may arise in the existing staff will be filled either by Native labourers, or by Europeans supported from local resources. At present the work in the northern part of the diocese, whether among those Maories that still attach themselves to the Church, or among those that are apostate or indifferent, is carried on by a single Native minister still in deacon's orders, aided only by the occasional presence of the Bishop and the kind advice and support of a neighbouring English clergyman, the Rev. T. L. Tudor. Bishop Hadfield, who is an old missionary, and therefore a warm-hearted friend of the Natives, as well as a thorough Maori scholar, speaks of having had several interesting meetings with the Maori Christians of these parts; though he left them with a heavy heart, feeling how little could be done for them with the means at present at his disposal.

"Nothing of a very striking character," observes the Rev. J. McWilliam, "has taken place" in OTAKI. But Mr. McWilliam considers it matter for thankfulness that "we have been enabled to hold our own," when "the many disturbing and distracting influences" of the year are borne in mind. Mr. McWilliam refers mainly to the great efforts made by Te Whiti and his adherents to enlist the sympathies of the Otaki natives in his hostilities against the Government. These efforts have failed; and they would not have failed, Mr. McWilliam believes, but for the practical power in many hearts of the faith of the Gospel. Mr. McWilliam bears testimony also to the zeal, energy, and fidelity of the two Native deacons working with him.

Special efforts have recently been made to raise an endowment fund for the Native clergy of the diocese. The Rev. S. Williams, the Society's honorary missionary at Te-Aute, in the diocese of Waiapu, made the most generous offer to give 500*l.* for this purpose, if the Natives would raise an equivalent. Several Maories have given almost beyond their means, while some of the more wealthy among them have hitherto disappointed expectation. This effort is referred to in the following extract from the Wellington Church Chronicle, which is interesting in other respects also:—

ing meeting of Native
Christians
at Otaki.

"A meeting of natives was held at Otaki on the 9th February, 1880 (the fortieth day of the year), to commemorate the establishment of the mission on this coast forty years ago. The clergy present were, besides his Lordship the Bishop, the Rev. James M'William, of Otaki; the Rev. Rawiri Te Wanui, of Otaki; the Rev. H. Te Herekahu, of Manawatu; the Rev. Pineaha Te Mahauariki, of WAIRAPARA; the Rev. Aroha Te Hana, of Wanganui; the Rev. S. Williams, of Napier; and the Rev. R. Burrows, of Auckland, the Secretary of the Church Missionary Society. There were about 500 natives present. Most of the visitors arrived at Otaki on Saturday, the 7th; and consequently there were large congregations at both services on Sunday. At morning service the Bishop preached a most eloquent, convincing, and impressive sermon on the stability of the Word of God. There were over 100 Communicants. The Rev. S. Williams preached in the evening. The ceremony on the 9th began with morning service. The Rev. S. Williams again preached in a most warm and spirited manner, and was listened to with rapt attention and interest. At the conclusion of the service the whole company marched to where a wooden obelisk had been erected to commemorate the occasion. Here, after singing and prayers, leading chiefs gave addresses on the object of the meeting, after which the sums that had been collected were handed to the Rev. J. M'William. The amount was found to be 620*l.* 10*s.* 6*d.*, only 12*l.* of which had been given by Europeans. A number of places have not yet contributed, and of course the fund is still open."*

MANITOBA.

THE Rev. R. Young, Joint-Secretary of the Southern Division with the Ven. Archdeacon Cowley, is also minister of St. Andrew's. The members of St. Andrew's congregation are, for the most part, persons of mixed descent, and consequently, as a matter of course, all Christians by profession, though originally gathered together by the Society's missionaries. It is therefore on every account one of those congregations that should largely meet their own pastoral expenses. On this subject Mr. Young writes:—

We have to contend with the effect of many years of dependence upon extraneous support, and the false notions it has implanted. The whole work is most uphill; but I encourage the collectors in their effort, and assure them that, if they will only do their duty, success will in time crown their efforts.

Mr. Young is not without encouragement in other respects. He adds:—

I would also desire to put on record the great benefit which the children of the central St. Andrew's school district are receiving under the able management of Mr. S. E. Smalley, the master of the day school. He is a son of the Rev. C. Smalley (a constant attendant at the Society's Committee in London). He exercises a firm and yet kind discipline, and his teaching is thorough and painstaking. Thus carried on, the day-school proves a most valuable ally of our Sunday-school work.—Our temperance efforts are, I trust, promoting a more healthy tone throughout the parish.

The expenses of ST. CLEMENT'S MAPLETON are no longer borne by the Society. Its clergyman is the Rev. A. E. Cowley, son of Archdeacon Cowley.

At the INDIAN SETTLEMENT (ST. PETER'S), Archdeacon Cowley, who is assisted by a Native clergyman, the Rev. G. Cook, maintains with much solicitude his patient conflict against the evils and dangers which accrue to the Indian Christian from the altered circumstances attendant on white immigration. The statistical returns of St. Peter's give 719 Native Christian Adherents, and 207 Communicants. "The present generation," writes Archdeacon Cowley, "are mostly those who are professed Christians by descent, birth, and education. Still, I trust we have a large number who really love and serve God." The services are very well attended.

SCANTERBURY is in charge of a lay agent, Mr. William Dennett. The Christian population is small, amounting to about seventy persons; nor are there many heathen in the neighbourhood. Settlers of mixed European and Indian descent, chiefly from St. Andrew's parish, in Winnipeg, are taking up land in the neighbourhood. Mr. Dennett's persevering and prayerful labours are much prized by his flock.

FORT ALEXANDER.

LANSDOWNE is under the charge of the Rev. Patrick Bruce. The Native Christians number 240, of whom forty are Communicants. Archdeacon Cowley writes:—

The chief danger to which the work here is exposed is from the Roman Catholics, who have a station some three or four miles down the river, occupied by a very energetic, persevering and painstaking priest. Intermarriage with Roman Catholics is often a source of evil. But for this, I should say the Society's work at Lansdowne prospers, and bids fair to be permanent.—Further up the river, and beyond the Indian reserve, immigrants are taking up lands and settling upon them. At the "Pine Falls," a company have erected a lumber mill. The gentlemen at the head of the operations are very well disposed towards the Indians, and thoroughly impressed with a conviction of the great success and utility of the Society's efforts for their Christianization and civilization. Recently, a party of operatives, not being engaged on Sunday, strolled to visit an encampment of Indians in their neighbourhood. As they neared the tents a voice was heard, and, though they understood not the language, yet the frequent repetition of the name Jesus convinced them that the Indians were engaged in the worship of Almighty God. Conscience immediately prompted a comparison, and those men turned away ashamed and reproved. Again, one of our Christian Indians, who had cultivated largely, had barley to sell, and was desirous to part with it. Two individuals went to his house on a Sunday to purchase the barley for their horses. Having made known their business, they were reminded that the day was the Lord's Day, and politely invited to come on the morrow, when he would sell them the barley. They pressed for immediate action, urging that they were out of grain for their horses, and that, if he would let them have the barley to-day, the account could be settled to-morrow. The Indian laid his hand upon the Bible and said, "This Book forbids it; I cannot do it." "What could I say?" observed one of them, who at once turned away. The other still urged his request, but he also had to wait for the morrow.

forty Native Christians has, however, been gathered together, of whom four adults and nine children were baptized during 1879. It is not unimportant, also, that the heathen Indians of the neighbourhood have been led to settle down and cultivate the land. Almost every family in the Rainy River, and about the Rainy Lake, has now adopted the agricultural life. Nearly all have neat, warm houses, some of them fairly well furnished, a great contrast to the state of things a year or two ago. That many still cling to their former superstitions is probably owing, at least in great measure, to the opposition of those to whom these superstitions have been a means of livelihood. The veneration entertained even by heathen Indians for the Bible is very remarkable, and a hopeful sign. There is no need to ask them whether they believe the Great Book to be the Word of God. Nothing astonishes them more than to know that some white people do not receive it.—On hearing of the Society's financial difficulties, Mr. Phair raised in its aid, from local friends, including a large and generous gift from himself, a sum of not less than 83*l*.

SWAN RIVER DISTRICT.

At FAIRFORD, the Rev. G. Bruce reports temporal and spiritual progress. It appears from his statistical returns that fifteen adults were baptized during the year; but no particulars are given respecting their conversion. There are fifty-five Communicants. The Indians at Fairford, who are Sotos, show great respect for the Lord's Day, and look forward to it with evident delight. The majority can now read the Word of Life for themselves, in the Syllabic character. They take great interest in studying the Scriptures, though sometimes, Mr. Bruce thinks, too much in a spirit of controversy, of which he says they are "passionately fond." There is now not one family at Fairford living in a wigwam. All are carefully sheltered in their neat little log-houses. Mr. Bruce adds:—

Opposition

Christians to the superstitious practices of their
chiefs.

Heathenism is on the decline; though I must say that last summer the head-men of the "conjuring tent" made vigorous efforts to induce not only their own, but also the praying people to assist in their rites of superstition. But, so far as I could ascertain, the Christian people stood firm. The heathen chief, who acts as head in the conjuring tent, had the Union Jack floating in the air, fixed over his big tent, on the day when their ceremonies were to commence. David (his spokesman), who is a praying man, took down the flag, and told the chief that their "great praying mother" (the Queen) was a praying lady, and he (David) reverenced her flag, and could not allow to see it dishonoured by being connected with such superstitious performances. It has been years since the last conjuring tent was erected at the place; and I doubt if there would have been one if it was not for other tribes besides those from the district, who arranged to have this place as their meeting-ground.

The Rev. J. Reader during 1879 laboured at TOUCHWOOD HILLS. At the close of that year the registered Native Christian Adherents numbered 166, and the Communicants 27. Many heathen Indians are still in the neighbourhood. The Missionary believes that not a few of these believe the Gospel, though deterred by the fear of man from making an open confession. Under date 26th February, 1880, a few weeks after sending in his report, Mr. Reader writes:—

For some time, Brother Settee (a Native helper), and I, have met in the chapel early in the morning, to read the word and pray to be filled with the Holy Spirit. The simple preaching of Jesus is beginning to be attended with manifest blessings. The Lord be praised! The number of Communicants is increasing. The signs which appeared when I sent the Report are now facts. The “drops” are really falling, and only prove that a shower is not far distant, if we only believe. The Word of God has cut to the heart, and the still small voice of the Spirit has moved strong men to tears. Already four (three men and one woman) have given themselves to Christ, and rejoice in a crucified Saviour.

Western Division.

Stanley, 1850; Asisipi, 1875; Battleford (Carlton), 1876; Prince Albert's Settlement, 1880.

THIS Division of the N. W. America Mission covers the same area as the diocese of Saskatchewan.

The almost complete disappearance of the buffalo this winter is compelling the Indians of these parts to settle down to agriculture, and is thus affording increased opportunities for Missionary work among them. Another still more evidently advantageous circumstance is the absence of strong drink, which is now prohibited by law throughout the North-West territories.

The warm friendship and support of the Bishop is also a great help to the Mission. The Bishop's own place of residence, PRINCE ALBERT'S SETTLEMENT, may now be regarded as one of the Society's stations. It is the locality of EMMANUEL COLLEGE, which serves as the TRAINING INSTITUTION for the Society's Saskatchewan Mission; and it is also the abode and head-quarters of the Rev. J. A. Mackay, the Society's Saskatchewan Secretary.

At the TRAINING INSTITUTION there were, at the commencement of this year, eight students receiving instruction in Cree and English. The Holy Scriptures, Paley's Evidences, with exercises in Cree and English composition, and in translations from one language into the other, were some of the subjects of study. One of the late students of the College, Mr. John Sinclair, who has been lately labouring at Stanley, was admitted to deacon's orders on 1st February, 1880.

Besides helping in the College, Mr. Mackay has charge of a Mission at an Indian settlement on a reserve on the South branch of the Saskatchewan, about fifteen or twenty miles from Prince Albert's. The population at this South branch settlement is composed of Indians from various parts of the country, the largest proportion being from St. Peter's Indian Settlement, Red River. (The immigrants from St. Peter's are, it need scarcely be said, professing Christians.) The Reserve comprises forty square miles of excellent farming land. There seems to be good prospect that the settlers, all Indians of course, will form a prosperous community.

Nepowewin, which is a day's journey from the South Branch Reserve, may, for the present, be regarded as an out-station from Prince Albert's, though it is in contemplation to locate there the Rev. J. Settee. The Communicants at Nepowewin number 32; and a school has been opened, one of the Christian Indians of the place being appointed teacher.

Kindness of Lieut-Governor
Laird.

BATTLEFORD, the seat of Government, has been one of the Society's stations for more than two years. Its Missionary, the Rev. T. A. Clarke, records, with much gratitude, the extreme kindness of Mr. Laird, the Lieutenant-Governor, whose guest Mr. Clarke was during the whole of the winter months. Nearly all the Indians whom Mr. Clarke has met with, are willing to receive Christian instruction. Not only are the Cree services at Battleford itself well attended; but much encouragement has been met with at two Indian Reserves in the neighbourhood. In both of these settlements Christian Indians are found. These are mostly from St. Peter's, Red River; and some of them exert themselves successfully for the evangelization of their heathen neighbours. At one of these Reserves (Mikisiwuchee) fourteen persons, six adults and eight children, were baptized between Christmas and April; and upwards of seventy Indians assembled at the Sunday service when Mr. Clarke visited the place. At the other Reserve, the chief is exceedingly friendly to the mission, though he does not seem as yet to have asked for baptism.

The Native Adherents connected with ASISIPI number 217, of whom 22 are Communicants. Eight adults were baptized during the year. The year 1879 was one of great hardships, owing to the scarcity of the fur-bearing animals. Much wheat was sown in the spring, and an abundant harvest was vouchsafed; but even then the Indians suffered much from sickness, not being accustomed to a purely farinaceous diet. Increased and more varied cultivation of the land, which they are now adopting, will doubtless remedy this evil. Meanwhile their constant attendance at church, and their cheerfulness under all their difficulties, prove to Mr. Hines that "they are seeking after the peace which comes from God." The heathen Indians of the neighbourhood have begun to observe the Sabbath and to abandon polygamy.

The work at STANLEY was, during the year 1879, under the care of the Rev. S. Trivett, who has recently been bereaved of his beloved partner. Mrs. Trivett had begun to make herself very useful; but the Committee, as Mr. Trivett himself, believe in the Wisdom and Love that ordered her removal. The Indians show an earnest desire to be present at the house of prayer. During the winter months some of them came in on Saturday evening for the Sunday services from a distance of ten or twelve miles. The largest number of Communicants was on the Sunday after Mrs. Trivett's death, 21st September, 1879, when 99 commemorated the Saviour's dying love at the holy table. In the course of the year the foundation of the church gave way; but the necessary repairs were effected by the voluntary labour of the Indians.—There is an out-station at a place called Pelican Narrows. The Romanists have a Mission there; but the Protestant Indians connected with it stand firm. They number altogether about 100. Some of them reside at Nelson River.—Mr. Trivett has probably by this time been rejoined by Mr. Sinclair, who was to proceed to Stanley after having been ordained deacon in February, 1880, and priest in the following month.

Northern Division.

Fort Simpson, 1858; Fort Chipewyan, 1867; Fort MacPherson (Tukuth Mission), 1874; Fort Vermillion, 1876.

THIS division is the same (geographically) as the diocese of Athabasca. The zealous, energetic, and laborious Bishop, in his annual circular, issued early in the present year (1880), estimates the population of his diocese at about 10,000, while its length and breadth about equal the distance from London to Constantinople. The only Protestant missionaries labouring in the diocese are those of the Church Missionary Society. The Indians have almost all attached themselves either to the Church Missionary Society, or to the Romish Mission. The Eskimos are still heathen, and still uncared for.

The Bishop has been much cheered by the arrival of the Rev. V. C. Sim and Mr. W. Spendlove from England, of Mr. Lawrence (a diocesan schoolmaster) from Canada, and of Mr. George Garrioch (an agriculturist and industrial Mission agent), from Manitoba. Mr. Sim joins the TUKUTH MISSION. Mr. Spendlove was to be stationed at FORT SIMPSON; Mr. Lawrence with the Rev. A. Garrioch, on the Lower Peace River; and Mr. G. Garrioch on the Upper Peace River.

TUKUTH MISSION.

Archdeacon McDonald was single-handed throughout the year 1879. The unpaid Christian leaders give help, for which the Archdeacon is very thankful. They require, however, to be further instructed, and show that they feel this need by gladly availing themselves of any opportunity for supplying it. In the spring of 1878 one of these men came to the missionary for this purpose, from a distance of about 300 miles, and stayed with him for a month. The Archdeacon is anxious to establish a school for training Native teachers. The need of help was the more felt, because a Roman Catholic Bishop, from British Columbia, is endeavouring to establish a Mission on the Youcon. The baptized Indians connected with the Society in this district amount to 400.

In reviewing the history of the Mission for 1878, the Archdeacon's Annual Letter, dated 6th February, 1879, speaks of the Indians as continuing to evince the same warm interest in the Word of Truth by which they have always been characterized. Good accounts had been received of the activity and diligence of the Indian Christian leaders connected with Rampart House and La Pierre's House. No intelligence had been received respecting the more distant tribes. The Archdeacon's solitary position, together with a prevailing scarcity of provisions, greatly impeded the itinerations necessary to reach the different parts of the field. Only one missionary journey was performed, in which Rampart House was the farthest point reached, La Pierre's House being visited on the way.

The Tukuth Indians have now the Gospels in their own languages. Most of the Christian leaders have learnt to read, and therefore no longer depend, as before, on memory alone. The Native Christian Adherents number 1450. No adults have been baptized during the year. There have been twenty-eight infant baptisms, and four deaths.

Nothing of special interest is reported from the other stations of the Northern Division.

Moose Factory, 1851; York, 1854.

In the diocese of Moosonee, which is co-extensive with this division of the Mission, the work among the Indians is gradually assuming a pastoral character, and though the population, scattered over the many thousand square miles of its immense area, is not more numerous than may be found in as many square yards in some of the crowded parishes of England, arrangements are carefully made, that so far as possible, not one may be altogether uncared for. Some of the Eskimo tribes, however, especially those on the western side of Hudson's Bay, are still unevangelized. Bishop Horden's labours have been as unwearied and zealous as usual.

MOOSE FORT, besides being the head-quarters of the Bishop, has its own resident Missionary, the Rev. J. H. Keen. Nothing of special interest has occurred during the year.

No Report has been received of, or from, MATAWAKUMME.

In connexion with ALBANY about 500 Indians may be regarded as having placed themselves under Christian instruction, though of these only 54 are at present Communicants. Five adult converts received baptism during the year. The Missionary is a country-born clergyman, the Rev. T. Vincent. At the date of Mr. Vincent's Annual Letter (19th January, 1880), the Indians at Albany itself were suffering from a failure in their sources of obtaining food. The Hudson's Bay Company's officer, and the Missionary, were giving what help they could; and it was hoped that the scarcity had not extended inland. In things spiritual, Mr. Vincent believes that the work has been going on, and that souls have been brought into closer communion with Christ.—Ten days in August, 1879, were spent by Mr. Vincent at the out-station of Osnaburgh, the journey thither occupying twenty-four days. While there Mr. Vincent received more applications for books than he was able to supply, and found very many as willing to learn the truth as he was to teach it. "We sat together," he writes, "for hours at a time conversing freely on spiritual subjects, singing our beautiful hymns, and repeating together the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments."

The Rev. E. J. Peck is stationed at LITTLE WHALE RIVER, on the eastern shore of Hudson's Bay, where he labours both among Eskimos and among Cree-speaking Indians.

Eskimos.

The Eskimo work has been most encouraging. Three Eskimo Christians are now usefully employed as teachers. These are the fruit of Bishop Horden's labours, by whom they were baptized. Eight adult converts have been recently baptized by Mr. Peck; and there are several candidates for baptism. The heathen Eskimo show an intense desire for Christian instruction; and not a few of them are losing all faith in their priests or conjurors. Mr. Peck adds:—

I must not forget to mention the friendly way in which I have been received by all the Eskimos. When I entered their snow-houses some would say, "Thou art very good, for thou art come to save us." Others, "This is our father." Another replied, with marked sincerity (in answer to the question, "Where did he come from?") "He has fallen down from heaven for the Eskimos, for their sakes." When I made myself at home in my cold quarters, they generally clustered around me to hear what I was going to say, and all listened with the greatest attention.

I must again return many thanks for the books sent last year. Since my people have been able to read them I have marked their spiritual state; and in some cases I have good hope that God's Spirit has applied the Word to their souls, for there is a marked difference for good in their lives. I have been able to make some additions to the books. We have now a goodly portion of God's Word, twenty-eight hymns, simple prayers for each day in the week, portions of Litany, Bishop Horden's translation of Watts's Catechism, &c. I have received much help from Eskimo books, kindly forwarded by Mr. Shawe, secretary of Moravian Missions, although the prayers and some few hymns are my own composition. I have also been busy lately enlarging the grammar which Bishop Horden composed during my stay at Moose.

The Indians under Mr. Peck's charge, resort, at various seasons of the year, to the following centres:—Fort George, Great Whale River, and LITTLE WHALE RIVER. This branch of his work is also hopeful on the whole, though sorcery and polygamy are by no means extinct. The two chief points of encouragement noticed by Mr. Peck are (1) "The readiness shown by the people to hear of Jesus;" and (2) "The noble helpers whom God has given to carry on the work." One of these helpers is a Christian Indian, the other is a servant of the Hudson's Bay Company.

YORK has for its Missionary the Rev. G. S. Winter, who is at present engaged in learning the language. It was visited by the Bishop on the 19th Sept., 1879, just nineteen days after Archdeacon Kirkby had left. Bishop Horden, while much regretting having thus missed the Archdeacon, was filled with thankfulness at what he saw of the fruits of his work. After remarking of the York Indians that he had never seen any more reverential in their demeanour in the house of God, more hearty in their responses and singing, and more intelligent in understanding a sermon, the Bishop adds: "They are not so well off as they once were, or as the Indians of the south now are; and I am afraid hard times are in store for them. But the poverty of to-day is not like the poverty of long ago. Without the Gospel, in their richest days, they were poor; with the Gospel, in their poorest days, they will be rich."

York Indians.

The last letter from the Bishop of Moosonee left him at Churchill, the northernmost outpost of the Society, and of the Hudson's Bay Company, in Bishop Horden's diocese. This is situated in Chipewyan territory as far as the Indians are concerned; and it is also the head-quarters for the Eskimos of those parts. Neither Indians nor Eskimos had assembled at the station when the Bishop wrote.

NORTH PACIFIC MISSION.

Metlakahtla, 1856; Kincolith, 1858; Fort Rupert, 1874; Queen Charlotte's Island, 1870; Ankihtlast, 1879.

DR. RIDLEY, formerly one of the Society's Missionaries in the Panjâb, was consecrated Bishop of North Caledonia on Friday, the 25th July, 1879. It must not be thought that Bishop Ridley has been appointed to an easy post, or to a post requiring only bodily exertion. Wherever great victories have been achieved by the Gospel, the Adversary will raise up difficulties and perplexities. Let thanksgiving in behalf of Metlakahtla be accompanied with much fervent prayer.

METLAKAHTLA.

Mr. Duncan carried on his usual labours from the beginning of 1879, until August in the same year, when failure of health compelled him to seek rest. He then accompanied Admiral Prevost to Fort Simpson, remaining there till Christmas, with the exception of about three weeks, when he joined Bishop Ridley and the Admiral in a visit to Metlakahtla. While Mr. Duncan was thus absent or laid aside, the work was conducted by the Rev. W. H. Collison. Between the 1st April, 1879, and the 10th March, 1880 (this latter date being that of Mr. Collison's Annual Letter), 72 adults and 63 children were baptized. These had passed a long probation, some for not less than three years; and all were carefully examined. The greater number of them were baptized by Bishop Ridley himself on January 25th and February 1st, 1880.

Admiral Prevost visited, unexpectedly, two of the fishing stations, on the Lord's Day. "It would have rejoiced your heart," he says, "to have seen how the Indians honoured the day, not doing their own ways, nor finding their own pleasure, but delighting themselves in the Lord." Bishop Ridley, after speaking of the admirably chosen situation of Metlakahtla, and of the charm of its scenery, especially when lit up by a gorgeous sunset, adds—"But after all the Sun of Righteousness has produced a far more beautiful transformation in the character of the Indians, and that change is not fleeting. The church-bell rings, and from both wings of the village, well-dressed men, their wives and children, pour out from the cottages, and the two currents meet at the steps of the noble sanctuary their own hands have made to the honour of God our Saviour."

In secular matters there has been marked progress, more buildings having been erected than in any preceding year. Eighty-eight new houses are either built or in course of erection. Mr. Duncan has discussed with the Indians the desirableness of their endeavouring to take into their own hands all the secular work that he has begun. They are delighted with the thought, and Mr. Duncan is convinced they will struggle hard to reach the goal. "If my hopes are realized," he adds, "it will be a grand termination of all my secular labours."

In the month of July Dr. Powell, Superintendent of Indian affairs, and Mr. Anderson, Commissioner for Fisheries, paid a long-promised visit. Though they found only a portion of the Native settlers at home, they expressed themselves as greatly astonished and delighted with what they saw, and Mr. Anderson stated these feelings in a letter of considerable length, which appeared in the Colonist newspaper. During the past year Mr. Duncan has had also several visits from American gentlemen who were anxious to learn from him his modes of dealing with the Indians. He fears they are attributing his success too much to secular matters, and too little to the preaching of the Gospel. He has strongly warned them not to commence "at the wrong end of his plan."

The surrounding heathen tribes are not neglected. Mr. Duncan paid a visit to the Kithratlas, in company with Admiral Prevost, in the autumn of 1879; and a Native teacher is now at work amongst them. Other Native teachers are about to take up similar work as opportunities offer.

QUEEN CHARLOTTE ISLANDS (MASSETT).

The latest letter from Mr. Sneath, the Missionary (unordained) at this station, is dated April, 1880. The work is still quite in its infancy; and some Hydahs that seemed hopeful a few months ago are, it is feared, less in earnest than was at one time supposed. But Mr. Sneath sees no reason for despondency as regards the future. Mr. Collison spent much of his time in the earlier half of the year 1879 in visits to various places in these islands.

KINCOLITH.

Mr. H. Schutt, a European layman, is the Missionary of this station. The Adherents number 145. Eight adults and seven infants were baptized during the year (by the Rev. W. H. Collison, on his visit in September, 1879). The three services on Sunday and the weekly service on Wednesday are well and regularly attended; as also the Sunday schools, in which instruction is given both to adults and children. In October, 1879, Bishop Ridley and Admiral Prevost visited Kincolith, and were very well received.

Two visits have been paid during the year by Mr. Schutt to the out-station of Kittacdahmix, at the head of the navigation of the Nass river. He found it in a prosperous condition, several new houses having been put up by Indians who had joined the Christian settlement. On the second visit Scottain, the chief of the heathen village, who had been a bitter opponent, welcomed Mr. Schutt warmly, called the people together, and gave him an opportunity of addressing them.

There is, unfortunately, considerable difficulty in this district in arranging boundaries with the Canadian Wesleyan Missionaries.

FORT RUPERT.

This station, it will be remembered, is in Vancouver's Island, and is therefore three or four degrees of latitude to the south of Metlakahtla. Its missionary is the Rev. A. J. Hall, whose work is quite in its early days. The language spoken is called the Quoquolt, or the Quoggulth. In his Annual Letter Mr. Hall states that he was much cheered by a visit from Admiral Prevost. The Admiral spent one of the few days of his sojourn in walking with Mr. Hall across the island, to its western coast, to visit a tribe speaking the Quoquolt language, called the Koskemo Indians. "Thirty years ago," remarked the Admiral, in addressing them, "I came among you with my man-of-war, but to-day I come with a message of peace from the King of Heaven." In other respects, the most encouraging feature of the year has been school work. Every attempt has been made by the hostile party among the Indians to induce the youths to abandon school, but in vain. For several months scarcely one has been absent, the attendance averaging thirty-five. Since the commencement of the Mission, two years ago, five chief men have died, one of whom was very favourably inclined towards the truth. It was he, in fact, who first requested that a Christian teacher might be sent amongst them. The hostile chiefs attribute these deaths to the presence of Mr. Hall amongst them; and there has consequently been a decrease in the attendance at the Sunday services, which now does not exceed fifty.

In a more recent communication, dated 6th March, 1880, Mr. Hall reports further missionary journeys among the Indians of the neighbourhood. In these he came in contact with some of their orgies, the description of which, strikingly as it illustrates the need and the misery of the heathen, is almost too painful for insertion in these pages. Mr. Hall, however, was everywhere received with civility; and in some places an earnest desire was expressed that a Christian teacher might reside amongst them.

Extension.

The Rev. R. Tomlinson has at length entered on his long-wished-for enterprise of starting a new Mission in the interior. Together with Mrs. Tomlinson, and Mr. Woods, Mrs. Tomlinson's brother, who voluntarily accompanied the party, Mr. Tomlinson left Kincolith on the 17th May. After a toilsome and difficult journey of more than one hundred miles, they reached the Kishpiyoux valley. The Kishpiyoux received them kindly, but felt some difficulty as to encouraging their permanent settlement amongst them. After two or three days' consultation the principal men of the village met Mr. Tomlinson and informed him, through their spokesman, that they respected him personally; and that they would be glad if he could put an end to thieving and quarrelling among them; and also, if he could help them to buy a store and mill, so that they might get good food cheaply, and to build better houses. They added that they were prepared to keep the Sabbath, but not to relinquish the practice of giving away property, or the heathen ceremonies attendant upon it. In reply, Mr. Tomlinson, after thanking them for their kind regard, told them that his object was to teach them the Word of God, and that he must unflinchingly oppose every practice that was contrary to the Bible. The old men then said that for themselves, they were wedded to their heathen customs; but that they would leave it to the young men to say whether they wanted a church and school in the village. Thus appealed to, the young men, after deliberating by themselves for half an hour, declared in favour of the church and school. This, being not at all what was expected, led to a very animated dispute. Ultimately, Mr. Tomlinson determined to settle at a central spot, about seven miles from the Kishpiyoux village, on the Kishpiyoux river. The Indian name of the station thus occupied is ANKIHTLAST.

Ankiht-

Ankihtlast was reached on the 1st July, 1879. Mr. Tomlinson and his party at once set to work erecting a Mission-house and stables, while every Sunday he visited the Kishpiyoux village, holding services. The building of the house was delayed by a necessary visit to Metlakahtla (where Mr. Tomlinson had the pleasure of meeting Bishop Ridley), so that the roof was not put on before the snow caught them. By the 22nd of November, three rooms were sufficiently forward to be habitable. Such shelter as they afforded was very acceptable, after six months' camping out. The winter that followed was exceedingly severe; the temperature falling on some occasions to as much as 35 degrees below zero. Notwithstanding all this, through God's mercy, not one of the party was unwell for a single day.

* The Society has in past years withdrawn from eighty-three Stations, chiefly transferred to the Native Church of Sierra Leone (which, however, is in various ways still closely connected with the Society), or added to Parochial Establishments in the West Indies, containing at the time of transfer, fourteen Native Clergy, 6380 Communicants, and 14,179 Scholars.

CONCLUSION.

THE aspect of the Mission Field and the Society's position at home, suggest at the present time thoughts of the deepest practical interest.

In the heathen nations amongst whom the Society's Missionaries are at work, there is a very widespread desire for enlightenment and amelioration. Education after the European type is rapidly pervading all classes of the population in the Indian Empire. A similar transformation is proceeding in Japan. The aboriginal tribes of New Zealand and North West America are adopting habits of civilized life. Even in many parts of Africa there is a desire expressed for the presence of the European teacher. These movements undoubtedly open the door for the Gospel. The knowledge thus sought for and obtained overthrows much of heathen superstition. The confessed superiority of the Englishman in art and science suggests the persuasion that his religion is probably superior also. By imparting the lower secular instruction, the Christian teacher gains audience for truths of less obvious utility, but of infinitely higher worth. Yes! the door has been opened more widely; but the adversaries are no fewer nor less active than formerly. European science, if it tends to destroy the grosser forms of idolatry, often brings with it deism, and even atheism, in their stead. It too frequently engenders an intellectual pride, shallow, it may be, but yet which contemptuously rejects the Gospel. The learner is content with grasping the secular benefit, being perhaps the more content to let go that which is spiritual through witnessing the example of ungodly Europeans. From these and other causes arises in some places apathetic indifference, in others active opposition and hostility. Thus the advance of civilization, which as a general tendency is a fact that cannot be denied, certainly removes some obstacles, but in its ultimate result only brings to view more clearly the need of a Higher Power.

Thanks be to God, this Higher Power has been evidently at work in the Mission field in the year just closed. The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set men free from the law of sin and death. In India, China, and Japan, pride of intellect has in several cases been humbled before the simplicity of the Gospel; among the pagans of ruder tribes not a few together with rudimentary civilization, or even previously to it, have received also the truth as it is in Jesus.

Another feature of the year has been the advance of the Native Christians in self-support and self-government. The general and cheerful adoption of the Native Church Council, the co-operation thus induced between different Christian congregations, the formation of Native Church Missionary Associations, and the adoption of other expressions of union among Native Christians, all point in the same direction. Here, again, the advantage is obvious. Nothing, especially in civilized or semi-civilized countries, such as India, China, and Japan, more deters inquirers from placing themselves under Christian instruction than the feeling that by so doing they are forsaking their own countrymen and joining themselves to the foreigner. This barrier will of course be removed as soon as in such countries the Christian Church can stand forth as a Native Institution.

But here also the need is felt of the Higher Power, that is to say of the power of the HOLY GHOST. Otherwise there may be an externally flourishing Church, but a Church which has a name to live and is dead, a Church of which the evils will soon come to light, and which will in the end be dishonouring to the name of the Lord Jesus.

If the Committee turn their view from the work abroad to the position of the Society at home, they still see the same great lesson impressively taught, and the same indications graciously afforded—the lesson that the power of the HOLY SPIRIT is needed for the success of the great missionary enterprise, and the indications that that power has been put forth. But a few weeks have passed since the Committee's pecuniary outlook was, to mere human judgment, dark in the extreme. The large deficiency with which the year commenced was followed by circumstances of commercial and agricultural depression that seemed to render recovery impossible. Facts that have come to the Committee's knowledge convince them that the wonderful restoration which the funds have recently experienced is very largely due to individual effort and self-denial, which can only be ascribed to the power of the HOLY SPIRIT, and which must be regarded as an answer to prayer. Let what has been done by some be done by all; let the earnest prayers, the strong faith, the self-denying liberality, become more general among those that are truly in Christ Jesus; and then the wants of this and all kindred societies will be amply met, and, together with pecuniary supplies, will also be granted still more abundant success in the Mission field itself.

May the Spirit so take of the things of Christ, and reveal them to every true-hearted member of the Church Missionary Society, that it may be his earnest desire and expectation that Christ may be magnified in his body, whether by life or by death. And may all thus realize in fullest meaning the gracious declaration, I have chosen you and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain.

PRAYER USED AT THE ANNUAL MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY AND AT THE OPENING OF MEETINGS OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful FATHER, we give Thee humble thanks for the light of Thy Gospel. Make us more grateful for this Thy mercy, and more zealous for the salvation of all mankind.

Visit in mercy the Church of Christ; enrich it more abundantly with the grace of Thy Holy Spirit; and bless its endeavours to make known Thy Truth. Unite, as one man, all who are truly labouring for Thee. Disappoint the designs of Satan. Let all Christian Societies live in harmony and love; give them wisdom in all their plans; perfect Thy strength in their weakness; and direct their labours to Thy glory!

The Harvest truly is great, but the Labourers are few! O Thou Lord of the Harvest, send forth Labourers into Thy Harvest! Fill with Thy Spirit those whom Thou hast sent forth; and enable them faithfully and boldly to preach, among Jews and Gentiles, the unsearchable riches of Christ. Keep them from the snares of the world, the flesh, and the devil; deliver them from all evil; and make them wise to win souls.

Upon all the Native Converts whom Thou hast gathered to Thyself, through Thy labouring servants throughout the world, pour out Thy Holy Spirit, that, as Thou hast begotten them again unto a lively hope, so they may ever be followers of Thee as dear children. Deliver them from all remaining darkness and ignorance; destroy and abolish in their hearts all that remains of Satan's kingdom; grant that their faith, and hope, and love may grow exceedingly; make them to be ready to every good work, and more especially to exert themselves for the salvation of those around them; that so, by their zeal and faithful testimony, by their holiness and fruitfulness, they may glorify Thy name before their countrymen, and bring in unto Thee, from the midst of them, such as shall be saved.

Have compassion, O Most-merciful Father, on all those who have come under instruction, though they be not yet altogether Christians. Convince them effectually, by Thy Word and Spirit, of their sinful and miserable state; pour upon them the spirit of grace and supplication, and draw them to Jesus.

Take away blindness from the Jews. Let them receive Thee, O Jesus, as their Messiah, and proclaim Thy saving Name among the Gentiles.

Deliver all Mohammedans from the delusions of the False Prophet! O Thou True Prophet of Thy Church, enlighten them by Thy Holy Spirit, and bow them down at the foot of Thy Cross!

Pity blind Idolaters, who are kept in cruel bondage by the god of this world. Turn them from idols, that they may serve the Living and True God.

O Thou Almighty Saviour, who by the right hand of God art exalted, and hast received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, shed forth His light and grace on this dark world!

Cause all Christians, we beseech Thee, to sow bountifully; that they may reap also bountifully. O Thou that lovest a cheerful giver, let all grace abound toward them, that they may minister liberally of their substance to the making known of Thy Name!

With these our humble prayers, we join our praises and thanksgivings for what Thou hast already done in making known Thy salvation; perfect Thy work, O Lord; shortly accomplish the number of Thine elect; and hasten the coming of Thy Kingdom.

Be present with us, O Lord, at this time. Give us all a single eye to Thy glory. May Thy blessing rest upon our meeting; and may all our hearts be this day quickened and encouraged to fresh and persevering efforts in Thy Service.

We ask these mercies for the glory of Thy Name, through the merits and mediation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; and would ascribe to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Three Persons in One God, everlasting praise. Amen.

OUR Father which art in Heaven: Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER USED AT THE OPENING OF MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE.

ALMIGHTY God, our Heavenly Father, who hast purchased to Thyself an Universal Church, by the precious blood of Thy dear Son, we give Thee hearty thanks that it hath pleased Thee to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee, and to appoint our lot in an age and country, where the true light shineth. We bless Thee that Thou hast awakened us in some measure to feel our responsibilities. We praise Thee for what we have seen and heard of the power of Thy word among the heathen; we adore Thee for Thy many servants who have gone out from amongst us to toil and suffer and die in making known Thy salvation; and we thank Thee that Thou dost allow us, unworthy sinners, to unite together in this work of faith and labour of love.

We humbly confess our past lukewarmness in this Thy service, notwithstanding these Thine inestimable benefits and mercies. For our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us our past negligences, and so endue us with Thy Holy Spirit, that we may more earnestly seek Thy glory in the salvation of souls.

Grant us, we beseech Thee, Thy very present help at these our meetings. We ask, most gracious God and Father, for a constraining sense of the love of the Lord Jesus, and for wisdom to direct us in all our endeavours. Increase upon us the spirit of power and of love and of a sound mind. Give us faith and courage; give us zeal and patience; give us a single eye to Thy glory, and help us to bear and to forbear. The silver and the gold are Thine, O King of kings! Supply us with what is needful for our great work, and make us faithful stewards of Thy bounty, for proclaiming to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

We pray also for all who are united with us in the direction of this sacred cause. May Thine especial blessing rest upon our Committees, with their Secretaries, throughout the world. Bestow on them the help that we feel so needful for ourselves. Enable them to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, and ever to find favour in the sight of all with whom they may have to do.

Especially we beseech Thee to look, O most merciful Father, upon our Missionary brethren. Draw out our hearts towards them more and more; and while they are bearing the burden abroad, give us grace to help and succour them by our sympathy and prayers at home. Bless every letter written to them from this house, and all our intercourse with them. We pray for them that they may be filled with Thy Spirit. Grant that the same mind may be in them which was also in Christ Jesus. Let them never lose their first love. Raise them above the cares of this world. Help them to deny themselves and to endure all things for the elect's sake. Give them the tongue of the learned. Clothe them with humility. Teach them to follow peace with each other, and with all men. Support them under spiritual distresses, temptations of the adversary, bodily sickness, domestic anxieties, and hope deferred. And so confirm Thy word from their lips by the power of the Holy Ghost, that through them multitudes may be turned from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto Thee, our God.

We most heartily thank Thee, O Lord, for those whom Thou hast already sent forth through this Society; and we pray for a yet larger outpouring of a Missionary spirit on our younger Clergy, on the members of our Universities, on those who are elsewhere preparing for this holy work, on the young men of all ranks and orders throughout our land. And herein do we implore Thy special favour on our Islington Institution, that its numbers may be replenished continually; and that none may go forth thence but such as shall be able ministers of the New Testament, full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost.

We praise Thee, O Thou God of all grace, for the Converts, the Native Catechists, and the Native Clergy, whom Thou hast granted to us in our several Missions. As Thou hast raised the Native Churches thus far, bring them, we pray Thee, to full ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ. Pour out upon them Thy Holy Spirit. Stablish, strengthen, settle them, and so enlarge their liberality, that they may both maintain Thy word among themselves, and may make it known to the regions beyond them, till all the Gentiles hear the glad tidings of Thy love.

And now, O Lord God, be Thou in the midst of us to-day. Give us a constant sense of Thy presence, and may all our undertakings be begun, continued, and ended in Thee, to the honour of Thy great name, for the sake of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE WALTER JONES NATIVE MISSION FUND.

A LARGE number of Agents are employed in connexion with this Fund. Its object (which is steadily kept in view) is not to relieve the general funds of the Society, but to set on foot Additional Native Agency.

Reference to the pages of this Report, under the heads of the various stations named on the following page, and to the further accounts given in the Society's monthly periodicals, will indicate the assistance which the Walter Jones Fund renders to the Society's Missionary operations.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer for the time being of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East the sum of Pounds *free of Legacy duty for the general purposes of the said Society to be paid within calendar months next after my death, exclusively out of such part of my Personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may be bequeathed for charitable purposes and in priority to all other payments thereout but to be subject to abate proportionably with other Legacies in case my general Personal Estate shall be insufficient for payment of them all in full. And I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society [or each of the said Societies] shall be an effectual discharge for the said Legacy [or Legacies respectively].

And I declare that the Receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society shall be an effectual discharge for the said residue [or sum of money, as the case may be]. And as to the remainder if any of my general Residuary Personal Estate I bequeath the same, &c.§

* If so intended.

* This mark * denotes that the Sermon was preached at St. Ann's, Blackfriars; this †, that it was preached at St. Bride's, Fleet Street; the Twenty-third was preached at Christ Church, Newgate Street; the Thirty-first at St. Sepulchre's: the Thirty-second at Clement Danes; and the Thirty-third at St. Andrew's, Holborn.

The Collections at the Sixteenth and subsequent Anniversaries include the sums contributed at the Annual Meetings.

NOTICE TO TREASURERS AND SECRETARIES OF ASSOCIATIONS.

THE Committee of the Church Missionary Society request the Treasurers or Secretaries of Associations to transmit the proceeds of their respective Associations, together with the Contribution Lists and Accounts, as soon after the close of their Financial Year as possible.

The Society's Financial Year ends on the 31st of March, and all moneys belonging to the year must be received at the Society's House by that date, in order to secure the insertion of the Lists in their proper places in the Report.

The Lists and Accounts (written legibly to avoid mistakes in printing, and made up in the manner in which the same are printed in the Parent Society's Report) must, in order to secure insertion among the Association Lists in the Report, be sent in not later than the 31st of March. But by labour and expense may be saved to the Society by sending in the Lists and Accounts as much earlier as is possible. The date at which the Accounts of the Association are closed, and the names of the Local Officers, should be specified. Should no names be given, it will be assumed that they remain the same as in the previous Report, and the List will be so printed. When the Account or the List is a printed one, two copies should be forwarded.

Where an Association has Branches connected with it, the Accounts of the Branches must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association some time before the period for forwarding the Accounts of the Association to London. When this is not done within a reasonable time, such Branches should be considered as self-excluded, and the Accounts forwarded without them.

To prevent mistakes, it is requested that Branch Associations will in every case, when practicable, forward their Money and Lists through the Association with which they are connected, and not direct to the Parent Society.

The Committee would also point out, for more universal adoption, the convenience of making remittances on account whenever any considerable proportion of the year's receipts is in the hands of the Local Treasurer. This course would tend to equalize in a greater degree the Income and Expenditure in the earlier months of the Society's Financial Year, and save the Society a considerable yearly sum.

The Committee return their cordial thanks to the Treasurers of Associations, and to the friends who kindly fill the office of Secretary—an office which, they are well aware, draws largely on the time and attention of those who occupy it, but on the efficient discharge of the duties which, the prosperity of an Association chiefly depends.

II.—ENGLISH ASSOCIATIONS.

Bedfordshire.

* For Contributions not sent through Associations, see heading "Miscellaneous" at the end of the County.
